Sheriff Keppel was a much astonished man when on Sunday noon, while visiting with Mrs. K. in this city, he was informed by special messenger from Grand Haven, H. Sprik, of the successful effort at jail breaking that had occurred there on Saturday evening, the particulars of which will be found on our second page. He left at once for home. Up to date the two escaped prisoners are still at large.

The faculty of the Agricultural College at Lansing, upon examination of the course of studies of our High School and having found the same sufficient, have decided to place it upon the list of affiliated High Schools.
The objective feature involved in this action is that any graduate of the High School of this city that should desire to enter the Agricultural College, or take a course in mechanical engineering, can do so without the trouble of an examination. The next term of the college opens May 21.

James Donovan, alias George Mc Coy, who escaped from the criminal insane asylum at Ionia about nine weeks ago, was captured near Waverly by Marshal Van Ry. Donovan came here on an excursion train from Pentwater, and loitered about the city all day. He was recognized by a former pal, who notified the marshal, and was soon placed behind the bars. A message was sent to the warden at Ionia and on Monday morning a deputy came after the prisoner. A reward of $25.00 had been offered for his capture.

One reason advanced by Chicago commission men for the remarkable low prices of strawberries at this sesson of the year is the severe cold snap of six weeks ago in the extreme Southern States. It retarded the ripening of the early crop there, giving the more northerly berry region an opportunity to start even with it in the market, and consequently the rush from those sections has glutted the market. Another reason for the cheap prices is that continuous rains have ripened the berries water-soaked and they have to be speedily disposed of when on the market, or they will prove a total loss.

J. Van der Meulen, theol. student of Princeton, N. J., left for Larabee,
Iowa, Wednesday.

When a man says he is too poor to read a paper, you should believe him, for that is one of the reasons he is so

The thanks of the News are due to Geo. H. Souter for an assorted collection of cut flowers. It is not every season, at this time, that a bouquet is received containing double red tulips, nese bush honey suckle.

The common council at Hastings,
by a unanimous vote, recently, passed an ordinance, prohibiting minors from visiting pool rooms in that place. A pool room is no place for young boys and there is nothing in them that will elevate their character.

B. Kamps of Zeeland has commenced proceedings to contest the election with Govt Keppel as president of the village of Zeeland. Attorney General Ellis has filed an information in the Ottawa circuit for this purpose, and the matter will probably come to a hearing in the August term. Messrs.
McBride and Danhof will appear in behalf of Mr. Kamps.

Arthur Baumgartel has moved his barber shop on River street one door north, in the cigar store vacated by H. Van Tongeren. The latter is now located on Eighth street, where John D. Kanter formerly had his job printing office. Mr. Van Tongeren's business as a manufacturer of and wholesale and retail dealer in cigars has become so extensive that he required additional room.

At the next public meeting, May 25, 1894, of Local Assembly No. 3719 of the Knights of Labor, the subject for debate will be, that "The government shall obtain possession, under the right of eminent domain, of all telegraphs, telephones, and railroads; and that hereafter no charter or license be issued to any corporations for the construction or operation of any means of transporting intelligence, passengers or freight."

The Royal Commission of the Neth-lands has decided in favor of the project to reclaim 500,000 acres of the Zuyder Zee, by means of sea dykes from Northern Holland into Friesland at a total cost, including measures of defence and compensation to fishermen, of 315,000,000 guilders. It is estimated that the value of the land reclaimed will be 326,000,000 guilders.
The commission unanimously recommends that the state shall undertake the execution of this project.

Peter Wapsey, aged 110 years, the oldest Indian in Michigan, died at Hartford last week. He remembered distinctly the Fort Dearborn mas-acre at Chicago, and told many tales of things that happened 100 years ago. He was married twice by catholic priests, and had had thirteen children, all of whom are now dead except one son, who lives somewhere in Canada.
Wapsey said he had been the greatest bear hunter in this section in his day, and had killed hundreds of deer and bear.

The reception committee of the Y.
W. C. A. gave a dime social at their rooms last Friday evening for the purpose of raising money to furnish the rooms. About three hundred people attended. A very interesting program was carried out, after which Miss Beatrice Kimpton in the name of the reception committee presented to the rooms a life-sized portrait of Miss Lizzie Cappon, the founder and organizer of the society. Choice refreshments were then served and a good sociable time enjoyed.

George Washington and Napoleon Bonaparte both married widows, each of whom had two children, a boy and a arms with hands like those of an infant, and tail like a badger.

In several cities in this state the

The People's Party of Michigan will

Detroit Journal: Some hitherto respected, reputable and presumably sane young men of Grand Rapids have begun the organization of a Knickerbocker club, the members of which will bind themselves to don knee breeches as their everyday busialso state the club's purpose: "To encourage the wearing of bloomer suits

by women, on the ground of health, comfort and utility. To promote the wearing of knickerbockers as a common article of dress, and to encourage the same by precept and example."

John Sweet of Reed City, has leased the Ottawa Beach hotel and will open about June 15. The management expect a good season this year. "Last summer," said John C. Dunton in a conversation the other day, "the hotel was leased by a party of ten, calling themselves the Ottawa Club. They ran a first-class resort, but every one having a dollar to spend went to the World's fair, and, of course, every summer resort on the lake got a black eye, but taking this circumstance in consideration the Beach did fairly well, and even if the club did sink $1,640 by the speculation, no other resort on the lake can show a better record. The Ottawa Club has taken up the thing again this year and expects to run things in great shape down there, as people in general are turning their attention to the Beach this year more than ever before. Renters for cottages are more numerous than can be accommodated."

NEWSPAPER LAWS.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of newspapers, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.

If subscribers refuse or neglect to take their newspapers from the office to which they are sent, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the newspapers are sent to the former place of residence, they are then responsible.

CONCERNING DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS:

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can have arrested any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," and to send a postal notifying the publisher, lays himself liable to arrest and fine.

A Daring Escape.

JOHN VERHOEKS AND JOHN STANTON BREAK THEIR WAY OUT OF JAIL.

One of the boldest escapes from Ottawa county jail in the history of that institution occurred Saturday evening and as a result two of the most desperate and important prisoners confined there, obtained their freedom. When it became noised about the city at about 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening that John Verhoeks and John Stanton had escaped, many at first would not believe it. A walk to the structure and a look at the gaping hole in the wall on the south side convinced everybody of the truth of the story.

The escape was a novel one, and was undoubtedly a scheme concocted some time ago. Saturday Sheriff Keppel left the city on official business. Deputy Harry Oakes was stationed at the jail during his absence in the capacity of turnkey. About 8:00 in the evening he had occasion to go into the jail proper. His suspicions were aroused at once by the strange action of the prisoners, especially Sickman, who seemed particularly excited over something. Oakes soon noticed that John Verhoeks and John Stanton were not with the men or in their cells. He asked where they were. Sickman said he had seen them but a short time before. Glancing upward, the turnkey saw above the cells a big hole that led to the outside world. Sickman and the other prisoners were locked up in a twinkling and Oakes gave the alarm.

The absence of the sheriff increased the confusion. Messages were sent to the surrounding cities and towns and an effort was made to reach the sheriff, who was supposed to be in Holland, by telephone. Not a word was received from him or as to his whereabouts. It seemed that nothing could be done without his presence.

Sunday morning, no news of the sheriff having been received, a rig was sent to Holland in search of him. He was found in Holland and when apprised of the delivery, was dumbfounded. It did not take the team long to drive the twenty miles. Shortly after arriving here Sheriff Keppel got out cards offering a reward of $50 for the capture of Verhoeks and $25 for Stanton.

The hole through which the two men crawled is in the south wall of the jail. With a saw they cut out the half inch iron plate, next the brick wall in the interior of the jail. After sawing through the iron, the wooden section of the wall and the thick brick wall confronted them. There were a number of iron bolts in the wall, but these were removed and a hole easily climbed through soon made, by taking out the brick. All of this work was not performed on the inside. A confederate or possibly confederates on the outside must have assisted them.

If Mr. Oakes had entered five minutes later than he did, there would have been three prisoners gone. Henry Sickman was just about ready to follow his companions. It is believed that Verhoeks was the first man to climb through the hole. Sickman was to follow, but lacked the sand, although very desirous. Stanton followed, expecting Sickman to follow soon after. The arrival of Oakes prevented him. Verhoeks and Stanton then had a ten minutes start.

Sheriff Keppel stated that he would have given $500 not to have had the thing happen. He was in Genesee county serving papers and from there went to Holland, never hearing a word until informed by Henry Sprick who went after him. He stated that he had never noticed anything suspicious in the prisoners, but had always watched them carefully. "I have got out of bed as often as three times in one night," said Mr. Keppel, "and listened in the jail for any suspicious noise, but all was quiet. The work of cutting through the wall was undoubtedly performed during the hours of dusk up to shortly before locking up time. It must have taken a number of nights and they were helped by outside confederates. The hole was cut through the iron plate by a little fine saw, similar to the ones Stanton brought into the jail last winter. I have examined the wall many times but never saw a mark to excite my suspicions. The mark left by the saw used was so slight as to be scarcely noticeable."

How the saw came into the jail is a mystery to the sheriff. During the confinement of Verhoeks and Sickman their folks have been in the habit of bringing them luxuries in the way of eatables, etc., etc. The delivery has aroused the sheriff and he will allow no more visitors to Sickman or anything in the way of something to eat brought to him.

As regards this man Stanton, he is beyond doubt an ex-convict, brought here to help the men. By impersonating himself as a common drunk and "vag," he was brought into jail last winter on a charge of drunkenness. Luckily he was searched and no less than eighteen saws were found in his underclothing. The game was up then, and the sheriff wove a net of evidence around the head of Stanton and proved that he was employed by Verhoeks and Sickman to get them out. Tramps who have fallen in with Stanton peached on him, but they could not be held, and when the trial came were not here. Nevertheless, the case against Stanton was strong enough, but one jurymen out of the twelve could not see it, and a disagreement resulted. He was to have been tried again in August.

The story of the burglary of Roosen's store by Verhoeks and Sickman is still fresh in the minds of all. They were bound over to the circuit court to be tried in the March term, but their attorney managed to secure a further stay until August.

Great excitement was created Monday morning by the sensational report that John Verhoeks had been shot down and captured by ex-sheriff Joos Verplanke in Crockery. Investigation proved the story to be a hoax. Mr. Verplanke when visited did not even know that Verhoeks had escaped. It was a scheme, undoubtedly, of the parties in this city, near to the prisoners, to mislead the authorities.

In Solitary Confinement.

Although it is now over thirteen months since Irving Latimer, the matricide, poisoned Keeper Haight and escaped from the state prison at Jackson, he has been during that time locked in his cell day and night, and his only exercise is that afforded by his march under guard, to the dining-room for meals. He employs his time mostly in reading magazines and newspapers, but he is given no trashy novels, nor does he express a desire for such literature.

When asked as to his conduct Warden Chamberlain said: "He is as docile as a kitten. We have no trouble whatever with him. He is gaining in health and flesh. He is a queer type of humanity," and the warden's face assumed a puzzled expression. When on his way from his cell to the dining-room he strides along with his hands in his pockets as airily and as debonair as when he led the German at a swell party, for though arrayed in stripes, he holds his head and appears to ignore or disdain his companions in crime, though most of them are decent as compared with him. He exhibits the same supercilious manner he was wont to wear while he was the petted son of indulgent parents, and later when a prosperous merchant. He has an appetite like a horse, and seems to relish the coarse prison fare.

Prince Micheal, of Detroit, still continues at work in the fancy article department and puts in most of his time carving bones.

Old Joe Duquette, the Frenchman, who has been an inmate of the prison for thirty-six years, and who enjoys the distinction of being the oldest convict within the walls, both in age and length of confinement, continues in excellent health. He does work about the yard, and it is doubtful if he would be content away from the prison.

Another convict who is frequently inquired after is Charles Wright, the wealthy Benzie county lumberman. He is at work on the Webster contract. Unlike Latimer, he chafes under confinement, and shows a desire to escape the gaze of visitors.

Ants' Cows.

Do you know ants have cows, from which they drew milk? You can see the cows if you look for them. Sometimes you will see the ants running up and down a small bush. You may wonder what they can be doing. Look closely at the bush and you will see a number of green bugs on the leaves. These are the plant-louse, or the ants' cows. The ants run about among the bugs, touching them with their feelers and seeming very happy indeed. They are milking their cows when they do this. Ants keep other insects besides the plant-louse, which they feed and are kind to, and their prisoners seem contented. Sometimes they keep a large blind beetle, which is never allowed to leave their cell. They bring it such food as it needs, and kindly put the same into its mouth. The beetle, in return for such careful attention, throws out from its body a fluid which the ants are fond of, and which they lick up greedily.—From "Ant Stories," Demorest's Magazine for June.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Effects of Strikes and Tariff Uncertainty on Trade.

Merchants Are Buying for Actual Needs Only—In Manufacturing Lines There Is No Activity—The Record of Failures.

WORLD OF COMMERCE.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Bradstreet's review of trade says:

Prolonged warm weather has stimulated farm work as well as sales in reasonable lines of merchandise, but renewed tariff uncertainty tends to prolong the period during which merchants will continue to buy for actual needs only, evidences of which fact have appeared. Bank clearings this week amount to $938,000,000, a decrease of 1.5 per cent from the week before (which showed an increase) and a decrease of 3.4 per cent compared with the second week of May last year, when total clearings were among the largest on record. The great coal miners strike has been extended in the far west and in portions of Maryland and the Virginias, and this has been followed by an increase in the number of industrial shut downs due to increasing scarcity of fuel. Not far from 175,000 men are reported idle in the coal trade alone, and with those idle or on strike in other lines the total out of work is not less than 250,000.

"General trade remains dull, as does business in manufacturing lines at Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Cincinnati, Louisville, Milwaukee, Minneapolis and Omaha, except that at the last-named more activity is reported in dry goods and hardware. Favorable crop prospects and activity in agricultural lines have checked trading by country merchants. At Chicago, also, there are increased volumes of sales with jobbers in dry goods, millinery and clothing, while the natural result due to spring trade being completed and autumn trading not having made itself felt, is felt at St. Louis. At Kansas City trade in staple lines is fairly good and crop prospects are excellent, but at St. Paul the volume of business is small compared with previous years. The continuance of the gold shipments to Europe, which amounted for the week to $4,000,000, has attracted attention, but appears to have influenced speculative sentiment in a very limited degree."

Dun's Report.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s review for the week says:

"The speculation in grain has again broken records with the lowest price ever made for wheat, although western receipts are a little smaller than a year ago, while exports are also smaller by more than a quarter. The prevailing belief is that the yield will, as in other years, far exceed government indications, which are again pointing to a short crop. It is a striking evidence of the general want of confidence that there is so little speculation while money is abundant almost beyond precedent."

"One large failure about doubled the aggregate of liabilities for the firms failing in the week ending May 13, which would otherwise have been quite small, but were $2,027,742. The number and the general average of liabilities are still encouragingly shrinking. For the last week the failures have been 200 in the United States, against 257 last year, and 44 in Canada, against 22 last year, with nothing of special importance, although four bank failures are included."

QUIT WORK.

A Big Force of Employees of the Pullman Works on a Strike.

PULLMAN, Ill., May 13.—Between 2,000 and 3,000 workmen in the various departments of the Pullman works went on a strike at 9 o'clock a. m. Their action took Mr. Pullman and his executive managers by surprise, as it was understood that the men were satisfied with the results of the recent conference. The men belong to the new American Railway union but were not called out by the organization. They demand a restoration of wages to last year's scale and the redress of numerous shop grievances. No violence is expected, but as a precaution a large force of police has been ordered to the scene.

A TEMPLE BURNED.

Flames Once More Destroy Dr. Talmage's Tabernacle in Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, May 14.—Just after services at noon Sunday and while Dr. Talmage was shaking hands with members of his congregation fire burst out between the pipes of the organ and within ten minutes the big tabernacle was doomed to total destruction. Adjoining the church was the Hotel Regent, eight stories in height, with a frontage of 90 feet on Clinton avenue and extending back 900 feet to Waverly avenue. The fire spread from the tabernacle to this hotel and then to the dwelling houses on Greene and Waverly avenues, opposite the tabernacle. The wind carried the blazing cinders in such quantities in a southeasterly direction that dwelling houses in Washington avenue, two squares away, and also the Summerfield Methodist church were set on fire by them; but the greatest loss on any one of these structures did not exceed $15,000. The total loss, however, reaches over $1,400,000. Dr. Talmage said that he thought electric lights caused the fire, as it did that which destroyed the last tabernacle on Schermerhorn street.

It was decided that Dr. Talmage's tour around the world should begin today, as arranged. He will start in the evening for Philadelphia and proceed from there to Atlanta, Ga. After visiting some southern cities he will go to San Francisco and sail from there to Honolulu and afterward to New Zealand, Australia, India, Spain, England and other foreign countries.

[The Brooklyn tabernacle, which was burned Sunday, is the fourth church which has been occupied by the congregation over which Dr. Talmage has been pastor for twenty-five years. The original church still stands in Schermerhorn street, and has been used for many years as a public school. This, unlike the three which have succeeded it, and which have been burned one after another, was not called the "Tabernacle." A strange coincidence is that the original tabernacle was burned Sunday morning, December 22, 1872; the second tabernacle was burned Sunday morning, October 13, 1889, and the newest and greatest tabernacle was burned Sunday.

The entire cost of the building and site was about $800,000. Of this sum about one-half was secured from the insurance on the burned structure, the sale of lots on which it stood and the subscriptions received. The remainder was covered by a mortgage, a part of the security for which, while the building was not yet completed, was an insurance policy on Dr. Talmage's life for $25,000. The mortgage is held by Russell Sage.]

A TERRIBLE CRIME.

Gus Meeks, His Wife and Two Children Killed by Friends in Missouri.

MILAN, Mo., May 12.—A most atrocious crime was committed Thursday night near Browning. Gus Meeks, his wife and two children were murdered outright and another of the children—a girl 7 years old—was so badly injured that she may not recover. The circumstances leading up to the crime are about as follows:

There are a number of criminal cases pending in Lynn and Sullivan counties against William F. Taylor and George Taylor, brothers, the former being a banker of Browning and the latter a farmer. The charges against them are forgery, arson and larceny. William F. Taylor, Gus Meeks and others were jointly indicted and Meeks pleaded guilty at the last term and was sent to the penitentiary. About a month ago he was pardoned by Gov. Stone in order to use him as a witness against the Taylors, who were in consequence anxious to be rid of him.

The little girl recovered sufficiently to describe some of the parties, and upon her evidence Sharon McCullough, of Gould, and George Howlett, of Lime county, have been arrested as participants in the crime. A party of citizens from Milan and Browning found at the place of the murder the revolver and a stone with which the murderers had shot and killed the father and mother and beat out the brains of the two children.

The Leaders of Train Stealers in the West Are Punished.

The other 300 will be brought into court in squads of thirty and upon pleading their word not to engage in any more such proceedings the judge will turn them loose.

□ Pullman Journal: Rev. Dr. E. C. Oggel, who has filled the Presbyterian pulpit here for some months, cannot be induced to remain with us, but soon starts for Europe, where he will visit and travel for an indefinite period. We have formed a deep attachment for this genial gentleman, and sincerely regret his departure. As a friend whose presence was all sunshine, whose wide experience and scholarly attainments rendered companionship with him agreeable and delightful, we are very sorry to part with him, and most sincerely wish him every success and prosperity as he journeys on through the shifting scenes of mortal life.

Homeless Children for Childless Homes.

A helpless, homeless child is an object which appeals to the sympathies of every person. The misfortunes or crimes of parents often leave these little ones without care or protection. The record of the life of Christ upon the earth contains nothing which touches the human heart more than his love for children. His promise, "Whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me," is as true to-day, as when he said it.

Among other organizations which seek out and save these helpless waifs, is one known as the National Children's Home Society of Chicago. Hon. John Woodbridge, is President, with Lyman J. Gage, President First National Bank of Chicago and other prominent men, Vice-Presidents. This society has auxiliary organizations in many states. The Michigan branch has a Children's Home located at St. Joseph, with W. G. Cooper, President, Genl. R. A. Alger, Hon. Washington Gardner, Hon. G. J. Diekmann and other well known men as Vice-Presidents. Mr. Amos Barlow, of St. Joseph, is secretary and manager of the home there. Local advisory boards of this society are found in the principal towns of the state. Such a board was recently organized in Holland, with the following officers: President, Rev. Dr. N. M. Steffens; vice-president, Mrs. W. H. Beach; Sec'y, J. C. Post; Treas., G. J. Diekmann; other directors, Mrs. H. D. Cook, Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore, Rev. H. G. Birchby.

Last week Mr. Barlow came to Holland and took charge of a homeless baby, 18 months old, which had spent several months of its short life in the Ottawa county poor house. The child has been adopted into a respectable family.

The work of the societies is:

"To seek homeless, neglected and destitute children, and to become their friend and protector.

"To find homes for them in well-to-do families, and to place them there, wisely, with the least possible delay.

"To make it possible for many persons without children of their own to adopt, without fear of future interference, a child that may be a blessing to the household.

"To protect society, by guaranteeing proper home training and education to the unfortunate little ones against its two greatest enemies, ignorance and vice, and thus to improve American citizenship."

This is a noble charity and we earnestly commend it to our citizens. No better investment can be made than to contribute your money to help a homeless child to find a home.

Reflect.

As stated in the News last week, Two Thousand Dollars was paid by the "Maccabees" to the widow of the late Chas. Petre.

Young married men of Holland, did you, in reading those lines reflect for a moment? You are bound by sacred obligations to provide for the woman of your choice during your lifetime; but does your interest in her welfare end after death removes you from her side? Could you close your eyes forever in a happy state of mind, knowing that she and your little darlings have to battle with poverty after you are gone?

Our present social conditions makes it impossible for most of you to lay up a surplus out of your earnings. Therefore remember that by joining the "Knights of the Maccabees" you associate yourself with friends who are bound to take care of you in sickness and distress, and to protect your wife and to provide for your children when death knocks at the door.

Every one of the ONE HUNDRED AND TEN members of the K. O. T. M. will be pleased to give you information.

A Circus Familiar to our Readers.

THE ONLY BIG SHOW THAT WILL INTEREST OUR YOUNGSTERS AND GREY-HEADS.

The only big show of the season will have its tents pitched in Holland and ready for business on Thursday, May 24. It is the only Adam Forepaugh Menagerie, hippodrome, wild west and trained animal show.

It will bring all the usual sights of a great circus, with many new features, being a horse that walks a tight rope, a baby elephant only 38 inches high, "the smallest elephant in the world," a talking horse, a complete Roman hippodrome, and a large herd of elephants. The elephants will go round under the management of Adam Forepaugh, son of Adam Forepaugh of circus fame.

Forepaugh's show has always been noted for its excellent array of wild animals, and no less for its circus attractions, in expert horseback riding, trapeze performances and athletes generally. It holds first place in the list of big shows and likewise in the hearts of devotees of the circus tent. Besides a complete Roman hippodrome, it has a genuine representation of the sports and pastimes of the wild west. All its artists have been selected from the royal circus companies of the world forming an aggregation that is unsurpassed.

Don't get the date mixed with any other advertisement you may see or hear about of a circus to be in this section this season; but remember the Adam Forepaugh show is billed to appear in "all its glory" in Holland on Thursday, May 24.

The healthfulness or the reverse of corsets seems finally to be settled. They have been found on the mummies of Egyptian princesses of the royal family. These corseted mummies, it is interesting to note, are all dead. What more need be said? The dress reformers appear to be justified in denouncing corsets.

SMALL GREENHOUSE.

A Useful Structure Costing But One Hundred and Thirty Dollars.

Herewith we show plans of a small greenhouse. This we consider the smallest practical house, outside of a hotbed, that can be built. It will cost complete, with a hot-water heating apparatus, about $130, and covers a space of 10x12 feet.

It is seven feet high at the ridge and four feet high from the ground to the raising line or plate. It is built by placing ten 2x4 posts in the ground for the sides to be nailed to, and also for support to the roof; these are set at a distance from each other so as to measure three feet from center to center, and to form an inclosure twelve feet long and ten feet wide.

The plate for the roof to rest on should be 2x4 inches and nailed to the top of the posts. The ridge is to be made of 2x6-inch timber, and the rafters of 2x3-inch timbers. The roof consists of eight 3x6 hotbed sash, hinged to the ridge, which should have a cap to prevent the rain from dripping in between the ridge and the ends of the sash.

The ends, as shown on the plan, have each a door, and are made by nailing a sill along the bottom and placing two upright pieces, 2x4 inches, between the sill and rafters; these should be three feet apart and support the doors as well as the boards for the ends.

The sides and ends, from the ground to the plate, are to be double-boarded, with builders' paper between, and the ends, from the plate to the roof, of glass. If it is desired to have only one entrance there should be a post placed in the middle of the end to be enclosed and it should be treated the same as the sides.

For ventilation the sash can be opened from the lower end by means of a rod, as described in our last issue.

The beds are constructed by first making the supports as shown in sectional view, and should be boarded with 1x4-inch boards, leaving open spaces in the bottom of about half an inch between the boards for drainage; the sides of the beds should be about six inches high. The entire height of the beds should be about three feet.

The building when completed should receive two coats of paint.

The heating apparatus is composed of a hot-water heater or boiler and two lines of 4-inch cast iron pipe extending around the house, as shown on plan (six lines of 2-inch wrought iron pipe will answer as well as the 4-inch pipe). These should rest on piers made of brick or wood, and should have a slant to and from the boiler, and an expansion tank placed at some suitable point above the highest pipes. The heating apparatus should be obtained from any firm of greenhouse builders, as they can better guarantee its working satisfactorily. The plan shows a small inclosure at one end of the house for the heater; this can have a door to be made large enough to admit of firing and to be wide enough for a person to get in to make any alteration to the boiler that might be needed.

A greenhouse made from the above plan will give an endless amount of pleasure when stocked with flowers and plants. The price named above does not include the cost of labor for building, it being supposed that it will be put up by the person desiring the house.

Did You Ever Think

What marvels of cheapness and excellence the best grades of flour (such as our "Sunlight" and "Daisy" brands) now are? Do you realize the fact that for only 2c per pound you can buy the very best flour that can be made by a combination of the best raw material, the best machinery and the highest human skill? This you are getting when you buy our "Sunlight" brand. Also did you ever realize that for 17-10c per pound you can buy flour of unquestioned merit and excellence such as our "Daisy" Many people like it as well as the "Sunlight" and some even prefer it, but it is not quite as white. Then we have several other brands which are excellent and the best that any mill can furnish for the money; these are branded "Morning Star", "Diamond," &c. and we guarantee every one to be just what we claim for it. These low prices are hard on the farmer who grows the grain but the consumer reaps the benefit and certainly will consult his interest by buying none but the best and keeping a full flour barrel at these low prices.

HOLLAND, Mich., May 15, 1894.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council.

GENTLEMEN: I have received the notice of your clerk of my appointment as health officer and city physician. I thank you for the appointment, but under the circumstances, I shall not be able to qualify the office of either. The salary for both offices has been $150 a year. For certain reasons best known to yourselves you have seen fit to cut same to $125.

With the constant growth of our city, and with the hard times, so-called, you must know that the work of both offices is on the increase and demands more work and medicines.

I have at present two cases, one a consumptive, I have not only attended but furnished with everything necessary to prevent the contagion of the disease. The other is a chronic rheumatic, whom I have visited the past week every day. These two cases may require more time and medicine than the whole munificent salary of $75 amounts to.

The duties of health officer are far from being agreeable; hardly a week passes but that some one has trouble with his neighbor. We have the small-pox near us. Suppose one case should be introduced into the city, it would hurt my professional business more than the whole salary of both offices amounts to. A city of our size should certainly pay its health officer as much as the city attorney. It is certainly far more important to look after the health of a city than after its legal interests.

Respectfully Yours
HENRY KREMERS.

Communication accepted.

The city marshal reported receipt of city treasurer $111.35, water fund moneys, collected for the month ending May 15, 1894.—Filed.

R. A. Sipp, 6 months salary as librarian..... 25 00
Approved and warrants ordered issued on the city treasurer in payment thereof.

The following claims approved by the board of public works, May 14, 1894, were certified to the common council for payment and allowed, viz:

HOUSEHOLD ACCIDENTS.

The Proper Treatment of Slight Wounds and Scratches.

A slight cut or abrasion of the hand, or a slight burn, may become a serious matter if it is totally neglected. Where the skin is torn or cut, it is desirable in the first place that the wound should bleed freely. Cases of lockjaw are of rare occurrence where this is the case, and a very slight wound of the hand or foot has been known to produce this dangerous malady where bleeding did not follow.

One of the greatest dangers lies in a wound of a kitchen knife, which may have held impure matter, and even from the scratch of a pin, and fatal cases of blood-poisoning have frequently resulted from so simple a cause. Absolute cleanliness, therefore, is necessary in the treatment of such a wound. After the wound has bled a little it should be washed with perfectly clean water. That which has been boiled is best for the purpose, and there is no harm in using a little carbolic acid in the proportion of a drop or two to a quart of water.

Do not attempt to staunch bleeding by the use of cobwebs, which are naturally dirty and full of impure germs, but use a little lint and a clean cotton or linen cloth. These should be always kept in the houses for use in case of such accidents. A trustworthy druggist will always supply some preparation of carbolic acid, properly weakened for household use. Even household ammonia, though it is painful at first, is recommended as a mild way of cauterizing a simple wound. A thick paste of equal parts of common baking-soda and flour, wet to a paste with cold water, is the best remedy for a burn. It is better than lime-water because lime-water is liable to become incrustated, while the paste of soda and flour is cooling to the surface and can easily be removed. The object of treating a burn is to cover the extremities of the nerves which have been injured and give them opportunity to heal. While such a paste is being prepared, cover the wound for the moment with common flour and wrap it up in clean cotton.

A simple healing plaster which may be prepared in the household calls for half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when needed and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

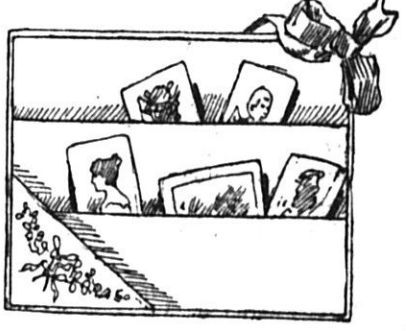

PHOTOGRAPH CASES.

A Novelty Which is Easily Made and Very Pretty.

What shall be done with the photographs which are yearly on the increase?

There have been albums and photograph frames and bags, both small and great, in which to deposit them, and still they accumulate.

A pretty idea for a photograph case is to take a piece of cardboard of any size desired, and cover plainly with pink silk. Cover another piece slightly smaller, as in drawing, joining this to the first, and still another piece slightly smaller than the second. Embroider delicate maidenhair ferns in natural shades in corner four, tacking this to the third piece of covered board. Or this corner may be made of white or ecru leather. Fasten the outside edges together, leaving spaces between each card for the photographs, and finish the case with a bow of pale green ribbon to match the ferns.

EASILY MADE AND PRETTY.

For amateur photographers another suggestion is to make an album of water color paper, in which the unmounted "snap shots" are to be pasted and each photograph outlined with splashes of gilt. The outside of the album is of heavy pasteboard covered with linen and decorated with lettering suggestive of contents. This classifies the photographs and gives one's friends the pleasure of a camera's sketch book.—N. Y. Herald.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

To KEEP ice in the sick-room over night set the pitcher in a newspaper, gather up the ends, twist them tight and snap on a rubber band.

PRETTY cushions are made of parchment satin, so called on account of its color. Finish with a frill of silk and decorate with flower designs.

COVERS for cups and glasses used in a sick room can be made of cardboard and covered with a crochet cover of either white silk, wool or cotton, as preferred, a small loop being put in the middle of the top to lift it by.

The English way of serving pineapples is to take the fruit out from the rind in a solid cone. This, with its prickly stem attached, is left intact. The pine is then sliced and piled in its natural shape and the rind fitted on. It is thus sent to the table and served.

A PRETTY tea cloth may be made of a very large dinner napkin or a piece of table linen of suitable size. Select a pretty pattern and outline the design with wash silks. Old gold, deep rose or dark blue is pretty. Another is of fine linen with an inch wide border, hemstitched, then a row of drawn work, then a wide border of cross-stitching worked in wash silks.

The cardinal rule in a kitchen is to clean up as you go, and if attended to this saves half the labor and fatigue cooks suffer from who pursue the old method of having a grand and comprehensive "clean up."

TRAVELING IN INDIA.

It is Not Quite as Easy as Journeying in a Pullman.

How hot it was in the plains! The month was April, and in southern India that is one of our hottest months. My little girl, Fanny, looked so white that I determined to take her to the hills and an account of our journey there will amuse many a little child.

First we went in the train, and that was all very nice. When we reached the station (the nearest to the hills) a bath and breakfast did us good.

Fanny was quite longing for our next start in the transit, which is a long cart on two wheels, covered with matting. First we had a lot of straw put in and then our mattress and pillows, with a bottle of water and a tin of biscuits for Fanny. Then in we got, the ayah, or nurse, sitting at the end.

We were traveling with friends, so they went first in one cart, we came next, followed by two carts with the luggage.

We went along gayly enough, but the shades of night were creeping on, and we had forty miles to go.

Fanny was much amused at the man blowing his horn, and all the funny noises he made to make the bullocks go faster.

Bump! bump! oh, what has happened! I screamed; Fanny laughed; the bullocks had run us down a bank and bumped us up against a tree.

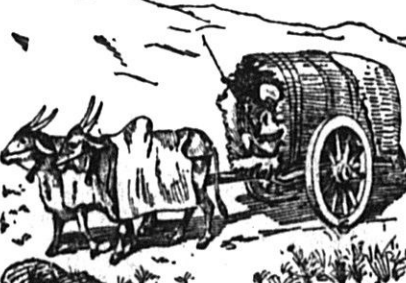

After a bit we tried to sleep, but finding the bullocks going at such a pace I called to the driver to stop. Getting no answer, I looked out. No one was on the box seat, and the bullocks were tearing madly on. The driver had gone to sleep and fallen off. At last the bullocks stopped, and the driver appeared much bruised and out of breath. Then our wheels got locked in another cart; but at last, about three in the morning, we came to the rest-house at the foot of the hills.

There we had tea and put some warm clothes on. We found numbers of natives, all waiting with our chairs fastened to bamboos, to carry us and our luggage up the ghaat.

How still it was! Not a sound was to be heard and the quiet stars were twinkling overhead.

The coolies told us that one of their number had been asleep, wrapped in his white cloth, and a cheetah had just crept out of the wood and bitten off his arm. Poor man!—Mrs. F. F. Smith, in Our Little Ones.

If King Solomon was alive he would now say: "Go to the traveling man, learn his ways, and be wise." Mr. C. W. Battell, a Cincinnati traveling man representing the Queen City Printing Ink Co., after suffering intensely for two or three days with lameness of the shoulder, resulting from rheumatism, completely cured it with two applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A lady at Tooleys, La., was very sick with bilious colic when M. C. Tisler, a prominent merchant of the town gave her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says she was well in forty minutes after taking the first dose. For sale by Heber Walsh, Druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr of 1255 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me a gain very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swelling extant. For sale by Heber Walsh.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

SAILED THE SEAS 38 YEARS.

One of His Experiences.

For thirty-eight years Capt. Loud followed the sea, most of that time as master of a vessel, and upon retiring from the water was appointed by the Secretary of the United States Treasury to superintend the seal fisheries in Alaska, which position he held five years. He relates one experience as follows: "For several years I had been troubled with general nervousness and pain in the region of my heart. My greatest affliction was sleepless anxiety; it was almost impossible at any time to obtain rest and sleep. Having seen Dr. Miles' remedies advertised I began using Nervine. After taking a small quantity the benefit received was so great that I was positively alarmed, thinking the remedy contained opiates which would finally be injurious to me; but on being assured by the druggist that it was perfectly harmless, I continued it together with the Heart Cure. Today I can conscientiously say that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure did more for me than anything I had ever taken. I had been treated by eminent physicians in New York and San Francisco without benefit. I owe my present good health to the judicious use of these most valuable remedies, and heartily recommend them to all afflicted as I was."—Capt. A. P. Loud, Hampden, Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, express prepaid. They are free from all opiates and dangerous drugs.

Sold by all druggists.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employees for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

Permanently Cured

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

SWEPT BY FLAMES.

Sixteen Acres of Ground in Boston Are Burned Over.

Hundreds of Buildings Destroyed and Thousands of Persons Made Homeless—The Money Loss Will Reach $500,000.

A SEA OF FIRE.

Boston, May 18.—A cigarette butt thrown into a pile of waste paper under the "bleachers," or twenty-five-cent seats, in the Boston baseball grounds Tuesday afternoon started a fire which destroyed more than 140 buildings occupying about sixteen acres of land in the crowded tenement house section of the south end. The money loss is $500,000, and in all other respects the conflagration is the most terrible that Boston has seen since fifty acres were burned over in 1873, for more than 600 families are homeless, and they are the kind of families who seldom indulge in the luxury of fire insurance.

Persons Who Were Hurt.

The injured are:

Michael Welch, jumped 30 feet from a roof and was internally injured; John Rowley, overcome by smoke, will die; William H. Ahern, jumped from a roof, ankle broken; William Gatecain, apoplexy; Lieut. Sawyer, engine company No. 33, struck by falling wall, may die; John T. Kane, internally injured; Amy Lapp, badly burned; James J. Fitzgerald, fireman, badly cut.

The Burned District.

Burke, Coventry, Walpole, Sarsfield, all parallel; Berlin street, four blocks on each side of Tremont street, three blocks on each side of Cabot street, three blocks on the west side of Warwick street and two blocks on the north side of Newburn street. Besides the Hotel Walpole two apartment houses on Sterling street were burned, three on Western street, two on Hammond park, two on Windsor street and all of those on Yendlay place.

This district was one of the most thickly populated in the city and most of the families are in very poor circumstances. At the best estimate there are 3,500 persons without homes and their household effects are in ashes.

The Losses.

The financial loss is hard to estimate, but will reach probably $500,000. This small amount is accounted for by the fact that dozens of the wooden tenements were of little value. The baseball grand stand was valued at $75,000; the insurance is $40,000. The Walpole schoolhouse was valued at $80,000; insured. The Hotel Walpole and most of the brick apartment houses burned were insured and were worth from $8,000 to $30,000 each.

Sorrowful Scenes.

Fully 200 of the homeless are camped out on Hammond park, guarding such property as they had saved, while others are scattered in various directions, many of them having saved nothing but what they could carry in their arms.

The scene in and around the burning district was a heartrending one. Men, women and children were rushing in all directions, carrying bundles of clothing, bedding and other household goods. The women, as they beheld their property reduced to ashes, broke into piteous cries, and on every corner could be seen groups of homeless families standing over their remaining goods.

Relief for Sufferers.

The heroes of the occasion are the people of the Ruggles street Baptist church. As soon as it was known that many people would be homeless the members opened the church, filled it with comfortable beds, prepared food and sent people out to gather in the homeless. One hundred of the members organized as a searching force and found and returned more than fifty lost children.

The trustees of the Johnstown flood fund, at the request of the board of aldermen, voted to apply the unexpended balance on hand, amounting to several thousand dollars to the relief of the homeless and destitute. During the fire three fire engines were abandoned and ruined.

Saturday morning a division of Coxey's Army passed over our bridge, on its way to Holland. It consisted of a man and his wife and three children, one a baby and the others about two and four years old. These people hail from White Cloud, 65 miles from here. The husband says he intends to go on until he finds work. They all looked clean and neat. But to see the poor man with a baby in the wagon and the wife and two other children walking by her side was a touching sight indeed and especially, in this "land of ours." This man too must have prayed for good roads.

In Memoriam.

THURKETTLE Post No. 388, G. A. R., Allendale, Mich., Ap. 17, '94.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our late comrad Thomas Cole, and

WHEREAS the intimate relations long held by our deceased comrad with the members of this Post render it proper that we should put on record our appreciation of his services, in time of war and in time of peace; there fore

Resolved by the comrades of this Post that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High, we do not the less mourn for our comrad who has been called from his labor to heavenly rest.

Resolved, that this Post tenders its heartfelt sympathies to the family and relatives of our deceased comrad in this sad bereavement.

Resolved, that in the death of comrad Thomas Cole the Post loses a devoted friend, the widow a dear husband, the children a kind father, and the Nation a noble defender.

J. W. COLE,
H. C. BENLET,
WM. BENNETTE,
WM. WALTER,
Committee.

Comrad Thomas Cole was born July 4, 1833, on the Isle of Man and came to this country when a boy 19 years of age. He stopped in the state of New York and then came on to the state of Indiana, where he enlisted in Co. A, 21st Ind. Infy., July 18, 1861. He was discharged July 19, 1865, making four years and one day of continuous service in defense of his country. Twice he was severely wounded, which for 30 years made him a great sufferer and finally sapped his life away.

The Punishment Fits the Crime.

In these hard times it is a crime to spend money foolishly. Now to spend money for photographs may be foolish but it is "a necessary evil." Every one will have photos. The foolish part of it is to try and get something good for less money than it can be produced. That's where the punishment comes in. You go to cheap John's place. He has good samples, and of course tells you he will make you photos that cannot be beat, and will do so for a little money.

You want photos, and want them cheap, so perhaps you get them cheap; but if you consider a photo finished on the cheapest material, one that will not last a year without fading or discoloring, cheap, your idea of economy must be greatly at fault; the best is the cheapest.

Hopkins, over Kanter's Bro's Hardware Store, is not making cheap work, but is charging a fair price for work that will stand the test of time, and is first-class in every respect. There you can get photos of all sizes, from the small minnette up to the life size, not for nothing, but cheap for the grade of work you get.

MEPHISTOPHELES IN CANADA.

Odd Superstitions of the Peasantry About His Manners and Customs.

In the legendary lore of Canada the devil plays a prominent part. He does not appear as the strong angel, who fell through pride, the enemy of God, but as the medieval devil of monkish legend, the petty persecutor of man, says a writer in Popular Science Monthly. In the rural districts of Canada Satan is supposed to be very active. His company may be looked for on all occasions. The accidental appearance of a little child in the room often betrays the presence of the evil spirit, as the poor innocent is sure to bewail itself vigorously. The Prince of Darkness may be met at a ball in the guise of a handsome young man who excels all the rustic gallants in appearance. He wears gloves to conceal his claws, and disregards the trammels of conventionality by keeping his hat on his head to hide his horns. He selects the prettiest girl in the room as his partner, but his choice is usually the village coquette, whose vanity or levity has exposed her to the evil influence. In the midst of the gayety a piercing cry is heard. A strong odor of brimstone becomes perceptible, and the attractive cavalier is wafted out of the window, carrying with him some useful domestic utensil, as, for instance, a stove or the frying pan. The girl may escape with a sharp scratch of a claw, particularly if she should happen to have a cross or a crucifix.

Canadian rustics never answer "Entrez" when a knock is heard at the door; they invariably respond: "Ouvrez." This is founded upon the old legend of a young woman who replied "Entrez" to such a summons, when the devil came in and carried her off.

Owing to last summer's heavy rains in the grazing regions of the southwest territories, there is this season an abundance of winter feed for the animals that graze the range. During a wet summer the buffalo grass grows thick and long, then, in the drought of autumn, curing on the stalk, which curls in drying, it becomes a matted mass, several inches deep, and the best natural hay in the world. It is so nutritious that cattle thrive and keep in good condition upon it, even in cold weather, with snow so deep that they must paw it from the grass. Now, at the end of winter, the New Mexico ranchmen are sending many carloads of beef cattle weekly over the Atchison railroad, as ordinarily they would do only in autumn and December, and the beasts, to use the stock inspectors' expression, "look as fat and sleek as if they had just come off a midsummer range."

A CUMOSITY in the shape of a Delhi (N. Y.) town bond for five hundred dollars was turned in to the town treasurer a few days ago. It was punctured so full of pinholes as to be almost unreadable and it bore other evidences of hard usage. As soon as its genuineness was determined, however, the money was paid on it and a county official made an investigation. Its late owner finally admitted that he had carried the bond for years pinned fast to his undershirt, and that, as he changed his shirt quite frequently, the bond had become full of pinholes.

Postal authorities at Worcester, Mass., were surprised the other day to discover in the mail matter a slightly soiled linen collar. At first it seemed that some absent-minded person had mistaken a letter-box for a soiled clothes basket. But an address on one side of the linen, with a canceled postage stamp, and a letter written on the other, proved that the linen had been put to use as the conveyor of intelligence. So the collar was back stamped and the missive delivered.

The fact was brought out in a Philadelphia court the other day that a certain money-lender of that city has been in the habit of charging twelve hundred per cent. for the use of money. Shylock in his palmist days wasn't a circumstance.
