G. VANSCHELVEN COMPILES THE DEAD SOLDIER ROSTER

MANY REST AT HOME: QUITE A NUMBER IN UNKNOWN GRAVES

G. VanSchelven, veteran of the civil war and former postmaster, is possibly more versed in matters pertaining to the soldiers than any other man in Holland.

Incident to Decoration Day Mr. VanSchelven has compiled the number of soldiers in three wars who rest in unknown graves. Also those who have been laid to rest in our local cemeteries.

In the list Mr. VanSchelven has found two from the Napoleonic war and two from the Mexican war, and many from later wars.

Mr. VanSchelven's compilation is indeed interesting and is very appropriately printed on the back of the official program for Decoration Day.

The figures as compiled follow:

Absent—But not Forgotten	1
Civil War Veterans—Resting in Southern Soil	31
Spanish War Volunteers	1
Buried at Sea	1
World War Comrades—"In Flinders field" where Poppies grow	3
Total Absent	35

HOWL RAISED OVER TAXI CO'S NEW OFFICE BUILDING

GRAND HAVEN POLICE STOP PUTTING UP OF NEW WOOD SHACK

Betwixt night and morning on Saturday, a taxi stand was built just east of the municipal slip on Washington St., Grand Haven, and the Yellow Cab line of the neighboring city would have had a parking stand and office but for the storm of protest that arose concerning the construction of a wooden building which many claimed would be unsightly at the end of the main thoroughfare.

Tuesday morning Chief Pipel, of the police department, ordered further building on the structure stopped in view of complaints of abutting property owners. The complaints were received from the Grand Trunk railway and from N. Robbins, Goodrich agent and coal and building materials dealer.

The building will be finished and then moved to a suitable location. If this location is in the downtown fire district the little wooden box of contention will have to be covered with fireproof roofing and covered with stucco in order to conform to the building ordinance in the high value zone. The affair created a furor when it was started and very soon calls were coming in from interested parties asking that work be stopped. They were informed that the council had authorized the taxi line to go ahead and build but that abutting property owners could stop the construction work as they eventually did.

The Yellow Cab line is now looking for a new cab stand and office site where they can conduct their business from.

FORMER LOCAL MAN SUCCESSFUL

CHURCH OF REV. VICTOR J. BLEKKINK ENJOYS RAPID GROWTH

The Christian Intelligencer has the following about Rev. Victor J. Blekkink, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Blekkink of this city.

"The Cohoes, N. Y., church, Rev. Victor J. Blekkink, pastor, made notable progress in the past church year. The congregation steadily increased, and at each communion new members have been received. Extensive improvements have been made in the parsonage, Sexton's home adjoining church building, as well as the church parlors and the Bible school rooms have been renovated. The pastor's salary has been substantially increased. There is renewed activity in all the organizations of the congregation, especially among the young people and the men. Members of the Bible School have a pageant A series of congregational suppers and entertainments was given. A Men's Forum, recently organized for Bible study and the discussion of the practical problems of Christianity, is growing rapidly. The Easter offering amounted to $2,146.80. On Sunday afternoon, April 27th, forty members of the Men's Forum conducted an every Member Canvass for the current expenses and benevolences for the church year. At the followup meeting the budgets were reported as being subscribed. Plans are being made by the Bible school for a Daily Vacation Bible School."

The Holland City News comes out one day early this week because of Decoration day thus enabling the rural subscribers to receive their paper Thursday instead of Saturday as would be the case if the News was issued on the regular publication day.

GEERLINGS HEARS FROM SALVA- TION ARMY

HOLLAND GIVES $1476.01 TO JOHN DE PREE REVIVES WOOD CUT PRODUCTIONS

The following letter from W. B. Millard from Logansport, Ind., is self explanatory:

LOGANSPORT, IND., May 26, 1924

Mr. Henry Geerlings, Holland, Michigan.

I am made very happy by a letter from the Divisional Headquarters at Grand Rapids stating that Holland has completed its drive for the Salvation Army and sent in a check for $1476.01. It is this kind of support and backing that makes it possible for the grand old Salvation Army to continue its work for the salvation of both body and soul.

In any movement the question of success is the question of leadership. With you, Mr. Champion and Mr. VanZanten in the important offices success was assured from the start.

You certainly picked the right men to secure the Advance Gifts when you appointed Charles Karr, Sears McLean and John Kooker, as their record of $800.00 shows. Mr. Van Tatenhove and his assistants also did excellent work. In fact every one whom you named for any part of the work responded to your call and did better than we dared to expect.

Very special credit is due Mr. Ben Mulder for the splendid publicity which he gave the campaign. Nowhere in the district has his work been equalled.

I will appreciate it if you will extend my thanks to all who participated in the campaign and assure them of the pleasure it gave me to be associated with such high minded and public spirited men and women.

Very cordially yours
W. B. Millard.

CLEANUP WEEK BEGINS NET WEEK MONDAY

The regular annual cleanup week in Holland begins next week Monday and will continue during the week and possibly one week will be added since the weather has been unfavorable for so long a time.

Mayor Kammeraad and Chief Blom are to issue messages setting aside next week for cleanup and paintup week.

Holland is known the state over as a clean town where buildings are kept spick and span and lawns and yards are found in presentable shape. This phase of Holland's life is one of the most noticeable features to all strangers.

Let us remember to sustain our record during cleanup and paintup week.

MUSIC MEMORY CONTEST WON BY LINCOLN SCHOOL

MELVIN SCHEERHORN GETS FIRST PRIZE AND A PRIZE FOR HIS SCHOOL

Lincoln school was the winner in the music memory contest that has just closed after being in progress for about eight weeks. Melvin Scheerhorn of the fifth grade of Lincoln school won the first prize for his school, the prize consisting in a picture representing the spirit of music painted by Miss Jean Goldsmith, a teacher. This picture will be hung in Lincoln school properly labeled. Mr. Scheerhorn himself received a five dollar gold piece.

Second prize of three dollars went to Ruth Lieveens, a member of the fourth grade of Longfellow school. The judges were: Mrs. G. W. Van Verst, Mrs. C. J. Dregman, and Miss Grace Mills.

The contest was a spirited one and it was often hard to decide on the winner both in the elimination contest and in the final one. The 15 best contestants were taken in each of the five grade schools, pupils from the 4th, 5th and 6th grades taking part. There were 75 in all in the contest. By elimination contests the best five in each school were secured and these entered the final contest which was held in the music room of the Junior high school. Miss Stein on Friday presented the picture to the Lincoln school at the assembly meeting of the school and the pupils were greatly pleased with the result. The other schools were also satisfied because the contest was won by the Lincoln school through hard work and was highly deserved.

From the very first there was a great deal of interest in the contest and it has resulted in arousing interest in music and composers. Miss Stein, under whose direction the contest was held, said she hoped the contestants would continue to keep the music and composers in mind and thus make the contest of lasting benefit.

Next year it is hoped to hold another contest and at that time it is hoped to enter the winner in the state contest to try for one of the state prizes.

MAN BURNED AT NORTH SIDE TANNERY

A hurried ambulance call to the North Side tannery at 2:30 yesterday afternoon was sent in, and when the doctors arrived it was found that John Stegenga had backed into a vat of hot fluid and when examined it was found that both feet and arms were badly burned.

Although very painful the hospital authorities feel that the burns will not be fatal. Stegenga will be laid up for several weeks however.

A jury in Circuit Judge Orien S. Cross court in Allegan last night returned a verdict acquitting William Warren Blacksmith and farm hand, on a charge of murder in connection with the death last November of Claude Spafford.

The case was given to the jury at 6:05 and the verdict was returned at 7.

N. Y. ART DEALERS ENTHUSED OVER LOCAL MAN'S WORK

WOOD BLOCK PRINTING FOR MANY YEARS A DEAD ART, IS GENERALLY AND SURELY BEING REVIVED. INTEREST IN AMERICA WAS AGAIN AWAKENED WAY BACK IN THE '70S WHEN THE ART OF BLOCK PRINTING FLOURISHED. THEN CAME PHOTOGRAPHY, AND THE NEW FORMS OF ENGRAVING WHICH GAVE WOOD BLOCK PRINTING A BLACK EYE.

There are very few wood block engravers left. However the old fashioned wood cuts are again coming into their own and in the east these old fashioned art productions are at present all the rage.

Holland can still boast of a wood engraver, in the person of John De Pree, brother of Con DePree. In his studio at Central Park, Mr. De Pree has been diligently working up on several productions and has sent many of these to art dealers in the East who are especially enthusiastic over the work done by the local man.

Some of this art work in the hands of Mr. De Pree is now on exhibition in the art store of Mr. DuSzar. The copies on exhibition smacks of the sea, in fact ships of yesteryear especially appropriate, done in woodblock art work. Among the productions are to be found the Santa Maria, one of the ships in which Christopher Columbus discovered America and landed at San Salvador. The other is a replica of the good ship Mayflower, that landed the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock. Then there is one of De Ruiters ships from the large Dutch fleet from the days when William of Orange governed the Netherlands.

Mr. De Pree has shown unusual skill in his work, and the coloring too corresponds typically with wood cuts made centuries ago, when this form of art work was not a fad, but the only means of depicting anything, the art of photography not having been discovered at that time.

The fact that this revived form of art work is becoming the rage in Europe and has already reached the East, and is beginning to be enthusiastically received in the west will no doubt stand the Holland man in good stead in disposing of the work so far done and any pictures he may create in the future.

POLICE ORDER AUTOMO- BILES FROM MAIN STREETS

Chief Van Ry issues orders that after 9:30 a. m. on Decoration day all automobiles parked on River avenue on the east side of the 12th and 8th street from Columbia on the east to 12th street on the south, must vacate the street.

During the parade no machines are allowed on those streets and police will be on hand to see that these orders are followed.

Motorists are requested to co-operate with the police in this matter. Tickets can be secured at any of the Overland stores or at the door on the evening of the entertainment. The proceeds are to go for missions.

WILL PASS OUT FLAGS TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

Last year the Vandenberg Bros. Oil company gave away a large number of flags to the school children of Holland and this year they are again going to give away flags and the youngsters who come early will be able to secure a flag free of charge. The distribution will begin at seven o'clock Thursday morning at the east end station of the firm and it is safe to say that a lot of school children will get up earlier than usual Thursday in order to be on hand when the flags are passed out.

CELEBRATED LECT- URER TO SPEAK ON LIQUOR QUESTION

HAS BEEN PREACHING PROHIBITION FOR THE PAST 25 YEARS

A prominent lecturer, journalist, and celebrated orator on the chautauqua stage is Dr. Ira Landrith who is coming to Holland on Tuesday, June 3 and will speak at the Third Reformed church at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Landrith will speak on the liquor question and apparently has his subject well in hand, having been an outstanding leader in Prohibition reform for the past 25 years. In the campaign for the adoption of the 18th amendment he spoke in practically every state in the union and in most of them many times.

Dr. Landrith is a forceful speaker, and his discourse on "Demon Rum" and the Volstead act will no doubt be of great interest to this community.

All are cordially invited to attend this meeting on the evening of June 3rd.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED WILD SWAN NEAR MONROE

Deputy Game Warden Lawrence Duvall of Monroe has been keeping a day and night vigil over 1500 wild swan floating a few hundred feet from the shore of Stony Point near there for the last few days.

The swan compose the largest flock ever seen on the Monroe marshes and remind old timers of the great sun-darkening flights that went through that section of the century ago. They appeared there Friday from the south and headed straight into the Point where they have since been feeding with perfect security.

Duvall says the birds often swim within easy gunshot of shore and that Monday they brazenly permitted a motion picture out of Toledo to shoot a thousand feet of film at them without finding it necessary to hide behind a screen or blind on shore.

The Warden ascribes the fearlessness of the birds to their realization that protection under the Federal Migratory Bird Law Act awaits them wherever they go. He says more ducks and geese are in the marshes than ever before in his memory.

Suckers are running.

And if we are to believe the stories we hear the lowly sucker at this time of year is not to be despised. It is the season that he is in prime condition. Of course it may take a bit of time to extract the bones from a sucker, or better still, to take the meat out of the bones, but it is worth the labor, we are told. Many native sons of old The Walton open the fishing season with a whirl at the moving suckers in our frigid streams.

Sam J. McMinn was in the office the other day and informed us that he got a most unique Christmas present this year. He had two pairs of shoes in his closet which he had not worn for some time. The other day, when it was rainy, he decided to put on a pair of them, and when he went to get them he found that they were full of the finest kind of hickory nuts. Upon investigation he found that a little chipmunk, which has come into the closet through a hole, had also filled another pair of shoes with the hickory nuts. He got about a peck of fine nuts from four shoes.—Maple Hill Press.

Mrs. Nina Rockwell is very ill at her home, 209 River avenue.

GRAND HAVEN CLUB GIVEN DEED TO FINE PROPERTY

The Unitarian church property in Grand Haven has been formally deeded to the Grand Haven Women's club on condition that it can never be sold except with the consent of the Grand Haven city council and that the Woman's club pay $100 a year for the upkeep of Duncan park. The property is located near the downtown business district on Washington-st. and is very valuable. The Unitarian society has now passed out of existence, having been founded here with a very strong following in 1875.

The Unitarian church has always been the home of the Woman's club since its organization more than 30 years ago. The property, situated as it is, has become very valuable as it is entirely free of any debt. The Unitarian society of Grand Haven was organized in 1875. Its membership roll contains a very large percentage of the names present generation there mentioned as having been influential in the intellectual and material development of the city.

LARGE ELECTRIC SIGN PUT UP

One of the largest electric signs in Holland has been put up now in front of the Pieper Jewelry store on West 8th street. The sign contains 150 electric bulbs. At the top appears the picture of a diamond. Just below it on a cross piece 5 and a half feet wide the word "Jewelry" is written. At the base of the sign is a similar cross-piece on which the word "Optometrist" appears, and just below that the picture of an eye. The arm connecting these two crosspieces contains the name "Pieper's" and is 17 feet and eight inches long. Along this arm there is a running border of crows with colored heads. The electric lights are on an alternating current with a voltage of 110.

Mat Knooihuizen of Minneapolis, Minn., who has been visiting relatives in Holland and vicinity for the last week, returned to his home in that city.

Superintendent R. B. Champion of the Board of Public Works has had all the boulevard light standards repainted a battle-ship gray.

CASTLE PARK TO OPEN SEASON ON JUNE 20TH

On June 20th Castle Park will open its portals to Michigan's summer visitors for its thirtieth season. Since the original owner held sway there the old place has undergone many changes. Mr. Parr who conducted it for twenty-one years as a summer resort improved it much during his time but it remained for the present owners, Messrs. Brown and Wilkie, to practically make the place over.

The grounds have been made more beautiful by just the right amount of clearing, and the golf course has been improved until it is one of the best small private courses in the state.

The out-door Grecian Amphitheatre is one of Michigan's beauty spots, as many of our Holland people who have witnessed some of the fine performances there can attest. This season Helen Wing, the Chicago musician who is not unknown in these parts, is to have complete management of the plays, concerts, pageants, and other entertainments to be given there. Already much talent of the finest quality has been secured, so that any Holland people who wish to drive out any Friday evening during July and August will be assured of entertainment of the highest order.

Horse back riding will be featured again this season. Mr. Brown who has just arrived from the south has brought with him eight Kentucky and Tennessee gaited saddle horses.

Among other improvements this year is a complete new water works system, giving ample fire protection to all the cottages. A large addition to the automobile parking sheds is being installed. Mr. Brown who is now on the premises, will be glad to see any of his Holland friends at any time.

Martin Fransburg, the produce dealer on Central ave., who left for the Netherlands some ten weeks ago, will return the latter part of June. Mr. Fransburg will sail from Rotterdam on June 11. The Holland man has visited nearly every part of the Netherlands of interest. He writes that he sat in the same pew in a church in a small town in Vriesland where his mother and he sat 50 years ago and visited all the old stores and places of business in the little burg where he was born. Only a few changes have taken place during his absence.

CREEDS ARE IGNOR- ED AT FATHER NYE'S FUNERAL

Grand Rapids Herald.—As a touching tribute to the high esteem with which he was regarded in his home town and his zealous efforts in carrying out his duties as a priest, a large delegation, composed of citizens of several creeds and representing Holland and the city of his last labors, was present at the funeral mass for Rev. George L. Nye, former pastor of St. Francis De Sales Catholic church of that city, at St. Andrews cathedral Thursday morning.

The requiem mass was said by Rev. George Planigan, of Vernon, classmate of the dead priest; more than 50 priests from all parts of the diocese were present. Rev. Dennis Behan of Parnell, acted as deacon. Rev. Frederick Ryan, Harrisville, subdeacon, and Rev. A. M. Fitzpatrick, D. D. of this city, master of ceremonies. Six priests acted as pall-bearers.

Rev. John P. Ruba of St. Joseph's seminary, in preaching the sermon, explained the duties and hardships of a priest, who, as the ambassador of Christ is sent "to teach all nations" and then touchingly referred to the dead priest's life in which were so many acts of charity that gained him his host of friends in all walks of life.

Following the services the body was borne to the family lot in St. Andrew's cemetery.

SAYS DRINKING FOUNTAINS HERE ARE FILTHY

Shall the so-called "sanitary" drinking fountains be abolished and shall the city return to the ancient system of drinking out of a rusty tin dipper?

That question sounds ridiculous but it was asked today in earnest by a citizen who had made the rounds of the city's drinking fountains and who declared that they were almost without exception so dirty that no one with any sensitiveness would care to drink from them.

He declared that whatever the drinking fountains may be in reality they do not look sanitary and that a sensitive person cannot very well be made to believe that they are sanitary. He asserted that most of the fountains he had taken occasion to inspect were filthy looking places, with rings of dirt about the bowl and so uninviting looking that he would not care to use them and he could not see how anybody else would.

"I don't know who is supposed to keep them clean," he said; "perhaps nobody is supposed to look after them. But one thing I know, the city would be much better off without any drinking fountains than if they are to be kept in the condition in which most of those we have now are kept most of the time. A visitor to Holland told me that he was astonished at the fountains, that he noticed the streets were kept clean, the whole town had an unusually neat and cleanly appearance but that some of the drinking fountains almost turned his stomach when he merely looked at them."

The fact is that health authorities everywhere are far less enthusiastic about drinking fountains than they were at one time. The fountain looked better in theory than it has proved in practice. While it is an advance over the dipper it does not serve the purpose as ideally as was hoped at first and there are frequently discussions among the health officials at conventions as to how the drawbacks of the fountain can be overcome. But it is universally agreed that drinking fountains ought at least to be kept scrupulously clean.

SURPRISE LINDEN SHOWER

GIVEN FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Mr. and Mrs. P. Zeerip gave a surprise linden shower at their home on West 13th Wednesday night in honor of their niece Miss Rena Bazan who will be a June bride. Miss Bazan is head of the stenographic department of the Holland Furnace Company. Beautiful gifts in linen were received. The house was decorated with apple blossoms, and a pink and white color scheme was carried out. A mock marriage was performed, and games and music were features of the evening. Prizes were won by Mildred Slag and Margaret Slag. A light luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Gertrude Bazan, Anne Bazan, Margaret Massa, Lillian Hansen, Anne VanPutten, Jeanette DeKoster, Frances DeWeerd, Mae DeJonge, Martha Tors, Gertrude Jonker, Carrie Tien, Mildred Slag, Marion Kurz, Coral Bremer, Marie Helftje, Jeanette Poest, Esther Bazan, Margaret Slaghuys, Agnes Dogger, Marion Bazan and Mr. and Mrs. Cauwe.

LITTLE ALLEGAN

JERSEY COW MAKES GOOD RECORD

Sophia, a pure bred Jersey cow of an Allegan herd, is not much larger than some 6-months-old calves, but she goes to prove that some of the best dairy animals come in small packages. She freshened at 1 year and 4 months of age, and in the following nine months and twenty days while a member of an Allegan county cow testing association she did herself proud — producing 6,086 pounds of milk and 326 pounds of butter fat, or more than twice the yearly production of the average Michigan cow.

Good ancestors, especially good purebred sires, plus liberal feeding enabled this little cow to "hit on all four cylinders" and make her owner, William Knobloch of Allegan, a substantial profit. She is one of many good purebred Jerseys in Knobloch's herd.

Sophia with her stablemates averaged 479.9 pounds of butter fat for the year and won the cup offered by Allegan bankers for the best herd in testing work in Allegan county.

MASTER IS PRESENTED

TO SAUGATUCK LODGE

At a special meeting of past masters of Saugatuck F. and A. M., last evening, T. W. Leland, one of the oldest past masters, presided. Frederick Fursman of the Saugatuck Summer school of Printing, in a pleasant speech of presentation, gave to the lodge a life-size painting of Mr. Leland.

A response of appreciation from the lodge was made by S. L. Newnham. A banquet followed.

Dick Boter of the P. S. Boter Co. is in Chicago on business. Mrs. R. Wiggers left for Chicago Friday morning for a four weeks' visit.

GRACE CHURCH VOTES TO TAKE FORWARD STEP

A forward step has been taken by the congregation of Grace Episcopal church that practically means the beginning of a rejuvenated and revived church. Because it is one of the smaller churches in Holland it has not been able to cut as large a figure in the city's religious life as many other congregations but new life has been injected into the church by the step taken.

Grace church will make improvements in church buildings at a cost of about $7,000. While this may seem a small sum as compared with sums expended by other congregations, it is as large for Grace church as several times that amount for some of the other congregations. The decision to go ahead with the improvements was reached at a parish dinner of the congregation.

The improvements will consist of a complete renovation of the church and the erection of a new parish hall. The work on these improvements will begin immediately and it will be pushed to completion as soon as possible.

Archdeacon Vercoe of Grand Rapids was present at the parish dinner and he made an address in which he warmly congratulated the congregation on their forward step. An address was also made by the Rev. D. D. Douglas, rector of the church, and by the members of the vestry, Otto P. Kramer, J. J. McClay, A. B. Ayers, William Slater and Oscar Nystrom. Several members of the congregation, representing the various church societies, also made addresses in support of the forward step.

FEW TORNADOES IN WEST MICHIGAN REPORT SHOWS

In the Muskegon Chronicle C. D. R. Mulder, Muskegon insurance man, formerly of Spring Lake, comments on the fact that there are but few tornado insurance policies in force in Muskegon. Not more than a dozen tornado policies are now in effect in Muskegon, he says.

"It is because there has not been a tornado in this section," explains Mr. Mulder. "In some places in the state there is plenty of tornado insurance and this is because within the last few years there has been a tornado in that section. Once a tornado visits a section, there is a rush for this variety of insurance."

Although no checkup has been made here it is not likely that the number of tornado policies in Grand Haven is any larger in proportion. Grand Haven has had few tornadoes, although it has not entirely escaped. Several times high winds have unroofed some buildings and smashed up things in general. As a rule, however, the city is pretty well protected from sudden high wind storms by the high sand dunes which almost surround the city.

The senior play, "His Uncle's Niece" was very creditably given Friday evening to a large audience in the high school auditorium at Saugatuck. Much praise was given the performance as well as Mrs. Jackson and Miss Manion who directed the play. The proceeds go to the school library.

MAKES ATTACK ON MASHING EVIL IN ZEELAND

The Zeeland Record this week makes an onslaught on the 'mashing' evil in that city and makes a call for laws that shall stop this nuisance there. Says the Record:

"It is not so many months since we called attention to a condition in Zeeland that prevails only to our shame. There is no other city in this section of the state or anywhere that I know of, where young men are permitted to accost any girl or young woman or even married women with impunity. Zeeland has permitted itself to be known for this everywhere. We have even found men of supposedly sound mind who defend this condition with the plea that young people should be allowed to meet. I should prefer to have my children meet their future helpmates in different fashion."

"The trouble lies not in the introductions in the open after 9 p. m. It lies in the fact that mobs (and we mean mobs) of boys and young men promenade our streets Sunday evenings with the avowed intention of 'mashing' anything and everything in sight, accosting girls they've never seen before. Early in the evening automobiles may be seen driving in and lining the streets waiting for the churches to let out. Bunches of young men may be seen on the sidewalks waiting for a 'match'. Some of these are not at all choice in their expressions but will fling suggestive and insinuating remarks at passersby irrespective of who hears them. Automobiles will drive up and down the streets, stopping opposite any girl or woman to offer them a ride; they will stop in the middle of the streets, in front of other machines and yell their invitations; they will stop directly on the cross-walks, stopping girls who intend to cross, to invite them to ride; they will flash spot lights in every woman's face they see fit; and will shoot their headlights on bright, in order that they may see, to the discomfort of every one in their range; and they will do many other things we don't care to mention."

"That is a glimpse of the condition that invites young men of every degree of character here on Sunday nights. And that is the reason so many are found on the roads leading to Zeeland during the hour of church service."

"What we desire to emphatically say again is that this city needs stringent laws against this 'mashing business,' and it needs to be strictly enforced."

NETHERLANDS MINISTER TO COME TO HOLLAND

Jonkheer DeGraeff, minister at Washington for the Netherlands, will be in Grand Rapids June 4 and 5 as the guest of Consul and Mrs. Jacob Steketee, and will address the Women's Republican club, of which Mrs. Steketee is president, at noon, June 4, on "The House of Orange and Queen Wilhelmina."

Minister DeGraeff plans to visit Grand Rapids industries during his sojourn there and an automobile trip to Holland and return is planned as part of the entertainment program for him.

Charles Karr of the Holland Furniture Co. is in Chicago on business.

Mrs. Minnie Humphrie and daughter Martha of Burlington, Wis., are visiting Mrs. Humphrie's mother, Mrs. Rockwell, and her sisters, Miss Bessie Rockwell and Mrs. Henry Kraker.

MANY CHANGES ARE MADE IN COAST GUARD

Announcement was made at the district superintendent's office of Grand Haven of the United States Coast Guard that quite a number of shifts had been made in the Tenth district relative to keepers and number one surfmen. A vacancy was made recently by the retirement of Captain Jacob Van Weelden of the Macatawa station and Sam Toft, former keeper at Sleeping Bear, was made the keeper of Macatawa station. Keeper Toft has already entered upon service in his new post.

In rearranging the assignments at the stations due to the necessity of filling vacancies caused by Captain Van Weelden's retirement it was found that five changes had to be made, several increasing the rank and station of men in the service.

Oscar Smith, former keeper at South Manitou Island, has been placed in charge of the Sleeping Bear Coast Guard station to take the place of Sam Toft. William Fisher, former Grand Haven man, has been placed in charge of the South Manitou Island station. Mr. Fisher was included in the two man White Lake station organization about a year ago but he was promoted to the North Manitou station with rank of keeper. His new assignment is really a promotion as the South Manitou station is a "life-boat station" and is very important.

The North Manitou Island post is to be filled by David Furst, former bos'n's mate at Charlevoix. He was raised in rank to chief bos'n's mate. George Kilterhouse, of Muskegon, has been transferred to Charlevoix to take Furst's place. The assignment of number one surfman at Muskegon has not yet been made.

ANOTHER TON

Six weeks ago
I went below
And told the good wife
And the son
We'd finish out
Beyond a doubt
With possibly
Another ton.

In two weeks more
I looked it over
Believing winter
Almost done.
Again I said,
May's just ahead
We need about
Another ton."

Then later on
When that was gone
I prophesied
The gentle sun
Would soon return
But we might burn
Perhaps another
Half a ton.

No longer I
Shall prophesy.
Or vow that winter's
On the run,
Spring may be near
But still I fear
We've got to have
Another ton.

LOCAL

Some daring youngsters including one young lady who were bound to hear Wm. Jennings Bryan in Carnegie Hall Sunday and simply couldn't get in at the door, climbed up the fire escape and gained entrance in that way.

A fugitive after being searched for several hours by the Kent County sheriff and many deputies, was finally found in the jail. The necessity of guard duty was more carefully considered to be apparent to every one.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Van Voort celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last week and Mrs. Van Voort her 50th birthday anniversary at the same time. It was in the nature of a pleasant surprise party.

The First Ave. Braves won a 13 to 8 victory over the Confectionary Loafers Saturday. J. Van Iwaarden pitched for the winners, allowing only 3 hits and W. Wolters pitched for the losers.

Rev. Root led the C. E. meet at the Third Reformed church Sunday evening. He spoke on the topic, "Does Commerce and Industry aid or hinder the missionary work in foreign fields?"

The Hope baseball team covered approximately 30 miles on their last trip, visiting such places of interest as Albion, Battle Creek, Jackson, Ann Arbor and Pontiac. 14 men made the trip by bus.

The Memorial day program at Sparta Friday will be in charge of Rudolph Lekturm post of the American Legion. Rev. M. R. Austin of Zeeland will give the main address and the Legion band will play during the exercises at the cemetery.

"Speeders are even caught at midnight. Abel Dogger was gathered in by Officer Cramer Monday morning at 11:20 going 80 miles on West 17th street. He pleaded guilty before Justice Brusse who assessed him the usual fine of $3.70.

Dr. E. J. Blekkink returned Saturday night from New Brunswick, N. J., where he gave the charge to the new professor of systematic theology at the New Brunswick Theological Seminary at the installation services for Dr. Wooster.

"The weather man surely was off Sunday. The report given out was fair with rising temperature. Instead there was a light frost early Sunday morning followed by a drenching rain winding up with snow Sunday forenoon. The fair weather did not come until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Surely a Michigan variety for May 25.

Dr. Cornelius M. Steffens, president emeritus of the University of Dubuque, Iowa, who is attending the Presbyterian assembly in Grand Rapids was the guest Saturday and Sunday of his sisters, Mrs. R. C. Devries and Mrs. Geo. W. VanHess. Dr. Steffens graduated from Hope College in 1902.

The Young Men's Bible Class at First Reformed church led by Mr. Dick Boker, had 104 in attendance on last Sunday. About 85 are regular attendants and the visitors were mostly war veterans who were given a special invitation. The class meets every Sunday at 11:15 and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Wm. Jennings Bryan surely had a busy day Sunday. He spoke Sunday morning at the Central Reformed church on the subject "All." In the afternoon he was taken to Holland by Mr. Nick Jonker, president of the Men's Bible class of Trinity and committee where he spoke. He was then whisked back to Grand Rapids in time to speak on the subject "It Is Written," at Wealthy Ave. Baptist church. In every instance hundreds were turned away not being able to enter these different places of meeting.

You cannot park autos in the college campus. This was demonstrated during the Bryan meeting Sunday when President Dimment announced the license numbers of four cars parked in the grounds and requested that the owners remove them as autos were not allowed near college buildings because of certain insurance regulations in vogue and all autos must remain parked on the four streets adjacent to the campus.

Working on trains for 31 years and traveling approximately 1,000,000 miles without figuring in a wreck or accident is the record of P. F. Collins mail clerk on the Grand Rapids-Chicago division of the P. M. railway. Collins entered the express service 31 years ago on the St. Paul railway and traveled on every road through Wisconsin. Ten years later he entered the railway mail service. He served on the Grand Rapids-Chicago line for 19 years and has been coming through Holland daily ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bouwmaster of Muskegon, and Mr. and Mrs. John Homfeld of Holland, visited relatives in Kalamazoo Sunday.

Attorney T. N. Robinson of Holland was the principal speaker at a banquet given by the Knights of Columbus in the art hall at the Allegan fairgrounds. There were covers laid for 400 and judging from the Allegan papers the affair was a brilliant success. In short they quote Mr. Robinson as saying that the duty of every citizen is to stand by the constitution and the law and this obedience to law cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our guiding spirit is religion. We should be self-sacrificing and be happy in the thought that we can do something for others and not always hoping that others can do something for us.

What might have proven a serious accident occurred on the Saugatuck road Saturday evening when Harold De Pree and his Buick left the highway. The rain had sogged the road-side to such an extent that the earth around a culvert had washed away and when the front wheels of the car struck the tiling, the car swerved around rolling over into the ditch. The front end of the car was quite badly damaged as was the top. Outside of a few cuts from glass the young man was not seriously injured.

The girls' glee club of Hope college gave as fine a concert as any glee club in the country Monday evening in Winants chapel. The chapel was comfortably filled and the program was executed in an artistic manner bringing enthusiastic rounds of applause.

Mrs. Fenton being indisposed, Miss Cornelia Nettinga sang the obligato solos in her stead. The young ladies were assisted by Miss Nella Meyer who played group 4 on the program with fine interpretation.

The members of the girls' glee club for the first time wore their professional gowns. They are navy blue, lined and trimmed with orange satin, navy blue and orange being the college colors.

During the Bryan meeting at Carnegie Hall President Dimment requested that many citizens who had crowded their way into the building leave. Chief Blom of the local fire department had ordered that all exits be vacated and the aisles be kept clear of people. To comply with the Michigan State law regulating over-crowded buildings, many were compelled to go in order to play safe in case of fire or a stampede. Mr. Dimment expressed his regrets that the building was not again as large so all could be accommodated, but since it was not he was compelled to make the request for the safety of the vast majority who could remain. Chief Van Ry also had his men on hand at Carnegie and also at the street intersections taking care of the auto jam.

A number of complaints have come in recently of cottages in the vicinity of the Getz Farm being broken into. The motive of the house breaking is evidently not robbery but it is supposed that it is the work of boys who enter the cottages for the sake of having a good time. In one place they had broken out a window and so opened the catch. In another place they pried open the door by removing part of the lock. The owner of one cottage found the door open five times and in some other cottages there were signs of the revelry that had been held.

So bad has the situation become that cottage owners have taken steps to protect themselves and the persons who have been engaging in this practice are going to find themselves in trouble. They probably do not realize that house breaking is a very serious offense and that it can mean a term in the penitentiary. In point of law it is just as serious to break into a cottage as it is to break into a house in the city.

A May programme was given for the parents and friends of the pupils of the primary and intermediate grades of our school Tuesday afternoon in community hall. The exercises were attended by a number of parents and the programme was much enjoyed. The winding of the Maypole was one of the most interesting features. The two teachers, Miss Mary Weaves and Miss Jeanette Koolker, deserve much credit for the success of the entertainment.

The consistory of the American Reformed church presented Miss Frances Koolker, who taught the classes in catechism of the American Reformed church during the period while the church was without a regular pastor with a fountain pen and a silk umbrella in appreciation of her services. Miss Koolker was also given a surprise party by the members of the catechism.

BIBLE TRUE OR
GREATEST FRAUD,
DECLARES BRYAN

Not in years has there been such an enthusiastic meeting in Holland as when William Jennings Bryan spoke in Carnegie Hall on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Bryan had been secured by the Men's Bible class of Trinity Reformed church and the meeting was held under the auspices of that organization. He had been secured at short notice but Carnegie hall was crowded with every seat on the main floor and in the galleries occupied. Hundreds were unable to get into the building and remained standing on the walk in front of the hall hoping to get a glimpse of the Commoner as he came in.

They were more than rewarded. Seeing that so many who had come to hear him could not get into the building Mr. Bryan made the audience in the hall wait about a half an hour while he addressed those out of doors and the speech delivered there, though briefer, was as eloquent as the one given in the hall.

The audience came not only from Holland but from all parts of Ottawa and Allegan counties. The news of the Commoner's coming had spread fast and the automobiles lined up along the streets gave an idea of how many had come to hear him. There was practically a solid line of cars from 10th to 13th street on College avenue on both sides of the street and from College to Columbia on 12th street.

N. J. Jonker, president of the Men's Bible class presided. Rev. C. P. Dame introduced Mr. Diekema as the chairman and pronounced the benediction. Herman Cook led in the singing of several hymns while the audience was waiting and music was also furnished by the men's quartet of the Trinity Bible class and by the Hope Girls' Glee club.

Squarely placing in juxtaposition the theory of evolution and Christianity, William Jennings Bryan, in his address Sunday afternoon in Carnegie Hall, declared with positive conviction that the one excluded the other and that no one could be both. His subject was, "Is the Bible True?" and he answered that with all the old fire of the born orator, using all the parts practiced by him since his first entry into public life—argument, invective, appeal, ridicule, humor. He showed himself to be still one of the most eloquent men in America today and to have lost none of his oratorical vigor.

G. J. Diekema having introduced him with the suggestion that although he and Mr. Bryan had always been in opposite political camps they were at one on the great question that formed the theme of the afternoon, Mr. Bryan gracefully and without effort launched out on his theme from that idea, declaring that politics only touched the surface of things while religion was fundamental. He held that religion underlies politics and all other human activities, that it is at the root of everything and that the points of similarity between men in the field of religion are far more vital and far more important than the points of difference that separate men politically.

Mr. Bryan prefaced the main body of his discussion by proposing the dilemma that either the Bible is true or otherwise it is the greatest fraud of history. There is no middle ground, according to Mr. Bryan. The Bible is either the inspired word of God or otherwise it is fraudulent and should be dragged down and annihilated. It is either a book, he said, that outweighs in importance all other books the world has ever produced and is of a different and higher character than any other book or else it is an imposition that should be destroyed. He left no doubt as to which of the horns of this dilemma he himself took.

Mr. Bryan declared that there are two kinds of evolution, atheistic evolution and theistic evolution. He classed Darwin with the former and he suggested, although he did not say so in so many words, that Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick and the other so-called "modernists" belong in the latter class. Of the two, he said the theistic evolutionist is the more dangerous. The atheistic evolutionist, he said, shocks one and immediately arouses one's fighting blood to opposition, but the theistic evolutionist tends to lull one to sleep and he insidiously, under cover of pretended Christianity, emasculates the religion of Jesus so that in the end there is little left of the fundamental concepts of that faith.

There are, said Mr. Bryan, three verses in the first chapter of the Bible that are of more importance than all the other books that have ever been written combined, of more importance in explaining the universe and man's place in the scheme of things than all the thousands of books that the thousands of evolutionists have written.

The first of these texts, he said, is "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." That, he declared, is a better explanation of the origin of life than all the explanations given by evolutionists. The second verse he cited is the one in which God said, "Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind," which Mr. Bryan declared is a better explanation of reproduction of life upon the earth than all the learned explanations of the origin of species and the descent of man of the scientists. And the third important verse he cited was the one in which man is said to have been made in the image of God and to have been given dominion over all creatures. These three verses, declared Mr. Bryan, outweigh in importance anything and everything that man has ever written, the one explaining the origin of life, the second the reproduction of life and third, the meaning of life upon the earth.

Mr. Bryan asserted that a great many people who believe in evolution do not know what evolution means. He asserted that many confuse growth and development with evolution and he said the two were not at all the same. Any sane person believes in growth and development. The egg develops into the hen but before you can have another egg, you have to have another hen. Evolution, he said, means that the thousands of species upon the earth have not been specifically created each after its kind but that they have all developed from a single germ of life. And then, he said, the evolutionists do not explain where that germ came from.

In dealing with the theory of evolution Mr. Bryan used the method of ridicule very effectively. Substituting it for scientific argument, he heaped scorn upon the heads of those who advocate the theory of evolution and made their hypothesis

Announcement!

We wish to acknowledge with thanks the manner in which the motoring public of Holland have accepted our new patented Motor Fuel and for the many good things they have told us about it. Some drivers are skeptical about putting anything with their gasoline and to these we wish to state that there is no acid or any chemical in our Motor Fuel that can possibly injure any part of the motor.

We have already had numerous inquiries for our product from various parts of the country, one of these coming from a large oil company in a distant Western State.

Saturday morning our new product will be placed on sale in Grand Rapids. The Grimes & Madigan Oil Company, independent distributors of oils in that city will dispense it from all of their service stations. Holland motorists who happen to be in Grand Rapids will be able to obtain our new Motor Fuel at any of their stations just as Grand Rapids motorists have been securing it at our stations in Holland. We are gradually introducing it in all the towns around Holland but are not as yet in a position to supply distant towns. However we are pleased to note the publicity we have already received in many places outside of Michigan as it simply verifies our statements that this new patented Motor Fuel has real merit.

—which word, he said, was merely a long word meaning "guess"—appeared ridiculous. He declared that the theory of evolution was purely and simply a guess and not a reasonable guess at that. He declared that he preferred to believe the reasonable explanation of the universe contained in the Bible and that he preferred to believe that the Bible was the inspired word of God.

The burden of the proof rests upon the evolutionists, he declared. They must prove their case and they must advance a more reasonable explanation of the universe than is contained in the Bible before it is reasonable to accept their hypothesis. And until they do that they have no moral right, he said, speak of their case as proved and so to teach the theory of evolution in the colleges and universities. But, he said, they are doing that very thing and so are undermining the faith of thousands of students. They are substituting the education of the head for that of the heart and are undermining society and civilization because education that is not based on the sense of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, that is not in the interest of service, is dangerous instead of being valuable. The colleges and universities, he declared, must come back to the Bible and must be based on it as the inspired word of God.

The Christian religion, said Mr. Bryan, is facing a serious crisis because of this conflict between Christianity and evolution. He pointed out that that evolution has invaded the churches and that there is a death struggle between the two opposing forces. He referred briefly to Dr. Fosdick who, he said, requires two denominations to disturb, and he said that many ministers of the gospel are committed to the theory of evolution. They are preaching it and they are gradually taking away from the Bible its divine origin and its inspired character. They deny the origin of the universe as given in Genesis and this step by step leads them to deny the divine authorship of the Bible. They deny the miracles, the virgin birth, the divinity of Jesus, and gradually reduce the Bible to a book that has no more significance than any book.

Mr. Bryan made a passionate plea to fight this point of view and to join a militant movement to combat the forces that are trying to destroy the Bible as the inspired word of God.

The Community fair secretary, John Arendshorst, today mailed checks to the prize winners in the contest that was put on for the best design for the Holland fair premium book. The contest was open to the art pupils in Holland high school and quite a few of them entered the race. Several drawings were deemed good enough by the art teacher to submit to the judges and of these three won prizes.

First prize of $5 went to Helen Eberhardt, second prize of $3 to Mable Crowell, and third prize of $2 to Alida VanderWerf.

Driving in a downpour of rain, assisted by an ever rising wind, the funeral train that bore Mrs. Irene Fortney to her final resting place in Olive Center cemetery made its way over the bee line road through swishing, wet gravel. Funeral services were conducted from the home at 1:30 and from the Methodist church at 2:30. After the services at the church the funeral train bound for the Olive Center cemetery formed.

Eleven cars, well filled with mourners, followed the hearse through the rain and out to the little country burial ground where Mrs. Fortney will rest side by side with her husband and a child who passed away long ago. Rev. Skinner, who conducted the services at both home and church, read a short burial service and offered a prayer before the bare-headed cluster of mourners who knelt at the grave in the downpour that was then falling.

The four sons of Mrs. Fortney, Delbert, Murvine, Albert and Fay, as well as Charles Halk and Bea Rosema, undersheriffs, acted as pall-bearers.

Large and enthusiastic audiences gathered at both services at Grace Episcopal church Sunday and the services were of special interest because of the confirmation exercises. In the forenoon the rector, Rev. D. D. Douglas, preached on the subject, "The Seven Lamps of Architecture," of Ruskin.

In the evening Bishop McCormick, bishop of the diocese of Western Michigan, administered the apostolic rite of confirmation to Calvin Tardiff, Mrs. Calvin Tardiff, Mathilde (Gertrude) Nelson, Josephine Ayers, Helen Edith Smith, Earl Tuna Zeal and George Henry Zeal.

The service was very impressive and beautiful and Bishop McCormick delivered an eloquent and impressive sermon. His theme was the sacrament of confirmation as outlined in the New Testament and as generally required by the preaching of the apostles, and the need for the seven-fold gift of the holy spirit. Bishop McCormick complimented the rector and congregation on the progressive step that is about to be taken in connection with the renovation of the church and the erection of a new parish hall.

After the services the organist of St. Paul's cathedral of Grand Rapids gave an organ recital, and Mr. Pindar, also of St. Paul's, rendered a solo.

The most recent gift to the Hope college museum is that of a collection of curios of Japan presented by Mrs. A. Walvorod in honor of her husband Rev. Anthony Walvorod who was missionary to Japan for a number of years and died on the foreign field. The collection contains among other things a set of three hand-made Japanese chairs with hand carvings. The chairs are made for the use of foreigners. There are a Japanese Bible, hand-carved and decorated chop sticks, Japanese dishes and bowls in gold and red and black, a brass image of the Buddha, etc. This collection with the rest of the Japanese souvenirs now fills one complete alcove of the museum.

Other gifts made to the museum this year include the S. M. Zwemer collection of curios from the Egyptian Soudan, China and India, a number of Chinese curios from the region of Amoy, by Rev. Henry De Pree; some curios from the Zuni Indians of New Mexico, by Harry Meyerling, a former student in the Preparatory school, and a collection of sea shells from the Florida coast by Malcolm Dull, a sophomore student in Hope college.

The museum will be open for public inspection on Wednesday, Thursday 3-5 P. M. of this week, and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the following week 3-5 P. M. Children must be accompanied by parents or teachers.

Issuance of warrants in the death of Mrs. Francis Nivevabltowski, Chicago woman barber, depends upon a report of State Chemist Blas, Prosecuting Attorney Ira C. Montague of Allegan county said Friday following exhumation of the body in Manitowish township Thursday. Mrs. Nivevabltowski died a week ago while visiting her husband, a farmer. Conflicting reports concerning the cause of death prompted Sheriff Leo C. Hare of Allegan and the prosecutor to exhumate the body. A coroner's inquest then was held at Saugatuck with Justice Hermon Simonson officiating.

According to testimony at the inquest Mrs. Nivevabltowski came from Chicago a week ago Sunday. She was driven to the farm by Tony Gaura, a Chicago chauffeur. Gaura testified on Thursday that Mrs. Nivevabltowski collapsed as she got into the machine to start back to Chicago.

"I'm blind," she cried, as she then swooned, the chauffeur testified.

She died the next day.

Gaura denied he had made statements concerning disposal by Mr. Nivevabltowski of a bottle containing wood alcohol.

The young women of Holland and Zeeland met in a community mission conference with the Overseas society on Wednesday evening, May 28, at 7:30 P. M. (standard). They drove over in large delegations from the Reformed churches in the district. The speakers of the evening were: Mrs. H. V. B. Stegeman of Japan, Mrs. Bert Hekhuis of India, Miss Marie Zwemer of Kentucky. The music consisted of a double quartet in charge of Mrs. John Koolker, a music reading by Alida Vander Werf, with Miss Jennie Karsten at the organ. Miss Mattie Dekker led the devotions, and reports given of the year's results from the boards. These spring conferences have been held for several years and always have a large attendance. This year it was planned to effect a permanent organization with an executive council consisting of the presidents of the young women's societies and the synodical and classical representatives of the domestic and foreign boards. Miss Hanna G. Hoekje and Miss Jeanette Westover were in charge of the conference and Mrs. M. A. Stegeman made local arrangements at Overseas.

The Holland Independents knocked off another victory Saturday, making 4 wins out of 5 starts, the Benton Harbor Dukes being the victims this time. The game was another old time slug fest the locals cracking out 17 hits for a total of 14 runs against the visitors 11 hits and 9 runs. Japfing ran away with the hitting honors making 5 clean hits out of as many times at bat. Busby started on the mound for the visitors but retired under a severe bombardment in favor of Johnson who fared no better. The locals had on their batting togs and all pitchers looked alike. Hoover twirled for the locals and although hit pretty hard breezed along in easy fashion. In the early part of the game the visitors were on the long end of the score. The locals however tied the count in the 5th only to lose the lead again in the next game. But it seemed that when the visitors scored, the local crew came right back with as many. Hoover was assisted by some brilliant fielding. G. Batema in centre garden covered acres of ground and made some different catches. Baker of Allegan played short stop for Holland had a few chances but hit well.

The weather was cold and windy more suitable for foot ball and only 200 fans had enough courage to brave the chilly winds. They all were well pleased with a real slug-fest contest and some good base ball. The local players went down in their jeans Saturday to make up the shortage on the receipts but it is hoped that with good weather in the future the deficit in the treasury will be overcome.

Decorations afternoon and the Saturday following the Postum Cereals of Battle Creek came for two games in a row. The locals failed to get a victory over this club last year but are determined to annex two more scalps this week.

Despite the inclement weather of Sunday with its rain and snow, the first reformed church was filled to overflowing to listen to Rev. James Weyer who delivered the Memorial sermon.

The largest number of World War veterans ever participating in these services gathered at the city hall at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, escorting only a handful of the old boys in blue to the church where services were held.

Practically every veteran of the Spanish-American war was also in the lineup and with slow martial tread, with flags flying, the soldiers of unwar wars marched to the church entrance where seats were reserved to receive them.

Rev. James Weyer in his discourse said in part:

"We count it an honor and a privilege this morning to welcome the veterans of the three great wars. War is a terrible thing; so is the surgeon's knife. When circumstances demand it we resort to drastic means. Each war you represent called for heroic measures. The Civil war liberated an enslaved race; the Spanish-American war was fought in behalf of oppressed peoples; the last and greatest, the World War, was to rid mankind of a dangerous militarism. No shame attaches to any of these for they vindicated the high and holy principles for which this nation stands. God crowned our arms with victory."

Valorous Living—the theme of the discourse—was based upon the message to Gideon, found in Judges 6:12, 14. "The Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valor. Go in this thy might." Valorous living requires training. Trials and suffering are Gideon's preparation; the rebuked of God's prophet humbled him, while the vision of God filled him for his noble calling. God still has His prophets to rebuke men and nations.

Valorous living demands the eradication of evil. No man was ever truly great who left some hidden sin in his life. A victory won over self is the only victory acceptable to God. Gideon's victory was decisive and complete.

The hour of triumph is always the critical time in life. "Thou over us." Hero-worship proves a snare to many; it did tempt Gideon. Afterward yielding to a wrong impulse he paved the way for ruin. The bark that all the way across the sea ran straight and speedy, may perish at the haven's mouth.

"What service shall we render our God and country in these critical days? There are foes to fight—social evils. The heritage that has come to us through the struggle of the past calls for valorous living that we may preserve it for our posterity."

The music during the morning service was as follows: Processional "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," anthem, "God of Our Fathers," by Schaecker; solo by Gerrit Ter Beek "The Lord is My Light," by Allison.

The thoughtfulness of Rev. F. J. VanDyke and the hospitality of the Central Park church turned disappointment to gladness for the pupils of Lake View school yesterday.

Graduation exercises, including a picnic for the parents and a field-day for the youngsters, made Friday afternoon and evening a happy holiday to which the district looked forward. But the rain came and the gloom settled heavily. But Rev. M. VanDyke made it possible for the Parent-Teachers club to secure the hall and the novelty of holding a field-day indoors was thus made possible.

Not all of the contests were held as scheduled but those remaining were pulled off on the school grounds Monday. The foot races, ball and these events are scheduled by way of a continuation of the field-day on Monday next at 6:30 p. m. on the school grounds. The foot races, ball game between fathers and sons and other contests for which very substantial prizes have been provided by the merchants of Holland will take place.

A report of the winners will be made in Tuesday's Sentinel. A delicious picnic dinner was served by the ladies of the Parent-Teachers' club which completed the first day of the happiness to be continued on Monday evening.

1,250 CATTLE ARE SHIPPED UNDER TB. BAN FROM OTTAWA

To date, 50 carloads, or 1,250 head, of cattle, have been shipped from Ottawa county as reacting to the tuberculosis test since the campaign started. The bovine tuberculosis eradication campaign in this county is now nearing a close and it is expected that it will be completed in the next two weeks. The plans call for the start of the campaign in Muskegon county as soon as it is completed in Ottawa. While the number of cattle reacting to the test in Ottawa seems large it is remarked by officials that there are 35,000 head in this county. So, unless there is a marked increase in the number of cattle reacting to the test during the last weeks of the campaign, the number will not be so great as anticipated by some before the drive started.

Dr. Eldon Smith, Muskegon milk inspector, visited Ottawa county this week to obtain information regarding the campaign here. Muskegon is considered vitally interested in the campaign in this county for two reasons. One is that considerable milk from Ottawa county is sold in Muskegon. The other reason is that Muskegon county herds cannot be kept free of tuberculosis unless it has been eradicated in Ottawa.

There are 20 state veterinarians working in Ottawa county. At first some of the herd owners showed considerable ill feeling over the campaign. Now the feeling is different, it is said. One reason for this is that a good price has been obtained for a large percentage of the cows compared to Detroit, where they undergo another inspection from the federal government to determine whether the meat shall be sold. The owners have received as high as eight cents a pound for the meat.

It is not expected that the percentage of tubercular reactors will be high in Muskegon county. Every indication is that the number will be exceedingly small as practically all herds in Muskegon county have previously undergone the tests. Muskegon dairymen were sold to tuberculosis eradication several years ago.

Muskegon was to have come before Ottawa county, but Muskegon officials waived. They believed that it was more important that Ottawa county should first be freed.

TELLS WHAT HE EXPECTS FROM TEACHERS

What kind of teachers the Holland schools get from year to year is shown in an article by Supt. E. E. Fell in the May issue of the "School Bulletin." The subject of Mr. Fell's article is, "What I Look for When Selecting Teachers." Here it is:

"I have frequently been asked to state what I look for when selecting teachers. First of all I look for character and personality. These two elements are closely interwoven in an individual. Character is the chief objective in the training of young people. The world needs character more than it needs anything else. The individual needs character more than he needs anything else. The child needs to be taught character more than anything else. In trying to obtain this objective, what a teacher speaks louder than what he says.

"Second, I look for academic and professional preparation. A good scholarship record indicates ability and application, which are essential to the successful performance of a piece of work so complicated and so difficult as teaching children. I want adequate special study and training in the particular field in which the teacher expects to work. One should know well what he would teach. One cannot teach what he does not know. A teacher must know children and something of the principles of teaching.

"Third, the teacher whom we want in our school system must have an abundance of professional spirit. He must have the right attitude toward his work. He must have a great desire to help, to inspire, to lead his pupils. He must have the vicarious attitude, the desire and ability to study the reactions of his teaching to each pupil, that he may know how to lead and inspire and teach him. He must have a great desire for self-improvement in order that he may be a better teacher. He must not be a time server, but must feel that teaching is his supreme opportunity. He is a teacher by the grace of God.

"This in brief is what I look for when selecting teachers."

Miss Sadie Albers, who has been clerking in Schutmaat Brothers' Store, was operated on for appendicitis. Miss Albers is doing as nicely as can be expected, reports say.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Wolferding of Sparta, formerly proprietors of the hotel Hamilton were here looking up old friends.

The formal installation of Rev. Herman Potgeter as pastor of the American Reformed church took place the evening of the 15th. Rev. P. P. Chaff of Holland presided and delivered the charge to the pastor, which was preached by Rev. L. Potgeter of Chicago, a brother of the pastor. The sermon to the pastor was preached by Rev. John Roggen, pastor of the First Reformed church of this village; and the sermon to the congregation was preached by Rev. F. J. VanDyke, formerly a pastor of the church here but of the Reformed church of Central Park. Following the installation sermons, the two brothers, Revs. Herman and L. Potgeter, sang a duet, which was listened to with great interest.

Miss Bertha TenBrink has resigned her position with the Holland Furnace Co. and has left with her aunt, Miss Grace VanTatenhove, for a visit in Los Angeles. She spent the week-end in Hamilton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. TenBrink.

BE HAPPY EVERY SINGLE DAY!

In the beginning of Fall weather, everybody ought to be just as happy as can be. Thoughts of coming Winter ought to bring nothing but contentment - the realization of entire security from storm and cold.

Don't stop enjoying life when Winter begins. Why not make your home cozy and cheerful with a HOLLAND Furnace? Winter is the season for more activity, better health and added joy. ### ESTABLISHES PRIZE IN THE MEMORY OF HIS SON

The late Dr. B. B. Godfrey provided in his will for the establishment of a prize at Hope College in the department of chemistry. The announcement was made at the college chapel exercises Friday that Dr. Godfrey had stipulated in his will that the sum of $500 should be paid to the treasurer of Hope college, the interest on which $25 shall be awarded at each commencement time to the Hope College student who shall have won the highest standing in chemistry during the four years of his college course.

WORK ON HOL- LAND-G. R. ROAD 1-4 MILE A DAY

Work on the paving projects in Ottawa county is being pushed as fast as conditions will permit. Pouring of concrete will start on M-16 on Monday and already two miles of pavement has been laid on trunk line 51 between Holland and Grand Rapids. On trunk line 11 west of Holland the resurfacing of the macadam road has been started.

Work is being pushed more rapidly on trunk line 51 than on any other. Four paving machines are employed on this project at present and a quarter of a mile of pavement is laid every day. So far two miles of concrete has been poured. The grading and culvert building on this job is almost complete. Inclement weather and much rain has also aided in holding back work.

The road commission has issued a warning to motor car drivers using the section of M-11 west of Holland to use caution in going past the part under construction. This highway is very narrow and the utmost care must be used in passing. Workmen are busy there during the day and the thoughtless speeder, has many chances to become a killer if he goes too fast. Only a day or two ago a crash occurred when two cars tried to pass at high speed on the narrow road. If reasonable caution is not used, another detour over a sandy road will have to be used.

On trunk line 16 near Magne, the grading work is over half finished and next Monday concrete pouring is to start on the highway between O'Hearn's corners and the county line. This highway should be open about the middle of July. It is stated, eliminating the Walker road detour. Another detour is now in use north and east of Marne. The route around Marne may be used without any detours being made while the highway west of Marne may be paved, with a detour used running beside the highway.

LEADERS MAY DEMAND AN APOLOGY FROM REV. HERMAN HOEKSEMA

An apology probably will be demanded of Rev. Herman Hoeksema, of Easter Avenue Christian Reformed church, Grand Rapids, as the result of the pastor's action Thursday afternoon in abruptly leaving a meeting of Classis Grand Rapids East at which objections to his teachings were being voiced, church leaders declared Friday night.

It was denied that Rev. Herman Hoeksema has tendered his resignation from the church, but it was asserted that decisive action on the part of the classis will follow unless the pastor assumed a conciliatory attitude.

The incident at the meeting took place after three members of the Eastern ave. church had appeared before the classis and had led protest against their pastor's teachings. In a heated argument that followed, the Rev. Hoeksema and one of his deacons rose and left.

The issue arose following the pastor's declaration against the doctrine of "common grace" which other churchmen asserted has a place in church teachings.

FIFTH DISTRICT W. C. T. U. GRATEFUL FOR HOSPITALITY

Before the Golden Jubilee convention of the fifth district closed its sessions in Holland the following resolutions were drawn up and adopted:

1. We the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the Fifth District of Michigan, rejoice over the progress made during the past year and resolve to enlist others as total abstainers from alcoholic beverages and as co-workers to agitate, educate, and legislate until the Gospel of the Golden Rule of Christ is worked out in the customs of society, and in the laws of our land.

2. We urge continued effort to secure for your youth systematic instruction, in schools and elsewhere, on the dangers of alcohol, and other habit-forming drugs.

3. We believe in a single standard of morals for both sexes, working toward the physical health of the race.

4. We desire a warless world, and dedicate ourselves to its achievement with the speed commensurate with the safety of our national existence.

5. We urge women to use their right of franchise in support of all laws and to place men and women in office who champion the principles of our organization—the W. C. T. U.

6. We would express our appreciation to the citizens of Holland who have in any way contributed to the success of this convention. The gracious words of welcome spoken; the praise given, and the aid promised, will be cherished in memory. The help given by young people should have special mention, also those furnishing music and entertaining numbers upon the program. To our very own, for the opening of church and of homes for our comfort, we extend a vote of thanks.

Because of these kindnesses shown, we shall return to our homes refreshed for greater effort. We thank you.

Committee on Resolutions,
Mrs. De Merell, Holland.
Mrs. Huijenga, Holland.
Mrs. Edwin Robbins, Grand Rapids.

ALL VOTERS IN HOLLAND MUST RE-REGISTER

Not a voter in the city of Holland can cast his vote for sheriff or any other county officer on September 9 of this year when the general primaries takes place unless he or she is re-registered. Nor can anyone vote for president this fall in the general election in November unless he or she is re-registered.

This is in compliance with the state law in accordance with chapter 4, section one, of act 126 enacted in 1917, which holds that every elector in cities having a population of 10,000 or more must register anew in order to be entitled to vote.

Besides registering on registration day, designated for that purpose on Saturday, Aug. 23, 1924, electors can register at any time from Monday June 2, until and including August 22, from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon daily except Sundays, at the city clerk's office where city clerk, Richard Overweg, will take care of all registrations.

This give all voters ample time to run into the city hall between June 2nd and August 22nd to sign his or her name.

There is no use in waiting until the last minute for there are nearly seventy days in which to register and the place is centrally located.

On August 23 there will be registration day which will be absolutely the last when one can register between the hours of 8 A. M. and 5 P. M.

There will be no excuses taken on election day for not having registered, for the reason that there was ample time.

Now get this straight. Everyone who is a qualified voter, male or female, must be re-registered in order to vote at either the primaries or the national election this fall.

The fact that you have voted before, that you have been registered before, "cuts no ice." You must re-register under the law, and that means every voter.

The following are the polling places where you may re-register on August 23, if you have not done so before that time with the city clerk.

1st Ward—Second Story of Engine House No. 2, 106 East 8th St.
2nd Ward—Second Story of Engine House No. 1, West Eight St.
3rd Ward—City Clerk's Office, City Hall, Cor. River and 11th St.
4th Ward—Polling Place, 301 First Avenue.
5th Ward—Polling Place, Corner Central avenue and State Street.
6th Ward—Basement Floor, Van Raalte Avenue School House, on Van Raalte Avenue between 19th and 20th streets.

HERE IS A TRAFFIC RULE OFTEN VIOLATED

It is unlawful for persons to ride bicycles or motorcycles on the streets and highways curving to and fro thereon, or to ride without having their hands on the handlebars. It is also against the city ordinance for more than two persons to ride machines abreast. The machines must be ridden as near as possible to the right curb. Such machines must also be equipped with lights from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise.

IS ELECTED AS A MEMBER OF COVETED FRAT

Carroll Van Ark of Holland, a member of the Junior class of the Columbia School of Journalism, has been initiated into the Sigma Delta Chi. This is a national journalistic fraternity and the honor is much coveted by students of journalism. Only seven men at the Columbia school received the honor this year.

As practice work in connection with his college course Mr. VanArk is doing campus reporting for the New York World, taking care for that paper of the happenings on the Columbia campus in sports and in other matters.

Holland boys are invited to attend Camp Roosevelt, the national summer educational training encampment at Silver Lake near La Porte, Indiana, under command of Major F. L. Beals, U. S. N. Word to that effect has just been received by Superintendent E. E. Fell, of the public school system.

The first contingent will reach camp for the opening of the summer on June 30, and will be followed by other groups on July 21 and August 4. The entire camp will close on Aug. 16, giving from 600 to 800 boys opportunity to avail themselves of the courses in summer school, military training or Junior camp. Boys from 10 to 18 years of age are eligible to attend.

Camp Roosevelt is attracting nationwide attention because of its unique policy for giving boys, on the basis of a public institution, a course of highly specialized training, excellent care and food equal to that of the finest private camps. This is made possible through the support of the Chicago public school system, the War Department, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., and public-spirited business men who bear all financial burdens. A three weeks' outing under finest possible conditions, costs each recruit $23 for the training, mess, and healthful outdoor vacation.

Final arrangements have been made for the starting up of the Grand Haven-Milwaukee boat line according to advices received at the Chamber of Commerce at Grand Haven. Grand Trunk officials have also announced that final preparations are under way for their co-operation with the Peninsula and Northern Navigation company in opening the line.

The first trip is to be made about one week later than anticipated but this was due to no lack of action on the part of the company. The dry dock at Milwaukee being unable to accommodate the steamer as soon as expected.

AMBULANCES HAVE RIGHT OF WAY ON RURAL HIGHWAYS

Operators of ambulances in Western Michigan have recently complained that motorists on rural highways do not give the right of way on emergency runs. All ambulances are equipped with green lights and can be distinguished in this way from the usual motor vehicles at night.

Owing to automobile accidents on rural highways, there are frequent calls for ambulances and motorists are asked to give the right of way when they see a vehicle approaching equipped with the regulation ambulance lights.

FARMERS FIND TB TEST IS NOT BUNK

"Testing cows for tuberculosis is all bunk."

So thought two Michigan dairymen. One of these farmers went into a neighboring county and purchased three of the best cows in a herd that had reacted to the bovine tuberculosis test. In the past few months he has had his herd tested and every animal reacted to the tuberculin.

The other farmer was a breeder of purebred Holsteins. He bought a couple of reactors from one of the best herds in the state, put them in his prize herd and now finds that the purchase price was not in full. It was merely the down payment for larger sums which he has since paid by way of the butcher's block.

These two farmers now agree that testing cows for tuberculosis is not all bunk. They have paid a dear price for ever thinking so.

The first farmer, if he continues in the dairy business, must buy a whole new herd while the other has been reduced to the very brink of bankruptcy. The breeder of high priced Holsteins saw a life's savings vanish almost overnight.

Cows, like humans, contract tuberculosis, and one animal in a herd can soon infect every head in the herd if not removed. There is only one way to detect the diseased and that is by testing. Veterinarians tell the reactors often include the best looking cows in the herd.

Any breeder of purebred cattle is gambling with the odds greatly against him if he has never had his herd tested for bovine tuberculosis or if he add a cow, heifer or bull to his herd without first having it tested. The number of reactors found in the Michigan herds in the past year should impress upon breeders and dairymen the great need for playing safe in the matter of disease control.

JANSSEN CASE TO BOB UP AT SYNOD MEETING

Preparations are being made for the biennial meeting of the synod of the Christian Reformed church to be held in Kalamazoo in June. Rev. J. P. Batema, formerly of Holland and now pastor of a Christian Reformed church in Kalamazoo, is president of the committee to make arrangements for the big convention of the forces of that denomination. Delegates from all sections where Christian Reformed churches are located are expected to be present.

According to an editorial in the current issue of "The Banner," Christian Reformed church weekly, written by Dr. Henry Beets, the coming meeting of the synod will be an unusually busy one and may be a stormy one. According to the article by Dr. Beets not less than eight protests are to be brought before synod by classes in the denomination in regard to the now celebrated Janssen case. These protests are made by units in the denomination that were not satisfied with the decision reached by the synod two years ago. At that time Dr. Janssen, former Holland township man, was deposed as a member of the faculty of the Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids because of alleged unorthodox teachings. The chair he occupied at the seminary is to be filled by a permanent incumbent at the meeting of the synod in June.

But some sections of the denomination did not acquiesce in the decision of the synod two years ago and resolutions of protest have been passed from time to time. These will be presented to the synod in June and the fact there will be no less than eight of them seems to show that the question is as yet far from settled.

MISSIONARY TALKS OF MOON ECLIPSE IN THE ORIENT

Rev. D. Dykstra, Hope College graduate and a missionary to Arabia, contributed a description to "The Times of Mesopotamia," describing how a moon eclipse is regarded among the natives. Rev. Dykstra describes it as "a faithful reproduction of the thoughts and feelings of the majority of people." The article is headed, "An Eclipse of the Moon," and it reads as follows:

"The moon is eclipsed!" cried my fellow residents at a house "somewhere in Mesopotamia." No sooner was this said than a great hue and cry was heard from the neighboring houses. In the whole town was roaring with thousands of drums, kettles, cymbals and all manners of noisy vessels. Young people and old men joined these instruments and contributed to the general commotion. Some repeated prayers; some recited obscene words, while others uttered inaudible ones. Their object was, however, one, viz., to scare away the demon or dragon which had been insolent enough to swallow up "our moon" and turn our moonlight night into a dark one. There is, of course, no Reuter's Service or Havas Agency to the moon; and consequently, it cannot be ascertained whether it was a dragon or a negro who had gulped the moon; but the fact remained that the moon was in the greatest distress and unless the greatest possible noise was made we were running the risk of losing our terrestrial friend for ever. What a calamity! The telephone rang; and, lo, Mohammed was speaking with us. "How are you faring now?" We asked at once, "and is your moon also eclipsed?" Our friend at the other end protested severely and said that there was no time for a joke when the world was going on. Our witty answer was that we wished to imitate Pliny, who walked calmly to his bath-room when Pompei was being covered with burning lava. "Pliny or no Pliny, you must know a limit to jocundry," was the sharp answer we received. Peace was made soon and our friend on the phone told us that thousands of shots were being fired by the enterprising people of Mohammed to frighten the devil or the dragon. A much more effective method, we considered; but what we could not do was to hear the shots, as desired by our friend at the other end. "Where will we get another such good moon if we lose this one?" exclaimed he. But every one was so occupied with the task of giving full scope to his or her vocal organ that the question remained unanswered and the questioner joined the general chorus. A feature of the whole situation was that the color surrounding the moon was red; and not black. This latter betokens malady, while the former indicates war or bloodshed! One can recover if one is wounded but there is not one chance in ten that one can be cured if attacked by a bad disease. One class of people must be closely guarded on such an unhappy occasion. These are pregnant women! Woe to the pothermous child if the mother puts her hand on her stomach during an eclipse. The poor child's face or hand or other parts become black. A bad relic of the past! One hour passed, two hours passed and the noise was in full progress. "No wonder at these catastrophes," said our old servant resigned. "If we consider the evils of modern times!" He meant that the people deserved something phenomenal to put them right. But he could not specify which part of their lives required the necessary adjustment! Social life was bad, according to him; commerce was worse still and general conditions were far from being objectionable. Should we, then depart this life? He could not answer at all. Meanwhile the third hour had passed; the dragon or the devil had gone after its or his business; and everything was practically bright. Let us begin our lives again!

Whereas, the said described parcel of land fronts on the main business street of the City of Holland to-wit, Eighth street and by reason thereof is valuable for a building site and has never been formally platted or dedicated to the public for alley purposes and the same is not now necessary to the adjacent property owners for alley purposes, therefore Resolved, that the common council of the city of Holland deems it advisable to vacate, discontinue and abolish the said West Six (6) feet of the east forty and sixty-five one-hundredths (40.65) feet of Lot numbered Twelve (12) in Block numbered thirty-one (31) of the city of Holland, Ottawa county, Michigan, as a public alley and the Common Council of the city of Holland hereby appoints Wednesday, the 18th day of June A. D. 1924, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. as the time when they will meet in the Common Council rooms in the City Hall in the city of Holland, Mich. to hear objections thereto.

A Holland man is pretty provoked. He was boasting about a big fish he caught and the next day a fellow went out and caught one weighing even more. It just goes to show that a fellow should make his fish weigh enough.—Muskegon Chronicle.

Some time ago the Merchants association took up the matter of securing a picnic ground on Lake Michigan. Capt. Hugh Bradshaw, one of the old lake captains who formerly owned the Mabel Bradshaw states that he has a large tract on the lake front near Virginia park, that years ago he purchased for $3,000.00 cash. He states that he will dispose of this property to the city for $2,500.00 claiming to offer at this low price largely because Holland will be benefited.

Holland postal clerks and rural carriers may soon be in a position to receive more money. A bill passed the senate yesterday that will increase the pay of clerks and carriers from $1,700 to $2,100. There will be no change in the salary of the rural mail carriers, however they will be given four cents a mile for maintenance of equipment, amounting to $220 for an average route. Postmasters will receive no extra pay.

Members of the Star of Bethlehem Chapter No. 40, O. E. S. will be entertained by the officers on Thursday evening, May 29.

Minnie Rozema, aged 18, died Tuesday at her home at 173 East Sixth-st. She is survived by her mother, four sisters, Mrs. Bert Sybersma, Mrs. W. Interment will be in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

FORMER HOLLAND WOMAN DIES AS RESULT OF INJURIES

Mrs. Mary Oggel died Tuesday at the home of her son John, 522 Cedar street, Kalamazoo, at the age of 73 years.

Mrs. Oggel about a week ago mistook a cellar door for a closet door, turned the light, and fell to the floor below and death resulted from her injuries.

Mrs. Oggel was the youngest daughter of the late Jan Peyster, prominent in the old VanRaite church in 1865 where he was an elder until his death in 1884.

Mrs. Oggel was the sister of Mrs. Joha VanLandugend, 119 West 11th street. She is survived by two sons, John and Henry of Kalamazoo, and one daughter, Mrs. R. W. McLaughlin of Brooklyn, New York.

The funeral will take place at Kalamazoo Thursday afternoon. It is quite a co-incidence that the death of Mrs. Oggel's sister, Mrs. Gus LaBarbe, of Roseland, Ill., occurred last March.

Everybody is getting tired of having it rain almost every day but Miss Wilma Vande Water was very much pleased with the "show-er" given in her honor by Miss Henrietta Tien and Miss Bessie Vanden Brink at the former's home on Monday evening. Games and lunch made the time pass quickly and pleasantly. The bride received many beautiful gifts. The guests were the Misses Edith King, Henrietta Butler, Johanna Walbrink, Lucile Vande Water, Ruth Brinks, Angie Dogger, Louise Van Sloten, Jessie Brandama, Wilma Vande Water, Sue Reimink, Gertrude Stiel and Mrs. Jack Weller.

MARGIE HOEN FOUND GUILTY FOR SECOND TIME

Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock Justice VanSchelven called the case of Sheriff Delbert Fortney vs. Margie Hoehn, who was charged with falsifying and maliciously slandering the sheriff. A fair sized audience was present to listen to the trial; however, those who looked for fireworks were doomed to disappointment.

Very few witnesses were called as attorney C. H. McBride who represented Mrs. Hoehn, stated that he would not submit any evidence, or introduce any witnesses or present any testimony, suggesting that the case would be carried up to circuit court for trial later.

The first witness was Dr. Nibbelink of Allendale who stated that in the presence of Mary Nibbelink, Flossie Nibbelink, Frank Nibbelink, and Mr. McKinney Mrs. Hoehn had made the statement that sheriff Fortney had received $200.00 per month hush money from moonshiners in her neighborhood in Robinson township, $100.00 to come from Emil Stocklin, and $100.00 from Joseph Michaels. Dr. Nibbelink also stated that the woman had said that the Ottawa county sheriff was a crook, had raided her home, had taken therefrom grape juice and jelly and had "doctored" the grape juice by adding alcohol, then offered to return it, should she, Mrs. Hoehn, pay the said Mr. Fortney $50.00. Dr. Nibbelink further testified on the witness stand that the woman contended that the sheriff had said that for two cents he would use his automatic on her. The witness further stated that Mrs. Hoehn claimed that since she couldn't get any justice in Grand Haven, she hired an attorney in Holland and also went to Lansing to see the Governor and the attorney general about the moonshine affair.

Then followed considerable argument of whether Dr. Nibbelink had said or thought that Mrs. Hoehn was insane and whether Mrs. Hoehn had called upon the doctor in a professional way to find out about her sanity or insanity as the case might be. Attorney McBride put forth several leading questions that were asked to draw out the doctor on the matter of the sanity of Mrs. Hoehn. However, Dr. Nibbelink denied on the stand that he was asked to investigate her case in a professional way or in any other way, stating however that he had heard her sanity questioned by others but he personally did not deliberate professionally or otherwise on the matter.

When the question of sanity had been taken up repeatedly, Justice VanSchelven barred any further discussion on this matter stating that this phase was irrelevant, that the case being tried was for slander and not to judge the sanity or insanity of the defendant.

Michaels who was asked whether he paid Mr. Fortney $100.00 per month hush money for protection. He strongly protested that he had not.

Emil Stocklin, when called to the witness stand also stated that he had never paid Mr. Fortney or anyone else any money of any kind for so-called protection. He stated that he didn't know Mr. Fortney, personally, knew him only as a sheriff who lived at Grand Haven, and that he voted for him on election day. Further than that he had no intimate acquaintance with him. Attorney McBride did not question the two witnesses, being content to try the case in higher court later.

Sheriff Fortney was next called, and stated that he had received no money from either Mr. Michaels or Mr. Stocklin in any business way nor in any other way; in fact, he stated that he hardly knew the men by sight. He stated that the only business he had with Michaels was to raid his place for moonshine, but found none there. Mr. Fortney denied flatly that he had doctored liquids taken during a raid at the home of Margie Hoehn, and then exacted $50.00 should these liquids be returned. He denied that he ever said that for two cents he would draw his automatic on her, stating that he never carried an automatic.

It was then brought out in the testimony of Mr. Fortney that in the presence of the prosecutor, the sheriff and the sheriff's mother, Mrs. Hoehn had said that she had no proof that Stocklin or Michaels had paid money to the sheriff for protection. The sheriff contended that when the prosecutor asked to have her put this in writing she stated that before doing so she wished first to consult her son as to the wisdom of it. Attorney McBride, who was assist-

The next witness called was Joe ed by Attorney Parsons of Robinson & Parsons, made no attempt to submit any evidence, did not put Mrs. Hoehn on the stand to contradict the charges, nor did he introduce any witnesses in rebuttal, apparently being content to rest his case with a foregone conclusion to carry the matter up to circuit court.

It was next up to Justice VanSchelven to find the defendant guilty or not guilty. In a short talk to those present he said:

"Of course, there are some peculiar features about this case. It is the second case of this kind that has been brought to trial in Holland the past year. What I mean is, about a year ago the well-known abduction case took place. That case was just like this, namely, there were three parties involved. The one the people, the second the respondent, and the third the community in which we live. I wish to try to represent the third party, the other parties being represented by counsel. I feel it my duty to represent the community of Holland, for by some hocus pocus, this case has already been tried on the streets of Holland through meetings of one kind or another, endeavoring to take the place of the legitimate course of procedure. It is a bad sign, a bad omen, what troubles me is not the question of guilt of Mrs. Hoehn. There is no question about that. The defendant is found guilty. What troubles me is the degree of the sentence. If by sentencing the defendant 25 cents and one hour in jail I could place the community right on this whole matter, I would do that, if by sentencing her 90 days with a fine of one dollar, and the cause would be helped, I would do that. I don't know as either would help me out in this matter. Hence there is nothing to do but to follow the usual course in these cases.

"This is the second time that this respondent is charged in this and other courts with practically the same offense. After finding the respondent guilty, I think I am free to say that she made a very grave mistake in not abiding by the result of the other trial, but repeated the offense. I cannot ignore that fact; it has raised an agitation in the community. The sentence imposed in the other court, I believe is $50.00.

"The defendant is not charged with a second offense, for it must be understood in everything that I have said that I do not construe this as a second offense" (Mr. Van Schelven made this statement after Mr. McBride had made strenuous objections to calling it the second offense.)

Mr. Van Schelven then called Mrs. Hoehn up for sentence, and said, "I impose upon you a fine of $75 or 30 days in the county jail." Mrs. Hoehn arose and said, "I am perfectly satisfied, your honor."

Attorney McBride told Mr. Van Schelven that he would appeal the case to circuit court and offered bondsmen who were found satisfactory. The case will no doubt be tried at the next term of circuit court.

Prosecutor Miles represented Sheriff Fortney in the slander suit which resulted in a verdict of guilt against Mrs. Hoehn.

The program again proved a great success with the Community Hall crowded to overflowing, and at least a hundred being turned away. After the program was ended several in the audience requested the young ladies to give the program for a third time, this time at Overisel, which the Mission Circle decided to do. The program is to be given at the Overisel Community Hall some the Overisel Community Hall on the evening of Tuesday, June 3, beginning at 8 o'clock.

More Mileage That's One of the Principle Claims We Make For Our New Patented MOTOR FUEL

This enemy of Carbon—this "wonder" fuel. As someone has called it —acts like magic upon the motor. You must get more miles per gallon of gasoline when your car is free from carbon—then what do you think of a fuel that not only cleans the motor of carbon but keeps it clean. It automatically lubricates the cylinders and pistons and causes the motor to purr along smoothly just like it does on a damp or rainy day.

15,000 ounces of our New Motor Fuel has treated 15,000 gallons of gasoline in Holland during the first week— Approximately two car loads.

To find something that we may call this fluid that cleans your carbon and etherizes your gasoline—something that we may use in our advertising is the reason why we are offering
