Thousand More To Be Needed for Jobs in Holland'

War Work Problem
Pointed Out in Talk;
Says All Must Share

"We have a four-year war ahead of us at the earliest—four years of suffering and sacrifice," Montague A. Clark of Detroit told his audience in addressing a public meeting sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Friday night in the armory. Clark, chairman of the war manpower commission of the Detroit district, spoke on "War Manpower Problems."

"War manpower will succeed in America if all the Hollands and the Muskegons, the Saugatucks and the Grand Rapids will do their share and a little bit more," Mr. Clark said.

He said that a year from now there will be no what are now thought to be "civilian necessities," that hereafter only the "indispensables" will be provided. "We will be bruised, but our men on the fighting front are taking bullets."

He spoke of the amazing conversion from civilian production to war production in a few short months in a time when eight million men were taken away from industries.

"In order to meet the needs of the huge program, we must take into industries people who have never been there before—women from the home, the physically handicapped and others."

Mr. Clark predicted that from March, 1943, to March, 1944, Holland will have an increased employment of 1,000 persons but that during that period this city would lose 2,300 young men to the armed service.

"These men must be replaced. You're not going to get migrants because there won't be any migrants. What are you going to do about it? It's your problem. You probably will utilize persons who are handicapped and women from the homes. You must exercise ingenuity and build human beings to greater efficiency."

"Over one-half of the United States population will be engaged in the armed forces or on home production forces before the year is over. We will need two million workers from the homes—our wives, mothers and sisters. We must all share in securing those two million workers."

He also predicted that a year from today there will be no men, able or disabled, in non-essential industry—no men wrapping packages, selling pianos or even delivering milk. "Every individual must do his utmost. It is a community job. As Holland goes, so goes the nation. Holland is a cog in the wheel."

Mr. Clark spoke of charges of labor hoarding and job shopping. "Consider the job turnover in Holland which has been considerable. This has been considered somewhat by the freeze. Any labor turnover or absenteeism is too much today. There must be no more job shopping. We have to pay if we are to survive."

He said job shopping was prevalent in the last world war and that pilfering of labor was common. "We have lost some of our freedom, but we haven't lost it to an enemy," he said.

"And what are we doing it all for? What will be done for all the people coming back home—many coming back broken? They will be our leaders of tomorrow. Let us put our houses in order. Thousands will never come back."

"We need teamwork. Everybody is on a team and President Roosevelt, our commander-in-chief, is the captain who gives the orders. We must win for our side. Let's play ball."

"The war manpower job is serious. It is your job individually and collectively. Holland will need between 3,000 and 4,000 workers this coming year. What have you done in the past? You built a city—it took supreme confidence to do that job. With the help of God the present job can be done, and you can do it," he concluded.

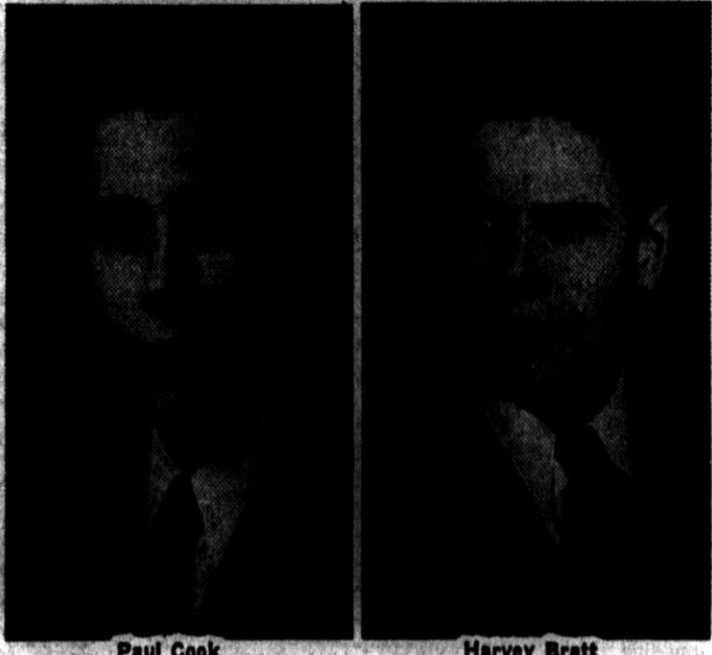

The speaker was introduced by Clarence J. Valing, president of the Chamber of Commerce who sketched Mr. Clark's life history briefly. The invocation was given by the Rev. William Van't Hof, pastor of Third Reformed church. Five selections were sung by the 90-voice a cappella choir of Holland high school under the direction of Miss Tricie Moore. The meeting opened with the singing of the national anthem led by the choir.

Free Tulip Time Concert Will Be Given in Chapel

Free Tulip Time Concert Will Be Given in Chapel

HHS Choir, Orchestra
To Appear With Noted
Artists From Chicago

The Tulip Time committee of the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a musical treat for the residents of Holland and vicinity in the form of a gala concert, Tuesday night, May 18, in Hope Memorial chapel, under the direction of Eugene Heeter and Miss Tricie Moore.

The high school orchestra and a cappella choir will give a joint program, augmented by the Chicago Philharmonic quartet of male voices, and by Ennio Bolognini, concert cellist. Combining the light and popular with stirring concert selections, the two-hour program promises to be the musical highlight of the year.

The large high school choir, which has made a most enviable reputation for itself under Miss Moore's direction, has been in rehearsal for the past several weeks on the new selections that it will present for the first time at this concert. They have been particularly fortunate in obtaining the score for a new composition by Latouche and Robinson, composers of "Ballad for Americans," titled "Battle Hymn" and which will be given by the choir as the premier performance in Michigan. Howard Will, noted tenor of Chicago, will be the narrative soloist.

The orchestra has also been hard at work under Mr. Heeter's direction in preparing for its part in the program. A brilliant cello concerto with orchestra and Ennio Bolognini as soloist will be one of the outstanding features of the evening. Mr. Bolognini is professionally rated as one of the world's great cellists who gained his initial recognition in Argentina, his native country. Interested in boxing to the extent of becoming amateur champion of South America, Bolognini came to the United States in 1923 to witness the fighting achievements of his boxing compatriot, Luis Firpo. While here his musical talent led to his appointment with the New York Philharmonic orchestra, and from there he went to the Chicago Symphony orchestra as principal cellist to fill the place of the great Alfred Wallenstein.

The Philharmonic male quartet is composed of outstanding soloists who have appeared on many important programs. The singers have a particular reputation for getting themselves across to the audience, and of giving new delight in their singing of old favorites. Their work is of a high concert calibre, and in the opinion of Mr. Heeter they are probably the finest blending of male voices in the concert field.

It was first thought by the Tulip Time committee that an admission charge of $1.10 should be made because of the excellent entertainment value, but upon later consideration it was decided to eliminate the charge entirely in the interest of making the concert available to all as a fitting musical celebration of Tulip Time. During the intermission the usual custom of passing collection plates will be followed, with any proceeds above actual costs going into the school music department's Interlochen Music Camp scholarship fund.

Suspension of the regular tulip festival for the duration of the war means that there will be no parades or band review this year. To keep alive the aesthetic spirit of the occasion, the committee is sponsoring the May 18 concert.

Upon completion of training soon, they will receive commissions as second lieutenants or appointments as flight officers.

Van Dyke Listed Now as Wounded

Corporal of Zeeland
Previously Reported
As Missing in War

A United Press report from Washington has given hope to a Zeeland mother that her son may be "wounded in action" instead of "missing in action" as had been reported to her previously by the war department.

Among a group of 22 Michigan men "wounded in action" in the Alaskan, European, North African and southwest Pacific theaters" is the name of Corp. Laverne D. Van Dyke, son of Mrs. Mary Van Dyke, 141 Maple St., Zeeland, (southwest Pacific).

Mrs. Van Dyke told The Sentinel Monday afternoon that she had been informed by the war department the first part of February that her son was "missing in action." Last week Red Cross authorities informed her that they could find no trace of him.

Corp. Van Dyke entered service last June and was sent to Australia the latter part of July. His last letter to his mother was dated Jan. 14. The report from the war department early in February stated he was missing Jan. 18.

A total of $17,100 in bonds was sold through the school.

As a special feature of the program, those who sold the bonds, and also those assisting with the campaign in a material way were given special recognition.

Peggy Prins, who sold bonds totaling $2,000 and Ruth Jipping, who sold more than $1,000 worth, were seated on the platform. Mary McLean, unable to be present because of illness, also sold more than $1,000. An honor roll containing the 117 names of those who sold bonds in the drive, was read.

Graduation Exercises Are Held for Seminary Class

"It never was easy to be a Christian, and certainly never easy to be a minister," Dr. John R. Mulder, president of Western Theological seminary, told the graduating class of eight seniors at the 58th annual commencement in Hope Memorial chapel Wednesday night. He described the difficult world as being prey to the leprosy of conformity, prejudice and the surrender of faith and expressed the hope that the young ministers will be able through God to "touch the leper and heal him."

Professional certificates were presented by Dr. Mulder, assisted by Dr. George Mennenga, to the seniors and the degree of bachelor of divinity was presented to Valdeictorius Henry Mouw and the Rev. James W. Benes, '39, in absentia.

Mr. Mouw, speaking for the graduating class, depicted "Christ and the World Today" in his valedictory, saying that "we need an abiding sense of Christ's presence to go forth with confidence in a world that has refused to accept God as a reality." He said, "The way the world treats Christ settles its conditions. The world today is in a crisis because Christ has been rejected anew. The past world is crumbling into ashes. In order for the new world to be built successfully, the builder must be God himself."

Using as his subject "The Reincarnation of Christ," the Rev. Abraham Rynbrandt, pastor of North Park Reformed church in Kalamazoo and retiring president of the board of trustees, delivered the commencement address. He stressed the importance of God's way of bringing Christianity into the world with God at the center and man at the outside of the circle, as the only solution to present problems. Pointing out the necessity of faith, he said, "We cannot expect men to be in right relationships with each other, if they are not in a right relationship with God."

"The name of Christian may come easily these days, but the nature does not come easily. To have the nature as well as the name of Christian comes only when Christianity is in our hearts." He stated that "For a greater appreciation of the purpose of reincarnation we must have a greater understanding of sin, not a popular subject today."

Painting a picture of man's fall from Paradise into sin, he said "Faith is the door that admits the spirit of Christ into a man's heart. The reincarnation of Christ's spirit in Christians will produce love, peace, truth and justice in our hearts. Christ's spirit must live in us in order to express cardinal truths."

Prizes and awards were announced by Dr. Mulder. Seniors receiving prizes for sermon content were Herman Rosenberg, first, $30; and Henry Mouw, second, $20. The same men also received first and second prizes of $30 and $20 in the contest for sermon delivery.

In systematic theology the prize winning essays were written by Herman Rosenberg, first, $30, and Garold Van Engen, second, $20. The $50 prize for the best examination in Old Testament language and literature was divided equally between Junius Egbert Lubbers and John Muller. Middle receiving prizes of $25 each for the best examinations in Greek were Jerome De Young and William Miller. Henry Voogd, middle, received a $25 prize for the best examination paper in the course of church history.

"God of the Prophets, Bless the Prophets' Sons" was used as a pre-consecration hymn by the Hope memorial chapel choir which preceded the seniors, undergraduates, members of the board of trustees and the faculty. The choir, under the direction of Robert Cavanaugh, also sang "Souls of the Righteous" by Noble. Mrs. W. Curtis Snow presided at the organ.

Junior John Hains, accompanied by Gordon Van Wyk, sang Ethelbert Nevin's "This Holy Hour." The devotions were led by the Rev. Edward Tanis of Waupun, Wis., newly-elected president of the board of trustees.

Members of the graduating class are Raymond Denekas, Henry Kik, Henry Mouw, Chester Postma, Herman Rosenberg, Henry Rozendal, Albert Van Dyke and Garold Van Engen.

William Valkema, proprietor of the shop, said he was first aware of the loss when an employee brought him a sack containing $103 in bills found weighted down with stones in the toilet room. No windows were broken.

Valkema said all doors in his place of business were locked.

Two-Way Radio Setup Voted for Sheriff's Office

Fox Bounty Is Also Approved at Meet of Ottawa Supervisors

Grand Haven, May 13 (Special)—At a special meeting of the board of supervisors Monday, decision was made to equip the sheriff's department with a two-way radio system. This system will enable the department to be in direct communication with the Holland police department and the state police cars. Eugene S. Goebel, radio communication engineer from an Illinois manufacturing company, and Sheriff William Boeve appeared before the board.

The cost of the equipment is approximately $2,800 and the upkeep cost including tubes and figuring time of the service man at $1 an hour runs to about $3.50 per month per car. Goebel explained that the county would need no priority.

City Attorney Vernon D. Ten Cate of Holland took his seat for the first time succeeding former City Attorney Clarence A. Lokker. Ten Cate will serve on the committees to which Lokker has been assigned.

Supervisor Charles A. Lewing of Georgetown township submitted a resolution, which was adopted, relative to the destruction caused by foxes throughout the eastern part of the county. The board established a bounty of $3 per head on each fox destroyed in Ottawa county to be paid from the county dog license fund.

County School Commissioner D. H. Vande Bunte appeared before the board with several requests including a salary raise for one teacher, an allocation of a salary and transportation for another helping teacher and $200 for additional clerical help. The first two matters were turned over to the committee on schools and education.

The amount for additional clerical help was approved. Vande Bunte expects to move into his new quarters in the basement floor of the court house building in Grand Haven this week or next week. He has been maintaining his office in his home.

Is Picked Up on Larceny Charge And Put Into Jail

Stuart Stetler, 54, was in jail again today after completing a 30-day stint in the county jail. Stetler, who gave his address as 75 East Ninth St. when apprehended April 10 on a drunk and disorderly charge for which he was sentenced to serve 30 days, was picked up again by local police Wednesday night on a larceny charge.

Police said the defendant "borrowed" a large wrench from the Dutch Novelty shop saying that his truck had broken down. Later he attempted to sell it to Lievense's garage, it was alleged. Although Stetler was specifically charged with being drunk and disorderly last month, alleged theft of two wrenches had bearing on that case.

Stetler will probably be arraigned before Municipal Judge Raymond L. Smith late this afternoon.

Police Officer Isaac De Kraker whose heroic action last week in driving away a gasoline truck from the scene of the disastrous Vogelzang fire was cited today in a letter from Robert Schatner, president of the Grand Rapids Lodge No. 97, Fraternal Order of Police.

Schatner wrote: "It is with a great deal of pride that I read an account in the newspapers of your more recent heroic accomplishment."

"May I take this opportunity of congratulating you on your heroic deed. It certainly must have done much to awaken the Holland public to the fact that they have men and officers of police officers in the Holland police department."

Schools Will Be Used in Allotting Canning Sugar

Seven Centers Will Be Open Three Days Next Week; Seek Workers

The local war price and rationing board today announced a new setup for allotting canning sugar in Holland and vicinity. Due to a heavy schedule for gasoline renewals through the office, the local schools will take care of the canning sugar distribution next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The following local schools will cooperate in the campaign: Longfellow, Lincoln, Froebel, Van Raalte, Washington, Montello park and Beechwood.

The schedule will be Monday from 3:30 to 8 p.m., Tuesday from 3:30 to 7 p.m. and Wednesday from 3:30 to 8 p.m. Volunteer workers are being sought by Miss Lavina Cappon and any person willing to donate a few hours is urged to call Miss Cappon at her home any day between 5 and 7 p.m. The ration office pointed out today that persons who volunteer are doing a valuable service toward the war effort.

The office also reemphasized the requirements for obtaining canning sugar which is limited to 25 pounds per person this year. This amount also includes the jam-jelly allotment which may reach five pounds per person. The applicant must know how many quarts of finished fruit the family unit plans to can for the entire year and the number of pounds desired for jams and jellies. ## Firemen Are Called to Put Out Fire in Zoerman Car

Firemen were called on Wednesday morning to a fire in the car of Harry Zoerman, 355 Harrison Ave., a painter who had parked his car at 11th St. and Lincoln Ave. where he was working.

The blaze apparently was caused by a short in the engine as the flames were confined under the hood. Zoerman and neighbors in the locality had practically extinguished the fire with water when the department arrived. Damage seemed to be negligible.

This was the second car fire this week. On Monday night firemen were called to extinguish a fire in a taxicab.

Story Reveals How Vos Was Taken From Jungle

How Lieut. Osborne Vos was taken badly wounded from a jungle retreat in the Papuan campaign last November is revealed in a special dispatch from Australia appearing in the Detroit News.

Lieut. Vos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vos, 97 West 19th St., was seriously injured Nov. 25 by fragments in an enemy mortar barrage. Medical aid men said he would die unless taken immediately to a portable hospital in the rear near Soputa. The Americans were nearly surrounded by Japanese and no one could be found who knew the trail.

Pvt. Joseph Freiburger of Grand Rapids of the Red Arrow division had made the trip only once, but he led the stretcher bearers out and Lieut. Vos' life was saved by an operation. Pvt. Freiburger was awarded the Silver Star in recognition of this action.

Lieut. Vos arrived in this country about two months ago and is now confined in Percy Jones' hospital, Battle Creek, for treatment of his numerous wounds. He arrived in Holland Friday for a short visit with his family here.

After reading the article, his father who is assistant superintendent of the board of public works, said he plans to look up Freiburger's family in Grand Rapids.

Two other Grand Rapids soldiers, Sgt. Donald Atchinson and Pvt. Ezra Davis, also won the Silver Star for gallantry in the Papuan campaign.

De Kraker Cited by G.R. Police Lodge President

Police Officer Isaac De Kraker whose heroic action last week in driving away a gasoline truck from the scene of the disastrous Vogelzang fire was cited today in a letter from Robert Schatner, president of the Grand Rapids Lodge No. 97, Fraternal Order of Police.

Schatner wrote: "It is with a great deal of pride that I read an account in the newspapers of your more recent heroic accomplishment."

"May I take this opportunity of congratulating you on your heroic deed. It certainly must have done much to awaken the Holland public to the fact that they have men and officers of police officers in the Holland police department."

City More Than Triples Quota in War Bond Drive

Over Five Thousand Series E Sales for Month Set Record

Holland has more than tripled its quota in the second Victory war loan drive in April as assigned by County Chairman B. P. Sherwood. It has been pointed out here.

Early this month, Mr. Sherwood split up the county quota of $1,630,000 and assigned $635,500 to Holland as its share. Reports released Thursday listed Holland's monthly total at $2,135,041, with indications that the amount will be increased.

Clarence Jalving served as chairman of the Victory loan drive in Holland and Frank M. Lievense continued the drive in the sale of "E" bonds. Mr. Lievense said he has been watching publications closely and nowhere has he found indications of any city going so far over the top as Holland.

Holland's sale of "E" bonds for April totals $247,650, representing more than 5,000 sales. This is the largest amount collected for "E" bonds in Holland for any single month in the history of the bond sales, Mr. Lievense said.

He pointed out that this shows that the money was here—that people had it to put into "E" bonds. He added that if people put their money into bonds that it will save additional taxation, saying that it is safe to assume that if people last year had purchased bonds to the limit of their capacity there would be no Victory tax this year.

Mr. Lievense last week received a letter from Frank N. Isbey of Detroit, state bond sale chairman, commending Holland for its fine showing, adding "thanks to people like you, loyal servants of the government—many thanks."

Zeeland area also topped its quota of $284,100 by collecting $335,950 in the sale of bonds during the second Victory war loan drive. This is $51,850 over the quota.

A big lift "over the hump" was given by a subscription of $100,000 by the Evansville home office of Mead Johnson & Co., which allocated this sum to the Zeeland campaign for its local plant.

Arrangements are being made in Holland to reemphasize the salary allotment plan in which 10 per cent of the income is invested in war bonds. The amount collected this way amounts for approximately 75 per cent of the "E" bond sales in Holland, Mr. Lievense said. So far, Holland factories are turning an average of 7 per cent of its pay rolls into bonds. "Unless there is illness or grave misfortune, everybody should pledge 10 per cent," Mr. Lievense said.

According to official reports, for the first time in history deposits in national banks exceed those in state banks which are nearly twice as numerous. Total bank deposits have passed the 100 billion mark with the effect that "this free purchasing power is gravely eyed by inflation control authorities."

Turning money from savings accounts into bonds gives the buying power after the war to rehabilitate the nation from war production to civilian production, it was pointed out.

The sale of "E" bonds in Holland amounted to $246,247, "C" bonds, $263,000; 4 per cent certificates, $1,126,000; 2 per cent treasury notes, $1,000; 24 per cent treasury bonds, $132,000; "F" bonds, $132,064; "G" bonds, $234,700.

Corporal Weds Miss Daining

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Ver Hoef, 140 West 18th St., was the scene of a wedding Thursday evening when Miss Sylvia Daining, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Daining, route 3, Holland, became the bride of their son, Corp. Julius Ver Hoef. The double ring service was performed by the Rev. R. Heynen at 8 o'clock, before an improvised altar of flags, palms and spring flowers. Miss Elaine Beltman, accompanied by Miss Marie Lemmen, sang "I Love Thee" and "Because."

The bride wore a floor length white chiffon gown with a matching headpiece and a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas. Her sister, Miss Maxine Daining, as bridesmaid, wore a floor length gown of yellow taffeta and a corsage of Tallman roses and daisies. Harvey Mulder served as best man.

A reception was held for 30 guests at the groom's home with Mrs. John Daining, Mrs. Arvin Pommerening, Mrs. John Wyman and Miss Selma Tyink serving as waitresses.

Both Corp. and Mrs. Ver Hoef were born in Holland, the former graduating from Holland Christian High school in 1939 and the latter from Holland High school in 1940. Corp. Ver Hoef has been in service for the past nine months and is stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo., where he has just completed a four month course in radio. He plans to leave for his camp next week Thursday. Mrs. Ver Hoef is employed at Palfin Bearing Co.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. E. L. VanderBeek and two children, Mary Lou and Roger Dale of Crookston, Minn.

Mother is the name of God on the lips and in the hearts of little children.—Thackeray.

To Present Tulip Time Film Here

Showing of Movies in Color Is Planned As Feature of Week

While the color and gaiety of former Tulip festivals will be lacking this year due to wartime restrictions, the Chamber of Commerce Tulip Time committee has made it possible for everyone to relive the event by means of colored motion pictures which will be shown twice daily at 178 River Ave., between Seventh and Eighth Sts.

Jim Frans and John Enmick, in charge of arrangements, announced that everything is in readiness for the public showing of the Tulip Time movies.

The film is most comprehensive in its coverage of the festival and represents the work of several years. Part of it was taken by Lloyd Bemis of Boston, a professional lecturer who spent several months here obtaining the photographic material for a nation-wide lecture tour on Holland's festival. To this has been added the exceptionally fine movies of Tulip Time taken by Mr. Frans, who has made colored motion pictures his hobby. It will be the first time this combined film has had a showing to local audiences.

The film, approximately 1,600 feet in length and requiring about an hour to run, is the property of the Chamber of Commerce, and duplicates of it are being made for country-wide bookings to various clubs and civic organizations. Two such films, made from the Bemis original, have been in widespread circulation for the past two years, the demand for bookings being so great that additional copies are now required.

No charge is made for admission to the showing of the film, but everyone must first obtain tickets from the Chamber office. Children must be accompanied by adults. The film will be shown at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m., Monday through Saturday of next week.

AS Michigan's war industry has full stride, more and more long distance calls have to be made—war calls vital to victory.

The burden of calls on many long distance lines has reached a critical stage. Central office equipment, fully manned with operators, is being used to capacity. At times, each unimportant call, regardless of its destination, affects the speed with which all other calls can be handled. Many calls are delayed—some for hours. And materials to expand the system cannot be had.

Yet, war calls must go through promptly! So it is necessary that we all curtail both our personal and our business use of long distance. Therefore, please—

1. Make fewer long distance calls—and keep them short.
2. Give the operator the number of the telephone you are calling, if possible.
3. If your call can't go through at once, stay near the telephone ready to talk when the operator notifies you.

THE VIRTUE OF SKEPTICISM

The bad odor that attaches to the word "skepticism" is largely undeserved. It is wholesome, especially in a time of crisis like the present, to be slow to believe many things and quick to doubt.
As a mere practical consideration such an attitude will save many a man or organization from becoming the victim of sharpers.
The city of Allegan furnishes a current example. A young man with a glib tongue, calling himself "Pvt. Robert S. Dinwiddie," came to Allegan to entertain the people with tales of his war experiences—at a consideration of course. It is the most natural thing in the world for people who have sons or brothers or husbands in the service in the far-away corners of the earth to lend a willing ear to anyone who has been there himself and who has himself faced the fire of the enemy.

So "Pvt. Robert S. Dinwiddie" did not have too much trouble in bookending lectures in churches and before other bodies. The tales he told were entertaining, so that perhaps from that angle the people got their money's worth. He had been in engagements in the Solomonas, his transport had been torpedoed, he had undergone an operation in a plane 2,000 feet aloft. Moreover, with an instinct for realism combined with piety, he displayed a New Testament bullet meant for his heart; the bullet was still in the Bible, taped with cellophane in such a way that it could be displayed.

It was all very dramatic and very convincing. Too convincing, in fact. The thing had been so dramatically worked up that one of Allegan's newspaper editors became skeptical. Newspaper editors almost daily are compelled to disbelieve many rumors that are brought in, if they are to have any chance to sort the truth from mere hearsay. Editors are likely to be professionally skeptical, at least those editors who are worth their salt.

That touch of skepticism on the part of the Allegan editor cooked the goose of "Pvt. Robert S. Dinwiddie." He had a number of other meetings booked, but he did not stay to cash in on them.
The editor saved the people of his town not only from losing their money to a fraud; what is far more important, he saved them from making fools of themselves. That is one of the functions of any editor anywhere. By daily throwing the light of a somewhat skeptical publicity on events he often helps his community to keep ahead of the system. But he can't do it alone.
Especially in wartime, many schemers are lying awake nights to get at people's money through their war emotions. This is a good time to be doubly skeptical.

Sgt. John Flieman, Jr. to Return to United States

Mr. and Mrs. John Flieman, route 1, Holland, received a letter from the war department informing them that their son, Sgt.
John Flieman, Jr., who was seriously wounded Dec. 13, 1942 in the southwest Pacific area is to return to the states.

The letter reads: "A report dated April 27, 1943 has been received from the Southwest Pacific area stating that your son, Sgt.
John Flieman, Jr., is being returned to the United States. The report further states that he is making normal improvement." It was signed by Major General J.
A. Ulio, the adjutant general.

Sunday School
Lesson

May 16, 1943
Peter and John Preach to Samaritans
Acts 8: 14-25

By Henry Geerlings
The preaching of the gospel wrought definite changes in the lives of men. The miracle of Pentecost was still a fresh experience. The early Christians felt the nearness of the Lord. They went about their work in such a way that the attention of the outsiders was captured. There did not seem to be any man or any organization of men that could check this movement.

So far the work of the apostles was confined to Jerusalem and its environs. Of course there were enough people in the city to be evangelized, and that work alone could engage the close attention of the Christian group for many weeks or months. In the meanwhile the church was concerned with the organization of the work and the distribution of its many responsibilities.

Out of the conflict that arose between the Jews and the Christians, particularly as to the message of salvation, whether it was to be based on the word delivered through lawgiver and prophet in the Old Testament, or in the word of Christ, the Christians lost one of their most faithful and courageous preachers by martyrdom.
His name was Stephen.

But the time had arrived now when the new work was to be extended. It seems there had been no particular planning for it.
It simply broke forth by virtue of the expansive power of the new faith, and of the persecution on the part of the enemies of Jesus.
And what seems so strange about it is that the man who was to be responsible was to be one of whom we hear nothing until he was elected to be a member of the group of seven deacons to look after the poor generally in the church in Jerusalem. This Philip went down to Samaria and began preaching the gospel among the people the Jews hated.

There was a man in Samaria who had exercised considerable influence over the people. He was an imposter, pretending to possess magical powers derived from the spirit world. He probably practiced the same arts as the modern fortune teller and by much the same methods.

This Simon claimed to be a great man. It seems to be the case that the Samaritans were expecting the Messiah and that he claimed to be this Messiah. At any rate he succeeded in tricking the people through the exercise of some natural powers. He made extravagant claims concerning himself and the people took him at his own self-esteem. His very audacity carried weight.

When he heard Philip preach and saw the multitudes turn to Jesus he also accepted the word and was baptized with the others.
We have no way of knowing precisely the nature of his faith, but as we read the remainder of the account we are inclined to feel that there was some ulterior motive back of it. He continued to associate himself with Philip and was amazed at the miracles wrought by the evangelist.

Peter and John were sent to Samaria and their purpose in coming was to repeat what had happened at Pentecost in Jerusalem, when the Spirit came down in a miraculous manner, like a mighty rushing wind and flame of fire. It usually designated that manner of his coming that was attended with supernatural gifts and visible tokens, and this had not yet been vouchsafed to the Samaritans. The same thing came to pass in Caesarea when Peter preached the gospel to Cornelius and his household, who represented the Gentiles.

When Simon the sorcerer witnessed the demonstration of power which Philip possessed he coveted it for himself. It was evident that he saw he was losing out with his bag of tricks, the superficiality and sinfulness of which must have come to light under Philip's preaching and miracles. More than that he saw that his audience was leaving him, while that of the disciple of the Lord was increasing. It was his aim to restore himself as a favorite of the people. It is quite clear that he craved this power, not because of its own inner worth, but because of the outward show he could make of it. It had surpassed anything he had known before Philip came down to Samaria.

Peter was shocked at the sorcerer's proposal to purchase spiritual honors and gifts with money. He was driven to invoke the direct evil on Simon and his money, for only the most drastic act could bring him to his senses. To value God's gifts in terms of silver and gold makes known a deplorable state.

E Bond Quota Is High This Month

Frank M. Lievense, local chairman for the sale of "E" war bonds, today announced that the May quota for "E" bonds in Holland will be $163,700. This, he said, is an exceptionally high quota in view of the fact that the second Victory war loan drive continued through May 8. No quota for "E" bonds was given for April. The county quota for May is $316,000.

The Holland quota in March was $136,200; for February, $129,000, and for January, $136,200. "E" bond collections for March amounted to $131,175.

Mr. Lievense said new emphasis is being placed on the salary allotment plan in Holland factories which yields about 75 per cent of the collections.

The bride was lovely in a white chiffon gown with lace insertions and a matching fingertip veil caught with a white rose on her heart shaped hat. She carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and lilies of the valley. As bridesmaid, Miss Maria Velasquez, sister of the groom, wore a pink street length dress with navy blue accessories. Mr. Duzon, friend of

Although the post-office was open only a few hours yesterday the Holland public did not fail to avail itself of the opportunity to send packages by the new parcels post system that went into effect yesterday morning. When the post office closed at 10 o'clock in the morning, 16 packages had been received at the office. The Holland to send a package by this system belongs to Bert Hek-at birds or in fact to shoot at anything else within the city limits. A notice has been issued to all police officers and all who have police powers to take away from all young boys on the streets of Holland any rifle, air gun, slingshot or any other weapon of this nature that is usually used for killing birds.

Sheriff Hans Dykhuys announced the following appointments for deputy sheriff this afternoon: Undersheriff, H. J. Dykhuys;
court officer, C. Vander Noot; deputy sheriffs, William Hietje of Zeeland; Bert Taylor and Leon J. Iven, Coopersville; Guy Nor-house of Georgetown; F. J.
Sprick, Jamestown; Otto Bajema,

reading by Miss Ethelyn Metz; a solo by John Wamsbush; a reading by Miss Della Osewae of Zeeland and a number of original stunts by John Vruwink of Grand Rapids.

Miss Helen Weed entertained with a party at her home New Years' afternoon announcing the engagement of Miss Jeanette De Neff to Edward Scanlon, both of will meet in Coopersville and in connection with it but decidedly under the auspices of the Granges of the county, the second annual Ottawa county corn show will be held, began a story in the Friday,

SUNDAY DINNER
Suggestions

THERE is quite a lot of good news along the vegetable front this week. The price of green beans has dropped, due to heavier supplies, and they are attractively priced as are green peas, the Food Service for Homemakers reports.
Wax beans, broccoli, cauliflower and tomatoes are also lower in price and dandelion greens are in market.

Again this week there is a slightly larger supply of beef and a few pork loins are available. There are also a few ducks in the Eastern market. Poultry, lamb and veal are scarce and in putting these meats on the menu, one should be prepared to make a substitution.

The following menus are suggested for Sunday dinner:

No. 1
Baked Hash
Scalloped Macaroni
Dandelion Greens
Whole Wheat Bread
Molded Fruit Salad
Hot Tea

No. 2
Cream of Corn Soup
Casserole of Veal or Lamb with Carrots and Onions
Steamed Brown Rice
Green Beans
Hot Rolls
Baked Sliced Apples and

No. 3
Celery Stuffed with Cream Cheese
Meat Balls with Tomato Sauce

Rotarians Hear Michigan Victory Garden Director

Paul R. Krone Tells Why Additional Food Is Needed This Year

Paul R. Krone, recently appointed by Gov. Harv Kelly as chief of the Victory garden section of the civilian war service division of the Michigan council of defense, addressed the Rotary club Thursday on the subject, "The 1943 Victory Garden Program."

Having had considerable experience and education in the line of gardening, Mr. Krone is well fitted for his task. "He is generally recognized as an outstanding expert in his field, and enjoys the confidence of every gardening organization in the state," Gov. Kelly said.

"There are many reasons," Mr. Krone said, "why people should plant Victory gardens this year. There is a definite labor shortage on farms and farmers cannot plant so much as they would like. There has been a shift of population from the rural areas to the urban or industrialized areas causing a definite problem in food shipping."

"Another factor in the shipping of vegetables is the price ceiling that has been placed on foods," Mr. Krone said.

In addition to talking, Mr. Krone distributed pamphlets telling how to plan a Victory garden, which varieties and which quantities of seeds to grow, planting dates for various vegetables, how to control insects and others of similar nature.

The speaker was introduced by Neil Steketee.

Guests of the Rotary club introduced by Mayor Geerlings were Mrs. L. D. Stalkamp, Miss Gertrude Steketee and Mrs. J. C. Rhee.

Rotarian Warren Merriam appealed to the members of the club to volunteer for service in the coast guard reserve. The Holland coast guard station is short of help because all enlisted coast guardsmen are needed in active service, Mr. Merriam said.

Dr. Charles Kendrick pronounced the invocation.

Group Completes WTS Training Here; Awaits Call for Next Course

This group of young men who completed their training Saturday in the war training service sponsored by Hope college and the Holland air service, brings to a total of 62 the persons who have completed that phase of primary training in Holland.

Burnham, Bob Darrah, Harold Coakley, Harold Smith, Don McCloskey, Morris Thompson and "Chick" Harbert, noted golfer.

Dr. Bruce M. Raymond of Hope college, coordinator for the program, said this is the fourth class to be graduated here. The members have gone home to await call for the secondary training which usually takes place at another college. The third course is called the cross-country course, the fourth the Link-instrument course and the fifth the instructor course. All these courses are eight weeks each. After the instructor course, the men usually become instructor pilots or join the ferry command.

Dr. Raymond pointed out that up until last week, the government made no provision for pay aside from board, room and instruction. Last Thursday President Roosevelt signed a bill authorizing pay of $50 per month retroactive to Dec. 15.

The men in training are stationed at the North Shore community club where there are seven part-time ground crew instructors. They include Prof. Clarence Kleis in physics; Prof.

Albert Timmer, mathematics, Robert Cavanaugh, civil air regulations; Prof. A. E. Lampen, navigation; Prof. Milton L. Hinga, physical education and aircraft identification; G. V. Walker, radio code; and Major Henry Rowan, military science and training. The Holland Air service has five instructors and three mechanics who pilot and service seven planes. Prof. E. Paul McLean is in charge of feeding and housing at the club house.

When trainees finish here, they have received 35 hours of flying and 240 hours in ground school subjects.

In connection with the proposed Salary Ordinance, City Attorney Ten Cate reported that it was his opinion that no raises in salaries could be made without the approval of the proper Federal agencies, and suggested to the Aldermen that where raises are being made over last years salaries, that they be made subject to securing this approval.

Mr. Ten Cate entered into quite a discussion and informed the Aldermen of just how he felt about the present situation. He stated there was a considerable amount of confusion as to just what could and could not be done relative to increases in salaries at this time and felt that it would be advisable to secure an opinion or approval of raises before they are put into effect.

The passage of the Ordinance was made contingent upon the City Attorney securing the approval of the proper authorities or upon securing definite information that the City does have the authority without such approval.

Adopted.

The Committee on Ways and Means then reported for introduction an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Provide for the Payment of Salaries of Certain City Officers for the Year A.D. 1943", and recommended its passage. The Ordinance was read a first and second time by its title and on motion of Alderman Steffens, seconded by Damson,

More Entries Are Expected in Tulip Show in Holland

Will Attract National Importance; Brilliant Success Is Indicated

Despite the cool weather which has held back the tulips unduly long, interest in the approaching Tulip show, starting next Thursday in the Woman's Literary club building, has shown a steady increase and the number of entries coming in indicates a brilliant success, the Tulip Time committee of the Chamber of Commerce said today.

A wide variety of arrangements is assured, and with the many entries yet to be registered, there is no doubt but what the event will attract national importance. Entrants need not worry that there will be any scarcity of blooms as those "in the know" say there will be plenty and in all colors.

Wednesday is the final date for entries. Blooms will be supplied gratis to persons needing them in the Nells nurseries. To that end the committee wants entries in as soon as possible to make proper arrangements for the cutting of tulips. Tulip show entrants may call for the blooms at the club building Wednesday and Thursday morning.

The show will open to the public May 20 at 2:30 p.m. and will be open May 21 and 22 at 10 a.m. Closing time each day is 10 p.m. In order to protect valuable vases, crystal and other containers, the committee has made arrangements for constant attendance 24 hours a day during the three days the show is held May 20 through 22.

The Tulip show committee, consisting of Mr. Arthur A. Vlascher, chairman, Mrs. Leonard Stallkamp, Mrs. Arie Weller, Mrs. L. W. Lamb and Mrs. W. C. Kools, will be on hand at the club building Wednesday and Thursday morning and will gladly give guidance and assistance to any who might show hesitancy in entering the show for lack of experience.

Forty-five prizes in war bonds and stamps amounting to $625 will be awarded winners of the show. Prizes are provided by Mrs. Katherine Cheff. There will be no admission charge.

Choose his future today, Dad...

It's going to be one or the other!

HE'S an American, that baby of yours.

Hitler says he's a member of an inferior race.

If Hitler wins he'll grow up with only a slave's future. He'll be put into menial jobs. He won't have a chance to earn a living such as his father earned. He won't be allowed to be an executive, or a great medical man, or a writer, or a preacher, or a highly skilled mechanic. All good jobs will be run by Germans. They'll be his bosses.

And he's defenseless—this baby of yours. He can't do a thing about it. Only American fighting men, American planes, American ships, American guns, and American ability to produce armament stand on his side. Surely you won't let him down while another man is fighting for him.

Put at least 10 percent of your weekly pay check into War Bonds now! Invest at least 10 percent in your baby's future. Isn't he worth that much? Isn't his security and his right to an American way of life worth that "sacrifice" from you?

And remember—you don't give the money to your government. You invest it. Ten years hence your government will pay you back $25 for each $18.75 War Bond you buy today.

Get going—quick. It's been too little and too late too long. Sign up for your 10 percent today.

DO YOU KNOW?

When you buy WAR BONDS, you're saving, not giving! Series E WAR BONDS are worth 33 1/3 percent more in 10 years! You get back $4 for every $3 you invest!

These BONDS, when held to maturity (10 years), yield 2.9 percent per year on your investment, compounded semiannually!

Joining a Pay-Roll Savings Plan makes saving easy!

Joining your bank's Victory Club (it works like any Thrift or Christmas Club) is a convenient way to save for War Bonds for those who aren't members of a Pay-Roll Savings Plan.

You can have enough money to do a lot of things you'd like to do, and to buy the many things you'll need after the war is over, if you save enough in War Bonds every pay-day NOW!

You can start buying WAR BONDS by buying War Stamps for as little as 10 cents.
