FRIDAY, MAY 9.

NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

Hamilton.

We are having plenty of rain and the river is very high. The boys are catching plenty of mullets at present writing.

Harvey Veuso left for Conway in the northern part of the state Wednesday. We are very sorry to see Harvey leave.

The store of Abel Bolthuis was entered by burglars Tuesday night and several pairs of shoes taken. The thieves effected an entrance by sawing a hole in the lock door so as to reach their hand in and unfasten the latch.

John Michmerhuizen was in Grand Rapids Thursday.

Vick Peterham is down from Hobart looking for men to work in the lumber woods as help is very scarce there.

Elmer Wells left here for Montana Wednesday. He will try his hand at mining for a time.

Boy Wheeler returned to Montana Tuesday last.

Will Gillies has moved his mill sheds to the rear of his mill.

West Olive.

Your correspondent arrived home Tuesday from Holland after spending ten weeks vacation at the shoe factory and a short visit with the pickle men. The shoe business gave him the toothache and the pickle plant the backache so he will try farming again for the present.

That West Olive is prospering no one can doubt. Nearly 200 acres of land will be devoted towards raising cucumbers for a branch of the Heinz pickle company to be erected here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Van Raalte, Mrs. E. B. Pike, Miss Grace Beers and Mrs. C. B. Ingersoll were in Holland Tuesday.

Theo. Schilling is having a large barn built on his village property here. A. Boyer, Sr., and Gale Wilmarth are doing the carpenter work.

Roy Merritt from Olive Centre will open up a blacksmith shop in the village soon. He is the kind of progressive young men we are proud to own.

Henry Goodman was in Holland on business Monday. We are glad that he is with us yet.

Rumors of all kinds are floating around concerning the business of F. A. Friedrich. As near as the writer can tell the truth, a forty room hotel will be erected near Port Sheldon during the season.

August Brecker also has a new barn completed to take the place of the old one which burned last year. Robbers entered his house last week and ransacked about five dollars worth of goods. He was away from home at the time and the thieves made their escape by rail.

Miss Mary Wabble is very ill at her home two miles west from here, and she does not seem to improve much at present.

Peter Peterson who was buried last week is survived by a wife and daughter and they will remain on the farm.

Mrs. C. Claus is having a new house erected on her farm this spring.

Ed. Maynard sold his property here to Mr. Pixley of Allendale and so we have a new store keeper again. He is said to be an honest man and that is the kind of people we welcome.

How about our new Methodist church. Has it fell through again.

Noordeloos.

Last Saturday evening a thunder storm swept over our town. It struck in the barn of Henry Brummel, splitting a beam back of the horses in their stable. By a miraculous interference of Providence the horses which were in the stable were uninjured.

Monday Eugene Fellows and son were seen on our streets repairing demolish edtelephone poles, caused by lightning two weeks ago.

Anthony Meengs is still on the sick list. So is Albert Bosch.

Rev. H. Van Hoogen visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Molhoek last Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Heyboer went to Grand Rapids Wednesday to visit her grandmother, Mrs. J. DeKoeper, who is very low.

Drenthe.

The farmers are busy hauling lumber for the new Drenthe Canning factory. Frank Bakey has the contract for building it and will be assisted by John Vischer and Gerrit Timmer.

The exercises in our school held Wednesday was a success. The affair was under the supervision of Benjamin Maslinik and Miss Anna Weggers the instructors.

John Doezerman is sporting a new buggy.

Monday evening 195 young people of our church surprised the domine, They knocked at his door, they handing him a bundle which had to be untied 19 times before it could be opened after which a bill of $100 was found. This was given as a token of esteem. The young folks were all called in the consistory where a few words of thanks were spoken to them. The $100 is intended to buy the pastor a new surry.

Mr. Poppen will leave Bentheim for a charge in Wortendyke, N. J.

Lake Shore.

Mrs. Janet Kardux died Sunday at her home on the lake shore from apoplexy at the age of 68 years. Mrs. Kardux came to this country from the Netherlands in the early days and was one of the earliest pioneers of the lake shore. She is survived by nine children. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Gelderland church, Rev. DeJonge officiating.

Crisp.

The Crisp creamery is in a prosperous condition, the farmers bringing an average of 102,000 pounds of milk a week. The largest day for bringing milk is Monday when it runs up as high as 27,000 pounds while the remaining days in the week 17,000 pounds per day can be depended upon. To handle this amount of milk a larger churn was necessary and they have installed a No. 7 churn and have sold their No. 4 churn to the Hudsonville creamery company.

John Neersing bought 40 acres of land of H. Kraght for $1150.

Grand Haven.

Golf is becoming the popular game among the young people of the city, and the golf links in the southern part of town are used every day, frequently there being large number of players. The game is a simple one to learn, but requires skill. Already some of the boys have become very expert. Golf outfits are very expensive $20 being about what a full outfit costs. Before the summer is over the game will undoubtedly have many devotees here. Mr. Sooy, who has entered the lists as a candidate for the Republican nomination of prosecuting attorney, is not a resident of Zeeland township as has been reported. He lives in Holland township, but also in Zeeland village, in the portion of that village which runs over the Holland township line.

Janitor Ohas. Christmas of the court house, is now making space for a flower bed around the entire building directly under the eaves.

Denver, Colorado.

Friends and neighbors: We arrived all right had a nice trip, was only 27 hours on the road. Crops look good all through the West; trees are way behind here but it is very nice weather. The man who advertised for me in the Holland paper was glad to see me and so was all with whom I made acquaintances while I was here before. I am sorry that I couldn't stay and see more of my friends at home and in Chicago but I don't forget you and will be glad to hear from you at any time. Will close wishing you all good luck. Your old friend,

HASTENS TO THE FRONT.

Gen. Chaffee Goes to Island of Mindanao to Meet Surviving Sultans.

WILL TRY TO FIX AFFAIRS WITH MOROS

Goes in Response to Request of Gen. Davis, Who Thinks That Presence of Governor General Will Aid in Making Permanent Peace with Prominent Moros.

Manila, May 7.—Gen. Chaffee sailed Wednesday on the transport Ingalls for the Lanao district of the Island of Mindanao. Gen. Davis telegraphed that he thought the presence of the military governor of the Philippines would have a favorable effect on the prominent Moros, and Gen. Chaffee immediately replied by going to Mindanao. He has ordered Gen. Davis to arrange a conference with the prominent surviving sultans and dattos.

A post will be established at Camp Vickers, where the troops now are.

Little information can be obtained concerning the wounded Americans. Gen. Davis thinks only two or three amputations will be necessary, and that few deaths are likely to occur. Lieut. Jossman's case is now considered to be more serious than that of Capt. Moore.

Gen. Chaffee took with him a quantity of medical supplies and two doctors. He thinks there will be no more fighting, unless the troops are attacked where they now are.

TO REST IN ARLINGTON.

Funeral Arrangements for Rear-Admiral Sampson Made—To Occur on Friday.

Washington, May 7.—According to the present arrangement the funeral ceremonies over the remains of the late Rear Admiral Sampson will take place Friday morning at half-past ten o'clock at the Church of the Covenant. The remains then will be taken to Arlington for interment, accompanied by a splendid military and naval escort. It is expected that the military contingent will consist of the entire corps of cadets from the naval academy, two battalions of blue jackets from the North Atlantic squadron, a battalion of marines from Washington barracks, the marine band and a battery of field artillery. These arrangements are subject to change.

The naval regulations prescribe that the pall bearers for the funeral of an officer shall be as near the rank of the deceased as possible. The pallbearers for Admiral Sampson's funeral have not yet been announced.

Secretary Moody will issue a general order announcing Admiral Sampson's death to the naval service, and prescribing the salutes, half-masting and other observances which will be carried out on board ship and at navy yards and stations all over the world. The order will also pay a tribute to the services rendered to the navy by Rear Admiral Sampson.

At the bedside when the admiral breathed his last Tuesday night at five o'clock were Mrs. Sampson, Mrs. Lieut. Cluverius, the admiral's married daughter Admiral Sampson's two young sons, Ralph and Harold Sampson; Dr. Dixon, the attending physician, and nurses and attendants.

Washington, May 7.—Admiral Schley Wednesday made the following statement regarding the death of Admiral Sampson:

"I regret very much the death of Admiral Sampson and I sympathize with his family. No one has ever heard me utter one unkind word about him.

"On account of his death I have requested my friends in Baltimore to postpone the delivery to me, which was intended to have taken place to-night, of the Cristobal Colon service of silver, and they have accepted my request."

NEW LABOR SOCIETY.

Organization Under Way Which Is Intended to Include all Unskilled Laborers

St. Louis, May 6.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Carbondale, Ill., says: Delegates from Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and Arkansas met here Monday for the purpose of organizing the common laborers of America into a national organization, which, if formed, will take from the Federation of Labor nearly all its unskilled labor members. For some time an agitation has been in progress in the Federation of Labor against the payment into the treasury of over one-eighth of the revenues without an adequate representation in the federation councils. It is estimated that one-fourth of the membership is unskilled and a tool to secure benefits for the trades without any help from the main body in cases of strikes and lockouts.

The organization will be known as the Amalgamated Common Laborers of America, and is in reality a secession from the American Federation of Labor.

Gen. Bragg, the new consul general at Havana, was born at Unadilla, N. Y., in 1827. He entered the union army as a captain in 1861 and reached the grade of brigadier general in the regular establishment. ### Two Side Wheelers.

Two big side wheel steamers, the finest on the lake, are now on the Holland-Chicago route. They are the City of Chicago and the City of Milwaukee and they will be kept on this run until double daily service is started when, if the channel is deep enough, the Puritan will take the place of one of them. Until double daily service is started trips will be made every day boats leaving Holland at 9 o'clock. Beginning Saturday, May 10, the special "Saturday night" rate to Chicago, round trip for $1 will go into effect.

The following from the Chicago Record-Herald shows how Graham & Morton do business on the St. Joseph-Chicago run:

"Now that peach blossoms are intermingling with orange blossoms at old St. Joseph, President Graham of the Graham & Morton line has received an inspiration. This he has decided to scatter around where he thinks it will do his line the most good. It will take the form of a free distribution among the young women employees of the downtown department stores and bookkeeper of South Water street of 1,000 tickets to St. Joseph and return next Sunday, the occasion being the opening of the Sunday excursion business of the line for the season. Care will be taken to inform the young women that the comfortable carrying capacity of the big side-wheeler is about 2,500 people, thus allowing room for 1,000 escorts and half as many chaperones. In this way a chance for starting to the Michigan Green at real bargain day rates is afforded and Mr. Graham believes it will give the season a good start. The big steamer City of Milwaukee came out of the Chicago Shipbuilding Company's docks yesterday with a new coat of paint and made its first run to the east shore last night."

Will Enforce Sunday Closing Laws.

The laws governing Sunday observance will be strictly enforced, the common council taking steps at its last meeting to close business places that in the past have been operating on Sundays. The proceedings of the council relating thereto follow:

"G. W. Mokma and others petitioned for the enforcement of State law requiring all business places to be closed on Sunday and that the council take such steps as may be proper in enforcing said laws. By Ald. Koe.

Resolved, that the petition be accepted and that the council take such steps as may be necessary to enforce the statutes. Carried.

By Ald. Koe. Resolved, that we as a council are in full accord with the sentiment expressed in the petition presented this evening relative to the proper observance of the Sabbath, and

Resolved, further, that we request the city marshal and his deputy to require all places of business which are open on the Sabbath day for business, in violation of the state law, to be closed as the statute requires, and that in case of the continued violation of the law he or his deputy make complaint against such offender, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney, before some competent magistrate.

Ald. Nibbelink moved to defer action on said resolution till the next regular meeting of the council. Lost. The original motion then prevailed."

This means that the city marshal and his deputy must enforce the law as they find it. If they enforce it in one particular they must enforce it in all particulars. The law under which they will proceed is as follows:

"No person shall keep open his shop, warehouse, or work house, or shall do any manner of labor, business or work, or be present at any dancing, or at any public diversion, show, or entertainment, or take part in any sport, game, or play on the first day of the week. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to works of necessity and charity, nor to the making of mutual promises of marriage, nor to the solemnization of marriages. And every person so offending shall be punished by fine not exceeding $10 for each offense."

In determining whether or not a place should be closed the main point to be considered is whether or not work of necessity or charity is conducted therein. The supreme court has made many decisions regarding thereto. In one case it held that the keeper of a livery stable had a right to hire a horse to an officer who used the rig, in the performance of his official duty. From this it may be implied that horses cannot be hired for other purposes. Another exception is made however. The court holds that religious work is a work of charity. Therefore a minister in the performance of religious duties may hire a horse.

According to the strict letter of the law hotels and restaurants cannot sell cigars, or entertain in any way anyone not regular boarders or transient guests, nor can the proprietors allow persons not guests to occupy the rooms, offices or grounds contiguous thereto; drug stores cannot sell cigars, chewing gum, or candy; people cannot travel the highways, excepting on lawful business—and so goes the law.

Under a strict construction the Graham & Morton Transportation company cannot keep their warehouse open; the street car company would have a hard time showing that it carried passengers through necessity or charity and would have to suspend operations; the telephone exchanges would be in the same predicament; and although the operators might like to enjoy a holiday the people might not be pleased to do without their services. It is also stated that barbers shall not ply their trade unless they be requested to shave a dead person.

As the marshal is not supposed to discriminate between individuals or corporations it is expected that every violator of the law will be arrested. Some of the business places announce their determination to transact business as heretofore and to fight the case to a finish if arrested.

City Officials.

The appointment of officers for the coming year was the principal business transacted by the common council last Monday evening.

Under suspended rules, the following were elected: Geo. E. Kollen, City attorney subject to certain regulations; T. Nauta, street commissioner; John J. Mersed, city physician; James Price, city surveyor; James Westveer, director of the poor; L. T. Kanter, chief engineer of the fire department; Arend Vischer, member of the board of public works; G. J. Van Duren, member of the board of review; Wm. H. Beach, member of the board of health; Wm. H. Beach, member of the library board; Harry Doesburg, member of the Park board; C. J. DeRoo and Wm. H. Beach, members of the harbor board; Wm. Westhoek, James Price and L. T. Kanter, committee of building inspectors; L. T. Kanter, Wm. Westhoek and James Price, committee to examine hotels.

The matter of appointing poundmaster was laid on the table for two weeks.

On motion of Ald. Geerlings.

The council proceeded to ballot for the office of health officer with the following result: Byron B. Godfrey, 6; A. Leenhouts, 4.

Whereupon Dr. Godfrey was declared appointed health officer.

The salary ordinance was passed as proposed by the committee on ways and means and carried the following items: City Clerk, $1200; city marshal, $600; deputy marshal, $400; night police $480; treasurer, $400; street commissioner, $500; attorney, $350; physician, $175; health officer, $125; director of poor, $120; librarian, $250; chief of fire department, $150; assistant chief, $75; surveyor, $3 per day for actual service; assistant surveyor, $1.50 per day for actual service.

By this ordinance the city treasurer receives an increase of $50, the city attorney $125 and the health officer $25.

The mayor reported that he had appointed Anthony Stetekoe school-ground policeman without pay from the city. Filed.

The mayor reported that he had appointed John A. Kooyers as park policeman, Mr. Kooyers to serve without pay from the city. Filed.

The clerk reported the following bids for city team work. R. Riksen, $3.00 per day or 10 cents per load.

Rejected and the clerk instructed to re-advertise for bids for teaming.

Early Gubernatorial Convention.

Chairman G. J. Diekema, of the Republican state central committee, has announced to members of the Michigan house delegation at Washington that a meeting of that committee will be called to meet in Grand Rapids May 20. The Washington correspondent to the Grand Rapids Herald has the following regarding Chairman Diekema's announcement:

"When G. J. Diekema, chairman of the Republican state central committee of Michigan, issued the call today for a meeting of that committee at the Morton house in Grand Rapids May 20, to fix time and place for the state nominating convention, he started a great lot of political gossip as to the time that the state convention will be held. It is the impression here that an early convention will be to the advantage of Governor Bliss, while a late convention will lean toward the nomination of Stearns. Under such circumstances it may not tickle Justus S. Stearns to know that Michigan politicians in Washington, and they are good politicians else they would not be here, believe that the state convention will be held in the city of Detroit along in June, maybe as early as June 20 or thereabouts. The Herald correspondent asked a good many Michiganders when they thought the convention would be held and they all said with one exception that they thought it should be held early in the summer.

Mr. Diekema himself was asked for his opinion, but he declined to commit himself. He said that as chairman of the state central committee he did not think it becoming in him to make a prediction upon that line. But it is known that Mr. Diekema has lately talked with some of his political friends here and he has gathered from them, without reference to his own wishes, that they desire the convention to be held early, that is to say that it be held not later than the first week in July.

All these things indicate how strongly is the drift in Washington in favor of giving Bliss another term as governor. There are reasons for these thoughts. It is realized that the congressional campaign must necessarily be mixed up to a greater or less extent with the gubernatorial fight. Michigan congressmen, with their fight for beet sugar, have had trouble enough without becoming involved in a split over the fight for governor. They all believe that it will be a good thing to get the present fight for the nomination for governor out of the way as soon as possible so that the campaign may go on and party bitterness die out before the campaign comes to an end and people are called on to record their verdict."

Common Council. Street Sprinkling.

Considerable routine business was transacted at Tuesday night's meeting of the common council and some important business. Among the important business was the matter of arranging that the street sprinkling should be done by the city according to the provisions in the following resolutions:

"We, the committee to whom was referred the petition of G. W. Mokma and others, asking that the city take charge of the street sprinkling in the city of Holland, would respectfully report that they have carefully considered the matter, have made careful investigation as to cost and as to the best method of defraying the expenses connected with street sprinkling in this city, and we recommend that the city engage the services of H. Vrieling with his team and sprinkler for the season of 1902, at a salary of three ($3.00) dollars per day, said amount to be paid him for every week day from the time he commences sprinkling until the end of the season. Said Vrieling to lay the dust and keep in moist condition at all times, Eighth street from Land street to River; River street from Fifth street to Eighth street; Central avenue from Seventh street to Eighth street and Seventh street from River street to Central avenue; That a special street district fund be established, and that said salary be paid out of such fund and that the money required for the payment thereof be raised by taxation in a special district of the city to be composed of the property attutling on Eighth street between Land street and River street; on River street between Fifth street and Eighth street; on Central avenue between Seventh and Eighth streets and Seventh between River street and Central avenue.

Your committee would further recommend that the cost of the water used by said Vrieling in sprinkling said streets be paid from the general fund of the city as its proper porportion for crosswalks, public places, etc.

All of which is respectfully submitted."

Adopted and recommendations ordered carried out.

School Trustees.

The citizens of Holland placed the seal of their approval upon the excellent work of the school board by re-electing the members whose terms expired—Dr. H. Kremers, G. J. Van Duren and H. Geerlings, Jr. To all vacancies C. M. McLean and Peter Boot.

Following was the vote: Trustees for full term—H. Kremers 184; G. J. Van Duren 185; H. Geerlings, Jr., 176. Trustee for two years to fill vacancy. C. M. McLean 123; R. H. Habermann 62. Trustee for one year to fill vacancy—Peter Boot 109; J. F. Zwemer 74.

Wm. Brusse, Octlo P. Kramer and C. Verschuure declined to make the run for the full term against the retiring members who therefore received a larger vote than the successful candidates to fill vacancies.

General Items.

Flint has a Jack the Huggler, who has departed from the beaten path of conventionality and made his initial appearance last night in the guise of a female. He accosted a young lady who was walking homeward on Hazelton street, and after hugging his frightened victim two or three times disappeared so effectually that the policemen who responded to a hurry call failed to find any trace of him. His disguise consisted of a loose fitting gown and a large hood.

Prof. J. C. Leonard, formerly a student in the dental department of the U. of M. and who for the past 20 years has been traveling in the west and south, has presented the university museum with a large collection of curios. Leonard writes Treasurer Soule that he has made his will, leaving his property and his possessions to the U. of M. and directing that his tent shall be used by the students, anyway once a year. It is to be set up in the middle of the campus, he directs, and with the interest of his money 20 or so kegs of beer and a number of warm birds may be purchased with which students and professors are to celebrate the memory of one of the largest contributors to the museum of the university. His guns and fishing rods are to decorate the interior of the tent and his favorite horse is to be stuffed and left grazing outside the flap.

Spraying Kills Bees.

Indirectly, persons spraying their trees while such trees are in blossom have injured the property of Jacob Flieman and others engaged in the bee and honey industry.

Mr. Flieman noticed of late that many of his bees were dying and it did not take him long to discover that the poisonous fluid sprayed upon trees in bloom caused the havoc. He has five hives in this city and thirty in West Olive and is therefore quite a loser. His brother, J. W. Flieman, has forty hives in this city and also figures in the losses.

Jacob Flieman says that there is no possible excuse for causing this injury, for it could be obviated if a little judgement were exercised in spraying. Pomological experts contend that it does trees no good to spray them when in blossom. After the blossoms fall off and the fruit is set is the time. Then the bees would not be attracted to their death. Furthermore Mr. Flieman says that their is a stringent law against spraying trees when in blossom and that those who do so are liable to a heavy fine.

May Festival by Breyman's Orchestra.

Breyman's orchestra in giving its May Festival last Friday night set a pace that it will be difficult for others to follow. Every part of the evening's program was planned on a magnificent scale and nothing was spared to carry out the spirit of the occasion and make of the entertainment an unqualified success.

The festivities began with an overture by the orchestra and from the time the first note was struck until three o'clock in the morning joy reigned supreme. The grand march was led by Miss Lillian Hopkins and George Butterfield. They were followed by the children who took part in the twining of the May pole and then came those who took part in the dance. As the most intricate figure of the march was in progress rockets were fired by several of the young men to the astonishment of those who were not in the secret. This novel feature of the grand march was but the prelude to other unique features that kept the dancers and the audience in a state of delightful uncertainty and amazement. Confetti was plentiful and was showered upon the charmingly gowned ladies and their escorts in reckless abandon.

In the course of the evening the following program was carried out in a pleasing and artistic manner:

Violin solo—Miss Sylvia Hadden with Ray Hadden, accompanist.
Vocal solo—Mrs. H. E. Bradshaw.
Vocal solo—Fred Brown.
Reading—"The Miller's Daughter"—Miss Jeanette Blom, accompanied by Miss Maude Williams on piano and Will Breyman, violin.
Song—"Ghost of J. J. C. Benjamin Bone"—T. W. Oakley.
Monologue—"T. W. Oakley."
Reading from "Henry VIII"—Geo. T. Ryder.

The following children took part in the twining of the May pole: Marie Diekema, Ebba Clark, Lucille Steketee, Floy Raven, Sylvia Hadden, Margaret Walsh, Rebekah Demmig, Ethelyn Metz, Birdie Miles, Isla

SAYS THE FLAG WILL STAY

President Tells Sons of American Revolution It Is Firmly Set in the Philippines.

THE ARMY AND NAVY DID THE WORK.

Declares He Is Proud of the Soldiers and Sailors Who Are the Fighters of the United States—Splendid Work Done in the Warfare in the Eastern Tropics.

Washington, May 3. — President Roosevelt on Friday night told the Sons of the American Revolution that the descendants of the heroes of 1776 had put the flag of the union over the far Philippines and that he could assure them that it would "stay put." The president had just returned from the exercises at Annapolis and was enthusiastic over the American army and navy. He was received at the new Willard hotel by 400 persons attending the annual congress of the Sons of the American Revolution, of which President Roosevelt is himself a member.

President's Telling Speech.
President Roosevelt in his speech said:

"Mr. Toastmaster, Mr. President, Compatriots and Fellow Americans: Societies that cultivate patriotism in the present by keeping alive the memory of what we owe to the patriotism of the past fill an indispensable function in this republic. You come here to-night from every quarter, from every state of the union, from the islands of the eastern seas. The republic has put up its flag in those islands and the flag will stay there."

Must Salute Great Ancestors.
"May I now show our fealty to the great men who did the great deeds of the past, not alone by word, but by deed; by so keeping the policy of this great republic as to make it evident that we are not unworthy of our sires; they did justice and we will do justice. They did justice as strong men, not as weaklings; and we will show ourselves strong men and not weaklings."

Need Righteousness and Force.
"With righteousness must go strength to make that righteousness of avail, and in the names of the mighty men of the past I ask each man here to do his part in seeing that this nation remains true in deed as well as in word to the ideals of the past (Cries of "We will." Applause) to remember that we can no more afford to show weakness than we can afford to do wrong, where wrong has been done by anyone, the wrongdoers should be punished. But we shall not halt in our great work because some men have happened to wrong."

Keep Up Honor of Warriors.
"Honor to the statesmen of the past, and may the statesmen of the present strive to live up to the example they set, honor to the army and navy of the past. And honor to those gallant Americans wearing the uniform of the American republic who in the army and navy of the present uphold gloriously the most glorious traditions of the past."

"I am glad that we as Americans have cause to be proud of the army and the navy of the United States. I ask you now to join me in drinking the health of the men who in the past have upheld the honor of the flag, and of their successors, the soldiers and sailors of the present, who during the last few years have done such splendid work in the inconceivably dangerous and harassing warfare of the eastern tropics."

Flag Will "Stay Put."
"I thank you fellow-Americans. I think you make it evident that you intend the flag shall 'stay put.'" (Enthusiastic and long prolonged applause.)

TALKS TO CADETS.

President Presents Diplomas to Graduates at the Naval Academy.

Annapolis, Md., May 3.—President Roosevelt yesterday forenoon came here and delivered the address to the graduating class at the United States naval academy. He said among other things:

In receiving these diplomas you become men who above almost any others of the entire union are to carry henceforth the over-present sense of responsibility which must come with the knowledge that on some tremendous day it may depend upon your courage, your preparedness, your keen intelligence and knowledge of your profession whether or not the nation is again to write her name on the world's roll of honor or to know the black shame of defeat. We all of us earnestly hope that the occasion for war may never come, but if it has to come then this nation must win; and the prime factor in securing victory over any foreign foe must of necessity be the United States' navy."

Hope Lies in Navy.
If the navy falls us then we are doomed to defeat, no matter what may be our material wealth or the high average of our citizenship. It should, therefore, be an object of prime importance for every patriotic American to see that the navy is constantly built up and above all that it is kept to the highest point of efficiency both in material and in personnel. It cannot be too often repeated that in modern war, and especially in modern naval war, the chief factor in achieving triumph is what has been done in the way of thorough preparation and training before the beginning of the war."

The Supreme Hour.
You, to whom I give these diplomas, now join the ranks of the officers of the United States' navy. You enter a glorious service, proud of its memories of renown. You must keep ever in your minds the thought of the supreme hour which may come when what you do will forever add to or detract from this renown. Some of you will have to do your part in helping construct the ships and the guns which you use."

Importance of Details.
You need to bend every energy toward making these ships and guns in all their details the most perfect of their kind throughout the world. The best ships and guns and the most costly mechanism are utterly valueless if the men are not trained to use them to the utmost possible advantage. From now on throughout your lives there can be no slackness on your part, under you, in the actual work of seaman-ship, in the actual work of gunnery."

In the Day of Battle.
If the day for battle comes you will need all that you possess of boldness, skill, determination, ability to bear punishment, and instant readiness in an emergency. But though without these qualities you can do but little if you have not had the forethought and set purpose to train yourselves and the enlisted men under you right. Officers and men alike must have the sea habit; officers and men alike must realize that in battle the only shots that count are the shots that hit and that normally the victory will lie with the side whose shots hit truest. Seaman-ship and marksmanship—these must be the two prime objects of your training, both for yourselves and for the men under you. Your duty must be present with you, waking and sleeping. You have got to train yourselves, and you have got to train those

STOCKMEN KILLED.

Two Meet Death and Seven Are Injured in Bad Wreck on the Union Pacific Road.

Topeka, Kan., May 7.—During the heavy fog Wednesday morning at 3:10 o'clock an east bound extra freight train on the Union Pacific ran into Pacific train No. 14 at a crossing in North Topeka, causing a bad wreck and killing two men and injuring seven others. THE DEAD—Al McCandless, stockman, Natoma, Kan. Unidentified stockman, from Luray, Kan. THE INJURED—H. W. Kueker, Miles, Kan., head badly cut. J. E. Fields, Hoxie, Kan., badly bruised. John Buzzard, Bellevue, Kan., bruised. John Hammerlund, St. Mary's Kan., left leg cut. Ed Arnold, Chapman, Kan., internally injured. Joseph Hurst, Cheyenne, internally injured.

—Ford, head cut. Train No. 14 had stopped at the crossing as usual. Just as it was starting up, on came the extra at the rate of 40 miles an hour. Engineer Zimmerman, of the extra, did not see any of the lights of the regular train on account of the fog and the other train crew could not, of course, get their train out of the way soon enough to save it. The engine of the extra crashed into the caboose of No. 14, splitting it completely in two.

Three other cars on the extra train were badly broken. The engine was derailed. None of the trainmen were injured. All the injured are stockmen going east on the extra with cattle. Nine men were in the caboose at the time of the accident and only George Ford, of Wamego, escaped with nominal injuries.

MASSSES FOR DEAD PRELATE.
Services in St. Patrick's Cathedral for Repose of Soul of Archbishop Corrigan.

New York, May 7.—Masses for the repose of the soul of Archbishop Corrigan were said Wednesday at St. Patrick's cathedral and were largely attended. The six o'clock masses were celebrated by Rev. Father Lavelle, rector of the cathedral, and Rev. Father Daly, at seven o'clock, Rev. George W. Corrigan, a brother of the dead archbishop, and Bishop McQuaid, of Rochester, officiated, and at eight o'clock Right Rev. Ignatius Sanchez de Oca, bishop of San Luis Potosi, and Rev. Father McAleer, of the cathedral clergy, were the celebrants.

Later in the morning the body of the archbishop was carried into the cathedral and placed at the end of the center aisle, and just in front of the altar. The head was placed toward the altar and was elevated so that the mourners could see the face of the dead prelate when half way down the center aisle.

At the time there were thousands of persons grouped about the cathedral awaiting the hour when the door would be opened so they might have an opportunity to pay a last tribute of respect to the archbishop.

The body was attired in the funeral robes. These consisted of a purple silk cassock, lace rochet, linen amice, lace alb, cincture, stole, maniple, purplesilk tunicle, purple silk dalmatic, purple silk chasuble, purple sandals and stockings and white damask mitre. There was also the pectoral cross, the pallium, the crozier in the left hand and the episcopal amethyst ring on the right hand.

The musical programme for the requiem mass contains selections from Mozart, Verdi and Ambrose Thomas. Mrs. Mary A. Livermore III.

New York, May 7.—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the well known woman suffragist, is confined to her home in Melrose, says a Boston dispatch to the Times by a serious difficulty with her eyes. For the past two weeks she has been under the care of a physician and has remained in a dark room. It is feared she may become totally blind.

Wife of Boer Leader in London Receives Reassuring Information from South Africa

SALISBURY SAYS BRITAIN STANDS FIRM

Has Not Receded an iota from its Previous Terms Offered to the Boers—Siege of Town of O'Kiep Raised After Being Threatened by Boers for Month.

London, May 7.—The wife of Gen. Lucas Meyer, the commander of the Orange Free State forces, who is in this country, received a cable message from her husband Tuesday saying that peace in South Africa was probable.

Stands Firm on Peace Terms.

London, May 7.—Lord Salisbury, during his speech Wednesday, at the annual grand habitation of the Primrose league here, said the government had not receded an iota from its previous peace terms to the Boers.

Siege of Town Raised.

London, May 7.—The town of O'Kiep, Western Cape Colony, which has been besieged since April 4 by a Transvaal force under Commandant Smuts, has been relieved by a British force under Col. Cooper. The garrison was in good health and only a few of the troops were wounded. The Boers retired south.

Lord Kitchener, in reporting the relief of O'Kiep, adds that the Concordia district, in about the same part of Cape Colony, is clear of Boers.

Boers Captured.

London, May 7.—Further advices received here Wednesday from South Africa announced that 208 Boers had been captured, and that ten burghers were killed in the neighborhood of Lidlley, Orange River colony, Tuesday.

CONDEMNES TOBACCO TRUST.

National Cigar Leaf Tobacco Association Adopts Resolutions Against American Cigar Company.

Cincinnati, May 7.—The National Cigar Leaf Tobacco association Wednesday decided to meet next year in Atlantic City and afterward on reconsideration the directors were empowered to select the place for the next convention. Resolutions were adopted condemning the methods of the American Cigar company.

John R. Young, of Philadelphia, was reelected president in spite of his protests, but he at once resigned and Sigmond Rosenwald, of New York, was elected to the office.

Undergoes Severe Operation.

Washington, May 7.—John A. Kasson, the special plenipotentiary, under whose directions the pending reciprocity treaties were prepared, is in Garfield hospital in this city recovering from an operation. Although well along in years, Mr. Kasson sustained the severe operation of laparotomy last Wednesday and is convalescing rapidly.

Victoria, B. C., May 5.—News has been brought by the steamer Olympia from the orient of further successes by the Kwang-Si rebels, whose ever-growing armies were besieging Nanking on the West river at last reports.

Fugitives who were flying to Canton from the scenes of bloodshed and pillage reported that the slaughter at Ching Shang Fui when that city fell was awful.

More than 1,000 persons were killed and their bodies left lying unburied in the streets while the rebels burned and looted the stores and houses. Terrible slaughter is also reported from other captured towns. Several thousand of the imperial army are said to have deserted.

Peace Prospects Promising.

Pretoria, May 7.—The peace situation is developing encouragingly. According to reliable information which has reached here several of the nearer commandoes have received the burgher delegates in an amicable spirit. ## Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers.

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right. All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness. Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment.

Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.

Mrs. B. Volmarel, of No. 85 West 13th St., says: "My kidneys bothered me for years until the dull aching pains through my loins became almost constant. I easily tired and became stiff from sitting or lying in one position for any length of time and I arose in the morning feeling thoroughly unrested and devoid of energy. Often I could hardly stand up straight and I walked about in a stooped position. There was also a stiffness and numbness in my limbs. I had seen Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended and I got a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and commenced their use. The result was most gratifying, and in spite of my advanced age I soon began to feel better. Aside from the natural stiffness of the joints in a person of my age, I feel splendid."

CORN FOR THE SILO.

Methods of Preparing Land, Planting and Cultivation.

The methods of growing corn for the silo are practically the same as those for growing corn for any other purpose. American Agriculturist sums them up thus: Begin by plowing the ground to a good depth and follow with a harrow or disk, working until the clods are pulverized and the land in the very best condition. When the soil is well warmed up, say the last week of April or any time in May, plant at the rate of about one bushel of seed to six or seven acres. The kernels can be dropped in drills or hills. Some growers prefer one way and some the other.

For silage corn the aim should be to get a good growth of the entire plant. A medium sized stalk with heavy foliage and as many ears as practicable is the most desirable. If the corn is planted in hills, try to get three or four grains in each hill. If drilled, try to have one stalk to every foot. Any variety which grows well in the locality will answer. It is not necessary to plant a special silage corn.

Cultivation of silo corn should be thorough and frequent. As soon as weeds appear, even if this be before the corn plant shows above ground, go over the field with a slant tooth harrow or some kind of a weeder. The weeder is preferable on many soils, as it is very effective and it is possible for one man to go over a very large area in a day. If the spring happens to be wet, neither the weeder nor the disk harrow is entirely satisfactory. Charles Rowe of Illinois states that under such conditions he has used the spading harrow with excellent results. This is simply a disk with slightly bent fingers three or four inches in length all around the outside of the disk.

After this go over the corn with a cultivator having small shovels. Run close to the corn and dig out or cover up all weeds. The next cultivation should not be quite so deep and a little farther away from the corn. The third cultivation should be still shallower, the idea being to avoid breaking roots. In most cases one treatment with the weeder and three cultivations are sufficient. In other localities and seasons four will be necessary. Corn should not be cut for the silo until the grains are well denting and the lower leaves dried and the entire plant fairly well matured. The silage will be more satisfactory, being sweeter than from corn cut earlier. There will be a larger amount of it.

NEW FRUIT.

Perfection Currant, Which Won the Barry Medal For Special Merit.

The cut, from American Agriculturist, shows the new Perfection currant, which obtained the Barry gold medal from the Western New York Horticultural society for a new fruit of special merit. Professor S. A. Beach of New York is credited with the following description of it:

"In form of bush, health and vigor of foliage the Perfection is intermediate between its parents Fay and White Grape. The fruit is borne along the old wood, much like that of the White Grape. On the average the size of cluster and size of berry both exceed that of the Fay and, so far as I know, equal that of any variety which has yet been disseminated. THE PERFECTION CURRANT.

The fruit is usually uniformly large to the tip of the cluster. Its largest berries are fully equal to the largest of the Comet. While on the average its fruit is not quite so large as that of the Comet, its clusters average longer. The pulp is less seedy and considerably better in quality. The stem of the cluster is free from berries near its attachment to the plant, thus making it easy to pick. The color is a good red, somewhat lighter than the Fay. In flavor and quality I consider it distinctly better than Fay or Cherry. In fact, I do not know of any other large currant in cultivation that is its equal in this respect. It ripens about with Fay and Cherry."

One Thing and Another.

It is expected that South Dakota will have a corn palace at the Louisiana Purchase world's fair.

Good land that is well cared for should grow from 200 to 400 bushels of onions per acre. Three hundred and fifty bushels would be a good average yield on land under high cultivation.

Varieties of onions that have done best at the Kansas station are Prize Taker, Yellow Danvers, Red Wethersfield, Silver King and later the Giant Gibraltar.

Set eggplants two or three feet apart in rows three and a half feet apart and give plenty of fertilizer and cultivation.

White skinned potatoes seem to be the popular sort in this market, almost to the exclusion of several good red skinned varieties that have been standard for some time, says a Massachusetts correspondent in American Cultivator.

A mellow, "quick" soil is essential to tender radishes.

Tall or standard beans will climb on brush or chicken wire. Half standards and dwarfs planted in double rows tend to hold each other up.

SEEDING ALFALFA.

Approved Methods of the West-Virginia Seed.

In the west, where alfalfa is most profitable, spring seeding is quite the rule. Advising in regard to this, Orange Judd Farmer says: As the young plants are comparatively weak, it is best to delay seeding until the ground has warmed up well and cold rains are past. In preparing the land for the seed in spring plow very shallow, but pulverize thoroughly.

The amount of seed per acre is also largely a matter of opinion. Some sow from ten to twelve pounds per acre, while others seed as high as thirty. Under very favorable conditions the lighter seeding is very satisfactory, but it goes without saying that, as a rule, the heavier seeding is best. The chances are that the light seeding will result in a very poor stand. This results in a loss of a part of the ground for an entire year.

There is much variation in alfalfa seed, and under no circumstances should it be sown without first being tested. It is a very easy matter to count out 100 seeds and place them between two pieces of muslin. Invert a small dish in a large vessel and pour water around it. Place the muslin on the inverted dish, letting one end of the muslin hang down in the water. Put in a warm place, and in two or three days count the seeds which have germinated. Repeat this until no more germinate. At least 75 per cent of alfalfa seed ought to grow when treated in this manner. While old seed is often good, it is not desirable to use it. If it is good and plump, keeping it two or three years will not be particularly injurious.

The most satisfactory way to sow alfalfa is by the use of the ordinary seed drill. If the soil is light, roll after drilling; then follow with the harrow. The surface will be left loose, so that the young plants can push through readily. The seed should be put down into the moist soil. As a rule, it should not be covered more than one inch. Where soils are heavy and damp covering of half an inch is sufficient.

Few drills handle alfalfa seed satisfactorily, but this can be overcome by mixing seed with coarse cornmeal, equal parts, or some other substitute that will feed out evenly. The habit of drilling half the seed one way, then cross drilling with the other half, is commendable, as there is less liability of bare rows, and the seed is more evenly distributed. This has been tried in Illinois and Kansas with good results.

THE ONION UP TO DATE.

A Popular Crop and Its Culture by the Modern Method.

The onion is having a sort of boom in various sections just now as a good money crop. Onions, it is hardly necessary to state, may be grown from seeds or sets. Bailey has described up to date onion culture in brief as follows:

If seeds are used, they may be sown in the open ground where the bulbs are to mature, or they may be sown in greenhouses or hotbeds and the young plantlets transplanted to the rows in the open ground. In sowing out of doors seeds should be put in as early as possible in shallow drills three to three and a half feet apart and covered with a half inch of fine moist earth. They need to be very carefully weeded at first, but if the ground is clean and mellow and the rows straight the wheel hoe will be able to take full charge of the work early in the season. It has been repeatedly shown that cheaper, better and earlier onions can be grown by transplanting the plants from greenhouses or hotbeds, where the seeds are sown very early. When the plantlets are as large as a lead pencil, they are set four inches apart in rows three feet asunder, and cultivation is immediately begun with the wheel hoe. In growing from sets the planting is made in much the same way. Multiplier or potato onions are similarly managed.

Prize Taker is probably the most popular variety of the present day.

Wheat Rotation.

The North Dakota station has taken up the study of a suitable rotation for the wheat farm. Experiments carried on for six years show that continuous wheat culture is unprofitable, while wheat in rotation increases in yield and improves in quality. Three crops of wheat and one of clover gave in four years almost as much wheat and more profitable returns than four crops of wheat in succession. Little was gained in rotating wheat with other cereals, as spring rye, barley and oats, but wheat after a cultivated crop gave a larger percentage of increase than wheat after summer fallowing, millet, timothy and clover, flax, field peas or millet and clover. The increase in the wheat crop over wheat after wheat was as follows: After cultivated crops, 75 per cent; after fallow, 63 per cent; after millet, 41 per cent; after timothy and clover, 33 per cent.

Environment of the Sugar Beet.

Dr. H. W. Wiley draws some conclusions about the influence of environment upon the sugar beet. These are from a study of graphic charts based upon observations made in different parts of the country:

High sugar and high latitude run very evenly together. The actual hours of sunshine do not appear to have much influence upon the sugar content, or perhaps it would be better to say that the curves do not coincide even approximately.

It is evident that the elements of sunlight, which are active in promoting the action of the chlorophyll cells in the formation of sugar, do not depend upon the direct rays of the sun. The diffused light coming through the clouds is apparently quite as effective as the direct light.

The curve showing the average length of day from sunrise to sunset has a direct relation also to the content of sugar in the beet. The shorter the day the lower the content of sugar, and the longer the day the higher the content of sugar.

An important relation to sugar content is shown by the rainfall, especially in its distribution. The total amount of rainfall, it is evident, has less influence on the sugar content than its even distribution during the growing months providing the rain is sufficient for the growing crop.

Henry Bloeker and Thomas Honner steamboat inspectors, were in the city yesterday. They inspected the City of Milwaukee and found her in a very satisfactory condition.

Rev. D. Druker, of Drenthe will conduct services in the English language in the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church next Sunday evening.

A special election will be held in Zeeland May 26 to decide whether the village shall bond itself to the sum of $18,000 to establish an electric light plant and pumping station.

The local lodge K. O. T. M. has elected Attorney Arthur Van Duren delegate to the meeting of the Great Camp of the order to be held in Marquette this summer.

Sheriff Dykhuys had the misfortune to lose a fine horse for which he had a standing offer of $500 a few days ago. The beast injured itself in a stall in Grand Rapids and was removed to the glue factory.

The city was captured Wednesday morning by a band of gypsies who came over on the Chicago boat. They had a busy time telling fortunes and short-changing citizens until they were escorted to the city limits by Deputy Marshal Bos.

R. B. Fuller, formerly a member of the firm of C. L. King & Co., has purchased 250 acres of property fronting White Lake and situated west of Whitehall. He will plat it into lots for summer cottages and expects to convert it into a summer resort. It is finely situated for that purpose.

The Band of Benevolent Workers of the First Reformed church has elected the following officers: President, Miss Anna Winter; vice president, Miss Jennie Karsten; secretary, Miss Minnie Wiltedink; treasurer, Miss Anna Schoon; assistant secretary and treasurer, Miss Mamie Steketee.

At the annual meeting of the Merchants' association, held last evening in the office of the secretary, Henry Van der Ploeg, in the Van der Werp block, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Jacob Lokker. The Pere Marquette railroad has just issued a very pretty pamphlet entitled "Fishing and Hunting in Michigan," which contains 20 half-tone pictures of scenes along their road, and also a map of Michigan with a synopsis of the game and fish laws. One of these interesting pamphlets can be had by calling on or addressing W. E. Wolfenden, district passenger agent, Grand Rapids.

At a meeting held last Wednesday night it was definitely decided to organize a new English speaking congregation of the Christian Reformed denomination from members of the Ninth street and Central Avenue churches. Of the $10,000 required $3,000 has been pledged by the Ninth Street church, of which Rev. K. Van Goor is pastor. The church building will be a frame structure, and may be located on Central avenue. One hundred families are interested in the movement.

Roland Easley, Con DePree, Ben Van Raalte, Sr., and Ed Westveer are trout fishing on Maple river in Emmet county and marvelous is their luck. As a result of the first day with red and reel 150 rainbow trout were sent to friends and relatives in this city. The receipt of these fish has led the friends of the fishermen to tell all sorts of stories regarding their prowess. It is now solemnly averred that when they return at midnight they will have not less than 5000 trout, each 3 feet long.

Richard Marsh was arrested Wednesday by Marshal Kamferbeek for taking indecent liberties with a 12-year-old girl; but he liked not the gloomy atmosphere of the city jail and securing a heavy piece of iron by tearing away some of the equipment of the cell he smashed the padlock holding the heavy door and wrenching the iron bars in front the window jumped to freedom. He was found at the home of his parents within an hour and it developing that he was insane, having been an inmate of the Elgin, Ill., asylum twice, he was turned over to his father on condition that he be returned immediately to the asylum.

Tax Commissioners And Supervisors Here.

Supervisors from every township touched by the G. R. H. & L. M. Ry. were in the city today in consultation with J. O. McLaughlin and Wm. J. Dust of the state tax commission regarding the assessing of electric railway property. In the past there has been a wide difference upon the valuation placed upon the road by the several townships and it was to obviate this inequality and to place the valuation on a uniform basis that the consultation was held today. Mr. Walker, an expert engineer, was present and gave data regarding the cost per mile for construction and the cost of building and equipping power houses. Now that the supervisors have been informed, there is nothing to prevent them from being uniform in the matter and assessing the road at the proper figure.

Concert: New Band Instruments.

At last an earnest effort will be made to put the West Michigan band upon a proper basis. Some of the most influential citizens have been quietly considering the matter and Wednesday afternoon they met at the Michigan band hall to talk the matter over. Among those present were Mayor DeRoo, Geo. W. Browning, J. B. Mulder, Henry Luidens and Ross Cooper. As a result of their deliberations a new set of band instruments will be purchased, these instruments to remain the property of the city. Instead of going around with a subscription list it was decided that a grand concert be given and that tickets to this concert be sold for $1 each. It is thought that $500 worth of tickets can be sold as many of the business and professional men will buy them in blocks of ten or twenty to aid in raising the amount needed to buy new instruments. J. B. Mulder and Henry Luidens have been instructed to appoint committees for the selling of tickets. Liberal responses to the solicitations of this committee will give Holland a finely equipped band inside of a month.

Sporting News.

C. M. Winslow will manage the ball team this year. "Shorty" is in search of good players, and will get them if money will land them.—Saugatuck Commercial Record.

Base ball enthusiasm has commenced to warm up says the Fennville Herald. Work on the grounds is now in progress and they will be ready as soon as the season opens. The Fennville team is nearly all signed. Pease of South Haven is here ready to take care of second base and Millard of South Haven will also be given a try in the field. Carl Speaker, of Lowell, formerly of the Big Rapids team, and last year the main stay of Otsego's fast team, arrived Monday and has been signed as pitcher. With him came Frank Crotty of Detroit, who has signed as short stop. He signed with the Grand Rapids team this spring, but was sent to Otsego. Not being satisfied with the arrangement, he took his release and signed here. With Marion Burden behind the bat and the other strong local players, Fennville will be able to give its opponents a good race this season.

Holland Vs. Fennville This Afternoon.

Until today it has been dull in base ball circles. Rain reigned Tuesday afternoon and caused the postponement of the game with the Garlands. It will be played later in the season.

But today will not be dull, for the dreaded Fennville team is here and loud are the assertions that it will go home with the scalps of the Holland boys dangling from its belt. Last year the Fennville boys proved to be a hard proposition for Holland and had a habit of interfering with Holland's winning streak. They would like to act in the same capacity this year and are here today with a very strong aggregation of ball tossers. Game will be called at 3:00.

Battle of Giants.

The battle of giants will take place at the Holland Base Ball grounds Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 when Holland will meet the Bissells of Grand Rapids. Jimmy Veratay will be in the box for the visitors and 1,000 of his admirers in this city will be out to see whether or not he can hold his own with the new favorite, Neil Ball. The game will be fast without a doubt. It also promises to be spectacular and it cannot be otherwise with Jimmie in the box. This will make it a battleroyal between the pitchers as both will try to show their right to the affections of the fans.
