Former Mayor Was Once Coal Heaver Here

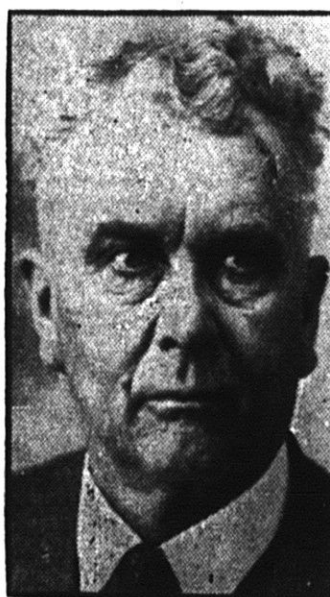

GEORGE TIMLA DROPPED DEAD DURING RECOUNT. WAS BORN AND EDUCATED IN HOLLAND

Grand Rapids newspapers have given considerable space to the sudden death of George P. Timla, former mayor of Grand Rapids, who has held the office of comptroller, alderman, clerk of superior court, and other positions of trust in that city. Of late years he moved from Grand Rapids to Wyoming Park and served the township there as supervisor.

Death came to him while a recount was taking place. Mr. Timla was present at the recount, where he had been named as supervisor for the sixth term by the narrow margin of 32. The greater part of the vote had been counted when a dispute over the marking of a vote took place and Timla would have no argument over it and waved his hand, stating, "Give that to my opponent." He had scarcely uttered the words when he sank to the floor in coma state and all the resuscitation for more than two hours could not bring him to.

Mr. Timla received his fundamental education in the City of Holland. He lived with his parents a mile out on the Zeeland road, near what was then the Vander Haar woods. The family lived there for years after Mr. Timla had gone to Grand Rapids to make his home.

While a young man he was already in the harness, helping to support the family, his mother being a widow for many years. He secured a position as delivery and yard man for Teunis Keppel, the man who founded the T. Keppel Sons' coal and wood and building material. George was a cheerful driver who brought the winter provision of coal and wood to many a home in this city. In those days he had a wealth of heavy, curly hair, and heavy eyebrows, which in later years enhanced his personality as he towered head and shoulders above most men.

He graduated from coal hauling to a position with the West Michigan Furniture Co., where he learned to be a spindle carver, and a rood one. That was at least 40 years ago. Grand Rapids being a furniture center, George felt he could make advancements there and was soon employed in one of the large factories where he was very successful.

He took a deep interest in Grand Rapids politics and was elevated to the several positions mentioned above. "Deacon" Ellis was the power behind the throne in politics those early days. He had never been beaten for anything until George Timla did the trick and that by a margin of only a few hundred votes. Naturally, there was a recount, but George Timla won after the smoke of that battle was over. It is quite a coincidence that both candidates were named George. "Deacon" Ellis, too.

Permanent organization of Holland's retail food merchants has been completed according to an announcement made yesterday. Approximately 35 merchants attended the organization meeting Tuesday at the Holland Baking Co. The following officers were elected: T. Warner, president; Ben Steffens, vice president; M. Vander Vliet, secretary; and William F. Jekel, treasurer. The board of directors include the officers together with J. DeKoster, Al Otteman and Rein Vischer. The Wednesday afternoon closing, adopted three weeks ago, has been amended to include opening of stores on Wednesdays preceding legal holidays.

Dr. John Pieper, Holland ophthalmologist, plans to move his place of business from the present location on the second floor of the Peters building, Eighth St. and Central Ave., to 23 West Eighth St., formerly occupied by the Dekker Book shop. Dr. Pieper plans to equip the new location with new and modern equipment. He has been engaged in business in Holland for the past 20 years. Dr. Pieper plans to be in his new location by Friday of next week.

Council Notes

Rev. William Van't Hof, pastor of Third Reformed Church, opened the meeting with prayer.

It was unanimously decided by a motion made by Alderman Steffens, supported by Alderman Kleis, that the city fathers be robed in gowns and caps and enter the "Tulip Time Parade" as a real "Stads Raad."

When the matter of robes came up, Alderman Art Drinkwater protested. He said, "I wish when they made those gowns they would make a few for small men too, like Kalkman and me of the second ward. We don't want to hold up our dress like the ladies, but we want gowns that fit." (Laughter)

The newly elected aldermen took their oath of office administered by City Atty. Elbert Parsons. They were Al Kleis of the 1st ward, who has been alderman before and took the place of Vand Lue; Ed Brouwer, who took the place of Neil De Cock. The others re-elected were Ben Steffens, Peter Huyser and John Vogelzang and Art Drinkwater. The new faces are Kleis and Brouwer.

The Chamber of Commerce, through Mr. Connelly, asked for a permit for flowers to fly over the city, casting down tulips attached to parachutes. The aldermen unanimously granted the permission and will be out as a body at the City Hall when the tulips sail downward should the aldermen succeed in making a perfect strike of the City Hall.

Alderman Prins, in speaking about those beer places where you carry out the fluid, said, "I believe if you contact these people they will be willing to co-operate with the city and close at the same time with the regular taverns about town."

Alderman Al Kleis, who made a comeback as city father and whose father before him was also an alderman, found on his desk a beautiful bouquet of carnations sent by friends.

The City Hall is a veritable picture gallery. All the mayors from the first, namely, Isaac Cappon, to the last, Henry Geerlings, are artistically placed on the wall of the council room. The wall is practically filled. A suggestion was made to also place the picture of Dr. Van Raalte, the founder of Holland, somewhere on the wall, together with that of Isaac Fairbanks, who was here even before Dr. Van Raalte came and aided in the settlement. This proposal was unanimously approved and your editor was selected to get two enlarged pictures, which will be done.

BABES WILL SHARE FROM CHARITY BALL TONIGHT

This Friday evening the annual Charity Ball, which is given in the interest of needy babies of the community, will be held in Holland Armory. This benevolent work has been going on for some time, sponsored by the Civic Health Committee of the Woman's Literary Club, and as has been repeatedly stated in former issues of the Holland City News, the ladies have been very active in supplying funds that were formerly allotted to them through the Community Chest, which was abolished during the depression years.

Despite this fact, the women have been carrying on just the same and hundreds of little tots are being taken care of annually by virtue of this organization.

and by the help of scores of public-spirited citizens who aid in various ways—in prizes, money and merchandise. The money thus raised at the annual ball helps defray the expense for the visits of more than a thousand babies to this clinic. The society is using this method in making the appeal and each year these Charity Balls are more largely attended.

The clinic is located on Central Avenue, directly south of the former hospital on 12th Street. A large committee of ladies has been aiding the general committee in making this event a larger success than previous balls.

If you want to help the kiddies and at the same time enjoy an evening of pleasure, be on hand at the Holland armory this Friday night.

Those in charge are Mrs. Willis Diekema, Mrs. Mayo Hadden, co-chairmen. Committee chairmen are Mrs. Jay Den Herder, Mrs. Ransom Everett on ticket sales; Mrs. Peter Van Dommelen, Jr., Mrs. S. W. Merriman on music; Mrs. O. W. Lowry, decorations; Mrs. C. J. McLean will have charge of the cloak room. Mrs. R. L. Schlecht and Mrs. J. W. Hobeck will be in charge of refreshments.

Forty-nine clinics were held during the past year by the civic health committee of the club. Mrs. C. Bergen is in charge of this work with Mrs. J. J. Good as chairman of the club committee. The clinic is strictly a health and feeding clinic. No sick babies are treated, but are referred back to their family doctors. A total of 953 babies were weighed, measured and examined thoroughly during the past year. Of these 155 babies were sent to their own doctors for medical attention, suffering from such ailments as colds, bronchitis, infected eyes, ears, glands, rashes, and other conditions.

Aldermen Agree To Settle Suit With The County

ATTORNEY PARSONS STATES NEW DEVELOPMENTS SHOW HOLLAND COULD GAIN LITTLE

The Treasury of Holland will soon be enriched nearly $20,000. That is as soon as the suit, started by this city against Ottawa County, is dismissed, which is likely after the action taken by the Common Council last evening. This money will place the city in a still more enviable financial condition as shown in Mayor Geerlings' message found elsewhere in this issue.

The action of the Common Council was the outgrowth of a meeting held earlier in the week, attended by representatives from all parts of the County. Holland was represented by Atty. Elbert Parsons, Mayor Geerlings, City Clerk Peterson and City Engineer Zuidema.

At that meeting, according to the explanation of Mr. Parsons to the Common Council, Ottawa County used money belonging to Holland and other cities and villages to which they were entitled under the Horton Act and with this money they paid road bonds, not due for some time. The county retired these bonds to save much interest. However, when the time came due to pay Holland's share of the gas and weight tax the money was not available since it had been paid to retire the bonds, and that also applied to other cities and townships who later participated in this friendly suit against the county.

However, it appears now that Holland will eventually get back its money after a few years' wait. When the date of the bonds fall due, which were paid in advance, there will be no bonds to pay, and Holland's share during those years will be considerably greater if the law remains in effect.

The other cities and townships will fare just as well as Holland and in reality, because of the saving of interest, all parts of the county will benefit more. It must be understood that the temporary transfer of funds, while not regular, is more a matter of bookkeeping. It must also be remembered, Holland as well as other parts of the county, being a part of Ottawa, is legally obligated for these road bonds even though they were paid in advance. Therefore, in paying these bonds, although in advance, Holland's share of the obligation was also paid. Even then, as matters stand today, there is now in the road fund $147,000. Of that amount $76,000 must be used to pay bonds due May 1st. Holland, too, has an obligation here that will be liquidated. When this payment is made there will be left $71,000 and this is going to be distributed proportionately to the cities and villages. Holland's share to be approximately $18,700.

Mr. Parsons has spent considerable time with the Michigan Municipal League, going over matters of this kind. The money due harks back to money due 1933-34 when 50% of the gas and weight tax was used by the county as a sinking fund for the retiring of bonds. In short, Elbert Parsons told the Council that there were some new phases developing that if Holland continued the suit and even won, the city would not get a nickel more than the share now proposed. In other words, Holland is picking up about $19,000 in the street, which has never been due before to his knowledge. In reality, part of its obligations have been paid in advance and interest saved, and eventually it will get a larger share back because of the payment of these bonds if this law continues.

The News feels that the Common Council did a wise thing in accepting this money and the county also did well in paying bonds, thus saving considerable interest. In short, a debt is paid in which every unit in the county had a share. Carl Bowen, at the recent meeting, also gave a good explanation of this bond matter. Mr. Bowen, the county engineer, explained that the Ottawa county road commission had used one-half gas and weight tax money since 1933 to defray bonds and interest on $600,000 covert bonds, retiring some of them before the due dates in order to save large sums in interest. He pointed out that in 1933, when the Horton act was passed, Ottawa county ranked among the 10 counties in the state that had the largest amount of covert bonds. The opinion of the board was that instead of spreading the money to the cities, villages and the county, it was deemed wise to use the money to retire the bonds, which at five per cent were costing the county large sums each year. He pointed out that the county had been the loser as well as the cities and villages as under the act the county is entitled to 48 per cent of the amount each year. Mr. Bowen also pointed out that Covert bonds for which the city of Grand Haven had been responsible had been paid to the amount of some $20,000 and that the retirement of the bonds for the past four years had been a benefit to the entire communities in that many thousands of dollars were saved in interest and direct obligations removed from some localities.

It was the consensus of the meeting that in the future the cities and villages would prefer to get the amount, annually due them, regardless of the interest savings in order that they might use the funds for city and village street purposes. The bonds would have been retired by 1940 had the board been allowed to continue the plan begun in 1933, Mr. Bowen stated.

Justin Homkes of Ann Arbor spent his spring vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Homkes.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Holland's first military company was out on Main Street last Monday evening and went through the tactics in a masterly manner. We are sorry to learn that since then the boys have disbanded.

Street Commissioner De Feyter has been cleaning the gutters of the principal street of the city the past few days. It was found to be a difficult job. Note: It undoubtedly was, since all the gutters were open and built of rough cobblestones, from which it is difficult to get the dirt and filth. Spring thaws and wooden walks brought a filthy mess, mixed with gravel and clay. An asphalt pavement and a covered sewer was a God-send.

Hope Church Sunday School now numbers 28 classes with a total enrollment of 1515.

We vouch to say that there is not an idle man in Holland at present. Everybody is busy and the city is a veritable bee hive, with not a drone in the hive. Note: This was in 1887, 1937, however, can produce a few drones.

The Holland City Band will give a concert at Lyceum Opera House, April 30. Among the numbers will be "A Milk Maid's Drill," "Fancy Dances" and an act by a slack wire performer, Bill DeBoe of Holland. The band has been practicing all winter for this concert.

Ed Vaupell, Republican, defeated Richard Vandenberg, Democrat, for Marshall of Holland. The vote stood 302 to 112.

There was a state-wide prohibition election and the amendment was lost in Holland. The vote stood for prohibition, 212; against prohibition, 328.

Patrick H. McBride, Republican, defeated Rookus Kanters, Democrat, by 85 votes.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

From now on the curfew whistle at the pumping station at Grand Haven will blow regularly to speed the wandering juveniles to their domiciles. A new ordinance has gone into effect and at 9:00 o'clock each evening the lads and lassies, unaccompanied by parents or guardians, must "hike for home." Note: Holland also has such a curfew ordinance and it has been in effect for the last thirty years. During all that time there have been no arrests and has long since been a misnomer. The blowing of the curfew at 9:00 o'clock is convenient in so far as to tell theatre patrons that within five minutes the second show starts.

Rev. James Kruidenier, missionary to Egypt for the past twenty years, has purchased the home of contractor Fritz Yonkman on East 14th St. His family will come from Cairo, Egypt to Holland to live. Mr. Kruidenier will not be here until a year later. The children will finish their education at Hope College, the institution from which the parent graduated twenty-five years before.

Cut Up Traffic On River—Thus Avoiding Jams

SHOULD HAVE A LIGHT AT FOURTEENTH OR TWELFTH ST. PREVENTING ACCIDENTS OR TRAFFIC WAITS EAST AND WEST

The matter came up before the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners relative to chopping up the traffic on River Ave., and instead of allowing the motorists, driving on that street, to come in a continuous stream, making long waits for motorists driving into the street from both halves would prevent that congestion. It would seem that a short delay at 12th Street or 14th Street would prevent a traffic jam at the pivotal street, namely, River Ave. and 8th, at the turn. That, it appears, would be remedied, but the writer knows from personal experience that there is a wait, often of from five to seven minutes at 15th St. before a driver dare venture into River Ave. This congestion on River Ave. is especially acute on Sundays.

There are certain hours during the week when this condition is relieved at 15th St.—that is, when Officer Dornbos presides at that corner as traffic officer for the benefit of the school children. Traffic down River Ave. would not be unduly delayed if a traffic light were placed on 14th or 12th St. On the other hand, it gives traffic East and West a chance to get into the street without danger.

At the Police Board meeting Mayor Geerlings pointed this out and the commissioners discussed it dispassionately. Commissioner Donnelly being in favor of appealing to State Senator Edward Brooks, asking him to attempt to get a light on 14th St. and River Ave. Commissioner "Dixie" Hyma stated that an endeavor was being made to obtain a light on 19th St. and River Ave., and it seemed that this should be cleared away first.

It was also proposed that a light be installed for Sundays only. It was then proposed by Chief Van Ry to install flood lights at River Ave. and 14th St. and to place a man at that intersection, the flood lights

New aldermen and mayor chosen at Monday's election were Mayor, Nichodemus Bosch, Republican; Aldermen, Ed Van Drezer, Republican; Arthur Drinkwater, Republican; Frank Dyke, Democrat and Olaf J. Hanson, Socialist. Mayor Bosch defeated William O. Van Eyck by 250 votes.

Blom and Nies, up to February 20, 1922, caught 28,817 pounds of carp, 2,361 pounds of dogfish, 3,756 pounds of sheephead, 283 pounds of suckers and 650 pounds of garfish, totaling 35,367 pounds in all.

Miss Ethlyn Metz gave a program of dramatic readings Friday at Park Congregational Church Parish House, Grand Rapids, under the auspices of the Church school. Miss Metz has toured the state for several seasons with a girls' glee club of the University School of Music and is rapidly acquiring a reputation as an elocutionist of talent. Her program included "The Lost World" by Van Dyke, "Father" and several interpretations of child life. The entertainment was largely attended.

Miss Maxine McBride was one of the winners in the essay contest on China, put on by the Grand Rapids Press. Her name was given a prominent place in that newspaper. During the past week William Claver of Zeeland received his commission as postmaster of Zeeland, which becomes effective April 1. Berend Kamp, former postmaster, has retired. being directed upon this traffic officer in order that he might be plainly seen by the motorists.

It was also voted to change the location of the flood light at River Ave. and 8th St.

It seems, however, that while a man at that crossing for Sundays would be an excellent thing, some provision should be made during week days, especially early mornings, noon hours and evenings, when the same condition exists as mentioned above. Many motorists, it was also the failing of "stepping on it" and shooting around cars ahead. Halting of the traffic here and there would curb that habit and, while no serious accidents have occurred on that street, there is a danger of such accidents occurring.

Fred Hill, colored of Grand Rapids, through his attorney, Floyd Skinner, also of Grand Rapids, Thursday appealed to Ottawa circuit court the verdict rendered against him for $122 in favor of Robert Kent and wife, Jessie Kent, of Saukatug by Justice of Peace Raymond L. Smith, last Friday afternoon. The suit is an outgrowth of an automobile accident between the parties involved on the new US-31 south of Holland last January 21.

Miss Gertrude Deters, a bride-to-be, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Fred Meiste at the Gerrit Meiste home. Games were played and prizes went to Mrs. Henry Havering, Mrs. Gillis Vander Kamp, Miss Gertrude Deters and Miss Julia Zoerhoff. The guest of honor was presented with many beautiful gifts. A two-course lunch was served.

Mrs. Andrew Spyk entertained with a kitchen shower, Wednesday night, at her home on East 15th St., in honor of her daughter, Josephine, who will be a May bride. Games were played and the hosts served refreshments. Many useful gifts were presented to the bride-elect.

Calvin Vander Werf was elected president of the Fraternal society of Hope College at a meeting when officers were chosen for the final term. Renier Pagepays was named vice president and William Van Dusen, secretary.

Beer Taverns Stop Serving At Midnight

COUNCIL ALSO FOLLOWS VOTE OF PEOPLE TO CLOSE LIQUOR PLACES ON SUNDAY

The Holland Common Council last evening made provisions for more rigid restrictions on the sale of liquor on the premises and all applicants for licenses must sign an agreement that liquor can be served only between the hours of 7:00 o'clock and midnight. According to a straw vote last summer it was the consensus of a large number of the voters to have places of this type closed on the Sabbath. This is all included in a resolution passed by the Common Council. It also includes a clause that no liquor is to be served to anyone under the age of twenty-one.

This regulation cannot apply to places having a "carry-out" license. Alderman Brouwer, who by the way, took his seat for the first time as a new alderman, pointed out that these licenses should also come under this order; but City Atty. Elbert Parsons stated that under the law the City had no jurisdiction over this type of place, that their opening and closing was entirely governed by the Liquor Commission.

Mr. Brouwer then stated that it would be well for the City Clerk to write this type of licensees asking them to co-operate and close the same as the places where beer and liquor are sold. Many of the aldermen felt that these men would be inclined to come under that regulation.

Alderman Kalkman pointed out that if they were allowed to keep open, the condition of 25 years ago, when wholesale houses were the only type of liquor store that was allowed open, would again bring about a "beer basket" brigade, and the "jungle" and behind billboards and in barns would again be the rendezvous of those who wanted liquor on Sunday and after-hours. This might be true on the Sabbath but not with the regular places open 'till midnight it would appear. Undoubtedly some solution will be made of this feature through the proper co-operation.

The resolution, as prepared by the License Committee and read by Alderman Huyser and unanimously approved by the Common Council, follows below:—

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Common Council of the City of Holland, Mich., at a regular meeting held April 21st, 1937:

Whereas, the people of the city of Holland have indicated by their votes a desire to have the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises, prohibited in the City of Holland, on the first day of the week, called Sunday, and Whereas, it is the judgment of the Common Council of said City that additional restrictions as hereinafter mentioned should also be imposed on the sale of intoxicating liquor within said city, therefore, Be It Resolved,

That the sale of intoxicating liquor, including beer, for consumption on the premises, in the City of Holland, be and the same is hereby prohibited on the first day of the week, called Sunday, and

Be it further resolved, that the sale of intoxicating liquor, including beer, for consumption on the premises, between the hours of twelve midnight and seven A. M., be at all times prohibited in the City of Holland, and

Be it further resolved, that no sale of intoxicating liquor, including beer, for consumption on the premises, shall at any time be made in the City of Holland, to any person under the full age of twenty-one years,

Be it further resolved that all applicants for licenses to sell intoxicating liquor, including beer, for consumption on the premises, in the City of Holland, shall be required to agree to abide by the conditions of the foregoing resolution as a condition precedent to approval of said application by the Common Council.

Be it further resolved that the conditions and restrictions on the sale of intoxicating liquor, including beer, for consumption on the premises, shall go into effect and become operative on the 1st day of May, 1937.

In consideration of our/my application to sell beer for consumption on the premises having been approved by the Common Council of the City of Holland, I/we agree to abide by all the provisions of the above resolutions.

LAD FATALLY SHOT, SON OF HOLLAND COUPLE

Donald Faasen, a little lad of 7 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Faasen of Grand Rapids, who was killed by a shot from a .38-caliber revolver, was the child of a former Holland couple, who moved to Grand Rapids from Holland and lived on 24th St. It is stated—shortly before the little lad was born. They have several relatives living here. Among them—Herman Faasen, Bert Faasen and Al Faasen; also Mrs. Nick Rowan; in other words, three brothers and one sister of Mr. Faasen and several other relatives.

The unfortunate lad met a tragic death when he was accidentally shot by his father's hidden revolver.

The boy had learned from a smaller brother that the loaded gun was in a bookcase and went to the room alone. His mother heard a shot and the son screamed, "Mama! Mama!"

Toppling from a chair to the floor, Donald was unconscious when the mother arrived at his side. He was pronounced dead when Patrolmen Ralph Randal and Clarence Sinclair reached St. Mary's hospital. The bullet, of .38 caliber, entered the chest and punctured the right lung.

The boy's father told authorities that six weeks ago a smaller brother of Donald accidentally started a fire in a bed mattress under which the loaded gun was hidden. The boy left a burning electric light bulb between the mattress and pillow. After that, the father said, the gun was hidden in the bookcase.

The Grand Rapids Press states as follows:—

"Donald told his sister that he dreamed last night about guns," the father related. "This morning he got up and asked a brother where the gun was and learned it was in the bookcase. I had registered the gun years ago (1927) and had loaded it for the protection of my family in case of burglars."

"The gun was in a holster, which was snapped shut. When police found the weapon one of the cartridges had been exploded and four bullets were intact. The father told the detectives Donald childishly had asked his sister Wednesday morning where his heart was located. Relatives said Donald was exceedingly bright for a boy of 7."

Leaves Four Brothers

"Donald leaves also a sister, Alyce, 15, and four brothers, James, 11; E. J., 5; John, 3, and Neil, 2. The father is employed at the local license bureau."

"Coroner Harmon C. Wolfe reported he removed the bullet from the right side of the boy's back, near the spine. The bullet went through the lung and death was due to pulmonary hemorrhages, Dr. Wolfe said."

The funeral will be held this Friday afternoon in Grand Rapids and several relatives from Holland will attend in a body.

FEDERATION OF REFORMED MEN'S SOCIETIES BRING 1800 TO MEMORIAL CHAPEL

Hope Memorial Chapel was crowded to capacity yesterday when 1800 men gathered at the American Federation of Reformed Men's Societies which is nationwide in scope. Here they held their largest get-together while the convention proper, attended by 120 official delegates from different parts of the nation, was held at Maple Avenue Christian Reformed church where the business of this convocation was transacted.

Henry Hekman of Grand Rapids opened the morning meeting and also presided at the afternoon business meeting. At the afternoon meeting Rev. Herman Bel of Grand Rapids of the Christian Citizens' League, Rev. John Van Zwol, also of Grand Rapids, Secretary of the Christian Labor Association, and the Rev. H. J. Kuiper, Editor of the Banner, Christian Reformed Church organ, spoke.

The latter spoke on the subject, "Requisites of Good Men's Societies," while Rev. E. J. Tanis of Chicago was at his discourse, "The Right to Strike." The lectures, which were of short duration, allowed discussion on these subjects by the delegates present.

Preceding the afternoon luncheon was furnished the delegates at the Parish House of the church, provided by the ladies of that congregation. Then followed a banquet attended by approximately 325, given in the gymnasium of the Christian High School, splendidly served by the Eunice and Monica societies.

The public meeting, held in Hope Memorial Chapel in the evening, was very largely attended, and the speaker of the evening was Professor Clarence Bouma of Calvin Seminary, Grand Rapids, who spoke on the subject, "One Holy Passion." It was a forceful address and was heard by a large throng of attentive listeners. Mr. Bouma urged that this "holy passion" be exercised in all walks of life.

The large Skinner pipe organ in the chapel played an important part in the organ recital with John Potts at the console. Singing was conducted by Rev. W. Kok of Zeeland. Four selections were sung by the Aeolian choir, directed by Mervin Baas and accompanied by Miss Johanna Boersma. A. Peters of Holland, vice president of the federation, gave a report on the convention.

Of the speakers mentioned above Rev. H. J. Kuiper is pastor of the Leland Avenue Christian Reformed Church of Grand Rapids and Rev. E. J. Tanis, pastor of the Second Englewood Church of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vos announce the birth of a daughter, Hazel Maxine, Sunday morning. They reside at 109 Fairbanks Ave.

MAYOR GIVES REVIEW OF CITY'S FINANCES, WHICH ARE EXCELLENT

Also Gives Credit Where Credit is Due. Thinks Tulip Time Worth-while Institution

Mayor Henry Geerlings delivered a message that may be called a review of this city's progress. He gave credit where credit was due, beginning with the churches in the city, the educational system, the public library, our civic organizations, our park system, police and fire departments, our Chamber of Commerce, our resort possibilities and the oval, the splendid success of the Tulip Festival, our health department, our Board of Public Works, and last, but not least, our splendid financial set-up as this relates to the city, and that surely is a gratifying picture. Mr. Geerlings devotes at least two columns in the compilation of all these subjects mentioned above. He does justice to everyone of them and below you find the message that gives a word picture of Holland and its institutions:—

Farm vs. City

The tide in migration from city to country which ran high during the depression years, reached a turn during 1936 and for the first time in about six years the farm population was stationary at about the figures of 1910.

The pull of reviving industries in the cities brought about this changed condition.

The steady shift to country living, which went through the early depression years, changed to a sort of oscillation during 1935. That year 1,211,000 persons moved from farms to cities and 25,000 went back to the farm after trying city life. But this differential in favor of the cities did not actually decrease the number of farm folks, for 727,000 farm babies were born that year.

It is an interesting fact, however, that all these changes have little effect on the volume of food stuffs produced on the farms for the city markets. The going and the coming may be vastly important in the lives of the individuals who make the change, but the main business of farming is carried on by the stable home-owning farm families who stay on the farm through good years and bad and never think of changing their way of life.

Question of Adjustment

Detroit Free Press

The other day a correspondent who signed herself "Wife" sent this little note to the Voice of the People:

"Recently at my husband's insistence we have moved into the suburbs, etc., for the summer. I was much happier in my flat. The neighbors know everything I do, and they come visiting so often I can't get my work done. Think twice before leaving the city."

The transposition doesn't seem to be working. It often doesn't. We have no doubt that more than one "country wife" brought into the city in the fall, has written, or has wanted to write, something like this:

"Recently at my husband's insistence, we have moved into a city flat in order to have the advantage of steam heat and escape from the snow and winds of the open spaces during the winter. But I was much happier in my little house in the village."

"Here nobody calls on me. I don't even know my neighbor in the next flat. I have nothing to do but take care of work that can be done in an hour or two and the rest of the day I wait for bedtime. Think twice before coming into the city."

All depends upon one's background and point of view, and upon power to make adjustments and find interest in new surroundings and new ways.

ELK IN MORTAL COMBAT

Evidences of a terrific combat between two bull elk of the Pigeon River herd have been reported by conservation officers. The officers found the carcass of one elk around which the ground was torn and scarred in all directions by the battle. The antlers of the dead elk have been turned over to Mort McClure, regional supervisor of the department of conservation, for display purposes at the Gaylord office.

After it had attacked and critically injured a tethered ram on a farm southeast of Mason, Mich., a 200-pound buck which appeared mysteriously in this locality, was captured and turned over to the department of conservation for transfer into another area. The buck punctured the lungs of the ram with its antlers and then became entangled in the rope by which the ram was tied. The buck was uninjured. Buck deer fight among themselves at this time of the year, game men point out, and "tame" captive male deer may be particularly dangerous.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 1:30 p. m. at the home and at 2 p. m. from the Sixth Reformed church for Mrs. Kate Strong, 64, widow of Elmer Strong who died Monday night at her home, 248 Lincoln Ave., after a lingering illness. Mrs. Strong was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosendahl, pioneers of this vicinity. The Rev. John Vanderbeek and the Rev. J. H. Bruggers of Coopersville, former pastor of Sixth church, officiated. Burial was in Fairview cemetery. Mrs. Strong is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Orlo Palmer of Holland, Mrs. Neil Leonard Ver Hage of Zeeland; five sons, L. Leroy Strong of Holland, Chester James Strong of Grand Rapids, William B. Strong of Holland, Calvin H. Strong of Grand Rapids and Orlo S. Strong of this city; 12 grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Bert Beckman of West Olive, and one brother, Thomas Rosendahl of Agnew.

Mrs. Jay H. Den Herder and Mrs. Hanson W. Everett, co-chairmen in charge of tickets for the fourth charity ball, sponsored by the civic health committee of the Woman's Literary Club to be held in the Holland armory, Friday evening, entertained their committee members Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Everett. The group is assured of the complete success of the ball and the continuation of the clinic work. Numerous social gatherings and dinners are being arranged to precede the ball, which is scheduled for 9 o'clock Friday evening. A special dinner has been arranged for that night at the Warm Friend Tavern. Several groups from Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Allegan, Zeeland and Grand Haven are expected to attend the ball.

Miss Bertha Van Den Brink, whose marriage to Melvin Schap will take place in June, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Andrew Boeve, at her home. Miss Van Den Brink was presented with many lovely gifts. Games were played during the evening and refreshments were served by Mrs. Andrew Boeve and Miss Mabel Rooks.

leave that to our citizenry.

"I always have been and still am of the opinion that when we work together for a common object great things will be accomplished. This may be a truism but it is a fact nevertheless. Nothing is gained by bickering. No public administration can succeed unless it has the people back of it. We must all work to one end and that is, the best is none too good. We can have the best in our public affairs if we forget self. Selfishness ought to have no place in the life of an individual. If there is one noble sight in this world it is the sight of a selfish person. That is a person who lives entirely for himself and disregards the welfare of other people. If we look to the good of all the people we must cooperate. In co-operation we get the thought and judgment of all and when there are numbers all thinking along the line of better things, there will always come from that deliberation a thought or deed that will illuminate in such a way that all will receive the benefit of the light."

"We are a city of churches. The church, whatever the denomination, stands for everything that is good. It is the common ground on which we all stand or should stand for the betterment of our lives, our property, our hopes. It is only through and by the church that we can be truly optimistic. It is the stabilizer of society. But no church can and will survive unless it receives the full co-operation of the community in which it serves. Therefore, we ought to give encouragement to its being. We must do our full share in administering to its needs. Not every one can do or take part in all the activities. Some are doing one work, others something else, but the thing that counts is everlasting teamwork."

"We are blessed with a splendid school system. It is second to none in the state. It is the medium of teaching our youth those fundamental so important and necessary in life. In the schools we have that common ground where all our children meet as equals. It is a free institution provided by the taxpayers of the state and community to insure to every boy and girl an opportunity to secure an education. It is an institution free to all who will use it. But our schools can only function to the extent that we take an interest in them. Co-operation of the parents with the teachers is very important and necessary. I often wonder if we realize the hours in twenty-four that the teachers have our children under their care and are under our care. Oftentimes I have heard criticism from the outside during the many years of my membership on the Board. Isn't it possible that some of the troubles could have been corrected in our own homes and spared the things that have been done and said."

"I feel that I should bring to your attention the work that our hospital is doing. It is not a public institution in that it is being promoted by our local physicians. It is a much needed institution and during the past has rendered wonderful service. Our people should know more about this institution and its work. We should keep up our interest. What a relief it is for those who are ill to know that there is an institution where one can be cared for and receive the best of treatment. Those who keep in touch with the hospital staff can verify my statement that these individuals are a real blessing."

"Our Public Library is a growing institution. We do not give enough thought to its importance. It is here that is furnished standard literature for the building of the minds of our citizens. The mind craves good reading. Our time cannot be better spent than with our best authors. We are, in this civic enterprise, making it possible for all who care, to get the best reading possible for their entertainment and the upbuilding of their minds. A few encouraging words and a taking of interest in what is done will continue the library and all will benefit who take an interest in its work and its efforts."

"You will recall that when an appeal was made for the thousands of flood sufferers there was a wonderful and very gratifying response. Our city has gone far beyond its quota. We have given willingly and cheerfully. We have been spared a catastrophe of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys and have given expression to our gratitude by assisting the families in distress in a generous way."

"The civic organizations are manifesting a wonderful spirit of unselfishness. Much has been learned and much has been accomplished. The membership of the three groups in our city have displayed a gratifying spirit of helpfulness to many handicapped. Through no fault of their own they are to some extent at least dependent upon those of us who have good health, sound minds, and strong limbs and we have manifested a willingness of spirit to give of time and means to render assistance."

"I greatly appreciate your attitude in providing places for play. The park board is keeping our parks in splendid condition. Our several parks are places of beauty. Whenever visitors come to our city they admire these spots and are loud in their praise. Besides those parks located in various parts of our city, Riverview Park will furnish splendid recreation to the men and boys of our city. This park will be well-lighted and nightly games will be played during the summer evenings. It is an axiom that normal growth and development require physical activity. It is worthwhile investment to give young and old an opportunity to develop themselves."

"The Board of Police and Fire Department have given unstinting effort of their time. They have been faithful in the discharge of their duties. They have seen to it that law and order have prevailed. There have been no serious disturbances. The members of the force have been diligent and they have done their part in maintaining order. On several occasions the remarks have been made by tourists passing through our city that there was a cordiality on the part of the men that compared very favorably with police of other cities. The chairman of the board retires this year after several years of active service. He always arranged his schedule of work that he might be present at the sessions held twice a month.

"The Chamber of Commerce has been very efficient. The men who are members of the organization are busy with their own businesses and yet they have been willing at all times to attend the called meetings and give of their best to the interests of the city. They are men of large vision and are earnest in their endeavor to keep this city on a very high level. The wide-awake secretary has kept in close touch with concerns who are contemplating a change of location. He has succeeded in bringing in new industries. A few of them are still small but they have possibilities. The board is anxious to land factories that have diversified products. Labor is gainfully employed. It is possible that some of our people are not as well situated as they would like but we are hopeful that in the near future conditions will be more favorable."

"A wonderful improvement has been made at the Oval. For several years we have been clamoring for more space. During the summer season thousands of cars from practically every state in the union have visited us and have complained about the limited parking. This has been remedied now and it is safe to say that in the future the accommodations will be ample. The new highway to Saugatuck and the improvement on M40 will materially aid the traffic as automobiles come into this city. This is but one of the accomplishments of the secretary, Connelly, of the chamber."

"Our tulip festival is still one of the outstanding events of the summer season. It is still the marvel of thousands upon thousands who enjoy the flowers. This festival dates as one of America's three greatest floral events. Great credit is due to the chairman of the committee. Associated with her is a splendid group of men and women who make this annual affair a success. The city can ill afford to dispense with this civic effort. It has advertised the city in a phenomenal way."

The Board of Health has been keenly interested in the health of our people. There have been no serious epidemics. The health officers are alert and keep a watchful eye over disease and are always prepared for an emergency should one arise."

"The Board of Public Works is entitled to the gratitude of all our citizens. The men who are looking after our water and light plants are rendering an unselfish service. Serving without any remuneration and custodians of vast sums of money, we can say without any reservation that there is no city where municipal plants are more efficiently managed and whose profits are so large and the cost of water and light so small as the plants in the city of Holland. The net profit last year was approximately $134,000.00."

"Financially our city is in splendid condition. We have had a balanced budget for several years. This is largely due to the thrift of our people and the pride they have in the development of the city's interests. A graphic illustration of the financial condition and forward strides made by our city in recent years is seen in the following figures:— Population 1930, 14,356; assessed valuation 1936, $11,415,565.00; general obligation debt this year, $242,000.00, special assessed debt of $272,870.00. In 1932 our bonded debt was $766,054.00. During the past five years our bonded debt has been reduced $493,184.00. There is one paying obligation outstanding and that amount will be paid in 1938. The percentage of tax collections to date covering the past three years are 1934, 92% plus; 1935, 93.5% plus; 1936, 91.6% plus. The citizens have abundant reason to be proud of such a record."

In closing may I express my sincere gratitude to the members of the council for their many courtesies extended to me during the past year. I trust that in some measure at least, I have lived up to your expectations. To the members who require my heartfelt appreciation of the services you have rendered. To the two new members, who are with us for the first time, may I say that you will find in this body a congenial group who have the interests of our city at heart and are vitally interested in our city's welfare."

Very Cordially Yours,
Henry Geerlings.

Good Times Brings Divorce, Bad Times Makes them Stick

June brides in Michigan have a four to one chance of staying out of the divorce courts, according to statistics released by the Michigan Department of Health. Despite these odds, their opportunities for marriage have increased 59 per cent since 1932 when prospective bridegrooms were silenced by depression worries.

Divorces last year totaled 10,846 compared with 45,313 marriages, a ratio of four marriages to each divorce. This is a far cry from the early days of this generation in 1920 when there was but one divorce for every ten marriages. Prosperity appears to have a sad effect upon marital bliss, for the years 1929, 1930 and 1931 saw one marriage out of every three ending in the divorce courts.

Economic troubles, however, are a deterrent to appearances before the marriage altar according to comparative figures in the accompanying table for the ten-year period 1926-1935. Marriages decreased from 39,788 in 1926 to 28,552 in 1935. With the return of more favorable economic conditions in 1935, they reached their highest figure since 1925.

Divorces, too, reached their depression low in 1932 and 1933 when the necessary legal fees were scarce. Returning prosperity in 1935 brought a 41 per cent increase in divorces compared with 1933.

Marriage and Divorce in Michigan 1926-1935

Year	Marriages	Divorces
1926	39,788	9,795
1927	36,276	10,617
1928	37,300	10,615
1929	36,316	12,094
1930	34,482	10,509
1931	28,856	9,507
1932	28,552	7,889

Former Mayor Was Once Coal Heaver Here

was George, but the baseball fans had given him the nickname of "Deacon." In the early days Ellis was the king of Grand Rapids baseball and popular with all fans living in Western Michigan.

Ellis was always bitter about that fight with George Tilma. There were two battles which pitted him greatly. One with the former Holland man who defeated him for mayor of Grand Rapids and the other the primary battle with the late "J. Dickema, who had George Ellis as an opponent on the Republican ticket, and defeated him. It was a difficult matter for George Ellis to forget those two defeats, and it is rather a coincidence that the only men who defeated the popular "Deacon," undoubtedly the most astute and the strongest man Grand Rapids could put up at the time, were Holland men.

George Tilma was a warm friend of our own Mr. Dickema and he was one of the mainstays in aiding the Holland man in the furniture city. Mr. Tilma was a forceful speaker and we might call him a "stormy petrel" during his political career. Tilma was not afraid of a fight in politics, and he never covered up his views, clearly stating his reasons for his policies and platforms and then stood by them and fought for them.

He was supervisor of a township that had more than 20,000 population and of late years he was the man who aided in getting government projects in his township to make work for those who were jobless. Mr. Tilma's ideal of a man was Abraham Lincoln. He often said, "I believe as Lincoln does, that this is a nation 'Of the people, by the people and for the people.'"

He stated further, "I believe in helping the needy, for the well-to-do can help themselves."

He also stated eight years ago, "You are going to see a depression such as you have never seen before." He was undoubtedly right. When the depression began he said, "I have gone through some depressions in my day. I remember the Cleveland administration was making $18 a week then. When the depression came I had to work for $12. But the depression now doesn't give a man even that kind of a job."

Mr. Tilma stated often that he received his best education as clerk of Superior Court in Grand Rapids. He stated that there he came in contact with all phases of life.

The funeral of Mr. Tilma was held this Thursday afternoon at the First Reformed Church of Grandville. Rev. Jacob Blaauw, pastor of the church, officiated. Friends and neighbors were chosen as bearers.

The Board of Supervisors of Kent County, the Grand Rapids City Commission and City officials attended the funeral in a body. The church could not begin to accommodate the large circle of friends and relatives who gathered at the rites.

George Tilma was born in Holland on March 2, 1871 and was married at the age of 20, shortly before going to Grand Rapids. He had only had a grade school education, was a great reader and studied nights after his daily toil was over.

Mr. Tilma is survived by the widow, Henrietta; a son, John; a daughter, Mrs. Theresa Ferrand and an adopted son, Edward, all of Wyoming township.

The Board of Supervisors of Kent County, of which he was a member, passed the following resolution:

"Whereas, Mr. Tilma led a life most of which was dedicated to public service, always exemplified to the best of his ability the teachings of the Master whom he served, and his guiding object always was to serve the people and not himself, and

"Whereas, in his official life he was active in promoting the essential and meritorious and he always was sustained in both his public and private life by a high sense of personal honor and duty, therefore be it

"Resolved, That by the death of George P. Tilma this county and the citizens thereof have sustained a distinct loss, and we hereby express our appreciation of his character, integrity and ability and our sorrow at the passing of a true friend and our sincere condolences to his family in their bereavement."

The Grand Rapids Herald gives the following editorial on George Tilma:

"The unexpected death of Supervisor George P. Tilma takes a colorful figure from official life in Kent County. From the time he was elected an Alderman in the old Twelfth Ward until the close of his career as Supervisor of Wyoming Township, he was a forceful figure, fighting for and against things as he saw them in his light. He gained his greatest political fame when he locked horns in 1916 with the late George Ellis, then regarded as well nigh invincible in the local political field. Mr. Tilma was elected Mayor, but his occupancy of the office was terminated when the Commission form of government was adopted by the voters of the City."

"Mr. Tilma's best public service, we believe, was performed as Supervisor. He provided leadership for the nonulopous township of Wyoming in bringing that community through the devastating years of the depression. He did excellent work in co-operating with the Grand Rapids Association of Commerce in arranging to provide facilities for the great General Motors plant established in the township. Wyoming made marked progress during the years he served as Supervisor. Mr. Tilma had no frills. He was a hard-working, conscientious, zealous public official. He gave his best, ready always to battle for the cause he believed right. No more can be asked of any public servant."

INDIANA AIRMATA TO VISIT HOLLAND TULIP FESTIVAL

The new Holland airport is beginning to prove its value. Word has been received by William M. Connelly, manager of the Holland chamber of commerce, that the members of the Aero club of Fort Wayne, Ind., are planning to visit Holland during the Tulip festival in May. They will bring 10 to 15 planes, each carrying two to four passengers. The exact date of the visit will depend on accommodations now being prepared.

Work on the airport is being rushed to completion. The runways are being rolled and will be treated with chloride to lay the dust. A loudspeaker and bleachers will be installed for use on May 20, the day of the air program. The air day committee, composed of John Eneval, chairman, George Heneveld, Peter Prins, Bob Vander Water, John Arendshorst and William M. Connelly, will attend the aeronautic banquet April 29 at the Rowe hotel in Grand Rapids at that time they will extend an invitation to the guests to visit Holland on air day. Connelly will be toastmaster at this banquet.

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"

Presented By the Zeeland Teachers' Club

The members of the Zeeland Teachers' Club have chosen "Charley's Aunt" for their presentation on Thursday and Friday, April 29 and 30. Reserve this date to see one of the "laughiest" plays ever presented in this vicinity.

The plot of the play concerns itself with the antics of three college cut-ups. The ever comical situation of mixed identities gives the added zest to the story. It promises to be the most riotous and uproarious plays you have ever seen. If you need something to "shoo the blues," if you enjoy a good laugh, if you want a gay time, "Charley's Aunt" holds the answer.

The talented cast who are under the very capable direction of Supt. M. B. Rogers, are as follows:

Bratt (an imposing butler), Mr. H. Deelman

Jack Shevener, Charles Wykeham, Lord Fancourt, Rabberley, college cut-ups at Oxford, Mr. Leon Klee, Mr. Louis Roberts and Mr. Thomas Dewey respectively.

Kitty Verdun, Amy Spettigue, Elia Delahay, the "girl-friends," Miss Mildred Essenburgh, Miss Verna Rogers, Miss Alma Plakke, Col. Sir Frances Chesney, Mr. Curtis Merritt.

Stephen Spettigue, Mr. Howard Hill.

Farmer, Mr. Anthony Mulder, Maud, Miss Harriet Baron.

ABOUT ANIMAL HUSBANDRY IN OTTAWA COUNTY

H. F. Mozley, animal husbandry department, M. S. C., will spend two days in Ottawa County April 26-27 demonstrating to farmers proper methods of fitting horses' feet. In many cases the feet of horses are neglected and the hoof becomes ill formed. Too often the owner does not know how to correct this condition and prevention is much more important than correction. Mr. Mozley will trim the feet of horses showing the owner just how to proceed and if defects are present he will demonstrate how to correct such defects.

Mr. Mozley is known state wide as a trainer and breaker of horses. A horse-breaking demonstration will occur at all demonstrations listed. An unbroken three-year-old animal will be harnessed and broken. County agent L. R. Arnold, has listed the following places for these demonstrations: April 26th, Andre Bros. Jenison, 9:30 A. M.; Nivenhus Bros., Forest Grove, 1:30 P. M.

April 27th, Jacob DenHof, 1 1/2 mile south of Chester township hall, 9:30 A. M.; John Laug, 1 mile east of Dennison, 1:30 P. M.

BLUEGILLS ARE BITING AT STEARNS BAYOU

Good catches of bluegills were reported over the week end on Stearns bayou, near Grand Haven, according to I. V. Anders, conservation officer. Six fishers reported the limit of 25 in two hours or less. The gills are unusually large, some of them measuring from seven to seven and one-half inches. Speckled bass are being caught in goodly numbers at Pettys bayou near the Spring Lake Country Club. Perch fishing off the piers should be good in a few days if the warm weather continues. No license is required to fish on either side of the pier beyond the shoreline.

CABBAGE INFESTATION

County Agent L. R. Arnold, Ottawa County Farm Agent, states that due to heavy infestation of the cabbage maggot in 1936 growers should take every precaution to guard against loss in 1937. Last year losses ranged from 25% of the crop to total loss.

It is felt that more areas will be affected in 1937. Damage can be avoided by use of tar paper discs put on the plants at the time they are set. These can be made at home of cheap tar paper or can be bought ready made at a reasonable cost.

Gerrit Ekkel of Utrecht, The Netherlands, who spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Berentschot in Holland, left Thursday and will sail Saturday. Mr. Ekkel is a representative of the Christian Labor association of The Netherlands and was a delegate at a conference of textile workers in Washington, D. C., last week.

"GIRL FROM OUT YONDER" COMES TO TOWN

The Holland Christian High School will present their annual play Thursday and Friday, April 22 and 23 at 8:00 p. m. in the Christian High gymnasium. The play is entitled "Girl From Out Yonder."

The play represents a picture-story illustration of what takes place when an uncultivated daughter of a lighthouse keeper meets the cultured folks. It is a pleasing presentation of marine lore and the well-to-do from the city. Naturally, romance enters in and altogether it is a satisfying production.

The cast is composed of Ella Monsma, Everett Kleinjans, Clarence Vogelzang, Albertus Bratt, Marjorie Heerspink, William Stielstra, Menno Vander Kooi, Eunice Robert and Julia Prins.

VAN RAALTE SCHOOL AWARD-ED AAA SAFETY CUP. STUDENT GOES TO WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Van Raalte school, 19th St. and Van Raalte Ave., has been chosen by the American Automobile Association as a winner of a Safety Award cup for the current school year. This cup is presented to the schools in the United States which, in the judgment of the AAA, have shown the greatest interest in preparing the pupils to be "safety conscious."

The teachers in Van Raalte have tried very hard to teach safety under all conditions. The children have been warned about playing and roller skating in the streets. During the winter months they were told of the dangers of hitchhiking rides on moving vehicles, sliding and coasting in the streets. At all times the children have been urged to cross the streets only at intersections because that is where car drivers are on the alert for pedestrians.

For five years a Safety Patrol, consisting of boys, has been helping the children watch traffic while crossing the streets before and after school. During the past two years the captains of the patrol were John Willard Lightfoot and Dale Van Lente. The present captain is Donald Scholten. A committee of teachers is always in charge of the Safety Patrol. The present chairman of the committee is Miss W. Haberland.

Since Van Raalte has won the cup for safety teaching, Donald Scholten will be given a trip to Washington, D. C., by the AAA.

Donald will leave Detroit on Friday, May 21, along with boys chosen from other cities. First the boys will be shown the sights of the capital. On Saturday they will parade before national officials and President Roosevelt. The boys will return to Detroit on Monday.

The trip will not only be educational, but will also show the boys the necessity of safety and teaching safety.

SURVEY SHOWS OTTAWA TILLERS ADOPT THEORIES STUDIED AT NIGHT SCHOOL

Ottawa county farmers are putting into practice the teachings of Michigan State College specialists at farm meetings and schools held here in recent years. Otto Pino, Smith-Hughes director of the Zeeland High school, announced Wednesday upon completing a survey.

Twenty-three farmers, he said, have started a regular farm accounting system in co-operation with the farm management department of the college; others are keeping books on poultry and many have joined cow testing associations.

Pino said 445 farmers attended the night schools held here this year. The Zeeland Farmers club, organized four years ago, is an outgrowth of the first school.

Seebwa Camp Fire Girls at Saugatuck have elected: President, Jane Bird; vice president, Royale McCarty; secretary, Henriette Brackenridge; treasurer, Virginia Hedglin.

"TWO PACKAGES OF WALL PAPER PLEASE."

Such a request by a customer is not as absurd as it sounds, for at the Montgomery Ward store wall paper does come in packages, and there are very definite advantages to packaging wall paper, according to the Ward manager, Harry Wieskamp of the Holland store. Rolls of paper in a package (three double rolls and 12 feet of border to each package) are protected from soiling and tearing along the edges as often happens with loose rolls on shelves. Each roll is as fresh and new as when it left the factory. Then, too, the packages are easily stored, make more attractive displays, are more attractive to look at. Each package contains enough wall paper and border to paper a small room. Two other new features of Ward wall paper are "room testing" and "trim-easy edges." In "room testing," all wall paper is tried out on actual walls of rooms and judged by experts before being sold. The "trim-easy edge" was devised to make the job of papering easy for the amateur, eliminating trimming machines and substituting the simple act of tearing along a perforated edge, "as easy as tearing a check from a check book." The "trimmy-pak" of wall paper is one of the many items being featured by Montgomery Ward during the Ward Week sale from April 21 to May 1. The sale itself is a semi-annual event which features hundreds of articles in all classes of merchandise at greatly reduced prices.

Pheasants Do Little Real Damage

Pheasant damage to farm crops is often more imaginary than real. Paul D. Dalke says in a report covering several years of study on feeding habits of the ring-necked pheasant in the Holland Township, Ingham County. Dalke is now with the Bureau of Biological Survey. His report covers investigations in Michigan, and we warn that his findings are not necessarily true in other agricultural regions.

"Much of the grain consumed by pheasants is waste, and therefore little economic loss is suffered by the farmer. Grain damage by pheasants is the exception, rather than the rule," Dalke says.

He interviewed 42 farmers in Williamston Township, of whom 39 believed that damages were of minor importance and that the beneficial activities of the birds compensated for the loss of grain. The other farmers had a real grievance. In one case, pop corn planted next to a marsh was extensively damaged. One farmer reported damage to melons and grapes. Pheasants had damaged another farmer's tomatoes.

Dalke analyzed the crop contents of 353 pheasants, taken at all months of the year, and found that a third of the food was corn, believed to be largely waste grain. Damage to sprouted corn was reported very seldom. When field observations were made, pheasants were found guilty of this but infrequently. Occasionally they did cause damage in this way.

During April and May pheasants eat more oats and barley than at any other time of the year. Young pheasants eat more insects than adult birds. The insect diet included grasshoppers, leaf bugs, leaf hoppers, flea beetles, weevils, June beetles, wire worms, plant lice, cabbage worms and tomato worms. Adult pheasants do not feed upon small insects such as leaf hoppers, but eat mostly the larger injurious forms.

Dalke says that on the basis of its food habits, it is possible both to commend and condemn the pheasant but comments that "areas properly managed may regulate the movements feeding activities so as to prevent damage to crops." He believes that the general practice of cutting and burning all shrubs and vines growing along township roads is hard on pheasants.

"It reduces the available supply of frost grape, panicked dogwood and sometimes night shade. The loss of this type of food, especially frost grape, during periods of heavy snow, has caused flocks of pheasants to abandon their normal feeding areas," he says.

Cutting and burning of shrubby fence rows during the winter is unfavorable to pheasants, but widespread burning of herbaceous spring is even more disastrous. Burning of marshes during early spring is also detrimental. Early nesting sites bordering marsh areas are destroyed and such practices should be discouraged, he says.

Pertaining to Summer Pests

Poison Ivy, is the most common of all poisonous plants and can be safely avoided by keeping away from all plants or trailing vines with leaves in clusters of three.

The Black Widow Spider, the bite of the female of which is considered the most poisonous of all spiders. It is uncommon to Michigan but occasionally a specimen is found.

The Hornet or yellow jacket, is among the most vicious of our stinging insects. When aroused it is fearless.

The Wasp, like the hornet, is something to be avoided. Its sting is more painful than that of the bee and it is easily aroused.

The Leaf-Cutting Bee, that builds its underground home out of leaves. The sting of a bee is something the vacationist tries to avoid.

The Mosquito, is the most annoying of all insects and unfortunately this year there is a good crop. The female only does the biting.

The Bed Bug, something not mentioned in polite circles but nevertheless one of our worst pests and encountered in old buildings as well as badly kept sleeping apartments.

Poison Sumac differs from the harmless sumac in that its fruit comes in slim clusters of gray greenish berries instead of massed heads of red.

The Blood Sucker is harmless but still annoying. Waders and bathers frequently encounter it in shallow, quiet waters where it clings to the feet and legs.

The Snapping Turtle, whose powerful jaws and hard-shelled beak can inflict serious injury to anyone it attacks.

The Rattlesnake, or Massasauga, the only poisonous snake native to Michigan. It is found in lowlands and marshy places.

Greenhead Fly, that annoys you by buzzing around your head and trying to nip your neck.

The Large Black Ant is also a biter as well as a nuisance in over-running picnic tables. It is a persistent insect and obtains what it wants.

The Stinging Nettle which every youngster has encountered and knows it when his fingers start stinging after coming in contact with the plant.

The Chigger, a small red mite that bathes pick up on beaches or falls on the unsuspected from trees and shrubs. It burrows into the skin causing an irritating rash.

SEVEN MEN AND ONE FISH

IT TOOK seven men to haul this broadbill swordfish into the boat! This rod and reel catch is one of those made recently by Harlan Major, well-known sportsman, in Chilean waters. It weighed 674½ pounds and was twelve and a half feet long. Although sportsmen have but lately discovered swordfish off the coast of Chile they have broken all former weight records. George W. Garey has just taken a new world's record broadbill swordfish weighing 842 pounds. W. E. S. Tucker ranks second with one of 837½. Mr. Garey has like wise taken the third largest weighing 683 pounds, and the above fish holds fourth place. These four catches surpassed the former world's record and all were taken off Tocopilla, Chile. This Chilean paradise for the deep-sea fisherman is visited weekly by cruises from New York and California and is attracting sportsmen from all over the world. A by no means inconsequential contribution to the popularity of the fishing field is offered by the favorable rates of exchange at current levels the dollar will go surprisingly far, and travel and living costs are amazingly low.

Fifty-four of the deer were released in the North Manistee river swamp, which is largely state owned, in Kalkaska county, and 28 deer were released in the state-owned Butterfield swamp in Missaukee county. All of the deer had been tagged before release and the tag numbers recorded.

Whether any of these deer will migrate back into the Portage Creek swamp and how far they will travel from point of release are matters game men hope to learn hunters next fall will be asked to through reports on ear-tags. Deer report any buck deer killed or any deer found dead in the woods bearing aluminum ear-tags.

ALLEGAN COUNTY NEWS

A Republican club was organized at Pullman following a meeting addressed by Judge Irving J. Tucker and Congressman Clare Hoffman. It will meet the third Wednesday in each month. A free lunch was served after the rally.

DON'T SAY "QUITE A FEW"

We were surprised to see these words in one of the most carefully edited newspapers in our exchange list. They should not have been there nor anywhere else in the way they are usually used. "Quite" means wholly, entirely. If a user means to indicate that there were extremely few of this or that he would be correct; but in fact he means the opposite, that there were a considerable number. He should say "quite a number," not "quite a few" if he wishes to say the number was great. "Quite a few" really means that there were almost none.

Marie Botsis for a license to operate the Green Mill cafe at 5 West Eighth St. for the balance of the year ending June 1 was given in a motion presented by Alderman Huyser and seconded by Alderman Steffens.

The oaths of office of City Treasurer Henry Beckfort, Police and Fire Commissioner Cornelius Stekete and Alderman Vogelzang were received and placed on file. Bonds and the oaths of office for three constables, Marinus Brandt, first ward; Egbert Beekman, second ward, and Fred Galien, third ward, also were accepted and placed on file.

Alderman Bultman reported that the street committee recommended the closing of 25th St. from Lawndale court west and that a tentative date for the hearing on the matter was sent for the meeting to be held on the second Wednesday in May.

The council heard a communication from the Holland camp, No. 38, Spanish American War veteran organization, requesting the city to grant such veteran tax exemption on homes of $2,000 in accordance with the provisions of the soldiers and sailors homestead act of the State of Mich. The letter, bearing the signatures of John Homfeld, commander, and John Slaghuys, adjutant, pointed out that such action had been taken in the past. In a resolution, presented by Alderman Bultman and seconded by Alderman Smith, such exemption was granted.

The matter of transferring the electric sign from the old location of US-31 at the southwest corporate limits to the new route of the highway at the south corporate limits was referred to the light committee. Placed before the council by Alderman Vogelzang, the alderman pointed out that tourists entering Holland from the south on the new highway are unaware of what city they are entering because of the absence of a proper sign.

The council authorized City Clerk Oscar Peterson to make application to the state highway department for permission to close through highways passing through Holland on certain dates. The dates and these highways follow: Saturday, May 15, M-21 from Columbia to River Aves. and US-31 from Seventh to 12th Sts. from 1 to 5 p. m.; Wednesday, May 19, M-21 from Columbia to River Aves. and US-31 from Seventh to 12th Sts. from 1 to 4:30 p. m.; Saturday, May 22, M-21 from Lincoln to River Aves. and US-31 from Seventh to 12th Sts., 1 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.

In a report made by Alderman Steffens on behalf of the ways and means committee in regard to the request of the Tulip Time committee for an appropriation of $200 to install piling to be used in mooring the U. S. coast guard cutter Escanaba in the local harbor during the festival, the aldermen reported that the committee favored the appropriation but that a proposal had been made to make the piling permanent, therefore, the committee would be unable to make a report until the next meeting.

'Y' Heads Appoint Cabinet Members

College Pastor Presides At Installation of Y Appointees

At the Installation service for the new Cabinet of the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, April 6th, the College Pastor, Prof. Paul E. Hinkamp, presided. He reviewed the work of the Y. M. C. A. during the past year and thanked the members of the old Cabinet for their splendid cooperation. He congratulated the members of the new Cabinet and urged them to even greater achievements. The retiring President, Richard Smith, gave a farewell address in which he urged all "Y" members to obtain as many contacts as possible with other Christians through "Y" conferences.

After the Installation service the members of both the old and new Cabinets went to the home of Prof. Hinkamp. Here the new Cabinet members received instructions from the old Cabinet members as to their specific tasks. A scripture memory contest provided enjoyable entertainment.

The following were selected: membership, Kathryn Stronks; publicity, Theodora Meulendyke; finance, Patricia Verhulst; deputation, Gertrude Dame; big sister, Esther Bultman; music, Esther Hinkamp; personal service, Marjorie Vuyver; social, Eunice Sluyter.

The new cabinet is to assist the previously elected officers: Katharine Boone, vice-president; Lydia De Vries, secretary; Dorothy Lincoln, treasurer.

The cabinet members are to assist the other elected officers: Harold Leestma, vice-president; Fred De Hoog, secretary; John Olert, treasurer.

Forty Years a Pastor and is Now Retiring

WAS BORN IN GRAAFSCHAP AND SERVED AS MAIL CARRIER BETWEEN HOLLAND AND THE VILLAGE

After 40 years continuous service in the ministry of the Christian Reformed church, Rev. William D. VanderWerp of New Era was granted honorable retirement with full privileges of pension for ministers at a recent session of Classis Muskegon conducted at Spring Lake.

Rev. and Mrs. VanderWerp will leave New Era about June 1 to make their home at 156 Clifton Place, N. E., Grand Rapids. Rev.

REV. W. D. VANDERWERP

VanderWerp will retain the title of pastor emeritus bestowed upon him at the Classis and will continue to preach wherever his services could be desired.

Rev. VanderWerp was born July 13, 1870, at Graafschap, a mile south of Holland. When he was only two years old his parents moved to Muskegon. His father, Rev. D. J. VanderWerp, became pastor of the Terrace Street Christian Reformed church at that time. Seven years later he returned to Graafschap with his mother and stepfather, attending the district school there until he was 16 years old, when he began working in a general store and carried the mail between Holland and Graafschap for four years.

He enrolled at what is now Calvin college and Seminary when he was 20 years old, to study for the ministry, and graduated at the age of 26. Shortly after his graduation he received his first charge at Monsey, New York, about 30 miles from New York city. He served in six other churches afterward before coming to New Era Christian Reformed church in 1932, including Grand Haven, Grand Rapids, Zeeland, East Saugatuck, Holland, Drenthe, Allendale and Prairie City, Iowa.

For many years Rev. VanderWerp served as a member of the board of Calvin college and Seminary, being president of the executive committee and finance board. He was a member of the board of Missions, serving as its president for several years.

On July 1, 1897, Rev. VanderWerp married Miss Nellie Sarah Schram of Grand Rapids. They will soon celebrate their 40th wedding and anniversary. Rev. and Mrs. VanderWerp have three children, Donald E., a salesman for a Milwaukee concern, Rev. Marvin J., pastor of the Christian Reformed church at Orange City, Iowa, and a daughter, Mrs. Richard Vandervilt of Grand Rapids. Two brothers reside in Muskegon, Former Circuit Judge John VanderWerp and Mayor George D. VanderWerp.

FENVILLE HERALD OLD HAND-BILL OF 1888

The Fennville Herald makes much of a handbill they have on file showing the Republican ticket on the presidential election of 1888. It contains the portraits of Benjamin Harrison and Levi P. Morton, president and vice president. It contained more—the name of Isaac Cappon, Holland's first mayor and prominent tanner, who was one of 15 presidential electors who after the election voted for Harrison and Morton in the electoral college. On the ballot the name of Cyrus G. Luce, the former governor, appears, and Capt. Charles E. Belknap, the wagonmaker congressman from Grand Rapids, also a Republican. (Mr. Belknap, we might add, did much for young Grand Rapids, being an ardent Boy Scout worker. A monument has been erected to his honor.) Also John Strobing, sheriff of Allegan county, well known in Holland.

Dogs Molest Nesting Game

Unrestrained dogs are causing conservation officers at Lansing considerable concern at this time of the year, according to a dispatch.

Each spring when rabbits begin to rear their young and pheasants, partridge and quail begin to nest, conservation officials issue a reminder to all dog owners requesting them to keep their dogs from running game afield. The young of small game animals and birds are particularly easy to attack and kill and now is the time when dogs can be bothersome afield.

During the past two months conservation authorities have received more reports of dogs running and killing deer in northern Michigan than in any other previous year. They recognize that dog owners do not find it desirable to keep their pets tied up all of the time, but when a dog remains away from home all or most of the day or night it's a pretty sure sign that he may be having illegal hobbies and that the owner should restrain him a little if he is interested in maintaining and increasing small game supplies. The conservation department is to take drastic measures if dog owners do not help in preventing such slaughter of game.

Watches Once Small Clocks

Watches originally were small clocks and were worn hung from the girdle because they were too large for the pocket.

Used Cave for Glass Work

The first glass maker in Scotland was George Hay (1566-1625). He took advantage of a peculiarly formed cave at Wemyss, on the Fife coast, and set up his furnace there.

Red Coral Always Prized

It is red coral that is and always has been prized, not solely for jewelry and buttons, but as a charm to bring safety, health and secrets not revealed to the ordinary person. As ancient Gauls rushed headlong into battle, they trusted their safety to their swords, strength and the "magic" coral imbedded in their shields or helmets. Many Italians and Indians regard coral as protection against the "evil eye." The world's red coral comes from the reefs off the Mediterranean coast of Africa, says the Washington Post, and is obtained chiefly by Italians.

Team Faces 12 Games for Next Year; No Center Jump Play

Hope college's basketball champions of the M. I. A. A. were honored individually as two members were placed on the coaches selection for all-M. I. A. A. first team, and two were named for second.

Bill Poppink, Rochester, N. Y., senior, and captain of the squad this year, was named at a first-team forward position, and Bob Marcus, Holland sophomore guard, was called a first-team defense man.

Don Thomas, Kalamazoo junior, and John Robert, Holland senior, were named to the second team. Thomas was a forward, and Robert a guard.

In the selections, Rizzardi and Rouman were named in a tie to pair with Marcus at guard. Ed Novak, who set several conference scoring records this season as he paced the Comets to a second place in the loop, was named first team center.

Bill Poppink finds a fitting climax to his court career here in the placement. He and Novak will be rivals on the golf links for the remainder of their college careers.

Marcus is one of three sophomores named on the team. Rizzardi and Spalsbury are the other two first-year men who stood out in play during the 1936-37 season.

Hope will lose Poppink and Robert of the honor selection for play next year in a tough schedule.

Next year's play in the M. I. A. A. will be without the use of the center jump except at the start of periods and after a double foul. The ball will be thrown in from under the basket by the defensive team after a score has been made.

Adrian is included for title play in the following schedule for 1937-38:

Retired Police
Chairman Gives
Praise To DeptCOMMISSIONER HUIZENGA IS NAMED AS HEAD OF POLICE
BOARD IN KETEL'S STEADChief Van Ry's Report Shows 14
Automobiles Stolen, 14 Returned,
None Lost

The Board of Police and Fire Commissioners held a very important meeting Monday night at the City Hall with Oscar Peterson acting as Clerk, Cornelius Huizenga, one of the commissioners, was unanimously named Chairman of the Board for the ensuing year, taking the place of Henry Ketel, whose term of office expired. Mr. Ketel expressed his sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid cooperation he had received from all the members.

Both Chief Blom of the Fire Department and Chief Van Ry of the Police were given well-deserved praise for the manner and efficiency in which they conducted their respective offices. Mr. Ketel stated that, while at times there were differences of opinion, the Board, on the whole, worked harmoniously and respected one another's opinions. He stated this meant a constructive, working body.

Upon a motion of the new chairman, Mr. Huizenga, a vote of thanks was given Mr. Ketel and the members were asked to rise.

Police Chief Van Ry further requested the board to take action in regard to parallel parking in Holland in that it is to be demanded by the state highway department on all trunk lines in the future. He reported that the state is planning such a move in view of the expected increase in highway traffic this summer and that already steps are being taken to park all trucks on streets other than those on which state highways pass through a city.

His request that a resolution be adopted to approve parallel parking in Holland was accepted and passed by the board.

Traffic matters were the chief topic of discussion during Monday's meeting.

Upon the recommendation of Police Chief Van Ry, the board adopted a resolution in which the police chief was requested to cooperate with the state highway department in taking up the matter of adopting a speed law and to install new speed limit signs on trunk lines entering Holland.

In presenting this matter to the board, the police chief said that the city clerk at previous meetings had been requested to take up the matter with the state highway department. He said that the state proposes to install signs setting forth different rates of speed in entering cities on trunk lines.

The discussion on the subject brought forth the matter of the installation of a traffic light at 19th St. and River Ave. In reply to this, Chief Van Ry said that the state department had promised immediate action in this matter in that $150,000 has been appropriated by the state legislature. The state department's proposal is to set a speed limit of 35 miles per hour at the outskirts of a city and then to reduce the speed in progressing further into a city.

Commissioner Donnelly expressed belief that a speed of 35 miles per hour was too high while Commissioner Stokette was more in favor of a 30-mile limit on the city outskirts.

The meeting of the Police Board was largely taken up with traffic matters, traffic lights and so on. Chief Van Ry stated that the call light at River Ave. and 8th St., when patrolmen were wanted, was in violation of the state law; that motorists were apt to mistake it for a traffic light. In fact, there have been complaints filed by tourists who claim the light to be dangerous. It is difficult to find another location, the police felt, and Chief Van Ry and the Board members are deluged by the moving of the light until a more suitable place can be found, which would bring the same efficient service. That is going to be difficult, but the State Highway Department has been told and progress is being made.

The special officers who will be hired during the Tulip Festival will get a nickel an hour more; in other words, 45c instead of 40c. Mr. Van Ry stated that requests have been made for 50c an hour but the Board split the difference. The new commissioner, Cornelius Stokette favored a 50c-an-hour wage, giving as his reasons that he has done a great deal of this work in his life, and it was not an easy task.

The oath of office of Andrew Rutgers as special officer was filed with the Board and accepted.

Justice Smith reported a collection of $11.20; Justice Gallen, $27.60.

Commissioner John Donnelly, reported on behalf of the Personnel Committee that either firemen or patrolmen be allowed six days of sick or special leave in addition to the regular vacation without being cut in pay from the regular salary. This was approved. This automatically rescinds a former resolution that cuts would be made for this time off.

At the Monday meeting of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, Chief Frank Van Ry, brought in his annual report which is interesting and approved. It indicates that the number of arrests from April 1, 1936 to March 1, 1937, totaled 667. July of last year proved to be the biggest month with 93 arrests. February of this year was the lightest with 25 arrests, the report shows. Arrests by months follow: April, 75; May, 89; June, 55; July, 93; August, 83; September, 60; October, 41; November, 41; December, 40;

POLICE PURCHASE TWO
"DUMMY" POLICE

At the Police Board meeting it was decided to put two extra men on the force without pay and they won't be able to "sit down" on the job either. It appears that firms making traffic lights and other safety devices also make "dummy" policemen and the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners purchased two of them as a try-out. These would eliminate traffic officers at the school corners.

Commissioner Hyma made a motion to purchase these "dummies," and place them in the center of the street intersection. Mr. Hyma said that in other cities these "dummies" prove very successful. They are in reality, not a police in uniform, but picture a high school boy with one arm filled with books and the other arm raised as a warning to motorists to slow down and watch out for school children.

The purchasing of these "dummies" brought some pleasure from former Sheriff, Fred Kamferbeek, that they should be "dummy" cops, one a Dutchman and one an Irishman to see which one would be the more efficient. The News would suggest that naming them Kamferbeek and Donnelly, respectively, would complete the whole matter.

CHICAGO PAPER RELATES DEATH OF FORMER
HOLLAND GIRL

The West Chicago Press gives the following account of the death of Hazel Clements Isherwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Clements, 166 W. 15th St., Holland.

"Death brought an end to a useful and altogether too short life early Saturday morning when Mrs. Paul A. Isherwood passed away as she slept at the family residence on Fairview avenue. Her illness had extended over a period of nearly five years. Funeral rites were held at the Congregational church Monday afternoon, with Rev. H. L. Michael officiating. The very large attendance and the profusion of flowers mute attested the high esteem in which Mrs. Isherwood was held. Interment was made in the Isherwood family lot at Geneva.

Hazel Clements Isherwood was born in Chicago June 5, 1892, the daughter of George E. and Lucy A. Clements. She attended the public schools in that city until the family moved to Holland, Michigan, in 1904.

"She graduated from the schools there and took two years of her college work at Toronto University, Toronto, Canada, and while there became a member of Kappa Alpha Theta national sorority. She then returned to Holland and graduated from Hope College in 1916 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. After her graduation she accepted a position as a teacher of History and English in our local high school and while here she met and on July 10, 1918, married Dr. Paul A. Isherwood.

"One son, Paul Bruce, was born of this union. She lived beside these two, a sister, Dorothy Clements, of Chicago and her father and mother of Holland, Michigan. The latter, because of ill health, were unable to be present at the funeral service Monday.

"Mrs. Isherwood was a member of the Congregational church, the Lend-a-Hand Circle, Eastern Star, Legion Auxiliary, Columbine Unit of the Garden Club, West Chicago Woman's Club and Library board, and was ever willing to assist in any worthy undertaking in this community.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS HONORS JAMES DE YOUNG, THEIR CHAIRMAN

It is eminently fitting that the Board of Public Works should dedicate their 43rd annual report, which has just been issued in the form of a 72-page booklet, to James De Young, their chairman. The glowing compilation, as this relates to the venerable Board member and chairman and at one time Superintendent, was indeed a surprise to this modest man.

When the report was laid before him and the other members, he opened it up and the first thing that loomed from its pages was a wonderful picture of "Jim." The reading matter underneath, signed by his colleagues, Gerhard M. Laeppe, Martin Van Water, C. J. McLean, Simon Kiehn, Gerrit Appeldoorn, Clerk, Charles Vos, Assistant Superintendent and A. Nauta, Superintendent, are self-explanatory and follow below.

"In presenting this report to the citizens of Holland, it is the pleasure of those whose names appear in this forward, associates of Mr. James De Young, to speak of the service he has rendered to our city.

"We feel that in a very great measure the success of Holland's municipal enterprises is due to the personality of Mr. De Young. He became a member of the board of public works in May, 1893, and served in that capacity until December, 1897. During this time he was mayor for two years. On Jan. 1, 1898, he was appointed superintendent of public works, serving until Sept. 10, 1910. His ability attracted the Consumers Power Co., which company he became affiliated with, making his home in Owosso. During his residence there he served that city as commissioner and mayor. Upon his return to Holland he was almost immediately appointed to membership on this board, as there was at that time a vacancy, and is still serving in that capacity and as president of the board.

"Because of his honesty of purpose, his integrity, and his knowledge of the public enterprises, he is held in the highest esteem by the people of our city. Because of this we who are associated with him in the department of public works, and who gladly follow his leadership, dedicate the annual report of the year 1936 to Mr. James De Young. It is our earnest hope that he may be spared to our city for many years."

Golden Wedding of West Olive Couple

A very pleasing commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the marriage of John D. Goodin and Nellie Goodin took place on Sunday, March 21 at the old Pigeon Lake, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Goodin were married on March 23, 1887. Mr. Goodin is 72 years old and his estimable wife is 67.

The event meant the coming of many of the children and the happy couple were the recipients of gifts indicative of such a celebration, and showed the love and respect these parents were held in the hearts of their children.

Among those present were Mrs. Lillie Martinique, of Ferryburg; Alfred, William, Frank, and Lewis Goodin of West Olive; George and Henry Goodin of Grand Haven; Lorena Goodin of Grand Rapids; and Raymond Goodin of Douglas.

There are 24 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. Five sisters of John Goodin were present besides many nephews and nieces, with their respective families. There were also quite a few relatives who came from a distance from Mrs. Goodin's side of the family.

When they were first married, they lived in a log house not far from where that famous Ottawa Hotel stood on Pigeon Lake. This site is still well defined. It will be remembered this was a large hotel built in a wilderness by Eastern capitalists. Even a depot was built without a railroad and a harbor without a ship. Then the resort bubble burst.

Today the Goodins live in a fine home on their farm where they have lived for nearly two score years.

Coach Is Impressed By Showing Of Senior Play Cast Characters

"Perfect, perfect! What a profile! If I were an artist I'd paint it myself!" Miss Metz, newly chosen coach of the Senior Class Play, was delighted. It was simply an inspiration to choose Dorothy Parker as Veronica Duane, young, vivid, alive, in love with Ricky White—none other than Gene Osterhagen. Ricky, the student architect, dreams of facing city streets with buildings finer than Inigo Jones', but somehow can't fit this girl into any of his blueprints.

As for the father and mother, Maitland and Nancy White, Miss Metz is agreed that John Wyngarden and Ruth Heinrichs couldn't have been better chosen. Maitland himself is middle-aged, touched by the slow years, but still shadowed by the faces he should have painted when he met Nancy.

In her travels over this country, and in touch with all dramatics, legitimate stage, and Hollywood, Miss Metz is enthusiastic in her approval of the cast, and the play. It is ideal, not too sophisticated, just brushed by tragedy, and salted with wit and humorous situations.

The coach thinks that the characters of G. T. Warren, a self-made man, and Jeff Nichols, weary world traveler, heighten the father's problem by their different tugs on his son's heart. Rowland Koskamp, as the Babbitt, G. T. Warren, offers Ronny a job and the money to marry Ricky, but Russell Van Tatenhove, as the world trotter, shows the boy the glamour and romance of following his dreams.

The father, Maity, finds the perfect profile to paint, in the household maid, Etta, whose part is taken by Mildred Vanden Bos. Lovely Etta, who is afraid to be painted, fears heaven will have no protection for the "woiking goil," once she is in the hands of those immoral Bohemians.

The father and son on the same stage, the father to prevent his son from his wrong turning, and the son, eager to forego his dreams for the girl Ronny, solve their problems May 5 and 6 at the High School auditorium.

Friday, April 30
Last Day for Fishing Perch O. K.

Friday, April 30, is the last day of legal fishing this spring in all the inland lakes in Michigan, except a number of designated pike and trout lakes. The designated pike lakes are open the year around to fishing for all species of fish on which there is an open season and the trout lakes, which closed Labor day, re-open Saturday, April 24. The lakes that close April 30 will open when bass fishing becomes legal June 25.

Bluegills, sunfish and warmouth bass become "taboo" to Michigan fishermen Saturday, May 1. On that date it becomes illegal to take these fish until June 25 in all the inland waters of the state. The closed season is to give the respective species complete protection from fishermen during their spawning time.

The closed seasons on commercial fishing for two species of fish expire Saturday, May 1. That date is the last of the closed season on grass or great-northern pike in all the Great Lakes waters under Michigan's jurisdiction and marks the end of the closed season on wall-eyes in Lakes Michigan and Superior. The closed season on perch in all the Great Lakes waters continues to and includes May 15. None of these closed seasons, however, applies to hook and line fishing for the respective species in the Great Lakes waters excepting in the Les Cheneaux Channel of northern Lake Huron where perch or pike may not be taken from April 1 to May 29 inclusive.

The senate has just approved and sent to the governor for signature the Miles bill which appeals an act now in force in Ottawa county making all its cities and villages primarily responsible for care of indigent sick.

The bill was introduced a short time ago by Rep. Nelson A. Miles of Holland after Ottawa supervisors voted several months ago to do away with this local unit plan and make the county responsible.

Cities and townships, under the local unit plan have been forced to raise special taxes to care for their contagious disease cases. It is imposed hardship on some townships with small valuation, especially with the 15 mill tax limitation becoming effective.

Supervisors voted to abolish the system on grounds control of contagion affected the county as a whole.

Double Wedding Takes Place at Farm Residence

Steenwyk Daughters Wed Sons of Henry Brower During Ceremony Thursday.

(Zeeland Record)

An impressive double wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Steenwyk, six miles northeast of Zeeland, when their daughters, Misses Lucy and Rena Steenwyk, became the brides of two brothers, Chester and Russell Brower of Zutphen.

The marriage ceremony was spoken by Rev. John Geels of Beaverdam in the presence of sixty relatives and intimate friends. The bride party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, as played by Miss Henrietta Steenwyk, sister of the brides, and the vows were spoken under an arch of white and yellow crepe paper trimmed with ferns and evergreen.

The brides were dressed alike in white chiffon dresses and wore wreaths of orange blossoms in their hair, and they carried bouquets of calla-lily, stocks and ferns.

Henry B. Smit was master of ceremonies, and a very interesting program was given following the rites. A delicious lap supper was served the assembled guests by cousins of the brides, and a special wedding cake was the high point of the victuals, which was cut by the brides.

Miss Lucy Steenwyk is the bride of Mr. Chester Brower and Miss Rena Steenwyk is the bride of Mr. Russell Brower. Both couples will make their homes in Zeeland township within one mile of each other on Beaverdam road, the first mentioned a short distance south of M-21 and the other a short distance north of that point. Russell will operate a farm while Chester will be employed in Grand Rapids.

The sisters are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Steenwyk who live in the northeast corner of Zeeland township while the brothers are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brower who live one mile north and one-half mile west of Zutphen. They are all well known and are highly respected in that community.

This is the third double wedding taking place in the Steenwyk family and the third double wedding taking place in the Brower family.

Citizen Passes Away
at Ludington

Funeral services were held Monday at 2:00 p. m. at Nibbelink and Notter Mortuary for Roland Astra, who died Friday at his home near Ludington at the age of 73. He was the second oldest subscriber the News had, having read this publication for at least 45 years. After serving railroads for over 50 years he retired on a pension and was spending his declining years on a farm near Scottville.

Mrs. Astra died in Holland several years ago and there was one daughter by that marriage, Miss Grace Astra, now Mrs. Lawrence Hopkins of Fremont. Mr. Astra remarried during 1936.

Mrs. Pelon, Zeeland, Loses $1,031 Claim For Father's Care

A verdict of $1,031.80 obtained by Mrs. Jennie Pelon, daughter of the late Arend Van Dyke of Zeeland, in a suit against her father's estate, was set aside in an opinion given by Judge Joseph F. Sanford of Muskegon. The case was appealed from Ottawa county probate court which had allowed Mrs. Pelon the amount claimed for care of her father on condition she should remain with him and not marry until she was more than 25 years old.

Mrs. Pelon was allowed $25 in her father's will, it being the estate's claim that she was amply compensated by her father before his death. She said she remained with him, without compensation, relying on his promise of $1,000 if she did not marry. She married when 26 years old. Judge Sanford held there was no evidence to show contrary to the will, that she had not been paid for care of her father.

The case was tried by Judge Sanford when Judge Fred T. Miles of the Ottawa-Allegan circuit, disqualified himself because his nephew, Rep. Nelson A. Miles of Holland, was plaintiff's counsel.

Deny Rumors that Tulip Fete Will Be Abandoned

(Holland Sentinel)

A rumor persists that Holland will discontinue its Tulip Festival after this year.

This rumor is working a hardship on committee members who have charge of enlisting new entries for the parades who do not care to be used for only one more festival, it was pointed out today. A number of leading citizens have expressed their amazement at the thought of abandoning this annual event which has given Holland world-wide recognition.

Mayor Henry Geerlings stated that no one from the city hall was given authority to make such a statement and the rumor should be wholly disregarded.

Joe Kramer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, stated that that organization had no thought of abandoning Tulip Time.

William M. Connelly, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, stated that it is inconceivable that the people of Holland could seriously consider discontinuing the festival that now rates as one of America's three greatest floral events.

Ben Mulder said that Tulip Time is a precious institution that has been carried on in this city for nearly a decade and represents too many years of civic effort to give any credence to the rumor.

Mrs. J. E. Telling, chairman of the Tulip Time committee, stated that she assumed the task of carrying on the 1937 festival with considerable reluctance and only after a great deal of pressure from leading citizens, and that she thought the duties should be shifted to other shoulders another year. She added that she has no thought of the festival being discontinued and hoped that all would join in with the usual enthusiasm to make the 1937 event the banner one.

HOSPITAL FUND SHOWS GRATIFYING GAINS

The report of the secretary of the Community Hospital association, presented at the annual meeting held at Saugatuck, showed more than $4,600 paid on the property leaving a balance of less than $1400, besides making numerous improvements. Under the able management of Miss Eva Nelson the hospital at Douglas has cared for an average of four and one-half patients per day. The doctors of the community have aided materially in making the project a success. Great credit is also due the Kellogg Foundation for contributions of much of the modern equipment, through which the Douglas hospital now has equipment equal to many of the larger hospitals.

A drive toward clearing up the final debt on the property is now under way, and a liberal response is hoped for from the community, as there is no institution in the community that is accomplishing more for the general welfare of the public, than does the hospital through its helpful services to the sick and suffering.

Salvaging Logs Brings Profits

The salvaging of logs from the rivers in Western Michigan is proving a profitable enterprise. During the height of the lumbering days millions of feet of choice timber were sunk in the various rivers as the logs were floated to the mills. Now these logs are being salvaged. Elmer Ecklund, of Parkdale, has been operating on the Manistee river for eight years and has reclaimed more than 200,000 feet of board lumber each year, or 1,600,000 feet in all.

At various times thousands of feet of logs have been reclaimed from Muskegon and other rivers. While it costs considerable money to salvage the logs, at the present price of lumber the business is proving profitable.

The young ladies so attentively absorbed in examining silk history are probably impressed by their sheer beauty. However, the real story is told photographically in the section of silk history (inset) magnified 75 times which presents the reasons for long wearing qualities. The history shown here is featured in the Ward Week sale at the Montgomery Ward store from April 21 to May 1.

See Chance for Golf and Tennis Teams

Hope college's chances for the M. I. A. A. sports trophy look good if the results of the tennis and golf matches can go very far in deciding the race.

Hope's golf team is a veteran one, with every member of the foursome that drove its way into second place last year returning for play.

Bill Poppink tops play among the golfers, and Ralph De Roo, Lester Hopkins, and Bill Van Dusen are the remaining boys of the second place team.

In addition the team this year has Bob Marcus, three times Holland high school golf champion. He has not played much recently, but has looked good in this season's early rounds.

Renier Papegaay and Mayo Hadden are other members of this season's squad. Both are able golfers, and Coach Bruce Raymond will have a hard job picking his match lineup.

The team will find most competition at Olivet where Ed Novak will lead his foursome into the race. He is a contender with Poppink of Hope and Gowan of Albion for the individual title.

Uranek, Wilson and Novak comprise the Olivet team, while Gowan and Lenord are the best on the Albion club. Kalamazoo has lost everything, and other teams in the loop may or may not enter teams in the race.

Hope's schedule opens with the Grand Rapids College of Applied Science on April 22. Western State's varsity will also be played beside other M. I. A. A. schools. Early matches will be played out of town.

In the tennis set-up, Coach Kleinhekel has a likely looking squad warming up for early matches.

Bill Arendshorst, a veteran, leads the candidates with two sophomores, Gordon Pleune and Paul Boyink. These three will make it tough going for any three men on other M. I. A. A. teams.

Phil Abell, George Plakke, Pete Vandenberg and Don Visser are older members of the team, while two more sophomores are Ed Heneveld and Bill De Groot.

There will be a fight for positions on the team, and when the boys go into the race, they will find toughest competition at Kalamazoo.

Simpson, M. I. A. A. champ, and Linsenmeyer, are the two high Hornets Hope must knock off in their trek to the all-sports crown.

HOPE PRESIDENT TO APPEAR BEFORE 2000 KENT SCHOOL CHILDREN APRIL 30

(Grand Rapids Herald)

Dr. Wynand Wichers, president of Hope college, Holland, will give the address at the second annual music festival in which 2,000 Kent county school children will participate at Civic auditorium, Friday, April 30.

Rehearsal for the festival has been set for 1:30 Thursday afternoon, April 29, preceding the formal program for the public the next afternoon at 2:30. The WPA orchestra will play the festival music. Awards for the best notebooks on music appreciation will be given by County School Commissioner Lynn H. Clark.

A chorus of 1,500 voices will be heard in a group of songs under direction of Miss Mabel Olive Miles of the music extension department of Michigan State college, which sponsors the music week in Kent county schools. A group of 400 pupils in later elementary grades, fifth through the eighth, will dance an Irish jig in costume. Pupils of the third and fourth grades will present a Swedish folk song, "Bleking," in costume and 200 first and second grade pupils will participate in a singing game, "Thread Follows the Needle."

Among special guests will be Lewis Richards, head of the music department of Michigan State college.

More than 1000 Pheasants Laying

The state now has approximately 1,200 ringnecked pheasants as "breeders" at its game-farm about 20 miles south of Lansing. The great majority of these birds are hens, but it is expected that the hens will lay an average of around 40 eggs this spring for free distribution and game farm use. No additional requests for free pheasant eggs are being granted by state game authorities as the year's probable supply has been entirely spoken for.

Used Cave for Glass Work

The first glass maker in Scotland was George Hay (1566-1625). He took advantage of a peculiarly formed cave at Wemyss, on the Fife coast, and set up his furnace there-in.

Wore Prince Alberts In the "fifty nineties," most United States senators wore Prince Alberts. The frock coat was a symbol of statesmanship and a beard was the mark of a man of maturity and substance.

CONCRETE
ENDS

For Safety's sake
PAVE THE GAPS WITH Concrete

Why do state highway departments warn the public: "Concrete pavement ends"?

Because it is universally accepted that speeds which are reasonable and safe on concrete become dangerous on other surfaces.

To save lives, to prevent accidents... demand concrete all the way.

True and even, it has no high crown—is usable to its full width. Brakes are at their best on its gritty non-skid surface. Its light gray color and sharply defined edges give high visibility at night. Any car is a better car on concrete. And concrete saves money for motorists and for taxpayers. Insist on concrete for your roads.

Zeeland School Teachers Given Contracts Anew

Four Teachers of the Twenty-Eight Are Not Returning the Coming Year.

At a meeting of the board of education of Zeeland public schools held at the school offices recently, teachers' contracts for the ensuing year were considered, all present teachers being offered contracts for the ensuing year, except those who have declared their intention to leave the local school system.

The teachers offered contracts include and are now teaching the following grades: Mary Ellen Gass, kindergarten; Janice Van Koeveering, first grade; Louise Wierenga, first grade; Estella Karsten, second grade; Gladys Maatman, third grade; Myrtle Ten Have, third grade; Mildred Early, fifth grade; Mildred Essenburg, sixth grade; Marjorie Van Koeveering, sixth grade; and Josephine De Groot, special room.

Teachers offered contracts now teaching Junior High School are Mina Becker, Lois De Pree, and Anthony Mulder.

High School faculty members again offered contracts are Hilmer Dickman, Howard Hill, Leon Kleis, Curtis Merritt, Otto Pino, Alma Plakke, Louis Roberts, Verna Rogers, Thomas Dewey, and Malcolm B. Rogers, superintendent. Miss Leola Jablonski, who has been taking additional studies under a leave of absence from the local schools, has been offered a contract and will probably be in the local faculty again the coming school year.

Miss Agnes Van Oostenbrugge, who has been teaching the fourth grade, has indicated her intention of not returning after the close of the school year. This position has not yet been filled.

Other teachers who are leaving the local school system are Miss Harriet Baron, Junior High; Russell Troutman, music; and Mrs. M. Davis, home economics.

Mr. Carl E. Senob of Hancock, Mich., has been offered a contract to fill the position as instructor of music left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Troutman.

Miss Sina Westrate of Holland has been offered a contract to teach home economics in place of Mrs. Davis.

All teachers were offered the customary increase in salaries for the coming year.

All other school employees were benefitted by a similar raise in pay. These include Sena Telgenhof, school office clerk; Mrs. Minnie Fairbanks, librarian; Henry Arens, Bert Van Loo, and John Noorhuis, janitors.

All positions of teaching indicated above are the same filled for the school year 1936-1937, but do not indicate the positions these teachers will fill in the school year 1937-1938. Most of the teachers are qualified to teach studies not assigned them during the present school year and may be shifted to other positions the coming year.

$93,000 GRAND HAVEN PARK PROJECT APPROVED

A $93,000 WPA project for improving and enlarging the Grand Haven State park has obtained presidential approval, according to A. D. McCrae, district WPA director.

Additional drives, parking space and modern facilities for accommodation of trailer campers are projected.

The project, involving $72,489 from the federal government and the balance from the state conservation department which administers the park, may begin by summer. William H. Loutit, chairman of the commission, was in Lansing early this week.

City officials familiar with the project said the four or five acres from the present state park north to the piers and east to Fisher's pond which had been turned over to the state by the city, would be improved. Pavements, walks, bumper guards and other improvements are planned.

Miss Jennie Bosch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Bosch of rural route No. 3, and James Kapenga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kapenga, also of route No. 3, were united in marriage last Thursday night at the parsonage of the Niekerk Christian Reformed church. The Rev. Martin Bolt performed the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a gown of aqua sheer with lace trim and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. The couple was attended by Miss Ann Veurink and John Bosch, brother of the bride. Miss Veurink was attired in a gown of aqua boucle. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Bosch for relatives and near friends. The couple left on a wedding trip to the Niagara Falls. After April 20 Mr. and Mrs. Kapenga will reside on the Zeeland road, rural route No. 2.

START HAS BEEN MADE ON WILD FLOWERS

At the New York Flower Show recently a luxuriant wild-flower garden was singled out for the special award offered by the National Council of State Garden Clubs.

The purpose of the women who designed this garden was to inspire in those Americans who saw it, a determination to preserve wild plant life.

The roadsides, fields and pastures of Michigan, too, are colorful with the flowers which Nature plants there, but they may not be for many years more, if the vandals continue their depredations here, as they have in some parts of the Country.

A number of species of wild flowers are being exterminated by the annual raids made upon them by people who are not content to pick the blooms, but must tear them up roots and all.

Wild flowers not only are the parents of the glories of the cultivated garden, but in their own habitat, where Nature has placed them, they have a beauty all their own.

The movement to protect them for the enjoyment of the present and future generations ought to appeal to every Nature lover in this broad land of ours.

LEGAL KILLING OF DEER IN MICHIGAN LARGE

An estimate made by state game authorities here set the legal kill of buck deer during the open season last fall at about 51,000. The estimate was conservatively made on the basis of reports by deer hunters themselves for the seasons of 1932, 1933 and 1934. The stubs of deer licenses sold show that in 1932 there was a kill of 20,716 legal buck deer; in 1933 the kill was 25,862 and in 1934, 27,359.

License stub data for the 1935 deer season have not yet been compiled but game men estimated the kill for that season at around 37,000 legal deer. This would give a total of nearly 90,000 deer killed in Michigan during the past two open deer seasons. The estimates are likely to be too high or too low for the past two seasons, but the true kill can be determined when license stubs for these two seasons are available for checking.

WHO CAN BLAME HIM?

It is not hard to understand the feelings of the English producer who declined to use a "strip-tease" act in his show after he had seen a naked demonstration of what it is.

Until recently, even in this Country, prudency generally has led exponents to modify their exhibitions when afraid that a watchful and unsympathetic officer of the law might be in the house. And even now, there probably are a good many cities where the act, if used at all, is put on either circumspectly or surreptitiously.

The "strip-tease" may be "art," but it is not a form of art of which the United States has any reason to be proud.

HOLLAND MAN INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION

JUSTICE OF PEACE JOHN GALLEN ISSUED A WARNING LAST WEEK THAT IN THE FUTURE ANY PERSON BROUGHT INTO HIS COURT ON A CHARGE OF RECKLESS DRIVING WILL FACE A "STRAIGHT" JAIL SENTENCE UPON CONVICTION.

He said the majority of the numerous complaints coming in concerned the younger drivers rather than adult drivers. By meting out stiffer judgments, the police department and sheriff's office hope to reduce reckless driving.

Purple Martins have been seen around Holland about two weeks earlier than usual.

TIME AND TRAINS NEVER WAIT, BUT A WOMAN FINDS A WAY

The Postoffice Department demonstrated its traditional spirit of helpfulness Saturday in the case of the distressed lady, the Easter cards and the railroad ticket.

The woman had purchased a ticket to Louisville, Ky., at the Union Station, Detroit, moved on to the news stand to purchase some Easter cards and envelopes and then, as a glance at the clock warned her that the hour of her departure was approaching, hurriedly began addressing the envelopes.

Few minutes later, Edward J. Lynch, supervisor at the Roosevelt Park postal station, got a hurry call from the station. When he arrived, the distressed lady was standing beside the station mail box, explaining her dilemma to two red-caps and pointing frantically to the huge station clock.

Lynch listened respectfully and then unlocked the mailbox, spreading its contents on the floor.

In a moment, there was an exultant "that's it!" from the woman. From a sealed envelope, Lynch extracted one unused railroad ticket to Louisville. In its place, the woman inserted an Easter card she took from her purse, resealed the envelope, dropped it into the box and then hurried through the gates to her waiting train.

Interesting Facts About Sugar Beets

(Saginaw, Mich., April 24)

Calling attention to the fact that sugar beet planting time is near at hand, M. J. Buschlen, assistant agricultural supervisor of the Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar Association, in an interview yesterday, said, "Now is the time to prepare for early spring work. Many indoor jobs and repair jobs should be done at this time of the year. Machinery which needs repairing or adjustment can be repaired during the days when it is impossible to get into the fields."

"Now is the time to clean and repair the beet drill. A drill that is not working properly will not plant the proper amount of seed. A crop is never harvested from seed that is never put into the ground."

Referring to the date of planting, Mr. Buschlen said, "In the case of sugar beets we have a vast amount of experimental and practical data in support of the contention that early planting is desirable. It should be the aim of every sugar beet grower to have the seed bed fitted as early as possible and the planting should be done just as soon as the soil temperature is sufficiently high to germinate the seed."

"In the case of growers with large acreages we suggest that two seedings, about ten days apart, be made. This spreads the work and facilitates the hand labor operations by reason of the fact that the entire acreage does not demand thinning at the same time."

"Under normal conditions it has been found desirable to plant sugar beet seed in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana between April 20 and May 10. It should be noted, however, that the gains made as a result of early seeding never compensate for a poorly prepared seed bed. In short, the first requisite of a good beet crop is a well prepared seed bed."

BOY GIVES UP RIGHTS; HANDS FIND TO POLICEMAN

The "finders keepers" tradition didn't interest a 10-year-old Lowell, Mass. boy after he opened the package found on Central bridge.

He turned it over to a policeman, saying: "You can have it or do anything else you want with it. It's yours."

The package contained a dozen bottles of castor oil.

CHURCH IS REMEMBERED IN WILL; SAVES AGAIN AFTER BEING ROBBED

An estimated estate of between $6,000 and $10,000 was left by the late Claus Schwetscher, who died recently, according to a will filed in probate court at Grand Haven.

St. Paul's Evangelical church of which the deceased was a member for many years, was bequeathed $1,000 to be used as the trustees deem best.

A brother, Henry Schwetscher, Petoskey, was left a note and the accrued interest secured by a certain mortgage, registered in Emmet county the amount of which was not named. Another brother, Fred of Nunica, was left one dollar.

Mrs. Ethel Snyder, Nunica, was left all of the furniture and personal effects as well as a note secured by a certain chattel mortgage executed by her husband and herself in Feb., 1933, and due Feb., 1939.

The remainder of the estate is to be divided between the following nieces: Margaret Barbrick, Francis Barbrick, Ethel Snyder, Viola Myer, Hazel Orienrich, daughters of Fred Schwetscher.

The will was executed April 4, 1934, and witnessed by Tanetta Bultuis and Henry Verhoeks and the Grand Haven State Bank is named as executor.

The deceased had always been a frugal man and for years there had been rumors that he had considerable wealth. He lived alone and many believed that a large part of his wealth was hidden in the house. Several years ago he suffered a robbery of some bonds and he was always fearful that he might be robbed again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zetek, who for the past eight years have lived at Holland, have moved to their farm home two miles southeast of New Richmond. Mr. Zetek was forced by ill health to give up his work at the Holland sewer disposal plant.

Pennies Brought Holland Magic Eye Thru X-Ray

During Three Days, 315 Residents Of Ottawa County Had Been Exposed to Active T.B.

The magic eye of the X-ray, modern weapon against tuberculosis, was brought Tuesday through Friday, April 13th through 16th, to 315 residents of Ottawa county who had been exposed to a case of active tuberculosis. Financed by pennies spent in the county for tuberculosis Christmas seals, the X-ray films were taken by Arnold J. Linden, technician in charge of the traveling X-ray unit of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. The Ottawa County Health Department, under the direction of Dr. Ralph Ten Have, cooperated with the Association in arranging for the clinic.

The films have been sent to Detroit where they will be read and interpreted by medical experts.

Christmas seal contact clinics similar to those at Holland a few weeks, for Ottawa county residents are being held in all parts of the state by the Association this year. Undertaken following an extensive survey showing the need for them in Michigan, the series of clinics will be instrumental, it is hoped, in checking the development of tuberculosis among those who have been exposed to the disease—a group in which ordinarily many cases eventually develop.

Through the discovery of tuberculosis in its early stages—rarely possible without the aid of the X-ray—the deadly adult type of the disease can easily be prevented if simple precautions and healthful living habits are observed.

Finds Imprisoned Ducks

Carl Mortensen, Jr., foreman of CCC Camp Fox, near Seney, has observed one of the peculiarities of nature that should be of interest not only to other members of the Michigan Emergency Conservation organization but to conservation authorities and the general public. Recently while in the vicinity of a closed summer cottage he noticed that the windows were marked up in a peculiar manner. Upon closer investigation he found that four dead woodcock and two dead whistlers were inside. All had apparently starved to death. All evidence showed that the birds had gained access to the building by way of the chimney of the fireplace. After entering in that manner they were unable to escape.

Buying Their Own Security

"Government in the insurance business"—put there by the Social Security Act—hasn't stopped the public from purchasing insurance coverage from private companies in unprecedented amounts.

The largest insurance company in the world closed last year with more life insurance in force than ever before—$21,000,000,000. This is indicative of the experience of other companies.

The American people still want to produce future security for themselves and their dependents through their own thrift, wisdom and savings. This is not a criticism of governmental security—it is just praise for the millions of our people who aren't satisfied to depend on it entirely for their old age.

Traveling Around America

SUMMER SKIERS

SOUTH of the Equator... summer-time from December to March... swimming at sunbathed beaches... skiing down the snowclad mountains—it's topsy-turvy but that's Chile, the republic which stretches like a ribbon 3000 miles down the southern part of South America's West Coast. In the southern part of the republic, particularly around Osorno, in the Lake District, are mountains 15,000 to 20,000 feet high which provide some of the most exciting runs in the world—skiable both in summer and in winter.

In fact the entire 2000-mile stretch of the Andes between this Lake District and Santiago, the capital, in the north, presents innumerable fine runs. Within 30 miles from Santiago which is only four hours by train from Valparaiso, chief port of Chile visited weekly by cruises from New York and California, are many excellent runs, with comfortable huts at key points, with a season lasting from the middle of May to November. The slopes of Cerro Colorado 11,800 feet high provide several gorgeous runs, one of which is about six miles long with the first part averaging about 30 degrees. From the summit of 13,000 ft. high Parva there's a 10-mile downhill run over snowfields which would be hard to beat anywhere in the world.

Another ski center is Portillo on the transandine rail route leading between Santiago and Buenos Aires. A funicular-like railway runs from Portillo down to Juncal which is the next lower station on the railway with a vertical drop of nearly 3000 feet. One of the best runs here is the one to the nearby Inca plateau over Lake Inca which presents magnificent views of the 20,000 ft. high Cerro Alto de Los Leones, one of the highest mountains in Chile.

"Moonstone", includes Frieda Heersprink, Harriet Bazin, Ruth Warner, Kathryn Pieper, Kathleen Vanderploeg, Helena Monson, Doris Verhulst, George Prins, Junior Van Faassen, John Hietbrink, Harold Dykema, Don Slager, Harold Staal, Cornelius Pettinga, Roger Brower and Osborne Vos.

The marriage of Miss Henrietta Vogelzang, daughter of Alderman and Mrs. John Vogelzang, 210 West 18th St., and Bernard Henry Kuipers, son of Henry Kuipers, 1031 Tammarack Ave., Grand Rapids was solemnized Wednesday evening, at an impressive ceremony in the auditorium of the Woman's Literary Club. The Rev. Peter Jonker Jr., performed the double-ring ceremony at 8:30 o'clock. Vows were spoken before an altar banked with palms, lilies and ferns, interspersed with potted plants. The Lohengrin wedding march, Wagner, was played by Miss Hester Kuiper of Grand Rapids. She also played "Hearts and Flowers." The bride was gown in white satin with beaded pearls and a long train and veil. She carried an arm bouquet of snapdragons, roses, swainsona and baby breath. Her sister, Miss Geraldine Vogelzang as bridesmaid, wore tea rose brocade and carried a bouquet similar to that of the bride. Marvin Veenstra of Grand Rapids was best man. Ushers were Martinus Berz and Albert Rodenhuis of Grand Rapids and John and Leonard Vogelzang of Holland. Leonard Vogelzang also acted as master of ceremonies. Before the ceremony Clarence Vogelzang sang "Thanks Be To God" and immediately following "I Love You Truly." About 125 guests were present at the reception in the tea room of the club house. Music was rendered by Carmen Barille and Charles Vander Ven, violinists, and Clarence Dykema, pianist. The couple left on a wedding trip through the south. After April 24 they will make their home on Walker Ave., in Grand Rapids.

An Organization Built Upon An Ideal

We have, during the past several years, built an organization, which:

- FIRST—Studies the practical side of commercial egg production,
- SECOND—Studies the technical problems of both production and marketing and has developed a national reputation for its QUALITY EGGS,
- THIRD—Has developed feed formulas in conjunction with our State College for economical growth and production—inferior feed will keep your chickens alive, but only the BEST will make profitable production possible during periods of readjustment such as the present times when commodity prices are out of balance.
- FEEDS can be compounded theoretically on paper to appear good, but confidence can be placed only in those that are the product of long-time research and practical experience by unbiased authorities, and are prepared by a firm whose reliability is beyond question.
- FOUR—Has developed facilities for economic distribution of these feeds, thus effecting great savings to the industry. No one knows better the advantages of large scale operation than the people who buy our feed.
- Is OWNED, OPERATED and CONTROLLED by its patrons.

Always on the Job

STREETS are deserted. Homes are dark. Night has wrapped the community in slumber.

In one building, however, a light is still shining. It shines on steadily through the hours of darkness until, at last, the dawn heralds the stir of another day....

That light sums up the eternal vigilance of the telephone. It is truly a beacon of public service, one that stands ready to serve any one, anywhere, any time. And always with the same promptness and skill and courtesy.

All that modern telephone service can mean—all its protection and convenience and comfort—is yours to command twenty-four hours a day.

It takes no holidays. It is, in an old familiar phrase, "always on the job."

How You Can Step Your Beet Tonnage

IN EVERY LINE OF BUSINESS, men have made vast studies to improve and increase production for whatever they grow or make. The Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar Association is right in step with these modern practices. Experience on hundreds of farms, over a period of years, has demonstrated that Beet tonnage can be increased by following up-to-date farming methods.

For example:

The information compiled from 17,000 individual grower records shows that for every 10% increase in stands, you can make a gain of a ton of beets per acre!

You can get such results with Narrow Rows and Closer Spacing!

World wide tests show that the most profitable tonnage is obtained by

20 inch Rows

On the basis of 20 inch rows—a 100% stand blocked 10 inches apart, gives you

30,000 Beets per Acre

And don't forget—liberal applications of commercial fertilizer pay!

Broadcast before seeding and drill in fertilizer with the seed.

Narrow rows—closer spacing and liberal use of fertilizer means bigger tonnage for you!

And bigger tonnage means bigger profits for you!

Undoubtedly some attractive Grandstand seats in this building for the Track Meet, today, Friday.

MEET IS FIRST EVER HELD ON HOPE CAMPUS

Hope's first annual interfraternity track meet will be run off today, Friday with all the pomp and ceremony of an M. I. A. A. track and field meet.

By a vote of the student council last Monday evening, the track meet was made an annual event in conjunction with the All-College spring banquet on Hope College campus.

This year, because of the inability of the committee to find a place for the banquet on April 23, the party will be a week following the track meet.

The Woman's League has joined in planning for the event, and the organization will vote on plans for a senior queen this afternoon.

The league will select a senior Victory Queen, to be announced at the meet Friday afternoon. She will be officially crowned at the banquet the following Friday evening.

This senior girl will relinquish her crown to a junior queen at the Woman's league field day, and the new girl will be Hope's Victory Queen at the M. I. A. A. field meet this spring, and at the interfraternity meet in 1938.

The announcement of the queen will be held at 1:30 P. M., April 23, and she will direct the parade of fraternity teams around the track. At 1:45 events will be under way.

The events of the meet vary but a little from those of the M. I. A. A. finals. In the relay, one lap of 1/5 mile will be substituted for the usual 1/4 mile for each man of the team. The mile run may be limited to a straight number of laps.

In all, 15 events will make up the first track meet Holland fans have seen in more than five years, and if the excitement running high in the fraternity houses means anything at all, the meet will become one of the outstanding athletic events of the year.

All efforts are being made to have the meet run as smoothly as possible. For that reason, a meeting of fraternity team managers was called at 4:30 P. M. Thursday.

All team entries must be in the hands of these managers at that time, and he will draw for positions and lanes of every man on his team.

Rules of competition will be explained at that time, but several general rules regarding the meet as a whole have already been made clear.

1. There shall be no restriction as to eligibility except that the entrant shall be registered as a member of his own fraternity or of the independent group.

2. All entries shall be handed to the fraternity manager so that he may make arrangements for placement in events. This must be done before the meeting with the committee on Thursday, April 22.

3. No boy will be allowed to enter distance races greater than 220 yards unless he reports for training this week and next.

This rule is made to avoid injuries to muscles of untrained boys who might enter the races without conditioning.

4. To avoid accidents, all spectators must stay outside the track, and field of play. All entrants must stay outside the track except when participating.

The Obedience of Noah—Genesis 8:20-22; 9:8-17.

Today we see the result of obedience. It is an ancient tale about a man who did a strange thing because God ordered it. Everything turned out so well that he gave thanks to God for delivering him and his family from the flood. The credit goes to Noah, the builder of the ark. His obedience to God brought about the deliverance. This story is a picture for the gallery of memory. It is important enough to be recorded in the Bible.

The principle underlying the lesson suggests other pictures. These illustrate the principle expressed in the lesson aim. Out of sickness, through the obedience to the rules of the physician—such obedience is rewarded. Each of us assent to this fact. Out of ignorance into information and education through obedience to the ways of the school, such obedience is necessary as all of us understand, if we would escape the prison of ignorance. The skilled mechanic came to freedom and ease in his work by obeying the laws of mechanics and tool. The home reaches a high standard by obeying basic regulations for home life—the reward of a satisfying home comes from such obedience. He is a good citizen, we say; but he could not be so if he were not obedient to law. A man is classified as an understanding Christian, but his course to his fine rating was along the path of obedience to the law of God and of man. We have no trouble in believing that through obedience comes deliverance. So we turn to the lesson.

Who was Noah? What did God command him to do? Why did he obey? What resulted from his obedience? These simple questions are quickly answered. But why he obeyed deserves more thought. Noah had no precedent to follow, either as an incentive to build the ark or as a guide for its building. The whole matter came directly to him from God. It is strange that he obeyed. His family and neighbors certainly would not encourage him. A disastrous flood was not common. Waters did not reach up to their land. How launch a boat on dry land? There was no danger from a flood as far as was known. Noah obeyed. Then came the reward. People and animals and birds were saved, enough to keep their kind from becoming extinct. Noah was saved, and he was to be congratulated for his far-sightedness in being ready for the flood. But he forgot himself and personal credit. He turned attention to what God had done. His altar and worship indicated that he was in right relation with God. God's acceptance of his worship indicated that He pleased God.

This is the way God works. He adds more rewards to the deserving. This progression in rewards is not common. Jesus taught this fact by a parable. The faithful steward was given rulership over more cities and had talents added to his store. His disciples were rewarded more and more as they reached higher stages in obedience and trust. This is the way with us today. We give to the worthy and add more as they preserve their continuance of God's blessing. It takes no stretch of faith to believe that God puts a premium on obedience. We can see that this is a just requirement. We would be disappointed in God if He did not insist on obedience. We are not surprised that He rewards obedience. It ought not to be difficult for us to resolve to obey the law of God and requirement. We would be disappointed in God if He did not insist on resolution.
