Church Scene in "Tour the Town"

Musical Play Provides One of Top Attractions

The most talked about feature of Tulip Time this year is a locally written, directed and produced musical play entitled "Tour the Town."

The show, presenting "Moods in Melody," authored by Holland High School teachers Bill Fast and George Lumsden, and featuring the school's a cappella choir, gave an enthusiastic audience words and music they were humming as they left the school auditorium Wednesday night.

The program takes the visitor on a musical tour of Holland. The opening curtain parts on a group of students enjoying the benefits of Ottawa Beach grouped around a fire roasting marshmallows and drinking pop.

The choir sings a musical selection in keeping with the scene the students depict on the stage.

The musical tours continue through the area stopping at Lake Macatawa, industries, farms, schools, churches, tulip farms, Hope College and closes with the ever popular klompen dancers.

The entire choir, dressed in Dutch costumes, thrilled the audience with the singing as each stop on the tour was dramatized on the stage.

All parts of the show drew spontaneous applause. In one scene the audience sat hushed as the curtains parted on an open Bible. Back of the Bible stood a small white cross. The area was spotlighted with a single light.

Softly the choir sang several hymns. At the conclusion, the visitors sat without a murmur, then broke into a thunderous ovation.

Also especially likeable was a scene featuring a musical reading "ritin" and rhythmic number.

The show will be presented for the last time tonight at 8:15 p.m. in Holland High School auditorium.

Tulip Time Highlights

Klompen dancers who entertained at the Civic Auditorium in Grand Rapids Wednesday night for the 73rd annual conference of American Water Works Association members encountered a former Tulip Time act, Harry and Chita Van Pelt, who were also on the program. The Van Pelts, frequent visitors to Holland, incorporated the dancers into their act and taught the klompen dance to some of the spectators.

Among the unsung heroines of the Tulip Festival are the accompanists for the klompen dance. Carol Harrington, Rose Mary Brink, Shirley Beekman and Barbara Stronk, accordionists, Mary Lou Van Dyke at the piano and Marcela Gearhart on the string bass have worked long hours in rehearsal for the experimental group and recorded the 30 pages of music for the dance. They don't get their pictures taken often, but play every night at the post office site. In case you are looking for them, they are on a truck next to the Temple Building.

Casualties among Klompen dancers is nothing new, but a list of the ailments includes four cases of measles (two since Wednesday's parade) two mumps, one chicken pox, one appendix and one sprained ankle. Miss Joyce Keller, director of the dancers has used nine substitutes and has only one boy sub left. Selma Newhouse, who sprained her ankle in Wednesday night's performance will not be dancing until Saturday.

About 60 Boy Scouts working on shifts manned the four information booths at approaches to the city and the one near First National Bank Wednesday. They work in groups of four. Another 30 Scouts helped with Wednesday's parade. Eight senior scouts will assist with ushering at Friday night's Parade of Quartets program. In all, about 250 Scouts are participating in Tulip Time. They take over ushering at both the band review and the Varieties Saturday.

Always sought after to pose for pictures and perform for special events during the Festival, Miss Keller's group has been asked to dance for a television program Friday afternoon from WOOD-TV Grand Rapids.

The old saying of "It looks good enough to eat" was particularly true of some of the arrangements at the show. One prize winning entry in the lighted niches arranged by Mrs. Robert Visscher had a beautiful cluster of fresh strawberries. Another entry in the section containing fruit also contained luscious strawberries. It took real will power to pass.

In the "Anything Goes" section for men at the flower show, Bill Butler, Jr., showed real originality in using an old brass spittoon as the container for an arrangement of tulips. It won second prize.

Mrs. William Schrier, president of the Holland Tulip Garden Club, displays the Ruth Walsh Everett trophy which is awarded this year to Mrs. Edward De Pree of Zeeland for the "most artistic arrangement" in the 1953 flower show in Holland Armory. Mrs. De Pree also won the sweepstakes prize for the most blue ribbons in arrangements. (Penna-Sas photo)

Huge Crowd Cheers Floats, Bands, Officials as Tulip Time Begins

With Town Crier Hans Suzenar striking a gong and proclaiming to the crowd in Dutch, the "vols" parade and Tulip Time began at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Right behind the crier in an impressive motor cavalcade were Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Mayor Harry Harrington, the City Council, Lieutenant Gov. Clarence Reid, Attorney General Frank G. Millard, Auditor General John Martin Jr., Chief State Supreme Court Justice John R. Dethmers, State Senator Clyde Geerlings, State Representative George Van Pelt, Commissioner of Education Claire Taylor and State Senator Don Gilbert. They all later joined in street scrubbing ceremonies to the delight of many camera fans.

Mayor Harrington inspected the streets and found them dirty, which was the cue for 250 citizens attired in Dutch costume to start scrubbing. The men toiled traditional Dutch water carrier yokes and the women brooms.

Some of the boys among the scrubbers threw the water on the girls as well as on the streets, and the girls retaliated by sweeping water on the boys. The crowd of about 40,000 which lined the streets enjoyed the high jinks.

Small boys with miniature water carriers, and little girls with miniature brooms were interspersed among the scrubbers. They captivated the crowd immediately.

Two busloads of soldiers from Percy Jones Hospital had choice seats at the parade. Holland company D of the 126th National Guard Regiment provided a color guard at the reviewing stand.

Eleven floats and six bands participated in the parade. The Wolverine Express float, consisting of a motorized soap box pulling a wagon, brought applause from the crowd. Driving the soap box was a little boy and in the wagon, carrying tulips, was a little girl. A collie pulling a huge Dutch soap filled with children also brought applause.

The retail merchant's float consisting of a sail boat and two pretty girls brought whistles. Other floats were sponsored by the VFW, the Moose, Holland Furnace, Hope College, Chamber of Commerce, Youth for Christ, Washington Square Merchants, Russ' and Cumerford's.

The boy's choir on the Optimist Club float received cheers from the crowd whenever they hit the difficult high notes. A float filled with children playing accordions was also very popular.

The VFW float contained John Homfield in a wheel chair, one of Holland's few living veterans of the Spanish-American War, and a tableaux showing a patient in bed with two nurses' aides administering to him.

Bands participating in the parade were from Holland Senior and Junior High schools, Holland Christian Senior and Junior High schools, Fennville High, Holland elementary schools and the American Legion.

For the finale, 270 costumed girls from Holland High school performed the popular klompen dance. As the dance progressed a few wooden shoes came apart, like shell cases on a battlefield.

When the parade was over, Gov. Williams' duties just began. For at least a half-hour, he photographed wooden shoes, programs and slips of paper. However, his winning smile and gracious manners never departed him.

A large number of out-of-town visitors came from Ohio this year. The housing bureau in the Chamber of Commerce building said half of the people seem to come from the Buckeye state.

Visitors Ready Today for Big School Parade

Tulip Time festivities moved into the second day today after an auspicious opening Wednesday in which Gov. G. Mennen Williams and other state officials joined local burghers in scrubbing the streets in traditional manner.

An estimated 40,000 persons were out for Wednesday's ceremonies, which were carried on in weather a bit cooler than desirable, yet with the usual enthusiasm which goes with the folky event.

Holland's thousands of visitors looked forward to this afternoon's school parade in which an estimated 3,000 costumed children proudly march in one of the festival's most appealing spectacles.

Another new feature today is the Dutch Costume show at 4 p.m. in Holland High School in which music and pageantry unite to provide a background for authentic costumes, folk tunes and dances.

Tonight will see the second Tulip Time performance of the Holland high musical, "Tour the Town," written by Bill Fast and George Lumsden of the school faculty. This original show has evoked considerable enthusiastic response among townfolk and visitors, and arrangements are being made to record the music and film certain scenes and industries which figure prominently in the score. There is every indication that the musical, also known as "Moods in Melody" will become an annual Tulip Time feature.

Klompen dancers will perform again tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the post office block with all 270 dancers participating under direction of Joyce Keller.

Friday's highlight will be the big "Parade of Quartets," featuring topflight barbershop quartets, the best to be had. Two shows will be held at 7 p.m. and at 9:15 p.m. in Holland Theater.

Appearing will be the nationally known "Chordettes," late of Arthur Godfrey fame who are in Holland as guests of the Holland Furnace Co. to prepare a broadcast for a coast-to-coast network Saturday. The Chordettes, the most famous women's barbershop quartet in the country, also will appear at the Service Club luncheon Friday noon in Hope Church.

The Mid-States Four of Chicago, which has appeared on two previous occasions in "parades" in Holland, also will give a good version of their zany antics and good vocalizing. The "Four Teens" of Eau Claire, Wis., current International Champions, now assigned to special services in the Air Force, will give a good demonstration of top quartet singing.

Also appearing will be Holland's own quartet, "The Harmonics," the local women's quartet, "The Hollandaires," and the Windmill Chorus under the direction of Francis Hodgeboom of Grand Rapids.

A great deal of originality is always evident in the junior section, and this year's entries again follow that pattern. There are arrangements in bird's nests, sun bonnets and a lot of other original containers. The little tea tables with doll dishes are particularly appealing.

A huge forest green Chrysler carrying silk hatted Mayor Harry Harrington and city fathers during the parade route Wednesday afternoon drew admiring comments from thousands of visitors. The hand-made car, one of three in existence, was estimated to cost more than $50,000. It has a 150-inch wheel base, is 242 inches long, and weighs 5,500 pounds. Because of the weight, the car has specially made six ply tires, rather than the normal four ply, and heavy duty wire wheel rims. The seats are upholstered in whole pigskins and trimmed throughout in chrome. Mohair carpeting covers the floors. The eight cylinder vehicle is capable of speeds up to 115 miles per hour or as slow as two miles per hour. The car was designed for parade use to carry "Very Important Persons."

A custom designed fan keeps the engine from overheating when it is driven at slow parade speeds. The car, brought to Holland through the courtesy of Hean Motor Sales, will be in Saturday's parade. It is on display until then at the dealer's showrooms. (Penna-Sas photo)

Visscher Plays His Best Match Of Present Season

Holland High's net squad got back to its winning ways Thursday afternoon on the 22nd St. court as the Dutch downed a strong Muskegon tennis outfit, 5-2. Earlier this season the locals had nipped the Big Reds, 4-3 at Muskegon.

Coach Joe Moran's squad had to play some fine tennis to whip the Muskegon aggregation. The Muskies presented better than average singles' strength and three well-balanced doubles squads. The locals, however, managed to take the first two singles matches and sweep the doubles. Four of the matches went three sets, with the Hollanders managing to break even in the extended matches.

Holland's Henry Visscher played his finest tennis of the season against Muskegon's Wayne Kieft in the No. 1 spot to wallop the Red ace, 6-1, 6-0. Visscher had kiet on the defensive all through the match and never lost the advantage.

Paul Mack breezed through his first set with Ron Maycroft, 6-1, before losing the second, 5-7. He then came back to outplay the Muskegon boy, 6-4 in the final set.

Dwayne Teusink lost Holland's third singles match as he bowed to Mike Humenick after winning the first set. Scores were 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Holland's Mark De Velder nearly turned the tide in the fourth singles match before losing to steady Dick Creamer, 6-3, 3-6, 10-8.

Phil Boersma and Norm Scheerhorn had little difficulty in winning the first doubles match as they subdued Carl Carlson and Mike Steward, 6-2, 6-4. The Grissens boys, Delwyn and Dwayne won an extended match from Leo Sepura and Thurman Brown, 6-0, 3-6, 6-3. In the final doubles match, Dave Bos and Duane Carlson stopped Mike Mulready and Dean Bailey, 6-1, 7-5.

Chix Nine Whips Comstock Park

ZEELAND (Special)—A first-inning home run by John Vandenberg set the stage for Zeeland High School's 9-1 romp over Comstock Park High in a Ken-New-Wa league baseball game at Comstock Park Thursday afternoon.

Altogether the Chix boomed out that homer, a triple, a double and two singles in the game.

Vandenberg's long clout down the right field line, a double by Ron Weatherbee and Junior Raterink being hit by a pitched ball helped Zeeland get off to a 3-0 first inning lead.

Comstock Park came right back with one run in the bottom of the same inning. Johnson, the first man up for the home team, tripled and came home on a throwing error by Zeeland pitcher Del Komejan.

Zeeland added a run in the third inning when Raterink tripled and scored on a fielder's choice. Four more runs scored in the fifth on two walks, two errors and one man hit by a pitched ball. Zeeland counted its last run in the seventh on two walks and a single by Jim Wyngarden.

For Zeeland it was nine runs, five hits and four errors to one run, three hits and two errors for Comstock. Komejan struck out 10 and didn't walk a man while Comstock Park hurler Grose struck out nine and walked five.

In Thursday's game, Vandenberg had the homer, Raterink a triple, Weatherbee a double and Wyngarden two singles.

Kazoo Net Squad Trounces Hope

Kalamazoo College's tennis team continued in its winning ways as the Hornets humbled a completely out-of-class Hope College squad 7-0 at Stowe Stadium Friday.

The rampaging Hornets now have seven straight shutouts, a terrific record even for tennis-conscious Kalamazoo. The powerhouse is coached by nationally famed tennis mentor Dr. Allan R. Stowe, who is almost the grand old man of the net game.

The contest was completely one-sided, with only the number two singles contest even going to three sets. In that match Hope's Ron Bos dropped the first set 6-1 to former Holland High school star Dave Moran, then came roaring back to take the second set 6-0 before dropping the deciding set 6-2.

One of the top matches of the meet was in No. 1 doubles where Bos and Warren Ego fought it out with Moran and John De Vos before falling 8-6, 6-4.

Coach Ken Weller expressed "complete satisfaction" with the performance of his squad, pointing out that Kalamazoo is a "top flight tennis power" and undefeated this season.

In the No. 1 singles Kazoo's De Vos had little difficulty in dropping Exo 6-2, 6-3. In the other singles matches, Manny Glasser defeated Bill Coventry 6-1, 6-3 while Tom Smith swamped Monte Dyer 6-0, 6-1.

Coventry and Boeskoel lost in the No. 2 doubles event to Glasser-Casler 6-2, 6-4.

Next match for the Dutch is Monday when they host Hillsdale in another MIAA contest.

Baby foods were introduced to grocery stores in 1929 and within six years the industry was selling at a rate of three million dozen units annually.

Cab, Car Crash

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—At 6:45 a.m. today at the corner of Franklin and Ferry Sts., a city cab operated by Harry Hyslop, 34, of 308 South Fourth St., and an auto driven by John M. Hannigan, 67, of 2122 South Fifth St., were involved in a collision. Hannigan was going east and the cab south when the right rear fender of the cab was struck by the front of the Hannigan car. Both cars were towed away. No ticket was issued by city police who investigated.

Exchange Teacher Addresses Rotary

John Boswinkle, an Exchange teacher from the Netherlands, addressed the Holland Rotary Thursday noon at the Warm Friend Tavern. Boswinkle attended the University of Amsterdam after which he taught eight years in elementary school. Having taught English at the Grand Haven High School during the last year, Boswinkle expects to return to the Netherlands on June 13.

The exchange teacher spoke on "My Impression of the United States—Before and After." The Europeans' idea of the American is largely formulated by what he reads in the newspapers and what he sees in motion pictures. Boswinkle said that even an American would have to admit that few motion pictures give a true interpretation of what Americans really are.

Boswinkle's idea concerning the effect of Marshall Aid to Europe are diametrically opposed to those who have criticized the program as having failed to accomplish that which it set out to do.

"Without Marshall Aid our country would be in the claws of Communism right now." The mistakes associated with it do not take away the merits of the plan. Whereas 91 per cent of the people in the Netherlands voted for the Communists immediately after the war, around 5 per cent voted Communist in 1952.

The speaker praised the Exchange Plan which permits interchange of thought and a chance to better understand each other. Harold Ramsey presided in the absence of President Robert Wolbrink.

Coopersville Youth Fined On Reckless Driving Count

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—Roy C. Stiles, 18-year-old student of route 1, Coopersville, was arraigned before Justice Frederick J. Workman of Spring Lake Thursday on a charge of reckless driving and, upon his plea of guilty, paid $40 fine and $3.90 costs. The charge against Stiles by state police grew out of an accident which occurred on US-16 in Polkton Township early Tuesday morning when he lost control of his car and rolled over three times in a ditch.

August Vander Wagen, 47, Ferrysburg, charged by Conservation Officer Harold Bowditch with setting out gill nets in Lake Michigan during the closed season, also pleaded guilty, and paid $25 fine and $7.40 costs in the same court. The alleged offense occurred Wednesday night.

Hartley Moore, 26, of Spring Lake, charged, upon complaint of Village Officer Richard L. Levingstone with cohabitation, demanded examination when arraigned before Justice Workman and posted $400 bond for his appearance at the hearing which has been set for May 21, at 2 p.m. The alleged offense occurred in Spring Lake village on April 15, 1953, and divers other days the preceding year.

Mr. and Mrs. Club Gives Program for Boys Camp

About 60 members of the First Reformed Church Mr. and Mrs. Club went to the Youth Haven Boys Camp at Muskegon Wednesday evening to sponsor a program there.

Featured was a "Gospel in Art and Music" presentation by Miss Esther Evers, assisted by Muriel Droppers and Don Vande Polder, vocalists, accompanied by John Bos at the piano.

A quartet from the Mr. and Mrs. Club, including Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ter Beek, Mrs. Ruth Verecke and Don Van Lente, sang several selections.

After the program, refreshments were served by Morris Carlson, camp director, and his staff. On Thursday evening, Miss Evers presented her program at the Kiwanis Club's annual banquet at Bangor, held in the Congregational Church. Special guests at that event were Bangor High School junior and senior girls. Miss Droppers and Vande Polder again were vocalists for the program. Ken Lewis was pianist.

VOLLEYS FROM AMBUSH

"You guys yellow or sometin' Why aren't you in Korea where you belong?"

These vocal words of abuse were heaped upon the heads of 17 Holland men as they marched up Central Ave. between Fifth and Sixth Sts. early Tuesday night.

The civilian clad men, rifles over their shoulders, were executing close order drill when a middle-aged woman stuck her head out a door and let go with the verbal blast at the group.

Visibly paying no heed, but smarting inside, the men continued their maneuvers in preparation for pre-parade time during Tulip Time next week.

The men realized they were probably mistaken for some other men, mentioned in The Sentinel Letters to Editor column.

The men? All 17 were members of the Henry Walters Post 2144 Veterans of Foreign Wars crack drill team. They include combat veterans from the Spanish American War, World War I, World War II and Korea.

Total time of active duty service among the 17 amounts to more than 50 years. Many hold combat citations and wound stripes and everyone has served overseas.

In case the woman in question reads this, the men want her to know this is why she received some very dirty looks in return for her comments.

Down River Ave. Friday afternoon came a truck loaded with Christmas trees. Was this the wrong time of the year?

We watched and the truck turned east on Ninth St. All mysteriously cleared. The trees are for the big flower and garden show the Holland Tulip Garden Club is putting on for Tulip Time.

The new DA for Western Michigan doesn't forget Holland even though he's busy in Washington.

Wendell Miles writes: "Not much left but school the rest of the week. Interviewed by Attorney General Herbert Brownell and by President Ike today. The training is intensive, the weather hot and humid, and the hotel full of visiting high school kids."

It's Newcomer time in Holland again in this column, but only a few new persons moved into Holland during April. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Haefner who have purchased a home at 559 West 32nd St. Mr. Haefner is district manager of the Schlitz Brewing Co., coming here from Fargo, N. D. The Haefners have no children. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Baarman have moved here from Kalamazoo and have purchased a home at 606 West 22nd St. Mr. Baarman is a research chemist at Holland Color and Chemical Co. They have a daughter 11 years old.

If you see Joyce Keller, the Klompen dance director, dancing along with the high school girls next week it's because she's all properly garbed to do so. A few nights ago, she was honor guest at a surprise party given by the experimental group at the home of Sally Hildebrand. It was something of a farewell since Miss Keller is leaving Holland to teach in California next year. The group presented her with a Dutch costume—the new picturesque Middleburg type—and now she'll forever remember Holland.

The Newcomers Club had a great time this year operating the Costume Exchange. The downtown site was particularly convenient and the group handled more costumes than ever before.

Some of the most intriguing costumes turned in were doll clothes—colorful outfits matching the Marken costumes for little girls. Needless to say, they sold very quickly.

We seem to have Ambush readers all over, and we were particularly glad to receive a note from our old friend, Charley (Rev. C.A.) Stoppels from Sully, Ia., on the fishing contest between Larry Wade and Sipp Houtman.

The reverend, a fisherman who knows all the tricks, writes: "Why oh why, did the man do it? Now Sipp Houtman will never be able to tell how the big ones got away. One day a few years back I found Sipp experimenting on the lake shore with a hook to which he had fastened a trip-hammer arrangement. The idea was to have the fish hit himself a stunning blow in the head by biting the attached hook. So, stunned by the blow, the fish could be pulled safely into the boat."

"I saw immediately where Sipp's error lay; it was in the shape and arrangement of his weights. I refused to tell him where his trouble lay, thinking, of course, of the poor fish and of all future big fish stories. Now Wade has spoiled it all. The weights he gave Sipp are just in number, size and balance. Good-bye fish stories from the Kalamazoo river and Waukauzoo bay."

Meanwhile Larry is so busy with his Tulip Time work, he's not even thinking of fishing until after the festival. But Sipp sneaked in a trip to the Platte river near Beulah and tested the relative values of the flatfish artificial bait which Larry contends will catch more walleyes than will the right crawlers Sipp sponsors.

Bolks-Vander Poppen Rites Read

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bolks

Miss Elaine Vander Poppen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed D. Vander Poppen of Benhaim, and Kenneth Bolks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit H. Bolks of route 2, Hamilton, were married April 17 in Benhaim Reformed Church. The Rev. C. J. Denekas performed the double ring rites. Miss Fannie Bultman was organist and Jerold Kleinhekel was soloist.

Miss Erma Deters attended the bride as maid of honor and Bob Nykamp assisted the groom as best man. Ushers were Earl Bolks, brother of the groom, and Leon Hulsman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Berens, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, were master and mistress of ceremonies.

A gown of lace and nylon tulle over satin was chosen by the bride. The gown was designed with a lace bodice with round neckline, a sheer tulle yoke with off the shoulder lace ruffles and long tapered sleeves. Lace and tulle ruffles trimmed the front of the full skirt which extended into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of nylon net with French lace border was held by a crown of bugle beads and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and pink sweetheart roses.

The maid of honor wore an aqua satin and net gown with strapless bodice covered by a bolero. She carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and yellow roses and wore a floral headdress.

Fifty guests attended the reception in the church parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berens, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, arranged the gifts. Serving were Mrs. Howard Pieper and Misses Charlotte Nykerk, Florence Tien and Viola Berens.

The newlyweds now are at home in Hamilton after a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and the Smoky Mountains. For going away the bride wore a melon red linen suit, navy accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bride, a Zeeland High School graduate, is employed in the Hamilton Farm Bureau office. The groom is employed on a Hamilton celery farm.

Day in and day out in the years B. M. (before meters) Allegan's water consumption averaged three million gallons a day.

By the time all homes, businesses and stores had water meters, consumption went zooming down to as low as 300,000 gallons per day, about a tenth of what had been used. Even on a dry day in July, Beauvais said, 600,000 gallons would be unusual.

Even with the meters, Beauvais argues, Allegan's water is pretty cheap stuff. In 1952 the city pumped 237,576,000 gallons for which residents paid $30,490.13. This figures out to about 3.08 cents a ton.

Allegan's water plant has a book value of $366,000, a large investment in terms of revenue of only $30,500 a year. Obviously, if the city is going to keep up on its bond payments and also lay away a reserve for such things as removal of iron and addition of sodium fluoride for the reduction of tooth decay, residents will have to be educated to using more water.

"Allegan is fortunate in having an unusually large supply of water underground," Beauvais says. "The new Griswold well produces 12,000 gallons per minute with a draw-down on only 12 inches while pumping. The recently rehabilitated Pingree Park well produced 2,000 gallons a minute while pumping to atmosphere."

He said, "I know of one Michigan city that spent $36,000 for six wells that produced only 1,200 gallons per minute all together."

Another reason the city now has more water than it knows what to do with is the water department's successful campaign to plug the leaks in the distribution system. Beauvais recently reported that 97 per cent of the water pumped is accounted for by meters, indicating a low loss through leakage.

So, while many another U. S. city will be urging their residents to conserve water this summer, Alleganites may be reading ads like this:

"Grow a Greener Lawn With Allegan Aqua! Drink An Extra Glass of Water Today. Allegan Aqua Has All the National Vitamins and Minerals left in A Bath A Day Keeps The Doctor Away. New Low Price. . . Allegan Aqua now only 3 cents a ton!"

Reports Are Featured At Meet of War Mothers

A report of the Easter party held April 4 at the Veterans Facility in Grand Rapids when Easter baskets, cakes and cigarettes were given to 70 patients, featured the business meeting of the Mothers of World War II held Wednesday evening in the VFW hall. Dutch Net Team Tops Harborites For Second Time

Coach Joe Moran's Holland high tennis team posted another victory Friday afternoon at Benton Harbor as the Dutch downed the Tigers 6-1. The Hollanders had little difficulty in taking their second victory of the season over the Harbor crew.

The Dutch mentor used practically the same lineup which stopped Muskegon here Thursday with one exception. He inserted Dave Bosch to team with Duane Carlson in No. 2 doubles. The Tiger outfit which the locals whipped Friday was the same lineup which upset Kalamazoo Central recently. Meanwhile Holland lost a close decision to the Central club this week.

Henry Visscher, Holland ace, continued his winning ways in the No. 1 position as he downed Bill Grall of the Tigers, 6-1, 7-5. Mack had to play some long and hard tennis before he subdued tough Gordon Schalbach, 4-6, 6-4.

Duane Teusink, playing No. 3 for the Dutch, finished strong in the third set to defeat Gordon Boettcher, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3. Mark de Velder completed Holland's sweep of the singles as he outlasted Ben Alexander in a weird match from the standpoint of score, 6-0, 11-9.

Holland's No. 1 doubles squad dropped the only point of the match as Norm Scheerhorn and Phil Boersma lost to Dick Vroedley and Bruce Buck, 6-3, 6-4. Dave Bosch and Duane Carlson had little difficulty in the No. 2 doubles whipping John Stewart and Don Biggs, 6-1, 6-3. Delwyn and Dwayne Grissen came through with the final doubles victory as they swamped Boyd Henderson and Larry Sax, 6-1, 6-2.

Dutch Win First; Nine Errors Lead To Loss in Second

ALBION—Hope College's baseball team ran its undefeated string to six straight in the first game of a MIAA doubleheader here Saturday against Albion College, but then watched the undefeated record go tumbling in the second game.

Score of the first one was 4-3, and in the second one it was a one-sided 15-2 in favor of the Britons. A short left field fence—just 275 feet from home plate—accounted for five home runs in the two games.

Albion's Cedric Dempsey and Hope's Willie Rink staged a mound duel in that first game and the Dutch hurler came out on top, thanks to two home runs to one for Albion.

Hope got a run in the first half of the first inning when centerfielder Al Dykema found the range on the short fence and blasted out a four-bagger.

Albion came up with three runs in the last of the second when third baseman Jim Murray smashed a homer with two of his mates aboard.

The game progressed with the score standing at 3-1 Albion's favor until Hope added another run in the sixth. Dykema walked. Rink was safe on a fielder's choice and Jerry Lubbers advanced both runners with a perfect bunt. Lubbers was safe on the play. Jim Van Hoeven was next up and went out short to first. Dykema came home on an error by Dempsey.

Lubbers provided the margin of victory in the eighth inning when he smacked a home run over the short fence, scoring behind Dykema, who had opened the inning with a single.

For Hope it was four runs, six hits and two errors to three runs, five hits and one error for Albion. Rink struck out nine Albion batters while Dempsey fanned 13 Hope batters.

Dykema and Lubbers each had a home run and a single.

Hope's downfall in the lopsided nightcap can be attributed to nine errors.

Albion scored twice in the first inning on two hits and an error and added three more runs in the second inning on two hits and three errors.

Van Hoeven accounted for Hope's two runs in the bottom of the second when he hit a home run to score behind Rink, who had opened the inning with a walk.

Albion added two more runs in the fifth inning on a home run by Conklin, a single, a walk, a fielder's choice, man hit with a pitched ball and an error.

The Britons came up with two more in the sixth on a single by Conklin, two errors and a passed ball.

The home team made it 11-2 with two runs in the top of the seventh. Those two runs came without benefit of a hit. Two walks and an error did the trick. The Britons completed scoring with four runs in the eighth on hits by Kouts and Bob Friberg, four walks, two errors and a fielder's choice.

Betz hurled for Albion and allowed Hope just two hits, that homer by Van Hoeven and a double by pitcher John Busman.

Busman started for the Dutch and was relieved by Huffman in the sixth inning.

Albion made 15 runs on 10 hits and those nine errors.

Thousands of pre-Tulip Time visitors to Holland during the week-end took advantage of the ideal weather to visit Ottawa Beach to bask in the sun between trips to the tulip farms and lanes. Some hardly even went for a dip in icy Lake Michigan water with temperature in the 40's. Others picnicked at Kollen Park and went aboard a Navy patrol escort craft tied up here on mid-cruise liberty for the reserve crew aboard. The visitors poked into every nook and cranny of the vessel. Only the radio room and a few other areas were closed for security measures. The PCE 894 (above) pulled out Monday at 8 a.m. to continue training operations. (Sentinel photo)

Hope College's Track Team Faces Tough Week Ahead; Beats Raiders

Coach Larry Green's Hope College track team warmed up for some tough competition this week by defeating Grand Rapids Junior College 83-48 in a dual meet at the 22nd St. oval Saturday.

Green took 13 men to the Great Lakes Invitational Conference Meet Wednesday at Strong Stadium on Beloit College campus in Beloit, Wis. The events included track and tennis.

Invitations were issued to Beloit, Carroll, Wabash, Hope, Albion, Kalamazoo and the University of Chicago.

And next Saturday the undefeated Dutch run against tough Albion. Against common opponent Kalamazoo, Hope won 95-36 while Albion defeated Kalamazoo 94-36.

Biggest surprise of Saturday's meet was the tie for first between Jim Hendrickson and Ron Bos in the 220. Hendrickson surprised Bos on the turn and Ron couldn't reach up until just as the two neared the finish line.

Carl Van Farow surprised even Coach Green when he was entered in the broad jump and came out with third place to give him high-point honors for the day with 16. Hope's usual broad jumping star Walt Vander Meulen was out with a bad ankle and so Van Farow filled in.

Hendrickson was just behind Van Farow in the point department with 14.

Besides Vander Meulen, Coach Green's squad was without the services of its usual 440-yard dash star Don Hondorp who had to work and John Brannock, who heaves the javelin was away in Benton Harbor. Green switched

Several Appear In Circuit Court

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—Roger Tubergan, 21, of 286 120th Ave., Holland, pleaded guilty in Circuit Court Thursday to a charge of larceny over $50. His $250 bond was continued and he will return for sentence June 8 at 10 a.m. He is alleged to have taken a battery, tools, funnel, cable and gasoline from Allyn Westbroek in Zeeland township on or about March 16.

Assistant Prosecutor James Busard made his first appearance in Circuit Court in Thursday's cases. Elvin A. Peterson, 22, Fruitport, who pleaded guilty April 23 to a forgery charge, was put on probation for a year and was ordered to pay $100 costs within 60 days and $5 a month oversight fees. He must leave liquor alone and not frequent places where it is sold. He was instructed to make restitution of the remainder of the two checks involved, each for $24.90, out of his first pay check. The alleged offense occurred last Feb. 14 when the checks were cashed at a Bar-B-Q in Spring Lake.

Russell Oskaboos, 28, Detroit, who pleaded guilty April 23 to a charge of non-support of his wife and three minor children, was sentenced to serve one to three years on two counts of desertion and non-support, the sentences to run concurrently. Judge Raymond L. Smith told Oskaboos, a Canadian citizen, "You will never make a serious attempt to support your family. You are not a fit subject to be a citizen of this country and you ought to go back to Canada and let them take care of you there."

Overbeek entered the service in the September draft group of 1952. He took basic training in mine wiring at Camp Chaffee, Ark. He was home on a 10-day furlough early this year before leaving for Japan on March 9.

He was transferred to the Seventh Army in Korea where he was engaged with an infantry group. His last letter was dated April 27 and stated his disappointment in not performing the duty for which he had been trained at Camp Chaffee.

The letter was received by the parents shortly before the death. They said an attempt to return the body will be made.

Overbeek attended Overisel School and Holland Christian High School.

He is survived by the parents, a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Ver Beek; and a two-year-old son, Martin Galien Overbeek. He was a member of Overisel Christian Reformed Church.

Members of Zion Lutheran Church were guests at a silver tea, given Sunday afternoon at the church by the Zion Builders Class. Silver coffee and tea services at either end of the tea table complemented the silver candelabra and centerpiece of spring flowers. Delores Sebasta and Ann Freeman poured.

Son's Death and Fire Make Bleak Mother's Day

It was a bleak Mother's Day for Mrs. Ben Overbeek of Overisel Sunday.

On Thursday she and her husband had received word that their son, Pvt. Harvin J. Overbeek, 22, had been killed in Korea.

Shortly after noon on Sunday, the barn on the Overbeek farm located three miles southeast of Overisel caught fire and burned to the ground, destroying with it 3,000 broilers just ready for market, four hogs, and three puppies. A granary nearby containing about 100 bushels of grain was badly damaged. All other buildings including one for farm machines were saved. Considerable equipment for raising the broilers was lost along with the barn.

The Overisel fire truck was the first fire fighting equipment on the scene, joined shortly afterward by the Bentheim department. Later the Hamilton fire truck came. The Overisel truck remained on the scene until about 6 p.m.

Cause of the blaze was undetermined. There was no estimate given on damage.

The Overbeeks' mailing address is route 1, Hamilton. The message they received from the War Department Thursday gave no details of the death of their son, but promised further information later.

Pvt. Overbeek entered the service in September, 1952, and took his basic training at Camp Chaffee, Ark. He was home on a 10-day furlough early this year before leaving for Japan March 9. Surviving are the parents; a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Ver Beek, and a two-year-old son, Marc Duane.

Harvin Overbeek Killed in Action

Pvt. Harvin J. Overbeek, 22, of route 2, Hamilton has been killed in action with the army in Korea, according to a telegram received 7:30 p.m. Thursday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Overbeek.

No details of the death were contained in the telegram, but it stated a letter would follow with more information.

Overbeek entered the service in the September draft group of 1952. He took basic training in mine wiring at Camp Chaffee, Ark. He was home on a 10-day furlough early this year before leaving for Japan on March 9.

He was transferred to the Seventh Army in Korea where he was engaged with an infantry group. His last letter was dated April 27 and stated his disappointment in not performing the duty for which he had been trained at Camp Chaffee.

The letter was received by the parents shortly before the death. They said an attempt to return the body will be made.

Overbeek attended Overisel School and Holland Christian High School.

He is survived by the parents, a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Ver Beek; and a two-year-old son, Martin Galien Overbeek. He was a member of Overisel Christian Reformed Church.

Zion Builders Class Entertains at Tea

Members of Zion Lutheran Church were guests at a silver tea, given Sunday afternoon at the church by the Zion Builders Class. Silver coffee and tea services at either end of the tea table complemented the silver candelabra and centerpiece of spring flowers. Delores Sebasta and Ann Freeman poured.

A musical program included a piano solo by Mari Van Dyke, trumpet solo by Phil Rathke accompanied by Pat Walters and a trombone solo by Lyle Vander Meulen accompanied by Mari Van Dyke. Donna Hoogerhyde gave a reading, a tribute to mothers.

A welcome was extended by Mari Van Dyke, class president, and Augie Overway served as master of ceremonies. Myra Frundt was in charge of decorations. Proceeds are to be placed in the church building fund.

During the afternoon, the Rev. E. Ruhlig, church pastor, recorded messages from everyone present and will present the recording to his wife, a patient at Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago. Mrs. Ruhlig's condition is much improved following successful heart surgery last week.

They have a son, Harvey of Holland, a granddaughter and two grandsons. They are charter members of Trinity Church.

Most Home Scene of Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wesseldyke, Jr. (Lousma photo)

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mast, 47 East 19th St., was the scene of a wedding Thursday evening when their daughter, Miss Juella Mae Mast, became the bride of Herman Wesseldyke, Jr.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wesseldyke of 4 Lincoln St., Zeeland.

The Rev. Marvin Vander Werp performed the double ring rites before a setting of palms, ferns, seven-branch candelabra and arrangements of calla lilies and yellow gladioli. Miss Kay Wiersma was pianist and Miss Myra Wiersma sang "Through the Years," "Because" and "Benediction."

Miss Shirley Van Rhee and Alvin Wesseldyke, brother of the groom, attended the couple.

The bride chose a gown of lace and nylon over satin and a veil of French illusion edged with lace and held in place by a pearl tiara. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

Miss Van Rhee wore a pale green gown with matching headdress and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses.

Both mothers wore navy blue ensembles and had red rose corsages.

A reception for 35 guests was held at the Elton House. Mr. and Mrs. Henry (Bob) Brinks were master and mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Harold Dyke and Miss Della Nykamp arranged the gifts and Miss Leona Wesseldyke was in charge of the guest book. A program included solos by Miss Wiersma, song service led by Mr. Brinks, reading by Mrs. Roger Zuidema, cornet solos by Dale Cooper and remarks and prayer by Rev. Vander Werp.

For their northern wedding trip, the bride wore an ice blue suit with pink and navy accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will be at home at 140 Clover Ave.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Holland Christian High School. She is employed at H. L. Friedlen and Co. and he, at Dutch Boy Co.

Hudsonville Band To Present Concert

The Hudsonville High School band under the direction of Bert Brandt of Holland and the Girl's Glee Club under the direction of Miss Geraldine Hirschy will present a concert Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Band numbers will be "Lieutenant Commander March," King; "Allan A-Dale Overture," Hanson; "Two Woodland Sketches," MacDowell; "Ballet Egyptian," Luigini; "Burest of the Trumpets March," Walters; "River Jordan," Whitney; Fantasy on Negro Spirituals, "The Lonesome Road" and "The Cricket and the Bull Frog" for piccolo and baritone sax played by Marilyn Hop and Ron Hoffman, together with band: "Forty Fathoms" with Melvin De Weerd and Darl Vander Schuur as soloists; Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Also appearing from Holland will be Billy Plum in a drum solo, Jim Bos in a trombone solo, Roger Mulder and John Crozier in a sax duet and Gordon Hoeksema in a clarinet solo.

The Hudsonville band will appear in both the children's parade and the parade of bands next week in Holland. The band entered class B competition this year by a few students and won a first division rating at the district festival in Muskegon. It is believed this was the first class C band to qualify for state competition the first year upon entering the B classification.

Director Brandt has been invited to speak at the annual parent's banquet for the Ypsilanti band Wednesday night but is unable to accept. The local man was recommended to the Ypsilanti group by Dr. William Revelli, director of the University of Michigan Band who described Brandt as "the one person in my opinion who had accomplished the most with the least of any bandmaster in the state of Michigan."

Case Against Local BPOE Settled in Circuit Court

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—The case of Julia Tingley of Grand Rapids against BPOE 1315 of Holland was amicably settled between the parties at 2 p.m. Friday in Circuit Court.

About 25 students from seventh and eighth grades of Borculo School, accompanied by their teacher, Gerald Bosman, were in court attending the jury trial in which Mrs. Tingley was seeking $100,000 damages for alleged injuries received May 16, 1953, while assisting in preparing a lunch in the organization's building during Tulip Time.

Several witnesses had been called in the morning proceedings, including Edward Holwerda, Herman Vanden Brink, Peter Frans and Russell Rutgers.

National Home Demonstration Week Concluded

Harmonious family living is primarily a matter of understanding oneself and others. That fundamental fact has touched the lives of 25,000 Michigan families during the past year through the studies of home demonstration group members.

Now 677 members in Ottawa County are reviewing their program and getting set to launch another year of study following National Home Demonstration Week, which ended Saturday.

"Living Together in the Family" has been a popular lesson throughout the state, according to Mrs. Lennah Backus, family life specialist for the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service. The lesson tackles the problems of family conflict by discussing how the problems can be solved. Considering the function of the family in today's society is also a part of that lesson. "Living Together in the Community" is a new lesson that logically follows the "Living Together in the Family" program.

"The Development of a Healthy Personality" is another new lesson offered Michigan home demonstration group members during the past year. Other subjects include "Adolescent Adjustment," "Planning for Marriage" and "Building Sound Attitudes."

In Michigan, almost 35,000 women have attended home demonstration group meetings where lessons have been given on home furnishings. "Accessories for the home" and "Good Design in Home Furnishings" are two subjects which have proved popular with Michigan homemakers. They have studied such projects as furniture arrangement and selection, color in the home, how to make lampshades, better home lighting, handmade hooked and braided rugs.

Jessie E. Marlon has directed the home furnishings program for the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State College. By training local leaders who return to their home demonstration groups, Miss Marlon has directed the making of more than 40,000 articles for homes. Total annual savings estimated by home demonstration group members amounted to over $90,000 in the state.

Another lesson the home demonstration club members participated in was "Your Clothes and You" and "Color in Dress."

Throughout the state an interest in selecting and buying clothing has been noted. A lesson on "New Fabrics and Their Use" has proved especially popular in many of the 77 Michigan counties where Michigan State College specialists have carried the clothing program as part of the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service.

Philathea Class Ends Season With Potluck

The Philathea Class of First Methodist Church held its final meeting of the season Friday evening in the form of a potluck supper under the chairmanship of Mrs. Neil Van Leeuwen.

TULIP TIME

We are thankful that everything has worked out well for another opening day. We are pleased to have all of you with us from all parts of the country. Have a good time, enjoy your visit and come again at any time of the year. We think that we have a nice city. We want you to think so too.

This year the people of Holland and the community are doing the usual fine job of cooperation. We will have no large feature attraction as we have sometimes had in the past but will have people from the community, local schools and college working hard to entertain you in the usual Dutch tradition. See all of these attractions if you can. We want to thank each and everyone for lending a hand and their support; this makes Tulip Time every year of us. If you have minor difficulties remember to smile; we have a lot of people to entertain and sometimes there are interruptions and delays. A smile will go a long way; this helps everyone to enjoy the Festival whether they are visitors or our local people.

This year the Festival runs four days Wednesday through Saturday. Sunday we invite you to go to church. You will find many nice churches in our community. Most of them you will find filled but there is always room for more. Thank you one and all.

WHAT ABOUT THE CONSTITUTION?

The so-called "liberal" magazines continue to see things as they want to see them. Thus a writer in "The Nation" took occasion to compare the achievements of the Eisenhower administration in its opening phases with those of the Roosevelt administration at a similar period 20 years ago. As might have been expected his analysis was all in favor of the latter.

Eisenhower, he grumbled, has done nothing that represents a dramatic reversal. Just look back 20 years, he exults, and recall the almost daily political revolutions Roosevelt staged. Remember the legislation that bubbled up in those yeasty days; recall the exciting incidents that made political history.

All right, let's recall those days. It is true, the legislation passed in the first period of the New Deal was much more dramatic than the acts so far in the Eisenhower administration. But Eisenhower is handicapped by the fact that he is scrupulously trying to stay within the constitution. Roosevelt had no such scruples. His Brain Trust—several of whose members are now the severest critics of the legislation then passed—turned out bills and more bills, and the White House sent them to congress with orders to sign on the dotted line.

Congress virtually abdicated its constitutional functions, passing most of the bills almost unthought, unseen. And several of those measures that made big headlines because of their revolutionary character were in due course declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. The famous N.R.A. is an excellent example. But it was by no means the only one.

When that happened Mr. Roosevelt tried to pack the supreme court itself in such plain contravention of the constitution that even he, aided by a supine government, couldn't get away with it.

It is easy enough to do dramatic things in government if you ignore the constitution. The American people should thank God that the present administration is trying to stay within the framework of the fundamental law of the land. We are a democracy of laws, not of men. Mr. Eisenhower seems to be taking his oath of office seriously. He may not be as dramatic as pseudo-liberals demand, but it is better to be constitutional than dramatic.

Living As Christians

I Thessalonians 1:1-23

By Henry Geerlings

The early Christians regarded the acceptance of the Christian life as the most vital thing of their careers. Nothing else was of greater importance than living Christ's life for Him in the present world. And the value of everything they owned, or hoped to own, was estimated in the light of the Christian life.

They were steadfast, brotherly, worshipful, devout and happy. True they were called upon to suffer and to bear hardships and even death, but what are hardships and death when one knows that he is right, and that no matter what may come, Jesus is at the end of the road with eternal life in His hand. Contrary to the belief of some, there is something more valuable than a good time, the fulfillment of selfish desires and temporal life.

Men, who live for more than the present moment are quick to realize that Jesus gave the only real meaning of life that can be given and that strict obedience to Christ is found in the cultivation of the spirit and attitudes, knowing how to tap the rich resources of prayer, worship, Bible study and evangelism. The Christian involves certain disciplines which need to be practiced regularly and sincerely. A full measure of prayer must be included in our equipment for our expedition of faith. It is recorded of the ancient Christians that they continued steadfastly in the prayers. Developments during the past few years have brought into use methods of communication most unique and amazing. The possibility of having a telephone in the automobile is something that few dreamed of a few years ago.

We value quick and convenient communication most highly. But has it ever occurred to you that in the realm of the spiritual we can speak with God. This has been our greatest opportunity since almost the beginning of history. And yet how slow we are to lay hold of that opportunity. Prayer is that communication most needed by us and the least used. Some people say that they do not pray because they cannot pray. And yet those same people know how to talk to their neighbors about their needs and desires. Why not talk to God also? Certainly the edge is soon taken off our Christianity if we refuse or fail to communicate with God in a regular fashion. Prayer ought to be a must on our list of equipment for making the journey of the Christian life.

Another must in living the Christian life is a full measure of worship. Too many people in our churches have not been taught that it is a positive sin to stay away from the worship services of the church on the Lord's Day. There is no room in the gospel for the preacher to plead with Christians to come to the sanctuary. Christians are expected by their Lord to be in the worship, and that ends the matter right there. Faith, repentance, confession and baptism are of no value whatsoever if, after becoming a Christian, the individual refuses to honor his Lord by a regular attendance at the worship services. A lot of us have talked ourselves into believing that church attendance is a matter of personal choice. There is no choice in this matter.

Bible study is a vital part of the equipment of the journey of faith. The Word of God is the road map of the Christian journey, and no one can hope to arrive without following its directions. The wise person goes directly to the Bible to see for himself the instruction given. Simply to listen to some one else give these instructions may not be sufficient, for there are some today who are posing as preachers of the Word who have mutilated and changed that Word so much that listeners have been confused and discouraged. In moments of crisis we all realize that we need more than human words to sustain us. Why not realize the same need when times are not so critical?

The Christian life demands a full stewardship. The whole plan of human redemption from sin may be described in the language of stewardship. Man first gave in to sin. Then God gave up His Son for sin. And now the redeemed man gives over himself and all he has to combat sin. Some persons declare that they do not like the church because it asks them for money. If they followed out the same sort of reasoning, they would soon discover that there is not a thing in this life that they would really like, for the reason that life itself is simply a great program of giving. When a person gets through giving, he is ready for the grave. No wonder a non-giving church member soon drifts away.

A full measure of trust in the leader is a vital commodity in the line of equipment for the Christian. That Christ has forgiven us our sins ought to make us want to follow Him wherever He goes. Furthermore, it should cause us to want to go where He sends us. How grand it is to know that this great journey of the Christian life does not rest upon a human plan or blueprint! We are going God's way, and for that reason victory is in sight. The great fault of humanity has been the desire to do as it pleased.

Injunction Continued

HAMMOND, Ind. (UP)—The Lever Brothers Co. petition for an injunction to prevent mass picketing at its strikebound Hammond plant has been indefinitely continued.

A bird's pulse is about 120 beats a minute when it is at rest. The human pulse averages 72 beats a minute.

Holland In 1917

(Following is the 572nd in the series of weekly articles taken from news of the Holland Daily Sentinel published more than 35 years ago.)

The plant of W. E. Dunn & Co., Ottawa Ave., was burglarized during the night to the extent of from $100 to $150 worth of tools, according to a news story appearing in the Thursday, Sept. 6, issue of the Holland Daily Sentinel published in 1917.

Holland's latest paving job has been completed but comparatively few people from the downtown district know about it because it is in a section of the city that is not frequently visited by them unless they happen to own automobiles. The new paving job is on 24th St., extending from Central Avenue to Lincoln Ave. The estimate of cost called for $17,000 including the interest on bonds and the street is now one of the finest in the city.

With a very little ceremony Holland's first three drafted men left the city this morning to go to Battle Creek to take up their work there at the government cantonment. The three who left today are Harold P. McLean, Teunis Prins and Lawrence Dalman.

Lightning struck the steeple of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed Church Wednesday. It struck just below the famous copper rooster that has served as a weather-vane on the steeple for the past half century or more and did some damage to the steeple but did not touch the rooster. Lightning also struck the home of John Nyland in the Diekema Homestead.

At the Grand Rapids ministers' conference, Monday morning the Rev. Henry Dosker, professor of church history at the Louisville Theological Seminary, will speak on "Erasmus and the Reformation."

Miss Johanna Meengs of Zeeland left Wednesday morning for the Moody Institute at Chicago for a few months training before resuming her work as missionary among the Indians at Colony, Okla. Miss Meengs has just completed a course at a hospital in New Mexico.

The Holland Fair premium book, a volume of 128 pages, is off the press and within a short time it will have enjoyed a wide-spread distribution throughout Ottawa, Allegan and Kent counties. The premium list is that of the 33rd annual fair which will be held October 9, through 12. Announcement was made in the introductory announcement that Holland will have another night fair this year.

The third Reformed Church is to celebrate its golden anniversary tomorrow and Monday, according to a story appearing in the Sept. 8 issue.

Hans Dykhuus of Holland and former sheriff of Ottawa county has entered the state constabulary forces and will go on duty with the troops at Lansing Monday. Friday night the buzz of an airplane was heard by a number of people and although they tried their best to see the machine sailing through the air, they were unsuccessful.

The terrible rain and lightning storm put the electric plant at Coopersville out of commission so that power users had to shut down their plants for two days and the housewives resurrected the old lamps and candlesticks. Friday Albert Timmer, Jr., Simon Den Uyl and Gerrit Damveld left for Camp Custer at Battle Creek to begin work in the National Army for Uncle Sam and Saturday morning J. P. Luidens, John Kobes and Ray M. Vandenberg were the last three of ten selected from the Second District of Ottawa County to leave for the government cantonment.

Lightning struck the school house of District No. 5 in James-town, causing approximately $100 damage. The school had just been replastered and redecorated. Lightning also struck the home of Bert Bronsiek doing a little damage and also killed two pigs in a barn of G. Hoffman nearby. The home of M. Patmos also received a bolt of lightning doing considerable damage.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Baker of Gibson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at the Gibson Church, began a story in the Monday, Sept. 10, issue. It is perhaps little known in Holland that the veteran physician who is spending his old age on a fruit farm not many miles from this city is the man who had more to do with the development of the public health movement in Michigan than perhaps any other one man.

This evening the Golden Jubilee celebration of Third Reformed church will close with a church social presided over by Hon. A. Vischer and at which addresses will be given by Peter Gunst, Rev. W. J. Van Kersen, Dr. J. E. Kuizenga and Henry Geerlings.

Dr. Edward D. Kreners, formerly of Holland, has been commissioned a major of the regular Army Medical Corps.

The Rev. C. Muller of West Sayville, L. I., has received a unanimous call to the Reformed Church of Allendale.

A new and interesting branch of Army service particularly for men who like horses has been organized for the National Army now at Camp Custer, Battle Creek. This new organization is termed the Remount Depot, and 250 men with knowledge and experience in handling and training horses are needed at once by Army Recruiting Officers in Michigan for this work.

The U. S. Public Health service publishes a pamphlet, "Immigration Information for International Travel," which is of special importance to Americans intending to travel in tropical climates.

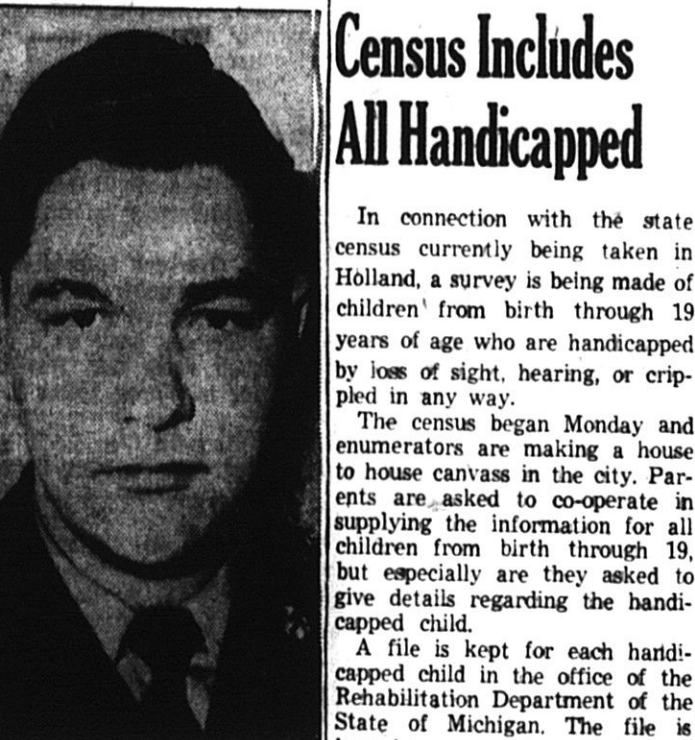

Plan Open House on Anniversary

On Friday, May 15, Mr. and Mrs. William Ten Brink of Hamilton plan to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house at their home. Friends and relatives are invited to call at their home Friday afternoon and evening.

The Ten Brinks have lived the last 37 years in Hamilton, where Mr. Ten Brink operates the Ten Brink Funeral Home. Mrs. Ten Brink is the former Mary Van Tatenhove.

They have four children, Mrs. Frank Moomey, Mrs. John Bouwman and Mrs. Donald Schaap, all of Holland, Henry and Marinus Ten Brink of Hamilton. There are 22 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Ernest R. Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schultz of Fennville, recently was promoted to sergeant with the Army's 6th Armored Cavalry Regiment at Straubing, Germany. Schultz, a member of the regiment's security platoon, has been conducting 50 caliber machine gun classes in his company. Sgt. Schultz attended Fennville High School and worked for the John Gaylord Trucking Service before entering the Army in 1930.

Winners Named in Hope College Speech Contest

The William J. Meengs speech contest for freshman at Hope College was held Monday afternoon at the college.

First prize was won by Tom Niles of Petoskey who spoke on "Stalin Is Alive." Second honors went to Nell Salm of St. Anne, Ill. Her subject was "The Way to Peace." Other participants were Jerry Redeker of Wauwatosa, Wis., and Elaine Vrugink of Hudsonville.

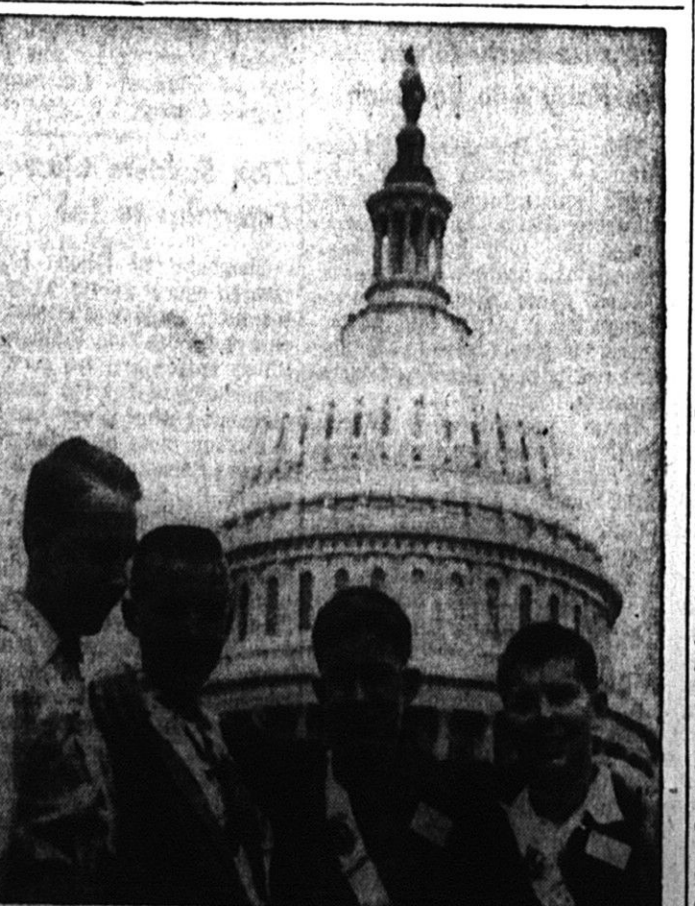

Judges were Miss Laura Boyd, Dr. Lotus Snow, Prof. James Prins, Prof. Lars Granberg and Prof. Robert Vanderham, all of the college faculty.

Fennville Man Named To Cherry Commission

LANSING.—W. Webb McCall, Mount Pleasant Friday was reappointed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams as member of the Michigan Tourist Council for a new term expiring April 18, 1938.

The governor also renamed Kenneth Bull, Bailey; Marc C. Hutchinson, Fennville, and Forrest Steimle, Eau Claire, as members of the Michigan Cherry Commission for terms expiring Feb. 1, 1936.

Marshall E. Campbell, Port Huron, was reappointed as member of the State Bridge Commission for a term expiring March 31, 1939.

Seeing the historic sights of their capital proved a thrill for these young safety patrol boys. They were among 112 Michigan patrolers taken on a four-day honor trip by the Automobile Club of Michigan as a reward for long hours of guarding classmates at school corners. From left to right are: David Welling, G. H. Harding school, Grand Haven; Emory W. Jorgensen, Longfellow School, Ludington; Dale Burka, Lincoln School, Manistee; and Robert Morrison, Longfellow School, Holland.

Laura Janssen Returned Home

ZEELAND (Special)—Laura Janssen is back in her own bed, and the tiny accident victim is plenty happy about it. The four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Janssen of route 2, Zeeland, was taken home Friday—completely conscious.

And one of the fondest hopes of her parents was realized when she began to move her left arm and leg, something she hadn't done since the accident more than two weeks ago. Doctors had feared a limited paralysis.

Laura was struck by a car April 27, and suffered a severe concussion and possible skull fracture. She remained unconscious from the blow for about 10 days, finally coming out of the coma last Thursday.

Her parents are "very happy" to have her home, and although her eyes have not cleared up as they had hoped, they're confident she will recover completely.

At home Mrs. Janssen, who had stayed with Laura in the hospital for those long hours, is ably assisted by her nine-year-old sister Kathryn who is "an excellent nurse maid."

Her sister Emily, 6, and her twin sister Lorraine now have an opportunity to talk to her, and they really appreciate it. Laura must remain quiet until the end of the week when further x-rays must be taken to determine the exact extent of injuries.

One encouraging sign her parents point to is, "all she wants to do is eat."

Maplewood Mothers Club Stages Potluck Supper

Maplewood Mothers Club had its potluck supper marking the close of the term for the summer, Monday night in the school.

The group was seated at tables beautifully decorated with tiny spritz-like tulle, pear tree blossoms and candles. Joy Hungerink opened with prayer.

Mrs. E. Vander Well, Mrs. Kenneth Weller and Mrs. M. Emmens, teachers who are leaving, were presented with corsages in appreciation for their work. In accordance with the constitution the terms of the president and secretary had expired and election of officers was held.

Mrs. Bert Arendsen was elected president and Mrs. Alvin Petrolle secretary. Harold Ortman, principal, outlined the fluoride treatments to be given to second and fifth grade children, starting on June 15 at Fennville High School. It was suggested that the secretary contact Miss Bartholomew, Allegan County Nurse, regarding a pre-school clinic. It was decided to continue the traveling basket during the summer months.

Mrs. Vander Well, school's music teacher, gave two vocal selections, "When the Roses Bloom" and "The Lilac Tree," accompanied by Mrs. Elmer Kamphuis.

Serving on the supper committee were Mrs. Earl Nienhuis, chairman, Mrs. Andrew Naber, Mrs. Kamphuis, Mrs. Petroelje and Mrs. Russell Essenburg.

Mrs. Lena Dekker to Be Feted at Open House

Mrs. Lena Dekker, who will celebrate her 89th birthday anniversary on Monday, will be guest of honor at open house Monday afternoon and evening at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jacobs, 205 East Ninth St.

Mrs. Dekker, who has lived here for the past 47 years, was born in Wissinkerke, North Beveland, Zeeland, The Netherlands, on May 11, 1844. She formerly resided in Chicago. Her husband died 25 years ago.

Mrs. Dekker is a member of Sixth Reformed Church. She has two daughters, Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Arie Berendhorst of Zeeland, and a son, Ed Dekker also of Zeeland. There are six grandchildren.

Gil Van Wynen Speaks At Missionary Meeting

A program of music and pictures was presented at the monthly meeting of the Ladies Missionary society of Sixth Reformed Church Thursday afternoon. Gil Van Wynen sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. Herman Bekker and told of his trip to the Netherlands last summer. He also showed slides.

Mrs. Henry A. Mouw, president, conducted the meeting and read a poem "My Mother's Knee." Devotions were by Mrs. Tom Kraai. A period of silent prayer was held in memory of Miss Henerietta Kortering, a member who died a short time ago.

Hostesses were Mrs. Harold Barkel, Mrs. Bekker and Mrs. Gerrit Van Gelderen.

Mrs. Katherine Fisher Succumbs in Allegan

FENNVILLE (Special)—Mrs. Katherine Fisher, 81, died Saturday noon at the Allegan Health Center following a short illness.

She is survived by a son, Thomas of Fennville; two grandchildren; four great grandchildren; one brother, Thomas Helbach and one sister, Mrs. Mary Newcombe, both of Fennville.

Mrs. Fisher's husband, Peter, died 11 years ago. She was born in Saugatuck Sept. 26, 1871, and after residing in Chicago moved here 36 years ago.

School Election Procedures Aired At Board Meeting

New election procedures for the annual election for the Board of Education to be held June 8 were outlined by Attorney Peter S. Boter at a monthly meeting of the board Monday night.

Boter explained that inasmuch as Holland voted last year to come under rules for a third class school district, the annual election will be held the second Monday in June instead of the second Monday of July, and that eventually the board will have seven trustees serving four-year terms instead of nine members serving three-year terms.

To reduce the number of trustees, 2 trustees will be elected this year at the election which will be staged from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. in Junior High School. Clerk Margaret De Pree announced that only two incumbents had filed petitions for re-election by deadline last Saturday at 4 p.m. Seeking re-election are Dr. Lester J. Kuyper and Mrs. De Pree. Jay L. De Koning, board president, announced last month he would not seek re-election.

According to new regulations, the board will meet for its regular meeting Wednesday, June 10, instead of June 8 which coincides with the election. The vote will be canvassed at the time.

The board spent some time discussing acquiring property, both for new sites and for enlarging playgrounds at existing schools. On the latter score, the board referred the matter of acquiring nine parcels of real estate adjoining Van Raalte school to the building and grounds committee with power to act. The board also is completing negotiations with William Rotschaffer to purchase 63 lots for $31,500 adjacent to the new high school site in the vicinity of 25th St. and Harrison Ave., besides negotiating with Christian and Clarence Becker for purchasing 34 lots at 31st St. and Washington Ave. for the site of a fifth elementary school.

Karsten Assumes Duties on Friday

ZEELAND (Special)—William Karsten will be sworn in as postmaster of Zeeland at special ceremonies Friday following close of the business day.

Official confirmation of the appointment was received last week, but it had been known for some time Karsten was to get the appointment. A long-time post office employee, Karsten will assume his duties immediately.

He will succeed Mrs. Hattie Caball who has been acting postmistress for four years. During that time George Meengs was assistant.

Ceremonies will be in charge of W. Davis, Grand Rapids postal inspector, who will administer the oath. They will conclude with the turning over of post office keys to the postmaster.

Mothers and Daughters Have Banquet in Church

The Girls' League for Service of First Reformed Church of Zeeland sponsored a mother-daughter banquet Friday evening in the church basement. About 100 mothers and daughters attended.

Mrs. John den Ouden gave the opening prayer. Carolyn Bolman, Girls' League president, welcomed the daughters and mothers and introduced Shirley Dams as toastmistress. Group singing was led by Mary Zwijghuizen.

The toast to the mothers was given by Jean Schippers and toast to the daughters by Mrs. Adrian De Pree. A trio composed of Mary Zwijghuizen, Jan Van Peursem, and Ruth Vander Velde accompanied by Joan Bolman sang "My Mother's Prayers Have Followed Me."

A skit was given by Anele Pul, Eleanor Pul, Alga Gebben, Shirley Evink and Betty Zwijghuizen. Mrs. Ruth Van Duren of Holland told of her work as county welfare agent. Mrs. Van Duren works through the Probate Court and is especially active in making arrangements for adoption of children.

Tables were beautifully decorated with programs in shades of green leaves and colorful roses made of crepe paper pinned to the programs, which were made by League members. Floral centerpieces featured white narcissus and greens in green wire baskets with white bows. Betty Dams and her committee were in charge of decorations. Members of the Ladies Aid and Aid Auxiliary served the supper.

Industrial Delegates Tour Tulip Lane, Farms

Four busloads of delegates and guests attending the three-day convention of the National Council of Industrial Management Clubs in Grand Rapids visited Holland Friday afternoon on a tour of Western Michigan communities. They were provided with local guides who directed them down tulip lanes and the tulip farms.

Delegates included personnel directors, foreman and plant superintendents from industrial plants all over the country. Some came from as far away as Atlanta, Ga., Philadelphia, Pa., Virginia and New York. The convention closed Saturday.

Sentenced After Crash

GRAND HAVEN (Special)—James G. Johnson, 28, Ferryburg, involved in a two-car accident at Third and Fulton Sts. last Friday with a car driven by Mrs. Dorene Corbett, was arraigned before Justice T. A. Husted Saturday noon on a drunk driving charge and sentenced to pay $100 fine and $11.85 costs and serve five days in county jail. Charges against Johnson were withheld pending the outcome of the condition of three-year-old Susan Corbett who was injured and was released from the hospital Saturday afternoon.

Of all the presidents of the United States, the only ones not of British descent have been of Netherlands extraction.

Hospital Drive Division Heads Named by Group

ZEELAND (Special) — Division heads for the $150,000 hospital fund drive slated to open in Zeeland June 8 were named Monday by the special advisory campaign of the Thomas G. Huizinga Memorial hospital board of directors.

Named to head the house-to-house committee was Miss Rosemond Moll. Wendell Bonnama will head the professional group while industrial group chairman is Henry Brinks. Retail and wholesale is in charge of Nelson Van Koeveering and outside corporations will be under Mrs. Lavina Karsten.

The committee also is in the process of selecting area supervisors to contact rural areas around Zeeland during the campaign.

A meeting in Zeeland City Hall was set for May 25, at which time names of solicitors and workers will be listed. Final plans will be mapped and the entire group briefed on proceedings.

June 8-13 will mark the all important house-to-house campaign, but plans call for the drive to continue for three years, to lessen the financial burden on local families. Goal for the industrial, wholesale and professional divisions is $50,000 with other divisions combining to collect the other $100,000.

Already some $20,000 has been contributed, sparked by a $5,000 contribution from Mead Johnson company.

Tentative plans call for construction of a new building east of the present building on East Central Ave. The committee hopes to have provisions for from 26 to 28 beds.

Members of the special advisory campaign committee include A. C. Vanden Bosch, Jack Boonstra, Maynard Mohr, Robert S. De Bruyn and Cornelius Karsten, chairman.

There are 87 Long Lakes, 58 Round Lakes, 172 Mud Lakes and 36 Pickereel Lakes in Michigan. Other common names for lakes include Pine, Grass, Crooked and Clear. The confusion causes quite a problem in geography and steps are being taken to clarify the situation.

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Franklin Kolk, 38, formerly of Zeeland, and Spring Lake, who was brought here from South Bend, Ind., a week ago on charges of non-support, desertion and abandonment of a minor child, now four years old, appeared before Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith Saturday and pleaded not guilty to both charges.

Bond of $1,000 was continued and date for trial will be set during the June term. The information against Kolk alleges that on Sept. 28, 1948, he deserted and abandoned the child and on the same date and on divers days subsequent thereto and prior to April 27, 1953, he failed to support the child.

Adventists Attain Goal In Ingathering Appeal

Members of Holland Seventh-Day Adventist Church celebrated victory last week when Pastor Duane Miller announced that the church has attained its annual Ingathering Appeal goal. The goal was $2,143.50.

It is expected, Pastor Miller said, that when the funds from all the denomination's North American churches are in, last year's record total of $3,335,000 will be topped.

The church voted thanks to all friends and neighbors in the community who made possible successful completion of the project.

Mistakes in Last Of Seventh Inning Spell Out Defeat

A couple of mistakes in the bottom of the seventh inning spelled defeat Tuesday for the Holland High School baseball team.

The Dutchmen bowed to Muskegon 4-3 in a tight ball game played at March Field in Muskegon.

Holland jumped out to a fast 3-0 lead in the first inning. Bill Sandahl was safe on an error, and scored when Terry Burns blasted a triple to left center on a hit and run signal. Burns stole home just a moment later. Then Bob Van Dyke belted a three-bagger to deep center, and Jack Kempker walked. With the double steal sign on, Kempker was thrown out at second but Van Dyke streaked home with the third run for Coach Ned Stuitt's charges.

That was all the scoring for Holland. Pitcher Dean Vander Wal and Dick Yskes singled in the second, and Van Dyke pounded another one-bagger in the third. Those were the last of Holland's safeties as Big Red hurler Ron MacDonald slammed the door after a shaky start.

Muskegon counted first in the second when Krueger poled a tremendous home run over the left field fence with one man aboard to narrow the score to 3-2.

The Big Reds tied the count in the fifth when Ron Knop, who had two of Muskegon's six hits, singled home Jack Dagen from second.

Then came the fateful seventh. Dagen drew a walk to open the inning, and MacDonald beat out a perfect drag bunt to put two men on. Dell then sacrificed, but Dean Vander Wal tried for the force out at third and missed, with all hands safe.

Coach Stuitt then pulled the lanky righthander and sent in Jerry Victor. Knop hit his first pitch to second, and the run was cut off at the plate. But in the heat of the moment, catcher Ron Boeve heaved the ball into right field trying for the double play at first, and the ball game ended as MacDonald scored.

Vander Wal pitched creditable ball, allowing only two walks and whiffing seven. The victory for Muskegon evened up matters with the Dutchmen, whose sole win of the campaign came over the Reds earlier this year 2-0.

Kite Flying Meet Slated for May 23

Holland youngsters are invited to enter a kite contest 1 p.m. Saturday, May 23, under joint sponsorship of the Optimist Club and Recreation Department.

Deadline for applications is May 16.

To the uninitiated it may appear there is not much that can be done with kites, but the committee that investigated possibilities of a contest, have found out differently.

In fact, so popular is the game, telling just how to run off a contest and giving the rules.

Limited to children under 12 years of age, the contest will be divided into five groups, including the largest kite, smallest kite, most artistic kite, messenger kite race, and kite fighting.

In a messenger race small plastic or paper discs are attached on the string of the kite, and winner is the one pushed along the string to the kite by the wind.

Officials will hold kite fighting only if they can obtain the necessary glass powder string. About 10 feet of the glass string is placed between the end of the regular line and the kite, object being to saw the "enemy's" kite string, freeing the kite.

Rules for the contest provide that kites must be made by the individual who flies them, and each must have a cord 300 feet in length. Entry blanks are available at the various grade schools and the Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

Optimist Dale Fris is in charge of the event, aided by Joe Moran and Harold Streeter. Engraved trophies for winners are being provided by the club.

Population of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan is around 500,000.

The first patent was issued by the United States Patent Office on July 31, 1790.

Wilma Ford Wed to James Sullivan

Mr. and Mrs. James Francis Sullivan

Miss Wilma Anne Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Ford of 715 Saunders Ave., and James Francis Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Buck of Indianapolis, Ind., were married Saturday in a lovely spring ceremony in First Reformed Church of Central Park.

The Rev. John Hagans read the double ring rites before a background of ferns, candelabra, calla lilies and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Kenneth Bauman sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Herbert Ritsema, organist, played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of nylon tulle and white lace over satin with a fingertip veil of nylon tulle held in place by a pearl coronet. Her bouquet was a crescent of white fugi chrysanthemums.

Miss Elaine Louise Ford was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Donna De Vries of Grand Rapids and Miss Barbara Van Huis were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of lavender brocade and nylon net and carried crescents of lavender chrysanthemums.

Harold Sweigert of Indianapolis attended the groom as best man and John Cortese of Memphis and Lawrence Bowman of Holland were ushers.

A reception for 60 guests in the church parlors was followed by a buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Marvin Ten Brink and Mrs. Lawrence Bowman poured and Mrs. Martin Ten Brink served the wedding cake.

Guests came from Grand Rapids, Indianapolis, Memphis, Tenn., Tenafly, N.J., Darien, Conn., and Brooklyn, N.Y.

The newlyweds left on an Eastern wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore a light tan and Chinese blue linen shantung dress with matching jacket and a corsage of cymbidiums. They will be at home after May 23 at 113 South Traub, Indianapolis, where Mrs. Sullivan is employed as an airline reservation agent and Mr. Sullivan, as airline flight dispatcher.

Lakeview was third with 71 points followed by Montello Park with 57.

Officials had barely got the contest underway when a heavy rainstorm hit the area, forcing everyone to take shelter. Even then, almost all the kids were pretty well soaked.

After a short while the rain let up, and everyone returned to the track from out of cars and busses, ready to go. The intermittent drizzle continued throughout the meet.

Engraved trophies were awarded first and second place winners. Coaches from the schools are Henry Hoekman, Beechwood; John Ter Vree, Harrington; Donald Van Ark, Lakeview; Herbert Maatman, Montello Park.

Harrington school's Harold Mouw was in charge of the event, assisted by Ties Pruis of Montello Park and Donald Van Ark of Lakeview.

In an election Monday evening at Waverly School, residents of District No. 13 voted to become a graded school district. Lester Walker presided at the meeting.

Voters also elected a five-man board of trustees. Floyd Prins was elected for one year; Lester Walker and Louis Van Dyke for two years and Leonard Fought and Jacob Jonker for three years.

Harringtons Mix Civic Service With Business

When Capt. Autin Harrington died Aug. 2, 1939, in Holland, he left more than a prosperous coal business. He left a heritage of sound business policies and a record of public service that has been a constant challenge to his sons who now operate Harrington Coal Co.

Today in addition to running the largest coal yard in Holland, Harry and Carl Harrington are exceptionally active in public life, giving freely of their time and talents to civic improvement.

One of the first business policies Capt. Harrington adopted when he founded the business back in 1888 was to treat his competitors as friends, not enemies. Since their father's death, Harry and Carl have had plenty of opportunity to help out a friend in distress. Both take pride in the fact that they have always been able to provide fuel of some kind to everybody who needed it, as well as supplying competitors to the best of their ability. And with coal strikes and rail strikes, such opportunities have been quite frequent in the last decade or two.

On occasions, Harrington Coal Co. has even provided supplies to dealers half way across the state. Ordinarily, the Holland trade area has a radius of 15 miles and serves 50,000. Holland is located in western Michigan near the shores of Lake Michigan. It lies some 30 miles west of Grand Rapids, furniture capital of the nation and second largest city in Michigan. Official population of Holland city, 1950 census, is 15,858. But the city serves a suburban and resort area with a total population of well over 20,000.

Harrington Coal Co. started operations in Holland 65 years ago as a coal and wood business in what is now industrial property in the northern part of the city. Some years later, main offices, a yard and a dock were established on Lake Macatawa inside the city. Still later a northside plant was built a mile north of the city. The business operates on both wholesale and retail levels.

Back in 1888, wood sales predominated, hard coal ranked second and soft coal third. Austin Harrington was the first to sell Pocahontas coal in Holland. Throughout the years father and sons always looked to the future and tried to adapt themselves to changing conditions. The company maintains large stocks of coal of the finest fuels obtainable at its main dock and branch yard. An all-steel marine pile driver is used for the maintenance of the company's two docks. Other yard equipment includes two cranes, two bull dozers, and several Barber Greene loaders. During the summer season some of this equipment is used for general contracting.

A few years ago to meet changing needs of the public, an exclusive fuel oil plant was established. Gasoline is not handled, thereby eliminating any danger of mixing. Last year the main offices were modernized. Porcelainized paneling was used on the exterior.

"We believe in cashing in on ideas of others in the same line of business," Harry Harrington says. "We believe in constant advertising, associating Harrington and fuel together. The public is a constantly changing scene, and we can't go along on a free ride."

Harry and Carl Harrington learned their lessons well from their father who believed in serving his citizenship in various public offices without compensation and with little recognition. In fact, the two sons have surpassed their father in public service.

The Harringtons stem from an old American family which was in western Michigan even before the arrival of Holland's founder, Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, and his band of Dutch pioneers more than a century ago. One cold day on Feb. 9, 1847, George S. Harrington, grandfather of Austin Harrington, drove the ox cart which carried Van Raalte and a party of nine from Allegan to Holland. A frontiersman, George Harrington decided to cast his lot with the Dutch pioneers because of the experience he could be to them.

Harry who has been with the coal firm 45 years is just completing three years as mayor of Holland and has two years more to serve. During his three years in office, he has perhaps met more celebrities than any other mayor of a small city. As Holland's leading citizen, he has presented dozens of pairs of engraved wooden shoes to distinguished guests who are constantly attracted to this Dutch-American capital through Tulip Time, the world-famous festival that put Holland on the map more than 20 years ago.

In the spring of 1962, Mayor Harrington had the privilege of welcoming Her Majesty Queen Juliana and Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands to Holland, Mich. This was one occasion when wooden shoes were not presented since the couple received this honor on a visit 11 years earlier when the queen was still Princess Juliana. A large bouquet of roses served as the mayor's gesture of welcome in 1952.

A month earlier, Mayor Harrington was one of four Holland men to be inducted into the Order of Orange Nassau of the Netherlands at simple ceremonies conducted by Dr. J.B.V.M.J. Vande Mortel, Netherlands consul-general of Chicago. Others receiving the decoration were President I. J. Lubbers of Hope College, Municipal Judge Cornelius Vander Meulen and Dr. A. Leenhouts. Mayor Harrington and Dr. Lubbers were made officers in the order and Judge Vander Meulen and Dr. Leenhouts were made knights.

Presenting wooden shoes and welcoming a queen once in a decade are only a small part of Harry Harrington's duties as mayor. As mayor, he follows the same solid policies that have made him a success in the business world. Harry would be the first to say that Holland is the finest small city in the world, and the first to admit that it takes a lot of doing to keep it that way.

Carl, who has been with the firm 19 years, is active in Park Township which adjoins Holland. He is chairman of the zoning board and member of the appeal board. He served as president of the school board of Harrington school (named for a relative who donated the property) and has served as chairman of the board of trustees of First Methodist church where Harry also has held many church offices. Carl is past president of the Michigan Retail Coal Merchants association and at present is a member of the board of directors.

Much of the success of the Harrington business is due to efforts of the men who have been in the employ for many years. Edward Sooter, office manager of the main office, has been with the firm 32 years and Dick Ter Beek, office manager of the branch office, has been an employee 33 years. Other employees range in service up to 27 years. The firm employs 22 persons.

Mrs. Austin Harrington continued her association with the business after her husband's death in 1939. After her death in 1951, the two sons carried on. Harry's only son, Phil, is not following the coal business. He is one of the top photographers for Look magazine and spent most of the past year abroad, visiting the Holy Land during Christmas season and covering Iranian oil disputes. Carl has two daughters of school age.

During 1953, Harrington Coal Co. will mark its 65th anniversary. It's a different world today, and the present modern plant reflects the thinking of the founder when he said, "There is no substitute for hard work, and the fuel business is no exception to the rule."

Mrs. Leeuwenburg wore a light blue taffeta gown with net overskirt and a matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

World Famous Women's Quartet to Perform Here Friday

Chordettes Will Sing At Parade of Quartets

Five year ago, on a quiet Sunday afternoon in Sheboygan, Wis., four young ladies decided to while away an idle hour by singing. That impromptu songfest was to change their lives.

Pleased by their harmonies, they stuck together, dubbed themselves the Chordettes and launched a career which was climaxed in 1949 when Arthur Godfrey made them permanent members of his daytime Radio-Television cast, after they had topped top honors on his "Talent Scouts" show.

They feel like four Cinderellas now, but success and recognition came only after hard work, in perfecting their own style of barber shop harmony . . . or maybe, in their case, it should be called beauty parlor harmony.

Decision to adopt their particular style was prompted by the fact that the father of Virginia Osborn (who sings the feminine equivalent of a tenor part) was president of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc. The girls sing without instrumental background, and work out their own arrangements with their manager, Walter Latsko. The sweet-singing barber shoppers made their first public appearance in a Sheboygan Barber Shop parade. They have participated in leading quartet parades (usually all-male affairs) through the country, and have made several radio, television and stage appearances.

The Chordettes who are in Holland during Tulip Time to prepare a broadcast for the Holland Furnace Co. will make several appearances Friday, the first at the Service Club luncheon at 12:15 p.m. in Hope Church and the second at the two performances of the Parade of Quartets at 7 p.m. and 9:15 p.m.

Virginia Osborn, who sing "tenor," organized the Chordettes. She was born in Seattle, Wash., and moved to Sheboygan with her parents in 1934. She attended Downer Seminary in Milwaukee and completed her schooling at Frances Shimer College in Mt. Carroll, Ill., majoring in music and dramatics. She had leading roles in college plays and was soloist with the chapel choir.

Carol Hagadorn, "baritone," was born in Sheboygan, educated there, specialized in singing and dramatics, was member of a barber shop quartet while in school and completed a course in drama and speech at Columbia Radio School, Chicago.

Janet Ertel, "bass," was born in Sheboygan. She was always interested in music and drama, and as a child she toured the country with a stage troupe, later was on stage with her aunt. In January 1953, Dorothy Schwartz of the original Chordettes retired from show business. She was replaced by Lynn Evans, "lead." Miss Evans hails from Youngstown, Ohio, where she sang tenor in a barber shop quartet on local radio and television stations. Lynn came to the attention of the other Chordettes when the girls were making a personal appearance in Youngstown. At that point they were seeking a replacement for Dorothy Schwartz and heard her sing with her own group.

The Chordettes will be featured performers at the annual Chagoland Music Festival Aug. 22 in Soldiers field in Chicago.

Willie Rink Stars In Both Contests On Mound, at Bat

ALLEGAN — Coach Russ De Vette's Hope College baseball team is kingpin in the MIAA race today, thanks to a double win over Hillsdale College here at Allegan Monday afternoon.

The game originally scheduled for Riverview Park, was switched here because of Tulip Time preparations at Riverview.

Hope won the first game 6-1 and the second 10-6.

Standout of the day was ace pitcher Willie Rink who hurled all nine innings in the first game and four in the second. Besides his brilliant performance on the mound, the Hope ace knocked in five of Hope's 10 runs in the second game with two doubles. Rink was back in action after a scant one day rest. He hurled Hope to a 4-3 win over Albion in a game Saturday.

The double win gives the Dutchmen a 6-1 league mark compared with 5-1 for Albion. The Britons clash with Alma in a doubleheader Saturday while Hope finishes off against the Scots at Valley Field in Grand Rapids May 20.

In the first game, Rink went all the way and was locked in a pitcher's duel with Hillsdale's Al Ziebart. Hope had one run on four hits and two errors. Hillsdale made six runs on five hits and five errors.

The Dutch scored one run in the third and one in the fourth inning.

Hope scored four runs in the eighth inning. Jerry Lubbers walked with one one and went to second on a passed ball. Don York was safe on first after an error by the third baseman. York went to second on the play and Lubbers scored. Jim Van Hoven singled to left to score York and on the throw in, the catcher fumbled the ball and Van Hoven was out trying to stretch it to third.

Alden Klomparsen walked. John Adams singled to right and Klomparsen went to third. However, the throw in bounced over the third baseman's head and Klomparsen scored and Adams ended up on third.

Rink came to bat and the catcher tried to pick Adams off third, but the throw was faulty and Adams scored. Rink struck out to end the inning.

Hillsdale scored its runs in the third inning. Ron Appledorn walked, stole second and came home on Rossett's single to center. Rossett, however, was picked off first.

In the second game, John Busman started on the mound for the Dutch and was relieved by Rink in the sixth inning with the score 6-3 in Hillsdale's favor. The Dales scored one run in the third, one in the fourth and four in the fifth.

Hope tallied three runs on singles by Zeke Piersma, Al Dykema, and Dick Ortkvist and a double by Rink in the third inning.

The Dutch really pulled the game out of fire with a seven-run outburst in the seventh inning on four hits. Ortkvist, Dykema tripled to score Piersma. Lubbers bunted down the first base line and everyone was safe.

York hit to the shortstop who erred and York was safe on first. Van Hoven fled to deep center and Lubbers went to third after the catch. York stole second and Klomparsen walked to fill the bases. The score stood tied at 6-6.

Rink doubled to unload the bases and went to third on the throw home. Busman walked and Ortkvist singled to score Rink. Ortkvist was out, shortstop to second, on Piersma's hit to short. That ended the inning and the scoring for the game.

For Hope it was 10 runs on eight hits. The Dutch committed four errors. Boyea started for the Dales and was relieved by Ziebart in that seventh inning.

The Dales had nine hits off Busman in five innings, six runs, two errors and one strike out. Rink allowed two hits and no runs and struck out one.

In that second game, Rink had two doubles, Piersma had a single and a double, Ortkvist two singles and Dykema a single and a triple.

Here are eight klompen dancers who have done a good share of dancing in the 1 1/2 months since Christmas. As part of the experimental group which has worked at least twice a week, these dancers have appeared at several per-festival events advertising Holland's Tulip Time festival.

Byron Center Wallops Chix

ZEELAND — Byron Center's baseball team humbled the Zeeland Chix in a game here Monday afternoon, 15-1.

However, Zeeland had pitching troubles. The Chix ace flinger Del Komejan reinjured his knee in the third inning while fielding a grounder and was taken out.

That left Coach Bob Hoover without a front-line hurler and the Zeeland mentor experimented with Jim Katt for two innings, Ron Knoper for two innings and Ron Weatherbee for two innings.

The Zeeland pitchers gave up a total of eight hits and walked 16. Zeeland scored its lone run in the third. Jason Redder singled. Jim Wyngarden was out on an infield play and Redder moved to second. Gerard Wiggers was out on an infield ball and Redder went to third. Komejan walked as did Weatherbee and Dave Vander Meulen. That forced in Redder.

Bob Berens flied out to put an end to the brief rally.

Byron Center scored in five different innings, including seven runs in the third inning. Bob Vander Lugt was the winning pitcher and allowed five hits and walked five.

Vanden Bosch, Weatherbee, Redder, Wyngarden and Katt singled for Zeeland.

The Chix play Hudsonville at Zeeland Thursday.

Coach Joe Newell's Team Walks Off With Trophy

ZEELAND (Special) — Sparta's brilliant Glenn Burgett was far and away the individual star of the Ken-New-Wa conference track meet here Friday night and Zeeland High School's track team was presented the league championship trophy.

Burgett ground records into the dust as he breezed to victory in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. As if that wasn't enough the 16-year-old junior took first place in the shot put and was lead-off man for Sparta's winning 880-relay team that established another new record.

Officials were expecting a new record in the 100 and had four watches timing first place. Burgett didn't disappoint them as he was timed at 10.1 by two watches and 10.2 by the other two. However, according to state rules, the 10.2 time is official. The man who placed second really had to eat dust from the Spartan comet as the runner-up time was 10.7.

Burgett was way ahead at the tape in the 220 as he was clocked in 23.8 for another record. It was his best time of the year in this event. He was a good 15 yards ahead of second place Lambregtse, who was timed at 24.9.

The flashy Sparta runner gave his school's 880-relay team a hefty lead and the Spartans went on to run the distance in 1:38.3, another new record. Zeeland finished second in 1:39.3 for a new Zeeland High School record for the event.

Another outstanding performance was turned in by Comstock Park's Ron Post in the 800. He ran the distance in 2:06.4 to establish a new record. Post is a 15-year-old freshman at Comstock and he was out Friday night to bust the school record held by none other than his father, Jim, who was watching from the stands. However, the son was four tenths of a second off his father's 2:06 record.

Zeeland rallied late in the meet in the pole vault, high jump and broad jump to top Sparta for the team trophy. The Chix ended with 63 and five-sixths points to 47½ for Sparta.

Others down the line were: Coopersville, 34 and one-sixth; Comstock Park, 27½; Fremont, 12; Hudsonville, 8, and Cedar Springs, 2.

Times in all events were exceptionally fast. The Zeeland track was what coaches described as "good and fast" for the meet run off under the lights. An estimated 600 persons attended. Coach Joe Newell of Zeeland was in charge and saw to it that there wasn't too much lag between events.

DeGay Ernst, dean of starters in Michigan and considered one of the best in the business, lent his talents for the event Friday night.

School corridors will be back to normal when students report next week following one of the most exciting school elections in the history of recent years. All week long, Holland High School was a beehive of activity with youngsters displaying the same type of intense interest their elders showed in the Presidential election last November. Handing posters, left to right, are Carol Plakke, Sallie Hildebrand, and Donna Bort.

★★★ Timmer Elected Mayor Of Holland High School

Blaine Timmer was elected mayor of Holland High School Friday afternoon after a spirited campaign and record balloting. He was selected from a field of three candidates, his opponents being Roger Garvelink and Jim Cook.

Other major offices filled in Friday balloting were Marilyn Lam as clerk, Mark de Velder as judge and George Moeke as treasurer. Miss Lam defeated Phyllis Kruthof, de Velder defeated Gordon Knoll, Dave Mulder and Dave Jalving, and Moeke was opposed by Jane Schaafsma.

Aldermen elected in the eight wards were: ward 1, Nick Havinga and Carl Fehring; ward 2, Phil Ragains and Ronne Hallack; ward 3, Jayne Scully and Sandra Tien; ward 4, Laurie Hohl and Carl Ver Beek; ward 5, Tom Sanger and Bob Saunders; ward 6, Nancy Maatman and Julie Smith; ward 7, Phyllis Brink and Stanley Harrington; ward 8, Jane Klaasen and Elizabeth Ver Hey.

Other aldermanic candidates were Pat Walters, Judy Houtman, Ardith Naber, Sonje Bouwman, Shirley Miller, Helen Wade, Marsha Bort, Jim Kuyper, Joan Siebelink, Connie Haakma, Carol Luth, Wanda Essenburg, Myrna Cook, Sandra Dressel, Beverly Nyland, Mary Ellen Bouwman, John Madison, Sandra Cook, Carolyn Meurer, Gayla Davis, Janet Larion, Shirley Volkema.

This year's campaign was particularly interesting, and special emphasis was given to the newly designated office of judge. Heretofore, the chief of police was an elective office. This year the student body named the judge instead and the council will select the chief.

The heat of early summer and the spirit of teen-aged politicians made the high school an interesting place the past week. Posters proclaimed favorite sons and slogans were the most clever in recent years. The fever of the campaign reached its peak during the Friday afternoon caucus. All major candidates spoke briefly, outlining plans, making pledges and seeking votes. Candidates were supported by speakers who added color and interest.

Tom de Pree spoke for Jim Cook, Sally Damson for Blaine Timmer, Len Rowell for Roger Garvelink, Duane Carlson for Marilyn Lam, Jo Ann Fisher for Phyllis Kruthof, Phil Ragains for Mark de Velder, Riecky Linn for Dave Jalving, Sara Jo Kleinhekel for Dave Mulder, Burton Hilson for Gordon Knoll, Gretchen Hilmes for Jane Schaafsma, and Carl Ver Beek for George Moeke.

Local school authorities place great pride in Holland's student government. Events of such a campaign are highly educational in that young people learn government, parliamentary law, human relations, as well as practice art, engage in public speaking and general leadership while conducting such campaigns. Each candidate has a staff and the total number engaged in the friendly skirmish makes up a high percentage of the school enrollment.

Elected officers will take office for the next school year and will conduct affairs under the sponsorship of faculty representatives.

Miss Doris Wade Addresses Club

Election of officers and a guest speaker recently returned from Siam highlighted a dinner meeting of the Hope Church Women's Club Thursday evening at the church. It was the club's final meeting of the season.

Miss Doris Wade, who spent two years in Siam on a Fulbright teaching fellowship, told the group about her life there and especially about the people, whom she described as friendly, pleasant personalities who laugh and enjoy themselves, making them different from other Asian people. She explained their happiness as the result of their freedom. She said they have sufficient food, clothing and shelter, but are not material minded. They enjoy life and enjoy making things useful to them.

She said they follow closely the teachings of Buddha, but are not "active" in their religion. She described the Buddhist priests and told how Christian missionaries depend on them for information and help. The missionaries are accepted, she said, but the people do not accept Christianity as they feel the teachings of Buddha are practically the same as Christ's teachings.

Miss Wade said the Siamese mostly grow rice, which makes Thailand the richest country of Asia and has given them the name of "rice bowl of Asia." The climate is tropical, she said. The rainy season lasts from latter May until the first of November. The next three months are winter (with temperatures falling to 65) and April and May are the hot season.

She displayed some of her valuable heirlooms, many of them gifts from Siamese friends. It is customary, she said, for these people to give ancient family heirlooms as gifts to their friends. She also introduced Supat, a Siamese girl who returned here with her to attend Hope College.

In the election, Mrs. Robert Vanderham was named president; Mrs. William Neff, vice president; Mrs. Maurice Schaap, secretary; and Mrs. Jean Visschers, treasurer.

Mrs. Charles Drew reviewed work of the Women's Aid Society including their aid to the consistory in housekeeping of the church.

Mrs. John Hollenbach read an appraisal, prepared by Mrs. Leon Hopkins, of the Woman's Club work since its organization. Mrs. Marion de Velder led devotions.

Officers Elected In Junior High

Lester Overway was named president of Holland Junior High school in Friday's election that climaxed an intensive week of campaigning. He defeated Mary Ellen Steketee in a well fought battle of words.

The election followed an all-school assembly held Thursday in the high school auditorium when candidates presented their election stunts and speeches.

Persons getting the required number of signatures on a petition are entered on a primary ballot, and the field narrowed to two candidates for each office at the primary held one week before the finals.

In the race for vice president Merry De Waard defeated Tom Bos. New secretary is Roxanne Rudolph who was picked over Judith Bos.

Barbara Becker is the new treasurer, winning over Sally Houtman, and Edward Van Eenennaam was selected chief of police, defeating Wesley Bonzeleer.

Elections followed a week of pep bands and posters at the school. An unusual sidelight was the naming of a president, vice president and chief of police from the same home room.

Tulips-for-Turkey Swap Brightens Town Square

HARRISONBURG, VA. — Fifteen hundred tulips from Holland brightened Court Square in this Shenandoah Valley town known as "The Turkey Capital."

The tulips didn't come from across the sea, but from Holland, Mich., "The Tulip Capital."

Rockingham County supervisors, who control Court Square, did not have to buy the tulips, but planted them, with some evergreens, last October after 1,500 bulbs grown in Ottawa County around Holland were sent here as part of a swap of tulips for turkeys arranged by the Holland and Harrisonburg Rockingham Chambers of Commerce. The Holland Furnace Co. donated the bulbs, worth seven cents apiece, or about $100.

The Rockingham Poultry Marketing Co-op, largest poultry processing co-operative East of the Mississippi, which last year turned over 61,000,000 pounds of turkeys and chickens that sold for $25,000,000 fulfilled Harrisonburg's part of the swap by sending Holland $100 worth of turkeys, addressed to the Chamber of Commerce.

Manager T. W. Heitz sent the finest and most costly kind of turkey processed by the Co-op — smoked turkey, which sells for $1.80 per pound and which is in a class with caviar as top-flight party food. At the Co-op's plant, Rockingham turkeys are smoked over hickory and apple wood embers according to an old Virginia recipe. Six smoked turkeys weighing 10 pounds each were sent. At $1.80 per pound, this represents about $100 in value.

For the past 10 days the massed tulips in Court Square have been in bloom, making a gorgeous display which is highly praised by local people and by tourists.

Chairman Turner E. Hess, of the Board of Supervisors, says a number of citizens came before the Board at its May 1 meeting and thanked the supervisors for planting the tulips which have made Court Square so beautiful. "We Board members," said Chairman Hess, "thanked the Holland, Mich., Chamber of Commerce and the Holland Furnace Co. for these beautiful flowers that have brightened downtown Harrisonburg. And special thanks are due the Rockingham Poultry Marketing Co-op which has reciprocated in Harrisonburg's name, with a gift of smoked turkeys."

Mayor Laurence L. Loewner thanked the Rockingham Co-op for sending the turkeys, and extended friendly greetings from America's Turkey Capital to America's Tulip Capital.

"The people of Holland, Michigan, and the surrounding county of Ottawa where millions of tulips are grown, are urged to visit Harrisonburg next Spring, see the transplanted tulips on our Court House lawn, and, at the same time, view the apple blossoms, red bud and dogwood for which the Shenandoah Valley is famous," said Mayor Loewner.

The "Turkeys for Tulips" idea originated last September in the Spotswood Garden Club, and was brought to a head by Secretary Russell Stultz of the local Chamber of Commerce, when Mrs. G. D. Conrad, of the club's Highway Beautification Committee, and Mrs. William Garrard, the club's president, went to Stultz and said: "Holland, Mich., has millions of tulips, and we have millions of turkeys. Why not swap turkeys for tulips?"

Stultz wrote the Holland Chamber of Commerce. Its secretary, manager, William H. Vandewater, turned the matter over to Marvin C. Lindeman, who, on October 9, wrote Stultz that 1,500 top-grade assorted tulip bulbs, worth about $100, were being shipped by the Holland Furnace Co., which, together with the Holland Chamber and the Holland Tulip Garden Club, sent greetings to the Harrisonburg - Rockingham Chamber and the Spotswood Garden Club, and asked for a photo of the tulips, taken when in bloom.

Meanwhile, the Rockingham Supervisors responded favorably to requests from the Spotswood, Bridgewater and Broadway Garden Clubs that Court Square be beautified with the tulips from Michigan and some evergreens. So on Oct. 24, under supervision of Landscape Architect C. V. Bert, the Holland tulips and $160 worth of evergreens were planted.

He also pointed out that "a guaranteed profit would put Bourke at the mercy of Furniture Masterpieces for the latter could be as profligate as it wished in its business."

The judge also noted in his opinion that he saw no threat of violation of O'Meara's rights as a minority stockholder in the firm. O'Meara is a one-seventh owner.

The case was argued before Judge Smith in one of the county's largest cases in recent years. Arguments were heard for two weeks in December and a week and a half in January.

Judge Smith Rules In Civil Suit

ALLEGAN (Special) — Judge Raymond L. Smith has dismissed a civil suit for damages brought by Dennis O'Meara, former president of Furniture Masterpieces Inc., an Allegan firm, against Anthony Bourke, of New York and Allegan, who is now president.

Costs were taxed in favor of Bourke and other owners of the Bourke Furniture company, Furniture Masterpieces' parent firm. O'Meara, who was ousted as president in July 1951, based his suit on the contention that Bourke — acting as a sales organization — has guaranteed the Allegan firm a new profit of 15 per cent.

In his opinion, Judge Smith noted that "all parties had acted on a contractual formula basis of pricing for almost 10 years." He also stated that "the contract is not ambiguous in its terms and meaning."

Judge Smith cited income tax returns to support the pricing method which Bourke based his defense on.

He also pointed out that "a guaranteed profit would put Bourke at the mercy of Furniture Masterpieces for the latter could be as profligate as it wished in its business."

The judge also noted in his opinion that he saw no threat of violation of O'Meara's rights as a minority stockholder in the firm. O'Meara is a one-seventh owner.
