Refrigerators

GIBSON REFRIGERATORS

Today, more than ever before, the American people are demanding quality in manufacture. The day of the makeshift article of only temporary worth "made to sell" has almost passed. Buyers disregard the polish and veneer and inquire first into the foundation of their purchases. We hear less and less the question "how much is it?", and more and more "how is it made?"

This is specially true and important when the buying of a Refrigerator is concerned.

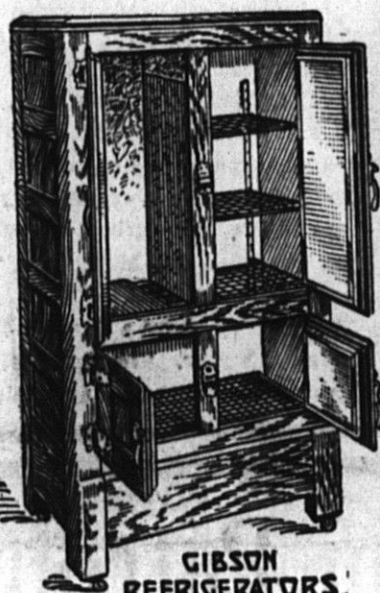

There was a time that anything that looked like a refrigerator would go, if it was only cheap. This idea is now changed. The refrigerator of today must be more than an ice box.

It must be sanitary.

It must have perfect circulation.

It must be scientifically constructed with proper insulation, so that it will retain the cold air, and resist the warm air.

The line of refrigerators we are showing, will meet every one of these requirements fully.

GIBSON REFRIGERATORS

We have searched the markets for 3 years to get a refrigerator that would have the maximum amount of the qualities of a good refrigerator at the minimum amount of money. We are convinced that we have it in

LAST NUMBER OF HOPE COLLEGE LECTURE COURSE

Charles W. Clark Has An International Reputation

Due to the unforeseen illness of Gov. Hadley the Redpath Lyceum bureau has agreed to send Mr. Clark America's famous baritone, to appear on the program of the Hope College Lecture course instead of Mr. Hadley's. Although the patrons of the course would have liked to hear the governor considerable satisfaction has been expressed that such a fine number as Mr. Clark has been obtained. Gov. Hadley was the highest priced number on the course but the bureau is bound to make good with the Hope Course patrons and has given to Hope a man whose contracts run twice as high.

For the past 15 years Mr. Clark has resided in Paris, France devoting his entire time to concert work. During that time he has made two American tours, and many tours of England and the Provinces, Germany Italy and throughout Europe, meeting with the most conspicuous success at every appearance. Mr. Clark today occupies the unique position of a specialist, his fame having been established wholly upon his remarkable power and gifts as a concert artist, he having steadfastly refused to consider the many tempting offers to enter the operatic field.

Concert tomorrow night. Tickets on sale at Hardie's.

You have harped about the evils that beset your Boy.
Have you ever thought about your Girls?

Do you know where your daughter is tonight?

Pitton was a member of the Council in 1912, and stood highest among the defeated candidates at the last municipal election.—Niagara Falls Journal.

Nelson Pitton conducted a dry goods store in the Hotel block some twenty years ago. He was the first man to come to Holland with an exclusive dry goods store. He is conducting a hotel at Niagara Falls and is doing well.

HOLLAND PEOPLE GET DIVORCE DIVORCE GRANTED IN FOUR CASES

Marriage of Jas. Tobiason and Theoda Terril Annulled.

In Tuesday afternoon's session of circuit court Judge Orien S. Cross, granted and rendered a decision for the annulment of the marriage of James Tobiason of Spring Lake and Theoda Terril upon complaint of Tobiason, who claims that he was led to marry Theoda Terril, daughter of Henry Terril of near Fruitport, thru misrepresentation of circumstances.

Decrees of divorce were granted to Tena Lokker of Holland from John Lokker; Leendert Brandt of Holland, from his wife Aline Brandt; and Guy H. Ridenaur of Spring Lake from his wife Cora M. Ridenaur, all on charges of extreme and repeated cruelty.

WILL IT BE THE LIQUOR QUESTION AGAIN

The News has been informed from a very reliable source that the committee on liquor licenses composed of Aldermen Nick Kammeraad, Wm. Vander Ven and Derk Steketee, are going to recommend to the council at the special meeting to be held tonight, that wholesalers retail licenses be not granted in the way that they have been the past year.

It is said that this committee will recommend to the council that whole sale licenses be granted in accordance with the state law, namely that liquor be sold only in three gallon lots. This will compel the purchaser to buy 24 doz pints of beer or the same quantity in stronger liquors and carry it away with him. No doubt this recommendation will cause considerable fire works at the special meeting of the common council tonight as a number of the aldermen do not desire that the question be brought up again for sometime to come, and prefer to let it alone.

The News called up the proprietors of two wholesale houses this morning telling them what it had heard and asked them if it were true, what their action would be in the matter. They said that they had also heard rumors to this effect and stated further that under no condition would they take out a license if it proved to be true. Said one "We went out of business last year when all we could get was the three gallon system. The rank and file cannot afford to buy in three gallon quantities and in that way are deprived of their beer all together and the customers who buy strong liquors are driven to the drug stores where it can be secured in halves or even quarter pint packages. Besides we would be compelled ed to pay a wholesalers license of $500.00 to sell beer and also $500, to sell stronger liquors, while the drug store pays $25 license only and sells at any time day or night. We would simply be compelled to close and quit business the same as we did last year.

One wholesaler said he could not understand why they are ever lastingly being discriminated against. 'They stipulate our opening and closing hours, we are under the strictest regulations, we are closed Sundays, we sell the real temperance drink namely beer, which druggists do not sell. We do not begrudge the druggist a license but we want fair play. If they are granted a license at $25, we surely are entitled to one at $750.'

So you see the liquor ball is rolling again and the fact that it would be was already forecast by the wise ones when Mayor Bosch appointed the license committee. Those who seem to know say that the committee is as dry as a cork and that they were appointed with that purpose in view.

Whether this is true the News does not know. Mayor Bosch disclaims any knowledge of what this committee will recommend, which the News has no reason to doubt. There are some on the committee who have decided opinions on the liquor question but they are reasonable men and look upon civic affairs in a sane way.

Should the committee recommend the wholesale system, and the council adopt it, and the wholesalers refuse to take out licenses there is little doubt but that the liquor fight will come up again in Holland which is deplorable especially since the spirit of get together is beginning to be prevented again. The question will then be submitted "wet" or "dry." The legal requirements under the new charter are that a petition containing 25 per cent of the legal voters, which is between 500 and 600 names be presented to the council asking for the liquor conditions desired and the council must call a special election at its next regular meeting.

It is hoped that the vexing problem may be settled satisfactorily thus eliminating hard feelings engendered between citizens who differ in opinion on this problem. The liquor question has had Holland by the ears long enough.

SAYS HE IS CRAZY; WANTS A PADDED CELL

Holland Wife Beater Tries Old Tricks on Sheriff's Deputies.

Andrew Langhuis, the Holland man serving a thirty day sentence in the county jail for wife beating, says he is going crazy. After such an assertion a few days ago, when he asked for a doctor to relieve the troubles in his head, the man asked to be placed in a padded cell. Deputy Fortney allowed the man to be in the padded cell and the next morning he asked to get out of it. In a short time after he was allowed to go back to his former cell, a fellow prisoner yelled out that Langhuis was going to hang himself, but he did not attempt such an act.

A few years ago in Holland Langhuis besmeared his face with paris green and announced to his friends that he had taken a quantity of the poison, whereupon a stomach pump was set to work. Langhuis protested with the argument that he had taken none of the poison but to no avail and the friends made sure of their task.

The sheriff's force does not worry over Langhuis' avowals that he is crazy, and say that he trying to work a sympathy "stall."

HUDSONVILLE

Hudsonville, Mich., April 21—Walter Bowmaster, one of Georgetown's most esteemed citizens, had an experience Saturday that has left him with a badly broken leg, about halfway between the knee and hip. He was trying the experiment of leading a calf with a rope around its neck when the calf took a notion that he would become the leader, and in making the circuit to get in front of Bowmaster, the rope entangled the man's legs in a manner that threw him to the ground with a crash that broke the bone. The calf got away and Dr. Maxfield was called and reduced the fracture. It will be a couple of months before the old gentleman will be able to get around.

Zeeland High's first venture at baseball ended very successfully Saturday afternoon when they defeated Hudsonville at that village by a score of 19 to 15. The score seems more like a basketball score, but the high winds made field work very difficult. Each member of the team played a very good game.

Hudsonville, April 22—Aaron Medema, who has just passed his 81st birthday, was found unconscious in the field near his daughter's house this morning about 11:30. As usual, he took a walk after his breakfast to where his son-in-law was at work in the field, but after remaining there a short time started back toward the house. When the son-in-law returned home for dinner he asked for the old man and when he was not found around the home a search was instituted and they found him lying near a large stump at the edge of the orchard, unconscious. Mr. Medema came from the Netherlands late last fall to spend his remaining days with his daughter and was considered quite robust.

MACATAWA PARK

Dan Cupid was too much for the plans of Peter Van Regenmorter, assistant lighthouse keeper at Macatawa Park. It is as hard to get a hired girl for general housework at Macatawa Park as it is in the city, and those people who secure one look upon her as a pearl of great price. After many efforts and a great deal of trouble in the line of advertising and looking up prospects Van Regenmorter finally secured a girl three weeks ago in the person of Miss Jennie Klees of Muskegon. He bragged about his capture to the members of the crew and to his fellow-worker, George Meengs, another assistant lighthouse keeper who had one advantage over Van Regenmorter in that he is a bachelor.

And last week Van Regenmorter found that all his efforts had been in vain after all when his fellow keeper took the hired girl away from him by offering her a steady position with a life tenure connected with it. Miss Klees figured that the bachelor's offer had many advantages and before Van Regenmorter knew what was happening his partner and his hired girl had returned from the preacher where they had plighted their troth and had become man and wife.

Now Van Regenmorter is again on the lookout for a hired girl, and the boys at the life saving station are giving him a good deal of more or less welcome consolation by commenting on his troubles.

The first question proposed by Zeeland which pertained to the governorship of U. Danger threatened for several hours on Zeeland's main street Thursday afternoon when the high tension wire of the Interurban line hung near to the ground. A freight car had just left the station when the trolley wire caught under the trolley rod.

The moving car snapped a pole a foot and a quarter in diameter in two. This caused the trolley wire and the high tension wire to sink.

The accident happened directly in front of Frank Boonstra's Mercantile Co. and there was danger every moment that the bottom end of the pole would slip up and smash the store front. The Interurban wrecking crew remedied the brake in a very short time.

BUSINESSMEN ASK COUNCIL TO IMPROVE STREET TO THE BRIDGE.

Expense Will Perhaps Be Partly Covered By Property Owners and Partly by Subscription

After a thorough discussion of the matter of improving North River Av. to make it passable for the North Side farmers coming to Holland the Holland Businessmen's association Monday adopted a resolution to petition the council to take some action on the fixing up of this street.

It was explained by Ald. King who has become a member of the association, that a meeting of the property owners on North River street had been called to discuss the improvement of the street. The estimated cost is $400 and to tax the property owners for this amount, as is usually done, would mean practically taking their homes away from them. In spite of this $150 has already been raised among the North Enders and $100 has been promised. The matter will be taken up with the council possibly at the next regular meeting, and if the necessary amount cannot be raised the association spoke in favor of making up the deficit.

VANDER SLUIS ACCEPTS POSITION ON BONUS COMMITTEE

When John Vandersluis, president of the Holland Businessmen's association accepted the appointment as member of the Bonus Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Henry Kremers, he put himself in an embarrassing position.

OFFICERS BREAK DOWN TWO DOORS WHEN FRANK KULTE DEFIES ARREST FOR ALLEGED POULTRY THEFT

Frank Kulte, arrested Saturday on a charge of statutory burglary, waived examination when arraigned before Justice Sooy Monday and was bound over to circuit court for trial. Bonds for $500 were furnished by his father, Jake Kulte, Sr. and the prisoner was released pending examination.

The arrest of Kulte promises to put an end to the petty chicken stealing that has been going on in Holland for some time. Many people have at different times reported loss of three or four chickens from their chicken coops, and now the police claim to have a strong chain of evidence against Kulte.

Kulte was taken into custody Saturday night by Officers Steketee and O'Connor, after the officers had broken down two doors leading to a room in which Kulte had concealed himself. Later a 38-caliber loaded revolver was taken from his room but he made no effort to protect himself against arrest with this.

The theft of some prize winning buff coochins, from the hen roost of George Stegarda, 284 East 8th St., Friday night was reported to the police Saturday afternoon. Suspicion pointed to Kulte as one of the burglars and the two officers who made the arrest were immediately ordered by Chief of Police VanRy to search the building in East 8th street where Kulte lives a hermit's life. Kulte made no objections to the officers searching his place and when one of the officers emerged from the basement with three chickens which could be identified by their feathers and by the prize tags on their legs as the ones taken, Kulte's attitude never changed. He gave the name of the butcher shop where he claimed he had bought them, and walked into another room. He slammed the door behind him and bolted it defying arrest. It was learned later that he had not purchased the chickens from the place he named.

The supposed thieves were frightened away from a neighbor of Stegarda's Friday night and were seen going towards Stegarda's home. Other people in that neighborhood have reported theft of chickens at different times.

When Kulte was arraigned Monday morning he exhibited two black eyes received in a brawl a few nights before, for which he refused to make complaint.

HOLLAND BUSINESSMEN'S ASSOCIATION IS GROWING RAPIDLY.

Association Monday Gave Mayor Vote of Thanks for His Part In Stopping Carp Fishing.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Holland Businessmen's association was held Monday in the Board of Trade Rooms in the City Hall. The Committee on Public Buildings and property will be asked to allow the association to use these rooms for their regular meetings, and it is very likely the request will be granted.

The membership committee reported the names of 30 new members who had paid their dues and were passed on Monday. Besides these over 20 members had signed to join. The association now has a membership of close to 150 and many more are expected to join.

The matter of carp fishing in Black Lake was discussed by the association and a vote of thanks was extended to Mayor Bosch for his active part in the movement to prohibit the fishing of carp here. The association also went on record as disapproving of the taking out of carp and other rough fish from Black lake at closed periods.

A. VISSCHER HAS HIGHLY PRIZED COPY OF FIRST PREMIUM LIST.

Contains Interesting Facts About Fair Association When It Was Organized 30 Years Ago

A premium book of the first fair held in Holland is the property of A. Visscher, who was secretary of the association at that time and under whose active management much of the work of giving Holland a fair was done. The book contains a great deal of interesting information about the first agricultural exhibition held here. For one thing the fair was held much later than now. The date the first year (1885) were October 6, 7, 8, and 9.

The officers of the first fair were: O. E. Yates, president; Gerrit De Witt, Vice President; Otto Breyman, treasurer; Arend Visscher, secretary; F. G. Churchill, marshal. The executive board was composed of the following: H. Boone, W. Diekema, J. G. Boyes, J. D. Bloemers, D. Lenters, A. M. Kanters, Benj. Van Raalte. The superintendents were as follows: cattle, G. De Witt; Horses, H. Boone; Sheep and swine, J. Kulte; poultry, J. Chaple; Agriculture, D. Meldema; Farm implements, D. Bloemers; Pomological Department, I. Marilje; Floral department, L. T. Kanters; miscellaneous department, G. Van Schelven.

The charter members of the association were R. Kanters, W. Diekema, O. E. Yates, G. J. Kollen, John Pessink, Simon Bos, G. H. Souter, Teunis Keppel, Daniel Bertsch, Otto Breyman, Benjamin Van Raalte, John Kramer, Hendrik J. Klompars, Dirk Miedema, James Shaver, James F. Joscelyn, D. Lenters, H. Plaggeman, Elmore Annis, and Haim Kragt.

The book contains a large number of advertisements or the Holland merchants of thirty years ago, and there are many names there that are no longer found among the business men of Holland. There are many others however, who are still represented, mostly in sons of the men who were in active business then.

The first premium book contained fifty-six pages, while the premium book that is to be issued this year, as the thirtieth anniversary souvenir book, will contain over a hundred and fifty pages showing a very substantial increase. As a rule the premium books during late years have contained from a hundred to a hundred and fifteen pages.

The book was published by Wm. H. Rogers, at that time publisher of the Holland City News. This copy is perhaps the only one in existence and it is highly prized by its owner.

The fair that first year, as well as for some years after that was held on the old fair grounds near the lake in what is now the west end of the city. Later it was moved to the present site east of the city.

A rather peculiar feature about this first fair was that it was marred by rain. This is the same story that has been told again and again since then about fairs in later years in spite of the fact that now they are being held nearly a month earlier. The report of the fair contained in the files of the Holland City News of that time say that the first two days it rained and that that caused a good deal of disappointment to those who had started the venture.

Another peculiar feature was that Thursday was the big day of the fair that year as it has been during practically all the thirty years that followed. On Thursday there were six thousand people on the grounds, according to newspaper reports of the first fair. In all the attendance of the four days mounted up to upwards of ten thousand people. The total gate receipts amounted to more than fifteen hundred dollars and the gate receipts for Thursday alone amounted to $760.

On that first year there were 1340 exhibits, divided as follows: cattle, horses, sheep, swine, poultry, agriculture, farm implements, flowers, paintings, photography, drawings, curiosities, bread, crackers, dairy products, leather and leather work.

Because of the fact that this year is the thirtieth anniversary of the organization of the association will be celebrated, it is rather interesting to compare the facts and figures of the first fair with those that this year's fair will disclose.

In order to be able to continue business on May first all will have to have new licenses, and it has become the policy of the city health department not to grant licenses unless it is reasonably sure that the milk is secured from cows that are free from tuberculosis. To be safe in this respect it is necessary to have a test made each year at least. The milk men are notified now in advance of the date when the renewal of the licenses will be necessary so that they can take the necessary steps that will insure them a new license.

The Holland Businessmen's association last night pledged their moral support to the Holland fair for this season when E. P. Stephan, secretary of the association, explained the plans for the coming fair. The businessmen were to a man in favor of boosting the fair and in this way boosting Holland.

Besides this the Holland men are putting forth every effort to make the fair a success.

Miss Patterson of Grand Rapids spent Sunday in this city.

CONGRESSMAN MAPES SAYS THE POSTOFFICE PLANS ARE NOW FAR ADVANCED

The Drawings Are Practically Completed; Specifications Being Prepared; To Break Ground in a Few Months

The latest information from Washington as regards an actual start this year with the proposed Federal building in this city is decidedly encouraging. Congressman Mapes gives the following information:

The supervising architect's office informed me that the drawings are practically completed; that the specifications are now being prepared, to be completed the latter part of June or first of July; then bids will be advertised for a month or six weeks, and the contract let; so that the building ought to be actually started in the early fall.

The plans as now drawn have been approved by the constituted authorities in the post office department. They have given Holland some additional space, and provide for 4,000 square feet in the workroom, and practically 6,000 square feet all told on the first floor.

EDISON, NEGRO PROBLEM AND TUBERCULOSIS PRINCIPAL SUBJECTS ON W. L. C. PROGRAM.

Miss Mary B. Sollers, Social Service Nurse, Says Conditions Here are Quite Favorable.

The principal subjects considered by the members of the Woman's Literary society Tuesday were Thomas Edison and Vocational Schools for the Negro.

Mrs. Champion's paper, the Wizard of Menlo Park was read by Mrs. J. Van Putten, Jr. The life of Edison is an inspiration to all. His many inventions are known the world over. These were not found because of some happy chance, but after many struggles. When Mr. Edison is interested in perfecting an invention, he forgets to eat or sleep. The reward for his inventions was not given to him freely for he was obliged to go through many years of litigation to get what was rightfully his.

Miss Frances Bosch read Robert Burdette's advice to young men, "Get Away from the Crowd." This advice is to the effect that young men should get away from people occasionally and find out whether one is as good when no one else is near to see as when there is a crowd.

Mrs. Wheeler's paper told of what was being done in the "Vocational Schools for the Negro."

The greatest problem of the U. S. is elevation of the different races committed to her care. It has been said that the negro is inferior merely because he is unimproved.

Industrial training is the golden key that unlocks the door of opportunity for the negro. There are several industrial schools for negroes, but the most famous of these is probably Tuskegee Institute at Tuskegee, Ala. Booker T. Washington is its president. When the school started there were but thirty students and one teacher. In 1904 there were 1100 students and more than eighty teachers. There were forty-eight good buildings, mostly put up by the students.

Agriculture is the most prominent branch taught. Seven hundred acres of land are cultivated each year by the students. There is a great demand for graduates of Tuskegee to take charge of dairies and farms belonging to white people.

Then followed a beautiful duet sung by the Misses Jennie and Lucy Brouwer. Mrs. Thomas Robinson accompanied them on the piano.

Mrs. Mary Sollers gave her report before the club. It was preceded by a short talk on the cause and prevention of tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis is infectious but not inherited. Plenty of fresh air and nourishing food are the best cures. Fake cures are dangerous as they usually contain much alcohol or opium. At times these seem to give relief but it is only temporary.

Mrs. Sollers found conditions in Holland, on the whole, favorable.

Next week it is expected that Miss Dawson of Allegan will address the club so it is hoped that all members will be present to welcome her.

HENRY VRIELING IS INJURED BY STEPPING OFF RAILROAD BRIDGE.

Traffic was held up on the main line of the Pere Marquette Tuesday when nine freight cars were derailed at Waverly. In the darkness Henry Vrieling, an employee of the road accidentally walked off the railroad bridge and fell fifteen feet, striking on a pile of stone. His injuries were considered quite serious. He was hurried to Holland for treatment.

ARBOR DAY SATURDAY

Another Tag day is to be held in Holland and next Saturday scores of little boys and little girls will be on the streets to meet everyone with the question, "Mister, you want to buy a tag?" And few there will be who will be able to resist the appeal. Even those who may sidestep the question the first time will eventually make up their minds to "dig down" and produce the necessary nickel or dime or quarter for the tag that will give them immunity from further questions. A good working motto for the average man as he leaves his home Saturday morning will be "Eventually—why not now?"

And the Tag day or next Saturday is for a specially good purpose. It is to help defray the expenses connected with the proper observance of Arbor and Bird Day, by the pupils of the public schools. In order to make that day what it should be a large number of trees will have to be purchased. Moreover, in the various contests that are to be put on among the classes of the schools in the line of knowledge of tree lore and bird lore prizes will have to be offered so that the pupils may have a spur to cause them to exert themselves. These prizes will cost money and there is no way of getting the necessary cash except in some such way as a Tag Day campaign.

The school pupils have entered into the spirit of the venture with enthusiasm. They feel that the success of the Arbor and Bird Day exercises will depend upon them, and hence they will do all in their power to help make the Tag Day so successful that the school authorities will have ample funds to purchase the necessary trees and shrubs.

WILL ENGAGE THERE IN A SILVER MEDAL CONTEST NEXT WEEK.

A silver medal contest was held in the Second Reformed Church in Zeeland last night, under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Holland.

The contestants are from four of the churches of Holland, the Holland High school and the Preparatory Department of Hope College. They will contest for a beautiful silver medal.

The speakers and the institutions they represent are as follows:

Anthony Mages, First Reformed church; Miss Clara Yntema, Hope church; Miss Ruth Rich, Methodist church; Harold Osterhoff, Hope college; Miss Anna Lundberg, Holland High school. A violin solo was played by Miss Ruth Keppel and there was vocal music. A silver collection was taken to defray expenses.

STATE GAME WARDEN'S DEPARTMENT ASSURES MAYOR FISH ARE TO BE PROTECTED

Mayor Bosch has been assured by Daniel P. Jones, chief deputy to State Game and Fish Warden Oates, that there will be no further carp fishing operations on Black lake. This information was contained in a letter received by the mayor in answer to a letter sent by him to Mr. Oates a few days ago relative to conditions here in connection with the alleged destruction of game fish. Mr. Jones said in his letter that "there will be no further operations of this nature under the present contract held by Gantonbein & Lepinsky" and that in a conversation with Mr. Lepinsky Saturday the latter had agreed to discontinue all operations.

"We regret" the letter continues, "the destruction or injury of game fish from past operations if such has occurred and assure you that future operations of this nature in Black lake will be governed by the wishes of the people of Holland."

Protection of the game fish here is thus doubly assured. In the first place the injunction that was issued by Judge Cross on the request of the council is still operative and will be operative until a hearing shall be held in circuit court on it. And if that should fail to protect the fish there is still the promise of the State Game and Fish department that the game fish will be protected as far as the present contract with the carp fishermen is concerned and that no new contract will be made until such time as the people of Holland themselves shall agree to the terms thereof. It is quite safe to say that the people of Holland will not agree to the issuing of another permit, so that from now on the game fish can remain undisturbed.

Serious Error in Holland

Holland Citizens Will Do Well to Profit by the Following

Many fatal cases of kidney disease have reached an incurable stage because the patient did not understand the symptoms. Even today in Holland there are many residents making the same serious error. They attribute their mysterious aches and pains to overwork, or worry, perhaps when all the time their rheumatic pains, backache and bladder irregularities are most probably due to weak and ailing kidneys. If you are ill, if your kidneys are out of order profit by this Holland resident's experience.

W. B. Avery, 21 River St., Holland Michigan says: "Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me entire relief from kidney trouble that had annoyed me for quite awhile. The passage of the kidney secretions were regulated and I felt better in every way. I have had no trouble since."

"When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same the Mr. Avery had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

season. The game was in the nature of a practice game to give the coaches a chance to pick their men, and the playing of both teams plainly showed this. The High school players were unable to hit the Hope pitchers and Sirrine and Rank for the High school were given poor support.

The batteries were as follows: the High school—Sirrine and Rank and Steketee; Hope—Vander Velde and Lubber and Dalman.

During the spring term the Seniors in Public Speaking at Hope College received training in after dinner speaking. The class meets in the Administration room at Graves hall. To make the work as realistic as possible the students gather about the tables in true banquet style. Monday some of the young ladies furnished chocolate and waters and the Seniors had all the sensations of a real banquet before they indulged in their toasts. John Tillema acted as toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to: "Retrospect," Cornelia Bouma; "Senior Class and the Tug-o-War," Clarence Lokker; "Men of 1914," Nina Lindeman; "Seniors Scholarship," Harry Hoffis; "Girls of 1914," Con Jongewaard; "Senior Orators," Ruth VandenBerg; "Sins of the Senior Class," Helen Roelofs; "A Glimpse into the Future," Hazel Clements.

In accordance with the annual custom in recent years, Voorhees day will be observed at Hope college Friday, May 8, in commemoration of the birthday of Mrs. Elizabeth Voorhees, donor of the Voorhees Girls' residence. During the afternoon the Women's Oratorical contest will be held. The winner will be Hope's representative in the next state contest to be held in March.

Miss Jeanette Van der Velde of Grand Rapids has been chosen to deliver the Valedictory for the graduating class of Hope College this year. Each year this honor is given to that member of the graduating class who has attained the highest standard of scholarship throughout the four year course.

The other speakers chosen by the faculty to deliver orations on commencement night are Arthur Visser of Orange City, Ia., and Henry Ter Keurst of Hamilton. The class has also chosen Miss Cornelia Bouma of this city, John Tillema of Thomson, Ill., and Edwin Koeppel of Oostburg, Wis.

The Sorosis society of Hope college Friday entertained their friends in the rooms of the Visscher block. A short program was given in the rooms formerly occupied by the Ladies' Literary club. The following program was given: piano duet, Hugarian Rhapsody (Hoffman) by Clara Yntema and Marie Habermann; vocal solo, "Tis Spring" (Ware) Gertrude Keppel; reading, "A Good Dinner" (Cutting) by Frances Bosch; quartette, "The Rosary" (Nevin) Anna Kolyn, Ethel Dykstra, Marguerite Meyer and Elizabeth Van Burke.

After this program the company adjourned to the rooms on the third floor. The hall was beautifully decorated with the society colors, gold and white. This color scheme was carried out in all the decorations and even to the dainty dishes which constituted the sumptuous repast. Tables for four were placed all about the room and lighted with yellow shaded candles. Music was furnished throughout the banquet and the combined effect of the music, decorations and the happy company, made a most charming picture.

Miss Cornelia Bouma acted as the toastmistress and added grace and dignity to her position. The following toasts were very ably and wittily responded to by the young ladies.

"The Unappreciated," Ruth Pieters; "Mere Man," Eva Leenhouts; vocal solo, "Springtime," Margaret Den Herder; "The White and the Gold," Christine Van Raalte; "By-gones," Hazel Clements.

At the conclusion of this very enjoyable evening the entire company sang the Sorosis Song and a social hour followed.

The members of the Hope College basketball team Saturday displayed their heavy navy blue sweaters with two orange stripes around the body and around the arms. The sweaters were received Friday through the Boter Clothing Co. Although the college does not give sweaters to the teams, the proceeds on the Grand Rapids 'Y' game in this city were used for this purpose. The following players have received the sweaters: Lokker (capt.), Stegenga, Steininger, Veenker, Van Houte, Van der Velde, Dalman, and Smallegan.

Carl Staplekamp, representing the Preparatory department of Hope college, won the unanimous decision of the judges in an oratorical contest held in Allegan Friday, his opponent being a student of the Allegan high school. Mr. Staple-

HOPE COLLEGE

The Senior class of Hope College appeared for the first time Friday in their caps and gowns, the insignia of their Seniority. After the Chapel exercises Prof. Kleinheksel spoke a few words in recognition of the event and also of congratulation. He dwelt on the influence which the various members of the class had had and would still have upon one another although their spheres of service might be as distant as the points of the compass. He also spoke of the opportunity which the members of the class of 1914 had in graduating and taking up their life work at a time when problems were presenting themselves and demanding solution in all lines, social, economic and religious, as never before in history. He went on to tell how much was expected of the members of this class. In the first place by those who had sacrificed and struggled that they might obtain this education. Then also the expectations of the College, that as there had been advancement and growth thus far in the history of the school, so the college looked to this class and generation to do its share also. And so, he said, the church was also expecting great things of this class in the future leadership of the church and advancement of the kingdom.

This is the largest class which has ever been graduated from the college and as pointed out by Prof. Kleinheksel, represents in numbers more than the work of the College in the first twelve years of its existence, during which time the total number of graduates was thirty-seven. The present class of 1914, numbers forty.

The Hope College baseball team defeated the High school 8 to 2 Saturday afternoon on the College Campus. This was the first game of the Last Saturday night two men entered the grocery store of John Verhoeks, at Grand Haven, and with presented revolvers, demanded his money or his life. Verhoeks yelled and bolted for the door. One of the men then slugged him with a revolver on the back of his head, making a bad wound and knocking him senseless. The men fled.

Last Tuesday Sheriff Vaupell received word that two men had been apprehended at Saugatuck, answering the slight description given of the bold burglars, and on Wednesday morning he passed through this city with Verhoeks for Saugatuck. The suspected parties were not the culprits however, and were liberated.

MEN WILL COMMENCE FISHING IN ABOUT A WEEK

John Steimle has given up fishing from this port and has returned to Cheboygan, Wis., with his tug the "Cuckoo." With this tug he has been fishing out of Holland harbor last fall and this spring, but on account of light catches lately Mr. Steimle has given it up as a bad job.

"The Harvey Watson" owned by Chief of Police Van Ry and Mr. Wolters, is being put in shape and will very likely commence fishing out of the Holland harbor in about a week, in spite of the report given by the Sheboygan fishermen.

HYDRAULIC ENGINEER FULLER TO ADVISE CITY ON WATER SITUATION.

George W. Fuller, of New York, hydraulic engineer and sanitary expert, has been working in Holland for some time in an effort to learn what course this city should pursue in regard to the water situation. Mr. Fuller was engaged by the Board of Public Works and in due time he will make a formal report to the board, and make recommendations as to what is to be done.

The water problem has been a pressing one for a long time and the Board of Public Works has been making every possible effort to solve it and to hit on some definite plan that could be worked out consistently and that would give Holland an adequate supply of pure water. It is a big problem however, and all the courses that are open require very careful consideration. There are four ways out of the trouble, as follows:

1. The city can go to Lake Michigan for water. This would involve an expense of probably $230,000, including the filtration plant that would be necessary in view of the fact that government experts have declared that Lake Michigan water is not safe without filtration.

2. The city could go to Black lake and put in a filtration plant to make the water fit for use. There are a number of arguments urged against this, however. Also the expense would be considerable.

3. A third course would be to put in the so-called "double system" Much is to be said against this plan also, and for one thing, there is hardly a city of any importance where it has been used, so that it is hard to determine how satisfactory it is.

4. Still another plan would be to treat the water supply that we have now chemically so as to remove the iron and the organic substances that give it its present brownish colors at times.

The Board has been considering all of these various methods during the past year and more and has been making various experiments in connection with their efforts to secure a water supply. Each one of the methods proposed involves a large outlay of money. In order to have something absolutely definite to go by they employed Mr. Fuller, who is an authority of national reputation. When he makes his report the board will use it as a definite policy for the future and will do whatever it does in accordance with a general plan that is to be adopted.

If the new well is to be continued in operation the water will have to be treated. The well cannot be abandoned until a new source of supply has been found, as last summer every gallon was needed to keep up an adequate pressure. One half the supply comes from the new well and the city cannot get along without it until another supply is found.

There has been considerable complaint about the water, but it is a matter that cannot be remedied in a day, according to the opinion of the members of the board. It means a matter of many months and a large outlay of money. The iron and organic matter cannot be removed from the water without some filtration plant that will take care of the supply as it comes from the well and that is a big proposition. It is a serious question that has engaged the board for a long time. But as soon as Mr. Fuller makes his report they hope to decide on a definite plan that will give promise of eventual relief.

Look To Your Plumbing

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

The Committee on Sewers, Drains and Water Courses presented the following report for the information of the Council:

Your committee on sewers, Drains and Water Courses, beg leave to present the following report. The policy that wherever the public necessity requires that sewers should be laid and connections thereto made, has been carried out in the past year as heretofore, and in our opinion should be continued, with as little hardship on the individual, under all of the circumstances.

The Committee, and through it, the Common Council, in the last year has followed along a new line with reference to the construction of sewers, which might be desirable, but not of immediate necessity, in that unless the number of property owners who wished to make connection therewith warranted the expense to the City and the other property owners, the same was not ordered by the Council. It has seemed to the committee that no improvement should be undertaken, unless the benefit to be derived therefrom warranted the expenses to be made. In view of this policy the Council has not ordered the laying of sewers except where either the public necessity required, or where the number desiring to make connection therewith warranted the expense. In the opinion of your committee this is a fair and safe rule to follow, and we would therefore recommend that the same policy be pursued during the ensuing year.

Alderman King Wednesday evening introduced the following resolution on this point which was passed by the council:

Holland, Michigan, April 15, 1914
To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Holland,

Gentlemen:
Your committee on sewers, Drains and Water Courses, beg leave to present the following report. The policy that wherever the public necessity requires that sewers should be laid and connections thereto made, has been carried out in the past year as heretofore, and in our opinion should be continued, with as little hardship on the individual as possible, considering all of the circumstances.

The Committee, and through it, the Common Council, in the last year has followed along a new line with reference to the necessity, in that unless the number of property owners who wished to make connection therewith warranted the expense to the City and the other property owners, the same was not ordered by the Council. It has seemed to the committee that no improvement should be undertaken, unless the benefit to be derived therefrom warranted the expenses to be made. In view of this policy the Council has not ordered the laying of sewers except where either the public necessity required, or where the number desiring to make connection therewith warranted the expense. In the opinion of your committee this is a fair and safe rule to follow, and we would therefore recommend that the same policy be pursued during the ensuing year.

In tendering this, our annual report to your Honorable Body, we are gratified to find that we can report progress along every line of our work. Our increase in circulation over last year is 4804. The nonfiction books are being used more generally than ever before, both by the adult and juvenile patrons of the library, a fact that gives us much satisfaction.

We have issued 283 more borrowers' cards than last year, bringing our total number of borrowers' cards up to 2425. The reading rooms have been popular both during the day and evening and a growing tendency for earnest and useful work is noted.

Of the new books purchased the last fiscal year, many were for children. We felt justified in doing this because the children are such faithful and appreciative readers and they have made excellent use of their advantages.

During the winter months the pupils of the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th grades were invited to attend the story hour on Saturday mornings. The teachers of our public schools have been very helpful and this enabled us to give 16 story hours with an average attendance of 44. The largest number present at one time was 98. We hope to be able to continue this work and wish at this time to express our appreciation to the teachers who told the stories to the children.

Through your generous special appropriation we were enabled to cover our floors with battleship linoleum; this improvement has resulted in a much more quiet and attractive reading room.

TOM MAHON WHO ATTACKED MAN WHOM HE FOUND IN HIS HOME WITH HIS WIFE WELL KNOWN IN HOLLAND

Old All The Diving When Argo Went

Resorts Every Summer

YOUNG MAN WHO WAS TIED AND OPERATED ON WITH A CHISEL TELLS HIS EXPERIENCE TO THE NEWSPAPER

Tom Mahon, of Grand Haven and well known in Holland a diver, returned home unexpectedly and found Fred Ellison, 19 years old, in his home with his wife. Mahon tied him to a chair and mutilated him with a chisel. A physician called by Mahon, arrived in time to prevent the youth from bleeding to death. Mahon also is in jail awaiting the outcome of Ellison's injuries. Mahon was absent from the city last summer and upon his return heard rumors which reflected upon the character of his wife, a woman not yet thirty years old. Rumors dragged in the names of some of Grand Haven's most prominent residents. Tuesday Mahon told his wife he was about to leave town for a short time. In stead of doing so, however, he remained about the neighborhood of his home and saw Ellison enter.

The boy tells his experience to the newspapers as follows:

"I came from Nunica on the 7:30 car, got off and met Mrs. Mahon on the corner of Seventh and Fulton Sts. We walked around the back way and went into the house from the rear. I did not want to go in but she said to come on and I did. When we got inside Mahon followed me into the house. He said, 'You're the man who has broken up our home.' I did not say anything and he said very little after that. Mahon did not come very near me, and I tried to avoid him as much as possible. His attitude was threatening all the time but I did not see him make any move toward me. He put his hand toward his hip pocket at times which led me to think he had a gun although I did not see the gun.

"After some time Mahon told me to get into the other room and followed me from the kitchen; that was about eight o'clock. Mahon threw me a rope and said to slip it on my wrists. I thought the man was bluffing in some way but did not know how I put the rope on my wrists. In another minute he had jerked my hands to my side and had started to bind me up. When Mahon had got me tied, he set me down in a chair and drove his wife out of the house. He then tied my neck, feet and hands to the chair very tight. The woman knocked at the door about this time wanting to come in and asking him what he was going to do. Mahon said, 'Don't you go for help or I will end it all by shooting him right now.' There were people going by and Mahon jerked his wife inside. He then kicked and beat her. She fainted I think for Mahon put her on the lounge and seemed trying to help her. Mahon stayed with his wife for quite a while doing things for her.

"When he came back to me, Mahon asked me if I had ever heard of the Jack Cudaby case, and I said no. Mahon told his little boy to go after Dr. Presley. The boy went and returned after some time saying that the physician was not in the office. Mahon told him to go back and wait until the doctor returned; then to tell him that he was wanted at once. Mahon told the boy to wait on the corner of the street and when he saw the doctor coming to run home and rap on the window at once. All this time I had no idea what the man was going to do but rather thought he was going to try to bluff me some way. I did not know nor could imagine why he wanted the doctor.

About 10:15 some one rapped on the door and Mahon said 'Wait a minute, Doctor.' Mahon then ran to the kitchen and brought in a chisel, a mallet and a board about four feet long. I knew then that something was going to happen. Mahon had been using the chisel to cut the ropes with which he bound me up and I had thought nothing about it.

"It was but another minute until Mahon had taken the chisel and cut me with it. (unprintable)

"Mahon then ran to the door and let Dr. Presley inside. I was in awful agony. Dr. Presley asked me if my suffering was great, seeming to take in the whole situation at a glance. I asked him for God's sake to let me loose from the ropes. Mahon cut me loose. Dr. Presley, ordered Mahon to get some water and a pan with some cloths. The doctor held me so I wouldn't bleed much while Mahon untied me. Somebody brought the pan of water; I don't know who.

"Mahon came into the house without the doctor and said nothing. I was in such pain that I don't remember him saying anything. The doctor came back in a little while; he left again to get another doctor and I think he called the sheriff in the meantime.

"The doctors came in a short time and I had begun feeling stronger.

"In the meantime the sheriff's deputies and nightwatch were there too and they helped me onto the couch. That was about 11:00 o'clock; then they chloroformed me.

"When I woke up I was still on the couch. The doctors asked me if I felt able to walk to the machine outside and I said I thought so.

"I walked to the car with the help of the men and they took me to the jail hospital. I had been feeling weak and sick after I awoke but I went to sleep soon after I got to the jail.

"Mahon did not give me any chance in the matter; if he had I should have taken the one of being shot.

"If I had known what he was going to do, he would never have got the chance to bind me up.

"I wasn't the blame for the conditions of his home. I never asked the woman to come to her house; every time I ever was there she asked me to come. She came over to the Junction after me Monday evening but I did not come over."

Allison receives visitors at the Marine hospital, where he is confined under the care of Dr. Presley and is very optimistic regarding his condition. He has been informed by his physician that his condition could be much worse and that unless an unlooked for poisoning occurs, he will soon be a well man.

"SLICK" IS TAKEN ON CHARGE OF HABITUAL DRUNK- NESS. ONE MORE OFFENSE SEND HIM TO IONIA FOR ONE YEAR

Will Be Given Another Chance to Make Good.

William (Slick) Van Oort paid the costs of $3.45 when arraigned before Justice Miles Monday on a charge of being a disorderly person in that he is a drunkard. Slick was informed by the Justice that the next time he was arrested on any minor charge it would be considered his third offense and that he would be turned over to the circuit court for trial instead of being tried in a justice court.

Slick was arrested Saturday afternoon when he created a disturbance in Pino's restaurant by trying to make his wife quit work to sew bottoms on his coat.

Chief Van Ry arrested him under the habitual drunkenness act. If he gets drunk once more he goes to Ionia prison for one year. He has also been black listed in the liquor and drug stores.

BETWEEN EIGHT HUNDRED AND NINE HUNDRED PEOPLE ATTEND FEDERATION CONCERT

Most of the Numbers Are Heartily
Encored; "The Humanophone
A Pleasing Feature.

A large audience turned out at the High school last evening to hear the concert given by the Federation Male Chorus. Music was furnished by the Prospect Park orchestra from 7:45 to 8 o'clock. The first thing on the program proper was "March of Our Nation" by the Federation Chorus. Next came a reading by Miss Frances Bosch. Miss Bosch chose a scene from "The Lion and the Mouse" which was enthusiastically received by the audience and she was obliged to encore. Then came another number by the chorus "Break, Break, Break." This was followed by a violin solo "Salute d'Amour" by Herman Brouwer. Mr. Brouwer was accompanied by Miss Jennie Brouwer. This number also proved popular with the audience and Mr. Brouwer was heartily encored. The next number was a song, "The Radiant Morn Hath Passed Away," by Peter Oosting and chorus. Mr. Oosting has a fine baritone voice and he rendered the number in a very pleasing manner. This ended the first part of the program. During the intermission music was again furnished by the Prospect Park orchestra.

Perhaps the most laughable feature on the program was "The Humanophone" by Wm. Van der Hart and chorus. When the curtains parted a large frame was shown covered with a sheet on which was painted a staff and scale of music. Each note was a human face. Mr. Vander Hart took the part of Prof. Rubenstein and Richard Van Kolken acted as his assistant. Mr. Vander Hart kept the audience convulsed most of the time by his humorous sayings and actions.

A vocal solo "Gloria" by Mr. Albert Ten Hoor was pleasingly rendered. The next number by the chorus "The Feller with the Drum" was encored. The chorus responded with "And Still It Hung Behind Him." This was followed by a song "Away to the Mountains" by a double mixed quartette, which was also encored. The last number "The World is What We Make It" also proved popular. The program was a decided success and showed hard work on the part of all. Miss Ruth Redema acted as accompanist for the chorus. Some eight or nine hundred people were in attendance.

FOUR HUNDRED GALLONS OF FISH PLANTED IN SAUG- TUCK WATERS

Some time ago D. A. Heath made application to the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries for white fish fry to be planted in Lake Michigan, and last Saturday the fish car went through New Richmond. Ruben Sewers, Sr., who kindly volunteered to plant the fish met this train by boat and obtained 400 gallons of fish which he carefully planted in the spawning beds of Lake Michigan about three miles South of the harbor. If this planting were done every few years, the fishing industry might become what it has been in years past.
