Tulip Time Has Come and Gone; Great Success

THAN QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS IN HOLLAND

Tulip Time is a wonderful thing for this city even from an aesthetic viewpoint. We can say "Holland beautiful" in May time because Holland is beautiful and its beauty is augmented by the lanes and beds and profusion of color that Tulip Time brings. Holland does not commercialize the tulip festival but commercialization enters in spite of the efforts, although the city pays not a cent for advertising. Newspapers throughout the nation consider our festival so unique that thousands of them as well as the liberal moving picture industry have given this city publicity that could not be gotten in any other way. The local newspapers at no time have endeavored to put on special advertising stunts to draw customers. They have gone to the length, however, of devoting practically their entire issues to Tulip Time publicity.

Forgetting all about the commercial end, all of Holland has fallen in with those plans. But in spite of these precautions 450,000 folks who visited Holland during these ten days spent some money in Holland during their stay, for they must eat, sleep, buy gasoline and undoubtedly many buy merchandise. Any figure as to attendance is only an estimate and naturally cannot be accurate, but nevertheless is not far from the mark. The checking on the different highways of the number of automobiles, generally five persons to a car, the comparisons in attendance of concessions between last year and this year and many other methods have aided Mr. Connelly in drawing up some sort of compilation of the number of visitors. In 1934 the number was 350,000; this year 450,000 during the festival. Therefore, it is a conservative estimate that more than a quarter of a million dollars was left in this city during the tulip festival and we have every reason to believe that it was considerably more. Deposits in local banks were materially increased.

Some merchants were handicapped in their business operations while parades filled the streets, but they have been good sports and have taken this as a matter of course. The festival wouldn't be complete without parades and undoubtedly the money left in Holland will be pretty well distributed through the local channels of trade directly or indirectly.

A material increase was also shown in the manufacturer's building where last year the visitors numbered 33,700; this year 39,716. At the Dutch Village, those who paid admission numbered 22,201, while the number visiting the flower show held at the Armory the year before was 4,700. This year those who visited the Dutch gardens and other features at the Woman's Literary club numbered 3,165 also a material gain over the year before. These last three figures are authentic. However, the figures are based on possibilities, for an exact figure would be impossible.

The falling off of the last Sunday attendance in a measure was due to the fact that there was such a jam that visitors could scarcely leave their cars and stayed in line and in that way traveled over the tulip lanes. Getting out of line would have been just "too bad." At future festivals provisions will undoubtedly be made to cope with such a tremendous motored crowd. It was stated that from the north the solid line reached from West Olive to Holland and it took hours to come to the city. A large influx seeped into the city from highways and byways, motorists having left the trunk lines which were jammed, thus going over less frequented dirt roadways. Anyway, the crowd all week was enormous, but Saturday and Sunday was entirely unprecedented and unthought of by the committee in charge. Saturday the estimate of the crowd during the band tournament and banner parade was not less than 100,000.

In spite of this tremendous amount of traffic, there were no serious accidents. A few cars locked bumpers and similar minor accidents, but barring these there were no mishaps.

The many thousands who viewed the parade of the bands, interspersed by Tulip Time street scrubbers, tiny tots in vehicles all dolled up for the occasion—augmented by several beautiful floats, felt well repaid for their standing in line for hours. As is usually the case, the sidelines of the line of march were filled with sightseers for hours before the parade began. Windows of all downtown buildings were also filled with spectators, and roofs of buildings were crowded with young and old in fact every available spot was filled.

Bands in line numbered fourteen with 776 musicians taking part. A feature of the band review at Riverview park was the massed band program with Director Glenn Cliffe Bainum, director of the Northwestern university band, and judge of the contest, leading the large group of musicians in "Semper Fidelis." H. Gardner Shuler of Copernicus Junior High School, Hamtramck, leading in the National Emblem march, and Eugene Heister directing the U. S. Field Artillery march. There were 41 brass horns alone in the presentation.

Prizes in the band review were awarded by Arthur W. Wrieden, president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, after a brief introductory speech honoring Eugene F. Heister, director of the Holland High school band, as the man credited with the success attending the finale of the festival.

Kalamazoo High school was awarded first prize of $100 and a silver cup in class A. This is the third consecutive time Kalamazoo placed first in these band contests. Union High school of Grand Rapids

Tulip Notes

Nelis farm on Lakewood boulevard presents the most attractive sight in this vicinity with more than 1,000,000 Dutch tulips rounding into full bloom. The field represents some 400 varieties in varied beautiful colors. Some tulips are as large as peonies.—Grand Rapids Press.

The rock fountain in the center of Centennial park began sprinkling most beautifully Monday morning the day after the "Tulip Festival." Wear on, Jan?

R. Don Matheson, president of the First State bank announced that Holland's tulips were at their best and would continue to be fine for at least ten days more. Mr. Matheson gave the broadcast over legions through the Union Bank of Michigan who gave up their allotted time in favor of the First State bank of Holland and incidentally the city of Holland. The Tulip Time committee thanks Mr. Matheson.

Mrs. John Telling, general chairman of the Tulip Time committee, before leaving for Washington with a party of local friends in order to get a little rest thanked all those who assisted in making this Tulip Festival a great success. She includes all personnel, civic organizations, musical organizations, all schools, public and denominational, and others from Holland, and its environs who wholeheartedly supported the project. Mrs. Telling and party will return from this eastern trip within a fortnight.

Holland can look with just pride on its police force. During the Tulip Festival Chief Van Ry placed the regulation of traffic directly on the shoulders of Ben Kalkman and he was held responsible. Officer Kalkman and the special officers under his command did a fine job since not an accident occurred with the exception of a few locked bumpers, etc. The traffic, too, was tremendous, in fact it was overwhelming, but the police and other agencies who volunteered to serve all the praise that can be given. It was a thorough job and there is credit enough for all.

"Your Tulip Time festival is getting more popular every year in Detroit," said Harry Hollmann, Detroit radio announcer and baseball star, who umpired the "Longbeards" and the "Flying Dutchmen" game. "Only this morning I talked with a group of Detroit business men who are planning to come down with a party of seven or eight couples." The game in question resulted in a 6 to 1 victory for Holland.

A "bid" to see Holland's tulips was extended Metropolitan clubs of five cities through delegations from Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Hamtramck and Detroit, who were represented at the Kalamazoo meet. William Sietke, Edwin De Flamingh, Peter Bontekoe and Sam Flamingh represented the Holland organization. Eight members from Zeeland were present. Well, there are plenty of tulips left and to spare.

The West End Yacht club softball team scored a 16 to 6 victory over the Escanaba squad at Kollen park Thursday. Wayne Blake and Willis De Neff formed the battery for the winners, while Moe and Regal were the battery for the Escanaba crew. It's an annual series, the next game to be played when the coast guard cutter comes back next "Tulip Time."

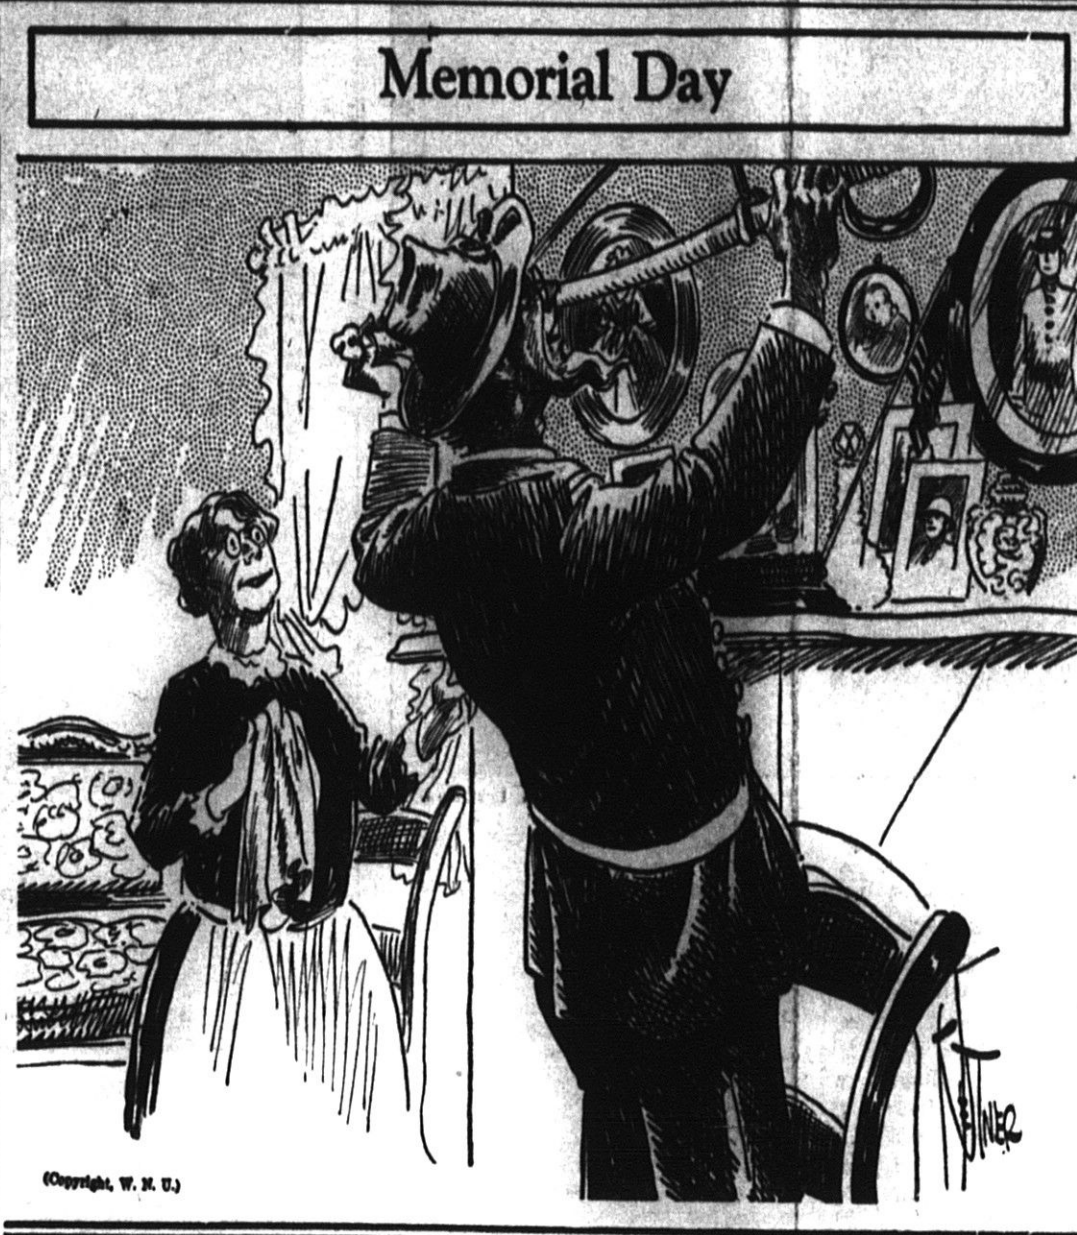

The envoy has come and has gone. He said he knew the way to Holland, Michigan, and surely will be back at some future day. He was here one night and nearly two days, which in itself is unusual for a minister with so many diplomatic and social obligations. The trip from and to Washington will make the entire stay about five days altogether, but he stated repeatedly that he enjoyed every minute of it and that Holland's hospitality was unsurpassed. Johnker H. M. van Haerlem de With before leaving for the east charged President Wicher to impart this same message to Hope faculty and students.

The entire court house staff was here for Saturday's "Big Tulip Day." Miss Anna Van Horssen of the county clerk's office looked as bright as a tulip. Nothing very judge-like in the appearance of Cora Vande Water. She was happy and all smiles because of the big success of the Tulip Festival. Others who came were Treasurer John Den Herder, Register Frank Botte, Clerk William Wilds, Ed Soule, circuit court commissioner, Drain Commissioner Van Wieren, and others.

The influx of tourists in Saugatuck last week-end taxed hotel and restaurant facilities and brought the largest May crowd in history to the Big Pavilion, according to E. E. Weed, manager. A great deal of this is attributed to Holland's Tulip Festival and in appreciation the Chamber of Commerce there, together with the Saugatuck council, sent Billy Connelly of Holland $50 for the local Chamber of Commerce. Real neighbors, we say.

Commander Charles Ash states at the time of going to press that 21 bands had promised they were coming to Holland Saturday, and even more are expected.

Holland High school defeated Grand Haven in a tennis match, 2 to 2, here this afternoon by taking two singles and splitting even in doubles matches.

ON HAMILTON TRESTLE
WHEN FLIER APPROACHES

Three fair maidens of Hamilton didn't feel so fair after their experience on Sunday which was terrifying, indeed. They were a little late for church services so the three young ladies decided a short cut to the meeting place and chose the high railroad trestle crossing Rabbit river above the dam. When they were in the middle of the bridge they suddenly heard behind them the shriek of a locomotive whistle, which proved to be a flier from Chicago filled with Tulip Time visitors for Holland. The ladies kept their heads and with flying skirts and hair awry they made all possible speed to cross the other end in order to beat out the train. This they did by seconds and as they stepped to safety the swirl of the passing train made them realize that it was one of these hair-breadth escapes you often see in the movies, only this was real. The girls further showed that they were made of the right stuff by going to church and taking part in the services. For certain reasons we are omitting the names of the young ladies, but the story is absolutely authentic.

Seven members of Hope college faculty, assisted by several students from the music department, have participated in assembly programs in about 40 high schools in western Michigan in the last two months. Each assembly was featured with musical numbers, followed by a brief talk to the seniors on the opportunities offered by Hope for higher education.

The Booster clubs of the Federal school are sponsoring a carnival to be held tonight at 7:30 in the school and which will be given by the Boy Scouts of Troop 2.

The case of Henry Weller vs. James Michelsen, George Den Uyl and Benjamin Speet of Holland, Judge Fred T. Miles Thursday had under advisement a motion to dismiss the case.

Police declared Thursday that a heavy penalty will be placed upon anyone cutting or destroying the tulips in any of the city-owned beds or lanes.

NOT BLUE EAGLE MINUS WINGS

Look! Who have we here? No, this is not a cartoon from Washington where the lawmakers are bruising up the N.R.A. in terrible shape. Furthermore, this is not the Blue Eagle minus its wings, but a replica of a Dutch subject from the provinces of The Netherlands. This subject marched in every parade last week. The News bets no one can guess who this stern-looking subject is and since we have discovered him we will keep the secret no longer. This gentleman was born in Holland, not across the ocean, but this little city. He has some pedigree, he studied hard in our public schools and graduated, then he went to Hope college

HOPE AWARDS WILL BE GIVEN AT LAST CHAPEL

Hope college faculty has made a change in the senior commencement program for June 19 so that the numerous prizes and medals annually awarded will be presented at the final chapel service June 14. The commencement program will cover conferring of degrees, musical numbers and class orations. Speakers will be Ruth Verhey, Dore P. Cuperly, Reinhardt Vanduyke, Marc Brouwer and Margaret C. Dregman, valedictorian.

The "Y" building at Jamestown was filled to its capacity last night when the students of the local school presented their annual spring concert. The program was as follows: Group of songs by the first, second and third grades; numbers by the instrumental class; accordions solos by Ethel Brandt; group of songs by the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades; selections by the school orchestra; saxophone quartet by Jane and Evelyn Reuse, Muriel Hall and Florence Oldebeek (fourth and fifth graders); songs by the eighth, ninth and tenth grades. The program was brought to a close by a group of snappy selections by the Jamestown-Hudsonville combined school band. Both the vocal and instrumental work is under the direction of Bert Brandt of Holland.

At the student election in Hope college Thursday, Calvin Vander Werf was elected editor of the Anchor, the Hope college paper.

In the case of Henry Weller vs. James Michelsen, George Den Uyl and Benjamin Speet of Holland, Judge Fred T. Miles Thursday had under advisement a motion to dismiss the case.

EXCHANGE CLUB'S GUEST
SPEAKER TELLS WORTH OF HOPE COLLEGE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS

The Holland Exchange club held its regular biweekly meeting on Wednesday, May 22, at the Tavern. The program was featured as a Hope College program since the speaker and the music were furnished by the college. Prof. Garrett Vander Borgh, principal of the college High school and instructor in education in the college, gave a very instructive and pleasing talk about the college while the college boys' glee club sang two Negro spirituals, "Bones Come a Knitting" and "I've Got Shoes."

These songs were very well rendered and pleased the audience. Our Chamber of Commerce secretary, Mr. Bill Connelly, complimented the boys and told them they might sing over station WFT as soon as this is established permanently in Holland. We all know how efficiently this station broadcast during Tulip Week.

The club was very happy to have a former honored member and president, Dr. John E. Kuizenga, present at this meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Kuizenga were able to come to Holland last Friday from Princeton, New Jersey, in time to enjoy our Tulip Week, especially the Saturday parade. He said that Holland's tulip week is known over a large part of the country with people well informed as to the actual condition of the flowers. Vice President Jacob Fries, presiding at the meeting, called on "Bill" Connelly for a resume of Tulip Week activities. Certainly all of us will give Bill much credit for his zealous and effective handling of the many activities connected with the carrying out of such a big program. The club expressed its sincere appreciation of our secretary's work and also of the unusually fine work done by Gene Heister in getting the band parade for Saturday. Gene gave his autobiography and commented on his satisfaction in his work here in Holland. We can assure him it is appreciated by the city.

Mr. Vander Borgh, able head of Hope High, presented some very interesting and convincing figures as to the size of the college from a business standpoint. The buildings and grounds owned by the college have a present valuation of nearly $1,100,000 and its endowment is $850,000, thus amounting to a business investment of nearly $2,000,000. Besides, as he said, the college has invested in local interests more than $300,000, showing its faith in Holland's industries. With a faculty of 29 members and several other people connected in secretarial and janitorial work with Hope college, it supplies work and support to a goodly number of people.

Also in its academic record and standing and the prestige of her graduates, the speaker claimed Hope ranked high. Beginning 84 years ago through the untiring efforts of Dr. Albertus Van Raalte, Hope has trained men and women not only for effective citizenship and professional success but has tried to give a positive Christian interpretation and inspiration through all the courses offered. Her graduates now number around 1,900 and are found all over this world and in all professions.

At the next regular meeting the annual election of officers for the ensuing year from July 1 to June 30 will be held. There are to be no nominations by an appointed committee, but the elections will be made as democratic as possible. The present membership is 65 and is slowly increasing in number. About a dozen members and wives will enjoy the summer cruise on the steamer South American in connection with the annual convention and summer frolic. C. Wood and Joe Geerds will be the delegates.

Mrs. Marius Mulder is in Holland hospital where she underwent a serious operation, but is now doing nicely.

Holland Woman Makes Strange Confession

SHERIFF B. ROSEMA LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR MRS.
VAN HEKKEN'S UN-USUAL DECLARATION

In this column the Holland City News gives the strange confession of Mrs. Tena Van Hekken, 32 years old, living in the old Vander Haar woods just east of the city on the old road to Zeeland. The News has been aware for more than a month that there were some strange actions taking place at the Van Hekken home. Reports kept coming into the office that telephone calls, mostly threatening, had been received, and that several notes had been reported delivered at night and by daylight at that home, and that both a man and a woman seemed to be taking part in this nefarious work, all with dire threats attached.

It seemed strange that with this common knowledge nobody saw anyone suspicious prowling about nor did police apprehend anybody even though Deputy Sheriff Tony Groeneveld and Special Deputy Tony Stienfort were vigilant in guarding the place night and day. It surely seemed to be an unusual case where notes seemed to be deposited as if through thin air. The climax came when several fires were discovered in the Van Hekken home by the Holland fire department and Mrs. Van Hekken stated when rescued that a man who said not a word had captured her, dragged her down into the basement, tied her up, and then set fire to several places in the home.

At first the police officers were inclined to believe her story. The husband was quizzed by Deputy State Fire Marshal Mehrrens, as were the neighbors, and no one had actually seen anyone near the home. Sheriff Rosema and Fire Marshal Mehrrens began to see the light and they became more and more convinced that it was an inside job. The last word came in the form of questioning by the sheriff, the fire marshal and local sheriff's deputies, and both Mr. and Mrs. Van Hekken were taken to Grand Haven, but Mr. Van Hekken was discharged since there was no evidence against him. Mrs. Van Hekken, however, was taken care of in the sheriff's home.

Sheriff Ben Rosema then had Mrs. Van Hekken repeat the entire story and was often by her before. In her last story taken in shorthand by Prosecutor Dethmer's stenographer there were a few contradictions when compared with former stories told. The first story stated that a woman was implicated and phoned. The second story eliminated the woman part and she also denied that there was a phone call during the time she was tied up. Anyway after the statement was written, Sheriff Ben Rosema, who was present with his wife and son, Maurice Rosema, had Mrs. Van Hekken read her story as it was typewritten. She proceeded to read and when about half through faintly dead away, but after being resuscitated and allowed to rest for an hour or more, she was asked to read further, and if correct to sign the document. She refused to sign further and refused to sign, according to the sheriff. She said, however, that she could bear the strain no longer and would make a full statement, relative to the whole affair, and the confession as the Holland City News received it from the sheriff was the result.

She became hysterical after the confession and was given hypodermics by a physician. She is a woman of medium build, has light brown bobbed hair and deep, dark circles appeared under her eyes yesterday as she has apparently been worn out with the whole affair and the continued questioning by the officers.

John Van Hekken, 35, her husband, was released from implication in the purported confession. The couple had been questioned by the sheriff and Fred Mehrrens, deputy state fire marshal, for 36 hours before the confession was obtained.

On the day of the fire some neighbors living nearby were attracted to the Van Hekken home by cries for help from the burning house. They succeeded in pulling Mrs. Van Hekken from the basement window that she had broken so she could use the glass to cut the ropes, which she said, had been bound around her by a strange man who had dragged her down the basement stairs and shut her in the coal bin and then set fire to the house.

Six or seven anonymous notes were given to the officers which, she stated, had been left at the house for a month previous, warning her to leave the home or she would probably be killed.

These notes were sent to a writing expert in Detroit, who reported they had not been written by Mrs. Van Hekken. Later other notes and the woman's writing were expertly identified by a state expert at Lansing, as written by the same person, since the sheriff had developed a scheme that she rewrite the notes left handed, for in this manner the writing could not be disguised. According to the sheriff the woman did this very reluctantly at first, and the experts at Lansing stated that the notes supposedly left at the house and the notes written left handed by Mrs. Van Hekken were written by the same person.

Anyway the confession follows of a very unusual case. Undoubtedly the woman is very ill and has been for some years. She was nearly a physical wreck while at the jail, where she is still lodged in default of $2,500 bail set by Justice Paul Behms of Grand Haven where she waived examination and court was for trial.

The confession follows:

Being informed of my constitutional rights, I hereby make the following statement to Sheriff Ben

OFFICIAL MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

On page one of section two this issue will be found the official Memorial Day program for next week, Thursday. There will be found the committees, exercises in Centennial park and Pilgrim Home cemeteries. Also the streets on which the line of march is to form and to take after formation has taken place. It is to be a large spectacle with more bands than ever before and more people in town. It seems that Tulip Time and the soldiers' celebration over the last two weeks have made band organizations anxious to play. Three more than usual will be found in the lineup on Decoration Day. Memorial Sunday will be celebrated in Fourth Reformed church with Rev. Henry Van Dyke officiating. See the program complete in section two. In this program will also be found a compilation of figures giving the soldier dead of all wars who now rest in Pilgrim Home and Fairlawn cemeteries.

A NEW MEMORIAL DAY COMMITTEE

At the Decoration Day committee meeting attended by a large number of a new standing committee was appointed to look after the securing of the speaker of the day and the church in which pre-Memorial Day services will be held on the Sunday before Decoration Day. This committee will not act this year since this part has been taken care of for 1935. The new committee consists of Mayor Bosch, Mrs. Chester Vermeulen, former Mayor E. P. Stephan, Mrs. John F. Sundin, Charles Ash, Al Van Lente and M. Vande Water.

Edward Zuidema, 63, farmer and member of the Christian Reformed church, died at his home in Bauer. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Floyd of Grand Rapids and Earl at home, and two daughters, Mrs. Henry Evers of Grandville and Mrs. Sarah Balla of Grand Rapids. Funeral services will be held Friday at 1:30 at the home and at 2 o'clock at Bauer Christian Reformed church.

Final plans were completed today for the meeting of the Western Michigan Tourist and Resort association at the Warm Friend Tavern Tuesday. Speeches by Carroll F. Sweet of Grand Rapids, former president of the association; Hugh Gray, secretary-treasurer, and Frank Blakely, field representative, will feature the dinner meeting at 6:30.

The trial for Clifford De Free of Zeeland has been set for June 5. He pleaded not guilty before Justice Elbert Parsons on a charge of reckless driving.

John Molenaar of Holland pleaded not guilty on a drunk charge in court of Justice Elbert Parsons Thursday. His trial was set for June 5.

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY TO BE CELEBRATED SUN.

Zutphen Christian Reformed church Sunday will celebrate the fifty-fifth anniversary of its founding. The church nestles in the hills about eight miles east of Zeeland.

The structure was erected three years after the World war, as the original building was destroyed by fire. It has a seating capacity of about 350 persons. It now boasts of more than 80 families on the church rolls. The church is free from debt and improvements are being planned for the parsonage and the church grounds. Rev. Simon Vroom is pastor.

A program in commemoration of founding will be held by the members of the church under direction of the Young Peoples society Sunday evening.

Jamin H. Rosema of Ottawa county, Michigan.

I know and am informed that any statement that I make may be used against me and that I make this statement without any threats or promises from anyone.

My name is Mrs. Tena Van Hekken. I am thirty-two (32) years old and I live in the township of Holland with my husband, who is thirty-five (35) years of age and whose name is John Van Hekken.

"On May 9, 1935, I tried to take my own life. I first started fires in the house. Then I tried to hang myself in the coal bin. I couldn't do that so I tied myself up to try and smother myself in the smoke. When I was tied up and the smoke began to pour in I got the window out and cut the ropes loose again and I started to cry for help because I was a coward and I did not dare go any further."

"I have been sick for nine or ten years and have always been a burden to my husband. (Editor's note: The confession is given full with the exception of a paragraph at this juncture which has to do with delicate family matters which the News does not feel called upon to print. It shows the self-sacrifice of a woman who has great regard for her husband.)

"My sickness came back after I had cleaned the two bedrooms. I tried to burn the house down and kill myself so that he could get the money for the house and furniture and start life anew without me."

"The threatening notes were all written by myself. I did this so my husband would not think that I had killed myself."

"I planned this all myself. I never talked it over with my husband and he is entirely innocent and knows nothing about the fire or threatening notes. He knew nothing about the plans before the fire or after it."

Signed, Mrs. Tena Van Hekken. Witnessed: Mrs. Ben Rosema, F. M. Mehrrens, Benjamin H. Rosema. Sworn and subscribed before me this 21st day of May, 1935. MAURICE ROSEMA, Notary Public. December 30, 1935.

Prominent Holland "Tulip Time" Lady Guest Attends Social Function at Home of Bernard P. Donnelly

Mrs. John Venema, wife of The Netherlands consul general at Chicago, left; Mrs. Henry Beets and Mrs. Jacob Steketee of Grand Rapids, were among the distinguished guests at the Mary Catherine guild tulip time tea held Wednesday in Mrs. Bernard P. Donnelly's home in Holland. Mrs. Venema was a member of the party of the Dutch envoy and Mrs. Beets and Mrs. Steketee joined the group on the arrival here, accompanying the members to Holland and remaining for the day's festivities.

Mrs. Julius A. Ziesse presided at the tea tables at the Tulip Time tea given by Mary Catherine guild in the home of Mrs. Bernard P. Donnelly of Holland on Wednesday afternoon.

One of the outstanding social events in Holland during Tulip Time was a tea given by Mary Kathryn Guild of St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, when Mrs. Bernard P. Donnelly, Holland, opened her beautiful home on Maple avenue and Twelfth street to receive the guests from 3 to 6 o'clock Wednesday. The rooms were gayly embellished with bouquets of timely blossoms and tea appointments reflected the spring motif. Presiding at the tea table was Mrs. Julius Ziesse and Mrs. Martin Louwerse. The serving was done from tables appropriately decorated with tulips and spring flowers. A Dutch klompen dance by a group of high school girls in costume was part of the entertainment.

Mrs. Donnelly was assisted by a large hostess committee headed by Mrs. George H. Dakin, Mrs. J. Frank Duffy, Mrs. John J. Good, Mrs. Vance C. Mape, Mrs. John F. Donnelly and Mrs. Dennis O'Meara, all of Holland, and Mrs. Hubert Hauser, Mrs. Joseph P. Lynch and Mrs. M. Raymond Clark assisted with receiving the guests. Harp music was played throughout the afternoon by Miss Margaret Hunt. Mrs. Michael Shillinger, chairman; Mrs. Edward Fritz and Mrs. A. J. Cron composed the music committee. Mrs. John Campbell was chairman of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Chester Lowry, Mrs. John Wurz and Mrs. Robert J. Douglas.

A similar tea was given last year at the home of Mrs. Donnelly which was also very successful and could not help but be with such a charming hostess. However, this year the event proved especially outstanding since the wives of several of the ministers of foreign countries, as well as the wives of different consuls to The Netherlands were guests of Holland, together with Envoy Jonkheer Dr. van Haersma de With. Hearing these prominent folks from Washington and from other large centers were in this city these ladies were immediately given invitations to be guests and all graciously accepted and reported a real pleasant afternoon, a social event which they will not soon forget, as an outstanding feature during their Tulip Time visit here.

Holland women who are connected with the guild and assisted with arrangements are: Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. J. Frank Duffy, Mrs. Vance Mape, Mrs. J. J. Good, Mrs. D. S. O'Meara, Mrs. John F. Donnelly and Mrs. Louis Hohmann.

Roos. Prizes were won by Mrs. Burrows, Mrs. John Westerhof, Mrs. Ben Beintema and Mrs. J. Beintema. The following were present: Mrs. Eva Tripp, Mrs. John Westerhof, Mrs. George Dalman, Mrs. Lovernie Dalman, Mrs. Ben Essenburg, Mrs. Melvin Essenburg, Miss Henrietta Westerhof, Mrs. Essenburg, Mrs. C. Roos, Mrs. J. Beintema, Sr., Mrs. J. Beintema, Jr., Mrs. Ben Beintema, Mrs. Ed De Haan, Mrs. Burrows, Miss Ada Ver Schure, Mrs. Gerrit Veenboer, Miss Wilmina Tripp and Miss Eleanor Dalman.

"Sunset View," which is the name of the cottage belonging to the Spers, was opened for the season with a large house party. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Keese, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Riley and son, Jackie, Miss Rose Monks, J. de la Rue Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wendel, Mrs. Henry Sanke, E. F. Wichel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keese, Mrs. M. P. Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. John Papas.

Birds L. Foster, 71, recently elected Trowbridge township supervisor, was instantly killed Monday when he was pinned between his tractor and a tree after the tractor, which he was operating, ran over an embankment into a ditch. He was found by his son, Dytton. Surviving are the widow and the son. Funeral services were held at the home on Thursday with burial in Mallory cemetery.

Douglas, 35 West Sixteenth street, has filed application for a permit to remodel his home at an estimate cost of $150.

A regional meeting and dinner of the Western Michigan Tourist and Resort association was held at the Warm Friend Tavern. Many delegates from other resort towns in this state will be here. The resort meet held in Holland last year was a great success and doubtless the meeting of Tuesday will again prove to be such.

Mrs. James E. Hartgerink, nee Gertrude Belt, passed away on May 18. She was formerly a resident of Holland and Dr. Hartgerink was a resident of Overisel, Michigan. For some time they have been living in Chicago. Surviving are Dr. Hartgerink and three children, Robert, Elaine and Adele.

The final meeting of the Montello Park school P.T.A. featured election of the following officers: Mrs. J. Welcott, president; Mrs. J. Mills, vice-president; Mrs. A. Cook, treasurer; and Mrs. F. Brummer, secretary. Following the business meeting a miscellaneous program was rendered.

LIVE CRABS—BUT WHAT A DISH!
Manager Vande Vusse of the Meat and Fish Department of the Atlantic and Pacific Food Store last week sold 115 live lobsters. Warm Friend Tavern took fifty—the rest were sold to folks who had "Tulip Time" guests. It has often been said that only "lobsters" buy lobsters. At 35 cents each however it would appear that "gold diggers" will demand more expensive foods from their "lobsters"—possibly "canaries tongues." Anyway this crustacean sea food is still a delicacy to the most exacting epicure.

MRS. TELLING

The Tulip Festival for 1935 has come and gone and undoubtedly from many standpoints, it can be called the greatest of all festivals up to this time. There is no doubt but that the visitors by far outnumbered all previous Tulip Time attendance. This, too, was reflected in the larger attendance reported as seeing our special attractions. Our parades, the visit of the envoy from The Netherlands, our special entertainments of musical nature and our folk dances far surpassed previous features and all this is very gratifying. There were some disappointments however, that brought about a nervous state, one of them being the continued cold throughout May, which also was unprecedented. The paramount part of the festival naturally, are the tulips in bloom. The longing for warmth and sunshine placed the committee on edge constantly, before and during the festival.

The Tulip Time committees in charge of the different departments in spite of this great disappointment and discouragement, kept constantly at their tasks, gave their entire time to the work at hand, hoping only for success of a project that has proven so tremendously successful and which has turned out to be nation-wide in scope, as this relates to the guests who come from coast to coast. Through this all there must be a guiding spirit and in this instance it happens to be a woman.

Mrs. John Telling is the general chairman of this entire celebration and has been for the last few years. With her the Tulip Festival is not a project that begins with the dawning of spring, but rather starts for the next year when the curtain comes down on the festival of the year before. Even now plans are being laid for "Tulip Time" for 1936, and this planning goes on throughout the year until the next Tulip Festival becomes a fact again. Mrs. Telling has put her heart in this work despite the fact that there are many disappointments, many disagreements, many differences of opinion as to policy and so on. However, Mrs. Telling as the head of Holland Tulip Time activities has shown able executive ability. She has displayed rare tact in giving a hearing to dissenters, getting their reaction on all questions that have to do with this annual occasion. She has shown no intolerance, no favoritism, no disgruntled attitude when her method, or her thought in a matter was disagreed with. She would straight forwardly tell her reasons for her opinion and do this in a manner that left no malice or sting. It was really a pleasure to watch her fair parliamentary procedure in which all were heard and every proposal was studied carefully. She has never been noticeably angry, but rather earnest and by virtue of being head of this general committee she was called upon to make difficult decisions and by the same token also shouldered the burden of these decisions, but through it all she remained sweet and tactful.

As the News has said before no one in Holland could head a Tulip Time Festival with better grace and decorum than could Mrs. John Telling. Because it is a festivity of dignity, that is why Mrs. Telling fits in.

It has become general knowledge that the Holland project is not a carnival affair; it is not a celebration with a circus aspect, it is not a festival that is commercialized. It is a spectacle that carries with it dignity, beauty and an aesthetic atmosphere. If you know Mrs. Telling you know the reasons for this and everyone in Holland who loves these festive days has fallen in with these plans and it has become one of the unwritten laws of Tulip Time season. The personality of this much-beloved woman permeates this celebration and the Holland City News congratulates the city of Holland, first because of the great success of the occasion and even more so because of the loyal men and women who by virtue of their ability and efforts, through the years, were able to make this success possible — in which Mrs. John Telling was the guiding spirit.

Retired Missionary to Indians Dies in Holland

Miss Jennie Dubbink, who for the past three years has made her home with Mrs. John Schipper, 166 East 13th St., died at Holland Hospital at 6 P. M. Monday, of a foot infection contracted about two weeks ago.

Prior to her work on the Indian field she taught school in Overisel and East Saugatuck 20 years.

Miss Dubbink was an active member of First Reformed Church where she was teacher of a catechism class and a Sunday school teacher in the intermediate department.

Surviving are one brother, Albert Dubbink, of Overisel; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Gertrude Dubbink of Holland, and nine nephews and nieces.

"BUY A POPPY" WILL BE HOLLAND SLOGAN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Holland's public streets and prominent business places will be even more colorful the coming Friday and especially Saturday, then they were on the previous week. Tulips are in full bloom and at their best. Saturday will see the parade of approximately twenty bands and drum corps and band review at Riverview park under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Henry Walters post, Holland.

Added to this the greater part of Holland folks will be wearing a bright red poppy in observance of poppy day. These beautiful flowers — the handwork of disabled veterans — will be on sale by the auxiliary of the American Legion and also the auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The flowers will not only be sold in Holland but everywhere throughout the nation.

It might be interesting to know that the poppies sold by the two auxiliaries, although the same in color, are made of different materials. The American Legion poppy known as the Memorial poppy, is made of crepe paper, while the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary poppy, known as the "Buddy" poppy, is made up of silk and linen. Both, however, are made by disabled veterans and proceeds of each will go toward the support of disabled veterans and orphans of veterans.

The poppies are replicas of the wild European poppies which bloomed along the battle front and in the war cemeteries during the World war. It was this flower, growing between the rows of wooden crosses above fresh battle graves, which inspired Col. John McCrea to write his famous poem "In Flanders Fields."

Surely the cause is one which all should remember. Many of the boys who answered the call of their country lie buried in "Flanders Fields Where Poppies Grow," and others have come home maimed and crippled, uselessly making the sacrifice for the country they hold dear. Can we ignore the plea, "Buy a Poppy?" Rather consider it a privilege on Friday and Saturday of this week and buy and wear a poppy in observance of Poppy Day and all that it signifies.

AMERICAN LEGION

NEWS

Remember Poppy Day Friday and Saturday. Proceeds for disabled veterans.

The next post meeting will be held on June 12, and it will be the only meeting we will have in that month.

Our plans of one meeting in July went wrong. The second Wednesday in July will be for the nomination of post officers and the fourth Wednesday will be election. This had to be done to have our officers elected at least three weeks before the department convention at Flint on August 24, 25 and 26.

When our commander decides to rush through a meeting he doesn't mess around a bit. Last Wednesday we were all through and ready for the surprise by 8 o'clock.

And it was a surprise! A marshmallow roast upon the lake shore. There were some couple hundred, well, at least 50 of the gang that gathered together and trekked northward. The lunch was wonderful, chile con carne, sandwiches, pickles and coffee and marshmallows. Among some of our champion roasters were absent—Doc Batchellor, Al Joldersma, M. De Fouw. A little bridge and rum were played by the light of the moon.

The post has accepted the invitation of Rev. Van Dyke to attend the Memorial Day services at the Fourth Reformed church. This is one day when every legionnaire and ex-service man is expected to be one of the group that attends these services. We will meet at the city hall at 9 o'clock and march in a body. Let's have a goodly turnout and no vacant files.

On Memorial day the commander asks that we wear dark suits if we have them, if not your brown or your gray. And we will be looking for you in that formation, also. Everyone can spare a couple of hours out of one holiday to pay his respects to the boys who have gone.

This Saturday, May 25, the V. F. W. stage their rally. The band will carry our colors, and the members can fill in an empty file.

This Friday, the 24th, all who can are asked to come to the cemetery as soon as they can after supper. We are going to refresh the grave markers and will need some wire brushes to scrape off the rust and some inexpensive brushes to use in regliding. Shall we look for you?

Tulip Time is past by the calendar only. It's still Tulip Time, however, as long as we have a sore tongue from the sack of babblers that stares at us.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold a regular meeting in G. A. R. rooms city hall next Monday evening at 7:30 p. m. An interesting program has been arranged for to be followed by a social hour and refreshments.

The members of the American Legion auxiliary are requested to meet at the city hall at 9 o'clock Sunday morning to attend Memorial services at Fourth Reformed church where Rev. Henry Van Dyke, pastor will deliver the sermon. Anyone wishing to be called are requested to phone Mrs. C. Ver Meulen, No. 9511.

Remember Poppy Day Friday and Saturday. Proceeds for disabled veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fairbanks spent a few days in Ann Arbor, the guests of their son, Harold C. Fairbanks, student in the dental department at the university. CENTRAL PARK

The annual Fellowship supper of the Willing Workers' Aid society was held at the church Wednesday evening. The husbands of the members were the guests and dinner was served by the social committee of which Mrs. Ralph Van Lente was the chairman. She was assisted by Mrs. Simon Harkema, Mrs. John Harthorn and Mrs. Dick Miles. The tables and rooms were decorated with apple blossoms, tulips and other spring flowers, the work of Mrs. Fred S. Bertsch and

Mrs. James M. Cook. The program was opened with prayer by Mrs. F. J. Van Dyke, followed by Scripture reading. Rev. F. J. Van Dyke, Mrs. Elmer Teusink and Mrs. James M. Cook sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Dick Van Der Meer. May Luplow played several selections on the piano accordion and Mrs. Floyd Boersma gave a reading. A brief history of the organization and a detailed report of the financial support given to the church during the seventeen years of activity at Central Park was given by one of the charter members of the society, Mrs. William H. Helmink. Mrs. John Harthorn then read a budget and Mrs. Van Dyke closed the program with the singing of two Irish songs "Nora," by Robert Stuart Pigot, and "The Little Irish Girl," by Herman Lohr. Mrs. H. W. Helmink was chairman of the program committee.

Mr. and Mrs. George St. John visited their son, Clayton, who is now located on a farm near Richland, Michigan, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Van Dyck of South Haven visited over the week-end at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harthorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hill and Mr. Peter Minnema were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Van Dyke after the rendition of the oratorio "Creation," in which Mr. Hill took the tenor solos. He has promised to sing at the local church the second Sunday in June.

Miss Lottie Teusink and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hendrickson of Grand Rapids were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. De Pree this week. Mr. Hendrickson sang a tenor solo at the church on Sunday evening.

The Women's Missionary society met at the church Thursday afternoon. Miss Jeanne Walvoord of China was the speaker. Mrs. Jacob Strop and Mrs. Cora S. Prince were the hostesses. Mrs. John Harthorn sang a solo.

The Boosters class met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George De Vries. Mrs. John Bowman assisting the hostess.

Miss Marie De Ridder gave a chalk talk at the Senior Christian Endeavor meeting last Sunday evening.

Rev. F. J. Van Dyke attended the adjourned meeting of the Classis of Holland held in the First Reformed church of Holland last Monday.

Ivan Munson will be in charge of the Senior Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday.

The Lakeview school picnic will be held Friday afternoon at the school grounds under the auspices of the P. T. A. of which Dick Nieu-sma is the president.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Van Dyke, R. 2, were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening, by their neighbors and friends. A gift was presented to the couple.

A family reunion of unusual significance took place Friday, May 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Lente, the occasion being the 55th anniversary of the settling of the De Cook family in Holland. Arriving from The Netherlands May 17, 1880, the family made their home in a small red house, located opposite engine house No. 1 on E. Eighth St. Six sons and daughters helped to celebrate the occasion, they are: Mrs. Anna Peerbolte of the North Side; Mrs. James Bareman, Sr., of North Holland; Neil De Cook, 5 W. 15th St.; and Mrs. Fred Van Lente, 52 W. 19th St., and Bessie De Cook, 52 W. 19th St. Since the arrival of the family, three deaths have occurred. The father, Anthony, died in 1887 at the age of 47. The mother died in 1904 and a daughter, Mrs. Isaac Cappon, died in 1900.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warner and daughter, Mary Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Warner and son David and Dr. Glenn Showman of Paw Paw were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. May Ingham and daughter Marion.

Miss Anna Tenckinck, of North Holland, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening given at the home of Mrs. N. Van der Wal at South Blenden. Prizes were won by Evelyn Kunzi and Miss Ursio. Miss Hermina Avink assisted the hostess.

May Have Other Highway to Grand Rapids

THE HOLLAND ROAD MAY TAKE IN JAMESTOWN, DOING AWAY WITH WORST SHORT STRETCH IN THE COUNTY

(Zeeland Record)

The condition of the stretch on M-21, namely, Holland-Grand Rapids road, is in very poor shape from the sink-hole area for two or three miles, also east of Hudsonville, and has come to the attention of the State Highway Department, and surveys are to be made to determine a more substantial route directly between Grand Rapids and Zeeland. As a result, inspectors were in the territory last week investigating the possible relocating of this state highway to the best advantage and at the least cost.

During the past winter months the heavy trucking traffic along the present route has badly damaged the highway, and the state officials have come to the conclusion that it would not be to the best advantage to rebuild the highway along the old route. Beginning just east of the Beaverdam road intersection, and with slight interspaces of solid ground, the present road is located on soft or swamp bottom that will never be in shape to fully carry the traffic this highway will be required to accommodate. This soft bottom extends for a distance of more than ten miles, a stretch all too great to maintain if more suitable right-of-way can be secured.

Although inspectors have been working on the plan, the work is all preliminary, and no definite information has been given out that anything will soon be done. The facts are that something must be done about it within the next two or three years if there is to be any road at all on which to travel between Holland, Zeeland and Grand Rapids. The old concrete strip along these ten miles has deteriorated so rapidly in the last two or three years that a continuance of the same rough usage will see it completely knocked to pieces.

There are two obvious routes along which the relocation can be made, but only one of these is the logical course. One is along the section line just south of the present highway, leaving the present highway near the Keppel Bros. farm and running directly east until it strikes the old interurban right-of-way at Jamestown. This would avoid the low lands and it would eliminate the need for securing a right-of-way on what is now private property, but it will require considerable extra grading on three miles of this distance. The other way is over the main highway out East Main St., Zeeland, to Forest Grove Station where it would connect with the old interurban grade following that into Jenison as also would the other route from the point at Jamestown.

Although it would require the securing of the old interurban right-of-way from Forest Grove Station to Jamestown, a distance of two miles farther than the first suggested route, it has the preference in that the saving in grading would more than make up the difference of the cost of the right-of-way. It has the other advantage of crossing the "Vriesland Swamp" on an old well-settled roadbed and the distance of it on the first suggested route.

There has been considerable demand for the relocation of this highway ever since it was built, when settling of the roadbed was immediately detected, and it is believed that had the old interurban right-of-way been available at the time of this highway construction it would have been chosen and the road built there.

If the old highway is relieved of its overload within the next year it may still be very serviceable for light traffic for some time, thus affording two direct highways into Grand Rapids.

People from the south side of this county and of northern Allegan county are eager for this relocation over the last suggested route. They claim that residents of Vriesland, Jamestown, Forest Grove, Drenthe, Burnips, Monteville, and other points are entitled to a direct, hard-surfaced highway into Grand Rapids, which will at the same time carry through traffic from points beyond. For many years there has been a strong demand for a good road that would connect up between Grand Rapids and Jamestown, from which latter point it would fork one highway extending into Zeeland and the other into Allegan. This is an ideal plan, and the hope of residents in this section is its consummation. Organized efforts are afoot to urge the East Main Street route before the State Highway Department.

Zeeland Had Tough Time Submitting Beer Question

The placing of beer or no beer to popular vote on Monday, June 3, in Zeeland was not an easy matter, it appears. The proposal was put in the form of a resolution and thus was voted on by the aldermen. The vote stood as follows:

Yeas: Aldermen Holleman, Lookers and Cook.
Nays: Aldermen Langeland, Karsten and Brill.

There being a tie, Mayor Verkeke voted Yes.

Next Week Thursday Is Decoration Day, Official Program Below

At a meeting held Monday night at G. A. R. hall belated preparations because of Tulip Time activities, were made for Memorial Day which takes place next week on Thursday, May 30. Memorial Sunday will be held next Sabbath Day when all military organizations and their auxiliaries are asked to meet at the city hall promptly at 9 o'clock and from there a line will be formed and a march will be made to Fourth Reformed church on West Fifteenth street, where Rev. It is understood that this church asked for the services last year, but another church had already been arranged for and they were given the promise for 1935.

Appropriate music will be furnished by the choir and the public is invited.

The meeting Monday evening was undoubtedly the largest in many years, but it was indeed gratifying to see the interest taken. Every band in this city was not urged to come but their officials of the different bands showed their willingness to participate by offering their services. There will be at least three bands more than usual as will be noticed by comparing the program. The meeting Monday night was presided over by Mayor Nicodemus Bosch with Ben Mulder, secretary. Another meeting of the different committees will be held in G.A.R. room, city hall, Monday night at 7:15 o'clock. This tentative program is subject to minor changes. The program follows:

HOLLAND MAN TELLS ILLINOIS OF OUR TULIPS

Gerrit John Pessink of Sterling, Ill., tells the local paper there all about Holland.

G. J. A. Pessink, one of the early pioneers of Holland, who will be 83 years old on the 13th of August, but is as spry as a youngster, walking six miles each day, is now living with his son in Sterling, Ill.

Gerrit first was a baker for many years, on East 8th St. in a frame building located where the Du Saar Photo Shop now is. He then became a laundry man and later a mail carrier when rural mail was established in Holland, nearly 30 years ago.

For a great many years he lived in Chicago as caretaker of churches. Anyway the Sterling Daily Gazette contains an interview of Mr. Pessink who calls "this city famous for its tulips" and the beauties of Holland, Michigan, are lauded by Mr. Pessink.

"Sterling Daily Gazette" "Many people whose old home was in Michigan seem to delight in lauding the glories of that state. It has been noticed so in Sterling, no matter from what town it is in mainland or peninsula. Not the least of these is Gerrit J. A. Pessink, 83 years of age, and father of L. L. Pessink.

"Mr. Pessink, sr., lives with his son and daughter-in-law, and comes from Holland, Mich. This is the town made famous by its Holland rusk and 23 miles of tulips in their tulip day celebration every May. Mr. Pessink can vouch for all these beauties and the cleanliness of the town of Holland in every way. He is a retired baker and one of the originators of the Holland rusk in America. He was a tulip tourist, when he was there. He is a great lover of music, especially vocal, and for many years was "ondervassentempel" or song leader in the Dutch Reformed church, of which he was a member. To this day Mr. Pessink carries in his pocket a small leather case, which shields the faithful high-tempered tuning fork with which he keyed the church singers to their hymns.

"Next to Holland, Mich. I think Sterling, Ill., the prettiest little city I ever saw," said Mr. Pessink to a Sterling friend today.

My Dear Ben—

You may much appreciated friend: I am enclosing a little item that shows I still love my very dear Holland and if I could end my days in your lovely city, I would try and walk the distance. Wishing you the best there is on this earth. Yours very truly
G. J. A. PESSINK

ZEELAND MAKES PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Plans for the annual Memorial Day observance in Zeeland are being completed. Memorial services will be held Sunday, May 26, in Second Reformed church. Chaplain C. G. Swart of the soldiers home will deliver the address.

On Memorial day the parade features will be extended this year, with all school children taking part. The Boy Scouts again will present their floral float in the parade. Other features will be the first home appearance of the newly uniformed high school band under leadership of Ralph Muller. The parade will be under direction of J. N. Clark.

The speaker for the day is Lester Doerr, principal of Burton Junior High school, Grand Rapids. Members of the local auxiliary unit will decorate the graves of veterans buried in rural cemeteries.

The Longfellow P.-T. A. met on Tuesday evening and John Kamersaad arranged the program with the co-operation of Miss Lucille Lindsey and Principal J. J. Riemersma.

BURGEMEESTER BOSCH

BURGEMEESTER BOSCH

The News has repeatedly stated that the Tulip Festival was surrounded with dignity for the past several years. During 1935 this was further exemplified when you view this picture. No, this is not William Penn nor any other Quaker of renown; this surely isn't Dr. Van Raalte, whose facial decorations were more like a Kentucky Colonel; it surely couldn't be desperate Desmond since we know the gentleman you see here. This is Mayor Nicodemus Bosch, who headed a prominent division in the several parades during Tulip Time. Nicholas was followed by six of his faithfuls also in garbs a la Quaker. No, we didn't say undertaker. Somebody told the mayor that all during the parade he walked and looked straight ahead and never smiled. When asked the reason why, he said "Self-consciousness kept my face straight and buckle shoes kept my feet straight, but my smile turned into a laugh when I discarded the footwear after the parade." It is a pity that the photographer had shorn away the other six faithful city fathers, and now for lack of a quorum the council has to be adjourned and this is the end of our story.

A meeting of the Lincoln P.-T. A. was held Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jekel in charge. Plans for the annual picnic were discussed.

Miss Wilmina Wierda, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Wierda, and Harold Mokma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mokma, were united in marriage Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of Ninth Street Christian Reformed church. Rev. N. J. Monsma performing the single ring ceremony. The couple was attended by Miss Ethel Mokma, sister of the bridegroom, and Nick Wierda, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Dean and Lawrence Mokma and a trio consisting of Misses Ethel and Jean Mokma furnished the music for the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Mokma will make their home at 152 E. 16 St.

Tuesday evening members of the Junior Welfare League met at the home of Miss Jewel Huntley, 70 West Fourteenth street, and plans were made for the final meeting of the year, which will be in the form of a dinner at the Country club in the early part of June. At this time election of officers will take place.

An impressive program of music interspersed the installation exercises proper.

The pupils of Mrs. W. Fenton and Mrs. H. J. Karsten presented a recital Thursday evening in Winants chapel. Those who appeared on the program were Frieda Van Hooff, pupil of Mrs. Karsten; Alice Van De Riet, Vera Johnson, Marian Shackson, Alice Englesman, Gertrude Young, Oliver Van Os, Robert Aardshorst, Louis Jalving and Gerrit Ter Beek, pupils of Mrs. Fenton.

JAMES R. GETZ WEDS MISS NEEDHAM OF CHICAGO

James R. Getz, son of Mr. George Getz of Lakewood Farm, was wed recently to Miss Betsey Needham of Chicago, the marriage taking place at the home of the bride's parents.

An account of the wedding appears in the Chicago American of recent date. The clipping follows:

"In perhaps the quaintest ceremony that Chicago society has ever seen, Betsey Needham became the bride of James Rankin Getz this afternoon. Betsey, who has naturally curly blond hair and very delicate coloring, planned an old-fashioned wedding down to every last detail. Even the living room in the apartment of her parents, the Maurice H. Needhams, where she and Jimmy plighted their vows, had all the charm of a country garden.

"The walls were banked with great masses of fluffy apple and pear blossoms that also formed the fragrant improvised altar at the end of the room. On each side of the aisle stood two tall white altar candles... so tall that their tiny flames almost brushed the ceiling. And at the altar itself were two white satin cushions where the bride and groom knelt when Mr. St. John of the Choate School pronounced man and wife.

"Betsey, a Picture in Period Dress. "The bride herself wore a period wedding dress of heavy ribbed silk in ivory. The high neck was fastened with small buttons which descended down the front of the narrow fitted bodice to the hem of the picturesque full skirt. Framing her delicate face was a deep collar of rose-point lace with matching cuffs and a lace cap that held the long billows of her tulle veil in place. Her flowers were a round, light bouquet of white violets fringed with lilies of the valley.

"Mrs. Needham wore a simple gray crepe with brown accessories. Her flowers were orchids. There were no attendants except George F. Getz, Jr., Jimmy's brother, who was the best man, and Tommy Snyder, the latter's classmate at Yale, and John Needham, the bride's brother, who ushered.

"Certainly no one could add a more charming touch to the whole picture than the lovely little gentleman who came all the way from Henderson, Ky., today to see his namesake married. He is no other than Jim's maternal grandfather, James Rankin, who is just as young as any one, so they say, in spite of his 88 years."

Eastern News Paper Tells Of Installation

YOUNG HOLLAND PASTOR IS INSTALLED IN EAST

The Kingston Daily Freeman of Kingston, New York, publishes a column story of the installation of Rev. A. E. Oudemool as pastor of the "First Dutch church" of Kingston. Rev. Oudemool is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Oudemool of 47 West Fifteenth street.

Says the Daily Freeman in part: "The installation of the Rev. Arthur Edwin Oudemool as pastor of the First Reformed church of Kingston took place Wednesday evening and was attended by a large audience. Many members of Mr. Oudemool's recent charges were present, as also many friends from distant points. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Oudemool and daughter, parents and sister of the new pastor, came from Holland, Michigan, to be present on this notable occasion."

The paper then proceeds to give the printed program in which several Hope graduates took part. The charge to the pastor was given by Rev. John D. Steketee, classical missionary, and son of the late Bastian Steketee of Holland.

In his charge to the new pastor, the Rev. J. B. Steketee spoke of the relation of this office to the church: Pastor, teacher, minister. These call forth the fine graces of patience, personal interest, courage, foresight. This office presents opportunities for presenting the Christian vision of a great Christian church, the total enterprise of which the local church is a part. Vision and program make certain. An effective Christian service is in pastoral visitation bringing to those who cannot or are unwilling, to come to church the message of the church. William Carey has left for us a fine slogan, 'Expect great things from God; undertake great things for God.'

The Kingston newspaper concludes the installation story as follows:

"The Rev. Mr. Oudemool becomes the nineteenth minister in the list of pastors of this old church. He is a graduate of the Reformed Church's schools. His early Christian training was in the Third Reformed church of Holland, Mich. He was graduated from Hope college in 1930 and from the New Brunswick Theological seminary in 1933. While in the latter institution he was the premier preacher in his class. Two years ago he was licensed by the Classis of Holland and in June of that year was ordained and installed as pastor of the Plattelick and High Woods churches of Ulster Classis, his ministry there was very fruitful. The attention of the First church here was called to his promising service and in March he

AUBURN SOCIETY FOSTERS NATURE STUDY

A committee to consult with state educational officials on means of improving the teaching of nature study, wildlife management and other conservation subjects in the schools of Michigan has been appointed by the Michigan Audubon society as an outgrowth of the annual meeting of the society held in Holland last week. Dr.

Miles D. Pirnie of the W. K. Kellogg bird sanctuary at Battle Creek has been named chairman. Resolutions adopted by the Audubon society urged the state highway department to spare feed and cover for birds and wildlife wherever possible in carrying out highway maintenance programs. Much destruction of shrubs, vines and other, cover results from highway "improvement," the Audubon society believes. Another resolution was adopted asking the state conservation department to set aside additional funds for use in educational work, in co-operation with local conservation clubs, 4-H clubs, rural schools, biology classes, women's clubs and other organizations.

SINCE WE BOUGHT OUR ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR WE'VE SAVED A LOT OF MONEY

"Frankly, the reason why I wanted an Electric Refrigerator was so that I could make those delicious frozen desserts my friends serve so often. But since ours has been installed, my real thrill comes from the money I am able to save on food and ice bills. Really, my new Electric Refrigerator saves me so much that, by comparison (my old ice box was an awful extravagance). I used to think we couldn't afford it — but now I can see that instead of costing a lot, electric refrigeration actually SAVES AS MUCH MORE THAN IT COSTS. Why don't you talk it over with your husband, and make him investigate these savings?"

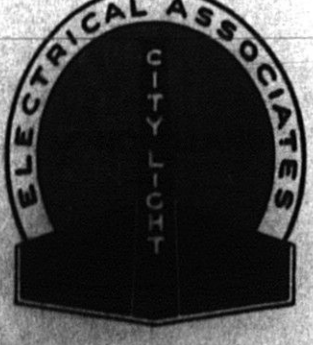

THANKS TO MY WIFE'S INSISTENCE, I'M WAY AHEAD!

"My wife had a hard time convincing me that we ought to have an electric refrigerator — thought we couldn't afford it, and all that — but now I can see how right she was. Trouble with us men is that we look upon electric refrigeration as a luxury; we don't give enough thought to the economies and conveniences. Truth is, buying an electric refrigerator is one of the surest ways there is of saving money. Particularly here in Holland, with the extremely low rates of our city-owned electric plant. If you have a wife who is insisting upon getting an electric refrigerator, you'd better listen to her — you'll be way ahead if you do."

THE LORD'S SUPPER
(Matthew 26:17-30; 1 Corinthians 11:23-33)

Henry Geerlings

Our Lord and His disciples came up to Jerusalem from a busy missionary journey to observe the Passover. This feast was also called the feast of unleavened bread. It was so called because the Israelites were forbidden to eat leavened bread or to have any leaven in their houses during the period of the Passover festival. The word Passover strictly applied to the afternoon and evening of the first day of the feast when the lamb was eaten, while the feast of unleavened bread referred to the seven days following. However, they came to be used interchangeably.

The disciples, aware of their Master's custom to observe the principal feast, assumed that he had come to Jerusalem for that reason. The Master declared that a life like that of the traitor was not worth living. Judas may have left the room at that time to consummate the bargain that would take Jesus to the cross. Only when Judas was driven to it did he say "Is it I, Rabbi?" He did not say "Lord," as had the eleven, but "Rabbi," or "Teacher."

The Supper of our Lord was instituted toward the close of the Passover meal, signifying that it was to take the place of the Passover for all those who were to believe that Jesus is the Lamb of God, slain to take away the sins of the world. The one was to celebrate the deliverance of the Israelites from the bondage of Egypt, while the other was for all time to celebrate the deliverance of souls from the bondage of sin and death.

The Lord's Supper has a social and fraternal significance. It is a communion of believers. It is a demonstration of the fellowship of the saints, an anticipation of a richer feast and fellowship in heaven. In a world full of strife and divisions, we gather at the altar as one spiritual family, united in the bonds of a common faith and love. In spirit, we stand shoulder to shoulder with the noble army of confessors and saints that reaches church, and runs forward to its back to the foundation of the consummation.

Lord told them that one of their number would betray Him, that is, deliver Him up. He permitted them to think on the horror of the deed. They expressed sincere sorrow that any one of them could be guilty of such a heinous act. If the eleven knew it was Judas, they did not so much as hint it. They searched their own hearts, and then asked: "Is it I?" While the eleven were conscious of their innocence, they were also afraid of their own weakness. Without mentioning any name, the Lord gave a sign by which all could know who the guilty party was. All ate from a common dish of sauce, the bread and herbs being dipped in it and passed from one to another.

Christ was in the way God had appointed for Him. He never deviated from it. The death of Christ had been given prominence in the Old Testament. It was appointed unto Him to die on the cross, for the sins of the world, but that does not remove the guilt from the heart of him who stooped to such a crime. He did not have to do it. He was a free agent, choosing to sell his Lord for a handful of silver. The Master declared that a life like that of the traitor was not worth living. Judas may have left the room at that time to consummate the bargain that would take Jesus to the cross. Only when Judas was driven to it did he say "Is it I, Rabbi?" He did not say "Lord," as had the eleven, but "Rabbi," or "Teacher."

Little Known Facts About Banking

If Banks Were Operated for Profit Only

Nowhere in the world do the banks put service to the community ahead of profits as in the United States.

The truth of this is shown in a recent survey, which revealed that "in the average bank 50% of the depositors carry but 3% of the total deposits" . . . In other words, American banks sacrifice profits by providing better banking facilities to more people than is considered necessary by banks in other countries. But that is the "American spirit" of American banking.

Need we add that service to the community comes first at this bank? Here the small depositor receives the same service as the larger depositor, and his account is just as welcome.

The World at Your Elbow

FROM any telephone of this company you can talk not only to localities throughout Michigan, but also to distant cities, ships at sea, many foreign lands—to thirty million telephones distributed all over the world. You can do this because the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is a component part of the Bell System.

In addition to wider service, that relationship enables us to give you better service; for it places at our disposal thousands of valuable patents and the most efficient methods of operation; it secures for us the benefits of constant research by hundreds of scientists in the famous Bell Laboratories, specialists whose only mission year in and year out is to develop means of improving the service—to find "a better thing or a better way." It assures us assistance in financing; it provides us with the world's finest telephone equipment, produced by the Western Electric Company, manufacturing division of the Bell System. It permits us, in short, to share in every progressive step in the evolution of the telephone.

And it enables us to render cheaper service; for all these assets—the fruits of a long-sustained policy of good management—come to us under our contract with American Telephone and Telegraph Company at a cost much lower than would be possible without our association in the Bell System.

America today holds undisputed world supremacy in telephonic communication. That leadership grew out of the facilities and the forward-looking policies of the Bell System. And it is because the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is a part of that system that we are now supplying the people of this State with a service never surpassed in quality, and reaching to most civilized areas of the globe.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE

THERE are a number of early fruits in market, including peaches, watermelons, several varieties of berries and sweet cherries which are high in price. Pineapples, oranges, grapefruit, bananas and strawberries are better suited to the majority of pocketbooks. Rhubarb is very cheap.

Green peas are really low in price, spinach, cabbage and new potatoes are cheap. Onions are gradually becoming moderate in price. Cucumbers have become cheap but tomatoes are again high. Eggplant and summer squash are inexpensive.

Poultry and fish are generally more economical than meats this week. Butter prices have stayed down and may go even lower.

Here are three menus made up from seasonable foods adapted to different budget levels:

Low Cost Dinner
Pork Chops Mashed Potatoes
New Cabbage
Bread and Butter

ZEELAND

Mrs. John Wiselink, resident of Zeeland for many years, passed away at her home, 143 State street, Wednesday, last, at the age of 75 years. She had been ill but a short time. She is survived by one son, Gerrit; one daughter, Mrs. William Meeuwse; 14 grandchildren; one brother, Henry Wentzel of Zeeland; six sisters, Mrs. J. Van Hoven, Mrs. J. Mulder of Zeeland, Mrs. Peter Wyngarden, Mrs. Reinder Van Heuvelen, Mrs. Gerrit De Vree of Vriesland, and Mrs. Fred Schermer of Holland. Funeral services were held Saturday at 1:30 p. m. at the home and at 2 p. m. at First Reformed church with the Rev. J. Van Peursem officiating. Burial was in Zeeland cemetery.

Martin Van Wyn has moved from Wyoming Park into the first floor rooms of Mrs. M. De Jonge on East Washington street. Melvin Kuyser and family have moved from the P. De Witt residence on Ottawa street into the Diekema residence on Ottawa street, recently vacated by John W. Morren who moved into the Wichers house on Centennial street. William Boes has moved from the Zuverink residence on W. McKinley street into the P. De Witt residence on Ottawa street.

The sentence of the justice court in the case of Gerrit and Alvin Hoving, Park township youths, that they spend 30 days in the county jail was sustained by the jury in circuit court who listened to the case Monday before Judge Fred Miles.

The boys admitted the larceny of a quantity of lumber from a cottage at Macatawa Park in justice court and did not change their testimony in circuit court. The contention was that the offense warranted a fine rather than a jail sentence, and an appeal was made to the circuit court.

SEVERAL HURT IN THIS SECTION IN ACCIDENTS

Bernard Roeloff, 21, Zeeland, was taken to Hatton hospital late Saturday night with a severe cut near one eye which he received in an automobile accident near Pottowattomie bayou. He was riding with Boyd Mulder, 18, Zeeland. According to the state police Mulder ran into the rear of a car driven by Carl Holman, 26, Grand Haven township.

Another accident occurred Saturday night two miles south of West Olive. A collision between two cars driven by Leroy Snyder, Chicago, and Orin Reasguia, Holland, resulted in injuries to Snyder's wife and Philip Kornacher, Chicago, who were riding in the Snyder car. They were taken to the Holland hospital.

Zeeland Wants Better Fire Protection

FIREMEN ARE ASKING FOR A PUMPER. PREPARATION MADE FOR MEMO-RIAL DAY

The following appointments were made: President of the Council, John H. Holleman; Chief of Police, Fred Bosma; City Superintendent, Gerrit P. Rooks; Assistant City Clerk, Gilbert J. Van Hoven; Health and Milk Inspector, Fred Bosma; Board of Review, John Wichers and M. C. Ver Hage; Special Assessors, I. Van Dyke and Jack Boonstra; Election Commissioners, D. P. Boonstra, A. De Kruit and W. K. Baerman; Park Commissioner, Steven Krol; Cemetery Commissioner, C. Roosenraad; City Attorney, J. N. Clark; Fire Chief, Gerrit Van Dyke. The appointments are for the coming year.

Other matters brought before the Common Council were the request for an appropriation of $55.00 for a fund to be used for the observance of Memorial Day; the purchase of a new police car; the removal of the bandstand from its present stand on Church st. to the Lawrence st. park as well as general repairs and the building of seats and other accommodations at the Lawrence st. park.

Another matter of great importance and public interest at Zeeland, brought to the attention of the council, was the need of a new fire truck. Two members of the fire department were present at the meeting to point out the lack of fire fighting equipment and to plead for a pumper of some sort. With the aid of a pumper, the firemen would be able to throw a steady stream of water without raising the water pressure in the city mains and unduly endangering piping and water tanks in every home. These gentlemen outlined a plan to the council whereby the new truck would be practically self-liquidating.

GENEVIEVE WRIGHT'S HOPE COLLEGE RECITAL

By Minnie U. Flint, Saugatuck

The Hope College of Music presented Genevieve Wright, pianist, class of 1935, pupil of Nella Meyer in a senior recital recently.

I Suite in G Major (transcription by Whiting) Handel.

Prelude Allemande Minuet Gavotte Sarabande Passacaille Gigue.

II Sonata Op. 57 (Appassionata) Beethoven.

Allegro assai.

Andante con moto.

Allegro ma non troppo.

III Novelette No. 6 Schumann.

Rhapsody Op. 79, No. 2 Brahms.

IV Prelude Op. 32 No. 12 Rachmaninoff.

Tragic-Fragment Medtner.

Sonata Ravel.

Moderato.

Movement de Menuet.

Anime.

The program was well chosen and differed widely in color and style. The contrast between the pieces added much to the beauty of the program. Miss Wright's conception of musical form was well marked in the Beethoven Sonata. Her playing is poised yet vigorous. Diligent hard work is her motto.

Last year Miss Wright was awarded the Elizabeth Browning scholarship in music and in connection is taking a college course. Her friends will have the pleasure of hearing Miss Wright in an organ recital at Hope college in June. Hope college is supplying music to many students who are going elsewhere to school and the progress Miss Wright has made under Miss Meyer's supervision during the past year is remarkable. Miss Wright was honored with a large and appreciative audience.
