MARY PETERS WINS BUILDING ESSAY PRIZE

FIVE OTHER HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS SHARE IN HONORS

$25.00 in Cash is Given By Bolhuis Lumber & Manufacturing Company

Some two months ago at the request of the Bolhuis Lumber & Manufacturing company, this paper decided to take hold of a contest in which students of the English class of the Holland High school took an active part.

The above named firm offered a $25 cash prize to be divided into six prizes in which the winner of the first prize was to receive $10, and the winner of the second prize $5; the writers of the next two best essays were to receive $3 each, and the last two to get $2 each.

In all there were twenty-one contestants, and after the essays had been written, Mr. Riemersma had them typed over and numbered.

These numbered essays were then handed to the judges without any name attached, while the originals with duplicate numbers and the name of the writer remained on file in the office of Principal Riemersma.

The judges selected were four local attorneys, namely Arthur Van Duren, Thos. N. Robinson, Fred T. Miles and Daniel Ten Cate.

These men have been wrestling during spare moments with these 21, "800 word" essays and state that it was very difficult in making a decision for that reason that every contribution reflected thorough study and were exceptional productions, considering the time that the students had to get their matter together.

After several meetings the judges considered that the following students of the Holland High school who wrote essays on the subject "How shall we remedy the Home Building Shortage?" are the winners as follows:

- First Prize—No. 4, Mary Peters, $10.00.
Second Prize—No. 9, Margaret Tate, $5.00.
Third Prize—No. 15, Katherine Koppel, $3.00.
Fourth Prize—No. 11, John Albers, $3.00.
Fifth Prize—No. 13, Margaret Donnelly, $2.
Sixth Prize—No. 8, Adelia Heneveld, $2.

BOY SCOUTS ARE ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

EXCHANGE CLUB MEMBERS GIVE LUNCHEONS TO YOUNG LADS

The Exchange Club entertained Troop 4 of the Boy Scouts under command of C. Bergen at their meeting held Wednesday noon. The boys turned out in full force and gave an interesting exhibition of Scout activities, including first aid, bandaging, wigwagging, igniting of wood by friction and a boxing match. These youthful Americans showed an ability and competency which indicated long and faithful practice.

Mr. C. H. McBride announced that next Wednesday evening at 7 P. M. the five members of the State Utilities Commission of Lansing would be entertained by the Holland business men at the Ladies Literary Club rooms and urged every one interested in civic matters to be present.

The commission includes such men as Major Earl Stewart, of the 32nd Division, former State Treasurer O'dell and others equally prominent. Holland was the first city to present its difficulties to this commission for solution, and it naturally feels an especial interest in this city.

Plans were also made for the annual club picnic to be held in the near future. Frank Patterson and Ernest Brooks won the prizes for attendance.

TENT REVIVAL STARTS WITH BIG MEETING

There was an overflow audience at the revival meeting Wednesday in the big tent on the corner of Ninth street and central avenue. The tent holds about 500 people. Every chair was taken, and it is estimated that enough people found standing room on the outside of the tent to have once again filled all the chairs.

Mel Trotter of Grand Rapids gave an eloquent address on the subject "Revival." The only feature of the meeting that did not materialize was the opening by the band that had been promised, the band failing to appear. But Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Taylor of the Pacific Garden Mission of Chicago furnished excellent music and they will again appear this evening. Prayer was offered by Mr. House of Boston.

The second meeting of the series will be held this evening when Mr. Trotter will again speak and when the Taylors will again furnish the music.

PERMIT GIVEN TO GAS COMPANY TO LAY MAINS

NEW STEP TAKEN TO EXTEND GAS SERVICE TO 5TH AND 6TH WARDS

Formal Resolution Safeguards the City Against Possible Damage

The common council yesterday evening passed a formal resolution permitting the Holland City Gas Works to lay gas mains in the fifth and sixth wards. To safeguard the city in the matter, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That for the purpose of extending gas service to the inhabitants of the city of Holland, permission and authority is hereby granted to Charles W. McGuire, his representatives and assigns, to lay, maintain, operate and use in the streets and alleys of said city such gas mains, drips, and laterals as shall be reasonably necessary to supply gas to the inhabitants of said city. In laying, maintaining and operating such mains, drips, and laterals none of the city's water pipes or sewers shall be disturbed or interfered with, and said streets and alleys shall not be unnecessarily obstructed. Within a reasonable time after any excavation or opening is made, the place where same was made shall be repaired and left in as good condition as before, at the expense of said Charles W. McGuire, his representatives or assigns, who shall also indemnify and save the said city harmless from all claims for damages which said city might be made or become liable to pay by reason of the laying, maintaining and operating of said mains, drips and laterals.

The said city reserves the right to make such reasonable rules and regulations from time to time with regard to said use of said streets and alleys as it shall deem necessary and this permit shall be revocable at will of the common council of said city.

BROTHER OF LOCAL MAN DIES IN GRAND RAPIDS

HENRY J. DYKSTRA PASSES AWAY AT THE AGE OF FIFTY-ONE

Henry J. Dykstra, a brother of John S. Dykstra of this city, died in Grand Rapids Wednesday evening as a result of a complication of diseases. Mr. Dykstra was born in Grand Rapids 51 years ago and he lived in that city all his life, being engaged in the undertaking business.

The deceased is survived by his wife, one son Connell, one daughter Ileen, and the following brothers and sisters: John S. Dykstra, of Holland; Charles, Grand Rapids; Joseph, Holland; Mrs. P. F. Shueke, Holland; Mrs. E. Was, Grand Rapids. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made but will be announced later.

TO TEAR DOWN MUCH TALKED ABOUT HOUSE

POLISH CITIZEN WHO BOUGHT IT WILL BE PROTECTED

City Attorney McBride reported to the Common Council Wednesday evening that the Polish citizen who bought a condemned house on 20th street some time ago from Mr. Lutman is fully protected and will not lose by the tearing down of the building. This house has been up for consideration by the council time after time and has caused a great deal of debate. The aldermen wanted to protect the Polish citizen who had innocently bought it after it had been condemned, but they were also determined to have it torn down. The house will be torn down immediately. In times past the fire and police department has had the work of tearing down condemned buildings, and the same procedure will be carried out in the present case.

NEED MORE HOMES TO ENTERTAIN DELEGATES

Seven hundred people will have to be taken care of by the committee of the Michigan State C. E. convention when that gathering takes place in Holland from June 22 to 26. A large number of homes have already been offered by Holland people but a great many more places will have to be found. Hence the registration committee is making an appeal for places. Any family that is willing to help entertain the delegates is requested to let the committee know immediately. Call either 1476 or 1424.

The council last night decided to place the new Kollen Park under the jurisdiction of the park board.

EXPENSIVE BLAZE IN STELEMA'S FRUIT STORE

TAKE ENTIRE FAMILY DOWN LADDERS FROM THE SECOND FLOOR

Burning Stairway Cuts Off Exit; Wife and Children Are Moved In Their Night Clothes

At five o'clock this morning an alarm was turned in from box 21, at the Hotel corner, when smoke was seen issuing from the Stellema fruit store on East 8th-st. Both fire departments were on hand in a twinkling, and broke the big plate glass in order to get at the fire.

They had scarcely gotten to work when a chorus of screams issued from the second floor, where Stellema, the owner of the building resides with his family.

Upon investigation it was discovered that the fire had started under the only stairway in the rear that allows an exit from the floor above.

The stairway had been burned away and there was nothing left to do but place the long ladders up against the building at the front and ready and handy firemen carried Mrs. Stellema and five of the younger Stellemas to the street below.

The family had no time to dress, as the smoke became so dense that it was difficult to breathe, and all were taken down in their night clothes and hustled into a building across the street.

It took nearly three-quarters of an hour to get the flame under control and the damage to the building and stock is considerable.

The big plate glass windows are broken and the show cases have been demolished, the floors have been thoroughly burned, and the fruit on hand has become a mushy mess.

How the fire originated no one seems to know, there being no fire in that part of the building. It is possible that spontaneous combustion might have started the blaze.

Mr. Stellema has been having more than his share of troubles lately. His business has just gone into bankruptcy court, but recently his store was reopened.

The damage is said to be in the neighborhood of $2,000.

DRIVES OIL TRUCK WHILE MIND IS BLANK

EDWARD PLAGGEMARS HAS A CURIOUS EXPERIENCE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Edward Plaggemars, an employee of the Vanden Berg Bros., has a curious experience Wednesday evening and through an as yet unexplained accident suffered a mental lapse during which he drove a big oil truck all the way from Fillmore to Holland without knowing what he was doing, yet getting through the experience without accident.

Plaggemars and another employee drove two trucks to Overisel Wednesday night. On the return the ystopped at a farm house to make a delivery. The last Plaggemars remembers was stepping off the porch at the Fillmore farm. He did not regain a sense of his surroundings until he was sitting in a chair in the office in Holland. Yet in the meantime he had driven his truck to Holland and into the garage without accident.

A doctor was immediately called when Plaggemars arrived at the office. A slight swelling under the chin seems to point to the theory that his head caught back of a wire or perhaps a clothesline, causing a very slight concussion. The driver on the other truck noticed that the truck driven by Plaggemars zigzagged a good deal but attached no significance to it. Near Holland Mr. Plaggemars stopped his truck to let other trucks pass, and he then followed his companion into Holland. But remembers no single incident of the day, the period after leaving the farm house being a complete blank. Plaggemars' condition is not considered serious.

HOPE NINE TO PLAY MOUNT PLEASANT SATURDAY

The Mt. Pleasant baseball team will play the Hope nine here Saturday. Mt. Pleasant has a working squad that is well worth seeing in action. Three of their men are professional players and will take their places in the major leagues, after the school year has finished. Brooks, a pitcher, and Leconier, a center fielder and pitcher, will go to Cincinnati, and Barrett, a first baseman, is going to Pittsburgh.

The Hope team played an interesting game against this team several weeks ago and are well aware of what they are up against. The game is scheduled for 2 o'clock and will be played on the Sixth-st baseball diamond.

SAYS HOLLAND NEEDS A MUCH LARGER HOSPITAL

MINNESOTA MAN WRITES REGARDING HOSPITAL CONDITIONS IN HIS HOME CITY

Value of Good Hospital, as Civic Asset Not to Be Overestimated He Says

R. E. Werkman, a former citizen of Holland, has written Mayor Stephan an interesting letter in regard to Holland's hospital situation. Mr. Werkman is now a citizen of Crookston, Minn., and he compares that town's hospital facilities with Holland's. The letter follows.

Your Honor—

As a former citizen and one that loves to see the city prosper and grow, I keep tab on what is going on in Holland, and I noticed that you are at present contemplating building an up-to-date hospital. I thought it might be of interest to you to know what this little city of Crookston, with only about 7,000 inhabitants, has done along that line.

There are two hospitals here, one the "St. Vincent," a Catholic institution, and the other the "Bethesda," a Lutheran institution. These two hospitals have spent within the last year and a half, close on to two hundred thousand of dollars building additions to the already large buildings they had. I don't think that the citizens of Holland realize what it means to a city to have an up-to-date hospital, with a nurses' training school. It is not only the splendid service that the sick can receive, but the business it brings to the city, the staff of special doctors that make their homes here, the opportunity for those who wish to become nurses to get their training right at home. We have two up-to-date clinics so that people come great distances to be treated. Some will say but you have Grand Rapids so near by, with its splendid hospitals. That is very true, but we have Grand Forks just as near by, with its splendid hospitals, and we have a very extensively settled country surrounded with what you have, and I think that a hospital in Holland one that is up-to-date, would not only be of great benefit to the sick, but could be made a good paying investment.

Hope that you succeed so that the next time I make you a visit I can have the pleasure of seeing a two hundred thousand dollar hospital in your city.

Wishing you success, I remain, Yours very truly,

R. E. Werkman.

TO USE CALCIUM CHLORIDE ON THE CITY STREETS

The common council last night accepted a motion to use calcium chloride on the streets of Holland to lay the dust. This is the first step in conserving the city's water supply, which threatens to be inadequate this summer. The committee reported that the calcium chloride has been used successfully in several states for some time. The streets committee was given power to purchase a carload of calcium chloride at a cost of $31 a ton.

Auto tourists will no doubt be very much pleased to learn that the Laketown-Saugatuck road is at last completed, and no detours are necessary.

Mr. Albert Scholten of Laketown, the contractor, stated that officially the road will be open today, the last stretch of tarvia having been spread yesterday.

This road has been under construction for the past three years and one obstacle after another came in the way, hindering its completion.

This fact has brought a tirade of press notices from the Pathfinders of the state papers, and Contractor Scholten states that it will seem rather strange not to be cursed at and written up about that road. In Mr. Scholten's behalf we wish to say that he together with other contractors have been having their trouble getting materials, but when these were easy to get, short work was made of the job.

Surely it is not to a contractor's advantage to string construction along, for delayed jobs are not conducive to financial profits.

Anyway the road is completed to Saugatuck, it is a good road, and now that motorists will be able to use it, the long delay and disappointments will soon be forgotten and as the saying goes, "All good things come slowly."

Mrs. James Wayer left today to attend General Synod of the Reformed church of America at Asbury Park, N. J. as a representative of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions. At the close of Synod Mrs. Wayer will go to New York city to attend a directors' meeting of the Woman's Board, and she will also speak at a missionary conference at Passaic, N. J. She expects to be gone about ten days.

HENRY FORD MOTORS THROUGH HOLLAND

It is said that Henry Ford, the man who makes more than 4,000 autos a day motored into Grand Haven from the Northern Peninsula Tuesday night and left the next morning over the pike to Holland, Allegan, Kalamazoo, enroute for Detroit.

The Grand Haven Tribune makes a great deal out of Henry Ford's visit and rumors were soon afloat that the county seat would have a second Detroit factory within the very near future. Says the Tribune:

Grand Haven was host Tuesday night to one of the most widely known men in the United States, and yet not a tenth of the city's population knew it. Henry Ford of Detroit, millionaire manufacturer of Ford Automobiles and Fordson Tractors, quietly slipped into town in a big Marmon car at shortly before six o'clock. He was accompanied by E. G. Kinsford of Iron Mountain and Ray Dahlinger, his chauffeur.

At the Gildner hotel the two men who accompanied the motor wizard registered but Mr. Ford did not. The record of his presence in the hotel were ditto marks on the register under the signature of Mr. Kingsford. Mr. Ford occupied room 11 and rooms 9 and 10 were taken by the other two members of the party. The big car was put up for the night at the Smith garage across the street.

Neither Mr. Ford nor his companions had anything to say, and Grand Haven was no wiser when the party quietly pulled out Wednesday morning than they were the night before as to Henry's reason for coming to Grand Haven. Rumors flew thick and fast, of course, and some folks were inclined to get excited about his visit. All sorts of visionary conjectures gained headway, because of the magic name of Henry Ford inspires that sort of thing. It is probable that every town through which Mr. Ford passes immediately begins to see itself growing with mushroom growth under the impetus of a Ford factory.

There was nothing about Mr. Ford's movements while in Grand Haven which should cause any excitement. Upon his arrival at the hotel he went immediately to his room, coming down to supper like any other guest. He was not taking many precautions to hide his identity and no one belonging to his party was proclaiming him.

After supper Mr. Ford got into his car and drove out to Highland Park where he took a look at old Lake Michigan. After a drive about town he returned to the hotel and immediately retired to his room. Nothing more was seen of him until he came down to breakfast Wednesday morning. At shortly after 8 o'clock he got into his car and the party then drove away.

Regardless of the fact that Henry Ford is one of the richest men in the world, he was making his trip through this city in a 1915 Marmon car. A number of the fittings and some of the upholstery were the same as that used on the regular Ford machines. The car, itself, was a big powerful bus.

Commercial travelers around the hotel recognized the familiar figure of the Detroit millionaire as he entered the place. Others claim to have recognized him from the pictures they have seen. As far as is known he interviewed no Grand Haven people and if his visit had anything particularly to do with Grand Haven industrially or otherwise, nobody knows anything about it.

Because of his unusual prominence, Mr. Ford does not advertise himself at all. In his own office at Detroit he is impossible to see, except by appointment or by very old friends. As far as is known no one attempted to see him and if he was looking for privacy, his wish was gratified.

ENDS LIFE ON HOL- LAND TOWNSHIP FARM

Temporarily deranged because of injuries sustained in football practice with the Central high school eleven of Grand Rapids last fall, Stanley Pleune, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Pleune, 435 Sinclair ave., N.E., Grand Rapids, ended his own life at the farm of his uncle Edward L. Wilterdink in Holland township Thursday.

Mrs. Wilterdink, Pleune's aunt, in searching for the young man in an attempt to have him keep his appointment with a physician for treatment, found his body hanging to a rafter in the barn.

The young man received a concussion of the brain and a broken nose during the football practice. Thursday night the coroner, who was called, said he had discovered a blood clot on his brain.

Pleune is said to have been despondent for some time because of his ill health following the accident. He was compelled to leave Central high, at which he was a senior, about Christmas time and he has been with Mr. and Mrs. Wilterdink much of the time since that date.

Surviving, besides his parents, are three brothers, Russell, Chester and Gordon and one sister, Ethel, all of whom reside at home.

Funeral services were held from the family residence Monday afternoon at 2.

MORE BLEACHERS BUILT FOR BOYS

The first boys' bleachers built at the Holland base ball diamond proved too small with its seating capacity of 150 and hence additional bleachers were built, 32 feet of bleachers being added. This materially increases the seating capacity, and it seems that now there are enough seats. A very large number of boys attended the game on Monday. They were well behaved and they showed a deep interest in the game.

Practically all the money collected has now been used for the bleachers but those in charge of the movement are ambitious to put a top over the seats so that the boys will not have to sit in the scorching sun. Donations for this purpose are solicited and will be very welcome.

W. C. T. U. LISTENS TO MISCELLANEOUS PROGRAM

That the W. C. T. U. of Holland is interested in and willing to help in any work that may be before it was demonstrated at its regular meeting held Friday at the home of Mrs. George H. Huizenga, when Miss Dekker, teacher in the ungraded department of the schools, gave a very interesting talk pertaining to her work in this city. Many questions were asked of the speaker and a lively discussion followed. Papers and short articles were given by Mrs. E. Markham, Mrs. J. Visscher and Mrs. W. E. Van Dyke.

The musical numbers included a piano duet by Sarah Lacey and Margaret Du Mez, a vocal solo, accompanied by Isabel Yonkman and Ruthford Huizenga was sung by Gladys Huizenga. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Weyer. Tea was served under the supervision of Mrs. H. Johnson. June 10th is the date of the Flower meeting at the home of Mrs. Weyer. The date of the annual picnic was changed from June 24 to June 17.

BOYS' BLACHERS ARE ERECTED IN A FEW HOURS

More men reported for work with hammer and saw on the baseball diamond Thursday evening for the erection of the boys' bleachers than could be used by those in charge, and the bleachers were put up in less than three hours. They are now in shape for the boys of Holland and can be occupied at the Saturday afternoon's game.

The boys' bleachers are built on the south side of the park near first base. They are about twenty feet away from the bleachers for grown-ups, and have a seating capacity of about 150. The management will take all necessary precautions to make the boys' bleachers safe for the youngsters and there will always be supervision by someone who will look after the boys.

The work of putting up the bleachers was in charge of John Woldring. Mr. Woldring was also in charge of putting up extra bleachers for grownups on each side of the grandstand. The money for these bleachers was raised by the base ball association. They add a seating capacity of some 300, so that, together with the boys' bleachers the added seating capacity at the base ball park this year over that of last year will be about 450. Dugouts have also been built by Mr. Woldring for the baseball association for the home team and the visiting team, where the players can rest, and the grounds have been put into good shape.

All those who have pledged money for the boys' bleachers are requested to send their checks for the amounts promised directly to George Woldring, care of Yonker Heating & Plumbing Co. Mr. Woldring next week when all the bills are in, will make a public report to show just how the money has been spent.

COSMOPOLITANS ENJOY BANQUET AT SAUGATUCK

The Cosmopolitan society of Hope college held a banquet-party at the Leland Tea Room at Saugatuck on Thursday evening. The members of the literary organization assembled at the Holland boat piers, and embarked with the fair guests via the rippling waters to the quaint little summer resort to enjoy its 31st annual meeting there.

A pleasing program, appropriate to the occasion, proved to be something distinctly characteristic of the festivity. The tables were artistically arranged and decorated with greens and streamers of white and green—the society colors. After the hearty repast, the program was introduced by the toastmaster, Harold E. Veldman. Other members of the program were—"The Fairest of the Fair," Bert Pennings; "The Vulcan's Son," Leo Te Paske; "Sunshine," Harold Damstra; duet, P. Mulder L. Te Paske; "Our Love Till we Die," John R. Kempers.

Prof. and Mrs. Welmers of the faculty accompanied the party. Prof. Welmers is an alumnus of the organization, and after having been absent from the annual society event for 18 years received a warm welcome when he was called upon for a few remarks. Lacey's orchestra furnished the music.

The fire department was called out to a fire in the swamps Tuesday night. Some rubbish was burned and no damage was done.

MACATAWA BATH HOUSE IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The Macatawa bath house opened its doors for the first time on Thursday and the water was almost as warm as it is in midsummer. Boys have been bathing in Lake Michigan for several days past, but yesterday some grownups also took advantage of the opening of the bath house for a dip into the lake. The official temperature was found to be 70 degrees in the middle of the afternoon.

The annex of Hotel Macatawa has been open the past week and quite a little pre-season business has been coming to it. Saturday, Sunday and Monday the main hotel will be open. There will be an orchestra from Grand Rapids and there will be opportunity for dancing.

WILL YOU FURNISH RIDE TO VETERANS?

The need for a sufficient number of automobiles to be used by the committee on conveyances on Decoration Day is great, and the members of the committee would like to secure promise of the loan of cars and drivers now, so that they can make their arrangements accordingly. They would like to be in position to make certain that not one of the veterans of the Civil War or of the Woman's Relief Corps, Woman's Auxiliary and other patriotic organizations will have to be left to walk to the cemetery.

Auto owners who wish to place their cars at the disposal of the committee may call up any one of the following, the telephone numbers being given with the names as a matter of convenience: John Boone, 1344; W. H. Orr, 1044; Andrew Klomparsen, 1949; Alex. Barnum, 1979; S. L. Henkle, 1472; George D. Kardux, 1975.

HOLLAND WILL REPRESENTED BY ITS MEN

Holland men certainly take an interest in educational matters. There were more men present at the state P-T Clubs convention in Grand Rapids Thursday from Holland than from all the rest of Michigan. Holland was represented by seven of its men and by eighteen women.

Most of the delegates from Holland remained over in Grand Rapids to attend meetings Friday. Supt. E. E. Fell presided over Friday's sessions, and Henry Geerlings, member of the board of education, was one of the speakers.

The "Mary Jane Inn" opened for business Sunday, May 29. Special attention will be given to parties and banquets.

ZEELAND MEN OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Seventy-two years ago, May 25th, 1849, C. Van Loo and his brother Dirk Van Loo, arrived from Europe and spent the first night in the Zeeland hotel, Mr. Naeije, proprietor. Their sister, Jane, born at Buffalo, N. Y., while on the journey here, was eleven days old when the family arrived. The mother followed the oxen and wagon afoot from Grandville through the woods. D. Van Loo, then nearly three years old, the baby, and the sisters, Gertrude and Vanden Bosch then six years old, riding on the wagon and the two boys, Cornelius, 10 and his late brother William, 12 with the parents had to walk. Where the Zeeland Furniture Co. plant now stands the oxen and wagon waded through a foot deep of water while logs laid end to end enabled those afoot to get into town with dry feet. Wonderful chances since!—Zeeland Record.

OTTAWA COUNTY HAS A NEW HOME DEMONSTRATOR

Ottawa, the first county in the state to have a Home Demonstration Agent has been without one since the resignation of Miss Grace Hitchcock last November. The matter of finding a successor fell upon the joint committees of the Board of Supervisors and the County Farm Bureau who left the matter in the hands of Mrs. Campbell, state leader of home demonstration agents. Not until recently was she able to procure a successor whom she considered satisfactory, but we are pleased to announce that beginning July 1st we are to have with us as Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Eva R.

Schurr, of Clarence, N. Y.

Miss Schurr graduated from Parker Michigan Agricultural College in the home economics division this June. While at College she has taken special courses in food and nutrition, school lunchroom management, textile, sewing, millinery and poultry. She has helped organize and conduct a nutrition classic for malnourished children in one of the Lansing public schools and is interested in promoting this work in Ottawa county.

Miss Schurr graduated from Parker High school at Clarence, New York in 1913, and from Teachers' Training Class in the same town in 1914. For the following three years she taught in a rural school in the neighboring township and hence will be able to co-operate sympathetically with the rural teachers of the county. She has also taught for a short period in high schools and last summer was in charge of the cooking class in School 43, Buffalo, N. Y. The headquarters of the Home Demonstration Agent will be in the office with the County Agricultural Agent at Grand Haven, but she will spend much of her time in the various townships. She is very enthusiastic over her proposed work and is coming with the idea of service and asks the hearty co-operation of all organizations and individuals so that the united effort along the line of home economics will make Ottawa County famous throughout the state.

Mrs. Wm. M. Stebbins State Director of the Michigan War Record, is asking for information in regard to Ottawa County Service men.

There are a great many. There are 275 names listed from Ottawa county, for which the records are lacking. There are 100 names listed of persons, letters to whom have been returned. Mrs. Stebbins writes that the Michigan War Record will be used in verifying bonus applications.

Service men who have not yet made out a war record blank are asked to answer the following questions and mail to Mrs. Wm. M. Stebbins, 318 S. Park-st., Hastings, Mich.

Name in full. Army or navy serial or identification number. Home address at the time of enlistment or induction. Date of birth. Place of birth. If deceased, date of death. Place of death; place of burial.

Mother's name and address; father's name and address; if parents are deceased, so state. Occupation before war; after the war.

To be filled out from discharge papers—Home of original camp entered and date. Original camp assignment, rank, company and regiment. Transfers and promotions with dates. If overseas, date of sailing and date of return to U. S. Date of discharge and reason. Navy men should give date of release if not permanently discharged.

If a soldier is married he should give his wife's maiden name. Her date and place of birth. Date of their marriage. Place of their marriage. If the soldier has children he should list their names, together with dates of their birth.

If a soldier has been divorced and had no children by his marriage no date is necessary. If he did have children the facts are requested for future historical use by such children and their descendants. Soldiers married more than once should give data for each marriage.

FLYING SQUADRON ROUSES INTEREST IN CONVENTION

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the local C. E. Union, plans were inaugurated for an extensive advertising campaign to secure as great a representation of Holland and surrounding districts as possible for the 30th annual convention to be held here in June. To accomplish this, the committee has started a flying squadron, to reach every society. Different committees were also appointed to help in the launching of the event. One of the big features that will attract much attention is the pageant to be given to the delegates. Although a missionary pageant it is something distinctively new and different from any that has ever been staged here before.

The pageant is entitled "Pill Bottle", has a cast of about 24 characters, and is in charge of Miss Warnshuis. Rehearsals have already been held and it has found such a decided favor with the cast, that they have resolved to offer it to the public, during the week following the convention, at a very nominal price.

The cast feels certain that the "Pill Bottle" will be just the thing for the public, after they once take the cork off. It includes talent picked from the entire city.

Provisions have also been made by the committee for an overflow meeting. It is probable that with the appearance of speakers like White and others of prominence, it will be impossible to seat all. The committee has agreed upon a plan so that none need be disappointed. The convention is drawing nearer and the executive committee is desirous that everything be in readiness so as to be able to accommodate the delegates in the way that Holland does it.

EIGHT GYPSY AUTOBILISTS STRIKE HOLLAND

A motly looking bunch of gypsies filling eight large automobiles, struck Holland at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Chief Van Ry was notified of their coming long before they arrived. Telephone calls from farmers around West Olive indicated that the gypsies were overrunning the country, begging for food, and snooping around generally, and the West Olive farmers feared for their barnyard fowls and other things that were easy to lift.

Altho this is out of the chief's jurisdiction he sent the speed cop in that direction who soon met up with the whole bunch of "gypsies" and Chief Van Ry had them herded in front of the city hall.

There were at least 75 of these roving nomads, and they were planning to camp for the night on the vacant lot belonging to the Board of Education, on the corner of 15th and River avenue.

Chief Van Ry couldn't see it that way, telling them to make tracks out of the city, and out of the county. The long haired brown men made a vigorous protest, and the women, dressed in variegated colors chimed in with a jargon, that even the chief could not understand.

Van Ry and his men soon got the parade started however, after the gypsies had attended to some tire trouble and bought out the contents of one meat market at least.

The gypsies obey the chief's orders, got out of the county, but pitched camp just over the county line into Allegan county. It did not take long before telephone calls began to come in from that quarter, but Chief Van Ry had done his duty, and informed the callers to wake up the Allegan county deputy sheriffs. This was done and led by Deputy Van Oss of Laketown, a posse of farmers well armed guarded the camp all night and told the King of the Gypsies to clear out by daylight.

While the gypsies were in Holland, the local authorities inspected every license comparing them with the state license directory, and these apparently were found O. K.

Among the dark-skinned, dirty-looking bunch was a little child with golden tresses, with a sweet, clean white face so different from the rest of the crowd. The pretty little thing looked out of place among the others.

The fortune telling looking woman when questioned about the little girl stated in broken English, that the little one was her baby. The leaders of the band stated that they had started from Detroit and after touring the state were heading for Chicago.

BOLTS STRIKE TWO FARM HOUSES IN RECENT STORM

While the electric storm in Ottawa county did not appear to be particularly severe in Grand Haven the worst of it appears to have hit the country south of the city limits. Reports have come in of damage by lightning to two farm houses in the vicinity of the Beech Tree road.

At the farm residence of Harry Pellegrom a bolt of lightning entered over the telephone line. Considerable plaster was knocked from the walls of downstairs rooms, until the lightning made its exit through the kitchen. Miss Ada Pellegrom who was in the kitchen at the time, was badly shocked but recovered speedily from the effect. She says the bolt flash through the room. Other members also felt the effect of the experience but were not injured.

O. L. Deremo's residence in the same locality, was visited by a bolt about the same time. The bolt came into the house over the telephone line and knocked off considerable plaster before it found an exit. The telephone instrument was completely wrecked by the lightning.

The Deremo family were all in bed, it is said, when the bolt struck, and as the bolt went through only some of the downstairs rooms, nobody in the house was shocked much.

BOULEVARD LIGHT SYSTEM HAS BEEN ORDERED IN

The meeting of business men in the city hall Tuesday evening for purpose of taking the final steps to secure boulevard lights for Holland was not a large one, not nearly all the business places along Eighth-st. and River Avenue being represented. There were a number of enthusiasts present, who by their enthusiasm for the project made up for the lack of numbers.

The final decision was arrived at on Tuesday evening to go ahead with the boulevard light plan. At a recent meeting of the council it was determined not to take actual steps until the actual cash that is required of the property owners was in hand, and this decision was not repudiated Tuesday night, although there is still some $800 lacking of the total sum of $8,300 needed before the contract with the board of public works shall have been fulfilled.

To overcome this difficulty, however a small company of businessmen guaranteed the amount. They will see to it that the full amount is forthcoming, placing their personal credit back of the promise, which would mean of course that they would make up the deficiency. However, they feel certain that they will be able to raise the amount that is still unsubscribed. There are still a number of good prospects to be seen and there is reason to believe that the whole amount will eventually be raised.

The board of public works has therefore instructed superintendent R. B. Champion to go ahead and get out the figures for installing the system, reporting at the next meeting to be held soon.

HOLLAND FURNACE COMPANY LEADERSHIP IS RECOGNIZED.

The users of the Holland Furnace with their whole hearted appreciation and praise, deserve most credit for the continued increase of Holland Sales. This mouth to mouth element is significant of Holland value as well as highly pleasing.

Nearly everyone talks about the Holland. The talking that some of our competitors do might be called "knocking", at times, but that pleases us too, for we know that if we were to knock a competing product, it would be taken as a sure sign that we recognized it to be superior to our own. How clearly a salesman shows his weakness and fear of competition when he knocks! How plainly he points to the furnace he knocks as the furnace he fears and wishes he was selling!

Yes, we feel that the Holland is a recognized leader. We enjoy all that is being said about the Holland Warm Air Circulating System, ourselves, and urge you to give careful attention to whatever you may learn by word of mouth, no matter who should do the speaking. We'll gladly leave it to your sense of fairness to be judge.

GRACE CHURCH RECTOR ADDRESSES WAR VETERANS

Rev. M. L. Tate, rector of Grace Episcopal church, departed considerably from the customary in delivering the Memorial sermon to the veterans of three wars in Hope church. Hope church was the place of meeting because Grace church was considered too small.

Mr. Tate introduced his remarks with a review of the record of the Episcopal church in American history, and in the course of his sermon he touched on a large variety of subjects, calling attention to the evils that must be fought rather than recounting the story of battles that have been fought.

He declared that America had been remiss in its duty in rejecting the League of Nations. He said former president Wilson would take his place in history beside Washington and Lincoln—that Washington had dealt in colonies, Lincoln in states, and Wilson in continents. He made a strong plea for Sabbath observance, and made the observation that America is not a Christian nation, since only minority of the people are professing Christians, and that of that minority only a minority live Christianity. He delivered a scathing indictment of the worship of the dollar, declaring that many people subscribed to the motto, "In this God we trust."

He declared very positively that such men as Senator Newberry of Michigan and Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania were not worthy to represent American citizens in the senate and he called upon all present whether ex-soldiers or not, to fight the forces that he declared are represented by such men. He deplored the fact that the state legislature had not passed capital punishment, declaring that capital punishment was based on the command of God in the bible, and he also said that it would have been well for the forces of the Allies to march on to Berlin, since a nation like Germany had no right to exist.

The services were attended by the various patriotic organizations of the city with their flags.

TO HOLD SERVICES IN LARGE TENT

Miss Nellie Churchford, head of the City Mission, has purchased a tent 40x60, with a seating capacity of 600, and during the month of June evangelistic meetings will be held in it on the corner of Ninth street and Central avenue, where "The Cottage" used to stand. The services will be under the direction of the city mission, but they will be conducted by outside speakers.

The tent was put up Tuesday and the meeting began on Wednesday evening. This week and continuing through Sunday the services will be conducted by Mel Trotter of Grand Rapids. On June 14, Rev. Lane, a Baptist minister of Toledo, Ohio, will come here to conduct the services the last half of June. There will be meetings every evening. John Van Vyven and his band have been engaged to start the meetings with music Wednesday night. The regular music Wednesday and Thursday night will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Taylor of the Pacific Garden Mission of Chicago.

Miss Churchford has been holding evangelistic services in other cities, returning as late as Saturday night. For that reason she has had no opportunity to issue personal invitations to the ministers of Holland, but she wishes through this paper to extend this invitation. The meetings will not be in the interest of any one church or institution in Holland, and Miss Churchford asks for co-operation and backing of the pastors of the churches of Holland.

GRAHAM & MORTON DOES TREMENDOUS BUSINESS

The Graham & Morton Transportation company is highly gratified over the Decoration Day business. Steamer "City of Grand Rapids" came in with one Decoration Day crowd, numbering 700.

Steamer St. Joe was loaded to capacity, and still more passengers were coming, and the Steamer "Illinois" was quickly chartered at Chicago, from the Chicago, Milwaukee run, and also came to Holland and Benton Harbor, loaded down.

Who says that strawberries are frozen? Steamers from St. Joe and from Holland jointly had 8000 crates of strawberries within two days, this sort of freight jumping from 200 crates to the above named figure.

Local agent Johnson states that the Holland division will go on a new schedule beginning last Monday night. In the future no stops will be made at Benton Harbor, but the steamers will go direct to Chicago at 9:30 p. m., returning to Holland at 10:45 p. m. instead of 7:00 p. m. as before. A daylight trip is to be made out of Holland every Saturday hereafter, leaving this city at 1:30 o'clock.

It is expected that daily service will be installed on June 20, unless the demand becomes so great that a daily boat will have to be put on earlier to accommodate the business.

The Graham & Morton Transportation Co. is starting out very auspiciously this year and surely considerably better than business conditions at first would warrant.

This boat line is a Holland institution and deserves every co-operation from its business men.

"MAT" NOTIER RETIRES FROM ACTIVE BUSINESS

After a very active business career of 35 years in Holland, Mat Notier retires from the firm of Notier, Van Ark Co.

Thirty-five years ago, Mr. Notier planned to build a creamery at Graafschap. Several business men at that time interested in Holland, hearing about Mr. Notier's plans, induced him to come to this city and build the Holland Crystal Creamery.

The creamery was erected by the late Leonard Visser, a local carpenter, and Mr. Notier who was handy with the hammer and saw.

Mr. Notier conducted the creamery for five years very successfully, when he sold it out to a stock company, headed by C. J. Lokker, of this city, the present manager.

Not alone has this creamery given an added farm market to the farmers in the vicinity, but it has been doing business right along, when all other creameries in this neighborhood have long since closed their doors.

Before coming to Holland Mr. Notier conducted a general store at Graafschap under the name of Notier and Boven.

After his creamery experience, he launched a new grocery, dry goods, clothing and shoe business, in the John Nies block in fact this building was built by Mr. Notier about 28 years ago.

Mr. Notier shortly afterward took in partnership John Ver Schure, and the firm then went under the name of Notier & Ver Schure.

Beside running this big mercantile establishment, they also bought the big stove mill of Joe Fixter, located on the site now occupied by the Scott-Lugers Lumber company.

In reviewing this part of his business career Mr. Notier stated—

"The first year that we owned the stove mill, we were very prosperous, in fact we nearly cleared up the price we paid for the mill in one year. But then the Cleveland panic came in 1893, and we sunk every dollar we made, and a great many more besides.

"I will never forget those years if I live to be a hundred. We were loaded up with bolts, staves and barrels, but we couldn't sell a thing."

Shortly afterwards the dry goods and groceries was sold to Du Mez Bros. which afterwards proved to be a nucleus of the great Du Mez Bros. store in Holland.

The clothing and shoe part of the business was sold to Jacob Lokker and proved to have been the foundation of the big Lokker-Rutgers Co.

Later Mr. Notier conducted a small shoe store and undertaking parlor on River avenue.

The shoe department was later merged into the Notier, Van Ark & Winter clothing and shoe store.

Mr. Winter retired from this firm some five years ago, while Mr. Notier has just sold out his interests in this business institution.

For some time the undertaking business has been conducted by his son Peter Notier, who is now interested in the Nibbelink & Notier undertaking parlors.

Mr. Notier states that he has been in the harness long enough, and felt that he is entitled to a rest on his 75th birthday.

TWO HOLLAND GIRLS INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Two young ladies from Holland, namely Miss Catherine Herringa, and Miss Dorothy Munson, together with several young men and women, seven in number, loaded up a Ford car in Grand Rapids Sunday.

Jake De Vrendge, the driver, who was going at a high rate of speed turned a sharp corner on the Plainfield road near the bridge and the Ford turned turtle, spilling the occupants of the car. It is said that three of them were very seriously injured, one having her spine fractured. Both the Holland girls were among those most seriously injured.

Miss Munson sustained several severe cuts which required several stitches and a severely bruised shoulder. Miss Herringa's back is also injured. Nothing definite as to the extent of the injury to the spinal column can be stated until X-rays films are developed.

MARRIAGE WAS STAGED AS COMPLETE SURPRISE

A surprise marriage was pulled off by Harry Dune and Miss Ruth Reidema. The young couple went quietly to Grand Haven last Thursday and were united in marriage at the county seat. They then boarded a train for Sault Ste. Marie and other points in the upper peninsula, and from there they wrote their relatives and friends here that they were married. This was the first intimation that even the nearest relatives had of the event. The young couple will be at home after June 15 at Central Park.

FORMER LOCAL MAN TO WED KALAMAZOO GIRL

Mrs. Emma French of Kalamazoo, announces the engagement of her daughter Marguerite to Mr. William Wallace Visscher, of Detroit, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Visscher of Holland.

Miss French is a well known Kalamazoo girl and was graduated from Central high school and Kalamazoo College. She is principal of the Sturgis high school. Mr. Visscher is junior member of the Road & Visscher law firm of Detroit.

Dr. E. D. Dinment, president of Hope College is making a trip thru the East in the interests of the institution.

HOLLAND DOES HONOR TO ALL AMER- ICAN SOLDIERS

The finest of holiday weather combined with a deep Memorial Day spirit of understanding went to make the exercises in Centennial Park Monday morning, an event that will be long remembered by the citizens of Holland, who thronged to the band-stand many hundred strong.

The speakers' rostrum was appropriately decorated with American flags, which mingled with the fresh vivid green of Spring made a splendid sight. The veterans of the Civil War sat on the first row of seats since it is to them especially that America bows her head in thanksgiving as the saviors of the Union and Liberty.

As the first number of the program, the American Legion band played "Hail Columbia," as only the Legion band can play.

Miss Harnet Steketee read Governor Groesbeck's proclamation calling for the observance of Memorial day by the people of Michigan as a day set aside for the voicing of honor and respect for those who have been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice for the preservation and honor of America.

Hon. G. J. Diekema was the chairman of the day, and as is his habit, introduced the various speakers and announced the numbers with bits of wit and snappy remarks.

The invocation was rendered by the Rev. M. L. Tate, rector of Grace Episcopal church. Rev. Tate delivered a humble, spiritual prayer of thanksgiving to God, the preserver of all nations and peoples.

After the prayer, Mr. Diekema introduced Ex-Senator William Alden Smith of Grand Rapids, who made a short impromptu speech. He spoke of the dauntless enthusiasm and bulldog tenacity that have characterized the American soldiers in all wars, and which were again evinced in the World War, and of the everwilling sacrifices of the nation as a whole. Said he, "No man should be given an asylum here who is not willing to fight and die if need be for America." Senator Smith enjoys the distinction of having voted three times to plunge this nation into war, the occasions being the Spanish-American War, the Mexican disturbance, and the late World War.

Other unexpected guests were on the platform, including Mr. McRae, National Vice-president of the Boy Scouts of America, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Hanchett and Judge Fred Maynard of Grand Rapids.

Ex-Governor Chase Osborn, always a favorite speaker with Holland people, made the chief address of the day. He made a strong plea for national harmony, laying special stress on amicable white and negro relations, as a great safe-guard against the Japanese menace.

Said he, "No mere words could express the sentiments that are most appropriate on this occasion, or could voice our appreciation to those who have made the great sacrifice for their country. It is by our acts that we can show in a measure that we are worthy to live in the country that they have died for."

"Today is meaningless if we are not in tune with the master of creation. Memory is meaningless unless it spurs us on to more lofty, more noble, more god-like deeds. Today the world is 'hard-boiled.' The world is Godless, reckless, and forgetful. We must strive to be reverent and catch the words of the silent voice within us which urges us on to better things."

"We cannot praise too much the achievements of our soldiers of all wars, yet in a special sense the men of '61-'65 are those who have set the military standards of America. In all struggles since they have inspired their sons and grandsons to emulate their deeds in the great civil conflict. We forget none, but in our hearts deepest is the memory of the men of '61."

"If we are to be worthy of them we must develop within us qualities watered by God's love. We must strive to feel kindly toward those who have been our enemies. For we can kill our enemies' men but we cannot kill their hate, and while there is hate there is menace. There is a feeling in the Southland of mournfulness and sorrow, because the Southerners fancy that they have not been forgiven. The men in grey have proved themselves worthy of the men in blue. The spirit of Lee as well as of Grant was with our men on the battlefields of France. We must show the South that we have forgiven by some tangible, practical sign. For instance we have an opportunity in paying the Confederate soldiers' pensions. The need of today is that America must be made sweet. We must assume a more tranquil attitude, forget bitterness and rancor, and we shall have gained a more substantial and advantageous national footing."

"There are at present, two great national problems confronting us. They are the internal problem and the external problem. Without national harmony and co-operation we are doomed. The greatest question is the internal problem. There are today ten to fourteen million blacks in the United States. In their present ignorant superstitious state they are the prey of every demagogue and radical. If they had competent leadership they would rise in revolution and bring great calamity to the nation. The negro must be made to feel that he is welcome in America, and that he is on the same level of civilization as the white race. They are not on the same economic basis as the Asiatic peoples. There are in the scheme of civilization two divisions, those peoples who can live on a half loaf, and those who demand a whole loaf. The white race demands a whole loaf, as does also the negro, but the Asiatics need only a half loaf. There may some day be a mobilization of the two divisions for conflict to the finish. Without unity and equalization those who must have a whole loaf stand in great peril.

"We cannot compete with the yellow race. Our scale of living is too high. If we believe that our civilization is God's, if we are to survive, if we are to hold high the torch of Western ideals and progress, and the religion of Christ we must prepare for the battle to the death. Without white-negro unity we are doomed."

"There is war ever within us. We are not afraid of war, worthy war, we are not afraid of death. There is no death, what seems so is transition. The world beholds only the tenement of our bodies, the temple of the soul. The tenement may pass, but the soul lives on through all eternity."

An especially fine feature of the program was the rendition of two patriotic selections by 300 high school pupils given under the direction of Mrs. Mable W. Graham. The rendering of these songs goes to show that the High school instructor in music has her chorus well in hand.

It is doubtful if ever Centennial Park harbored such a large concourse of people as on this decoration day.

The parade and exercises at the cemetery were practically as has already published in last week's News, and also printed in the official program.

INDEPENDENTS WIN IN TWO CONTESTS

The Holland Independents came out victorious in the two games on Saturday and on Decoration day afternoon. Saturday's game with the Chicago Colored Giants was won by score of 3 to 1, while Decoration day's game with Battle Creek was won 10 to 4.

Saturday was the formal opening of the season. A good crowd attended but the threatening weather kept away many. A parade with the Legion band leading and the players and city officials following left the Corner of River Avenue and Eighth street at 3 o'clock.

The game was opened with Mayor Stephan pitching the first ball and Ed Westveer of the Park Board on the receiving end. It might be said that the ball never reached the catcher.

John Kelley on behalf of the Park Board, made the opening remarks and proved to be a very pleasing speaker. The game was featured by the fast fielding and hitting of the local team, while the dummies found the offerings of Rinkus not much to their liking. Rinkus allowed only 5 scattered hits and was backed with splendid support.

Decoration day game was played before the largest crowd of the season. The game was very much one-sided but yet interesting. Wyngarden a newcomer to Holland fans who hails from Zeland pitched gilt-edged ball. Not a hit or run was made off his delivery until the seventh. Then thru a half dozen hits, four runs were scored. The locals again had on their hitting togs and forced one pitcher off the mound. The second one did not fare much better. Wolding led the mitters at bat with three hits to his credit. Holland fans have had three days of good base ball and the local players are fast rounding into form. Saturday's game with Grand Haven has been postponed one week due to Hope College playing Mt. Pleasant in their last game of the season.

There is a heavy penalty against kidnapping ordinary folks. No doubt it will mean life imprisonment to those who kidnapped Dominie J. R. Mulder immediately after his marriage to Miss Jeanette Schoon, and to think that after the pleasant experience of being married, he was immediately whisked away to a grave yard, in the neighborhood. This is surely going from the sublime to the ridiculous.

Wealth That Works

Money saved and deposited in a bank is wealth that works. Wealth that works is capital. Unlike brain and muscle, it does not wear out or deteriorate. It grows and improves.

The only gain from labor is what is saved. Labor, therefore, makes wealth and when wealth works it is capital.

Capital at work pays wages, which, when saved, creates more capital. Labor is the producer when labor saves.

PUBLIC INVITED TO ATTEND THE EX- CHANGE CLUB BANQUET

A banquet of unusual interest will be held on Wednesday evening, June 8, in the W. L. C. rooms when the general public will be given an opportunity to attend a special meeting of the Exchange Club. This club has secured the five members of the Michigan State Public Utilities Commission, and these busy Lansing men will address the meeting on the work of the commission and the relations between governments like that of the city of Holland and the commission. Mayor Stephan was chiefly instrumental in securing these commissioners for Holland, and they accepted the invitation largely because Holland was the first city in the state that came under the jurisdiction of the commission.

The five commissioners who will be here are William Potter, William M. Smith, Sherman Handy, Col. Earl Stewart, and Sam Odell. They are busy men and will arrive in Holland at 7 o'clock on the evening of the banquet, returning the same evening to Lansing. Because of this, the banquet, which is scheduled for 7:30 will begin on the dot.

There is a seating capacity of 200 in the dining room of the W. L. C. and the Exchange Club is extending invitations to the general public to attend. Tickets will be sold as long as the supply lasts, and it will be a case of first come, first served. The price of the tickets is one dollar, and they will be available to anyone in the city who is interested—as long as the supply lasts. The tickets may be secured at the following places: Model Drug store, Fris' Book store; P. S. Boter & Co.; French Cloak Co.; and the three banks.

MORE RECORDS BROKEN BY THE RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Shoot on Decoration day proved a great success when W. Woldring and Neal De Waard captured the honors of the day, breaking all records at 400 and 500 yards by many points, both scoring 90 out of a possible 100, equaling the score made by Henry VanEyk at 200 and 300 yards. It is very interesting to learn the way the young recruits hit the bull's eye when given a few instructions and Holland may be proud of having a great rifle club of 75 members in good standing who can hardly wait until the next shoot which will be held July 4 when prizes will be given to those making the highest ten consecutive shots out of 20. This will give recruits ten total shots if desired.

A very large crowd is expected to be present and spectators are especially invited who can also witness exhibition shooting with 22 caliber rifles. Henry Cook, Neal De Waard and W. Woldring who use a pistol, shooting moving objects such as the smashing of pea coal thrown in the air such as was seen in the wild west shows when Buffalo Bill and others of their kind were seen in their prime.

Such instruction will be gladly given to anyone who likes to become a marksman.

Other good scores of Decoration Day were Henry Coop 82; H. Van Eyck 83; J. Oudemans 79; J. Bottles 76; George Vrieling 76. Another shoot will be held June 8 for those

If you need a new battery it will Battery Service, 7 W. 7th St. #263 pay you to buy an Exide. Exide who could not attend May 30.

LOCAL STUDENT CLAIMS CHINA IS MISUNDERSTOOD

NATIVE FROM THAT LAND CLAIMS HIS COUNTRY IS MISREPRESENTED

Gives Reasons Why Much Information About China Is Unreliable

China and the Chinese are misunderstood by the Occidental peoples and America is sadly lacking in the knowledge of conditions in the Orient, according to Kah Kou Wong, a student here and son of the secretary of Canton China Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Wong gives his reasons in the Detroit Free Press.

"In general, there are three basic sources of information open to the American desiring to know China," he says. "They are the returned missionary, books and periodicals of missionary, books and periodicals of travel and the Chinese in this land. Each has its own peculiar weakness, which, unless due allowance is made for it, is liable to leave a false impression."

"The missionary of course has nothing but the most sympathetic and friendly feelings toward China, but in his zeal to interest his constituents in missionary work and the urgency need for religious reform in the Orient, is greatly tempted to the play upon the darker side of the situation. All countries have to a varying degree their problems of poverty, sickness, ignorance, and sin. The missionary's chief object in this country seems to be to solicit sympathy and enlist support for the good work to which he has dedicated his life and to which he has dedicated his life and his talents, and therefore is not always careful to give a well balanced picture. Also there is danger of unpopularity. Also there is danger of unpopularity. Also there is danger of unpopularity."

"Furthermore, most of the missionaries, barring only those engaged in educational work, have not had the opportunity of intimately knowing and associating with the better classes of Chinese."

"The knowledge that travelers gain of foreign lands is necessarily only superficial. Not only is their range of observation limited, but as they go out solely with the idea of satisfying their curiosity, they naturally are interested only in those things which appear new and strange. Nevertheless travelers are often most opinionated in their self-supposed knowledge of political, industrial and social China."

"One oriental nation has devised a very clever scheme. Whenever a foreigner of known importance and influence visits that country, a reception committee meets him and arranges an itinerary so that the visitor sees only those things of which the nation is proud. Many learned professors, who do not know their own home cities, go to China and in two months prepare a book on the country's internal condition."

"Magazine articles are a general and prolific source of information on China. In many cases they show the results of careful and thorough research; but to often there are hidden forces behind the gun, directing in which direction the shot will be fired."

"It is the policy of some nations to organize and maintain press bureaus in other countries with liberal subsidies at their disposal. Take for instance Japan who at this moment is deluging the American reading public with propaganda that aims to present China in the light of an anarchical disorganized confederation. The reading public unaware that the articles are artificial means of exaggerating and perverting the grain of salt that they do contain, easily acquire the false impressions that the propagandists wish to present; namely that the Chinese are incompetent of self government, and that for her own interests as well as for the best interests of the world at large, China needs a boss or a teacher, suggesting at the same time that a certain other nation, Japan, on account of racial connections, geographical position, etc., is peculiarly fitted for the loving task."

"Finally there are the Chinese residents in America who are responsible for much misunderstanding. Most of the Chinese that the American comes in contact with are the laundrymen and the chop suey employees, who, besides the small number of Chinese students in this country only temporarily constitute the bulk of the resident Chinese."

"Americans will be surprised to know that they are almost exclusively from the province of Canton and that 90 per cent of them came from four Cantonese districts. They represent only a small locality in South China and yet Americans regard them as representatives of the Chinese race. Moreover in social standing, not unlike emigrants from many other nations, they come from a decidedly lower strata of Chinese society."

"However the laundry men and chop suey workers, tho they do not represent their race as a whole, nevertheless are intelligent, honest, industrious and law-abiding; and in spite of prejudice and other unfavorable circumstances many of them have shown remarkable ability in building up prosperous business enterprises. They appreciate remarkably the value of education and many of their sons and daughters as well, are American college graduates."

Worst of Answers.
A certain Kansas City physician will never know just how near death he was the other day when, after a thorough examination of probably the brightest, sweetest and altogether supreme nine-months-old baby in the world, the mother asked: "Well, what do you think about my baby?" and he said: "Oh, it's a normal baby."—Kansas City Star.

Should Have Cured Her.

At a moving picture theater a woman was reading aloud the announcements that accompanied the pictures, oblivious to the annoyance of those in her vicinity. Suddenly her voice slowly died away, and the crowd about her was convulsed with laughter as she read this aloud, from the screen: "We hate to put ashes in anybody's ice cream, but deliver us from the woman who reads the moving picture titles aloud."

An Actual Lottery.

Marriage lotteries are still in vogue during October in some parts of India. The names of both sexes eligible for marriage are written on slips of paper and put into separate earthenware jars. The local wise man draws one of each kind and the youth whose name is drawn obtains a letter of introduction to the young woman whose name accompanies his, after which the courting commences.

To Rescue Drowning Person.

As soon as a drowning man begins to lose his recollection he gradually slackens his hold until he quits altogether. A rescuer should be careful to avoid being grasped, however. The safest method of approach is at the head. Grasp the struggler by the hair, turning him on his back. Then throw yourself on your back and swim, holding the man by his hair, his back to your stomach.

Stand-Patter.

This expression originated from "stand pat," a poker term used by a player to announce his intention to play cards originally dealt him without helping his hand by drawing cards. The term was first applied as political slang by Mark Hanna, in 1902, to indicate the attitude on the tariff question of leaders of the Republican party.

Most Sensitive Instrument.

The most sensitive instrument yet made is the bolometer, originally invented by Langley, which is used for measuring variations in the radiation of heat. It registers to a millionth of a degree. The heart of it is a platinum wire so thin that it cannot be seen except when a ray of bright light is reflected from it.

Eye of the Ostrich.

The ostrich's eye is as large as an ordinary marble. He has microscopic vision and can see the most minute particle. The eyelid does not move over the eye. Instead there is a film which flashes across it from time to time, somewhat like the shutter of a camera.

Puritans Used No Wedding Ring.

The Puritans of the seventeenth century used no ring at the wedding ceremony, as they considered it "a pagan symbol and superstitious contrivance." All they required was that the man and woman should join hands when stating their purpose to live together in wedlock.

Where Sugar Is Not For Sale.

Sugar, as such, is not to be purchased in a Central African village, but the people do not need it, for they have fruit all the year round, and the children have sugar cane to suck or the sweet stalks of the sweet maize plants to chew.

Infection on Tableware.

Experiments by Dr. J. C. Cumming prove that infectious diseases of the throat and lungs are transmitted easily by washing forks and spoons that have been used by the sick in the same water as tableware for the rest of the household.

Beauty and Truth.

It is only through the morning glory of the beautiful that you can penetrate into the realm of knowledge. That which we feel here as beauty we shall one day know as truth.—Schiller.

Well Expressed.

Hay Fever Prevention

Health Talk No. 20
By JOHN DE JONGE, D. C.

The sting was never taken from the hay fever season until the efficacy of chiropractic spinal adjustments in this ailment was discovered. Authorities agree that the infection was the flying pollen of summer. They also agree that about nineteen out of every twenty are entirely immune to the disease, and that all would be immune if the disease resisting power of the mucous linings of the air passages were of normal health and vigor.

When a full supply of nervous impulses are conducted over spinal nerve lines to these parts, the normal resistance is present. Chiropractic spinal adjustments freeing the nerve lines of interfering pressure, will restore normal health and vigor to these mucous linings. To prevent hay fever begin chiropractic spinal adjustments before your 'hay fever season' starts.

Suffers from Birth—Overcomes Tendency

"My daughter Ada was a sufferer from hay fever every year almost from her birth. In the midst of her last annual attack, which was so violent it caused a discharge from the eyes which necessitated washing them in warm water before she could see, we tried chiropractic and the relief was almost immediate. Before the disease had run its usual course she was well. Last year there was no return of the ailment." — Mrs. William Rubush, Chiropractic Research Bureau Statement No. 1221F.

The father proudly boasted that his daughter, the apple of his eye, should have as fine a college education as the country afforded. Yet after his sudden passing, the daughter mysteriously dropped her studies and came home to clerk in a store.

Only a few knew the real reason, that the father, fine provider though he was, had failed in his supreme duty, that of safeguarding his family's future. Wise men speculate, if at all, only after they have amply provided for the comfort of their dependents. If this important duty still awaits you, our booklet, "Safeguarding Your Family's Future", will prove helpful. It is free. Send for it.

MONUMENT UNVEILED IN HONOR OF SOLDIER

Friday afternoon in Pilgrim Home cemetery a monument was unveiled to the memory of Stillman Visscher Jenks, Co. A. 339th Infantry. Although the skies threatened rain, there was a goodly company of friends of the young man and ex-servicemen gathered to pay their tributes to the soldier-comrade. Rev. C. L. Austin, as chaplain, had charge of the service and made a brief address. He introduced Dr. H. L. Stetson, president of Kalamazoo College who represented that institution where Mr. Jenks had been a student for two years before entering the service.

The firing squad of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion fired three volleys and the Post Bugler played the "Star Spangled Banner" and sounded taps.

The stone, a rock-faced Barre granite was draped with an American flag and unveiled by Capt. Raymond Visscher, cousin of Mr. Jenks. The flower decorations were yellow lilies and tulips, skilfully mingled with green, while against the base of the monument was a beautiful magnolia wreath sent by the faculty of Kalamazoo College, and indicating the reward of the victor. The central feature of the floral arrangement was a gold star, the symbol of the finished work of the hero dead.

A shower was given the evening of May 26 at the home of Mrs. M. B. Bowmaster of Central Park in honor of Miss Theresa Bowmaster whose marriage to Henry J. Du Mez will take place early in June. The rooms were attractively decorated with hearts and flowers and a dainty luncheon was served. The guest-of-honor was presented with a handsome rocking chair. Nineteen people were present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Broekema and son Myron of Chicago are here for a ten days outing at their summer home.

Saugatuck had a unique Memorial Day. Levi Tuttle of the 4th Mich. Cav., who is 92 years old delivered the principal address.

"DAD" KARSTEN PASSES AWAY IN ZEELAND

One of Zeeland's most prominent business men passed away Friday evening at ten o'clock when death came to Harm H. Karsten, better known in Holland and Zeeland as "Dad" Karsten. Mr. Karsten had been ill for some years and death was due to heart disease.

Mr. Karsten was 62 years old. He was born in Vriesland in 1858 and was a resident of Zeeland for about 35 years. He conducted a feed mill, later built the "Little Wonder" Mill and was instrumental in erecting the plant of the Zeeland Milling Co. After he retired from that business he started the first garage in Zeeland and until his death he was one of the most prominent automobile men in that city, conducting a garage under the name of H. H. Karsten & Brother.

Mr. Karsten was almost as well known in Holland as he was in Zeeland. He was a life member of the local K. of P. lodge and also a member of Unity Lodge F. & A. M.

The deceased is survived by his wife and six children—Henry, Mrs. P. E. Bilkert of Washington, D. C., John and Russel of Zeeland, and J. Gerrit of Pueblo, Colorado.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 from the home in Zeeland. The funeral was private. The Masons will have charge of the services at the grave.

ASK FOR RETURN OF READING ROOM BOOK

A volume of a set of the Harvard Classics in the Holland City Library reading room was taken by some unknown person some time ago. It is volume XXVI and contains translations of continental drama, among them the works from French, German and Spanish dramatists. While valuable in itself, the book is chiefly valuable because it is one of an expensive set. There is much call for the book and its loss works a real hardship on many persons. It cannot be replaced because to secure it a whole set would have to be purchased. The person who has taken it is requested to return it to the library. Altho the removal of the book from the reading room is as clearly a case of theft as if actual money had been stolen, the library authorities, for the sake of getting the book back, will ask no questions, provided it is returned immediately.

OTTAWA VETS FIRST TO GET THE BONUS BLANKS

Grand Haven Tribune—Ottawa and Muskegon county veterans of the World War may get an early start in filing their applications for soldier bonuses to be awarded by the state of Michigan. F. C. Bolt, commander of Conklin Post, American Legion of Grand Haven returned from Lansing with a supply of the first blanks turned out by the state printers. Mr. Bolt brought home him enough to supply all the soldier veterans in Ottawa county, and these are now available.

The first batch of blanks apply only to the privates and non-commissioned officers in the army. Blanks for commissioned officers, and veterans of the navy and other branches of the service will be issued later. The army privates and non-commissioned officers far outnumber the vets of all other branches of the service and the state is anxious to have these blanks all out of the way first.

While at Lansing Mr. Bolt, thru the efforts of his brother Dr. A. J. Bolt, state senator from the Ottawa-Muskegon district, managed to secure the blanks hot from the press, and he brought them home with him. Senator Bolt at the same time secured enough to supply the Muskegon veterans.

LOCALS WIN FIRST TWILIGHT GAME

The opening twilight base ball game was a huge success in every way. About 400 fans and all the kids in town turned out to see the local favorites down the dusky lads from Chicago to the tune of 9 to 1.

The locals were the first to score in the second inning but the Giants came back in the third and scored their only run on a base hit, a poor peg to second and an infield out. Hoover on the mound for Holland held the darkies at bay and allowed a half dozen scattered hits.

The local batsmen began their heavy stick work in the 4th and 5th innings scoring two runs each inning and again in the 7th scored four runs on a fulisade of hits. M. Hoover led both teams in hitting gaining four out of 4 times up while Spriggs was a close second with 3 out of 4 times up.

Rinkus or Wyngarden will oppose the darkies on the mound today.

KNICKERBOCKERS HOLD 12TH ANNUAL BANQUET

The Knickerbocker Literary society of Hope College journeyed to Saugatuck Friday where the 12th annual banquet was held at the Leland Tea Room. Approximately eighty members and guests enjoyed a hearty repast, after which the following program was given—Toastmaster, Capt. H. J. Oosterhof; Invocation, Rev. C. P. Dame; The First Cruise, R. Fell; solo, Duna, (McGill, M. Visscher; The First Mate, B. Van Ark; The Exhaust, Wm. Joldersma; Saxophone solo, H. M. Boland; The Good Ship Knickerbocker, Bernie Mulder; Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Dame chaperoned the party.

FINE CONCERT GIVEN IN HIGH SCHOOL

The concert given by the Holland Lyric Glee club held in the high school auditorium was well attended considering the twilight baseball game in progress and the warm weather.

Each number was well received and the fine work done by the chorus reflects creditably upon the work of the director, Mr. A. Ten Hoor, who has had considerable experience both in Grand Rapids and Holland in directing male and mixed choruses.

Those who participated in the program were encored repeatedly and very graciously responded to several extra numbers.

Besides the numbers rendered by the Glee Club the following soloists came in for numbers. Leo Te Paske, baritone solo; Miss Evelyn Keppel and Gerrit Ter Beek, duet; John Ter Vree, bass solo; and Miss Evelyn Keppel, soprano solo. Mr. Morris Steggerda, reading from Mark Twain. Miss Susanna Hamelink ably accompanied the Glee Club and the individual members.

People at Macatawa Park a few days ago, as they wandered between rows of cottages, wondered if the lake had taken it into its head to climb into some of the cottages. Water was seen trickling from the windows and doors. But it was a curious fact that some cottages seemed to be immune.

Investigation showed that in about fifteen or twenty cottages the faucets had been left open last fall when the water of the Macatawa water system was shut off. When the water was turned on again, the faucets of course began to spout, with no one on hand to shut them off. As a result the water was standing five inches on the floor in some cottages, and many rugs were ruined before the accident was discovered.

BICYCLE THIEF TRACED TO BATTLE CREEK

About two weeks ago Peter Boyenga missed his bicycle, costing $40. The local police have been looking for this "bike" and were informed by the chief of police of Battle Creek that a young lad of 17, a half-Bennie breed Indian, who called himself Bennie Mitchell was attempting to sell this wheel which was nearly new, and that the police of the "Pure Food" city were holding him until they heard from Chief Van Ry. Mr. Van Ry informed Deputy Sheriff Johnson, for the reason that the bicycle was stolen in Holland township, right over the city limits, on the Zeeland road, and for that reason the local authorities have no jurisdiction there.

Deputy Johnson went to Battle Creek, and brought the young man back, and locked him up in the city jail over night.

Mitchell admits to the authorities that he stole the wheel by first breaking the window and endeavoring to go through into the barn where the wheel was kept, and not being successful he then broke down the door to the building.

Mitchell was taken before Justice Den Herder who bound the young man over to circuit court, and in default of bail, he was taken to the county jail.

Bennie Mitchell, Jr., is the son of Ben Mitchell, sr., who some years ago was a baseball player on a Holland team and who was dubbed the as the "Indian Wonder."

TILL ROBBER IS CAUGHT AFTER AN EXCITING CHASE

Following a chase of several blocks through Spring Lake alleys and streets, Fay Rose, alleged to have robbed the till in the Mulder store in Spring Lake was captured and held pending the arrival of the sheriff's officers. He was brought to Grand Haven where a charge of larceny will be lodged against him.

During the noon hour Arthur Mulder was in the store alone when a stranger came in to inquire if there were any signs to paint for the store. He was told that the proprietor was out and left the store. In a few moments Art Mulder heard some one in an adjoining room. He went in to find the sign painter there alone.

At the same time he noticed the till open and the money gone. About this time the stranger began backing out of the store and Mr. Mulder gave chase.

The stranger ran through the alley back of Savidge street for several blocks before turning into one of the back street. Several men had joined the chase by this time and the fugitive was finally halted near the Zuidema residence. During the chase he threw about two dollars out of his pockets.

He was taken back to the Mulder store where he was held pending the arrival of the sheriff's officers from Grand Haven. There was not a great deal of change in the till, and it is believed that the greater portion of it has been recovered.

The Men's Bible Class of Hope church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Diekema Friday evening. An interesting program was given, consisting of a vocal solo by Willis A. Diekema; an address on "Poor Relations," by C. Vander Meulen; a reading "The Discovery of America," by Mrs. Diekema. Refreshments were served. Dr. G. W. Van Verst, vice president, presided. There was a large attendance and the meeting was an unusually interesting one.

COMMUNICATION

Editor—Kindly permit us to make a few remarks in regard to the proposed paving of that part of Seventh street, which commences at River Avenue and extends to Lincoln Avenue.

As an interested party, owning property along that part of Seventh street, and as one of the thirty-one signers of the petition against this proposed paving, we claim that this year is not the right time to make this improvement, because the price of material is as yet too high, the chances being, as we believe, that by waiting another year, hundreds of dollars can thereby be saved to the property owners by a further drop in the prices of material, transportation, etc.

For is it not staggering to be told that the estimated cost of that paving job will be $6.84 per running foot, for each individual property owner, or $13.68 a running foot to be paid jointly by the property owners on both sides of the street?

Seventh-st. property, as a whole, does not warrant such an expenditure, and we contend that this burdensome improvement tax, will virtually confiscate two-thirds of the value of the residence lots.

And to prove that this contention is not based on wind, we need only mention that the paving on Eighth street with brick (according to people living along such concerned street) cost the property owners only $5 a running foot or $10 a running foot for both sides.

And here, in case of Seventh-st., we will on yet a cement paving, far inferior to brick and still this paving job will cost $2 per running foot (or nearly $4 per running foot for both sides) more than Eighth street.

Then another important matter in regard to this paving is that the petition against the paving has been signed by 31 property owners, and those 31 property owners represent about two-thirds of the frontage affected.

Now we are well aware of the fact, that the common council of our city, has the legal right (a power they should never have been given, according to us) to brush all objections aside, by simply ordering the paving work to be done. This is admitted, but let the solons of our city not forget that arm in arm with that overpowering dandy called legal right, marches that highly conservative dandy known as moral right, and we firmly believe, if the last named dandy is consulted by our solons, they will be advised to wait another year before putting this paving job through.

And now in closing this article, let me be permitted to ask this question: why, in the name of common sense, must these contemplated paving jobs brought up but recently, at once be driven through with aeroplane rapidity?

HOPE COLLEGE GRADUATES ARE IN GREAT DEMAND

Hope College will graduate a class of 51 members in June, ranking next to the largest ever graduated from the institution, in 1920, when 52 diplomas were awarded. The class of 1921 has back of it a record of high scholastic standing, and the demand for Hope's graduates has been greater than ever before. A number of the class have accepted positions or scholarships, while some negotiations are still pending for others.

Dr. A. T. Godfrey, head of the department of Chemistry has found a greater demand for his students than he can supply. During this year he has been able to secure scholarships for five members of the class, who will take up graduate work in Chemistry next fall for a Ph. D. degree in that subject. They are: Harold Judson Oosterhof, to the U. of M., Maurice Van Loo, to the U. of M., Theodore Otte Yntema, to the U. of Illinois, John Wierda to the U. of Illinois and Renzy Evert Flikkema to the Massachusetts State Agricultural College, Amhurst, Mass.

In the Department of Education, Prof. Egbert Winter, head of the department has also had as many positions offered to students as he has been able to take care of. While some positions are still open, Prof. Winter has already placed sixteen of the students. They are: Kathryn I. Schmid, instructor in English and French at Plymouth; Gertrude Henrietta Stephan, instructor in English at Sheboygan, Mich.; Harry Albert Boersma, instructor in Mathematics and Athletic coach at St. Johns, Mich.; William Brink, superintendent at Hudsonville; Fred Henry Dekker, instructor in mathematics and athletic coach; Frances Bertha Du Mez, grade work at Holland; W. Gumzer, superintendent at Reed City; Elizabeth Cornelia Harterink, instructor in English at Cadillac; Francis J. Le Roy, principal at Grandville; Myra M. Manting, instructor in English at Fennville; Grace E. Peet, instructor in history at Buchanan; Helene W. VanRaalte, instructor in French and English at Zeeland; Anthony C. Walvoord, instructor in mathematics at Cadillac; Mahelle Mulder, grade work at Holland; and Grace Durrin, instructor in English at Dowagiac. Miss Vera Keppel has been offered two positions but has not yet accepted.

At least four members of the class will enter the Western Theological Seminary next fall. They are Geo. W. Laug, Francis J. Ihmman, Bernard D. Hietbrink and Henry W. Pyle.

Twelve of the members of the class were enrolled in the Volunteer Band. Although it is improbable that the Mission Board will be able to accept any applications this year, the class of 1921 has at least two volunteers for service in the foreign fields. Negotiations have been initiated to secure a place for Miss Gertrude J. Pieters. Nothing definite has been arranged as yet. Martin De Wolf of Rochester, N. Y., is the other volunteer. The Michigan State Scholarship to the U. of M. subject to faculty award was given to Peter J. Mulder of this city.

Theodore Yntema, who had the highest standing in all around scholastic work, will be the valedictorian for the class in June.

MISSIONARIES FROM HOPE COLLEGE SERVE 720 YEARS

The foreign missionaries sent out from Hope College have served in the foreign field for a period of 720 years, if all the terms of service of all the missionaries are added. This is an average of a little more than ten years each for the 72 missionaries that have been in the foreign field or are there now. In this week's issue of "The Anchor," Prof. P. E. Hinkamp, secretary of the Hope College Alumni association gives the detailed record of Hope's missionary activities since the founding of the institution, giving the names of the missionaries who have served or are serving now and other facts concerning them.

The total number is 72. Of these eight have died, seven have resigned because of ill health of themselves or of members of the family, two have completed short terms of service and 55 are now in the service.

The banner class for missionaries as to "absolute number," was the class of 1914, with ten missionaries to its credit; but the banner class as to percentage was the class of 1887, sending 3 of its seven members in to the foreign field, all of whom are still living and in active service.

The list starts with the class of 1867, when Rev. Enne. Heeren was sent to India where he served from 1872 to 1877, dying in 1878. Since then a large number of the classes graduated from Hope College have sent representatives to the foreign field, the class of 1920 having sent six.

The missionaries sent to the foreign field by Hope college comprise nearly ten per cent of the entire body of graduates of that institution. There are few colleges in America that have as high a percentage of missionaries.

SUGAR BEET IS GREATEST SAFEGUARD OF THE FARMER

According to all accounts the agriculture sections which are giving the best imitation of normalcy in these war-distorted times are those in which sugar beets is one of the leading crops. This seems to bear out the recent assertion of the Detroit Free Press that no modern agricultural development has done more to "safeguard the position of the farmer" in Michigan than the beet sugar industry.

It has been one of the chief factors in substituting scientific skill and business efficiency for indifferent and unremunerative farming methods.

It has demonstrated the value of diversified production—of systematic crop rotation.

It has given the farmer what he has never had before, an absolutely dependable local cash market for his product.

It has introduced and successfully applied the principle of co-operation to our economic and national well-being—the principle which is so vital alike here.

And it has done all these things in the face of many difficulties and sometimes at enormous expense. The beet sugar companies not only maintain staffs of skilled experts to instruct and advise with the farmer regarding the tillage of his crop, but they supply him with seed at below cost and advance the most of the money to pay the expenses of the "campaign." They also provide much of the labor to care for the crop. In the last season they brot into the eastern beet sugar districts more than 20,000 farm hands.

Only last year the expenses of hiring this labor and transporting it from its native habitat to the beet ed to nearly $750,000—a pretty sizable sum.

In addition to this large item of expense the companies were also obliged to stand for another and still greater loss, owing to their inability to contract with the imported labor to care for an acre of beets for $28, which was all the farmers had stipulated in the different states amounting to pay. As a matter of fact, this labor cost the companies $35 an acre, which represented a loss to them of $7 an acre, or a total loss on the sugar beet acreage in the eastern territory of nearly two million dollars.

It will thus be seen that in the beet sugar game the factory is the banker and lends to everybody a stack of chips. And if there are any losses, the factory itself takes them.

There is absolutely no chance for the factory to pass the buck. It cannot recoup itself by arbitrarily increasing the price of its sugar, for that price is irrevocably fixed by the world market conditions—conditions which are accurately reflected at the Atlantic seaboard where the Cuban sugars dominate the market and fix the price for the rest of the country.

Was there ever a stranger economic paradox than is presented by the beet growing farmer playing a "sure thing" and the sugar beet factory—which makes the farmer's "sure thing" possible by guaranteeing him a minimum price for his beets—assuming risks and periodically taking losses which rank its business among the most highly hazardous enterprises of the present day?

But however anomalous this may be, it nevertheless constitutes one of the fundamental facts which the public should know in order to get a proper line on the beet sugar industry as a builder and stabilizer of agricultural prosperity.

W. R. C. GIVES BOY SCOUTS SILK FLAGS

The Woman's Relief Corps of this city staged an impressive and a unique service Friday night, when they presented each Holland Boy Scout more than a hundred in number, with a silk flag.

Mrs. T. Boot, who for many years has been a state officer of the corps presided over the deliberations. In the final part of the program, seven ladies of the Relief Corps presented seven scout masters with enough flags to supply every boy member of his troop. The ladies after giving their presentation speeches received ready responses from the respective scout masters.

Rev. Tate then spoke of the significance of the badge. Dr. A. Leenhouts spoke on the subject "The Star Spangled Banner." The significance of the presentation of the flags was responded to by Gerald Breen.

The Boy Scouts, more than a hundred in number present, gave many of their scout drills.

EAST HOLLAND PIONEER DIES AT EIGHTY-FIVE

Jacob Weersing, pioneer resident of East Holland and later for many years a resident of Zeeland, died at his home there Friday night at midnight at the age of 85 years. Most of Mr. Weersing's children were present at the bedside when death came.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 from the home, 49 Maple-st., Zeeland, and at two o'clock (fast time) from the First Christian Reformed church of Zeeland. Rev.-M. Van Vessem and Rev. D. R. Drukker officiated. Interment took place in the East Holland cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his wife and the following children—John and Mrs. Kate De Witt of Holland; Mrs. A. Ten Cate of Chicago; Benjamin of Madison, Minn.; Joseph of Spokane, Wash.; Rev. Jacob Weersing of Hull, Ia.; and Martin of Manhattan, Mont. He is also survived by 36 grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

The Holland American Legion Band were guests of the Karsten Post, American Legion of Zeeland Friday evening and the whole town was out to bid them welcome. The band detrained at State street and paraded to Tony De Kruij's corner where they gave a short band concert and retired to the Legion hall. A set program had been arranged for starting off with community singing. Capt. Howard Brink and Major Emery of Grand Rapids gave some very snappy talks with other speakers interspersing the program of the evening.

LOCALS

The City of Charlotte is offering a bounty of 10 cents for each 100 flies delivered to the city clerk. Now for the boy genius who can make two flies grow where one grew before.

The Winstrom Electric Co. was the successful bidder to do the wiring and the installing of the power plant at the Outlerville psychopathic hospital. The local firm was compelled to bid against several Grand Rapids firms, but the Winstrom Electric Co. was given the work for $3,207. The hospital at Outlerville is conducted under the auspices of the Christian Reformed church.

Charles S. Dutton of Acton, Cal., and Prof. Henry Dutton are in the city visiting friends. Mr. Dutton has for the past few years been living in Berkeley, Cal., just recently having moved to Acton. Mr. Dutton has been instructor at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill. Both the father and son were delegates to the assembly of the Presbyterian church holding at Winona Lake, Ind. The Duttons are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Karr, and Mrs. J. C. Post of Holland.

The young men's Bible Class of the M. E. church spent Decoration day at Port Sheldon, when base ball games and other games of amusement were indulged in. Port Sheldon is becoming quite a place for motorists. More than a hundred machines were counted there on Memorial day.

Peter Lekas has added a hat cleaning shop in connection with his shoe shining shop in the Palace Billiard hall.

Harm De Vries, Gusse De Vries, and Mr. Elenbaas left today for a three-months' trip to the Netherlands. Harm De Vries is the father of Mr. Milo De Vries of this city.

A miscellaneous program of music is to be given tonight in the 4th Reformed church of this city. Mr. Neal DeYoung, prominent soloist of Grand Rapids is on the program for several numbers. The entertainment starts at 7:45 and the public is cordially invited.

The committee on the poor reported to the council last night that $122 has been used in the last two weeks for temporary aid which is high for this season of the year.

Mrs. John Sagers submitted to an operation at Holland hospital Wednesday. The operation was performed by Dr. Fred Warnshuis of Grand Rapids and Dr. H. Boss of Holland. Mrs. Sagers' condition is favorable.

Mrs. Jack Barners was a visitor in Grand Rapids today.

Mrs. Edward Van Tak and daughter Dorothy have returned from Lansing where they attended a state convocation of the Knights Templars the past few days.

The teams of the class of Anthony Nienhuis of this city will play the indoor team of the Second Reformed church of Zeeland this evening on the college campus at 7 o'clock. Other teams wishing games with the team of the Anthony Nienhuis class see Henry Warnshuis at Lokker-Rutgers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hoover are spending the day in Grand Rapids on business.

Mrs. Ben P. James has just arrived from Hot Springs, Ark., where she has been spending the winter. Mr. James will join her in a few days. They have the Al-Ben cottage near Jensen Park on Black Lake.

Peter Notier's class of the Third Reformed church defeated the Holland Shoe team last night by a score of 7 to 4 on the 15th-st. grounds. The game was fast and interesting. The winners are anxious to have games with other teams in Holland.

The first outing of the Young Men's Club of this city was a huge success. There were games of all kinds and each individual member of the club naturally started off in the games that suited their fancy. There was "throwing of horseshoes," playing of volley ball and indoor baseball and other kindred games of sport. Forty-five of the faithful were out, coming back speaking enthusiastically about this new summer outing feature. The commissary department was in the hands of B. Nysson and Mr. Smith. There was a 2-course luncheon with roast beef and real brown gravy on buns. The regular mocha and dill pickles were not forgotten. As a desert, bananas and cream were served. The next meeting will be held on June 15.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Trinity church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Pas.

The city fathers of Allegan have expended $2,000 in fitting up a base ball park at the fair grounds there, taking the stand that a strong base ball team is one of the best advertising mediums any town can have. The members of the Commercial club and Allegan's leading business men have subscribed with view of getting together one of the fastest, if not the fastest independent teams in western Michigan. The state championship, which will be the goal fought for in the big tournament to be conducted this year, is being aimed at by the Allegan backers.

Rev. Clarence P. Dame, pastor of Trinity church, will continue his series of sermons on "Home Relationships." His topic for Sunday evening will be "The Sons of Today."

Officers of Crescent Hive will meet at the M. E. church Friday afternoon at 2:30 to practice for Memorial services that will be held on June 12.

Alarm was turned in from box 21 last night, but Chief Blom called his men together to take part in the demonstration of a large new construction of a large new American La France pumper, a similar type to the one we now have. Only much larger. The machine is a beauty, and passed through the city on its way to Muskegon. With the exception of a few later improvements, this pumper only differs in size. Holland's No. 1 pumper throws 350 gallons of water, while the new one throws 750. This is just the kind of a pumper that Holland needs, after the police commissioners finally turn the two horses into pasture.

Miss Mary Miller and Norman Cobb quietly slipped away from the city yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock and were married at Grand Rapids. This is the message Mr. and Mrs. Miller received late last night.

The young couple are graduates of the local high school and Mr. Cobb is one of the overseas boys during the World War.

PAVING IS ASKED FOR ON TWO STREETS

PETITIONS ARE SENT TO THE COUNCIL BY PROPERTY OWNERS

This seems to be a paving year in Holland, and the fever seems to be spreading. Two new petitions for paving parts of streets were received by the aldermen Wednesday evening. One was for the paving of Ninth-st. east of Lincoln-av. to the end of that street, with the same material and in the same way as the rest of the street. The petition calls for paving to the east line of Garrison-av. also including Garrison-av. to 8th-st. Garrison-av. is a little street that connects 8th and 9th at the end of Ninth-st.

Another petition was presented for paving 19th-st. from Central-av. to River-av. The street committee reported in favor of paving to First-av. The engineer was instructed to prepare plans and specifications and an estimate of costs for the committee's plan. The usual course will be taken in regard to both streets and the property owners will be given a hearing.

ENTERS PETITION TO START HOT DOG STAND

Street hot dog and hamburger stands will soon appear in Holland if the license committee reports favorably on a petition presented to the council last night. Chief of Police Van Ry said that he had no objection to placing a lunch stand on the corner next to Nick Dykema's store and on the corner next to the Hotel Holland. The petition for such a stand was presented by Edward J. Zwemer. The license committee was given power to act.

ALLEGAN MAN IS FINED FOR VIOLATING TREE QUARANTINE

The strict manner in which the government is protecting its trees by quarantining diseased sections was shown in U. S. District Court in Grand Rapids when J. G. Pretsage of Allegan, paid a fine of $25 for shipping to Decatur, Kas., two five leaf white pine trees, labeled "yellow pine" and two labeled "jack pine." Prestage claimed the shipping was done by his assistants without his knowledge and that the error was due to their ignorance of the quarantine. He previously had pleaded not guilty, but changed his plea when the case was called.

OTTAWA SENATOR WANTS TO AIR SECRET MEETING

Lansing, June 2—Another jab was taken at the secret session of the senate in the governor's office late Tuesday night by Sen. A. J. Bolt of Muskegon. He introduced a resolution directing that minutes of that meeting to be spread in the senate journal as a part of the official proceedings of the senate. Needless to say that the resolution was promptly voted down.

BECOMES MANAGER OF WESTERN UNION OFFICE

BERNARD ROMEYN STARTED WITH COMPANY AS MESSENGER BOY

After serving his apprenticeship at the local office in Holland, going away to serve the company in various capacities in other offices, Bernard Romeyn has returned to Holland to take charge of the local office for the Western Union as manager. Mr. Romeyn and family moved from Cadillac this week where he served in the Western Union office for a year.

Mr. Romeyn started with the Western Union as messenger boy in the Holland office twelve years ago. After serving Uncle Sam during the war, he took a position as assistant manager of the Western Union office at West Palm Beach, Fla. A year ago he was transferred to Cadillac as manager of the office there, and now he has come back as manager of the Holland office.

STEVENSON DIRECTOR OPTOMETRIC SOCIETY OF WESTERN MICHIGAN

At a meeting of the Western Michigan Optometric society at the Lincoln Club rooms in the Hotel Pantlind last night, Dr. D. Emmett Welsh of Grand Rapids, lectured on "The Effect of General Diseases of the Body Upon Vision."

Officers of the society for next year were elected as follows—President, Henry Schmiel; vice president, C. U. Pael; treasurer, M. A. Le Wick; secretary, Charles Van Sluyter, all of Grand Rapids; directors are J. G. Bennett of Muskegon Heights, W. R. Stevenson, of Holland, and Prof. F. Gilch of Grand Rapids.

Prof. Gilch is conducting morning, afternoon and evening classes daily during the present week with about 60 optometrists from western Michigan taking the course preparatory to the state examination next week at Muskegon.

WATCH APPLE TREES FOR CANKER WORMS

Reports have been received by the county agent that canker worms are doing considerable damage in orchards and unless given attention fruit will be destroyed. As the crop at best will be short and as fruit of all kinds will be likely to sell at a good price steps should be taken at once to hold worms in check.

The canker worm is often called the measuring worm, inch worm, or looper. Because it has no legs under the greater part of the body it has to loop along. The worm attacks apple, elm and other trees, eating the fleshy portion of the leaf leaving the stems and underribs.

For protection of shade trees, band with coal tar or anything to prevent insects crawling up the trunk. For apple trees, spray with 1½ lbs. arsenate of lead in 50 gallons of water when worms are small but now they are developed to a stage when 2½ lbs. are necessary. There is some danger of burning using at this strength so a better formula is 2½ lbs. calcium arsenate and 2½ lbs. hydrated lime. It will pay the growers who have apples to watch closely and give them good care.

Not Rats!

Lots of people think that rats and matches are responsible for the biggest number of fires. Statistics show that defective wiring is the culprit.

Be sure — have our experts do all your wiring. One weak spot is as bad as a hundred.

HOW TO DRIVE OFF

THE PESKY FLY

Owing to the warm weather so many flies have developed that they constitute a pest in the stables of the dairymen. The county agent has been asked by a number of people how best they may be repelled. Below is a formula which has proven effective and which is very lasting.

Fish oil 100 parts, oil of tar 50 parts, crude carbolic acid 1 part. Apply by means of a small hand spray pump or apply thinly with rag. One application should serve two days.

How Starfish Eat.

All the starfish fasten themselves to the matter they wish to devour, turn their stomachs inside out, and engulf their prey. It doesn't sound pretty, but it's effective, and that's all the starfish care about.

A Pianist.

Why are some folks so set in their ways? There's old Opportunity, for instance. For countless centuries she has been knocking at people's doors. Why doesn't the old-fashioned thing use the bell, come around to the back door or else peck on the window?

Cheating the Fly

Spring brings flies and flies bring trouble to the plowman and his horses. A half dozen persistent horse flies can ruin the pulling power of the best team.

The Fordson heeds not the flies. Its steady, powerful pull is the same in and out of fly time. And for the spring and fall plowing it handles the specially built Oliver Plow as only a good plow can be handled.

Present conditions demand that use be made of every efficient method of crop production this year. Fordson farming has cut costs for thousands of other farmers. It will do the same for you.

There are special Oliver Plows built to work with the Fordson in all soils.

DUMPED INTO

NEW PARK

It isn't often that a sign is put up in a public park reading, "Please dump your rubbish here." Usually it is the other way round. But such a sign has actually been put up in the new George E. Kollen Memorial park and it was erected by order of the park board. The reason for it is that the park authorities have decided to fill up the series of concrete vats that were used by the King Basket Company with earth and rubbish. When the job of blasting out the concrete was abandoned it was found that it would take a great deal of debris to fill the vats and hence the park board members are asking the public to help fill them by dumping rubbish into them. Signs have been put up showing exactly where the rubbish is to be dumped. People are asked not to dump it anywhere else in the park.
