COL. GARDNER RETIRES FROM U. S. ARMY

A Graduate of Hope College
Colonel Cornelius Gardner, stationed at Fort Wayne Detroit for a number of years prior to the outbreak of the Spanish American War, and a close friend of former Mayor Hazen S. Pigree, on Saturday, May 3, rounded out his forty-fourth year in the service of the United States army by bidding farewell to the Sixteenth Infantry, stationed at the Presidio San Francisco.

Colonel Gardner has commanded the Sixteenth Infantry since 1905. He is now on a four months leave of absence. At the expiration of the leave he will be retired from the service, and probably will spend the remainder of his days on his ranch in Oregon.

Colonel Gardner was born in the Netherlands September 4, 1849. He was appointed a cadet at West Point from Michigan July 1, 1869. June 13, 1873, he was made a second lieutenant of the Nineteenth Infantry. Six years later, June 19, 1879, he was appointed a first lieutenant, and a captain February 24, 1891.

While Colonel Gardner was stationed at Fort Wayne he was captain of what is known as a skeleton company, a company without any men. Through the influence of Mr. Pigree, the colonel was appointed inspector general of the Michigan National Guard by the war department. At the opening of hostilities in the Spanish American War he was made commanding officer of the Thirty-first Michigan Volunteers. He remained with the regiment, which saw service in Cuba. It was mustered out at Savannah, Ga., April 13, 1899.

In the summer of 1899 the war department organized the Thirtieth United States Volunteers in Indiana, Michigan and Illinois, and Gardner was made colonel of the regiment. He was mustered out of the volunteer service in 1901.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN DIES AT KALAMAZOO

Charles McDuffee, a well known resident of this city, died in Kalamazoo asylum hospital Sunday of paresis, from which he had suffered for some time past. About four weeks ago he was taken to the hospital for treatment, and the past two weeks his only brother, Chester McDuffee, of Detroit has been with him and assisted in his care.

Charles McDuffee was born in Allegan Jan. 24, 1870 and passed most of his life here. For years he assisted his parents in conducting the City Hotel at Allegan. Mrs. McDuffee died about 3 years ago and the father suffered a mental break down and has been in Kalamazoo asylum the past three years. The McDuffees were proprietors of the old Rose bud saloon on River street about 25 years ago.

John Mulder and Chester Ver Meulen visited in Grand Rapids Sunday.

HOLLAND CARPENTERS ON A STRIKE

About twenty-five carpenters in this city struck this morning for forty cents an hour instead of thirty-five. They have discontinued work on some of our public buildings and up to this noon no settlement has as yet been made with the men.

SON NOMINATED IN FATHER'S PLACE

Rumor had it that John Beardslee Junior, was to succeed his father as Professor of Hebrew in the Seminary and the report was confirmed later by Dr. Vennema, who, when interviewed, said that after the resignation of Beardslee Senior, the young Professor had been nominated by the Board of Superintendents of the Seminary of which Dr. Vennema is president—which nomination however will necessarily have to be confirmed by his election by General Synod in June, as the Board of Superintendents has no authority to elect.

Rev. Blekkink, who was appointed a year ago to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Rev. N. M. Steffens, was also nominated and his name will also be passed upon by the General Synod.

POLICE DEPARTMENT INVESTIGATES PLAYS

The Police Department of our city is always busy and on the alert, even tho' once in a while it does not get in the papers. Now it has authorized an investigation into the plays, "Madame X", "Three Weeks," etc., which are scheduled for this week at the Knickerbocker. Mr. Kulzenga of the Police Board says that if these plays contain anything approaching the lewd or immoral, the curtain will be immediately rung down.

The people of Holland have been going to plays put on by Mr. Simon, manager of the Knickerbocker, all winter, and we feel positive that he would not tolerate for an instant, anything displeasingly suggestive. His plays have without exception, been clean, and we place all confidence in his ability and good judgment in securing companies for his House. Furthermore he has publicly vouched for the decency of any play put on over the footlights of the Knickerbocker.

KLEIS PAYS A FINE OF $1,000.00 Ex-Deputy Sheriff Found Guilty of Manslaughter is Released

John Kleis former deputy sheriff of Ottawa county, who was charged with shooting and killing Teddy Zering at Saugatuck, July 5, 1912, and recently convicted, in the circuit court of Allegan county, appeared before Judge Orlien S. Cross yesterday morning for sentence. He was given a fine of $1,000 and an alternative sentence of from two to 15 years in the state reformatory.

Kleis' father and Attorney G. J. Diekema of Holland were present and immediately produced the amount of the fine and Kleis was released.

Kleis shot Zering while in the performance of his duty as an officer, though the state contended that the shooting was unnecessary. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter.

CHURCH USHER SAYS HE HAD TWO BIDS TO HAVE DRINK; REPORT CAUSES RIOT

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 14.—The meeting of the congregation of Trinity Episcopal church, Toledo's most fashionable place of worship, almost broke up in a riot when the report of Harry Crandall chairman of the pew and ushers' committee was read. Here is Crandall's report, in part:

"Answered 108 foolish questions. Took care of two booze fighters who were noisy. Kept five sleepers awake during a dry sermon. Entertained about 12 dozen restless, wriggling babies. Told 500 good stories to prospect live joiners, to hold 'em. Took up collections and turned in every cent, including 10 cents we found on the floor that should have been ours by right. But Thou shalt not steal! rubbed itself in on us. Notified one woman her shirt waist was not buttoned up the back, and was told to 'mind our own business.' Never again! Refused two invitations to go out and get a drink while on duty. Cash on hand—nothing doing."

SENDS $100 TO BE USED PARTLY TO PAY FOR NEW PORCH ON PRESIDENT'S HOME.

Balance of Improvement to Be Paid For By Interest on Sum Donated to College By Dr. Vennema Himself.

A large and substantial brick and concrete porch is being built to the president's house on Hope college campus. Some time ago Dr. Vennema received from a friend in far-away Japan a letter enclosing a cheque for $100, and stating that, if the amount were larger, the donor suggested tearing down the narrow front porch of the president's house and build one more in keeping with the spacious residence.

As the old porch needed attention the propriety of such an improvement had suggested itself to the president. Now it happened that several years ago Dr. Vennema gave to the college the sum of $1200 in memory of his mother, with instructions that this sum should be invested, the interest added to the principal from year to year, until principal and interest together should amount to $2500, and that then the interest should be used to aid worthy young men or for such other purpose as the donor might designate.

The amount has long since reached the $2500 mark. The interest has been used for several years to help deserving students to obtain their education, and now for a time it will be used to pay the balance due on the porch after the gift of the friend in Japan has been applied. The improvement to the property is permanent and not only the present occupants of the premises but those who succeed them will enjoy its benefits.

NORTH SIDE BOYS RESCUE THEIR FRIEND FROM JAIL.

A case of Damon and Pythias came up in Holland Monday night in Justice Sooy's court when the friends of John Jones came to his rescue and saved him from going to the county jail in Grand Haven for 20 days.

Jones had been arrested on the charge of having been disorderly. He appeared in Justice Sooy's court and readily admitted his guilt. After his plea of guilty there was nothing for the justice to do but impose the fine fixed by the law. Accordingly Jones was told that he could either pay a fine of $5 and costs amounting to $3 and fifty cents, or spend twenty days at the county lockup.

Jones did not relish going to Grand Haven at this time of the year when fishing is good, but when he dug into his jeans he found so small an amount there that the case seemed hopeless. He was taken to the city jail by an officer to await a train that would take him to Grand Haven.

This was about 7 o'clock Monday night. About fifteen minutes after Jones had been lodged in a cell, Justice Sooy was surprised by the appearance of about 15 boys from the North Side who came filing into his office and who took up all the available space. The boys were friends of Jones and they decided they were not going to let him languish in prison. They took up a collection in the court room and laid the full price of the fine and the costs on the table. Then they demanded that their pal be given his liberty. And in a few minutes they all departed, the former prisoner surrounded by his many friends, a happy crowd.

GOV. FERRIS SIGNS THE JEROME BILL WHICH CUTS OFF IONIA.

Ottawa and Kent counties now comprise the Fifth Congressional district. Tuesday afternoon Gov. Ferris signed the Jerome bill, providing for the reappointment of the congressional districts throughout the state. By the provisions of this bill Ottawa and Kent are in one district, Ionia county having been cut off and placed in another district.

It was claimed that Gov. Ferris would not sign this measure, but the chief executive says that he has been advised that it is constitutional and that if there are any defects the courts can remedy them.

The people of Ottawa county had hoped to be placed in a district with the lake shore counties where this country really belongs because of its location and its interests. But so many politicians throughout the state had to be favored in the reapportionment that it was found impossible to please the people of all the counties.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DELEGATES SPEND A PLEASANT TIME IN HOLLAND.

Get Acquainted With Local Business Men and Visit Holland's Commercial Institutions

In spite of the inclement weather many Holland business men turned out to meet the members of the Manufacturers' and Wholesale Merchants' Board of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce upon their arrival Tuesday night at about 6:30. A special car was in readiness to take the party on a sight seeing trip to Macatawa Park and t/a early party of the evening was spent there.

At about 8:30 the forty visitors and many local business men gathered in the city hall after spending a short time getting acquainted the meeting was called to order in the court room where punch and cigars were served. A. Harrington, president of the Holland Board of Trade and A. B. Marshall, president of the Cleveland Manufacturers and wholesale Merchants board presided at the meeting and men from Holland and from Cleveland were called upon during the evening.

Mr. Marshall in a preparatory speech claimed that there was one thing in which the supply does not exceed the demand, and that is the love of adventure. It was this spirit that discovered America and this spirit that has made it what it is. It was partly with this spirit of adventure that the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce sends out these trade excursions. This is the thirty-first of these excursions, and on this trip they will visit most of the principal cities in this part of the state, merely to get acquainted. He then called on W. B. Fish, who explained their visit here and why they had come to Holland. He told of the hardy Dutch immigrants and said they wished to become better acquainted with these people, and if possible form business relations with them. The object of their trip, he said, was to make familiar the name of Cleveland and to promote good will among the men of competing trades.

President A. Harrington told of the trip to Macatawa and then called on Prof John E. Kuizenga, who gained the favor of the audience with a witty story and a plea for good fellowship. He was followed by a Cleveland speaker, after which Hon. G. J. Diekema spoke about the American businessman and the relation of the middle west to the East and to the West. He said waves of influence sweep over the country from the far East and far West and here they unite in action. So from the Middle West, he said, comes the best thought and best business ability.

D. S. Blossom and other visitors favored the audience—with several songs, and after a short speech of welcome to the visitors by John Vandersluis, President of the Holland Businessmen's association, the Rev. Dd. Meldrum of Cleveland, wound up the meeting with a short talk on the change in democracy; he explained how a higher kind of democracy is being manifested by the people.

After the meeting the balance of the evening was spent in getting acquainted and getting pointers on various business enterprises.

Automobiles conveyed the visitors to their stopping places for the night and many of them took advantage of the autos placed at their disposal yesterday morning and drove through the city. They left yesterday at 9:00 for Grand Haven.

BIRDS AND TREES

Each woodpecker in the United States is worth $20 in cash, when the value is estimated on the value of the good that this bird does to trees. Other birds are worth sums proportionate to the good that they do. The nuthatch, creeper, and chickadee are worth five to ten dollars, varying with the locality and the condition of trees and crops. The downy woodpecker is also the relentless enemy of the codling moth, an insect that damages our apple crops to an extent of twelve million dollars.

In the war between the insects and the trees, millions of dollars are being spent each year by tree owners who know that insects have increased so rapidly of late years that their trees must be protected. The locust and maple trees are preyed upon by the bag insects; elm are sprayed in order to kill the elm beetles, while borers are slaughtering the hickories.

HOLLAND LEATHER PLANT

IS NEARLY COMPLETED

The new plant of the Cappon-Bertsch Leather company, which is being erected on the North Side of Black Lake, is rapidly nearing completion. The main building is three stories and a million bricks were used in its construction. The plant will be used exclusively for the manufacture of sole leather.

DICK WIERSEMA CAME NEAR BEING CRUSHED BY INTERURBAN.

Dick Wiersma, a carpenter, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death under a Holland interurban car. Wiersma, who was riding a bicycle, caught hold of the handle of the front vestibule of the car when his pedal caught in the forward trucks throwing his wheel under the car and dragging him over the pavement for several rods.

Wiersma managed to keep his grip until Motorman Bowers applied the emergency brake and brought the car to a stop. Wiersma was badly bruised and his bicycle was smashed.

DECIDE WEDNESDAY TO HOLD ANOTHER FAIR THIS FALL. Standing Committees Are Appointed and Heads of Departments Are Named.

A meeting of the directors of the South Ottawa and West Allegan Fair Ass'n directors was held Wednesday night at the home of Secretary A. B. Bosman, and it was decided again to hold a fair the coming fall on the old grounds. The dates of the fair are September 16, 17, 18 and 19. The committee on buildings and grounds was instructed to draw up plans and specifications for new stables and to make estimate of costs. The report of this committee is to be made at the next meeting that is to be held in a few weeks. The plan is to build new stables and probably some other new buildings. The old stables along the west fence will be torn down and the new stables are to be built near the little patch of woods on the east side.

A large number of free attractions have been planned, and in spite of the difficulties under which the fair officials work all efforts will be made to make the fair this year a big one and a successful one.

The following standing committees were appointed Wednesday: Sreed, Seth Nibbelink, B. Van Raalte Jr., J. De Pree; Building and Grounds, H. Van Kampen, Dick Boter and H. Van Tongeren; Grand Stand, J. H. Boone and H. Koolker; Concessions, A. B. Bosman, O. C. Schaap and E. P. Stephan.

Former Sheriff Cornelius Andro was elected marshal and the following superintendents were appointed: Cattle, H. Van Kampen and Arthur Wiggers; Horses and Mules, M. Van Zoeren and O. C. Schaap; Sheep and Swine, L. M. Wynyarden; Frank Mastenbroek, H. De Pree and J. Kooyers; Agriculture, K. Koster and G. J. Bolks; Pomological, G. J. Vanden Berg, George Farnsworth; Woman's Department, Miss Rose Clark, Minnie Kramer; Children's Department, Jennie Brouwer and Theo Thurber; Miscellaneous Dept., Simon Kleyn and Thos. N. Robinson; Household Dept. Mrs. G. J. Deur and Mrs. T. A. Boot.

H. KIRBY HART OF FLORIDA TAKES BRIDE FROM THIS CITY.

A pretty wedding took place Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Vanden Berg, 37 East Seventh street, when their daughter Jeanne, was united in marriage to H. Kirby Hart, a fruit dealer of Miami, Fla.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. J. Veldman in the presence of a few family friends and relatives the ring ceremony being used.

Miss Lola St. Clair played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Hart will make their home at Niagara Falls this summer.

MR. AND MRS. J. D. MAXTED CELEBRATED THIS EVENT TUESDAY

Fifty years ago Tuesday at Pewamo, Ionia county, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Maxted were married. Tuesday at home at 247 West Tenth street they commemorated this event. The children and grandchildren of the aged couple gathered at the home to wish them many happy returns of the day. Owing to the state of Mrs. Maxted's health no very elaborate celebration was held, although a few of the intimate friends of the couple stepped in to congratulate them on their golden wedding day.

Mr. Maxted is 74 years old and Mrs. Maxted is 69. They have lived in Holland for the past seven years. Mr. Maxted is still active as a contractor. The couple have five children and six grandchildren.

TODAY IS THE DAY WHEN ALL WILL BE EXPECTED TO HELP

Today is cleanup day throughout the city and many people are preparing for this annual event. Many there are also who were not content to wait for cleanup day but who have been at it from time to time and whose places already look as though they are in perfect shape for the summer. Holland has perhaps more neat appearing lawns than most cities of its size and many householders take great pride in keeping their places in nice trim.

The gatherers of ashes have been busy for some time hauling away the ashes that collected in the back yards during the winter. But whatever the stage of advancement of the cleaning up today the finishing touches will be put on and everybody will be expected to do his share. Today permission is given to burn refuse that comes from lawns and from back yards, although all are requested to take special precautions against fires.

GRADING BEING DONE NOW EAST OF THE CITY AND TO THE NORTH.

Park Road Has Been Staked Out and Work On That May Start Soon.

Road building in the immediate surrounding of Holland is progressing rapidly. The grade of the road that leads out of Holland from the city limits in extension of East Eighth street is nearly completed and soon the stone work on that road will be begun. The road extends a mile from the city limits. The road bed has been moved north to the middle of the highway, thus making it straight. Standing at the crossing near the P. M. Depot one can now look a mile straight down the road. It connects the county system directly with the paving system of the city, and will be one of the finest roads out of the city.

The park road for a mile and a half west from the city limits will also be improved very soon. The commission has had a little difficulty in getting bids on this piece of work. If, however, the bids can be received it is expected that that stretch of road will have been completed by about July first. This road is now one of the most popular with automobile owners, and when it is improved it will doubtless be still more so.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS MUST RAISE THAT AMOUNT.

At a meeting of the athletic board on control Monday it was discovered that the High school athletic association was in debt about $90 and as a result Coach Robinson and the other teachers advised the cancelling of all athletics for the balance of the year as baseball and track meets are not profitable. But the boys did not give up hope on account of so small a matter as $90 and immediately began scheming for a way to pay their debts and continue track and base ball. Many schemes were thought of but an entirely unexpected means of balancing their books was given them when G. T. Haan, proprietor of the Model drug store, offered them his soda fountain for Saturday.

The boy eagerly grasped this opportunity and have began preparations for having one of the biggest ice cream and soft drink days that Holland has ever seen. They will have tickets printed which the students will sell during the week entitled the bearer to an ice cream soda at the Model drug store Saturday.

This will give the public a chance to help athletics in the school at a very small draw on their pocket-books. Maybe you do not eat ice cream. If not you may buy a ticket anyway and no kick will be made. It is up to the people of Holland to show their good will toward the school now by eating ice cream at the Model Drug store next Saturday knowing that through the generosity of Mr. Haan the money will go towards helping a good cause, namely boosting track and base ball in the High school.

Central School Parents Teachers' Club to Meet To-morrow

The Central Parents-Teachers' club will hold the final meeting of this school year to-morrow, May 16, at 3 o'clock.

An interesting program has been arranged, and all members are urged to attend.

But Tony Kuite and His Auto Escaped Injury.

Tony Kuite, the rural mail carrier, had an exciting experience Monday when his Ford automobile capsized while he was driving near Fennville. No one in the party in the machine was hurt and even the machine was uninjured. The auto was turned rightside up again and the journey to Holland was completed as though nothing had happened.

TWO WEARY ONES WERE "RUN IN" MONDAY NIGHT BY OFFICER

Jail Sentences Will Be Meted Out in Attempt to Keep City and Jungles "Clear"

This is just the time of the year when hoboers are loitering at the rail road station and at Waverly in large numbers but this year they will be prosecuted wherever found as vagrants and given jail sentences. Last year the police made a record clearing them out of Waverly, and soon soon the weary ones will see an imaginary sign over this city that they are not wanted here. Already some have been arrested and Monday two men claiming to be 28 years old and giving their names as Benjamin Thomas and Harry Evans were arrested by special P. M. Officer Wagner to answer the charge of vagrancy. They pleaded guilty when arraigned in Justice court and were sentenced to spend thirty days in the county jail.

Keeping the Jungles at Waverly cleared of hoboers has been a problem with the local police and the county officers for many years. For a time it could be done when it was possible to send the vagrants to Detroit for 65 days, but now that the Detroit House of Correction is no longer available for the local officers, they are once more up against it. However jail sentences at the county jail during the pleasant summer months are not relished very much by the hoboers, and it is expected that there will not be a recurrence of the trouble that bothered the police a year or two ago and that came to a head when a murder was committed there.

THE REV. MARTIN FLIPSE OF ROSELAND, ILL., IS THE CHOICE.

At a congregational meeting of the Third Reformed church Monday it was decided to extend a call to the Rev. Martin Flipse, pastor of the First Reformed church of Roseland, Chicago. On the first informal ballot Mr. Flipse had the necessary two thirds votes to elect him, and when the formal ballot was taken he received most of the votes present at the meeting.

The Rev. Mr. Flipse is a pulpit orator of considerable ability. He has held some important charges. A few weeks ago he conducted the services at the Third Reformed church here and since then there was little doubt but that the choice of the congregation would fall on him.

Now Rural Carrier is Contemplating A Vacation.

Anson A. Paris, a rural letter carrier, has had an experience which he will not easily forget. While making his route on a motorcycle, Paris came to a mail box near a beehive.

Paris thought he'd take a chance to open the box and deposit the mail. He was very careful, however, not to disturb or molest the "stingers." While opening the box one of the bees wandered away from the swarm and suddenly lit on Paris' eye. He may have to take a few days' vacation in order to regain the use of his eye which is practically closed.

MANISTEE HIGH SCHOOL WANTS TO KEEP SERVICES OF PROF.

JOHN M. SLAGH

Prof. John M. Slagh, instructor in Latin in the Manistee High school has been re-elected to this position for the coming year. As an inducement to keep the services of the former Holland man the board of education of Manistee has offered to raise his salary. Prof. Slagh has not yet accepted or declined the offer and he will have till June first to decide.

Prof. Slagh has held this position the past three years and each year he has been given an increase in salary. He expects to spend part of the coming summer with relatives and friends in Holland.

MOST OF THEM WILL BUY THE FARMS IN MICHIGAN.

A party of nearly 200 Dutch immigrants, men, women and a few children arrived in Detroit Monday from New York over the Wabash railroad. There were about 70 men in the party who will go to work in Detroit factories. Perhaps 10 fellow countrymen who have been in the United States some time were at the Union station to meet the party, but only two of them seemed to know the new arrivals. While the male immigrants were standing outside the station fence until their ship tickets had been examined, most of the men stood around smoking cigarettes.

The women of the party wore white shawls about their heads and their skirts more nearly resembled the styles when hoops were in vogue.

A great majority of the party will go to the Dutch colony near Holland, Mich., there to buy farms and settle down.—Detroit News.

That's Why He Entertained His Friends Thursday

Thursday was the 36th birthday anniversary of Henry Kraker and he celebrated the event by inviting a number of Woodmen, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and other friends to his home Thursday for a royal good time. Frank Smith did the honors as toastmaster and all those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Kraker had the time of their lives. Light refreshments were served and there was jollity and good cheer throughout the evening and till the small hours of the morning.

After the election there were short speeches by Stegenga, Dr. Eldson and Manager Vanden Berg. The men were then divided into two squads, captained by M. Verburg and L. Hekhuis and an indoor track meet was held. Each event was run in three heats and the following was the result:

HOLLAND PEOPLE ARE MUCH INTERESTED IN ENTERTAINMENTS

In No Other Way Could They Hear So Many Noted Speakers at So Low a Price

Local people are looking forward with much interest to the coming of the Lincoln Chautauqua Assembly which is to be held in Holland during the coming summer and they may congratulate themselves that they do not have to go far from home to hear the very best things in the Chautauqua and Lyceum attractions.

The program which will be given here this Summer is made up of the leading lecturers and entertainers of the country.

These people have not been selected alone because of their splendid platform abilities, but because they stand for the highest and best things which make for uplift.

In no other way for so small an amount of money, could the people of Holland have the privilege of hearing these noted statesmen, educators, signers, and entertainers, than by the splendid system under which this city is operating. The season tickets which are much lower than those of any other circuit, will admit to all sessions of the six days, and at each session there will be a double program, a lecture and an entertainment.

Now that a number of Holland's citizens have gotten under this enterprise in assuming the obligation of the guarantee, all citizens should unite in making it the very great success and blessing it should be to Holland, by procuring season tickets and in every way possible boosting this enterprise until the very air is pregnant with the Chautauqua spirit. It must not be forgotten that the proceeds of these entertainments will go to the Y. M. C. A. fund.

JAPANESE WAR SONGS

Even though the hostile demonstrations in Japan may not represent a positive menace, yet it is unpleasant to find that such a state of mind exists in a neighboring country supposed to be reasonably friendly. The emotionalism shown may be irresponsible, and yet can not be dismissed as meaning nothing. Japan has a much larger standing army than the United States, and a trained naval force but little smaller than ours. Its battle ships are fewer, but armored cruisers and some other types are more numerous. The Japanese gunners appear to have mastered the secrets and minutiae of marksmanship, and as Japan can build battle ships in its own yards it may fairly claim a remarkable progress in the mechanical line. Forced to come out of their seclusion the Japanese resolved to learn the causes of the power exerted by the nations that ended their hermit-nation period. The thoroughness with which they have studied arms and military science has no parallel in history.

Possibly this advancement, and the result of the war with Russia, has made the Japanese more ready to indulge in war songs than a just estimate of themselves would warrant. But undue national vanity is a matter to be reckoned with. No doubt it is true that a concentrated Japanese fleet at this time could make it uncomfortable for us in the Pacific but an excited feeling on the subject is unexpected. The war songs have broken out and must at least be viewed as a warning that our navy must not be allowed to run down. In the last Congress it was hard to get a vote favorable to building even a single battle ship. But Japan is proceeding on an entirely different plan. It is building all the battleships it can pay for. Time alone can tell what use it will make of them, but its war songs at present are directed against the United States only. They are said to mean little. But they suggest to prudent Americans that a policy of unpreparedness would not be good.

SUGAR AND THE COST OF LIVING

Free traders, intent on putting sugar on the free list, will not be able to suck much sweet comfort out of the latest bulletin of retail prices just issued by the Department of Labor. Relief from the high cost of living is the plea for the UNDERWOOD attack on the high wages of American workmen. Of the fifteen principal articles of food enumerated for which the increase in price on Dec. 15, 1912, was over the average for the decade 1890-1899 sugar shows an increase that is practically negligible, and, compared with the increase in wages, wholly so.

Where the per cent of increase to last December over the average of the base chosen for flour is given as 26.8 per cent, for milk 40.2, for rib roast 57.8, for corn meal 58.5, for butter 63.6, for ham 67, for round steak 78, for pork chops 79.9, for eggs 105.2 and for bacon 114.3, that for sugar is only 2.9 per cent.

This amounts to a demonstration that American sugar producers and refiners are guiltless of any appreciable share in adding to the high cost of living.

For some reason the bulletin fails to bring the coincident increase in the wages of workmen down to date. All its estimates are based on the figures for 1901 prepared for the eighteenth annual report of the bureau of labor. According to this the average income of a workman's family thirteen years ago was $827 and its average expenditure $768, of which $326, or 42.54 per cent, was for food.

In 1908 the bureau published a bulletin showing an increase of 22.4 per cent in the average weekly earnings of workmen in 1907 over the 1890-1899 basis.

The employees of our sugar producers and sugar refiners shared in the higher wages of 1907 and also in the increase since 1907, but in the meantime the retail price of granulated sugar has increased less than 3 per cent.

Sugar's crime against the tariff for revenue free traders was that its importation yielded over $50,000,000 a year revenues to the federal government and they seek to save this to the foreign exporters in order to make good the loss by taxing the incomes of half a million American citizens.

Japan has learned to build modern battle ships for itself and orders them at the rate of three a year. It is for Congress to consider if the fact has any special significance.

"Everywhere armaments are increasing," says the French premier, but such is not the case in the United States. Recently Congress has not shown that it intends to maintain the navy on its present scale.

Does that poultry fancier who is trying to develop a wingless chicken intend to keep the price from soaring?

The oldest undertaker in the world has just completed his one hundredth birthday. His ambition is to bury the last man on earth.

A new House will be elected next year, and if the tariff revisers fail to reduce the cost of living by that time, without impairing the means of living, their excuses will not be worth much.

BEARDSLEE LIBRARY DEDICATED

The formal presentation of the Beardslee Memorial Library to Dr. Bruce, representative of the Synod of the Reformed Church, took place yesterday afternoon. Dr. Vennema of the College presided. Dr. Beardslee gave an address bearing upon the fulfillment of his desire to build the library, and his ardent wish and prayer that his gift might be of great use to the students, the Church and the world, after which he handed the keys of the building to Dr. Bruce, saying that he hoped Dr. Bruce might officially present them to the General Synod at its next meeting in June.

Dr. Bruce made eloquent response to this address, dwelling on the splendid career of Dr. Beardslee as a teacher, and his generosity in presenting the library to the Seminary. Dr. Zwemer spoke in behalf of the Seminary and students. Benediction was pronounced by Dr. Vennema.

GRAND HAVEN TO DRAFT A NEW CHARTER

Grand Haven Aldermen Preparing Resolution For Commission
 Alderman Jacob Glerum of the Second ward will present a resolution at the next meeting of the council, providing for the election of a charter commission to draft a new city charter for Grand Haven.

Municipal affairs are now being conducted under the old "blanket" charter, drafted by the state in 1895 for cities of the fourth class, which took effect January 1, 1896. Incorporated in the resolution are a number of proposals which will give start upon. The most important of these are the extension of time for payment of special assessments from five to ten years; the redistricting of the city into five wards instead of four; lengthening the terms of city clerk and the city treasurer from one to two years; and the collection of the state, county and city taxes at different times, instead of bunching them, as is done at present.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

In the First Reformed church last night the thirty-seventh annual commencement of the Western Theological seminary was held. Dr. Vennema of Hope College presided. Two members of the graduating class gave addresses. Mr. James Verberg spoke in English on "The Attitude of the Church Toward Socialism" and Mr. Jean A. Vis rendered an address in the Dutch language on "Gezag op Godsdiensig Gebied." The Hope college quartet furnished appropriate music. Dr. Beardslee presented the diplomas to the graduates, and in a touching manner spoke a few fitting words to the young men.

There are six in the class: Robt. W. Douma, Hamilton Michigan; Henry K. Pasma, Moline, Michigan; Harry E. Reinhart, Holland, Michigan; Arie J. Te Paske, Orange City, Iowa; James A. Verberg, Holland, Mich.; Jean A. Vis, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mr. Vis has accepted a call to New Sharon, Ia. Mr. H. Pasma to Oostburg, Wis., and Mr. Reinhart to Chandler, Minn.

The work of the year is practically completed and the majority of officers for the coming year have already been elected.

LIFE IN HOPES DOMITORY FOR GIRLS

The Christian Intelligencer in its Letter Box department contains the following interesting letter from Miss Eva Te Paske of Zeeland giving a detailed description of the way our girl students live and enjoy themselves at the College dormitory at Hope.

The letter follows:—
 Zeeland, Mich., March 7, 1913.
 Dear Cousin Joan:

We are not living in Dolkon any more, as we moved here on the 28th of January. When we lived in Dolkon I went to high school. As we live way out in the country now, I cannot go to high school, so I have to either stay home or be away from home to go to school. I have decided on the latter course, as I must get an education. I am now attending the "prep" or preparatory school of Hope College at Holland, Mich. I come home on Friday and go back to school on Mondays. During the week I room and board at Voorhees Hall, the dormitory for girls.

I find life at the dormitory very enjoyable. Where there are lots of girls, all attending school, things go quite lively. The boys of the school, at least some of them, take their meals at Voorhees Hall, as there is no dining room at Van Vleck Hall, the men's dormitory.

As most of the dormitory girls are in the College Department, instead of the "prep" as I am, things go on in a very college-girl way, just like you read about in books. Sometimes a girl gives a "spread" and invites a few of the other girls. At these "spreads" all sorts of chafing-dish "feats" are served. Once we

(I mean the dormitory girls) had a costume party. We all dressed up to represent something, and some of the figures were very funny. Some of them were the Gold-dust Twins, Giant-ess, Fat Lady, Negro Chef Grand ma, Tennis-girl Chinese Lady, Indian Cowgirl Nuns, Suffragette College-graduate, etc. There are many I cannot think of. I represented Topsy and I looked very in my hair and more a very short plaid dress with a red handkerchief around my neck. After having three flashlight pictures taken, we hid ourselves up to the third floor and refreshed ourselves with cocoa, sandwiches, cake and salad. So you see we had a very delightful time.

As we live out in the country now, we have a horse named Robert, Bruce. We call him Bruce. He is all black and is very gentle.

Hoping that you enjoy the same blessing of health that we do I am

Your "Cousin",

EVA TE PASKE

Eva's account of dormitory life is so interesting that I felt it must be shared with the "Corner Cousins." How she will enjoy the summer out in the country with good black Bruce and all the other four-footed friends that she must have! We hope to hear about it all some day. The "Letter Box" always welcomes letters and so does

A TREAT FOR MUSIC LOVERS

On Wednesday evening, May 21 the music loving people of Holland will be given a rare treat. Mr. Paul Van Katwijk will appear in Winants Chapel. Mr. Van Katwijk studied and graduated at the Royal Conservatory of Music at The Hague, Holland. After completing his course there he continued his study of music for two years at Berlin and one year at Vienna where he won a scholarship. Since the conclusion of his study he has held remarkable positions. For a while he was head of the piano department in the conservatory in Nienstadt and de Haardt in Germany, and later won a similar position in the National Conservatory at Helsingfors, Finland. He is a musician of rare attainments and presents an unusual program in a most masterly style. The chief characteristic in his playing is the poetic touch which he manages to infuse into everything. He is the personification of technical perfection not only but also fully realizes the judicious use of the pedals. This causes him to play with extreme clarity, with real astonishing colour and with wonderful rhythmic appreciation. This member, must be given in Winants Chapel because Mr. Van Katwijk demands a room with the very best acoustics. Furthermore he demands a piano of the highest grade such as is found in Winants Chapel. Since the seating capacity is rather limited those who desire to hear him should get their tickets early. Tickets can be secured at Hardies Jewelry Store at 50 and 75 cents. Get tickets early.

HOLLAND GAS COMPANY CASE MAY GO UP TO SUPREME COURT.

But the City Council Will Go Ahead and Take Action in Regard to October Resolution.

Today is the last day when the Holland City Gas Company will have to appeal its case against the city of Holland. That the appeal will be made to the United States Supreme court is very likely although no step to this effect has as yet been taken. If it is appealed the chances are that it will not be heard of for a year or two since it will take about that time for the highest court of the land to come to a decision.

But whatever the decision of the gas company may be in regard to appealing or not, the fact remains that the council of this city can go ahead and enforce the resolution that was passed last October and over which all the subsequent legal proceedings have come about. Because the injunction asked for by the gas company, praying that the city be restrained from bringing this resolution into effect pending the decision of the supreme court, was denied by Judge Sessions, the city can go ahead and enforce the resolution, whether the supreme court is to be called upon by the gas company or not.

It is likely that at the next meeting of the council the aldermen will be face to face with some kind of action in regard to this question. Before that meeting City Attorney Van Duren will probably draw up some plan of action and recommend it to the aldermen for their approval. That some action will be taken is undoubtedly, since the council practically stands committed to enforcing the resolution of last October. The city has passed through several law suits in the United States court in Grand Rapids and in each case Holland has come out victorious.

ven to receive bids for the sale of the hundred thousand dollar bond issue authorized by the board at its last meeting. Although the committee was in session till 4 o'clock and stayed at the county seat until the very last minute before the train left for Holland, not a single bid was received and the road bonds are still unsold.

All the committee could do was to adjourn until some future time when there may be more favorable prospects for making a sale. The adjournment was made on condition that the chairman, Nicodemus Bosch, should call a meeting through the county clerk, at his discretion. Probably if some prospects of selling the bonds come up another meeting will be held soon.

Meanwhile the good roads work can go on for a time at least. There is still some money left of the first issue of a hundred thousand dollars in bonds that was made soon after the county road system was adopted by Ottawa. When this is exhausted however, the work will have to stop unless a new bond issue can be sold. The good roads work is now progressing fast and if there is no hitch in selling the bonds many miles will be completed during the present summer.

The road leading out of Holland that is farthest advanced is the so-called Grand Haven road, beginning at the Grand Haven bridge. This road when completed will extend north for a distance of three miles. One mile has been completed, the stone having been put on. On the other two miles the grading has been done and the work of putting on the stone will be begun soon.

The road commissioners are keeping in mind the road building that is being done by Allegan county. Holland is as much interested in the roads that extend into Fillmore township as in those that run into Ottawa county, and the two systems will eventually make one general road system.

TALK ON "JUVENILE COURT" IS WELL WORTH HEARING.

The lecture by Judge Edward P. Kirby on the "Juvenile Court" in the High school assembly room tomorrow evening will be something worth hearing. Every citizen is invited to attend this lecture, and the parents who are interested in the city's children are specially urged to hear Mr. Kirby speak. At this time when there seems to be more interest in the youth of the city than ever before during Holland's history a lecture of this kind is very timely. Holland has repeatedly been represented in the juvenile court by youthful delinquents whom the parents and the teachers could not control and who had to be kept in check by legal means. Being a constructive official Judge Kirby does not wait until the delinquent boys and girls come to him; he takes all possible opportunity to speak on this subject so that people may co-operate with him to prevent the making of delinquents. For this reason the meeting of tomorrow evening will be of special interest.

Austin Harrington of this city and Dr. William De Kleine of Grand Haven were re-elected as directors for Ottawa county by the Western Michigan Development Bureau that held its meeting in Traverse City Wednesday. Directors were also appointed for other counties represented in the bureau.

The newly elected directors will meet on May 21 and elect officers. During the last year Sec. John L. Gibson has traveled 21,961 miles which includes his trip abroad. While in England he sold 600 barrels of apples at Manchester.

During the year $55,226.16 has been collected and at the present time the treasury holds $2,979.05.

Seventy-five thousand booklets were given away last year. The coming year the principal activities will be along the lines of proper packing, instituting cold storages, care of the waste; increased sowing of alfalfa.

The Western Michigan Dairy cows produce over five million dollars of wealth yearly. The exact figures for 1909, the last census year, were $5,439,131. She is probably doing much better now. In Kent and Ottawa counties the dairy products amounts to more than a million dollars a year.

Saturday afternoon the Bots of this city defeated the Central Park baseball team 20 to 6 at Central Park. The local team played rings around the park team and at no time was their lead threatened. This team has been playing good ball and will try to get games with some of the other local teams.

If there is anything in the hoodoo that is supposed by superstitious people to be connected with thirteen then one young lady in the city certainly should be the unluckiest individual in the state. Miss Gertrude Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto P. Kramer celebrated the thirteenth birthday anniversary Tuesday on the 13th of May. It must further be remembered that this is the year with a thirteen in it, namely 1913. But all this is nothing, when it is remembered that Miss Kramer lives on 13th street. Even this is insignificant when it is stated that she lives next door to the house that bears the number 13 East 13th street. It would be hard to pack any more thirteens into any young girl's life.

She had been ill for several weeks and a few days before her death relatives were summoned on account of the seriousness of her condition.

Fennville Mich.—C. E. Bassett, one of the most prominent growers in the state, states that the frost did great damage in this section.

"Peaches are the worst hit," said he. "Pears, plums and cherries were also damaged severely. Apples were injured only slightly. Small fruit suffered greatly, especially the straw berries."

The Western Michigan Poultry and egg income amounts to nearly three million dollars a year and is increasing rapidly. The climate and soil of Western Michigan are both favorable to the poultry industry and this industry works well with the fruit growing.

Frank Kole was arrested for riding a motorcycle on the sidewalk on State street and he paid the costs of $3 when arraigned in justice court. Many people are in the habit of riding on the side walk on College avenue and State street, but if they are caught they will be given a good stiff fine for not heeding the repeated warnings against riding on the walks.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Among the dispatches from Kalamazoo, we notice the marriage on the 15th, of Lieutenant C. Gardiner, U. S. A. to Mrs. Lillie Burleigh. We were wondering where the gallant Lieutenant got ambushed, since we noticed his leave of absence, but this dispatch explains it satisfactorily.

Ex-Mayor I. Cappon started last Wednesday for a trip to Europe in general, and the Paris Exposition in particular.

The Village of Zeeland is still progressing. On the corner where Mrs. J. Brouwer's grocery store was, the stone foundation is being laid for a new clothing house for Mr. C. Brusse and immediately next, the work has commenced for a new store for De Pree Bros. The De Pree Bros., have been engaged for some time past for Mr. A. Bolke, and if their tramping out may be taken as an encouragement from the business they have been engaged in, we must regard it as an omen for Mr. A. Bolke's business capacity and the new firm will undoubtedly find a lively competitor in their old master. However, competition is the life of trade. Zeeland is to have a new drug store also, the building for which is nearing completion and is located next to the Post Office. The old druggist, Mr. J. Block, looks upon the advent of a competitor with complaisance. To say the least, it will surely be hard to beat Mr. Block on cigars for we think his ten-centers are the best in the county.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Died:—On Monday, May 7, 1883, Mr. Peter Pluim, aged 24 years. Mr. Pluim had been employed in "De Hollander" office for a number of years. He leaves a wife and one child besides a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. The funeral services were held at the home of his employer, Mr. Benjaminse, last Wednesday and was largely attended.

A meeting of the Holland Soldiers' Union will be held at the Holland City News office on Wednesday May 16th, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of taking steps toward a proper observance of Decoration Day. All are invited.

Jas. L. Fairbanks, President, Zeeland—Mr. M. Den Herder, father of our banker, Mr. J. Den Herder, and one of the old pioneers of this colony, died Monday last at the advanced age of 84 years. The funeral service was held on Thursday.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schepers on Wednesday, May 3, 1888—a boy.

Three saloons are now in full blast in Holland, armed with all the requirements of the state and city and we think the new saloon keepers are impressed with a spirit of living up to the letter of the law and in conducting their places of business in a respectable way. Holland is fortunate in having men in this city to run these places in an orderly manner. We have no hesitancy in saying that in no place in Michigan have the city authorities had less trouble with the whiskey shops than here, and it certainly has been to the credit of the community and to the proprietors of these places.

O. M. Hansen, died last Thursday morning of general debility and old age at the home of his son, Mr. N. Hansen of this place, aged 89 years. He was the oldest man in the city. The funeral services will be held at the house this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. H. D. Jordan officiating.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Hotel Ottawa is still without a landlord.

Geo. R. Baert of Zeeland, graduated Wednesday from the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania. He is the son of Dr. D. Baert.

Mr. Van Landegend is adding an addition and a new front to the premises known as the old Binnekaart bakery and will soon remove his plumbing and gas fitting shop, into this place.

Geo. Deming has his new foundry on Tenth Street nearly completed.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

R. C. Kanters, son of A. M. Kanters of Salt Lake City, Utah, has joined the ranks of the volunteer forces and enlisted in a cavalry regiment.

Peter Duijck has quit fishing, disposed of his nets, and is again tending bar for Dave Blom.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Beardslee will preach in the Pine Creek school House Sunday evening. Services in the English language.

The storm on Wednesday evening interfered sadly with the public meeting called to arrange for the observance of Decoration Day. An executive committee of three, composed of L. T. Kanters, G. J. Van Duren and J. B. Mulder, were appointed with power to designate the usual committees and to perfect necessary arrangements.

Robert A. Hunt died Monday evening aged 57 years. He resided in this city for a number of years until he moved to his farm—the old Scholten place. He leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Samuel Miller of Waverly. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon.

TEN YEARS AGO

G. Van Schelven and G. J. Van Duren were elected president and vice president respectively by the trustees of the Pilgrim Home Cemetery. The board also elected J. Dykema as secretary and treasurer and appreciating the fine service of H. H. Vander Water, re-appointed him as senter for the coming year.

Mrs. A. Holmer passed away at her home on East Tenth Street last week Friday morning. For many years she had suffered from a complication of diseases. Doctors did give no relief and only death could end her suffering. She was born in the Netherlands, and came to this country in 1876, settling at Crisp, where she leave considerable property.

ty. Later she moved to Holland. A husband and eleven children survive her. The funeral was held last Tuesday afternoon at 1:15 from the former Ch home and at 2:00 from the Ninth Street Christian Reformed Church, Rev. A. Keizer leading the services. Interment was in the New Holland cemetery.

The building formerly occupied by Botsford and Pino has been leased for two years to Bascomb Parker, the gas man, who will open his office sometime in June.

The Temperance Rally which was held in Hope Church last Monday evening was not largely attended. The addresses however were of an eloquent nature. Rev. P. T. Rockman, D. D. of New Brunswick, N. J., and Rev. M. Kohn of Grand Rapids spoke.

Three of Hollands sportsmen, Bennie Van Raalte, R. Easley, and Ed. Westveer are after trout this week. They left last Monday for the Pere Marquette River which is noted as being densely inhabited by the finny tribe. Besides a lot of fish they promise to return with a number of freshly concocted fish stories.

Mrs. Brouwer, mother of James A. Brouwer, is slightly improved. It will be remembered that the aged lady had a serious fall a few weeks ago.

Paul R. Coster, was elected secretary of the Michigan Letter Carriers' Association, which held its meeting at Battle Creek this week. The honor conferred upon Mr. Coster is proof of his popularity among the letter carriers of the state.

PROF. J. B. NYKERK WAS JUDGE FRIDAY NIGHT IN MUSKEGON

Prof. J. B. Nykerk of Hope College was in Muskegon Friday and acted as judge in the Peninsula oratorical contest in which many high schools in this part of the state took part. Holland did not enter this contest this year.

The result of the judges' decision showed that Royal D. Rood of Ann Arbor had won first place with his oration on "Our Greatest Political Need." Second place was given to Kathleen Gunn of the Muskegon High school who spoke on "Child Labor." Merrill D. Minet of Battle Creek won third place. He spoke on the subject, "From the Sword to the Shekel."

Prof. Nykerk showed his ability in picking winners in this contest. He had given Ann Arbor first, Muskegon second, and Battle Creek third, the way they finally ranked.

The judges on thought and composition made their selection the early part of this week. The judges on the delivery in conjunction with the three judges who had made their selections made their decisions within 15 minutes after the contest had closed. The judges on thought and composition were Prof. Charles Woolbert of Albion college, Prof. J. F. Mack of Hillsdale college and Principal E. E. Gallup of Adrian. The judges on delivery were: Prof. J. B. Nykerk of Hope College; Supt. L. H. Vanden Berg, Grand Haven; Prin. I. C. Gilbert, Grand Rapids.

The other speakers were: "Some Injustices of Modern Law Courts"—Charles Cummings, Saginaw, East Side; "Municipal Ownership and Graft," Ford E. Curtis, Saginaw, West Side; "The Individual Responsibility in a Democracy," Lloyd Mount, Jackson; "Capital Punishment," Ivan Hitchcock, Kalamazoo.

DR. J. W. BEARDSLEE CLOSES 25 YEARS OF WORK AT THE SEMINARY.

Public Meeting is Held in His Honor—His Life Reviewed by Close Friend.

The occasion of the celebration of the quarter centennial jubilee of the services of Dr. John W. Beardslee as professor at the Western Theological Seminary is one long to be remembered by those who had the privilege of attending. At 5 o'clock Tuesday night there assembled in the parlors of Hope church the faculty, students, a large number of alumni and the members of the board of superintendents of the seminary to partake of the good things prepared by the ladies of the Aid society of Hope church. The parlors presented a pretty spectacle. Several tables were placed around the room each one lighted by shaded candles casting a faint glow over the whole room. At the head of each table sat one of the ladies who presided over the wants of the guests at that table. An elaborate four course luncheon was served.

After the supper, brief addresses were made by the following: Dr. A. Vennema, president of the Board of superintendents presided and also spoke for the board. The Rev. W. P. Bruce, D. D. spoke in his official capacity as president of the general synod. The Rev. James Farrar spoke for the New Brunswick Seminary. The Rev. S. Vander Werf, spoke for the Alumni and Henry K. Pasma of the present Senior class spoke for the students. The churches were represented by Mr. Cornelius Dosker, of the 2nd Ref. Church of Grand Rapids.

After the collation the guests adjourned to the main auditorium of the church for the formal jubilee services. The choir rendered the beautiful anthem "The Heavens are Telling" after which Dr. Vennema read the Scriptures and the Rev. B. Hoffman of Zeeland offered prayer. The choir then gave the inspiring "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah."

The main address was given by the Rev. Peter Moerdyke, D. D., of South Bend, Ind., member of the first class graduating from the Western Seminary and life-long friend of Dr. Beardslee. Dr. Moerdyke opened his address with the story of a tourist in Connecticut, who, on noticing a region of particularly poor soil, asked a native boy "What do you raise here, son?" and the boy replied, "We raise men!" Then pointing to Dr. Beardslee he said "Here is one of them." He reviewed Dr. Beardslee's early life, tracing the hand of God in his career in guiding him to Michigan and the Seminary from the time he was a school teacher near New Brunswick, where he was finally led to enter the Seminary, to his first charge here in Michigan. Dr. Beardslee came to Michigan in the days of pioneer work and gave himself unstintingly to the tasks before him. He was willing to work under difficulties and never looked for ready-made successes. He was faithful in his services of the church at Constantine, Michigan and was the leader of the Classis of Michigan until 1888, when the General Synod appointed him a second professor at the local Seminary. Dr. Moerdyke emphasized the fact that the appointment came as a complete surprise to Dr. Beardslee and was a clear case of the office seeking the man. Dr. Beardslee made his position, not a seat of rest, but a seat of power, through his constant application and study. Dr. Beardslee's modesty which made him beloved of all men whom he met. He also emphasized his adaptability in coming into a Dutch community and so intrenching himself in the hearts of the people so as to be honored and respected by everyone.

At the close of Dr. Moerdyke's address, Dr. Beardslee responded with a few simple, heartfelt words of appreciation of all the kind words which had been spoken of him. "I have only done my duty and followed God's will to the extent that I had the light," said he. "One thing I am assured of tonight is the fact that I have friends and that I count more than earthly treasure."

Referring to the nearly two hundred young men whom he has seen graduated from the Seminary and who were present or represented last evening, he likened to a homecoming and added "These are the crown of my life."

Dr. Beardslee in whose honor the collation and jubilee service was given, was born in Ohio in 1838. Graduated from Rutgers college in 1860 and from the New Brunswick Theological seminary in 1863. He was pastor of the Reformed church at Constantine for 21 years and of the church in West Troy, N. Y., for four years. In 1888 he was elected by the general synod of the Reformed church to the chair of Biblical languages and literature in the Western seminary and has been president of the institution for 21 years.

Dr. Beardslee was honored with the degree of doctor of divinity and doctor of laws by the New Brunswick seminary and is the author of numerous work on theology.

A year ago Dr. Beardslee tendered his resignation to the board of superintendents, but that body refused to consider it and he was prevailed upon to continue his work. He has the unique distinction of sharing a triple anniversary—75 years of age, 50 yrs., as a minister of the gospel and 25 years as professor—all within the short space of six months.

Tuesday afternoon the new Beardslee Memorial library was dedicated and last night the annual commencement exercises closed the festivities.

HOLLAND MAKES A GOOD SHOWING IN VITAL STATISTICS

There were 109 births in Ottawa county during the month of March of which month the bulletin of vital statistics has just been issued by the state. During the same month there were 76 births and thirtyeight deaths in Allegan county. In Holland the number of births was 35 and of deaths 13. In Grand Haven there were 10 births and 11 deaths; in Allegan city 7 births and 7 deaths. In Holland the birth rate was again almost three times as large as the death rate, in contrast with Grand Haven and Allegan in one of which the death rate was higher than the birth rate and in the other the figures were the same.

WILL TRY TO PUT A STOP TO THE BREAKING OF ARC LIGHTS.

The Board of Public Works is going to get after the boys who have been in the habit of breaking the globes of arc lights, on the street corners. Lately there has been a good deal of complaint in regard to this practice. Boys are in the habit of playing on street corners under the arc lights evening and often they indulge in a contest to see who can throw a stone nearest an arc light without hitting it. Often the stone goes a little nearer than was intended and in this way the globes are often broken. The globe of an arc light costs a good deal of money, and the city may take strenuous measures to put a stop to this practice.

NETHERLAND EMIGRANTS TO LOCATE IN THIS STATE

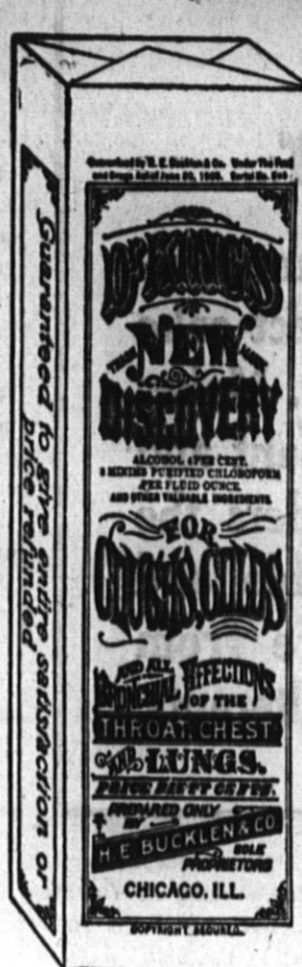

Three hundred more Dutch farmers who were forced by high ground rents to emigrate from Friesland, Holland, arrived at New York last week on the liner Noordam, with their families, averaging from five to ten children each. They were all second cabin passengers, and each farmer brought his fortune with him in the form of a draft. These drafts called for sums ranging from $5000 to $25,000 and the money is to be invested for new homes of their own in Michigan.

In the party were Mrs. Charles Koning with five children and J. C. Koning and Mrs. Koning with three children bound for this part of the state.

As the family left the pier a little Willem dropped a large pasteboard box and out popped 20 white rats. About half of them were recaptured by passengers and custom men. The Konings and the rats then started for Michigan.

M. C. Halladay, who has been employed as operator at the Postal Telegraph Co., in this city for the past few months has resigned his position and accepted a position in the office at Detroit. Sunday E. B. Taylor who has been formerly employed at the office in Saginaw commenced work in the office here, Mr. and Mrs. Halladay left Monday for Detroit.

IS GIVEN FIRST PLACE BY FAC- ULTY; SPOKE ON "THE SIMPLE WOMANHOOD"

Miss Ruth Vanden Berg Wins Second Place With Her Oration On "The Common Hero."

Miss Anna Kolyn of this city was awarded first place in the Voorhees Day contest Thursday afternoon. Her oration was entitled "The Simple Womanhood."

The program opened with two songs "Wake Ye Strains of Music Sweet" and "Oh, Who Will O'er the Downs?" by a girls' chorus after which Dr. Vennema pronounced the invocation.

Martha Bolks of the Sophomore class was the first speaker. Her oration was on "The Power of Gold." She showed how gold and the love of it had been a crime to man thru all the ages. The downfall of nations has been caused by their love of material gain. Love of gold has eclipsed the love of an idol. As a result we have today child labor, sweat shop, work in the tenements and importation of foreigners who think America is a land of gold. On the other hand there are also the more helpful results of gold or wealth typified in mother's pensions, libraries, gifts to flood sufferers and prison reform measures. There are two powerful influences of gold—the one toward corruption, the other toward helpfulness. Happily the tendency of the age is toward the latter. As a final appeal she summoned each and every one to share in the uplift of humanity.

Frances Bosch of the Freshmen class spoke on "The Guiding Power of Nations." "The Present age is the culmination of all past ages," said Miss Bosch. She then traced the omnipotent guiding power of nations through history beginning with the fall of Rome, the Battle of Louis, the work of Joan of Arc and the destruction of the Spanish Armada. But not only in great military conflicts has this guiding power been active, but also in the conflict of great ideas against stagnation as is typified in the rise in politics and religion. "As the past is an unbroken upward course so shall the future be due to the guiding power of nations."

Miss Kolyn, also of the Freshman class, was the next speaker. In introducing her subject she described the character of Silas Marner and the influence of Dolly Winthrop upon the old weaver, as portrayed in George Elliot's novel "Silas Marner." She then went on to plead for more Dolly Winthrop today. She showed how woman's sphere was in the home where she ruled by divine anointing. Women today must have education and training and their clubs but these things must not occupy the first place. All things must tend to fulfill her calling that of the simple woman, pouring out her life in loving service first to her family and then to others.

The next number was a piano solo by Miss Evelyn De Pree who played "Warum" by Schumann and "Autumn Hunting Song" by Hill.

Anna Osewaarde of the class of 1915 spoke on "A Modern Crusade." She traced the story of the early crusades of the tenth and eleventh centuries of the Christian against the Turk for the possession of the Holy Shrine. The modern crusade, she said, was not military, but civic. The duty of crusaders today is to fight for a better government to abolish child labor and defend buffeted womanhood. She showed how circumstances made it absolutely necessary for girls to toil in factory and shop and showed how the inhumanity of the low wage which drives girls to lives of shame and infamy. In view of these facts she pleaded for better wages—not only a living wage—but a wage which would make food more wholesome and lodgings better and make the entire tendency of a girl's life upward rather than downward.

The last speaker was Ruth Vanden Berg of the Junior class. "The Common Hero" was her subject. She said all ages had worshipped a hero. The Norsemen had their heroes and later ages worshipped Napoleon as the embodiment of true greatness. A hero, said she is a hero in all points—unselfish generous and self-sacrificing. We look to history for our heroes and forget the countless heroes among the common people. We praise Napoleon and forget the soldier with out whom he would have been a failure. She cited many examples of common heroes such as the Gary newsboy who gave of his own flesh to save another life. In pleading for more common heroes she said "It is not the deed which counts but the spirit in which it is done."

The concluding number was "The Gypsy Chorus from Precosia" sung by the girls' chorus.

The chapel had been very tastefully decorated with orange and blue bunting, pennants and flowers. All the classes attended the exercises in a body, the Seniors appearing in cap and gown.

After the program a most delightful reception was given at Voorhees hall to the parents of the young lady students and patrons of the college.

The faculty acted as judges in this contest and after protracted deliberations Friday announced Miss Kolyn as winner with Ruth Vanden Berg second. The contest was so close and the orations of such a high order the faculty found it almost impossible to choose the best one.

Miss Kolyn will represent the intercollegiate contest at Albion next March.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL ALSO LIKED THE DOCUMENT

Holland Committee Explained Provisions to the Governor and His Legal Aid.

The committee of the Charter Revision Commission sent to Lansing Thursday to take the new charter to the Governor for his signature composed of Chairman Henry Brusse, R. H. Habermann and Arthur Van Duren, have returned after successfully accomplishing their mission. Governor Ferris gladly signed the new charter and declared that he was well pleased with it.

Chief Assistant Attorney General Thomas Lawler, went farther in his statement in regard to the new charter. He assured the Holland men that it was one of the best gotten up documents of the kind that he had ever passed upon. He commented especially on the neatness of the work. The charter had been neatly typewritten on white paper, letter-head size, and had been neatly bound in board covers. It was almost as easy to read as though it had been in book form. Mr. Lawler told of an instance when a town in another part of the state had sent a proposed charter written on three different colors of paper, part of it typewritten and the rest written in long hand and in two different handwritings.

Mr. Lawler asked a great many questions about the proposed new charter and he was favorably impressed by the answers. The commissioners know the document from A to Z and they had answers ready for all his questions. Mr. Lawler was particularly anxious to know all about the plan of non-partisan city elections. When he had been made familiar with all the provisions in this section of the charter he expressed himself as well satisfied with the plan and he endorsed it heartily.

He asked further what provision had been made to make the people of Holland acquainted with the new charter. When it was explained how thorough a campaign of publicity is to be made he was also well satisfied.

Mr. Lawler is experienced in the work of charter revision. He was a member of the charter revision commission that revised the charter of the city of Lansing last year. That charter was passed last July. It is interesting to note the comparative cost of charter revision. Mr. Lawler asked the commission how much this work had cost the people of Holland. He was told that the total bill would be less than $500. He made the committee gasp when he said that the revision of the Lansing charter had cost that city exactly $4955.57. Nor does the difference in the sizes of the two cities make any difference. The Lansing charter covered about as many pages as the Holland charter and the commission did not spend any more time on it.

It is proposed to furnish each voter of Holland with a printed copy of the new charter so that they can study it carefully. Then after the people have studied it for some weeks, it is proposed to hold two public meetings in the court room in the city hall. These meetings are to be some time in June and one is to be in the Holland and one in the English languages. At these mass meetings the people will be given the opportunity to ask all the questions they desire in regard to the new charter, and the charter commissioners will endeavor to answer them, so that all may vote intelligently.

In addition to this the newspapers will print articles in regard to the charter, explaining the provisions and making the people familiar with the document. At present there is practically no opposition to the charter and it is not expected that any will develop.

HEAVY FREEZE CAME LAST FRI- DAY NIGHT

Ice half an inch thick formed last Friday night when this locality experienced the coldest night for this time of the year in six years. Farmers were warned of the approaching cold weather, and most of them made what preparations they could to prevent damage. Strange to say, however, there was very little of what is commonly termed frost. A slight wind which stirred the air through the night kept it off. Friday night's phenomena might be termed a freeze rather than a frost.

As a result, fruit growers believe that not much damage was done to the fruit buds as though there had been a hard frost which would have settled into the buds and nipped them. As it is it is feared that considerable damage has been done. The fruit blossoms were many of them far advanced coaxed out by the warm weather of the last few weeks. It is hard to estimate today just how much they were hurt, although it is reasonable to suppose that they were hit somewhat. The new leaves and the budding foliage on the trees showed the effects of the freeze by their rather wilted appearance in some sections.

Early strawberries are reported to have been killed by the cold, and other small fruit is damaged.

The freeze is not an uncommon thing, however. The records of the U. S. weather bureau show that about half of the months of May as far back as the office records go, have had freezes in them.

The low temperature Friday was 29 degrees, and neither was this a low mark. According to weather men the temperature fell to 27 degrees, May 11, 1907; to 27 May 1, 1901; to 29 May 20, 1895; to 28 May 1, 1901.

HAD TO REMOVE FLAG High School Seniors Violate Faculty Ruling

The senior class of the local High school of Grand Haven flew its colors from the big flag pole one day last week and, as this was inconsistent with the policy of the faculty, was ordered to take them down. The rope, running from the roof of the school to the flag pole, had been cut, so the juniors could not reach up to remove the black and gold.

"Pete" Robinson, member of the baseball team, expressed a willingness to climb the pole, and succeeded, although the slender pole bent far to one side with his weight.

POST OFFICE HISTORY Boys Get Red Stripes

The Detroit Free press of Sunday contains a picture of Paul R. Coster, Wm E. Vander Hart, Jacob Geerlings and Frank E. Doesburg the first four Holland mail carriers fifteen years ago. Before the picture is the following write up.

"Since the inauguration of free delivery service in Holland fifteen years ago, the number of city letter carriers has been doubled, the number of clerks tripled and the receipts of the office has been increased from $11,000 to $37,000, the total number of employees in 1897 was seven now it is twenty-eight.

"Twelve rural routes emanate from the Holland post office and the surrounding territory is covered more extensively than for any city of its size in the country. According to the present rate of increase Holland will be listed among the first class cities within the next two years, the requisite receipts being $40,000.

The local office has several veterans in the service. Postmaster Van Schelven has been in office thirteen years, Assistant Postmaster A. J. Westveer has served twenty three years under five presidents. John H. Kramer is entering his 19th year of service and William E. Van der Hart and Jacob Geerlings are wearing their first red stars for fifteen years of service."

"Some time ago congress included Holland in the list of cities for federal buildings. All amount of $80,000 was recommended for a new post office, and a choice corner lot on River street and Tenth streets was purchased for a site at a cost of $14,000. It is reported that Congressman Sweet of Grand Rapids will make an effort at this session of congress to get the necessary funds for the erection of the new building."

CONCERT IN THE M. E. CHURCH WAS A SUCCESS.

New Organization of Singers Please Public With Their First Appearance.

A good sized audience gathered in the M. E. church Friday night to attend the concert given by the Men's Federation Male Chorus. The chorus gave a very enjoyable entertainment and the singers and players succeeded in pleasing the audience to such an extent that practically every number was encored. The chorus was composed of the following: First tenors, Fred Van Lente, Ralph Van Lente and John K. Van Lente; Second tenors, Herman Cook and John Dykema. Baritone, Gerrit Van Lente, Peter Oosting and Dick Van Kolken; Basses, John Stergarda, G. Cook and Wm. E. Vander Hart. Herman Cook was the director of the chorus and Miss Ruth Reidsma was the accompanist.

The program opened with "Sailor Song" by the chorus. The second number was an Overture, "Light Cavalry," with Cornelia Kamferbeek and Ruth Reidsma at the piano and G. A. Lacey with the violin.

One of the hits of the evening was a Dutch song "Roelersleid," written by G. A. De Vliech and rendered by a quartet composed of Herman Cook, Ralph Van Lente, Dick Van Kolken and G. Cook. This was loudly applauded and the quartet responded with the familiar song, "Rosje op de Heide."

Wm. E. Vander Hart again hit the bull's eye with his humorous recitation, "Biff Perkin's Toboggan Slide," in which a boy tells how he helped along the courtship of his aunt and a college professor. Mr. Vander Hart was compelled to respond to an encore and in this he told of an incident of the married life of the professor and his bride. John K. Van Lente and Gerrit Van Lente sang a duet, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," and the first part of the program closed with "O Days of Rapture," by the chorus.

The second part of the program was as follows: Pipe Organ solo, "Allegro Assai from 4th Sonata" (Gullmunt), George Dok; "A Tragic Story" (Metcalfe), Chorus. Overture "Poet and Peasant," Lacey instrumental Trio; Baritone Solo "The Pirate," (Bronner-Petrie), Peter Oosting; "Medley from the South" (Pike) Federation Chorus.

FRED S. BERTSCH, FORMERLY OF HOLLAND, PRAISED BY MAGAZINE.

Was Elected President of the Palette and Chisel Club of Chicago Recently.

In this month's issue of "The Graphic Arts," published in Boston, an article is printed in regard to Fred S. Bertsch and Oswald Cooper, Chicago designers. Bertsch was formerly of this city and is well known here. Another point of interest about this article is that it was written by E. Ralph Estep. Many years ago, when Estep was but 19 years old, he was editor of the Zeeland Record for awhile. Today he is drawing a very large salary in the designing business.

He and Bertsch accidentally fell in with each other and in talking about where they originally came from it was discovered that at one time, while hardly more than boys, they had lived in neighboring cities. Mr. Bertsch is the designer of the firm of Bertsch and Cooper. In speaking of these men, Estep says:

"Of course, Bertsch and Cooper can draw most anything as you wish it. They have convictions as well as skill, however, and generally draw what is best for the purpose instead of drawing whatever they might feel like doing. Bertsch has the nerve to charge a customer real money for a rectangle composed of four straight lines—if the printed job in its final analysis will look the best with a design of this kind. Also he has the patience, wonderful patience, to draw little half moons—one after another by the hundred—if that is the treatment the job requires. These two men understand one of the greatest principles of design—the fitness of things. They are disciples of consistency."

The copy of the magazine in which this article appears contains many specimens of work done by Bertsch. Recently Mr. Bertsch was elected president of the Palette and Chisel club, the oldest independent art organization in Chicago. Mr. Bertsch studied at the Art Institute of Chicago and at Paris. He was born in Holland in 1879 and has been engaged in this line of work for a number of years.

CHAUTAUQUA BOOSTERS EXPECT TO DISPOSE OF AT LEAST 1200

Entertainments Will Cost Twelve and a Half Cents a Piece; Very Low Price.

Already 400 tickets have been sold by pledge to the Holland merchants and others for the chautauqua course that is to be given the coming summer in Holland. The plan is to sell a total of about 1200 tickets and as soon as the exact date of the series of entertainments has been determined upon and the place has been chosen the campaign of ticket selling will be strenuously begun.

There is no doubt about the talent of the entertainers who will come here. They are as high class as any that have ever appeared in Holland. There will be twelve double entertainments, a lecture and musical number every afternoon and a lecture and musical number every evening. These twelve double entertainments will cost a dollar and a half, or at the rate of twelve and a half cents a piece, the lowest price that has ever been asked for entertainments of this nature in Holland.

Various plans for ticket selling campaigns have been suggested. One of them is to set apart a certain day on which ticket selling teams will go out to "nail" everyone they meet. Those who buy or pledge are to be given a tag which they can wear to show that they are provided and to render them immune from the other sellers. This plan may or may not be followed. It is merely one of the suggestions that have been offered.

It is planned to have a farmer's day during the chautauqua week. On that day the program both in the afternoon and the evening will be arranged specially so as to interest the farmers and an attempt will be made to induce as many farmer friends to come to Holland that day as possible to enjoy the entertainments.

The exact date has not yet been fixed upon but it will be arranged soon so that a report can be made at the next meeting of the Businessmen's association. The place also is soon to be chosen. The fact that all the proceeds of these entertainments are to be added to the Y. M. C. A. fund is a good drawing card for the venture.

MAY 22ND FIXED ON TO FOUND WEST SIDE CHRISTIAN REFORMED CONGREGATION

Plan to Buy Old Building of Fourth Reformed Church and Use It Temporarily.

May 22 has been fixed upon by the people who expect to make up the congregation of the new English speaking Christian Reformed church on the west side to organize this church and to get under way with their plans. It is expected that there will be a good field for a church in that part of the city and that the membership will grow fast as soon as the organization has been completed.

It is planned at present to buy the old building of the Fourth Reformed church. If this plan is carried out the building will be used only temporarily, probably for a year or two. Then it is proposed to build a new church which will adequately serve the needs of the Christian Reformed people of that part of the city. No definite site has as yet been chosen, but it is planned to move the old building to the site that will be chosen later.

Other churches in the city have been liberally helping the new congregation. The 14th Street Christian Reformed church has provided a large bonus. It was largely because this church has become too small for the fast growing congregation that the plan for the establishment of a new church first originated. The Central Avenue Christian Reformed church has also pledged a thousand dollars to the new congregation, and in some of the other churches the individual members are expected to donate liberally for this purpose.

In the establishment of the new English Christian Reformed church can be seen the rapid transition of the Hollanders in America to Americanism. Not long ago practically all the churches of the Christian Reformed denomination were Dutch churches, while now most cities of any size have been compelled to go over to the English in order to accommodate the second and third generations of Hollanders. In this country who are fast forgetting the mother tongue.

The new church will have a charter membership of sixty-three families and eleven adherents. The committee of the classis of Holland which will be in charge of the organization work is composed of the Rev. H. J. Kuiper, W. De Groot and W. D. Vander Werp of East Saugatuck.

WILL DELIVER LECTURE IN THE HIGH SCHOOL TO-NIGHT

As the guest of the Maple Avenue Parents-Teachers' club, Judge E. P. Kirby of the Ottawa County Probate court, well and favorably known in Holland will speak on "The Juvenile Court."

The meeting will be held this evening, May 15, at 7:30 in the High school. All the parents of the city and others interested in Judge Kirby's work are invited. A special invitation is extended to the fathers. Judge Kirby has spoken in Holland a number of times and he always makes a good impression. He is perhaps the best probate judge Ottawa county has ever had, and his lectures on the Juvenile Court are very helpful and instructive. He had wide experience along this line and whatever he has to say on the subject will be well worth hearing.

ARTHUR HEUSINKVELD TO DO WORK AT UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.

Arthur Heusinkveld, who graduated from Hope College last June has been awarded a graduate scholarship at the University of Chicago. The scholarship consists in doing library work and exempts Mr. Heusinkveld from paying tuition. If his record the first year is satisfactory it is likely that the scholarship will be continued and changed later to a fellowship. Mr. Heusinkveld expects to do work at the Chicago U. that will lead to a Ph. D. degree. During the past year he has been teaching at St. Alban's Academy at Knoxville, Illinois.

PAUL E. HINKAMP AWARDED PRIZE SCHOLARSHIP BY MCCORMICK SEMINARY.

Entitles Him to A Year's Work Abroad; Had Highest Averages in 7 Competitive Examinations.

Paul E. Hinkamp of Milwaukee, a graduate of Hope college of the class of 1907 has been awarded a prize scholarship of $900 by the McCormick Theological Seminary of Chicago for the highest averages in seven competitive examinations at that seminary. This scholarship entitled Mr. Hinkamp to a year's study abroad. Mr. Hinkamp has not yet decided where he will spend that year.

Mr. Hinkamp has been a student at the McCormick Seminary the past two years and he has made a high record for scholarship there. The seven competitive examinations in which he won the highest averages naturally are such that only the best students have any chance of winning, and that Mr. Hinkamp won against all the others shows the kind of work he has been doing at that school.

Mr. Hinkamp graduated from Hope college in June 1907, after having spent six years at the institution here. At Hope he also distinguished himself for scholarship, so much so that he was easily the first in his class. In recognition of this fact the faculty at the time chose him as the class valedictorian. At the commencement exercises he delivered a masterly oration on the subject "Seeking After God."

In September, 1907, he began work as instructor of the Wisconsin Memorial Academy in Cedar Grove, Wisconsin. Later he became principal of that school and he served that school for four years with great credit. This year he was in the Middle Class at the McCormick Seminary. The coming summer he will take charge of the Perseverance Presbyterian Church of Milwaukee.

Principal Paul Gezon Leaves Holland For His New Home.

There are still several weeks left before the school year is completed, but during that time Mr. Gezon will travel up and down from Wyoming Park to Holland in his automobile. # Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Miles Say the "World" Is Worth Seeing

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Miles returned Thursday from a two day's visit in Chicago where they saw "The World in Chicago". They report a very pleasant trip and Mr. Miles said this morning that the trip could be made with very little expense and that it would be well worth while for any of the people here to make the trip and attend "The World in Chicago." This is something that one does not have a chance to see every day and pageant and tableau are very impressive and instructive.

D. DYKSTRA GIVES INTERESTING TALK IN FIRST REFORM-ED CHURCH.

The Young Woman's Band and the Christian Endeavor society of the First Reformed church gave a social Thursday to the congregation. The program consisted of quartets, duets, solos and other musical numbers, and an address by D. Dykstra, returned missionary to Arabia.

The address by Mr. Dykstra was exceedingly interesting. He illustrated the manner and customs of Arabia and their styles of dress by being dressed in the costumes of the country. He also had with him on the stage a young man and a young lady dressed in Arabian costume and in this way he illustrated how the people live among whom he has been laboring for a number of years. He also showed a number of interesting articles in current use in Arabia.

At the conclusion of this address a social was given in the parlors of the church and the Rev. H. J. Veldman gave a talk on sociability.

College Class Then Goes to Macatawa For a Day's Outing.

In keeping with a long established custom the Senior class Friday planted a tree on the campus. Arbor Day is sacred as Senior day. There are no classes for the seniors on that day and after planting their tree they generally disappear for a day's fun. This year's class planted their tree on Dr. Vennema's lawn with fitting ceremonies. After the exercises they journeyed to the park where they will seek a day's enjoyment close to nature.

ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance to regulate and license all places where any spirituous, malt, brewed, fermented or intoxicating liquors are sold in the City of Holland."

I disapprove of and veto the ordinance for the following reasons:

(1) The ordinance proposes to re-instate and to license in the City of Holland retail liquor saloons in utter disregard of the expressed will of a majority of the electors of the City, as recently expressed at the polls and, I believe, in violation of a sacred trust reposed in the Council by the people;

(2) It imposes restrictions upon such retail liquor business not recognized by the laws of the State and which can at best only serve as a moral obligation upon the saloon keepers who take out licenses under it and the retail liquor laws of the state, and I believe that the rights and wishes of the people ought not to be made to rest upon such uncertain foundations;

(3) The ordinance does not limit the number of persons who may engage in this retail business, so that it opens wide the doors to any number of saloons, depending upon such act as any Council may from time to time take;

(4) The state law recognizes only wholesale and retail liquor establishments. The proposed ordinance provides for retail liquor saloons, and those engaging in the business would be governed in every way by the state law regulating saloons in other parts of the state.

The fact that additional restrictions are imposed does not change the character of these institutions, they are saloons, pure and simple, with certain restrictions.

For these reasons and others which I might mention, I feel that it is my duty to return the ordinance without my approval.

At four different spring elections, to-wit, in the years 1908, 1910, 1911, and 1913, the Council submitted to the electors of the city the question as to whether they should license retail liquor saloons, and on each occasion a majority answered "NO."

We are living in a country where it is the duty of every good citizen to submit to the rule of the majority. The Common Council of our city acts for the people in a representative capacity, and whenever a majority of the people have freely expressed their will through the ballot, such expression should be binding upon their representatives. Any other course would subvert good government and lead to anarchy.

The electors of the city have just as clearly expressed themselves against county local option, or the entire suppression of the liquor traffic. The people of Holland are opposed to the retail liquor saloon, and are also opposed to prohibition. Both of these facts are clearly known to the Common Council, and, in my opinion, should be heeded in framing an ordinance regulating the liquor traffic in Holland.

No referendum has ever been taken upon the question of licensing the brewery or the wholesale liquor houses, and upon these questions the Council is at liberty to exercise its best judgment. The very fact that these institutions have not been very profitable has served to limit their number and to render police supervision easier.

I fear that in passing the ordinance in question the Council, in its desire to settle this vexed problem, has been hasty and has not sufficiently considered the subject in the light of the facts and reasons herein set forth, for I cannot believe that they would willingly override the mandate of the people.

Yours truly,

May 6, 1913. Nicodemus Bosch.

On motion of Ald. Harrington, Resolved, That the veto of the Mayor to an ordinance heretofore passed by the Common Council, entitled "An Ordinance to regulate and license all places where any spirituous, malt, brewed, fermented and intoxicating liquors are sold, in the city of Holland," be accepted and filed, and that said ordinance do now pass.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Holland, Mich.,

Gentlemen: We have made an examination of the general books of account of the Departments, City Clerks, City Treasurer, and Board of Public Works, and beg to present schedules as attached, see index.

For your information I say that the records of the City Clerk were verified and reconciled with the council journal, receipts checked and proven with various receipt stubs on file. This class of receipts coming under heading, licenses, etc., delinquent Taxes and other receipts due from County reconciled with reports and records of County Treasurer same proven correct. In the matter of collection of the general tax roll by the City Treasurer, same was reconciled and verified with settlements made with City and County.

We accepted the amount of fees turned in as correct. In this connection we suggest that the City Treasurer and City Clerk reconcile the general tax roll prior to date of penalty, setting up the items that are not paid, or in some manner noting the items on which penalties are to be added. If this is done the fees collected can be more readily checked.

The general books of the Clerk and Treasurer were found in balance and funds reconciled, see general statement of funds, City Clerk and City Treasurer.

The cash balances as shown are covered by certified statements from the banks covering the amounts shown on hand, these certified statements being on file with your Clerk.

The general books of the Board of Public Works were verified and reconciled. Receipts and disbursements examined and reconciled with various records on file. Statements covering same attached. In connection with the statement of Profit and Loss account attached will say that we accepted the distribution of disbursements as shown, compiling the statements from the general accounts as kept by the two departments. Receipts were examined and reconciled with various assessments books on file.

In connection with our audit, will say that the various receipts and disbursements shown by each department were covered by our examination to the point where we satisfied ourselves as to accuracy of the accounts for.
