POOLE BROS. TO BUILD SMALL ADDITION TO PLANT

CONTRACT LET TO FRANK DYK—NEW PLANT TO BE 40x43 FEET

Poole Bros. Railroad Printers who have a plant on West 13th-st., will build a small addition to the present establishment. The new part will be 40x43 feet and will conform in architecture with the rest of the present building. The firm has been crowded for room for some time and this new addition is going to be utilized as a shipping room.

About a year ago Poole Bros. had plans made for an extensive building program but materials had gone sky high and these plans have temporarily been abandoned until a most favorable occasion presents itself.

The contract for the new part has been let to Frank Dyk of this city and will mean an expenditure of at least $5,000. A few more men will also be added to the company's payroll. Architects Williamson, Crow & Proctor have prepared the plans for the new addition.

WILL BUILD 100 HOUSES

Benjamin & Weemhoff Official Architects for Holland Association The Home Building association of Holland has awarded their first building contracts on their 100 house project to supply the housing shortage in Holland. The first contract amounted to 15 buildings and was awarded to two of the local contractors. These houses comprise five of the "C" types, five of the "A" types, and five of the bungalow "D" types as are being used by the Home Building association of Grand Rapids. The "A" and "C" houses are six room and bath types, and the "D" bungalows are five rooms and bath types, all having full depth basements and being equipped with all modern conveniences. The architects are Benjamin & Weemhoff. The actual building operations have already begun.—G. R. Herald.

BIG CLASS OF ELKS TO GO THRU ON JUNE FIFTEEN

AT LEAST 50 LEADING BUSINESS MEN WILL BE INITIATED ON THAT DATE

The Elks are making special preparations to put through the largest class of antlers that has ever been privileged to go through the B. P. O. E. in this city thus far.

A drive for membership has resulted in the getting of a big class, more than fifty in number composed largely of the leading business men of this city.

It is expected that the degree team from Daisy lodge, Grand Rapids, said to be the best working team in this country, and will be in Holland the night of the 15th of June to put on the work.

The Elks drive for membership is still on, and an application blank has been sent to each and every member, 150 in number, instructing them to secure another member.

Some especially energetic Elks have captured as high as four and after the initiation takes place, Holland will have the largest lodge in either Allegan or Ottawa counties.

Plans are under way to build an Elks Temple in the very near future, and a committee has been appointed to take steps along this line.

Many Holland Elks will attend the National Grand lodge convention to be held in Chicago from July 5 to 10.

The Grand Haven and Grand Rapids lodges have chartered one of the large Goodrich steamboats for the week and many Elks are planning to join them in this trip to the convention city.

JUDGE BRUSSE DEALS OUT SEVERE SENTENCES

CHIRIVARIERS SENTENCED TO PAY FINE AND GO TO JAIL

Jury Recommended the Minimum Fine for the Offense

At 7:30 Wednesday evening the jury in the Drenthe chirivari case brought in a verdict of guilty as charged, with a recommendation that only a nominal fine be imposed. In passing sentence Justice Brusse ignored this recommendation and imposed the following sentences: E. K. Lanning, Art Bredeweg and Peter Roon were each fined $100 and costs of $10.50, together with a county jail sentence of ten days; Roelof Bredeweg, Gerrit R. Hunderman, Roelof Nyenhuis and Alfred Lanning were each fined $50 and costs of $10.50, with a county jail sentence of 30 days.

Att. Jay Den Herder, on behalf of his client immediately game notice of an appeal to circuit court, and bail was fixed at $1000.00.

The jury had taken the case at about 5:30, and for two hours they wrestled with the evidence, given, and on one occasion asked for information and that a statute should be made plain to them.

After the jury had finally decided upon a verdict the foreman, Alerman Peter Damstra read the following:

"Your Honor, the jury brings in a verdict of guilty, but recommends to this court the minimum fine for the offense as charged."

Drenthe took in Holland yesterday.

At least 500 of them threw aside the farm implements and came to this city, by fivver, on horseback, or by wagon, and the court room in the city hall was crowded, the ante rooms and jury rooms adjacent were jammed, the lobby adjoining the court room was even filled with men and women from the farm. The crops sure were neglected in the vicinity of Drenthe, but the farmers weren't thinking of crops, but of the great trial that was to take place, in which eight of their neighbors were involved, and possibly forty more whose names had not yet legally been connected up with the charivari party in which John Zylstra and wife charge several citizens of wrecking their home, injuring the bride of the newly weds, shooting off dynamite and breaking windows, after the defendants had asked Zylstra for money with which to have a proper charivari, but charges that when this was not forthcoming and was refused, these depredations as have already been published in John Zylstra's sworn affidavit, took place.

Prosecutor Fred T. Miles, appeared for the people, and Attorney Jay Den Herder of Holland of the law firm of Robinson & Den Herder, and Claire Hoffman of Allegan were attorneys for the several defendants.

John Zylstra, the man of 56, who married the young Drenthe girl, who is only 18, was called by the prosecution and reiterated on the stand the statement made in his affidavit, that they stoned the pump, put water in the chimney, destroyed wall paper, smashed the windows, and the kitchen door, insulted his wife, cut the telephone wires, threw live chickens through the window in the bedroom and such other depredations as set forth in the sworn statement.

His timid little wife of 18, sweet and pretty, was next called to the stand, and backed up her recently acquired spouse of two-score and sixteen in everything that he said, and as a clincher the two witnesses pointed to five large stones and a couple dozen shot gun shells which they claimed to have picked up in the house after the alleged revellers had departed. These the couple had lugged to Holland in a large flour sack, with the intention of using them as evidence against the defendants.

One important witness was Deputy Sheriff Lew Bouwman. He stated that when he inspected the house he found windows broken, both up and downstairs, there were a few bricks broken from the chimney, and the kitchen door was busted; he found a porch post missing, and dirty water coming from the chimney had damaged a great deal of the wall paper. On cross examination, Deputy Bouwman could not give an exact estimate of the damage done, but he thought about forty dollars. At this stage of the game, Attorney Claire Hoffman asked that Peter Roon, E. K. Lanning and Art Bredeweg be exempted from the trial, as the prosecution had not shown by one single witness that these above named men had taken any part in the charivari.

Prosecutor Miles strenuously objected to Attorney Hoffman's motion and stated that the fact that these men were present and did not interfere, showed that they were aiding and abetting this lawlessness and should be tried with the other defendants.

CAN GET GAS IF AFTER IT STRONG ENOUGH

THAT IS WORD SENT BY UTILITIES COMMISSION TO PEOPLE OF 5TH AND 6TH WARDS

But Doubt If It Is Wise to Go After It At This Time

The Fifth and Sixth wards can have gas without waiting for the coming of a municipal plant and without making a fight under the conditions of the franchise. They can have it, franchise or no franchise, provided there is sufficient unanimity on the subject so that the residents of the two wards will petition for it in large numbers to the Michigan State Public Utilities commission.

This was one of the points made by City Attorney McBride in his report to the common council Wednesday on a conference that he and Mayor Stephan and Ald. Damstra had Tuesday with the Utilities Commission in Lansing. The main results of that conference is given in another article in this newspaper. Mr. McBride reiterated what was given in that story, namely that there is sure to be an increase in the price of gas in Holland, and that the basis on which the commission will raise the price is the increase in cost of coal and cost of labor. The commission also promised, he declared, that in case the price of coal and labor should come down, they would also cut down the price of gas in Holland.

In regard to the fifth and sixth wards, the commission gave the Holland representatives to understand that those wards could get their gas if they wanted it badly enough. However, it is still a question whether it would be wise for those wards or for the city at this time to make such a move, in view of the movement now on for a municipal gas plant. The council committee expressed themselves as in doubt on this point and as wanting more information.

The committee members reported that an examination of gas rates in various Michigan cities showed that the rates in many places were going up due to the same causes that will send them up in Holland, namely the increase in cost of coal and labor.

motion of Attorney Hoffman.

Applause was very much in evidence at the trial. With every point made by the attorneys for the defense, the audience in the crowded courtroom would give round upon round of applause which indicated plainly where the crowd stood.

Justice Brusse did not interfere, when these orations were given and judging from the verdict they did not seem to have any effect upon the jury.

Attorneys for the defense brot in scores of character witnesses, in fact so many that Prosecutor Miles called a halt, and stated that he was not disputing the characters of these men up to this time. Here is a list of the character witness for the respective defendants:

For Peter Roon, the following:—D. Smallegan, A. Ter Haar, Walter De Leuw, Horace Hall, B. Nyenhuis, J. Rynbrandt, Paul Brower, A. Compagner F. Strick.

For Alcie Nienhuis the following: J. Kamps, Bert Ter Haar, E. G. Brower, Harry Seinen, P. Veeneboer, H. Brower, K. Brower, Mart Ter Haar, W. Karsten, M. Brandt.

For Art Bredeweg, the following: John Lanning, J. Essing, Johannes Opholt, N. De Witt, W. Padding, Alanning, M. Brandt, H. Van Dam, T. Seinen, G. Boerman.

For G. Hunderman, the following: H. Seinen, H. Brower, K. Brower, H. Ter Haar, B. Ter Haar, John Essing, H. Van Dam, H. Telgenhof John Opholt, M. Brandt.

Other witnesses called were N. De Witt, John Dozeman, J. Nichols, E. Spiker, Mr. and Mrs. diepstra, T. W. Van Haltsma, Henry Weaver, Gerrit De Kleine and John Rooks.

The two attorneys had a great deal of difficulty in securing a jury. Deputy Sheriff Hompkes simply scoured River and 8th street to find business men and went into the highways and byways to get more talsmen on the jury, but one after another were rejected by the prosecution or the defense.

Most of them stated that they had read a full account of it in the local papers, and for one reason or another they were dismissed.

After three hours hard work a jury was secured consisting of the following men: Peter Damstra, Henry Van Kampen, Peter Van Ark, Henry Woltring and William Zonnebelt.

SAYS FISHERMEN OFTEN SHOW UNNECESSARY CRUELTY

COUNTY SEAT PAPER MAKES COMMENT OF THIS SUBJECT

Applies to Some Holland Fishermen As Well As To Men There

The Grand Haven Tribune Tuesday printed an editorial under the title of "Cruel Sports" that would apply to some sportsmen in Holland also. Here it is:

A Grand Haven sportsman was much disgusted and rather angry over a fact which came under his observance while fishing on the piers. He noticed that a couple of fishermen were using small perch for bait when their supply of minnows ran out. It was the fact that fishermen were cutting the eyes out of live fish and he immediately jumped on the offenders with both feet, figuratively speaking. In some cases this sportsman found fishermen cutting the tails from small perch and either tossing the fish back into the water or letting them die on the pier.

He was not at all bashful about giving these fishermen a piece of his mind as to cruel sportsmanship. There is nothing of course to prevent the use of fish for bait, but he argues that the fish should be killed before they are mutilated by the removal of the eyes or tails.

No doubt a little course of education in the humane side of sport would be good for many hunters and fishermen. At its best there is an element of cruelty about the sport of killing anything, but there is really little necessity of going to the extremes in the matter. Hunters sometimes wound their game and then spend little time in making sure that the animals are not suffering because of those wounds. It is thoughtfulness of course, but the real sportsman does not forget.

We do not know of course to what extent fish suffer the pain of mutilation, when they are caught, but the fact that they are a living thing should assure them of the benefit of the doubt at the hands of any sportsman. It is in the line of creating a better understanding of the finer things in sport, that the hunting and fishing clubs are now trying to work. Fish and game are not as plenty as they were once and the whole sport of fishing and hunting is becoming more and more of a fine art.

TWO CHIEFS ARE GIVEN RAISE IN SALARY

Both Chief of Police Van Ry and Fire Chief Blom were given a hundred dollar raise through the action of the council Wednesday night. The board of police and fire commissioners recommended that Chief Van Ry be raised from $1600 to $1700 and that Fire Chief Blom be raised from $650 to $750. The council ratified the action of the board without discussion.

NOT TO PAVE WEST 11TH STREET NOW

PROJECT IS TABLED UNTIL A MORE FAVORABLE TIME COMES

No paving on West Eleventh-st. for the time being—that was the decision of the common council Wednesday evening when the committee on streets and crosswalks brought in a report to that effect. Both the committee and some of the aldermen however emphasized the phrase "for the time being." They declared that the project was by no means being abandoned by the present vote, but that the vote merely meant that at this time it was not an opportune move. The project was tabled and may be taken up again at any time when the conditions shall be more favorable.

About half of the property owners petitioned for the paving of the street while about half petitioned against it.

TO HAVE ORDINANCE FOR HOSPITAL BOARD

COMMITTEE TO INTRODUCE ONE AT NEXT MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

Chairman Leapple of the committee on ordinances announced to the council Wednesday evening that an ordinance would be introduced at the next meeting of the council defining the powers and duties of the hospital board. The hospital board has been operating more or less informally since the time when the city took that institution over from the private corporation.

While the work of the hospital has been most satisfactory and the board has been doing good work in their more or less voluntary and informal capacity the council thought it wiser to have a definite ordinance governing the matter, in the same way in which there are ordinances to cover other institutions in the city.

INCREASE IN PRICE OF GAS MAY BE LOOKED FOR

It is practically certain that there will be a sharp increase in the price of gas in Holland in the near future. That is the gist of a discussion held Tuesday in the city of Lansing before the Michigan State Utilities Commission. Mayor E. P. Stephan, City Attorney Mc Bride, and Alderman Damstra were present on behalf of the city. Holland recently was ordered by the commission to send representatives to this meeting to show cause why the rates increased should not be granted.

The company was represented by their attorney, Mr. Harrington, their engineer Mr. Waring, and by E. P. Davis of this city. After listening for the greater part of the day to the evidence presented by the company showing why the rate should be increased, the Holland representatives were given until June 14 by the commission to make answer either in person or in writing to the contentions of the company.

Simplified and shorn of side issues, the contention of the company is that coal has increased about 100 per cent in cost since the present rate was established and that labor has increased about 50 per cent, and that consequently the rate should be increased. The commission made it plain to both the company and the city representatives that the cost of coal and the cost of labor would be the only elements that would be considered in their decision; but since there is no doubt about the advance in price of coal and labor, it seems quite certain that an increase will be granted. It seems to be purely a matter of arithmetic. Just now it seems to be an alternative between an increase in the rate or shutting off of the gas supply.

The Holland officials learned of three Michigan cities that have municipal gas, namely, Ishpeming, Ironwood and Ypsilanti. The rate in Ishpeming last year was $1.50 and in Ypsilanti $1.40. Both towns are now contemplating an increase. The rate in Ironwood last year was $2, and that city has just increased the rate to $2.25. The city officials will get in touch with these cities in an attempt to get valuable information for Holland. The city officials further found that many cities in the state have been either without gas or have had gas of a poor quality the past few months, while Holland has been supplied with gas of a good quality.

The whole situation will be carefully investigated by the city representatives before making an answer to the company's request on June 14, but that there will be a raise, judging from the present attitude of the Michigan State Utilities commission seems certain.

EXCEPTIONALLY FINE DECORATION DAY

The American Legion Band, 30 in number were very conspicuous in the parade on Decoration day, the boys all wearing khaki suits, and broad-brimmed hats. Their music too, showed thorough drilling by Director Van Vyven.

The Holland martial band never fails to make a hit with its inspiring war tunes, while the Ter Beek quartet jumped into the breach quickly when it was found no other quartet was present, and furnished appropriate music at the grave yard.

HOLLAND GIRL WEDS MANILA LAWYER

Mrs. L. M. Thurber announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Theodora Thurber, to Mr. Francis B. Mahoney. The marriage took place on April 12th at Manila, Philippine Islands.

Mr. Mahoney is a native of Michigan and a graduate of the law department of the University of Michigan, taking his degree in law in 1908. Miss Thurber is also a graduate of the University of Michigan. She served as a successful teacher in Holland and Grand Rapids. A year ago she accepted a position as teacher in the Normal College at Iloilo, Philippine Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney will live in Manila, where Mr. Mahoney holds a responsible position with the Philippine Trust Co.

MISSIONARIES ARE DELAYED BY STRIKE

Rev. and Mrs. D. Dykstra, missionaries to Arabia, were scheduled to arrive in Holland Wednesday to spend their furlough in this country, but they were held up on the way because of a strike. Word has just been received from them that they will not be in this country until about the middle of June. They have sailed from Italy where they were delayed by a strike.

The First Reformed church had planned a reception for them this evening, but that gathering has been postponed until the time when Rev. and Mrs. Dykstra shall arrive. They will probably be here June 13 or 15.

A meeting of the farmers in the vicinity of Hamilton was held last Friday evening in Mr. John Brink's mill. The meeting was well attended and plans were made for organizing a Co-operative Association. Mr. Simon Harkema of Holland was one of the speakers. Much interest and enthusiasm is being shown by the farmers along this line.

Mrs. Alice Robinson returned on Saturday from Milwaukee after spending the past five weeks there with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Dodd.

MUSIC FIRM GOES OUT OF BUSINESS

COOK BROS. WILL CLOSE OUT THEIR STOCK OF GOODS

The firm of Cook Bros., which has conducted a very successful music business for nearly twenty years has decided to discontinue and they are closing out their entire stock. This firm opened for business March 1st, 1902, and from a small beginning gradually grew until at the present time they occupy one of the largest stores in the best business section of Holland.

The large stock of pianos, phonographs and sewing machines will be sold and the building they occupy at 40 E. 8th street will be for rent on July 1.

The members of the firm after a well earned vacation will probably take up some other line of business, although no definite plans have been made for the future.

Herman H. Cook, who has always done the piano tuning for the firm, will continue in this line of work.

FORMER HOLLAND WOMAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Word was received that the wife of John Roest, formerly of this city, passed away Saturday at her home in Hawthorne, California, after a lingering illness.

She is survived by her husband and one son.

MERCHANTS WANT HAMILTON BEE-LINE PUT INTO SHAPE

Having secured good roads during the past few years towards the west of the city to Macatawa, Waukazoo, Lakewood Farm and other places and also having helped to secure good roads towards Zeeland, the Holland Merchants Association is now after good roads to the southeast. Holland wants to be connected with Hamilton, Allegan, and thence with Kalamazoo by a good road that an autoist can travel in comfort.

As a beginning in this policy, they will try to have the so-called bee-line to Hamilton improved. That road is within the jurisdiction of the road commission of that county, but the Holland merchants believe that something can be done to have it put into shape.

The question was discussed Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Merchants' association in the city hall. Austin Harrington gave a talk on the matter and pointed out the advantages of having this road put into good condition. At present the road is practically impassible for autosists. A machine can plough through the sand but that is about all it is most of the way, ploughing.

The association's good roads committee was instructed to take the matter up with the Allegan county road officials and try to work out some plan whereby that road can be improved.

At present a large amount of the tourist trade is deflected from Allegan, Hamilton and Holland because of poor roads. The tourists coming into the state from the south get as far as Kalamazoo; from there they go on to Grand Rapids, thence to Grand Haven and on along the pike. The natural thing, if the roads were good, would be for them to drive from Kalamazoo through Allegan to Holland, and then follow the West Michigan Pike from here on.

ESTHER BEZAN WEDS MR. HARRY OTTEMA

A wedding took place last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bezan, Port Sheldon road, when their daughter, Esther, was united in marriage to Henry Ottema. The bride wore a beautiful gown of pink organdie and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The rooms were beautifully decorated with lilacs and tulips. The immediate relatives were present. The couple will reside in Holland.

MEMBER OF HOLLAND POLICE FORCE DIES

Holland lost a member of its police force Tuesday night at about midnight when Patrolman Cornelius Stam passed away after an illness of about five weeks. Mr. Stam was taken ill with pneumonia but he rallied from that. Then he was attacked by inflammatory rheumatism and other complications. For a time he seemed to be winning his fight.

Mr. Stam was appointed on the police force last November to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Patrolman O'Connor. He was an able officer, and Chief Van Ry Wednesday declared he had always been exceptionally faithful and efficient during the brief period of his connection with the force.

Mr. Stam was 41 years old. He is survived by his wife, two children, his aged father, three brothers John and Gerrit of this city and Peter of New York; two sisters, Mrs. George Hoving of Park township and Mrs. Peter Rosendahl of Holland.

The funeral will be held at the home, 190 West 17th street, on Friday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. James Wayer officiating.

After having deliberated from 9:30 Saturday morning, a jury in Judge J. S. McDonald's court Saturday afternoon at 6 returned a verdict of $700 in the case of Albert M. Buksma, of Grandville, administrator of the estate of Herman Vanden Bosch, a 12-year-old Grandville newboy, against Gaius W. Perkins, Jr., Herman Vanden Bosch a few years ago lived with his parents on East Eleventh street.

APPOINTED CAPTAIN IN MICHIGAN NATIONAL GUARD

Dr. W. Westrate of this city has been appointed captain in the Medical Corps in the National Guard Reserve of Michigan. The appointment was made by Gov. Sleeper, and Dr. Westrate has received the official notification from Col. John S. Berry, Colonel of the A. G. Department, Michigan National Guard, and Adjutant General of Michigan.

Dr. Westrate was informed that the official notification of the appointment would be regarded as a commission until such time when a commission can be issued in due form. He has accepted the appointment and it has already taken effect. The appointment came to Dr. Westrate on the strength of his war record. His long service in France in the actual fighting zone, often under fire made him the logical man for the appointment.

Old Soldier Laid to Rest at Saugatuck

Simplicity of service at the church and cemetery marked the burial of John Nies at the Saugatuck cemetery last Saturday. Services were held publicly in the M. E. church of which the deceased was long a member, at 2 p. m. with Rev. G. B. Fleming officiating.

The body was then taken to Saugatuck for interment in the family plot. John D., Ray E., Harry E. and Wm. L. sons, and Frank H. Wade and Wm. H. Nies, grandsons acted as pall bearers. Small detachments of the G. A. R. were present at the services at the church and in Saugatuck.

The conference program will be in charge of County Y secretary H. W. Smith.

RECORD CROWD ATTEND DECORATION DAY EXERCISES

Time has made severe inroads in the ranks of the Boys in Blue. This was apparent Monday when beside the Standard Bearers only ten old veterans were counted in the line of march, and very feebly and slowly did these wend their way over Holland's public streets, while they were cheered on every side by patriotic citizens.

Not so many years ago the local A. C. Van Raalte Post could muster thru its membership and by virtue of others not members of the post, from seventy-five to one hundred soldiers, who were able to stand easily the drill to the burying grounds, marching with life and drum, to the tune of "The Girl I Left Behind Me," or the "Arkansas Traveler." Closely following the old veterans of the Civil War in Monday's parade were the soldiers and sailors of the World War, full of manhood and vigor, and the contrast was pathetic indeed.

Such is life, however, and Father Time is no respecter of persons,—be he brave or be he coward, or be he rich or be he poor, be he general or he subaltern, it is all the same.

The only duty that remains for us to perform is to honor these brave old boys in the fullest measure possible, for a Memorial day is not far distant when the last old soldier of '61 will have heard the call and taps will have been sounded for the last veteran of the great Civil war, a conflict that tried men's very souls, and a war the outcome of which meant "united we stand."

Our American Legion may well delegate themselves as guardians of the boys in blue and as a watchful loving son, so to speak, looking always after the welfare of a brave and noble sire, whose race is nearly run, so the Spanish-American veterans and the world war soldiers have a duty to perform.

A more fitting honor could not be bestowed upon these brave of '61 and the stuff these "dough boys" and "gobs" are made of will demonstrate that they too are equal to the task.

The program as published before was carried out to the letter Monday at 9 sharp in Centennial Park. The Park was crowded with patriotic citizens eager to take part in the demonstration. The exercises were opened by Mayor E. P. Stephan who in a very appropriate speech said the following:

"This day was originally designated as Memorial Day for those who gave their lives to preserve the Union."

"We salute you, Veterans of the late Civil War."

"It is with a feeling of sincere sorrow that we note the continuing decrease of your number as we commemorate this day. It is now fifty-nine years since its close. We fully realize that with the passing of a few more years, your ranks will have dissolved into history. Today my memory goes back to my boyhood days, when I watched you men of the Grand Army of the Republic, as you marched in large numbers, and with sturdy steps, to do honor to those who had gone before."

"You men have always faithfully preserved the day, in spirit, as well as in fact. Well do I remember, how you would gather after these public ceremonies, and together live again for a few hours the days of '61-'65."

"One by one they have departed. We sadly miss today several of the men who were with us on last Memorial Day."

"On this day we wish to give our thanks to Almighty God, for the many years that you have been with us, and on this day, we solemnly promise and pledge, that in the keeping of Memorial Days to come, we will always remember with gratitude the boys in blue who fought so valiantly to keep our country intact, the glorious United States of America."

"Veterans of the Spanish American War: You will soon be the senior body, and to you will fall the responsibility, of planning the celebration of this day, with the same zeal and enthusiasm, with which the Grand Army of the Republic has always kept it."

"We wish to remember on this day the boys who gave their lives that another people, foreign to us, might to some extent, enjoy the liberty that we possess in this glorious country of ours."

"To the boys who participated in the recent world war, comes the duty and the responsibility of active work in connection with the proper observance of this day."

"You are young and full of life and vigor, and you should not, and I know that you will not shirk any duty necessary, to make each succeeding Memorial Day, bigger and better, than the previous one."

"We wish on this day, to pay tribute to the young lads, who gave their lives in this last great war. You must inspire us to a constant continuance of same by each and every one of you actively participating in the ceremonies of Memorial Day."

"And you my fellow citizens who are enjoying the fruition of the work done by these veterans of different wars I wish to remind you of the debt which you owe these men. I sincerely hope and trust that these Memorial Days may always result in freshening your memory of your obligation to them and to the country in which you live."

"A 'thank you' to these men is not enough. Show them by your acts that you love them, and that you appreciate what they have done, and when you are called upon to assist them in the coming years, do so cheerfully and liberally."

"I know you will. Your hearty and liberal response a few days ago to the request of the American Legion, to finance the organization of a band, is positive evidence of this."

"I pray that this may always continue, and that the American Legion will always champion the right, and exemplify that true Americanism, taught us by Washington, Lincoln, and Roosevelt, for by so doing, they will command our love, our support and respect."

Mr. Stephan then introduced the Hon. Milo D. Campbell of Coldwater candidate for governor, and orator of the day.

Extracts from Mr. Campbell's speech follows:

"Today, if we could imagine, leaning over the Battlements of Heaven, two and a half millions of men, men who have worn the uniforms of that old flag, we would hear them chanting with one voice 'To you from falling hands, the torch we throw.'"

"It is an old custom to strew flowers upon the graves of soldier dead."

"Ever since Venus with her white winged couriers of the air came down in her chariot to strew flowers upon the grave of her brave Adonis who had been killed in battle, since that hour this beautiful custom has been followed."

"And today, unless we have caught the torch that fell from the hands of these fallen boys, unless the cause for which they fought and offered themselves as sacrifice, is close to our hearts, our service will be but a passing form, an empty cne."

"We are far enough away from the Civil war to know what it was all for. But somehow we are yet too confused and left wondering."

"As Lincoln's Gettysburg speech will forever live, and forever echo from the hearts of men, so the words of John McRae will become immortal."

"When Sumpter was fired on not a life was lost, but that shot rang over the North as a direct challenge to every man who had said in his heart that slavery should not extend further over free territory."

"Michigan with its coat of arms bearing the word 'Tuebor' I will defend, with a population of 859,000 people sent 91,000 men to the colors. 406,000 men laid down their lives to save our union from the greed of slavery."

"In 1917, after the Lusitania had been sunk, after our ships had been insulted and taken wrongfully, after our right upon sea and land had been invaded, we entered the world war. Four millions of men responded to the call and donned the khaki."

Fifteen millions more were in waiting. Two millions of them crossed the sea to fight on foreign shores. 100,000 of them laid down their lives in France, whose graves cannot be visited by their loved ones today."

"You old veterans of the Civil war, you who have been privileged to live long enough to see 4,000,000 of your grandsons, 4,000,000 of men who have been drinking at the fountain of your patriotism and love of country, see them cheerfully put aside their tasks, bid friends, home and country good bye and sail across a sea infected with sharks of hell to preserve the things you fought for."

"You have not only seen these things with your own eyes but today you are standing upon the Hill Top between the Two great armies—the Four millions of your boys, our boys, the Nation's boys who wore the khaki in the world war and the one and a half millions of boys in the Rebellion who wore the blue, nearly all sleeping under their green tents today."

"You are standing upon the hill top wig wagging the signal between these armies that fought and bled for the same flag. You are telling the army of 1861 to '65 that the torch was caught from their falling hands and carried on to a glorious victory."

"You are telling them that the torch of liberty and freedom that the boys of '61 carried for four bloody years, has been carried across the seas, and that a score of kings For it's free, and for thee and for me, The fairest, the rarest that man ever trod, and emperors have been pushed from their thrones, and that the soil of Europe though torn with revolution is being prepared for democracy."

"As a toast to our own dear country: 'This land of the free, is for thee, Live in it, work in it, love in it, weep in it, sing in it, die in it, sleep in it, The sweetest and dearest 'twixt the sky and the sod, And it's mine and it's thine Thank God.'"

Your Very Neighbors

These folks are your neighbors. They work for the telephone company. They are regular people, just like you, your friends and family.

They eat food, wear clothes, live in houses, talk, laugh, sing, cry, get peevish (and get over it), enjoy the movies and home-made pies, just like you. In fact they are human and, like you, they sometimes make a mistake.

These folks are trying hard to give you the best telephone service in the world. They take pride in their work and in their company, and in the fact that there is a public service.

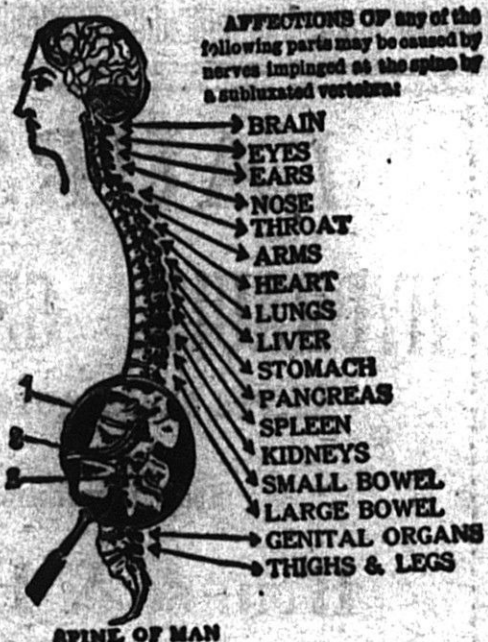

They know that because it costs them more to live today than yesterday that it costs more to give you the telephone service. They earn more because they need more, but they know that all telephone equipment costs more, too.

They hope that you will not forget that the telephone company is made up of people just like you. They know that the more loyal support and courteous co-operation you give the company and them, the more you recognize that the company's income should pay its labor and maintenance and equipment bills, the better telephone service you will have.

You are just as Old as your Spine

Even back as far as Caesar's time this saying was used. In later years men substituted for it—"A man's just as old as he feels." Taking the two, and combining the meaning, we have the true expression, and Chiropractic interpretation—

"A man's just as old as his spine allows him to feel"

The spinal column is the main conduit through which the nerve cables pass from the brain, and from which the tiny feeders are distributed to every portion of the body. If through abnormal curvature, the bones of the spinal column obstruct the free flow of the health-giving currents from the brain to the bodily organs, disease results in the organs so affected.

The Chiropractor adjusts the cause of the trouble, removes the pressure on the nerves without the use of Drugs or Knife. This allows Nature to build up the diseased organs or tissues.

Health is Normal. Disease is Abnormal

If there is any abnormal condition present in your body that is causing you suffering, let Chiropractic bring back normal conditions so you may again enjoy good health.

The Enemy that Brings Misery to Thousands of Michigan Families

He causes bitter family quarrels—he reduces widows and children to want—he wastes the savings of a lifetime.

He is Procrastination, who whispers in the father's ear: "No need to make your will today—put it off a while."

Comes a day when it is too late. Gone is the provider—and no directions left. Into the hopper of the law is tossed the estate. Mercilessly it grinds away. Mismanagement, prejudice, delays, waste—a whole train of evils often follows.

Will you protect YOUR family? You can—easily. A little booklet explains how clearly. It is called "Descent and Distribution of Property." A copy will be sent free.

GYPSIES STAY IN HOLLAND JUST TWENTY MINUTES

Gypsies seldom make a long stay in the city of Holland. Chief Van Ry is a kind-hearted officer but he has a decided antipathy towards the gypsies and fortune tellers.

The veteran chief, who knows, may have had his palm crossed with a piece of silver once upon a time, which may have found its way into the pockets of a gypsy maid dressed in variegated colors.

Be that as it may, the chief has made short work of gypsy bands and for that reason they have steered clear of Holland.

Thursday a large bunch came in automobiles. There were a half a dozen men, a half dozen women with a dozen kids, and they had just blown in from Tennessee.

On Eighth street the machines soon disgorged its gypsy load and this nomadic element soon began to ply their wily tricks upon the business men of this city. Fortune telling was not the least of these.

Their stay however was short and sweet. Twenty minutes by the town clock was the limit. The chief and his patrolmen soon showed their backs into their Lizzies and with streaks of blue coming from all sides of their buzz wagons they were last seen going up the pike to Muskegon.

MERCHANTS WANT "QUIET ZONES" RESPECTED

The Holland merchants will do all they can to get the ordinance enforced that requires care on the part of drivers of automobiles while passing by Holland hospital. Complaints are coming constantly from patients who are annoyed by noise from autoists. In spite of the "Quiet Zone" signs, many autoists do not take any pains to pass the hospital quietly. They frequently blow their horns while passing the building and go at a rate of speed that jars the building.

The worst offenders are the motorcycle drivers. They sometimes pass the building at a terrific speed and making a noise that is highly annoying to patients. The merchants at their meeting Tuesday night discussed the situation and will try to find ways and means of having these "Quiet Zone" signs respected.

WEST SIDE PEOPLE EN- JOY FREE VAUDEVILLE

Residents on West Sixteenth st., got a lot of amusement out of a scene there Monday evening that was not on the program of Memorial Day activities. It was a comedy that for entertainment had many regular shows backed off the boards.

A Ford loaded with two couples young enough so that they were not overmuch bothered with a sense of the ridiculous stopped squarely in front of a house whose occupants were occupying the screened porch. But regardless of the fact the couples began a spooning orgy that could hardly have been improved upon, according to those who witnessed the scene. And they kept it up for about an hour. Neighbors from a considerable radius gathered with those on the porch to see the free show, but the youths and maidens in the car were dead to their surroundings.

Finally one of the respectable householders of the neighborhood, tiring of the entertainment, walked up to the car, and advised the youthful driver to turn on his taillight if he wanted to keep out of trouble with the police. The youth took the hint, switched on both the light and power, and drove away.

FARM RESORT BURNS; FAMILY LOSES ALL BUT ITS CLOTHING

The Robinson farm resort on Grand river was totally destroyed by fire Friday. The house owned by Albert Kaminski, had been refurbished and prepared for resort season and guests were expected to arrive Memorial day. A spark from a kitchen stove is believed the cause. The family was in the fields and lost everything but the clothing worn.

MERCHANTS TO HELP NATIONAL GUARD HERE

The Holland Merchants association will do its share to secure a National Guard unit in Holland. At least this fact was foreshadowed Tuesday evening when the association appointed a committee to take the matter up with the American Legion. A communication from Col. John S. Bersey of Lansing brot the matter up for discussion. Since the association was not fully informed on all angles of the project it was decided to give it into the hands of a committee for investigation.

This committee is composed of Bert Slagh, J. J. Rutgers, and Bernard Brink. They will get into touch with the American Legion and bring in a report at a later meeting of the Merchants' association. Several organizations in Holland are getting back of this move, and it is believed that a National Guard unit for Holland will be the result.

Ackerman and Charles Dalvini he is said to have purchased 8,175 shares in the company and left a certificate for 2,000 shares, his part in the deal as collateral for the unpaid balance of the purchase money. He asks for delivery of 50 shares and for the cancellation of certain contracts and notes.

NEGLIGENCE CHARGED BY JURY AGAINST P. M. RAILROAD

In a verdict reached after an all day session in Zeeland Tuesday, the coroner's jury in the case of the death of Mrs. C. Roosenraad and Miss Margaret Roosenraad charged the Pere Marquette railroad with negligence in not having the crossing protected at the time of the tragedy and the jury further recommended that both the P. M. and the Michigan Railway put up gates at all the crossings in Zeeland.

The session of the coroner's jury was held in the city hall in Zeeland and lasted all day. Justice of the Peace Jay H. Den Herder was the presiding officer and the jury was composed of the following: William Kamperman, William K. Bareman, Milan Huyzer, John H. De Pree, John Fris and P. T. Moerdyk. The taking of the testimony by the jury was listened to closely all day by a large crowd of people.

The following is the verdict reached: "That Mrs. C. Roosenraad and Margaret Roosenraad of Zeeland Michigan, came to their death, May 26th at about 6:09 p. m. when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by the engine of the Train No. 6 of the Pere Marquette railroad at the State Street crossing in Zeeland, Mich.

"Since the evidence showed that this crossing should have been guarded until 7 p. m. according to the ruling of the State Railroad Commission, we find the Pere Marquette Ry. showed negligence in not having the crossing protected by a watchman at the time of the accident.

"In view of the many accidents which have occurred on the several street crossings in Zeeland, Mich., on the rights of way of both Pere Marquette and Michigan Railways, we most urgently recommend that the proper authorities take steps looking to the installation of gates or watchmen at all places where said railroads cross the city streets."

HUNDREDS COME TO HOLLAND TO ATTEND TRIAL

At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at the time of going to press, the charivari case brought against a number of Drenthe young men had not progressed beyond the stage of securing judges. Several of the jurors were still to be selected, and the taking of testimony had not yet begun. The case promises to be a long drawn out affair and it will furnish entertainment to local court attendants for some little time.

The whole countryside of Drenthe was in Holland Wednesday. There were enough automobiles parked along the city hall and on 11th and 12th streets to reach clear around Centennial park. They began arriving in Holland early Wednesday morning and they kept on coming throughout the day. The day being rainy, the farmers could not do much work on their land anyway. But even had the day been fair the attendance would have been large. Some of the farmers declared they were going to see it through regardless of crops.

There were all of five hundred persons in the court room Wednesday forenoon when the trial opened. Many of them could find standing room only, but they stood cheerfully through the long session of the court both forenoon and afternoon. At 1:30 when the case resumed, they were all on hand again, ready to listen to the testimony that might be produced.

Wednesday noon Holland's restaurants were crowded to their capacity. It was almost like a Farmers' picnic or like a Fourth of July celebration. The usual patrons of restaurants had difficulty finding a seat, and the farmers got away with most of the food in sight.

It was a big day for the farmers of that community, and history is being made in the local court, that will probably be recounted for years to come in the countryside.

ASKS HISTORICAL BUILDING AT LANSING

G. Van Schelven of Holland, was elected president of the Michigan Pioneer and Historical society, at the business meeting of that society which was held in Representative hall last Thursday. The other officers are: Alvah L. Sawyer, Menominee, vice president; George N. Fuller, Lansing, secretary; Benj. F. Davis, treasurer. The trustees that were elected are William L. Jenks, C. W. Burton, W. L. Clements and C. E. Bement.

That a building be built which will house the Michigan Historical commission, and the historical collection of the state was the substance of a resolution that was introduced by A. L. Sawyer and adopted by the members of the society. The resolution calls for the appointing of a committee of five members by the president whose duty it will be to confer with the proper authorities with the view to building. It was said that the present quarters are inadequate.—Lansing State Journal.

Mrs. Frank Newhouse has gone to Chicago to be with her daughter, who was to be operated on Tuesday for appendicitis.

DIEKEMA'S ADDRESS "TEEMED WITH PATRI- OTIC SENTIMENT"

The community memorial services at the Armory at Grand Haven last Sunday night marked a fine outpouring of people of many denominations who desired by their presence to pay tribute to heroes of all wars. Several churches dispensed with their regular evening service to permit their congregations to attend the meeting at the armory, and others held an early service which closed before the program at the armory opened. Throughout the service a fine spirit of community co-operation was shown.

Mr. Diekema was the principal speaker of the evening and the Grand Haven Tribune says the following:

"Hon. Gerrit J. Diekema, of Holland, the speaker of the evening was at his best last night. His address teemed with patriotic sentiment. There was no touch of politics in it, but rather it had the strength and power of a good patriotic sermon. He praised the community spirit as shown by the union service and referred to Grand Haven proudly for its contributions and efforts during the late war. Among his points, he brought out the fact that the ten commandments cannot be violated with impunity, that eternal vigilance is the price of peace and he called attention that our boys died to preserve a government founded upon the principles of 'Liberty Under Law.'"

COUNTY TREASURER WAS MARRIED 25 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. M. Witvliet of Holland were among a company of brothers and sisters and friends of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Den Herder who surprised the latter couple at their home in Grand Haven on Decoration day in commemoration of their 25th wedding anniversary. It was a surprise meeting, and the day was packed full of entertainment and enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. Den Herder were until a year or two ago residents of Holland. Then they moved to Grand Haven where Mr. Den Herder assumed the duties of the office of county treasurer. The couple were presented with beautiful presents of silverware.

HOLLAND ESCAPES SO FAR WITHOUT BAD CAR SMASHES

Holland was extremely fortunate in escaping serious accident over the holiday. Altho the city streets were full of cars and the roads leading into the city were crowded, there were no serious automobile accidents. However, some very reckless driving was reported, especially from the country districts, and unless it is stopped serious accidents will occur before the summer is over. Infractions of the ordinances are punished in the city where the police can secure evidence but the force is not large and cannot be everywhere. Some sort of honor is expected of motorists in observing the rules for public safety.

FOX'S "A DAUGHTER OF THE GODS" COMING

The case of Albert W. Wigglesworth, Chicago, against the Western Machine Tool Company of Holland opened in U. S. district court Wednesday morning. Wigglesworth, patent holder of a number of improvements in radial drilling machines is suing the Holland concern for damages for alleged infringements of his patents.—G. R. Herald.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN STRANDED IN AUTO

Dr. L. L. Conkey, veterinarian who was the former proprietor of the Veterinary Specialty Co. of Holland is looking for thieves who stole his kit of tools from the stranded automobile he left on the roadside midway between Grand Rapids and Holland Sunday. When he returned to get the car the tools were gone. The doctor reports that he met a "road hog" who crowded him to such an extent his car toppled into an adjoining field. He escaped injury, but one wheel of the car collapsed under the strain. Another motorist brought Conkey back to his home and an old truck towed his car in to a garage for repairs.

FOREST GROVE SCENE OF A DOUBLE WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Dekker of Forest Grove was the scene of a pretty and somewhat unusual wedding when their two daughters Ella and Bertha were united in marriage to Titus Van Haitsma of Vriesland and Herman Van Haitsma of Jamestown, respectively. The grooms are cousins. The double ceremony was performed by Rev. Vander Linden in the presence of one hundred guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Titus Van Haitsma will make their home on a farm in Vriesland; and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Van Haitsma will make their home at Burlingame, he being an employee of the National Spring & Wire Co. of Grand Rapids.

ZEELAND MAN CLOSES BIG DEAL TO BUY BLOCK

In an important realty deal closed in Grand Haven one of the best known business corners in the city of Grand Haven became the property of E. J. Pruim of Zeeland, a prominent merchant. The property in question was the real estate and two story store building on the northwest corner of Second and Washington streets. For many years this property has been owned by the Henri J. W. Campman estate in the hands of the Grand Rapids Trust company. The store building is said to be the last piece of property held by the estate to be sold. Residence property on Third street has recently been purchased from the estate by James Bignall.

The business property is one of the historic pieces of realty of the business section of Grand Haven, having been occupied by a number of mercantile establishments, well known in the earlier days. Its latest permanent occupant was Van I. Witt, who sometime ago moved his drug store to the quarters he now occupies on Washington street, combining his two Washington street stores.

Mr. Pruim, the purchaser of the building will occupy it as soon as it can be prepared for occupancy with a fully equipped modern music store. He is at present proprietor of the E. J. Pruim Music House at Zeeland, and will extend his large business operations by establishing a new store in that city. He has engaged Miss Vera Pfaff of G. H. to take the management of the store, and Mr. Pruim will divide his time between Grand Haven and Zeeland.

The Grand Haven store will handle pianos, talking machines, violins, guitars, cornets, etc., of every style and kind, large and small. Sheet music, piano rolls, phonographs and all musician's supplies will be kept in stock. Sewing machines will also be handled at the new store.

Mr. Pruim who is a successful business man stated that he is making the investment in Grand Haven because he believes Grand Haven has a bright future. He has studied the situation very carefully, and his judgment has been sustained upon investigation. Mr. Pruim was born in Spring Lake, and lived there during his boyhood, so he has a large acquaintance in that section.

Enna J. Pruim of Spring Lake is a relative and Hiram Pruim formerly engaged in the jewelry business in Grand Haven is an uncle.

Alterations on the interior of the G. H. store will be started in a few days. Improvements will be hurried to permit the opening in time for the summer season. Later on the owner plans extensive modernizing on the building. In connection with his regular inside sales force, Mr. Pruim operates an outside force Bert Grinwis and Egbert Boes who are now operating out of the Zeeland store will also be the outside salesforce for the Grand Haven store.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF WHEAT IS ENDED; $2.20 GUARANTEE OFF

Washington, June 2—Federal control of wheat and wheat products ended today, the wheat director ceasing to function under the limitation of the law creating his office and the food administration control ending by proclamation of President Wilson.

This means the passing of the government guarantee of $2.20 a bushel for wheat established during the war as a means of stimulating production. Some existing contracts remain to be carried out by the U. S. grain corporation.

Licensing of dealers in wheat and wheat products had been in the food administration and this automatically ended today. Dealers, excepting those having contracts at fixed prices, are now free to buy and sell at such prices as the law of supply and demand and other conditions may bring about.

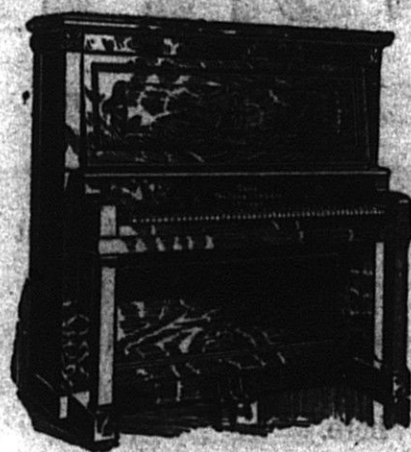

MICHIGAN'S POSTAL SERVICE WORST IN NATION, IS CLAIM

That Michigan has the worst postal service of any state in the union and that this is due in large measure to a large labor turnover in the postoffices due to poor pay of employees, were among assertions made in speeches at a banquet closing the 21st annual meeting of Michigan State Association of Letter Carriers at Flint, held Tuesday night. Hands of the wheat director and the

LEGAL ACTION MAY DEVELOP FROM ZEELAND TRAGEDY

That the terrible railroad accident in Zeeland in which Mrs. C. Roosenraad and daughter Miss Margaret lost their lives may lead to court action is indicated in a report of the tragedy in the Zeeland Record. The Record says in part:

"That the train was running at a terrific rate of speed may be gathered from the fact that it could not be brought to a stop within nearly one-half mile from the scene where the tragedy occurred. If, on the other hand, the train was running at 45 miles per hour it made its stop within three-quarters of a minute. Why the watchman did not remain at his post is a matter of speculation. It is said that his day's work was done at 6 o'clock, standard time and that he left on that time, but some also say the railroad company was under contract with the city to have a man at that crossing until the afternoon 'flier' is past. It seems to us unreasonable that if the flier was there only five minutes after his time of quitting, that he should leave before the train went through. This is mere speculation but it is believed will be brought out at the coroner's inquest which will be held Tuesday morning at the City hall."

Mrs. Roosenraad was a daughter of the late Arend Schipper, and a sister of John Schipper of Zeeland; Rev. Henry Schipper of Chicago; Ed and Bert Schipper of Grand Rapids; and Mrs. Henry Brummel of Gitchel. She attained the age of 59 years and is survived by her husband, Cornelius Roosenraad; three sons, Rev. Arthur Roosenraad of Brooklyn; Adrian, of Grand Rapids; and Criston, at home; and one daughter, Mrs. Fred Klumper of Grandville. Funeral services were held at the home at 1:30 and at the First Reformed church at Zeeland at 2 o'clock Saturday, May the 29th.

RAVEN CONTEST IS WON BY A FRESH- MAN STUDENT

The annual Raven Oratorical contest, held in Winants Chapel Thursday night, was won by Judson Staplekamp, a Freshman student, with the oration entitled, "Democracy in Peril". By virtue of winning this contest, Mr. Staplekamp will represent Hope College in the state oratorical contest next spring, and is also winner of thirty dollars in cash.

His pleasing voice and powerful delivery, together with a strong appeal for the safety of the nation, gave evidence to the fact that he was the logical man for first honors.

While a student in the Hope Preparatory school, and while attending high school last year in New York, Mr. Staplekamp won high oratorical honors.

Winfield Burggraaf, of the Sophomore class, won second place and a cash prize of $20, with his oration, "The Nation's Heritage." Mr. Burggraaf is a fine speaker and his oration carried with it a strong message.

Maurice Vischer of the Sophomore class received third place with an oration entitled, "The Common Sense of Most." Mr. Vischer's delivery was highly pleasing, and he has a wonderful speaking voice.

The entire contest was most interesting, each speaker giving an earnest message in his oration.

Prof. W. Wichers, Henry Winter, Dr. S. Nettinga, Prof. J. Van der Meulen and Att. Thos. N. Robinson acted as judges.

The contest was so high grade that it bids fair to make Hope College once more a winner in the state contest a year from now when Mr. Staplekamp will be the school's representative.

There was a good sized audience of students and townspeople present at the contest.

GRAND RAPIDS BOY WAS SHOT THROUGH HEART

Carl Jandorf, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jandorf of Grand Rapids, a sophomore student at the University of Wisconsin, was shot and killed at Madison, Wis., late Friday by a policeman during an argument with students whom he attempted to stop from taking a barber pole, intended to be burned during an undergraduate frolic.

Patrolman Matt Lynaugh, of the Madison police force, was said to have fired the shot.

Young Jandorf is well known in Holland. During the summer the family lived at Meastawa Park on Mishawaka avenue, and the young man often appeared in Holland in high school games.

TAKES HIGH LEAP FROM HOUSE TOP ON TO A WALK

Jumping from a height of some 25 feet and landing squarely on the middle of the cement sidewalk, Steve Kishner, a Pole from Muskegon, visiting here with his nephew, came near being killed Thursday evening in the north end of the city. Kishner was on the roof of a house on North River avenue, barefooted and wearing nothing but his underclothes, for some time before he finally took the leap that landed him on the hard sidewalk. When picked up by the officers he was found to have suffered some internal injuries, two ribs having been stove in. He was rushed to the Holland Hospital where he is being treated now. He will recover.

Officers Lew Bouwman and Jack Wagner were called to the north end of the city about 11 o'clock Thursday evening, residents of that section reporting that there was a man sitting on top of a house in his underclothes. They found Kishner on the roof of the home of John Solz, b River avenue. This is practically a three-story house, a family living in the basement, and the house is one of the highest in that section of town. Kishner was sitting on the highest point of the highest part of the house. A spotlight was turned on him and he was ordered to come down. He walked down to the very edge of the roof seemingly with the intention of jumping. The officers ordered him back and he returned to his original perch, all the time not speaking a word.

Mr. Bouwman and Mr. Wagner thereupon proceeded to climb to the roof through the house, but before they had proceeded far they were called by John Vander Veen who had taken them to the scene in his car. Seeing the man's intention to jump, Vander Veen tried to prevent it, but before the officers arrived he had leaped and had landed on the walk. Curiously no bones were broken.

Kishner is a business man in Muskegon. He came to Holland Thursday afternoon to visit his nephew. He is subject to spells of mental derangement and has been taken off the roof before this. He also once tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat and still bears the scars of that attempt.

MERCHANTS MOVE IN TO NEW LOCATION

After having done business at the same stand for 23 years, the John Y. Huizenga Company Friday moved into a new location. They have been in the Huntley building for nearly a quarter of a century but were forced to leave that place because it is being converted into a movie theater.

The firm has moved its stock and fixtures into the Meyer building on River avenue, formerly occupied by the Winstrom Electric company at 209 River avenue. This building was purchased by the Huizenga Co.

LOCAL NAMES ARE READY TO BE CARVED ON MEMORIAL

How difficult it is to get any complete list of names and addresses of any scattered body of persons such as former soldiers was illustrated by the experience of those in charge of gathering the names of the men in this county who died during the war.

Dr. A. Leenhouts in charge of the work for Holland city and Holland township, forwarded his list to Grand Haven Friday, and although he had taken unusual pains to secure a complete list, one name came very near being omitted. At the last moment the name of Joe Gunst was added. Mr. Gunst was a member of the Medical Corps. He died October 13, 1913, in the Walter Reed hospital, in Washington, D. C.

The list of names, at the request of Dr. Leenhouts, was published twice in the Sentinel, the first time about four or five weeks ago, the last time this week. In addition to that Dr. Leenhouts wrote personal letters to all the addresses that were available, and in his way he obtained the necessary detailed information necessary to make the record complete. It is believed that the list that was sent to Grand Haven Friday to be engraved on the county memorial is as nearly perfect as it can be made. No efforts have been spared to make it so, those in charge of the work realizing that a record which is to be made on enduring marble should be without errors, at least without such errors as can be avoided.

It would be a real injustice not only to the families involved but to the city and township as well, if even after all these precautions, some name of a soldier who died abroad or in camp at home or on the sea or in a camp hospital should be omitted. It is not impossible that such may be the case. The greatest publicity possible has been given to the list, but it is not impossible some one may have been overlooked. If there is anyone who knows of such a case, there is still a small margin of time for him to get into communication with Dr. Leenhouts in order to have the omission rectified.

WHAT BECAME OF LANDWEHR'S BUSHEL OF WALNUTS?

A. H. Landwehr of the Holland Furnace Co. owner of Hazelbank, his summer home on Pine Creek bay, is a lover of trees and especially nut trees.

All spring he has been making great preparations to plant a large walnut grove and in order to do this thoroughly and systematically he and a landscape gardener staked out the new grove with substantial looking stakes, especially made for the purpose.

All about Hazelbank one can see rows upon rows of newly made stakes, lined up in soldierly fashion, denoting a thoughtful and precise purpose in view.

Well, at the foot of each one of those stakes, some 500 in all, is a walnut, (or let us say, was a walnut.)

The germination of these whole some nuts was intended as the nucleus of a substantial grove of walnut trees. Of course, even under favorable conditions spry and spry A. H., would be walking about with a cane before the spreading foliage would have been of much use to the planter.

But then, our warm friend also has a warm spot for posterity, and he no doubt had this in mind when he planted a bushel of nuts, one nut to each stake. So proud was the head of Hazelbank of his walnut grove in embryo that he invited a few of his friends and let them in on the secret.

Said Mr. Landwehr, to his guests, "Now you see all those stakes there, each one represents a walnut tree to be."

He then pictured the fine grove of wonderful trees that would fill Hazelbank to the water's edge.

One friend closely inspected one of the stakes, and noticed that a small hole had been burrowed right aside of it. He went to an other stake in the neighborhood and there too, he saw similar holes.

Said the guests, "What are those holes for aside of each one of the stakes? Have these been put there to give the walnuts air?"

Mr. Landwehr looked very perturbed, and could not explain why these holes were present.

The reason was soon apparent however when a squirrel scampered away from a stake a little further on, and in his mouth he held a large walnut.

Very dejected, Mr. Landwehr passed from stake to stake to find a little hole aside each one of them, and said Mr. Landwehr sorrowfully, "and to think that we cooned the bushel of walnuts in the first place."

ALLOWED GYPSY TO EXAMINE HIS PURSE

Grandville was visited this week by a band of gypsies who as is usually the case, determined to leave better off for the visit. A call was made at the lumber yard and Lee Secord was chosen as the victim. He was approached by a woman member of the band who wanted to tell his fortune. Falling in this, she asked to see his pocketbook, and after a "good luck performance" common amongst their tribe it was restored to its rightful owner apparently intact and the "good lady" left.

Advice received from other parties present caused Mr. Secord to examine his pocketbook, and to his surprise, discovered five $20 bills had been extracted. Luckily the band had stopped at the Overland garage to buy gasoline and after a few minutes argument another member of the band paid over the amount, taking a receipt with the understanding that if the money was found Mr. Secord would deposit that amount with Deputy Sheriff Jewell to be returned to them.

HOLLAND TAMES COLTS OF BATTLE CREEK

It took Holland to break the Colts of Battle Creek Decoration day afternoon before the best crowd of the season. The six hundred fans that took in the game were more than pleased with the showing that the local boys made against so strong opposition. Battle Creek came very highly recommended, but their pitchers could not withstand the slaughter of the local swatters. The game was featured by the heavy hitting of the Woodenshoes both Woldring and G. Batema running away with the honors securing four hits out of five times at bat.

Steggerda also was a bright light showing the best form thus far this season letting the Colts down with seven measly hits and striking out ten. The sixth inning was a comedy of hits. Shaw drove a fast one through infield, Spriggs dropped a Texas Leaguer in short right, Walt hit for two sacks, both Shaw, and Spriggs scoring, Batema doubled, Woldring gained his fourth hit and shoved a cross the fourth run of the inning. The game ended with the score of 14 to 3. Holland secured 18 safe blows against 7 for Battle Creek.

Saturday afternoon's game was won from the Timmers' Tigers by a lopsided score of 10 to 0. The heavy hitting of the locals was again the feature of the game and Hoover pitching for Holland held the visitors safe throughout the game.

This week Saturday Holland plays Grand Haven and a good delegation from Holland is expected to make the trip. Games are pending with the Kalamazoo Pythians, American Legion of Grand Rapids, Chicago Giants and House of David of Benton Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beuwkes and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. Beuwkes Mr. and Mrs. Knooihuizen and daughter and Miss Marie Vegter motored to Rockford, Mich. Friday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hardie.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Kamferbeek of this city have left for a month's visit with relatives in Fulton, Ill.

Miss Amanda Weiser, who has spent two weeks with her cousin, Miss Helen Moser will return to Chicago, Friday.

Ald. Brieve, chairman of the committee on poor, reported to the council Wednesday night that the sum of $66 had been expended the past two weeks for temporary aid.

Seeing that the barn was already moved and that the neighbors did not object, the council Wednesday night granted a moving permit to David De Hoop. It was found by the committee who investigated the affair that the moving without permit had been done through a misunderstanding. In future however, as in the past, the council will insist on requiring moving permits for all persons moving buildings in the city.

Prof. Winter of Hope College, Holland has made arrangement to preach in the Congregational church of Douglas for the summer.

The gavel used at the last two Republican national conventions is to be discarded because it recalls two defeats. Of course the Republican national committee is not the least bit superstitious.

The youth who is spending all his money should remember that a threadbare silk shirt will be much poorer collateral in the day of need than even a depreciated Liberty bond.

Mr. J. F. Johnston and son John, of Grand Haven enroute for Chicago were passengers on the Pere Marquette train that ran into and instantly killed Mrs. C. O. B. FULLER, REPUBLICAN AUDITOR GENERAL PRAISED BY THE DEMOCRATS

Oramel B. Fuller, has been auditor general of Michigan since Jan. 1 1909 having been elected 5 times. No other head of a state department in the history of the commonwealth has been re-elected so many times. He is a candidate this year for a seventh term and to date is unopposed. In view of the action of the Democrat state convention four days ago in "congratulating" him for his "courageous but futile efforts to bring about better business methods in the administration of the state government," he can reasonably expect some Democrat votes on election day next November.

HOLLAND RESIDENTS TO FEEL H. C. OF SICKNESS

In the future it is going to cost Holland residents of Grand Rapids just as much to be sick as it does the Americans.

Listen to the declaration of the Holland doctors of this city just issued: "Effective June 1, calls made by Holland doctors will be $3 instead of $2 rate which has been in effect. Other doctors have been charging $3 and Holland doctors have found it necessary to come to this rate.—G. R. Herald.

RAILROADS MUST FIX UP STREET CROSSINGS

COUNCIL IS DETERMINED THAT THERE SHALL BE ACTION THIS TIME

The P. M. and the Michigan R'ys will be required to get their crossings in this city in good repair. This was decided on by the council Wednesday, and the proper committees will get into touch with the officials of these railroads in order to get action from them. Some of the crossings are said to be in bad shape and the inequalities in the rails of the Michigan R'y in some parts of the city are said to be such that they require radical attention.

The whole matter will be taken up immediately and an attempt will be made to do a complete job. Some of the afternoon complained that the railway officials were long on promises but that they did not always come across with action. The aldermen were very decided in their opinion that this time there would be real action or they would find out the reason why.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT HAPPENS AT VENTURA BEACH

A terrible accident which has shocked the city occurred at Ventura Beach when an acetylene gas tank, used for lighting the summer home of B. P. Donnelly, exploded, instantly killing Walter F. McGann, superintendent of the Donnelly-Kelly Glass company, and frightfully injuring B. P. Donnelly, manager of the Holland Aniline Dye Works.

How the accident happened may not be known until Mr. Donnelly has sufficiently recovered to tell the tale.

The acetylene gas tank was located at the rear of the cottage and was underground. The lights were not burning satisfactorily, since these had been out of commission for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly were entertaining several guests over Decoration day, including Walter McGann, and in order to ascertain what the trouble might be, both Mr. Donnelly and Mr. McGann attempted to remedy the defect by recharging the acetylene tank with carbide and water.

The men were cautioned before taking up this work, not to smoke, and this precaution was followed to the letter.

Mrs. Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and several guests from abroad were out on the front porch when a terrific explosion was heard at the rear of the house. The entire neighborhood was soon on the ground to find Mr. Donnelly and Mr. McGann, lying unconscious, near the place where the tank had been. It seemed that the top of the tank had struck Mr. McGann full in the face and he expired as he was being brot in an automobile to the Holland hospital, three young men from Chicago who were guests at the beach aiding in this work.

Mr. Eastwood of Saginaw, together with Mrs. Donnelly and Mr. Kelly, assisted by other guests succeeded in getting Mr. Donnelly to Holland hospital after a drive of eight miles by automobile.

Drs. Nichols, Thomas and Westrate were quickly called, and Dr. Richard Smith, one of the most able surgeons of Grand Rapids was rushed to Holland and the four physicians fought hard to save the life of Mr. Donnelly, and from all reports at the present writing, these men have been successful, and unless any unforeseen complications set in, they give out hope that the manager of Holland Aniline Works will ultimately recover.

Doctors state that Mr. Donnelly received a fracture of the skull, and it was at first rumored that he would lose the sight in one eye. The doctors however are hoping that they may fully restore the unfortunate man's sight.

The body of Walter McGann was taken to St. Francis church where funeral services were held over the remains at seven o'clock, Tuesday morning, Rev. Father John Ruba officiating.

The body was taken to Chicago, where the parents of the unfortunate man live, and where appropriate services were also held.

Those who accompanied the body were Thomas N. Robinson, John Good and James McCarthy. Walter McGann first came to Holland with the Dunn Manufacturing Co. where he held the position of bookkeeper and remained for three years. For a short period he went back to Chicago, and for the past year he has been the superintendent of the Donnelly-Kelly Glass Co., of this city.

Although of a quiet and unassuming nature, he made many friends in this city. He is known among the business men of Holland as a man of sterling qualities, and of fine character. During the short time he has been in the city, he has taken an active interest in civic affairs, and was one of the members of the Victory club, Holland's local business body. He also helped foster the boy scout movement here.

Mr. McGann is survived by a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McGann, two brothers and two sisters, living in Chicago.

The parents of Mr. McGann hastened to Holland when advised of the sad accident and were present at the services held Tuesday morning. Mr. McGann was 26 years of age.
