"HELL" THEME OF LUKE RADER AT MEETING

TALKS ON THIS SUBJECT AT THE WEDNESDAY NIGHT GATHERING

The aerial girls from the Chicago Gospel Tabernacle are guests for several days of the members of this organization who live here in Holland. They sang several selections at the Rader meeting Wednesday evening. Mrs. Latham will speak to the women Thursday evening at 6:45 P. M. All girls and women are invited. Mr. Latham was spied in the audience and soon the noted artist was called by the audience to the piano. Mr. Latham needs no introduction to the people of Holland. He is in town with the Radio Rangers of WHT, who gave a brief program. The army was crowded to the very limit on Wednesday night. Mrs. Luke Rader sang a solo.

Mr. Rader, taking his subject on "Hell," based his thought on John 3:16, and said in substance: "God's dealing with this world in the gift of His son is a clear indication that there is something wrong with it. The sense of justice and need of punishment for wrong is inherent in the heart of man. Scripture also is definite as to the reality of eternal punishment for sin demands punishment. Today men deny the reality of eternal punishment, but God himself believes in its reality, as we see him open the way of escape through the death of His son. He is the only remedy from the disease of sin, by accepting Him as the One who has borne the guilt of sin for us."

NO TREE EVER DRINKS TO EXCESS

Although most trees are hard drinkers, none are guilty of drinking to excess. They drink continuously and become like toppers and demand a tremendous amount of moisture. The food of the tree is brewed in the earth and water is the principal ingredient of this food. Millions of bacteria work to make this food soluble so that it may be absorbed by the tree. Tiny roots search out the moisture and drag it into the veins of the tree where it is distributed to the many leaves and branches. Should the tree fall it is worked on by millions of other bacteria, which convert the body into food for other trees.

MAY 1ST TRINITY CHURCH WILL BE 16 YEARS OLD

ORGANIZED WITH 87 MEMBERS; NOW HAS 750 COMMUNICANTS

Next Sunday, May 1, Trinity Reformed church will be 16 years old. The congregation was formally organized on May 1, 1911, with 87 communicant members and 45 families. On May 19, 1911, the ground on which the present church building stands was bought. In the fall of that year, building operations were begun. The cornerstone was laid by the late Dr. N. M. Steffens, then professor of the Western Theological Seminary of this city. Rev. John Van Beursem was installed pastor of the church on April 21, 1912 and served this congregation very successfully until his departure to Kalamazoo to become the pastor of the 2nd Reformed church of that city and is now serving the First Ref. Church at Zeeland. The present pastor, Rev. C. P. Dame, was installed as pastor of the church on November 14, 1918, and although a number of invitations have been given him to go to other churches, he has remained with the church up to this time. The church has enjoyed a steady growth during its 16 years of existence, today it has a membership of 750 communicant members and 265 families are united with the church. It has a large Sunday school and a Week-Day Church school with a large enrollment. The church also has a Men's Relief Society. A number of churches have patterned after the Relief Society of Trinity church. Because it just so happens that on Sunday the congregation has its birthday the pastor Rev. C. P. Dame, will preach a special sermon in commemoration of the event on Sunday morning.

Trinity Reformed church has had but two pastors during these 16 years.

HOPE GRADUATE DEDICATES A CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Rev. G. J. Pennings, graduate of Hope college in 1905, delivered the main address at the recent opening of the Women's and Children's Hospital in Bahrain, Arabia. ## LOCAL TEACHER WRITES OF THE WEST AND CHINA

JOHN WHELAN GRADUATE OF HOLLAND HIGH, WENT OVER WITH FIRST MARINES

Miss Anne M. Whelan, attending University of California; Has High Grades

Letters from former students and teachers always awaken interest. Miss Ann M. Whelan, who writes from Berkeley, California, under the date of April 5, and using University of California stationery, has been both student and teacher in Holland high. Her letter in part follows: "Graduate work at U. of C. is very exacting. I am doing well so far, though, and it pleases me very much. I made A or A- on all my second midterms. I'm taking six courses. Since they adhere religiously to the five percent, a rule, I call that rather good. I have not started looking for a position yet, but expect to stay out in California now for a few years anyway. I want very much to teach in San Francisco, but as everyone else wants to, too, my chances are not good. The Berkeley schools are wonderful. They really surprise me. The army was begun. I like Frisco much better. It is a really charming city. After a few years, I'll be feeling about it as the native Californians do."

Miss Whelan is staying with the family of her brother John, who is now an officer in the Navy. He has been in China for two months, his ship carrying over the first load of U. S. Marines, and being held there by the Japanese. Since it is the only naval ship that has any accommodations for women.

"The situation there is extremely dangerous," the letter continues. "My brother is located in Shanghai, and over there where foreign soldiers are compelling order, it is very unsafe. No American who values his life walks anywhere alone. One of the ship's officers who went ashore alone, was attacked three times; first by a rickshaw man, then by a coolie, and finally by the sampanman who was rowing him back to the ship."

The marines, including General Butler, say that the second war has begun. They seem happy to get into action again."

Fifty Years Ago Today

Work has been started on the beautiful new residence of ex-mayor John Van Landeghe on the corner of 10th and Cedar streets. It will be the most handsome building in the city it is claimed. Note—The house in question was occupied for years by the late B. B. Godfrey and for the last few years was the College Inn.

The schooner A. Pleigier of Holland is sailing between Spring Lake and Muskegon City with lumber. Centennial Park is not much to look at but in years to come every body will be chanting the wisdom of its creators.

HOPE LOSES FIRST GAME TO KALAMAZOO

LOCALS GET ONE HOME RUN BUT THAT WAS ALL

Hope college opened her first game in the new stadium Wednesday afternoon and while the game was hard fought with a score of 3-1, in favor of Kalamazoo college, the initial game was lost, nevertheless, the same number of hits, made the same number of errors, but Hope didn't get the break and pinch hitting was lacking.

"Tie" Howard, a Hope man, was the only in Schonten's tribe to score and he made a "Babe Ruth" over the back fence.

The batteries for Hope were Kole and Japings and for Kalamazoo college were Watson and Schirer.

Kole for the locals pitched a fine game and for the matter every player on Hope's team played real ball for it was no walk away for the Kalamazoo as the score will indicate.

The team returned to Holland last night, but will leave circuit Friday morning for Alma and Saturday for Albion where the second and third games in the M. I. A. A. schedule will be played.

Frank Wade of Flint, president of the Michigan Federation of Labor who argued such hours must come through negotiation of men and employers.

HOPE STUDENTS MIGHT HAVE LOST DIPLOMAS

The critical moment in the struggle for a glory day after chapel exercises at Hope college occurred when the student body congregated in front of the chapel undecided whether to leave their books for the day or to get the most out of their tuition. One senior fellow tried to start them, but a reminder that it would mean the loss of his diploma, soon stopped his efforts. One group of about forty students started down the walk, but the larger group, clustered together on the steps, failed to follow. Glory Day was supposed to follow the oratorical victory of Mr. Damstra and Miss Schutt but it didn't materialize.

BIGGER-EGGS DRIVE SCHEDULED BY M. S. C.

POULTRY EXPERTS SEEK CAUSE FOR SMALL PRODUCE

The poultry department of Michigan State college has turned its attention to the cause of small eggs, responsible for the production of small or under-weight eggs. Specialists are inclined to believe the small egg is due to hereditary causes.

The problem is becoming a serious one since the produce trade is insisting upon eggs by grade and weight. The size and weight of an egg, the color of its shell and the freshness of its contents are grade factors. The importance of the small egg problem is emphasized by the fact that 2 per cent of all eggs produced in the fifth egg laying contest have been underweight.

The poultry department says many factors are responsible for the size of eggs, but not enough information is available to determine what is responsible for some of the peculiar fluctuations in size.

Wednesday afternoon in superior court, Johnson was committed to the state reformatory for one to five years at hard labor.

No need is found for a fourth one up to this time, but with a North cemetery, the village would be encircled with cities of the dead.

HOLLAND MAN IS MAKING VISIT IN NETHERLANDS

GIVES INTERESTING DESCRIPTION OF HIS TRIP AND HIS LANDING

Tells of the Tipping System in the Land of Windmills and Dikes

Martin Fransburg, the Central Ave. produce merchant, has reached the land of his birth on the big ocean liner "Volendam." Before leaving on March 11 for a three months' trip, he promised that occasionally a letter would be forthcoming. In his first letter he relates very detailed of his trip from the time he bought his tickets for the Netherlands from J. B. Mulder, at De Grondwet office, until he arrived in England.

He gives a description of his sight seeing trip in New York city, when he also visited Patterson, Passaic and Garfield. He stayed overnight with an old schoolmate and the two celebrated their first birthdays, both being equal old.

After doing New York and vicinity, they went to the dock of the North American Line and were soon aboard and comfortably situated in a state room.

He describes the wonderful sight and the feeling that came over him as the steamer passed old Liberty on Station Island in the harbor of New York, presented by the French Government to the United States many years ago.

"I met several Americans aboard who had lived in this country for some time," he says, "and who also longed for the land of liberty."

CHARGED WITH ARSON: OUT ON $13,000 BAIL

George Everett, 69, retired farmer and former contractor, who was arrested Thursday morning in connection with the $350,000 Macatawa Park fire a week ago, obtained his freedom when he furnished a bond for $13,000 set when he was arraigned before Justice F. E. Fish at Allegan.

Bond was furnished by Herman Vaupell, formerly of Holland, now cashier of the First State bank at Allegan. Atty. Cornelius Hoffman, who was retained by the aged Grand Rapids man to defend him against the charges of complicity in the arson case, returned to Grand Rapids Thursday night after appearing for Everett. Counsel for Everett waived reading of the complaint, in which Everett is charged with "causing and procuring a cottage to be burned and examination was demanded. The hearing was set by Justice Fish for next Thursday morning.

Earl Childs, 29, of Grandville, who has insisted that he was engaged by James L. Eckert, former Grand Rapids restaurant owner, to burn the Everett cottage, "Lynndale," pleaded guilty to setting the fire when he was taken before Judge Oren Cross in the circuit court at Allegan. This was in accordance with the promise which Fred G. Armstrong, chief of the state secret service, said Childs made when he turned against Eckert and made a confession Tuesday.

The guilty plea was first made on the one count in the warrant, that of setting the fire. Childs denied he had planned to defraud an insurance company, as was charged in the second count. "You acknowledge there was some talk of profit in this act for you?" Judge Cross asked the prisoner. "Yes," Childs responded.

Separate pleas of guilty were then made on each count.

Childs was returned to jail, as sentence was deferred. He will be the key witness, it was understood, in the court battle that Eckert and Everett are understood to be planning. Eckert has retained counsel and has demanded an examination which will also be held next Thursday.

Officers held a confession made by Eckert in the presence of Armstrong, H. R. Series and M. E. Shanteau, United Detective Agency operatives, who revealed the arson plot that the state now declares ended. Eckert, however, now denies actual complicity in the case, although he at one time asserted he had been approached by the man who said he was a cottage owner and that he, Eckert, then "got a man," who was Childs, to set the fire.

Everett's attorney revealed Thursday night that the insurance of $4,500 on the Everett cottage was not collectable, as the aged man had not transferred his policy when he deeded the cottage to his son, Donald, a few years ago. Donald is not implicated in the case.

Everett has made the statement that he knew Eckert only as a waiter in an east end restaurant and that he never made a statement, either jokingly or seriously, to Eckert about burning the cottage as Eckert at one time confessed.

WAS COLLEGE NIGHT AT THE RADER MEETING

A large crowd again filled the armory Tuesday night and as that was college night all students were invited. The American Legion band turned out and played several selections. Miss Netties sang, the Hope men's glee club rendered a few selections, and Mr. Howard Jones played a few numbers on the cornet. Mr. Floyd B. Johnson made his appearance Tuesday night and led the preliminary service.

Tonight the Radio Rangers and Aerial Girls will be presented. A special girls' meeting will be held at 6:45.

Mr. Rader said in substance Tuesday night: "Hypocrisy is the danger of our country today—to appear what we are not. Religion has become something on the outside only, in imitation of the Pharisees and Sadducees of old. But a real Christian knows that his sins are forgiven by the witness of the Holy Ghost. Belief is the basis of this transaction. This belief may at first be vague, but soon it becomes a conscious realization. This whole experience is based upon a reasonable act on the part of God, which is the death of Jesus Christ. Christ died not to bring social transformation primarily, but to save sinners. Those who through faith have accepted this ransom of God for sin are without condemnation. But this act of regeneration must take place here in this life. This conscious relationship results in a new creature, old things passing away, all things becoming new. New life manifests itself in daily walk, bearing the fruit of the spirit. He is a new creation, not reformation. And here so amazing should result in a whole-hearted consecration, making Jesus his master, his boss, which is the fullness of joy here in this life."

RADERETTES

There will be no one in Heaven but sinners saved by grace. We are not saved by goodness but by His blood shed on Calvary's tree.

Faith without action is no faith at all.

If you do not know positively that you are saved, you can be sure you are not.

A man who has taken Christ is not a reformation but a new creation.

When a man gives all to Jesus, all Heaven's glory is showered upon him. Joy just naturally bubbles over.

COUNTY NURSE TO STAGE 2 CLINICS MIDDLE OF MAY

The women's organizations of Zeeland and Coopersville together with the county nurse will conduct pre-school clinics in the Masonic hall in Coopersville on Thursday, May 10th, from nine to five o'clock and in Zeeland on May 12th.

Parents of pre-school children, two to six, are invited to bring their children into the clinic for examination before school starts. A record of the child's health will be sent to the various schools.

The aim of the clinic is to send as many children to school 100 per cent healthy as possible. Ninety per cent of the school children are suffering from physical defects that could have been corrected in childhood. Dr. Richard Olding Beard, secretary of the Hennepin County Public Health Service of Minneapolis says:

"The pre-school child, who is he and when? The little human being emerging from babyhood at the end of his second year, up to the time when at the age of six he enters schools, we call the pre-school child. Out of the cradle or the cot, just finding his personal place in the world, getting in touch by speech and other means of contact with the people around him, this is the pre-school age. Not of quite so rapid growth by weight or mass as the baby, the pre-school child grows the faster in feeling, and in action, in the power to do and be, in the use of his reasoning faculties and his gift of expression.

"The pre-school child should have a health examination at intervals of from six months to a year. This examination is made in the expectation of finding a child who is well, but with the definite purpose of keeping him so, if he is not, and of making him so if he is not. It should include a study of his physical conditions, his mental development, his behavior habits. This is the meaning of child guidance or the pre-school clinic. It recognizes a number of things; first of all, the very close association between a healthy body and a healthy mind; second, that healthy behavior is the product of both; third, that all three are more actively in the making of him than in other periods of life. It is the business of the physician and his helpers whether in the clinic or in private practice to discover the physical tendencies that determine good or bad habits which in their turn influence good or poor health."

OTTAWA COUNTY RYE IS WAY OVER AVERAGE

The current state crop report shows that Ottawa County has an 84 per cent condition of winter wheat compared with an average condition of 86 per cent for Northwestern Michigan which is also the state average. Rye is way above the average in Ottawa, however, being reported at 91 per cent compared with 80 per cent for this region and only 87 per cent for the whole state.

Farm wages by the month are $42 here, the same as is the state and sectional average. Without board they are $33 which is slightly above the $31 for this region and $29.75 for the state. The labor supply here is 68 per cent, which is above the 66 per cent for the district and 61 per cent for the state.

MAKE HOLLAND A 'TULIP CITY' IS SPEAKER'S PLEA

The regular meeting of the Women's Literary club on Tuesday afternoon was a varied and unusual one. The music was in charge of Mrs. John Vander Broek and consisted of a piano duet, "The Merry Wives of Windsor," played by Miss Mary Du Mez and Miss Sarah Lacey. The musicians responded to the request for an encore number. Then Miss Koertge explained the immunization for scarlet fever, which the board of health is endeavoring to give all school children, beginning next September. The civic health committee gave a live demonstration of the good being done by the clinics for babies. About a dozen happy, healthy babies greeted the audience from the stage. The clinics are carried on by Dr. Frances M. Howell, Miss Alma Koertge, Mrs. N. Bergen and Mrs. N. Robbins, Jr.

Miss Lida Rogers, of the faculty of Holland high school, talked on "Civic Beauty." She mentioned the necessary factors which are needed to make a beautiful city: streets that are wide, well planned, well named, clean, well lighted, well drained and lined with trees not too close together. She planned zoning system regarding buildings; a minimum of service stations; and parks adequate to the needs of boys, girls and grownups. Miss Rogers deplored the condition of our walks and crosswalks in winter in regard to snow and ice. She suggested one kind of tree on one street, that they be planted not closer together than forty feet and that Norway maples and elms be planted in the future.

The city parks should be planted with trees and shrubs native to this region and bird houses, bird baths and feeding stations be set out to bring the birds to combat the insects which destroy the tree and plant life. In order to protect the birds, they should be licensed as well as dogs and every owner compelled to keep puppy home at night and turn her out in the morning after a good meal.

Miss Rogers spoke of the uniqueness of the sand dunes and urged that steps be taken at once to replant trees at Macatawa Park. Support should be given the American Legion boys in their tree planting. The idea of two roads, one north and one south of Bait Lake to Macatawa Park, lined with elms, was presented. A picture of Kollen park, planted with native trees and shrubs, in natural groupings extending east to the boat dock would add much to the appearance of Holland. Under the heading of health, the speaker mentioned safe water, pure milk supply, a sewage disposal plant, a full time physician, nurse and health officer. Good schools to amuse, playgrounds, properly supervised swimming pools, and skating ponds for our children were needed. A juvenile court, a juvenile home with an adequate police force were also necessary. Miss Rogers said the character of commerce had been looking for something especially appropriate for Holland and had thought was to have every yard in Holland planted with tulips, and one day every spring set aside as tulip day.

Come down to Holland in tulip time, in tulip time, in tulip time, Come down to Holland in tulip time, it isn't far to go. And you shall wonder hand in hand, with friends in summer's wonderland.

The story of the play is about a young Austrian playwright who is drafted into service and forced to leave his young wife after a short married life of six months. The boy's father-in-law is a pacifist while his father is an unscrupulous war profiteer. The pacifist is expelled from his chair at the University of Vienna, while the profiteer reaps a fortune by manipulating the exchange. The arguments of these two fathers make this play one of the most enlightening war plays ever produced. Intense scenes are created when the call to arms is sounded in Vienna and a young Londoner is forced to defend his country's reputation in the midst of enraged Austrians, and also when a friend of the young husband returns from the battlefield with his awful story of battles and of the disaster of the young husband.

"The Enemy" is coming next week Wednesday to Carnegie Hall. Miss Remington, drama critic of the Grand Rapids Press, says, "The Enemy" is a play which high schools and colleges would be justified in urging their students to attend, for it sums up the whole sorry history of war and its causes and looks toward a more enlightened and peaceful future."

"The Enemy," by Channing Pollock, as the name implies, is a war play. The scene of the play is in Vienna and the time of the play is from

HOLLAND DRIVER COLLIDES WITH 2 R. HAVEN CARS

The most serious accident of the week in this section occurred Monday night when a Ford touring car owned and driven by Mr. Dugas, 508 Elliot street, Grand Haven, was struck by a Chevrolet sedan driven by Art Pickering, 551 River Avenue, Holland. Pickering struck the Ford, then veered to one side and side-swiped another car, a red sedan directly behind the Dugas car, which was damaged considerably. The occupants thrown out and cut by the flying glass. The sedan was owned and driven by George Brown, 141 Dugas, 508 Elliot street, Grand Haven. It was seriously damaged about the head and leg. Mr. Dugas was also cut about the head, arms, and legs, riding in the Brown car, also was cut. The remainder of the party were shaken and bruised. Dugas claimed the driver of the Chevrolet was intoxicated and ran directly into him at a great rate of speed. He found a pint bottle of beer in the car which was about half filled and has turned this over to the state police.

The touring car was completely demolished and the sedan badly damaged, with one wheel off, running bars gone and glass broken. The Chevrolet also was damaged badly.

The Dugas family returned from a party held near Agnew and divided themselves between the two cars, with Mr. Dugas and Louis in the forward car and Mrs. Dugas, Mrs. Brown, Anna Dugas and George riding in the second car. Passing motorists took the family to their homes. The Holland men were not injured and their car was able to move away under its own power.

Prosecutor Lokker has been investigating this case and as a result Pickering was arrested Tuesday morning on two charges, "driving while intoxicated" and "possession and transportation of liquor."

The prosecutor states that according to witnesses, Pickering endeavored to rear a bottle of "moon" on the pavement, but the container did not break and he states he has this half pint containing some of the liquor in his possession.

Pickering stated that he is not guilty and demanded trial. His hearing on the charge of drunkenness will be held before Justice Charles K. Van Duren on Friday, May 13, at the city hall. His examination on the second charge, which is a matter for circuit court, will also be held on that date before Justice Van Duren.

Henry Van Klink, also of Holland, passenger in the Pickering car, was arrested by Deputy Egbert Beekman on a drunk charge, connected with this accident, and when he was arrested Tuesday morning, he stood mute and his trial will also be held at the same time and place. Attorneys Robinson and Parsons are representing the two men.

MORE THAN 100 WOMEN ARE ON KITCHEN DUTY

Mrs. Ruth Morley, home demonstration agent, marshalled 27 cars about the county Saturday when the Ottawa county kitchen tour got under way and visited five model kitchens about the county.

Some 125 women were interested in this tour which completed the project of a group of rural women who have been studying the best methods of arranging farm kitchens.

Among the interesting ones were Mrs. Henry Marshall whose working unit was displayed, showing how hours of labor and miles of walking could be saved the busy farm housekeeper.

Mrs. Gus Irish, had taken a back porch and pantry and followed the suggestion of the project almost to the letter. The work was done by herself, hiring a carpenter only one half day. The effects gained were unusual.

The inspection of a man made and planned kitchen was also on the list but fell by the way side in the estimation of the assembly and proved that a woman can certainly direct that end of the house with profit.

JOHN BUSBY SERIOUSLY ILL AT HIS DETROIT HOME

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Stegeman were called to Detroit because of the critical illness of John Busby, Mrs. Stegeman's father. Mr. Busby is in such serious condition that he is not expected to live. He has many friends in Holland, having for many years been prominently connected with the Holland interurban, which concern he left some years ago to make his home in Detroit.

DITCH BLASTING GETS GOOD TRIAL IN THIS COUNTY

C. P. Milham, county agricultural agent, wore a smile Monday as he gave a report of the ditch digging demonstrations held Saturday, for as he said, "the ditches dug and blown out with dynamite were the best and deepest of any ever made in Ottawa county," and he has substantial proof of that statement.

A large number gathered at the farm of George Maierhauser in Grand Haven township, six miles southeast of Grand Haven, and saw the work under ideal conditions of soil and moisture. Test shots were made before getting to the real work.

The charges were placed every 20 inches, using one half sticks. It was found that on a rod basis, a ditch three feet deep and seven feet wide was made at a cost of 62 cents, which he says is phenomenal. The ditch dug was 12 rods long.

On the farm of Scott Holmes, different conditions existed. Here water covered the territory from six to 12 inches. Soaked heavy clay soil was encountered. Even at this a trench six feet wide and 3 1/2 feet deep was dug at a cost of $1.25 a rod.

A huge granite rock, a relic of the glacial deposit, was blown up and demonstrated beyond a doubt the value of explosives. This stone weighed 15 tons and contained 378 cubic feet. It was a landmark and a stone of great beauty. Buried in clay to the depth of five feet, the farmers about declared it could not be moved. The first charge tore it out of the ground, and in three pieces. The other charge completely riddled it into fine pieces.

James Dyke, a skeptical farmer near Coopersville, declared he could dig a trench by hand cheaper than this artificial method. He was completely convinced when it was demonstrated the trench could be dug for the same amount with explosives and at the same time was deeper.

An electric cap method is used. This cap is charged by a wire connected with a generator. Setting off the one ignites the rest of the dynamite and there is no personal danger whatever.

Hundreds of farmers left their fields to attend these demonstrations and Mr. Milham has about convinced them that dynamite is cheaper and certainly a far easier method than the back breaking methods of hand and shovel.

CONCRETE BOWL FOR MUSKEGON

Muskegon High School's football team next fall will play in the time honored home of its predecessors, historic concrete Hackley Field, but one section of the wooden stands which have been taxed by capacity crowds on several occasions will by that time be replaced by the first unit of what in a few years will become one of the finest concrete bowls in the country.

Through the co-operation of the Muskegon Board of Education, the high school athletic association has prepared plans for floating a bond issue of $75,000 for the construction of the first unit of the stadium seating 6,000. The bonds will be disposed of on the plan used at the University of Michigan giving purchasers reserved seat privileges for a number of years. They will be redeemed by lot from the earnings of the association each year.

Three time last fall the capacity of the field was taxed, 9,500 fans jamming their way in until there was not an inch of standing room left. It is believed that 15,000 people would have witnessed the annual Thanksgiving Day clash with Grand Rapids Central had there been room in the stadium.

TO MAKE A DRIVE IN THIS SECTION FOR POULTRY AS'N

Interest in the newly organized Ottawa Cooperative Poultry & Egg Marketing association, as indicated by the number of poultrymen attending the local meetings being held in Ottawa and Allegan counties, exceeds the expectations of the officers and directors of that organization.

The thirty seven local meetings, arranged for the purpose of acquainting and informing the poultrymen of the plans, purposes and method of operation of the proposed cooperative marketing organization, are being carried out according to schedule. During the past two weeks meetings were held in eight different communities in Zeeland and Overisel townships. Meetings for this week are being conducted in Pilmore township. Beginning next Monday series of four meetings for Holland township are scheduled as follows: Holland City Hall, Monday evening, May 2; Van Raalte School, Tuesday evening, May 3; Noordeloos School, Wednesday evening, May 4; North Holland School, Thursday evening, May 5.

At each of the meetings Mr. R. V. Gunn from the Economics department at Michigan State college gives a clear and interesting discussion on the fundamental principles, benefits and limitations of farmers' cooperative marketing organizations. Mr. Van der Bosch, secretary of the association, who was a member of a committee sent down to Watson, Ohio, to investigate the operations of a successful cooperative poultry and egg marketing organization there, tells from first hand knowledge how this organization operates and what it is doing for the poultry producers of northwestern Ohio. Mr. Maurice Luidens, president of the new organization here, and a man who has had wide experience in farm organization activities in Ottawa county for the past several years, carefully and frankly explains the details of the business form of the proposed organization.

Following each meeting a local committee is appointed to work with the directors of the association for the purpose of calling on individual producers to sign the marketing agreement. No individual soliciting work has been done to date but already about thirty producers, representing approximately 10,000 hens, have voluntarily signed up at these preliminary meetings. Directors of the association are optimistic in the opinion that over 100,000 hens, the minimum number required to start operations, will be obtained before July 1.

TIRES IDENTIFY DRIVERS

Driving peculiarities are reflected in the wear. There are no two drivers who handle their cars in the same manner under similar conditions. Some motorists use extreme caution on rough roads, others drive over them as if they were perfect. Tires identify the two types.

REV. HARNES AGAIN IN COURT; SUED FOR AUTO

A default judgment of $9,209.08 was given the plaintiff in a suit brought by the Union National bank against the Muskegon Wood Products company and Barney Olanovsky, its president, Tuesday afternoon in Muskegon court. Circuit Judge Oren S. Cross of the Ottawa county court presided in the absence of Judge John Vanderweide.

SAYS THE LEGAL PROFESSION LEADS IN CRIME REFORM

That the legal profession is not trailing public opinion in the reform of criminal procedure, as is often charged, but that it is ahead of the general public in its appreciation of the need of reform was asserted Tuesday night by Attorney T. N. Robinson in an informative paper on "Criminal Procedure" read before the Social Progress club when it met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Slater, Graves Place.

Mr. Robinson's main argument was incubated by the fact that Governor Green early in his administration made a rather dramatic gesture in regard to criminal procedure reform and passed some rather severe strictures on the legal profession for being lagged in this matter, declaring that if the lawyers did not do it the laymen should cut through the mass of technicalities and get real reform.

Mr. Robinson prefaced his paper with a synopsis of the Michigan crime code which has just been passed. In his introduction he made a show of how they would probably work. But the main point he made was that, far from being lagged in this matter, the legal profession is far ahead of the public in its appreciation of the need of reform.

The reader of the paper supplemented his main argument with a study of the fundamental basis of legal procedure and he made an eloquent defense of the legal profession, declaring that there is as much opportunity in it for the service of humanity as in any other profession and that the members of the bar, taken as a whole, are as patriotic and as devoted to the highest social ideals as the members of any other profession.

Many social events are scheduled for the coming week, in the last month preceding commencement week, which opens June 12. Twelve banquets will be staged by the various literary societies and end with the alumni convocation June 14.

Mrs. J. S. DeYoung, who for many years was a resident of Grand Haven, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boer, 1246 Pennoyer avenue, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. DeYoung, who has lived for the past three years with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Koolman of Zeeland went to Grand Haven on a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boer and was taken ill almost immediately. From the first it was feared she could not recover and death came on Monday.

Mrs. DeYoung was born in the Netherlands, province of Friesland, on March 18, 1840, and came to this city with her husband and family in 1882. She resided at Grand Haven until three years ago when her daughter moved to Zeeland.

During her residence in Grand Haven she was a faithful and active member of the First Reformed Church and for many years served as president of the Senior Ladies Aid Society.

She is survived by one son, George DeYoung, for many years a prominent business man in Gd. Haven, now of Muskegon, and his wife, Mrs. Koolman of Zeeland, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boer, 1246 Pennoyer, on Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Burial was in Lake Forest cemetery.

LOCAL JEWELER GETS WORD FROM SISTER IN CHINA

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Selles, who left Holland for China less than a year ago as missionaries for the Christian Reformed Church in America, have written a graphic account of their experiences in the Orient, since they and other missionaries were forced to leave Nanking for Shanghai. The letter was written by Mrs. Selles to Peter A. Selles, jeweler of Holland, and was postmarked, Shanghai, March 30. Excerpts follow:

"The week before the siege of Nanking we heard the roar of the guns and ordered by the consul to pack our suitcases, some bedding and some food, and be ready to leave within 20 minutes. When the second order reached us, we jumped into our clothes, took a bite and left. We met at the home of Dr. Boven, president of Nanking university, taken in cars to the front of the city. The soldiers assisted us into little launches, and were taken to United States destroyers. We went aboard the Noa and others on the Preston. We sat on our baggage for lack of room and were given a warm dinner. The sailors gave us their bunks while they slept on deck and the officers gave their room to the women and children.

"Meanwhile the southerners were looting the city, destroying homes, the American Episcopal church and the Christian mission buildings.

"The saddest news, however, was the report that Dr. J. E. Williams, vice president of Nanking university, had been killed. Williams was walking with three other professors, when he stopped to converse with a soldier. He was robbed of all his money and then murdered. The soldiers attacked Dr. Smith, a Britisher, and he was ordered to give up his wedding ring. The ring, however, was so light that he was kept up for a few minutes and the party was enabled to scale a wall, by means of a rope made of sheets. They finally reached the gunboats in safety. The guns had scared the southerners so that all the sailors found of them were hats and shoes they had left in their hurried flight.

"Finally two boats came down the river to take us to Shanghai. There we were met by Dr. Pousma, (formerly of Grand Rapids) and were taken to the missionary home. Gradually the rest of Nanking people arrived. The party included Miss Anna Moffat. She was held up by the soldiers at her mission school and they demanded her money. She gave them $1,000, after which the soldiers shot her twice, once in the leg and the other through the abdomen. She, however, has a good chance for recovery.

"Another sad story is told about Dr. Price, professor in a theological school. He was tortured by soldiers for several hours and his life threatened. He was bound, beaten and robbed.

"One of the language school teachers suffered a narrow escape. The soldiers tied him to a pole and pegged stones at him. They stripped him of his clothing and robbed him.

"Our homes have been wrecked, all our values stolen and we were fortunate to escape, even though only with the clothing on our backs. Now the southerners are attacking the poor Chinese Christians, who have no protection. Many of them were in hiding when the missionaries left and much fear is expressed for their safety.

"Prospects for the immediate future are most discouraging. It is possible that we will be forced to leave Shanghai for the Philippines, Japan, or some other place for safety. Most of us, however, are planning to return to America at the earliest opportunity.

Mrs. Selles in her letter praises the American sailors who did everything possible for the safety and comfort of the missionaries.

The American Legion members will do their annual spring tree planting Thursday afternoon. Legionnaires are asked to meet at the armory at 5:30 o'clock. Each is asked to bring a shovel and to be ready for hard work. From the armory the Legion members will go to 28th street and First avenue where they will plant trees on the chamber of commerce plat.

Sentence day in the Ottawa County Circuit Court is Thursday, and all those who have been waiting for their final judgments will appear before Judge O. S. Cross. On a request from the sheriff sentence was advanced from Friday to give him time to get the prisoners to their destinations by the end of the week and to give the county clerk more time to make out the series of papers that must accompany every prisoner.

The program for the concert given by the high school music department is fully completed now and the musicians are being drilled thoroughly in order to assure the public of a well rounded program.

The musical organizations will be assisted by Miss Gertrude Baker as a reader. This talented student will read several selections.

Some numbers on the program are: "Wanderer's Night Song," (Rubenstein), "Lo Now The Dawn," (Elgar), Junior High Glee club; "Sylvia," (Speaks), "Bouncing Over the Deep," (Gingrich), Sr. Hi Boys Glee Club; "Moonlight," (Fanning), "Gloria," (12th Mass) (Mozart), mixed chorus; "Gloria," (Largo) (Dvorak), "My Love Dwell in a Northern Land," (Elgar), S. Hi. Girls Glee Club; Ballet music (from Rosamunde) (Schubert), "Stars and Stripes Forever," (Sousa), S. Hi. Orchestra.

The junior high orchestra will also play several selections. A great deal of work has been put on this program and a good audience should greet the performers.

Gerrit A. Koning, aged 70, died Tuesday evening at 10:30 at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. F. Dryden, 93 West 13th street. Mr. Koning was born in this city but he had been a resident of Grand Rapids for many years. He conducted a grocery store there until March first of this year, when he sold out his business and came to make his home with his sister here. Besides Mrs. Dryden, three brothers survive: John and James of Saugatuck, and Albert of Lakewood Park.

The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home, 93 W. 13th St., Rev. Davidson, pastor, of Hope church, officiating. Interment will be in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Coach John H. L. Schouten has awarded the Hope "B" to the following players: DeVelder, Bovenkerk, Bekken, H. Japinga, De Jongh, Klaassen, Heydorn, Howard, Kruijsenga, Den Herder, Flikema and Bosch. Eight of these men represented Hope in the A. U. tournament.

Spring football has been eliminated owing to the fact that many members of the football squad are participating in track, baseball and tennis. About 15 men are practicing daily for track activities. This number may be augmented and place Hope in a position to enter into an extensive track schedule. A tentative meet has been negotiated with Olives for May 14 and some Hope men likely will be entered in meets with other state colleges.

Hope and Kalamazoo college will clash in baseball at Kalamazoo Wednesday afternoon. Schouten plans to use about the same team which played the opener, with Cole on the mound.

Troop 16 of Grand Haven Second Christian Reformed Church Wins March Troop Efficiency Contest

Troop 16 of Grand Haven has won the Troop Efficiency Contest for the month of March, the first month of the contest.

The contest is conducted by the Ottawa County Boy Scout Council, and all registered troops in the county are competing. Everything that makes for general troop efficiency is taken into consideration.

The honor trophy holds it for one month and has its number engraved on it. At the end of the calendar year the troop having earned the largest number of points during the entire year is awarded it permanently.

Troop 16 is only one year old but has made splendid progress during that time. The membership is still quite small, consisting of only sixteen, including scoutmasters, but its record shows it to have a foundation of quality. Evan Van Lopik, yeoman in the district Coast Guard Headquarters, is scoutmaster and Henry Jansman is assistant scoutmaster.

The troop committee is composed of chairman F. C. Bolt, Paul Nyhoef and John Vandenburg.

The standing of the various troops in the contest is as follows:

Troop 16, Grand Haven Second Christian Reformed church, 84 points.

Troop 1, Grand Haven Presbyterian church, 57 points.

Troop 14, Spring Lake, 56 points.

Troop 11, Holland Sixth Reformed church, 55 points.

WORK ON SUMMER PROGRAM FOR PINE LODGE HAS BEGUN

Men of international standing have been secured for the 1927 conference at Pine Lodge. The program for the summer is now completed and the Pine Lodge assembly is happy over the strong programs it is able to promise.

Dr. Melvin Grove Kyle and Dr. Leander S. Keyser will be the outside speakers at the general Bible conference. Dr. Kyle is acknowledged as one of the leading theologians in the world. He has been in Holland and delivered several lectures. As a speaker he is very simple and delightful and has proved himself a worthy champion of the conservative position.

Dr. Keyser is professor of theology in Hanna Divinity school at Springfield, Ohio. The committee is glad to have secured him for this year's conference. He takes rank among the most learned and gifted of the conservative scholars. He is the author of many books and is in demand as a conference speaker because of his platform gifts.

Two men of strong personality and experience in boys conference work have been secured for the boys' conference. They are Rev. Howard Brumbaugh and Capt. Ernest Hartman. Rev. Mr. Brumbaugh is now identified with the Third Reformed church of Holland, a teacher of a large men's Bible class in that church. Capt. Hartman is athletic director at the Holland high school and is also a leader and teacher in church and Sunday school work.

For the girls' conference the committee is happy to announce that Miss Evelyn Zwemer will be added to the faculty. Miss Zwemer is secretary of the young people's department of the Reformed missionary boards. She is coming west to have charge of the missionary hour of the girls' conference.

The second annual boys' conference will be held from July 7 to 15 inclusive. The program includes classes in Bible, missions and athletics. An interesting feature will be the campfire each evening when boys' problems will be discussed by leading business and professional men. Registrations have been limited to 75.

The third annual girls' conference will be held from July 28 to 31 inclusive. Registrations will be limited to 75. Mrs. J. Vander Meulen will act as house mother. There will be classes in Bible led by Miss Hannah Hookle and classes in Missions led by Miss E. Zwemer. Girls' problems and practical hour will be conducted by Miss Harriet Lee; Miss Jeanette Albers will have charge of recreation and Mrs. A. De Young will lead Vespers each evening.

There will be boating, fishing, swimming and other athletics for both boys and girls.

The third annual general conference will be held from August 18 to 28 inclusive. Speakers will include Rev. Melvin Kyle, president of Xenia Theological seminary, St. Louis, Mo.; Rev. L. S. Keyser of the Hanna Divinity school of Springfield, O.; Dr. John E. Kuizenga, president of the Western Theological seminary, and Dr. S. C. Nettling, president of the Grand Rapids Theological church. Music will be an important feature of the conference.

PASTOR FROM MASSACHUSETTS COMES TO HOLLAND

Rev. Joseph P. De Vries of Whitinsville, Mass., has announced his acceptance of a call to the Christian Reformed church at Harderwijk, Holland. The pastorate was vacated in 1925 by Rev. A. Keizer, who became emeritus after a service of 40 years in the ministry.

Mr. De Vries was ordained in 1917. He has served churches in New Era and West Leonard streets, Grand Rapids. There are 35 families in the Harderwijk church.

GIVE GLEE CLUB GIRLS MUCH PRAISE

Grand Rapids Press—Hope College Girls' Glee club, Miss William J. Fenton, director, and Miss Christine Webb, accompanist, divided the program at the St. Cecilia Friday afternoon with the St. Cecilia quintet: Mrs. Maurine Quirk, soprano; Mrs. C. B. Newcomb, second violin; Mrs. V. I. Calkin, viola; Mrs. John Dietrich, cello, and Mrs. Frederick Royce, pianist. The ensembles gave a delightful program.

The Hope college girls, appearing in college cap and gown, gave an example of chorus singing which might well be taken as a criterion for many similar organizations. Their fine technical work was the result of expert directing. The 16 singers, or double quartet of voices, used a light flexible tone as the basis of their work, broadening at times into full voiced singing. Their voices are young and fresh and they colored their tones skilfully, producing a delightful variety.

The clear enunciation made listening a pleasure as every syllable was plainly intoned, free from all traces of even of blurring, while the chorus was most commendable. The chorus sang with perfect unity.

The glee club has been filling concert engagements during the spring season and is well equipped for such work. In Washington the girls sang for President Coolidge.

Their most ambitious number was "The Heavens Are Telling" from Haydn's oratorio, "The Creation," arranged for women's voices, and they sang it exceedingly well. They opened the program with group of interesting and well sung short numbers, "Amaryllis" by Baum-Ghyss; "Starry Night" by Denmore; "Indian Night" and "Tiptoe" by Barrie-Carew.

The last group included "Irish Hills" by Lester, "The Brownies" by Weatherly-Leoni, a sprightly song finely enunciated, a medley of southern songs arranged by Sheridan and "Shadow March" by Stenson-Prohser.

After prefacing their story much as the Grand Rapids Press had done the Grand Rapids Herald gives the following: "The girls wore their college caps and gowns and gave a program showing fine technical work. Their voices were clear, fresh and young. They sang with perfect unity and their enunciation was particularly clear. Mrs. Fenton is an expert director. They opened their program with a group of interesting and well sung short numbers: 'Amaryllis' by Baum-Ghyss; 'Starry Night' by Denmore; 'Indian Night' and 'Tiptoe' by Barrie-Carew."

Chamber of Commerce Men Raise $18,000 In 20 Minutes To Bring A Fine New Industry To Holland

The enthusiasm of the Liberty loan drives during the World war was recalled and duplicated Friday night when about a hundred members of the chamber of commerce gathered in the Warm Friend Tavern and put over an $18,000 proposition before they left for home.

The project was to raise $18,000 with which to finance the moving expenses of the Lawrence Brothers Paper Box company from Chicago to Holland. While the cost of moving and installation will be well over $25,000, the company agreed to come if the sum of $18,000 was contributed to help defray expenses. About a hundred members of the chamber of commerce gathered in the dining room of the hotel and after the matter had been explained to them, the $18,000 was raised in just about twenty minutes. When the meeting adjourned, the sum was pledged.

The method is the sale of 85 lots in what will be known as the Chamber of Commerce Plant, now known as the Vinkmuller property lying between 28th and 30th streets and west of First Avenue. The lots sold for $425 cash or $450 on a contract plan. With the money secured by this sale the chamber of commerce will finance the moving of this company.

Pledges were passed around after the proposal had been explained to the members and they were given an opportunity to sign for one or more lots. The first batch of pledges brought in fifty sales. Jack Knoll said the American Legion not only would plant trees on the lots but would take a lot for themselves and give others. Similarly the Exchange club, through Dick Boter, promised to sell a lot. Individuals kept making pledges until there were only 16 lots left. On the suggestion of A. H. Landwehr, who served as spokesman, 16 volunteers were called for, each of whom pledged himself to sell a lot within 24 hours. Even for President Coolidge.

The most ambitious number was "The Heavens Are Telling" from Haydn's oratorio, "The Creation," arranged for women's voices, and they sang it exceedingly well. They opened the program with group of interesting and well sung short numbers, "Amaryllis" by Baum-Ghyss; "Starry Night" by Denmore; "Indian Night" and "Tiptoe" by Barrie-Carew.

THUMPS THE IVORIES

Harold Mustaine, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, who is the regular pianist with the Rader organization holding services in the armory.

asserted that many things in life must be taken on faith and that he was willing to take on faith the plan worked out by the board of directors of the chamber of commerce. He said the company had chosen Holland because they knew of the high and honest character of the labor here. Holland, he said, has built a reputation for itself in that respect and that reputation is now beginning to pay dividends. High class concerns want to come to a town with high class labor and with conditions that will make life worth living. It is about time for Holland to get a new high class industry, Mr. Dickema said, to keep up our self-confidence and to make the people want to exert real efforts to do still more. As a city of home owners, Holland is on a firm base and there is no chance to lose in investing or locating in such a city. Holland never fails when it goes after a project of this kind in earnest, he said, and he expressed the belief that it would not fail in this instance.

A. H. Landwehr, who was next called upon, pointed out that there is keen competition among cities for such concerns as the Lawrence Brothers. Poor concerns can easily be seen in Chicago, Mr. Eberhardt being in the building trade. About seven years ago they moved to the fruit farm at Pine Creek which they have since developed into a fine place. Deceased is survived by her husband and five children: Helen, Olga, Adelaide, Ethel and Violet. The funeral was held Tuesday at four o'clock at the home, Mrs. Geere, of the Christian Science church, officiating. Interment was in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

share of the lots. When the auction opened all were thoroughly familiar with the situation and little urging was necessary to dispose of the lots. While Mr. Landwehr, the auctioneer, said it would be easily possible to sell the lots if a canvass were made, the plan was to finish the job right there at the meeting, partly to save work and partly to show that the members of the chamber of commerce have faith in the future of Holland. And when the members went home the job had been done and another big step had been taken in the industrial development of the city.

MICHIGAN STUDENT CARS TO GO UNDER BAN

The University of Michigan joined Princeton in the ban against student ownership and operation of automobiles. It was believed here today. Members of the board of regents have begun investigation into an automobile accident yesterday, which resulted in the death of a student and the perhaps fatal injury to a co-ed. After the meeting of the regents, President Clarence Cook Little gave out a statement, which may indicate drastic action to follow at Ann Arbor.

INCREASE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF C. OF C. BOARD

At the suggestion of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce that board was increased from nine to eleven members Friday night at a dinner meeting of the membership at the Warm Friend Tavern. There were no manufacturers on the board and it was suggested to add two who should represent the manufacturing interests. As the two new members S. R. McLean and Arthur Wrieden were elected.

Frank Lievesee, chairman of the membership committee, made a plea for co-operation in making up the membership for the coming year. The canvass is now being made and the committee has met with considerable success. A number of concerns have assumed several memberships and many individuals have come in. He asked all who had not yet done so to sign membership cards and he requested that all use their influence to increase the list.

THREE ZEELAND PLACES ENTERED BY BURGLARS

Three burglaries have been reported at Zeeland within a week. The burglars got little loot and authorities have been unsuccessful in getting a clue.

The buildings entered were the Haan Drug Co., where the burglars failed to open the safe; First Christian Reformed church, where operations in opening the safe failed, and the Eding plant, where a small amount of money was taken.

After an illness of some duration, Mrs. Oscar Eberhardt, aged 37 years, died Sunday morning at her home on Rural Route 11, just west of the Pine Creek school house. Mrs. Eberhardt was born in Germany. After coming to America the family lived in the East for a number of years and later in Chicago. Mr. Eberhardt being in the building trade. About seven years ago they moved to the fruit farm at Pine Creek which they have since developed into a fine place.

Deceased is survived by her husband and five children: Helen, Olga, Adelaide, Ethel and Violet. The funeral was held Tuesday at four o'clock at the home, Mrs. Geere, of the Christian Science church, officiating. Interment was in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

BIG TIME TO BE STAGED BY THE LEGION JULY 4TH

At the regular meeting of the Willard O. Leenhouts American Legion post on Wednesday evening two very important matters were brought up, namely, tree planting and the Fourth of July celebration.

The tree planting committee reported that most of the trees planted the past 3 years were doing satisfactorily; that about one ten had to be replaced. This mortality is not excessive, but the discussion emphasized the fact that more after-care and attention would lower this death rate and help the trees in their growth. It was agreed that this policy of after-care would be followed more vigorously in the future.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Legion is enthusiastic about the proposition and proposes to give the boys a luncheon and entertainment in the evening after the planting.

The day for the planting will be next Thursday, April 28, instead of Tuesday as at first decided upon. Every Legionnaire interested in the movement should report at the armory at 5 to 5:30 P. M.

The Fourth of July celebration is the big idea of the Legion at the present time. This event will be an important one for the city of Holland. The Legion proposes to make this the biggest and best Fourth of July celebration ever staged in Holland. Already several important numbers have been decided upon, and the program is being put on a jolly good Fourth in their own home town. Morning salutes, buglers, band music, a lake excursion on one of the Goodwin Line steamers are all in the program. The main attraction, however, will be at the fair grounds, where continuous performances will be staged from 11 o'clock on, winding up with a fireworks display, such as has never been put on in Holland before.

Preparation for this big event will go forward from now on, beginning early enough in the season, so that everything will be ready for the big day.

IS HONORED AT CONVENTION OF MUSICIANS

The singing biennial of the national federation of music education, which has just been held in Chicago, was attended by three members of the Holland Musicians club, Mrs. Jeanette Hughes Brumbaugh, Mrs. Martha Robbins, and Miss Myrtle Beach. The convention was a great success in the opinion of the delegates and it was voted to hold the next year's gathering in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Brumbaugh was appointed district chairman of the Grand Rapids district, which includes the towns from Cadillac, south to St. Joseph. The federated music clubs are doing everything in their power to raise the standard of music in the home, school and church and to sound the death knell of lower forms of jazz. It also awards prizes to young artists who pass the examinations given and they are given an opportunity to appear with the big symphony orchestras. If it singers, are given a debut in opera, by the big opera companies in the United States. It is a movement toward "American Music for Americans."

COMMUNITY CHEST FAILS, CHARITIES CUT DOWN

Failure to fill Kalamazoo's $122,000 community chest necessitated a reduction today of ten per cent in the April allotments to the 19 participating charities and welfare organizations. Installments were paid in full, according to approved allowances, during the first three months of the year. But as the fund campaign fell $20,000 short it was necessary to make a general reduction for the remainder of 1927.

MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE TO ADJOURN FRIDAY, MAY 13

With only three major problems remaining before it, the present legislature is nearing an end. Members are figuring to rush their work in the next three weeks so that adjournment may be taken during the week of May 8, probably on Friday, the 13th. If it is not too many in the rank and file of a superstitious turn of mind, the closing date may be a day earlier.

LETTERS ARE AWARDED TO H.S. PLAYERS

Holland high school's basketball athletes were awarded their letters at Friday morning's chapel exercises when Mr. Hinga presented ten men with the coveted "H" and ten others with their hard-earned "B". A pep meeting was held in honor of the graduating athletes, at which the next year's captain, Louis Elendbaas, gave a short talk on the success this season and the prospects for next year. Mr. Hinga emphasized the fact that "B" men work just as hard and take just as much knocking about as do the "H" men.

Those receiving the "H" were: Gerald Breen, captain; Louis Elendbaas, capt-elect; Elbert De Weerd, capt. all state second team; Albert Smith, Lester Vander Werf, Edward Spencer, Lucian Paulus, Clarence Tyse, Harold Tania, and Gordon Korsanje. The "B" men who made a fine record for the season are: Lewis Japiga, Gilbert Zigmeter, James Tyse, Carlott Morin, Howard Dalmat, James Zwemer, Bernard Keefe, Leslie Hofsten, Arthur Van Ralsta, Chester Slighter, and Jerry Houting.

WOULD PLANT THE BURNT AREA WITH SEEDLING PINES

A project is being suggested that may result in the rehabilitation of the devastated area at Macatawa park more quickly than if nature is left to itself there. It is proposed by Miss Lida Rogers, of the biology department of Holland high school, to have the students and faculty, of that department arrange for the planting of pine seedlings in the burnt over section.

The project has been proposed to a member of the cottage owners' association of Macatawa and he will take steps in the near future to call to the attention of the owners of the lots in the devastated area. The fact that the section was thickly covered with fine trees shows that it is practicable to plant seedling pines there and it is believed that in a few years distant future this area will have regained some of its beauty as a result of this effort in reforestation.

The consent of the property owner will have to be secured, but the member of the cottage owners' association who has interested himself in the matter thinks there will be no difficulty about that. It will be a benefit to the owners of the lots. Every tree that is planted will add to the value of the property. But the active co-operation of the owners will be sought by those who are planning the work.

Another problem to be solved in connection with the plan is the value of the property. While the high school biology department will be glad to take charge of the project and will see to it that everything possible is done to make the reforestation plan successful, it has no money for such a job. The section must be bought and labor is required to set them out. This part of the plan will also be taken under consideration and it is believed that it can be worked out satisfactorily.

RESORTS WOULD BE HARD HIT IF BILL PASSES

River and lake front property loses its exclusiveness and right of continued personal ownership under the terms of a bill passed by the Senate and now before the House at Lansing. The measure would give power to the state to condemn private land for dam, reservoir or impounding purposes.

Technically, the bill provides that power companies may invade any district, resort, or otherwise, where commercial development has a possibility. The only limitations are the public utilities commission must determine the project's feasibility and in regard to the good of the public, and the court must determine necessity and compensation.

TELLS ABOUT LOCAL MAN'S EASTER SERMON

The Hopkins correspondent for the Allegan News tells about Dr. J. E. Kutzenga's Easter sermon there. Dr. John E. Kutzenga of Western Theological seminary preached at the Community church at Hopkins Easter Sunday. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, daffodils, ferns and tulips. He certainly preached a fine sermon, after which a class of thirty was baptized. Twenty-four were also admitted to the church by letter making the total membership to date, one hundred and twenty. After hearing Dr. Kutzenga, one could better understand why the young men of the seminary were of such pleasing personality and such capable young men for the ministry. Mr. Henry Korver will finish there in May, when he and his fine wife will take up their residence here.

The Holland police arrested Wm. Lewis, living on North River Ave., on request of Sheriff Weaver of Van Buren county, who stated that Lewis is wanted at Paw Paw for contempt of court. In what trouble the Holland man was involved was not stated. Deputy Buckley of Paw Paw took his man back Friday.

That section vaguely known as the "north side," namely the community across the river, feels that it is being treated unjustly on many occasions when something of a creditable nature happens anywhere north of Holland. The community complains that whenever anybody goes wrong who lives anywhere north of the river, even if his home is near Grand Haven, he is spoken of as living on the "north side."

The community north of Holland, which is almost a little city by itself, takes a great deal of pride in its advancement and there is a live community spirit there. An organization known as the Boosters Club has been in existence there for some years, which takes every possible opportunity to make the place grow. This club has taken cognizance of the injustice that is being done to the community in this way and it is asking everybody who reads its happenings from north of the river to specify exactly where they have taken place.

The main street of the north side community is called Howard avenue. This is the street that runs along the lake, past the pigskin tannery, the Van-A-Tap company and the Andline Works. The north side community is perfectly willing to take its just share. When something creditable happens on Howard Avenue it is willing to have it so stated, but it asks that when something happens on the Alpena road or far out on M-11, it be so specified, and not be merely called the "north side," by which most people understand the community immediately north of the river.

The north side is a rapidly growing suburb. It takes great interest in its P-T clubs, its business advancement, its beauty, and the Boosters club is doing everything in its power to help progress along. Hence this request from the public, newspapers and others to help protect the good name of the community.

CONTRACT FOR OTTAWA BEACH ROAD IS LET

Bids were received and opened in the office of the County Road Commissioner by the Ottawa County commissioners Friday morning for the several contracts that are to be let throughout the county for the regular summer season schedule of work planned at a previous meeting.

The next in size is the 16 foot work on the Alpena Beach road which went to the same contractor at $17,000. This will be three quarters of a mile long. Cline and Boelsen of Spring Lake were the successful bidders on the quarter mile stretch called the Nunica road. This will be 18 feet, the lowest bid was $6,032.28. The Byron road of three quarters of a mile will also be built by Cline and Boelsen at a cost of $16,842.10.

Bids were also taken on $90,000 worth of 4 1/2 per cent bonds to be given to the Ottawa Beach improvement and given to the Grand Haven State Bank as best bidder. They were sold at par with a premium of $72.

VISIT COUNTY INFIRMARY WITH RIB- BONED AUTOMOBILES

Autos trimmed with white ribbon and holding a large delegation of Spring Lake W. O. T. U. members visited the County Infirmary at Eastmanville on April 15, and brought the inmates a quantity of candy, fruit and jellies for their Easter dinner.

A short program was given for the benefit of the inmates which included songs and a religious talk by Mrs. H. Merriman. The visitors were much impressed with the cleanliness of the institution and good appearance of those living there. Much appreciation was expressed by the inmates and some voiced the sentiment that "it was just like Christmas."

The northeast corner of Ralph Nagle's farm also is cut off. The commissioners awarded Ellis $4,000 damages, $1,500 more than the state had offered. Nagle was awarded $3,000 damages, $1,000 more than the state offer. Homer Todd, Wayland township, was awarded $100 damages where the road will run on the east side of a small lake instead of the west side.

APPEAL IS MADE IN OTTAWA FOR FLOOD SUFFERERS

Ottawa county will do its share for relief of the Mississippi flood victims. G. J. Diekema, president of the Ottawa county chapter of the Red Cross, today received a letter from Wm. M. Baxter, Jr., assistant to the vice chairman of the northwestern branch of the American Red Cross, asking for relief funds. The letter was marked "Important" in red ink.

Mr. Diekema immediately designated the three Holland banks as the places Red Cross may be donated for this cause. He asks that those who wish to contribute do so immediately as the need is very urgent. It is expected that similar arrangements will be made in Zeeland and Grand Haven and other places in the county. The letter asking the funds follows:

"Reports received to date from chapters and Red Cross workers assigned to flooded areas in the Mississippi Valley are increasingly serious and indicate clearly that the present situation is without a parallel in the record of floods in the Mississippi valley and will require an extraordinary effort if the needs growing out of the situation are to be met.

"Twenty-five thousand refugees are reported homeless and looking to the Red Cross for food and temporary shelter. Thousands of families are living in box cars and tents and the United States Army. Our workers report great distress as the concentration of refugees continues with roads in many places blocked and the plight of these refugees who have left comfortable homes submerged or surrounded by water to seek the best shelter that neighborliness and just generosity can provide is pitiful.

"The National Red Cross has appropriated $25,000 for relief purposes and in addition has assumed the administrative expense that may be involved in the general direction of relief operations. The circumstances justify a general appeal for funds. Please give general publicity to this appeal within your jurisdiction, announcing your chapter's readiness to receive contributions for expenditure by the American Red Cross. Please advise me of action taken and the contributions received directly to this office."

In his capacity as president of the Ottawa county chapter of the American Red Cross, G. J. Diekema today received the following telegram from William M. Baxter, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., in charge of the mid-central division relief work for Mississippi flood sufferers:

"G. J. Diekema, Chairman Ottawa County Chapter American Red Cross, Holland, Mich. "President Coolidge has issued proclamation calling upon people to give quickly and generously to Red Cross Mississippi flood relief fund. Emergency situation extremely grave and seventy-five thousand homeless and hungry people are in need of relief. Please advise me of action taken and the contributions received directly to this office."

"William M. Baxter, Jr. "Mr. Diekema anticipated this telegram last week when he issued an appeal to the people of Ottawa county to make donations without delay for the relief fund. He pointed out at that time that the need is very great and very urgent. It is becoming greater and more urgent every minute and today to Ottawa county to do its part in the work of helping the flood victims.

The point is emphasized that a dollar donated quickly is doubly effective. The need is pressing and the Red Cross needs money immediately. The people of Ottawa are urged to do their share in this calamity as they have always done on other occasions when people in other localities needed help.

As announced last week, the money can be left at any one of the three Holland banks. Yesterday Mr. Diekema's class in the Hope church Sunday school contributed $58.40 to this cause. Other organizations are urged to do likewise, and members of individuals who wish to help the sufferers are urged to do so without a moment's delay.

SPEEDING TO BE CURBED AT GRANDVILLE

Efforts to stop speeding within and through the village of Grandville are being made by Deputy Albert Elders and Marshal Henry Vandenberg. Speeding is so common and the attendant dangers are becoming so great that alarm is felt for the safety of the citizens traveling the thoroughfares.

This condition is recognized to the point where the Grandville business men's association advocated the installation of signal lights on prominent corners within the village, particularly at the corner of State and Wilson.

The request for the light since has been met by the village board which has placed an order for them. Officers Elders and Vandenberg are issuing a warning to a great many who are violating the state law, exceeding the 15 and 25 mile limit within the village. Those who persist in continued violation will be haled before the justice who will administer the proper dose of medicine. Gerrit Gryzen of Hudsonville who became offensive when stopped, was fined $3 and $8.75 costs for his unruly act.

NICHOLS BUYS BASKET PLANT

The sale has been completed of property located on Seventh and Madison sts., Grand Haven, known as the old basket factory warehouse, to Harry S. Nichols of that city, former publisher of the Grand Haven Tribune. It includes 66 feet on Seventh and about 140 feet on Madison streets.

The property will be remodeled somewhat and rented to George Rosso and Harry Lock who will operate a business to be known as the Mutual Sales Company.

Mr. Lock will maintain a warehouse and retail and wholesale basket business similar to that carried on by the Higman Package Co., which went out of business there about a year ago. There is a big demand for baskets for small fruits and grapes and the establishment of this business will be welcomed by many farmers who are growers in the vicinity. Mr. Lock was associated with the Higman Package Co. and is well qualified to take over the business.

George Rosso, who has conducted a used car sales business for a number of years, will continue that line of business from the newly leased building.

City Attorney C. H. McBride presented to the city of Holland the certificate of copyright of the original plat of the city of Holland, known as the Tinkham Plat. The certificate was issued by the department of patents and copyright on March 19, 1870. It is a document which has considerable historical value for the city and it will be preserved in the city's archives.

Mr. McBride secured the certificate from Fred K. Tinkham of Grand Rapids, son of John P. Tinkham, who made the plat and after whom it was named. The son some years ago saw the late P. H. McBride's copy of the map of the Tinkham plat in Mr. McBride's office. This map after the death of P. H. McBride was presented to the city. Mr. Tinkham sent the certificate to Mr. McBride, stating that he believed it would be appropriate to have the certificate go with the map. ## MAY PASS NO SPEED LIMIT BILL IN MICHIGAN

Abolition of the speed limit outside cities and villages was approved today. The bill repealing the speed limit law, introduced by Senator Seth O. Pulver, of Owosso, will come up for final action Monday night and if passed, will be sent to the house.

Although the measure does not set a speed limit for the motorists, it provides that if a driver is doing more than 35 miles an hour at the time of an accident, the court may hold him to be driving recklessly. In advocating its passage, Senator Pulver declared the present 35-mile an hour is an antiquated law never obeyed.

TELLS ABOUT INDIAN DESERT

Rev. John Everington, artist, lecturer and preacher, delivered an interesting illustrated lecture Thursday night in the Maple Avenue Christian Reformed church on the subject, "Life on an Indian Desert."

Included in the lecture were new and interesting pictures of the wonderful Indian city, Pueblo Bonita (City Beautiful)—the ruins of which are now being excavated and are among the finest in North America; the ruins of the Ancient Aztecs; Shiprock, the Sentinel of the Desert, and new studies of the world-famed cliff dwellings of the Mesa Verde National Park.

All of these pictures were recently taken by the lecturer and provided an unusual and up-to-date study of the people and places which link America's present golden age with her ancient and romantic past.

Mr. Everington will return to Holland May 9th when he will speak in the Maple Avenue church on the subject, "Exploring the Rockies With a Camera." This is said to be even more fascinating than the lecture given Thursday night.

H. J. Davidson, formerly of Crookston, Minn., and now an auto salesman for the Oakland garage, and Miss Adrianna Was, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Was, 100 East 8th street, were united in marriage Saturday morning at the parsonage of the First Reformed church, Rev. James Weyer officiating. Miss Was graduated from Holland high school in 1920 and she has been employed at the Peoples' State bank for more than six years. The couple will make their home in Holland. They have left on an automobile trip to the East.

Angus De Kruif spent a few days of last week in Chicago and incidentally his wife and son, Jack, who returned from spending the winter months in Oakland, California, with Mrs. De Kruif's parents. She also visited relatives in Long Beach, and other points.—Zeeland Record.

It is estimated that 12,000 men are now employed, or 75 per cent of the peak set in 1923.

PEACHES AND CHERRIES DAMAGED BY FROST

TWO THOUSAND HEAR RADER AT ARMORY SUNDAY

A record crowd came to hear Luke Rader Sunday night when he delivered an address on "The Jew and the Second Coming of Christ." Mr. Rader, a native of Holland, is a prominent solo, "The Holy City." Mrs. Luke Rader sang several selections.

About 1200 people turned out to hear Rader at the afternoon service. Several people came from far to hear these speakers and singers as they are well known in the area.

On the subject, "The Jew and the Second Coming of Christ," Mr. Rader said in substance:

"Four things bear evidence to the existence of a God who is vitally interested in man: first, the earth; second, the Bible; third, Jesus Christ; fourth, the Jews."

"The Bible, tho written by forty men from various walks of life, living over a period of fifteen hundred years, yet proclaims a program which only God could carry out."

"Jesus, by his birth, life, work, claims and achievements shows himself to be that God coming to fulfill the plan set forth in the Bible."

"The Jews are the most ancient nation, except the Chinese today, whose former conquerors are only memories. Tho the Jews have been persecuted as no other nation, yet today they are the most modern and up-to-date, being leaders in every field of human endeavor. When the Jews were given Jerusalem in 1917 the plan of God set forth by their prophets in their Bible was as marvelously and minutely fulfilled as it is today when Jesus was born exactly when prophesied in the city of Bethlehem."

"He closed by urging a wholehearted surrender to Jesus since He is God, the Bible is God's word, and there is a heaven to gain and a hell to shun."

Mr. Rader speaks Tuesday night on the subject, "What It Means to be a Christian. No meetings will be held on Monday evenings."

THE MOTHER HEN LOSES HER JOB IN THIS SECTION

The mother hen has lost her job. No longer is she required to spend three weeks on a nest hatching eggs. Now her duties are confined to laying more and better eggs. Great incubators have replaced the setting hen, and where once broods of a dozen were the rule, today the chicks are counted by the thousands and even the millions.

At the Holland and Zeeland post-office between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 chicks will be shipped by parcel post this season to all parts of the United States and Canada.

Henry Ford once talked about turning out automobiles as so many pins and that in a way represents the way baby chicks come forward from the twenty or more hatcheries in Ottawa county.

On one hatchery from Feb. 1 to June 15 the baby chicks are turned out at a rate of more than 50,000 a week.

The capacity of this one hatchery is 270,000 eggs. And every week one-third that number of eggs are placed in the incubators, replacing that number of baby chicks that have peeped through the shells and eggs that have failed to hatch.

It is Sunday morning and the first cheeps of the chicks are heard throughout the long one-story building that houses the incubators. As the day goes on the cheeps of the baby chicks increase in volume. By Monday morning the hatching of the week is over and on that day thousands of baby chicks are taken from the incubators and shipped to various parts of the country. Then until the next Sunday quiet reigns again.

Just as when the eggs are covered by the protecting wings of the mother hen, requires three weeks to hatch the eggs in the incubators. So it has been arranged at hatcheries that on the third of the eggs shall be hatched every week, thus spreading out the work of the men employed there.

The eggs are placed on trays in the incubator and as the chicks are hatched a slide is removed and the chicks, attracted by the light through the glass panel, crowd to that side of the tray and drop down below into a second tray. From there the chicks are removed, placed in cartons of 100 and shipped.

Once a hatching is over the men are busy filling the incubators again with eggs.

Usually the hatchery owners figure on a 50 per cent production from the eggs. However, this season around 70 per cent of the eggs are hatching, probably because of the mild winter. Hens do better when there is plenty of sunshine during the winter, and as a result the eggs are what is known to the egg men as "stronger."

Practically all of the chicks are shipped at once but some hatcheries retain a portion to sell at the end of eight weeks as broilers.

The baby chick does not require food until after 72 hours, having eaten the yolk of the egg just before hatching. The chicks usually reach their destination before the feeding day arrives. While some are shipped to the Pacific coast states, the losses have been heavy and as a result the hatchery owners try to confine the business to neighboring states and nearby Canadian points.

The shipment of chicks from the Zeeland and Holland postoffices is so great that the Pere Marquette railroad provides two special cars twice a week from here to Chicago. Extra help is supplied at the postoffices to handle the shipments.

The hatcheries guarantee 100 per cent delivery and as a result of improved methods and speed of shipments the losses are not great. A few extra chicks are added to the order to take care of any loss.

Orders run from 100 to 10,000 and are mostly from chicken raisers.

The hatching season represents only a part of the work in connection with the operation of a hatchery. The eggs for the hatchery are furnished by farmers in this section and are delivered weekly.

The hatchery has general supervision over the various flocks from which the eggs are obtained. The hens are from the stock of the hatchery in the first instance. All the improved methods of poultry raising and grading are used to keep the flocks at high standards. Only large white eggs are used, and every effort is made to obtain eggs of uniform size.

DEATH COMES TO GREATER-LOVED WOMAN MONDAY

After a critical illness of thirteen weeks, Mrs. Daniel Ten Cate died Monday evening at 8:45 at her home at 162 West 14th street. Thirteen weeks ago Mrs. Ten Cate suffered a stroke at a social gathering at her own home, while she was serving her guests, and since then she has been confined to her bed, in a very serious condition. On Monday she suffered another serious stroke, and she was unconscious all day Monday.

Mrs. Ten Cate was one of the best known and most loved women in the city. She had a kind of genius for friendship and all who knew her were her friends. Her serious illness was a matter of concern to a very great number, and her death is felt as a great personal loss by them all.

She was born in Grand Rapids forty-nine years ago, her maiden name being Verona Kleaver. She graduated from the public schools and high school of that city about 24 years ago, she became a member of the Y. W. C. A. and she has made her home here ever since. She is survived by her husband, two children, Vernon and Myra, two sisters, Mrs. Nick Spritama and Miss Elina Kleaver of Holland, and two brothers, Peter Kleaver of Grand Rapids and Frank Kleaver of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Ten Cate took a prominent part in the social life and church and school life of the city. She was a member of Hope church, of its women's aid and missionary societies, of the Woman's Literary club, and of a variety of other literary and social organizations. Her part in the social life of Holland was usually active. Her funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at the home, Rev. T. W. Davidson, D. D., pastor of Hope church, officiating. Interment was in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

New Company To Continue Operating Puritan, Manitou

Manistee, April 21. — Northern Michigan ports were assured of boat service from Chicago during the coming summer when the Puritan and Manitou, chief assets of the defunct Michigan Transit company, were sold at auction to Chicago financial interests which will form a new company to keep the boat line in operation.

United States Marshal Martin Brown of Grand Rapids put the two ships under the hammer this afternoon. About 50 were present at the docks when the bidding started. The Central Trust company of Chicago, holder of the defunct company's bonds, bid in the Manitou at $175,000. B. Floyd Clinch, of Chicago and Traverse City, financier and coal dealer, offered the successful bid, $102,000, on the Puritan.

Mr. Clinch is a director of the Central Trust company, an official of the Cream-Clinch Coal company of Chicago with a claim against the Transit company for coal supplied, and president of the Traverse City State Bank.

In addition to the price paid there will probably be about $35,000 preferred maritime claims which must be assumed by the purchasers.

Mr. Clinch and Louis R. Schraeder, vice president of the Central Trust company, said after the sale that the ships will be operated between Chicago and northern Michigan ports as in previous seasons. They will be fitted out at once and probably will start the 1927 season about May 15.

The principal ports served will be Ludington, Manistee, Portage Lake, Charlevoix, Traverse City and Harbor Springs. Both freight and passengers will be carried.

Indications that there will be business co-operation between the new boat company and the Manistee & Northwestern railway were seen when it became known that Mr. Schraeder is a stockholder and probably will be elected an official of the reorganized railway company.

"This is not purely a business move with us," Mr. Clinch asserted. "If it were I would not have undertaken it. I spend my summers up here and I think it is not only a delightful place to live, but one in which business is certain to improve with the development of the resort industry."

Manistee expressed great satisfaction at the sale. The Michigan Transit company was in financial difficulties for several years. Last year it enjoyed good business, but the prosperity came too late to save it. It was feared that the ship line might be lost, but now Manistee will continue to have boat lines, the other being the Pere Marquette line, Manistee owned.

H. J. Hughes, assistant executive director of the Great Lakes St. Lawrence Tidewater association, was in Muskegon Friday in the interest of a proposed treaty between the United States and Canada with regard to the development of St. Lawrence waterway to the sea project.

"At a time when not only the officials of our association but also of official Washington were feeling pessimistic about the St. Lawrence waterway because of the apparent lack of interest on the part of the people of the middle west, the Muskegon conference had a profound effect on the situation and indicated an aroused sentiment in favor of the waterway," said Mr. Hughes.

"The enthusiasm displayed at the Muskegon conference, the number of people of the middle west, the Muskegon conference had a profound effect on the situation and indicated an aroused sentiment in favor of the waterway," said Mr. Hughes.

OLD TIME TRAVELING MEN TO HOLD RALLY

Three hundred traveling salesmen who worked in and around Grand Rapids between the years 1880 and 1910 are expected to attend the old-time traveling men's reunion at Hotel Grand Rapids Saturday evening. George W. McKay, who traveled 25 years as a salesman, is promoting the event. Leo A. Carey will be toastmaster.

COOLIDGE'S VISIT TO AID SEAWAY

The decision of President Coolidge to spend his vacation in the west, whether it is in Michigan, Wisconsin or Minnesota, the three states under serious consideration, is expected to aid the cause of the development of the St. Lawrence waterway to the sea.

Officials of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association are pleased that President Coolidge is coming to this section, where the demand is being made for the route to the sea. They point out that he will be able to obtain first hand information as to the feeling of the people in this regard.

It is said that President Coolidge desires to be where he can obtain first hand information regarding the dam problem. And the problem of the farmer in the middle west is linked closely with the St. Lawrence development. Since the regional meeting in Muskegon thousands of communications have poured into Washington asking that steps be taken at once to arrange a treaty between the United States and Canada. President Coolidge has heard the arguments and he will be able to make a first hand study of the situation.

PRESIDENT CALLS ATTENTION TO WAR INSURANCE

President Coolidge has issued the following war risk insurance proclamation:

During the World War the United States government insured, at an exceedingly low premium rate, nearly 5,000,000 members of the armed forces of the country against death or total permanent disability. The insurance thus granted was for the greater protection of the insured and their dependents than was afforded in the compensation of the members of the insurance and unconnected therewith, which was provided for death or disability resulting from personal injury, or disease contracted in the military service.

Statutory provision was made for the continuance of this war risk insurance after the termination of the war, and its conversion within a limited time into such form or forms of insurance, usually issued by life insurance companies, as the insured might request. Many veterans do not seem to have had knowledge of this continuing privilege, and for one reason or another have permitted their war risk insurance to lapse. Under the terms provided for the re-establishment of lapsed insurance, normal health conditions will permit re-instatement upon the payment of two monthly premiums; and for those whose service disabilities render them otherwise uninsurable, who are not permanently and totally disabled, provisions are made for re-instatement upon the payment of premiums and interest for the period of lapse. Even these payments may be temporarily waived for those whose resources do not permit immediate compliance.

The law provides that no re-instatement of war risk life insurance which has lapsed after the termination of July 2, 1927, after that date, such war risk term insurance cannot be re-instated. On or prior to that date, therefore, such insurance must be re-instated and converted, at the election of the applicant, into one of the more of the seven standard forms of life insurance provided by the Government. If such insurance is now in force, the insured must convert it into one of the forms above mentioned on or before the date specified.

The potential protective value of the insurance thus provided is apparent, as affecting the future economic and domestic welfare of veterans and their dependents. Provisions are made for extensions, paid up values, loan values, cash surrender values, and dividend participations. No premium is charged during total permanent disability. Thousands of our national defenders are passing on each year. All veterans of the World War should be generally and fully informed of their right to procure the safe and certain protection of themselves and their dependents of the insurance afforded by the government.

Detailed information reference to such insurance may be obtained from the Central office of the United States Veterans' Bureau, Washington, D. C., or from its regional offices located throughout the country.

Wherefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, do hereby designate the period January 21 to February 7, 1927, as a time during which special efforts are to be made to inform all veterans of the World War of the right they have to re-instate lapsed war risk life insurance, and to convert it into United States government life insurance, so that all such veterans may, in some manner, be properly informed, I urge all citizens, particularly employers, the press, labor organizations, women's associations, professional groups and civic and patriotic bodies, to secure full information and use such means of informing the veterans as may be most effective.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this eleventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-seven, and the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-first.

(SEAL)

By the President:
CALVIN COOLIDGE.
Frank B. Kellogg,
Secretary of State.

SLOT MACHINES TO BE TABOO AFTER THIS IN OTTAWA

War was opened today by Sheriff Kammerbeek and Prosecutor C. A. Lokker on slot machines in Ottawa county. In a signed statement these two county officials say:

"Notice is hereby given that the officers of Ottawa county will not countenance any kind or type of gambling device. Several complaints have been brought to the attention of the Ottawa county officials with reference to slot machines, and because of that fact the sheriff's department and the prosecutor's office are hereby giving notice that all slot machines of every kind and description that are now located in any place of business within Ottawa county will be removed and action will be brought for violation of the state law. Under the law a slot machine operated by the player deposits any money therein, and then turning a crank whereupon the machine will automatically pay the reward which will always contain a package of gum, mints, etc., of the retail value of the coin deposited. The offender in addition thereto one or more checks which may be used in playing the machine or having a value in trade is a gambling device; and this is the law even though by means of indicators the player is informed as to what the record will be before each play, though there is no method of knowing what the reward will be as to subsequent plays."

"This notice is hereby given to the public generally by the sheriff and the prosecuting attorney and the sheriff of Ottawa County."

OUTLOOK FOR POULTRY IS FOUND GOOD

With eggs selling slightly cheaper in most localities in 1927 than in 1926 or 1925, many poultry raisers have been asking the question: "What of future egg and poultry prices?"

This question is a fair one and justifies careful consideration, both to those who are inclined to be alarmed by the present situation, and to those who are inclined to be optimistic. A recent survey shows that of this number 170 have died. Some of these have been replaced, the remainder will be replaced this spring and this fall.

There have been no abnormal receipts of eggs at the terminal markets. It is true there has been a slight increase in the receipts of eggs at these markets. However, this is only a normal fluctuation. The season likely to run from 5 per cent to 10 per cent over any particular egg season or period. An increase of from 5 per cent to 10 per cent in egg receipts during a six months period is not anything to cause alarm.

The increase in egg receipts at the large terminal markets for the past six months' period has been less than 10 per cent. It is more than likely that the next six months' period will see a decrease of more than ten per cent in egg receipts, which will balance the supply.

"Then why the drop in egg prices?" you question. One of the general explanations is that during the past year the remarkable open weather extended from coast to coast. Taking the country as a whole, we have had a very mild winter. Consequently, this mild weather has brought the hens into laying condition earlier than usual and, of course, the consumption of eggs has not been large enough to take care of the early increased production of eggs. The local poultry buyers were not ready to store eggs so early and as a result many of them were conservative in their buying.

There is really no surplus eggs averaged over the year. The surplus over and above consumption, which usually occurs in April and May, is usually small. The month of largest production of eggs, but this year it moved up to March.

With the hens beginning to lay early, they will naturally lay out their heavy production at an earlier period of the season. This will mean that the prices of eggs will increase, probably as early as May, and then rise steadily throughout the season, especially during the fall and winter.

Prices for poultry meat have been very satisfactory during the past season. While egg prices, for a few weeks, have been rather low, yet taking the season through, the large production of eggs has made it a fairly profitable year, even for the strictly commercial egg producers.

Farm poultry raisers have found the season a very profitable one for poultry, not only on account of the high price that market prices have brought, but also because of the large production of eggs. Even at the unusually low prices the heavy production of eggs has shown a good margin of profit to poultry raisers, as compared with other farm products.

The best proof that poultry raising is profitable, and has been more profitable during the past year than any other farm crop, is the fact that agricultural authorities, almost to a man, are urging farmers to raise more poultry.

Those who practice aliphod methods in poultry raising and expect to make their entire profits out of the eggs laid in the spring will be somewhat disappointed this year.

But to the poultry raiser who uses modern methods and plans to get a good egg production in the fall and winter, when eggs are always profitable, the season has been disappointing but has shown a good profit.

LEGION PLANNING A TREE CAMPAIGN PRESENT SEASON

The Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion, has again endorsed the tree planting campaign and proposes to carry on the project as an annual event. During the past four years the project was first undertaken, 975 trees have been planted. A recent survey shows that of this number 170 have died. Some of these have been replaced, the remainder will be replaced this spring and this fall.

There have been no abnormal receipts of eggs at the terminal markets. It is true there has been a slight increase in the receipts of eggs at these markets. However, this is only a normal fluctuation. # LEGION TO PLANT TREES ON CHAMBER COMMERCE PLAT

It has been decided by the tree planting committee of the American Legion that this year, instead of planting trees along the highways, they will plant their trees on the chamber of commerce plat, which is being utilized to bring a new, flourishing industry to Holland, an industry that will furnish employment to 125 men.

Legion men who have promised to help in the tree planting are asked to take notice that the planting will be done on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The auxiliary will furnish a lunch after the planting.

On the subject of three planting in general the Legion today gave the following hints to the public: Do not forget that this is national forestation week; that tree planting is one of the crying needs of the time, because trees add to the beauty of our environment; protect and foster bird life and add to our enjoyment; because trees help to modify our air current and stabilize our weather conditions; because forestation as a national project will provide the needed wood and timber for the coming generation; the result of which will be that if each family in Holland should plant just one tree, it would mean between 4 to 5 thousand additional trees in our city. Do not forget that time is the one big element in tree life; to meet the problem intelligently and patriotically we must plant now.

Mr. John Kollen, 55 East 12th street, Tuesday celebrated his eighty-eighth birthday and received the congratulations of his friends.

GRAND TRUNK ENGINE RUNS DOWN AUTO AT FERRYSBURG

A serious accident occurred at the Grand Trunk crossing just this side of Ferrysburg about 10:00 on Saturday night when a Grand Trunk switching engine hit a Hudson coach driven by Thomas Allen of Muskegon. In the car with him was Miss Millie Ely of Muskegon. The side of the car was badly caved in and the occupants thrown and cut about the head. Allen was taken to Hatton hospital, Grand Haven, where it was found he had suffered a broken nose and cuts about the head. The car was taken to a garage on Sunday morning. He claimed not have seen the oncoming engine. The brakeman's name was Lawrence, but the engineer's name was not given. Due to the slow rate of speed at which the engine was going no serious injury was sustained by the motorists.

FIRE PROTECTION FOR RESORTS IS TO BE DISCUSSED

Resort fire protection, or the lack of it, throughout western Michigan will be one of the subjects for discussion at a meeting of the board of directors of the Development League of Western Michigan next Friday night, April 29, at Grand Rapids.

A meeting of the directors has been called at this time, according to A. M. Larsen, vice-president, in view of the fact that a two-day vacation lands conference will be held Thursday and Friday in Grand Rapids under the auspices of the Michigan Real Estate association.

The recent disastrous fire at Macatawa park and the resulting unfavorable publicity has aroused considerable interest throughout the district with regard to fire protection. During the summer season, Macatawa park has about the best fire protection of any resort district in this part of the state.

Muskegon also had a taste of what it is said to have summer cottages unprotected from fire when a forest fire threatened to wipe out the summer homes at Winnetka and Idlewild, two resort districts near Lake Michigan south of Bronson park.

Wolf lake, another Muskegon resort, has been threatened at various times by fire. Several cottages and some business buildings have been burned there in recent years. Because of this a limited fire fighting equipment has been provided.

White lake is fairly well protected from fire with an adequate water supply at least during the summer season and water pipes leading throughout the district.

There are many cottages resorts on small inland lakes in the country, however, that are unprotected and would be destroyed if fire were to start among them.

Although the large body of water at Michigan Center, five miles east of Jackson, is generally known as a mill pond, announcement was received today by Deputy Game Warden James H. Tawse that the state department of conservation has banned all fishing on the pond and in its connecting channels until June 16.

The law that went into effect on April 1, prohibited fishing on all inland lakes until June 16, but permitted fishing on rivers, streams and mill ponds, limiting the catch to certain species of fish.

The Michigan Center pond, receiving the waters of several lakes, including Big and Little Wolf, is one of the most popular fishing grounds in this section of the state.

ALFALFA SPECIAL IS MET BY 700 FARMERS

P. J. OSBORNE SUIT SETTLED BEFORE TRIAL

A suit that was expected to take the greater part of a week never came to trial Monday at the time set by Judge Cross in the Ottawa county circuit court. The case has been pending for some time and was brought by Harry Parson and Percy Slack, both of Chicago, who had been traveling salesmen connected with the P. J. Osborne company in Zeeland and Holland since 1923. The two salesmen asked for an accounting from the P. J. Osborne company and the trial was set to begin at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Att. Charles K. Van Duren represented Parsons and Slack and he was assisted by Attorney G. J. Diekema. The P. J. Osborne company was represented by Attorney J. N. Clark of Zeeland and Attorney Stewart Knapen of Grand Rapids.

At 9 o'clock, shortly before court convened, the attorneys and those interested in the case got together and the P. J. Osborne company made a cash settlement with Parsons and Slack for $10,750.00.

STUDENTS TO STAGE CIRCUS

Over at junior high school in the art classes boys and girls have been busy making posters for the circus, making jingles to advertise the circus and now they are hard at work making animals to put in the circus. There will be an elephant or possibly two, there will be a giraffe and an ostrich (a wild one), also horses for a race, monkeys, the long tailed variety and bears to perform, also a very fierce lion to entertain the crowd.

The circus is being put on by the art department of the public schools, aided by the physical education department. Miss Todd, Mr. Moody and Mr. Hartman promise a well trained circus. Miss Ryan, Mrs. Krum and Miss Goldsmith a profusely decorated one.

FROST WARNINGS TO BE BROADCAST

Fruit growers will be informed of coming frosts in time to protect their orchards and small fruits, through a special service arranged by the Michigan State college horticultural department and the United States weather bureau, it was announced here today.

The college station WKAR, will broadcast "long period" weather forecasts along with the noon program, which is on the air at 12 o'clock eastern standard time, except Sunday. The forecasts will be wired from the district weather bureau office at Chicago, to D. A. Seelye, meteorologist in charge of the East Lansing station, and then broadcast by the college announcer.

Later in the season, it is planned to broadcast a number of short talks by horticulturalists on the use of sprays for orchards and the small fruits grown in this state. This will supplement the advance forecast of weather conditions.

FARMERS JOIN BANKERS IN THE WAR ON BANDITS

The farmers of Michigan have joined forces with the bankers of the state in the war on bank bandits. The bankers in each county are enlisting the services of the farmers to be on the lookout for suspicious cars parked along lonely roads during the day-time, acting on the theory that bank bandits rarely make their get-away in the same car they use in robbing the banks.

Bank farmers are lining up with the county vigilantes and are prepared, on given signals, to barricade roads with farm implements until word is received from the sheriff to release traffic. Organization meetings have thus far been held in St. Clair, Huron, Leapeer, Shiawassee, Livingston, Kent, Muskegon, Ottawa and Montcalm counties, according to Joseph Rylands, director of organization for the bankers. At each of these meetings the vigilante plan has been adopted with enthusiasm, he said.

The bankers are also joining hands with the merchants and manufacturers in the larger cities who have been infected with the successful operation of the vigilante plan.

Organization meetings are scheduled for Macomb, Sanilac, Oakland, Monroe, Lenawee, Berrien, Ingham, Eaton, St. Joseph, Genesee, Isabella, Barry, Clinton, Kalamazoo, Cass, Mason and Benzie counties during the next two weeks, Rylands stated.

In the counties already organized, over four hundred vigilantes have been sworn in as special deputy sheriffs and additional forces are being recruited in their bandit warfare wherever added each day. The state highway police are co-operating with the bank-vigilantes have been appointed.

An interesting fact brought out by C. W. Free at the chamber of commerce dinner Friday night in regard to the Lawrence Brothers Paper Box company that is to be brought to Holland is that this concern has invented and patented a new milk bottle top that is said to be the best of its kind and that promises to become a big feature in the firm's business.

The new top is one with a lift on it which is described as a great convenience to all users of milk bottles, which of course practically means everybody. The company spent $30,000 perfecting this invention and building the machinery for it. It has put in a large amount of work and expense to pave the way for manufacturing the top, a large scale in it proves to be the winner that is expected.

When it is remembered that scores of millions of milk bottle tops are used daily in the United States alone, the market for a top that has features which make for convenience has possibilities of becoming enormous.

This however is only one of a large number of articles that are turned out by the Lawrence Brothers Paper Box Company. This concern manufactures practically everything in the paper box line. It makes all kinds and shapes of candy boxes, for instance, from the simplest to the most elaborate and expensive. It manufactures a large variety of other paper containers used for all sorts of purposes. Most of its product is in colored work involving high grade printing and coloring.

The new concern has secured space in one of the buildings of the pigskin factory and that it expects to grow is shown by the fact that it has an option on other property which will be used if the concern's expansion demands it.

FARMERS WANT LOWER TAXES ON FARM TRUCKS

"Equal protection before the laws" would prevent the enactment of any special tax bill to exempt farm trucks from the payment of taxes on the same class of property within the same general category, Attorney General William W. Potter holds in an important opinion.

The opinion was rendered in connection with a pending bill in the House of Representatives to divide auto trucks into three classes, public, private and casual, and then to exempt farm trucks from the main provisions of the bill.

The bill under consideration was introduced by Rep. William J. Thomas of Cannonburg, and would require "private, public or casual carriers operating exclusively within the state" and "motor vehicles exclusively used to transport mail or farm, orchard or dairy products anywhere within this state."

In his opinion, the attorney general said: "One of the essential requirements as to classification, in order that it may not violate the constitutional guaranty as to equal protection of the laws, is that the classification must not be capricious or arbitrary, but must be reasonable and natural or must be based on some natural principle of public policy."

After citing various cases in Michigan and other states, the attorney general concluded his opinion by saying he was "constrained to the opinion that section 13 (referring to farm trucks) constitutes an unlawful classification and is therefore unconstitutional."

The Thomas bill has been on order of third reading in the House for two weeks, and with each succeeding day Rep. Thomas has moved that it be "passed for the day," thus delaying action upon the measure.

It is said to have the support of the Michigan State Farm Bureau which has led a campaign for reduced taxes on farm trucks in an effort to relieve the financial burdens of the farm population. The Thomas bill would increase the privilege tax on various trucks, but would not apply to farm trucks unless amended. According to its author, it would raise approximately $1,500,000 annually in its present form.

The first 24-hour count on traffic on Muskegon trunk line highway was taken this week, and an unusual feature was that there was not an hour during the 24 hours when vehicles did not operate over M-11 south. Cold rainy weather, however, kept down the volume of traffic on all the highways.

The count started at 7 a. m. and ended at 7 p. m. On M-11 north, starting April 20, there were 2,325 vehicles. The count showed 366 vehicles on the trunk line and 67 vehicles on the Old Channel Trail.

The results of the count on trunk line M-24 an M-11 north have not been reported.

TWO VEHICLES IN COLLISION AT GD. HAVEN

Grand Haven Tribune—A Ford coupe owned by John Klaver, meat man on Fulton street, and driven by Paul Behm, collided with a motorcycle at the corner of Seventh and Columbus streets Friday morning.

The motorcycle was driven by Tony Konetske, a man working on the carter Grand Rapids who came from Goodman, Wis. William Davis a fellow sailor man was riding on the back of the cycle but neither of the men were injured in the smashup. Behm going west on Columbus met Konetske going north on Seventh and from bystanders who happened to see the accident it would seem that Behm had the right of way. No one was hurt and a damaged running board, broken glass and door on the car with minor injuries to the cycle were the losses reported. The injured parties settled things among themselves and left nothing for the officers to adjust.

PAPER HAS NO USE FOR FISH HOGS

Coopersville Observer—To be a fish hog does not necessarily have to break the law. Often we find that the worst fish hog is the fellow who keeps just in the limit provided by the law. Now it must be understood that the law has been so written that the limit has been placed high enough so that every fisherman will have plenty, and the individual has been given the sacred trust of exercising his good sportsmanship when he needs less than what the limit may be. The real sportsman catches only what he needs and leaves the rest. The fish hog catches the limit whether he needs it or not. Fish hogs should be squelched at every opportunity and persons preparing literature or articles on fishing conditions in the fish state should guard against the use of pictures or the making of statements that would encourage people in catching big strings of fish. A picture of one big fish is much more interesting than a large string of small ones. We should teach people to take the large ones and let the little fellows grow up.

If fishermen do exercise more moderate and expensive. It manufactures a large variety of other paper containers used for all sorts of purposes. Most of its product is in colored work involving high grade printing and coloring. The new concern has secured space in one of the buildings of the pigskin factory and that it expects to grow is shown by the fact that it has an option on other property which will be used if the concern's expansion demands it.

Tracy said yesterday, although he warned that the difference will be very slight between today and yesterday. The highest temperature reached yesterday was 39 degrees, and there was indication of a frost. Little fear was expressed that crops would be seriously damaged. Reports from various fruit districts in western Michigan said that orchards and vineyards had suffered only slightly from the freezing temperature of Thursday night.

in Ionia reformatory Monday on a similar charge by Judge Vanderwerf of Muskegon. The judge recommended 18 months.

Two Allegan youths were injured slightly in a near head-on collision between there and Otsego early Friday morning. John Kruthoff, 20, suffered cuts about the head and the arm of Royal Johnson, 21, was injured as the two were returning from Otsego, where they said they had stopped to have their lights repaired.
Lyle Olson and Merle Carl of Otsego, in the other machine, returning from Allegan, escaped unhurt. They alleged that the Allegan pair was driving on the wrong side of the road with but one headlight burning. Both cars were wrecked.

A birthday party was given in honor of the 15th birthday of Doris Van Lente, at her home on Wednesday.
Those present were: Johanna Speet, Julia Verburg, Marion Hoekema, Dorothy Mae Kleis, Harriet De Neff, Dorothy Steffens, Cella Mooney, Frances Mooney, Marie Was, Helen Jean Pelgrim, Dorothy Van Ingen, Ruth Skeketee, and Doris Van Lente. Games were played and a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Van Lente.

EGG ASSOCIATION MAKING BID FOR
A 100,000 HENS

The Ottawa Egg and Poultry Producers association is making good progress in their campaign of advertising their plan and securing membership. This coming week they will cover Fillmore township and that territory in four meetings scheduled Hamilton community hall on Monday evening, April 25th at 7:30 p. m.; at Fillmore school house, Tuesday, April 26th, at Fillmore town hall,
Wednesday, April 27th; and at East Saugatuck school on Thursday evening, April 28th.

The plan this organization hopes to follow is to do away with the haphazard method of selling the poultry products and to sell by co-operative methods, thereby securing the top notch prices the market affords, because in unity there is strength.

To compare the difference in the two methods it is believed the individual system of selling is inadequate because the eggs then pass through five or six hands before reaching the consumer. Each handler is rendering a service under the present plan and is entitled to his profit, which come out of the producer's return.

When eggs are plentiful prices are low and when eggs are scarce prices are high, because they are usually sold spasmodically without reference to a glutted market. The co-operative system will secure information that will help provide the most uniform prices by selling eggs where the markets are not overstocked with eggs.
Eggs usually sold by individuals are not graded for size, color or quality, and therefore bring only the current market price.

Handling through five or six hands not only increased the cost, but it also caused waste and reduces the quality through delays in reaching the consumer.

On the other hand the co-operative marketing brings together a large quantity of eggs that are sold wholly for the interests of the producers, thus eliminating two or three middlemen. These are then immediately sorted, candled and graded, the choice eggs demanding the top prices. Regular operators ship all receipts of eggs daily as they are received, generally in car lots to distributors in the larger cities, thus eliminating unnecessary costs, which in turn go to increase profits to the producer.

It is the aim of the association to contract at least one hundred thousand hens before July first, after which a meeting for a permanent organization will be formulated by the joining members.

FIGHT AGAINST
SCARLET FEVER
BEING PLANNED

At a joint meeting of the members of the board of health, the members of the board of education, and the physicians of Holland, held Thursday evening in the board of health room in the city hall, plans were made for an immunization campaign against scarlet fever in Holland similar to the immunization program against diphter-ia that was carried out here the past two or three years.

Scarlet fever, it is now quite well established, can be eliminated in exactly the same way in which diphter-ia has been wiped out. The method is almost exactly the same. The program consists of all of the giving children the Dick test. This is a harmless test which establishes whether a child is susceptible to scarlet fever or not. In case a child is not susceptible nothing further is done.
He is considered immune. In case he is susceptible, an immunization treatment is given that is in method similar to the treatment against diphter-ia.

The Michigan department of health has been working on scarlet fever prevention for four years at the state institutions and has concluded that the immunization program is safe and effective, that it will do in scarlet fever what toxin-antitoxin has done in diphteria.

The plan is to give the Dick test to the pupils before the summer vacation. Those who need further treatment will be given the immunization tests in September. The matter will be furnished free of charge by the state and it is expected that the work will be done free of charge by the physicians.

Mrs. C. H. McBride is in Detroit to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Moses B. Hopkins, 61, former Detroit newspaper man, who died Wednesday in his home in Dearborn after more than a year's illness.

A native of Grand Haven, Hopkins as schoolboy became interested in newspaper work and after graduation from high school worked on the Grand Haven Herald. He then studied in Leipzig, Germany, two years, returned to this country and entered Oberlin college. Oberlin, O. Graduating from this institution, he worked for the Grand Rapids Herald several years, at one time as Washington correspondent.

In 1897 he went to Detroit and for the next 20 years was employed on several papers.

He was legislative press agent during the Pingree administration and was prominent in political and newspaper life during that administration.
He was the son of Judge Hopkins, who was circuit judge of this district in the circuit riding days when Kai-amozoo was still a part of this district.

DETROIT W. C. T. U. LEADER
KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Josephine McGuire, 40, president of the Excelsior union of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was killed when an automobile in which she was going with four other women to a banquet at Lansing, served from the road and crashed into a tree near Williamston. Mrs. Mc-Guire's home is in Detroit.

WILL STIMULATE HOME BUILDING

The recent action of the legislature in reducing taxes on building and loan associations should materially help home ownership throughout the state, according to Joel W. Leslie of Grand Rapids, president of the Michigan Building & Loan League.

In commenting on the new law,
which in effect reduces the privilege tax 50 per cent and franchise fee 80 per cent on building and loan shares, Mr. Leslie expressed gratification of the legislature's appreciation of the work which building and loans are doing in extending home ownership.
"Building and loans are organized to help the average man attain home ownership," said Mr. Leslie. "That their loan plan of installment payments on mortgages is ideally suited to the average man's needs is clearly shown by the fact that of the 44,978 Building and Loan mortgages in effect throughout Michigan during 1926, only 98 foreclosures were recorded, less than 21 thousandths of one per cent.
These are the official figures as compiled by the secretary of state."

"This helpful tax-reducing action of the Michigan legislature," said Mr.
Leslie, "is in line with the federal government's policy in seeking to assist building and loan growth by exempting income up to $300 on building and loan shares from federal income tax."

According to Mr. Leslie, Michigan Building & Loans put out more money for home building purposes than any other single organization.

ANALYSIS OF
THE MILK SUPPLY
IS FAVORABLE

City Inspector Henry S. Bosch has received a report from Lansing in regard to a general analysis of the milk that is sold in Holland by the dealers.
Such a milk survey is made from time to time and on the basis of it the dealers are listed with respect to cleanliness, bacteria count and so on.
The analysis is also a guide for the dealers. In one case, for instance, where the report was not as favorable as had been expected, the dealer immediately made an investigation and discovered that the trouble all lay with a single farmer from whom he secured some of his milk. He immediately cut this farmer off his list and his record promptly shot up to the place where he could invite comparison with the other dealers.

The report from Lansing shows that Holland is getting milk that is far above the requirements in cleanliness and that its butter fat content is in every case very satisfactory and in some cases above par. The bacteria count shows for instance, that in several cases the count is from 4,000 in pasteurized milk to 65,000 in raw milk, whereas the allowance runs into the hundreds of thousands. The count shows that the bacteria in the milk is negligible. Some of the records are exceedingly good and all are safely within the requirements.

Holland now has ten milk dealers.
Not many years ago the number of dealers was as high as 27, but there have been consolidations all along the line.

Grand Haven is extending its water works system far out. A six inch main has been laid in a new street extending to Sheldon Road. This section will soon be thrown open to the public.
