Monday evening a joint meeting was held of the consistories of the First, Hope, and Third Reformed churches of this city, for the purpose of formally extending an invitation to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, at their session at Ashbury Park, N. J., next month, to hold the meeting of 1893 in this city. The meeting was largely attended and there was an unanimous and enthusiastic sentiment in favor of the proposed action. The local delegates to the meeting of the Particular Synod held at Roseland, Ill., Wednesday, were charged with presenting the matter before that body, for its endorsement, same as had already been received by the Council of Hope College, last week. An informal gathering of some of our citizens was held at the office of G. J. Diekema, Saturday evening, at which the question of entertainment was reviewed and it was the opinion of all that on this score there would be nothing wanting. As we go to press the delegates to the Part. Synod had not yet returned.

The annual meeting of the Common Council Monday evening, for the appointment of certain city officers was attended by all the members. The session started out a-right by electing Ald. Owing to advancing age and declining strength M. De Feyer declined a re-appointment as street commissioner, a position he has satisfactorily filled for fifteen consecutive years. On the first ballot for his successor the vote was divided between A. Klaverings, H. G. Van den Berg, P. De Feyer and G. Schaefkens. On the fifth ballot Mr. Klaverings received a majority. HOLLAND CITY NEWS.

Holland, - - Mich.

For the HOLLAND CITY NEWS. The Thunder-storm.

BY HENRY VAN DER PLOEG.

How sudden is the air!
A solemn silence broods o'er every scene.
The birds that erstwhile warbled with the
Of re-awakened tunes, have ceased their
A weird and saddening moan sweeps through the forest trees,
And cause the woods to speak of the impending storm.
The murmur of the brooks not now doth fill the heart
With joy, nor soothes the breast which there for comfort fled;
But it augments the awful gloom
That clothes all nature with a deathlike shroud.
The clear, blue vault of heaven—the racecourse
Of the orb, which fills the earth with light, the soul, with joy—
Is darkened. Huge, massive clouds, dark as black night
Rise up from out the deep, and cast a somber hue o'er all the land.
They tower in the distance, as huge mountains.
Planted in the sea, and lifting up their lofty tops high unto heaven.

Yet all is still.—But hark! Far in the distance
Rolls the stately thunder, echoed from cloud to cloud;
Now loud and strong, like as the roar of mighty waters
Thundering down the mountain-rocks in a tumultuous mass—
Now like the echoes from a distant battlefield.
Higher, still higher mount the clouds;
Darker and deeper now their hue;
Nearer and nearer rolls the thunder—
While from that mass of darkest shade,
A vivid light bursts forth, and leaps from peak to peak,
E'en as a general marshaling his hosts to direct conflict.
Fell is the struggle. Flash on flash, with lucid glare
Is seen to dart through space, bent on its deadly mission.
'Tis like when ancient Jove did hurl
His mighty thunderbolts upon the struggling Titans.

The earth is hushed, and fearfully beholds
This conflict of the elements.
The forests hold their breath, and dare not heave the faintest sigh.
Lest they should draw the wrath of nature
on their heads.
The brute creation trembles, and shudders
at the voice of its Creator.
Even man is awed. With head bent down upon his beating breast,
He stands in silent adoration of a God,
Who rides upon the clouds and makes the lightning his swift chariot.
All else is silent, when the voice of the Creator speaks.
His thunder rolls through heaven—and man
trembles;
His lightning flashes swifter than the moments fly—
And the darkest soul shudders at its Majesty's might.

O God, how great art Thou! Who shall before Thee stand?
Who shall in that great day when Thou wilt come upon the clouds,
To judge, give answer to one question asked from many thousands!
E'en now we fear Thy power when we see nature's might,
And tremble at the sight of so great majesty.
Thou, who dost guide the lightning, and direct its way,
So guide us through this life, that we may not be afraid of a fearful day.
We may with Thee abide, in heavenly courts above,
And praise Thy power, not only—but Thy love!

Profitable to the Tax-payers.

Under this heading the G. H. Courier-Journal of last week publishes the following complimentary article on Judge Soule, the present incumbent of the Probate office and a candidate for re-nomination:

"The Judge of Probate has charge of the fund raised by taxation for the care of the insane. Judge Soule has inquired carefully into the residence of every insane person brought before him, and when they have come from other states and counties he has sent them home to be cared for by their own people, instead of by the people of Ottawa county; and by his care in this respect, has reduced taxation for insane purposes, from $3,000 annually, a few years ago, to $1,000 last year, and $1,200 for this year. He is more than saving his salary by his prudence and thrift, in the expenditure of the insane fund alone, and none of the unfortunates of this county have been neglected."

The law provides that money in estates not claimed by heirs, and when the heirs are absent and unknown, shall be paid into the county treasury for safe keeping, until called for; and if never called for, to remain there for the benefit of the people. Before Judge Soule's administration none of this money ever came into the county treasury, but was left in the hands of administrators; but under his management nearly $2,000 have already been secured for these unknown heirs, or the people. Under the direction of the Board of Supervisors, he is now investigating old estates for these funds, and it is likely thousands of dollars will be secured, for the ultimate benefit of the people.

He has carried the same prudence and thrift into the administration of estates, under his direction; and the property of deceased persons is transferred to their living representatives, with the least expense, and greatest speed permitted by the law.

It is well-known that the Judge of our Probate Court is a lawyer, of culture, ability and experience. He gives his official work, and advice and assistance to all persons interested in probate matters, without charge. The Probate Court is aptly termed "the poor man's court," because it is not necessary to employ lawyers to do business there; and thousands of dollars are saved to the people yearly, by Judge Soule's advice and assistance in this respect.

That working people may not lose their time in attending court in working hours, he gives them his evenings to do their business.

The wisdom and justice of his decisions is admitted by all persons interested; he has entered over two thousand decrees, from which dissatisfied persons might have appealed to the Circuit Court, but scarcely an appeal a year has been taken.

Rotation in judicial office has not been the rule in this state, circuit, or county; our Supreme Judges have been kept upon the bench until old age;
Judge Arnold sat upon the Circuit bench for eighteen years without suggestion of change except by promotion or death; Judge Tate held the Probate office for twelve years.

In a change in the Probate Office of Ottawa county called for at the election next fall."

STORM-SWEPT KANSAS.

ANOTHER DISASTROUS AND FATAL CYCLONE.

Methodists in Conclave at Omaha—A Lengthy Address—Bad Wreck on the Panhandle—Anti-Option Bill Delayed—Wichita's Sensation.

Congressional.
In the Senate, the 8d, Mr. Morgan called up the message on the subject of an international conference as to silver coinage. Mr. Kyle then proceeded to address the Senate in favor of the free coinage of silver. At the close of his speech the message was again laid on the table, Mr. Morgan giving notice that he desired to speak upon it. The conference report on the exclusion bill was then laid before the Senate and agreed to. The House bill placing binding twine on the free list was laid before the Senate and referred to the Finance Committee. But little routine business was done in the House in the morning, and shortly after the reading of the Journal the House went into committee of the whole, with Mr. Oates, of Alabama, in the chair, on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. Mr. Houghton, of Georgia, in charge of the bill, moved to strike out the appropriation of $65,000 to continue the preliminary survey for an intercontinental railway; agreed to. Mr. Hooker, of Mississippi, demanded a separate vote on the amendment striking out the $65,000 appropriation for the intercontinental railway commission. It was agreed to. The bill then passed. The Senate amendments to the army appropriation bill were non-concurred in, and a conference was ordered.

INCITED TO MURDER.

Anarchists Mowbray and Nicholls Indicted at London.

A London grand jury brought in true bills against Mowbray, publisher, and Nicholls, editor, of the anarchist newspaper, the Commonwealth, seized last week by the police. The charges against them are based on articles in the Commonwealth, inciting to the murder of Mr. Matthews, Home Secretary, and Sir Henry Hawkins, Justice of the Queen's Bench. The suppression of the paper at the time it was effected was most fortunate, as it prevented the issue of a dangerously inflammatory number which was to have been circulated on May Day, and revealed its connection with the Walsall anarchists and threw further light on their doings. It, in fact, completely broke up the conspiracy of the anarchists so that they were able to make no show whatever last Sunday. Of the men indicted an example is sought to be made which will put a final extinguisher on a species of plotting so foreign and adverse to the spirit of the British people.

KANSAS SWEEPED BY CYCLONES.

Three People Killed Near Topeka and the Lynn Creek Valley Devastated.

The most terrible and destructive storm that ever occurred in that section devastated the Lynn Creek Valley, southeast of Topeka, Monday night. A cyclone swept up the Lynn Valley, destroying everything that came in its path. A territory eight miles long and varying in width from half a mile to a mile suffered a total destruction of everything. Two persons were killed outright, and over one hundred were more or less injured. Three or four cannot live. Many others may die. Houses were blown down, and in many instances were torn to pieces and scattered over areas of half a mile in diameter. Trees were torn up by the roots and stone walls leveled to the earth. At Moline one was killed and several badly hurt. Hundreds of cattle and horses perished. In Oklahoma, also, two fatalities are reported.

PAN HANDLE WRECK.

A Passenger Train Crashes Into a Freight—Several Persons Injured.

A bad wreck occurred on the Pan Handle Railroad one mile west of Seio, Ohio. The second section of No. 2, east-bound passenger, while going at the rate of fifty-five miles an hour, crashed into No. 83 west-bound extra freight. The fireman and engineer of the freight jumped for their lives. The passenger engine was in charge of Robert Buchanan, engineer, and William Cullum, fireman. Both stuck to their posts, and Buchanan was seriously injured internally. The passenger train was badly shaken up and a number were injured, none fatally.

Setback for Hatch.

Washington dispatch: Mr. Hatch has received another setback. He expected to have his anti-option bill disposed of this week, but there is now not the slightest probability of its coming up, and not much likelihood for next week. "You see," he said, "it has been decided to follow the consideration of the consular and diplomatic bill, which now has the floor, with the river and harbor bill, and when that is disposed of, the sundry civil bill will be taken up. All this may take a fortnight; anyway there is no show for my anti-option bill before the latter part of next week."

Methodist Conference at Omaha.

The twenty-fourth quadrennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was called to order at Boyd's Opera House, Omaha, by Bishop Bowman, and Dr. S. Monroe was elected permanent secretary. The entire morning session was devoted to a discussion of the proposition to seat the lay delegates apart from the clerical. The episcopal address contained 76,000 words, or fifty columns of matter set in small type. Bishop Foster, who read it, is slow and deliberate in speech and his voice is not very strong. It required nearly a half-day to deliver it.

Poker-Rooms Closed at Wichita.

No rattling chips nor cry of "ante up" has been heard for several days in the poker-rooms of Wichita, Kan., and nobody seems to know how long a holiday the "perfess" will be allowed. The present fight on the gamblers is led by Postmaster E. B. Jewett, who made a written complaint to the Board of Police Commissioners. Several months ago about $800 of postal funds were embezzled, and the embezzler was found to be addicted to poker.

President Cable to Resign.

At Denver, it is stated on excellent authority that President Cable, of the Rock Island, will soon resign, and that Mr. Tisdale will be his successor. Mr. Cable will remain in the directory. He has accumulated quite a fortune and desires to take the remainder of his life easier.

Jumped the Track.

A car on the San Francisco and San Mateo Railroad, a new electric motor line, jumped the track in the outskirts of San Francisco and was overturned. The car was filled with passengers and thirteen were more or less injured.

CHINESE SNEAKING INTO AMERICA.

Canadian Woods Full of Heathen Eager to Come to Chicago.

A Detroit dispatch says: The woods are full of Chinamen over in Canada. Long-haired heathen in large numbers are dodging behind trees and hiding in sequestered nooks ready to make a break for the United States the minute the clock strikes twelve on the night of May 3. It does not matter how long they have been upon the continent, they have all become sufficiently acquainted with the statutes of this country to know that on May 4 the old Chinese exclusion act expires and they hope to slip into the country before the new law now under consideration in Congress goes into effect. A numerous aggregation has consequently spread itself out along the border all the way from here to Vancouver, and is only biding its time to make itself part and parcel of this great republic. The border is as closely guarded as it can be by the small force stationed here. There is more chance of their trying to cross at Marine City or the mouth of the river than at Detroit.

HIS BOLD SCHEME FAILED.

Arrest of a Man Who Tried to Seize a Cashier Into Giving Him $25,000.

At Salt Lake, Utah, W. C. Austin made a most audacious though unsuccessful attempt to rob the Utah National Bank. Austin entered the bank with the utmost nonchalance, walked up to the desk and wrote this extraordinary demand on the back of a bank check: "Give me $25,000 instantly or I will blow your brains out." The paying teller, whom he covered with a revolver, which hung over his arm, believing he had to deal with a lunatic, reached for some currency to meet the demand. Then he remembered that the counter was of stone and dropped behind it, yelling: "Arrest the robber!" Austin, seeing he was foiled, fled, but was shortly after arrested. He is believed to be crazy. For years he has been a tramp journalist, and has worked on a score of leading papers between Chicago and the Pacific coast.

RULING THE COAL TRADE.

The Reading Combine Expected to Adopt Standard Oil Methods.

From various actions of the big coal companies, it is believed that the Reading combine, made three months ago at Philadelphia, propose to carry on the coal trade of the entire West and Northwest much as the Standard Oil Trust carries on the oil traffic. Duluth is the distributing point for about two million tons of coal annually, and the influence of the Reading deal, which puts 75 per cent. of the Pennsylvania coal trade under one management, has been very evident there in its attempts and changes of heavy concerns, and the successful attempt to keep out of the northwestern territory now wholesale distributing companies that had been arranging to come there. There is no doubt in the minds of coal managers and railway traffic officials that the combine proposes to rule the trade with a heavy rod.

Sunday Closing Petition.

A book has just been received by Rev. Dr. W. W. Atterbury, Secretary of the New York Sabbath Committee, from Charles Hall, Secretary of the Workingmen's Lord's Day Rest Association of London, of which Lord Kirby is president. Each of the 401 pages of the volume contains the following petition, together with the autograph in writing, the occupation and residence of each signer: "We, the undersigned, feeling the national importance of preserving Sunday as a day of rest from labor for all classes, desire to express our hope that the Columbian Exposition to be held at Chicago in 1893, may be closed on the day of rest."

Medicine Man and Minister.

Rev. Felix Mayes, a Cherokee chief, who is an ordained Baptist minister, has departed eastward from San Francisco, leaving an army of creditors mourning. Mayes spoke before the Christian Association and in churches, and never failed to take up collections for Christian work among his tribe. He borrowed sums from all the preachers. He claimed to have seen Custer fall and gave a graphic description of the fight. Mayes secured several hundred dollars from colored people by claiming to be a medicine man who could cure every known disease.

Fighting Over a Mine.

The country near Kingston, N. M., is in a state of great excitement over the immense silver deposits that have been discovered in the Kangaroo mine. Persons well versed in mining matters claim that the mine will easily produce a million ounces of silver. The property is bonded by E. V. Hoss & Co., of Chicago, and a large force of men are at work taking out the ore. The ownership of the mine is in litigation. Friday a man named Soper arrived from Chicago and claims that he represents a one-fourth interest in the mine, and has made a demand for an accounting.

A Bullet-Proof Skull.

John Bentley, proprietor of a Hollidaysburg, Pa., billiard hall, is in jail charged with attempted murder. He had some words with John Keith, a negro, and when Keith walked into his billiard-room ordered him out. Keith turned to leave with a muttered insult, whereupon Bentley shot him. The negro fell, but the bullet had flattened against his skull, the hardness of which saved his life.

De Morny Was Wounded.

The report of the duel at Ostend, England, Wednesday, between Milbank and a French opponent is confirmed. Milbank's antagonist was the Duc de Morny, who was wounded. The quarrel which led to the duel occurred in the restaurant of the Grand Hotel at Brussels, and grew out of the Drayton-Borrowe trouble. One report intimates that De Morny will not recover.

Boat and Crew Missing.

The steamer A. Everett arrived at Duluth without her tow schooner, the Sophia Minch, and grave fears are felt for the crew of nine men and their boat. Captain Henry Frittle, commander of the Everett, says that the Minch let go her towline at a point about three miles from the outer island. This was coal laden, and commanded by Captain Joseph Lampow, of Cleveland.

Says She Doesn't Love Him.

Dahlonega, Ga., comes to the front with the most peculiar divorce suit on record. The plaintiff is Hamilton A. Bee, aged 87, and the defendant his wife, Sarah, aged 82. Hamilton thinks Sarah doesn't love him as she was wont to do in the past.

Fatal Wreck on the Burlington.

The east-bound Burlington passenger train, known as No. 4, was wrecked three miles west of Crete, Neb., by running into a washout. As a result, three men were killed and six were more or less injured.

Reid's Successor.

The President sent to the Senate the nomination of T. Jefferson Coolidge, of Massachusetts, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to France.

SMASHED THE MASHER.

CONGRESSMAN CUMMINGS IN A BELLIGERENT MOOD.

Tennessee Prolific of Women Who Love Each Other to Death—A Hero in a Helmet—The Deacons Resented Criticism.

Tried to Kill the Umpire.
The Macon, Ga., base-ball club was defeated by the Mobles. When the game was over an indignant crowd, which had hissed Umpire Wilson for his decisions, rushed on him and mobbed him. He showed fight, but was severely beaten and would have been killed had not the police protected him. The mob followed him to his hotel and threatened his life. Excitement runs high.

MAY HAVE TO FIGHT A DUEL.

Congressman Cummings Assaults an Alleged Masher.

Congressman Cummings thought he detected a masher at work Monday, and taught him the dangers of mashing, says a Washington dispatch. Mr. Cummings and his wife, with a party of ladies and gentlemen, were coming up from Marshall Hall on board the McAllister. A tall, handsome man sat opposite the group on the deck, and Mr. Cummings soon made up his mind that the stranger was trying to flirt with somebody in his party. After standing it as long as he could, the New York Representative jumped to his feet, and, exclaiming, "These ladies, sir, are respectable," struck the stranger a hard blow on the side of the face. Mr. Cummings struck the man again, when friends of both separated them. The stranger refused to give his name, but swore that he would have vengeance. One of his friends said Mr. Cummings would receive a challenge, and if he refused to fight a duel he would be horse-whipped on the public streets. The aggrieved man's companions assert that Mr. Cummings was altogether too hasty, and that the man he attacked was a gentleman, who had no idea of insulting any of the ladies who were with the Representative. They say he was simply admiring one of the ladies in a respectful manner. Mr. Cummings, according to his friends, has not yet received a challenge, and while they regret the idea of one being sent, they are evidently much troubled over the outcome of the affair.

DEEMING IS GUILTY.

The Rainhill Murderer Sentenced to the Death Penalty.

At Melbourne, Australia, Deeming's trial for the murder of his last wife, formerly Miss Mather, of Rainhill, ended in a verdict of guilty and the imposing of the death sentence on the prisoner. The attorneys for the defense devoted all their energy to attempting to prove that Deeming was insane. Deeming and his counsel encouraged the idea that he was the Whitechapel fiend. In order to sustain the theory of uncontrollable homicidal mania. During the early days of his imprisonment Deeming was defiant, and even affected to laugh at the charges against him, and boasted of the libel suits he would bring against the English and Australian papers after his acquittal, but after the coroner's jury found him guilty of the Wind-or-murder he was very much changed, showed signs of breaking down, and finally confessed the crime for which he has been sentenced to die.

FATAL LOVE BETWEEN WOMEN.

The Near Departure of One Leads to the Suicide of Another.

A strange case of love between women is reported from Altamont, Tenn. Miss Katie Tipton, of that city, sent a bullet crashing through her breast, and it is thought she will not recover. April 17 Miss Lula B. Sanders and J. D. Meeks were married at Heersheba Springs, and since then Mrs. Meeks has been boarding next door to Miss Tipton's home. Their love for each other was remarkable. They would write each other letters every day, and finally a letter was written to Miss Tipton by Mrs. Meeks informing her that she would soon have to leave her. This letter was a reply to one she received from Miss Tipton in which the latter declared she could not live without her and that it was either Mrs. Meeks or death. Before shooting herself Miss Tipton wrote another letter saying she could not live without Mrs. Meeks.

BRAVE DEED OF A POLICEMAN.

He Receives the Fall of a Fire Ladder to Save Others and Will Die.

A New York policeman's heroic attempt to save a number of lives was the feature of an otherwise unimportant fire at the Thirteenth Street Presbyterian Church. An extension scalling ladder toppled over into the midst of the crowd, which scattered right and left, except one policeman in citizen's clothes. He tried to break its fall. The heavy ladder, weighing over half a ton, broke his arms and, striking him, he fell to the ground. Surgeons said he could not live.

Charged with Beating Convicts.

At Cuckbury, Miss., indisputable proof of cruelty to convicts has finally been discovered. W. H. Fosselman, of Woodville, who, with 100 other convicts, was leased to Brit Lee, of Washington County, was rightfully beaten by a negro by orders of the overseer and narrowly escaped death. Others of the same squad were almost killed. Manager Jenkins, of the State prison, and R. G. Walt, in charge of the convicts, have been ordered before the State Board of Control. Walt will be indicted and Jenkins severely dealt with.

Vermont Farmer Kidnaped.

A singular kidnapping case has occurred at Bristol, Vt. A stranger called at the house of Eliza Hewitt, a farmer of advanced age, and induced Hewitt to accompany him to look at a farm near by, which he said he desired to purchase. The unsuspecting farmer complied. Mr. Hewitt has not been seen since, though his son and other members of the family have made vigilant search. He had several hundred dollars with him, and it is believed that that was what the stranger was after.

All the Deacons Resigned.

At Omaha, considerable surprise and consternation was created at the First Baptist Church when, after the sermon, the entire board of deacons resigned their offices. The trouble was caused by an attack made upon the board by a member of the church, who charged them with shielding prominent members who had failed to live up to their "covenant of faith."

Shot for Taking a Kiss.

George Doyle went to the residence of Earl Dudding, a farmer, near Anderson, Ind. Mrs. Dudding was sitting on the porch beside her husband. Doyle coolly kissed her. The husband drew his revolver and fired three times, shooting Doyle through the right elbow, thigh and right lung. Doyle will die.

STATE OF TRADE.

Gaining Slowly but Surely Improving in All Sections of the Country.

The following is R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade:

More favorable weather in many parts of the country during the past week has brought better reports of business. Undoubtedly distribution has been much retarded by the backward season and the condition of the country roads, and in some quarters collections have been slow on that account, but this week the improvement in such quarters has been general, and meanwhile the volume of business continues to surpass all previous records. Gaining but little, and yet gaining at least over last year, and falling behind only about 1 per cent. at the South in the aggregate, notwithstanding the great depression in the price of cotton, the volume of trade has been over 10 per cent. greater than in any other year at the West, though on the Pacific slope some decrease appears. That collections are on the whole satisfactory the condition of the money markets and reports from other cities clearly show. In all parts of the country the supply of money is abundant, but the demand is not especially active.

LABOR DAY PARADES.

Generally Quiet Observance Throughout This Country and Europe.

In the international eight-hour May day parade at Chicago, Sunday, there were in line 6,396 men. The streets along the advertised line of march were crowded for hours with people waiting for the parade. The crowds about Bricklayers' Hall, where the divisions formed, were dotted thickly with police officers. Inspector Ross and Captain Mahoney had uniformed men closely formed along the walks. Lieutenant Hartnett was in command of fifty ununiformed officers. These were scattered through the throngs. On the march a number of red flags were unfurled, but were promptly seized by the officers. Many transparencies were carried which referred to the dead and imprisoned anarchists of Haymarket square. In all other prominent cities the parade was quiet. In London nearly half a million people participated.

DEADLY DUEL ON HORSEBACK.

Dr. Horn, of Arkansas, Shot Four Times and Killed by William Hatley.

News reached Morrilton, Ark., of the killing of Dr. G. H. Horn, of Van Buren County, forty miles in the interior, by William Hatley. An old feud has existed for several years between the Horns and Hatleys, and they have had several shooting encounters, and two or three men have been killed. Dr. Horn and William Hatley, the principals in the feud, met accidentally while on horseback, and both men began to fire. Hatley sent a bullet through Horn's brain and three shots into his body after he fell from his horse. Hatley surrendered to the authorities and claimed the killing was in self-defense.

Six of Them Are Dead.

The destruction of the Grand Central Theater, in Philadelphia, by fire proves to have been far more terrible in its results than was anticipated. Six members of the "Devil's Auction" company lie dead beneath the walls of the building, and nearly three score people are in the hospitals suffering from burns. Of the men and boys in hospital seven are in such serious condition that their recovery is doubtful. All were members of the audience. Besides those who were seriously enough hurt to remain in the hospitals, fully fifty others were treated for minor injuries.

Damaged by a Heavy Storm.

A terrible wind and rain storm swept over Holt, Nodaway and Atchison Counties in Missouri and the southern tier of Iowa counties Sunday. The damage done will reach many thousands of dollars, and loss of life is reported in the vicinity of Fairfax, Mo. The Creston branch of the Burlington was washed out for a distance of a mile and a half south of Conway. The water rose nine inches in an hour.

Struck by Lightning.

Lightning struck the Forestry Building at the World's Fair grounds about 12 o'clock Sunday night. It did little damage to the building, entering at the northwest corner, running down the stovepipe and splitting several timbers.

Destined for the Western States.

The steamship Karlsruhe arrived Thursday from Bremen. She brings 2,295 immigrants, nearly 90 per cent. of whom are destined for Western States.

THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

WORK OF OUR NATIONAL LAW-MAKERS.

Proceedings of the Senate and House of Representatives—Important Measures Discussed and Acted Upon—Gist of the Business.

The National Solons.

The 27th, the House went into committee of the whole (Mr. Oates, of Alabama, in the chair) on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. Mr. Hitt of Illinois moved an amendment, having for its effect the separation of the missions of Colombia and Ecuador, which the pending bill consolidates in one mission. The amendment was rejected. Mr. Hitt made several efforts to prevent the consolidation of missions and the reduction of salaries of ministers to the South American republics, but his efforts were of no avail. He then offered an amendment to restore to $7,500 the salary of the Minister of Venezuela (the committee having cut it to $5,000). No quorum voting on the amendment, the committee rose and the House adjourned. In the Senate, after routine business, the army appropriation bill was taken up, the question being on striking out the House proviso which prohibits payment of transportation of troops and supplies of the army over any of the bonded lines owned, controlled, or operated by the Union Pacific Railway Company (including the lines of the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Railway Company), or by the Southern Pacific Company over lines embraced in its Pacific system. After a long speech by Senator Morgan the House proviso was struck out; yeas, 26; nays, 20. The bill was then passed, and the Senate adjourned.

The House transacted no business the 29th, except that the Sibley tent bill, which has been clogging the wheels of private legislation for the past two months, was finally laid aside with a favorable recommendation, after having been amended so far as to refer the claim to the Court of Claims for adjudication. The Senate is discussing the different appropriation bills. It is stated by some Senators that Congress will probably be in session in September. On the 2d, the House passed the bill putting binding twine on the free list. Numerous petitions were presented in the Senate against legislation for the closing of the World's Fair on Sunday; also a petition from a Methodist Church in New Hampshire urgently protesting against further adverse legislation against the Chinese. The House also passed the free ship bill. This bill admits only two existing ships to American registry, the City of New York and the City of Paris. But it provides that the company at once build two similar vessels in this country to sail under the American flag.

HOLLAND CITY NEWS

G. VAN SCHELVEN, Editor.

SATURDAY, MAY 7, 1892.

Holland Harbor.

The whistle of the steamer Kalamazoo was heard for the first time this season Tuesday afternoon, and its welcome sound was at once recognized by our citizens. She had left her dock at Saugatuck on Monday morning, and had met with considerable delay there in getting over the river bar. The steamer has been trimmed up nicely, and she looked handsome. Her cabin especially has been thoroughly refitted. Capt. Cummings is again in command, and James Bos fills the position of clerk, the same as last year. The Bradshaw dock has been secured for her regular landing place here, and at Chicago she will leave from O'Connor's dock, foot of Michigan street, on the north side. For the present the Kalamazoo will leave Holland on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, and Chicago on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening, at 8:00 o'clock. As soon as the season has sufficiently advanced and trade and traffic warrant it, the steamer McVea, which is now being fitted out at Saugatuck, will also be put on, thus making a daily line between Holland and Chicago. At Saugatuck harbor the steamers will connect with the tug Browne, which will take passengers and freight from and to Saugatuck and Douglas.

The opening of navigation naturally brings to our attention the interests of our harbor and its fate in the River and Harbor bill, now pending before Congress.

As reported by the House committee Holland harbor will receive an appropriation of $5,000—say, five thousand dollars!

And that in view of the report of the chief of engineers, wherein we are recommended for an appropriation of $45,000.

In other words, we are asked to be content with eleven per cent of the estimates made by Col. Ludlow.

The reports from Washington to the daily press of this state give a glowing account of the liberal treatment Michigan harbors have received at the hands of the House committee—in which committee this State has the rare privilege of being represented by two members, Mr. Weadock from Bay City and Mr. Stephenson from the Superior district—which reports are to the effect that while other localities and states represented in the bill average from twenty-five to thirty-five per cent of the amounts recommended by the chief of engineers, Michigan harbors on the whole are allowed fifty per cent and over.

It is in view hereof that the niggardly allowance to Holland harbor becomes the more conspicuous, and that to the minds of our citizens the question inevitably presents itself, why are we thus singled out and neglected?

It is not a pleasant task to even indirectly arouse a suspicion against the good faith and efficiency of those who by our suffrages are charged with a faithful watch of our interests; but on the other hand we must submit, whether there is not a prima facie ground here for popular dissatisfaction.

It furthermore appears from the reports in the press that the Senate committee on commerce, to whom the River and Harbor bill will be referred when it reaches that body, has already in advance given two hearings to Senators Stockbridge and McMillan of this state, in behalf of an increase in some of the appropriations for Michigan, and that through their efforts St. Joseph has been increased from $50,000 to $70,000, and Grand Haven from $40,000 to $90,000; and that Saugatuck, which had nothing in the House bill, will be granted an appropriation of $5,000.

Again there is not a week but what some mention is made of the unceasing efforts on the part of Representative Belknap in behalf of an $100,000 appropriation for the improvement of Grand River, in which efforts lately he is also joined by both our Senators.

On the other hand it is but fair to state that in the correspondence received by our citizens from Washington great stress is being laid upon the fact that most of the harbors in this state have been represented in Washington this winter by home delegations, sent there for the express purpose of advocating the claims of their respective localities. And this course seems to have been followed to such an extent, and such is apparently the effect thereof, that localities not thus represented are treated as meriting a corresponding neglect.

In view of the above, and inasmuch the time for final action in Congress is drawing near, the important question of the improvement of our harbor was made the occasion for a special meeting this week of our local Improvement Association, at which this matter was earnestly discussed and the partiality or inefficiency thus far displayed at Washington freely expressed, and in unequivocal terms. After a due review of the situation it was finally agreed to pursue substantially the same course of two years ago, and if necessary follow up an earnest presentation of our claim with a personal delegation.

Above all things, the improvement of our harbor must be kept up, cost what may.

The democratic state convention at Muskegon was one of the largest the party ever held. It was conspicuous for the predominance of an element the opposite from what usually characterizes a democratic convention. Hon. Peter White, a worthy pioneer of the Superior country, presided. Don M. Dickinson, S. O. Fisher, E. F. Uhl and E. Ryan were elected delegates at large to the national convention at Chicago. For the Fifth district H. F. McCormick of Grand Rapids and L. K. Roof of Ionia were selected. The conference of the delegates from the Fifth district, in the forenoon, was a lively affair. It was war from the start, and for two solid hours, until long after the regular convention had opened. The contest was between what is known in Kent county parlance as the Houseman faction and the Carroll faction, and it is hard telling who came out ahead. Geo. P. Hummer of this city was elected a member of the state committee, and it appears that had it not been for the opposition of the Coopersville wing of the party Mr. Hummer's friends would have succeeded in electing him as a delegate to the national convention.

The News announced last week that the great M. E. assembly and camp-meeting would be held at Macatawa Park. At the time of going to press this seemed to be a settled fact, but the Muskegon people at the last hour called on their great benefactor, Chas. H. Hackley, who responded by adding a donation of $10,000 to the bid to secure it there. The citizens of Muskegon also raised $5,000 more toward the bonus, and thus obtained the great assembly. The total bonus paid by them for it, was $25,000 cash and twenty acres of land. The offer of the Macatawa Park company was equal to $20,000. At the public meeting of citizens, at which the $5,000 bonus was raised, Rev. J. W. Reid in behalf of the Assembly Committee gave a review of their labors. Macatawa Park, he said, was easy of access to Grand Rapids, and had offered them royal inducements to locate the assembly there. The richest man interested in the Macatawa company had been pursued far into the south, where he has been sojourning, to make more generous offers. The committee had been favorably impressed by the offer of Macatawa Park, but a drawback there was Ottawa Beach close by, with its saloons. At Mona Lake they could control both sides of the inlet and guard against this evil.

In regard to the electric light matter, the question whether or not the bonds of the city can be legally issued is still held in abeyance, with the prospects rather against it. The situation is being calmly reviewed and we have no doubt a tenable conclusion will be arrived at by the powers that be. While upon this subject, we notice that our neighbors at Allegan are also debating electric street lighting. Says the Gazette: "In regard to the new electric light, the committee appointed to confer with the agent, G. F. Harrison of Paw Paw, reported that he had made them the following proposition: The company will furnish fifteen lamps of 2,000 candle-power each, to burn when necessary during 320 nights in the year, for $62.50 per lamp per year; or fifteen lamps of the same power, to run on the midnight schedule, for $72.50 per lamp per year, or fifteen lamps of the same power to run on the moonlight schedule of 320 nights per year for $82.50 per lamp per year, provided that a franchise be given and the village contract to use these lamps for at least six years. Mr. Harrison stated that the plant would cost $30,000, and the company would not put it in unless the village would take fifteen lamps on one of the above conditions. After a lengthy discussion it was decided to leave the matter with the same committee, to report on again in two weeks."

The third edition of "Diseases of the Throat and Nose," by the great English Surgeon, Lennox Browne, is out. On pp. 557-8 he discusses the various methods of treating such diseases as catarrh, cold in the head, sore throat, asthma and bronchitis, and concludes by saying that he has used Cushman's Menthol Inhaler for several years in the hospitals under his charge; and that he has had better success with it than all other remedies. For these diseases he gives it his unqualified endorsement. A trial at the drug store will show you that it is neat, convenient and pleasant to use, and gives almost instant relief. It costs 50c and lasts a year. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. A free trial at H. Walsh's Drug Store. 4-4w

PETITIONS AND ACCOUNTS.

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Holland.

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned, citizens and residents of the City of Holland, being engaged in the business of selling intoxicating liquors at retail in the City of Holland, respectfully represent to your Honorability that we have filed their bonds with the county treasurer of the county of Ottawa, which said bonds have been duly approved by your Honorability body.

That they have each paid the sum of $500 to the county treasurer for their said license.

That under the provisions of the state liquor law one-half of this amount, being in all $1,500, will be returned to the city of Holland, to be placed in the general fund of the city, and to be used by the city as directed by your Honorability body.

Your petitioners further represent that at a meeting of your Honorability body held on the 19th day of April, A. D. 1892, a resolution was adopted providing that a further sum of $250 be paid to the city of Holland, by each person engaged in said business, for the purpose of obtaining said license.

This resolution is deemed by the undersigned as entirely unreasonable for the following reasons, to wit:

I. Under the provisions of the general liquor law of 1877 two kinds of licenses can be taken out, one for $500 for the sale of all kinds of liquors, and the other for $300 for the sale of malt and brewed liquors; and in a large majority of the cities of this state those engaged in the business of selling intoxicating liquors at retail merely take out a $300 license, and then engage in the general business of selling all kinds of liquors. The undersigned have, however, not defrauded the city in this manner, but have each paid the full amount of $500, as required by law.

II. The undersigned have always strictly obeyed the law requiring them to close their establishments on Sundays and all legal holidays, and have promptly closed their establishments each evening at the time required by law and ordinance, and therefore have not necessitated any additional expense on the part of the city to enforce these regulations.

III. The amount required to be paid by those engaged in said business in other cities of the state for a city license varies from $10 to $50, but in no instance, as your petitioners have been informed and believe, does it reach the sum of $100; but your petitioners have been willing during the past year to pay to the city the sum of $100 each, and felt that in so doing they were doing more than was required from those engaged in said business in any other city in the state.

IV. The whole police force of the city of Holland consists of but one marshal, and your petitioners have so managed their business, and have kept their establishments in such an orderly manner, that it has not been necessary to increase the police force of the city, although the population has nearly doubled during the past few years.

For these reasons your petitioners feel that the burdens sought to be placed upon them by said resolution of the Common Council is unreasonable, and that said resolution was passed without proper consideration; and that, if a full and fair consideration of the whole subject had been had, said resolution would not have been passed.

Wherefore your petitioners pray that your Honorability body may reconsider the vote by which said resolution was adopted, and that the amount fixed for said city license may not exceed the sum of $100.

And your petitioners will ever pray.

The Shortest Route.
Nearly every day you read in some newspaper that such and such a railroad has the shortest line from one important city to another.

One railway company will advertise that it is a "short line from Chicago to Omaha."

A competing line then positively states that it is a "shorter line from Chicago to Omaha than any other," and now the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway insists that it is "the shortest line from Chicago to Omaha," and proves it by this map:

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company also says that it is the "best line to St. Paul and Minneapolis," which is a fact with "electric lighted trains" and reading lamps in each berth, so that one can read all night long if he has a book and doesn't want to sleep.

It is the "best dining car in the world" with the best of meals served on imported china by the most expert and civil colored waiters at 75 cents, while the lines east of Chicago charge a whole dollar.

And—once more—the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway opens up a new through car line from Chicago to Denver, via Omaha and Lincoln, and it isn't long before the "whole world says to itself that 'shortest line from Chicago to Omaha,' that 'best line to St. Paul and Minneapolis' and that 'new route to Denver' must be the only first-class railroad in the western part of the United States, and what the whole world says must be true.

The address of the passenger agent in Chicago is 207 Clark street, and everybody who wishes to travel over the best road in the West goes there to purchase tickets and secure sleeping car reservations.

Berlin's Anarchists.
Berlin's organized anarchists are distributed among eleven groups, two of which are in the suburbs.

Each group contains about fifteen non-official members, an executive committee of two, and two or three "correspondents," who, under the cover of false names and addresses, receive contributions and send out the literature. The eleven groups held eighteen meetings despite the precautions of the police.

The total membership of the groups is 254. These anarchists profess to have no connection with the social democrats, whom they denounce for their mildness. "Anarchists of the Propaganda of the Deed" is the name under which they are organized.

Making Glad the Waist (Waist) Places.
"That's what I call making glad the waist places," said Smithson, as he put his arm around a lady's waist.

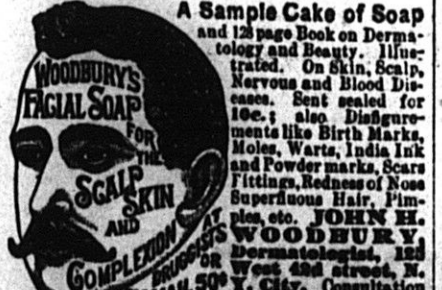

Lilly won't care much for this show of affection if Smithson doesn't get rid of that disagreeable catarrh of his. Won't somebody tell him that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure him.

By its mild, soothing, antiseptic, cleansing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Chronic Catarrh in the Head, as thousands can testify. "Cold in the Head" is cured with a few applications. Catarrhal Headache is relieved and cured as if by magic.

In perfect faith, the makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy—the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., offer to pay $500 to any one suffering from Chronic Catarrh in the head whom they cannot cure.

Now, if the conditions were reversed—if they asked you to pay $500 for a positive cure you might hesitate. Here are reputable men, with years of honorable dealing; thousands of dollars and a great name back of them.

They believe in themselves. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

GRANT'S FAME IN STONE

NEW YORK HAS BEGUN ITS MONUMENT.

Ceremonies of a Most Elaborate and Impressive Character—President Harrison Wields the Golden Trowel—Appearance of the Completed Monument.

Honor to Gen. Grant.
The corner-stone of the nation's monument to Gen. U. S. Grant in Riverside Park, New York, was laid with becoming ceremonies.

The weather was all that could be desired, a cloudless sky, bright sunshine, tempered by a moderate breeze blowing over the Hudson River. Long before the time fixed for the dedication ceremonies the immense grand stand, erected in close proximity to where the monument will stand and partly surrounding the corner-stone, began to fill with those who had been invited and had tickets, and by noon it was computed that there were fully eight or nine thousand persons on the stand.

The large number of ladies, in their bright and showy spring costumes, heightened the already brilliant spectacle. This crowded stand, with about three thousand veterans of the G. A. R. formed in line around and about the resting-place of their dead hero, with the charming scenery along the Hudson River and the Palisades in the distance, formed a picture which has seldom if ever been surpassed if equaled.

Shortly after noon the Presidential party, escorted by Troop A, of the National Guard of New York, left the Fifth Avenue Hotel and proceeded to Riverside Park. In the carriages were President Harrison, Mrs. Grant and members of her family, Secretary Foster, Secretary Rusk, Secretary Elkins, Postmaster General Wanamaker, Private Secretary Halford and many other distinguished guests. As the Presidential party approached the tomb the United States Band played "Hail to the Chief," while heads were uncovered, handkerchiefs waved and the immense throngs shouted their huzzas.

After a few moments' quiet Rev. Dr. John Hall offered up a prayer, which was listened to by all in deferential silence. The President of the Grant Monument Association, General Horace Porter, then delivered an address detailing in brief the doings of the association and their status since the inception of the project.

The event of the day was the laying of the corner stone by President Harrison. After putting mortar around the stone with a gold trowel that Superintendent Brady had made for the occasion, the stone was lowered into position. The corner-stone box, made of copper, was then filled with the relics which will be buried in it. They were:

Constitution of the United States.
Declaration of Independence.
Articles of Confederation.
The Bible.
Memorial of General Grant.
Memorial Day pamphlet, May 30 and 31, 1886.

A copy of Mayor Grant's proclamation regarding the Grant monument.
A new American flag.
Medals and coins from the United States mint.

Various illustrated and daily papers addressed the assemblage, after which the band played a selection of national airs. Chauncey M. Depew then stood up, giving the audience the signal for another tremendous outburst of cheering.

Mr. Depew began by declaring that the predominant sentiment of General Grant was his family and his home. He shrank from display all his life, and would have preferred being buried by the side of his father and mother, but appreciating the claim of his countrymen upon his memory, he chose New York as his final resting-place, because it was the metropolis of the country. He made but one condition, and that was that his loyal wife should be buried by his side. He would have no monument, however grand, which would separate him from her during the unnumbered years of the hereafter. Continuing, the orator said:

New York, in accepting this bequest of General Grant, has assumed a sacred trust. Upon non-municipality and its citizens was ever devolved a more solemn duty. From the tenderest motives, he took from the national government the task which it would most loyally and lovingly have performed, and intrusted it to this great city. The whole country are enlisted in the army of reverence and sorrow, but he appointed New York the guard of honor. Let the monument which will rise upon this corner-stone be worthy of the magnitude of the subject. General Grant needs no stately shaft or massive pile to perpetuate his memory. The republic is his monument, and its history during what must always be its most critical and interesting period will be the story of his deeds.

Mr. Depew then sketched General Grant's career, and summed up his character as follows:

No man can be truly great unless he is also magnanimous. Grant was the most self-sacrificing of friends and the most generous of foes. "Unconditional surrender," I move immediately on your works," were the conditions Grant offered Buckner at Donelson, but in the darkness of the night he entered the prisoner's tent and said: "Buckner, you must have lost everything;

take my purse." He had been for months making tireless efforts to break through the confederate lines, but after the surrender of their defenders he refused to go within them. The failure to capture the confederate capital had exhausted the resources and impaired the reputation of all the generals who had preceded him, but when it lay prostrate at his feet he sternly declined the triumph of an entry at the head of his victorious army.

It was difficult to win his confidence, but when once gained, his heart, his efforts, and his fortune were at command. Neither secret nor open enemies, neither direct charges nor anonymous revelations could disturb his friendship for anyone he had once trusted. To Sherman and Sheridan he gave unstinted praise. He was so entirely free from envy or jealousy, so enthusiastic in his admiration of these lieutenants, that he awarded to them the larger share of credit for the ultimate triumph of the Union cause. But these same qualities, so creditable to his ingenuous and generous nature, became the chief sources of his mistakes and troubles when he was dealing with untrained soldiers and the quicksands of political and business life.

The culminating triumph of Gen. Grant was that he received and returned the sword of Lee. The one act typified the victory and perpetuity of the Union and the other that its defenders forever after would be those who with equal and unequal courage had fought to save and to destroy it.

Grant's claims upon the gratitude of his countrymen are many. He will have peculiar remembrance for having, with President Lincoln, immediately recognized that the republic must live as the fathers had founded it. The most brilliant jewels in his crown of glory will be that, though a conqueror in the field, he counseled through life, and advised with his pen when in his last hours his voice had failed, peace and reconciliation among his countrymen, and that, though a soldier President, he successfully demonstrated the justice and wisdom of settling disputes among nations not by war, but by arbitration.

The tenders of loyalty and love stretch from this monument to every soldier's grave in the land. This imperial city proudly and affectionately assumes the custody of his remains. The people called from the absorbing cares of life by his natal day and this solemn ceremony take up again their burdens with lighter hearts.

The Army of Turkey.
According to the new military laws of the Turkish Empire the Turkish army on a war footing will be increased shortly from 700,000 to 1,000,000 men. With this prospective increase has come the necessity for a new armament of the Sultan's soldiers. Cannon for the new artillery will not be ordered for some time probably, as the army has 1,000 large guns, only about 400 of these are mounted and ready for the field. The equipment of the other 600 will be begun at once. The Turkish cavalry still has Winchester carbines and will retain them for a short time. The infantry has 500,000 Henry-Martini rifles and 230,000 Mauser rifles of 9.5 millimeters caliber. An order was placed in Austria a short time ago, moreover, for 280,000 Mannlicher rifles of 7.5 millimeters caliber.

He Wanted a Job.
The force and fervor of sincere earnestness, originally expressed, are more effective and striking in an advertisement than the boldest of commonly used phrases. As an example of this, the Dry Goods Economist cites the man who, after repeatedly patronizing the "want" columns of newspapers in the customary manner without result, at last did, from the genius of desperation, rise to this pitch of earnestness:

Can a man—
A good, square man—
Get anything to do on God's green earth?
Jothan Amersand, 224 Chrystie street.

This is essentially an age of advancement and perhaps in no directions have greater advances been made than in medical science. Diseases that until recently were pronounced by the highest medical authority to be incurable are now found to yield readily to the discoveries of modern medical skill. This statement is amply borne out by the article appearing elsewhere in this issue under the heading of "The Saratoga Miracle" and would seem to indicate that one of the most perfect medical preparations of modern times is embodied in the remedy known as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

The designer of the monument, Mr. John H. Duncan, has reluctantly made the changes advocated in the line of economy, and expressed himself grateful for the fact that the liberality of the subscribers has permitted the exterior of the monument to remain practically unchanged, but for some slight modifications at the southern entrance.

It is now about seven years since the death of Gen. Grant, and during that time the movement for the erection of this monument has been going on slowly. It took six years to collect the first $150,000—less than half the amount needed—and it has taken the reorganizing committee little over six weeks to insure the collection of the remainder.

Never in the history of similar movements has work undertaken under such disheartening circumstances been so disastrously and successfully concluded, and the praise must go to Gen. Horace Porter and his splendidly managed departments.

Dr. de Roover, keeper of the archives in Amsterdam, announces that he has found a hitherto unrecognized Rembrandt, representing the assembling of the Batavi under their chief, Claudius Civilis, just before their revolt against the Romans, about a century before Christ. The picture had long been attributed to Jusean Ovens, an Amsterdam artist of the middle of the seventeenth century, and hung in the gallery of the City Hall. When King-Louis Napoleon made the City Hall his palace the picture was taken from the gallery and was hung in a dark corner of a back room, where it remained unnoticed until Dr. de Roover began studying it. Dr. de Roover has laid his proofs before the Dutch Government, which is expected to transfer the picture to the Rembrandt gallery of the Royal Museum.

A Decisive Blow for Freedom
From the tyrannical yoke of those despotic allies, dyspepsia, constipation and liver complaint, is struck when the quackdom victim of their galling supremacy has taken a course of Kieffer's Stomach Bitters. Then they remorsefully, and healthily, assume their welcome away. Such is the inevitable experience of those who use the ruling authority to get rid of these associated evils. Anti-dyspeptic, cholagogue, drastic cathartics are as the sands of the sea, numberless and—useless. The happy blending of remedial properties, derived from Nature's botanic storehouse, with a pure, modified spirituous basis existent in the Bitters, not only initiates but effaces the joint cure of chronic indigestion, irregularity of the bowels and perversion of the bile. The surest defense against malaria is this agreeable fortifier and preservative of health under unfavorable atmospheric conditions. It counteracts a tendency to rheumatism, rouses the kidneys and adds when sluggish, when inactive, and endows a debilitated, nervous invalid with vigor, incomparable as a tonic.
