Ottawa Has Some Matrimonial Disasters

NINETY-THREE OUT OF 977 MARRIAGES GO ON THE ROCKS IN THIS CO.

Rather an interesting compilation was sent the Holland City News, showing that in Ottawa the matrimonial bark does not always sail smoothly and there are a few shipwrecks to report.

The figures are sent in from the Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., and cover in detail all divorce matters in every county in Michigan.

The report in question announces that there were 37,300 marriages performed in Michigan during the year 1928, as compared with 36,276 in 1927, representing an increase of 1,024 or 2.8 per cent. In 1916, there were 40,112 marriages reported.

During the year 1928 there were 10,583 divorces granted in this state, as compared with 10,525 in 1927, representing an increase of 58, or one-tenth of one per cent. In 1916, there were 6,327 divorces granted. There were 82 marriages annulled in 1928, as compared with 86 in 1927.

The estimated population of the state of Michigan on July 1, 1928, was 4,519,000, and on July 1, 1927, 4,490,000. On the basis of these estimates, the number of marriages per 1,000 of the population was 8.12 in 1928, as against 8.08 in 1927; and the number of divorces per 1,000 of the population was 2.29 in 1928, as against 2.34 in 1927.

Of this number Ottawa county is found to have marriages in 1927 and 28, as follows: 611 — 466; Divorces, 1927 and '28: 49 — 48; Annulments during these two years, 2.

FINE NEW BUILDING THROWN OPEN TO PUBLIC TODAY

For the past few months there has been much activity on East 7th street, just back of Warm Friend Tavern. An enterprising firm, namely, Venhuizen Auto Co., started a very pretentious building program some months ago. Today their ambitions have been realized. Their fine new garage is completed and the officials are holding open house today and Saturday, inviting to inspect their modern business building at 18 East 7th street.

The new structure is 71 by 132, which includes a beautiful, well-lighted showroom, a large area to store cars, a convenient stock room, very commodious rest rooms for the public, a well arranged work shop filled with extra tools and added equipment. The entire building has the most up-to-date lighting and heating arrangements.

The Venhuizen boys started their business career in the automobile lines 18 years ago in a machine shop at the rear of the premises where they are now located and since then they have rebuilt the plant four times because of rapid expansion.

Mr. Henry J. Venhuizen, better known to his friends as "Henie," has charge of the garage and service and meets all the customers, and Thomas W. Venhuizen takes care of the sales. The firm has a force of nine men on the payroll.

The Venhuizen Auto Co. are agents for the popular Dodge and Studebaker cars and have been for the past 15 years or more. The firm extends a hearty welcome to everyone, asking them to inspect their new home today and Saturday.

LOCAL BELL MANAGER STORMS HAVE HIT COMPANY HARD

Telephone lines in Michigan have been harder hit by wind and sleet storms this spring than in any year since 1922, it is stated by C. E. Ripley, manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone company in this area. Three unusually severe storms, occurring March 6, March 31 and May 2, broke and displaced more than 12,000 poles and a thousand miles of circuits of the Michigan Bell company, causing total damage estimated at over a million dollars. Many of the smaller companies and rural co-operative lines also were hard hit it is stated. The last storm struck before damage caused by that of March 31 had been repaired, and it may be two weeks before service can be restored fully to normal.

Diekema Does Not Agree With Rev. Burggraf

SAYS NOT A REVOLUTION FOR WORSE BUT EVOLUTION FOR A BETTER WORLD

Can't Judge Women's Morals From Knee to Foot or From Neck to Chin

The large dining hall in Warm Friend Tavern was filled to capacity Wednesday noon when the Exchange Club met to honor their townsman, G. J. Diekema.

It was rather expected that the Holland man intended to answer the rather radical speech made by Rev. Winfield Burggraf of Milwaukee who appeared two weeks ago when the News gave the highlights of his discourse in which he spoke rather dubiously of present day morals, that we were living on the religion inherited from our fathers adding nothing thereto and that old political parties should be abolished because of rottenness.

Mr. Diekema did not disagree with Mr. Burggraf altogether but he pointed out the brighter side of the picture.

Mr. Diekema said in part as follows: "Two weeks ago we listened to an able address from a learned cleric, delivered with a great force of argument, to set folks thinking. While the discourse did set me to thinking I could not see the dark calamities that the gentleman portrayed."

"He pictured two revolutions that we have gone through apparently while we were asleep. We are now in the midst of a third revolution, according to this eloquent speaker. I agree with much of what he said but he only presented one side of the picture. I believe that the word revolution should have been changed to evolution and I say this not in the way of criticism but rather I feel that we must view all sides in order to gain a correct impression of present day conditions."

"This is a world of constant changes. The great bodies are going at lightning-like speed, bringing about evolutionary changes. We must change with these conditions. When we cease to change then we are dead. We are the subjects of changes and this is reflected in our mode of living, and in the conditions by which we live. It governs our moral and our religious aspect; for instance, the doctor of yesterday prescribed old home remedies, with rhubarb for a bellyache. Today with the X-ray and other modern scientific methods a physician can not practice on the old basis. Evolution has taken place in the practice of medicine, changing from rhubarb to X-ray. That advance has also taken place in surgery. The methods of yesterday can not be practiced today. I call that evolution, not revolution."

"In my own profession, many years ago, the best attorney was a lawyer with 'gab' and eloquence but no law books. Today a complete evolution in the trying of cases and in the practice of law has taken place. Today cases are tried according to statute, not according to word eloquence."

"What holds true in the practice of law is also true of the ministry. The pastors of old were students of theology expounding the virtues of their own creed, preaching the punishment of hell fire according to their own doctrine. Hereto there has been great evolution and while the fundamentals of our religion is the religion of our forefathers the methods of imparting these doctrines differ. The preacher of today must keep up-to-date or he will be short of followers. With changed conditions naturally changes take place in the application of thought and this is true of the ministry as well as of other things."

"In education we know today that the mind has a tremendous influence over the body and that moral suasion goes a great deal further than the 'hickory stick'."

"The changes in industry have been tremendous. This is a peculiar age of mass production in great industrial plants. This is done to eliminate waste, to bring about standardization, for we can't have mass production and have waste and standardization at the same time. But this mass production has done other things. While improved machinery curtailed employment for a very short time it has placed the rare luxuries of day before yesterday, our comforts of yesterday and our necessities of today, into the hands of the rank and file of our people and while there have been labor saving machinery the results have been that wages have been increased and these luxuries have been placed at the disposal of those who could not possibly afford them during the old order of things. I do not call this revolution; I call this evolution in the right direction."

Mr. Burggraf stated that we were in an age of moral decay. "I do not believe that a low neck dress or a knee high skirt has anything to do with or dictates the moral fiber of a woman from knee to ankle or from neck to chin, or by the length of her hair, or compare it by the standard of dress with prevailing long skirts of yesterday. The woman in yesterday's garb might be twenty times weaker than the so-called flapper of today."

"It is a question in my mind, appearances to the contrary, that a girl of today is better able to take care of herself than her sisters of yesterday. I believe this is an evolution toward moral decay."

"The mode of living of our womanhood is free today. The women have been emancipated. They have greater liberties not beset with intolerance. Women are now found in the business world. Many are now shouldering the burdens of men, and while the pendulum has swung far you cannot say that the morality, generally speaking, has broken down. There have been evolutionary changes, not fundamentally so, but in method only."

"I know that our moral standards in business today or twenty-five years ago are on a much higher plane today. In fact there has been a complete change. Putting 'shoddy goods' over on customers a score of years ago was considered shrewd business, but today no merchant would think of selling half rotten cotton for all wool, and he wouldn't be in business very long if he did. Fruit dealers would turn the red cheeks apples upward, placing the bruised and rotten ones in the bottom of the basket. You won't find that in present day methods and those fruit merchants who do use those methods soon find their produce in the discard of sale. There is not a business man within the hearing of my voice who does not feel and know that the plane of business is higher than ever before. I call this evolution."

"The world was and is religious. The world does not like the religious methods of yesterday. No church can live that does not adopt methods of today without hindering the fundamentals of religion. The great question is, 'What is the matter with us?'"

Mr. Burggraf stated that we're becoming a lawless nation and stops there. "Many attribute lawlessness to the eighteenth amendment, because of the war, but I feel a disrespect for law emanates from a different source. I believe it is the great neglect found in our homes today. Homes are only temporary abiding places. We are in and we are out again. We are neglecting family worship. We can improve upon religious training in our schools. Our children refrain from attending divine worship. In this respect we fall far short and I hope and pray that there may be a reversal of conditions."

"Politically speaking, the speaker of two weeks ago would eliminate the two big parties because of their rottenness and possibly substitute one as the great Christian religious party and the other as being against everything the religious party stood for. Such a remedy would be unthinkable. But let us view the politics of today with the politics of yesterday. A half century ago the ballot box and the whisky barrel were bosom friends."

Physician States Lady Overcome With Heart Attack While Preparing Meal, Causing Accident

Mrs. Henry Weaver of Zeeland was overcome with gas fumes at her last Friday.

Mrs. Weaver was living alone in her residence on Lincoln street, and it is said she was in the habit of warming her kitchen in the morning by burning gas on all the burners of her gas stove.

On Friday morning she had evidently followed this course and when neighbors forced their entrance they found her sitting, apparently lifeless, in a rocking chair, with the room filled with gas. They immediately carried her out of that room into fresh air, called a physician and immediately endeavored to resuscitate her. To this treatment she responded after considerable work, but she remained in a state of coma until death came Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Vander Kolk, who is a friend and neighbor of Mrs. Weaver, called at the home at about nine o'clock Friday morning but found the door locked. Thinking Mrs. Weaver had gone to do some shopping, she returned to her own home. Mrs. Weaver was accustomed to visit her daily but when she did not put in an appearance, Mrs. Vander Kolk again went to the Weaver home and found the door still locked. She felt that something must be amiss and called Mrs. Gerrit Walters, another neighbor. Together they forced the door and found Mrs. Weaver sitting in her chair in the gas-filled room. Three burners of the gas stove were turned on but not lit and there was a dish at hand containing some dry oatmeal which she had probably intended cooking for her breakfast. The physician expressed the thought that she had suffered a stroke of apoplexy at about the time she was to light her stove to prepare breakfast and had only sufficient strength to take her seat in the rocker. The state of coma was probably due to the stroke she suffered.

This is the second instance of an elderly person living alone and meeting death in this way. About a year ago, G. Lage, an old man, was found dead in his rooms from apoplexy, while the room was filled with gas. Whether in either case death was primarily due to the gas is doubtful. In the Lage case he was evidently stricken with heart trouble while a pot of coffee was heating. The coffee then boiled over, put out the flame and as a result the room filled with gas.

Mrs. Weaver was seventy-one years of age at the time of her death. She was a Zeeland girl when she married Mr. Weaver many years ago and made her home in Drenthe. After the death of her husband four years ago she returned to make her home in Zeeland and lived in her present home on Lincoln street on the same spot where she spent most of her girlhood days. Her maiden name was Bertha Poest, and she is survived by one sister, Mrs. Hannah Rookus. She also leaves three grandchildren in an adopted daughter, lately deceased.

The funeral services will be held this Friday afternoon at the home at one o'clock and at one-thirty at the First Ref. church. Burial will take place in Drenthe cemetery this afternoon.

ZEELAND MAN HURT IN FACTORY SLIVER THRU WRIST

Gerrit Goorman, who works in a Zeeland factory, had the misfortune of being struck by a flying piece of wood which was thrown by a saw, badly injuring his right wrist. While working at the saw, Mr. Goorman was cutting a small piece of board and in some way the saw caught the board, throwing it at the wrist and a piece struck him on the wrist and a small part the size of a lead pencil. An X-ray revealed a long sliver imbedded in the wrist. The wood was then removed and the injury dressed.

Eleven students made application for entrance in Western Theological seminary to the board of superintendents in session here Tuesday and Wednesday.

The new officers of the board are: President, Rev. John Bovenkerk, Muskegon; vice-president, Rev. T. W. Mullenberg, South Holland, Ill.; Sec. G. J. Hehkus of Grandville continues stated clerk.

The board will petition general synod for the incorporation of the seminary. New conditions were established for entrance and graduation.

Bibles were presented the graduates by C. Dosker of Grand Rapids at the commencement Wednesday. A complete report of the exercises will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Roy L. Brown of Detroit, an evangelist and Bible teacher, will speak at the Zeeland High School gymnasium this summer. He has recently conducted a two weeks Bible conference at Holland with great profit and blessing to many who heard him.

Allegan County jurors appointed from this vicinity are John Heider of Fillmore, Fred De Pree of Lakeland, Geo. Rightmink, Overisel and Clyde Mc Mitt of Manlius.

NEW CITY ASSESSOR'S SALARY CUT SEEMS DRASTIC

One action by the common council at Monday's meeting is creating considerable comment, namely the cut in the salary of the newly-elected city assessor, Peter Van Ark, from $3000 to $1800. Not a few feel that while Mr. Van Ark was not entitled possibly to as much money as Assessor Nibbelink received, because of the former assessor's unusual ability and experience, the cut should not have been quite so drastic—$2200 or $2500 would have been a fair amount to start Mr. Van Ark out with until he had gained more experience and efficiency, is contended by many.

The common council, no doubt, knows Mr. Van Ark's ability by this time. His assessment rolls have been made out and are in the hands of the Board of Review and this able board should have some knowledge at hand of this time as to the capability and worth of Mr. Van Ark in that office. No doubt the members of the common council have or will consult this board and do the fair and amiable thing if any injustices have been done. The council, we feel, means to be fair and it is well to reserve judgment until all matters pertaining to this salary cut are made clear.

WOULD BETTER RURAL ROADS

A reminder that the task of building a road system in the United States is far from done is contained in the announcement that a committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States will issue a report on rural highways.

There are in the United States approximately 2,000,000 miles of highways, ten times the mileage of steam railroads and fifty times the mileage of electric railways. There are about 300,000 miles of state highways, of which approximately 200,000 may be considered as a part of the national system. The remaining 2,000,000 miles are local roads under the jurisdiction of counties, townships and other small political units.

What should be done to improve and maintain these country roads and how to go about it are the questions with which the National Chamber committee will deal. What part the states should have in supervising the work, how the rural roads should be co-ordinated with the existing highway system, how the money for this purpose can be most economically raised and spent, are only a few of the things to be considered. The county road, at least, is to have its day.

FISH HATCHERIES POURING EM OUT

The federal government and many states are rapidly enlarging their facilities for fish propagation and the progress for the past years indicates an enormous output.

During 1928, Wisconsin fish hatcheries propagated and planted 289,000,000 food and game fishes, including lake and stream trout, pike-perch, pickerel, bass, muskellunge, white fish and perch.

Michigan hatcheries produced 140,000,000 fish the same year, the output being made up of practically the above named species.

The output of the California fish hatcheries for 1928 includes approximately 52,000,000 trout and 27,000,000 salmon. California operates 26 hatcheries and twelve egg-taking stations, its work being confined almost wholly to trout and salmon.

KILLS SNAKE TO PROTECT PLAYMATES

Thirteen-year-old Virginia Balk of Muskegon, will not get a Carnegie medal for heroism, but she has at least been the recipient of a large measure of commendation as a result of an action in the interest of several smaller playmates.

Returning from school with a number of younger children, Virginia stopped on the outskirts of a swamp near her home to pick wintergreen berries. As she foraged for the edible morsels, a striped adder a yard long crawled across her hand.

Despite the fact that she was badly frightened, her first thought was of her younger playmates. Showing none of the fright she felt, she gripped the snake and within a few minutes, killed the snake. The adder is not poisonous, but of a very deadly appearance.

SUPERINTENDENT FELL HAS HAD STADIUM IN MIND FOR LONG TIME

Maroon and Orange.—Six years ago as Mr. Fell was visiting at Menominee, he had the privilege of attending the dedication of the new stadium there, donated by G. A. Blasch. After seeing the great advantage of having an adequate field for athletic purposes the Superintendent began to feel that Holland needed a stadium. Two years later, Benton Harbor dedicated her new stadium with a seating capacity of 5,000; when again the growing need for a stadium here was more keenly felt. "Stadium" began to be the subject of conversation in and about school; the athletic association was growing grossly dissatisfied with seating and playing conditions at Riverview Athletic Park. About one fourth of the crowd at the games is outside of the fence looking in, which is so easily done, since the field is surrounded only by a wire fence.

Last year when Muskegon dedicated its new stadium, Mr. Fell got busy and with Mr. Riemersma and Miss Anthony decided to suggest to the senior class of '28 beginning a "stadium fund." The senior class and the council considered the suggestion and a vote was taken, the first money to be laid aside for a stadium fund was the proceeds of the senior class play last year.

DAVEY LEE, STAR AT FOUR, COMES IN "SONNY BOY"

The Holland Theatre announces Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week as the opening day for "Sonny Boy," Warner Bros. latest picture, and the first starring vehicle for four-year-old Davy Lee, who won this early honor through his marvelous performance in support of Al-Jolson in "The Singing Fool."

Davey's part in "Sonny Boy" has nothing of the tragic character of the role he had in the Jolson play. He is shown as the child of temporarily battling parents, and to keep the child's father from taking Sonny Boy with him, his mother plans with her sister to kidnap him. It is by his winsome and ingenious doings that things are finally straightened out.

Davey Lee is supported by Edward Everett Horton, Betty Bronson, Gertrude Madsen, John T. Murray, Edmund Brady, Percy Beaumont and Jed Prouty. The story is written by Leon Zwardo, C. Graham Baker did the scenario. Archie L. Mayo directed.

The inimitable charm of Davy Lee is not to be explained, it is, as there are a thousand little, odd, whimsical, elfin, unstudied ways he has, of waving his tiny hands, rolling his big eyes, and getting his diminutive body into unexpected shapes, that set audiences into peals of laughter—the mellow, heart-warming laughter that comes from the heart.—A Vitaphone Talking Picture.

"Demand Dustless Coal"

Treated with Duplex Coal Sprayer Machine WHAT DUSTLESS MEANS

1. No Dust—

The most expensive part of your cleaning is caused by coal dust. Perhaps your coal may have been wet down but it dries out, slides down the pile and causes dust which will go all through the house.

2. Reduces Smoke—

The treatment of coal to make it dustless has a tendency to make it burn cleaner and better according to reports of many users. A small amount of smoke causes a lot of trouble and dirt. A lesser amount from treated fuel.

3. Stays Dustless—

This treatment of coal to make it dustless has been used for four years. In many cases treated fuels have been carried over from spring to fall and they were still dustless when used. Water could never do this.

4. Reduces Slacking—

Wetting down coal with water in the bins causes slacking. Repeated wettings cause more slacking because of the wetting and drying action which follows. The treatment seals to a certain extent moisture in the pores of the coal and reduces slacking.

A spectacular accident occurred on US-31 near the Shell gas station toward Holland at Grand Haven when two motorists who were badly under the influence of liquor slammed into a post so hard that one of them went through the windshield. He seemed in no way hurt aside from the sudden jolt and the driver was too golden to take much account of the affair. Bystanders said the men were driving at a furious rate. They were arrested by the state police and were arraigned before Justice C. E. Burch where Noble B. Steel, Robinson, Ill., pleaded guilty and sentenced to jail for 10 days and paid $100 and costs. William M. Teal of Byron Center, his companion, was fined $10 and costs of $5.15.

Mrs. A. H. Landwehr furnished beautiful flowers for each little basket in the 3-1 grade. It was a merry sight, at dismissal to see each child carefully carrying a May basket home from Hollands new Washington school.

And in performance—Pontiac owners ask no favors of any other car in its field

No owner of a New Pontiac Big Six hesitates to pit his Pontiac against any other low-priced car on the road for power, speed and pick-up. It is only natural that this should be so. For mechanically, as in appearance, the New Pontiac Big Six has the characteristics of a big car . . .

Our special demonstration will show you how Pontiac owners step out in performance as readily as they step up in quality and style. Let us prove that you can enjoy big car advantages without paying a big car price.

Prices $745 to $895, f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Bumpers, spring covers and Landay shock absorbers regular equipment at slight extra cost. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

THE NEW PONTIAC BIG 6
PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

PONTIAC PLANT CAPACITY TAXED BY HUGE DEMAND

HALF-MILLION NEW SIXES BUILT IN FORTY MONTHS

A vivid picture of how the automobile industry is forging ahead beyond even the optimistic plans of those on the "inside" is aptly illustrated here at the modern plant operated by the Oakland Motor Car Company for the production of the new Pontiac Big Six, so says G. H.

Koolker of the local Pontiac Sales. When planned less than three years ago, the new structure was laid out on a production scale that was regarded ample for years to come, yet during the past few months every operating division has been running at peak capacity. Day-and-night and Saturday afternoon shifts are still somewhat short of turning out cars to meet the immediate demand.

With new cars of the Pontiac Big Six series rolling off three assembly lines at the rate of 1,200 or more a day, Oakland officials announce the building of the 500,000th Pontiac Six during the latter part of April. A large tract of land was purchased on the outskirts of the city, and construction crews worked day and night to erect and equip the new Pontiac factory. As a result, 1927 saw the huge plant thrown into production. It represented the largest single industrial contract awarded the previous year in the United States, and was the largest automotive project ever completed at one time.

Holland local distributor of the Pontiac Oakland cars is Mr. G. H. Koolker of the Oakland Sales and Service, located on East Eighth st.

Local Seminary Graduates Its 51st Class

PRESENTATION OF BIBLES TO GRADUATES IS ANNUAL FEATURE

Graduating Exercises Held Wednesday Evening at First Reformed Church

It is quite a coincidence that two years in succession the Western Theological Seminary graduated Classes of 17 students each. Last year and this year the number was the same. The graduating exercises last year was held at Trinity church and this year the First Reformed church was selected.

Wednesday evening marked the closing of the school year for 1929 and this class was the first one to go forth from this institution. The exercises were well attended and one of the features of the evening's program was the presentation of fine Oxford Bibles containing all the side notes and such Biblical information as stand ministers of the gospel in good stead in their future work. Seventeen bibles were given to seventeen students, the annual graduating gift of Mr. and Mrs. C. Dosker of Grand Rapids.

Dr. John E. Kuizenga, president of the seminary, was in charge of the commencement exercises. The program as given follows below:

The Board of Superintendents of the local seminary met in annual session at Semelink hall, the fore part of the week to receive applications for admission to the school for next school year.

The board consists of 30 members, representing five synods. Present officers are: President, Rev. T. W. Mullenburg, South Holland, Ill., vice president, Rev. John VanPurseum, Zealand; stated clerk, Rev. Gerrit J. Heekhuis, Grandville. The final examinations have been held and the seventeen were found eligible to graduate.

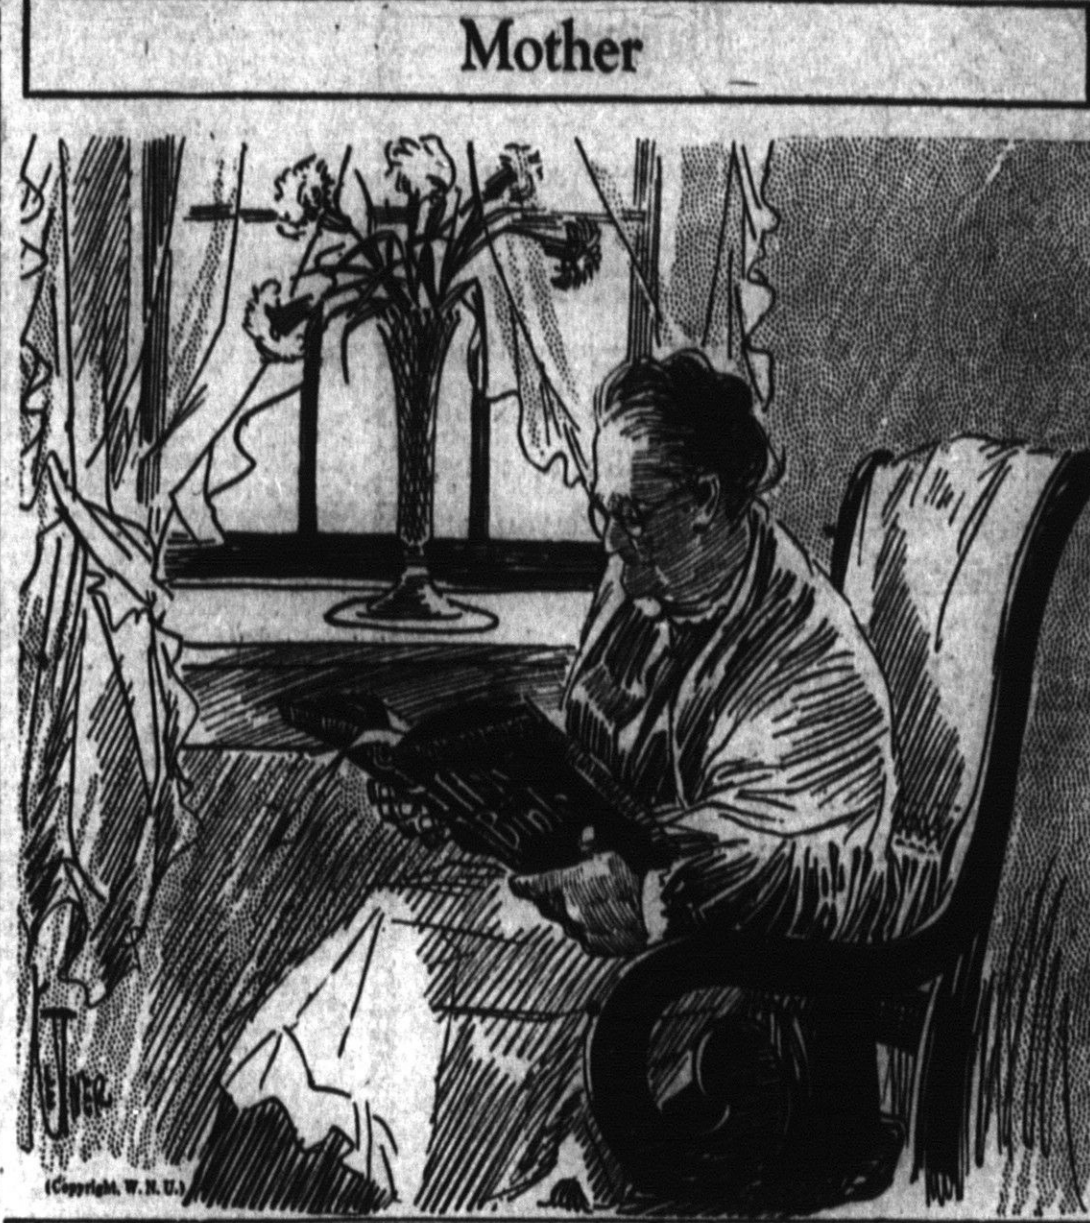

The local seminary, although constantly in need of funds, have made wonderful strides in spite of many handicaps, especially in a rapidly growing institution. Many years ago it began with no buildings, no endowment, no library and but one professor.

Today it has buildings and grounds valued at $184,000, a library worth $50,000, an endowment of $200,000, six full-time professors and additional lectures on the theological subjects. Last year a new dormitory was erected.

Twenty-seven students of Western Theological Seminary will be sent out this year on summer appointments.

All who wished to do summer work got the chance and three or four requests for students could not be filled. This is an unusual record.

Following are the appointments: H. John Aberson, Fairview, S.D.; Harry Brower, Corinth; Herman Harmelink, Sibley, Ia.; Harold Hoeselink, South Haven; Martin Hoeksema, North Blendon; John H. Kuizenga, Kalamazoo, S.D.; Bernard Muijken, Timber Lake, S.D.; Marion Nollen, Eddyville, Iowa; Bert Van Malsen, Wheatland, S.D.; Nelson Van Raalte, Ottawa, H. D. Arink, Beechwood; L. H. SNOW IN MAY NOT RECORD BREAKER IN OTTAWA COUNTY

According to Heyer, Ottawa Co. weather man, the Thursday and Friday snowstorm in Michigan with but very little in this county is not a record breaker.

Snow has been seen, he says, every year in May since 1911. On May 9, 1928, 4.8 inches fell. The latest fall was May 27, 1909. There has been no June snow since 1890, according to the bureau.

Thursday the high temperature was 44 degrees, lowering to 33. Friday it was 35.

Snow fell heavy in practically every county but Ottawa, but scores of autos passing through Holland from north and south were covered with white snow.

C. P. Milham reported today there was little or no damage to crops in this county on account of the continued wet and cold weather. What damage was done occurred just after the heavy fall of snow followed by a warm period in March. The winter wheat was damaged considerably at that time.

Not in 10 years, he continued, has the clover showed such a fine stand. The weather has been just right for perfect growing conditions.

TWO NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS VOTED IN HOLLAND DISTRICTS

Two new schools in this vicinity will be built shortly. A building committee of seven has been named to lay plans for a new building on East Eighth st., in Holland township. The present building was built five years ago, but it is now too small for the needs of the community. The Federal Manufacturing company has since extended a plant out that way and several new families have moved there.

The Harrington school district, Virginia Park, has also approved a $7,000 bond issue to build an addition to its school. One room of the building cares for 56 pupils and the other for 48 both in excess of state regulations. The building was erected only last fall, and was then thought large enough for the needs of the district.

WOMAN HELD IN OTTAWA AFTER RAID AND SEIZURE

Sheriffs of Ottawa and Allegan counties joined forces last night in a raid on the home of Henry Van Kempen, just over the Allegan line. A quantity of home brew was found and a drill, which officers declare was stolen from the Holland-St. Louis Sugar company in 1927.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Kempen were arrested, and he was later released under $500 bond to appear in September. Officers are considering what to do with Mrs. Van Kempen, who confessed she threw the drill into the river shortly after officers found it.

HUDSONVILLE SENIORS SNEAK AWAY AND SEE SIGHTS IN LANSING

Wednesday was selected by the senior class of Hudsonville High school for "sneak day." The bell rang as usual, but not a senior showed up. It seems that after obtaining Miss Dorothy McEachron, daughter of Fred F. McEachron, representative in the state legislature, and Mrs. Jake De Weerd, Mr. McEachron's niece, as chaperones, they motored to Lansing, where they were taken from Fred's wing and shown the sights of the capital city. Fred introduced them to the house in session and then to Gov. Green. They penetrated every nook of the capital and visited Michigan State college.

HOLLAND RESIDENTS HURT AS CAR CRASHES TRUCK

Rev. William J. Vankersen, western district representative of the board of foreign missions of the Reformed Church in America, suffered cuts about his lips and hands when he drove his automobile into a truck near Michigan City. The rear of the truck crashed through the windshield. The truck had no lights. Mrs. Vankersen and Mrs. G. Tyse, occupants of the car, escaped uninjured. The were returning to Holland from the Chicago Synod at South Holland.

SOME LIMITED, SOME UNLIMITED PARKING

The hour parking on River and Eighth street is now in vogue as far as local citizens are concerned. Police are again using the blue pencil on the front wheels checking on those who overstay the limit. Strangers who come to Holland to shop are given unlimited parking privileges and possibly a wooden shoe souvenir, besides asking them to come again and park longer. Grand Haven also started its parking regulation of one hour this week.

HOLLAND EVENING SENTINEL MOVES TO NEW HOME

The Holland Evening Sentinel, between Saturday and Monday, moved to their new home recently built on West Eighth street.

It was a well thought-out plan of moving between one issue and another of the local daily without interfering with the prompt service to its readers. The newspaper was issued Saturday noon in the old building for the last time. Large presses and linotypes were taken down in the old building, transported and reset in the new building in time for Monday's issue.

The Holland Evening Sentinel was founded 33 years ago and a year ago January was purchased by the present owners, with Charles A. French, a newspaper man with years of experience, as the able head.

The Holland City News congratulates the Holland Evening Sentinel on this concrete evidence of its substantial progress and wishes for its management a continuation of such progress, so fully deserved by an enterprising and public spirited newspaper in this, or any other city.

Rev. Samuel M. Zwemer, who is on special furlough in this country from Cairo, Egypt, is making a general appeal for books which are badly needed in the theological seminary library of the Evangelical church in Africa and Asia, biographies of missionaries, conservative and constructive books on the new testament and the presentation of the Christian message to Moslems are needed. "If you can spare two or three books from your library for our seminary in Cairo," says Zwemer, "kindly mail them to Rev. C. C. Arams, American mission, Cairo."

DRIVES AUTOMOBILE INTO POLE TO AVOID COLLIDING WITH CAR

Herman Cook, rural carrier of Holland, escaped uninjured Thursday afternoon when he drove his machine into a telephone pole to avoid a collision with an automobile driven by a woman at the intersection of Pine ave. and Seventeenth st., Holland. Cook had completed his trip and was driving his machine to the postoffice over U.S. 31 when the woman driver failed to heed the stop sign. Cook swung his car around, missed the other car by inches and crashed into the pole breaking it near the base and cracking it in the middle. A fire hydrant was smashed. Cook's automobile was badly damaged. The woman driver took full responsibility for the accident, the first in which Cook has figured since he drove a car.

Harbor Gets Extra Help. High Water is Cause

EXTRA DREDGE SENT HERE; NOT NEEDED IN GRAND RIVER WHEN FLOOD COMES

Grand River has been on a rampage for a good many weeks, and with the government reading three feet above the normal, the highest record in Grand Haven in many years, there is no use talking about water shortage for shipping.

The water topped the lower pier wall and piles in the river which have been watched by the state police as a gauge of the rising water were covered this morning.

The U. S. dredge, Saginaw, scheduled for work at Bass River, has been sent to Holland, where she will assist in the government improvements at the harbor as the high water makes work up Grand River unnecessary.

It's all ill wind that blows no one any good, said R. C. Yeomans, of the Construction Materials Co., for this high water has been a godsend to us and the developments which have been going on since the new expansion program was put into effect in February.

Due to the curtailment of the national budget the dredging promised for the Grand River was not put into effect. The Construction Materials Co. asked permission of the government to do the dredging this year which was to be charged to the government account. This was not done and had it not been for the high water, work and shipments from the Grand Haven plant would have been curtailed.

The new loading, grading and washing machinery which is being erected by the company in Bass River has not been completed but the tunnel at Ferrysburg is done and improvements have been completed on the grading machinery at Ferrysburg, which will do the work until the Bass River expansion, several miles upstream, is completed.

OFFERS TANNERY SITE AS CITY PLAYGROUND

When citizens complained to the common council that the old tannery site is a nuisance and a breeding place for mosquitoes and demanded that it be cleaned up, S. L. Hendrie, the owner, retaliated by agreeing to clean up the grounds and let the city use it as a playground, provided it is exempt from taxation while it is so used.

BORCULO GIRL HURT IN BICYCLE CRASH

While returning home from school Thursday, Jeannette Mappelink of Borculo was struck by a bicycle as the rider was trying to dodge an automobile. The girl stepped into the path of the oncoming vehicle and was thrown to the ground, the impact rendering her unconscious. An examination, however, showed there were no serious injuries.

The Misses Ruth Geerlings and Mary Harper spent the week-end in East Lansing with the Misses Helen Bosman and Winona Peterson, who are students at M.S.C.

Two Wayward Ottawa Boys Found Via Radio

STEAL AUTOMOBILES, GUNS AND LICENSE PLATES—SHERIFF AND DEPUTY BRINGS THEM HOME

Two wayward Grand Haven boys were caught by the sheriff's department via the radio.

Chief Anthony Pippel of Grand Haven at his lunch Saturday was startled as he heard the radio announce "Grand Haven." He picked up the story that two boys were being held in Chicago as suspicious characters as their car was steaming and they had four guns and two revolvers and some musical instruments.

Mr. Pippel took the matter up with Sheriff Steketee and Mr. Steketee and Marvin Den Heider left for Chicago immediately and returned with Otto Heper, 15 years old, and Clarence Zima, 16, two Grand Haven high school boys. They returned with the youngsters who made full confession that on Thursday they broke into a house of R. Bethke of Robinson and stole four shot guns, a revolver and also two license plates taken from cars parked near a school in Robinson where a meeting was being held.

Friday they stole a Buick sedan from Charles Brems of Grand Haven.

Apparently they took M. 31 through Holland to Chicago. When they reached South Chicago their outfit looked rather suspicious to the police and they were detained in question. It appears they arrived in Chicago on Saturday at 8 o'clock in the morning.

Upon their return with the sheriff and deputy they staid as they reached Pigeon Creek at West Olive that they had thrown one of the old shot guns in the creek. The sheriff stopped his car, made the boys wade in and get it, which they did and today all the fire arms and the rest of the evidence is found in the office of the county jail.

Otto Heper is a Junior in the High School and Clarence Zima is a Sophomore. They have had minor troubles in school. One of the boys lives across from Charles Brems dividing his time between an uncle and a grandmother. The Heper boy lives with his mother. One of the guns may belong to R. Bethke, said the officers, although there are several reported missing about town.

GRAND HAVEN TO GET SUNDAY SCHOOL BODY

The Ottawa County Sunday School convention, scheduled to meet Oct. 2, will be held in Grand Haven, according to Geo. Schulling of Holland, the president. The first time in five years the convocation has gathered there. This action was taken Wednesday night at a meeting of the officers of the local Sunday School Club at the First Reformed Church. It was also decided to hold a public rally Sunday, June 30, the Sunday preceding July 4th, to which the churches of the city will be asked to join.

THREE COUPLES IN HOLLAND WILL MARK WEDDINGS LONG PAST

Grand Rapids Press—Three Holland couples will figure in wedding anniversaries this month. The anniversaries occur within a week of each other and are beyond the golden event.

The sextet consists of Mr. and Mrs. Henne Buurman, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bosman and Mr. and Mrs. H. Nieuwsma. Five of them were born in the Netherlands and two couples were married in their native country.

Mr. and Mrs. Buurman were married twice in Vriesland, the Netherlands, 52 years ago, first in the town hall on Saturday night and then in the church on Sunday evening. They located here in 1882 and have lived in the same house 40 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Nieuwsma were born and married in the Netherlands and located in Michigan in 1881. Most of their career was spent on a farm in Hudsonville. They located in Holland about 18 years ago. They were married in 1878.

The Star of Bethlehem chapter held memorial services in honor of Mrs. James Purdy the oldest member of the order who passed away recently. Mrs. Purdy was the oldest member of the chapter and served three times as matron during the years 1889-1890 and 1896-1898. During the latter year she was honored by the grand chapter, filling the office of grand electa, O. E. S., of Michigan. She was honored by her own chapter as matron to initiate first candidates in the present new temple. She felt the need of co-operation in aiding the new officials in their duties. To this end she called a meeting of all past matrons in 1922 and organized the past matrons' club which is now in existence and divides the burden of the office.

The directors of the "horse show" department of the Holland Community Fair have decided to give away a pony during the coming exhibition. This will sure tickle the youngsters. Of course the automobile and other merchandise usually given away will again be a big feature this coming year. Secretary Van de Bunte stated.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. P. B. Fitzwater, D. D.
Dean, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago
(Ed. 1926, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for May 12

THE EARLY MINISTRY OF JEREMIAH

LESSON TEXT—Jeremiah 1:1-10; 28:1-14.

GOLDEN TEXT—We must obey God rather than man.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Doing Hard Things for God.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Doing Hard Things for God.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Taking a Stand for God.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Fidelity in the Face of Difficulties.

1. Jeremiah's Call (1:1-10).

1. It was prenatal (vv. 1, 2). Before Jeremiah was born God ordained him a prophet unto the nations.

2. His diffidence (v. 6).

This seems to have grown out of his youth and inexperience.

3. His hesitancy overcome (vv. 7, 8).

God graciously appeared unto him and made clear that he should (1) Go where sent. (2) Speak as commanded. (3) Be unafraid of their faces. The servant of God is called upon to face strong enemies. (4) Be assured of the divine presence.

4. The divine message given (v. 9).

Not merely the thoughts, but the proper words to express the thoughts, were put into the prophet's mouth.

5. Nature of his ministry (v. 10).

It was to be wider than that of prophesying. Six words are given as describing thereof. The first four are destructive in their implication—"root out," "pull down," "destroy," and "throw down"; two constructive, "build" and "plant." The destructive precedes the constructive.

11. Jeremiah's Grief (2:1, cf. 2:10).

The unbelief of the people made him feel that his efforts were fruitless. Seeing so clearly the awful doom which awaited his people and nation, and their willful opposition, he wept sorely.

111. Jeremiah's Prophecy in the Temple Court (26:1-24).

1. Jeremiah's solemn warning to Judah (vv. 1-7).

The Lord commanded him to stand in a conspicuous place in the temple and proclaim the judgment, which was about to fall upon them because of their sins. The object was to move them, to repentance (v. 3). If they would not repent, God would make the temple as Shiloh (v. 6). Just as Shiloh was once the dwelling place of the Lord and now fallen into decay and abandoned, so would it be with the temple.

2. Jeremiah on trial (vv. 8-11).

(1) Cause of arrest (v. 8). It was for faithfully speaking all that the Lord had commanded.

(2) The charge (vv. 8, 9). Thou shalt surely die. They charged him with a capital crime. According to this charge his guilt was proved; a, Preaching to speak for God. b. Speaking against the temple and the city. According to this charge he was guilty of blasphemy and sacrilege. The one who prophesied without God's command was to be punished by death (Deut. 18:20). Blasphemy was also punishable by death (Lev. 24:10).

(3) The princes sit in judgment (vv. 10, 11). Matters of state were not entirely in the hands of the priests and elders, but were in part controlled by members of the royal family.

Jeremiah's defense (vv. 12-15). Threats of death did not deter him from preaching, but only made him repeat his message with clearness and tenderness.

(1) Retributes his divine commission (v. 12). He plainly told them that he was God's messenger, and in opposing him they were opposing God.

(2) His exhortation (v. 13). He urged them to amend their ways and obey God and thus turn aside the divine judgment.

(3) He gave himself up (v. 14). He did not resist the powers of government (Rom. 13:1).

(4) Warnings of fatal consequences (v. 15). He told them that God had sent him and that if they killed him they would be guilty of defying God.

4. Jeremiah saved (vv. 16-24).

(1) The judgment of the princes (v. 16). They pronounced him "not guilty." They were convinced that Jeremiah was speaking the truth.

(2) The speech of the elders (vv. 17-20).

The elders pled for Jeremiah and adduced two cases in illustration: a. Micah (vv. 18, 19). Micah had prophesied against Jerusalem, but King Hezekiah instead of putting him to death, repented, and thus turned aside the punishment which was impending.

b. Urijah (vv. 20-23). Urijah prophesied against the city and the land and thus incurred the wrath of Jehoiakim, who even brought him back from Egypt and slew him.

(3) Rescued by Ahikam (v. 24). Ahikam must have been a man of influence, to be able to interfere at such a time.

More Chicks Will Be Chickens when fed

Ryde's "Startrite" Chick Food

With Buttermilk Poultry raisers know that proper care and feed will bring to maturity every normal chick. To do this, a safe, easily digested starting food is an absolute necessity. Avoid double loss of egg hatching expense and loss of future profit by feeding Ryde's "Startrite" Chick Food.

Demand Ryde's because it is a safe, natural, easily digested complete food. Don't strain tender sensitive digestive organs of baby chicks by using heavy fibrous feeds which cause disease. Use "Startrite" and you start them right. A pound will raise a baby chick well past the danger period.

"Business is Business"—and something more

The old adage implies that business is always cold, uncompromising and selfish.

The tradition is refuted at this bank by courtesy, friendliness, and a sincere desire to accommodate you.
