His First Dollar

One of the world's ten richest men, while almost unknown, made his first dollar selling fish he had caught to neighbors.

His first real job was on a farm at $50 a month—saving his money enabled him to go to school.

Boys with fixed ideas, willingness to work them out, plus a sense of regular saving, have plenty of chance.

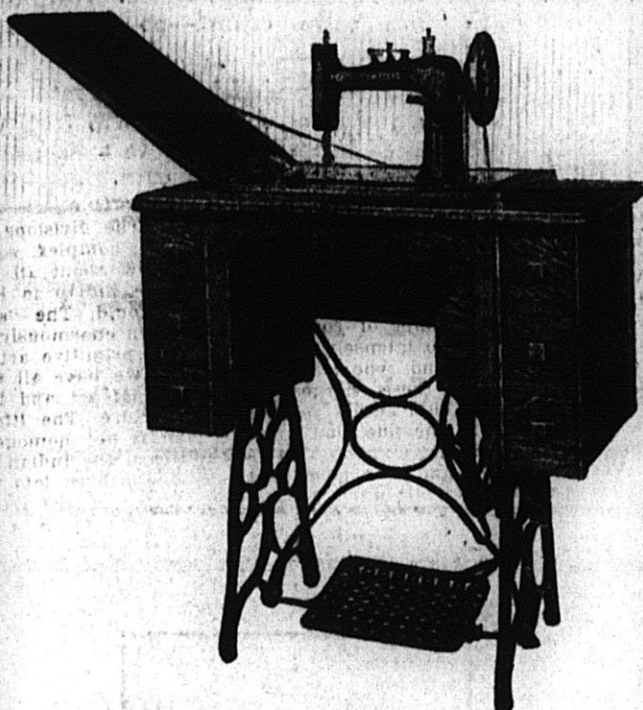

It takes money to make money.

It is profitable to save with us.

LITTLE HOLLAND GIRLS

ON GRAND HAVEN CON.

The twenty-second annual convention of the Pythian Sisters, District 4, was held at Grand Haven and proved a success in every way. The convention was honored by the presence of two grand officers, Grand Chief Minnie Mix of Lapeer, Michigan, and Grand District Deputy Laurence Hall of Battle Creek, Michigan.

In an account given in the Grand Haven Tribune, the name of little Miss Jean Simpson of Holland appears as giving a piano solo which was well rendered.

Mrs. Gerrit Grissen, aged 82, died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. Marcuse, near Castle Park. The funeral was held Tuesday at one o'clock at the home and at 2 o'clock at the 16th street Christian Reformed church in Holland. Rev. Mr. Keegstra officiating.

"WELCOME" IS WATCHWORD AT 1ST MEETING

DELEGATES ARE TOLD THAT THE TOWN IS THEIRS FOR THREE DAYS

Speakers Tell Them What Holland Is And Give Them The Glad Hand

With the high school auditorium crowded to the very doors, the ninth annual convention of the Michigan branch of the National Council of Parents and Teachers opened Wednesday night with addresses of welcome. The delegates had been arriving all day long and had been finding their lodging places. At 6 o'clock district dinners for the delegates had been served at the Tavern, Hope church, Third church, and the Woman's Literary club. At eight o'clock all the visiting delegates, nearly a thousand in number, gathered in the high school auditorium for the opening session. There were only a few home people present, the request having been made by the local management of the convention that the right of way be given to the visitors because the capacity of the auditorium is limited. Since all the meetings will be held in Carnegie hall the home people are invited as there will be room for all.

C. A. Lokker, president of the Holland P. T. A. council, presided and in a few words introduced the speakers. Before the meeting the high school orchestra played, and during the session the high school glee club and the mixed chorus sang. The Flint delegation marched to the front of the hall and sang a song asking the convention to come to Flint in 1927, and later they sang, "What's the matter with Holland? It's all right."

Supt. Fell gave a five minute address of welcome on behalf of the schools. "If you want anything," he told the delegates, "ask anyone you meet and they'll help you out." He told the visitors some facts about Holland. Last year, he said, Holland consumed more milk per capita than any other city in the United States, using 2,700,000 quarts of milk and 75,000 quarts of cream. Holland is practically immunized one hundred per cent against small pox and diphtheria. Last year Holland's industrial products amounted to $30,000,000, and Holland has $5,000,000 in savings departments of the banks. Eighty per cent of the people own their homes, 96 per cent of the children regularly attend church, 92 1/2 per cent in Sunday school, 61 per cent attend week-day Bible school outside of school hours. Holland welcomes the P. T. A. Mr. Fell said, because that organization stands for physical, intellectual and spiritual education.

On behalf of Holland high school Mayor Paul Nettinga welcomed the delegates, declaring the students want to make the convention a great success. He presented Mrs. Fred M. Raymond, the president, with a gavel made in the high school, to be used at the convention and afterwards to be the property of Mrs. Raymond.

G. J. Diekema welcomed the guests on behalf of Holland. "We welcome you," he said, "because of what you represent—the progenitors of the pupils." Describing the kind of town they were visiting, Mr. Diekema said Holland is primarily devoted to education and religion, and the health of the town is the health of the pupils.

Mr. Diekema said Holland is a pioneer in the field of education, and how they have always clung to the ideal of the pioneers in their devotion to religion and education. He made a palpable hit by giving an elaborate description of Holland's transportation facilities and then exclaiming, "We are sure you will feel at home in Holland and that you will feel at home, but if you don't like us, use those transportation facilities to get out of town."

The audience arose when Mrs. Raymond was introduced. She said that in 1915 there were 3,000 fathers and mothers in the P. T. A., today there are 61,040. This increase is not artificial but is the answer to a common purpose that the purpose for which it is organized for the boys and girls of the state. The convention represents a cross section of the people of Michigan. Mrs. Raymond declared that she was sure all would feel at home in Holland and that the convention would serve to increase the association's vision of the purpose for which it is organized.

C. L. Poor, superintendent of schools of Traverse City, and chairman of the fifth district association, gave his idea of why Michigan is great. He said the state is not great primarily for its business, its lakes and rivers, but for its citizenry. The citizenry of tomorrow must be greater than that of today, and that is what the state's schools are for, and that is also what the state P. T. A. is for.

Next Sunday evening Rev. C. P. Dame, pastor of Trinity church, will reach a patriotic sermon. The subject will be "Forgetfulness a National Sin." The men's quartet of Trinity, assisted by Miss Helene VandLinde who recently returned from Los Angeles, California, where she studied voice, will sing patriotic selections on that evening.

Clarence Dan Herder is broadcasting Hope's 1926 pageant from station "WOOD" Grand Rapids. He gave a history of the three great events, pictured in this production, namely the birth of a nation, the founding of Holland and the establishing of Hope College.

ILLUSTRIOUS PEOPLE TO BE HERE FOR PAGEANT

A DAUGHTER OF AN INDIAN CHIEF LIKELY TO ATTEND

Dr. Nyker, dean of Hope college, gives the information that Holland will be host possibly to some very interesting guests.

He states that the daughter of the Ottawa Indians, who with the Pottowattomies, were the first to settle in Michigan, will probably be here during the pageant of 1926.

The daughter of the chief is now the wife of Mike Quiggo of Water-villet, Michigan, and has promised to come.

Another visitor is to be Mrs. Frances Christie Phelps Otte, daughter of the first president of Hope college. Mrs. Otte was the wife of the former secretary who built three hospitals in China and did much to start the christianization of the oriental. Mr. Otte was a martyr to the cause, later dying of a plague while trying to save a Chinaman affected by the disease.

Mrs. Otte will be accompanied by her youngest daughter, Miss Margaret.

It is more than likely that Rev. Phillip T. Phelps, a son of the first president, living in Albany, N. Y., may also be here, next week.

Frank Gaffney of Grand Haven was arrested for non-support of children but arraignment has been postponed in view of a probable settlement.

The replica of the old Liberty Bell to be used in Hope College pageant next week is on exhibition in the First State bank. It is a duplicate of the original.

Leonard Verhoeke paid $10 in Grand Haven traffic court for speeding in that city on Fulton-st. at 35 miles an hour according to the police. Jacob Wierenga paid $10 for speeding also as did Mrs. B. L. Bootroyed of Chicago. J. H. Denise and Charles W. Taylor paid $1 for parking minus lights.

Searched a window on Eighth St. and River avenue that does not display a welcome P. T. A. sign. Some wide-awake sign painter did a neat job with the brush and for business places were overlooked.

DANCE HALL DECISION IS IMPORTANT

FINDING OF JUDGE CROSS WILL PUT A STOP TO LICENTIOUS DANCING

Complaints Have Also Been Heard From Allegan Co.

The decision of Judge Cross in the case of the West Olive "Lily of the Valley" club, closing it to the public, will have an important bearing upon these dance clubs, generally speaking.

Within the few years there have been considerable complaints not only in Ottawa county, but especially from Allegan county where these hidden-away dance halls are freely patronized, and judging from the State papers, and since the advent of the automobile other counties are troubled the same way.

The Prosecutor states that patrons feel that they are hidden away and still the places are easy to get at with a machine, but they forget that the officers can get at them just as easy, also with an automobile.

In filing his decision Judge Cross says the following relative to the West Olive case:

The bill of complaint was filed in this case to enjoin a nuisance. Issue was joined and proofs taken in open court.

From the testimony it appears that when the township board refused to grant a license for the purpose of holding public dances at the place in question, that a club was formed called the Lily of the Valley club, and that thereafter dances were held under the club name.

It also appears that soft drinks were sold upon the premises by the defendants Edward Styx and Lena Styx, without a license therefore.

It also appears that intoxicating liquors were brot to the premises by members of the club and others, and given away upon the premises and that persons became intoxicated on the premises, and that disorderly persons frequented the place.

The testimony shows that he only requirements enforced to join the club is to pay the fee demanded. A detective from Grand Rapids, a total stranger to the members of the club, had no difficulty in becoming a member. Other strangers were admitted as members of the club. Public notices were given of the dances. The attendance of a deputy sheriff was required at each dance. It would seem that if the dances were exclusive for bona fide club members it ought not to be necessary to have a deputy sheriff present to preserve order.

From the testimony it is evident that public dances were being held in violation of the law.

The testimony shows that Frank Garbrecht did what he could to preserve order on the dance floor, and that the drinking of intoxicating liquors was not in his presence.

The place as conducted is a nuisance, and an injunction will issue closing the same.

The Lily of the Valley club, as now organized and operated will be enjoined from holding public dances without a license. Edward Styx and Lena Styx will be enjoined from conducting a soft drink parlor without a license. The defendants are not deprived of any constitutional rights.

A few weeks ago Solon Jackson, a man of mystery, died in his little log hut at Ventura, where he had lived in seclusion for years, seeking few friendships and seldom venturing far from his little cabin among the desolate sand dunes. Not one of his neighbors knew the personal history of Solon Jackson. He was secretive and uncommunicative. ### 766 REGISTERED AT CONVENTION THIS MORNING

MORE COMING IN AND CROWD KEEPS INCREASING

At 10 o'clock Thursday morning so that the registration will probably be quite a few over 800 before the close of the convention on Friday night. In addition to the 655 official delegates that were listed Thursday forenoon there were 105 visitors registered. A visitor is one who has no official standing as a delegate but who comes along with the delegation out of interest in the convention, to attend the meetings. The visitor has all the privileges of the delegate except that such a person gets no wood shoe souvenir.

The board of directors of the state organization is well represented, 31 of these being registered Thursday forenoon. There were also 31 representatives of the councils of the P. T. A.

Dr. Theodore Soares, of the University of Chicago, at the opening meeting of the P. T. A. convention in the high school auditorium. "Education is the practice of living," Dr. Soares summed up his address. "It is not merely or principally a preparation for life, as is usually supposed. It is not any child's business to learn anything he can't understand or to learn anything he can't use then and there as a social experience." Dr. Soares ridiculed the idea that there was any virtue in merely committing facts to memory or in learning anything for the sake of learning it. His subject was "Education as a Social Process."

Dr. Soares illustrated his theme with a chapter out of the social life of the Indian whose statue graces the front of the high school auditorium. He described in some detail what happened when an Indian baby was born into the tribe, how it was trained, what problems it met what sort of a life it was born into. The Indian did not, as any school but it received very adequate education for all that—an education that was, probably more adequate for its needs than the white child's education is adequate for its needs, because Indian life was simpler and more primitive. The Indian education was utterly social in its nature, Dr. Soares said. It was always "experiential" and never merely abstract. In the third place it was always interesting. Interesting the pupils because they knew it meant something in their method of meeting life.

And the speaker declared that should be true of the education of today also. It should always be "experiential," "experiential" and interesting. But the education of today is much more complex because life is more complex. Written language has been invented and that has added all the experiences of the race of the past to be learned of today also. It should always be "experiential," "experiential" and interesting. ## FROST DOES MUCH DAMAGE IN OTTAWA

A heavy frost of the past week did great damage to some classes of plant life, including strawberry plants and grapes, according to reports from some grape and strawberry growers in several townships of Ottawa county. The frost was classified as heavy by Meteorologist H. R. Hoyer at the Grand Haven weather bureau office and the mercury was reported at 36 degrees above zero which is by no means a great record low for this season.

C. P. Milham, Ottawa county farm agent, stated Thursday that only the future would disclose whether damage was heavy or not but from his personal observation, he believes that plant life is not far enough advanced for harm to have been done.

Mr. Milham stated that the buds and young shoots were not accustomed to hot weather enough as yet to have robbed them of the hardiness that nature provides them with in order to weather the late cold spells after the first spring days bring them forth. Mr. Milham was not optimistic over the outlook but stated that at a later date, the damage could be better estimated.

At eight o'clock Wednesday night the mercury was at 45 and it went down, fluctuating a degree or two until 6:30 Thursday morning when it hit 45 above. The temperature rose during the night of the high frost following.

Poppy day this year will be Thursday, May 27th. The plan generally followed in other communities by the American Legion Auxiliary is to have a poppy week previous to memorial day. The Holland American Legion Auxiliary, however, remembers with much appreciation last year's success in holding just one Poppy day instead, that it has decided to follow the same plan this year.

As far as is possible the whole city will be canvassed from house to house on this day. The idea is hoped to relieve the citizens of Holland from being approached over and over again. If arrangements are made by each family before Thursday just how many poppies the family requires and how many they wish to sell, it will help to simplify matters.

The Auxiliary would like to see every man, woman and child in Holland wear the poppy this year, from Thursday until the close of Memorial day. In token of their memory of all heroes who have given their lives that we may live in this beautiful free country.

Poppies will be sold at the usual price again this year, namely ten cents each. However, as all money collected for them goes directly for work and relief among ex-soldiers suffering from the ravages of war, any sum in excess of such purpose is gladly received.

After poppy day there will be stations at banks, etc., where those who have missed the opportunity to buy one can still get a poppy to wear. The Auxiliary emphasizes especially this wearing of the poppy as a patriotic gesture of memory but also as a protection against being asked more than once to buy one. Anyone wearing the poppy from Thursday through Monday will receive a most gracious smile from any poppy lady he meets.

Any woman wearing one may expect to be asked to buy one. Please buy one and WEAR IT.

These poppy ladies, by the way, are all members of the American Legion Auxiliary, which means that their unselfishness puts them at this task for this day. They deserve the utmost courtesy and consideration.

J. A. Johnson, chairman of the transportation committee of the P. T. A. convention today issued the following notice:

Citizens of Holland:

We would like the names of many auto owners who will gladly furnish their autos for use in furnishing transportation for delegates at the Parent-Teachers convention, held in our city Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Besides the undersigned, the following live wire men comprise the transportation committee: Abe Cuyper, Dick Boter, Sears McLean, George White, George Volger, H. Houtman, Frank Levesque, telephone any of these gentlemen while day will be most convenient for you to donate your car.

This is a large convention, not too large as nothing is too big for Holland to tackle. It is going to mean a lot of work and a great many auto will be needed, but if we all work we can put it over big and at the same time greatly advertise our wonderful city. We want these delegates to always speak well of Holland. The transportation committee is going to help make this convention a grand success, and we don't mean "MERBIE".

J. A. Johnson, Chairman Trans. Com.

JUDGE CROSS ORDERS DANCE HALL CLOSED

Judge Orrien S. Cross has granted the injunction to close the Lilly of the Valley club which operated a dance hall near West Olive. The place formerly was operated by Edward Stix and his wife, Lena, according to officers, who assert that the place was used for the purpose of selling liquor without permits. The injunction was granted after a hearing on the matter in the vicinity.

CALVIN AUTHORITIES SUSPEND 35 STUDENTS

Activities of two societies at Calvin college, Grand Rapids, that did not meet with the favor of the faculty have resulted in the suspension of six members of the senior class and 29 other students until at least next fall. It was announced Friday noon by Prof. Johannes Broene, acting president of the institution. Some of those suspended students are from Holland.

Prof. Broene stated that the members of the societies, The Rivalry and the Delta Sigma Phi, violated the disciplinary rules of the college, one by holding a meeting after it had been forbidden by the faculty and the other by failing to obtain faculty recognition.

The members of the senior class suspended are Harry P. Koolstra, Theodore J. Peters, Henry Bruggink, John Bruggink, Henry Walknotten and Henry J. Roelofs. John De Groot, of Passaic, N. J., president of the student council, announced after a meeting Friday afternoon, that the council would abide by the decision of the faculty.

The suspension occurred as final examinations were about to start, class sessions having been finished. The council will ask that credit be given the expelled students for the examinations taken. Several of the suspended seniors were in professional courses at the college while others were appointed teaching positions, dependent upon their graduation.

On two occasions the conservation department of the state of Michigan sent a consignment of young Chinese ringnecked pheasants to Holland and these were distributed in different parts of lower Ottawa in wooded places.

That these birds have been produced in this vicinity during the past few years. Many were also brought home in the game bags of the Holland hunters. During the few days of open season on these beautiful birds.

This community is able to get some of the birds started for the game department of the state has been in touch with the Michigan Game and Fish Protective association, and it is stated that the state department has sent Mr. Lievesque ringnecked pheasant eggs with the understanding that members or responsible persons who have a suitable den for hatching should be charged with the incubation.

It is especially stipulated that when the brood is old enough the young pheasants will be turned loose in suitable places.

Mr. Lievesque already has on hand 100 eggs. Anyone interested in the propagation of the game bird can secure a consignment by getting in touch with him.

Mrs. Jacob Slick was found dead in bed at her home at 129 West 15th street Friday. Mrs. Slick was living alone and how long she had been dead is not known. The neighbors became suspicious because she was not seen around the house as usual and so on Friday noon they made an investigation. Getting no response they called the police and the officers tried open a window. The woman seemed to have been dead for some time. Coroner Westrate pronounced it a case of heart failure. The body was removed to Nibbelink-Notter Funeral Home.

Mrs. Slick is survived by three sisters: Mrs. C. W. Mohler of Port Wayne, Ind., Mrs. W. J. McCalla of Toledo, Ohio, and Mrs. Dan W. Raymond of Wauseon, Ohio.

Funeral services were held from the home at Jamestown Tuesday afternoon at 2 for Mrs. James Brandt, 87, prominent resident of Hudsonville, who died Friday. Mrs. Brandt, with her husband, had lived on the same farm in Jamestown township 54 years.

A coroner's jury impaneled by Coroner Westrate and sitting at Holland on Saturday, May 22, inquest into the death of Mrs. Peemeje Roer, 89 of Holland township, returned a verdict of accidental death after a careful inquiry.

Mrs. Roer was killed last Monday, May 17 when struck by a truck driven by G. S. Larader of Grandville. Larader stopped and then went ahead, claiming Mrs. Roer stepped right in front of the truck.

A log cabin, attractively located on the crest of a hill, being constructed opposite the Ernest Behm farm in Grand Haven township. This cabin will serve as the realty office for Fred Pantlind's interests along the lake shore.

The cabin is right near the Trunk Line right of way and has two small trees at either hand. It is very attractive and should cause no little amount of comment among summer travelers along the Mackinaw route.

Holland had a distinguished visitor on Monday, Octavus Roy Cohen, the famous writer about the negroes, spent a large part of the afternoon in this city. With a friend he was traveling through from Chicago to Detroit and had lunch at the Warm Friend Tavern. His friend's business kept him in Holland most of the afternoon and the writer put in the time giving Holland the once-over.

Every reader of the Saturday Evening Post knows Cohen, whose home is in Birmingham, Alabama. He has contributed stories about the negroes for years and has several volumes of stories to his credit.

HOLLAND MEN BUY HARTFORD CANNING CO.

C. A. Corey, manager of the Holland Canning company, and Nick Hoffman, who has been interested in the Boston restaurant in Holland for many years and is also manager of the Island Canning company, have purchased the Hartford Canning company, according to reports.

A dispatch from Grand Rapids states:

"Sale of the Hartford canning plant of the Thomas-Daggett company to C. L. Corey and Nick H. Hoffman of Holland was consummated at a hearing Monday afternoon in the office of Charles B. Blair, referee in bankruptcy, Grand Rapids National bank building. The sale price was $15,000. The property a short time ago was appraised at $25,155. The plant probably will be operated this year."

Mr. Hoffman, when interviewed, stated that Mr. Corey and he had purchased the canning company and that he would go to Hartford immediately to conduct it. He has not fully made up his mind whether he will move his family there.

He stated that because of the adverse weather conditions the Zeeland Canning company would be closed this year, but an early start would be made next January for new contracts for that plant, and both the Zeeland and Hartford plants would run full time next year.

Mr. Corey will remain the manager of the Holland Canning company, visiting Hartford from time to time during this summer while the heating canning season is on.

Mr. Hoffman will not be seen at the Boston restaurant to any extent in the future. While remaining interested, his two sons, Clark Hoffman and Nicholas Hoffman, Jr., will take charge of that business. Arrangements have already been made to have the place remodeled and redecorated, and this work will start the first part of next week.

According to report, another canning company has changed hands in Northern Ottawa, when the sale of the Coopersville canning plant of the company to the Daggett Canning company for $20,000 was confirmed at a hearing Monday forenoon. The purchasing company leased the property from the receiver last year. It was appraised at $57,755. There remains the Grand Rapids plant located at Buchanan ave. and Franklin st., which may be sold in a short time.

William S. Thomas, former head of the Holland Canning company, is living in the city at present.

Under the redistricting act passed by the last legislature, Ottawa county will have only one representative in the Michigan legislature.

It was thought that possibly the constitutionality of the act might be questioned but to date no one has taken any steps to have this brought before the Supreme court.

A qualified voter can bring the matter up by filing a petition nominating a candidate for one of the original districts in Ottawa county.

The county clerk will of course have to refuse to receive the petition for the old district and then the petitioner could apply for a writ of mandamus, which would in due course reach the Supreme court.

In 1914, the law passed in 1913 re-apportioning the districts was held unconstitutional, and as the constitution provides for redistricting only every ten years no action was taken until 1923. In that year the bill failed to pass.

As the legislature of 1923 failed to pass the redistricting act it is a question whether the legislature of 1925 had any right to consider the matter of reapportionment.

It, however, no one raises the question the change will be made and the two districts of Ottawa will be merged into one.

The present representatives for Ottawa county are G. W. Kooyers, of Holland for the 1st district; and Fred F. McEachron of Hudsonville for the 2nd district.

G. W. Kooyers is a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds to succeed Peter J. Rynga who has announced that he will not be a candidate.

Fred F. McEachron will be a candidate for representative for the one district of Ottawa county unless some one has nerve enough to fight the new order of things.

The salary of a Michigan representative is $800 per month of four months' work at Lansing.

A constitutional amendment however will be submitted to the voters in November, 1926, asking that this amount be raised to $1200 for two years' service.

Announcement was made Monday by Supt. D. A. Van Buskirk of the Hastings public schools that Harold C. Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt, formerly of Holland, has been appointed assistant principal of the Hastings high school for the coming year. Mr. Hunt succeeds Lee C. Howard, who resigned.

This announcement comes as a surprise to the people of Hastings as Mr. Hunt had definitely been offered a position in the university high school in Ann Arbor, but rejected it in order to accept the position offered him at Hastings. This appointment comes as a reward for the three years of teaching in the Hastings school during which time he has served as advisor of the Fortnight, honor school newspaper, conducted a class in journalism, acted as president of the Teachers club, took the leading roles in two plays put on by that organization; acted as coach of the tennis team, and has been active in community matters. Mr. Hunt's home is in Grand Rapids at the present time. He was graduated from Holland high school and then the University of Michigan, where he has served as advisor of the student body at Holland.

At Van Duren of the Komforter Kotton Co. was in Kalamazoo on business Tuesday.

HOLLAND MUSIC FOR GRAND HAVEN ELKS DANCE

The Elks ball given at the Barn Saturday night was a complete success with over 700 dancers present. The music was furnished by the Elks band and Herlo Van Duren's orchestra and from Holland and the floor, while slippery for a dance or two, was fine afterward and brought joy to many.

Cars were parked for blocks about the vicinity of the Barn, colored Giants came driving in from Grand Rapids, Holland, Muskegon and Ionia and as well as other nearby places.

COLD STOPS BALL GAME

Frost and cold have been damaging nearly everything around Holland besides fruit, straw hats, porch furniture and so on.

It was too cold to play baseball Saturday, a north wind making sitting on the bleachers with comfort impossible. For that reason manager Tetterton called off the colored Giants game and they will have to wait until the weather comes here for return date.

One of the heaviest frosts of the season came between Saturday and Sunday nights. At 5 o'clock Sunday morning a heavy white frost covered everything and did more damage to fruit and strawberries. Thus far there have been nine frosty nights during the month of May, which fruit men say breaks all records.

Holland received a visit from an Indian chief Monday and although he showed the dignified courtesy native to Indian character in expressing his admiration for this country he was also honest enough to admit that he did not like it here as well as he did in his native country in New Mexico. "Too much water!" was his comment as he stood on the shore of Lake Michigan near Lakewood Farm; "Too much water and no mountains!"

The visitor was Emanuel, Pueblo chief, of New Mexico who came to Holland accompanied by a priest to look for teachers in the Indian schools in New Mexico. He visited the St. Francis school and talked to the children, giving them not only a very instructive but also a very entertaining talk. He had a little drum with him and gave the pupils a demonstration of the Indian dance, playing his accompaniment on the drum, evoking from this crude instrument the weird music that is peculiar to the Indians.

He told the pupils about the difference between this section of his own country, showing them that they have many educational advantages that are not enjoyed by the Indian children in New Mexico and engaging their close attention with stories of conditions in his country with him and gave the pupils a lesson in the Indian language. He said that the chief could not get used to the idea of so much water as he found in Lake Michigan. The chief and the priest had also stood on the shore of Lake Michigan at Chicago and the chief remarked that there he had seen a "great sea" and here again he saw a "great sea," evidently not realizing that they were different views of the same lake.

The priest who accompanied him in New Mexico 15 years ago but it was not until they arrived in Chicago that he found out the Pueblo chief spoke English, their conversation always having been in Spanish.

One of the Christian Reformed churches of this city is to assist in the pageant that is to be staged by the senior class of Hope college. The union of the Central avenue Christian Reformed church, under the direction of Wm. Brouwer, has expressed a willingness to sing in one of the scenes in the pageant.

The society consisting of sixty voices, will sing a Dutch psalm in four-part harmony without accompaniment as the early pioneer Hollanders did in 1847.

This will make realistic a picture that G. Van Schelven paints when he tells the story of the three government engineers who came to the colony to survey for a harbor. A small sailing boat, according to Van Schelven, first struck Point St. Ignace, now Waukegon, then came to the little inlet near Hepp's Pickling company, then the Indian village.

The government surveyors followed a path to the colony on a Sunday morning, but no one was at home. However the engineers heard something they had never heard before. Thru the woods came the voices of the early pioneers singing. Dutch men picking their way thru the underbrush, they came upon the little log cabin nestled in the woods where they found Dr. Van Raalte preaching to his flock. It is this scene that will be depicted at Hope's pageant of 1926 and in which the choral union will take an important part.

While this is going on with the story, these surveyors who came to Holland to survey a harbor were the first surveyors who ever surveyed for a port on the east shore of Lake Michigan, according to Mr. Van Schelven.

Freddie Spurgeon, Kalamazoo, second baseman of the Cleveland Indians, according to a dispatch from that city, was secretly married Monday to Miss Dorothy Heider, Cleveland. The wedding was the culmination of a romance which began here after Spurgeon was drafted from the New Orleans club late in 1924.

Fred is a member of the Holland Furnace basketball squad and a great favorite here. He is going along in great shape for the Indians and will no doubt play here again next winter.

Saugateck high school will graduate 9 students this year. James McVea with an average of 95.17% is valedictorian and Bertal Swanson, whose average is 95.88, is salutatorian. Commencement exercises will be held June 10.

James Dyke of Lansing was in Holland spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyke, West 15th St.

NEW CITIZENS GIVEN FLAGS IN COURT

That the oath of citizenship means something more than mere parrot-like recital of phrases, was impressed upon the minds of the new citizens accepted for naturalization at Friday morning's session of the Ottawa county circuit court. A class of seventeen applicants had been summoned to appear before Judge Cross for examination for citizenship.

Usually the administering of the oath of citizenship to candidates who have successfully passed the ordeal is not marked by particular ceremony. Friday, however, ceremony of rather impressive character was witnessed by those who were in the court room.

As the oath was administered, Leo C. Lillie, Grand Haven attorney, and exalted ruler of Grand Elks, arose with the permission of the court. In a brief address, Lillie impressively outlined the obligations of the citizen to the country to which he had sworn allegiance. He impressed upon the minds of the applicants, the fact that Americanism means something in the lives of the citizens fortunate enough to enjoy citizenship.

As a token of true citizenship and as an reminder of the duties of the American to his country, Mr. Lillie presented each successful applicant with a beautiful silk American flag. Each was urged to keep the flag and that for which it stands constantly in mind.

Those admitted to United States citizenship were: Dirk Wiersma of Holland, former citizens of the Netherlands; Marinus Moget of Holland, former citizen of the Netherlands; Haaselt Turkstra of Holland, former citizen of the Netherlands; Ann Marhauser of Grand Haven township, formerly of Germany; Joseph Bazany of Grand Haven township, formerly of Austria; Johannes C. Van Andel, Holland, formerly of Netherlands; Henry Roelofs, Holland, formerly of Germany and formerly from Nunica, formerly of Netherlands; Martha Nauta of Nunica, formerly of Netherlands.

Of the class of more than a dozen, but nine years admitted. Of the nine, seven were former citizens of the Netherlands, one from Germany and another from Austria. Two of those admitted resided in Nunica, two in Grand Haven township and the balance were from Holland. Naturalization Examiner Cochran of Detroit conducted the examination.

The members of the First Reformed church of Grand Haven are making elaborate preparations for the celebration of the diamond jubilee beginning next Sunday. The church was organized in 1857. This is a well known fact, but the original records were lost when the church burned in 1899. The celebration will continue beginning on May 30 to and including June 2.

The church is now being served by its thirteenth pastor. Three of the former pastors are still living in the city of Grand Haven. They are the Rev. Henry E. Dosker, D. D., Professor of Historical Theology in the Presbyterian Seminary in Louisville, Ky., the Rev. T. W. Mullenberg now of South Holland, Ill., and Rev. Henry Hadmeling of Roseland, Chicago. These three will preach the sermons at the three services on May 30th.

On Monday evening May 31st there is to be a service at eight o'clock p. m., for praise and congratulations and the hanging of portraits of the thirteen pastors of the church. These records were lost when the church burned in 1899.

On Tuesday evening, June 1st, the Rev. and Mrs. G. E. De Jong will be set apart unto their work as missionaries to Africa. They are to sail from New York on the second day of next September, and will be supported in the field by members of this church.

On Wednesday evening June 2, an inspirational meeting is to be addressed by Rev. Wm. Bancroft Hill, D. D., of Vassar college, and president of the General Synod of the Reformed church in America, and by Dr. Edward D. Dimment, president of Hope college.

The first pastor of this church was Rev. Selma Bolks, who was born on April 30, 1814, and died June 16, 1884. He served this church as pastor from 1853 to 1855.

This church has been visited often by fire. Once it burned and the entire business district of Grand Haven was destroyed, and the church building was leveled by flames on two other occasions. The church is located on one of the busiest corners of Grand Haven, directly across from the post office on Washington St. All the living pastors who served that church are graduates of Hope college.

The W. C. T. U. was impressed Friday with the valuable work done in our schools by some of the members of the union and the teachers in scientific temperance instruction. Mrs. H. Van Ark had on display the best posters and to-tal abstinence books made by pupils in their late contest. Two high school girls read their prize essays, "Preparations for Life Work and the Tobacco Habit," Miss Cora Van Lier on the subject, "Evils Before Prohibition." Both were well written and worthy of the $5 prize offered.

Mrs. Boskka who has organized prohibition guards in the grades, gave a demonstration by posters, song and yell, through eight pupils from Horace Mann school. She is also organizing groups in the country schools throughout the county.

Mrs. A. Pieters gave a short report of the district convention at Sand Lake and Mrs. Hinkamp led the devotions. Arrangements were made for a picnic at Pine Lodge on June 11.

Miss Cora Elms Taylor of Saugateck has presented the Congregational church with a painting of a winter scene with the church and hillside in the foreground.

Were Married 45 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Veltman, residing at West 18th St., and Ottawa Avenue, celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary Friday evening in the presence of all their children and ten grandchildren. A sumptuous supper was served and the evening was enjoyably spent in singing, and playing games. Mr. and Mrs. Veltman are both 71 years of age and enjoying good health.

CAR BREAKS DOWN; OWNER IS ARRESTED

At two o'clock Sunday morning Gerrit Oudemool was gathered in by Deputy Sheriffs Egbert Beekman and Arnold Johnson on the charge of possessing and transporting liquor. Oudemool was stopped with his car on the Zealand road near Boone's bridge and he seemed to be under the influence of liquor. A call to Holland brought the officers and the man was taken to the city jail where he was lodged until Monday morning.

He appeared before Justice Brusse, waived examination and was bound over to circuit court. The officers found a gallon of moonshine in the broken down car.

Holland won two seconds and one third in the state music contest at Lansing Friday and although the local musicians did not bring home a first place, they won enough honor for their school and city to satisfy the most exacting. It was the first time Holland ever took part in a state music contest and monster John C. Kendall, state director of music, expressed the opinion that in Friday's contest it would have been an honor to win even 5th place, so keen was the competition. Here are the standings:

Mixed Chorus: Ypsilanti first with 85.6; Holland second with 88.8; Adrian third with 89.1. Boys' Glee club: Ypsilanti first with 85.6; Holland 2nd with 84.3; St. Mary's high school of Saginaw third.

Orchestra: Adrian 1st, St. Joseph second, and Holland third. In this contest the three first teams were so close that there was only a difference of a fraction in the score between them, so that Holland's third place is only a fraction of one per cent lower than Adrian's first.

Moreover, the Adrian orchestra had fifty members and a large number of last years' pupils. The Holland orchestra has not even begun to think of The Adrian and Joseph orchestras practice five times a week on school time, while the Holland orchestra practices only twice a week after school. In view of this fact, the place the Holland orchestra secured is a genuine credit to the local musicians.

The judges were Luther Noydt of the Ypsilanti State Normal, Samuel Robinson, of Olivet College, and Mr. Rindgeburg of Albion college.

At the close of the contest all points of the various schools were totaled up. Ypsilanti received 12 points, St. Joseph and Sacred Heart were tied for second, place with eight points, and Holland and Adrian were tied for third place with seven points.

It was a great contest and the only fly in the ointment for the local pupils was that they did not bring home at least one first. But the record of the Holland pupils is considered a genuine victory by their instructors and by all who are closely in touch with the work of the orchestra. It is worthy of demonstration on the part of the local school as much as is an athletic victory.

Among those to see the musicians off at six o'clock Friday morning was Superintendent E. E. Fell. Mr. Fell was on hand long before six to encourage the pupils and to see to it that everything was done for their comfort on the journey to Lansing.

The Decoration Day preparation meeting held at G. A. R. hall on Thursday evening went on record as favoring that children take part in the doings on May 31st, especially participating in the parade.

John Homfeld was the first to take the stand up, stating that Decoration Day is not complete unless school children are in the parade, and he asked that school authorities be urged to get as many children in line as possible.

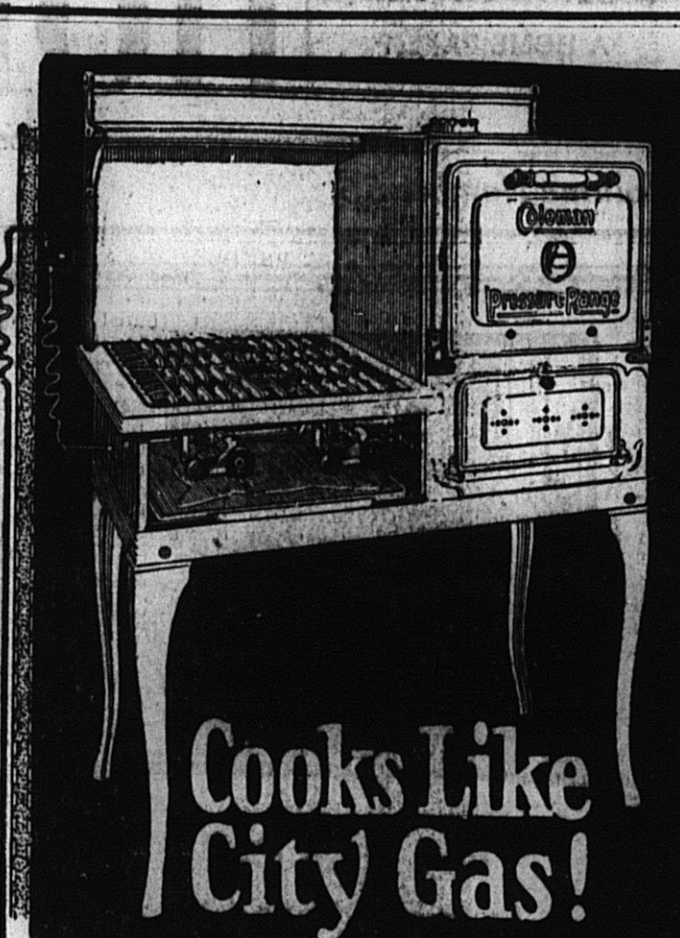

Eugene Goudeau stated that these Decoration days are really for the children. They teach young folks a lesson in patriotism and show that national freedom was only established through sacrifices.

He said that eaching the young early just what Decoration Day stands for is the only way in which to perpetuate the observance of the day at a time when soldiers of all wars shall have responded to the tap.

The public schools of Holland have always co-operated and the showings made have always been favorably commented on. This year it is a different matter. Memorial day will be celebrated on Monday, and many of the teachers from out-of-town will leave for their own homes early on Friday and will be away Saturday, Sunday and Monday and will observe the day with their home folks. No doubt Mr. Fell and Mr. Riemersma will manage to get some of the children in the line of march and these will be taken care of by some teachers who remain here, assisted by the girl scouts.

At a regular meeting of the Rotary club held at Warm Friend Tavern Attorney, Thos. N. Robinson was elected as a delegate to the international convention of Rotarians to be held early in June at Denver, Colorado. J. P. O. De Moriac was named as the alternate delegate. At least 4,000 will attend the gathering and these two local men will represent the only Rotary club in Ottawa county.

The mayor and clerk of Allegan were authorized to enter into contract with an Ann Arbor firm for the preliminary work of a sewage reduction plant.

WORK STARTS TODAY ON DIGGING OF MILE AND A HALF OF SEWERS

Work was begun Monday morning on the job of excavating for the sewers that are needed in the Holland disposal system. Until now the contractors have been at work on the sewer disposal plant itself, but now the digging of the sewers until conditions were right for it. The sewer job has been let and it will be carried on vigorously.

It is a rather big job in the line of sewer digging, at least for Holland, as a mile and a half of sewers are to be dug in a single contract. It is seldom that more than a few blocks of sewers are laid at any one time in Holland, but this time a mile and a half will be dug in succession.

A gang with an excavating machine started work Monday morning and it is expected that in a week or so two more gangs with two more excavating machines will arrive in Holland to go on the same job. Plans have been made to push the work as fast as can possibly be done and by the time the whole system is ready for the sewerage connection it is expected that the sewers will be ready for use. The workmen Monday started on the thirty-inch sewers.

Work on the sewerage disposal plant has been progressing satisfactorily and it is being pushed as fast as possible. Mr. Hill, chief engineer, was not ready to make any predictions as to when the sewerage disposal system will be ready and it is likely that it will not be of any great use during the present season. For that reason the people will have to wait another season before using this part of the lake for bathing purposes, since the water has been declared unsafe by the state department of health. By next season, however, the plant will have been in operation for some months and the chances are that this will be the last season in which the Black Lake water will be polluted.

The Polar Bears of this city are planning to go to the national convention in large numbers. Attempts are being made to secure such a large delegation from here that Holland will make a real showing. The convention is to be held in Milwaukee and hence it is easy for local Polar Bears to get there.

The cradle roll department of the Central Park church Sunday school held an opening day party at the church Thursday afternoon which was a pronounced success in every way. Mesdames H. H. Cook and H. C. Cook were in charge of this new venture. Twenty-five babies were enrolled as charter members of the cradle roll and practically all of them were present with their mothers. A pleasing program was rendered as follows: Devotions and talk on "Babies and Mothers of the Bible," by Rev. F. J. Van Dyke; solo, "Our Cradle Roll," by Miss Donna Cook; talk on the "Cradle Roll Department," by Mrs. D. M. DeGraaf; Trinity Ref. church recitations by Miss Jean Spaulding; closing prayer by Mrs. Van Dyke. Refreshments were served by the Lakeview Circle of Willing Workers Aid society and a good time was enjoyed by all.

The school of the St. Frances de Sales church was the first one to send in its quota of cretonne Christmas bags that are being made by Holland's school children for the U. S. service men in the country's outlying possessions. The Red Cross quota for Ottawa is being made by the children. In September the bags will be filled with Christmas presents for the service men.

She was pleasantly surprised with a beautiful tea set. Those present were: Misses Mildred Brown, Angeline Brummel, Grace Hildebrand, Helen Eiterbeck, Nella Hulst, Mary Meyerling, Arla Schum, Mae Strubbing, Gertrude Strubbing, Sadie Zeep, Louise Brunzell, Sue Streuter, Ida Vander Woude, Eva Amster, Martha Harrington, Mabel Vander Water, Rose Van Anrooy, Mrs. Kuite, Mrs. Foote.

Miss Hulda Nies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Nies, 577 Michigan avenue, has been honored at the Art Institute at Chicago by having her work recommended to be placed in the spring exhibit in the institute. The Creamo base ball club of Battle Creek is a very strong semi-pro club composed of professional and former college baseball players. They are making a trip to this territory on July 3, 4 and 5. They desire a game with the best semi-pro team in this city on one of these dates.

The Creamos have played many of the best semi-pro teams in their territory and have not as yet been defeated. Clarence Greengood and Alta York were united in marriage by Dr. Wm. Masselink at 53 Cherry street Thursday evening. The ceremony was being held. The groom is a graduate of local high school and business college and he is now employed as bookkeeper at the Holland Furnace Co. The bride is a graduate of Saugatuck high school and Holland Business college. They left on a wedding trip Thursday evening to church circles and community. The bride wore a beautiful georgette crepe dress.

Hope's Liberty Bell Arrives

Hope college has been very fortunate in securing a replica of the original Liberty bell of Independence. The bell was loaned to the Hope college by the Philadelphia.

This bell replica is the exact size of the original bell, which now resides behind a glass case in Independence Hall, Philadelphia. Although the bell is not the original, it is made of a composition, it appears to be of real metal and it has all the inscriptions found on the original bell. The bell replica is now in the college chapel but will be displayed later in the First State building.

The shocking news reached Holland Friday that Rev. Moses Kierkooper, well known in this city, has met with a terrible accident at Passaic, New Jersey. It appears that while Mr. Kierkooper stepped out of his automobile near his home a large truck passed by and nearly crushed him.

When he was picked up from the pavement and rushed to a hospital, it was found that his back bone had been crushed and that it was not possible for him to live.

For some years Wm. Kierkooper, a son, was studying at Hope college and was living with his mother at 12 West 16th street, while attending the local institution. Rev. Mr. Kierkooper was doing work for the Reformed church in Northern Michigan at that time but later joined the Berean denomination and had just accepted and moved his family there some time before the accident took place.

At least fifty more boosters have been added to those already enlisted in the services of the senior class of Hope college, which is putting on the pageant of 1926, one of the greatest spectacles ever seen in this city.

Fred Oert, who is head of one of the committees and a local student, came before the people at the G. A. R. hall who were attending for a suitable Decoration day program and then what the graduating class of Hope college is about to do.

Mr. Oert's earnest appeal was immediately considered and those present went on record as giving the pageant of Hope their moral and financial support.

The senior class has put nearly $3,000 into this pageant and judging from the way tickets are selling the campus at Hope college will be well filled on Decoration Day night, and also on June 2 and June 5, when the pageant will be given.

Mr. Oert told the story of the pageant given in three parts: first the "Declaration of Independence," "The Battle of Lexington," "Paul Revere's Ride," "Patrick Henry's 'Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death' speech, and finally winding up with the Declaration of Independence. Following will be the celebration of the birth of Holland, in which Dr. Van Raalte and his little band will figure conspicuously, and all the incidents connected with the up-building of this city will be shown.

The last scene will be the founding of Hope college sixty years ago, when the development of the local institution will be pictured step by step, beginning with the first graduating class. These scenes are combined in one story and will be shown each night of the pageant.

On Friday in the Woman's Club House at Grand Haven a reorganization of the county federation of women's clubs was effected. Delegates from the Coopersville, Coklin, Grand Haven and Holland clubs were present, Zeeland being unable to have a part in the meeting because no delegates from that organization were there. The local club was represented by the president and vice-president, Mrs. J. C. Rhea and Mrs. Sears R. McLean, and four other members, Mrs. George Vande Riet, Mrs. H. Den Herder, Mrs. G. J. Diekema, and Mrs. Clarence A. Lohker.

After a delightful luncheon served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, the meeting was called to order with Mrs. Armstrong of Grand Haven acting as temporary president. The nominating committee, composed of the presidents of the four federated clubs, presented the following names for officers of the county federation and they were duly elected: president, Mrs. G. J. Diekema of Holland; vice-president, Mrs. L. W. Van der Grand Haven; 2nd v. p., Mrs. Robert Brevitz of Coklin; Sec. and Treas., Mrs. John R. Little of Coopersville.

The constitution was read and adopted and it set forth the object of the organization as being to bring into closer cooperation and service the various clubs and organizations of women throughout Ottawa county. Any woman's club in the county having for its purpose liberal and intellectual culture or the general advancement of the love of good music, shall be eligible to membership in the federation.

After the transaction of the business, Mrs. Louise Campbell of the extension department of Michigan State college, spoke of the work of this department in the various districts of Michigan along the various lines of home economics. Mrs. Buchanan, who helps to bring the cultural side of life to the rural woman thru music, spoke briefly of her work. Her aim is to instill the love of good music in the hearts of everyone, beginning with the smallest child. Both these interesting women showed how the state departments of agriculture and home economics work together to promote the welfare and happiness of the women of the state, who are underprivileged because of their remoteness from cultural centers.

Believing in the adage that "in union there is strength," the new organization hopes to further all causes tending to better community life throughout the county, and give its support not only to the work of the M. S. C. extension department but to try especially to help the county nurse in her splendid efforts to safeguard the health of the county's youth.

VICTORY CROWNS EFFORTS FOR CITY MISSION BUILDING; SITE HAS BEEN PURCHASED

Victory was registered today in the long campaign for a building for the city mission in Holland and it was made certain today that the pupils of the mission Sunday school will be able to eat their Thanksgiving dinner in the new building. The money is in the bank and the new building can be erected as soon as the committee can perfect the details of the plans.

The site for the new mission building has been chosen and the ground has been bought. The committee in charge of the affair has purchased the land sort property across from the Warm Front Tavern on Central avenue, back of the First State bank. It is on this property that the new city mission building will be erected as soon as the contract can be let and it is here that the city mission will operate in the future.

The property purchased by the committee is 66 by 70 feet, the 66 feet being on Central avenue. It is large enough to erect a mission building that will serve the needs of this city for years to come, the committee believes, and it is also believed that this is an ideal location for a mission. It is a short distance away from the main street and hence away from the noise of a brick pavement but yet it is near the heart of the business district of Holland, which is a factor to be considered in choosing a site for a city mission.

Many years ago Miss Churchford was in the habit of holding street meetings on the corner of Central and Eighth street, and the new mission building will be located within sight and sound of that corner.

The announcement of the completion of the campaign for a mission building was made today by Con De Pree, who is treasurer of the campaign and whose efforts have been a main factor in success. He has worked at this project earnestly, speaking in favor of it whenever the opportunity offered and gathering in the money from all possible sources.

The nucleus of the $25,000 fund that has been raised was a gift of $10,000 offered by two Holland business men on condition that the people of Holland contribute $15,000. Originally the gift was contingent on raising that sum before the end of 1925, but later the donors extended the time and the plans were changed to such an extent that a quiet campaign for money extending over several months was made possible.

The deed to the new property acquired for the city mission will be vested in a board of trustees and the property will be dedicated by them to mission purposes.

A committee is now at work on carrying out plans for the erection of a suitable building. What form the building will take has not yet been decided but it will be decided soon. Everything will be done as soon as possible to begin building almost immediately and it is expected that by fall the mission building will be ready to be dedicated and to be occupied by the mission.

Cecil Morgan, formerly with the famous Barnum & Bailey circus band plans to spend the summer in Grand Haven and will play with the Grand Haven Elks' band. Mr. Morgan played first clarinet in the Barnum & Bailey band for a number of years and is nationally known as an artist.

Forrest C. Bailey, scoutmaster of Troop 5, the boy scout troop of the Grand Haven Methodist church was advanced to the grade of life scout at the monthly meeting of the Ottawa county court of honor which was held in the county court house. Mr. Bailey has thus set a splendid example for his scouts and those of other troops. Harold Barney, junior assistant scoutmaster of troop 3, was advanced to the grade of star scout which is next below that of life.

The ceremony was quite well attended by both scouts and adults despite the bad weather. A. W. Elliott presided over the session while Mayor N. A. Krammer of Holland, Prof. A. Conrad, Coopersville, Tom Robinson, Holland, Capt. Harbeck, Grand Haven, Fireman Barney, Grand Haven, and Harry Girk, Grand Haven, served on the examining committee.

In the second inning the Stars made two runs and after that they steadily mounted to the score of 21. The final score was 21-1. Batteries: Wolverine Stars: Ed Wolters and Van Zander; Freshman: Vander Hoop, Bouwman and Dykema.

Hope college is scheduled to play St. Mary's Pontiac next Saturday, which likely will be Hope's final intercollegiate game of the season unless a postponed game is played with Ferris institute at Big Rapids. Popen or Albers will do the hurling for Hope at Pontiac. Hope may play a series with the Holland Independents before college closes.

The Hudson-Essex defeated the Holland Shoes by a score of 10 to 8 in the factory league game Monday evening. Brightball was the batting star for the Shoes, securing three hits out of four times at bat. This evening the Guards will play Helz on the 19th street grounds.

Two veterans who have been absent from the local lineup will be seen in action Saturday, against the Grand Rapids team. Babe Wodring will be seen in the sun field position which he covered nobly for the past 10 years. Garry Batema another favorite will cavort in the left garden. With these two and Hick and M. Hoover the outfield is about as good as the players are all hitters. Popen will no doubt be on the mound and Spriggs behind the bat.

The Refrigerator crowd is expecting a victory. Murphy Klondike who held the Black Sox safe while his mates were pounding out more than enough runs to win, will be about to get his revenge in beating Holland and he has had some good afternoons here.

The Independents are heavy so far with the stick and should clout out some extra base hits. Tony will umpire the fracas which will start promptly at 3 o'clock.

The National Guards defeated the Helz company Tuesday night by a score of 15 to 3 in the factory league. There will be no game this evening. On Thursday night the Hudson Essex will play the Federals in the Sixth Street grounds and on Friday night the H. & D. team will play the Helz company on the 19th street diamond. The recreational period was in charge of troop 1, scoutmaster R. Van Hoven. Their stunt was one of the best of its kind ever witnessed by those present. In addition to demonstrating the influence of the scout oath and law it contained a great deal of humor, especially involving good turns and first aid examinations. The stunt was prepared by the boys themselves without any outside help.

Three little children, the oldest a girl of eleven, the second a girl of nine, and the other a little boy of eight, traveled all the way from far-off Poland to Ottawa county without any escort and arrived safely. They are now in the home of their father in Grand Haven,
while the mother is still in Poland.
The family is being brought to America piecemeal. First the father made the long trip to a strange land. When he had earned money enough in a foundry in Grand Haven he sent for the children, because it was impossible to leave them behind while it was possible for the mother to stay. The children arrived in Grand Haven at 6:30 Thursday night. The next step will be to bring the mother to this country and then the family will be reunited.

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, of Holland, representing the Travelers' Aid division of the Red Cross, had a hard time in securing the safe arrival of the three children. Imagine what the feelings of the three helpless children must have been when they arrived in New York without a cent. They could not speak a word of English and they had no conception of the fact that they were still a thousand miles from their father. America to them meant merely America and very probably they expected to see their father as soon as they landed.

And here is where the Red Cross began to function. Officials of the Travelers' Aid department in New York took note of the plight of the Polish children. They wired Mrs.
Van Duren as the representative of the department in this county. Mrs.
Van Duren called up Mrs. McNett, the Red Cross representative in Grand Haven. The father, whose name is Adzrael Browdowski and who lives at 1436 Columbus street, Grand Haven, immediately wired $70 to the Travelers' Aid in New York. This was enough to send the children on to their destination and they arrived Thursday night, according to a telegram received by Mrs. Van Duren.

Without the Travelers' Aid of the Red Cross the plight of the children might easily have been tragic; because of the machinery of that organization all went smoothly.

County Farm Agent C. P. Milham is to turn his attention to sugar beets now that the planting season is on and some demonstrations in proper fertilization are to be a feature on farms in the vicinity of Holland. The value of commercial and home mixed fertilizer will be proven this summer when results are available on the demonstrations now growing.

Sugar beet demonstrations have been planned on the farms of Jerome De Hoop at Vriesland, Herman Bultema at Holland, Wm. Fox and Wm. Hop at Zeeland. These demonstrations are being conducted co-operatively by the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co., nitrate of soda manufacturers and the agricultural agent.

Other demonstrations are being carried on by the following farmers: John Cook, Coopersville, and Fred Graham, Grand Haven, on potatoes; Henry Van Eyck, West
Olive, on rhubarb; Geo. Lampen, Zeeland, on celery; and Fred
Schroeder, Jamestown, on corn.
Meetings will be held on these farms if the demonstrations prove of value.

The quadrennial oratorical contest held for the purpose of awarding a $250 bust of George Washington after Houdini to the best speaker in this contest was held last night. This bust is awarded every four years from a fund donated by the late Dr. J. Ackerman Coles and has been held for a number of years.

The contest last evening was exceptionally close, a difference of only one percent separating the winner of first and second places.
Richard P. Mallory of Peekskill, N.
Y. was awarded first place, while Jay A. Wabeke of Holland was awarded a very close second. Mr.
Mallory delivered an oration on the subject, "America First," while Mr.
Wabeke's oration was entitled
"Topped by the Cross."

Remember Your First Primary School Lesson?

Ten mills make one cent
Ten cents makes one dime
Ten dimes make one dollar

Q So the table goes and so it will go with us all through life.

Q It would be well to keep this table in mind and thru the avenue of thrift save some of those pennies that make a dime and those dimes that make a dollar.

A LESSON IN THRIFT

SOME one said, "Save the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves." Did you ever stop to figure what it would mean to you ten years from now if you saved a penny a day and invested it in a savings account at four per cent compound interest? In ten years a penny saved and invested would amount to $45.00; five cents to $225.00; ten cents to $445.00; twenty-five cents to $1,113.00; fifty cents to $2,227.00.
A dollar a week saved and invested would at the end of ten years amount to $650.00; two dollars, $1,300.00, and five dollars, $3,250.00. Even more important than this accumulation from your penny a day would be the benefit that would accrue to you as a result of learning early the habit of thrift and saving. A great financier said that the first thousand dollars was always the hardest. The time to begin to save is now; though it is only a penny a week, you will be forming a habit that will serve you well in after years.

PROSECUTOR MILES MAKES EXPLANATION

Editor of The News:—
I should appreciate it if you are willing to publish the enclosed statement under the head of communications. Your paper was fair and honorable in looking up the facts before publishing any statement regarding me or my alleged arrest for violation of the motor vehicle law, but it has received wide-spread publicity through the Grand Rapids Press, and no doubt will through the state papers.

Yours truly yours,
FRED T. MILES.

Editor of The Sentinel:—
Last night in the Grand Rapids Press it was prominently stated that I had been arrested for violation of the motor vehicle law, driving at an excessive rate of speed, etc. The statement is absolutely false and whoever communicated it in the beginning could have done so only for malicious reasons.

For anyone to drive a car on a public street in the city at an excessive rate of speed is inexcusable but if I had done so it would have been disgraceful, as I believe the prosecuting attorney ought especially to be careful to obey all the laws.

I neither drive my car at an excessive rate of speed nor do I allow anyone else to do so. It seems to me that if our motor car has given any such statement as this to the public that he owes a duty to me and to the public generally to frankly and promptly correct it, and I ask him through the columns of this paper to set this matter right as far as he can.

Respectfully yours,
FRED T. MILES.

Prosecuting Attorney

Editor of The Sentinel:—
I am employed at Mr. Miles' office. I own my own car, and on Wednesday afternoon I invited Mr. Miles and his son to ride home with me, which they did. On my return Mr. Spruit, the motor cop, stated to me that I had been driving too fast and told me that I should appear in Friday morning at police headquarters. He asked for my name and got the number of my car so that there was not the slightest excuse for his making a statement or anyone gathering the inference that Mr. Miles had either driven the car or owned the car or had any control over it whatever. There is not a person in this city more opposed to speeding and fast driving than the prosecuting attorney.

Yours very truly,
DONALD SEVERANCE

Rogers Tuesday night entered the North Side meat market, owned by Willis Harvey, and the North Side grocery, owned by Mark A. Kall, at Allegan. The thieves got $50 cash from the meat market and from the other place took a quantity of cigars and candy.

The following officers were chosen by the Hope College Men's Glee club for the ensuing year: Kenneth Mook, President; J. John Seeter, Vice-president; Peter Van Es, Secretary; Lester Kuyper, Treasurer.

When the last epidemic was on, a trick dog performer came to a local theater and he announced publicly that an attempt had been made to kill some of his dogs but his watchfulness over their diet saved them.

Starching is not as easy to buy starch and if it was purchased in Holland it would seem that there might be a chance to trace the death of the four dogs to their source. It is safe to say that the dog owners whose animals have been killed would be willing to devote a great deal of energy and money to bring the dog killer to justice.

Copies of the Hope college "Milestone" have appeared. Wm. Maat, editor, and Clyde Geerlings, business manager, and their aides, have put in a strenuous half year compiling this annual.

There are numerous new features about the 1926 Milestone. It is dedicated to the sons and daughters of Hope wherever they may be. This is a new idea. The book is very artistic; the blue cover with the Hope emblem in orange, the high order of the photograph and landscape sections, and the neat car work, make this year's Milestone one of the most beautiful books yet published. The athletic section is worked up very distinctively, having as an addition a picture of last year's tennis team. Then too, this year's Milestone contains the written program of the year to be given next week. Four of Hope's graduates have been honored in the book. The are Rev. L. Hekhuis '13 now in Vellore, India; Rev. H. Boot '00 now in Amoy, China; Rev. D. C. Ruigh '95 now in Nagasaki, Japan; and Rev. John VanEs, '99, of Busrah, Mesopotamia.

The Home Volunteers of Hope college at their regular meeting elected officers for the ensuing year. The present officers gave a review of the progress made during the past year. The officers named are: President, Tom Ten Hoeve; Vice President, Peter De Ruiters; Secretary-Treasurer, Harold Heselink.

The circuit court jury hearing the trial of Manfred Roberts, of Allegan, charged with liquor law violation by two special investigators, Tuesday disagreed. Earl Robb, brother of Manfred, was acquitted of a similar charge Monday. Irwin Decker, also of Allegan, was acquitted on [unclear] charges.

Copies of the Hope college "Milestone" have appeared. Wm. Maat, editor, and Clyde Geerlings, business manager, and their aides, have put in a strenuous half year compiling this annual.

There are numerous new features about the 1926 Milestone. It is dedicated to the sons and daughters of Hope wherever they may be. This is a new idea. The book is very artistic; the blue cover with the Hope emblem in orange, the high order of the photograph and landscape sections, and the neat car work, make this year's Milestone one of the most beautiful books yet published. The athletic section is worked up very distinctively, having as an addition a picture of last year's tennis team. Then too, this year's Milestone contains the written program of the year to be given next week. Four of Hope's graduates have been honored in the book. The are Rev. L. Hekhuis '13 now in Vellore, India; Rev. H. Boot '00 now in Amoy, China; Rev. D. C. Ruigh '95 now in Nagasaki, Japan; and Rev. John VanEs, '99, of Busrah, Mesopotamia.

The Home Volunteers of Hope college at their regular meeting elected officers for the ensuing year. The present officers gave a review of the progress made during the past year. The officers named are: President, Tom Ten Hoeve; Vice President, Peter De Ruiters; Secretary-Treasurer, Harold Heselink.

The circuit court jury hearing the trial of Manfred Roberts, of Allegan, charged with liquor law violation by two special investigators, Tuesday disagreed. Earl Robb, brother of Manfred, was acquitted of a similar charge Monday. Irwin Decker, also of Allegan, was acquitted on [unclear] charges.

For anyone to drive a car on a public street in the city at an excessive rate of speed is inexcusable but if I had done so it would have been disgraceful, as I believe the prosecuting attorney ought especially to be careful to obey all the laws.

I neither drive my car at an excessive rate of speed nor do I allow anyone else to do so. It seems to me that if our motor car has given any such statement as this to the public that he owes a duty to me and to the public generally to frankly and promptly correct it, and I ask him through the columns of this paper to set this matter right as far as he can.

Respectfully yours,

I am employed at Mr. Miles' office. I own my own car, and on Wednesday afternoon I invited Mr. Miles and his son to ride home with me, which they did. On my return Mr. Spruit, the motor cop, stated to me that I had been driving too fast and told me that I should appear in Friday morning at police headquarters. He asked for my name and got the number of my car so that there was not the slightest excuse for his making a statement or anyone gathering the inference that Mr. Miles had either driven the car or owned the car or had any control over it whatever. There is not a person in this city more opposed to speeding and fast driving than the prosecuting attorney.

NEARLY 150 GRAND RAPIDS P-T DELEGATES
IN HOLLAND

Nearly 150 delegates left Grand Rapids for Holland for the convention of the State Parent-Teachers' association which opened here Wednesday.

A special train from Detroit, which stops over at Saginaw and Flint over the Pere Marquette, took on an extra coach at Grand Rapids this noon. Many delegates are driving to the convention.

FOUR HUNDRED
HOME IN FIRE

The home of 400 chicks at Old Home Acres Farm on M-14, three miles south of Grand Haven, was destroyed by fire at shortly after noon Tuesday. Fortunately, the chicks were all out in the open when the fire started, and the owner John Van Dornie does not believe that any of them were burned when their house was destroyed.

The chicken house was a large one and the owner estimates its loss in the neighborhood of $90. Neighbors responding to the call of alarm hurried to the scene and their quick assistance prevented the flames from spreading to a large brooder house and other buildings on the place.

The dog poisoner has resumed operations in Holland and already four valuable animals have fallen victims to the brute who makes a business of killing dogs by administering strychnine to them. Some of these dogs were not only valuable in dollars and cents but also were looked upon by their owners as highly prized friends because they had associated with their masters for many years. The killing of such dogs almost assumes the character of murder in the estimation of the owners of the dogs and it is little wonder that they feel that if they could get their hands on the poisoner something very near to manslaughter would be the result.

Every one in awhile there is an epidemic of dog poisoning in the city and it appears that the Holland dogs are again in for the operations of the person who has a vendetta against these animals. About a year ago several valuable dogs were killed here in identical the same way and it is not at all unreasonable to suppose that the same person who was responsible then is responsible now. Whatever efforts were made at that time to apprehend the culprit proved fruitless and it is just possible that the criminal was made bold by his success and decided to have another go at it this year, confident that he would escape detection. It is extremely rare to have a dog poisoner caught anywhere and so far the many Holland dogs that have been killed in this way remain unavenged.

When the last epidemic was on, a trick dog performer came to a local theater and he announced publicly that an attempt had been made to kill some of his dogs but his watchfulness over their diet saved them.

Starching is not as easy to buy starch and if it was purchased in Holland it would seem that there might be a chance to trace the death of the four dogs to their source. It is safe to say that the dog owners whose animals have been killed would be willing to devote a great deal of energy and money to bring the dog killer to justice.

BARSTOWE IS SENTENCED BY JUDGE CROSS

Friday Prosecutor Miles brought several interesting cases before circuit court for disposition. Perhaps the most interesting case was that of People vs. C. Morgan Barstowe, the stock broker, who embezzled a large amount of money belonging to Miss Dorothy Van Eyck of Holland. Barstowe made a complete confession to the prosecutor. When arraigned he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two and one-half to five years in the reformatory. This is the first time in this kind of case. The law declares that embezzlement by an agent shall be considered the same as larceny or stealing. Barstowe took his sentence without emotion. His wife is divorced from him and he has been paying $5.00 a week alimony.

Lee Caswell, aged 18, of Blenheim township following a couple of girls home from church and when he found them in a lonely spot viciously assaulted one of the girls. The other girl ran home and her father rushed to the scene and secured the young man away. Caswell was then arraigned before Justice McEachron of Hudsonville. He made a complete confession. The court sentenced him to serve three years in the reformatory at Ionia.

Jacob Brower of Grand Haven was implicated with a man named Arnold Felt in the robbery of a number of dwellings in Grand Haven. Among others that were robbed was Mrs. Louis Kamhout, whose husband is now serving time at Jackson for bootlegging. The men confessed. Mr. Brower was sentenced to from two and one-half to five years at Ionia.

George Vordt of Grand Haven was charged with a violation of the liquor law. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail, $100 fine and costs. James Morrison, a colored man, pleaded guilty to a violation of the liquor law. He is a porter on the Grand Trunk Railway. He was sentenced to six months in the reformatory at Ionia and $50 fine and costs.

William Sietsma of Muskegon had had his case pending for a long time. He had possession of liquor and was sentenced to serve ten days in the county jail and put on probation for two years.

Clyde Geelings and Jay Walballe, members of the Fraternal Society at Hope college, have been busy completing a record of the Fraternal society which organized in 1834 at Union college. Dr. Hiram Gebbema, M. D., and Dr. Henry Dale, D. D., were the men who had the society. It is now president of the society. The oldest alumnus who is living is Dr. Edwin Rice, who is 95 years of age. He graduated in 1854 from Union college and has written over 400 books, most of his books being commentaries on the scriptures. His record is now president of the General Electric company. In 1866 the Fraternal society was moved to Hope college and at present its roll numbers 23 active members, with Richard Mallory of New York as president. Each year a grand crowd of alumni return to attend the annual banquet. The 22nd gathering will be held June 14th at the Warm Friends Tavern. Union college authorities have asked for a copy of the records which will be sent to them as soon as they are completed.

Not one year's record is missing and when completed the entire membership will be listed in a card index system.

Louis Wierda was no sooner out of one scrape when gets into another. His doings have been occupying the attention of police often in the past two years.

Some time ago he stabbed young Stykstra in a quarrel over a girl. Later he was implicated in a girl scrape here in Holland and now he is in the county jail charged with taking indecent liberties with a young girl under age living in Spring Lake.

He is just through serving a sentence in the Grand Haven jail for some of his several misdemeanors.

Theodore Tritenbach, of New Brunswick, N. J., at one time a student at Hope college, has been awarded a prize of $25 for being the best preacher and sermon writer in the theological seminary at New Brunswick. Tritenbach graduated from that seminary in May and he has accepted a call to the Reformed church at Oyster Bay, Long Island. Mr. and Mrs. Tritenbach will pay a visit to Holland in June to be the guests of Mrs. Tritenbach's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Klaasen, East 16th street, and then will go to their Long Island charge.

Mrs. Charles Park is very ill at her home at 168 W. 8th St. Atty. Elbert Parsons was in Grand Rapids on business Friday. Mrs. Martha Carol of Holland is spending some time with her sister Mrs. C. E. Wolfinger of Hopkins.

GRADUATING MINISTERS FROM HOLLAND TO BE EXAMINED

Grand Rapids classis of the Reformed church will meet in special session at Central Reformed church in that city, tomorrow afternoon at 1:30. Theological graduates Isaac Scherpenisse and John J. Van Heest of Grand Rapids will be examined for license to preach and a recent seminary graduate and pastor-elect of the Home Acres Reformed church, will be examined for ordination. Arrangements for the public installation of Mr. Brouwer also will be made.

NEW BUILDING IS NARROWEST IN HOLLAND

The narrowest business block in Holland is in process of construction now. It is not often that a business building is erected in this city that is over thirteen times as long as it is wide, but that is the case with the new building being erected by the Colonial Theatre.

It is located south of the theatre, between that building and the Arnold Confectionary store. There is a nine foot space there which has been used by the theatre for bill-board purposes. But the managers of the theatre decided they might as well use the place more directly for revenue.

Hence the wall erect a building nine feet wide and 120 feet long. They will put in a copper front and will expend as much effort on the books of the building as if it were a full size store. The back part of the building will be used as a rest room for the musicians of the theatre between performances, and the front has been leased to Edw. Zwemer, the pop-corn king.

Mrs. E. J. Blokkink, chairman of production of the Red Cross, has received the following communication from Miss Virginia T. James, chapter service department of the Red Cross:

"As you doubtless know, the United States has a considerable number of men stationed in China and with the China squadron of the navy. In order to get their Christmas bags to them by the 25th of December, it will be necessary to ship them from San Francisco on a transport leaving the 20th of August. Would Ottawa County Chapter like to be among those who are putting forth a little extra effort in order to have these bags prepared and shipped to San Francisco by that date?"

A Parent-Teachers meeting of the Christian schools was held May 20 in the Christian high school building. The meeting was opened with prayer by the president after an inspirational song service and music by the high school band. One of the number of the program was a talk on birds by Miss Bosma, who urged the parents to encourage their children in the study and care of them. Miss Koertge, city nurse, interested the audience by giving health hints regarding the care of children. The audience also enjoyed a few numbers given by the Christian High Glee club. Rev. Mr. Essenburg of Grand Rapids gave a talk in which he made clear that the fear of the Lord is most essential for complete education. A word of farewell was spoken to the teachers who will leave in the near future.

The manager of the Colonial theatre has been appointed one of the "Motion Picture Minute Men of 1926" to present in the near future, "Lest We Forget," a thrilling picture of the dramatic episodes of the days of '76, by Mr. D. W. Griffith, master historical dramatist, of the screen, celebrating 150 years of American Independence and making it possible in this glowing message to all to participate in the great sesqui-centennial international exposition.

"Lest We Forget" is a colorful dramatic representation of the stirring events of the victorious struggle of the American colonists for national freedom. Starting with the night vigil of Paul Revere and his eventful ride and concluding with the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, there is shown in rapid succession the important intervening episodes which led to the victorious finale of the colonists' fight for freedom.

The presentation here of "Lest We Forget" should be the occasion of a rousing rally as a 1926 community tribute to the spirit of 1776.

The Muskegon county road commission Saturday rejected all bids submitted for the paving of the Fruitport road extending from the village to the Ottawa county line. New bids are to be received, June 2. No explanation was made, other than that the commission believe it would obtain a better offer.

The low bid was submitted by Marman & Tabor, of Grand Rapids and asked $24,424.00 for the work. Cline & Boelens of Spring Lake submitted the second low bid of $24,351.95.

The Ottawa county road commission has awarded a contract to John R. Eddeleman of Muskegon for the construction of the paved highway from the Ottawa county line to the Spring Lake pavement. The highway will connect up with the Muskegon project.

Muskegon county and Fruitport village are dividing the cost of the pavement.

The fortieth anniversary of the founding of Fifth Reformed church of Grand Rapids which was organized Jan. 28, 1886, will be celebrated at the present church Wednesday afternoon and evening with appropriate ceremonies and addresses. Among the speakers will be Prof. J. E. Welmers of Hope college and Prof. S. C. Nettinga of the Western seminary.

START MADE ON MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

Considerable interest was taken in the preparations for Memorial day, judging from the number who gathered at the request of Mayor Kammeraad to make preparations for the event on Monday, May 31. The mayor was named as the presiding officer at the meeting, and B. A. Mulder, acted as secretary.

Mr. Kammeraad told what the call was for, namely arranging for a suitable program for Decoration day, as has been the custom in Holland for nearly a half century. G. A. R. Post some time ago, thru Commander G. Van Schelven, secured Rev. J. C. DeVinney who will preach the memorial sermon at the M. E. church on Sunday morning, May 30. Dr. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of Hope church, was selected as speaker of the day at the exercises in Centennial park.

A few days ago the first graduating class of Hope college in the year of 1926 visited different business places in the city in order to see what advancement had been made since their departure. Nothing could be more natural and fitting than that a visit should also be made to the office of Gerrit Van Schelven, a man who had a great deal to do with the planning and the upbuilding of the city of Holland. Therefore the class of '26 had a real visit with Holland's historian who had a great many interesting facts to relate at his office in the city hall.

A great many of the incidents told were very humorous indeed, but could not very well be printed. Anyway, Judge Van Schelven re-organized each member of the first class to graduate from Hope and "Dr. Van Raalte" himself greatly amused the justice.

Justice Van Schelven said that he was one of the town boys in those early days that everybody in town knew all the students and all the students (eight in the graduating class) knew all the townspeople. Of course everything in town was of the old colonial type and education was of a more primitive nature. Young people today cannot realize the conditions in 1866. Instead of the broad expanse of open fields with a few clumps of trees as we see the country today, there were few open fields cleared here and there in the midst of the expanse of forest.

The students helped clear the ground for the college campus and then put in many days in helping to build the early buildings of Hope college.

"It took moral courage to be a student in those early days," said Justice Van Schelven. Some rivalry existed between students and city boys in the old days also, the nature of which can best be heard from the Justice himself. The boys were not asleep in the early days at any rate.

Justice Van Schelven was high in his praises of the achievements and successes of the members of Hope's first graduating class. Each one made his mark and the name of each was venerated long after the rivalry of student days was forgotten.

Rev. Martin R. De Haan, pastor of Calvary Reformed church, in Grand Rapids will address Men's Community League of Immanuel Reformed church Monday night. His subject will be "A Man's Talk to Men." The league this year will devote its financial efforts to raising funds for the new Hope Memorial chapel to be erected at Hope College, Holland.

Miss Charlotte Karol and Mr. Cyrus Vander Luyver motored to Grand Rapids Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Van Dyk of Central Park were Grand Rapids visitors Thursday.

When the Word Is As Good As a Bond

Happy should be the merchant whose word is regarded by the public to be as good as his bond.

Although his printed advertisement may be but a promise, it is a valid promise because the public has learned that his deeds speak louder than his words.

Your experience with us--if it has been long enough to test us thoroughly--has proved that the promises made in our advertisements are never flippant and thoughtlessly made.

We are glad that Truth has become the dominant force in advertising. This is helpful alike to merchant and his customers.

It affords a common ground for mutual understanding and turns shopping from uncertainty into an experience of trust and satisfaction.
