Legislative Breakfast Attracts 65 in Zeeland

ZEELAND — School aid and taxation were the main topics of discussion at a Michigan Week legislative breakfast in Zeeland Tuesday in Bosch's restaurant, with State Sen. Gary Byker and State Rep. Melvin De Stigter as speakers. About 65 attended the event, with Larry Dickman presiding.

De Stigter briefly reviewed the 16 bills in the governor's budget, half studied by the Senate and half by the House, commenting because it is election year nobody wants to vote additional taxes, and he figured it would be the middle of June before a school aid formula would be determined with the necessary funding bills to support it.

Byker said those who would boost the budget seldom vote for tax bills needed to support it, and he sketched the school aid setup with its bills for limiting millage to 12 mills, reducing the 63 regional districts to 10 to 25, the neighborhood education centers for dropouts in "store front" buildings, assessments, enrichment, and reducing school districts from 644 to 300 or less.

Byker said he was not in favor of any more mandatory reorganization for school districts, adding that the larger the district, the greater the problems seem.

Byker said it is hard to get through to the people that all the money in the state comes from the people and it's all filtered back through an eyedropper wrapped in red tape.

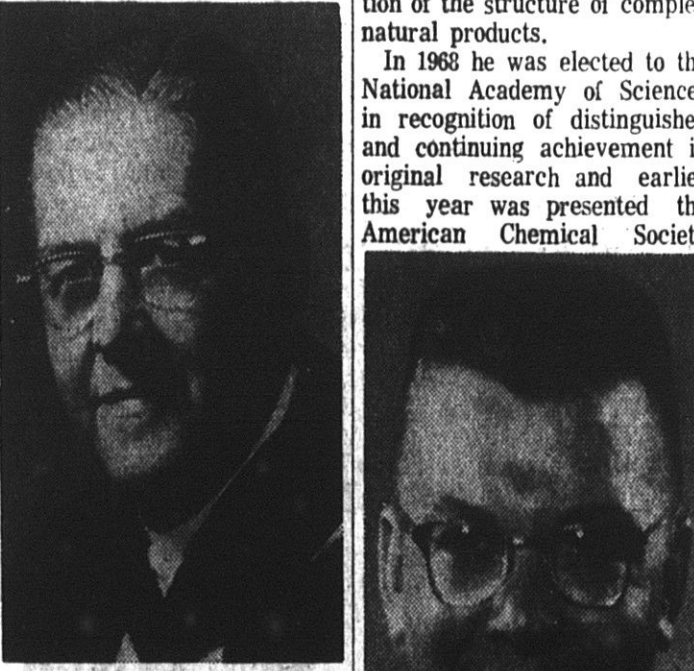

De Stigter said the main sources of income are the sales tax, income tax and property tax, and the hardest job the legislature has is to maintain

City Board Appointees Coming Up

Appointments on city boards to be made by mayor and City Council for positions expiring June 30 were listed at a regular meeting of City Council Wednesday night.

Incumbents whose terms expire are Winthrop F. Roser, Board of Public Works, five years; John H. Van Dyke, Hospital Board, five years; Margaret Steffens, Library Board, five years; Harvey J. Barkel and Richard W. Smith, Board of Appeals, three years; Frank Herbin Jr., panel of space heating examiners, four years; Jacob De Graaf, Tulip Time board, three years.

Members of the Human Relations Commission whose terms expire are David L. Clark, Harold Fincher, Marie Heys, Dr. Carlos Tapia-Ruano and Eugene Vande Vusse, all three-year terms.

Appointments to the Board of Appeals and Tulip Time Board are made by Council while other appointments are made by the mayor with advice and consent of Council.

Under City Charter, incumbents for the Hospital and Library Boards are not eligible for reappointment since they are now serving their second consecutive full terms on those boards.

In other business, Council scheduled a public hearing June 3 at 7:30 p.m. on a request of Holland Hitch Co. for a variance from fire district requirements with respect to constructing a loading dock and an addition to its plant at 430 West 18th St.

License renewals were granted Golden Eighthall, pool tables and East End Cafe, pool table.

A communication from Park township board requested Council to include a $3,000 appropriation in its 1970-71 budget for Park airport improvements and operation. The communication was filed.

Later Gradus Geurink and Russ Homkes of the Tulip City Airport located inside Holland City went on record opposing any city tax funds for an airport operation outside Holland city. Geurink said services at his airport were comparable to the township operation and Homkes offered to get commendations from industrialists in HEDCOR area to support his claims.

Council accepted for first reading an ordinance amendment permitting taxi-buses in Holland providing transportation for seven or more paying customers at a time with no specified routes. The service would operate a minimum of 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and the ordinance would require a 45-day termination notice.

Following second and final readings, Council approved an ordinance making Waverly Heights area, newly annexed to the city, part of the 55th state representative district. Previously it had been in the 95th district.

Council approved bid from Houting and Meusen to demolish and remove the old pumping station at 19th St. and College Ave. for $635, and a bid of Safe-T Fence Co. of $450 to remove and relocate the 15-foot high baseball backstop from property formerly owned by the city on the north side of 19th St. to the new park property on the south side.

Council confirmed certifications from Councilman Lamb, Lamb Inc., fire, park and cemetery departments, $30.64, and a Councilman Smith, Wade Drug Co., police and health departments, $45.53.

The city manager reported that low bid on a sanitary sewer in Lugers Rd. was less than estimates, but said the public improvement fund currently has a deficit and new funding must be considered. His report was accepted as information.

They were joined by Mrs. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Cook.

Baltic ivy from the Governor's residence which was rooted by school children last fall, is exhibited at the Flower Show, and will be planted in the planters outside the pediatrics department later this month. Mrs. Milliken offered to supplement the present supply to fill out the planters.

Johnson explained that the cobblestone mulching in the parking area provides space for snow storage and reduces year round maintenance, while the sugar maples significantly add quality alter the appearance, and will eventually improve the microclimate.

THE FLOYD ZOERMAN TWINS REST ON MOTHER'S LAP

Tulip Time Sidelights

"Raindrops Falling on My Head" almost became the theme song of Tulip Time this year, with three of the four days overcast and rainy. But good weather (if cool) Saturday and sunny weather Sunday made up for a lot.

At Saturdays band review the Kenowa Hills High School Band of Grand Rapids had a novel formation of "Raindrops" with the band forming a large umbrella and majorettes twirling real umbrellas as the song was played.

It was the 30th year that Charlotte High School sent its fine band to the Tulip Time band review and to the parade. As usual, Charlotte received a first division rating. It marked the 25th year under the present director, Robert Powell.

In case you think Tulip Time isn't so popular as it used to be, you could have counted the conglomeration of cars Sunday afternoon at Eighth and Lincoln, the corner where many cars turn off for Windmill Island.

Not counting the cars that turned north to Windmill Island, a traffic officer timed 19 cars per minute headed into Holland, averaging 1,150 an hour or approximately 5,700 in five hours. Cars were leaving Holland at nearly the same rate, 17 per minute or 5,100 in the five hours.

Persons traveling tulip lane Sunday afternoon also were in bumper - to - bumper traffic. A bit of caution at busy intersections and patient waits here and there gave time to admire the tall blooms.

We live in a changing world, and the marching maneuvers at the Saturday band review keep changing too. There were no formations of wooden shoes, tulips or windmills Saturday like in the 1930's, but a lot of space age presentations, and novelties using popular tunes.

Without question, the Christian School Elementary Band had the largest contingent of marchers of any band in Tulip Time this year. There were about 187 players. With flags, majorettes and whatnot, the total number his 199.

Hope College had a contingent of 75 to 80 peace marchers toward the end of Saturday's parade. They carried two signs, one "Hope College Students for Peace" and the other supporting a senate bill, Parade marshals had worked out a compromise through the city attorney's office to allow the march, rather than have isolated incidents. Marshal James Hoffman walked behind the marchers, keeping out some people who wanted to join them. Somber garb was a contrast to the colorful costumed groups and bands.

The John Glenn High School Band of Detroit area worked out a clever maneuver at the Saturday band review. The band formed a huge trumpet and the sousaphones formed the three keys. That left one sousaphone with no assignment, and the narrator finally made him the water well.

Holland had two quartets in the Friday Parade of Quartets. In the Soundations were Bob Essenburg, Bob "ubergen" Bob Bos and Tom Weller. In the Tune Tailors were Bob Peterson, Al Walters, Dale Van Langevelde and Dick Harrington.

An extra tip of the hat to the city street department for its fine job of cleaning up Eighth St. following Saturday's big Parade of Bands. The street was thoroughly littered after the two - hour parade, and city equipment was out early Sunday morning collecting all the litter. Benches remained at curbs Sunday. They were removed early today. Bleacher stands were being dismantled later.

Saturday night's "Music Follies 1970" presented by the Holland High School music department in Civic Center was a complete sellout. Even the corner seats were sold as they were Friday night for the Parade of Quartets, also a complete sellout.

Saturday night's program was a variety show utilizing both stage and floor. Several groups of klomp dancers in stockinged feet made their last festival appearance.

Buses, buses and more buses marked Tulip Time this year, and Saturday's array was a picture indeed. With 53 bands in the parade, buses seemed to be parked all over the place. Charter groups increase each year, although a good share of them prefer to come during the first days.

Mary Ellen Stevenson who directed the Dutch Heritage show for Tulip Time just couldn't identify one man in the 10 a.m. show Saturday in Civic Center.

Good reason why. One cast member, James Meilof, couldn't make it to the performance and his house guest from Lansing, also a Dutchman, had learned the songs and pitchbitted for him. All went well in the informal show.

At the close of the show, the cast presented Mary Ellen with two pairs of wooden shoes, one for herself and the other for her husband, Greg, who is in Vietnam. Tulip Time's "right arm," Pauline Vander Kooy, was presented a bouquet of red roses.

ZEELAND — Caroline De Jonge, 57, of 233 Harrison Ave., injured Friday night in a two-car accident along Adams St. east of State St., was listed today in fair condition at Zeeland Community hospital with multiple fractures of the hip and chest.

The Koeman auto was eastbound on Adams St.

Fails to Yield Way

Cars driven by Mark David Willis, 17, of Lansing, and Vincent Sidney, 63, of Chicago, collided at 5:10 p.m. Saturday at Beeline Rd. and James St., according to Ottawa county sheriff's deputies who cited Sidney for failure to yield the right of way. Deputies said no one was injured.

Hudsonville Couples Sue Fair Group

GRAND HAVEN — Six couples living in Hudsonville city started a suit in Ottawa Circuit Court Friday, seeking an order to have the Hudsonville Community Fair Association discontinue a nuisance near their properties in subdivisions 1 and 2 in Sunset Heights.

The plaintiffs claim that the fair association owns a parcel of property near their homes and uses it to conduct fair events, such as races and other contests. The activity, including inadequate parking of many cars in the area, creates a nuisance, the plaintiffs claim, and the use of the property is in violation of city ordinances.

The couples also claim that the presence of animals during hot weather creates a nuisance and the value of their properties is endangered. They ask for a judgement of $25,000 against the association and also ask for an order restraining the fair from continuing the nuisance.

The couples are Curtis Dood, Ronald Jenkins, Fred Paulucci, Fred Esslair, Burt Hoezee and David Vander Till and their wives.

DUTCH BEAUTY—Thirty years ago her father wore the costume during a Tulip festival but this year it is her opportunity. Amy Van Kollen, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Kollen of 807 Central Ave., sniffs a tulip, freshened by a light rain. The costume was purchased in The Netherlands by her great grandfather. It is a type worn by both boys and girls and was in the possession of a family that worked in The Netherlands for relatives.

Tulip Time Sidelights

One klompen dancer may yet turn out to be a financial genius.

A Tulip Time visitor wanted a pair of wooden shoes, not just any pair but one that had been danced in on the streets of Holland.

No dancer seemed willing to part with her shoes except one who had one cracked shoe. He paid $20.

The biggest crowd in the history of local quartet parades jammed Civic Center Friday night and the people saw a fine show. The audience had no idea of some of the problems backstage since harmonizers are good troupers.

The trouble was, the Midnight Oilers of Glenn Ellyn, Ill., couldn't get their chartered flight off the ground and made the trip by car, arriving just after 8:40 p.m. as the Windmill Chorus was on stage. The Oilers were next on the program after an intermission.

Quartet Parade Emcee Del Doctor of Muskegon did have a gimmick handy in case the Oilers failed to show. Three members of a Muskegon quartet were sitting in the second row. Del is the bass of the quartet. He was all set to make up a quartet from the audience. But it wasn't necessary.

Hence, the Kasual D's did not perform. They were on the Tulip Time program last year.

East Lansing Mayor Gordon L. Thomas who visited Holland on an early Mayor Exchange Day Friday had the novel experience of "Going Up the Down Staircase" at Windmill Island in the afternoon. The visiting mayor and his party, escorted by Holland Mayor Nelson Bosman, were greeted at Windmill Island by Manager Jaap de Blecourt.

Because a long line was waiting to enter historic Windmill De Zwaan, de Blecourt slipped the party in from the rear door.

The East Lansing delegation was given a reception in the Festival Room of Hotel Warm Friend where they watched street scrubbing and klompen dancing from second floor windows. Ross Giles of the Chamber of Commerce arranged for some local products as gifts. They came from Brooks Products Inc., De Pree Co., Beech-Nut Inc., Holland Cotton Products, Hekman Rusk Co. and Holland Honey Cake Co.

Tracy Joe Heilman knows when her birthday comes along. It's when the tulips are in bloom.

They were in bloom Friday on her fourth birthday. Since the family lives on tulip lane on Washington Blvd., she is sure to see lots of activity on her birthday too.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Heilman, 325 Washington Blvd. She had been watching the progress of the tulips for several weeks.

What was to be a presidents' exchange for Kiwanians Thursday night turned out to be a Tulip Time promotion.

Local Kiwanis President Avery D. Baker and five members went to Kalamazoo, resplendent in Dutch costumes and wooden shoes. Henry Vander Linde led singing and told a few traditional Dutch jokes. Fred Veltman presented wooden shoes to the Kalamazoo president and Neal Berghoef gave an invitation in Dutch to visit Tulip Time. Tulip Time programs were distributed.

Have you noticed bumper stickers on cars bearing the legend "Brenz ze levend terug?" It's a triple-A message in Dutch meaning "Bring 'em Back Alive!"

Holland's 600 klompen dancers are all girls who attend local high schools. But Thursday night, one boy danced. Randy Wolters of West Ottawa, joined an 11-member team dancing in the rain Thursday night on Central Ave. near the church. His sister was a member of the team.

Randy was not in costume, but he did right well and the crowd cheered him.

East Lansing Mayor Gordon L. Thomas tried out Mayor Nelson Bosman's chair in the mayor's office in City Hall Friday afternoon and found it comfortable indeed.

He also was impressed by the mayor's comfortable office — panelled, carpeted and air conditioned, and said his office in East Lansing was barely large enough for Bosman's large desk.

Mayor Thomas looked at his city manager, John Patriarche, and said "Make a note of that!"

But then the visiting mayor was told that Holland mayors are paid only $280 a year. City voters just haven't changed that part of the charter in two or three tries.

The Dutch Heritage show in Civic Center had a change in its program at two shows early Friday evening. Regular accordionist Arjan Verheul had another engagement and Mr. and Mrs. John Karsten filled in as an instrumental duo, he on the harmonica and his wife on the guitar. There was nary a slip.

Ira G. Decker Dies at Age 70

Born in Holland, Mr. Decker had lived in Holland all his life and had been employed as an auto electrician for most of his working career.

He is survived by one sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack L. Decker of Holland, and four nieces and nephews.

3-Car Chain Collision Injures Passenger

Dona Post, 19, of 393 Lincoln Ave., a passenger in a car driven by Kenneth E. Post, 19, of the same address, was slightly injured in a three car accident Friday at 7:30 p.m. at River and Pine Aves.

Holland police said a car driven by Paul J. De Roos, 34, of 2457 Thomas, attempting to stop, lurched forward and struck the rear of the Post car, forcing the vehicle into the rear of a car operated by Stephen R. Dick, 18, of 658 Lakewood Blvd. All were headed north on River Ave. Police continued their investigation.

SALVATION ARMY— NEW LOOK IN UNIFORMS

There are so many changes in our way of life today that it is easy to understand why the Salvation Army has introduced new uniforms, according to a news story from London, England.

Many people in the Holland area are pleased that we have a Salvation Army Post in our city, and although the past week was just another week to many, it marked many years of service for the Army which performs greatly but receives little publicity for the good they do as part of their daily routine.

The uniforms for the Army were designed to replace a uniform designed in 1878 when the Army was reported to be doing work in tavern and other problem areas of society. Some Army members will continue to wear the old uniforms.

For women, the uniform includes a blue, above - the - knee skirt and jacket, trimmed with red insignia. The outfit is complemented with a white blouse, army broach, and soft, bowler-type hat.

The men of the Army will continue to wear the old military styled hat with a blue lapelled jacket, navy blue necktie and trousers.

The new styles which were recently unveiled in London may not be seen for some time in the United States.

Confronting the Pagan World
Acts 17:16-19, 32
By C. P. Dame
The Christian religion faced a pagan world in the first century and it is facing a pagan world today. The early church was successful. Today's church can learn from the early church how to win converts.

I. The gospel is also for intellectual pagans. Christianity presented its message first in the cities—Jerusalem, Samaria, Caesarea, Antioch, and in all the major cities of the Roman empire. This lesson tells of Paul's work in Athens and in Ephesus. Paul was forced to leave Berea and friends brought him to Athens. Silas and Timothy planned to follow.

While Paul waited for his friends to come he grasped opportunities to present Christ in Athens. As he walked around in the city his heart was stirred by its many idols. Paul first went to the Jewish synagogue and disputed with the Jews and with devout Gentiles who were attracted to Judaism, and presented Christ to them and then he went to the market place and did the same thing there. On Mars' hill, Paul gave an address to the intellectuals of the city.

Paul preached to all manner of audiences and he sought to win them. When Paul preached to the Jews he referred to the Old Testament but when he faced the Gentiles he talked natural religion. In Athens he spoke about a personal God who is the Creator, Sustainer and Governor of all—beginning with a reference to an altar dedicated to the Unknown God, about whom he was going to speak since he knew Him, and whom they ignorantly worshipped.

Man is the offspring of God, is responsible to Him and is dependent upon Him. Paul quotes from one of their poets to prove his point. Sin is a personal offense against God who calls for repentance and salvation which is offered through Christ whom God raised from the dead and appointed Judge.

Some mocked, some said they would consider the matter some other time and a few believed. The gospel still meets with a variety of responses.

II. The gospel has always met with opposition. Paul spent three successful years in Ephesus, capital of Province of Asia, a religious center, seat of the worship of Diana, whose temple in the city was one of the seven wonders of the world.

Due to Paul's preaching the sale of the shrines of the goddess was falling off and Demetrius, a manufacturer of shrines, called together his workmen and told them that Paul's preaching was hurting business and the reputation of the goddess. A riot followed. The sensible town clerk with a few words stopped the riot and Paul left the city after having won a number of converts and having founded a church.

The early church preached Christ, Saviour and Lord and won converts from paganism. This is the work of the church today. Is your church faithful to its mission?

Johnson-Klinesteker Wedding Vows Said

Mrs. John Calvin Johnson

Miss Kathleen Phyllis Kline-steker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Klinesteker, 369 Mayfair, became the bride of John Calvin Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson, 5841 141st St., on Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Burnips Methodist Church.

The Rev. Harold Diepert and the Rev. Edward Tanis, who married the bride's parents 28 years ago, officiated. Mrs. George Bolithe of Hudsonville was organist and Mrs. James Shuck of Grand Rapids was soloist.

For the ceremony, the bride chose a floor-length A-line gown of organza with Venice lace circling the Victorian collar and cuffs of the bishop sleeves. Garlands of the same lace extended from the shoulder to the hemline and edged a double tiered mantilla which held the chapel length train in place. A bouquet of white carnations and red sweetheart roses on a Bible completed the bride's attire.

The maid of honor, Miss Nancy Williams, and the bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Kline-steker, Miss Barbara Johnson, sister of the groom, and Miss Bette Boeskool were attired similarly in empire style gowns of pink acetate taffeta with illusion sleeves of pink nylon lace. They carried reed baskets filled with pink and white daisies.

The groom, who has served in Vietnam, works at De Noover's Chevrolet and the bride is employed at Zephyr.

A rehearsal luncheon was given by the groom's parents at the James Klinesteker residence at 4289 30th St., Burnips.

West Ottawa Presents Diplomas to 18 Adults

Eighteen adults received high school diplomas at the fourth annual West Ottawa Adult Education graduation May 11 in West Ottawa Cafeteria. Graduates came from Hamilton, Holland, West Ottawa and Zeeland school districts.

About 140 persons were present for the exercises in which West Ottawa Supt. Lloyd H. Van Raalte presented high school equivalency certificates, or regular diplomas.

Peter Roan, assistant superintendent and director of adult education at West Ottawa, presided.

West Ottawa High School equivalency diplomas went to Anna Brock, Sylvia Craycraft, Gary Dekker, Julius Nyhof and Donald Morris.

West Ottawa High School diplomas went to Nancy Allen,

Harvey Bock, Elaine Brink, Nancy Boersma, Gordon Bruins, Bernard Bos, Maxine Grasman, Connie Holstege, Gordon Holstege, Grace Lanheet, Linda Payne and Paul Van Raalte. Arie Blok was presented with a Grandville High School diploma.

As speaker, Robert Doyle, manager of organization development at Donnelly Mirrors Inc., pointed out that man's internal need to know more is never completely satisfied. Once he reaches a level of knowledge or learning there is still an unanswered drive to go beyond the level attained. Doyle expressed the belief that those graduating would also continue to learn and expand their experiences even though they had reached one goal—graduating from high school.

Special recognition was given adult students who have been accepted for enrollment in college including Grace Lanheet at Grand Rapids Junior College and Arie Blok at Hope College. Donald Morris is presently enrolled at Davenport Business College. Some other students are awaiting confirmation.

Attending the graduation exercises were members of the West Ottawa Board of Education, members of the Adult Education Review Board, adult education teachers, clerical staff members, friends, relatives and special guests.

Tulip Festival Sidelights

One of the hardworking, behind-the-scenes Garden Club members is Miriam Gordon who compiles the lists of winners in the Tulip Time Flower Show at the Holland Armory. Miriam (Mrs. Robert Gordon) has been publicity chairman for several years and since leaving that post has taken on the Tulip Time publicity. She also must identify all the winning arrangements for later use.

Several of the cooperative training students employed by The Sentinel take part in the Tulip Time activities. In the Dutch dance group are Kristi Jo Niebor, Mary De Weerd, Kathy McKechnie and Sheryl Achterhof. They do double duty, dancing and then returning to work.

When Gov. and Mrs. William Milliken visited the Antique Show at the Woman's Literary Club Wednesday afternoon, the Governor's wife admired some of the cranberry glass displayed. She thought it would look well in the state summer home on Mackinac Island but when she learned the price, she decided otherwise. Mrs. Robert De Nooyer, president of the Club, presented Mrs. Milliken with a silver windmill charm.

A Senior Citizens group from Belleville, Ill., filled three buses for a trip here for the Tulip Festival. Average age for the 120 who had a 4 p.m. dinner at the United Methodist Church was 70.

The entire contingent had enough pep and enthusiasm to belie their age. They were having a wonderful time in Holland despite chilly rainy weather and told the church women that they make several chartered bus trips a year to similar events. But consensus among the friendly group was that Dutch hospitality here can't be beat.

Another friendly busload of women came to the festival from Wheeling, W. Va. They also were pleased with arrangements made for their visit here. The local women who are working to provide meals for busloads of visitors are getting most of their information about activities second-hand, but the appreciation for home-cooked meals and friendly service expressed by the visitors makes missing a parade or two seem worthwhile.

Ben Cuperus of the VFW has arranged for a special color guard for Saturday's Parade of Bands at 3 p.m. This will be in addition to the regular VFW color guard.

The contingent includes a display of flags of the 13 original states, a Jewish flag, Catholic flag, Protestant flag, Michigan flag; District of Columbia flag, United Nations flag and, of course, the American flag.

The special flags will be carried by Boy Scouts of the Chippewa district.

The owner of a two-month-old 1970 sports model got a chuckle from a note left under her windshield wiper in the Civic Center parking lot offering her $810. The car cost $3,800. Moreover, the initial offer was $710, and then crossed out for $100 more.

Jo Kools has been telling her delightful Dutch story of the little boy with his finger in the dike in some program or other just about every year since Tulip Time started 41 years ago.

On Thursday night, she finally got her husband, Dr. W. C. Kools, to attend the program.

Over 500 gathered in Civic Center at 5:30 p.m. Thursday for the Dutch Heritage show and the "band of Dutch immigrants" had a great time singing their Dutch songs. After breaking up, the group was asked to put on another show at 6:30 p.m. This involved moving the props from the main stage to the basement room, and rounding up cast members. They all had fun.

Three generations of one family wearing family heirloom Friesian costumes appear in the Dutch Heritage show. They are Mrs. Ethel Kleinheksel, her daughter, Mrs. Robert Bolte, and her granddaughter, Karenene Bolte.

Mrs. Stanley Curtis is another veteran of the Dutch Heritage program. She wears a black Sunday go-to-meeting Friesland costume and she has been in some type of costume program just about every year since Tulip Time started.

The show has two performances tonight at 6:30 and 7:45 p.m. in the basement room of Civic Center and another Saturday at 10 a.m. on the main stage.

Michigan's First Lady, Mrs. William G. Milliken, paid a visit to Holland Hospital Wednesday afternoon to inspect the landscaping currently being planted. A landscape architect student, Mrs. Milliken has had lots of experience in this work and even provided ivy slips for some of the plantings.

Carl Johnson, landscape architect who was retained by the Holland Garden Club for the hospital plan, also was present and explained the program to Mrs. Milliken who remained in Holland for the remainder of the day. Her husband returned to Lansing after the parade.

While at the hospital, a succession of young bicyclists stopped for autographs. There was a lot of autograph signing and posing for pictures earlier at Civic Center.

Roger Stroh and Jim Vande Poel who planned street scrubbing ceremonies and the parade Wednesday, said fully 600 scrubbers turned out for the annual rite, the largest ever. They also arranged to have scrubbers scrub the entire street as they marched, rather than assigning particular places for scrubbing.

For the second year in a row, three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vohlken, 148 East 21st St., are serving as Tulip Time majorettes. Janice, a sixth grader, is with the elementary band; Barbara is with the E. E. Fell eighth grade band, and Nancy, a sophomore at Holland High, marches with the senior high band.

In Holland this week to take Tulip Time pictures for possible use in a Michigan edition of Voyageur Magazine, published in Minneapolis, Minn., is the editor-publisher Hugo Skratins. He also is interested in photographing blossoms for the issue, particularly apple blossoms.

When Gov. Milliken's flight to Holland was cancelled Wednesday and he came to Holland by car, State Rep. Mel De Stigter quipped it was really a great move. That way, the Millikens traveled over the bumpiest part of M-21 between Jenison and Zeeland.

The former Olympic pole-vaulter lectured on the art of positive thinking through a series of stories, humorous anecdotes and allusions to the sports world.

Illustrating his theme Richards pointed out that 95 per cent of all athletes he has come into contact with have been under 5'10" and 175 lbs. He went on to note Rocky Marciano, Jesse Owens and others as examples of average people with greater than average ambition.

Richards remarked that the potential is there for old and young alike but told his audience you have to put out. He went on to illustrate with a flurry of facts and statistics and non-usage of the remarkable human potential.

Seminaries' Board Makes Decisions on Personnel

The Board of Trustees for the Theological Seminaries of the Reformed Church in America met on the campus of Western Seminary May 11 and 12. Decisions made by the Board involved personnel on both the New Brunswick and Western campuses.

Professor Hugh A. Koops, currently heading the Department of Christian Education on Western's campus, will transfer to the New Brunswick Theological Seminary. He will work with a core group in the urban area, and will teach courses in the field of ethics and church and society. Professor Koops is completing his work toward a Doctor of Philosophy degree at the Chicago Divinity School in the areas of ethics and society.

Named for one year as an instructor in Christian Education on Western's campus, replacing Professor Koops, is Mrs. John Stewart. Mrs. Stewart has a master's degree in Christian Education from the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

Elevated to the rank of full professor was Dr. E. Earle Ellis of the New Brunswick faculty, as professor of Biblical studies, and on the Western campus, Dr. Donald J. Bruggink, serving as professor of historical theology and church history. These men have both been on their respective faculties for a number of years and were elevated from the rank of associate professor.

The Board also named Professor Garret A. Witterdink for an additional two-year appointment as director of field education and assistant professor of theology on Western's faculty.

In the field of professional development and the continuing education of the clergy, the Board named Professor Robert A. Nykamp as director of professional development. Mr. Nykamp, currently director of counseling and assistant professor of pastoral care at Western Seminary, but will be given significant time to direct the growing program of continuing education. He will work in close cooperation with the Rev. Alvin J. Poppen, who is currently coordinator of human resources in the New York offices of the Reformed Church in America.

A major concern of the Board's deliberation was the matter of the Hiram Street apartments project on the New Brunswick campus. Due to the changing nature of this project, the Board authorized the president of the seminary to act in consultation with the executive committee of the Board.

In an election of officers for the new fiscal year, Dr. Lars I. Granberg was named chairman of the Board. Dr. Granberg served on the faculty of Hope College before becoming the president of Northwestern College in Orange City, Iowa. Serving with Granberg are vice-chairman, the Rev. Frederic Dolfen of Waupun, Wis.; secretary, Dr. Sylvio J. Scorza, serving as professor of Greek and New Testament in Northwestern College; and treasurer, John E. Damon, a Grand Rapids attorney. Damon had previously served on the Western Seminary Board as its treasurer and later as its chairman and is a senior partner in the law firm of Williams and Damon with offices in Grand Rapids.

Trustees elected to serve on the executive committee with the officers for next year are Dr. Robert F. De Haan of Philadelphia, formerly associated with the faculty of Hope College; the Rev. Vernon L. Dethmers, from Glen Rock, N.Y., who completed a term of office as chairman of the Board; and the Rev. Robert Marsh of Oakland, N.J.

The Board of Trustees expressed its appreciation to those who completed their terms of office. These included Willard C. Wichers of Holland, who had served as the first treasurer for the merged Board; Henry Strabbing of Holland, a long-time member of Western's Board of Trustees before serving on the new unified Board; the Rev. Raymond R. Van Heukelom, a former pastor of the First Reformed Church of Holland; the Rev. Martin A. Punt of Bronxville, N.Y., who served on the New Brunswick Board before joining the merged Board; and the Rev. Alvin J. Poppen. Other members of the retiring trustee class of 1970, but eligible for re-election included the Rev. Tom Stark of Lansing, and John De Wild of Rock Valley, Iowa.

A resolution of tribute was prepared by the Board of Trustees for presentation to the General Synod RCA in honor of Dr. Wallace N. Jamison, currently completing his terminal sabbatical year from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary. The Board also expressed appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Gates of the staff of New Brunswick Theological Seminary, who will retire from their posts this summer.

In a major policy decision, the Board voted to continue the B.D. program both at New Brunswick and Western for the future, while beginning a concurrent program of bivalent multistage theological education, a new venture which gives new students their first two years of preparation on the New Brunswick campus, followed by a final two years of professional training on Western's campus, prior to ordination for ministry.

Those actions of the Board of Trustees which require the endorsement or ratification of the General Synod of the Reformed Church will be presented to that body. The General Synod will meet this year the first week in June on the Hope College campus, with the business sessions held in Dimnent Chapel.

A new high in total enrollment for both campuses was reported. Presently there are 38 students enrolled for the new bivalent program on New Brunswick's campus, with an additional 21 B.D. students at Western and 10 new B.D. students at New Brunswick. In addition, four Christian Education candidates are expected to enter this area of training. Returning students for the B.D. program number 63 at Western and 42 at New Brunswick. Together with those now under way in MCE and THM degree work, the grand total reaches 220 persons, divided into 91 at New Brunswick, N.J., and 129 at Western Seminary in Holland.

Dr. Herman J. Ridder serves as the president for both New Brunswick and Western seminaries, under the direction of the Board of Trustees.
