De Hope, 21 April, 1880

Report of the Proceedings of the Fifth Dutch Sabbath School Convention, held in Grand Haven, 30 and 31 March, 1880

....resolved to discuss the third point: "Should Sabbath school teachers be members in full communion, and what are their principal requirements?"

The Sabbath school is very important, and everything connected to it; because the goal is to teach and develop youth. Direction, character and inclinations are formed in that way. The speaker is of the opinion that teachers must possess the following requirements:

1. Teachers must be able to teach....
2. Study. Dr. Van Raalte once said: "If I do not study, I cannot continue to preach longer than six weeks." That is how it is with the Sabbath School teacher. God's Word, daily reading needs to be examined and studied....
