Jacob Lokker Passes After Long Illness

LOCAL MERCHANT WAS MEM-BER OF FIRE DEPARTMENT
WHEN APPARATUS WAS DRAWN BY MEN

Was Born in Log Cabin; Came to Holland at an Early Age

One of our leading local merchants, Jacob Lokker, passed away at his home early Wednesday morning after a severe illness of at least eight weeks. Mr. Lokker, who was 77 years old, had been in failing health for more than a year, but late in February his condition became serious, and for the last two weeks physicians pronounced the case critical, and said there was little chance for his recovery, owing to heart weakness.

Mr. Lokker had been a clothing merchant for the last 46 years, when the firm of Lokker-Rutgers Co. was organized. At the age of 22 Mr. Lokker came to Holland to try his fortunes as a merchandiser.
He applied for a position with former mayor, the late E. J. Harrington, who conducted a general store
on East 8th St. near College Ave.
The three-story brick structure and the wooden building in which the clothing department was located are still on that site. Mr. Harrington also carried a line of groceries and crockery, as well as dry goods and clothing.

Before coming to Holland, however, he went East to Passaic, N. J., where he was employed for three years, going there at the age of 18.

Later Mr. Lokker became associated with his brother, Chris L.
Lokker, who with Matt Notter organized and built the Holland Crystal Creamery at Columbia Ave. and 6th St., near the baseball park. He was connected there for approximately ten years. This enterprise is still in existence, having been organized more than a half century ago.

In 1892 Mr. Lokker formed a partnership with the late John Rutgers, later Reginald of Deed of Ottawa County, and purchased the mercantile business of the Notter and Ver Schure, men's clothing and shoes, at 39 East 8th St. The personnel of this company was Matthew Notter and John Ver Schure.
As the Lokker-Rutgers Co., the business developed, the store was enlarged, and even a second floor department was included, until it became one of the largest men's furnishing emporiums in Ottawa County.

In the early days Jacob Lokker was identified with the Holland Fire Department. He joined more than a half century ago and was a member of Columbia Hose Co. No. 2, when the department was still in the old Kanters building, directly east of the Holland Theatre. Later it was moved into the present building, which at one time was built as a city hall. Mr. Lokker was with this department when horse carts were drawn by man-power or by a convenient horse-drawn derrick.
Mr. Lokker saw the development of the department from this crude equipment to horse-drawn equipment, and finally, motorized equipment, when the Holland Water Works was established way back in the early '80s. He was with No. 2 Fire Department for nearly a quarter of a century.

Mr. Lokker was elected alderman of the first ward and served for fifteen years. He served on many important committees, one being the committee on streets and crosswalks. He had considerable to do with our first paving program, 8th Street being the first undertaking of that type. He also acted as chairman of the committee on poor and welfare. He took a deep interest in Ottawa County politics and has always been a Republican.

He was a strict believer in law enforcement, and in the early days was always found among the deputy sheriffs of lower Ottawa County.
He served under three sheriffs—namely, Bastian D. Keppel, Frank Van Ry, and Henry J. Dykhouse, and was identified with many important cases at that time.

Mr. Lokker was very kind-minded and generous. No one came to his door, when in distress, and went away empty-handed. When the City Mission was first started by Miss Nellie Churchford, he took a deep interest in it and gave much time and money to establish this mission. Mr. Lokker served for many years and often on committees having to do with civic enterprise, industrial, good roads,
welfare, religious development,
kindred undertakings that needed solicitations; and Mr. Lokker was an adept in bringing these causes before our citizens. In this he was untiring and generous.

For two score years Mr. Lokker was a member of First Reformed church where he filled the different church offices and took a deep interest in Sunday school work. Ten years ago he joined Hope church and was an officer in that church,
at the time of his death being an elder.
He was a member of the Men's Bible Class, where he was a faithful attendant. He was a member of the Hosanna Dutch chorus, which practices in Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church.

Mr. Lokker was born in a log cabin near Graafschap on July 29, 1861. His parents were Cornelius and Maria Nayer Lokker, who came here as pioneers from The Netherlands, making the voyage across the ocean in a sailing vessel. Mr.
Lokker attended the country
schools and worked on the farm between times. The school was located in Fillmore Township, about three quarters of a mile east of the log home.

Mr. Lokker was first married to Henrietta Elenbaas and to this union were born two daughters. Mrs.
Lokker passed away several years ago. Some time later he was married to Miss Henrietta Knooihuizen.
The two daughters, before their marriages, were Marnie and Mildred Lokker.

The funeral services are to be held today, Friday, at 1:00 p. m.

HOLLAND PASTOR GETS CALL FROM LOS ANGELES

Rev. Henry D. Terkurst, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, received a unanimous invitation Wednesday from Hope Reformed church of Los Angeles, Calif., to become its pastor. Terkurst was pastor of Bethany Reformed church, Grand Rapids, before coming to Holland seven and one-half years ago.

John Olert of 56 West 16th St. Holland grocer, was ill at his home Thursday.

sent its annual dance recital on

JAMES DE YOUNG AGAIN HEADS BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS

Mr. James De Young, for many years a member of the board of public works, was re-elected chairman of the board at an organization meeting in the city hall Monday night. He has served in the capacity of chairman since 1928.

JAMES DE YOUNG
Chairman Board of Public Works

From the founding of the board in 1893 to 1898, Mr. De Young was a member of the board, from 1898 until 1910, superintendent, and since 1920 a member. The report of the board for 1936 was dedicated to Mr. De Young for faithful services rendered during all his years of affiliation with the board.

From the home. These rites will be private. There will be public services at 1:30 p. m. from Hope Reformed church, Rev. Henry J. Voltman of Grand Rapids, and Rev.
Paul E. Hinkamp of Hope College, officiating. Rev. Voltman was a former pastor of Mr. Lokker when he was still a member of First Reformed church.

Interment will take place in the family plot in Pilgrim Home Cemtery. Friends were privileged to pay their last respects on Thursday, when the remains lay in state during the afternoon and evening at the Lokker home, at 12th St. and Washington Blvd.

The bearers will be Peter Boven,
John Zoerman, intimate friends;
John Streuring, John Kobes, Ed
Barkel, and Gilmer Boven, all identified with the Lokker-Rutgers Co.
The floral tributes from home and abroad were many and beautiful, indicative of the love and esteem in which this Holland merchant and local citizen was held by everyone.

The survivors are the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Herbert Menery of Nashville, Michigan, and Mrs. Jay Vande Bunte of Lansing. Three grandchildren, and one great grandchild also survive.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of the Nibbelink-Notter morticians.

COUNCIL NOTES

Rev. Wm. Van't Hof, pastor of the Third Reformed Church, opened the council meeting with prayer.
This was an important meeting,
where the outgoing aldermen retired, and the incoming aldermen took their places.

The message of Mayor Henry Geerlings appears on the next page of this issue.

The elected and re-elected aldermen and mayor, who took their oaths of office are the following:
Henry Geerlings, Mayor; Aldermen:
Henry Prins, "Casey" Kalkman,
Martin Oudemool, Henry Ketel,
John Menken, and Frank Smith.
They all arose as they were sworn in by City Clerk Oscar Peterson.

Maurice Mills was granted a license to put in an ice cream plant at 206 College Ave. near 8th St.
Charles J. Cunningham was also given a license to sell soft drinks
in his billiard parlor on East 8th St.

Ald. Drinkwater made a protest to the street committee, stating that 3rd St. to the sewer disposal plant was in very bad condition and that it should be improved.
The street committee will make a tour of inspection and report at the next meeting.

Ald. Prins brought up a matter of John Van Beek, living on East 14th St. He stated that there was $67 in taxes against the property and he was willing to deed his property over to the city if the city could help him along a little in his old age. The motion of Prins, seconded by Ald. Vogelzang was carried.

Ald. Drinkwater of the building committee stated that the Witvliet house, directly south of the City Hall, has been painted and is in good condition. This property up to the corner of 12th St. belongs to the City of Holland.

A light will be put in at the intersection of 32nd St. and Columbia Ave. at the request of the citizens there.

The Tulip Time Committee asks that the mayor and common council march in the parade on Saturdays during the Festival, when gi-gantic parades will be staged. Heretofore, the gowns were rented from Hope College. It was decided to purchase the gowns after this.
Some of the aldermen wanted to know whether they could not simply march in civilian clothes, but that was objected to, for that would take away the Dutch Burgemeester complex, and Mayor Geerlings is all set for the occasion. The Tulip Time Committee also asked that from now on and until after the Tulip Festival, all applications for licenses coming either to the city clerk or the chief of police, be referred to the Chamber of Commerce committee. Since the inception of Tulip Time certain concessions have been kept out of the streets are free of hot dog stands, balloon peddlers, and the selling of cheap trinkets. The celebration has been kept a dignified Festival and is not a "circusy" ballyhoo affair.
And let's keep it that way! The Council turned this matter over to the Chamber of Commerce for the next few weeks. The Tulip Time Committee, through Ald. Brouwer, will endeavor to prevent beer wagons from parading over the streets
during the Tulip Festival. Mr.
Brouwer stated that certain companies persist in parading down the streets with their outfits constantly since they were barred from parades after the first year.
Mr. Brouwer said no other firm has capitalized on this Festival, and why certain beer firms should do this, he would like to know. He also stated that these flaring beer
signs were not the thing to parade in a Festival in which the youth of Holland was principally taking part. Mr. Brouwer's motion was supported by Ald. Henry Prins and was unanimously carried. The firms of Holland selling the beverage
will be asked to co-operate since,
of course, there is no law that could prevent any vehicle from using the streets.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

On looking over the Annual Statement we discover that Mayor
Patrick McBride's bill for his trip to St. Louis, Mich., to investigate the Electric Light question was higher than were the expenses of the others in the party. The City Attorney volunteers the information that the dignity of the office and our commonwealth must be maintained, and that "Mc" recognized this fact and purchased a good cigar for a dime—so that's that. Note—Mayor McBride was the father of Charles McBride. Holland fifty years ago became electric-light-minded and it wasn't long after that when we purchased the Wolverine Light Plant, just beginning commercial lighting—and that was the beginning of our fine municipal plant of today.

Frank Van Ry has given up his night watchman's job and will as mate on the schooner R. Kan-nars. Note—Chief Van Ry's father, Bass Van Ry, was captain of this large two-masted sailing vessel.

A. Steketee's store was burglarized and Sheriff Arie Wolman and City Marshal Ed Vaupell went on a tour of investigation. They entered the Chicago and West Michigan Railroad yards and saw two bags protruding from under an old building. Opening the sacks, they found large quantities of silk, which Mr. Steketee identified as belonging to the store. Note—Mr.
Steketee was the father of Andrew and Henry Steketee, now conducting the store, a firm that has been in the family for three score years.

SIXTY YEARS TODAY

Four of Saugatuck's little girls,
Abbie Wheeler, Ida Nies, Katy Nies and Fannie De Vries, between the ages of 10 and 13, started for Holland on foot Saturday last, to spend their vacation with friends at that place.—Lake Shore Commercial. Note—The Nies girls were closely related to Ray Nies, the Holland hardware dealer.

Our City Clerk, Mr. Jan Roost, has moved and is at present residing on the corner of Second and River Streets, near his brickyard.
We mention this so that citizens wishing to be accommodated on official business can find him there.
Note—The brickyard was along the incline where the Donnelly-Kelly Glass Co. is now located. In the early days brick was manufactured there. Mr. Roost was one of our early Mayors as well as a legislator at Lansing.

Mr. Engbertus Vander Veen has started to build up one of his two prospective stores, for which foundations were laid last year. He is building the one on the corner for his hardware store in conjunction with his tin and coppersmith works and stoves, which he recently added. As soon as he has a renter for the second store he will proceed to build that one. Note: These are the stores on the southeast corner of River Ave. and 8th St. The corner building has been used for a hardware store for 55 years. First by the late Mr. Vander Veen, the pioneer "locksmit", as he was called in those early days; and later the son, J. A. Vander Veen, who passed away last October, conducted the business for many years.

In recent years the late A. Arend Sierma and Richard Van der Hove were in charge of the Corner Hardware and conducted this at the old stand until recently. Today the Corner Hardware is on River Ave., with Mr. Van Taten
Hove as proprietor, and the corner store was rented to Brink and Schulling, grocers, who a few weeks ago discontinued the business. The second store, built in 1879, for several years contained a dry goods store. Fifty-seven years ago Dan Berckman, father of Fred Berckman, Lakeshore Drive, conducted a store of that type there for a long time. Later Henry Streng had a similar store there, followed by A. J. Kramer, a Jewish merchant.
It has been occupied by the Boston restaurant, and Buehler's market for some time. Today, Post Jewelry has turned it into a commodious emporium. The Holland City News, under the present management,
rented the second floor of the Vander Veen building, 47 years ago.
Two years later the Boot and Kramer Grocery, directly east, was built by the late Peter Boot and John Kramer, and the News moved in on the second floor of the new building and has been in that location ever since—now well in the 46th year. No firm "under the same management" can make that claim in Holland. There are other firms occupying the same site that long, but other than carrying on. For instance, T. Keppel and Sons, Main and Cedar, now College and 8th;
A. Steketee and Sons, dry goods,
East 8th St.; G. Van Putten Grocery and Van Putten, dry goods,
River Ave.; De Kraker and De
Koster market, River Ave.; James
A. Brouwer, furniture, River Ave.
Not so many years later Du Maz-Bros., Lokker-Rutgers, Nies Har-dare, and a few others came, but in these firms many changes occurred over the years, through death and other causes.
These names, however, have been prominent on the business street for four decades. The Nies Har-dare Co. is celebrating its 71st birthday. However, that firm for a time was located in Saugatuck, but moved here at least 40 years ago.

Barney Cook, senior member of the Cook Mutual House, passed away at Holland Hospital after an operation. He was 45 years old and has been with this firm since its inception 16 years before. It took five telegrams to different sources to bring pressure to bear on officers to allow young Herman Cook, a soldier in Signal Corps in Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. Carolina, to attend the rites of his father. He arrived while the funeral was in progress. However Army rules nearly prevented him from attending. Note—Herman Cook, the soldier, is now on the Holland Post Office staff.

Merrick Hanchett, manager of the Federal Baking Co., announces that plans have been completed for a new bakery to be built on the corner of 17th St. and Cleveland Ave., just opposite the recently completed West Michigan Laundry.
The building permit called for a building 101 feet long, one story, costing approximately $20,000. The bakery will be devoted absolutely to wholesale trade and will have a capacity of 350 loaves of bread every 40 minutes. The Federal Baking Co. was formerly on East 8th St., doing a wholesale and retail business, but today it will be exclusively wholesale. Note—The Federal Baking has been in its new location for nearly ten years now,
and is still under the management of Merrick Hanchett, who has ably conducted its affairs. The enterprise has grown steadily from the first, and the tenth anniversary is now in order.

Joe Rhea, president of the Holland Fish and Game Protective Association, states the contract for the building of a fish nursery east of the city has been let. William Bronckhorst will start a crew of men Monday, digging the first pond, and this will be filled with the small stream of spring water located on the property, purchased by the local club. The stream is a tributary of Black River. Frank Dyke has the contract for the concrete spill-way and dam, which will be approximately 100 feet long. The pond will be six feet deep. This pond will have a capacity for at least 50,000 black bass to be planted in June. Another pond of like size will contain 50, 000 blue gills next season. Note—Since that time a third pond has been dug, and during the past ten years this property on the Zeeland road has been converted into a beautiful show place, well planted with trees, and will soon be converted into a public park. Necessary buildings have also been erected on the Holland Fish and Game

considerable money and growing in value every year. This has been made possible through the lowly called it Prospect Park, between 22nd and 24th streets. The News campaigning hard for this only remaining natural forest. However, it lost by a vote of 440 to 870—the majority against was 430. Enterprising citizens, however, bought the property and held it until the citizens had a change of heart, which came a few years later. Holland has owned Prospect Park for 35 years—surely worth 4,000

"bucks" it seems.

Henry J. Dykhouse, Republican, defeated John Dyke, Democrat, by 25 votes in the city for Town Marshal. Note—Henry Dykhouse later was elected as Sheriff and then became Chief of Police of Holland.
Mr. Dyke was the brother of contractor, Frank Dyke, and passed away many years ago. He was alderman at one time. During that same election Jacob G. Van Put-ten, head of the Holland Furniture Co., was defeated for Mayor by a banker, Gorm W. Mokma, cashier of the First State Bank. His majority was 130.

Architect "Jim" Price is minus his new wheel. While inside the Grace Episcopal Church, he left it near the entrance and some sinner rode off with it.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

P. H. Brouwer, janitor of the First Reformed Church of Zeel-
and, discovered an old Dutch Psalm book in a church seat with the following inscription written on the fly-leaf:—"Hindrik Kranz
—zijn boek—Slidenen Nederland, 28 Junij, 1829." Unless the book is claimed it will be presented to the Old Settlers' Ass'n, as a relic. Note:
It would seem that the volume was brought over by a pioneer from
The Netherlands and was taken to Church by the owner who followed the minister reading the chapter, and also turned to the text and the Psalms. The Bible was as much a part of the things to be remembered before going to church as a handkerchief is today. In 1838 few worshippers are seen with Bibles in hand going to church. Forty years ago it was

Young Student Meets Death On College Field

JULIAN ARENDSHORST HIT BY DISCUS WHILE PRACTICING ON HOPE'S ATHLETIC TRACK

Coroner's Verdict is "Accidental Death"; Funeral Rites in Hope
Memorial Chapel This Afternoon

A glance at Carnegie gymnasium
on Hope's campus was held indirectly responsible Tuesday for the death of Julian Frank Arendshorst, 19, college freshman, known intimately to his friends as "Juke."
Arendshorst was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arendshorst, Sr., of 118 East Ninth St. He died at Holland hospital Tuesday night at 9:50
as a result of a fatal wound received when he was struck on the head by a discus previously at 5:45 p. m., on the college athletic field.

Had the shout not attracted Arendshorst's attention, he might have been in a different position at the time the accident took place.

A PAGE TO BE DEDICAT- ED TO JULIAN ARENDS- HORST

Harold Leestma, editor of the Hope College Milestone, student annual, announces today that a full page will be placed in the coming publication, dedicated to Julian Arendshorst, who met accidental death on the campus athletic field Tuesday evening.

his friends conjectured today.
Arendshorst was in street clothes
when he was struck by the discus, which was thrown by an intimate friend, Don Popen of this city, a sophomore at Hope. Previously he had been running around the track on the field in preparation for the fraternity meet to be held on the local campus in the early part of May.

Julian had just challenged Popen and Martin Bekken, also of Holland, to a contest with the discus. Bekken, who is a freshman, was standing within a few feet of Arendshorst when the latter was struck by the discus, and Julian fell at his side in an unconscious condition.

The discus, a nationally recognized piece of track equipment, is a round disk, about 9 inches in diameter, composed of a center of metal, a layer of wood, and then a 3/4 inch layer of metal again surrounding the outside. Standard weight of the discus is slightly more than 6 pounds. The discus which struck Arendshorst had been thrown 80 feet. The blunt end of the instrument struck him just above the right ear. Had the sharp end struck him, it is likely that the resulting gash would have caused instant death. The accident occurred at the southwest corner of the field, which lies along 12th St.
between College and Columbia

Jack Jalving, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jalving of this city, bedside nurse, and other friends who were at the scene, rushed the injured youth to Holland hospital, where Drs. Otto Vander Velde and R. H. Nichols attended him. No signs of a fracture were evident,
and when the News put in a call about 9 p. m., Tuesday, to the hospital, information was released from that point that an X-ray would be taken Wednesday morning.
Death was unexpected.

A sharp piece of the skull, driving through the wall of the main artery, puncturing it, and causing a hemorrhage at the base of the brain was blamed for death. In a semi-conscious state at the hospital, Arendshorst was never again
fully conscious, although he recognized his brother, William, at his bedside prior to death, he was resting quietly.

Difficulty was experienced in contacting the young man's father
Tuesday night, since he was in Buchanan, where he has recently acquired business interests. Mr.
Arendshorst arrived about 1 a. m.
Wednesday.

Death came as a blow to local college students, among whom Julian was one of the foremost, and one of the most popular leaders in his class. Members of the family and witnesses and principals of the accident were grief-stricken.

Arendshorst was an ardent sportsman. He had already won letters in both college football and baseball.

Our Potato Crop

Common white potatoes used to be called "Irish potatoes" probably for the reason that they kept the people of Ireland from starving during the great famine. Also, of course, the potato has served the poor people of Ireland well ever since.

Fortunately Michigan never has been visited by a famine and is among the foremost agricultural states that check too great production by bargaining with the Federal Government. But there may be a degree of assurance in the fact that a relatively small area of Michigan farm land properly tilled would produce potatoes enough to keep the entire population well above the starvation line.

Last year 64 Michigan farmers qualified for membership in the 300 Bushel Potato Club. That doesn't mean that they raised a garden patch of potatoes that produced at the 300-bushel rate. Every one of those 300-bushel Potato Club members raised at least 10 acres and their average production rate was 384 bushels to the acre. Every one of such acres would keep a number of families in potatoes with a margin over to buy other foodstuffs.

An Apparent Anomaly

A good many Americans, and a good many Canadians, too, we suspect, will be surprised to learn that clergymen, as such, are barred from membership in the New Brunswick legislature.

A section of the Provincial Elections Act declares "a priest or ecclesiastic under any form of faith or religious worship whatsoever" to be ineligible as a member of the Legislative Assembly.

A new Elections Act is under consideration in New Brunswick and the St. John Evangelical Alliance is opposing the inclusion of this provision in it.

The disbarment of clergymen dates back to 1889, at least, appearing in the Election Acts of that year and of 1903, 1916 and 1927.

A provision of this sort is easily carried over from one law to the next if it is not challenged.

Why it was enacted in the first place would be interesting to discover.

The people of New Brunswick are in most things loyal observers of the British tradition, which permits clergymen of the Church of England to sit in high places at Westminster.

TELLS OF POSTER CONTEST

A poster contest is to be sponsored locally by the Holland Post Office in connection with National Air Mail Week, which is to be celebrated May 15-21 throughout the nation. Rural carriers will encourage all people living on their routes to send at least one air mail letter during the week. City dwellers will also be asked to co-operate in swelling the air mail carried during the week. Postmaster Louis J. Vanderburg has announced.

The contest is to be conducted among high school, grade school, and college students, in those colleges at least, where art courses are offered. The contest closes on the last day of April. Posters must deal with air mail, present or future. The completed posters must be mailed to the state chairman of the National Air Mail Week Poster contest, in care of the local postmaster. Details of the contest may be procured from Postmaster Vanderburg.

BURGLARS MAKE RAIDS ON BUSINESS PLACES

Robberies at A.I.'s Place, at the intersection of 16th and 17th St., at Montelle Park and at the Superior Pure Ice and Machine Co. at 28th Lake St., were being investigated today by Holland police in collaboration with Deputy Sheriff William Van Etta.

Al Wigerink, proprietor of A.I.'s Place, discovered the robbery about 6:30 a. m. Wednesday, while Chester Hill, an employee at the Superior Ice Co. discovered the robbery at that place about 5:30 a. m., also on Wednesday. Rabbit meat was the loot at the latter place, while the loot taken from A.I.'s place included groceries, cigarettes, cigars, soap, and beer.

BODY OF MAN DROWNED TWO WEEKS AGO FOUND

The body of Harold Sheldon, age 26, who was drowned in Grand River on April 2, was recovered near the Grand Trunk railway bridge, Grand Haven, and the Construction Aggregate Co. by Sgt. Earl Sceriat and Trooper Casemier Supak, state police, and David Lyons.

Henry Rosema, Ferryburg, walking on the railroad trestle, noticed something floating on the water and believed it to be a body. He notified the state police officers, who secured a boat and then drew the body ashore.

Sheldon's body was badly decomposed. It was fully clothed with the exception of boots. He was drowned about noon on April 2 as he was attempting to ferry a load of coal from the mainland, near Spring Lake, to an island in the river about a mile east of the U. S. 31 swing bridge. He had been living at the home of John Dreese there and Mrs. Dreese who was on the island bank, saw the boat capsize in the choppy water and after a struggle Sheldon went down.

The state police were notified and they with the crew at the Grand Haven coast guard station dragged the river that day and several days after. The boat was found some side yesterday. The funeral services were held yesterday.

TULIP ACTIVITIES BEGINNING TO BUD

A meeting of the Tulip Time executive committee at 4 p. m. Monday in Warm Friend Tavern at the Chamber of Commerce office, resulted in the formulation of additional plans for the fête. Additional appointments were made to the committee by President of the Chamber of Commerce, Vaudie Vandenberg. They include Mrs. George Pelgrim, Mrs. Don Zwemer, Mrs. Jack Bos, Mrs. Peter Van Dornen Jr., and Mrs. Lloyd Heasley.

A number of reports were made, indicating that the Exchange club will enter a float in the parade, that Orie S. Grant is chairman of the Rotary club Tulip Time committee, and that the Grand Rapids Camp Fire drum and bugle unit has been asked to enter the parade. Mrs. J. E. Telling is in charge of the first day's program. School teachers and professional men have been asked to don Dutch costumes for the festival. Boy tumbler, under the direction of Joseph Moran, will participate in the Village Green program.

Charges that the Chamber of Commerce was charging fees for listing tourist homes for the festival were declared "absurd" by the Chamber of Commerce, since listing is done free of charge.

MAYOR GEERLINGS SUGGESTS PARKING METERS MIGHT BE TRIED OUT

Upon suggestion of Mayor Henry Geerlings, the board of police and fire commissioners at their regular meeting Monday afternoon discussed the plausibility of the placing of parking meters throughout congested areas in the city. The plan was suggested in an effort to reduce traffic congestion problems in Holland, the mayor asserted. He outlined a plan whereby a company would install 65 meters without charge. These meters for one cent would allow 15-minute parking, for two cents, 30-minute, and for four cents, hour parking. The city would collect one-fourth of the proceeds until the bill has been paid to the company, the company applying three-fourths on the cost of the machines.

Commissioner Albert Hyma contended that the system, if introduced, would create another tax for the people. Police Chief Frank Van Ry suggested a municipal parking lot as a solution to congestion, since he believed, if the machines were installed, two extra police officers would have to be hired to police the meters.

Chief Van Ry emphasized the importance of the board's filling the present vacancy on the police force, thus allowing an additional man for motorcycle duty with the summer motorcycle patrol schedule going into effect May 1. Hyma also suggested a motorcycle patrol on congested streets on Saturday and Sunday nights. The parking meter proposal and the motorcycle matter were referred to the committee on traffic and parking by Chairman Donnelly.

Application of Morris Donnelly, 34, of 138 East Eighth St. for a police officer position was filed. On April 30, at 9:30 a. m., it was announced, J. J. Riemersma, Holland high school principal, will conduct an examination of men who seek police department jobs. Applicants must be below 35 years of age. The five highest will submit to physical examinations, and will be retained as a list from which the board will pick the officers.

Bids for fire truck tires from seven Holland firms were filed. Officers' fees of $12.20 for March were reported collected by Justice John Galien. A letter, received by Fire Chief Cornelius Blom, Jr., stating that Deputy Ray C. Conlon would confer with him in regard to the condemning of a building on the property of Mrs. Peter Wilms on River Ave., was read by City Clerk Oscar Peterson.

Standing committees for the year were announced by Chairman Donnelly as follows: Prins (chairman), Stokete and Kamferbeek; personnel, Hyma (chairman), Kamferbeek and Donnelly; traffic and marking, Stokete (chairman), Prins and Hyma; patrols and electric signs, Kamferbeek (chairman), Hyma and Prins; equipment and buildings, Donnelly (chairman), Stokete and Kamferbeek.

Representatives of the Holland Music club at the 22nd annual convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs at Bay City, April 27 to 30, will be Miss Ruby Hughes, president of the local club, and Miss Hazel De Meyer, vice president. Mrs. R. B. Champion, member of the Holland club, also plans to attend the convention.

Application for a building permit has been made at the office of City Clerk Oscar Peterson at the city hall by Alvin Palmer, 82 West Ninth St., who seeks to remodel his kitchen at an estimated cost of $30.

THE ARKANSAS WOODCHOPPER COMING TO HOLLAND NEXT WEDNESDAY

The Arkansas Woodchopper—his millions of fans have shortened it to "Arkie"—likes to mingle with folk, so folk just naturally like him. For nearly seven years, Arkie has been one of the most popular entertainers on WLS. He is coming to Holland Armory Wednesday, April 27, to make a personal appearance, matinee and night.

If you see a sandy-haired lad wearing a khaki shirt, riding breeches and high-top boots, it's probably Arkie. If he's surrounded by a big crowd, you can bet it's Arkie signing his autograph for enthusiastic fans. He probably holds an autograph signing record among cowboy singers.

Arkie sings and he yodels and he laughs; and his listeners agree that there's something so contagious about his laugh that they just can't resist laughing, too. People dance to his bidding for he calls square dances on the WLS-NBC National Barn Dance every Saturday night—a program heard on over 60 stations from New York to Honolulu.

A native of the Ozark section, he has plowed corn, milked cows, pitched bundles and built fires in the range on cold winter mornings. He taught himself to play a fiddle and guitar so that he could take part in the old-time square dances that were the chief entertainments down in his part of the country. Among Arkie's radio fan friends, he numbers elderly ladies, hero-worshipping boys, and real he-men, in addition to his feminine admirers, who find this young, handsome and single lad attractive.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

— Official —

To the Members of the Common Council and Citizens of Holland: Tonight we enter upon another term of service. It is always an inspiring thought to me that there are so many men and women in every walk of life who are willing to give of their time to the welfare of our community. The citizens of this community have again given us a vote of confidence. They are looking to us to guard the interests of our city.

The past year has been one of modest but sure progress. It has been that kind of a year for Holland because Holland is that kind of a city. There are some cities that are always going through crises of one kind or another. Our city is not of that type. We have experienced no labor difficulties. There has been no industrial war. We have gone forward in a quiet way. Nothing sensational has happened. We have minded our own business and we have enjoyed a substantial prosperity. We have grown the way a lusty boy grows who is in the full vigor of health and well-being. There has been a steady increase in community wealth based on the sound theory that work will produce goods and goods is wealth.

The banks have grown. Savings deposits have increased. Substantial payments have been made on homes. Buildings have been improved and new ones have been erected. Additional parks have been laid out. Appropriations have been made for additional playground equipment, so that the boys and girls in every part of the city will have opportunity for play. Night ball games have been played in Riverview Park during the summer. Hundreds of people have witnessed these games and enjoyed them immensely.

Home and industrial construction during the past year, the most active in seven years, set a new record for the fifth consecutive year and almost doubled figures of the previous year. 339 permits were issued, totalling $340,457. Including the subdivision adjoining the city, the number of homes built brings the total to exceed the hundred mark. Construction of the new building for the H. J. Heinz Company was the biggest undertaking.

The year 1937 has brought Holland prominently into the ranks of oil producing centers, with promise of large expansion. At the close of the year there were fifty-two producing wells in Allegan County with ten drilling operations going on. Nearly half a million dollars worth of oil has been produced since the discovery well was drilled. More than a hundred thousand dollars has been paid out in wages. Substantial financial benefits have come to Holland from this industry.

Perhaps the outstanding event of the year was the letting of the Government contract for the construction of a permanent channel in connection with the improvement of the east end of Lake Macatawa. The amount involved is $130,000 which will be paid by the Government. A temporary channel will be constructed at the outset at a cost of ten thousand dollars, of which the city will pay four thousand dollars and the Lyons Construction Company, six thousand. The improvement will add considerable new shore line to the city's property and will also enlarge the holdings of property owners along the east shore. Improvements will be made at easy stages and within a convenient financial scope. Employment will be given to about fifty men during the length of the contract. This fact is certainly a boon to many families as well as to the city itself. I appreciate the fact that our people are in hearty accord with this project. This amount of money will also dredge out the lagoon at the eastern end of Kollen Park to a depth of six feet, providing a suitable place for the anchoring of lake craft, as well as providing a suitable beach with a sand bottom extending for a distance of 200 feet along the shoreline and 30 feet into the lagoon. The budget carries an item of $500 for constructing a crib in the lake which will house intake pipes used to draw water into the park's sprinkling system. The present intake has been unsatisfactory because previous dredging operations in front of the dock resulted in materials into the lagoon behind the dock, causing the intakes to become clogged. The original plan of the park board was to extend the intakes further into the lake. The Lyons Company proposes to make this improvement along the shoreline and place the intakes in service again without moving them to another location for the appropriation.

The speeding mania is still with us. As I watch the traffic from time to time I am amazed that there are not more deaths than there are. Drivers of cars and pedestrians alike are taking many chances. It is my conviction that the continuing slaughter and maiming of human beings on the streets and highways of this country is part and parcel of our bewildered, ruthless and unspiritual age. As a people we do not hold in high respect the holy commandment of all ages and of all religions—thou shalt not kill. We do not seem to honor, in practice, the common tenet of all peoples that man's first duty is to protect his neighbor as himself. These strictures are not based upon a condition that is unavoidable. It is well established by now that a high percentage of motor accidents might be prevented. The appalling list shows civilization. It exceeds all reason. It violates all the laws of God and man. It is right, of course, to go on trying to inculcate the spirit of safety and inspire and educate drivers and pedestrians, but the present condition is such that patience may lack virtue. For once we might go to the root of this evil, as a people demanding that it be brought under control by the same forces that we use to combat other anti-social conditions which fill our world with needless dangers, suffering and grief. Recklessness is a species of crime and should be so regarded in reference to automobile driving and pedestrianism. Unavoidable accidents are bad enough, but the ever-rising tide of death and injury which traces directly to individual irresponsibility and lack of law and order, should arouse public indignation.

Your honorable body took a forward step in passing a resolution to engage appraisal engineers to revalue our industrial and commercial properties. This matter has been in my mind for some time but I hesitated to advance it for financial reasons. The Holland Furnace Company was greatly interested in a move of this kind and voluntarily made the statement that they would pay one half of the total cost. Assessed valuation is the very foundation of our taxation system. Many cities in this and other states have had appraisals made, and the administrators of these towns are more than satisfied with the results achieved. Their testimonials are convincing. The Clemenshaw Company comes very highly recommended, and I believe that our constituents will heartily endorse our action. Thoroughly competent and experienced staffs are selected to meet the particular requirements of each municipality.

There is a Good Neighbor movement on foot in some cities which, it seems to me, has considerable merit. Up to this time we have been very fortunate in being able to provide for all the families that needed support. But it is possible that in the days to come our relief load will mount. Our citizens have responded splendidly when the community chest campaign was on. We went over the top by a good margin. The funds have been applied to the various groups that applied. However, occasions may arise when we will have to play the role of the Good Samaritan. Those of us who are better situated can render splendid service to those not so favored. One human being is the same as another when it comes to the matter of need and sympathy and helpful ministry. There should be no stop signals to the ministry of human hearts and human hands. Genuine religion never quibbles about its duties in the face of genuine need.

The youth problem is still with us. It is important that the problem be squarely faced by every citizen. The statement was made the other day that we will have the kind of country in 1950 that we deserve to have, and the kind of country we shall have in 1950 depends on the kind of men and women we are today. Youth are determined to be. It is a hopeful sign today that so many adults are interested in youth. Youth has always had its problems. Today, however, they rise in a new social setting. At a time when our standard of living is high, thousands of youth are homeless; when we are providing the young with extended educational opportunities, our college and high school graduates are unable to use their added skill in service to mankind; when the army is equipped both physically and mentally for useful work, they are unable to find jobs. And youth feels it keenly. The great problem, however, is not to do something for youth, but to help youth do something for themselves.

Holland's financial standing today is high—very high. This is due largely to the economical management of all the boards. Our aim has been to live within our means. The budget is intact. There has been no waste. The policy of economy has been practiced continuously. Equipment that was needed has been purchased. Necessary improvements have been made. At the close of the fiscal year our balance was $76,000.00. This amount will carry us through until the next period. The Board of Education has retired 71 thousand-dollar bonds, 46 of which have been paid before they were due. The Board of Public Works has a very substantial balance. I am sure the whole citizenry of Holland deeply appreciates the efficient services of the members of this Board.

In closing may I express my deep appreciation to your honorable body for faithful and loyal co-operation. You have rendered a real service to our community, and this is true of all the members of all the boards of the city. They have co-operated one hundred percent. After all that is the only way results can be obtained. Co-operation is nothing more than voluntary democratic common action for common ends. It cuts both ways. It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who give it.

One of our number retires. He has been a faithful and conscientious alderman. He has given unstintingly of his time. Mr. Bultman deserves a vote of appreciation for what he has done. Faithful in attendance and devoted to duty he has rendered splendid service. We will miss him in our deliberations. His counsel has been valuable. A word of welcome may not be amiss to the two newly-elected aldermen Mr. Ketel and Mr. Menken. I can assure you that you will find your associates very agreeable and pleasant to work with.

Very cordially yours,

HENRY GEERLINGS.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

The next Post meeting will be held next Wednesday evening, April 27th.

The committee has asked that the meeting begin a little earlier than usual so that we may be ready for their program a little before nine o'clock. They are rather quiet about the whole thing, so we'd better abide by their wishes.

The Legion Boy Scout Troop is being re-organized under Mr. Stille as leader.

Members having the Legion Dutch costumes will please check them over as this group has been asked to appear for the Street Scrubbing act at the opening of the Tulip Festival.

Has anyone been around to look at the various tree plantings that the Post sponsored in the years gone by?

The American Legion Auxiliary will hold a regular meeting next Monday evening, April 25, in the Legion Club Room.

FORTY AND EIGHT TO HAVE "WRECK" IN HOLLAND SATURDAY

Holland residents were warned today that when they see prominent local and state legionnaires invade the city Saturday afternoon aboard "French bus cars," they will know that Ottawa Voiture 1183 of La Societe 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux is putting on a "wreck" with the assistance of "wrecking crews" from Voitures in Lansing, Grand Rapids, Muskegon and other neighboring towns.

Most of the grande officers, headed by Grande Chef de Gare H. G. Davis of Muskegon, will be here for the big event. The so-called "wreck" is the initiation of outstanding legionnaires into this "playhouse" of the American Legion. La Societe is commonly known as the "Forty and Eight," the members as "Voyageurs Militaire" and the candidates as "Poor Goofs."

As every veteran knows, the Forty and Eight is a secret society within the American Legion which goes in for fun in a big way. Being also an honor society it makes no membership campaign, offering its memberships to a selected few as a special privilege won by them through loyal service in the legion.

To advance the work of the American Legion is the real purpose of the Forty and Eight. The first national legion problem which drew the efforts of La Societe was the welfare of the children of dead and disabled veterans, and for this purpose it was given hundreds of thousands of dollars. The local organization for Ottawa County is called a "Voiture Locale" and is headed by Chief de Gare Cecil L. Seery. The conductor, Henry Geerds, is in charge of the "wreck" and he has appointed able committees to supervise all the activities.

The head dress of the "Voyageurs Militaire" are French chapeau adorned with beautiful medals showing the rank of the different Voyageurs. The "wrecking crew" from Lansing will give the degree work after the Grand Rapids crew has tortured the "Poor Goofs." To add to the slaughter there also will be "Poor Goofs" from Muskegon and Lansing.

Seventeen Thousands in Michigan Work Under Civil Service

"The popular conception of 9 out of 10 people in regard to civil service is that it is some wild-eyed form of government," William Brownrigg of Lansing, state personnel director in charge of the new civil service administration, informed members of the Holland Exchange club at their regular meeting in Warm Friend Tavern Monday noon. He continued in his explanation of the popular misconception by stating that civil service is not merely a way of keeping spoils out of government but "in addition to preventing spoils and patronage, we look upon it as plain, ordinary, common-sense business management of the problems of government."

Mr. Brownrigg stressed the importance of the increased regulation of life—activity by the government—"The tendency today is to get another law passed—to get another administration to pay for," he stated. "The people are paying taxes for the personal services of public servants and are paying plenty. These men and women are specialists and technicians in all fields of activity. About 70 per cent to 75 per cent of every tax dollar goes to meet the public payroll."

The speaker estimated that about 17,000 employees are drawing a total combined salary of over $25,000,000 of the taxpayers' money in this state alone. He also estimated that the total salary drawn by public servants, aside from employees of the federal public service is about $200,000,000.

Questions and problems facing the civil service recounted by the speaker were in part: How well qualified are the men who serve? Do they consider their employment as a career or as a job? Is the personnel management systematic? Is their record efficient? What are their working conditions? What salary should they draw? What about discipline in the civil service? Should employees retire on salary?

The present civil service bill, passed at the last long session of Congress in July became effective January 1. The bill is not ideal, but is workable, Mr. Brownrigg explained. In one particular instance it has cut costs amounting to $30,000,000 in one million dollars. The bill is not in perfect working condition because it is "attempting to regulate things never regulated before."

"We need the support of the citizens and taxpayers of the state of Michigan to enforce the bill and save the taxpayers' money," Mr. Brownrigg stated in conclusion. He pleaded for a greater degree of interest in the matter on the part of the taxpayers. He asked members of the Exchange club for suggestions on the salary to be paid positions under the civil service. He suggested that any improvement in the present system or any criticism of it be made by a "one-cent postcard" to the state civil service department at Lansing.

Dr. Wynand Wichers, president of Hope college, opened the meeting with prayer and President C. C. Wood presided. Guests of the club were David Jones, major of the U. S. army, from Detroit, and C. E. Walker, ex-governor of District No. 5 of Exchange, and Walter S. Gilbert, both of Sturgis. Mr. Walker is state convention chairman and Mr. Gilbert, city convention chairman. The state convention of Exchange to be held at Sturgis June 17 and 18. Mr. Gilbert, Sturgis Chamber of Commerce secretary, gave a brief resume of the two-day convention, and passed out printed literature in regard to the convention city.

Prof. A. E. Lampen's motion that the immediate past president become a member of the board of directors was carried. John Van Huis of the Tulip Time committee, and Andy Klompars of the costume committee for the occasion, announced plans for the coming festival. Special music was provided by the Hope College trio, composed of the Misses Mary Jane Vaupell, Gertrude Young, and Thelma Kookier, with Mrs. W. Curtis Snow serving as accompanist. They presented the selections, "Dark Eyes" and "Will You Remember" and, as encore, a nursery rhyme novelty number.

Dr. Wichers announced to the club the drive for membership being put on at present by the Netherlands Pioneer and Historical Foundation. He solicited the support of the Exchanges, and announced that Mr. Jake Fris is to be chairman of the drive. He recalled the discovery recently of a treaty between Governor Clinton and the Six Nations in 1804, now in the local museum. "This cultural heritage must be continued," he urged.

Election of officers, featured at last week's meeting resulted as follows: President, Marie Roos, who replaces Lillian Borchers, who was renounced trustee; senior vice-president, Anna Wajahn (re-elected); junior vice-president, Myrtle Lundie (re-elected); chaplain, Cora Ter Haar (re-elected); treasurer, Florence Tiesenga; conductress, Mamie Slag; and guard, Edith West.

New officers will be installed and appointive officers named at a potluck supper meeting April 28. Plans for a bridge and 500 party at Florence Tiesenga's home April 22, were discussed.

Results of the recent contest, sponsored by the organization, on the subject, "The Constitution of the United States and What It Means to the American People," were announced as follows: first, Marian Nienhuis of Christian High; second, Fritz Jonkman of Holland high; and third, Esther Lamson of Holland high. Awards totaled $10, $5 and $2.50, respectively. A group from the local auxiliary plans to go to Kalamazoo April 23 where they will hear Mrs. Laurie Schertel of Oakland, Calif., national president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, V.F.W. of the United States.

Mrs. Margaret Van Kalkan, who is ill at her home, is improving nicely. We hope to see her out very soon.

Next meeting—Thursday, April 28, 7:45 P. M. Installation of officers. Everybody out. Also final returns on our W.L.S. show.

After hibernating for about 3 months, Dutch Hank turned up in fine health, and the only one at our last meeting with his true colors, his V.F.W. cap.

We will take off our hats to the committees that put on that fine lunch at our last meeting. Hoping they lose again that they can duplicate that lunch.

Leave it to the Ladies' Auxiliary after the men gave up the job. The V.F.W. Auxiliary scouted around and found, and then presented the V.F.W. Post with a large size photograph of Henry Wolters, after whom the Post is named.

Peter Hardenberg was missing for a few meetings, but last meeting he told us he was busy planning a trip abroad in the near future, visiting France, Netherlands, Germany, Belgium and different battle fronts we were in during the World War. After going over our membership list, Pete decided to take our young, good-looking fellow, Fred Kolman, along as valet and body-guard.

Last meeting being for nomination and election of officers, we had a large turn-out. Our election was short and snappy, after which a few remarks were given the officers were all railroaded through by a unanimous vote to hold their office for a full term of one year instead of just the last 6 months.

Had a very interesting shuffle game after meeting. Westrate and Woudstra had an exhibition game, and Zealand put it all over Holland by the score of 107 to 9. Better practice up a little, Hank, Holland will show them under next time.

Fun Party, Friday, April 22, 8 P. M. Public invited. Seeing that we had a couple weeks rest, we ought to be good by this time.

By all the reports of the W.L.S. committee we ought to have the biggest turn-out Holland ever had at a W.L.S. show.

Our main feature of the W.L.S. show is the W.L.S. Quartette headed by Paul Nettings, formerly of Holland and a Hope College graduate.

Out of respect for Mr. Jacob Lokker, whose funeral will be held Friday afternoon, our store will be closed the afternoon of Friday, April 22nd.

CITY INSPECTOR ASKS THAT WE CLEAN UP FOR TULIP TIME

City Inspector Ben Wiersma asks that the Holland City News publish the annual message to rake up and clean up in time for the Tulip Festival. This is clean up time throughout the nation. All municipalities are calling attention to it. Holland is known throughout the nation as a clean town. They point out that we even scrub our streets in Tulip Time.

Now is the time to rake up the yard; to take away what has been deposited in the rear of the lot during the winter time—ash heaps, garbage pits, tin cans; and all those things that breed germs and attract swarming flies should be cleaned up. Nature is becoming more beautiful as spring advances—let us keep the surroundings as tidy. Let Holland continue to be the cleanest city in the country. Let us follow Mr. Wiersma's advice—clean up our premises, whether that be the back yard of a home or the back yard of a business block. It is conducive to good health, fire prevention, and at the same time, gives a great deal of satisfaction. Remember the old adage: "Cleanliness is next to Godliness."

streets when and as often as they please. These firms, however, should adhere to the request of the council and the Tulip Time Committee.

A request has been made by some of the merchants between College and Columbia Avenues, asking for one-hour parking. The matter will be taken up by the Police Board through the Street Committee.

An application to the army engineer's office at Milwaukee, Wis., seeking improvement on the eastern end of Lake Macatawa, was returned to the city because of certain minor errors in signatures attached. Ald. Edward Brouwer, told members of common council at Wednesday's council meeting. Several signatures for easements on shoreline property were in pencil, whereas they should have been in ink, and some failed to state whether they owned property or not. Yesterday all corrections had been made. Mr. Brouwer stated. Following the meeting of Brouwer's committee Monday night with the park and cemetery board, and the approval of the two units of Jack Lyon's proposition to improve the shoreline near Kollen Park, the committee adopted the plan, and a $500-allotment by the park and cemetery board for this purpose, was approved by council. Lyon, representative of the Lyons Construction Co., which holds the local harbor contract, went to Chicago Thursday to obtain the signature of the Armour Leather Co. sole signature lacking on the application. From Chicago, Mr. Lyons was to take the plan for approval to the engineer's office at Milwaukee. Mr. Brouwer indicated in his report that dredging on the local project was scheduled to get under way in the very near future.

A resolution was unanimously passed at a meeting of the common council last evening, commending the work of G. M. Laepple, at one time alderman, and up to the time of his death, a member of the Board of Public Works.

Holland's Annual Charity Ball Scheduled For April 22nd

At a committee meeting of the fifth annual charity ball committee at Warm Friend Tavern Monday afternoon, final plans for the ball were discussed. Hostesses for the meeting were the Mesdames Don Zwemer, Ervin Hanson, Reemer Boersma, and R. L. Schlecht.

The affair, which is to feature the music of King's orchestra, novelties, and a Tango exhibition by Phil Osterhouse, Grand Rapids dancing teacher, Mrs. Osterhouse, Jack Eleveld, and Miss Alta Marie Foster, will be presented in the armory tonight, Friday. People from nearby communities are expected to swell the local attendance to 250 couples. A number of dinner parties will precede the affair.

A gala occasion, involving several new features are promised for the ball by the committee. Since civic health work in the city is now sponsored by funds from the Community Chest, the ball is not being given because of financial need, although the chest board, in approving the ball, suggested that proceeds go toward the purchase of cod liver oil for babies. The ball is being put on because of demands of patrons in past years. The ball is one of the outstanding social affairs in Holland.

Committees in charge of ball arrangements follow: Tickets—Mrs. Willis Diekema, chairman, and the Mesdames R. W. Everett, S. W. Merriam, C. J. McLean, B. P. Donnelly, J. E. Telling, and Miss Rena Boven; music—Mesdames A. W. Tahaney and O. W. Lowry; posters, Mesdames James De Pre, C. Bergen and Charles Kirchen; decorations, Mesdames John Eaton, Don Zwemer, Willard Wichers, W. A. Butler and James Klomparsen; check room—Mesdames R. L. Schlecht and Reemer Boersma; refreshments—Mesdames George Van De Riet and Ervin Hanson; special features—Mesdames James De Pre, C. Bergen, S. W. Merriam; publicity—Mrs. J. J. Good.

A skating party will be held at Virginia Park skating rink tonight at 7:30 by the Young People's Christian Endeavor union of Holland.

HOLLAND STUDENT RECEIVES DESERVED PROMOTION

Word has been received at Hope College that, because of outstanding work at Ohio State University, Calvin Vander Werf, Hope graduate of 1937, has been promoted from graduate assistant to assistant in the Chemistry department. The promotion brings with it a raise of $300.00.

Mr. Vander Werf is working toward his Ph.D. degree and teaching University freshmen in the department of Chemistry.

Mrs. Drost, 168 E. 11th St., whose son, Alvin Drost, became involved in a matter with some other boys, for which he is being held, wishes to say that her son Alvin has always been a good boy and has never been involved in any wrongdoing before. The News is anxious to have the wishes of the earnest mother made public, thus allaying any wrong impression.

A regular meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 by the Golden Hour Bible society of Sixteenth St. Christian Reformed church, at the church.

WARD'S MANAGER BANQUETS EMPLOYEES

and a really pleasing social hour. Covers were laid for the following guests:—Ida Wyngaarden, Harold Niles, Katherine Galien, Henrietta Johnson, Edwin Lake, Gertrude De Ridder, Gordon Cogswell, Henrietta Bosch, Tom Lomasney, Muriel De Vries, Gertrude Bos, Paul Hume, Don Cavanaugh, John Straatsma, Viola Oosterbaan, John Timmer, Andrew Vinstra, Bessie Eiferdink, Fred Moore, A. Four Youths Plead Guilty
To Hold-up

JUDGE MILES TO METE OUT
SENTENCES TO MUSKOGON
BOYS MAY 2 FOR HOLDUP

Donald Hasselman, Robert Dick, Donald Bramer and Maurice Bush, Muskogon youths, pleaded guilty to charges of robbery armed in circuit court when arraigned before Judge Fred T. Miles of Holland.

They were remanded to the county jail where they have been since they were arraigned in justice court in lieu of heavy bonds of $5,000 each, to await May 2, which Judge Miles said would be the date on which he would mete out sentences.

The boys, ranging from 17 to 21 years of age, confessed to staging a thrill hold-up at Duncan Park on March 29, when Miss Angeline Mulder and J. P. O'Connor, member of the crew of the Escanaba, were robbed. An intercepted letter, revealed to the sheriff, showed the boys were planning a series of holdups and crimes as they believed they had dodged the law and they had successfully staged the Grand Haven holdup which they said was done to test their nerve and get the reaction of those held up.

William Hazebrook, 33, Grand Rapids, was sentenced from 18 months to two years at southern Michigan prison at Jackson, for breaking his probation when he was alleged to have unlawfully driven away a truck he was placed on probation Feb. 25, 1936, but according to Jack Spanger, probation officer, he had not made the proper reports.

Edward Overweg, 17, and George Bosch, 17, Noordeloos, Mich., entered pleas of guilty to breaking and entering a farm home near Holland. They confessed to breaking into the house four or five times and stealing a total of $50. They will be sentenced later.

Robert Bontekoe, 21, Holland, arrested for violation of his probation, was continued on his probation. He was arrested a year ago and pleaded guilty to unlawfully driving away an automobile. He had failed to report to the probation office but was given another chance to make good by Judge Miles.

Ted Petz, 23, Grand Rapids, was released on his own recognizance having pleaded guilty to wife and child desertion. He must return to court April 29 for sentence.

TWO YOUNG LADIES WIN IN ESSAY CONTEST PRIZE
GIVEN BY LOCAL BANKS

First and second place winners in an essay contest at Holland high school recently were Miss Bernice Oatmen and Miss Julia Bouws, respectively. Prizes, to be awarded at Commencement in June, amount to $10 and $5, according to announcement made by Clarence Jalving, cashier of the Peoples State Bank. "How a Bank Serves a Community" was the title of the essay, sponsored by the Holland State and Peoples State banks, and throughout the state by the Michigan Bankers' association. Dr. Eugene Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, heads the committee to judge the state contest. The state winner receives a $500 scholarship at the University of Michigan.

Judges of the local contest were Mr. Jalving, Dr. Edward D. Dimment, Hope College professor, and Cornelius Vander Meulen, local banker. In addition to being recipient of the scholarship, the state winner will read his essay before the Michigan Bankers' Association convention to be held at the Panti-lind Hotel, Grand Rapids, June 22 to 24.

Having won $17.50 in essay prizes of late, Miss Oatmen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Oatmen of rural route No. 5, was awarded a $5 prize in a contest sponsored by the Sons of the Revolution, and a $2.50 prize in a contest sponsored by the Life Underwriters' Association of Grand Rapids. Miss Oatmen is a senior at the local school, and ranks third in scholarship in her class.

Miss Bouws is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bouws of West Main St., Zeeland. She attended Zeeland high school until her senior year.

A travelogue on Bermuda was presented before members of the Holland-Rotary club at their regular meeting last Thursday noon by Charles Kirchen, member of the club, who, with Mrs. Kirchen, visited the islands last winter. Mr. Kirchen, in his address, stressed the importance of the Bermudas as a resort for Americans and other tourists. The largest island of the group was described as being "about 20 miles long, and two miles wide." It was once a pirate "hangout," the group was informed. Horses and bicycles are the most popular media for travel on the islands, since cars are not allowed. Large international golf tournaments are at times held on the islands, Mr. Kirchen stated. "The climate, except in February, is nice and lazy for vacationers," Mr. Kirchen concluded.

A week from next Monday, the new addition to the Dutch Novelty Shops at 85 River Ave., will be put into use, Chester Van Tongeren, proprietor of the shops, has announced. The $3,000 three-story structure will add about 7,000 square feet to the company's present manufacturing facilities. It is 36 to 64 feet. A new dry kiln has also been built at the plant recently.

Funeral services for Mrs. Myra Gray, 82, Virginia Park resident, who died Wednesday, were held Friday in Grand Harbor in charge of the Maccabees. A son, Frank, of Eau Claire, and a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Olinger of Grand Rapids, survive.

TRUCK OVERTURNS AND DOGS COME FOR MILES

A truck owned by the Rendering Co. of Muskegon, filled with collections made at slaughter houses and like places, tipped over at Gidley's bayou, near Waverly road, spilling the contents over the road, which attracted the dogs in that section for miles.

A Beers Motor Co. truck was called to right the truck. Masks will be worn next time, they say. Police were notified but did not get the name of the driver. He was reported to have been injured but investigation of the officers failed to reveal that he had been treated by either local physicians or at the hospital.

When the officers arrived they found the dogs had literally taken possession of things.

MICHIGAN SUGAR REPORTS
BIGGEST ACREAGE IN YEARS

The Michigan Sugar Co. is having the greatest success in years in signing up acreage for its five plants which will operate this year, according to G. S. Childs, executive vice-president.

At a farmers' meeting Friday he said that the company already had signed up 64,000 acres, compared with 48,000 last year, and that more was coming in.

Childs said that if sufficient interest were shown in growing the crop here, the Owosso plant, the largest owned by the company, probably would operate this fall.

Four New Faces
To Be Found On
Ottawa Board

Township and city elections in Ottawa county recently placed four new members on the board of supervisors, according to the returns. They are Neil DeCook, Abel Postma of Holland City, John Eiland of Holland Township, and Nicholas Cook, Zeeland city.

John Eiland, Holland township, defeated John L. Voelker, running on the Democratic ticket, by a two to one vote. He will replace Albert Hyma, a representative from Holland township who served on the board for 12 years and who did not seek re-election as he is moving out of the township.

Abel Postma, Holland city, was elected at the primaries when he defeated William Brusse; and Neil DeCook from Holland city defeated Ray Nies and Herman Van Tongeren in a three corner race. Edward Soule, Grand Haven, appointed assessor last February will take his place on the board to succeed Peter Ryenga.

Others Re-elected
The remaining supervisors in the townships were re-elected and Mayor Richard L. Cook and Gerrit Yntema, Zeeland city, were re-elected so that when the board convened Monday, April 11, for reorganization there were four new faces on the board.

Gerrit Bottema, Spring Lake, who had no opposition, was re-elected as were Frank Hendrych of Grand Haven township, Casmer Saapinski of Robinson township and Hunter Hering, Crocker township.

The remaining successful candidates are Justin Zystra, Allendale; William Havedink, Blendon; John Hassold, Chester; Charles Lowing, Georgetown; Dick Smallegan, Jamestown; Albert Stegenga, Olive township; George Heneveld, Park; John Ter Avest, Polkton; Frank Garbrecht, Port Sheldon; Henry Slaughter, Tallmadge; Lester Martin, Wright.

In the cities Philip Rosbach and Charles E. Misner, Grand Haven; Henry Geerlings and Peter H. Van Ark, Holland and Elbert Parsons and Gerrit Yntema make up the rest of the board, including 28 members.

On the board of supervisors now are two Cooks and one DeCook. Charles Lowing, chairman, made his committee appointments published in our last issue.

Mrs. J. Rotman and Mrs. M. S. Spychkovsky of Montclair, Pa., were present Thursday evening at a meeting of the Wesleyan Methodist Ministerial Association, held at Allendale.

BEECHWOOD BOOSTERS
FOR MUSEUM

Members of a committee of the Beechwood Boosters' club, which committee is to canvass the Beechwood territory in the interests of the membership drive now being sponsored by the Netherlands Pioneer and Historical Foundation, are John De Wilde, C. White, Dick Ter Beek, H. Hansen, and Fred Bocha. Martin Verburg, manager of the drive, addressed the group at their meeting Friday night.

The Boosters' club of the community was addressed on the drive Wednesday night. An invitation was delivered to Erutha Rebekah Lodge, No. 27, which was in convention here Monday, and delegates visited the museum in the afternoon. The campaign was introduced to the Holland Elks' Lodge No. 1315 at their meeting Tuesday evening by Russell Rutgers.

HAMILTON "DEER SLAYERS" EXONERATED, AS THEY SHOULD BE

The case against Byron and Jerry Arndt, Heath township brothers, charging that the two men hunted protected game out of season, was dismissed Monday afternoon by Judge Fred T. Miles in Allegan circuit court. The "protected game" was a deer, which the men killed on their farm Jan. 12. The deer, they said, was eating their crops. The Arndt brothers pleaded not guilty to the charge when arraigned before Judge Miles.

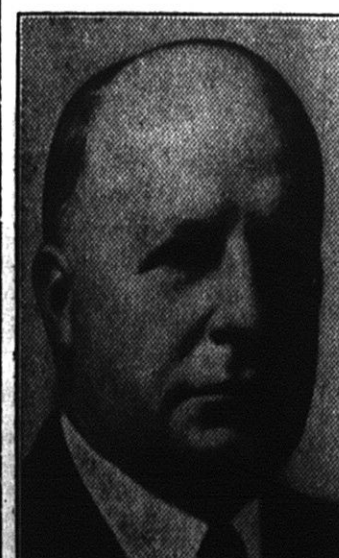

The Arndt case was carried to circuit court after the two men were fined and sentenced to jail in justice court. Quoting from a decision of the supreme court in a case in the state of Washington in which the killing of forbidden game was involved, Judge Miles stated, "This statute 'does not apply to a killing which is reasonably necessary for the defense of property.'" He emphasized, however, that his decision in the case did not authorize the killing or shooting of protected deer in Allegan county.

Attorneys O. S. Cross of Holland and E. L. Andrews of Allegan represented the Arndt brothers, after business men and farmers in Hamilton had pledged $1,000 in fighting the case. Ruling in the case followed a defense motion for dismissal by the Arndt attorneys. A similar case involving John Nyboer is still pending.

John Nyboer, Hamilton resident, pleaded guilty in Allegan circuit court before Judge Fred T. Miles Tuesday, to a charge of illegal possession of protected game out of season. He paid assessed costs of $10.00. Nyboer's case was similar to that of the Arndt brothers, against whom charges were dismissed previously.

Howard Baker, 17, sustained a triple fracture of the left arm and a bruised right leg, and his brother, Henry, 22, a gash on the head and a sprained wrist, when a scaffold which they were using to roof the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker of Ottawa Beach, collapsed, causing them to fall 20 feet onto a cement walk. The accident occurred Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hooker, 183 East 18th St., and William Bronkhorst, 29 East Seventh St., reported last Friday that tulips were already blossoming in their yards.

Appearance here of Harry S. Toy, former state supreme court justice, now candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, has been tentatively set for the week of April 25. A Toy-for-Governor meeting will be arranged for Mr. Toy's appearance here. Mr. Toy's visit here will be due to a group of Holland and Zeeland friends, who have extended him an invitation. S. Kenneth Shull of Lansing, state representative of the Toy-for-Governor campaign, is in charge of outlining Mr. Toy's primary campaign.

GOOD FISHING AT DAM
HOLLAND FISHERMEN SAY

Fishing may not have seemed exceptionally good at Allegan's municipal dam, but records, as compiled by the Resettlement department show that over four tons of fish were taken during the month of March by 2,312 fishermen. Fish ran to fairly large sizes, four and five pound grass pike being common, but they were much smaller last year.

Weather conditions were bad for the annual spring run but even so there were 201 carp, 850 grass pike and 1,315 suckers taken by hook and line. In addition there were 997 fish taken by dip-netting. Total weight of fish taken by net is reported at 2,112 while the total weight of others taken was 6,554 pounds. Statistics as furnished show that fishermen put in a total of 10,560 hours.

The swift waters below the dam are a favorite spot for fishermen, but the surprising fact is that most of them come from a distance.

The city of Kalamazoo was represented by 681 fishermen. Holland said a total of 430 while Allegan county residents totalled 335. Grand Rapids sent 172 fishermen and many other Michigan cities were represented.

Out-of-state visitors also were reported.

Now WPA May Catch Carp;
They Should Work Fast
On That Job

Muskegon plans to clean the bottoms of Muskegon and Mona lakes and put on an anti-carp program. The Muskegon Chronicle suggests such a move editorially.

(Muskegon Chronicle)

Mona lake, one of America's fishing ground, swarms with tons of carp, untold quantities of submerged fish houses, old stoves, tree trunks and snags hindering seining operation tried out Saturday and Sunday by conservation officials with the cooperation of local game warden. Muskegon Heights a few years ago spent thousands of dollars pioneering in sewage disposal processes, ending the pollution of Mona lake. Muskegon has just finished a similar improvement for Muskegon lake, leaving only industrial wastes to be cared for before local pollution will be ended.

Remedying sewage pollution will not help until the carp problem is solved. The carp has a rugged constitution. It has been able to thrive where a bass, bluegill or trout would die of homesickness.

Chief objection to the carp is its habit of wallowing and dredging the bottom in search of vegetation and roots. In the spring, during the spawning season, lakes where this fish is numerous are fringed with a belt of churned up vegetable fragments and muddy water. Even bathing beaches are damaged.

At Mona lake where about a ton of carp were seined many escaped because of under-water obstructions. This situation was remedied so that systematic seining can be carried on whenever necessary. Muskegon lake probably is in worse shape than Mona lake. For years its winter crop of ice shanties has been allowed to contribute heavily to the bottom tangle.

The federal government announces enlarged public works projects soon for more "pump priming." The governor Murphy announces he will request that Michigan be not overlooked. There are many unemployed in Greater Muskegon, and officials are devising improvement projects which will be of lasting value, utilize a large amount of labor, and at the same time require a minimum of local contributions. An anti-carp program would fill the bill completely. It would keep hundreds of men busy, and probably could result in much salvage.

TREE PLANTING FEATURES
ARBOR DAY, MAYOR GREETES
GATHERING IN FOREST

A large number of Camp Fire girls, parents, guardians, and friends, were present Friday at 4:15 p.m. at an Arbor Day tree-planting ceremony held under the auspices of the local Camp Fire groups, at the Holland school forest on Lakewood Blvd. Mayor Henry Geerlings greeted those assembled, and Mrs. Lloyd Reed, Holland Camp Fire director, presided. More than 200 Norway and White Pine seedlings had been planted at the Holland high forestry department, and 12 were planted by Bluebird and Camp Fire girls.

Superintendent E. E. Fell presented a brief talk on character development, and Miss Lida Rogers, biology instructor at Holland high, spoke briefly on tree identification and introduced Irving Lemmen to the group. Mr. Lemmen responded with a talk on conservation.

While the trees were being planted under the supervision of Miss Rogers, the Camp Fire girls, accompanied by Mrs. W. Curtis Snow at the organ, sang "This Is Our Father's World." The ceremony concluded with the singing of "America." Each girl present was given two trees to be planted in her yard. The Camp Fire Conservation committee, composed of Mrs. E. J. Yeomans, chairman; Mrs. Reed, Mrs. A. Timmer, and Mrs. Willis Diekmann, was in charge of arrangements for the day.

DANGEROUS BEAUTY—THE

This dangerous little snake so beautiful in color is the only member of the Cobra group in America. There are experts who claim that this snake is very dangerous. Other experts claim it is too dangerous to bite. If the tiny fangs of the coral should penetrate the skin, it is certainly dangerous. The poison is like that of the cobra and seems to paralyze the chest muscles so that you smother to death. This of course is unlike the poison of the rattler which works on the blood and heart.

These snakes live in the ground and many are ploughed up in the sweet potato fields in the south-eastern gulf states. They also are found in Arizona.

Corals Snake—yellow, back and red rings. Red then yellow; black and then yellow so that there are just as many yellow rings as there are black and red.

Harmless Scarlet King Snake. This snake which is often killed because of its likeness to a Coral Snake, is in reality like other king snakes—a friend to man and should be protected. The snout of the Arizona Coral Snake is black, and that of the King Snake, white.

FURNITURE MAKING AT IONIA REFORMATORY IS A SCHOOL FOR YOUNG MEN

(Grand Rapids Herald)

Competition of the state reformatory should not worry Grand Rapids furniture manufacturers, Garrett Heyns, former superintendent of Holland Christian School system, Ionia warden, told members of the Kiwanis club at their luncheon in the Panti-lind hotel Monday.

The furniture shops, the said, form part of the institution's educational program, and he urged support for them.

"They employ about 100 men, and those 100 men don't work all the time," Heyns said. "I doubt if our furniture factory, on that scale, can make any appreciable difference in the industry throughout the state. But the work is very important to the young men there."

Speaking on "The Newer Penology," Heyns argued for probation for most first offenders, for the indeterminate sentence, and for parole. "In prison," he said, "men learn crime, although not so much as in county jails. The successful probationer is much better off; there is a gain for him and no loss to society through his support or his loss of earnings. The indeterminate sentence has a good effect on prison discipline, and the parole goes hand in hand with that."

The speaker explained that offenders no longer are sentenced to Ionia, but are sentenced to Jackson or Marquette prisons, first offenders and men under 23 then being sent to the reformatory under the classification and rehabilitation plan adopted last summer. They are supervised by a psychologist, a vocational director, an educational director, the chaplain and the physician. Those with the mental capacity can be given a high school education, he said, and may take extension courses. All illiterates are sent to school.

Important Program
"The rehabilitation program is important to you," he said, "because there are 700 men in penal institutions in Michigan and 95 per cent are coming back to live in society again. It is not true that most parolees go back to prison. Seventy-six per cent make good; only 8 per cent of the other 24 per cent commit crimes while on parole."

"But there is no place for sentimentalists and soft-shiners in penology. What is needed is sensible realism, for some boys can be reformed; but some cannot."

THE pup looks a bit bored, but he'll stand by until his master is ready to shut up shop and play. As for the master, a native of Ecuador, he's making one of those gorgeous rugs for which his region is famous--following the same colors and designs used by the early Andean weavers hundreds of years ago. Textiles woven by the Indians of pre-Inca and Inca days were found in the ancient tombs in a remarkable state of preservation and are on display in museums visited by travelers taking the weekly cruises to Ecuador, Peru, and Chile. The ancient tapestries, rugs, and costumes reveal excellent workmanship and matchless skill in design and combination of colors. The textiles include cottons much finer in weave than our cotton today, woolen fabrics woven of fine vicuna wool so glossy it re-

Common Council

The Common Council met in a special session pursuant to call by the Mayor.

Present: Mayor Geerlings, Aldermen Prins, Kleis, Drinkwater, Kalkman, Brouwer, Oudemool, Steffens, Huyser, Bultman, Vogelzang, Smith and the Clerk.

The Mayor stated that the meeting had been called to consider the several applications for licenses to sell Beer that had been referred to the License Committee at the last Council meeting.

The committee reported having met and considered the several applications, but were not ready and willing to report favorable on all of them. A considerable amount of discussion ensued among the Aldermen relative to the provision in the rules and regulations of the State Liquor Control Commission which applies to screens and other obstructions which do not permit a clear vision of the place from the outside. It was felt by several of the Aldermen that basement locations were in violation of this provision of the rules and regulations, and for this reason were not willing to give their approval to such locations.

City Atty. Parsons gave as his opinion that such locations did not comply with the general rules as set forth; however, he stated that he had not contacted the State Commission on the matter and did not know what exceptions, if any, they would make.

After considerable more discussion,

It was moved by Alderman Huyser, seconded by Brouwer, That none of the applications be approved until such time as the City Attorney can get a definite ruling from the State Liquor Control Commission in regard to their position in this matter.

Adjourned. Oscar Peterson, City Clerk.

Mrs. Leon Moody, Mrs. Otto Vander Velde, and Mrs. Phillips Brooks were in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Lloyd Read and Mrs. Lloyd Hensley poured at tea. An outing for Holland Camp Fire girls at Camp Keewano in May was planned.

Heads Symphony Orchestra

Philipp Abbas, Conductor

John Kollen with Symphony to Play
Concert April 25

Michigan Symphony orchestra will make its first appearance in Holland on April 25, when they will play two programs for the benefit of the Hope college band. Under the leadership of Philipp Abbas, the musicians will present a program especially designed for young people, in Holland High school auditorium in the afternoon. At 8 p. m. they will play a concert for adults in Hope Memorial chapel and will have as their distinguished soloists John Kollen of Holland. Mr. Kollen, who has donated his services, will play a piano concerto, accompanied by the orchestra.

Now in its fourth season, the orchestra was organized under the F. E. R. A. and since November, 1935, owes its continuance to the Federal Music Project of the W. P. A. The group was organized as a result of the government's policy of creating a work program that would use the skills of the unemployed in their proper fields. It has been a tradition of the orchestra to present the works, not only of contemporary European composers, but also those of American musicians. The members of the symphony are professional musicians and their close association has resulted in an orchestral body capable of effectively handling the compositions of all schools, from classic and romantic to the ultra-modern. The program for the evening concert on April 25 follows:

Overture Beethoven
Eugene Heeter conducting Allegretto from Beethoven
Symphony No. 7 Marcelllo
Allegretto Von Weber
Concerto in A Major Mozart
by String Orchestra
Mr. John Kollen,
with the orchestra

Overture, "Fingal's Cave" Mendelssohn
Second Indian Suite MacDowell
Les Preludes Liszt
The conductor, Philipp Abbas, began his musical career in a string quartet with his brothers. At the age of fourteen he was awarded the queen's scholarship to the Conservatory of Music at Amsterdam. Three years later he became first cellist of the orchestra in Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany. After that, he went to England and gave his first recital in London, and later appeared in Biarritz, Nice, Paris, Bordeaux, and Toulouse.

In 1914 Mr. Abbas was engaged by Stokowsky for the Philadelphia Orchestra, and for seven years was first cellist of the Detroit Symphony orchestra. Tickets for the concerts may be obtained at the college office and Sells Jewelry store, the prices being ten cents for the afternoon and 35 cents for the evening programs.

HOPE COLLEGE NEWS

With an estimated 3,000 books having been turned in during the closing hours of the library drive yesterday afternoon, Dr. James Warner, in charge of the campaign, said this morning that it will probably be about a week before the books received can be sorted and the winners of $65 in prize money announced.

In the fraternity division, where the most books were turned in, the contest lies between the Cosmopolitans and the Fraternals. Dr. Warner said. Results of the sororities' contest will show the winner to be Delphi, Dorian, or Sibylline. Last-minute dark-horse entries in the Independent group placed three men in position to take first or second prize of $10 or $5: C. Olson, Ted Oegema, or Don De Kraker.

Four girls will be kept busy classifying the books during the next week, Dr. Warner said. He estimated the total number of books received in the drive at 4,000.

Due to the many requests for extension of time caused by the extra day of vacation, the contest date was changed to 4:30 p. m. Tuesday, April 20 will definitely conclude the contest when all books received through the mail must be in.

The societies and independents have donated many worthwhile books, Dr. Warner stated. Some of the valuable books accepted are as follows:

12 indexed volumes of the History and Encyclopedia of Music.
Complete set of volumes of Indian music.

"The History of Civilization in Europe" by Francois Guizot.
Theodore Roosevelt's "Letters to his Children."

"A Winter in North China" by Rev. T. M. Norris.

Professor Winter donated a fine collection of recent education books which will doubtless prove of great benefit to his students.

"I am very well pleased and gratified by the response of the student body as a whole," Dr. Warner said in commenting on the outstanding success of the drive.

"No Asexual Reproduction in Di-

Judges Select Fourteen
Junior Girls As Eligible
For Next Campus Queen

Fourteen junior girls who were deemed eligible for Campus Queen were selected by Mrs. Chartier, Miss Gertrude Smeenge and Miss Louise Krum, Judges at Voorhes hall, last Thursday. Names were not disclosed.

The girls were judged on ten points, namely: general effect, choice of clothes, personality, beauty, coiffure, carriage, grace, poise, charm of manner, and attitude. Each judge checked each item if favorably impressed. This gave a girl the possible total of 30 points.

After the contest the judges and a committee of three conferred together and arranged the list of 14 girls, according to the number of points received.

The final choice of queen and the six members of her court will be made from among these 14 a week before May Day on May 6. The committee will, at that time, make their selection on the basis of the results of this first contest, on activities, and on whether or not the girl has a "C" average.

The committee in charge of the contest was Esther Hinkamp, chairman; June Pomp, Kay Boon, and Gladys Moerdyke with Dean Lichty as faculty advisor. The music was furnished by Mary Bolema.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

"Receiving Vision for Service." Mark 9:2-10

Henry Geerlings

The transfiguration of Jesus is such a remarkable event that one approaches it with wonder and awe and exaltation of spirit. We should like to understand it fully, but we cannot. We should like to write about it adequately, but one finds his vocabulary falling him. We should like to lift the veils of mystery that hang over it, but they will not lift.

One wonders why this extraordinary glory and light that shone upon the face and person of Jesus was not always there. One wonders how it could be hidden. It was a glory that came from the inside and not from the outside. The glory of his lighted mind must have broken through the thin walls of flesh for a brief while and then faded away. We do know that a great face among our kind. We do know that according to the suggestion of a great poet God gives us one face and we make another. We do know that the face is the show window of the soul. Long ago have we learned that we may be able to conceal our thoughts as to their meaning, but we cannot conceal them as to their character. They tell their own story in our faces. They give us away. No wonder we say that some have the face of a saint and others the face of a criminal. Let us dwell long enough upon great and good themes and our faces will be something of an identification card. Let us think evil persistently and children will be afraid of us and grown-up people will avoid us. So when we look upon the transfigured Christ we see the light of a great soul telling the story of his inner life and we instinctively feel that we are in the presence of divinity.

We feel that we are interpreting the purpose of this transfiguration event correctly when we say that it meant more for Jesus himself than for his disciples. We say it reverently that he needed it as he faced the cross that loomed up in the not far distance. It was a supreme trial through which he was passing. His soul was struggling up the steep and rough hill of redemptive necessity and he needed courage to face triumphantly the issue. He needed a deeper consciousness of who he was and what the glory and grandeur of his mission to earth were. The voice of divine approval was given. Heaven sent its representatives, who once had struggled and triumphed here, to talk to him about his way out of this sinful world. Somehow there must come to him the conviction in this transfiguration experience that his struggle was not in vain, but must lead to glory and victory.

And then, too, this mountain scene was in the nature of a great revelation to the three favored disciples in his company. They there saw Jesus as they never saw him before. Their conviction that he was more than they were greatly stimulated and deepened. The unique glory of his personality would impress itself on them so that they never could forget it. In all their after years memory would take them back to this marvelous mountain experience. Peter referred to it in a rapture of confession. It was a divine light that lighted up their souls in many a dark hour as they traveled across this troubled world.

We cannot pass over the suggestions that the presence of Moses and Elijah brings to us. They came from the other world. This argues for the continuity of life. This means that death has no power over the integrity of the human personality. They appeared on the mount as Moses and Elijah and were so recognized. Their identity was unimpaired. We do like to think that whatever changes we undergo in passing from this world into the unseen world we shall be there. We like to feel that as we are capable of thinking and loving and appreciating the highest and best here so shall we be over there—only more so. This would be a tragic world indeed—a more awful mystery than it is—if it piled on the scrap heap of time such great and masterful personalities as Moses and Elijah. And we who belong to the lesser ones rise up and claim as our just due the right to a continuity of life and a personality undamaged by what we call death.

And now being thoroughly human we find ourselves in sympathy with Peter who thought it was good to be on that mount. It was a marvelous experience and we feel had we been there we too would have wanted to prolong it. We come with reluctance out of our highest and thrilling experiences. We dread the humdrum and the commonplace and the everyday of life. But possibly the unique and exalted would soon become common if we dwell with it too long. And beside all this duty calls us from the heights to the common levels of life where the inspirations of our great moments are for make us more capable for serving in our common and weary days. There is so much to do where the crowds go by that we need to live in our house by the side of the road that we may be a friend to man.

MASS BUILDING READY MAY 1; WILL BE OCCUPIED BY A & P FOOD STORE

May 1 has been set as the date for completion of the new store building, being erected at 10th St. and River Ave. by the Peter Mass Furniture Co., Henry Mass, manager, stated today. Exterior work on the $25,000 combination store-and-office building has been completed, and interior finishing is being done at present. The building is of brick and tile construction, thus making it one of the most modern fireproof structures in the city. The building measures 140 by 52 feet, and has an asphalt roof. Moving of fixtures into the building began Monday and will continue until the opening day. The building has been under construction since January 8.

While it was originally planned by the Mass people to rent only part of the second floor office space and retain the remainder for storage purposes, Mr. Mass indicated today that so many calls have been received by him in regard to office space that the entire second floor may be rented for business purposes. Lower floor space has been leased to the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. for a new master market. This large food store is making extensive preparations for a grand opening when the building is ready for occupancy.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

AFTER Easter, when it is as late as this year, means spring right up to the Canadian border. That means rhubarb poking through and the promise of growing foods already in market from the warmer south.

When it is spinach, just for example, Texas supplies it in winter, Virginia in early spring, New Jersey in late spring and northern highlands when the sun grows hot. Because we like our season for favorite foods prolonged, we have year round oranges, tomatoes most of the year, strawberries the year or more, while a few foods like currants and cherries are still strictly seasonal, though seasons are likely to be two months rather than a mere local two weeks.

This week, look for moderate priced meats, reasonable fish, butter, eggs, cheese, fruits and vegetables when you shop. Here are three dinner menus suited to the season.

WE'RE LAVISH WITH OUR CREAM!

That's Why This Is The Cream of Cream of Tomato Soup

● We decided that Cream of Tomato Soup—to be worthy of its name—should be as creamy and thick as the finest home-made soup! And so we blend generous quantities of rich cream with a smooth purée of Heinz "aristocrat" tomatoes. Like all 23 Heinz Home-style Soups, this favorite is fully prepared. You'll like it!

GLORY TO COOKING!

● There's glory for the cook who knows the culinary trick of using Heinz Tomato Ketchup in omelets, stews and gravies. You'll find this spicy sauce lends a lot of gustatory glamour to leftovers, too! For it's a skillful blend of Heinz "aristocrat" tomatoes, Heinz Vinegar and finest spices. What price glory? A fraction of a penny's worth flavors an entire dish!

BEANS BAKED
the way you like them!

ALL OVEN-BAKED BY HEINZ

THANKS to Heinz, you can still enjoy those luscious oven-baked beans of your childhood! Never steamed or boiled beans. She baked them long hours in a hot, dry oven—till every nugget was tender and meaty.

Sauces Four Ways

To duplicate this old-fashioned treat, Heinz chefs get the finest sort and cull them. Bake them thoroughly in dry-heat ovens. Then molasses 'em four ways: (1) in style; (2) in a rich tomato sauce; (3) in tomato sauce with pork; and (4) in their own sweet sauce—red kidney beans.

Serve an inviting, invigorating Heinz bean supper tonight. Take your pick of the four kinds. They're all oven-baked—all delicious!
