The Forest Fires.

The damages from forest fires in Northern Michigan, this spring, are more destructive than they have been for years. The copious rain, on Sunday, did not extend north much beyond Grand Haven, and at that place it was only a very light shower.

NEWAYGO. — Forest fires are raging in this county. The villages of Otia, Fields and Park City have been entirely destroyed and the hotel and depot at Lilley are all that remain of the village. A great number of cars belonging to the C. & W. M. have also been burned. The above named places are villages of about 300 population each. So far no reports of loss of life have reached here.

LUDINGTON. — A great amount of damage has been done in Mason county by fires. A large quantity of pine, hemlock, cord wood, fences, and now and then a dwelling house and barn, have been consumed. The house, barn and all buildings connected with the farm of Albert Nordhouse, together with all contents, and even some of the orchard, were destroyed.

HART. — The village of Walkerville, fourteen miles east of Hart was entirely destroyed by fire Saturday, and almost every family in the little town left homeless. A lively barn caught fire from the woods south of the town, and in twenty minutes twenty buildings were in flames. The buildings were all close together and very dry. Saturday fire swept through Bass Lake park, three miles north of Pentwater, destroying the pavilion, boat houses, ice houses, and all the cottages except one.

FARWELL. — Clinton, a flag station on the Ann Arbor road, three miles north from here, was totally destroyed by fire Saturday. Sixteen families lost all they had, except the clothes on their backs. The sufferers were brought here and are being cared for.

LUTHER. — Forest fires are doing great damage in this county. At Deer Lake Saturday, many had their household goods packed ready to move. — The large mill and millions of feet of lumber was at one time in great danger, but a fortunate shift of the wind saved them.

At Russell's siding on the G. R. & I. road near here 1,000 cords of wood were burned Sunday. John Canfield's pine north of here, aggregating about 100,000,000 feet burned over Saturday, which will necessitate immediate lumbering operations there. At night the heavens were lighted up in every direction by forest fires, presenting through the thick smoke a weird scene.

The station at Foxville, Lake County has been destroyed, also the Deer Lake pump house and water tank in the same county.

The C. & W. M. fence nearly all the distance between Baldwin and Traverse City, on the new road, has also been destroyed.

BIG RAPIDS. — The fires in the woods this year have been fully as disastrous as those in 1871. At Beyer's station, three miles from here, a tract six miles long and three miles wide has been burned over, destroying everything. Four farm houses and barns were burned.

At Paris the entire town has frequently been called out to fight the fire, in order to save the town. The poor settlers hereabouts have been driven from home, saving absolutely nothing. Along the line of the C. & W. M., west of here, passenger trains are stopped daily to pick up some unfortunate settler and family whose shanty and personal effects have been burned, and carry them to the nearest station. At Morehouse's mill there are now sheltered nineteen homeless women and children, waiting until charitable people can make provision for them.

The towns along the Frankfort & Southeastern railway are in danger, as the fires are reported along the entire road.

TWIN LAKE. — The forest fires are raging on all sides of this town and it looks as though it would be wiped out.

WEST SUPERIOR, WIS. — Fires have mowed a pathway from the St. Louis river to the south shore of Lake Superior and extending over a territory from two to twenty miles in width. — The damage to property cannot be estimated at this time, as the bulk of the loss will be in standing pine destroyed and logs already cut and ready for the saw. Over one hundred square miles of virgin forest has been utterly destroyed, and the head of one logging firm puts the loss at $1,500,000 in standing timber.

The loss by fire, of the C. & W. M., as far as reported, is as follows: A water tank at West Troy Branch, depots at Otia and Fields, and eight cars laden with flour at the latter place.

Farmers, Read This!

LOST HALF PACKAGE — And the other half cured two hogs.

MR. G. G. STEKETEE, Proprietor Steketee's Hog Cholera Cure: — I received one package of your Hog Cholera Cure for worms. One half of it was gone when I received it. I had two hogs that could not stand on their hind feet; after feeding what remained in the package they were all right.

MARTIN CONNERY,
P. O. Box 132, Farley, Iowa.

And who will say that this remedy is expensive?

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers.

An exchange very aptly says: "Lift your hat reverently in meeting the teacher of the primary school. She takes the little bantling, fresh from the home nest, full of pouts and passions—an ungovernable little wretch whose own mother honestly admits she sends him to school to get rid of him. This young lady, who knows her business, takes a whole carload of these anarchists, half of whom, single handed are more than a match for both their parents, and at once puts them in the way of being useful citizens. Here is the most responsible position in the whole school, and if her salary were doubled she would yet receive less than she earns."

Hog could not Move.

Cured by the use of Steketee's Hog Cholera Cure. Read:

G. G. STEKETEE:—Please send me two more packages of your Hog Cholera Cure. I gave the last I got from you to a sick hog that could not move itself, and now it can get up and come to the trough for feed. I want to feed this lot mostly to my horses. I believe it is a good remedy.

Taylor, Wis. B. E. COLBY.

A reputable physician must be very certain of the merits of a remedy before he can conscientiously give it his public endorsement. Dr. W. W. Gatewood, of Del Rio, Texas, in a letter dated Dec. 20, 1890, writes: "The Inhaler came in due time, and I am enthusiastic over it. I am satisfied it will effect an ultimate cure of my case of catarrh and asthma. I recommend it to all my friends. I have recently purchased the 3rd edition of Browne's great work—'Diseases of the Throat and Nose'; on page 558 I find he gives Cushman's Menthol Inhaler his unqualified preference over all remedies for the treatment of catarrh, colds, sore throat, etc. Such an endorsement from such a source is worth more than a deluge of old-lady testimonials." ### Free, to the Best Looking Lady.

Wishing to make my name and business more fully known to the public I have decided to give, free of charge, a Ladies' Fine Gold Watch and Chain valued at $40, to the best looking lady, married or single, who is between the ages of 16 and 30 years and residing within the city limits of Holland; the fortunate lady to be decided on by ballot.

Every person purchasing $1 worth of goods at my store will be entitled to one vote and just as many more as the number of dollars they expend, voting for any lady they consider to be the best looking.

The ballot-box will be opened the first day of July, 1891, and the votes counted by Messrs. Albert Myer, Jacob G. Van Putten and Wm. Brusse. The lady receiving the greatest number of votes will be awarded the watch and chain, or, if she prefers, a diamond ring of the same value.

No extra prices will be charged for my goods. Everything warranted first class, or money refunded.

This watch and chain can be seen at my store. Call and examine it.

Moore's Murillo.

This new preparation is the superior of kalsomine, for Walls and Ceilings. It comes prepared, ready for use, by the addition of cold water, thus saving time, labor, trouble, and expense. When mixed it will neither spoil nor decay. It works easy and can be applied with less labor than any other article in the market. Its qualities are adhesive and elastic, and its virtues highly recommended.

Those preferring Kalsomine can also be supplied with Diamond Wall Finish and Anti-Kalsomine.

TREATMENT BY
INHALATION.

1529 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa.

The original and only genuine Compound Oxygen Treatment, that of Drs. Starkey & Palen, is a scientific adjustment of the elements of Oxygen and Nitrogen magnetized; and the compound is so condensed and made portable that it is sent all over the world.

It has been in use for more than twenty years; thousands of patients have been treated and one thousand physicians have used it, and recommended it—a very significant fact.

The great success of our treatment has given rise to a host of imitators, unscrupulous persons; some calling their preparations compound oxygen, often appropriating our testimonials and the names of our patients, to recommend worthless concoctions. But any substance made elsewhere or by others and called Compound Oxygen, is spurious.

"Compound Oxygen—Its Mode, Action and Result," is the title of a new book of 300 pages, published by Drs. Starkey & Palen, which gives to all inquirers full information as to this remarkable curative agent, and a record of surprising cures in a wide range of chronic cases—many of them after being abandoned to die by other physicians. Will be mailed free to any address on application.

Mining Plant Destroyed.

Near Dilworth, Pa., the valuable mining plant of Alex. Underwood was destroyed by a forest fire. A number of houses on the outskirts of the village were also destroyed.

A WEDDING INVITATION

SERMON PREACHED BY DR. TALMAGE.

It Was Preceded by the Baptism by the Doctor of a Number of Infants with Water Brought from the River Jordan.

A interesting ceremony was performed in the Brooklyn tabernacle before the sermon was preached. A number of infants who had been brought there by their parents were baptized. The water used was some of that which was brought by Dr. Talmage from the river Jordan. The subject of Dr. Talmage's sermon was "Invitation to a Wedding," and the text Luke xiv, 17, "Come, for all things are now ready."

Holy festivities to-day. We gather other sheaves into the spiritual garner. Our joy is like the joy of heaven. Spread the banquet, fill all the chalices. We are not to-day at the funeral of a dead Christ, we are celebrating the marriage of the king's son.

It was an exciting time in English history when Queen Elizabeth visited Lord Leicester at Kenilworth castle. The clocks in all the towers and throughout the castle were stopped at the moment of her arrival, so continuing to point to that moment as the one surpassing all others in interest.

The doors of the great banquet hall were opened. The queen marched in to the sound of the trumpets. Four hundred servants waited upon the guests. It was a scene that astonished all nations when they heard of it. Five thousand dollars a day did the banquet cost as it went on day after day. She was greeted to the palace gates with floating islands and torches and the thunders of cannon and fireworks that set the night ablaze, and a burst of music that lifted the whole scene into enchantment. Beginning in that way, it went on from joy to joy and from excitement to excitement and from rapture to rapture. That was the great banquet that Lord Leicester spread in Kenilworth castle.

Cardinal Wolsey entertained the French ambassadors in Hampton Court. The best cooks of all the land provided for the table. The guests were kept hunting in the parks all the day, so that their appetites might be keen, and then in the evening hour they were shown into the banquet hall, with table aglitter with imperial plate and ablush with the very costliest wines, and the second course of the feast was made of food in all shapes, of men and birds and beasts, and dancing groups, and jousting parties riding upon each other with uplifted lances. Lords and princes and ambassadors, their cups gleaming to the brim, drank first to the health of the King of England, and then to the health of the Emperor of France. That was the banquet that Cardinal Wolsey spread in Hampton Court.

To-day, my brothers and sisters, I invite you to a grander entertainment. My Lord, the King, is the banqueter. Angels of God are the cupbearers, all the redeemed are the guests; the halls of eternal love frescoed with light and paved with joy and curtained with unfading beauty are the banquetting place, the harmonies of eternity are the music, the chalices of God are the plate, and I am one of the servants come out with invitations to all the people, and oh that you might break the seal of the invitation and read in ink of blood, and with the tremulous hand of a dying Christ, "Come, come, for all things are now ready."

Sometimes there have been great disappointments at a banquet. The wine has given out, or the servants have been rebellious, or the lights have failed, but I walk all around the banquetting table of my Lord to-day, and I find everything complete, and I swing open the door of this banquetting house and I say, "All things are now ready."

Illustrating my text I go on, and in the first place say that the Lord Jesus Christ is ready. Cardinal Wolsey did not come into the banquet hall until the second course of the feast, and when he entered, booted and spurred, and all the guests arose and cheered him, but I have to tell you that our banquetter, the Lord Jesus Christ, comes in at the beginning of the feast. Ay, He has been waiting for His guests, waiting for some of them 1891 years, waiting with mangled feet, waiting with hand on the punctured side, waiting with hand on the lacerated temples, waiting, waiting!

Wonder if it is that the banquetter did not get weary and say, "Shut the door, and let the laggards stay out." No, He has been waiting. How much He is in earnest! Shall I show you? I gather up all the tears that flooded His cheek in sympathy, all the blood that channeled His brow and back and hand and foot to purchase our redemption. I gather up all the groans coming from midnight chill, and mountain hunger, and desert loneliness, and I put them into one bitter cry. I gather up all the pangs that shot from cross and spike and spear into one groan. I take one drop of sweat on His brow, and I put it under the glass of the Gospel, and it enlarges to lakes of sorrow, to oceans of agony. That Christ to-day, emaciated and worn and weary, comes here, and with a pathos in which every word is a heartbreak and every sentence a martyrdom, He says to you, and He says to me, "Come, come, for all things are now ready."

Ahasuerus made a feast that lasted 180 days. This lasts forever. Lords and princes were invited to that. You and I are invited to this. Yes, He has been waiting—He is waiting now. Other things wrap themselves in robes of beauty and power before they come into a banquet. So does Christ. Oh, He is the fairest of the fair. In His hand is the omnipotent surgery that opened blind eyes and straightened crooked limbs and hoisted the pillars of Heaven, and swung the twelve gates which are twelve pearls. Oh, what a Christ—a Christ of beauty, a Christ of Power.

There are not enough cups on earth to dip up this ocean of beauty. There are no ladders to scale these heights of love. Oh, thou flower of eternity, thy breath is the perfume of Heaven. Oh, thou day-break of the soul, let all nations clap their hands in thy radiance. Chorus! Come men and angels and cherubim and seraphim and archangel, all heights, all depths, all immensities. Chorus! Roll on through the heavens in chariots of universal acclaim, over bridges of hosanna, under arches of coronation, by the towers chiming with eternal jubilee. Chorus! Unto Him that loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and made us kings and priests unto God, to Him be glory.

Ah, there is one word of five letters that I would like to write, but I have no sheet fair enough to write it on, and no pencil good enough to inscribe it. Give me a sheet from the heavenly records, and some pencil used by angels in describing a victory, and then with hand struck with supernatural energy, and with pencil dipped in everlasting morning, I will write it out in capitals of love, J-E-S-U-S Jesus! It is this One that is waiting for you and for me, for we are on the same platform before God. How long He waited for me! How long He has waited for you! Waiting as a banquetter waits for his delayed guests, the meats smoking, and the beakers brimming, and the minstrel with his finger on stiff string ready to strike at the first clash of the hoofs at the gateway. Waiting as a mother waits for a boy that ten years ago went off dragging her bleeding heart after him. Waiting, Oh, can you not give me some comparison intense enough, importunate enough, high as Heaven, deep as hell, and vast as eternity? Not expecting that you can help me with such a comparison, I simply say He is waiting as only an all-sympathetic Christ knows how to wait for a wandering soul.

Now the knee and kiss the Son. Come and welcome, sinner, come.

But I remark again, not only Christ is waiting, but the Holy Spirit is waiting. Why are some sermons a dead failure? Why are there songs that do not get their wing under the people? Why are there players that go no higher up than a hunter's hallo? Because there is a missing link that only the Holy Spirit can make. If that Spirit should come through this assemblage this morning there would be a power felt like that when Saul was unhorsed on the road to Damascus, like as when Lydia's heart was broken in her fine store, like as when three thousand souls were lifted out of midnight into midnoon at the Pentecost. Do you notice that sometimes that Spirit takes an insignificant agency to save a soul? I think it is very often that at just one passage of Scripture a soul is saved because the Holy Spirit gives it supernatural power.

Do you know what it was that saved Martin Luther? It was that one verse, "The just shall live by faith." Do you know what it was that brought Augustine from his horrible dissipation? It was that one verse, "Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof." Do you know what it was that saved Hedley Vicars, the celebrated soldier? It was the one passage, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." Do you know what it was that brought Jonathan Edwards to Christ? It was the one passage, "Now unto Him be glory forever and ever."

One Thanksgiving morning in church I read my text, "Oh, give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good," and a young man stood in the gallery and said to himself: "I have never rendered one acceptable offering of gratitude to God in all my life. Here, Lord I am thine forever." By that one passage of Scripture he was brought into the kingdom, and if I might tell my own experience, I might tell how one Sabbath afternoon I was brought to the peace of the gospel by reading of the Syro-Phoenician's cry to Christ where he said: "Even the dogs eat of the crumbs that fall from the master's table." Philosophic sermons never saved anybody. Metaphysical sermons never saved anybody. An earnest plea going right out of the heart blessed of the Holy Ghost, that is what saves, that is what brings people into the kingdom of Christ.

I suppose that the world thought that Thomas Chalmers preached great sermons in his early ministry, but Thomas Chalmers says he never preached at all until years after he had occupied a pulpit he came out of his sick room, and weak and emaciated, he stood and told the story of Christ to the people. And in the great day of eternity it will be found that not so much the eloquent sermons brought men to Christ as the story told perhaps by those unknown on earth, the simple story of the Saviour's love and mercy, sent by the power of the Holy Ghost straight to the heart. Come, Holy Ghost. Ay, He is here this morning. He fills all the place. I tell you the Holy Ghost is ready.

Then I go on and tell you the church is ready. There are those here who say, "No one cares for my soul." We do care for it. You see a man bowing his head in prayer, and you say, "That man is indifferent." That man bows his head in prayer that the truth may go to every heart. The air is full of prayers. They are going up this morning from this assembly. Hundreds of prayers straight to the throne of a listening God. The air is full of prayers—prayers ascending noon by noon from Fulton street, prayer meeting, Friday night by Friday night all over this land, going up from praying circles. Yea, there is not a minute of an hour of any day that there are not supplications ascending to the throne of mercy. The church is ready. And if you should this morning start for your Father's house there would be hundreds and thousands in this assemblage who would say if they knew it, "Make room for that man, make room for him at the holy sacrament; bring the silver bowl for his baptism, give him full right to all the privileges of the church of Jesus Christ."

Oh, I know there are those who say the church is a mass of hypocrites, but they do not really think so. It is a glorious church. Christ purchased it. Christ built it. Christ swung all its gates. Christ curtains it with upholstery, crimson with crucifixion carnage. Come into it. Come into it. I do not pick out this man or that man and say, "You may come." I say all may come—whosoever will. "Come with us and you will do good. The Lord hath promised good concerning Israel."

We are a garden walled around, Chosen and made peculiar ground, A little plot enclosed by grace, Out of the world's wild wilderness.

Do not say you have never been invited. I invite you now to the King's feast. One and all. All! All! But I go further and tell you that the angels are ready. Some people think when we speak of angels we are getting into the region of fancy. They say it is very well for a man when he has just entered the ministry to preach about the angels in Heaven, but after he has gone on further it is hardly worth while. My friends, there is not any more evidence in the Bible that there is a God than that there are angels. Did they not swarm around Jacob's ladder? When Lazarus' soul went up did they not escort it? Did not David say, "The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels?" Are they not represented as the chief harvesters of the judgment day? Did not one angel in one night slay one hundred and eighty thousand of Sennacherib's troops?

Oh, yes, our world is in communication with two other worlds. All that communication is by angels. When a bad man is to die, a man who has despised God and rejected the Gospel, the bad spirits come on sulphurous wings and they shackle him, and try to push him off the precipices into the ruin, and they lift a guffaw of diabolical exultation. But there is a line of angels, bright and beautiful and loving angels, mighty angels reaching all the way from earth to Heaven, and when others gather like them I suppose the air is full of them. They hover. They flit about. They push down iniquity from your heart. They are ready to rejoice.

Look! There is an angel from the throne of God. One moment ago it stood before Christ and heard the doxology of the redeemed. It is here now. Bright immortal, what news from the golden city? Speak, spirit blest. The answer comes melting on the air. "Come, come, for all things are now ready." Angels ready to bear the tidings. Angels ready to drop the benediction. Angels ready to kindle the joy. All ready. Ready, cherubim and seraphim. Ready, thrones and principalities and powers. Ready, Michael the archangel.

Yes, I go further and say that your glorified kindred are ready. I have not any sympathy with modern spiritualism. I believe it is born in perdition. When I see the ravages it makes with human intellects, when I see the homes it has devastated, when I see the bad mortals that very often follow in its wake, I have no faith in modern spiritualism. I think if John Milton and George Whitfield have not anything better to do than to crawl under Rochester tables and rattle the leaves, they had better stay home in glory. But the Bible distinctly teaches that the glorified in Heaven are in sympathy with our redemption.

"There is joy in Heaven among the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth," and if the angels hear it do not our departed kindred hear it? There are those there who toiled for your salvation, and when they bade you goodby in the last hour, and they said, "Meet me in Heaven," there was hovering over the pillow the awful possibility that you might not meet. But, oh, the pathos when that hand was thrust out from the cover and they said goodby. For how long goodby was it?

Now, suppose you should pass into the kingdom of God this morning, suppose you should say: "I'm done with the sins of this world. From now on these follies. O Christ! I take thee now. I take thy service, I respond to thy love, thine am I forever." Why, before the tear of repentance had dried on your cheek, before your first prayer had closed, the angel standing with the message for thy soul would cry upward, "He is coming!" and angels poised mid-air would cry upward, "He is coming!" all along the line of light from doorway to doorway, from wing tip to wing tip, the news would go upward till it reached the gate, and then it would flash to the house of many mansions and find your kindred out, and those before the throne would say: "Rejoice with me, my prayers are answered. Give me another harp with which to strike the joy. Saved, saved, saved!"

Now, my friends, if Christ is ready, and the Holy Ghost is ready, and the church is ready, and the angels of God are ready, and your glorified kindred are ready, are you ready? I give with the emphasis of my soul the question, "Are you ready?" If you do not get into the King's feast it will be because you do not accept the earnest invitation. Arm stretched out soaked with blood from elbow to finger tip, lips quivering in mortal anguish, two eyes beaming everlastingly love while He says, "Come, come, come, for all things are now ready."

At Kenilworth Castle, I told you, they stopped all the clocks when Queen Elizabeth arrived, that the hand of time might point to that moment as the one most significant and tremendous, but if this morning the King should enter the castle of your soul, well might you stop all the clocks and have the finger of time pointing to this moment as the one most stupendous in all your life. Would that I could come all through these aisles and all through these galleries, not addressing you perfunctorily, but taking you by the hand as a brother takes a brother by the hand, and saying to one and all to each, "Come, come; the door is open, enter now and sit down at the feast."

Old man, God has been waiting for thee long years. Would that some tear of repentance might trickle down thy wrinkled cheek. Has not Christ done enough in feeding thee and clothing thee all these years to win from thee one word of gratitude? Come all the young. Christ is the fairest of the fair. Wait not till thy heart gets hard. Come, the farthest away from Christ. Drunkard, Christ can put out the fire of that thirst. He can restore thy broken home. He can break that shackle. Come now, to-day, and get His pardon and its strength. Libertine, Christ knew where you were last night. He knows all the story of thy sin. Come to Him this day. He will wash away thy sin, and He will throw around thee the robe of His pardon. Harlot, thy feet foul with hell, thy laughter the horror of the street—O Mary Magdalene! Christ waits for thee.

And the one farther off, farther than I have mentioned, a case not so hopeful as any I have mentioned, self-righteous man, feeling himself all right, having no need of Christ, no need of pardon, no need of help—O self-righteous man! dost thou think in those rags thou canst enter the feast? Thou canst not. God's servant at the gate would tear off thy robe and leave thee naked at the gate. O self-righteous man! the last to come. Come to the feast. Come, repent of thy sin. Come take Christ for thy portion.

Day of grace going away. Shadows on the cliff reaching farther and farther over the plain. The banquet has already begun. Christ has already entered into that banquet to which you are invited. The guests are taking their places. The servant of the king has his hand on the door of the banquetting room, and he begins to swing it shut. Now is your time to go in. Now is my time to enter. I must go in. You must go in. He is swinging the door shut. Now, it is half shut. Now, it is three-fourths shut. Now, it is just ajar. After a while it will be forever shut!

Why will ye waste on trifling cares That life which God's compassion spares? While in the endless round of thoughts The one thing needful is forgot.

The Medical Express relates that at Chester, England, an inquest was held over the body of a man who had been more or less drunk for forty consecutive years. He, his wife and his son had been in the habit of drinking the droppings of various tap houses in the town—a beverage which they purchased for about a shilling a gallon. The curious fact was developed that the only night he had been sober for many years was that upon which he died.

MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE

The House, on the 6th, defeated the bill appropriating $30,000 to aid in entertaining the National G. A. R. Encampment at Detroit in August. The vote was recorded and the bill tabled. The House passed the Senate bill creating the Thirty-first Judicial Circuit from the counties of Ontonagon and Gogebic; appropriating $10,000 for the collection of labor and industrial statistics. The joint Committee on Military and State Affairs reported favorably the Dodge bill providing a bounty of $100 each to soldiers of the rebellion, and in committee of the whole agreed to the Agricultural College appropriation bill. The Senate passed the House bill providing for a stenographer for each of the Justices of the Supreme Court and defeated the Brown local option bill.

The House, on the 7th, by a party vote passed the once defeated bill creating the new county of Dickinson out of territory taken from Iron, Ontonagon and Marquette Counties. The Senate passed the House bill changing the method of inspecting kerosene oil and reducing the test about 17 degrees, which will reduce the price 2½ cents per gallon. It is reported that a scheme has been fixed up to end the war between St. Joseph and Benton Harbor by consolidating the two towns, discarding the old names of both, and giving the joint city an entirely new appellation. President Palmer addressed a joint meeting of both branches of the Legislature in favor of a $300,000 appropriation for Michigan's exhibit at the World's Fair. President Palmer dilated at length upon the greatness of the Fair, and said that it would be the school for humanity of this generation. He would rather his boy would stay a week in the Exposition than spend two years in the Michigan University. Secretary Ben Butterworth spoke in detail of the plans of the Fair. He believed it was to be the event of the century. Several others urged a liberal appropriation. The President and Secretary have made a winning campaign so far as the Legislature is concerned, but to their surprise were assured by Gov. Winans that he was disposed to veto the bill if it appropriated over $75,000.

On the 8th, the Senate passed a bill abolishing the State Forestry Commission, which was created by the Legislature of 1887. The commission is composed of the State Board of Agriculture. The mission of the board was of a temporary nature, its purpose as assigned by the act creating it being to inquire into the extent to which the Michigan forests are being destroyed by fire and wasteful cutting, and the effects of the lessening of the timbered surface of the country upon the water supply and the conditions of the climate. The introducers of the bill abolishing the commission claim that its reports are unsatisfactory, and that but little of practical value has been accomplished. Bills appropriating $50,000 for the Agricultural College and providing for township school districts in the Upper Peninsula passed the House.

Storm Extractors.

The notion that rain can be compelled to fall wherever desired by artificial agitation of the clouds has possessed men's minds—or, rather, some men's—for a number of years. A civil engineer in Illinois, named Powers, has recently published a book on the subject in which he maintains the soundness of the theory with much plausible argument and extensive citation of practical illustration, covering every country in which gunpowder is used in warfare. The author's argument is curious, and cannot fail to impress the careful reader with the belief that the idea is at least within the limit of possibility. At all events, the Government has determined to give it a trial. The papers inform us that Professor Carl Myers, of Frankfort, N. Y., has recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he was called to consult with officials regarding the carrying out of an extensive scheme for promoting rainfalls in arid regions, or during seasons of prolonged drought, by producing concussions in upper atmosphere, for which Congress has made appropriations. Prof. Myers will begin operations with one hundred balloons of various sizes. The charge of mixed gases will be exploded at various heights through the medium of galvanic batteries and electric cables which will serve both to retain captive balloons and conduct the electric spark to explosive compounds. The necessary work will be done on his balloon farm at Frankfort, where the oxygen and hydrogen will be generated. Experiments will be made at Frankfort and near Washington; finally the sky-stormers will be taken to the arid regions of Texas, Colorado and other States. Theory and statistics favor the successful issue of the experiments. —American Analyst.

MICHIGAN HAPPENINGS.

INCIDENTS THAT HAVE LATELY OCCURRED.

An Interesting Summary of the More Important Doings of Our Neighbors—Weddings and Deaths—Crimes, Casualties, and General News Notes.

A FIRE broke out in the lumber yards of the Ford River Lumber Company, Ford River, near Escanaba, and destroyed about 5,000,000 feet of lumber. In response to a call for help, two tugs, the Harris and Delta, went from Escanaba to fight the fire. Some of the lumber was piled up on the bay shore, and one laborer, name unknown, got caught between the piles and shore, and jumped into the water to save his life. But before help could get to him he was drowned.

THE Northern Extract Company has broken ground at Alpena for its works. It will erect $80,000 worth of buildings, and has purchased six acres of land. It will employ from seventy-five to one hundred men in the works the year through. H. M. Hosick is President, and T. M. Taber Secretary. W. B. Taber, of Chicago, Manager. About 25,000 cords of hemlock bark per year will be used.

SHEPHERD'S clothes-pin factory has shut down, and the bolts on hand have been split for summer stove wood. The give-out was that pins could not be manufactured at present prices. The leak-out now is that the concern would not come into a sub rosa trust, and it will have to take a vacation until the trust is a bust. Thus big pins knock down the little pins.

WEST BAY CITY wants itself assessed at $4,000,000, so that it can issue $100,000 more bonds.

JOHN MASON, a farmer living near Manistee, was a victim of a forest fire. His home burned at a loss of $1,000.

DR. DARIUS N. FRAZIER, of near Manistee, was found not guilty of dosing a child to death with morphine. The judge ordered an acquittal when the evidence was in.

If the current talk among railroad contractors is true, the Chicago and West Michigan Company is in clover among the Lake Michigan shore people in the matter of extensions, since the latter offered a free right of way, free depot grounds, and $1,000 a mile as an inducement to construct. Of course, those who offered the inducements were large land owners. The extension to Petoskey must be completed June 1, 1892.

G. VAN SCHELVEN, Editor.

SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1891.

The Grondwet-News Printing House.

We have this week moved the NEWS office in its new and commodious quarters, on River street. No sooner were the last sparks of the fire of the 22nd of January extinguished, but what immediate steps were taken to replace the partly destroyed building with a better and more convenient one. The re-modeled building, 22 x 70, two stories and basement, is now wholly occupied by us, and outside the city of Grand Rapids the GRONDWET-NEWS PRINTING HOUSE is perhaps the largest, most commodious and best equipped newspaper establishment in Western Michigan. The basement is utilized as press and mailing room. On the first floor is the general business office, the editorial rooms of the NEWS, and the job department, while the second floor is entirely devoted to the Grondwet, including a fine suit of rooms for its editor. It will still require some little time to finally arrange matters and fully equip our job department, of the completion of which due and timely notice will be given.

The Congressional Nomination.

The Republican press of the fifth congressional district has in a general way made a preliminary canvass of the situation. Through local correspondence, interviews with influential men in the party and editorial comments the names of a dozen or more available citizens, that might be induced to take the field, have been presented to the party for its candid and judicious consideration.

Of this number Grand Rapids, as usual, and as is natural, comes in for the lion's share.

Her large vote, and the many interests centering there, will always secure to her a pivotal position, the prestige of which, however, may not always be conducive to a proper regard of all the surroundings and the essentials to success. Of her many able and acceptable citizens the following have already been named: C. W. Watkins, D. J. Leathers, M. C. Burch, N. A. Earle, J. Patton, Jr., and F. B. Wallin.

Ionia and Allegan counties also have one or more names that are being occasionally mentioned, but the manner and style in which it is done as yet fail to convey an impression of determination or earnestness.

Coming down to our immediate vicinity, Ottawa County is not lacking in men who are being considered with more or less favor throughout the entire district. The faithful record and efficient services of Mr. T. W. Ferry are still sufficiently remembered, by many, to give rise to a desire for his return to the halls of national legislation. Still, such are the fates of public life, that the wheels of popular recognition seldom revolve backward.

Were it not for the official position held at present by Geo. W. McBride, this gentleman would undoubtedly be urged by his friends as an acceptable nominee; as it is, there is a wide spread surmising that Mr. McBride would be willing to make the race, if forced to.

Favorable comments have also been made in connection with the names of Geo. A. Farr and C. Van Loo. To what extent, if any, these gentlemen would have it understood that they are "in the hands of their friends," is beyond the scope of our present information.

A brief review of the entire field would be incomplete without reference to one more possible candidate, also of Ottawa county, and a resident of this city, G. J. Diekema. Though young in years, his legislative career, beginning in 1885, has forced his individuality upon the people of his state to a degree that without any effort on his part his name too is being urged for recognition. This merited consideration has met with a most cordial endorsement at home. Due regard however for the proprieties of the occasion, as well as the claims of the individuals and localities above mentioned and the deliberate action of the nominating convention with a view of arriving at a harmonious result, have refrained his friends from pressing his candidature beyond a hearty endorsement of whatever has already been so forcibly stated by the leading press of the state and district.

Our Summer Resorts.

Ottawa Beach is in possession of nearly a half mile more of railway track. Instead of depositing passengers in front of the hotel, as in the past season, they will hereafter be taken around to the beach, where a new depot is to be built.

Sunday morning Superintendent Doyle left Grand Rapids with nearly a hundred men and began the construction of the track. About half a mile was laid and ballasted.

The new track is a continuation west and northwest of the one constructed last year. The reason it was built on Sunday was to prevent any legal interference on the part of the Macatawa Park people, who claim to own the ground on which the track is built. It goes without saying that the latter were very much surprised and out of humor when on Monday they heard of the extraordinary proceedings on the part of the railroad company.

Work on the new depot will be begun at once. There will also be erected this spring a pavillion 30 x 100 and a commodious dining hall. These two will be 500 feet apart and are to be connected with two five-foot walks about thirty feet apart. The space between the walks will be beautified with grass and flowers and perhaps fountains. Many other improvements are contemplated.

Regular trains between Grand Rapids and Ottawa Beach will begin to run June 1.

Memorial Day.

The preliminary steps for a due observance of Memorial Day this year were taken at a meeting of the G. A. R. Post Monday evening, when it was resolved to call a meeting of the citizens of Holland to be held Monday evening next, at the Post hall, for the appointment of committees and to arrange the necessary details.

The usual Sunday services will be held this year in the Third Ref. church, Rev. H. E. Dosker preaching the sermon, in the English language, further particulars of which will be announced later.

Let all who can attend the public meeting, on Monday evening.

Lansing Notes.

Gov. Winans has vetoed the bill allowing the supreme court judges each a stenographer at $800 a year.

James M. Turner, late Republican candidate for governor, has made an assignment of his property for the benefit of his creditors. It is announced that, if let alone, he will wiggle himself out all right in due time.

It begins to look doubtful whether this Legislature will pass any election law at all. The labor involved is too much for this reform body.

The State board of health will not be abolished, Gov. Winans' recommendation to the contrary notwithstanding.

The bi-annual effort to equalize the State bounties of the volunteers of the late war will meet the same fate of all previous efforts.

Upon the final adjournment of the Legislature the governor and his staff, all the state officers, the members of both houses and representatives of the press will make an excursion to Muskegon.

The bill making a state appropriation for the national encampment of the G. A. R. at Detroit, next fall, did not receive the required two-thirds vote for its passage. Among those that voted in the negative we regret to find the name of Geo. F. Richardson, of this county.—Later. The House passed the bill, Thursday, by a vote of 70 to 25.

Macatawa Whales.

Now that the spring season for shooting ducks has closed the sports have turned their attention to fishing in Macatawa bay. A large number of black bass have already been caught. A few days ago a catfish of twenty-four and one half pounds was captured, last Thursday a muskallonge of fifteen and one half pounds and Saturday a muskallonge of sixteen and one-half pounds.

Trout fishing may be more fashionable, but for exciting sport the muskallonge beats it. A more gamy fish can hardly be found, and when you get fairly hold of a fifteen or twenty-pounder, then look out. Ten to one, unless you are a thorough expert and give him a long play, wearing him out, foiling his prodigious efforts at escape, with your gaff hook or dipnet at hand, he snaps your line or breaks your hook and escapes forever.

This noble fish is an acrobat for feats of agility. He no sooner feels the barbed steel in his gullet than he commences a series of writhings and contortions that would astonish an "indiarubber-man." He makes a semicircle of himself and then springs back to a "normal" position as suddenly as a tense bow when the string is cut. He zigzags horizontally, darts upward, darts downward, spins around, turns somersaults and finally, if all these dodges fail, launches his lithe body with a quiver, fully six feet into the air, and coming down head foremost, darts off at a right angle like a streak of lightning. If this last maneuver does not break the tackle, the muskallonge gives in and suffers himself to be lifted out of the water without more ado.

A sharp customer is your muskallonge, but a more delicate fish, flesh white as snow and savory as an oyster when well boiled, and served upon the dinner table with proper sauces, does not exist. This inhabitant of the northern and western lakes grows from three to six and six and a half feet in length, according to the breadth of water that he is found in. The largest that are caught in Macatawa bay, Holland, generally do not go over forty-five pounds, though they frequently grow as large as sixty or seventy pounds.

In trolling for muskallonge a good tackle is a stout bamboo rod of about twelve feet long, a heavy linen line fully 100 yards in length, and, of course, a large sized reel to hold so bulky a line. The common or feathered spoon is generally used. It is especially necessary to use a gimper wire leader, as the sharp teeth of the fish would snap the unprotected line like thread.—G. R. Demerut.

President Harrison's southern and western tour is nearing the end and will be best remembered for the general truce it effected to partisan strife. He was everywhere received in the spirit in which he came. His addresses were more than common place. All his utterances have an eloquence of their own that is as creditable to the intellect as it is to the feeling of him who utters them. It is difficult to make a short speech; it is many times more difficult to make half a dozen a day. The President speaks well, clearly, concisely, and yet in each address there is something above the common-place; something that appeals to the best instincts of the American people.

Use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer and your thin gray locks will thicken up and be restored to their youthful color, vigor, and beauty.

 Forty-three years ago, this week, the California gold fever broke out.
 The average daily sale of stamps at the Grand Rapids post office is $300.
 Rev. G. J. Nykerk, of Overisel, has resigned to become emeritus pastor.
 Wednesday H. Boone raised a large new barn on his farm, two miles north of the city.
 During the week Grand Rapids was in the throes of a tenacious street car strike. And the thing is not over yet.
 Perry Pennoyer and family, of Nunica, left for the Pacific coast last week.
 Mr. P. was the democratic candidate for sheriff of this county, last fall.
 J. Pessink has been greatly improving the City Bakery, by having a fruit-cellar built under his sidewalk for the preservation of fruit during the hot summer months. The old sidewalk is being replaced by a new watertight walk.
 James Bemish, and engineer on the C. & W. M., while at St. Joseph, remitted one day this week $75 by express to his family, residing in this city, on Cedar street. During the following night the residence was burglarized and $65 of the amount abstracted. No clue has been found as to who perpetrated the foul deed.
 The plaster mill, at Grandville, burned to the ground Monday. About 4:30 in the afternoon flames burst from the hot stucco room, in the main building, and soon enveloped the entire structure. Loren Day, the secretary of the company, places the loss at $15,000, with insurance covering $10-
 000. The mill had a capacity of 2000 tons of land plaster and 15,000 barrels of stucco a year. Luman Jenison is one of the largest stockholders. The fire is an unfortunate one for Grandville and will throw a number of operatives out of work.

 that we gratefully recognize the timely,
 willing and efficient aid in the extin-

THE BEST

 In modern pharmacy is, undoubtedly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Except in extreme cases, physicians have abandoned the use of drastic purgatives, and recommend a milder, but no less effective medicine. The favorite is Ayer's Pills, the superior medicinal virtues of which have been certified to under the official seals of state chemists, as well as by hosts of eminent doctors and pharmacists. No other pill so well supplies the demand of the general public for a safe, certain, and agreeable family medicine.
 "Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever used; and in my judgment no better general remedy was Ever Devised
 I have used them in my family and caused them to be used among my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge many cases of the following complaints have been completely and permanently cured by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."—J. O. Wilson, Contractor

ENGLAND AFTER GOLD.

That Country Taking Considerable of the Precious Metal from New York.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The struggle to sustain Russian securities against the disfavor of the Rothschilds, the demand for gold by German bankers, and the threatened withdrawal of Russian gold from deposits in England, France, and Germany account for much of the unusual movement of specie which has been in progress. The advance of 1/2 of 1 per cent. at once in the rate charged by the Bank of England is rightly regarded as notification that England means to fortify herself in this great struggle by drawing gold from New York. May starts off with the great plunge in speculative prices which has for some weeks been anticipated. Wheat fell 15 cents in as many days, while corn has declined 3 1/2 cents in sympathy, and many speculators have suffered. An element of great strength is the accumulating evidence that the wheat prospect at the West is remarkably good. After such high prices as have been realized farmers are widely inclined to put in a greater acreage of wheat, oats, and corn, especially as the foreign advances foreshadow a larger demand for wheat. With such an agricultural outlook the demand for manufactured products of all kinds is likely to improve and thus the great industries will be helped. Collections are on the whole somewhat improved, but there is yet much complaint. The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days numbered 242, as compared with 255 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 209.

DEATH IN THE FLAMES.

Relief Train Caught in the Forest Fires in Pennsylvania.

Destructive forest fires are raging near Keating Summit, Pa. The entire lumber region is badly damaged. While fighting the fire a work train was surrounded by flames. The engine and cars were destroyed, and seventy men narrowly escaped with their lives. Twenty-five or thirty men are reported seriously, if not fatally, burned. The town presents a scene of great suffering. Superintendent Badger, of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad, and three or four others are missing, and are thought to have perished in the fire. It is estimated that 30,000,000 feet of logs and 10,000 cords of bark, belonging to Goodyear Bros., have been destroyed, besides ten miles of tram railroad. Telephone connection is cut off. The sky is lighted up in all directions, and the smoke is so dense that people can scarcely breathe. The town of Cornwauville, with 2,000 population, is threatened with destruction.

MERELY A CHILIAN VESSEL.

Grave Consideration Over the Escape of the Itata.

The authorities at Washington are greatly vexed over the escape of the steamer Itata. The question of the right of the United States to take her on the high seas is not altogether settled.

The State Department people have searched their authorities and have scrutinized the facts in the case, and are inclined to doubt the right. The whole question arises from a dispute as to the character of the vessel. Were she a pirate, a ship in the service of an enemy to this country, and a vessel of American register engaged in acts in violation of treaty stipulations, the case would be a simple one. But she is merely a Chilean vessel engaged in the transportation of a suspected cargo, a cargo that may possibly be contraband in the light of the treaty, and there is a very grave risk involved.

FORD'S NECK BROKEN.

David Moore's Murderer Pays the Penalty of His Crime at Ottawa, Ill.

Charles Ford, chief actor in the murder of David Moore, the Omaha traveling man, suffered the death penalty at Ottawa, Ill. He kept up his remarkable show of nerve to the last, and to all appearances was the coolest man in the little party that accompanied him to the scaffold. Ford's crime was most brutal. Two weeks before the date of the murder he married a woman from Spring Valley named Katie Weiler. He and the woman at once began a systematic blackmailing of traveling men and strangers, the woman drawing men to a meeting place and Ford and an accomplice surprising them and extorting hush money. David Moore, a Wisconsin salesman, offered resistance and was murdered by Ford and his pal.

MEMPHIS' FEVER CASE.

Prominent Doctors Say a Patient Cannot Live with Temperature Above 110.

A Memphis (Tenn.) dispatch tells a remarkable story of a fever case which registered 158 degrees Fahrenheit. The same authority says the patient is on the rapid road to recovery and adds that the case of Miss Tolson—the patient—is without a parallel in the medical annals of Memphis. Prominent physicians say no such case was ever recorded, and that for a person to have a temperature of 158 and live is an impossibility.

EXPLOSION ON A TANK STEAMER.

Eight Workmen Killed and Twenty-five Injured at Newport, England.

THE ITATA'S ESCAPE.

Officials at Washington Doubt Concerning the Flight of the Chilean Rebel.

The Government officials are being kept fully informed of the movements of the Chilean vessel Itata, which escaped from the port of San Diego, Cal., after being seized by the Marshal, and of the fruitless chase after the schooner Robert and Minnie. They refuse however, to make public any of the dispatches that have been received from the Collector, or that have been sent to him.

THE BRIDGE WAS BURNED.

A Canadian Express Train Plunges Into a Chasm, Maiming the Passengers.

The Pacific express met with an accident near Straight Lake, Ont. The World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago bids fair to be the greatest exhibition ever held in any country, greater even than the Paris Exposition of 1889. Advice already received at the Bureau of American Republics at Washington attest a remarkable and astonishing interest in the exposition on the part not only of the South American republics but continental Europe and China and Japan as well.

BUT ONE SURVIVES.

Grant, of Tacoma, the only survivor, has returned. He believes the entire party have been lost. A search party has been fitted out.

Where Is the $148,000?

The Bay State Shoe-Fastening Company at Nashua, N. H., has been wrecked. The treasury of the company is depleted, and $148,000 is unaccounted for. For three years past the company has been paying a 10 per cent. dividend, but examination shows that every cent of it came out of the capital stock. The treasury is empty and $200,000 has been spent, of which $22,000 was expended for machinery, about $31,000 for dividends, and the rest, $148,000, where is it?

Six Feet of Snow.

Court officers who returned from Tierra Amerillias say that the half has not been told of the flood that must soon sweep down the Rio Grande. At Cumbres Hill, Colo., the snow is six feet deep and covers the whole range for miles. All streams are running bank full. The Chama, Rio Brazos, Wolf Creek, and tributary rivers are rushing streams. In the lower Rio Grande the situation in the flooded districts is ab at the same.

A horrible accident happened at the Ashley wire works, Joliet, Ill., resulting in the death of Charles Mather, who was knocked into a vat of boiling vitriol used to take the rust and scale off from the wire. He slipped on the edge and was completely submerged. When pulled out the flesh dropped from his bones. The unfortunate man suffered terrible agony till death relieved him.

During a fight between Adolph Ungil and Isidor Werkamp, at St. Louis, Mo., the former received a stab in the left breast which penetrated to the lung, two cuts in the neck, and one in the back, which may cause death. An immense crowd was gathered at the scene and many shouts of "Lynch him," "string the brute up," etc., were heard, and only the absence of a rope restrained the crowd.

Held the Train.

Citizens of Waynetown, Wayne County, Ind., and a number of the employees of the Midland Railroad captured a train and held it. They say that no trains shall pass through the place till the employees are paid. The men are backed by the most substantial citizens of the town. The trainmen called upon the local officers when the train was stopped, but they refused to interfere.

Stabbed in a Church Fight.

At St. Louis, a factional fight in the Society of Christian Endeavor almost ended in murder. There was an election in the society, and C. W. Keller accused some of the members of stuffing ballot-boxes. John Ellis said the accusation was false. Then the men walked out of the church, the People's Tabernacle, and renewed the trouble on the sidewalk. Ellis was stabbed, probably fatally, and Keller escaped.

Electricity vs. Steam.

The first experiment in electric railways in Minnesota outside of city passenger traffic is to be made between Stillwater and St. Paul, twenty-four miles. The franchise for the road was granted to Chauncey P. Gregory, of Stillwater, by the Commissioners of Washington County. It is intended to have the road in operation for both freight and passenger traffic by Oct. 1.

Injured by the Frost.

A summary of the reports received from all sections of Kentucky, Northern Tennessee and Southern Indiana indicate the destruction by the frosts of nearly all of the garden vegetables except strawberries, which will probably still average half a crop with favorable weather. began firing. Ejected before his shots could take effect, Mickley fired one through the kneehole, wounding Dr. Berndt in the shoulder.

How It Is Viewed in England.

At London the finding of the Grand Jury at New Orleans justifying the lynching of the Italian prisoners revives interest in the affair and is commented on by the press in a not unfavorable manner. The St. James Gazette says the Grand Jury has done pretty much what was expected. It fears the Marquis di Rudini will not appreciate the polemical interest of the finding. The situation so far as Italy is concerned stands as at the beginning of the controversy.

Blow Up an Iron-Clad.

The Chilean insurgents war-ship Blanco Encalada was suddenly attacked in Caldera Bay by the torpedo cruisers Lynch and Conell, which launched seven torpedoes against the iron-clad, the last one striking. ## Changing Defeat to Victory.

The genius of Sheridan at Winchester changed defeat to victory. So when feeble adversaries in the shape of inefficient remedies fail to stay the progress of that obstinate and malignant foe, malaria, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters turns the tide—drives the enemy back. Nothing in materia medica, or out of it, compares with this as an opponent of every form of malarial disease. Chills and fever, dumb ague, bilious remittent, and ague-cake—it matters not—one and all are extirpated by the Bitters. To take a course of the great preparative in advance of the malarial season is to buckle on, as it were, an armor of proof which defies attack. So fortified, so protected, you shall be scatheless. Remember, too, that the Bitters is an eradicator of liver complaint, constipation, rheumatism, kidney complaint, and dyspepsia.

Makes the Weak Strong

The way in which Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up people in run down or weakened state of health conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes the tired feeling, creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fillmore.

During the past winter and this spring, several farmers in Fillmore and Laketown have had wheat, oats and potatoes stolen from them. Wheat and oats were taken from the barns or granaries and the potatoes dug out of the root cellars. Suspicion was soon directed to certain individuals. It was known that they had raised very little themselves, and yet they brought considerable grain and potatoes to market. Often at midnight, three or four of these characters would drive through the country, and when followed, as has been done sometimes, their identity was fully established. It is said that the lumber wagon and the rest of the turn-out seemed to be remarkably well greased and leathery, so it could hardly be heard. Of course, all this looked very suspicious. In fact suspicion has become almost a certainty and there is a good chance that these hazy characters will be waited upon by a committee some moonlight night. CORR.

One and only one extra is allowed to each student; but if you wish for two, you may employ your friend to ask for one in his name, who can then hand it to you. See? If these directions are strictly followed, success is assured."

THE BOOK TRUST KNOCKED OUT

A Card To The Public.

Some six months ago we began the publication of our reprint of the famous Encyclopedia Britannica in 25 Volumes, which we issued at $1.50 per volume. The price of the English edition always has been and still is $5.00 per volume, and the Scribner edition $5.00 per volume in the cheapest binding.

That the public appreciate so great a bargain is shown by the fact that over half a million volumes of this reprint have been sold in less than six months.

This elegant new edition we still offer at the same price, $1.50 per volume. This is the greatest bargain ever known in books.

Better still, we will deliver the set complete on small easy payments, to suit the convenience of customers.

Remember this is not an abridgement, but the great Edinburgh ninth edition, reproduced page for page, with important articles on American subjects rewritten to date by eminent American authors, and new maps, later and better than in any other edition.

We further announce that we have in preparation three volumes of "American Additions and Revisions," thoroughly supplementing the original work. With these supplemental volumes you will have at small cost an Encyclopedia unapproachable in completeness; a thorough "digest of the libraries of the world," and a complete record of current progress and events.

SPECIAL OFFER.—We claim that our reprint compares favorably with the high priced editions in every respect, and in respect to maps, and strength and beauty of bindings is superior to them. In order that this claim may be tested by a personal inspection we make the following proposition: We will furnish volume I. at 60 cts.—a fraction of actual cost—if sent by express. Add 40 cts. postage if wanted by mail. Amount paid for Volume I. will be credited on price of set when ordered.
