It's the second crib now. The first crib was laid three weeks ago, the second will be laid soon, showing that the pier extension at Holland harbor is progressing finely. Soon Holland will be a harbor of refuge—that is if the theory proves practical that an outside breakwater will result in an inside lull of wind and waves.

Forty-three deaths occurred in Ottawa county during April, and of this number Holland reported ten and Grand Haven three. Of the deaths in this city two were infants under one year and four persons were over 65 years of age. One death is reported as resulting from each of the following important causes: Tuberculosis of the lungs, meningitis, pneumonia, cancer, violence. For April, Allegan county reported 48 deaths and 55 births, and Muskegon county 50 deaths and 68 births.

The common council will not be bothered this year with petitions for exemption from taxation by widows and others in straightened circumstances. All this work has been adjusted by the board of review, which sent out notices to the several persons, who have in the past had their taxes remitted by the council, to appear before the board and show cause why their property should not be held for taxes. Where the showing was sufficient the property was exempted.

The Grand Rapids Correspondent to the Christian Intelligencer has the following regarding Rev. E. J. Blekkink and the Third Reformed church: "Your Grand Rapids correspondent had the privilege of late to attend divine services on the Lord's day at the Third Reformed church of Holland, of which the Rev. E. J. Blekkink is pastor, and was surprised to see this large church with its gallery filled every Sunday. We also noticed that a large chorus choir, of which Mr. John Vandersluis is leader, together with a fine pipe organ, furnishes its music for these services. The Sunday School, of which Hon. A. Visscher (our highly respected treasurer of Hope College,) has been superintendent for a great many years, has a regular attendance of about 400; a Bible class of fifty members, mostly young people, of which the pastor and Prof. Dubbink are the teachers. A large number of students at Hope College attend this church and several are members. Two of the senior theological students, Mr. Benj. Brinkman, who has accepted a call to the Second Reformed church (English), of Englewood, Ill., and Mr. A. Karreman, who will become pastor of the Second Reformed church of Cleveland, Ohio, are also members of this church. The Rev. Mr. Blekkink, who less than two years ago became the pastor in the place of our very esteemed Prof. Dubbink, has had great blessings on his labors, by seeing new additions to this church on confession and by letter at every communion."

Ninety-five percent of the number of votes cast for the republican candidate for governor two years ago are represented on the republican enrollment lists now filed with the secretary of state. This showing is a complete answer to all charges of insincerity on the part of republicans in the matter of adoption and use of the new nominating system. Whatever changes the new law may need will be thoroughly made known through the very general use that is to be made of it by the republicans of Michigan.

Farmers of this section are well pleased this year over the prices Gus and Dan Stern, the local wool buyers, are paying them for their wool. The average price paid last week being 28 cents per pound. A number of nice fleeces have been bought by them. Last week David Walker, living near Abonia, sold them three fleeces that weighed 28 pounds. Ed Rogers of Cheshire sold them 20 fleeces that weighed 194 pounds, an average of 93/4 pounds to the fleece. One of the fleeces weighed 15 pounds. Rogers has 19 ewes and has raised 32 lambs this season. He has sold four of the lambs for $5 a head. This shows there is money in sheep and farmers should feel encouraged and raise more sheep in this section.—Allegan News.

Wm. D. Van Loo took his new position as cashier of the National Bank of Grand Haven last Friday. Murvin W. Turner resigned, but will remain in the office with Mr. Van Loo for a short time.

Judge Padgham will open circuit court in Grand Haven June 11 for the adjourned session. The cases left over from the last session will be taken up and disposed of at the coming adjourned session.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barkel will remove from Hamilton to this city, where the former will join his brother Andrew in the meat market business. John Barkel will remain at Hamilton and conduct the business.

The case of the people against John Hancock, charged with looting the cottage on Spring Lake came up in Justice Hoyt's court. The matter was considered by the justice and Hancock was bound over to circuit court under $1000 bail.

The jail building committee of the board of supervisors of Allegan county inspected the new jail and sheriff's residence and found a number of little things which will have to be looked after before the building can be accepted from the contractors.

Charles Bolthouse of Ferrysburg is building a steel motor boat which will contain a 100 horse power gasoline engine to attain a speed of 30 miles per hour. The boat will be between 35 and 40 feet long and will probably be one of the very fastest in the great lakes region.

The life saving crew at Grand Haven harbor is engaged in building their new watch tower on the north pier. The tower will be about forty feet high and the first twenty feet of it will be open. At the top a watch house will be built. Around the little house there will be a promenade where the watch may pace during good weather.

A lake trout weighing twenty-five pounds was brought in from the pond nets by Abram Fisher, a Grand Haven fisherman, last Saturday. This is the largest lake trout that has ever been taken by the commercial fishermen of that port and its size is considered unusual. Recently quite a number of these fish have been taken by hook and line off that harbor, and several launch owners are planning on expeditions into the lake for the purpose of giving the summer visitors a taste of deep water fishing, something they seldom enjoy.

One of the most outrageous occurrences in many a day was witnessed in Allegan the other day and people have become thoroughly aroused. Mrs. Charles Renick tied a strap around the waist of her six-year-old son and threw him in the river back of F. N. Walker's store. The performance was repeated at least three times, and then the little fellow was whipped unmercifully with the strap in his wet clothing. Officers have investigated and found the facts to be as stated. The matter has been taken up by the humane society and will be pushed.

The Interurban started its mail service between Holland and Grand Haven Friday.

Rev. M. E. Broekstra of Englewood preached in the First Reformed church last Sunday.

Health Officer Mersen has established a quarantine of the residence of H. De Witt, 179 River street, on account of a case of diphtheria.

B. Huizenga, contractor and builder, has taken the job to build for Jacob Levensse a house on the corner of Tenth street and First avenue. Work is in progress now. Mr. Knoll is doing the mason work on the same.

Peter Huyser, jr., of Zeeland township, has declared his candidacy for the office of county treasurer to take the place of William D. Van Loo, who will not be a candidate for reelection, having accepted the position of cashier of the National Bank of Grand Haven. Mr. Van Loo will hold the office until the expiration of his term, which will relieve the supervisors of the duty of filling the office temporarily.

Grand Haven has fallen in line with other towns of western Michigan and the lid is on and is on tight. There wasn't a drink to be had in the town last Thursday and the fellows who used to have the means at their command of getting liquor at any old time and on any old day were up against it with the rest. For the first time in many moons Grand Haven was strictly a "dry" town. The latch string was drawn on front, side and back doors and the significant raps and pass words which used to gain admittance to local patrons were no good.

It is up to Grand Haven now to do something for the Eagle Tanning Co. As the Grand Haven Tribune stated some weeks ago they have the plans out for the erection of a great addition to their already fine plant at Grand Haven but the Company thought the Board of trade or the citizens of the city should show their appreciation by obtaining for them a triangular strip of land, owned by Mrs. R. W. Duncan, which can be obtained for about a thousand dollars. It is up to the city now to either buy this strip or possibly lose the contemplated great additions at the local plant. The Eagle Tanning Co. assert that they will not locate in a place where they are not wanted.

Gelt Boyenga, who has been staying with his son on East Eighth street, for the past three months, died Wednesday. The deceased came with his wife from the Netherlands in 1857 and settled on a farm on the Zeeland road, his wife dying six weeks after they came here. He was married six years afterwards to Mrs. P. Ver Sluis, of Kalamazoo. Mr. Boyenga was 83 years of age and had been living on the farm until twelve years ago when he came to this city and has lived here ever since. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. A. TerVree of Vriesland, Mrs. P. DeFeyer, Mrs. T. Slagh, Charles and G. Boyenga of this city and Gerrit Boyenga of Boyce City, Idaho. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the house, Rev. A. Keizer officiating.

CORRESPONDENCE

Zeeland.

The centennial session of the General Synod of the Reformed church will open in New York city on Wednesday, June 6. Among the delegates from the classis of Holland are Rev. W. Moerdyke and Elder J. Den Herder of this place.

Peter Ossewaarde and Grace Spitsbergen were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johannes Pyl on Wednesday evening.

The consistory of the First Christian Reformed church has formed the following trio of ministers from which to select a pastor: Rev. Beets of Grand Rapids, Rev. Berkhoff of Oakdale Park and Rev. Van Wyk of Sioux Centre, Iowa. The congregational meeting will be held Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Holkeboer expect to make an extended trip through the West in the near future. They will visit relatives in the Dakotas and Iowa.

Hamilton.

Probably the greatest gathering of Indians that was ever held in Western Michigan will convene at Hamilton in August. The camp-meeting grounds are located on the Pere Marquette railroad near the village on the river. Every arrangement for the comfort of the braves is being carefully attended to and the Indians who live in this vicinity expect to go in large numbers. Sampson W. Pigeon of Hamilton is president of the association and Selkirk Sprague, near Brady, is secretary.

Douglas.

Mrs. Ash is getting better, her daughter, Mrs. Zuber, has been here but has returned to her home in Holland.

C. A. Applegate will begin building his electric road as soon as he can get material here from South Haven. The work will be begun at E. E. Weed & Co's. factory and the track laid at once. When he was reminded that his franchise had expired he said "I know that but that don't matter. I am not going to bother the Village Board to grant another franchise till I am ready to start to work. I will get my material on the ground and my men here and the night before I start work I will ask for the franchise." Mr. Applegate seems to thoroughly understand that the people of Douglas are ready to give him all the assistance required when he wants it and there is no doubt but that the terms of the franchise can be agreed upon as soon as it is brought up for consideration.

Fire which started early Saturday morning in the building owned by Brownie, Lynds & Co., completely destroyed the building and nothing of the contents was saved except three trunks owned by parties occupying living rooms on the second floor. The occupants escaped. Loss on the building is $2,500, about $1,200 on stock, with $1,000 insurance on the stock, $1,000 on the building and $450 on household goods.

Beaverdam.

Miss Coba Van Farowe closes her school June 14. The Huyser school closes the day following, June 15.

On May 30, Miss Hattie Ver Meulen was married to Mr. Sietse Baron of Holland, the Rev. J. J. Van Zanten officiating. The occasion proved to be a most delightful one to all in attendance. The happy couple will make Holland their future home. Dr. John Ver Meulen of McBain, who with his family, attended the wedding is on his way to Boston, Mass., where the American Medical Association meets on June 8, 1906.

Rev. H. M. Vander Ploeg of Lafayette, Ind., has declined the call recently extended to him by the Beaverdam Christian Reformed church.

An Alarming Situation

Frequently results from neglect of clogged bowels and torpid liver, until constipation becomes chronic. This condition is unknown to those who use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the best and gentlest regulators of Stomach and Bowels. Guaranteed by the Walsh Drug Co. Price 25c.

Attention Fruit Growers

For spraying your fruit trees we have a high grade calcium lime which will give you better results in making your mixture than the common commercial lime. We will be pleased to answer all inquiries. Regt. The Holland Brick Co.

Saugatuck.

Charles L. Mead of Saugatuck was arraigned before Justice G. L. Hicks of Allegan on the charge of seduction. He demanded an examination, which was set for July 10 and was released on a $1,000 bond.

The Forward Movement was assessed $2500 this year on their property here. There is some doubt as to whether they can be made to pay taxes as religious organizations are exempt.

Mrs. Adrienne Garrison died at her home in this village Wednesday afternoon of last week of paralysis. The funeral was held Friday afternoon.

Jacob Aliber has his shooting gallery already in operation besides other attractions to test both strength and skill. He has an extra tent which he is planning to put up soon in which he will have other attractions.

Mr. Darling has rented the Takken building on the Public Square which he will use for his photograph gallery this season. The building was built for a photograph gallery and will therefore be convenient for him.

Capt. Edgcomb has severed his connection with D. F. Ludwig and established his office with E. White Suttan where he will transact a real estate and insurance business besides attending to his duties as village treasurer.

Household Cares.

Tax the Women of Holland the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back. And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys. Here is a Holland woman who endorses this claim:

Mrs. M. Shonaker, 256 West 15th street says: "I suffered from constant heavy aching pains across the small of my back so that I could not rest easy at night in any position and during the day I felt tired and languid. The kidney secretions became badly affected, irregular, too frequent, scanty, and were attended by a good deal of pain besides depositing a heavy sediment. I suffered also from headaches and spells of dizziness so that I either had to sit down or hold on to something to keep from falling. I used a great many different remedies but without obtaining any benefit. Friends advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and used them. They are the best remedy I ever tried, and I have no hesitation in recommending them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Don't be fooled and made to believe that rheumatism can be cured with local appliances. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the only positive cure for rheumatism. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Haan Bros.

When the baby talks, it is time to give Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It's the greatest baby medicine known to loving mothers. It makes them eat, sleep and grow. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Haan Bros.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores ruddy, sound health.

Torturing eczema spreads its burning area every day. Doan's Ointment quickly stops its spreading, instantly relieves the itching, cures it permanently. At any drug store.

There's nothing so good for a sore throat as Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Cures it in a few hours. Relieves any pain in any part.

What's the good of keeping from him

An Aged Physician.

After Years of Experience Gives the Following Advice.

"If you have anything to do with medicines at all be pretty sure you know what you are taking."

Our local druggist, Con De Pree, says this is a strong point in favor of their valuable cod liver preparation, Vinol. Everything it contains is plainly printed on the bottle, therefore it is not a patent medicine.

Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil or grease to nauseate and upset the stomach.

This is the reason that Vinol accomplishes such wonderful results in curing chronic coughs, colds, bronchial and lung troubles, and there is nothing known to medicine that will so quickly build up the run down, overworked, tired and debilitated, or give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, as Vinol.

Mrs. Martha Fraser of Portland, Me., writes: "I was all run down from overwork and had a chronic cough for years. I had tried so many remedies without help that I had lost all faith in medicine. My daughter bought me a bottle of Vinol. It simply worked wonders for me; it cured my cough and brought back health and strength and I am better than I have been for years."

We can only ask every one in Holland who needs such a medicine to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails." Con De Pree, Druggist.

RELIGION AND BOYCOTT.

It Is the Rule That Moon Cakes of China Must Be Made of American Flour.

The fierce struggle to which the boycott has given rise has now entered the sphere of religion and concerned itself with ceremonial observances.

Everybody in China knows of the great moon feast held about the middle of September. One of the special features of this feast is preparation of a peculiar species of moon cakes, which are very popular with all classes. In the preparation of these cakes for many years the finest quality of American flour has been used.

It has now been decided by the women of Canton, whose business it is to attend to these matters, that they will not buy any cakes made of this flour, but will content themselves with fried rice cakes instead.

Moreover, in regard to the cakes usually presented to the servants, it has been decided that money shall be given instead. Indeed, through the medium of the planchette, the far-famed god of war has made known his will in the matter, and has warned all to keep from the orthodox luxury or they will incur a fierce displeasure.

In addition to this most important decision, it has been decided that at weddings and such felicitous occasions the same rule shall apply.

MATTER OF PRONUNCIATION

The Word "Frieze" as Applied to Irish Tweed Is Not Correct.

Is it too late to make a stand against the mispronunciation of the word frieze as applied to Irish tweed? On the other side of St. George's channel, says the London Chronicle, they know better than to confuse their wall decoration with their dress material, and pronounce the one "frieze" and the other "frise." So did we, in old England. Originally meaning the curling nap on cloth—from the French "friser," to curl; Welsh, "fris," nap of cloth—frise, as it was then spelt and pronounced, came to mean cloth that had a nap on one side, and is now applied to any rough kind of homespun. We can be sure of the old pronunciation from the motto worn by Brandon, duke of Suffolk, when, on his marriage with Henry VIII's sister, he appeared at a tournament on a horse draped half in "frieze" and half in cloth of gold:

"Cloth of gold, do not thou deesplee, Though thou be matched with cloth of frise; Cloth of frise, be not thou too bold, Though thou be matched with cloth of gold."

Invention of Whisky.

The name of the man who first staggered humanity by the invention of whisky is lost in the mists of the middle ages and all the ingenuity of counsel now employed in trying to find out what whisky is has failed to disclose his identity. The fiery potion was known in England in the eleventh century, in Scotland not till the fourteenth. But Scotland made up for lost time. She gave the bright liquid its alluring name, the "water of life," and made its production a cottage industry of noble proportions. When the execrable exciseman descended upon the village she carried the still to the lonely hills. We in these days are inclined to forget that Glenlivet, the home of the smuggler, would never have achieved its bacchanalian fame but for the absurd Georgian licensing laws directed against the individual still and not against the magnitude of its output.—London Chronicle.

The Results.

The roundup was successful. The Good Roads meeting held last Friday

gave an impetus to the movement that should finally bring results.

The results! What will they be?

Will the men who listened to the words of Good Roads Earle take heed, or will they not. The future will determine this question.

All have had a chance to catch the spirit of the new movement. Will it prove of benefit? Not if the seed has been sown on the right soil.

Mr. Earle sowed the seed upon the right soil. He sowed the right Good Roads seeds. What will the harvest be? It will be nothing unless the farmers and the business men join forces and start a Good Roads crusade that will bring results.

Organize.

Now is the Time to Act on Life

Savers' Pension Bill.

Nothing has been heard of late of the life savers' pension bill and it is fearful that it will die an unnatural death in the pigeon hole of the committee room.

It is reported one Congressman hailing from Chicago is responsible for the attempted smothering of the bill, he being a member of the committee which has the bill in charge.

If this Congressman did one-half as much towards earning his salary as the life savers do towards earning theirs, his action could be looked upon with something like tolerance. But he shows in his attitude on this bill that he does not earn it by half, for he is obstructing meritorious legislation.

When Congressmen are through with service they are not relegated to the scrapheaps of oblivion, for they get fair salaries and are in a position to lay something by for a rainy day. It is different with the life savers. They cannot support their families on the meager salary they receive and save money, and when, on account of age, infirmity or injury, they are mustered out of service, hardship faces them sternly and harshly. They deserve better treatment, and the time to grant them this is at the present session of Congress, and the way to do it is by passing the pension bill.

Rural Mail Service for Ottawa County Settled.

The controversy over the question of the abolishment of the Star route from Bass River to Grand Rapids, which has delayed the establishment of county rural delivery service in Ottawa county, has finally been adjusted, through the influence of Congressman Smith and the fourth assistant postmaster general has fixed upon August 15 as the earliest possible date to put into effect the new rural system in that county. This system of free mail delivery has been planned and laid out by Rural Agent George E. Fox and is one of the most complete rural deliveries in Michigan.

It is impossible to establish the service at an earlier date because of the time it requires to examine applicants for carriers, but Fourth Assistant Postmaster General DeGraw, having been urged not to delay the matter longer than possible, has entered an order establishing the service the middle of August.

Port Sheldon.

Port Sheldon Beach Co., has been incorporated by Grand Rapids parties with a capital stock of $10,000. Probate Judge Harry D. Jewell and other prominent Grand Rapids citizens are interested in the project. Cottages and summer homes will be erected on the site of the now vanished town of early Michigan history.

Good Roads Earle And A Good Roads Roundup.

The Good Roads Roundup was not only a great success from an educational and inspirational standpoint but the picnic features of the occasion were all that could be desired.

In the large crowd that gathered at College Grove were the leading farmers of this vicinity, the men who take an active interest in advancing the interests of the community in which they live. Many of them were accompanied by their wives and families, and there was a fair sprinkling of city people present.

The refreshment committee consisting of C. J. Lokker, Al Hidding, Ray Nies, L. Tinbolt, Dick Oosting, B. Steketee, Will Van Dyke, John Vander Veen, Charles A. Floyd, Sommers Blackman, assisted by members of the other committees, worked every minute of the time and served buns, ham, ice cream, coffee and pickles in abundance and all there enjoyed the feast hugely.

It was a busy afternoon for the Citizens band and the way that the boys discoursed lively music was a caution.

The program was opened by Anthony Rosbach, president of the R. F. D. carriers of the county, who told of the work done by the carriers in inaugurating the good roads movement, giving as one of the results the fact that 112 men had signed the roll of honor to use the King split log road drag. In closing he said:

"But the improvement of a dirt road is not the ideal. The ideal is a hard surface road. To properly present that phase of the road problem we found was beyond our powers. For that reason we have arranged this meeting and the one man who towers above all others in the state of Michigan on the road question has consented to come and enlighten us. We have enlisted the citizens of Holland in our campaign and they have responded in a magnificent manner. It is only through their efforts that this meeting is possible. You are the guests of the business men of this city and as their representative I take great pleasure in introducing to you Hon. G. J. Diekema, who, in the absence of Mayor Van Putten, who cannot be present because he is attending the meeting of the board of review, will welcome you to our city."

Mr. Diekema said that it was the first time that a good republican had been called upon to take the place of a good democrat but that it pleased him to welcome in behalf of the citizens the farmers to the city. His address was delivered in his characteristic style and served to put the audience in rare good humor.

Then Mr. Earle, state highway commissioner was introduced by N. J. Whelan and made the address of the day. It was a good one and will doubtless have a good effect. The right things were said in the right way and much valuable information was given upon the subject of good roads. He said in part: "Now it's perfectly proper for me, your servant, to render to you an account of what we have done and what will probably be done. We opened up for business July 1, 1905, immediately started to shovel gravel and crack stones and at the close of the season had built 16 miles of road. We have today on our books 110 applications and we expect to add to last year's work somewhere between 100 and 150 miles of road, totaling about 165 miles in two years. This will beat the record of any other state that ever adopted state aid, by three-fold, and the reasons are—the kind of a law we have, which leaves the initiative and the execution in the hands of the localities that want the roads, leaving with the state department the three functions—instruction, inspection and reward. Instruction we give to the best of our ability. We don't know it all; we are learning. Inspection will be thorough as several localities have found out to their sorrow, but it states in the law what kind of roads must be built, and the law tells us what to pay provided it is built, and if it is not up to the requirements no one has any right to find fault if they don't get their money.

Mr. Earle told of the state reward law which provide that for every mile of gravel road constructed the state will allow a reward of $500 and a reward of $1,000 for every mile of macadam road. Continuing Mr. Earle said:

"But don't think for a minute that I expect that all the roads of Michigan are going to be made of gravel or crushed stone. They are not. Seventy-five percent of them are always to remain earth roads. Now what to do to make those earth roads as good roads as it is possible to do is a matter of serious consideration. It has been reported that I am against dragging the roads. This is not true. Because I don't believe that you can grow a horse out of a colt with no other cause to make him grow than a curry comb isn't saying that the curry comb doesn't do him a whole lot of good provided he has food and all other things necessary.

Primary Election.

A primary election will be held on the 12th day of June 1906, in the city of Holland in the several wards of said city at the places designated as follows:

In the Third ward at No. 209 River street.

In the Fourth ward at the Seif building, No. 163 West Tenth street.

In the Fifth ward at No. 1 West Seventeenth street.

The following propositions will be submitted to the enrolled voters of the political parties:—

1. The nomination of candidates of each of the political parties for the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

2. The election by each political party of delegates to the county convention thereafter to be held by said political party.

Woman's Literary Club Banquet.

At Macatawa Park Hotel Tuesday the members of the Woman's Literary Club held their annual banquet. It was a very enjoyable affair and was largely attended. Mrs. R. N. De Merrill was at her best as toastmistress and there was not a dull moment during the rendition of the following banquet:

Van Raalte-Huntley.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season, took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. James Huntley when her daughter Adeline was united in marriage to B. Van Raalte, Jr., by Rev. J. W. Beardslee in the presence of a large number of guests.

The bridal party preceded by Ring bearers Hazel Allen, Marguerite Huntley, Philip Remold and Harold De Pree, entered to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march played by Breyman's orchestra, with Mrs. Alfred Huntley as accompanist, and stood under an umbrella canopy made of syringas and white roses. During the ceremony Miss Margaret Hopson of Grand Rapids sang "O Promise Me."

The bride was charmingly gowned in embroidered chifon over white silk, trimmed with real lace and pearls and carried a shower bouquet of swansons. She was attended by Miss Anna Sprietsma who was dressed in light blue silk. Harry Huntley was best man; Charles A. Floyd was master of ceremonies; Mrs. O. R. Riemold presided at the punch bowl; and an official announcer from Grand Rapids announced the carriages with a megaphone. Mrs. A. P. Schriver of Grand Rapids was in charge of the decorations which were syringas and American Beauties. After the ceremony refreshments were served by a dozen young ladies.

The pr.sents were costly and beautiful, several of the gifts being gold coins of large denomination.

The out of town guests were Mrs. A. P. Schriver, Miss Catherine Van der Veen, and Mrs. Ormond and four daughters of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Alfred Huntley and daughters of Hammond, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Allen of Allegan and Miss Jeanette Hughes of St. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. VanRaalte left last evening for Chicago. They eluded their friends by having Mr. Floyd drive them to Macatawa, where they caught the steamer. They will go from Chicago on a trip to the Thousand Islands, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, and will be at home to friends in this city at West 14th street after August 1.

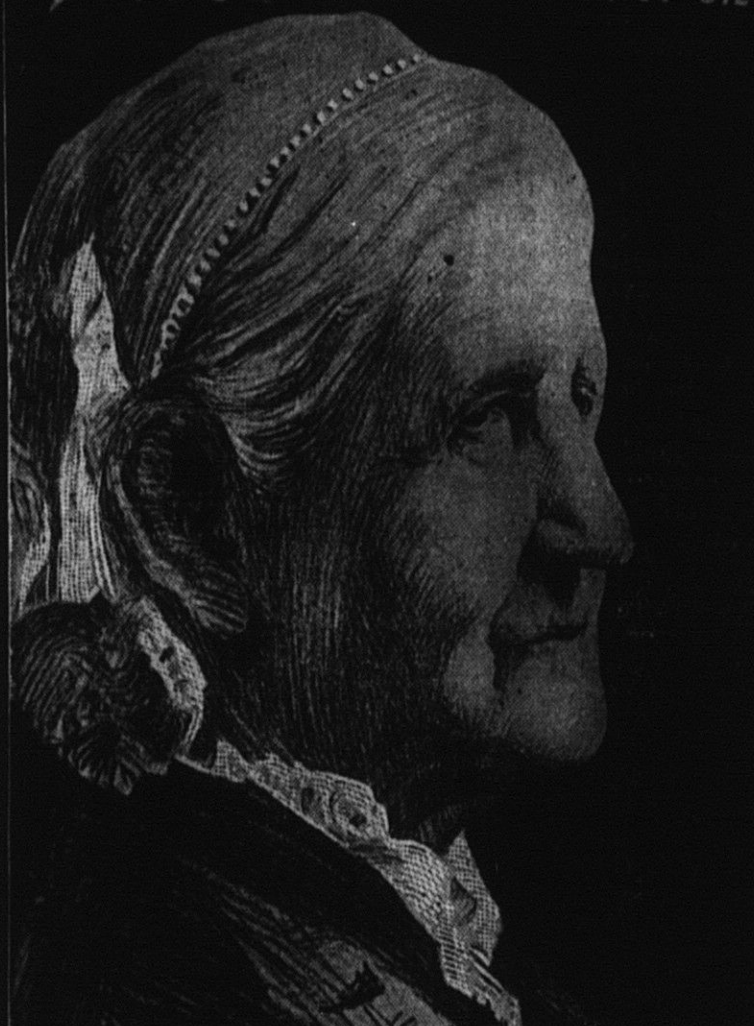

Albert Hidding noticed when he came to his store early Monday morning evidences that someone had broken into the place sometime since the preceding Saturday night and it did not take long to get on the track of the alleged culprits. Henry Kramer, Leonard Kramer and John Haight were arrested by Marshal Kamferbeek, and in Justice VanDuren's court today County Agent Whipple let them go on suspended sentence. Mr. Hidding missed $3.20 and some sardines.

Reports from those taking the school census indicate that the population of this city is a little over 9,500.

Vinol THE COD LIVER PREPARATION WITHOUT OIL

Vinol is fast superseding old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions because, without a drop of oil or disagreeable feature, it contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers. By our process the oil, having no value either as a medicine or food, is separated from the medicinal elements and thrown away. Unlike old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, Vinol is deliciously palatable, agreeable to the weakest stomach, and therefore unequalled as a body builder and strength creator for old people, puny children, weak, run-down men and women, after sickness, and for all pulmonary diseases. Everything Vinol contains is named on the label.

CLOTHES

JUST AS YOU WANT THEM

"Just as YOU want them" clothes is the kind I am making right along.

You select the cloth you like and tell me what you want, and you get it.

My "correct method" of measuring and cutting makes a misfit impossible.

In making up clothes, special care is given to strengthening parts that have the most wear, and the little things are not slighted either.

Let the women folks examine any garment of my making, they will tell you "that's well made."

Now sum up the clothes question — good cloth, well made into a splendid fitting garment, just as you want it, costing no more than store clothes; isn't that a combination worth trying?

I have convinced many. Will you let me prove my statements to you?

Hoeksma-Schepers.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon when Miss Grace Schepers was united in marriage to Albert Hoeksma at the home of the bride's parents in Filmore township.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Homan of East Holland in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride is one of Filmore's most popular young ladies, and the groom is a resident of this city, being employed in the First State Bank.

A reception will be held this evening at their future home on the corner of Central avenue and Nineteenth street.

Karreman-Mulder.

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Mulder and Rev. Anthony Karreman was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. Mulder, 29 East Fourteenth street, on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, in the presence of immediate relatives. To the sweet strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Gertrude De Jongh, an intimate friend of the bride, the bride and groom entered the parlors, preceded by the bride's brother-in-law, Rev. Henry Geerlings, who performed the ceremony, and the ringbearer, the bride's nephew, Master Leonard Mulder Steketee, who bore the ring in a calla lily. Rev. D. R. Drukker assisted in the ceremony. The bridal couple stood before an embankment composed of bridal wreath, ferns and palms. Miss Gertrude De Jongh played "Hearts and Flowers" during the ceremony and "Les Sylphides" during congratulations.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of champagne taffeta silk with lace trimmings and carried Bridal roses. A large bouquet of white carnations was the center piece of the dining room table.

An elaborate supper was served by the following, who were each presented with monogram stick pins as souvenirs of the occasion: The Misses Bertha Dalman, Maud Marsilje, Mary Mulder, Mary Douma, Carrie Ten Houten.

Many handsome and costly presents were received.

THE RUBY RING.

By Avis Hall, Holland, Mich.

When Judge Chittenden boarded the train at Springfield he settled himself and luggage in the one vacant seat in the car and was soon deeply interested in a magazine. He was interrupted by a sweet voice saying, "Pardon me, may I share this seat with you, please?" He made room for the owner of the voice and was graciously thanked.

The deep blue eyes, curly brown hair, the firm yet gentle mouth and quiet dignity of this girl in her neat brown suit and "tam" sent his thoughts back to the past.

He glanced at the girl as she seated herself. One of her slender fingers she wore a ring with a peculiar setting, a ruby heart with a tiny gold arrow running through it. His gaze was riveted on that ring. "There can be no mistake," he said to himself, "that's the very ring Eloise used to wear,—and she like like Eloise, too, can it be? I will ask her anyway."

"Pardon me Miss for being inquisitive, but you look so much like an old friend of mine, would you mind telling me your name?"

"Eloise Barnard!" came the answer in low musical tones.

"Eloise Barnard!" exclaimed the Judge in surprise. "Please tell me something of yourself, where you live, and your father's name."

"I have lived with my aunt at Hillsdale since father died three years ago. His name was Kenneth Barnard and my aunt is Eloise Barnard. I attend the Grand Academy and as auntie and I are alone now I go back and forth every day."

"Are you ill, sir?" for he was very pale.

"A slight faintness; it will pass." After a pause, "May I ask you a few questions?"

"Certainly," replied Eloise.

"Is that ruby ring your aunt's?"

"Her father gave it to her the day she was sixteen and she gave it to me when I was sixteen," answered the puzzled Eloise.

"One more. Did your aunt ever tell you of a Robert Chittenden, her betrothed?"

"Yes, often. She has never lost faith in him. I wish I could bring them together again."

"You can, for I am that Robert Chittenden. I am going to stop at Hillsdale and I will call this evening. You may tell her someone is going to call but don't tell her my name."

At half past eight Eloise answered the Judge's ring and taking his hat she said, "Go into the library. You will find auntie there."

Miss Barnard turned from the fireplace where she had been dreamily watching the burning logs. She stretched out her hands in welcome but all she could say was "Robert!" He took her hands and with "Eloise, O, Eloise, darling, forgive me!" he clasped her to his heart. He lifted the sweet face to his and with a kiss that pardon was sealed.

Eloise now has an Aunt Eloise Chittenden and an Uncle Robert Chittenden. The Judge often says to his wife, "Who says true love never dies."

SENATOR GORMAN

CALLED BY DEATH

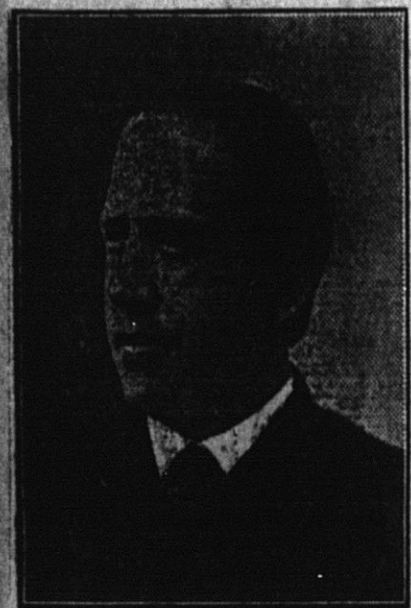

MARYLAND MEMBER OF UPPER HOUSE PASSES AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Both Branches Immediately Adjourn Out of Respect to Memory of Noted Democrat, Who Had Held Office Eighteen Years.

Washington, June 5.—Arthur Pue Gorman, United States senator from Maryland, died suddenly at his residence in this city at 9:05 o'clock Monday morning. While Senator Gorman had been ill for many months, he had shown some improvement lately. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of death. His illness, which had lasted for several months, was not considered serious. He leaves a widow and six children.

The senate adjourned immediately upon receiving the announcement of Senator Gorman's death. No business whatever was transacted, even the reading of the journal being dispensed with. There was an unusual number of senators present and all were manifestly impressed by the solemnity of the occasion.

Chair and Desk Draped. After the opening prayer, which was delivered by Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, of this city, Senator Bailey announced the death, and appropriate resolutions were then adopted. After the senate adjourned the desk and chair

SENATOR ARTHUR P. GORMAN. formerly occupied by Senator Gorman were draped in deep black in accordance with the custom in such cases.

Served 18 Years. Senator Gorman long had been a notable figure in the national congress. He first took his seat in 1881, and served continuously for 18 years, and nearly all of that time he was the leader of the Democratic party in the senate.

Won Fame as Politician. Winning early a reputation for sagacity and the keenest judgment in congressional affairs, he attained prominence, not only as a leader in the senate but in the country at large, and by many men was considered the most available man in his party for the presidency. He was chairman of the executive committee, and managed the campaign that resulted in the election of Cleveland in 1884.

LONGWORTHS LEAVE STATES

Sail on Steamer St. Louis for England—Brief Excitement on the Pier.

New York, June 5.—Representative Nicholas Longworth and Mrs. Longworth sailed for England Saturday on the steamer St. Louis. They will be at Southampton and go direct to London, to be the guests of the American ambassador and Mrs. Reid at Dorchester house.

Just before the Longworths sailed some excitement was caused on the pier by a drunken Italian declaring that he was an anarchist, and that he intended to throw a bomb at the Longworths. By the time a policeman could be found the Italian had disappeared. While the incident caused some stir for a moment, it was believed that the drunken man's talk was due to his condition.

JOHN C. NEW DEAD OF DROPSY

HAD HELD MANY POSITIONS OF HONOR AND TRUST.

Was United States Treasurer, Assistant Secretary of Treasury and Consul General to London.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 5.—John C. New died Monday afternoon at 5:10 of dropsy. Around his bedside were his wife, his son, Harry S. New, vice chairman of the national Republican committee, and his daughter, Mrs. Ernest H. Burford, of this city. Another daughter, Mrs. W. R. McKean, Jr., is en route here from her home at Omaha, Neb.

Mr. New had been sick for nearly a year. He was born in 1832 at Vernon, Ind. He was educated at Bethany college, Va., and studied law in the office of former Gov. Wallace, of Indiana. He served a term as clerk of Marion county, and was appointed by Gov. Oliver P. Morton, Indiana's war governor, quartermaster general during the civil war. He served a term in the state senate and entered the banking business. In 1875 President Grant appointed him United States treasurer, which position he signed the following year when he bought the Indianapolis Journal, of which he was proprietor for many years. He was chairman of the Indiana Republican committee during the campaign of 1876, and in 1882 President Arthur appointed him assistant secretary of the treasury. He resigned this position in 1884, when, as state chairman, he took charge of the campaign in Indiana. He was the personal political manager of Benjamin Harrison, and when Mr. Harrison was nominated for the presidency in 1888 Mr. New was appointed consul-general at London. At this time he transferred his interests in the Indianapolis Journal to his son, Harry S. New, now vice chairman of the Republican national committee. Mr. New was prominent in the Republican national convention at Minneapolis in 1892 which renominated Gen. Harrison for the presidency. Mr. New devoted the last ten years of his life to his property interests in this city.

A TARGET FOR CRITICISM.

The House—Why in Thunder Will You Wear That Kind of a Hat?

REPORT REVEALS PACKING HORRORS

FINDINGS OF COMMISSIONERS NEILL AND REYNOLDS ARE SENT TO CONGRESS.

Conditions in Packing Houses and Stockyards Are Described as Being Unclean, Revolting to Decency and Insanitary.

Washington, June 4.—President Roosevelt Monday transmitted to congress the first installment of the report of Charles P. Neill and James B. Reynolds, appointed by him to investigate conditions in the Chicago stock yards.

As an absolutely necessary remedy, Mr. Roosevelt recommends the passage of the Beveridge amendment providing for a rigorous government inspection "from hoof to can." The cost of the inspection must lie with the packers, says the president, if it is to be at all effective.

Message to Congress.

The message in part follows:

I transmit herewith the report of Mr. James B. Reynolds and Commissioner Charles P. Neill, the special committee whom I appointed to investigate into the conditions in the stock yards of Chicago and report thereon to me. This report is of a preliminary nature. I submit it to you now because it shows the urgent need of immediate action by the congress in the direction of providing a drastic and thoroughgoing inspection by the federal government of all stock yards and packing houses and of their products, so far as the latter enter into interstate or foreign commerce. The conditions shown by even this short inspection to exist in the Chicago stock yards are revolting. It is imperatively necessary in the interest of health and of decency that they should be radically changed. Under the existing law it is wholly impossible to secure satisfactory results.

The report shows that the stock yards and packing houses are not kept even reasonably clean, and that the method of handling and preparing food products is uncleanly and dangerous to health. Under existing law the national government has no power to enforce inspection of the many forms of prepared meat food products that are daily going from the packing houses into interstate commerce. Owing to an inadequate appropriation the department of agriculture is not the even able to place inspectors in all establishments desiring them.

The present law prohibits the shipment of uninspected meat to foreign countries, but there is no provision forbidding the shipment of uninspected meats in interstate commerce, and thus the avenues of interstate commerce are left open to traffic in diseased or spoiled meats. If, as has been alleged on seemingly good authority, further evils exist, such as the improper use of chemicals and dyes, the government lacks power to remedy them.

A law is needed which will enable the inspectors of the general government to inspect and supervise from the hoof to the can the preparation of the meat food product. Evil in Canned Products. The evil seems to be much less in the sale of dressed carcasses than in the sale of canned and other prepared products; and very much less as regards products sent abroad than as regards those used at home.

I urge the immediate enactment into law of provisions which will enable the department of agriculture adequately to inspect the meat and meat food products entering into interstate commerce and to supervise the methods of preparing the same, and to prescribe the sanitary conditions under which the work shall be performed. I therefore commend to your favorable consideration and urge the enactment of substantially the provisions known as senate amendment No. 29 to the act making appropriations for the department of agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, as passed by the senate, this amendment being commonly known as the Beveridge amendment.

CHICAGO PACKING HOUSES AND STOCKYARDS FILTHY

Washington, June 4.—The following is a synopsis of the report of J. B. Reynolds and Commissioner Neill to the president on conditions in the Chicago stockyards. The two officials recently investigated the charges of the horrible conditions there on the instance of the president, and the report has been anxiously awaited.

Cleanliness Is Absent.

The report says that two and one-half weeks were spent in the investigation in Chicago, during which "we went through the principal packing houses in the stockyards district together with a few of the smaller ones. A day was spent by Mr. Reynolds in New York city in the investigation of its leading slaughtering houses."

The report says that in many of the rooms where water is used freely the floors are soaked and slimy, and the dark and dingy rooms are naturally not kept suitably clean. An absence of cleanliness was found everywhere in the handling of meat being prepared for the various meat products. The parts that are sent from the cooling room to these departments where various forms of meat products are prepared, are handled with no regard whatever to cleanliness. The workers climb over heaps of meat, select the pieces they wish, and frequently throw them down upon the dirty floor beside their bench.

Shovel Meat from Floors.

"In a word," the report adds, "we saw meat shoveled from filthy wooden floors, piled on tables rarely washed, pushed from room to room in rotten box carts, in all of which processes it was in the way of gathering dirt, splinters, floor filth; it was always the reply that this meat would afterwards be cooked, and that this sterilization would prevent any danger from its use. A very considerable portion of the meat so handled is sent out as smoked products and in the form of sausages, which are prepared to be eaten without being cooked."

"A particularly glaring instance of uncleanness was found in a room where the best grade of sausage was being prepared for export."

Sanitary Provisions Bad.

The report arraigns the sanitary provisions in the buildings as abominable, and says the men and women plunge their naked hands into the meat to be converted into food products. The report says the burden of protecting the cleanliness of the products and the health of the workers and improving the conditions must fall upon the national government.

Department superintendents "seem to ignore all considerations except the account book," and proper care of the products and of health and comfort of the employees is impossible, and the consumer consequently suffers.

Tuberculosis victims expectorate on the spongy wooden floors of the dark work rooms, from which falling scraps of meat are shoveled up to be later converted into food products.

Ignore Ordinary Decency.

"Even the ordinary decencies of life are completely ignored," says the report in discussing the arrangements for men and women employees. The report says:

"The whole situation, as we saw it in these huge establishments, tends necessarily and inevitably to the moral degradation of thousands of workers, who are forced to spend their working hours under conditions that are entirely unnecessary and unpardonable, and which are a constant menace not only to their own health, but to the health of those who use the food products prepared by them."

Lieutenant Is Killed.

Annapolis, Md., June 2.—Lieut. Ferdinand Williams, of the engineering corps, U. S. A., was accidentally shot Friday by a sergeant of his detachment, while at target practice. He died a few hours later.

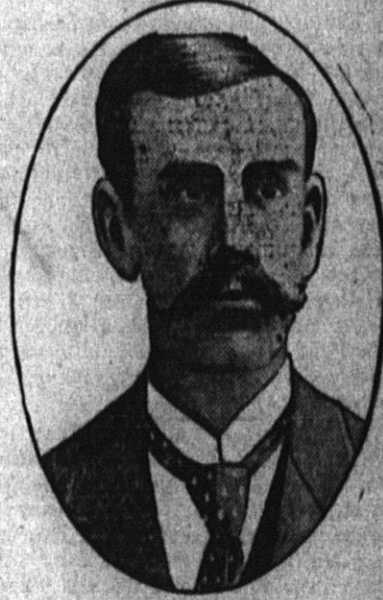

SMOOT CASE UP BEFORE SENATE

EFFORT MADE TO SET DAY FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE QUESTION.

Mr. Teller Enters Objection on the Ground That Matter Is Not Officially Reported and Cannot Be Acted Upon Legally.

Washington, June 4.—The fact that the committee on privileges and elections has acted upon the case of United States Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, was Saturday brought officially to the attention of the senate by Senator Burrows, chairman of that committee, who at the same time made an ineffectual effort to have Monday, the 11th instant, fixed as the day for the consideration of the case.

The announcement and request by Senator Burrows were made a few minutes after the senate convened. He stated that the official report was prepared, but was not yet ready for presentation, but that pending its preparation, which probably would require until the middle of next week, he had been instructed by the committee to make a verbal announcement of the committee's action. He then stated that after taking testimony as to the right and title of Senator Smoot to occupy his seat as a senator as directed by the senate, the committee had reached the conclusion that he had no right to it and had directed the chairman to make such a report to the senate. He followed this announcement with his request for unanimous consent for consideration of the report on Monday, the 11th.

Objects to Setting Date.

Senator Teller objected to naming a date for consideration in advance of the official report, and his objection had the effect of bringing the matter to an end for the time. He said the committee had had the matter under consideration for two years and that in so serious a matter the senate could not be expected to proceed with unreasonable celerity.

SENATOR BURTON RESIGNS

Foster Dwight Coburn Is Tendered Appointment by Gov. Hoch, of Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., June 5.—Foster Dwight Coburn, the widely known agriculturist, was appointed United States senator by Gov. E. W. Hoch late Monday afternoon to succeed J. Ralph Burton, who resigned Monday morning. Mr. Coburn has not definitely accepted the appointment. Mr. Coburn was not a candidate for the appointment, nor has he been a candidate for the election to the senate seat to be filled by the legislature next year. Mr. Coburn was born in Jefferson county, Wisconsin, in 1846. He served in two Illinois regiments during the civil war and settled in Kansas in 1867. He has served for the past 16 years as secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture, and is well known all over the world for his agricultural reports. Mr. Coburn's home is in Kansas City, Kan. He was a commissioner of live stock exhibits at the St. Louis exposition in 1904.

MURDERER ENDS HIS LIFE

Man Who Attempted to Slay King Alfonso and Queen Victoria Commits Suicide.

Madrid, June 5.—The capture and suicide Saturday night at Torrejon de Ardos de Morales, the chief suspect in the bomb outrage against King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, adds another dramatic chapter to the incidents surrounding the royal wedding.

Morales was recognized in the little town of Torrejon de Ardos, midway between Madrid and Alcala. A guard sought to detain him, but Morales, drawing a revolver, shot the guard dead. Then he turned to flee, but a number of the inhabitants of the town were upon him, and turning the revolver upon himself, he sent a shot in the region of his heart, expiring a few minutes later.

Senor Cuesta, proprietor of the hotel from the balcony of which Morales threw the bomb, viewed the body and completely identified it as that of his recent guest.

A large crowd gathered there to participate in the celebration of its semi-centennial anniversary, and a delightful and interesting program was carried out consisting of an address of welcome by William Zonbelt, the teacher, an opening address by the Rev. J. Broek of Muskegon, a historical sketch of the district by J. W. Wilterdink, a paper on "The Value of an Education" by S. Yntema of Forest Grove and an address by Attorney V. Visscher of Holland to those of the district who took active part in the civil war. Good music was provided by Prof. J. B. Nykerk of Holland and voluntary speeches, a basket picnic, free lemonade and a social time contributed to make the occasion a grand success. The school was organized June 14, 1855.

Henry Graftema of Chester, charged with making slanderous and indecent statements concerning Mrs. Lizzie Ritz, also of Chester was tried by a jury and found guilty in Justice Hunton's court Monday. Dan F. Pagelsen was in charge of the case for the people and W. I. Lillie represented the defendant. The case attracted a big crowd of people and the larger percentage of the audience was made up of Chester people. There were many witnesses on each side and the case at times got rather racy in flavor. Justice Hunton fined the defendant $25 and costs amounting in all to $66.64, from which Graftema will probably appeal to circuit court. Meanwhile the defendant is out on $300 bail with William Thieleman of this city and Robert H. Dohm of Spring Lake as sureties. The following jurors decided the case: George D. Stanford, Orson Vander Hoef, Fred Plaff, Dan Gale, Stewart Stone, D. H. Grow.

June weddings are now the order of the day and the license record in the county clerk's office promises to strike a high mark ere the matrimonial month fades into the past. It is surprising how many of the prospective brides and grooms wend their way to Jas. A. Brower's furniture store; but it is not surprising when the reason is discovered. It is simply this: Brides and grooms of the past have gone to Browers; they have received the best of treatment and have been given right goods and right prices; they tell these things to the happy couples of the present and visits to the big River street furniture store is the result.

HOLLAND HIGH BITES THE DUST.

In a poorly played, but exciting game the McLachlan's Business University defeated the crack bunch from the local High School last Saturday by a score of four to one.

Krakowski, for the visitors, pitched an excellent game and held the Holland team down to two hits; his support was gilded with the exception of his back-stop who was especially weak in throwing to bases.

Shaw and Te Roller in the points for the locals were in fine form but the ragged support lost the game. Shaw was a puzzle throughout the entire game, striking out fourteen men and allowing only four hits and after Te Roller's arm got to working in the second inning, not a base was stolen.

It was the poorest ball playing that the boys have been guilty of this season, almost every player of the team being credited with a black mark. About two hundred people witnessed the contest, most of whom were high school coeds, who turned out to give the boys loyal support.

The crowd was the largest that has ever witnessed a high school game in this city, and the locals seemed to have a bad case of stage fright. The fact that Hope College a short time ago defeated the McLachlan team by a score of nine to two, emphasizes the fact that the locals had an off day, since the locals have defeated the Hope College team four times out of as many games played.

Twice Grand Rapids scored because of plain lack of head work on the part of their opponents. Rottschaefer took especial pride in playing "London Bridge is Falling Down." Deto had a pronounced desire to "hang on to de bahl," or when he did throw it, to throw it to the wrong place.

Knutson added to the stock of errors by playing "Ring on the strings" with the ball when there was an excellent opportunity for a double play. However, each of these young men deserve especial credit for the good they did. Rottschaefer for bringing in the only score after sensational base running. Deto, for his two bagger and perfect handling of a "red hot" liner, and Knutson for his pretty running catch of an almost sure hit.

Saturday the hard hitting team of Grand Haven will come here to avenge the defeat of a few weeks ago at the hands of the local high school team. Bolthouse, the clever twirler, will officiate in the box for the Havenites, while Shaw will occupy the centre of the diamond for the locals. The boys intend to show the people of Holland that they can play ball, and if they don't practice hard the coming game, Captain Knutson says he will know the reason why.

Grand Haven High is looking for blood. Deep red corpuscles are expected to dye the moon when they meet in battle array the clansmen of the Holland High. The news has been waited on the four winds that an appalling crowd of rooters will rent the air of the solitudes hereabout next Saturday, for half the sporting population—and then some—of Grand Haven says we'll go to Holland to see Bolthouse come the one-two-three act on the wooden shoe brigade. And Holland says "come one come all" etc.

The Grand Haven high school team settled down into hard practice today for the game with Holland high school at Holland Saturday. The members of the team will go to Holland with the determination to win and if they do not do so they must surrender any claim to championship honors, which they may hold or claim now.—Grand Haven Tribune.
