HOLLAND TO RE- CEIVE SOME FISH FROM THE STATE

BLACK BASS ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE LIST HOWEVER

The Holland Game and Fish Protective association through its chairman and secretary, Andrew Klompars, and Jake N. Lieveense have been endeavoring to secure several consignments of fish for planting in the waters in this vicinity.

As has been reported before the consignment of perch fry have arrived, but the letter from the game
department gives some other details
as this relates to more fish for Holland.

The communication is self-explanatory and follows below:
J. N. Lieveense, Sec'y

Dear Sir:—Answering yours of the 16th inst., we are pleased to note that recent consignment of perch fry were received and planted in Black Lake
in A-1 condition.

In further reference to furnishing
adult bass for stocking Black Lake, Director Baird feels that inasmuch as they would have access to Lake Michigan, it would in a sense be a commercial plant and of course we are not at present making black bass plants in the Great Lakes.

Your application for bass finger-
lings and bluegills are duly acknowledged herewith and same will receive
our best attention at the proper time
this season.

Your very truly,
Dept. of Conservation,
By A. T. Stewart.

wool for Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan, amounting to more than 4,000,000 pounds, he said. The price for handling the wool will be 2 1/2
cents a pound, exclusive of the freight.

HOPE'S PREACHER SUNDAY IS OVERSEAS MAN

Rev. Hansen Bergen, who occupies Hope church pulpit next Sunday evening, has seen overseas service as chaplain of the American forces in France. Since his return to this country, he has served as chaplain
of the American Legion on the West Coast.

Very appropriately he will be assisted by the local American Legion Quartet, an organization that has recently received a very flattering offer
for a ten weeks' engagement from the Redpath Lyceum Bureau. This excellent quartet will render three selections. Since Sunday is Memorial Day, Rev. Hansen Bergen will preach
on "The Immortal Dead." Dr. J. T.
Bergen will preach in the morning.

NO FULL-TIME HEALTH OFFICER, SAYS COUNCIL

ALDERMEN FILE PETITIONS OF CIVIC HEALTH COMMITTEE
AND HOLLAND TEACHERS' CLUB

The common council refused to take seriously the question of a full-time health officer when that matter
was brought to the attention of the aldermen Wednesday evening by two organizations, the Civic Health Committee of the Woman's Literary club
and by the Holland Teachers' club.
The aldermen voted to file both petitions, doing so without debate, and at the close of the meeting the petitioners were informed that the petitioners had been referred to the commissioner of health, Dr. B. B. Godfrey, Dr. D. G. Cook was elected unanimously on the first ballot.

The Civic Health Committee's petition read:
Gentlemen—Since the position of
health officer has not yet been filled,
we the Civic Health committee, take this opportunity to suggest to the city council the appointment of a full time
health officer.

Under Dr. Godfrey Holland has been privileged in receiving almost full-time service, since Dr. Godfrey did not desire an extensive private practice and was to be found at his office nearly all hours for advice and consultation.

We depend on the health department to provide clean milk, sanitary handling of our food supplies, proper disposal of garbage and modern methods in the prevention of the spread of communicable diseases. We have a full-time chief of police to maintain order, a fire chief to protect our property and we believe the health of the people of Holland is important enough to demand the entire services
of an efficient individual who can devoted his whole time and thought to this question. Undoubtedly our council members do recognize this need and are not willing that Holland
should take a step backward to a part time health officer, who will make this vital question only a side
issue.

We would like to recommend that Dr. Frances M. Howell receive the appointment as full-time health officer.
Dr. Howell has been liberal with her time and has given us splendid service in the work done in the free clinic. She has always shown herself to be interested in the welfare of Holland. On the basis of this past interest, we wish to give her our recommendation.

CIVIC HEALTH COMMITTEE.
Mrs. G. D. Albers, chairman.
Mrs. C. Beren, Secretary.
Mrs. C. J. McLean, Treasurer.
The petition of the Holland Teachers' club read:
Gentlemen:
The Holland Teachers' club, wishing to further a movement tending to better health conditions in the city of Holland, has gone on record as favoring the employment, by the city,
of a full-time health officer.
Marion E. VanDrezer,
Secretary

CLUB MEMBERS ARE GUESTS OF TEACHERS

The Van Raalte P-T club enjoyed a very pleasant Thursday evening as the guests of the Van Raalte Avenue
teachers. The entertainment and program was of an unusually high order
even for this school. Miss Hamelink's piano numbers and Miss Hartzell's vocal solos were of exceptional merit.
Little Miss Kasten delighted the audience with her readings. A two act play given by the teaching staff proved conclusively that while a mere man is not really a necessity in a house he is a desirable addition to any home, particularly as a mouse killer and general man-of-all work. The refreshments and social hour ended a very pleasant and profitable evening.

The officers of the Van Raalte P-T
club for the coming year are: President, Peter G. Damstra; vice-president, Ed Munson; Sec'y, Mrs. R. Visscher; treasurer, John De Feyter.

FROST DID LITTLE OR NO DAMAGE LAST NIGHT

There was a light frost last night in spots. The thermometer at the water works registered 35 degrees above at 1 o'clock and 39 at six o'clock this morning. High places had very light frost while lower grounds were quite heavily covered.
No damage was reported however.

G. J. Deur fruit man on Route 8,
Holland, states that the frost did little or no damage. If anything has been damaged it might be the early strawberries, but even these did not suffer greatly. The weather man predicts slowly rising temperature
and more seasonable weather from now on. Almost time with Decoration Day only a week away.

Grand Haven is getting ready for the Michigan Bankers' convention to be held June 17-20. The ladies of Grand Haven, headed by Mrs. Anthony Robbins are also making preparations to entertain the lady guests.
At least 50 Grand Haven women have been appointed upon different committees and in the list the name of Mrs. G. J. Diekema of Holland also appears. The bankers will come to the county seat on one of the large lake steamers which will remain
docked until after the convention and all the financial barons of Michigan
will make their home aboard while the convention lasts.

The Holland Merchants Baseball
team won over the Pine Creek Independents last night at the Water Works Park by a score of 14 to 9.
Both teams played a good game of ball thru out the game with a few exceptions. The game would have been closer if the losers had given their pitcher the proper support.

TRIAL OF DOG KILLER WAS CONSTITUTIONAL

SO SAYS JUDGE CROSS IN DEC-ISION HANDLED DOWN

Some six months ago William Kieft was convicted in Justice Court
in Grand Haven upon the charge of killing the famous airdale dog of Oscar Anderson, now a candidate for county clerk. This dog killing episode went through the entire county press attracting considerable attention.

Kieft was convicted and the case
was carried up to Circuit court on the contention that the suit filed was unconstitutional. Judge Cross has had the case under advisement for some time and has handed down a decision that the case was constitutional and naturally the verdict in Justice court stands. The verdict as rendered by Judge Cross follows:
STATE OF MICHIGAN
The Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa

The People
vs.
William A. Kieft,
Respondent.

In this cause a motion was duly
made to quash the warrant and complaint filed in this cause, for the reason that the Act under which same are filed is unconstitutional, in that the title is not broad enough to cover the provisions of the Act.

After hearing counsel for the respective parties, it appears to the court that the title of the Act is sufficient to cover the provisions of the Act.

It is therefore ordered that the said
motion be and the same is hereby denied.

ORIENT S. CROSS,
Circuit Judge.

Dated May 13th, 1924.

TRINITY'S PASTOR TO START ANOTHER SERIES OF SERMONS

Rev. Clarence Dame, pastor of Trinity church has been popularizing sermons in series.

On Sunday night he will begin another series under the main subject
head "The Why of our Christian Faith."

The topics of these series follow:
"Why I am a Christian?" "Why I am
a Churchman?" "Why I am Reformed?" "Why I am a Protestant?"

FENVILLE SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE GLAD

The Fennville school children and the instructors as well are tickled
because the school days at least for the next four months are practically ended.

Fennville is to have a new high school, that is to say, the present one will be remodeled into a much larger
one, and in order to give the contractors a chance to get the school
finished by fall, the school board
made arrangements to continue
school work through the spring vacation and also to hold school on every other Saturday. In this way a month was gained and now next Saturday the longest vacation the Fennville school students have ever had, will begin, and the contractors will also begin tearing down part of the old school and putting on the new additions.

When completed the new high school will have additional room of 172 seating capacity, an auditorium
that can seat 400 and domestic art
and science departments and other
recitation rooms not forgetting a well regulated shower bath.

It is expected that the new school will be completed by the middle of September. In the meantime the children of Fennville are enjoying the longest vacation they have ever experienced.

MUSKEGON MAN IS GIVEN SIXTY DAYS BY VANSCHULVEN

J. P. McWilliams who has been around Holland for sometime was sent to the county jail for 60 days
for driving his car without a license.

Chief Van Ry wanted to get the man
some way for a violation which could not be touched by law.
McWilliams had loaned a car from one of the clerks in Kulte's meat market promising to bring it back
within a few hours. The clerk allowed the man the use of the car
but the man did not return, nor did he return the next day. Finally the police located the man in Muskegon
where he had taken the car.

The chief could not hold the man
for stealing for he had received permission in the first place so he had
the man arrested for driving a car
without a license.

The man was brought back with the borrowed car, pleaded guilty to the charge and was given the sentence.

Member of the Woman's Auxiliary of Holland canvassed River and Eight streets Tuesday in their poppy
sale campaign and today they reported the sale so far as less satisfactory than they had hoped. The Auxiliary members were basing their calculations on the sale last year. At that time not only were a large number of poppies sold but the prices received for them were liberal. This year the result was different, according to the members of the Auxiliary,
and they are at a loss to account for the difference. The proceeds from the sale are put into the soldiers'
memorial fund and the money will eventually go for a permanent memorial for the Holland men who lost their lives in the World war.

The Camp Fire Girls of Holland,
under the direction of Miss Ethel Dykstra, are in charge of the poppy sale along the back streets. They will not canvass the business district
but will confine themselves to the homes. This sale will continue until Memorial day, and it is hoped by the Auxiliary members that the response
will be generous.

HOLLAND OFFICIALS TO GO BACK TO LANSING IN JULY

GAS HEARING WILL COME UP AGAIN DURING THE SUMMER

Mayor Kammeraad, City Attorney
C. H. McBride, Superintendent R. B.
Champion, Holland City Officials and Emery P. Davis, manager of the local gas company, have returned from Lansing where they were ordered to appear together with officials of the American Public Utilities Commission
and their engineers, who were asked to show why a gas reduction in Holland should not be made.

All gas companies and public service companies in fact, are called in
from time to time to throw open their books to the state commission, and the commission is the judge and jury
whether rates in a city shall be raised or lowered on the earnings made based upon the physical valuation of the plant.

Two months ago the Holland gas
plant received its turn for inspection
not at the request of the city, but at the request of the state commission.
At a former meeting the above named city officials together with former Mayor Stephan who knew considerable about the gas situation, went to Lansing on the matter, and a second meeting was held yesterday at which the gas company presented their side of the case through expert engineers who gave in detail to the commission what the plant was worth, what had been added since the last rate adjustment was made, what improvements were in progress, and what further improvements were contemplated.

The commissioners yesterday went into the matter very thoroughly with
the engineers examining them very rigidly, filed the documents for a
later investigation by state engineers,
and Mayor Kammeraad states that the commission told the city officials that another meeting would be held about the middle of July, the date to be given later.

In the meantime the commission
will go over all the matter having to do with the Holland case, preparing for the meeting to be held in July, at which time no doubt it will be settled whether Holland is to have a lower rate based on the earnings of the plant.

MANY EVENTS AT HOPE COLLEGE NEXT MONTH

Hope college students will have an unusual list of pre-commencement
doings between now and graduating exercises.

Already five events have taken place, namely the dramatic club
play in April; Arbor day tree planting exercises; commemoration of the birth of the lady who gave Hope Voorhes Hall. The lady's oratorical contest, and the Senior-Junior banquet held at Macatawa.

There are still 19 events to be pulled off including commencement exercises. There will be banquets galore, only 9 of them being scheduled, and students will not have to go hungry between now and the time
school closes.

The events remaining are the following:

May 23, Dorian Banquet; May 26,
Glee Club Program; May 28, School
of Music Recital; May 29, Raven Oratorical Contest; May 30, Emerson-
ian Banquet; June 2, School of Music Recital, "Senior"; June 4, Cosmopolitan Banquet; June 6, Knickerbocker Banquet; June 7, Delphi Ban-

GIRLS FROM HOL- LAND AND ZEELAND WORK FOR CAMP

Proving their enthusiasm by selling
tickets in Zeeland as well as in Holland, the Camp Fire Girls of these two cities seem well on their way to success with their new enterprise
which is a "movie" to be given for their benefit at the Colonial Theatre
the coming Monday and Tuesday.
"Roughed Lips," starring Viola Dana,
is the picture which was secured and it comes highly recommended by all who have seen it. Described as a "clean, clever, peppy" picture, it is destined to be a great success and is expected to attract large crowds.

The money is to go for a camp for the Camp Fire Girls of Holland and Zeeland, which they hope and expect to establish this coming summer.
Formerly any of the girls who wished to go camping attended the Grand Rapids camp for Camp Fire Girls,
but as too few can take advantage of this, they are now devoting all their energies to this cause.

Tickets for the picture are being sold at the regular prices and can be secured from any of the Camp Fire
Girls of either Holland or Zeeland.

PROMINENT SPEAKER TO BE HERE ON MONDAY NIGHT

Next Monday evening, May 26, Dr.
John Timothy Stone will give a discourse at Trinity church at 7:30 p. m.
to which the public is cordially invited.

Mr. Stone is pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago, and is one of the most famous orators in the Middle West.

The eminent divine comes under the auspices of the Men's Bible class of Trinity church and his message
will be one of interest to all. A collection will be taken to help defray expenses.

Peter J. Rycenga, of Grand Haven, is a candidate for renomination as register of deeds on the Republican ticket. His petitions are being circulated and he is beginning a vigorous campaign which will continue until the September primaries. Mr. Rycenga has an extensive acquaintance in the county. He has made it a practice to treat each person who transacts business at the register of deeds office with equal courtesy and consideration.

Mr. Rycenga has always taken active part in his party's affairs. Mr. Rycenga's friends point out the fact that his official acts have never met with any criticism and he will be a strong contender at the coming primaries. His friends have pledged him their support to the finish and he has already received much encouragement throughout the county.

At a regular meeting of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, No. 6, American Legion, it was decided to take part in all the Memorial Day exercises, including Memorial Day Sunday when Rev. James Wayer will conduct the services on the morning of May 25th at the First Reformed church. Legionnaires are requested to be at the city hall on Memorial Day Sunday at 9 o'clock, coming without uniform. From there the World War veterans will march in a body together with the G. A. R. and Spanish American War veterans, to the church on Central avenue and 9th street.

More details will be given relative to the activities of the legionnaires on Decoration Day, May 30, after the meeting called Monday night by Mayor Kammeraad, beginning at 7:30 in G. A. R. Hall.

All citizens interested are requested to be present next Monday evening.

A marriage license was issued to Harm Lubbers, 28, and Jeanette Daane, 23, both of Grand Haven.

Mrs. Joseph Bouwman, aged 45, died on Friday evening at Holland hospital. Mrs. Bouwman's husband, now living at Wayland, was formerly a barber in Holland. Mrs. Bouwman is survived by her husband and nine children. The funeral was held Monday at one o'clock, standard time, at the home in Wayland, Rev. K. Poppen officiating. Interment was at Wayland.

The May issue of Health and Life Magazine, published at Chicago, contains an excellent halftone cut of "Cy" VandeLuyster, in a difficult muscular pose. The "Grappler", it will be remembered, is a Zeeland boy who has wrestled some of the best mat artists in this vicinity, coming out victorious as a rule.

The Hope baseball team came off with a 3-0 victory Saturday afternoon at Big Rapids, playing the Ferris Institute team. Ferris was considerably stronger with its new battery, Petchell and Smith, but Poppen and Riemersma were superior. Petchell is considered one of the best batters in that section of the country having held the Grand Rapids Mint League team to a 1-0 score.

The Home Missionary society of the Methodist church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. N. C. Huizinga. Devotions were led by Mrs. Jno. Rank. Reports showed auxiliary and Queen Esther Circle to be in good financial condition. A paper on America's Opportunity was very ably given by Mrs. Mae Ingham. Mrs. J. C. De Vinney was appointed as delegate to District convention to be held at Hastings, May 23-24.

A double wedding was held Thursday evening at the home of Julia Wiebenga on East Sixth street. Henry Knoll and Julia Wiebenga were united in marriage and the same ceremony united in marriage Robert Simmons and Jennie Knoll. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Bruggers.

A large number of children serenaded the newly married couples and Andrew Knoll, brother of two of the contracting parties, took the youngsters to Woodall's soda fountain and told them to go to it. They took him at his word and filled up on banana splits. There were about 65 in the party and they had the time of their young lives.

A reception of welcome for Rev. and Mrs. H. V. E. Stegeman and a farewell reception for Rev. Thomas Baker was held Thursday evening in the First Reformed church. Rev. and Mrs. Stegeman have just returned from Japan and Rev. Baker is about to leave for a charge in Wisconsin.

George Schulling presided over the meeting and conducted the devotions. Rutherford and Gladys Huizinga sang a duet. Talks were given by the following: Gerrit Ter Vree, for the consistory; Andrew Stekette for the congregation; Anthony Nienhuis for the Sunday school; Mrs. James Wayer for the mission societies; Rev. James Wayer for the church. Responses were made by Rev. and Mrs. Stegeman. A talk was also given by Rev. M. Stegeman, of Overisel, brother to Rev. H. V. E. Stegeman, and a response was given by Rev. Thomas Baker. After the speeches a social hour was enjoyed.

Plays given by school classes are becoming quite a common thing everywhere, but pupils of one of the grades in Zeeland take the medal, playing Robinhood and Uncle Tom's Cabin the same afternoon. A double header at the same price.

Zeeland nosed out Lowell high at Zeeland-Friday, 7 to 6. Olendorf featuring with a triple in the ninth inning with the bases full. Both Weeks and Yentema twirled good games. Zeeland made two double plays, both of which nipped Lowell rallies.

Harold M. Hill now superintendent of the public schools of Alba has been employed as superintendent of the Saugatuck schools for the coming year. Mr. Gibbs the present superintendent has planned to devote the coming year to a post-graduate course of study. The faculty staff as announced for next year is as follows: Primary dept., Mrs. H. M. Hill; Intermediate, Mrs. Edna Davis; grammar grades or junior high—Miss Marion Bradley. High school—Latin and English, Mrs. Anna Blain Bush; history and economics, Mrs. Rhea Allen Jackson; mathematics and science Supt. H. M. Hill.

Lake Shore Drive to Macatawa was a busy thoroughfare Friday evening as the rollicking Junior-Senior banqueters motored to Hotel Macatawa where "Mine Host" Swan A. Miller had prepared a sumptuous spread for one hundred thirty guests.

The J-S banquet is an annual affair when the Juniors entertain the graduating Senior class. Naturally everything is done to give the Seniors the very best and each year friendly rivalry exists to outdo the class that entertained the year before. The annual event Friday night was an unusual success and Landlord Miller took fine care of the studentry of Hope's two highest classes.

The menu was especially fine, ranging from fruit cocktail, chicken, marshmallow salad, and apricot ice cream with a dozen other trimmings that helped to round out the table d'hôte.

Covers were laid for 130, and every place was occupied by a guest. The spacious dining room was beautifully decorated in rose, pink and green and baskets of sweet peas were placed at intervals on the tables. Ferns and potted plants were everywhere in profusion while the two classes had their respective banners on display.

The Grand Rapids Central High orchestra furnished the music during the banquet hour and the young men of the Sophomore class, properly dressed for the occasion, took care of the wants of the guests as waiters.

The toastmaster of the evening was John Dethmers who in a witty manner introduced the speakers whose names appeared upon the program.

The program follows: John Dethmers, toastmaster; "Swining Down the Lane", Mary Boer; "Linger Awhile", Walter Roughgarden; quartette, Martin Hoffa, Christian Rosenraad, Fred Steggerda, Fred Yonkman; "Leave Me With a Smile", Martha Barkema; "That Old Gang of Mine", Clarence Lubbers; tri, Martha Barkema, Jean Rugh, Angeline Pppen; "In a Corner of the World All Our Own", Natalie Reed; "Journey's End", Harvey De Weerd.

Members of the Ottawa county road commission and the county engineer and superintendent of work took a 230 mile journey over Ottawa county highways Thursday on their annual tour of inspection. Every mile of county highway was traversed by the inspectors and in view of all circumstances, the condition of the gravel highways was found to be very good.

In the party were County Road Commissioners Austin Harrington, William M. Connelly and Barend Kamps, County Engineer Carl T. Bowen and Ray Fox. This trip followed a meeting of the Ottawa county road commissioners in the court house. No business of importance was transacted except that the two tractor driven graders are to be augmented by a third one for service in the northeastern part of the county in the future.

All of the county highways were in good shape and as there are 230 miles of them, this is a good showing. At present there are two tractor driven graders on the job of improvement besides the old methods which are rapidly going into the discard. A third tractor is to be purchased. The outfit includes a Fordson tractor and an improved grader for use with this type of motive power.

The county highways all have at least one run of gravel on them and many have much more. It is planned to improve every gravel road this summer as travel over these highways is getting heavier. This may be due in a measure to the great amount of through traffic on the trunk lines. A great deal of improvement has been done on the highway to Pottawatomie Bayou and this road is at present even better than pavement for travel.

Ottawa county has a fine county road system which is being kept up well and efficiently by a corps of workers who are well organized and directed. The Ottawa commission has accomplished much better results than in many other counties.

$100.00 FOR A NAME

Contest Open to Everybody

Except employees or families of employees of Vandenberg Bros. Oil Company

Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co. on Friday morning May 16th will place upon the market an absolutely new Motor Fuel and are offering $100.00 to the person who submits the best name for the product.

This Motor Fuel is made under our own patented process and when added to gasoline is guaranteed to give better motor efficiency, increased mileage, easier starting, eliminate carbon—thereby eliminating carbon, knocks, and automatically increases the lubrication of the cylinders.

Anyone can submit any number of names, the only condition being that we reserve the right to prefix the name selected with our trade name of VAN'S.

Mayor Kammeraad has kindly consented to be the chief judge in this contest and will select four others to act with him and this committee will select the best name and announce the winner on June 5th.

Remember—this is our own patented process—nothing like it has ever been marketed before—and here's a clue—the heat of a motor in combination with the chemicals used in our Motor Fuel etherizes the gasoline.

It cost you nothing to submit a name. It is not even necessary to be a user of VAN'S GAS to be a participant, as this new fuel has the same effect on all common gasoline or even high test. All you have to do is to get a coupon at any place where VAN'S GAS is sold and hand in the signed coupon at any of these places.

Someone gets the $100.00 on June 5th, perhaps its you.

Our new Motor Fuel will be on sale at all our Stations Friday, May 16th and during this contest the price will be 2c per gallon of gasoline treated. One trial may inspire you to the selection of a proper name.

LEGIIONNAIRES IN SENSATIONAL DI- VORCE COURT

A sensational divorce court scene with all the accompanying scandals, some true and others near true, was aired in the courtroom of American Legion Hall when the austere judge, Hiram Dinglebottle, (Ray Viascher) called case 58,963 in the court calendar.

The case in question was one of these deplorable sensational family affairs, when the home linen is brought into public court for washing. The case harks back to the beautiful Christmas-tide on the 25th of December, 1915. During the summer Miss Susie Cowslip had met up with Fillup McCan coming through the rye along the countryside. Love at first sight was inevitable, and what would be more appropriate than a wedding on Christmas Day. Miss Cowslip (Alburn Parsons) and Fillup McCan (Henry Geards) were duly married by Justice Slippery from the village of Hi-Balls.

For some moons the lovebirds held sway in Fillup's home. The matrimonial bark sailed smoothly until midnight, February 22, 1924, when a dense fog of misunderstanding arose, and the ship of love struck a reef and was wrecked beyond repair. Just think of it—a misunderstanding over George Washington, the father of his country.

But in some way or other the once happy couple couldn't agree as to whether George told a lie or didn't, and the upshot was that neither would bury the hatchet, and Fillup proceeded to file a bill for divorce against Susie his wife, charging extreme cruelty, slovenliness, argumentativeness, contradictoriness, and capping the climax with the hideous charge of her preferring the attention of other men.

He further charges that she constantly broke the 18th amendment, repeatedly humiliating him by filling up with moonshine in order to shine among the 400 of Hi-Balls elite.

Before Judge Dinglebottle opened court, M. Bawmore (Ed. Vander West) the sheriff, took the principals into the ante-room endeavoring to bring about a reconciliation, but judging from the sheriff's ruffled appearance and disheveled hair growth, the attempt was unavailing.

Attorney I. B. Sladdoole (Clarence Lokker) appeared for the plaintiff while L. K. Hall (Jay Den Herder) was the leading light for the defendant.

J. M. Quack (Dr. Westrate) was called in as a material witness, listed as exhibit A, and O. U. Meddler (William J. Brouwer) had also been nosing around getting an ear full, and made an exceptional witness and was marked as exhibit B.

We refrain from publishing all the scandalizing facts and figures, (not mathematically speaking) in order that we may not degrade the finer sense of our youthful readers.

Suffice it to say that in granting a divorce, Judge Dinglebottle wished it distinctly understood that George Washington was no liar despite the difference of opinions of Mr. and Mrs. Fillup McCan on the matter.

He sentenced them to a life long separation with the following property settlement.

To Susie McCan—one 1915 model John Henry which would enable her to get another husband; to Fillup McCan—one slightly used folding bed; to Susie—one tandem bicycle with the front seat eliminated; to Fillup—500 shares of Mazozo Oil stock to be used as wall paper; two barrels of sweet cider with a stick in it, split 50-50; the straw that broke the camel's back is the warding to Fillup McCan of the life sized picture of Fillup's mother-in-law to haunt him for the rest of his days. So ended a mock trial at the American Legion hall, so there you are.

Within a few hours after he was awarded his diploma at the annual commencement of Western seminary Thursday morning, Bernard Dick Heetbrink of Firth, Neb., was married to Miss Esther VandenTak, a graduate of Holland high school. The wedding took place at the home of the bride and was solemnized by Rev. John Wesselink of Pella, Ia., uncle of the bride who is visiting in Holland. Mr. and Mrs. Heetbrink will locate at Sully, Ia., where he will be pastor of the Reformed church.

"My Opportunity for Community Service" was the subject of the W. C. T. meeting at the home of Mrs. W. H. Wing on Friday afternoon. This subject, discussed by four people, each in his own line, made a program of most unusual interest.

Peter Prins, sec'y of the chamber of commerce, told what that organization is trying to do for Holland and asked the co-operation of all present. He urged that every one be a booster for Holland and to be sure to give strangers a good impression of our town by being courteous to them; also that a thing that Holland needs is a park where the children can play. These and many other things for the good of its people the chamber is working for as well as the more generally understood one, that of bringing in new industries. He spoke with enthusiasm of Holland's many great advantages often overlooked by those who have become accustomed to them.

Miss Lida Rogers, president of the Teachers' club, spoke on "My Opportunity in the High School" and showed how much a teacher of biology can do in the line of community service by teaching the pupils to love birds and plants, and how to plant gardens and shrubbery, also a knowledge of bacteria and the development of life.

Dr. Francis M. Howell told of her work in the free children's clinic for the prevention of disease and the correction of existing illness, which will prevent much suffering later in life, and Mrs. E. E. Fell gave a paper on "My Opportunity as a Home Maker". A motion prevailed that her paper be repeated at the fifth district convention which will be held at Hope church next week on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday. Miss Katherine Post told of the plans for this convention and urged all to take advantage of the splendid program that has been arranged. On Tuesday evening Mrs. E. Calkins the state president, will be the speaker and will tell of her trip to Copenhagen as a delegate to the world's anti-alcohol congress. Mrs. Susana Hamelink favored the gathering with a piano solo, responding to an encore. The devotions were conducted by Mrs. H. Hospers, and the tea committee was: Mrs. E. J. Leddick, Mrs. D. Boter, Mrs. I. Wicks, Mrs. R. Chapman, Mrs. E. Winter, Mrs. J. B. Hadden.

The organization went on record as favoring a full-time health officer for the city.

HARRY RAFFENAUD IS FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED AT HOME

Harry Raffenaud, better known to the older citizens as "French Harry", died Friday night at the age of 81 years at the home of his son Peter Raffenaud where he was found dead in bed when one of the members of the family came to awaken him Saturday morning. If Mr. Raffenaud would have lived until Monday he would have been 82 years old. He had been ailing with heart trouble for the past two years and his death was expected almost momentarily.

"French Harry" was a salt water sailor, starting his career as cabin boy at eight years on one of the old windjammers that sailed the seven seas. It is said of him that Harry visited every spot on earth in his sailing career except the North and South Poles. This may be far fetched; however, he has been in practically every port of importance where ships touch. From the oceans he drifted into the Great Lakes in the 80's and took his first job as a sailor on the "Little Arrow", a two masted schooner from this port, captained by the late Frank Slioter.

From that time on he made his home in Holland and sailed the schooners "Joseph", "R. Kanter", and other vessels hailing from this port.

Later he purchased the schooner "Alert" and sailed it for some years. He also owned the schooner "Wells", selling it to Captain Skippers at Grand Haven. The old "Wells", the sailing vessel of yesterday, is now found in the ships' graveyard at Grand Haven with nothing but the framework remaining of what once was a majestically trimmed ship.

Mr. Raffenaud also owned the "Rambler", the "Mary Ludwick" and the "Kate Howard." In the latter sailing vessel he formed a partnership with the late Captain Thompson, well known sea faring man of the earlier days.

Harry was also a great hunter and trapper in his day. He could stalk the deer with anyone and his hounds were the best ever seen in this vicinity.

Since the death of his wife some 16 years ago he has been living with his son P. Raffenaud from time to time, on the last 15 years he has been employed at the Holland-St. Louis Sugar factory, discontinuing his busy life's work at the age of 80.

Mrs. Raffenaud passed away some 16 years ago and Mr. Raffenaud is survived by three sons, Peter, Harry and George, all of Holland, and three step-sons, Jacob, Henry and Tony Van Ry.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Peter Raffenaud, 225 West 16th street. Interment was in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

ZEELAND PEOPLE FAVOR HALF-HOLIDAY FOR CARRIERS

The vote taken in the city of Zeeland showed that the people were almost unanimously in favor of giving the city mail carriers a Saturday half-holiday. In taking the vote the carriers distributed a slip to each home in the city requesting that each household mark its approval or disapproval to the proposed plan. When these slips were collected it was found that 706 slips had been distributed. Of this number 621 slips were returned, having been marked and signed. Of the 621 slips returned 619 were in favor of the half holiday, there being only two opposed to it. These slips will now be sent to the postal department with the petition for the half holiday.

Gerrit W. Wesselink of Sioux Center, Ia., has been selected president of Hope's branch of the Phi Kappa Delta. Other officers are: Vice president, Louis J. Reverts, Holland; secretary, Julius H. Van Eenennaam, Zeeland. New members elected are: Miss Agnes Bulkema, Grand Rapids; William M. Tuttle, Watkins, N. Y., and Oliver E. Veneklasen, Zeeland. The branch has closed a most successful year.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pikaart died early Thursday morning. The funeral was held at the home, 136 East 15th street, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Miss Churchford officiating. The deceased is survived by her parents and one brother.

A good many people in Holland are mixing up the "house census" that was held recently by the city planning and zoning commission and that was taken by the boy scouts with the regular annual school census that is now in progress and that is taken by special workers under the direction of the board of education.

The school census began this week and it will probably continue until about the end of May. Frequently the census takers are met with the remark, "They took the school census last week." Evidently persons who make this remark confuse the "house census" with the regular school census. The information gathered by the Boy Scouts has no connection with the school census and cannot be used by the board of education. Its information in regard to the number of persons of school age in Holland must be based upon the figures secured by census taker who have been specifically sworn in for this purpose.

This explanation is made to make the work of the census takers easier. People are requested to be ready with the information when the census taker calls and to give the information readily. If that is done the work will be expedited.

The people of Holland have a direct financial stake in this school census. The more persons there are on the school lists the more money Holland will receive in the primary money distribution as that is distributed on a per capita basis. So every family that adds a name to the list of the census takers adds from seven to ten dollars to the city's school funds. So it should be to the interest of all to help the census takers.

The school census this year is being taken by the following: First ward, Mrs. Minnie Meens; second ward, Mrs. H. Stam; third ward, Mrs. Nellies Vander Meulen; fourth and sixth wards, Mrs. Mabel Vanden Bergh; fifth ward, Mrs. Katherine Wabeke.

NELLA MEYER WINS BIG TRIUMPH AT YPSILANTI

The following from the Ypsilanti Daily Press tells of the work of a Holland musician:

The audience that attended the recital by Miss Nella Meyer, pianist, and Miss Lillian Ashby, soprano, at Pease Auditorium, Wednesday evening were highly privileged and showed their appreciation of the beautiful program by cordial applause and many recalls.

Miss Ashby, who is a pupil of Carl Lindgren, possesses a voice of lovely quality, pure, clear and sweet, and sings with an ease and smoothness that are delightful. Her first group included the charming "Deh vieni" aria from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro," with its rippling runs, and the "Vissi d'Arte" from "La Tosca," with its modern harmonies. In each Miss Ashby sang with charm and fine appreciation of the meaning of the music, and was enthusiastically recalled.

Miss Meyer, who is teaching French in Hope college, and has continued her studies during the year with James Breakay, is an artist of surprising poise, maturity of judgment and technique for one so young. Her program contained some of the most exacting compositions both from the viewpoint of interpretation and technique, and in both she reached high attainment.

Her first number was the great "Sonata Appassionata" of Beethoven, one of the supreme tests of a pianist, and her skill in phrasing, in expression of the deepening feeling and emotion, in bringing out the sheer beauty of the music was indeed astonishing. A tribute to Miss Meyer's talent and patient study and to her teacher's ability to bring out her powers. She was warmly recalled.

Miss Ashby's second group was of four songs, the first a loyal setting of part of the "Rubaiyat," "Who Knows?", the second a fascinating bit of vocal painting, "Rain" by Curran in which the sweetness of the singer's voice was especially well brought out; Forsyth's lovely minor, "From the Hills of Dreams" and LaForge's vivid "Song of the Open," with its delightful sweep of melody. The accompaniments of Russell Gee were exceptionally fine. The audience insisted on an encore, and Miss Ashby gave a "Song of Springtime" that held all the thrill of awakening Nature.

Miss Meyer's second group called for a wide range of understanding and technical achievement. The Arthur Foote setting of two of the famous quatrains of the "Rubaiyat" was brilliant, tender, and dashing by turns, and was finely interpreted. The Debussy "Reflections in the Water," with its intricate and bizarre combinations, was also admirably handled. Cyril Scott's colorful "Danse Noire" and "Lento" were intensely modern music and as such portrayed; and the brilliant and involved "Etude a la Valse" of Saint Saens again called for virtuosity, and fire, which Miss Meyer gave abundant evidence of possessing. She won an enthusiastic recall for this group also.

LIGHT FAILS AT LAST FOR AGED HOLLAND PAINTER

Joseph Warner, Holland's well-known landscape painter, died Friday evening at his home here of old age, having attained the advanced age of 96 years. The remarkable thing about Mr. Warner was that he kept on painting until almost the day of his death. About two weeks ago he presented to the common council of Holland a large canvas that he had recently completed of a scene on Black Lake, which canvas was formally accepted by the aldermen and which is so good that it will be framed and hung in the city hall. Most painters when they get very old are unable to continue because of impaired eyesight but in Mr. Warner's case it was an instance of "the light that did not fail."

Mr. Warner was born near London, England, on October 5, 1827. He came with his parents to America at the age of five and lived for many years in New York state where his family farmed. Young Warner however did not take to agriculture and he ran away from home in the romantic fashion of those days to become an artist. His struggles for art's sake form a romantic history and his wanderings all over America and Canada make interesting history. He was a prominent painter in Toronto and Montreal for some years, and in the early history of Chicago he was one of the best known portrait painters of the time.

It is said that in the heyday of his powers he was the best painter of the human eye in Chicago. This was before the day of the vogue of photography, but it was the development of the photograph that gave Mr. Warner the deathblow as a portrait painter. It took his business away from him and at the maturity of his powers he was forced to learn a new art, namely the art of landscape painting. This was about 30 or 35 years ago. He came to Holland then and has lived here, ever since.

He was an ardent spiritualist. He is survived by his wife and two nieces, Miss Grace Tomlinson, Battle Creek, and Mrs. Beattie George Webb, the well known public reader, formerly of Grand Rapids, now of Los Angeles. The funeral was held Tuesday at two o'clock at the Dykstra Funeral Home, Rev. A. Maatman of North Holland officiating.

Even the sports committee of the Holland Country club did not have as much of a pull with the weatherman as they pretended to have. The committee promised the members that they had it all fixed up for Saturday to be the finest spring day of the season. And the fact is, according to the committee (which is made up of reasonably honest and honorable men), that they had an ironclad agreement with the official from Medicine Hat, but that gentleman's idea of fine spring weather differs with the idea of the committee members.

However, the members made the best of it and they had a fine May festival anyway. Al Combs won the Blind Boogie contest with a score of 85. He was handed a dozen golf balls as a prize.

PUTS SOAP IN SOUP OUT OF REVENGE

Doctors sometimes prescribe a stomach wash for patients, and patrons of the Green Mill Cafe might have unwittingly received this treatment had it not been for the timely interference of the proprietor, who noticed that a discharged cook had put soap in the soup as a matter of revenge. However, the foaming broth didn't look good to the proprietor and it was not served to the guests.

The cook's name was Roy Thayer, age 25, and the Grand Rapids police wrote the final chapter to a cafeteria drama which might have been given the title, "The Cook's Revenge."

The proprietor of the Green Mill had been having trouble with Thayer and gave him his discharge papers. The cook was to stay a few days more and during that time he mixed soap chips with a batch of soup but the wild condition of the simmering mass made the proprietor suspicious and the first course for dinner was missing on that day until a new batch could be prepared.

In the meantime Thayer fled to Grand Rapids while the late proprietor swore out a warrant before Justice VanSchelven, and Chief Van Rygt in touch with the Grand Rapids police, Thayer was rounded out at the Oakes hotel which is a headquarters for cooks generally. The Holland police had traced Thayer to Grand Rapids through his trunk which was shipped from Holland to that place.

Mr. Karose had been suspicious of Thayer for some time, Thayer having boasted to others that at another place he had also mixed soap and soup in order to revenge himself upon the proprietor.

Mr. Karose might have allowed the matter to pass without making complaint had the soap episode been an isolated case. He felt that as the soup had not been served no one had been harmed and the cafe was only out one batch of broth. However, in going down cellar where stores were kept the proprietor found several dozen boxes of canned goods mutilated with an ice pick, allowing the air in and naturally destroying the contents as articles of food.

The local police as well as the proprietor laid the destruction of these canned goods at the door of the cook, and consequently the arrest on the first charge followed.

Officer Bontekoe brought Thayer back to Holland; he was arraigned before Justice VanSchelven where he paid a fine and costs of $20.60, and the canned goods incident is receiving further investigation.

Soap and soup are fine commodities in their respective places but form a poor partnership, as the proprietor of the Green Mill will testify.

YOUNG VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Herbie Tipword, youthful victim of a motoring accident on the Bridge street road, in Ottawa county, last October, died Sunday afternoon at Elizabeth Hatton Memorial hospital in Grand Haven. The young man, although terribly injured and practically helpless since the accident, kept up his courage and up to the last was hopeful of recovery. He has been in the hospital at Grand Haven since April 14 and although every thing possible was done for him the case had been considered practically hopeless from the beginning.

Deceased is but 20 years old. He is survived by his wife and two children, Elmer Newton and Robert; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Tipword of Grand Haven; and three sisters Marion Tipword of Grand Haven; Mrs. Ethel Horney of Decatur, Ill.; and Mrs. Florence Lapeer of Bangor, Mich. He was born at Bangor but for 13 years years lived in Grand Haven.

On October 3, 1923, Herbie and Edward Beebe were driving in a motor car along the Bridge street road in the county when the car went off the high embankment and plunged down an embankment. Both occupants were injured and were taken to the hospital in Grand Rapids. Edward Beebe's injuries were not as serious as those of his companion.

Herbie Tipword was later taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jenkins in Allendale, where he remained until April 14, when he was removed to the hospital in Grand Haven.

Suit for damages was brought against the county of Ottawa to recover for personal injuries which Herbie Tipword had sustained. The case occupied the court several days this spring, and a great deal of sympathy was felt for the injured youth who was brought into the court room on a stretcher during the trial. The accident was not due to negligence by the county and the jury decided against the plaintiff in the case.

Herbie's spine was fractured in the accident and his injuries rendered him completely helpless. Had he continued to live, it is believed doubtful if he would have ever fully recovered. The case is an extremely pathetic one and the bereaved family have a great deal of sympathy.

OTSEGO HAS STYLE SHOW HELD BY FORMER HOLLAND LADY

Mrs. Wm. Palmer exclusive milliner gave a style show at the Otsego Theatre last Thursday afternoon and evening and repeated the same at 9 o'clock at the Opera House, followed with a dance for the young people.

Managumusic was furnished by Mrs. Ed Hanson at the piano and Russel Pollock on the violin.

VANDERSLUIS ARRESTED FOR ILLEGAL FISHING

John VanderSluis for some years back has been telling this community about the wonderful strings of fish that he has been catching and the exceptional strikes that he has had in his casting operations.

But then—fish stories are fish stories, and justly or unjustly so, are generally taken with a grain of allowance.

The more skeptical ones however wished to delve into the truth of some of John's stories, and with game warden C. Dornbos followed "Van," John VanTatenhove and John Luidens to Rabbit River near Hamilton. This happened way back on June 15, 1923, a day before Black Bass season. Former Sheriff Cornell Dornbos and the skeptical party slipped into the underbrush on the River's bank for the purpose of keeping close tab on friend John.

A startling exclamation—a tug on the line—a 15 inch Black Bass on John's hook. A rush of the game warden from the underbrush reminded the veteran fisher of Holland that the Black Bass season didn't open until the next morning. Crestfallen, he slipped the fish into his trouser pocket, where it was extricated from a bunch of keys and a handful of church pennies after John had been led to a barn by the minions of the law and thoroughly searched right down to B. V. D's.

But that didn't end the matter. John was put up for trial with Justice Clarence Lokker trying to look stern in charge of the case. "Van" had for his attorney Mr. Welsh, while Joseph C. Rhea acted as the prosecutor. Tim Smith was court officer, while Bert Slagh was clerk of the court.

The people had a wonderful witness in Cornell Dornbos. The defense on the other hand brought in John Luidens, John VanTatenhove, "Lardy" VanderBeldt, George Vrieling and Tom Geerds. The jury was composed of: Luke Wolrding, Neil DeWaard, John Visser, Peter Lieverse, Frank Brieve, and George Ryder.

These men had to be shown and fearing the complexion of the jury, the attorney for the defense pleaded insanity for his client, or rather fish hallucination, and to substantiate their contention the witnesses enumerated instances where "Van" would inflate frogs, was constantly digging worms for exercise in other peoples backyards, was found hooking minnows in the back, and spent three hours every evening in Centennial park gazing into the fish pond. In fact there was such a labyrinth of evidence that the jury became exhausted in the maze of it, and on many occasions called in the judge for instructions.

Finally the jurist who had become peeved at the constant annoyance, sent forth the following edict: "Ye members of the jury of the Holland Fish and game protective association ye shall neither eat nor shall ye drink, nor shall ye smoke until ye shall have come back with a verdict."

Throwing all evidence to the wind, thinking only of the smoker that was in store for them, the six men "tried and true" hastily brought in a verdict not guilty and invited the biggest fisherman in Holland to smoke the pipe of peace with them.

Thus happily ended the mock trial of one of our noblest "Isaac Walton's" at the fish smoker in the city hall Monday night.

The court room was crowded to the doors last evening by those who had come to listen to the trial and the gathering was also entertained with fish stories by Peter and Tim Smith, and the company is still wondering who was the best prevaricator of fish tales.

George Ryder in his usual entertaining way gave two readings; the American Legion quartet gave several selections being called back repeatedly.

Chairman Andrew Klomparsens told briefly the object of the meeting and why this game organization had been organized a few years before.

The matter of game warden being separated from the sheriff department was also brought up and the opinion unanimously prevailed that these two offices are incompatible and should be separated.</

The big signboard boosting Saugatuck which the Saugatuck Chamber of Commerce placed on the pike just over the Indiana state line is an exceptionally good piece of advertising sign work. It is placed in a commanding position where the road curves slightly, and is the outstanding feature of the roadside from a considerable distance to the south. It cannot fail to be seen by every driver coming north.

Two former Hope College students this month find themselves together in the same magazine, although the two are living many miles apart and neither knew that the other would be in the magazine. Not only are both in the same issue, but by a strange coincidence the articles of the two former Hope men are printed together, one immediately following the other.

The magazine is "The Expositor," a religious monthly publication issued by the F. M. Barton Company of Cleveland, and the former Hope men who are contributors to the May issue are Rev. Henry K. Pasma, pastor of a Presbyterian church in Charleston, Miss., and M. G. Gosselink, pastor of a church in Philadelphia. They are both graduates of Hope. Mr. Pasma is also a graduate of the Western Theological Seminary and Mr. Gosselink is a graduate of the New Brunswick Theological seminary. Both men married girls from Holland.

Mr. Pasma contributes to the magazine a Memorial Day sermon under the title, "Our Covenant With Our Dead," that he delivered in Charleston, Miss., last year in connection with the Memorial exercises, and Mr. Gosselink contributes a sermon on "Trees," an Arbor Day sermon for children. Both themes happen to be appropriate to the month of May and that was probably the reason why both happened to be printed in the same issue of the magazine.

The legal proceedings for collection of the unpaid August milk money at Allegan will soon be settled. It will be recalled that the Allegan County Milk Producers association sued the Overton Creamery Co. for money which it claimed to be due to it for milk delivered last August to the creamery by its members. The creamery company did not deny owing for milk, but did not feel it could safely pay the association for all milk delivered, since a number of those listed by the association had requested payment to be made to them directly, claiming that they were not members of the association or giving other reasons.

It will be recalled that Judge Brown in a former suit held that the association was in reality a sort of partnership and individual members were authorized to collect for their milk despite their contract of membership. Had the creamery paid the association for all milk claimed to be due its members, it might have had to also pay individual members who had made request for payment directly.

To bring the matter to a head, the creamery filed a bill of interpleader, setting up these facts, paying into the hands of the clerk the amount due, and asking that the court decide to whom it should be paid. This suit, it followed the usual course, might have prevented payment of the money for some time, but Judge Cross and Attorney Stone were both desirous of seeing that this money (which had been donated for the purpose by Allegan business men), be paid to the farmers as soon as possible, and an order was made that it should be paid on the joint order of the farmer and the association. Last week the last of these orders were filed, and last Wednesday checks were prepared so that payment could be made. This will be done as soon as possible.

That the creamery was fully justified in pursuing the course it did is shown by the result. There was found to be due to the association $13,187.61 for milk delivered to members and for hauling. There was found to be due to individual farmers $2,564.29. Had the creamery paid the association the amount it claimed, it would have been compelled to account to individuals for at least this sum, and perhaps more, as great pressure had been brought to bear on all the producers to secure an order for payment to the association. There has been from the first no intention by Judge Cross or any other person to delay payment of the money due. On the contrary everything has been done to hasten such payment.

AMERICA DOES THINGS IN THE AMERICAN WAY

The Longfellow P-T club elected the following officers: president, Milo DeVries; vice-president, Dick Van Kolken; secretary, Mrs. Clifford Hopkins; and treasurer, Mrs. Jacob Verhey.

Several songs learned at the State Parent-Teachers' Convention were taught the club. Donald and Glenn Severance entertained the club with a trio of delightful guitar selections entitled "Country Life Waltz," "Spanish Eandango," and "Swells of Lake Erie."

Dr. Leenhouts said, "We are free American citizens. The German way of doing things is to force good things upon the people from above. But in America we let people choose for themselves. Since an absolute preventive for diphtheria has been discovered, prove that you are an American and do things in the American way by having your family immunized."

William VanderHart produced gales of laughter by the clever interpretation of "The Mother Hubbard Sermon" and "Hunting the Mouse."

The two delegates to the state convention, Miss Dora Strowenjan and Milo DeVries gave instructive and entertaining reports of the convention. Holland is to be congratulated upon sending men delegates to this convention as there were only about thirty men in the twenty thousand present.

June fourteenth was set as the date for the annual school picnic.

The sixth grade won the silver cup for the highest percentage of attendance.

INTOXICATED AUTO DRIVER GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE

James LeMaous of Grand Rapids was given a jail sentence of 30 days in the county jail and ordered to pay a fine of $50.00 with costs of $5.45 imposed by Justice Hugh Lillie on the charge of driving his automobile while intoxicated.

On Sunday LeMaous was driving a Chevrolet car smashed into the jackknife bridge at Ferrysburg. The sheriff's department quickly sent under-sheriff Rozema to the scene and found the Grand Rapids man drunk and also found liquor on his person.

He was taken immediately to the county jail until he was arraigned before the Grand Haven justice and given a straight jail sentence. The automobile was badly wrecked and but for timely assistance the drunken driver might have been drowned.

Grand Haven Tribune.—The last three days have shown a great increase in the amount of building contemplated for Grand Haven. Including Wednesday Thursday and Friday, the three days permits totaling seven, with the estimated value of the building placed at $14,700. This brings the total of building for the city fiscal year to $159,773. Actually the amount of building in cost should reach $20,000 for the past three days; if allowance is made for the inevitable excess over the estimated cost.

These figures for the past three days show that the so-called building boom is not a belief on the part of a few but is a real affair which is gripping the city, causing more homes, garages, stores and factories to be built, added on to or remodeled.

A residence a day for the past three days is the record. The other permits are made up in garages to be constructed in various parts of the city. Four of the permits were issued to one party, Mrs. W. E. Hoge, for construction work on the so-called Hoge plat located on Griffin and Pennoyer avenue.

The permits issued are as follows: William Ellman, garage at 721 Washington street, cost $200; Herman Balgooyen, garage at 1421 Columbus street, cost $200; Henry Sumett, residence on Boltwood addition, cost $1,200; Mrs. W. E. Hoge, building on Hoge addition on Griffin and Pennoyer as follows: Residence, $3,000; residence, $7,000; garage, $700; garage, $400.

Griswold. He succeeds his brother, D. L. Hagerman, who died 2 months ago. The appointment becomes effective May 26.

The policies of D. L. Hagerman, particularly in regard to the railroad demonstration farm at Howard City, will be carried out. An attempt will be made to show what can be accomplished by a farmer of moderate circumstances on sand land, such as is found in many places in the territory served by the railroad in northern Michigan.

Mr. Hagerman formerly was assistant agricultural agent of Ottawa county, aiding his brother, D. L. Hagerman, who was Ottawa county's first agricultural agent. He was the boys' and girls' club leader in Houghton county and later in Washtenaw county. He taught agriculture at Litchfield, Michigan, attended the Western State Normal at Kalamazoo and is a graduate of M. A. C.

Albin Preusse, who will be teacher of violin at the Hope College school of Music, gave a concert in Grand Rapids that won him high praise from music lovers there. The Press said about his concert:

"He received his musical education at the Scharwenka Conservatory of Music in Berlin and studied three years with Max Gruenberg and Bruno Almer, director of the Munich opera. He received his patent and degree of Master of Music at the Royal Academy of Music in Berlin,

MESSAGE IS NOT DELIVERED AND MIXUP RESULTS

There is difference of opinion as to whether the game Saturday between the Independents and Allegan was a base ball game or not. Most of the fans enjoyed it hugely but discerning critics of the great national game declare that it was not a genuine game but mere entertainment.

It happened this way. Spriggs having dropped out because of the illness of his wife, Dr. Waltz had engaged Lefty Dobbs of Mint League fame and Champion, also of Grand Rapids, to form the battery. Every effort was made to furnish the fans with a real article of base ball and the management was on its toes to make all the necessary arrangements.

However on Saturday morning the weather seemed so uncertain that it was deemed best to cancel the game. Dr. Waltz, who was in charge of the battery, cancelled the engagement of the Grand Rapids men, and other members of the management cancelled by wire the coming of the Allegan team.

But some one in Allegan slipped a cog and failed to notify the players. So at noon the team members rolled into Holland but Holland did not have a team to meet them, that is, not a real team. At first it was deemed best to pay the Allegan team their rain forfeit and let it go at that, but later it was decided to get together a pick-up team and play for the pure fun of it. This was agreed to by the Allegan bunch in a spirit of good sportsmanship and the game, such as it was, as pulled off. The whole thing was due to the fact that a message was undelivered in Allegan and no one here was to blame.

The Holland Independents are to be reorganized and they will put up a strong front this season. Spriggs has been lost to the team just now but it is hoped that this will be only a temporary loss and a strong substitute will be secured. Some very strong teams have been secured for the local schedule, among them Ben-on Harbor, Postum Cereals, Ionia, Kellogg's, Three Rivers, and Fort Wayne. The management appreciates the friendly spirit in which the fans accepted the situation Saturday.

HOLLAND WINS SATURDAY IN TEN INNING BALL GAME

A game in which the first part was rather listless wound up with fireworks Saturday afternoon at Water Works Park when the Holland Independents nipped out Allegan by a 15 to 14 score in the tenth inning.

Garry Batema ended the slugfest in the extra inning with a home run which gave Holland the winning score. Eighteen hits each were taken from the respective slab artists, while the Independents made seven errors and the Allegans three.

In the first two innings Allegan ran a path around the bases with 12 tallies to their credit. Hoover for Holland held the neighbors down to two runs after that for the rest of the game, while Holland hammered Alexander for 15 hits which counted for many runs, winning the game by one tally.

LOAD OF FURNITURE LANDS IN DITCH

A big truck loaded with furniture vent into the ditch on the Saugatuck road about four miles south of the Ottawa county line Sunday afternoon. Deputy VanOss of Allegan county called on Deputy Ed VanderWest of Ottawa County to assist him. The two deputies searched the driver, Richard Miller, of Chicago, employed by Sundstrom's Express, and they found liquor in his possession.

The Allegan deputy placed Miller under arrest on the charge of driving a motor car while under the influence of liquor and he was scheduled to appear before a Saugatuck justice on Monday.

The truck was tipped precariously to one side and was about ready to topple over. However props were placed against it which prevented it from going over completely. The truck was still there Monday and it was in such a difficult position that much work will be required to get it back on the pavement without spilling the load of furniture.

DAILY BOAT TO START MAY 29

Mr. Johnson, of the Graham & Morton Line, announced that the daily boat service between Holland and Chicago will begin on May 29. This is about the same time that daily service began last year. Before 1923 however the service did not begin until about the last week in June, but the line is running on a policy of giving the public and the shippers every convenience that the traffic will bear and so the daily boat service is begun at the earliest possible moment possible.

The three times a week boat has been taking good care of the traffic and freight until now but the boat line will try to do its part to encourage as much as possible the lengthening of the resort season and the daily boat helps this movement along a good deal.

BIG PICKEREL IS OUTCLASSED BY ANOTHER ONE

Recently H. VanKampen caught a pickerel that weighed 14 pounds and three ounces. He believed at the time that this might be the biggest pickerel that would be caught this summer and so he entered it in the Holland Game and Fish Protective association contest.

But his hopes for winning the prize were blasted Friday when Mr. E. Franks caught a pickerel in Bass river that weighed 14 pounds and 12 ounces. Thus by the official scales of the association Franks is nine ounces to the good and that puts VanKampen out of the running. Franks will keep the prize within his grasp until some one catches a bigger pickerel.

The government has issued a new stamp in honor of the centenary of the founding of New York. It is called the "Huguenot-Wallace" stamp and it comes in denominations of one cent, two cents and five cents. The postoffice in Holland Saturday morning received a supply of these stamps and they are now on sale there.

TO GIVE EXHIBIT OF PHOTOGRAPHY AT HIS STUDIO

G. A. Lacey is making arrangements for an anniversary exhibit that will be held in his studio during the week from June 2 to 7. At that time Mr. Lacey will celebrate the 17th anniversary of his starting in business in Holland and he will put on display specimens of photography from all over the state. Members of the Michigan Professional Photographers' association to which he belongs, are sending him their work on almost every mail and these will be displayed. This exhibit will show the development of the art of photography and will be of historical interest. Mr. Lacey has already received specimens from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Coldwater, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Albion, Flint, Monroe, Ypsilanti, Lansing, Traverse City, Mt. Pleasant, and Grand Rapids.

The exhibit will be free to the public and it will be a photographic display of great interest.

"CAPPY" CAPPON MENTIONED IN THE STATE PRESS

Cap Night, the one night of the year toward which the freshman at the University of Michigan eagerly looks from the time he enters the institution, was held at Sleepy Hollow with Edwin Denby of Detroit as the principal speaker.

Following the talks the yearlings 2,000 strong, snake-danced their way to the huge bonfire and for the last time took off their pots at the commands of the upper classmen and hurled them into the blaze. Another class of sophomores had been started and it was now their turn to tell the frosh of next year to "take it off."

One of the features of the ceremony was the awarding to 18 university athletes who have received two or more "Ms" for their services in various sports, blankets bearing an "M" and a gold star for every letter earned. Coach Fielding H. Yost presented the trophies to the men.

In the list of 18 men receiving blankets is the name of Franklin Cappon who received his award not only as a football star of three years, but also as a basketball star.

In another dispatch from the Detroit Free Press it is stated that several letter men received their diplomas and that the Michigan student body were bidding "Cappy" Cappon good-bye. The item says that 31 letter men will be lost to U. of M. the coming year since these graduate June 16.

The newly elected mayor of Grand Rapids was presented with a derby hat when he assumed office. If he can keep it till the next election, it will be a good thing to kick into the ring.

The Song of the Builders

ON every hand is heard the rattle of the builder's hammer and the rasp of his saw. Overnight, it seems, buildings rise—new streets appear.

And the thousands of new homes and great buildings increase the problems of the public service companies.

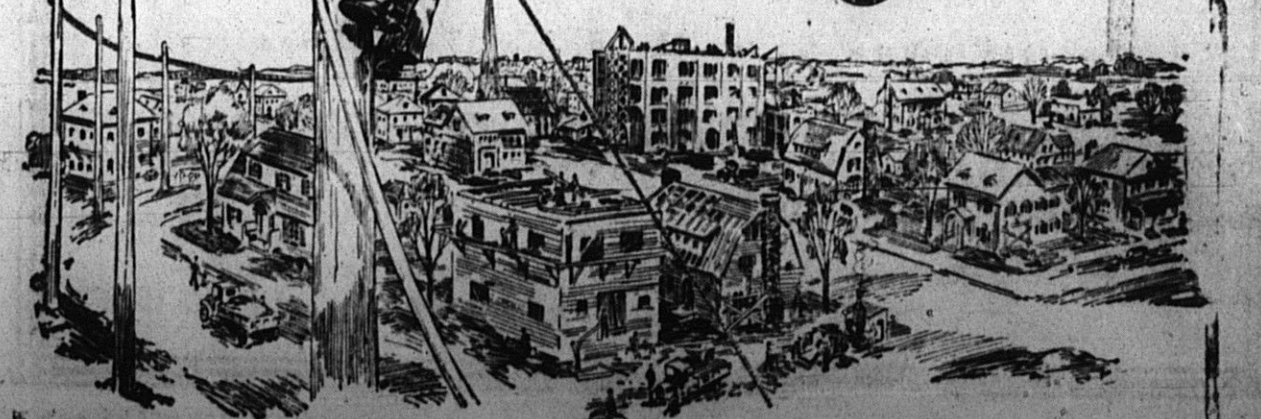

This Company attempts to foresee the great growth of service demand and extends its plant into new districts as rapidly as possible, in an effort to most efficiently serve the people of Michigan.

However, sudden unforeseen population and industrial growth frequently make it impossible to furnish utility service at all points immediately upon demand. Hundreds of new telephones are wanted. The Telephone Company's problem is the same as that of the water, sewer, gas, electric, street, and school services.

But Telephone Plant expansion is breaking all records. Thousands of new instruments are being installed, miles of new circuits are being built and additional exchange facilities are being provided, to meet the call for service.

Everything possible is being done to provide service for all who desire it.

The yacht has a sailing record of some 21 years on ocean and Great Lakes waters, having been built at Bristol, R. I., in 1903 and been the property of yacht owners at Providence, New York, Philadelphia, Bridgeport and Chicago prior to the ownership by Mr. McGarrick. She has recently undergone an extensive rebuilding and alteration at Manitowoc, Wis., and carries an 80 h. p. engine. Prior to being known as the Priscilla, the yacht bore the name Polaris, to which name she now reverts, and originally bore the name Irolia. In appointments and accommodations the yacht ranks attractively for craft of her character and size.

PROSECUTOR MILES ADDRESSES MEETING AT CITY HALL

Attorney Fred T. Miles Thursday evening spoke to an audience of at least 500 who came to hear him denounce certain accusations alleged to have been made by a Mrs. Hoen of Robinson township, purporting to have been told by her to 40 or 50 citizens of Holland at a secret meeting held on Friday, May 9, at the city hall.

Mr. Miles stated that he became aware that the secret meeting was to be held in which the woman in question was to make certain exposures detrimental to his character and against his administration of office. He stated that he was not given an opportunity to defend himself at this secret meeting, although before the meeting was held he had asked those responsible for the calling of it, to grant him a chance to be heard.

To aid him in his defense at the meeting the prosecutor carried with him several affidavits refuting charges made.

G. J. Diekema who was in the audience was called to the chair presiding over the deliberations, after which Prosecutor Miles devoted at least an hour denouncing the secret meeting, and the charge made at that gathering.

Mr. Miles contended that former Mayor Stephan and Attorney Charles H. Mc Bride were among those who fostered the meeting and allowed the Robinson woman to tell her alleged slanderous stories about him.

Mr. Miles then harked back to May 19, 1922, when Mrs. Hoen figured in an injunction case brought by her neighbors in Robinson township which had to do with the killing of a dog. This and another civil case Attorney Miles handled for her for which he received for his professional services $50, a fee generally charged by all attorneys in civil cases.

Mr. Miles contended that in 1923, the woman in question was arrested for Slander and was later convicted in Spring Lake and was fined $750 and on this occasion Mr. Miles declared that he refused to defend her for a third time, and states that from that time on her animosity began.

The stories alleged to have been made started the rounds in the neighborhood where she lived, and finally got as far as Holland culminating in the secret meeting in which Mrs. Hoen is purported to have said that she had two cancelled checks showing where she had paid the prosecutor in order to have him prosecute bootleggers.

Mr. Miles stated that he didn't blame those at the secret meeting for believing the lady in question for on the face of it her statements carried conviction and her queen like attitude inspired confidence as it did in him when he first listened to her when she brought her stories about Sheriff Fortney.

The prosecutor stated that he believed the woman and that he felt that sheriff Fortney was protecting moonshiners as has been alleged in the other slander suits recently brought by the sheriff against the woman, in which she was convicted, and ordered to pay damages of $750.00, and which case was carried to circuit court.

Prosecutor Miles stated that to his shame he at first believed in the stories told by the woman, but today after careful and thorough personal investigation, he feels that sheriff Fortney is a most maligned man, and that the stories were the cause largely of the outcome of the last election.

Mr. Miles stated that he was not here to defend Mr. Fortney but knowing the circumstances as he did, the man was entitled to a square deal.

Mr. Miles went step by step through all the accusations made by the woman at the secret meeting, disassociated one accusation after the other; gave the reasons why the second slander suit against Mrs. Hoen was started in Holland which was also discussed at the secret meeting, and left not a detail in the dark, but came out openly on all accusations made by the woman at the secret meeting.

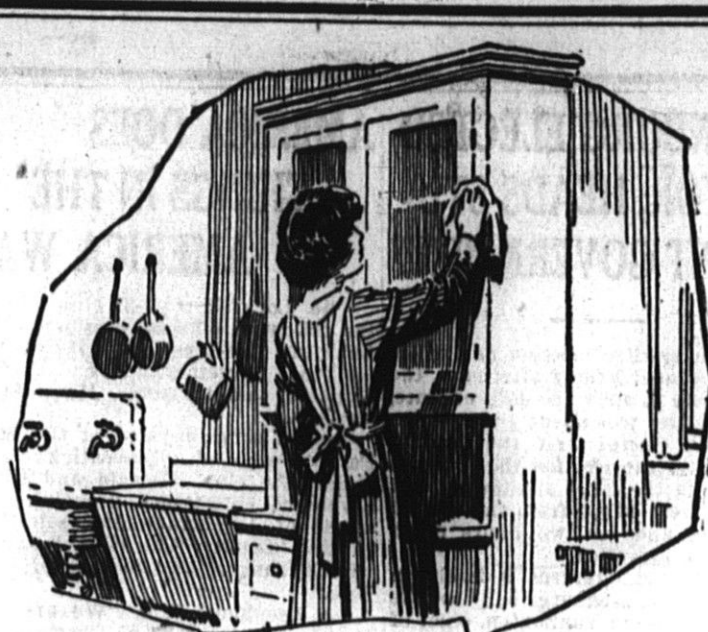

He stated that he even sent special messengers to Mrs. Hoen, inviting her to be present, and take with her the cancelled checks spoken of in the allegations made.

He also invited all those who fostered the secret meeting, and all those who attended the meeting to bring any evidence, to ask any questions, to bring any charges if such there were. He stated that he made these requests in ample time through the press, and by letter, and by special messenger.

Mr. Miles called for these persons and their evidence at the meeting, but neither Mrs. Hoen nor any of those participating in the secret meeting responded when the prosecutor asked them to bring evidence or refute the alleged statements made. Mr. Miles in closing stated that he would forgive all those who attended and those who fostered the secret meeting should they be willing to vindicate him, and admit that the calling of the meeting was a mistake.

After Mr. Miles had finished his discourse it was apparent that the local man's plea was convincing, judging from the prolonged applause and the reception that followed.

Closing the meeting, Mr. Diekema said that two big mistakes had been made, one the calling of the meeting of last Friday night and the manner in which it was handled; the second and mistake was, he said, that the had allowed him to call it and had not called it themselves for him to show that they were with him and were eager to vindicate his honor and his reputation.

"If we undermine faith in the public officers, the judiciary, in those who enforce the laws, we take away the cornerstone from the temple of justice. We must continue to have faith in our public officials."

"Now that Mr. Miles has so admirably and so adequately met every veiled insinuation let us consider this a settled matter, let us forget personalities and work together, remembering that much more than a personal matter is at stake, namely the great principle of faith in our government and in the administration of our government. Holland is on the eve of great expansion and prosperity and we need a spirit of unity and co-operation. We must all stand together and I trust that Mr. Miles will not divide this city on a personal issue; I further trust that the other side will be just as liberal and will not sow the seeds of personal dissension and animosity. Let's go away from here with a whole-hearted desire to be fair and helpful and not to divide the city with personalities. Let's work together in a spirit of faith, hope and charity, remembering that the greatest of these is charity."

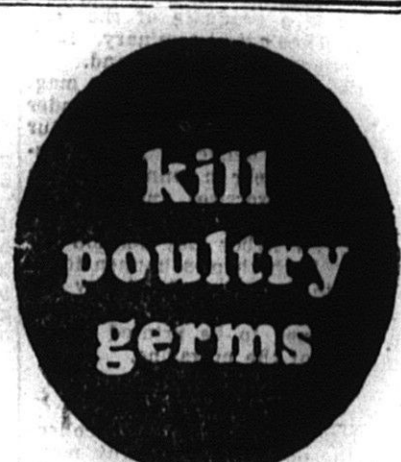

Attorney C. H. McBride, on being interviewed in regard to the meeting of last night, made the following statement:

"Before I went into this case I was told in no uncertain language by our prosecutor, that I would be thoroughly discredited, if I represented Mrs. Hoen. This is so soon after the explosion that it looks as though all I have left to identify myself is my middle name."

"I do not claim that Mrs. Hoen is a saint, for it would be out of the ordinary for an attorney to have a saint for a client, however, neither all the heroics or theatrics in the world, neither back-firing or the sweeping of dust into crevices will hide the well-beaten path from home to jail, and from jail to court, which Mrs. Hoen has travelled, under the direction of our Prosecutor. This has been a veritable road to Golgotha for her, literally extending from one end of the county to the other."

"Our Prosecutor says that Mrs. Hoen is a victim of 'emotional insanity'. If this is so, then he has rediscovered an old cure for such an unfortunate. One of three things is certain; either what Mrs. Hoen tells are the 'vapors' of an old woman, or she is mentally unsound, or she is telling the truth. If either or both of the first two propositions are true, then why all this noise and prosecution?"

"From all accounts of this matter, last night the prosecutor demonstrated the necessity of the meeting of a few nights ago. What Mrs. Hoen needs is friends; it may be possible that I will have to play a lone hand, but, if red-blooded men will stand idly by and permit an old lady to be dragged

KALAMAZOO MAN TO BUILD NEW ZEELAND SCHOOL

The contract for erecting the new Zeeland high school was awarded to DeRight of Kalamazoo on a cost plus basis with a guarantee not to exceed $98,000. This exceeds by about six thousand dollars the lowest bid received but which was subsequently withdrawn, and is nearly $21,000 lower than the highest bid received.

The contract for plumbing and heating was awarded to the Phoenix Sprinkling and Heating Co. of Grand Rapids in the sum of about $28,000. The bid was the lowest.

The White Bros. Electrical Co. of Battle Creek are the lowest bidders on the electrical work and will very probably receive the job.

Mr. De Wright comes very highly recommended, having built many public buildings in this state among which are five public school buildings in Kalamazoo. He promises to begin the work within ten days and agrees to have it completed by December 15.

The price of the contracts placed promise to erect the new high school building at a cost below the sum that was voted for the purpose recently.

DR. KUIZENGA NAMED HEAD OF WEST- ERN SEMINARY

Dr. John E. Kuizenga was nominated by the board of superintendents as president of Western Theological seminary on Wednesday, subject to confirmation by the general synod at its June session at Asbury Park, N. J. Mr. Kuizenga has been connected with the faculty of the institution as head of the department of practical theology since 1916.

Mr. Kuizenga today declined the offer of a place on the faculty of New Brunswick seminary. Mr. Kuizenga was offered a similar position last year which he also declined at that time, preferring to remain at Holland with the local institution.

This is the same college where Dr. John Beardslee, formerly of Holland, is a member of the faculty at the present time.

J. N. Lieve, of the Holland Fish and Game Protective association received a telegram Thursday morning from A. T. Stewart, superintendent of hatcheries at Lansing, asking him to meet the train that arrives in Holland at 3:45 Thursday afternoon to receive 20 cans of perch for Black Lake and Black river.

The local association received the perch and planted them at this end of the lake and in the river in the hope of keeping these waters well stocked. What the local association is after however is black bass and blue gills. It is expected that a little later the state hatcheries will send a supply of these fish to Holland to be planted here. The local fishing grounds would be greatly improved if better stocked with black bass and blue gills and the Holland Game and Fish Protective association is working to that end.

Some four hundred citizens came to listen to the Ku Klux speaker who delivered an address from a wagon on the open lot west of the West Michigan Laundry Wednesday night. The meeting was to have taken place under the clock on River avenue and 8th street but the police directed that the meeting be held on the lot to prevent any congestion of auto traffic at that busy corner.

The speaker opened his meeting with prayer and closed with the benediction. His discourse covered the greater part of an hour and a half, in which he set forth why the Ku Klux Klan was organized, the main reason being to stop riffraff immigration from the foreign countries, the Kluk holding that while forty years ago the best foreign element came to this country, today the worst element comes.

The Kluk also stand for upholding the law and aiding the police in enforcing the law, and are especially vehement against bootleggers, declared the speaker.

The speaker's address dealt largely with the following regulations printed on a card passed out to the audience:

"The Tenets of the Christian Religion.

"White supremacy.

"Protection of our pure womanhood.

"Just laws and liberty.

"Closer relationship of pure Americanism.

"The upholding of the Constitution of these United States.

"The separation of church and state.

"Freedom of speech and press.

"Closer relationship between capital and American labor.

"Preventing the causes of mob violence and lynchings.

"Preventing unwarranted strikes by foreign labor agitators.

"Prevention of fires and destruction of property by lawless elements.

"The limitation of foreign immigration.

"The much needed local reforms.

"Law and order."

Any reasonable gentleman acquainted with the Women's League building fund, will admit that the U. of M. women graduates look like a million dollars.

A man at Grand Haven has been arrested on a charge of drawing a revolver on a truck driver. We suppose his defense will be that he didn't have a machine gun or a cannon.

Mrs. Henry Poppen, (nee Dorothy Trompen) of Amoy, China, visited friends and relatives in the city and incidentally called at Hope college where she was a graduate.

Gerrit Boone of Hope college has been awarded a scholarship in physiological chemistry at the University of Cincinnati.

Arend Ungersma and Al Grant, students of Hope college, claim to have rowed a boat 16 miles to get a string of fish. They paddled from Holland to Macatawa and back which is 12 miles paddling four miles more to find a good place to fish.

Mrs. Hans Dykhuys of Grand Haven was in attendance at the W. C. T. U. convention in Holland Wednesday.

The committee on claims and accounts reported to the council Wednesday evening that the sum of $6440.34 had been expended during the past two weeks. The committee on poor reported $119 for temporary aid during the same period.

Mrs. Jacob Japinga was a Grand Rapids visitor Wednesday and Thursday.

The committee on public buildings and property recommended to the common council Wednesday night that the contract for furnishing coal for the city hall be awarded to C. Woldring Bros., who put in a bid to deliver Pocahontas coal for $7 a ton.

Miss Charibel Wright who studied at Drew University Madison, New Jersey, the past school year is back in Holland for the summer. She has taken her former position at the Lacey Studio where she has been employed for the past few years.

In bound freight shows a decrease of 5 per cent and outbound a falling off of 9 per cent in the Grand Rapids territory of the Pere Marquette railway for the early part of May, as compared to the same period last year.

The Federation of Ladies' Adult Bible classes will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Maple Avenue Christian Reformed church. Rev. C. P. Dame, pastor of Trinity Reformed church will deliver the address of the evening. His subject will be, "Wanted a New Puritanism."

The Normal class of the Sixth Reformed church enjoyed a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Strong Wednesday evening. After the monthly business was transacted a budget was read and games were played.

Geo. Wemding of Holland has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the district court. His petition shows liabilities of $35,108.14 and no assets.

Mrs. B. Mollena of Holland is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Henry Mollena of Spring Lake.

Fire damaged the home of Mrs. Johanna Fritz at Grand Haven yesterday to the extent of $225. The fire was started from an overheated stove pipe.

Rev. and Mrs. Bernie Mulder of Muskegon Heights motored over to Holland yesterday and were the guests of friends and relatives in this city.

Not a few Rotarians from Holland left for Grand Rapids to listen to William Jennings Bryan speak before that club at the Fandling hotel this noon. The many times candidate for president is in the Furniture City for the greater part of the week, attending the general assembly of the Presbyterian church. This is one of the largest assemblies that Grand Rapids will have this year.

Thirty members of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion, came out Tuesday night for a tree planting bee. The Legionnaires had 200 trees and 140 were planted.

The soldier aggregation first started operation to the east of the city on the Holland-Zeeland road. Armed with spades they got busy and planted trees from the school house to the west to the Vander Haar Hill to the east. Trees were planted on both sides of the highway.

From the Zeeland-Holland road the soldiers motored to the north side of the city and planted trees on the Holland-Grand Haven road, namely M-11 beginning at the Alpena intersection north on the Pike, extending toward Grand Haven for a quarter of a mile.

The boys are to plant the remaining forty trees on Friday night of this week. Adjutant Schoon requests that all legionnaires meet at the Tower clock, at 5:45 o'clock, taking their spades, tape lines, etc., with them.

Among the legionnaires who participated in the planting of trees are the following: Dr. A. Leenhouts and son Donald, Dr. Wm. Westrate, Dr. Wm. Tappan, Charles VanLente, Earl Nilsson, Peter Michally, John Emmink, Al Van Lente, Ed Oonk, Gus DeVries, Bert Slach, Red Slach, Leonard Oerker, Ernie Van Lente, Gerrit Oerker, Tony Dorgers, Heinie Zoet, Bill Oonk, Ernie Bedell, Maurice Schepers, Wm. Vlening, John Vanderploeg and father, Jim Oonk, Peter Lunten, Jake Bullman, Ben Lieveens, Jack Knoll, John Rozboom, Sam Busch.

ATTENTION LEGION MEN

The American Legion, Willard G. Leenhouts Post, have as has already been stated, finished the planting of 140 trees along the Holland-Zeeland and Holland-Grand Haven highways. The boys were to come out again on Wednesday night to plant the remaining forty trees, however those in charge of the planting were very much disappointed at the small number who came out to help with this work.

Everything is in readiness and as the proverbial saying "Many Hands Make Light Work," usually holds true under all circumstances, Adjutant Schoon is asking every legionnaire to come out and do his part.

Here is what Adjutant Schoon has to say: "We have started a good thing let's finish it up in good style. We have only about 50 more trees to plant which will take us about an hour. Let's all meet at the tower clock on Friday evening, May 23, quarter to six, with spades, tape lines and tape. If it rains or if the weather is bad come out anyway and we can arrange for another evening. Take your autos along is possible and take a load of fellows along.

"You single fellows come early. Fill your dates after 8 o'clock and you married men come early so you can be home before dark. DON'T FAIL."

GOLDEN JUBILEE CONVENTION ENDS SESSIONS HERE

Prosecutor F. T. Miles Gets Rising Vote of Confidence From the Convention

The Tuesday evening session of the Golden Jubilee convention opened with beautiful organ music played by Mr. George Dox. Miss Coraenia Neelings sang exquisitely "The Ninety and Nine" and a quartet of college girls beautifully rendered "My Task," by Ashford.

Rev. James M. Martin of Third Reformed church took charge of devotions. Mayor N. Kammeraad welcomed the convention in behalf of the city saying that Holland had helped to make Michigan and the U. S. dry and should help to keep it dry. Supt. E. E. Fell welcomed the convention in behalf of the schools. Dr. J. B. Nykerk in behalf of Hope College said that Hope College stands for the 18th amendment and the Volstead act and that the college would help to make the 18th amendment a reality and to keep Michigan dry.

Speaking in behalf of the churches, Rev. P. P. Cheff said that it was appropriate for the mayor to welcome the convention because the organization was a political force, for the schools because it was a great educational factor and for the churches because the W. C. T. U. was a great religious force in the world today.

Tuesday afternoon the first session of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union's convention was opened by devotions led by Mrs. E. L. Calkins with Mrs. Blekkink at the piano. After Mrs. Lenora H. Holcomb called the convention to order the officers responded to roll call and the convention was seated. Mrs. Jennie Vos of Ferrysburg gave a splendid report of the purpose and work of the Americanization department. Mrs. Jessie Willis of Sparta reported on the Flower Mission department. The number of calls made, flowers, canned fruit and magazines sent the sick was astonishing. Mrs. Mary Covell of Highland Park Union, Grand Rapids, reported on her fine hospital work in Grand Rapids. Mrs. Lantha De Merrell gave a good report of the Loyal Temperance Legion work. Miss Mills, accompanied by Mrs. Martha Robbins, sang most sweetly, "I Know a Hill," by Wickerby and Creole Song by Lily Strickland. Mrs. E. E. Fell read a beautiful paper on "My Service to the Community as a Home Maker."

Mrs. Lenora H. Holcomb and Miss Katherine Post told of the inspiring convention at Columbus last fall. Miss Post spoke of the addresses of Miss Anna Gordon, Rev. Ira Landrith, Mrs. Mable Walker Wildebrand and Miss Grace Abbott. Mrs. Holcomb told of the events of the convention. She emphasized the fact that the W. C. T. U. is a growing organization, that Ohio gained 5000 members last year and eleven states each gained over 5000 new members. She mentioned the special honor hour paid in the Memorial hour to the men who had lost their lives in promotion service. The social side of the convention, the wonderful banquet at which the mayor of Columbus and the president of Ohio State University gave inspiring talks, the reception of the governor's home and the "Crusade" room in the Desainer hotel were interestingly brought out. Mrs. Holcomb closed by showing that no other amendment in the constitution had been passed by greater majorities in Congress or ratified more completely than the 18th amendment.

The time given to the Holland Union in charge of Mrs. Henry Van Ark was well spent. Mrs. Van Ark discussed the membership gain, the comfort kit for the city nurse, the citizenship committee and the Prohibition National guards. Mrs. Lantha De Merrell explained the excellent parliamentary law class of thirty members and the membership drive which doubled their membership. Mrs. W. E. Van Dyke reported 35 college and high school girls as junior members. Mrs. Etta Whitman discussed the scientific temperance work and the medal contest in the school. Miss Mills' Junior High girls chorused tastefully garbed in white middie and dark skirts sang two numbers very pleasingly.

Mrs. Calkins discussed the political duties of members of the W. C. T. U. and answered several questions. The program closed with a beautiful children's drill in charge of Mrs. Carl Shaw—a group of children of all nations are members of the Loyal Temperance Legion. Visiting delegates and officials praised very highly the spirit of co-operation with the schools which made possible such fine numbers as the Junior High girls and the little people gave.

The afternoon meeting room and the church auditorium were very artistically decorated by Mrs. Champion's committee. Mrs. Henry VanArk as president of the Holland Union welcomed the convention hoping that the convention would be a great inspiration much needed in this presidential year.

A source of comfort, she said, "is the fact that the Union is not alone but is backed by many women's organizations working for law enforcement."

Mrs. Marinus DenHerder of Grand Rapids acknowledged the gracious welcome and thanked the city and union for its hospitality.

Mrs. Holcomb in introducing Mrs. E. L. Calkins, the state president, as the speaker of the evening said that she was one of ten persons and one of three women appointed by President Harding to the 17th International congress against alcoholism held in Copenhagen last summer. Mrs. Calkins spoke of the earlier meetings of this congress, especially of the one held in Washington just after the war at which Sir Auchland Geddes, British Ambassador, acted as Great Britain's representative. Mrs. Calkins told some of her experiences in England, Holland and Germany before reaching Copenhagen. At a banquet at the yacht club in Copenhagen, Mrs. Calkins told of the work done to make Michigan dry in 1916. The chief address was given by Volstead on "The Benefit of Prohibition." He told of 75% decrease cases of acute alcoholism in Bellevue hospital, New York, and in the city hospital in Chicago, and the closing of 248 Keeley cure sanitariums. Prohibition is not on trial but democracy is on trial. In closing she spoke of her visits to the battlefields of France and Belgium and her wish to preach and work for peace and no more war forever.

The second day of the fifth annual convention of the fifth district of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union opened auspiciously with more delegates and added enthusiasm. After devotions led by the vice president reports of superintendents and officers were presented.

Mrs. Lake's report on child welfare showed what one union can do in providing for the needs of children in the Juvenile Home in Grand Rapids. The president gave an encouraging report of present conditions, fewer in prison and Keeley cures, more wealth, better health; consequently no change in prohibition law, only better enforcement. She urged members to work for peace, temperance education in schools, organization of young people, interest in political candidates and using the franchise. Her personal work as a speaker throughout the district and letters posted shows her to be the right leader.

This jubilee year the unions have reached their quota of a million dollars but lack in reaching a million in membership. The Holland Union is the banner union in the district having over three hundred members and having raised over five hundred dollars according to the corresponding secretary's report.

The treasurer's report showed a balance on the credit side. Mrs. Geo. Pelgrim gave two pleasing cantillations, "Mammy's Little Soldier Gal," and "Try Smiling." Miss Deur read the prize essay won last year by Miss Thelma Haas in a contest in the high school of Holland, winning also the state prize. This proved a pleasing diversion to the business of the morning.

The election of officers resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Lenora Holcomb, of Grand Rapids; corresponding secretary, Miss Katherine Post, of Holland; recording secretary, Dr. L. Bellemasters, of Grand Rapids; treasurer, Mrs. Julia A. Lillie, of Coopersville; Mrs. E. J. Blekkink was appointed as vice president. Miss Jessie Willis of Sparta was named president of the Kent County Union and Miss Margaret Bilz of Spring Lake was named president of the Ottawa County Union. Mrs. Calkins, state president, was called to the chair for the election, giving at the same time useful hints on matters relating to the unions. Copies of "Save America," "The Signal," and other papers were on hand and disposed of. The convention then adjourned for the delicious luncheon served by the Ladies Aid of Hope church. They also served the meals throughout the sessions.

The first thing of the afternoon was the memorial service led by Mrs. J. C. Post. Fourteen deaths occurred throughout the year. Mrs. Willis of Sparta gave a review of the district for the past fifty years, while Mrs. Holcomb gave the present view illustrated by a map with gold points for places having unions and black points, eleven of them, which should have one. Mrs. Doremo reported her work on jail and prison.

Mrs. D. B. K. VanRaalte next favored the audience with two vocal numbers, "Trees" and "Minor and Major," accompanied by Mrs. Robbins.

Miss Clara Wheeler and attorney F. T. Miles gave the addresses of the afternoon. Miss Wheeler spoke on "A Little Child," especially their training before school age. She knew whereof she spoke, having been a kindergarten teacher trainer for many years. She recommended nursery schools for mothers with children, for lectures by experts and the care of children taught to girls in the seventh and eighth grades. This is successfully done in Detroit and Kansas City.

Mr. Miles spoke on "Enforcement in Ottawa County," having mostly in mind the enforcement of the liquor law. The county officials work together in harmony and have the support of the people as a whole. Bootleggers get a jail sentence in every case with a fine. He stressed the importance of a healthy public sentiment to back the law, and not to believe false reports on much liquor sold. Statistics prove a great advance since 1917. In that year he tried 707 cases in the county, 246 of which were for drunkenness; in 1923, 255 cases with only 38 for the same cause. A rising vote of approval and support was given him by members of the convention.

A touching letter of greeting and reminiscence sent by Mrs. Benjamin, a veteran worker was read by Mrs. De Merrell. The report of the resolutions committee and the appointment of Mrs. H. Van Ark as alternate delegate to the coming national convention at Chicago, in November, closed the afternoon program.

Dr. J. B. Nykerk again provided a college of the music of the evening, giving two sections with Mr. Dox. The organ solo played a voluntary. "Amen Way" led the devotions. Mr. Robert C. Lansing gave the address of the evening on "Write It on the Sky." The subject matter was quite different from that of years ago when he spoke for the Anti-Saloon League in Holland. He would have us write that America is a christian nation and that the gospel will predominate in the world if people will preach it and live it. He cited the abolition of slavery, of the Louisiana lottery, and the overthrow of the legalized traffic as facts to prove the world was growing better. He stated that million were doing good against thousands doing wrong, the latter making the most noise. The newspapers publish the unusual occurrences of the day, not the normal happenings; hence the lack of some people make of the lack of law enforcement. He was certain of the progress we are making, urging all to work for still higher and better things for God on our side.

Thus closed the fifth annual convention with new inspiration gained by its members and ready to do better work the coming year.

OVERISEL ALSO TO HEAR PROGRAM BY HOLLAND PEOPLE

On Friday, May 16, the Young Ladies Mission circle of the 9th Street Christian Reformed church went to Hamilton where they repeated a program given in Holland a few weeks ago.

The program again proved a great success with the Community Hall crowded to overflowing, and at least a hundred being turned away.

After the program was ended several in the audience requested the young ladies to give the program for a third time, this time at Overisel, which the Mission Circle decided to do. The program is to be given at the Overisel Community Hall sometime in the week of June 1, the exact date not yet being set, but will be made known in the next issue of this paper.

In the absence of Mayor Kammeraad, President pro tem Frank Brieve presided over the session of the common council Wednesday night.

BIG GRAND HAVEN

FISH BRINGS $165.00

How would you like to catch a fish worth $165? That is what a Grand Haven man did a few days ago, as has already been reported.

The Grand Haven Tribune gives us the following fish story:

"In the H. J. Dornbos fish house, on Monroe street, in this city, there reposes a 142 pound sturgeon, caught yesterday morning by William Mieras. Grand Haven commercial fisherman, Mr. Mieras went out to his nets located but a short distance off the local pier, yesterday morning and he was surprised to find the big fish caught there. Mr. Mieras immediately returned. The big fish was stunned by a blow on the head from a sledge hammer and was taken into the open gas boat that Mr. Mieras uses.

"It was brought to the fish house of H. J. Dornbos and brother and weighed up. Measurements are as follows: Length, 6 feet 8 inches; circumference, 36 inches and weight, 142 pounds. The value of the fish is estimated at $165.

"The roes of the sturgeon from which caviar is made, sells for about $3 a pound and as the sturgeon caught by Mr. Mieras furnished 38 pounds, this value came to $114. Sturgeon steaks at 60c a pound raise its value to $165. Instead of cutting the fish up, H. J. Dornbos proposes to have it mounted to keep in the office of the firm. Negotiations are at present under way to have this done by a Chicago taxidermist.

"For two years now, no sturgeons have been caught off Grand Haven and even then they were not as large as the recent one. The sturgeon caught yesterday was one of the largest ever taken. Prior to the catch of this one, it was eight years before a sturgeon had been taken, although local fishermen who have been in the business for a long time state that thirty or forty years ago as many as 15 or 20 sturgeons were brot in at a catch."

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the sharp reverse curve on trunk line 11 near West Olive was the scene of an accident that might have been very near serious, with fatal results, if the car involved had been driven at a much faster pace.

J. C. Jackson of Philadelphia, Pa., and Miss Jackson were driving north on trunk line 11, having just left Holland shortly before, when upon making the first turn at the West Olive reverse curve the car became unmanageable due to a breaking of some of the steering gear parts. The car plunged off the road and across the Pere Marquette railroad tracks and into a ditch.

Miss Jackson was but slightly injured, while the driver sustained several cuts and bruises. Dr. W. J. Presley of Grand Haven who took charge of the case, stated that Mr. Jackson may have suffered some internal injuries. Both Mr. Jackson and Miss Jackson were taken to the Hattin hospital, Grand Haven.

The machine, a new Dodge coupe, was damaged badly, one wheel being broken and two fenders damaged as well as other parts being smashed. The steering gear was broken before the crash occurred.

The West Olive curve is one of the most dangerous in the county and many accidents have taken place at this point. Cars have crashed into the fence coming from both directions, in fact the barrier there is almost always in broken condition. Most of these crashes are due to speed and others like Mr. Jackson's are due to circumstances. Parties who saw Mr. Jackson traveling prior to the accident stated that his speed was around 25 miles an hour.

FATHER GEO. L. NYE

PASSES AWAY ON MONDAY FORENOON

The community was shocked Monday by the news of the death of Father George L. Nye of the St. Francis de Sales church. Many persons who are not connected with the St. Francis church but who have learned to admire and respect Father Nye as a good citizen who worked with them in various community projects, did not know that he was seriously ill and so the news of his death came to them like a shock.

Father Nye passed away Monday forenoon at about ten o'clock at the Parish House at 304 Maple avenue. Death came as a result of pneumonia. Father Nye was popular not only in his own congregation but in the community as a whole. He was born in Holland and he spent his boyhood here. He was therefore always looked upon as a Holland product, even though he had been away from this city for a number of years while he was receiving his education for the priesthood in Cincinnati and Milwaukee and while he served in other communities.

But he came back to Holland when the opportunity offered itself and he never lost his love for the city of his birth. His work here has been very successful, particularly among the young people. He was an ardent boy scout worker and he took a deep interest in troop 8 of the St. Francis church as well as in scout work in Holland in general.

Father Nye was born 1878 and he attended the public schools in Holland. Father Nye lived in Holland until 1894, then moved to Iowa, thence to Grand Rapids. He was educated in Mt. St. Mary's seminary in Cincinnati, Ohio, and completed his theological course in St. Francis seminary, Milwaukee, Wis. He was ordained to the priesthood by Rt. Rev. Bishop Richter in the Cathedral, Grand Rapids, June 29, 1910.

He was appointed assistant pastor at St. Mary's church, Cheboygan, Mich., and labored there for 4 years. He was appointed first pastor of St. Anthony's church, Mockinaw City, Mich., where he labored for 7 years. He also had charge of the missions at Wolverine and Afton, Mich. He was appointed the first resident pastor of St. Francis church in Holland, in November, 1921, where he labored until his death.

During the short pastorate here Father Nye has enlarged the church building so that a parochial school for the Catholic children was opened in September 1923. A new chapel was added to the present building, which is to be used until the new church edifice was to be built. Father Nye endeared himself to all; he took an active interest in civic and religious affairs of the city and was always a booster for his home city—Holland.

During his charge here in the parish of St. Francis de Sales increased in numbers and the spiritual welfare was on a high plane.

The city misses a public spirited citizen, the church mourns the loss of an able churchman, and the people, especially the children, a friend.

The funeral was held in Holland, at St. Francis church on Wednesday forenoon at ten o'clock and at the cathedral in Grand Rapids at 9 o'clock on Thursday.

One of the biggest electric wiring contracts ever let in the city has been awarded to White Brothers Electrical Company. The job is that of the Warm Friend Tavern and the figure exceeds ten thousand dollars. This exceeds the price of the Junior high school job, which was in the neighborhood of nine thousand dollars. In addition to being one of the biggest jobs ever let here in that line it is the biggest job ever handled by White Brothers. They secured the contract in competition with electrical concerns in Chicago, Grand Rapids, Muskegon and other places.

The Holland city base ball league is now going full blast as was witnessed Tuesday night when the Cubs defeated the Montella Parks in a fast and snappy game 7 to 4. Holland fans will have a chance to see some very fast teams in league play this season if present indications hold up. Tonight the Merchants will clash with the Pine Creeks, and Thursday the Shoes will take on the South End Independents. These two teams fought it out for the city championship last season. Each team is out to take the first game, so a hot contest can be expected. Plagenhoff or Cole will do the pitching for the South Ends, while the Shoes will use their star, VanZanten, or their speed ball artist, Steffens. No admission will be charged at these games, so every loyal fan come out and show that Holland has the boosters, as all these players are local boys.

The Holland Gun club dedicated its new range at the community fair grounds Tuesday evening, and Neal DeWaard set a record with a perfect score bringing down 25 out of 25 birds. Bill Woldring came second with 23 out of 25 clay pigeons. Next week Tuesday the members of the club are to hold a shoot and new members will be given a try-out. Anybody interested is eligible to pepper away at the birds. The only charges being made will be for shells and birds which is a minor cost.

The shoot Decoration Day morning has been called early starting at 8 o'clock in order not to interfere with the Decoration day exercises down town. For the same reason Grand Haven and Muskegon will not be asked to participate but will be invited to a shoot later in the season.

Leonard Lamb was gathered in on a charge and fined $13.70 before Justice Van Schelven for a violation of the ordinance that is not observed possibly by one out of a hundred motorists because of ignorance that such a law exists. Mr. Lamb paid a fine for passing another automobile while both were in a street intersection.

A motorist may pass an automobile between street intersections but not in street intersections. One can readily see the reason for this ordinance for after all, passing another car means a higher rate of speed, and consequently more danger to other cars that might come from all directions at street intersections. It is simply a safety measure however, and it is doubtful if many motorists know that here is such a clause in the traffic ordinance.

Chief Van Ry states that there are many violators along this line, but that they are just beginning to enforce the ordinance for the reason that too many precautions cannot be taken considering the continued additions of automobiles daily and the congested condition of the highway.

Mr. Lamb was not familiar with this phase of the law, nor are the majority of Holland motorists, but the law holds that ignorance is no excuse for then everyone could plead ignorance, and no laws could be enforced. Mr. Lamb cheerfully paid the fine, has his lesson learned, and Holland motorists have an eye-opener at the real estate man's expense.

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren of the local chapter of the Red Cross has received application blanks for enrollment in the safety institute to be held at Conference Point on Lake Geneva,
