Chick Queen Is Crowned In Royal Robes

ZEELAND'S CHICK AND EGG
SHOW IS GREAT SUCCESS

Today, Friday, winds up a four-day Chick and Egg Show, an annual event that is becoming more successful each year. On the first day the annual banquet featured the crowning of Miss Cora Bouwens of Zeeland as the successful Queen. This occurred Tuesday evening at the Zeeland high school gymnasium.

When the moment of the coronation arrived and the curtain was drawn, it revealed Miss Bouwens seated on a throne trimmed in gold and white, and covered with dark satin. On either side of her stood her court, in the persons of Miss Hazel De Koster, 1937 Chick and Egg Queen, and the runner-up in the Queen contest, the Misses Lois Wynyarden, Gladys Schrottenboer, and Ruth Lanning.

The stage had a pleasing setting. It had a beautiful background which painted an imposing spring picture. On either side of the throne palms and various flower plants added to the beauty of the setting. Imitation grass, laid before the throne, added to bring out fully the beauty in color and arrangement. Queen Cora was pleasantly decked in a formal gown of peach crepe-de-chene. She wore a bouquet of tea roses. Miss De Koster wore a formal flowered chiffon gown. Miss Wynyarden was dressed in a gown of net over blue satin. Miss Lanning wore a pink silk taffeta formal. Miss Schrottenboer was pleasantly gowned in blue taffeta. The members of the court wore coronas of roses, sweet peas, and pansies.

The festivities began at 6:45 o'clock when Rev. R. J. Vanden Bergh offered prayer. Mr. J. H. Geerlings, president of the Zeeland Chick and Egg Show, made a few welcoming remarks before introducing Toastmaster B. J. De Witt, who also called upon Mayor Gerrit Yntema for a few remarks.

Mr. John B. Strange, Commissioner of Agriculture, was introduced who gave a brief address, stating that the poultry industry ranked third in the income of Michigan. He further stated, "Zeeland and vicinity is the leader in the poultry industry. Allegan and Ottawa counties are the two leading counties in poultry husbandry in the United States." He also stated that there were more people engaged here in the marketing of eggs than in any other phase of agriculture. Commissioner Strange concluded his talk by saying that the State Department of Agriculture is willing and able to serve the poultry industry in a manner that will build this industry up even greater than it is today.

Following this address Toastmaster De Witt announced the coronation of the Queen would take place. The trumpets sounded and the curtain parted, revealing the Queen and her court. To the accompaniment of music, the executive board of the Chick Show, Messrs. D. W. Van der Meer, George Caball, J. H. Geerlings, and Mr. J. B. Strange, ascended the stage to join in the crowning of the Queen. Miss Hazel De Koster relinquished the crown to Mr. Strange, who in turn, with a few appropriate remarks, placed it on the head of Miss Cora Bouwens, crowning her Queen of Zeeland Chick and Egg exposition.

Queen Cora, in a queenly fashion, responded to the remarks made by the man who had placed the crown upon her head.

A toast was then given to the Queen by Mr. J. H. De Witt. He accomplished this to the great amusement of all those present. Miss Esther Bultman of Holland gave two readings, the one, "A Jewish Lesson in Salesmanship," and the other a monologue on "A Day at School in Pigtails." This was well received.

Mr. Bert Hogan, Dutch-Irish humorist of Grand Rapids, had the audience in laughter continually. His jokes and Dutch brogue combined to give every one a good time.

The Queen spoke over station WOOD, Grand Rapids on Wednesday, giving a review of the poultry industry as this relates to Zeeland and vicinity. George Caball, prominent poultryman, announced the program for the week.

The annual Chick and Egg Show will wind up today, Friday, with a gigantic chick auction, which will indeed be interesting and undoubtedly profitable to successful buyers. Prizes were awarded during the week; merchants received prizes for best show window; and all in all our neighbor, Zeeland, staged not only a very successful show, but a really constructive one that cannot help but be beneficial to the poultry industry in two counties. Many Holland folk availed themselves of the opportunity to attend this show, and not a few were seen at the coronation of the Queen.

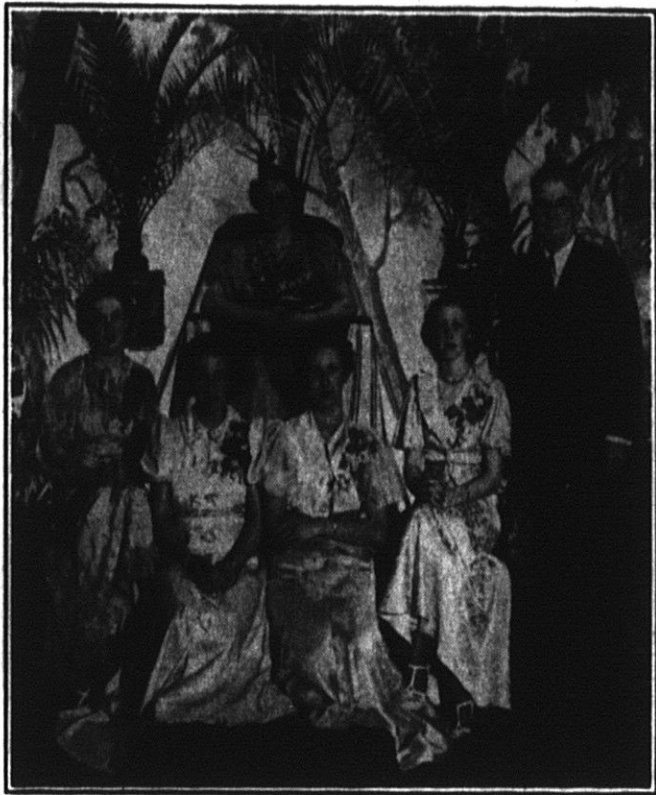

LOCAL GIRL GOES TO CALIFORNIA

C., to which she was named as Michigan delegate.

Last year she attended the National Red Cross convention at Washington. Supervisor of Junior Red Cross work locally is Mrs. Harry White. Junior Prizes of Holland also attended last year's Red Cross convention at Washington.

Ben Bosch of Allendale has had the misfortune of fracturing his arm while cranking an automobile. Mrs. H. K. Lanning of Drenthe died at the age of 81 years.

PRIZES FOR ZEELAND WINDOW DISPLAYS AWARDED

Judging of window displays in connection with the Chick and Egg Show at Zeeland was completed on Wednesday afternoon, by the three judges, Mr. Bert Roelofs, R. R. 3, Holland; Miss Jo Gerding, 422 Maple Ave., Holland; and Mr. W. A. Puppeter, 5151 W. 65th St., Chicago. The judges are reported to have done a commendable job. There were a large number of entries, and it required a lot of time.

First prize went to Wm. De Pree Company, $10.00 cash; second prize went to City Market, $5.00 cash; and The Book Shop won third prize, $2.50 in cash. All decisions resulted unanimously.

ACCEPTS NEW YORK CHARGE

Announcement has been made here of the acceptance by James Nettinga, graduate of the class of 1937 of Western Theological Seminary, of an invitation to become supply pastor of the 89th St. Reformed church of New York City. Nettinga, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Nettinga of this city, has taken post graduate work at Princeton seminary this year and will attend University in New York next year. The appointment marks the first time that a Western graduate has served a New York city Reformed church as pastor.

Two Townships Are Unanimous For Program

OVERWHELMING SUPPORT OF
7 OTTAWA COUNTY TOWNSHIPS
MAKES FORMATION OF DISTRICT PROBABLE

Property owners in seven townships of western Ottawa county were practically unanimous in their approval of a soil conservation district to prevent wind erosion at the referendum held Monday.

The total vote was 802 in favor of the district to 11 votes opposing it. In Park and Robinson townships there was not one vote against the proposed project.

The size of the vote far exceeded the fondest hopes of the promoters of the project as it was expected there would be about 500 votes cast. Hunter Hering, superintendent of the polls, tabulated the votes at the county agricultural office at Grand Haven in the court house as the polling officers from each township came in with the ballots. Yesterday Mr. Hering took the ballots to Lansing where they will be canvassed on Wednesday by the state soils conservation commission.

Following is the vote in the several townships:

Townships	Yes	No
Spring Lake	65	1
Park	45	0
Oliver	91	3
Port Sheldon	89	2
Grand Haven	205	3
Total	802	11

Must Name Directors
With such an overwhelming majority in favor of the project local supporters are certain that the state commission will designate a soils district in this county. In the event this is granted the commission will appoint two directors and three more directors will be selected from the townships at large, who will make immediate plans to carry out the conservation program.

At the hearing held in Grand Haven on March 2 before the state commission there were 250 farmers and property owners who appeared to be unanimously in favor of a district. Questioning on the part of some of the commissioners as to the co-operation which could be expected, in case the district was formed, brought out the fact that the farmers would set aside land that the commission deemed necessary to plant to small trees and beach grass and that they would aid in the actual work necessary.

It was brought out that the conservation committee of the board of supervisors had struggled for 10 years to bring some relief to property owners who annually were losing valuable property through the encroachment of dunes.

The district, if formed, will be the first one in Michigan, under legislative act last year, wherein the state will co-operate with the federal government to prevent wind erosion, the cost borne by both state and federal funds. Dewey Hill and sections of Spring Lake township north will come within the district as well as the dune country along Western Michigan from this point south through Park and Port Sheldon and in nearby townships.

Leo Arnold, county agent, has been intensely interested in the project and has assisted the county committee in every way to bring about the referendum. The large vote was gratifying to all concerned. Educational meetings have been held all through the townships, letters were sent to property owners and leaders of farm land, and newspaper articles have been published frequently to acquaint the voters with the purpose of the plan.

It was emphasized that the soil district had nothing to do with farm conservation program, which is a federal project to increase land value through rotation of crops, and systematic planting, a national project affecting farmers over the entire country. If the state designates the soil district, it may be the means of bringing a CCC camp to this section in order that the immense tree planting program, which will be necessary to reforest the sand dunes, may be accomplished.

NEW MASS BUILDING, RIVER AVE., READY; LARGE FOOD STORE MOVING IN

The large new Mass building on River Ave. and 10th St., costing $25,000, is so far completed that the ground floor, leased by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., is ready for occupancy. The A&P food distributors, have a large force of men busy arranging the interior.

The new type store is a self-service, with wide aisles, convenient displays, effortless basket carriers, and each customer is to get an itemized, printed receipt for all purchases; and cashiers will take care of the purchases. All week this arranging of the new type store has been going on, and merchandise has been coming constantly by truckload, and these are all being arranged systematically in order to be ready for the opening next week Monday morning, May 2nd.

The new building is arranged in order that the best daylight defusion is always available, and the electric arrangement is the latest approved system that it was possible to install. With the new building nothing but new fixtures and interior store facilities have been installed.

Mr. J. O. Reach, district supervisor, and H. Ebel, A&P superintendent, of Grand Rapids, have been in the city all week, and with a force of ten men, have been arranging stock. Mr. Reach states that all the staffs of the two other stores, which are to be discontinued, will all be found in the new store, 20 in number.

"Bill" Jekel, general manager of the East 8th St. College Ave. store for some years, has been made the manager of the self-service store. "Bud" Hoffman is assistant manager. "Ken" Holcomb is produce manager, and Wm. Welling is assistant. "Gene" Vande Vusse is manager of the meat department, and Peter Nienhuis and Roy Naber are his assistants.

There are to be three cashiers under the supervision of Miss Anna Berendschot. One young lady has also been assigned to the dairy and coffee department.

The new A&P at the corner of River Ave. and 10th St. will be open for self-service at 8:00 o'clock Monday morning. An announcement, setting forth just what the service embraces, is given by the company on the last page of this issue.

The Mass building was erected in record time. Exterior work on the $25,000 combination store-and-office building has been completed, and interior finishing is being done at present. The building is of brick and tile construction, thus making it one of the most modern freestanding structures in the city.

The building measures 140 by 55 feet, and has an asphalt roof. Moving of fixtures into the building began Monday and will continue until the opening day. The building has been under construction since January 8.

SIXTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The old saying that "lightning will not strike twice in the same place" was exploded on Wednesday last. The chimney on the residence of G. Vyn in the village of Zeeland was struck and completely demolished on that night. Shortly afterward another bolt of that same storm entered the dwelling, tore up the carpet in one room, smashed the furniture, and left by the window. Ten days before during another electric storm the house in question was struck. "Three times and out."

Anthony De Kruij, employed at the drug store of Scott's, Grand Rapids, contemplates moving to Zeeland and opening up a drug store. Note:—Mr. De Kruij continued to run that store for 50 years. After his death Angus De Kruij was in charge for some time.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Stegenga celebrated their golden anniversary at their home in North Holland. Speeches were made by Rev. Van Ess and A. P. Stegenga, and music was furnished by R. A. Hyma and others. A review was given on the subject, "Our 30 Years of Pioneering in this Holland colony." There were present 150 persons, of which number there were 7 children, 47 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren. Note:—We wager that Albert Stegenga, the supervisor of Olive, fits somewhere in this picture. Anyway, had the old couple lived to this day they would have celebrated their 110th wedding anniversary — and that is something to look forward to.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The pay of a night watchman was indeed low. The council proceedings show that Frank Van Ry, our present chief, received $6.86 for six nights, and Jake De Feyer, $9.14 for eight nights on duty. W. W. Noble received the sum of $25.00 for three months' work as lamp-lighter, receiving $100 per year. Note:—Mr. Noble, looking all the world like a Santa Claus, filled all the street lamps in the morning with oil, and when darkness fell he would be seen with his little ladder going from lamp post to lamp post, lighting the wicks. There was a post on every corner and in long blocks, one was placed midway. As a rule there was a lamp placed near every church. It is a far cry between electric lights of today and those octagon lamps of yesterday.

Hoty's "Peck's Bad Boy" will be played at Lyceum Opera House. Come and see a real comic and enjoy a hearty laugh. Note:—"Peck's Bad Boy" would go over big today.

Holland city will have only three saloons this year. Peter Brown will hold forth next to the post office. Peter has always conducted a clean place. Then there is Charles Richardson of South Haven, who will take the place of Bob Hunt. Richardson will have his place on Main and Market Streets and H. D. McFries of Allegan has purchased the place of C. Blom on River St. called the "Rose Bud." The license this year is $25.00.

Dan Wise, a C. and W. M. Railroad man here, caught a 20-pound muskellunge in Black River Wednesday.

Harry Van Zee, at the close of the year, will discontinue his saloon business and move to Texas and enter the grocery business. Note:—Harry conducted a saloon for about five years in what is now the Green Mill. For many years this building was used as a saloon, first by Hill-Tunneller, then by Jim Selby, and later by David Blom.

James A. Brouwer, Isaac Marsilje, W. H. Beach, Louis Schoon, C. Verschure, and John C. Post were nominated at a caucus, called for the purpose of selecting six candidates for the school board tickets, three to be selected from this city at the election held later. The tellers selected to count the votes were Dr. A. Knooihuizen, Gerrit Van Schelven, Wm. O. Van Eek, Bastian Steketee, and Simon Kleyn. At the election a week later W. H. Beach, C. Verschure, and John C. Post were elected. The school board these men is composed of Dr. Henry Kremers, Henry Geerlings, B. Steketee, Geo. Van Durck, Germ Mokema, and Patrick H. McBride.

At the Holland Cycle Club meeting Monday evening the following officers were elected for the year. President, Homer Van Landegent; Vice President, Austin Harrington; Secy., Arthur Baumgarten; Treas., Ben Van Raalte, Jr. Board of Directors includes the above mentioned and Frank Pifer, Geo. Hyma, and Dick Homkes. The club expects to work on cycle paths this year, but where has not yet been decided. A large number of "safety" riders have renewed their membership because of the fine work done during the season. Note:—At one time there was a cycle path to Zeeland and to Macatawa, and one was contemplated along the road-side to Grand Rapids. Some of them were made of clay and others of chders.

part of the second floor office space and retain the remainder for storage purposes. Mr. Mass indicated today that so many calls have been received by him in regard to office space that the entire second floor may be rented for business purposes.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Arend Siema, 85 E. 16th St., April 24, a son.

Frank Lieveense shot a loon near the Waverly stone works. This is the first time in the recollection of local sportsmen that this type of bird has been shot in this vicinity. Note:—The loon must have been crazy to come here with Frank around.

Will Kremers of the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Company, has bought a Standard-Dayton four-cylinder touring automobile. It is a beautiful vehicle.

N. E. Brown has finished a bird's eye photograph of Grand Haven, which is rather remarkable. The picture was taken from a kite at a height of fully 1,500 feet over the city, and gives a good view of the river, the harbor, and Lake Michigan. The camera was so high that it focused down on the summit of Waverly Hill, the highest point in that vicinity. The picture shows how the city would appear to a person in a balloon.

Prof. John W. Beardslee, Jr. has been granted a leave of absence from Hope College and will take a post-graduate course in the University of Chicago. Dr. Almon T. Godfrey intends to spend the summer vacation studying at this same institution.

Saloons in Holland will go out of existence at 10 o'clock tonight, and in their places will be only the wholesome houses. Note:—That condition lasted for one year, when saloons were voted back. Wholesale houses, with drinking everywhere, was condemned by both wet and dry.

Pete Pleume and "Heinie" Vrukink, star basketballers for Hope, were out of the game since both were speakers in the oratorical contest. They were substituted by H. Huijkeweld and Henry Rottschaeffer. Harvey Olthoff, cool Vrukink's place as guard. Hope beat Kalamazoo easily, by a score of 70 to 23. The game at Carnegie gym was little more than a comedy. Note: Hope had a great team in those days—it became nationally known. Judging from their recent game at Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo basketballers have become more proficient during these thirty years, for it appears the tables have turned.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Letters from soldiers received and printed in the Holland City News were from Corporal Maurice H. Huyser, Camp Merritt, N. J.; Plus Berkompas, Co. I, 128th Inf. A.E.F., "somewhere in France"; Mayo Kadden, "somewhere in France"; to the folks at home, "somewhere in France"; J. W. Gunst, from Camp Custer; Lloyd J. Purchase, American Expeditionary Forces in France, to his mother. Note:—These letters are all gripping indeed, and reading them brings back that terrible war most vividly. God forbid that we be plunged into another.

George Houting, formerly of Holland, now of Milwaukee, died after a short illness with pneumonia.

Nathaniel Robbins, Sr., of Grand Haven, received a message from France telling of the safe arrival of his soldier son, Nathaniel, Jr. Holland is especially interested since the engagement of Miss Helene De Pree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Con De Pree of this city, had been announced just before the young man left for "over there." Note:—Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, after the war, followed marriage, followed, and today they are living in California. They have reared a fine family.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Dr. A. J. Brouwer of Holland has just returned from a visit to Palestine, Turkey, and the European countries. In a series of articles in the Holland City News he gives a full description of the Holy Land.

Poultrymen of Western Michigan declare they are puzzled by the low prices of eggs this season, in view of the fact that production is 10 per cent lighter than a year ago, and the supply of cold storage eggs has been exhausted. This talk is rife among hatcherymen in this vicinity. Note: Today, 10 years later, eggs also are not moving the way they should.

Marriage licenses were issued to Robert P. Koning, 21, Ella Boerman, 22, Holland; Gerrit De Haan, 30, Holland, Elizabeth Bultuis, 30, Grand Haven; Richard B. Bernhardt, 27, Chicago, Alice A. Seekamp, 24, Holland; Wm. Schroter, 25, West Olive, Viola Lyons, 18, West Olive.

A new bridge is being erected over Pine Creek, and a detour is being used to Waukegon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pifer have returned from Seattle, Wash., where they spent the winter.

Simeon A. Henckel, J. B. Mulder, Chas. K. Van Duren, Walter Groth, and Ben Mulder motored to Detroit as delegates to the Republican State Convention.

The electrical contract was completed by Joe Roerink. The plumbing was in charge of Bouwman Plumbing Co., and the heating units were installed by Modern Plumbing and Heating Co. These are all Holland companies, employing Holland labor, and the job was completed in a comparatively short time, and on the date agreed upon.

Make Canoe Trip Over Miles Of Winding River

KALAMAZOO

We find the following contribution by Mildred Adele Hale in the Allegan Gazette of recent date. The article pictures a trip from the upper reaches of the Kalamazoo river, downstream to New Richmond—that beautiful spot just south of Holland, where the river winds lazily between sylvan shores and where, from the hilltop, one looks down into a forest-filled valley, presenting a picture that poets and painters would rave about. They would see a placid, rippling river, nearly covered over with foliage; and nestling in this valley they would discover a small village. Its existence there is emphasized by the spire from a church penetrating the leafy background, adding dignity and solemnity to the scene.

But then, the contributor of this story describe this trip down the stream that bears the Indian name, Kalamazoo (Boiling Kettles), the shores of which J. Fenimore Cooper, the greatest of all Indian writers, chose as the setting for his celebrated story, "Oak Opening," containing, it is said, the most wonderful description of a forest yet written.

CANOEISTS FIND RIVER BEAUTIFUL WITH WILDLIFE AND SCENERY ALWAYS DIFFERENT

Winds Through Dense Swamp Lands and Big Timber Tracts

By Mildred Adele Hale

It was an amber colored river that slowly wended its way through the dense autumn swamplands, big timber tracts and now and then out around a yellowish sandhill. Peaceful at times, powerful and treacherous around the next bend but always interesting and always different. That's the Kalamazoo, one of Michigan's illustrious canoe trails.

"A snag! Turn to the left . . . quick!" I exclaimed from the prow of the little green canoe. Bill knew that I had seen a hidden obstruction just under the rippling surface. A good stroke of his paddle sent us swiftly veering to safety and we raced past a huge elm log. It had become lodged there and left when timber was more plentiful, a remembrance of lumbering days of the years past.

A few short hours before we had loaded our "Indian Craft" with tent, sleeping robes, camera, fishing tackle, food and cooking equipment to shove off.

Each bend of the ever-twisting river held a new joy all of its own. The changing scenery and various wild life are missed by the many motorists who travel the gravel highway that follows the high banks of this flow. Slipping along noiselessly we surprised several wood duck that cried as they flushed and sped their way down stream.

The sight of Bear creek's crystal clear water flowing into the river reminded us to stop and refill our canvas water-bag; it would be our last chance until we passed through New Richmond, a small hamlet on the river.

A few more miles of river had been left behind when my companion suggested that we beach the canoe and have lunch at the first suitable site. The yard of a long deserted river home proved to be the place. The landing was a bit soft and our moccasins sunk deep into the bluish-black mud. We built a small fire, from the dead wood that was around, to boil our coffee and to smell the wood smoke . . . a treat in itself.

While enjoying our first meal in the open, after months of more civilized living methods, we talked and invited us to paddle up and look around a bit. The mud along its shore was fresh with mink, raccoon and muskrat tracks. The small holes in the mud flats told that some member of the snipe family had enjoyed a feast of tiny insects. What a stream this would be for the fly angler to wade. It was too narrow to cast a fly from the canoe with any success so we gave it up as too difficult a pastime, when angling could await until another day when we would return with waders, creels and fly fishing equipment . . . to do this little river justice.

Sometimes it took our best efforts to push the canoe against the surging current, then again the fast water would give away to slowly moving placid pools. The big elm and soft maple that stood along the banks sent their branches arching over the canoe trail. Then the water shallowed and, too, a log jam obstructed our path of travel. Not wishing to unload our dunnage and portage around the impediment we retraced our paddle strokes back down the stream.

Soon we were out on the big river again. We had traveled only a short distance when a loud crackle from the tall grass on shore drew our attention and there arose the largest flock of ring-necked pheasants that we had ever seen at one time. There were probably twenty-five or thirty birds and several adult roosters. It was a beautiful sight.

We passed a man and his wife who were trying to make a few nickels at clam fishing. Bill asked them the distance to New Richmond. "Just around the next bend. About a quarter of a mile," the man yelled as he started the outboard motor that propelled their big clamming scow. A few more minutes of paddling and we could see several buildings that were stretched along the left river bank. Bill swung the canoe toward the boat landing and we stepped out to the beach to stretch a bit and rest while we waited for Swad to meet us with the car. He arrived in due time and another canoe trip was over.

ZEELAND STREET RECEIVES A MILK BATH

What may have been bad luck for the babies may in turn have been fortunate for the neighborhood cats and dogs, Tuesday morning, when East Main St., Zeeland, received a milk bath that spread pretty well over the pavement.

The accident occurred when Miss Bernice Danielson backed her car out of a driveway, striking and upsetting a trailer carrying several cans of milk. The trailer was attached to a car driven by Albert O. Witteveen of R. R. 3, Holland.

It is reported that Miss Danielson was backing out of her yard and was compelled to wait for the passing of the Witteveen car, and without suspecting the presence of a trailer, backed into the street as soon as the Witteveen car cleared. Her car caught the rear end of the trailer and it was demolished, and several cans of milk intended for the Mead Johnson Co. plant, at Zeeland, were thrown to the pavement, spilling most of the contents.

PUBLIC DECORATION DAY MEETING HAS BEEN CALLED

A public meeting has been called in the G.A.R. room at the city hall for Tuesday, May 3, at 7:30 o'clock. At that time preparations will be made for Memorial Day and all preliminary work generally taken up at similar meetings will be gone over at that time. The pastor to deliver the Sunday Memorial address will be selected; the speaker during the Memorial Day exercises will be suggested; the different committees will be appointed; arrangements for flowers will be made; and such other arrangements that have to do with our annual Decoration Day.

Be sure and attend this meeting and take a part in these arrangements Tuesday, May 3.

LAKE MICHIGAN PERCH FISHERMEN WARNED OF LIMIT

With perch starting to run both here and at other lake piers, state conservation officers issued a warning that under a new state law there is a limit of 50 on catches in Lake Michigan. As in the past, however, no license is required of anglers in Lake Michigan.

For some time there has been a limit on perch in lakes, but not in Lake Michigan.

To the north, unusually large catches of perch are reported off the piers at Frankfort. Some fishermen were found with catches large enough to fill a 12-quart pail.

Conservation officers have been ordered to stop catching of more fish than a family can eat.

Corporation franchise has been filed with the Michigan Corporation and Securities commission at Lansing by the La Reine Hosiery Mills, Inc., of Zeeland, which lists $100,000 common stock.

as I called that breakfast was about to be served he had a strike. I saw the water churn as he set the hook so grabbed up the landing net and waited for the scene. After a good fight, the fish was led in close to shore and I slipped the net under a great northern pike of probably five pounds. It was a welcomed addition to our food supply.

After our breakfast was over we soon broke camp, loaded the duffle into the canoe and were once again on our way down river. A few miles below our camping spot, of the night before, a little river of jade water emptied into the Kalamazoo. It was Rabbit river and invited us to paddle up and look around a bit. The mud along its shore was fresh with mink, raccoon and muskrat tracks. The small holes in the mud flats told that some member of the snipe family had enjoyed a feast of tiny insects. Pike Season Opens May 1st (Next Sunday)

MUSKELLUNGE ALSO ARE LEGAL WITHIN A FEW DAYS

Trout fishermen open their season on Saturday, but pike and muskellunge fishermen will have to wait until Sunday, the first of May. That is the day when fishing for these species again becomes legal in the largest number of lakes inland and otherwise and hundreds of lakes in the state specified as "pike lakes" will find their fishermen busy casting or still fishing for the finny tribe.

Michigan Today

A half-century ago there were 28.5 persons per square mile in Michigan.

And today there are 84.2 persons to the square mile, which is double the population density of the United States as a whole.

Seventy-five per cent of Michigan's population, 50 years ago, was rural, while less than 32 per cent of it is rural today.

Sixty-eight out of every 100 persons in Michigan now live in urban centers of 2,500 population or more.

Whereas in 1880 there were 17 states more urban than Michigan, today only seven states have a larger percentage of their population living in towns and cities.

The rapid increase in Michigan's urban population began in the 1910-20 decade and has been outstripping the rural population ever since.

Approximately 39 per cent of the total population of the state is now in Wayne county alone.

This shifting of population from country to city was a result of a rapid industrial development, which has placed Michigan in the forefront of industrial America.

And in its turn it has created new social, economic and political problems, which have yet to be solved or controlled, as is pointed out in an interesting bulletin just issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction at Lansing and entitled "Michigan Today."

The last half-century in Michigan was devoted to increasing the output of machinery.

The next half-century may have to be devoted more largely to training human beings to use that machinery for the betterment and not for the injury of society.

SHERIFF VAN ETTA IS ENDEAVORING TO ADJUST THE EXAMINATION OF NEW DRIVERS

Every county is having its difficulties in providing ample facilities in different parts of the state in examining new drivers and those drivers whose licenses expire. Mr. Van Etta states that the whole thing is new and takes time for adjustment, but he feels that the regulation is now pretty well in hand.

Holland is naturally taken care of through the police department, as in Grand Haven. The Zealand police department has consented to take care of all those applicants in and around Zealand. The sheriff's department takes care of a portion of these applicants. However, the northeast end of the county was not so well taken care of, but Mr. Van Etta has secured a special man, placing him in a centrally located place in northeast Ottawa. This makes certain provisions and it is sometimes difficult to make adjustments.

"There are many things to be learned because of this new law, but with certain adjustments we are sure this new driver's license examination will turn out satisfactorily," stated Mr. Van Etta.

AIR DAY SPONSORED BY THE NORTH SHORE PARK CLUB AT TULIP TIME

C. C. Wood, president of the North Shore Park community club of Waukazoo, has announced that an aero program is to be featured Thursday, May 19, during the Tulip festival at Park township airport at Waukazoo on the Ottawa Beach road. The program is being sponsored by the club. No admission is to be charged to the program this year, according to Mr. Wood.

The program, starting at 2 p. m. will last about an hour and a half. Features of the occasion will be a delayed parachute jump by Richard (Bill) Ross of Holland; a balloon-bursting contest, which lists Don Scott and Dillard Thaddeus of Grand Rapids and Dick Van Eden of Zealand as entries; a ribbon-cutting contest staged by Thathan and Van Eden; a 15-minute stunt-flying exhibition by Thathan; and a "bombing" contest by Milton Hill, Les Musgrove, Van Eden, Scott, and Thathan.

Two Farm Boys Confess To The Robbing of Bank

the manner of the officers changed. "Where is your car?" barked Sheriff Miller. "Where did you get that ring? Where did you get those new clothes? Give me the keys to your car and tell me where it is parked."

The sheriff got the keys to the car and one of the state police detectives and Undersheriff Gibson went to find it. Sheriff Miller and the other detective started to question Murphy.

The confession came quickly and with it came the statements that implicated Hulbert. Then, too, came the information that Hulbert was to be found in Dearborn, Mich., and the state police radio quickly sent the information to the state police in Detroit. They had Hulbert under arrest within a short time.

Back in Allegan, Sheriff Miller quickly called Sheriff Dodge, and Murphy was taken to the Van Buren county jail where a detailed confession was made.

Murphy said he and Hulbert had planned the robbery and that 15 minutes before the holdup he had entered the bank, received change for a $5 bill and looked the place over.

They had stolen a car belonging to Harry Plotts, conservation officer who lives in Allegan, had stolen a set of plates from another car and placed them on the Plotts auto and used it in the holdup.

They hid their own car in the woods several miles from Bloomingdale and when they left the bank they drove there, changed cars and headed for Holland. About 1 mile south of Holland they saw a state police blockade on the road ahead and swung off on a side road going east a few miles and then cut north to M-21, coming east into Grand Rapids and thence eastward into Detroit over US-16.

A Fling in Detroit In Detroit they each bought a car for $350 and saw the sights. In the Murphy car the officers recovered $427.32. In Hulbert's room in Detroit about $500 was recovered.

Murphy said he left Detroit Friday and arrived in Allegan Friday evening. He spent most of the evening in the Dixie Inn on US-131, south of Wayland, and had not been to bed when he came in to seek a driver's license.

He told officers he had been stopped by police on his way back to Allegan and warned he must renew his license.

In Murphy's car was found the revolver belonging to Plotts, which was in the latter's car when it was stolen.

Both men denied they held up the Canfield-Russell branch of the Detroit bank which was robbed of $7,000 the day after the Bloomingdale robbery.

Capt. Don Leonard of the state police in Detroit said Hulbert pulled a gun when officers entered his room in Dearborn, but was quickly overpowered.

Both men are married. Murphy has been separated from his wife for some time and the wife and a child live in Detroit. Mrs. Hulbert lives in Allegan. Murphy had lived with the Hulberts.

United States Attorney Francis T. McDonnell, with headquarters in Grand Rapids, said today, the government had accepted jurisdiction and would prosecute the two young men who are held on the charge of robbing the Peoples State Bank at Bloomingdale, Mich. They were brought to Benton Harbor and were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner, Elizabeth Forhan, who placed them under $25,000 bond each.

Certain folk who live in Allegan county are petitioning for leniency for Richard Hulbert. The claim is that it is his first offense and that he has really been a good boy. Undoubtedly, after "Uncle Sam" takes charge of the case, both Murphy and Hulbert will be taken to the Ottawa county jail where federal prisoners from this vicinity have been housed lately.

Following the failure of obtaining positive results in drilling operations on the old A. P. Kleis property, east of the city several weeks ago, a second effort will be made to discover oil in this vicinity. The attempt is to be made on the property of Edward Scott, which is located on the north side of Black River, just east of the city, according to announcement made early this week by William M. Connelly, manager of the Holland Chamber of Commerce.

MUSEUM GROWING IN POPULARITY IN CITY

With a full schedule of visiting clubs and church groups in the Museum on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday night of this week the Museum is daily growing in popularity. To date several hundred people have already availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing the marvelous collection that has been gathered together in the past fifteen months.

On Friday night of last week a group of members of the Ebenezer Reformed church took advantage of the chance to see the exhibits and enjoy the special program prepared for these groups. All were pleased. A committee was formed consisting of H. H. Boeve, chairman, with Mrs. J. C. Van Leeuwen, and William Vanden Belt as additional members.

On Tuesday night members of the Trinity Reformed and Hope churches attended and were equally pleased. Plans are under way under the direction of Mr. Tyse, superintendent, to form a committee to canvass the membership. A committee in Hope church has already been appointed.

Wednesday night a group from the Montello Park community visited the museum under the leadership of the club in that community. E. D. Hansen and Richard Smeenge are the committee in charge of the work there. The Philathea class of the First Methodist church were also in attendance.

Thursday night the men's and women's clubs from the Beechwood community were present and committees have been appointed by Cornelius Plakke and Mrs. Plakke, who head these two live organizations. A delegation from the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church was also present.

At the noon meeting of the Exchange club on Monday, each member was given a book of five tickets and were asked to see that all were sold these books have been returned already filled out in full. Dr. G. Bos and Dick Boter were the first to report their job completed and turned in their books the following morning. John De Wilde is general chairman of the committee in charge of the club, and he has a sub-committee consisting of Dr. M. J. Cook, Clarence Jalving, Pierre Vinet, Annie Klomparsen, and Joe Geerds. Joe Geerds presided Monday in the distribution of tickets in the absence of John De Wilde who was called out of the city on business.

Tuesday night Jacob Frick called a committee together to check over the details of the campaign and every worker was urged to see as many people as possible this week so that next week may be used to clean up on such groups as have been delayed in their organization work. The chairman of each committee is asked to contact all their workers so that no one will be left untended in contacting enough people to get the required number of workers.

Monday night a very enthusiastic audience listened to Dr. Henry Beets who addressed the men's club at the First Reformed church on the subject, "The Accomplishments of his usual mastery addresses one of his men present to be proud of their ancestry. This meeting was in charge of the committee under the leadership of Dick Boter.

Talks on the work of the Foundation were continued this week. Dr. A. Leenhouts addressed a meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars while Martin Verburg spoke at a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion and also at the regular meeting of the Eagles lodge in their club rooms.

V.F.W. Notes

Our next meeting will be Thursday evening, May 12th at 7:45 sharp at the V.F.W. Hall. Ladies Auxiliary meets same night in G.A.R. room, City Hall.

An open letter to the V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary: We wish to thank the ladies for their help on the WLS show. Especially Mrs. J. Tiesenga and Mrs. F. Wajohn for traveling all over the state of Michigan with our advertising.

Our Fun Parties are getting better right along. Tried something new last time. Even our Auctioneer John Belder was calling. You would be surprised but the people on Eighth Street had cards, and could hear the numbers called very plainly.

Our Commander J. Tiesenga went up north last Monday on business to look over his farm or buy an oil field. Wish you luck, John. May be we can use some of the Tiesenga Gasoline in the near future.

Our Americanism Chairman did the best deed of the year for the V.F.W. Post by asking permission of the Post to invite the orthopedic class to be our honored guests at our WLS Artists Show.

One night last week we had quite an excitement in town. Getting near the crowd all you could hear was "I betcha, I betcha." There were Lundie, Jilison, Tiesenga and Belder betting on how many times the WLS Show was in Holland. Lundie lost and said he will set up a barrel of refreshments at our next meeting. Everybody out, it's on Lundie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mulder and daughter, Miss Lucile Mulder, 79 West 15th St., motored to Dowagiac, Sunday, to spend the day with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boordislee, and little daughter, Mary Ruth.

Atty. G. W. Kooyers was in Detroit on business Tuesday. While there he also visited Ford's Dearborn Park, composed of 200 acres, covered with buildings and relics of yesterday. Mr. Kooyers states that one must really visit the place in order to appreciate the gigantic work Mr. Ford is doing in preserving things of the past, which played such a tremendous part in developing the nation into what it is today.

Warning was issued early this week by Deputy Sheriff William Van Etta that a number of worthless checks are being circulated here by a local man on a Holland bank. If the man is caught in the act of passing the checks, he will be arrested, the sheriff indicated.

Andrew Johnson has moved to Zeeland from Holland into the second floor rooms of the John Kamps residence at 109 West Central Ave.

The Baby Clinic will be held at the city hall as usual today, Friday, afternoon beginning 1:30 o'clock in Zeeland. The clinic will be conducted in the "Treasures" room on the first floor of the city hall instead of upstairs due to Chick Show activities. Mothers of babies up to a year old are urged to bring them to the clinic.

Miss Winnie Buma, for many years resident of Zeeland, now of Grand Rapids, will leave on May 6 for a trip to visit relatives in The Netherlands. During the three months she expects to spend there she will have as her address, in care of Mrs. A. Brower, 61 Steyn Street, Leeuwarden, The Netherlands.

She will begin her work with the opening of the fall term in September. Miss Schudt is a graduate of the Hudsonville High School.

The tree-trimmers are busy on the shade trees on every street. Dead branches are taken out and limbs that hang too low are amputated. The Park Commission also believes in "sprucing up" before Tulip Time. It is well to announce again that this is the time of the year to clean back yards and alleys before the Festival. Holland is known nation-wide as a "clean city," and we hardly believe this reminder is necessary.

Mrs. E. J. Leddick of Holland has been elected corresponding secretary for the 5th District W.C.T.U., which includes Ottawa County. Mrs. O. K. Marshall of Coopersville was elected president.

FAREWELL SERVICE TO BE HELD IN IMMANUEL CHURCH

The Rev. Carl Tanis, Deputation Secretary of the Sudan Interior Mission, will preach a missionary message at a farewell service to be held by Immanuel Church for Mr. Asaph Tebert on Sunday, May 1, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Tebert is the second missionary of Immanuel Church to be sent to Africa. Miss Kathryn Hengst, a nurse who will be working among the lepers in Nigeria, was sent out by the church December 12, 1937. She is now in Africa studying the language.

Mr. Tebert was born in Germany in 1909, and after the World War his parents emigrated to Alberta, Canada. He received his Bible training at the Prairie Bible Institute of Three Hills, Alberta, Canada. After being accepted as a missionary by the Sudan Interior Mission, he has been doing deputation work for that mission in Canada and the U.S. After the farewell service May 1, he will leave for Canada and will sail May 6 from Montreal. After arriving in Nigeria, his first task will be to learn the Hausa language, and then he will go on trek through the jungles, preaching the Gospel from village to village.

The Sudan Interior Mission works on four fields in Africa, has three hundred missionaries at work on sixty stations, and these numbers are being increased every year.

Special music will consist of two numbers by the double mixed quartette of Immanuel Church and a duet by Mr. Tebert and Mr. Gordon Vanden Brink, "The Call of the Dark Sudan." A missionary offering will be received.

Immanuel Church holds its services in the Armory. The pastor is the Rev. C. M. Beerthuis.

NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK TO BE OBSERVED HERE

A Spring Festival, in celebration of National Music Week, May 1-7, will be held in Holland under the sponsorship of Holland public school organizations. Eugene F. Heeter and Miss Trixie Moore, in charge of senior and junior high music; and Stuart A. Ludlow and Miss Gertrude Flaits in charge of local elementary school music, have drawn up plans for the affair, which will likely become an annual affair, and which replaces the West Shore Music festival, as far as Holland entries go.

No admission will be charged for the concerts, which are open to the public, and which will be held at Holland high auditorium for four nights—namely, May 1, May 2, May 5, and May 6.

The May 3 concert will commence at 7:30 p. m., and all others at 8 p. m. Solos and ensemble groups will be featured the first evening, various choral organizations on the second concert date, orchestras on May 5, and school bands on May 6; thus providing a diversified series of programs for public entertainment.

Key to First Kroger Store Is Found as 56th Birthday Celebration Starts

It took this half-pound key to open the door of the first Kroger grocery from which, store by store, the present organization was built. Miss Grace Blackburn, Cincinnati Kroger employee, finds this quaint object measures more than five inches in length.

Just as stores of The Kroger Grocery and Baking Company were preparing to celebrate the 56th anniversary of the opening of the first Kroger store in Cincinnati, O., the huge brass key to that store was discovered in possession of a Cincinnati, John C. L. Haefner.

Haefner, who came across the key while inspecting some old trinkets, recalls that it was given him seven years ago by a relative, Julius Brandt. Brandt told him that as a young man he had been a porter and watchman at the original store opened by B. H. Kroger at 310 East Pearl street, Cincinnati. It seemed that there had been some difficulty with the lock on the front door so Brandt was instructed to replace it with a new one. He saved the old-fashioned key and nearly half a century later, gave it to Haefner.

Kroger's Food Stores are celebrating their 56th birthday anniversary of the inception of the firm, and are also inaugurating Birthday Sales. See their special announcement on this page. Kro-

MASS FURNITURE COMPANY REMODELING FURNITURE STORE

The building program of Mr. Peter Mass has been extensive since January 1st. A new building has been erected, and the story will be found elsewhere. However, that is not the full extent of the building operations. The northeast front of the furniture building proper is to be remodeled. This was made necessary to make provisions for a convenient stairway to the second floor of the new building for the accommodation of tenants who will occupy that floor when it is completed. This stairway will provide a rear entrance for the new building besides a front entrance and stairway on River Ave., directly north of the Colonial Theatre.

The remodeling is in charge of Van Dyke and Volkers, contractors, who also built the new building. The furniture building is to be slightly re-arranged and made more convenient. Of course, the furniture, rugs, carpets, curtains, radios, etc. will continue to occupy two floors in the furniture building, connected by elevators.

The Mass Furniture Emporium was erected on 10th St. 12 years ago by Mr. Peter Mass. Mrs. Hendrika Bontekoe, daughter of Mr. Mass, Henry Mass, and Peter A. Mass are in charge of the store.

The building operations in the furniture building call for a Remodeling Sale, and the Mass Furniture Co. is making announcement of this sale elsewhere in this issue.

Miss Kate De Neff of Holland has returned from a visit to Allendale.

FUNERAL OF ZEELAND MAN KILLED IN ACCIDENT HELD MONDAY

The funeral of Claude Van Dyke of Zeeland, who was instantly killed on the Zeeland-Overisel road, 4 1/2 miles south of Zeeland, was held Monday. The accident was unusual. Van Dyke was returning to Overisel for an appointment, and when about 4 1/2 miles from Zeeland, he lost control of the wheel when the car struck a soft spot in the road. The car veered to the west side of the highway when about 50 feet from a culvert, which he struck head-on. It appears that the right wheels of the car trailed in a shallow ditch that led to the concrete abutment. The front end of the car struck the abutment, which is composed of a slab 4 feet long and 10 inches thick, through which a 10-inch corrugated pipe protruded.

When the car struck, the top half of the abutment was broken off. The automobile was thrown into the air, traveling a distance of some 60 feet before it struck the ground, tearing the sod in a field nearby about a car's length from the road. It then tumbled along some distance further before coming to a stop, and a complete wreck.

The body of Van Dyke was found about forty feet from the wreck. Some believe that the impact threw the man through the roof of the car. When the body was examined it was found that both the neck and upper back were broken, and that death must have been instantaneous. Otherwise there were no bruises except a few scratches.

Bert Van Dyke, the father, lives in Holland.

Funeral rites took place in the Allendale Christian Reformed church, Rev. H. Keegstra officiating.

"This De Luxe Ford V-8 is not only the best looking Ford I've ever owned, but by far the most economical one I've owned. By actual test on local driving, at approximately 30 miles an hour, I averaged 23 miles to a gallon. On a dry-road trip at higher speed, I averaged 18 miles to a gallon of gasoline."

J. H. CAUGHEY

"Driving a new De Luxe Ford V-8 and accompanied by my family, I have just returned home from Mexico City, a round trip of 6000 miles. The new car performed marvelously well, although it was driven at a consistently high rate of speed."

"We were very much surprised at the riding comfort of this new car. We had absolutely no trouble of any kind during the entire trip. And we believe that this is truly a wonderful car."

MORE TULIP TIME ACTIVITIES

A meeting of the executive committee of the 1938 Tulip Festival was held Monday at 4 p. m., in the Chamber of Commerce headquarters in Warm Friend Tavern. A major decision was to hold a Dutch costume exchange in the City Rescue mission building on East Eighth St., following the making of due arrangements with the mission. Any used Dutch costumes should be brought for sale or exchange. Edward Brouwer, George Trotter, and Mrs. Arthur Visscher were appointed to take charge of the exchange. Purpose of its establishment is to facilitate the problems of parents of growing children who cannot afford to buy new costumes as the children grow out of the previous size.

Decision was also made to ban carnival costumes from Tulip Time festivities. Brushes and brooms for the street scrubbing event on opening day will be solicited from wives of service club members in the city.

Abel Postma is completing arrangements for the erection of a bandstand at Centennial Park for the Village Green program, and Nels Postma will be in charge of lighting and amplification.

Entries into the Tulip Tots division of the Volks parade to be held Saturday, May 14, the opening day of the festival, must be registered with Mrs. Peter Van Domelen, Jr., of rural route No. 1, or telephone 5626. Children of pre-kindergarten age comprise this division.

Herbert Chapman, student at Michigan State college, and Kenneth Vander Heuvel and Victor Charven, both University of Michigan students, attended funeral services held here Friday for Julian (Jake) Arendshorst, who died last week Tuesday.

Kindergarten pupils of Van Raalte school, who are students of Miss Bernice Vaughn, as part of a travel project, traveled from downtown to Virginia Park Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Keppel had as their guest last week their daughter, Mrs. T. L. Kennedy of Oak Park, Ill.

Only One House To Make Laws To Michigan

HOPE FACULTY MEMBER EXPLAINS ADVANTAGE OF ONE BODY LAW MAKING TO BE MORE BUSINESS LIKE

Dr. Bruce M. Raymond, head of the history department at Hope college, addressed members of the Holland Exchange club last Monday noon at their regular meeting at Warm Friend Tavern on "Unicameral Legislation." Dr. Raymond will discuss the subject informally at a House of Representatives subcommittee meeting at Lansing today at 11 a. m. He first became interested in the subject while working on his doctor's thesis at University of Nebraska last year. Dr. Raymond traced the history of the legislative movement from England where the three-class system of nobles, commoners and clergy was once prevalent, to the present one-body legislature, as it is now in effect in Nebraska. Through the withdrawal of the minor clergy in England, a two-house body was formed. Up to the French Revolution, France had a three-house governing body and Sweden even had a five-house legislature at one time.

During the time of the American Revolution, Montesquien realized the value of the two-house plan, the speaker stated, and published his findings in a pamphlet on the "check and balance" system. At the Constitutional Convention in 1787, each representative had a copy in his pocket. Out of this convention, our present two-house government evolved.

The one-house system has been attempted from time to time in Georgia, Pennsylvania, Vermont, and other states. In 1910, according to the speaker, reform was wanted and, consequently, the initiative, referendum, recall, and the primary system came in, and the one-house system was resurrected. At the time of the World War the matter was again dropped.

In 1934, because J. W. Norton "talked up" the idea in Nebraska (it had been defeated in 1920 by a 48-43 deadlock), the unicameral system was again proposed. Since no legislative body will vote itself out of office and out of a job," the proposal did not meet with too much approval. However, largely through the work of Senator Norris who made some 30 radio speeches on the subject, and donated over $1,000 to the project, "in 1934 the people of Nebraska approved the issue in all but 73 out of 2,923 precincts."

The Nebraska legislature is composed of 43 members. Dr. Raymond informed the Exchanges. Each man draws a salary of $1,720 every two years, and each representative represents about 30,000 people. Together with Michigan there are some 15 or 20 states now studying the plan, and in 32 states it was used last year for a debate topic among high school students.

In closing, Dr. Raymond summarized advantages of the plan as follows: (1) It stops undue haste in legislation, since at least five days are required for the passage of a law; (2) Its procedure is simple and smooth; (3) A single member may demand a roll-call vote; (4) A five-day notice on committee meetings must be published in Nebraska newspapers, so that the public may attend if it desires; (5) There is no domination by the president, state governor, or anyone else; (6) It is far less costly than the bicameral set-up; (7) It is non-partisan.

Disadvantages are that an emergency measure requires five days to pass and that there is only individual responsibility in the legislature, no party or group responsibility. "I am not saying that the system is good," Dr. Raymond emphasized, "I am merely reporting on what they are doing."

Guests of the club were Jack Bos, M. Lucht, George W. Ranger, and Henry Steffens, all of Holland, and William Heyns of Grand Rapids. Music, arranged for by the music committee of which Eugene F. Heeter is the head, was in charge of the Hope College Men's Glee club, Kenneth R. Osborn, director, and Wilbur Jacob, pianist. An invitation from the Holland Lions club to attend the showing of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation film, "The Golden Gate" at the Holland Theatre, Tuesday at 12:45 was read by Exchange president, C. C. Wood.

Prof. Milton Hinga of Hope college opened with prayer, "Jake" Fris gave an autobiography, "which rivals Ludwig's Napoleon," and which, according to himself, is to be published in the near future. Literature in regard to the campaign being sponsored by the Netherlands Pioneer and Historical Foundation was distributed, and speeches on the project were made by Joe Geerds and "Jake" Fris. "Andy" Klompars, Dr. Milton Cook, "Pete" Vinet, Joe Geerds, and Clarence Jalving compose the club membership committee for the drive.

Secretary "Al" Lampen stated that "Doc" Westrate and Joe Geerds had been appointed to serve on the committee to make arrangements for the state Exchange meet at Sturgis in June. The Rev. Paul E. Hinkamp and Atty. Vernon Ten Cate were chosen to the Community Chest committee. Pete Vinet, chairman, George Pelgrim, and William Butler were named to the aviation essay contest committee.

Confessions Made By Local Robbers

With the arrest and confession of two local men Friday that they had participated in three local robberies, the robberies were solved. The men are Albert S. Shakalaar, 47, of West 21st St., and Leonard Seery, 31, 201 East 15th St. Places from which the men stole were John's Place, on Columbia Ave., owned by John Tupper, robbed on March 26; and two robberies last week Wednesday, that of Al's Place, west of the city, and the Superior Pure Ice and Machine Co., at 285 Lake St.

A man under the influence of beer (beer was part of the loot taken at Al's Place), was arrested Wednesday night by Deputies William Van Etta and Henry Borr. His information was the clue to the arrest of the two men. Shakalaar locked himself in his home when police arrived, but in his attempt to escape in the darkness, was caught by Officer Jay Dalman.

Since Shakalaar is not a citizen of the United States and has been convicted twice on criminal charges on previous occasions, if he is convicted this time, the federal government may deport him to The Netherlands, the country of his birth, as an undesirable alien. He has lived here about 20 years.

When they were arraigned Friday before Justice John Galien, the men waived examination and were taken to Ottawa county jail at Grand Haven when they were unable to provide bonds of $2,000 apiece. Cases of the men were turned over to circuit court for prosecution on a breaking and entering charge.

TWO HOLLAND MEN ARE BROUGHT TO COUNTY JAIL

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Leonard Seery, 31, and Albert Shakalaar, 47, Holland, were brought to the county jail last night to await arraignment in circuit court charged with entering and breaking in the night time, as they were unable to produce bonds of $2,000 each.

The two men, who were married, are charged with breaking into Al's Place at Montello Park and stealing a quantity of beer, canned goods, cigars and candy and aluminum wire. The arrest was made by officers in the sheriff's department. They were arraigned yesterday before Justice John Galien, Holland.

Phil Osterhouse of Grand Rapids and Miss Alta Marie Foster and Jack Elefeld, also of Grand Rapids, were featured in exhibition dances, while King's orchestra provided music for the occasion. LAW ON POISON AFFECTS CABBAGE

County Agricultural Agent L. R. Arnold reminds truck farmers and gardeners this week that arsenical dusts or sprays should not be applied to cabbage after the heads begin to form. If arsenicals are applied after this point, cabbages cannot be marketed unless all the leaves which were on the plant at the time of the treatment with the arsenical are removed.

Tests by entomologists in the U. S. Department of Agriculture which show that certain organic materials that are comparatively harmless to man but fatal to insects prevent serious insect damage to cabbage after the heads begin to form.

In these tests, derris dusts containing 1/4 to 1 per cent rotenone gave good control of the imported cabbage worm, the cabbage looper, and the immature form of the diamond-back moth. For practical purposes a dust prepared from cube or derris powder containing 3/4 of one per cent of rotenone is recommended for these three pests. Ray Hutson, head of the entomology department at Michigan State college, finds these applications suitable for use in Michigan.

BIG "4-H" LEADERS ACHIEVEMENT DAY FOR HOLLAND

Ottawa County 4-H leaders and members held their annual winter achievement event at Holland high school, May 5-6-7. Hundreds of articles will be on display at the school during these days. Ottawa is one of the leading counties of the state in winter club work. L. R. Arnold, agricultural agent, states that the best way for citizens to determine the value of such work is for them to view the articles made and to attend the program. The program for Saturday is as follows:

OIL FIRE FILLS SKY WITH BLACK SMOKE

A large oil transport truck, driven by Ortis Christofferson of Burnips, en route from Burnips oil field to the refinery at Muskegon, turned over Sunday about 4 a. m. at the intersection of the short air road to U.S.-31 east of the city and M-21. Fearing that the 3,000 gallons of spilled oil would drain into Lake Macatawa and Black river, Ira Antles, Ottawa county conservation officer, assisted by Deputy Sheriff's Henry Borr and William Van Etta, erected dams and set fire to the oil. Had the oil reached the water thousands of fish would have been destroyed.

John Christofferson was owner of the truck. Skidding of the truck on the wet pavement was blamed for the accident. The truck was badly damaged. Young Christofferson, slightly scratched, was oil-soaked by the accident. Thousands of persons thronged to the scene all day Sunday to witness the fire, which was set at 9 a. m. and which burned for about six hours. Billows of black smoke filled the sky for hours.

JUDGE MILES TO GIVE MEMORIAL ADDRESS AT GRAND HAVEN

Judge Fred T. Miles of Holland has been selected to be the orator of the day on Memorial Day at Grand Haven. The speech will be made at the soldiers plot in Forest Home Cemetery after the parade. The parade committee is arranging a very pretentious line-up of Spanish-American War veterans, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts, and their respective auxiliaries.

SWING BRIDGE AT GRAND HAVEN JAMS

The large swing bridge on US-31 between Grand Haven and Ferrysburg and Spring Lake jammed Sunday, piling up traffic on both sides for miles. It was more than an hour before the bridge-tenders could swing the bridge again. The slow swinging of the bridge, over the best of circumstances, has been reason for complaint. The bridge must swing even though a small skiff with a tall mast goes through, and for twenty minutes thousands of passengers in automobiles must wait for this small sail boat, with a spar that is too tall.

BOY IS DROWNED IN GRAND RIVER SUNDAY

A lad of eight years, named Kenneth Widling, was drowned in the Grand River at Grand Haven on Sunday, while playing on the piles at the Grand Truck car ferry slip. He was with several other children, including two brothers, Gordon, 7, and Robert, 5. According to the children, Kenneth had jumped on a pile at some distance from the slip and must have lost his balance, falling into the river. A scoop net, which had been used to catch minnows, was thrown to the drowning boy, the children state, and he rose three times, each time attempting to grab it. After he had gone down for the last time, the children ran to the Widling home, where they found the parents. The police and coast guards were soon on the scene and after dragging a half hour found the body in 20 feet of water.

Federal Agents Recognize Harm Deer Do To Crops

ARE AIDING STATE CONSERVATION MEN IN TRAPPING THE ALLEGAN COUNTY HERD—FIND IT SLOW WORK

There are not as many deer in the Kalamazoo River valley as generally supposed by farmers and sportsmen, James Hodge, federal game management specialist, declared as he cooperated with the State Conservation Department in its live deer trapping program. "At the most there are not more than 200 deer in Allegan County," Hodge estimated. "I think the number is nearer 150 than 200."

Previous estimates by Allegan county celery growers, who are demanding the removal of the herd, and H. D. Ruhl, chief of the game division, placed the herd at 200 to 600 deer. Ruhl "guessed" 400.

"There can't be that many deer in the county," Hodge asserted. "There were only 10 does and 12 bucks released in the fall of 1932. The normal rate of increase in Michigan is 1.5 fawns per doe annually. On this ratio basis there would be 176 deer in the county. County Conservation Officer Harry Plotts has record of 22 deer killed, mostly on the highways, since the herd was first released."

"Regardless of the number of deer in the county, there are enough now to do great damage to farm crops. From now on the herd will more than double in size each year unless controlled by live trapping or controlled shooting."

"I agree with state conservationists and farmers that a dangerous situation has developed, and sooner or later it will call for drastic action."

Hodge said he took a large crew of men and made deer counts in both the Kalamazoo and Rabbit River valleys. As drives were made through the wild country, he said the deer were counted by men stationed in observation towers. The observers' figures were checked with counts made by men in the drive. Invariably, Hodge said, the men in the towers would see three times more deer than the crew on the ground.

After baiting deer to central points in the celery country and fruit belt, the Conservation Department set up five traps which it had borrowed for this purpose. Col. William A. Bergin, assistant chief of the field division, expressed doubts whether many deer would be taken in the traps. He declared the trapping method must be given a fair trial before resorting to more drastic control measures.

Reports of deer damage to farm crops in Allegan county have temporarily upset Huron county's plans to release a herd of deer in a tract of wild land in the Thumb district. Bergin said the board of supervisors still is holding five deer in captivity awaiting a decision about their release.

MOTHER OF MRS. VAN DREZER PASSES AWAY IN NORTH DAKOTA

Mrs. L. E. Van Drezer, 123 E. 10th St., received word that her mother, Mrs. Timothy B. White, passed away Monday, April 25 at Minot, North Dakota, at the age of 94 years. She had been confined at Trinity hospital of that city for the past seven months because of a fractured hip.

For at least twenty years after the death of Mr. White, who passed away in 1897, she made her home in Holland with her daughter, but later returned to Minot, North Dakota to live with her son, Aldon White. Mrs. White's maiden name was Lydia Baker, and she was born in Tilsonburg, Canada in 1844. Mr. and Mrs. White settled on a farm near Coopersville; and later Mrs. White conducted a confectionery store in the basement of the Holland City State Bank building.

The remains of Mrs. White were taken from Minot, North Dakota, and funeral rites will take place this Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Dykstra Funeral chapel. Dr. E. D. Dimmet of Hope led, and Dr. Benjamin Bush of Detroit, non-in-law of Mrs. Van Drezer, will officiate. Interment will take place in the Van Drezer plot in Fairlawn Cemetery, where Mr. White is also buried.

THE BUSHMASTER

This terrible reptile, a native of Central and tropical So. America, has such wonderful coloration, that once you have seen it, you certainly would recognize it when seen again. The color is a reddish yellow, sometimes approaching pink, with black bands on the back. There is a black line from the eye to the mouth. They are about 11 feet long and rather more slender and graceful than the eastern Diamond Back Rattler. Its fangs are very long, sometimes one or two quarter inches. Not many of these dangerous snakes have been on display at our zoos. The reason is that they have a highly nervous disposition. They positively will not eat in captivity and only live 3 or 4 months until they die of starvation. A man when bitten by a matured reptile of this type would probably die in 10 or 15 minutes. The claim is made that it is the only species of Crotalidae Snake that lays eggs. We can be thankful that Michigan has only the very small rattler to contend with.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

May 1, 1938

Following Vision with Service Mark 7:14-29.

Henry Geerlings

The arrival of the Savior on the scene of this miracle was almost dramatic in its timeliness. He and the three pillar apostles had been for the whole of the preceding night upon the mountain top, where He had been transfigured before them, and they had enjoyed the signal privilege of listening to the conversation of Moses and Elijah with Him, on the descent which He was to accomplish at Jerusalem. But the other nine apostles had been, for at least a part of the time of their Master's absence from them, far otherwise engaged. In the early morning, while the Lord and the privileged three were descending from the holy mount, a poor distressed father had brought to the others his only child, suffering from a peculiarly aggravated form of demoniacal possession.

Raphael, in his "Transfiguration," represents the conflict of the nine disciples at the foot of the hill, with the demon in the boy, and with the malice of the scribes, as simultaneous with the glorious experience of the other three disciples on the mountain top, and so brings both of them into view together. Obviously, this could not have been physically possible, but by taking that course He has succeeded in setting vividly before us the contrast between the two. And a very striking contrast it was. On the mountain top were the highest harmonies of earth, glorified by their alliance for the time with the harmonies of heaven. In the valley were the wildest discords of earth, aggravated, for the time, by the addition of them of the dissonance of hell. On the mount the three were sharing in participation in the gladness of Christ's victory over all His enemies; in the valley the nine were suffering under the shame of a defeat. On the mountain top the three were enjoying most exalted privileges; in the valley the nine were laboring hard in conflict with opposing forces, both earthly and diabolical.

Now we have similar contrasts still. For Christian experience is neither all enjoyment nor all conflict, but it is very frequently an alternation between the two. The enjoyment prepares the spirit for the conflict; and then, the conflict over, the enjoyment comes again to restore the soul after its exertions.

Peter foolishly desired to rear tabernacles on the mount that he and his companions might abide there continually, but when he came down and saw the state of things, as between his brethren and the scribes, it would become at once apparent to him that evil would have resulted had they tarried longer in the place of privilege.

It would not be good for us to be always at the communion table, or in the sanctuary, or on the mount. We must leave such ecstasies of devotion, after a brief season, and when we do, we ought to look for this demonic boy, and seek by prayer to cast the evil spirit out of him.

We need not go far before we meet him, for he is still among us in many forms. We may see him in the poor victims of intemperance, held captive by his appetite; or in the forlorn wail of womanhood who sells herself for bread; or in the mass of human driftwood that gathers at the corners of our streets. All these are possessed by a demon of some sort and it is our work to cast him out.

Privilege such as we now and here enjoy is not meant to chloroform us into inactivity, but rather to spur us to exertion, and to refresh us after work. Therefore let us never think of building tabernacles on the mount, but, when the time of privilege is past, we ought to hasten away and bring the suffering to Christ.

ZEELAND MAN RECEIVES CRUSHED HAND

Andy De Vree of Zeeland had the misfortune of receiving a badly crushed hand while employed at an industry in Grand Rapids, Thursday.

He was rushed to the hospital where the first three fingers of the right hand were found badly injured and relief was given. At first it was feared that amputation might set in and that the members might have to be amputated, but present indications are that they will be saved.

TELEPHONE RATES

HAVE BEEN REDUCED IN FIVE SUCCESSIVE YEARS

— 1934-1938 —

Those reductions, made in the face of substantially increased labor and material costs and taxes, mean an annual saving of more than $3,000,000 to Michigan telephone users.

The handset telephone charge was reduced and then eliminated. Rural line rates were reduced. Service connection and various other charges were cut sharply. And there have been 17 items of reduction in long distance rates, many of them applying to intra-state calls, in the past 11 years.

There is a type of telephone service to fit every need and every pocketbook. We will gladly give you details about how cheaply you can have telephone service if you will call, write or visit the Telephone Business Office.

COMMON COUNCIL

Holland, Mich., April 20, 1938.

The Common Council met in regular session and was called to order by the Mayor.

Present: Mayor Henry Geerlings, Alds. Prins, Kleis, Drinkwater, Kalkman, Oudemool, Brouwer, Steffens, Huyser, Bultman, Vogelzang, Smith, and the Clerk, Peterson. Aldermen-elect Kleis and Menken were also present.

Devotions led by Rev. William Van't Hof.

Minutes read and approved.

Petitions and Accounts

Clerk Oscar Peterson presented several applications for Building permits.

Granted, subject to approval of City Engineer and Fire Chief.

Clerk Peterson reported application No. A-540 made by Russell Risselada for a residence on the S. 1/2 of Lot 12, Block 7, Southwest A. 1/2, has been questioned by the City Engineer and Fire Chief due to not being in conformity with the Zoning Ordinance as it relates to rear yard requirements.

Referred to Appeal Board.

Clerk reported that Gerrit Schutten was contemplating the erection of two residences on Michigan Ave., between 20th and 21st Sts. Mr. Schutten prefers to have all three of these houses located on the lot so that the rear of the house will be in line. If this is done, however, the rear yard in each case will be just 20 ft. It is the opinion of Mr. Schutten that this would be an ideal arrangement since it would keep the corner house several feet back from the street and thus give a better view at this intersection.

Referred to the Appeal Board.

Clerk presented operating report of the Michigan Gas & Electric Co. for February.

Referred to Board of Public Works.

Clerk presented report from Hartford Steam Boiler Insp. & Ins. Co., covering recent inspection of boiler at Holland Hospital. Report states that no conditions were observed that require attention at this time.

Accepted and filed.

Clerk presented application for license to engage in the ice cream business at 206 College Ave., signed by Morris Mills for Mills Ice Cream Co.

Granted.

Clerk presented several oaths of office.

Accepted and filed.

Clerk Peterson presented application to sell soft drinks at 74 East 8th St., signed by Charles Cunningham.

Granted.

Clerk Peterson presented petition from residents and property owners in the vicinity of Washington Square protesting against the proposed re-routing of heavy trucks over this street. In this connection, it was brought out that at the previous Council meeting a resolution had been adopted providing for such re-routing. However, it was moved by Ald. Brouwer, seconded by Oudemool,

That the Council reconsider its recent action relative to such re-routing. Several of the Aldermen expressed themselves as having voted upon this question without being thoroughly familiar with the condition of Washington Ave.

The motion to reconsider was passed unanimously.

It was then moved by Ald. Edward Brouwer, seconded by Oudemool,

That the matter of re-routing trucks away from the Hospital be referred to the Street Committee for further study.

Adopted.

Reports of Standing Committees

Committee on Ways and Means to whom had been referred the request of the Commonwealth Pipe Line Co. for a lease of approximately three acres of land on East 16th St., owned by the City, reported recommending that the request be denied.

Adopted.

Committee on Ways and Means to whom had been referred the request of John Cooper of the Holland Motor Express Co. to purchase a strip of ground on Central Ave., between 4th and 5th Sts., reported that this property might be very useful for the City's own use inasmuch as it has railroad facilities.

The Committee, therefore, recommended that the property be not sold.

Adopted.

Committee on Ways and Means to whom had been referred the request from the local newspapers relative to purchasing space in the Tulip Time Edition, reported recommending that the City purchase the same space as it did last year.

Adopted.

Street Committee presented a resolution authorizing the City Clerk to request a permit from the State Highway Department for permission to close trunk lines M-21 and U.S.-31 at certain periods during our Tulip Festival.

Adopted.

Street Committee, to whom had been referred the matter of opening E. 12th St., from Lincoln to Fairbanks Ave., reported having had this matter under consideration for quite some time. It was reported that Mr. William H. Vande Water owns most of this property, and further, that his residence is located on what will be the street, if opened.

Committee reported having tentatively agreed to pay Mr. Vande Water the sum of $2500.00 for this property with the understanding that he is to move the house. It was further reported that they had tentatively agreed to give Mr. Vande Water a period of five years in which to move his house. Committee reported that it was bringing this matter to the Council's attention for its consideration.

Proposition adopted unanimously.

Street Committee, to whom had been referred the matter of repairing the driveway into Kollen Park, reported that the matter would be given attention and this drive would be repaired before Tulip Time.

Claims and Accounts Committee reported having examined claims in the sum of $6,989.88, and recommended payment thereof.

Adopted.

Welfare Committee reported that Mr. John Van Beek, living on E. 14th St., near Fairbanks Ave., needs assistance in the way of paying up back taxes on his property. Committee further reported that Mr. Van Beek had agreed to deed this property to the City, providing they would pay up these back taxes and permit him to continue living there at such times as he is able. Committee recommended that the City enter into such agreement with Mr. Van Beek.

Adopted, and Mayor and City Clerk authorized to sign such agreements.

Mayor Henry Geerlings reported that Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley, a blind couple, who own a small home on E. 16th St., was also in arrears on their paying taxes and were not in position to pay them. Mayor further reported that this couple needed some assistance and recommended that the matter be referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

Adopted.

License Committee, to whom had been referred the requests for permission to secure licenses to sell beer and light wines for consumption on the premises, reported recommending that the following licenses be approved:

Licenses:—Andrew Leenhouts, 179 River Ave.—Owl Sandwich Shop; Bernard Keefer, 27 W. 8th St.—Keefer's Restaurant; Lee De Feyter, 180 River Ave.—Lee's Place; Dave Blom, 72 E. 8th St.—The Spot; Elks Club, 208-210 Central Ave.; Glen R. Gillespie, 147 River Ave.—Gillespie's Restaurant; Harold Stull, 200 E. 8th St.—East End Cafe; Wm. and Henry Vande Water, 126 East Eighth Street—Bill and Heine Tavern; Catherine Sernas, 205 River Avenue—Vogue Coffee Shop; Frances Veling, 234 E. 8th St.—Miller Hotel; Richard Hotel Co., 8th and Central Ave.—Warm Friend Tavern (Bier Stube); Holland Hotel Co., 8th and Central Ave.—Tavern club; Eagles Club, 76 E. 8th St.; Orla Arnold, 234 River Ave.—Covered Wagon; Wm. Koop, 115 E. 8th St.—Do-Drop Inn.

On motion of Ald. Prins, seconded by Kleis,

Approved.

Committee on Public Buildings reported for information of the Council that the job of decorating the city house occupied by M. Witvliet has been completed.

Lighting Committee, to whom had been referred the petition for a street light at the intersection of Columbia Ave. and 32nd St., reported recommending that the petition be granted and the Clerk instructed to have the Board of Public Works erect such light.

Adopted.

Ald. Brouwer also brought up the Tulip Time Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, reported having met, and recommended that the Council members march in the parades again this year on both of the Saturdays during Tulip Time.

Adopted.

Tld. Brouwer also brought up the matter relative to the advisability of the City purchasing these gowns that have been rented from Hope college for this purpose.

Referred to the Chamber of Commerce Tulip Time Committee with power to act.

Ald. Brouwer further reported recommending that from now until after Tulip Time all petitions for licenses or concessions of every nature be referred to the Manager of the Chamber of Commerce before any action is taken by the Council.

Adopted.

Ald. Brouwer also brought up the matter relative to manufacturers of beer and liquors taking advantage of our Tulip Festival in advertising their products. Mr. Brouwer stated that in his opinion the Council should take a definite stand to oppose such procedure.

In this connection, Mayor Geerlings stated that last year he had ordered them to stay out of the parades, which they had done, and he, too, felt it a good move for the Council to take a definite stand in opposing such advertising.

Adopted.

The Mayor and newly-elected Aldermen then took the Oath of Office, and Mayor Geerlings delivered his annual message.

On motion of Ald. Kleis, seconded by Prins,

The message was accepted and the Clerk instructed to have it printed in full in both the local papers. (Note: Message in full printed elsewhere in this issue.)

Mayor then appointed the following Standing Committees for the ensuing year, 1938-1939:
