The examination of Ray Parady, on the charge of taking $15 from the residence of C. Oxner, took place in Justice McBride's office last Friday afternoon and Saturday forenoon. Attorney Kollen represented the defendant. Evidence was introduced proving that Mr. Parady was at home reading when the alleged crime was committed. On failure of the prosecution to establish a case the respondent was dismissed.

Postmaster G. Van Schelven and Attorney George E. Kollen, of Holland, were in the village Wednesday night. It has been a number of years since Mr. Van Schelven visited Allegan. To the writer he said he remembered passing through the village some forty years ago a "little emigrant kid," as he described himself. He was greatly pleased with our very pretty and progressive village.—Allegan Chronicle.

It is alleged she put rough on rats in a chicken pie. All of the members of the family were made deathly sick, but all have recovered. While playing along the banks of the stream east of River street with some other boys about the same age, Henry ventured into the stream in an old row boat. The boat capsized throwing him into 12 feet of water. Being unable to swim he sank almost immediately. With the assistance of a pike-pole R. He has always been at his post of duty, ever ready to espouse a just cause, or obstruct unjust legislation. He is well informed upon all affairs of importance before the law-making branch of government, and is capable of holding his own with the best of his colleagues in debate. There is a well defined rumor in circulation to the effect that J. Van Putten, formerly manager of the tub factory, and Joseph Fixter, formerly of Holland, but now manager of a large shop in Milwaukee, are figuring on starting a stove factory in this city, if a bonus is given. Interested parties have the matter under consideration, and steps may soon be taken to ascertain the feeling of the people in regard to the proposed enterprise.

Capt. Chas. Morton of Grand Haven General Superintendent of the 11th U. S. Life Saving district spent Sunday at his old post at Holland harbor. The captain is getting along nicely with the duties of his new position. His former training in the U. S. regular army, and his long service as surman and captain in the life saving department render it possible for him to perform the responsible duties of superintendent in a manner that will keep up the present high standard of that branch of Uncle Sam's employees. The captain tells an interesting story of the service entitled "The shrinking man." A young man named Floyd L. Moody of Pontwater took the civil service examination at Ludington and registered 5 feet 7 1/2 inches in height. He was assigned to Michigan City station, but at the physical examination, taken before Dr. Walkley of Grand Haven, he measured 5.54. Word was sent to the keeper of the Michigan City station to measure Moody. He did so. Result: height 5.54. As this was 1/4 of an inch under the standard height Moody was dismissed, but took another chance with Dr. Walkley and measured 5.64. He was thereupon reinstated in service. It seems that Moody is taller early in the morning than he is as the day advances. This is the first official proof of the claim that a man changes in height in the course of a day, and is a matter of record.

FRIDAY, June 2.

Gustavus Adolphus.

DELIVERED BY LUDWIG C. LARSON, OLIVET COLLEGE AT THE SECOND ANNUAL INTER-COLLEGIATE CONTEST OF THE MICHIGAN ORATORICAL LEAGUE, HOLLAND, MICH., MAY 5, 1899.

The sixteenth century of the Christian era brought to the champions of freedom the heritage of despair. The night of a thousand years had been broken but here and there by a lonely star that only intensified the gloom. The dawn of Freedom's day, so dimly and so briefly seen, was hid by threatening storm-clouds. Peoples there were, but nations none; a religion, indeed, but a religion of fear. The simple faith of early Christian days had given way to pomp and empty form. Disciples of sin in the guise of saints thrived on blind credulity. Selfishness and lust of temporal power bound the world in sacerdotal chains, and Evil reigned supreme. Ignorance, like a pall, lay upon the helpless world, and superstitions stalked about, specters of hopes that should have been.

And yet decadence found in itself the seeds of resurrection. Wyclif in the north, the Reformation's morning star, Savonarola in the south, its brilliant, flashing meteor, had heralded a coming day of better things. The Renaissance had revealed to man that he could think if he would but dare. The printing-press had come to force mankind to think and, having thought, to act. Then had come the Reformation. The words of Luther, called "half-battles," proved victorious. Germany fell beneath their sway and a language was formed upon which arose the structure of a mighty nation; a language in which a Kant might reason, a Goethe sing, and a Bismarck shudder at statermanship.

But more than language, more than conditions for a nation's birth, the Reformation had roused a spirit that was striving to shatter the fetters of centuries, to give deliverance to nations, and to leave for all coming time the precious heritage of civil liberty and freedom to worship as conscience enjoined. Where the zeal of Columbus had shown the way the Protestant wave was long to follow and, bathing in its spray that new-found shore, to baptize it in the name of Liberty, Equality, Fraternity. The new-born faith saw in prophetic vision its full fruition in that western world: the civil independence, religious tolerance, the freedom of mind and tongue and pen that we enjoy. From that bright Utopian dream the world would have awakened to the bitter loss of even past attainment but for that man who, like the Great Martyr of Calvary, left his kingdom with its peace and joy, endured the hardships of a world at strife, and suffered betrayal and death for Humanity's need. Call Luther, if you will, the Reformation's author, but its savior find in Gustavus Adolphus.

The Saxon reformer had been laid to rest. The tolerant rulers had passed away and with them the peace of Europe. Ferdinand II had mounted the Austrian throne. That bigot mind had resolved to crush the Protestant faith and leave no trace of Luther's work. Cruel oppression and persecutions followed, such as the Lollards of England never felt—a protracted St. Bartholomew's Day. The land of Jerome and Huss in despair revolted and called to arms. The Battle of Prague was fought and lost. So deeply fixed in the German heart were the convictions of the purer faith that death was easier than surrender, and the struggle still went on. But Might prevailed against the Right. The Emperor summoned Wallenstein, that dark and gloomy "man of destiny," and bade him raise an army. With promises of endless spoil this man gathered a band of outlaws from every nation, and swept through the land like a dark storm-cloud, leaving a trail of desolation. The Emperor, in exultation, dreamed of more extended sway till Vienna should become a second Rome, himself a second Caesar. The kings of other nations trembled on their thrones. Germany lay helpless and bleeding. Hopeless despair filled the Protestant heart. But should Freedom, blinded by the spirit of darkness and repression, appeal in vain to the God of Right to send a savior? Was Truth forever vanquished? Ah, no! At an hour thus dark and hopeless, from out the cold and barren north sweeps down the defender of truth and freedom, Gustavus Adolphus. Ferdinand boasts in scorn that the zeal of Catholic troops will melt the king of ice and snow. Nay, let the Emperor tremble; a greater than Ferdinand, a greater than Wallenstein, is here. The hour, the need, and the man have come together.

Could this fair and gifted youth have had prevision of his greatest work, his days of education could not have been more wisely spent. He sought the full development of mind and soul; then, drawn away from arts of peace by his country's need of a warrior-king, he became a master of the arts of war. He overcame by force of arms the greed of Denmark, the hate of Russia, the anarchy of Poland. Then through reforms he became to Sweden what Alfred and Cromwell were to England, what Richelieu was to France.

But his duty was not yet done. This had been but preparation for a greater mission. He heard the call of God and Humanity and would not disobey. Rejecting ease, a peaceful reign, a happy life, he chose privation, toil of battle and march, a soldier's death. He sailed away to the German coast, a land defended by a force ten times his own, and with his little band of Christian heroes began that meteor-like career to end on the field of Lutzen. Gustavus, the king, has been modest and gentle, but Gustavus, the warrior,—the logic of history says—will be arrogant and cruel. Tilly through war became a fiend and Wallenstein a demon. Napoleon by war's baleful touch became a cold, unfeeling despot. The votaries of Mars in every age bear the marks of that cruel god in branded souls and blemished characters. But the logic of history is often at fault. Adolphus was still beneficent as king, merciful and tolerant as warrior, in all controlled by the spirit of love. Yes, here in a less enlightened age, amid the scenes of cruel war, the Christian graces sweetly bloomed. In the camp and on the march, he taught his men to keep the moral law. Twice a day the roll of drums called them to kneel in praise and prayer. He improved the tactics of war as no one, perhaps, before or since, but he was also the first to strive to remove its barbarous horrors. No desolations marked the trail of his march, no hamlets ruined, or villages burned, or cities taken by assault. No wonder that the German peasants knelt and kissed his feet; no wonder that where he went there beat the heart of Sweden, and that to mention his name was like hoisting the national banner.

And yet his task was not an easy one. Allies were faithless, friends were timid. The greatest generals of the age opposed him. The hostile forces far outnumbered his own. Still that genius disciplined in former wars, that soul inspired by a sacred cause, sweeps onward with resistless march. The battles of Leipsic, Lech and Nuremberg are but the steps on which he mounts to the crowning day of Lutzen, the most fateful, perhaps, in all the history of Europe. Here the spirit of light and the spirit of darkness confront each other. The victor's prize is Freedom's future destiny. If despotism win the day, the work of Luther and Calvin and Huss has been in vain; the world must linger in intellectual bondage and the souls of men must grope again in darkness; the freedom of England, unsustained, will cease the hopeless struggle; the happy land and freeborn men in the western world may never be. It is an hour fraught with hopes of future time when the "man of thought" attacks the "man of destiny." The sullen boom of hostile cannon answers back in grim defiance the solemn chant of Luther's hymn. The squadrons charge and meet in shock terrific, retreat, advance and charge again in deadly struggle. Sabres clashing, cannon roaring, shouts and groans, prayers and curses mingle in the awful chaos. The earth beneath trembles with the agony. The mist descends to hide from mortal view that more than mortal combat. But in that mist, above Adolphus shades of Freedom's martyrs seem to hover with the mute appeal that to his heart sounds loud amid the din of battle: on, heroic host, against the foe! Humanity with all its future hope invokes you! God and Right are on your side! Then, on! You cannot fail! Strike for Truth and Freedom! Strike for God and fellow-men! Adolphus falls—yet on his spirit leads and urges with resistless might, on inspires to victory. The sun goes down and the field is won. Adolphus has saved the Protestant faith, the civilization of Europe, the hope of America, the progress of the world.

In a later time upon this heritage a nation has arisen proud of its Bunker Hill and Vicksburg. Then again the powers of earth have stood amazed to see that nation take up arms in an unselfish way to aid oppressed humanity. With the triumph of this hour, with our pride in Santiago and Manila Bay, there blend in harmony the praises of that hero who over two hundred and fifty years ago laid down his life in the self same cause. Well for the world that now and then we have an Adolphus to ameliorate the horrors of war; well that a cause like his can take a man out of himself and make him not a fratricide, but an instrument of the Almighty power to preserve at the cost of blood the sacred rights of man; well that such as he hold not their lives too dear a price to pay for greater good to brother men and coming generations. If to-day "Liberty is not a dream or Truth a defeated power," it is only because such men as Gustavus Adolphus have labored and fought and died.

And from the life and early death of that hero, there comes to us over the stretch of years the lesson worthy of young manhood's thought, that there is a greater aim than temporal power, or a famous name, yea, than home or country—and that aim is God and Humanity. He whose life aim has been this, though he lie in an untimely grave on distant Lutzen, in Santiago or Philippine Isle, cannot have lived in vain; nay, is not dead but lives in the hearts of men forever.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Port Sheldon.

The wind storm of Sunday night did considerable damage.

Mrs. M. Slupick of Chicago is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Any.

Frank Davis of Holland was here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Any of Holland spent Sunday at this place.

Miss Knoothuizen, our teacher, gave a picnic for the school children last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cook spent Saturday in Holland.

Our highway commissioner brought a stray to put on the road. It is needed badly enough both here and in Holland township, as it is a great help to the roads.

Wm. Bourton and Mr. F. Granz spent a day here, fishing. They had good luck.

Quite a number of people were here on a fishing trip, Tuesday.

Allegan County.

Work on the new school-house at Allegan is progressing rapidly. The brick work of the first story is well under way, and a slight idea of the exterior of the building when completed may be obtained by looking over what has been done.

A young man from Gunplain township applied to county clerk Barnes for a marriage license last Thursday, but the genial clerk could not comply with his request. He brought his prospective bride along, but she was only sixteen years old. She had been living a number of years with a family who adopted her, but as no legal action had been taken at the time nor since to make the adoption binding the foster parents could not give their consent to her marriage. The couple were very much disappointed, but returned home to consider the matter. A guardian must be appointed for the girl and the consent of that custodian obtained before she can become a bride, unless she waits until she becomes eighteen years of age.—Allegan Gazette.

The Macraebes of western Ottawa, Allegan and Van Buren counties, will hold a joint basket picnic at Baldhead Park, Saturday, June 10, 1899. Four cornet bands have been engaged. Hon. Charles Lovelace of Muskegon, will deliver an address. A fine program has been prepared with plenty of amusements and excursions on Lake Michigan. Everybody is invited to help swell the throng. Take a day off and have a good time. The parade will form on Water street at eleven o'clock a. m. and march to the Public Square, where an address of welcome will be given by the president of the village, after which all will be taken to Old Bidhead for dinner, the exercises commencing at 1:30.—Fennville Herald.

Edward W. Gray, Geo. W. Gray D. D., Wm. H. Harbert of Evanston, Frank A. Doty, Wm. H. Tuttle, Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Ochsen of Chicago, and Mrs. M. Marguerite Cook of Elgin, were in Saugatuck a short time ago in the interests of the Forward Movement, to look over the grounds and locate the buildings to be constructed and to make other arrangements that are necessary. The contract for the erection of the buildings has been let to Saugatuck parties and Saugatuck labor will be used in the construction of the same. The following from the Douglas Record goes to show that the Forward Movement idea is not up to expectations: "Those who have been looking for big things in the building line from the 'Forward Movement' are destined to be bespectledly disillusioned. Our beautiful expectations of dormitories, school houses, hotels, bathing pavilions, and the Lord knows what not, have dwindled down to one building 18x32 feet, and there is no present movement, either forward or otherwise, to begin the construction of that."

A plan by which the village of Allegan may do commercial lighting in connection with the new street lighting plant now in process of construction there is under consideration by president Thomas.

Wednesday Lewis L. Thompson & Co. purchased the drug store and fixtures belonging to W. J. Garrod, and will continue the business. Mr. Garrod has been contemplating making a change for some time because of other interests which demand much of his time. His future plans are not fully perfected, however, but it is understood that he will remove to Holland in the near future where he has considerable business interests and where some of his relatives reside.

The paper mill of Allegan is running on full time now, night and day, and 21 hands are employed besides seven teamsters drawing straw. The company have orders ahead and are shipping paper to firms in Chicago, Milwaukee, Anderson, Ind., and places in Ohio, Pennsylvania and other states.

Ottawa County.

A party left Zeeland Tuesday, to visit the lands of the Michigan Land Co., limited, at Rudyard, Chippewa county, Michigan, with a view of purchasing farms.

Tuesday, June 6, will be a great day for Masonry in Ottawa county. On that day the new lodge room, of Ottawa Lodge, No. 122, F. & A. M., of this place will be dedicated. Ottawa Lodge is the oldest Masonic lodge in Ottawa county. No doubt a large number of visitors will be present. A. M. Clark, grand lecturer, has given notice that school of instruction for the Ottawa-Muskegon jurisdiction will be held here on that date also. The degree work will be exemplified by different Grand Rapids lodges and the Coopersville brethren will contrive to make it a red letter day in every respect.—Coopersville Observer.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

A REMEDY FOR THE Effects of Tobacco.

THE excessive use of tobacco, especially by young men is always injurious and undoubtedly shortens life materially. Mr. Ed. C. Ebsen, compositor on the Contra Costa News, Martinez, Cal., writes: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and received much benefit from it. I was troubled with nervousness, dizzy spells and sleeplessness, caused by the use of tobacco and stimulants. I took Dr. Miles' Nervine with marvelous good results, allaying the dizziness, quieting the nerves, and enabling me to sleep and rest, proving in my case a very beneficial remedy." Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is especially adapted to restoring the nervous system to its normal condition under such circumstances. It soothes, heals and strengthens.

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

The Zeeland News crows over the fact that it is now printing three of its eight pages at home instead of two. Which leads us to remark, that the Observer is printed all at home, and is the only paper in the county outside of Holland city and with one exception in Grand Haven, that does this. No "patent innards" in ours.—Coopersville Observer.

G. W. McBride alleges in a petition filed by Peter J. Danhof that the American Mirror and Ames Glass Beveling company has been a trifle slow in settling a promissory note for $780 which he holds against it. Hence he brings suit and includes in the action R. L. Stallings and Frank L. Brown, whose names appear on the paper as endorsers.—G. H. Press.

This will be the last Memorial Day that Perkins Post, G. A. R., of Spring Lake, conducts Memorial services. The Post has been depleted until now its membership is so small that the members find it too expensive to keep up and the charter will be thrown up. Sad indeed to think that these old soldier boys cannot keep up their glorious organization.—G. H. Tribune.

Olive Center.

The storm Sunday night did much damage to buildings, trees, and especially to sugar beet plants, the sand cutting the leaf and burying the plant.

The potato bug thus far here is a scarce article and if every bug now found is promptly dispatched of we might get rid of this nuisance for some time. I have killed every one I saw. I killed one.

To show how a practical farmer can improve his stock, Mr. Edw. Watson last week sold to the Nienhuis Bros. a 14-months calf for $34. It weighed dressed over 500 pounds. This calf fared the same in feed and care as all the other stock on the farm.

Decoration exercises as usual were a grand success. The three points, West Olive, Ottawa, and Olive Center unite and annually observe the day. The exercises this year were conducted from the Ottawa school building. The day so lovely, the flowers so plentiful, the large turnout so enthusiastic to offer a loving tribute to the memory of "our boys" who sacrificed their lives to save the union and sustain the honor of an insulted flag, the preliminary arrangements so complete, the school house so tastefully decorated, the stars and stripes so conspicuous, the music, the singing, the speaking by our children, the grand oration by Elder Roark, all so well performed. Then again the march to the cemetery, the decorations and festooning of archway all conspired to make the day memorable. The blessed little children as they marched amongst the graves of the silent dead tenderly covering them over with beautiful flowers and as these flower angels passed on with their missions of love we saw parents and children and aged widows kneel at the graves and drop a silent tear on the graves of their loved ones. Finally the last tributes offered up at the monument of the unknown, a few patriotic songs, closing with singing God be with you till we meet again and the exercises were completed. Where shall we begin and where end to bestow praises. No one wants self-laudation. Thanks be to God that the people have the good sense to appreciate our Columbia privileges and to cease our days toll to hold in memory the boys in blue.

Great Damage Done in South Dakota and Nebraska by a Cyclone and Lives Lost.

A FARMER AND SIX CHILDREN KILLED.

Entire Family Buried in the Ruins of Their Home—Churches, School-houses and Other Buildings Crushed Into Kindling Wood—Havoc Also Caused in Iowa.

Omaha, Neb., May 29.—A special to the Bee from Chamberlain, S. D., says: Word reached town Sunday afternoon of a disastrous and fatal cyclone which passed over the country in the vicinity of Bijou hills, 25 miles south of this city, Saturday afternoon between four and five o'clock, resulting in the death of seven persons and the serious injury of two others. The killed are: Charles Peterson and six children, the latter being four boys and three girls, ranging from three to fifteen years old. The wife and two remaining children were so badly injured they may also die.

The cyclone formed on a section in plain view of hundreds and moved in a southerly course, the first place reached being that of Ara Coden, which was totally destroyed. The storm then destroyed a church and a schoolhouse, after which it reached the Peterson place, where the execution done was simply appalling.

Strewn All Over.
The dead and injured were strewn all about the premises, all being bruised and maimed in a shocking manner, while the buildings were smashed to splinters.

After doing its worst here, the cyclone destroyed the Criegor premises, then passing into the range of hills, skirting the Missouri river, where it appears to have been dissolved. The path covered by the storm was only about 20 rods wide and about three miles in length. The wind was accompanied by a heavy fall of rain and hail, the latter being as large as goose eggs. The cyclone was fearfully destructive, everything in its course being completely destroyed, a large amount of stock also being killed.

A Heavy Loss.
Omaha, Neb., May 29.—A special to the Bee from Central City, Neb., says: Probably the most destructive cyclone that ever visited Nebraska passed through the northern part of Hamilton county Saturday night, at seven o'clock, destroying from $75,000 to $100,000 worth of property, including 15 dwellings, one church, one schoolhouse, two iron bridges across the Blue river, barns, corn cribs, outbuildings, orchards, groves, fences and stock.

Storm Causes Havoc in Iowa.
Cedar Rapids, Ia., May 29.—Terrific storms swept over Iowa Sunday evening. At Tama there was almost a cloudburst and much damage was done. There was a small cyclone near Keokuk and five people were injured. The Chicago & Northwestern railroad sustained much damage. Between Watkins and Blairstown the track is in a dangerous condition and several trains are tied up in this city. A large force of men is working on the break. It is reported that Dows was destroyed by the cyclone Sunday evening, but no particulars are obtainable yet.

Charged with Patricide.
Rapid City, S. D., May 29. — Lena Bouts, aged 14, and a younger brother, children of Frank Bouts, a Burlington contractor of Pennington county, are under arrest, the girl charged with murdering her father. She shot him through the head while asleep. The man was cruel to his family, who lived half starved half the time.

Enters Upon His Third Term.
Newport, R. I., May 31.—Elisha Dyer was inaugurated governor of Rhode Island for the third time Tuesday. The day was observed as Newport's annual holiday, and in addition to the naval exercises there was a big celebration in honor of the presence of Rear Admiral Sampson and the ships of the North Atlantic squadron.

Paine Monument Finished.
New York, May 31.—After 60 years the Thomas Paine monument, in New Rochelle, was finished Tuesday by the crowning of the shaft, which was erected in 1839, with a colossal bust of the free thinker. About 300 admirers of the writings of Paine made the trip to the monument and participated in the exercises.

Killed a Preacher.
Huntsville, Ala., May 29.—A negro Baptist preacher whose name could not be secured was shot and instantly killed Saturday night by Tom Pitcock, a prominent citizen of this place. The negro had threatened to kill Pitcock. Pitcock was arrested.

Noted Lawyer Dead.
Sandusky, O., May 29.—Judge John Mackey, one of the oldest and foremost lawyers in this section of Ohio, and at one time a common pleas judge, here, died at the family residence here Sunday in the eighty-second year of his age.

A Fatal Quarrel.
East St. Louis, Ill., May 29.—James Lynch, a prosperous saloon-keeper, shot and mortally wounded his wife and stepson, William Kelley, aged 15, and then shot himself. A quarrel was the cause.

Drowned.
Coburg, Ont., May 31.—Gordon Wilson and Francis Floyd, sons of prominent citizens here, were drowned Tuesday morning by their canoe capsizing.

Paid the Penalty.
Sing Sing, N. Y., May 31.—Adrian Braun, aged 36, was put to death by electricity in the prison here for the murder of his wife.

FRIDAY, June 2, 1899.

N. J. WHELAN, Editor.

Memorial Day.

Memorial Day was celebrated in a manner that caused a flush of pardonable pride to mantle the brow of every patriotic citizen of Holland.

The storm of the past few days passed in its mad career in order that the graves of the fallen heroes might be decked with garlands, not in the midst of clouds and rain as in previous years, but in the midst of sunshine, under a blue summer sky. There was an undercurrent of sadness discernable throughout all the proceedings; but there was also a feeling of joy in the thought that American manhood and American womanhood realized and appreciated the great sacrifices made and the noble victories achieved by the boys in blue, and were anxious to pay tributes of respect and love to the memories of the heroes of Gettysburg and the triumphant host that caused the surrender of Lee at Appomattox. Mingled with the thoughts of the stirring events of the '60's was a feeling of exultation caused by the echo of Dewey's guns at Manila, by the deeds of Shafter, Schley, and Sampson at Santiago, and by Roosevelt's war-cry in the charge to victory on Cuban soil.

Holland's day began at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon, when the procession, headed by Prof. F. D. Haddock, Ass't. marshal of the day, and led by the members of the fire department, resplendent in bright new uniforms, paraded the streets of the city. It was an inspiring sight to see the members of A. C. Van Raalte Post, G. A. R. and their veteran comrades in battle, march proudly in honor of the men who stood shoulder to shoulder with them on many a Southern battlefield fighting for the perpetuity of the Union and the honor of the starry flag. Many an eye was dimmed at the thought that their ranks were fast being depleted by the ravages of time, and that in a few years the duty of honoring the nation's dead would have to be performed by other hands, less capable, perhaps, but just as willing. As the volunteer soldiers of the Spanish war marched proudly by, every citizen felt like cheering them for the example of bravery and patriotism shown by them when they answered the call of President McKinley for volunteers to drive a foreign oppressor from Cuba, and avenge the sinking of the Maine. Another pleasing feature of the procession was the division consisting of girls from the public schools, bearing flowers, wreaths and emblems, and led by some of the young ladies from the High school. They marched with the precision of soldiers and the graceful bearing peculiar to all American girls.

National airs were played by the Holland city band and the Martial band in a manner that caused many citizens to remark, "that it was the best playing the boys ever did." It was the unanimous opinion that the parade was all that could be desired, and that the men having it in charge deserved especial praise for the care taken in the arrangement of the numberless details connected therewith.

When the procession reached College grove an immense throng was gathered there. The program was opened with a selection by the band. Then D. B. K. Van Raalte, acting for Mayor Mokma, who was unable to be present, opened the meeting with a few appropriate remarks, touching particularly on the point, that the rising generation instead of following the growing tendency to desecrate the day, should be so animated with the spirit of their fathers, that they would leave nothing undone, necessary to a respectful regard for the solemn anniversary.

The musical selections given under the direction of Prof. Nykerk, were excellent. Chaplain Bergen gave an invocation filled with patriotic sentiment, and then the orator of the day, Hon. G. J. Diekema, delivered an address worthy in every way of the occasion. The beauty of the day, the respectful attention of the assembled crowd, the memories recalled, all conspired to put Mr. Diekema on his metal and as a result the oration of the day was a masterpiece. Some of the leading sentiments follow:

"We celebrate today one of the greatest events in the history of the world: the forging of the chain of union in the hell and flame of battle. All over the land today the scattered remnant of the bravest army that ever marched to martial music has gathered together to commemorate the heroic deeds of their fallen comrades, who shouldered the musket in defense of the Union, the constitution, and the flag."

"We celebrate Washington's birthday, Independence day, and, this day of tender commemoration and patriotic reflection; this day, when we stir up the smoldering embers of patriotism and fan them into a living, loving flame. The civil war was a family quarrel and fratricidal strife. Then why parade it to the world? Why open old sores? Why cause the tears of grief to flow anew? Why not bury it in the tomb of eternal forgetfulness? Because the war was more than a strife over non-essentials, like the war of the roses. It was a conflict between two great principles that had already shaped the destinies of the nations of Europe. It was a conflict between the son of the puritan and the son of the cavalier; between two civilizations, one of which arose among the hills and rocks of New England and another under the palmetto trees of the sunny South. One civilization was of German origin; a civilization of free labor and of personal endeavor. The other was of Spanish and Portuguese origin; a civilization of slave labor and of lordly estates. The one was a civilization of fraternity, that believed in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, that believed in the words of the Declaration of Independence, that all men were created equal and entitled to certain inalienable rights, such as life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. The other was a civilization derived from feudalism, believing in the lord of the manor and his vassals."

"The rent in liberty bell has been closed. We have acquired great military heroes; Grant who refused to take Lee's sword and said, 'keep your horses you will need them for your plowing'; Sherman, who marched to the sea; and said to the mayor of Atlanta, 'the life of one of my soldiers is worth more to me than your whole city.' Phil Sheridan, the hero of Winchester. Nationalism has triumphed. The hydra-headed monster state rights is dead. In all the land there is not a servant, serf or slave. Liberty is extending her protecting wing to the distant island of the sea."

At the close of the program in College grove the march to the cemetery was resumed.

The exercises at Pilgrim Home cemetery were touching and recalled many tender recollections of other days and different scenes. When the flowers were strewn by loving hands and the monument was decorated "in memory of the absent dead," every heart was filled with a spirit of reverence, and all felt that such an observance of Decoration Day instilled a love of country in the heart of every true American.

The members of the G. A. R. Post, the ladies of the Woman's Relief corps, the Volunteers of the Spanish war, the Executive committee, and in fact all who took a prominent part in the exercises of the day, are entitled to the thanks of the residents of Holland.

Senator Suel A. Sheldon.

The following interesting sketch of Senator Suel A. Sheldon appeared in a recent issue of the Grand Rapids Herald:

"The prolonged daily sessions of house and senate bear witness that the close of the legislative session cannot be far away, though the date of final adjournment has not been selected. The lengthened hours please no one better than Senator Suel A. Sheldon of the Ottawa-Muskegon district, who long ago came to the front as a hard worker, and was always to be depended upon to move in the interest of early or late sessions of the senate. He was always to be found in his seat, and he has the record of not having missed a roll call.

Senator Sheldon owes whatever of success he has attained in life to his own sturdy efforts. He knows all about the hard toil and the long hours of the country lad, picking up knowledge as best he could at the short terms of the district school. He has known the labors of the country school teacher, graduating thence to the wagon sales business as western manager for a large wagon company, with headquarters at Omaha. There were five years in this busy life, and then he went back to the old homestead at Berlin, Ottawa county, which he purchased from his father, whose advancing years compelled him to retire. He has added to the farm of 96 acres until it comprises 152 acres, and owns in addition a second farm of 80 acres.

In the intervals of farming, he entered the advertising section of the newspaper field in Grand Rapids, and was by turns connected with the circulation of the Tradesman, advertising manager for the Workman and the Morning Press.

He has for years been an active republican, but only once before has he held an office, serving as supervisor of Wright township, which had for 10 years previous returned a democrat to the county board. The senatorial election was the second time he carried the township, and he feels really more proud of this than of his election to the senatorship.

The senator has a unique way of stating his propositions, and never hesitates to call anything by its proper name. It happened one evening recently that the senate was holding a night session, and during the day, as usual, he had been insisting that the senate ought to put in more hours. It came about that the proceedings of the night session were very uneventful, and under the dull monotony of the reader's voice droning through an exceedingly lengthy and provokingly uninteresting bill in committee of the whole, the statesman from the former home of the Ottawas dozed. He is a man of considerable proportion, and as he sat in his chair, his feet comfortably elevated, it was not possible he could escape discovery.

Erasing the senators who had managed to keep awake were making side remarks, and by common consent they formed in a circle around the dreaming senator, clasped hands and began a monotonous Indian dance varied with the Chautauqua salute. There was a burst of laughter as the senator opened his eyes and the situation began to open upon him.

Comprehension came to him as the magic and in a moment he was on his feet, addressing the chair and solemnly protesting that he had only been faking sleep. He subsequently revealed the hollowness of this claim by the incautious remark: 'I wonder if I snored.'

Base Ball.

The last game of base ball between Holland and Hope college was so crowded with interesting and exciting features, and suggests so many thoughts on different phases of the game that it is quite appropriate at this time, to touch upon a few of the leading incidents. Those who were present are aware that one of the players of the Holland nine stung by insults and goaded to desperation by the poor support given him at critical moments, threw the ball at a spectator. This was inexcusable and the offender should have been retired to the bench, for the players should take no notice of outside remarks but should "play ball" at all times regardless of the interference of onlookers; but this is the first time that anything like that has occurred and the young man's blunder can be overlooked to a great extent because he instantly recognized that he had made a serious mistake and made all possible reparation before the game was ended. Another incident occurred in the early part of the game when the Holland nine, in the language of the base ball enthusiast, "went in the air and lost their heads," to such an extent that they played miserable ball and came nearly presenting the game to their opponents. Ball players should bear in mind one fact, that the cool-headed player will win in the end. Every man of athletic build and active movements can learn to bat, catch, steal bases, and pitch curves; but all of them cannot be cool and collected at critical periods of the game. It is not the good batter or fine fielder that makes a Mike Kelley, a Joe Corbett, or an Anson, but it is the steady nerve and cool head that makes the star player. It is the ability to be master of the situation at every stage of the game and to "give back as good as you get" that stamps a man with the brand of merit. So, boys, on both sides, remember in the future that the essential requisite of each individual is the faculty of controlling your temper, and that "snatching victory from defeat is the test that tries you."

Another feature that deserves severe condemnation is the habit some spectators have of making offensive remarks to the players. It is all right to jolly the boys or to exercise the privilege of rooting for your team, but when you insult the players or act in a malicious spirit you are stepping over the dividing line of propriety and your actions should not be tolerated. And again, let every man shout his encouragement or give his yell of triumph, when he has a chance. It adds zest to the game and gives the American spirit of exultation an opportunity to assert itself. Above all things let the spirit of fair play exist at all times, and do not try to bridge the right of free speech belonging to every American citizen. When you hear a rooster for the other side cheering for his team, instead of trying to deny him the privilege, wait until your turn comes, and then cheer louder than he did. If you do not get a chance to cheer, why, wait until the next game.

Sugar Beet Crop.

In answer to an inquiry as to the present prospect of the sugar beet crop in this locality, Mr. A. Vischer says "that on the whole the outlook is not unfavorable."

The farmers are contending this year with several difficulties, some of them incident to any new industry, and lack of experience, and others owing to unfavorable weather.

Complaints are heard from different localities that some growers have not yet obtained a good stand of beets, but these are fortunately the exceptions. The great majority of fields, as we learn by personal observation and from our field agents, are in a good or fair condition, and as the warm weather increases, many of the doubtful fields improve from day to day.

In some cases the farmers have sown too deep and the seed has been slow to come up, and in extreme cases does not appear at all. A few others have been effected unfavorably by the work of cut worms or some other insect, and again others have had their young plants covered with sand by the very heavy rain of last Sunday night.

Where the damage to the young plant has been very extensive, parties have been advised to re-seed and in many instances this has been done. Observation already shows however, that several growers have been discouraged too early, and that they now have a good stand where they first reported a total or at least a partial failure. Parties desiring seed for re-seeding, can obtain it from the company at half price.

From present outlook and from the opinion of many good farmers we have reason to believe that as the warm weather comes on every grower, almost without exception, will be agreeably surprised at the outlook for his own field."

NO MIRACLES MORE MARVELOUS THAN MANY OF THE CURES PERFORMED BY

WHO WILL GIVE

Free Consultations and Examinations

At his next regular visit at Hotel Holland, Holland, Mich., from Thursday evening, June 1, to Sunday night, June 4. Office Hours 9 A. M., to 9 P. M.

THIRTY YEARS

A SPECIALIST.

For thirty years Dr. McOmber has been actively engaged in special work. From day to day his enormous experience with patients from every state in this country, and many from other countries, and with every variety of chronic maladies, has constantly added to his wonderful skill in determining the nature and cause of diseases, as well as increasing his vast knowledge of methods, means, agents, remedies and new discoveries for their alleviation and cure.

That he cures the most obstinate and obscure diseases seemingly with the greatest ease, and especially after patients had spent large sums of money with physicians of fame, is too apparent to be questioned.

Ladies in this city and adjoining towns and country, whose afflictions had baffled the skill of good doctors for years, and when their conditions were worse than ever before, cannot understand why their cases should have been found by Dr. McOmber so different than they had always supposed they were, and after so long a struggle with other doctors, were so readily and quickly cured by his advanced methods of treatment.

The same can be said of the diseases of men; young, middle-aged and old. No matter of how long standing or how many bitter disappointments you have met in the past, go and have a talk with Dr. McOmber.

He is equally successful in the treatment of Chronic Diseases of Children. Girls, entering womanhood, who from abnormal conditions grow pale and thin, and sometimes with but little warning are firmly in the clutches of the dreaded disease consumption, and in Dr. McOmber's system of treatments a quick and happy cure.

Delays are dangerous. Do not say "I will wait until he comes again," but go now and get his opinion free of charge before it is too late. He has cured thousands who had suffered exactly as you do.

Strength is Health, Weakness is Disease.

If in poor health you are weak, and the reason you are weak is because you are losing strength. If half your strength is gone you are half dead, if three-fourths gone you are three-fourths dead, if all gone you are all dead. If you have a little strength, that is your foundation on which to build, and to regain strength, vigor, vitality, vital force and healing energy, is it not wise that you choose the best methods or treatments at any cost to regain that which means a return to health?

To increase strength, give tone, vigor and vitality once more to the system, the cause of your depletion and weakness must be determined and removed, and if this is not done and the proper treatment employed to rebuild, parch the blood, nourish, feed the nerves and repair damage to diseased organs and tissues then all is given over to the chances of life. Act wisely, go to one who has had immense experience in the treatment of those who have suffered as you do and who now bless the name of Dr. McOmber.

FEMALE WEAKNESS.

By Dr. F. McOmber.

The pangs and penalties of men are far less distressing than those so common to females whose intricate, delicate and complicated organisms render them wonderfully susceptible to the many phases of functional derangements peculiar to their sex; and if their ailments are neglected or poorly treated, which is too often the case, they become a frightful source of misery of mind and body, also of domestic unhappiness.

"Female Weakness" is usually understood to be a derangement of the reproductive organs, a loss of strength, power, tone and vigor in part or entire, usually brought about by some violation of nature's laws, or from injury during childbirth, or from sickness or some unavoidable disease.

The following are some of the symptoms, causes and conditions of Female Weakness: Many thousands of women are almost wrecks with broken down constitutions, shattered nerves, pale and sallow cheeks, emaciated forms, dull and listless minds, always tired and languid with spirits depressed, ambition all gone and often feel that life is not worth living—all the result of weakness. Others suffer with backache, constipation, feeble circulation, palpitation of the heart, cold feet and hands, headache, shortness of breath, especially on slight exertion, choking sensations as though a ball or lump were constantly rising in the throat, flashes of heat and chilly sensations, numbness, trembling, loss of sleep, moth and liver spots on face and body, melancholy and despondency that sometimes lead to insanity, burning sensation in the stomach, indigestion and other conditions causing fermentation and gas in stomach and bloating in bowels, pains in the shoulders, back of neck and along the spine; pain and soreness across the abdomen and in the region of the ovaries; a bearing down or dragging sensation caused by falling of the womb and other displacements, such as tipping forward, backward or to one side; laceration, ulceration, inflammation and granulation of womb or vagina; leucorrhoea and other discharges; painful, scanty, suppressed or excessive menstruation; itching, burning and tenderness in urethra when urinating, inflammation of bladder, piles and other rectal troubles; sick headache, dizziness, dots and specks before the eyes, with gradual failure of eyesight caused by reflex irritation of the womb; dark rings about the eyes, loss of flesh, strength and power of endurance and other derangements too well known to render it necessary to speak of here.

The natural feelings of delicacy of many women often lead them to endure their sufferings for years rather than confide their condition to a physician or submit, when necessary, to personal examination. Many, too, will postpone action from time to time, thinking their financial circumstances later on will better permit the necessary expense of treatment. This is all wrong. Every day of neglect increases complications, adds misery, more suffering and lessens the chance for recovery. The sooner proper treatment is employed the easier, cheaper and better are the chances of a cure.

ARE YOU SUFFERING FROM Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, or a tendency to Consumption?

ARE YOU Losing Flesh and Strength, Growing Weaker, Getting Pale and Thin from Suffering and Disease, and Have You Failed to Get Relief or Cure?

ARE YOU TROUBLED WITH Deafness, Hard of Hearing, Ringing Noises in Head and Ears?

HAVE YOU Weak, Sore, Inflamed Eyes, Cataract or other Growths?

IS Your Blood Impure, Have You Pimples on Face and Do You Suffer From Rheumatism?

ARE YOU Cross-Eyed, and would You Like to Have Them Made Straight in a Minute Without Pain, Chloroform or Bandage?

HAVE YOU Any Disease for Which You Have Failed to Find a Cure?

Then go to Dr. F. McOmber, one who understands your case, one who can cure you, and who will treat you on terms so reasonable you cannot afford to remain afflicted. Consultations and Examinations always free and confidential. Remember Hotel and dates.

In a bill for divorce Ida Kronmeyer of Holland sets up that her husband, Gerrit, whom she married in 1888, has for a period of two years and longer entirely neglected or forgotten to provide herself and three children with the means of living. What makes the matter worse, in Ida's opinion, is the further fact that Gerrit has at least a man's size brain and earns plenty of good money as a carpenter.—G. H. Press.

The Lyceum Opera House Co. has arranged for a return engagement of the Stuart Burke Stock Co. for three nights, commencing Monday evening, June 5th. Two new plays will be given in addition to "When His Wife's Away." Also new songs and dances. Admission 15 and 25c.

Reports received at Lansing show that the sugar beet crop of the state is making excellent progress. The various Michigan sugar beet companies have about 45,000 acres under contract, the acreage being so distributed that nearly every county below the Straits of Mackinac will share in the benefits. The contracts of the different companies are as follows: Michigan Sugar Co., Bay City, 4,160 acres; Bay City Sugar Co., 6,100 acres; West Bay City Sugar Co., 6,000 acres; Holland Sugar Co., 3,700 acres; Kalamazoo Sugar Co., 5,000 acres; Benton Harbor Sugar Co., 4,500 acres; Detroit Sugar Co., Rochester, 4,000 acres, and the Alma Sugar Co., 3,500 acres.

Tuesday's game between Hope College and Holland clubs was very exciting. Everyone present were kept in a state of excitement and suspense by the good and bad, unsteady and at times brilliant playing of both nines. For a time it looked as though the Holland boys were going to pieces. Up to the sixth inning they had a bad case of nervousness aggravated by excitement but they braced up for a mighty effort in the sixth and not only batted out the game but kept the Hope boys from scoring until the last inning when they made one run. The college boys played a cool steady game but could not contend with the fast playing of the city boys in the latter part of the game. Kremers sensational catch in left field and Van den Berg's home run drove the fans wild with delight. Score: Holland, 21. Hope, 16.

Hon. G. J. Diekema delivered one of his most masterly addresses at Benton Harbor May 25th: The occasion was the Commencement exercises of the High school. Inspired by the pleasant memories recalled, and the elevating influences incident to the occasion Mr. Diekema eloquently portrayed the great hopes and grand possibilities that the future held in store for those who endeavored to merit an abiding place in the temple of fame. He contended that mind and not physical force ruled the world. He said in part: "Genius is the product of the mind, character the product of the heart. Genius may light up the sky with a meteoric flash but as soon as it is passed the world looks all the darker. Character is like the ever shining constant star. We all must sail over the same stormy sea of life, along the same rocky coast and among the same dangerous shoals. When we see danger ahead there is alone safety in dropping the anchor. Character is the anchor of life. A characterless life is like an anchorless vessel." Mr. Diekema spoke of Abraham Lincoln and the strength of character that the Great Liberator possessed, and how the words spoken by Mr. Lincoln on slavery cost him a seat in the senate but made him president of the United States. The following from the Benton Harbor Evening News shows that Mr. Diekema was appreciated in that city: "Hon. Gerrit J. Diekema of Holland told the High school graduates last evening that they lived in the most enterprising city in the best all round state in the best country on earth." That is just the sort of a place where such a man as Mr. Diekema should live. Benton Harbor will gladly welcome him.

On account of ill-health and inability to stand the worry and vexation incident to the holding of public office, Alderman Kamferbeek has filed his resignation with city clerk Van Eyck, to take immediate effect. It will be acted upon at Tuesday night's meeting of the council and his successor elected. The resignation of Mr. Kamferbeek gives the Republicans a majority in the council. L. A. Stratton is mentioned for the vacancy.

Visiting C. A. Stevenson's jewelry store yesterday, we were surprised at the display of beautiful goods, suitable for "Graduating Presents." The list comprises writing sets—in silver and onyx—China do, toilet sets, bric a brac, souvenirs of all kinds, comb and brush sets, odor bottles, vases, book marks, vinaigrettes, Mexican onyx goods, silver novelties, jewel cases, watches, rings, bracelets, gold pens and pencils, belt and collar clasps, chains, necklets, pocket books, card cases, etc., etc.

Last Sunday night a terrific storm of wind and rain swept over Holland. Unlike most summer squalls it was of long duration and instead of ceasing after the first strong blast, it continued with additional fierceness until sidewalks were scattered, chimneys blown down, houses unroofed and trees torn up by the roots. The home of Ex-Alderman J. W. Filleman was badly wrecked. Dr. G. J. Kollen's residence on the college campus was partially unroofed, the chimney was blown down and crashed through the roof to the attic. H. Takken's carriage store on 8th street was badly damaged. Many trees were uprooted in the western part of the city. John Bush's boathouse, on Macatawa Bay was torn down and the naftna yacht housed there was blown into the Bay. Damage was done to the cottages of Mrs. Morrison and Mr. Roberts, at the Park. In the vicinity of the cottage known as Swans Roost, 90 trees were blown down. Considerable damage was done south of Holland, in the vicinity of Graafschap, to the property of G. Garvelink, H. Van der Belt, Geo. De Witt, and H. Eunkink. North of Holland the roof of Jacob Welling's barn was torn off, and the barn of Gerrit Brown was badly damaged. The storm extended well into Lake Michigan and struck the Soo City about 11.15 o'clock, but that good steamer rode through it without difficulty, and arrived in Chicago on time.

General Items.
 Several days ago a sick fakir worked the people of the little village of Henderson in fine shape. He took orders for making photographs taken on natural colors. At the same time he took a small sum of money with each order. Now the villagers are receiving back their photos and a bottle of colored fluid with directions to "rub it on." They feel that it has been rubbed in already.

The latest railroad proposition in northern Michigan is for a road across the state from Alpena to Traverse City. Such a road would open up an immense amount of land and would be a great thing for the villages along the line, which would thus be given another outlet for their produce aside from the present north and south railroads on which they are located.

Midland men seem to be made of the right sort of stuff. Recently a resident of that place died, leaving his widow with but little of this world's goods except a $100 mortgage on their home. The dead man's friends passed the hat when they learned the way things stood, and collected enough to pay off the mortgage and give the widow $20 in cash besides.

The consolidation of the Chicago & West Michigan, the Detroit, Grand Rapids & Western and the Flint & Pere Marquette into one big railroad system is now an assured fact. Not one of these roads is a competitor of the other, so the object of the consolidation is not to lessen competition. The consolidation will, however, have its effect upon the G. R. & I. The F. & P. M. has been selling tickets to the northern peninsula and extreme northern portions of the lower peninsula, such as the Traverse Bay and Mackinac resort centers, over the G. R. & I. It will hereafter turn the traffic of its line over to the C. & W. M. The general offices of the F. & P. M. will be maintained at East Saginaw. There will probably be no change in the officials of any of these roads, only the heads of departments of the F. & P. M. will be subordinate to the heads of departments of the already consolidated C. & W. M. and D. G. H. & W. The yards and shops of all three roads will be maintained as at present.

There was a regular cloudburst at Bridgman on the C. & W. M. railway, south of St. Joseph, early Sunday morning. The roadbed was washed out and the C. & W. M. trains made a circuit around to St. Joseph via the Vandalla and Gallen. The track was repaired early in the afternoon, however. There were six other smaller washouts in the vicinity of Boardman.

FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD.

Graves of Our Departed Heroes Decorated by Those Who Keep Their Memory Green.

MEMORIAL DAY IS FITTINGLY OBSERVED

Grand Army of the Republic Remembers Its Comrades and Honors the Resting Places of Confederates—The Day Was Very Generally Observed All Over the Country.

Washington, May 31.—The national capital devoted itself to the observance of Decoration day. The departments were closed, public and private business was suspended, the streets were filled with marching veterans, national guardsmen, military and civic organizations, all moving toward the Arlington National cemetery, Soldiers' Home, Congressional and other cemeteries, where appropriate services were held and the graves of the silent army of the dead were strewn with flowers. The ceremony at Arlington was notable by the presence of the president and members of his cabinet, and of many leading officers of the army and navy, as well as officials prominent in public life.

There was a small but impressive service in connection with the ceremonies at the cemetery which passed unnoticed by many of the thousands there. Following the suggestion made by President McKinley in his Atlanta speech, the graves of the 130 Confederate soldiers, interred in the national cemetery, were decorated with unsparring hands as were those of the union dead.

At the Tomb of Grant.

New York, May 31.—The sarcophagus of Gen. Grant in the tomb at Claremont was covered with flowers Tuesday afternoon after impressive ceremonies by U. S. Grant Post, G. A. R., of Brooklyn, an address by Gov. Roosevelt and a presidential salute of 21 guns fired from the United States cruiser Brooklyn, which lay in the Hudson just below the hill, with all her battle flags flying. More than 10,000 persons witnessed the ceremony and crowded Claremont in the vicinity of the tomb. A large stand had been erected on the east side of the tomb, covered with red, white and blue bunting, and a flag draped over the railing. Above the stand on the columns of the outside of the tomb were festoons of large flags. Here the ceremony was conducted.

At the Lincoln Monument.

Springfield, Ill., May 31.—Under a bright blue sky memorial exercises were held Tuesday forenoon at the National Lincoln monument by the G. A. R. and auxiliary bodies preparatory to the decoration of the graves of the soldiers of the civil war buried there. Addresses were made by Maj. John B. Inman, department commander of the G. A. R.; United States District Attorney J. Otis Humphrey, and Mrs. Julia E. F. Lobdell, of Minneapolis, past department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. of Minnesota, who on behalf of the G. A. R. posts of Minnesota presented a beautiful silken United States flag, which will in the future envelope the sarcophagus of Lincoln. In the afternoon the Spanish war veterans decorated the graves of their dead comrades.

In Iowa.

Davenport, Ia., May 31.—Grand army posts of Davenport, Rock Island and Moline, Ill., joined in the afternoon Memorial day exercises at the National cemetery, Government island. Eldred S. James, of Clinton, was the orator. For the first time the graves of over 1,900 confederates who died while imprisoned on the island during the war were decorated with flags by the grand army men, in common with 400 union soldiers sleeping in the National cemetery.

In Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 31.—Memorial day was more elaborately observed in this city than for a number of years. Government and municipal offices were closed, as were the schools, and business was generally suspended. Prominent local orators delivered addresses during the ceremonies by the G. A. R., at the various cemeteries. The trend of all the speeches was that the war with Spain had cemented the north and south in a bond of fraternal sympathy never to be again broken.

In Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., May 31.—Memorial day was more generally observed throughout Nebraska than ever before. Owing to the strong sentiment against it, there was an almost entire absence of sporting events. At McCook a beautiful soldiers' monument was dedicated. In this city a lengthy procession marched to Hanscom park, where appropriate exercises were held. At the cemeteries the graves of union and confederate veterans and two who died during the Spanish war were decorated.

In Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., May 31.—Memorial day was generally observed throughout Minnesota, business being largely suspended, and the veterans of the civil war were aided by the veterans of the Spanish war in decorating the graves of the dead. The parade in this city was a long one, and the graves in the different cemeteries were covered with flowers. Hon. T. R. Kane was the orator of the day.

At Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, Pa., May 31.—Memorial day was observed at the National cemetery here with the usual elaborate ceremonies, and the graves of fallen heroes were decorated by school children and veteran soldiers of the civil war. In the parade, Pennsylvania volunteers who served during the war with Spain, marched as an escort to the G. A. R. Between the columns of the young and the old veterans rode Maj. Gen. D. E. Sickles and Congressman Zeigler, of this district. A number of civic organizations also took part. The principal speaker was Hon. D. D. Woodmansee, of Cincinnati.

Gen. Wheeler at Boston.

Boston, May 31.—For the first time an ex-officer of the confederacy delivered the Memorial day address before a New England grand army post. Gen. Joseph Wheeler, the cavalry leader, who led the boys in gray at the famous charge at Shiloh and, nearly 37 years later, beneath the stars and stripes, cheered on the volunteers at Santiago, was the guest of honor at the Memorial day services of E. W. Kinsley post, 113, G. A. R., at the Boston theater. The immense auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity. When Gen. Wheeler arose to speak the applause was tumultuous, cheer upon cheer arose from thousands, and it was nearly 15 minutes before the general could make himself heard.

In Chicago.

Chicago, May 31.—Memorial day at the cemeteries was marked everywhere by evidences of unusual interest and by the presence of unusually large numbers of participants in the exercises. Under the auspices of the different grand army posts of the city the graves of the soldiers and sailors who laid down their lives for their country were decorated with flowers, and speakers prominent in military and civil life extolled their deeds.

In Havana.

Havana, May 31.—Decoration day was observed here in a notable manner. At nine o'clock a. m. Mrs. Estes G. Rathbone and a committee of women who had been selected for the purpose were taken into Rear Admiral Cromwell's launch, escorted by a detachment of marines, to the wreck of the battleship Maine, where they strung the skeleton of the unfortunate craft with ropes of laurel and wreaths of flowers. Mrs. Lucien Young represented the navy at the decoration of the graves of the sailors and soldiers interred in the Colon cemetery, at 11 o'clock.

In Manila.

Manila, May 31.—Most of the business places in Manila were closed in observance of Decoration day. The American and many foreign flags were displayed at half mast. The graves of soldiers and sailors buried at Cavite and Iloilo were also decorated.

AMENDS THE CIVIL SERVICE.

President McKinley Makes Changes That Release About 4,000 from Control of the Law.

Washington, May 30.—President McKinley has issued the amendments to the civil service rules which he has had under consideration for about a year. It releases from the operations of the civil service rules about 4,000 offices. Among such places are the following: Pension examining surgeons, Indians employed in the Indian service, service not connected with the Indian school service, and many places in the engineering department at large, the subordinate department at large, the ordnance department at large of the war department. With reference to these places in the outside war department's service it is provided that they shall be subject to regulations to be prescribed by the secretary of war and approved by the president, thus placing these branches of the service on substantially the same basis as the navy yard service.

Death of an Ex-Governor.

Richmond, Va., May 30.—Ex-Gov. Frederick William Mackay Holliday died at his home in Winchester Monday, aged 71. He was a colonel in the Stonewall brigade and lost an arm at Slaughter's mountain. On retirement from the service he was elected to the confederate congress, in which he served until the end of the war. He was a commissioner from Virginia to the centennial exposition at Philadelphia and was elected governor of Virginia on the democratic ticket in 1877.

Death of a Veteran.

Athol, Mass., May 29.—Brig. Gen. George W. West died at his home in this town late Saturday evening, aged 67 years. At the breaking out of the civil war he enlisted in the Fifth Massachusetts, but resigned to accept a captaincy in the Tenth Maine volunteers. He became colonel of the Seventeenth Maine and was promoted to brigadier general for bravery at the battle of Antietam.

Ex-President at the Attraction.

Paris, May 30.—At the parliamentary banquet given Monday evening by President Emile Loubet, and at the reception which followed, the center of attraction was Benjamin Harrison, legal representative of Venezuela at the forthcoming sessions of the Venezuela boundary commission in this city, and Mrs. Harrison.

Caught in New York.

New York, May 29.—August F. Sickman, secretary of the Garden City Foresters' Building and Loan association of Chicago, charged with the larceny of $3,800 belonging to the association, was remanded without bail by Magistrate Cornell to await extradition papers.

The Peace Conference.

The Hague, May 31.—A brief official record of the doings of the peace conference thus far says: "Provisional proposals for mediation and arbitration have been submitted by the representatives of Russia, Great Britain, Italy and the United States."

Eighty Years Old.

Boston, May 29.—Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, poet, preacher, lecturer and champion of the oppressed of all nations, celebrated her eightieth birthday at her home in this city.

Treated as Letters.

Washington, May 31.—The post office department has issued instructions directing that hereafter newspapers shall be treated as letters in making up the mail for Porto Rico.

Honor for Campos.

Madrid, May 31.—The queen regent has signed a decree appointing Marshal Martinez Campos to the presidency of the senate.

THROWN FROM THE RAIL.

Wreck on the Cedar Rapids Road Near Waterloo, Ia., Causes the Death of Eight Persons.

Waterloo, Ia., May 29.—The most terrible wreck in the history of Blackhawk county was that which occurred Saturday night on the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railroad, about four miles northeast of this city. A passenger train of seven coaches, including the mail and baggage cars, was wrecked with a terrible loss of life and great injury to many living. The cause of the disaster was a washout, due to a waterpout or cloudburst in Orange township. Crossing the railroad track where the wreck occurred is a little stream called Sink creek. The sand and gravel was washed out from under the track, leaving it unsupported for stretches of from ten to twenty feet. The rails and ties held stoutly together, and there was little to indicate to the engineer the insecurity of the road before him. All at once a lurch of the engine warned the engineer of the impending disaster. He and the fireman leaped from the cab, and by good fortune that can be counted as scarcely less than miraculous escaped with but slight injuries.

KILLED—E. L. Arnold, Minneapolis; William A. McLaughlin, Minneapolis; H. R. Sheppe, Alton, Ill.; David Hello, Minneapolis; George Wainwright, Burlington, Ia.; conductor of the train; F. S. Carpenter, St. Louis; one body not yet identified; William Schollin, of Waterloo, whose arm was amputated in order to release him from the wreck, has since died at his home.

PERISHED BY FIRE.

Man, Wife and Seven Children Burned to Death Near Hardeeville, S. C.

Savannah, Ga., May 29.—Advices from Hardeeville, S. C., report the burning to death of Jacob Solomons, his wife and seven children in a fire which destroyed their house. The house was located on the Oestricher farm, near Hardeeville. It had been damaged by a storm and Solomons built fires on the floor to keep warm. It is supposed a fire which was left smoldering after the family had retired was fanned into a blaze and ignited the structure. The verdict of the coroner's jury in each case was that they came to their deaths through the culpable negligence of Jacob Solomons in neglecting to build a chimney.

Killed by the Cars.

Marietta, O., May 31.—A hand car on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railway was struck by an extra through freight near Coolville Tuesday and was thrown high in the air with its four occupants, section hands. Two of them, William Bashell and Otis Dodd, were instantly killed. Thomas Flaherty, section foreman, was probably fatally injured. The other man was severely injured. Fog prevented the men from seeing the train in time to escape.

Death Caused by Fright.

Pana, Ill., May 30.—Mrs. W. H. McDancho, one of Pana's oldest residents, died at night of hysterics, occasioned by fright as the result of the trouble among the negro residents in close proximity to her home.

Ball Player Killed.

Laurence, Mass., May 31.—Edward Conner, catcher in a ball game between two local nines, was struck over the heart by a foul ball and killed.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taking internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Yes, or No?

Holland people are respectfully asked to answer these questions:
Is there anything in the evidence of one's senses?
Is there anything in the testimony of one's friends?
Can reliance be placed upon statements from people we know?
Are the opinions of local citizens of any greater moment than those of strangers?
Would you sooner believe people living in some far away place than citizens of your own city?
We think not! For home proof can easily be investigated.

Mr. F. Breivik, of 67 W. First street, employed at Mohr's Soap Factory, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for ten or twelve years and until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. O. Doeburg's drug store I never found a remedy which gave me any effectual relief. I had constant aching pain in my loins and soreness over the kidneys. The kidney secretions became irregular, and I suffered from headaches and attacks of dizziness. I took Doan's Kidney Pills but a few days when I felt they were doing me good and I continued their use until the trouble left me entirely."

Present, JOHN V. B. GOODRICH, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Isaac Kramer, a mentally incompetent person.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Wierpke Diekmans, guardian of said mentally incompetent person, respectfully shows that said mentally incompetent person is dead and that he is now ready to make his final accounting as such guardian, that the same may be examined and allowed, that he may be discharged from his trust as such guardian, have his bond cancelled and said estate closed.

Gen. Lawton Says Working Classes Should Be Protected and the Insurgents Punished.

HE IS IN FAVOR OF GUERRILLA WARFARE.

American Gunboats Bombard and Burn the City of Zamboanga—The Port of Sulu Blockaded—Gen. Otis Says Thirty Thousand Men Are All He Needs.

New York, May 30.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: Gen. Otis says, contradicting the general impression, that the campaign against the Filipino insurgents will be prosecuted by the American forces with the utmost aggressiveness possible during the rainy season.

Gen. Lawton is of the opinion that an early settlement of the present troubles and the close of hostilities depends largely upon the Americans giving rigid protection to the working classes in their peaceful occupations, while waging incessant war against the armed forces of the enemy from this time forth by means of guerilla warfare.

He will show the insurgents by vigorous action on the rivers, lakes and mountains that their belief that our troops cannot campaign in the rainy seasons or in the mountains is untrue.

Mutilate American Dead.

New York, May 30. — A special to the Herald from Washington says: Information received here in private letters from officers serving in the Philippines state that the Filipinos show no respect for the American dead. In one instance an officer who was on the firing line says he was shocked to see three bodies of American soldiers, who had been killed in an advance, and which were brought within the American lines badly mutilated. The ears of each of the corpses had been removed, the noses cut off and the hearts torn out.

Philippine Courts Reestablished.

Manila, May 30. — An order has been issued reestablishing the Philippine courts which have been closed since the American occupation. It revives all the Spanish system not conflicting with the sovereignty of the United States.

Zamboanga Burned.

New York, May 31.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from London says: A special dispatch from Labuan announces that severe fighting is reported between Americans and Filipinos on the island of Mindanao. The principal city on the island, Zamboanga, has been bombarded and burned and is in ruins.

The same dispatch reports trouble in Sulu. The Americans have blockaded the port. A British steamer was denied admission and was escorted seaward by the United States gunboat Castine.

Army Should Number 30,000.

Washington, May 31.—The Post says: Gen. Otis has informed the war department that he will be satisfied if the army under his command is kept at a maximum of 30,000. The president will give him this number. The situation in the Philippines was the subject of an extended conference Tuesday between the president and Adj. Gen. Corbin.

Its Present Strength.

The present strength of the army in the Philippines, including volunteers, who are still in the service, is 36,000. When the volunteers return some 24,000 regulars will remain, or 6,000 less than the number estimated as necessary by Gen. Otis. The reinforcements now en route to Manila, or under orders to depart, will bring the total regulars up to the required figure, but as there will be considerable loss through sickness it is proposed to decrease the companies now stationed in garrisons in this country to their minimum, and increase the companies in the Philippines to their maximum. It is believed that this arrangement will give Gen. Otis all the men he requires, without disarranging the army, as it is at present distributed. It can be stated on authority that until Gen. Otis asks for an additional force there will be no enlargement of the army, not even to the extent of recruiting the 35,000 natives provided for in the army reorganization bill which passed the last congress.

Bad Money Circulates.

San Francisco, May 31.—The Call asserts that large quantities of bogus dollars are in circulation here, and that the work of the counterfeiters has been so well done as to almost defy detection. The coins are said to be made of Mexican silver and to have the true weight and ring.

Irish Immigration.

New York, May 29.—The immigration from Ireland is unusually heavy this season. There were landed from the Majestic at the barge office Friday over 750 Irish boys and girls. The latter were in the majority, and their ages ranged from 15 to 25 years.

Miners Blown to Pieces.

Butte, Mont., May 29.—Angus McLeod and Anton Peranda, working in the Diamond mine, while drilling in a hole where the blast had not been fired, were blown to pieces by the explosion of the powder early Sunday morning.

Slain at a Crossing.

Kent, O., May 31.—Amos Winkelpick and daughter Maude were killed Tuesday. Their buggy was struck by passenger train No. 13, while crossing the Erie track, near Windham.

Young Men Drowned.

Fond du Lac, Wis., May 31.—William Skinner and Arthur Pratt, influential young business men of this city, were drowned in Lake Winnebago by the upsetting of a boat.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles 10cts at Heber Walsh, Holland, Van Bree & Son, Zeeland. Regular size 50c and $1.00. The Secret of Health

The health of the whole body depends upon the blood and nerves. Therefore the medicine that expels impurities from the blood and supplies the necessary materials for rapidly rebuilding wasted nerve tissues, reaches the root of many serious diseases. It is these virtues that have given their wonderful power to conquer disease, and caused the miraculous cures that have startled the scientific world. Thousands of cases have demonstrated that this remedy is an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Frank Tucker, is a prominent farmer, of Versailles, Indiana. His daughter, Lucy, is now fifteen years old; three years ago she began ailing. The rosy color in her cheeks gave way to a paleness, and she became rapidly thin. As she grew weaker she became the victim of nervous prostration. Most of the time she was confined to the bed and was almost on the verge of going into St. Vitus' dance.

"Finally the doctor told us to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Said he was treating a similar case with them and they were curing the patient. We began giving the pills at once, and the next day we could see a change for the better in her. The doctor told us to keep giving her the medicine. We gave her one pill after each meal until she was well. We began giving her the medicine last August, and she took the last dose in October, having used eight boxes. She is now entirely well and has not been sick a day since. We think the cure almost miraculous."

The schooner Helvetia, now in possession of her master, Capt. Marks, his son and a gang of men at Valleyfield, Ont., is owned by Henry J. Johnson, of Cleveland. Marks and his men have surrounded the vessel with barbed wire, and are fully armed, and say it will be sure death to anyone to board the vessel with the intention of taking it unless Johnson comes down with the wages he is said to owe them. All the Detroiters who owned schooners chartered to the Atlantic Transportation Company, paid their wage debts in full after that concern went to the wall, but it is alleged Johnson has paid nothing.

The Graham and Morton steamer line has entered into negotiations with Mayor Pearce for dockage at Waukegan the coming season. It is proposed to run the City of Louisville to that point, with Saturday excursions from Chicago, beginning June 15. The line will also carry freight. In connection with the new line Chicago people are preparing to erect a large summer hotel on the lake front.

Notice is given by the lighthouse board that on or about June 1, 1899, a ten-inch steam whistle will be established at Calumet Pierhead (South Chicago) light station, on the outer end of the north pier at the mouth of Calumet river, eleven miles southeast of Chicago breakwater, to sound, during thick or foggy weather, blasts of five seconds' duration, separated by silent intervals of ten seconds. The fog signal building is a brown, corrugated, iron structure, with gable roof, and stands on the outer end of the pier immediately in rear of the light tower.

The naptha launch Marie, bound from St. Joseph to Ashland, Wisconsin, was driven ashore near South Haven about midnight Saturday in a heavy squall. The crew were rescued by the life-savers and the yacht was floated in the morning. She made this port Sunday.

Extensive repairs are being made this week to the Saugatuck lighthouse. The building was erected in 1867 and for more than 40 years has not had a dollar's worth of repair. The work is being done by the government and L. Comfort is overseeing the job.

The rumor that was current last week to the effect that the Goodrich Transportation Co. had an option on the Colby-Hinkley properties and dockage in St. Joseph, and that the Colby-Hinkley company would retire from business at the close of this season, is denied by the above firm.

Superintendent Kimball of the life saving service is having plans and specifications prepared for new stations to be erected in Michigan. They will be at Charlevoix, Grand Marais and Sleeping Bear Point, South Manitou islands. He expects to have them completed this season, but the crews will hardly be appointed before the opening of navigation next spring. Each will cost from $4,000 to $6,000. The crews will be appointed through the civil service commission and the keepers will be selected from among the surfmen in the district.

Capt. Miles Barry of Chicago, has named his price for the sale of the Barry fleet to the tug trust and it is believed that the deal will soon be closed. According to current report the price named by Capt. James S. Dunham of Chicago for his fleet and good will is in the neighborhood of $250,000, while the Milwaukee Tug Boat Co. is credited with having demanded $150,000.

Inspector Conger, of the weather bureau, is anxious for the passage of the bill now before congress for the establishment of a wind signal station on South Manitou island, Lake Michigan, so that he can suggest to the bureau the desirability of experimenting from the station to the mainland, eight miles distant, with wireless telegraphy on the Marconi plan.

P. H. Stuffer, the Detroit boat builder, has just completed the hull of a most extraordinary gasoline launch, for the United States government. Though only 26 feet in length over all, it is constructed in exact imitation of one of Uncle Sam's up-to-date men of war. She will be placed on a flat car next week and transported by rail to the S. J. Co. to be used in patrolling the St. Mary's river and in tending buoys and other channel marks.

Capt. Robert B. Rice and a crew with a scow and tug are at Frankfort saving the machinery and everything of value left in the steamer St. Lawrence, wrecked off Point Betsy last December. The Crosby Transportation Co. of Milwaukee, bought the wreck from the underwriters for a song and hired Rice to do this work. He has secured the boiler, steam steering gear, steam windlass, anchor and other valuable parts, and expects to get the engine as well.

Capt. M. P. Scott, of the barge Shawnee, which recently returned from Valleyfield, Que., says that Capt. Marks, who is holding the fort aboard the barge Helvetia, never sailed that vessel and was simply acting as ship-keeper during the winter. His home is in Valleyfield, Capt. Scott says.
