Harbor Board Member Makes Fine Suggestion

HENRY VANDER SCHEL
POINTS OUT POSSI-
BILITIES OF BEAUTI-FUL KOLLEN PARK

The following communication was received from Henry Vander Schel, member of the harbor board, and is self-explanatory:

"Actually how many of Holland people realize the beauty of Holland's new park. The property was given to Holland by Mrs. George Kollen as a lasting memorial to her deceased husband. The intentions of Mrs. Kollen in giving this property were that the property be used for the most good for the most people. The park board has completed their job. The writer now believes that the time has come that we celebrate an appropriate inauguration of this wonderful gift. The dock is completed and has three beautiful lights installed. There is ample room for several boats to be tied up at one time.

"Now let's go, Holland! We often kick about things that we should have and after we have them we kick because we did not have them before. Let this not be the case with Kollen's park. Tentative plans now in the making include the American Legion band, also Holland school bands. The National Guards will parade to the park in full uniform. Boy Scouts and Sea Scouts will also be asked to take part. Invitations will be sent out to all boat owners to have their boats tied up or anchored at Kollen's park that evening. Reserved seats will be set aside for all city officials and a very special seat will be reserved for Mrs. Kollen. An opportunity will be given the parents to see how their children are entertained and also how they are taught to swim. Fancy diving will be shown also that day. An attempt will be made to have the government boat Escanaba brought here for inspection. The new road will be completed in the park soon, giving motorists opportunity to drive directly to the new dock. The date will be announced soon when the celebration will be held. In the meantime let us pass the glad news around. Any suggestions for completion of program will be gladly received by the writer."

"HENRY VANDERSCHEL,
"Member of Holland Harbor Board and Recreation Board."

GRAND HAVEN KNOWS HOW TO PUT WELFARE LIST MEN TO WORK

Grand Haven Tribune—Approximately 150 men on the welfare lists are being employed on road work, including sand removal on the Oval, ditch construction on a road at the south limits of the city and grading on the new proposed trunkline north of Smith's bridge. The contracts made by this city with the county were taken to Lansing today in order to collect the $3,064.51 which was given to this city for welfare labor under the former plan of the R. F. C.

Carl Bowen said he had 73 men out this morning for the first time on the trunkline project and 25 men on the ditch job. The remainder are employed by the city manager on local projects, the largest of which is the sand removal on the Oval.

The government requires that the money be used for welfare labor during the month. As the preliminaries to getting this amount were not completed earlier, it has crowded a large number of men on jobs during the latter part of the month.

The welfare money received by Holland, Holland township and Park township is being used for direct welfare as there are no projects available commensurate with the amounts.

It is expected the proposed highway paralleling US-31 will hook up with the Airline from Muskegon to Grand Rapids, where work is going on now, labor being supplied by Muskegon welfare money. Newton Paquette of Grand Rapids, resident maintenance engineer, and W. J. Kingscott of Lansing, division engineer, were inspecting that job yesterday. Expectations are that the Airline road will be the first to be paved in this area when federal road funds are made available.

The Federal school Parent-Teacher association will meet tonight, Friday, at 7:30 o'clock.

"READY MONEY"

It is stated that no business in Michigan is greater today than the resort business and in spite of the depression the volume of tourists and the money they leave with us has scarcely dwindled. It is nearly unbelievable, but nevertheless true, that tourists spend annually $300,000,000 in the state of Michigan.

Never have we been so much in need of "ready money" for obvious reasons, and the time is right now when we find that "ready money" is within easy reach if we only reach for it. We have altogether too long taken our resort trade as a matter of course. It has come to us unsolicited and there has been a perceptible growth from year to year.

Holland would find the summer months dull months indeed should our resorts be plucked away. In an inland town without lakes July and August are the "dog day" months of business—in Holland this is our harvest period. No spot in Michigan is more ideal than is our resort section with its diversified attractions.

The Tourist and Resort association has been the avenue to put Western Michigan on the national map as the "Playground of America." This has been a mutual collective proposition to which we must all subscribe. Some benefit through the resort trade more than others, but all of Holland and its environs mutually benefit to a greater or lesser degree.

Resort money is "ready money" if we deserve it. Deserving means service, fair dealing, pleasant approach, accommodation, a hearty welcome and a cheerful au revoir. However, there is one thing more. We must also give and that unselishly in order to continue the mutual publicity that has made $300,000,000 possible in Michigan. Of this amount we will receive our share if we justly deserve it.

EMPLOYS 149 MEN TO UNLOAD CEMENT BOAT

Men were lined up at the Robbins office at Grand Haven to receive pay for work done on the Oscar J. Lingeman, cement boat, which was in port here Saturday. There were 149 Grand Haven men who were employed in three shifts to unload the boat carrying about 10,000 tons of cement. Many are being taken from the welfare list who have found work.

Grand Rapids has more than 500 less families on the welfare list which are now at work. Furniture factories, knitting works, refrigeration factories and other types of manufacturing plants are calling men back to work.

Muskegon is beginning to boom again. Many shops are working overtime—one factory in particular working double shifts. This industrial activity is a happy solution of much of Muskegon's welfare grief.

TO COMMUTE TERM OF OTTAWA BANK BANDIT

Three life terms at Jackson prison, including one murderer, will have their terms commuted, W. Alfred Debo, state pardon and parole commissioner, announced today.

Russell Burnham, sentenced February 24, 1925, from Wayne county for murder will have his sentence commuted to 25 to 40 years. The life term of George J. Shipley, sentenced January 29, 1926, from Ottawa county in connection with the robbery of the Berlin State bank, was cut to from 10 years to life. Louis Gonyou, sentenced January 6, 1928, from Livingston county for robbery armed, had his life term commuted from 6 1/2 years to life.

Occupants of two cars escaped injury in a collision at the six-way intersection of Twenty-first and State street and Central avenue Wednesday evening. Cars were driven by B. A. Mulder of 79 West Fifteenth street, and Adrian Bazan of Allegan. Very little damage was done to either car.

Old Holland Steamer Sinks Striking Reef

STEAMER PURITAN WAS BUILT FOR HOLLAND-
CHICAGO RUN

Was Built By Holland and Chicago Capital. W. H. Beach President of Company

The sinking of the "George M. Cox" in Lake Superior is of more than passing interest to Holland people. This steamer up to a few weeks ago was the "Puritan," and was then renamed. She was built by Holland and Chicago capital. At that time the late William H. Beach was the president of the company, and the running mate of the "Puritan" was the old "Soo City." Later the Graham-Morton Transportation company took over the entire line and the Puritan was cut in two and lengthened 60 feet and both steamers were on this run for several years.

Later the Soo City was sold and taken to the seaboard and was wrecked in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, with all hands on board being lost. "The Puritan," during the World war was commandeered by the United States government for transport duty and was to have been taken through the canal to the Atlantic ocean, but never got any farther than Detroit. "The Puritan" was commanded by Captain Boswell, a much beloved skipper, and well-known in this city. "The Puritan" was built at Wyandotte, Michigan, at least thirty years ago, and was a steel ship.

Relative to the sinking of the old Holland boat, dispatches have the following:

"The 118 persons rescued from the S. S. George M. Cox, which grounded on a reef in Lake Superior, were en route to Chicago and other home cities.

After spending a chilly night on a bleak lighthouse point near the scene of the wreck, the thirty-two persons sailing as guests of George M. Cox, owner of the vessel, and the crew of eighty-six were transferred to Houghton, Michigan.

Four persons who were injured, all members of the crew, when the vessel struck the Rock of Ages reef, were reported well on one road to recovery in the Fort William General hospital at Fort William, Canada.

The ship was making a trial run at the time and was headed for Fort William, where a large party en route to a Century of Progress was to board her. An "S. O. S." call brought assistance and all on board the ship were put in life boats and carried in safety to the desolate rock on which a lighthouse stands.

Miss Adeline Keeling, the ship's nurse and one of the four injured, told a vivid story of the crash and the rescue. She said that the guests of the owner were at dinner at the time. She added:

"The lake was calm and we were going along at a steady speed. All of a sudden there came a heavy thud. Then came crash after crash. Furniture rolled to the port side. The ship creaked from end to end and began listing heavily to port.

"All of us rushed to the starboard side. It was impossible to lower the boats on this side, so we made our way to port. Everything was remarkably cool and collected. We took our time getting into the boats."

It was impossible for all of those rescued to get into the lighthouse. Those who were more lightly clad stayed inside and others took turns, alternately waiting outside and then going in where hot coffee was served by the lighthouse keeper's wife.

The "George M. Cox" left Chicago last Wednesday after she had been rechristened in the river.

DR. J. M. VANDER MEULEN TO PREACH AT HOPE

Dr. J. M. Vander Meulen of the Presbyterian Theological seminary of Louisville, Kentucky, will preach in Hope church next Sunday, June 4. His morning topic will be "The Blight of Unbelief," and in the evening, "Youth and Its Three Choices." Mr. Snow will present special music. Dr. Vander Meulen has for years been on the Hope college faculty, and for four years served as pastor of Hope church.

ZEELAND WOMAN GIVEN PAROLE FROM PRISON

Helen Dykstra, 26-year-old Zeeland woman, who was sentenced to serve eighteen months in the Detroit house of correction for selling eighteen pints of beer, Saturday was granted a parole effective June 16 by W. Alfred Debo, parole commissioner. She was convicted May 2, 1932, and was sentenced to eighteen months to four years. Her minimum term less good time will expire on the date of parole. It will be remembered that she and her husband were both sentenced and Dykstra must still serve for some time.

GRAND HAVEN TO GET $10,000 FROM R.F.C.

The application of Grand Haven for a loan of $10,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for welfare labor has been approved by the state, city officials stated. The applications have been sent on to Washington and state officials are awaiting federal action. Grand Haven, some way or other, can get things. Holland is not so fortunate.

HOLLAND'S SCHOOL TAX RATE LOWER THAN USUAL

Holland's assessed valuation has been placed at $11,779,444, according to figures released Wednesday by the board of review. Of this amount $9,762,100 is represented in real estate and $2,017,344 in personal property. Compared with last year the figures show a reduction of $2,798,176. The city rate will be $14.66 and the school rate $13.25 per $1,000 assessed valuation. Total amount for collection will be $328,764.17, a reduction of $49,475.73 as compared with last year. While the combined rates for city and school taxes show an increase of $1.95 per $1,000 assessed valuation over last year, the reduced valuation will lower the levy. For the first time in years the school levies will fall below the amount for municipal purposes.

RUNNING FULL TIME

One of the encouraging signs of the times in Allegan is that the Baker Furniture Co. has been working full time lately—Allegan Gazette. If Holland could only start something. Fine reports are coming from Grand Haven and Muskegon also. The Brunswick is working night and day at Muskegon with a large force.

Otto Schaap is seriously ill at his home on Thirty-second street.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Holland township has received its primary school money from the state treasurer in the sum of $1,307.62 for 1,334 pupils; Holland City $1,418.53 for 992 pupils; Zeeland village and township, $1,668.81 for 1,161 pupils; Ottawa county, $17,826.38 for 12,466. Note—Holland was little more than a village at that time. The reason why Holland township looms up so large was that then it included all of present Holland township and Park township too, all was then Holland township. Why Park township was created is another interesting story to appear later.

Mr. L. DeWit, the veteran janitor of Hope College, was the recipient of a fine sofa, the gift of the students. He received a fine easy chair from the faculty. It was the 50th anniversary of his wedding and he had served the college for many years.

The Star Flour and Saw Mill of Fillmore has been overhauled. The proprietors are Messrs. James L. Fairbanks and Mr. Loving. The boiler which exploded last winter was taken to Grand Rapids and sold for old iron.

A radical change has been made in the day lines of this city. Ed J. Harrington has purchased the days of John Serier and of West Nibbelink and will hereafter run the days of the city in a systematic manner.

We learn that Dr. Gee's music class will appear on Decoration Day in something new in the way of uniformity of dress. The "boys" are trying hard to put themselves in first class shape for the summer, having purchased $200 worth of new instruments and outfits for the band. They promise to play for Memorial Day free, if citizens will patronize their moonlight excursion on the boat to Macatawa park in the evening. Note: We say these were delightful excursions winding up with a dance at "Shady Side," now Jenison Electric Park. Dr. Gee's home then was the one now occupied by Dr. Bos on River ave. and 13th street. The doctor had built a veritable band stand in front of the place which also answered as a large stairway to the second floor of the house. You will notice one-half of the stairway cut away but the other half still remains. The doctor had a very musical family—one son, Ben Gee, led a juvenile boys' and girls' band in which three of his sisters were able players. They left on a concert tour which proved so successful that they continued stage training. Holland sent them off with loud acclaim but strange to say, not a member of that band ever returned to Holland.

He introduced Mr. Keppel as a full cousin of the late Governor Steunenberg of Idaho, who was dynamited to death by a man named Aschard during a miners' strike. Roosevelt nearly exploded in violent denunciation of "undesirable citizens." He called the trial a "miscarriage of justice" and his words were accompanied with a liberal display of teeth and by tremendous throwing of arms.

Glowings Words For Soldiers Of All Wars

THOUSANDS WITNESS HOLLAND'S MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATION

Memorial Day commemoration in Holland started on one of the most beautiful and ideal Sundays in which such a day could be observed. All military bodies and auxiliaries gathered at the city hall on Sabbath morning. Forming a line of march they paraded on River avenue south to Twelfth street to Lincoln avenue to Sixth Reform church where Rev. John Vanderbeek delivered the Memorial service and John Vanderluis, through his chorus, furnished appropriate music.

Memorial Day Tuesday was not quite so ideal, although there was no rain, but the weather had turned cool, which is rather unusual on that day.

The exercises at Centennial park, the line of march in the parade and the solemn ceremonies at Pilgrim Home cemetery in charge of Commander M. Vande Water, were all fully given officially in last week's issue and were followed to the letter.

Mayor Bosch, president of the day, called to the platform the only member living of the A. C. Van Raalte post, G. A. R., namely John R. Douma, who was largely applauded as he was introduced to the multitude.

The address given by Prof. Edgar Winter of Hope college was plainly heard through the amplifiers furnished by Mr. Oscar Hoek. Mr. Winter surprised his audience by his unusual eloquence and he stated that when a lad it was his sincere wish to at some future time make an address before a Holland audience such as he heard from time to time from boyhood to manhood in a city where Memorial day has become a real institution.

Holland has always made much of Memorial day and this fact was brought out in Mr. Winter's talk. He spoke of the significance of the day and the wonderful way in which the children of our public schools have become imbued with this spirit as he himself was in youth. He stated that as Americans we should be proud of our heritage. Mr. Winter then gave a resume of the brave deeds of soldiers of all wars, the bravery of the colonists under George Washington, the war that brought the emancipation of the slaves and a reunited nation, the war that lifted the iron heel of Spain from the neck of the Cubans, brought about through the battle of San Juan Hill and Admiral Dewey's fleet victory in Manila bay.

Mr. Winter said that time will never be able to dim the memory of the sacrifices of the soldiers in the World war. In many homes in our city of Holland the sacred memory of the great sacrifices are still kept alive. He told of when loving sons rushed home with a strange flush on their faces, stating that they were ready to enlist for their country. He told of millions going overseas—they left as boys but returned as men. He also told of the suffering and the dying and the many crosses that marked the last resting place of brave American soldiers, who paid the "supreme sacrifice."

In closing, Mr. Winter said: "Among every people and in every age the heroes of battle have been crowned with honor. The poet's words cannot paint the picture of their patriotism. The eloquence of orators cannot do justice to their noble sacrifices and worthy achievements. Words of praise are heard and soon forgotten. Many monuments have been erected to the memory of their brave deeds. These may crumble into dust. But the highest honor we can bestow upon our soldiers is the lasting gratitude of a united nation. The greatest tribute we can offer to the veterans of all our wars, living and dead, is a national reverence for the flag. The most enduring monument we can erect to their memories is in heeding the appeals that come to us today. We can honor them most by keeping alive in our hearts the principles of union, humanity, democracy, for which they gave their all."

"In the well-known words of Abraham Lincoln: 'May we take increased devotion for that cause for which they gave their last full measure of devotion... and may we here high resolve that these honored dead shall not have died in vain.'"

Dropped Dead While Working On County Road

MERRIT SLATER, 58, DIES OF HEART ATTACK WHILE AT WORK ON WELFARE
PROJECT

While working on a state highway project north of Smith's bayou yesterday morning, Merrit Slater, 58, one of the crew of the Ottawa county laborers on the welfare list, dropped dead from a heart attack. Grand Haven officers were called with an ambulance but the man was dead before they arrived. Coroner Govett Van Zantwick, Ottawa county coroner, was called and took charge of the body and it is resting at the Van Zantwick Funeral home awaiting disposition by the relatives.

The deceased had complained early in the day of not feeling well. He was handling a shovel when he fell over backward. Workmen nearby ran to his assistance. He breathed for a few minutes but before a doctor arrived he was gone. He was known to his associates here as "Bub." He had lived here for the past ten years and was unmarried, living alone at the extreme east end of Franklin street. He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge of Saugatuck.

Little is known about the man here but this morning he mentioned to some fellow workmen that he had a sister, Mrs. Anna Sweeney, manager of the Handy hotel, Manclona, Michigan. Another sister, Mrs. Mate Bronson, Otsego, also survives.

The auxiliary association elected Mrs. Mae Nienhuis of Holland, president; Mrs. Essa Dillman, South Haven, vice president; Mrs. Emily Ryan, Muskegon, secretary; Mrs. Hazel Bateman, Lansing, treasurer. Mrs. Marie Van Kollen, Holland, and Mrs. Hazel Curtis, Lansing, were named trustees. Mrs. Emily Ryan, Muskegon, was named a delegate to the national convention.

PICK DECORATION DAY FLOWERS AT A O'CLOCK

The donation of flowers for Decoration Day by citizens was practically nil. Only one small bunch was donated by 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and the exercises were scheduled for the next day. Park Commissioner John Van Bragt was at his wit's end as to how he was to get together 200 bouquets necessary for that day. He had very little sleep that night and got up before 4 o'clock Tuesday morning, hustled out some of his friends and picking flowers from park, greenhouse and private gardens, where permission was asked, was soon in progress. A dozen public-spirited ladies also got up early and got the bouquets ready by 9 o'clock when the exercises began.

The pastor chose as his text Ps. 122:9: "Because of the House of the Lord, O God, I will Seek Thy Good."

Pointing out the fervent patriotism of the ancient believers in God, he said:

"Such in a measure was the religious devotion and fervent patriotism of the founders of our nation. Their love of liberty, righteousness and truth was inspired by the Word of God; on bended knee they fought for their rights and freedoms, and when the price of freedom was gained they made the Bible the corner stone of the Republic. The Sabbath Day was officially recognized as the day of the Lord; in our oaths we recognized—

Local Florists To Remember The "Shut-Ins"

FLOWERS FOR ALL ON JUNE
10; HENRY EBELINK,
CHAIRMAN

On June 10 there is going to be a shower of flowers all over the United States, which will gladden the hearts of the "shut-in" thousands. Holland is also doing its part, rather in other words the florists of Holland are shouldering that pleasant burden.

"The Holland Flower 'Shut-In' Day Committee," through its secretary, Peter Weller, has been sending letters to all the local societies, no matter what group, and has asked them for a list of the "shut-ins," whoever these may be. None must be missed on June 10.

Henry Ebelink is chairman of the committee in Holland and he is receiving the co-operation of the following local florists and nurserymen: Ebelink Flower shop, Shady Lawn Florists, Nelis Nurseries and Weller Nurseries Co., Inc.

Church societies and all those organizations who can be requested to send in their list early for collecting for preparing flowers is not a last-minute job. So send in the names as soon as possible, giving your hearty co-operation in behalf of a wonderful benevolent work. Nothing could be kinder than to remember these less fortunate folks with beautiful flowers.

Miss Winifred Black in the Chicago Herald and Examiner, in a column write-up on flowers for the "shut-ins" closes her article as follows:

"June 10, National Flower Shut-In Day—the whole world ought to be better for such a day as that."

"I wish I knew the name of the man who thought of it first and of every human being who is working early and late to help carry out his glorious plans."

"I'd like to slip away into the quiet corner of some fragrant old-time garden and make a humble, grateful prayer to him, wouldn't you?"

Florists throughout the country will join on June 10 in sending blossoms of remembrance to shut-ins everywhere.

Sponsored by the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, the observance will be known as National Flower Shut-In Day.

Please send at once to Ebelink Flower shop a list of all your shut-ins with correct name and address.

THE TOURIST INDUSTRY VITAL TO HOLLAND

The success this year of the Tulip Festival, in spite of general conditions, is proof that people will travel for hundreds of miles to enjoy the beauties of nature and to recreate. There is a hunger for the outdoors.

The awakened public appreciation, the enthusiasm and the spirit of co-operation among the rank and file of the citizens of Holland as well as of the local merchants has stimulated an interest not only in plans for next year's Tulip Festival but in this season's tourist industry.

It has been years since so much activity has existed at our local resorts as was manifested during the first three days of this week, including Decoration Day. More Bibles

The United States is a land of paradox—land of jazz and "Gideon Bibles." In no other country does the tourist find a copy of the nation's holy book as part of the furnishing in his hotel room. Over a period of years the Christian Commercial Travelers' Association has placed a copy of the Bible in more than 1,000,000 American hotel rooms. At the recent State convention it was reported that Bibles will also be placed in the cabins of ocean liners and in translations in the native inns of Japan, China and Korea. Americans have long since taken the "Gideon Bible" for granted. But there is possibly no way of measuring the quiet influence of the Book's presence, reminding the transient that he is in a Christian nation. Even if the Book remains unread by the hurried traveler, it cannot be altogether ignored. The fact that funds have been provided for the work and that an extension program has just been developed indicates the power of that idea which occurred years ago to a commercial traveler with something more than smoking room stories in his mind.

FEAR THE TAILS OF CROCODILES

A crocodile's limbs and claws are not strong enough to do a great deal of aggressive mischief, but one swift, unexpected side-stroke of its long, muscular tail is sufficient to sweep a smaller animal into the water and deal a dangerous blow to a man.

Memorial Day In Holland Bring Out Many

nize God; our president takes the oath of office with his hand on an open Bible; sessions of the legislature are opened with prayer; courts of justice originally contained a copy of the Bible; our public schools are schools with the Bible; public buildings are embellished with texts from the Bible; Gospel ministers are appointed as chaplains of our armies, our navies and our penal institutions as well as the federal congress; our coins bear the inscription "In God We Trust"; our national anthem breathes the spirit of faith and prayer; above the seat of the president is a representation of the All-Seeing Eye; and one flag is permitted to fly above the stars and stripes, the flag of the Christian religion.

"Where did they obtain that fundamental principle that rulers obtain their powers by consent of the governed? Here we find it. In the first chapter of Deuteronomy the Israelites are commanded to choose their rulers to rule over them."

"Where did they conceive the idea of separation of church and state and why did they not originate a state church for their government? They learned this of Moses. Moses established a temple worship, and put judges in the gates, the one to proclaim the truths of salvation, the other to administer justice."

"How comes it that we have a dual system of education for the children of our land, one of the church and one of the state? Here it is. The founders believed that both state and church were divine institutions, both of God and both owed obligations to the rising generation."

"The Bible is the textbook of our religious faith; it is the foundation stone of civic righteousness and liberty. The Bible must never be put out of our public schools."

"Our church schools and our public schools; our church colleges and seminaries, and our state universities, they are all ours and we must be vitally interested in all of them."

Speaking of a pluribus unum, he said:

"Why could those colonists of different nationalities so readily leave behind them their national customs, national prejudices, national idiosyncrasies, and be fused into a new nationality? They learned this of their great Lord and King. Who though a Jew, did not call himself such but called himself the Son of Man so that in Him all races of mankind may find unity."

"The great apostle Paul learned this lesson. He boasted not his racial descent to win souls. He became all things to all men."

"Our Gospel message of the uplifted dying Redeemer must never be tagged by a racial or nationalistic label shall it be the magnet to draw all men."

"Our loyalty and devotion to our country's flag must never be contradicted by a hyphen. We must never play the role of unassimilated aliens."

"Shall our children attain that influence, that prestige, that spirit of oneness with their fellow Americans that we desire they shall, they must be imbued with the consciousness that they are Americans and none other."

"Why were they ready to sacrifice 500,000 lives for the freedom of the black man? They learned this love of liberty for all from the Bible."

"Why did we rise up in defense of oppressed Cuba? Whence that love for justice and humanity that will make extreme sacrifices? It comes from the Word of God."

"Why did we rise up to resist and crush Prussian militarism, that creation of the false philosophies of a Nietzsche and a von Trietske, which with its huge fighting machine threatened to crush all other governments? It was the spirit of democracy and freedom."

Speaking as to whether we today are still building on that foundation of the fathers, he said:

"I see a storm approaching that threatens to hurl our magnificent structure off its foundation and leave a trail of wreckage in its wake. The Sabbath is fast losing its significance. We lead the world in crime; we lead the world in lawlessness; we lead the world in homes broken by divorces. Many of our pulpits have drifted far away from the message of the early divines of our nation. The collapse of the stock market disclosed the fact that we were a nation of gamblers. We are fast turning our country into an Eldorado for the brewers. With them is no depression."

After quoting Abraham Lincoln as to the certainty of retribution for wrongdoing, he said:

"If, as the great Emancipator says, every sin we commit as a nation demands its terrible price, let us heed the exhortation of his Gettysburg address that we today rededicate ourselves anew to the cause for which so many lives have been sacrificed. As you have fought on Flanders' fields where the poppies grow, so let us all here in the homeland fight shoulder to shoulder like the Boys of the Old Brigade for truth, righteousness, sobriety, for the sacredness of the Holy Sabbath Day, for the sanctity of the home, for the supremacy of law, so that by the help of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, our flag may continue to wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

FARMERS BUSY GROWING BEETS

1350 Southwestern Michigan Farmers Sowing Sugar Beets for Holland Company

Thirteen hundred and fifty farmers in eleven counties of Southwestern Michigan are sowing sugar beet seed this year. The Lake Shore Sugar company has a crew of men conditioning the plant at Holland where the beets from this acreage will be converted into sugar, beet pulp and molasses.

The growers and the sugar company are partners and are operating under a co-operative contract whereby the growers and the sugar company each receive 50 per cent of the net returns from the sugar and all byproducts made from the beets.

This will not only give the farmers another cash crop but it will give employment to many hundreds of laborers in the plant and in the fields.

Because of the wet weather this spring growers are planting seed later than they anticipated, but there still is time to plant beets and mature them by killing frost this fall.

Two miles north of Zeeland lies the little cemetery of Noordloot, a small place overrun with wild roses, long grass, sunken graves and broken tombstones, some of which were there long before the Civil war. This plot is the last resting place of soldiers of four wars in which the United States has engaged. The 20-lot plot is off the main road on a small hill surrounded by tall wild cherry trees. In the southeast corner of the cemetery is a faded flag, which with a marble stone marks the grave of Alexander Hartgerink, one of the few soldiers buried in Ottawa county who served in the Mexican war. Hartgerink enlisted in the 4th Ohio infantry, Company C. He served through the entire campaign and died in 1874. A few steps away from the grave of the Mexican campaigner is that of Marine Bishop. The inscription on the marble slab reads, "Marine Bishop, Michigan, private, 160 field artillery, 85th division, April 11, 1919." Then there is the grave of William De Fouw, Civil war veteran, who died in 1921. Facing the grave of De Fouw is a grave with a Spanish-American marker. At the foot of the grave in a small stone, with the name "Adrian" carved on it, local military records show to be the grave of Adrian Bramme, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, who died in 1902 from illness suffered while in the service. These four graves were decorated by the auxiliary of Gilbert D. Karsten post, American Legion. The auxiliary also decorated graves of all soldier dead in the rural cemeteries of Drenthe, Forest Grove, Vriesland and Beaverdam.

Word has been received by Otto W. Pino that Glen O. Stewart, alumni secretary of M.S.C., has accepted the report of Ottawa-Muskegon district. Candidates for this honor are: Floyd Raymond Otteman, Holland; Syna Weststrate, Holland; and Wilson Hartwell Holmes, Coopersville. These candidates must submit to a faculty scholarship examination in the summer in Grand Rapids.

The 30 graduates of Zeeland High school will hold their commencement program June 14 in the high school auditorium. Miss Ethlyn Schaap and Leonard Kaslander are running close scholarship honors and a tie is almost certain.

Here will be found the "honor roll" of Zeeland school 8th graders: Clarissa Vredevelde, Mythele Voorhorst, Edith Brower, Willard Wabeke, Betty De Pree, Thelma Van Dyke, Hazel De Koster, Eleanor De Vries, Anna Mae Wiersma. 7th grade: Margaret Berghorst, Agnes Walters, Margaret Shenemaker, Joan Ver Lee, Jane Veneklasen, Rosabel De Haan, Ray Van Ommen.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE

MEMORIAL or Decoration Day as many of us still call it, begins the outdoor season. Fresh air encourages an appetite to raid the picnic hamper.

Picnic meals need not be sandwich meals when the markets offer all sorts of interesting fresh and prepared foods at prices to suit even lean pocketbooks.

Potato salad and deviled eggs or cheese offer good cold fare, while frankfurters or bacon and spaghetti in tomato sauce cooked over an open fire are warming. Peanut butter and a box of crackers will help to fill up the youngsters.

Among particularly good buys for this week-end's marketing are new potatoes, carrots, and cantaloupes. The cantaloupe season is just beginning.

The Quaker Maid Kitchen has planned three interesting menus which make use of foods which are plentiful and in season.

They LOOK Expensive

Funny how people judge the cost of things by their looks and quality. That isn't always fair. Now you take a Lloyd carriage or stroller. Put it alongside of a really expensive model and you'd swear the price was away up in the "expensive" class. Who ever thought such fashionable design and refinement of details could be moderate in price! Yet they are. These two Lloyd values and dozens of others now on display prove it.

It was reported that considerable damage had been done to the property and the committee presented their report without recommendation. After considerable discussion, it was moved by Ald. Reports of Special Committees
Ald. Huyser, chairman of the Ordinance Committee, to whom was referred the matter of a censor board for local movies, reported that the local ordinance made it mandatory for the Council to appoint such board. Mr. Huyser stated that he had no definite recommendation to make at this time, but suggested that it might be of some benefit to local movie patrons if some board or committee could work with the management in selecting high class pictures to be shown, instead of attempting to censor and cut out parts of pictures that are to be shown. There was considerable discussion on the matter but no action taken.

Mayor Bosch presented a message to the Council pursuant to the Welfare Committee suggestion recommending that those on the Welfare list be permitted to get butter instead of oleo, if desired, and also plain cookies instead of graham or soda crackers if desired, at no extra cost to the city.

It was further recommended that those on the Welfare list be permitted to select any of the commodities listed on their grocery orders not to exceed the following amounts, which amounts include the 10% above cost:

List No. 1—2 persons, $1.50.
List No. 2—3 persons, $1.80.
List No. 3—4 persons, $2.25.
List No. 4—5 persons, $2.70.
List No. 5—6 persons, $3.15.
List No. 6—7 persons, $3.50.

Above amounts being a reduction of approximately 22% over present allowance.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

May 17, 1933

TO THE HONORABLE,

The Common Council of the City of Holland.

Gentlemen:

The administration of welfare in the city of Holland during these turbulent times has caused considerable friction from various sources. The ultimate success of the welfare department in the city of Holland depends entirely upon the friendly co-operation between city officials and everyone in any way interested in the welfare work.

No hard and fast rule or policy of welfare administration is, or can be made perfect and changes from time to time are indicated for the fair and equitable administration.

From time to time as changes occur to the welfare committee or as are suggested to them, I feel such changes should be brought to the attention of the council for determination pursuant to action heretofore taken by the council.

Certain changes have been discussed by me with the welfare committee and I believe the best interests of the work can be served by making a few changes, which are proposed as follows:

Under the present system the city of Holland has a printed list which is a Welfare Service Grocery, Milk and Meat Order. There are six of these lists which constitute orders for provisions to be furnished to families of various sizes. You are no doubt all familiar with these lists. Pursuant to the committee's recommendation, I submit for your consideration that all of these lists be changed so as to include butter in place of oleomargarine, if desired, and to include plain cookies in place of graham or soda crackers, if desired.

I submit for your further consideration that those on the welfare list using List No. 1 be permitted to select any of the commodities listed thereon in whatever quantities they desire, not to exceed the total sum of One Dollar and a Half, which shall include the 10 per cent above cost; that the same rule shall apply to List No. 2 to the extent of One Dollar and Eighty Cents; that the same rule shall apply to List No. 3 to the extent of Two Dollars and Twenty-five Cents; that the same rule shall apply to List No. 4 to the extent of Two Dollars and Seventy Cents; that the same rule shall apply to List No. 5 to the extent of Three Dollars and Fifteen Cents; that the same rule shall apply to List No. 6 to the extent of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents.

These proposed changes are submitted for your consideration in order that a saving of approximately 22 per cent in welfare work may be effected on these various lists; and that if orders in quantities desired are permitted, it will serve as a great convenience to the grocer and retailer filling the orders, and will further serve to reduce the clerical and bookkeeping work of the welfare department.

Respectfully submitted,
NICODEMUS BOSCH,
Mayor.

RESOLUTION

To the Honorable, the Mayor, and the Common Council of the City of Holland:

WHEREAS, the mayor in a message to the council has proposed that certain changes be made in the administration of welfare work, which are specified in the mayor's written message,

Now, therefore, BE IT RESOLVED, that the common council does hereby approve the various changes proposed by adopting the said message.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the director of welfare be instructed to place these changes in immediate effect.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN WOLTMAN,
AL VAN ZOEREN,
BERT HABING.

On motion of Ald. Woltman, seconded by Van Zoeren,

Resolved that the Council adopt the recommendations as presented by the Mayor in his message, and Resolved further, that the Welfare Director be instructed to put these changes into immediate effect.

IMPORTANT! CONSERVATION CORPS ENROLLMENT FOR VETERANS

Willard G. Leenhouts Post and all Post Commanders:

Word has been received that selection of the World War veterans' quota of 25,000 men for reforestation work will begin in all sections of the country soon. Under the terms of the selection program, the details of which will be announced shortly, the veterans' administration will be charged with the task of selecting the veterans and sending them to army conditioning camps for enrollment in the civilian conservation corps.

Veterans seeking a place in the civilian conservation corps can, if they desire, go at once to the regional office of the veterans' administration in their state and have their names placed on a tentative register for consideration at such time as the official selections for enrollment begin. In advance of the call for men to fill the veterans' quotas, the managers of all regional offices of the veterans' administration have been instructed to establish such tentative registers and take the names of applicants. The veterans who are ready to apply in person, when enrollment at the various veterans' administration regional offices is called for, will stand the best chance of getting into the forest camps.

It is recommended that you submit to this office at once a list of your veterans who are interested in enrollment in the civilian conservation corps giving the man's address, rank and organization, date of enlistment, and date of discharge. This office will arrange to forward these lists to the regional office of the veterans' administration.

If you wish you may instruct your veterans to make direct application, either by mail or in person, with the Detroit office of the veterans' administration, 318 East Jefferson avenue, but in such cases we would like a list of such veterans in order that we may be able to keep a check on all applications.

Please see that these lists are forwarded promptly since developments indicate that actual enrollment will start shortly.

Sincerely yours,

OSCAR C. KLAGER.
The above letter was received by Commander Louis Dalman of Holland.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED AT WARM FRIEND TAVERN MEETING

The Holland Exchange club has completed its plans for the annual combined business session and summer frolic of the Michigan State Affiliated Exchange clubs to be held here June 26.

The festivities will open Sunday evening, June 25, with a religious service in Hope memorial chapel, at which Rev. John E. Kuizenga of Princeton, New Jersey, Theological seminary will deliver the address and Prof. W. C. Snow will have charge of the music. Holland's churches will be invited to join in the service of worship.

Monday's program will feature the president and secretary breakfast at 8 o'clock in Warm Friend Tavern, official business session from 10 to 12, Holland Exchange club host to visitors with Dinney Upton of Muskegon as speaker from 12 to 2; trip to George F. Getz Lakewood farm and zoo from 2:30 to 5; barbecue at Castle park from 5:30 on. More than 200 delegates are expected to attend.

New officers of the club are: President, Andrew T. Klomparens; vice president, Attorney J. H. Den Herder; secretary, Prof. A. Z. Lampen; treasurer, Alex Van Eeten; board members, Fred Beeuwkes, C. C. Wood and John L. Van Huis.

The hold-overs are Peter Notter, Joe Geerds and Frank Dyke. The retiring members are Dr. William Tappan, George Tinhoft and Frank Lieveense.

The guest speaker yesterday was Dr. John E. Kuizenga, who is here for the summer at his home at Central Park.

Mr. Kuizenga especially stressed the disillusionment of the "man in the street" on all big business, stating that they had lost confidence and there was a spirit of resentment in the world. However, this stressful period has taught us many lessons. We have found that we do not need all that we have been having; we have been fearing for the undermining of our national health. However, we find we are healthier because we have to be more frugal in our living.

We have also been disillusioned that the World War would end all war as pacifists thought.

"I am no pacifist," Mr. Kuizenga stated. "I am not a man to see my family trodden down by the enemy without defense. Our youth of today seems to have lost faith in humanity for business in many instances in the minds of the coming generation has fallen forsooth ethically and otherwise as shown in recent events."

"The proper use of leisure time will soon be another period in our scheme of life, in other words, work long enough to make a living makes life worth living. The leisure time can be devoted to other useful things such as gardening, studying and development of the mind. One thing it has taught us and that is group living through sheer necessity and we have liked it. We have become better acquainted; we have been taught what it means when we say 'the milk of human kindness.' We are turning from the selfishness of this life to the life hereafter and we feel that this is only the beginning and not the end of all things. It is hoped that nations, too, will see the light and that the yoke shall not be placed on the weaker nations but that all nations shall carry the burden alike."

"We are getting new standards for our city, state and nation, but in order to be successful these standards must include God in the calculation."

UNUSUAL ATTRACTION AT HOLLAND THEATER

The newly organized WLS barn dance unit show, composed of most of the leading stars of the Prairie Farmer station WLS and stage presentations will be at the Holland theater in Holland on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 6 and 7.

This latest of the traveling WLS groups is preceded here by the reputation of the artists themselves and in addition to furnishing unusual entertainment, will give local theatergoers a complete insight to the manner in which the barn dance feature is put on at the Eighth Street theater in Chicago each Saturday night.

Stars of the air dominate the unit which includes among "great names of the air," the Prairie Ramblers, Mac Terhune, The Hoosier Mimic, Billy Wood, xylophonist; Sue and Sally, the girls of the Golden West, two lassies with guitars and harmony songs lately featured in network programs; the famous WLS exhibition square dancers with their old-time caller; a harmonious new trio, the melody men, headed by Phil Kalar, star of screen, stage and radio; Banjo Bob, nationally known champion of the difficult art of banjo strumming; "Doc" Hukum, the funny man, and others.

All of these acts rate as headliners by themselves and have often been featured on individual performances in Chicago and mid-western theaters. So their combination into one great musical and comedy presentation rates the billing of an "all-star show."

HOLLAND AND ZEELAND COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Last Friday afternoon the marriage of Miss Marguerite De Jonge, one of Zeeland's fair young daughters, became the bride of Mr. Henry J. Steenblik of Holland. The marriage ceremony was performed by her uncle, Rev. P. De Jonge, at his home in Grand Rapids at 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in the presence of immediate relatives. Miss De Jonge is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry De Jonge who reside on East Central avenue, Zeeland, and has been a teacher in our public schools the past three or four years. Mr. Steenblik is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Steenblik, who are residents in The Netherlands. Mr. Steenblik conducts a poultry farm two miles north of Holland where they will make their home—Zeeland Record.

MANY STUDENT ORATORS WILL ENTER RAVEN PRIZE CONTEST

From Hope College Anchor.

Once again the fiery call of the courageous orator rings through the stately rooms of the Memorial Chapel as our young, aspiring orators discuss the weighty problems of the modern day. The stirring addresses are not, however, given before legislatures, courts of justice, or political mass meetings, but rather before a few serious minded college professors. Victory for these orators does not mean political action or reform, but rather a first place on the score sheet.

Under the direction of Hope's veteran coach of oratory, Dr. J. B. Nykerk, ten women are competing for the Women's prize in Oratory, while sixteen men are out to win the A. A. Raven's Prize in Oratory. The winner of the women's contest will be awarded a prize of $25, while the first place winner of the men's division will receive $30, and the second place winner $20.

The first elimination of the girl's division was held last week Friday afternoon, May 26. Five freshman girls competed for the right to enter the finals, and the three winners were Myrtle Beekes, Catherine Haig, and Elinore Pierpont. Vera Damstra and Anna Schellmeers were eliminated. Miss Metta Rott, Mr. Garret Vander Borg, and Mr. Cornelius Dreggman served as judges.

These three winners together with Ruth Ver Hey, the only entrant of the sophomore class, and Mildred Essensburgh and Marie Verduin, members of the Junior class, will compete in the finals, to be held on Friday evening, June 2.

The opening clash in the men's division took place Monday afternoon in Professor Hinkamp's room. Two winners were picked from a list of six entrants. John Vander Muelen, Ralph Danhof, William Weimers, David Lahman, John Butryn, and Adrian De Young are the freshmen who have entered.

The five sophomore orators, Weldon Rumery, Victor Turdo, Sherwood Price, Joe Eather, and Earl Kropscott, will battle it out on Wednesday afternoon, when two of their number will be selected for the finals. The Juniors will be given three contestants in the final elimination. Gerald Heersma, Eikie Meyer, Kenneth Hicks, Chris Walvoord, and Henry Van Raalte will participate in this elimination.

The final contest for the men will be held Friday morning, June 2, before the student body immediately after chapel period. Outside judges will be employed for the final elimination contests.

ZEELAND

The American Legion auxiliary of Zeeland will hold its regular meeting at the Legion rooms Monday evening. All members are urged to be present. A fine program has been prepared, including a play by the pupils of Junior High school. There will also be reports of the 1933 poppy sale.

Rev. and Mrs. Richard J. Vandenberg and Mr. and Mrs. A. Kronmeyer of Central Park were in Chicago Monday to attend the funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kampen and daughter, Ruth Joan, four years old, cousins of the Van Den Berghs, who were killed in an accident on Friday.

They returned home on Tuesday. At the meeting of the Mission circle of First Reformed church, Mrs. D. Van Eenennaam was honored with a life membership of the board of domestic missions, in recognition of her long and faithful service.

Another young Zeeland couple was happily married this week when Miss Flora Post became the bride of Mr. Marvin Geerlings on Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Geerlings, uncle of the groom at his summer home near Holland. Mrs. Geerlings is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Post of this city and Mr. Geerlings is the son of Mr. Fred Geerlings of East Holland. They will make their home with the groom's father.

Miss Marguerite De Jonge, second-grade teacher of the local public schools, was honored last Thursday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Anna Huizenga on Centennial street. Those present were the Misses Mildred Early, Gladys Maatman, Josephine Leenhouts, Mildred Flagel, Louise Wierenga, Mae Plewes, Iva Gilbert, Marguerite De Jonge, Catherine Kemme, Lena Visser, Gladys Meeboer and Anna Huizenga, and Mrs. Henrietta Van Spyker.

William Boes, 27, driver for the Henry Vander Weide Trucking company of this city, was severely injured while en route to Chicago with a truck load of horses. The animals became ungovernable and in the struggle Boes' right hand was badly injured. Surgeons removed part of two fingers.

Among the twenty-one young men graduating from Calvin seminary in Grand Rapids and who will take examination for the ministry are two young men from this community, Dick H. Walters of Borculo, and Martin Huizenga of Zeeland. The graduating exercises at the joint commencement with Calvin college graduates will be held in the Eastern Avenue Christian Reformed church, Grand Rapids, on Tuesday, June 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Tanis celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage at their home on South State street, last Friday, May 26, in the quietness of the family circle. The Tanis have been residents of this city the past fourteen years, coming here from Reemman, Michigan, to become associated with the A. LaHuis company. Mr. and Mrs. Tanis were united in marriage in Filmore township, the ceremony being performed by Rev. M. Van Vessum, former pastor of this city. Mr. Tanis is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Tanis of Reemman, and Mrs. Tanis was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. Vos of Filmore.

Rev. J. Van Peursem, with Mrs. Van Peursem, Marguerite Elgersma, Daisy Schilstra and Helen Koolman took charge of the religious services at the sanitarium in Muskegon last Friday evening.

Old Holland Drum Corps Is In 47th Year

Two of Original Members Are Only Ones Active

By BEN MULDER

I have been repeatedly asked to write a story on the old Holland martial band, prominent in the line of march on every Decoration day. This drum corps has been in existence for the past 47 years. Originally it was a political organization and was named the Republican martial band. It was organized in De Grandt building on River avenue and Seventh street, where the Dutch paper is now located. At that time there was a place for public gatherings there called De Grandt hall.

The late Charles Doesburg and myself started the movement going for a drum corps to be used in political campaigns. Immediately there was quite a response from the young chaps of the city, for in those days the sources of recreation were few - no movies, a stage show about once every two weeks and the lodge were about the only pastimes for Holland citizens.

There were several meetings before the band was finally organized. The original band was composed of 24 snare drummers, four bass drummers, 24 fifers, four buglers and two drum majors.

This body of young men was well drilled by Capt. Peter Moes, for many years an officer in the old National Guard. In fact the members of the corps, before their instruments were secured, were more of a drill squad than a band. It was evident soon that a place for drilling was necessary and the large skating rink on Seventh street, now owned by the IXL Machine shop, was leased by the Republican martial band and put in shape not only as a drill armory but also as a skating rink and a dance floor.

The instruments were then secured through great effort, partly through public subscription and partly through the meager funds that could be secured by the members of the band.

The young men received their instructions on the field from the late "Dad" Hoff, living at Ventura, northwest of Holland. This old veteran went through many battles during the Civil war and carried bullets in his body all through life. He remained a member of the corps for over thirty years and up to the time of his death, which occurred on a Memorial day.

The late Grant Scott taught the drummers how to drum army style and Grant surely knew how to handle the sticks. Every drummer knew the "two-four, flam and double drag." Both Mr. Hoff and Mr. Scott played these respective instruments through the entire Civil war and they were in the thick of it and thoroughly bullet-scarred.

Anyway after spending an entire winter and spring with drilling and martial music practice the boys were raring to get engagements so they could do a little showing off in public.

The writer was the corresponding secretary, whose duty it was to write to officials in cities where celebrations were to be held. To the great delight of the young band a letter to Muskegon brought results for a Fourth of July engagement. It was a tremendous affair and while the Holland band made a splendid appearance in white and blue and were drilled to perfection, too often a neglected feature in other bands, they could really only "come across" with one tune and that was "Yankee Doodle." With this limited repertoire, the band decided to "bluff it through" and boarded the early C. & W. M. train for the "Sawdust City," the railroad company having decided to carry the band free provided enough patrons took the excursion to Muskegon to warrant this.

Well, Holland was out in force and the crowd was so tremendous two extra coaches had to be shunted out of the yards to take care of the overflow. The train arrived at Muskegon shortly after seven and the music committee was on hand to take charge of the band. They were indeed surprised when the boys came to line up at the depot, the drum major at the head topped

PULL OFF R. R. CAR UNTIL EGGS HATCH

When a Hartford-Benton Harbor freight train pulled into the local yards Conductor Roy Blodgett noticed a robin flying under the caboose. Investigation revealed a nest on the under-structure. In the nest were two eggs.

The caboose was carefully "spotted" and a message sent to division headquarters at Grand Rapids. The next morning freight brought another caboose and this order: "Use extra caboose until the robin is done with car."

In a tall white chapeau. No military company knew "forward fours right" better than those band boys and naturally the committee was pleased.

The chairman of the committee then asked for a tune from the Holland aggregation and with a thunder's roll of nearly 30 drums and the shrill shriek of as many fifes, half of Muskegon heard the old familiar tune "Yankee Doodle." "It was marvelous," they said. "Give us another and we will march to the Occidental hotel," which was headquarters. Headed by the committee, the band proceeded to play "Yankee Doodle." The committee said nothing and in the parade the band was placed at the head of the bricklayers' union and all during the march the Holland drum corps was received on the side lines with loud acclaim, but what the bricklayers' union thought of "Yankee Doodle" after two hours of steady marching may be well conceived.

It was the duty of the writer to collect the money from the music committee and with fear and trembling he presented his bill for $65, one dollar for each man for the day's work. The chairman had a twinkle in his eye when he said, "Young man, you have a great corps here; you make a wonderful appearance. The people like you, but that is the biggest price I have ever paid for one tune."

Anyway, that first engagement spurred the members on to try harder and soon they became a seasoned band, playing all the Civil war tunes from "The Dutch Soldier," "Arkansas Traveler," "The Girl I Left Behind Me," etc.

Soon engagements began to come quite regularly. The Holland martial band was the largest corps at the G. A. R. convention at Detroit 25 years ago. The band was the escort of the large Custer post of Grand Rapids, the Weatherwax post of Grand Haven and the A. C. Van Raalte post of Holland.

The Western Michigan division made a great showing when it swung into Woodward avenue, where the reviewing stand was located. At Detroit there was six hours of marching before disbanding and the band was all in at the end of that period.

For three days the band played at the Columbian exposition at Chicago in 1893 and it was especially prominent during Netherlands Day, where our late townsmen, Gerrit J. Diekema, and the late Rev. Van Houten, pastor of the First Reformed church, were speakers on a very pretentious program, where representatives from The Netherlands also appeared.

The band filled many national and state convention engagements at Grand Rapids, Detroit, Kalamazoo, Muskegon and smaller cities. At soldiers' encampment, Elks' and Eagles' national and state meetings, Holland was generally represented.

Just before the World war the band won three prizes in Grand Rapids at an encampment, first as the largest and best corps, second as having the most appropriate feature and third as being the best drilled band in the line up. The feature in the parade was a "Miss Columbia" and a well proportioned "Uncle Sam," followed by the "spirit of '76." In order to make the tableau more realistic, yours truly "dug up" a large army drum. The drum was so worn and devoid of fastenings that we conceived the idea to glue it together. Anyway the drum was in shape for use more than a week before the convention date and the glue was thoroughly hardened. A young chap by the name of George Vandewoude played the army drum, dressed in a continental, or George Washington, suit in order to picture the painting accurately. Rain, however, had not been figured on and as the parade swung into Western Avenue he showed game and to the surprise of the "spirit of '76," first one hoop fell to the pavement, then the drum head and finally the shell of the old army drum. The glue had been dissolved by the water and the pieces of the instrument were soon trampled underfoot and were never seen again.

At the time when the false Armistice was declared, at the close of the World war, I had stored in the Holland City News office five snare drums, one bass drum, some Continental suits and one large flag. A mob raided the office, appropriated the instruments as bedlam broke loose in the street below and up to this day not a drum, uniform or flag has been recovered. Those who remember that day in Holland and all over the nation will not wonder, considering the rough handling this property must have received, for the enthusiasm sure was intense and at that, what did a few drums matter considering that this ended the most terrible strife of a bleeding world.

I could continue indefinitely with incidents as this relates to the Holland martial band but these at least are the highlights. The drum corps today is composed of Peter Stegelder, Peter De Kruker, John Steketee, George Steketee, Edward Stephan, Anthony Van Dori, Jacob Steketee, George Dalman, Cornelius Dalman, Clifford Dalman and myself.

There are no dues, there is no practicing and we meet once each year on Decoration day.

Holland Martial Band Has Unusual History

The above picture shows the Holland martial band as it was about to take the train to Detroit G. A. R. encampment 40 years ago. The entire band is not shown, since the photographer's camera proved altogether too small. It was 5 o'clock in the morning when this picture was taken. The drum major at the head in blue is Capt. Peter Moes. No automobiles at that time, but you will notice the old-fashioned carry-all in the background. The buildings in the background from left to right are the Blom building, Koningsberg's boarding house, now occupied by the three-story Vander Veen building, Kuitse's meat market, Peter Brown's saloon, Spruiensma's shoe store, the Holland City bank, which later became the Holland City State bank, Boot and Kramer grocery, where the Holland City News is now located and the Vander Veen block. The frame buildings have been replaced by Pieper's jewelry store, Fabiano's fruit store, Dekker's Shoe store, Fris book store and the Boston restaurant building.

HOLLAND TAKES PART IN INFIRMARY SERVICES

The annual schedule for Sunday afternoon gospel services at the county infirmary has been assigned among men's Bible classes in the various churches of the county. Each class has been assigned a date covering a period of seven months. The winter months usually are covered by schools located within easy access of Eastmanville. The roster at the infirmary lists close to seventy persons, largely of maturer ages. The oldest person is a centenarian, Mrs. Marie Kuhlman, formerly of Holland.

HOLLAND TOWNSHIP RESIDENT SUCCEEDS AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

Albert Alting, 69, who has been a resident of Holland township all his life, died Saturday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Schilstra of route No. 2, Zeeland. He was born in Holland township on December 19, 1863, and spent his entire life on the farm where he was born.

Surviving are the widow; three daughters, Mrs. Herman Kapenga of Holland, Mrs. William Schilstra of Zeeland, Mrs. Jacob Meusen of Zeeland; and a son, John Alting of Zeeland; six grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Johannes Mulder of Zeeland.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Schilstra in Zeeland. Rev. John Van Peursem, pastor of First Reformed church in Zeeland, officiated.

Robert Visser, 4, suffered an injured collarbone and lacerations on the head Saturday afternoon when struck by an automobile driven by Miss Mary Garvelink. The lad was taken to Holland hospital.

Holland is concerned during these 46 years there were only two rains that brought inconvenience on Memorial day but even on these two days the program was carried through in the open. There was a drizzle two years ago, but not to such an extent that the exercises were stopped in Centennial park or at the cemetery.

Some 25 years ago there was a heavy down-pour as the parade swung into Columbia avenue towards the cemetery. The marchers naturally were thoroughly soaked but the greater part of the program and the parade feature was over when the storm clouds came. After the drenching the sun again appeared and the program was completed at the cemetery, witnessed by a rather bedraggled and dwindled audience.

Cornelius Dalman and I are the only active members of the original corps and that activity crops out about once a year. The boys playing today are about the fifth or sixth crop of players since the original band was organized. Younger chaps get interested and join from time to time, starting as fill-ins.

There are still several members of the original corps left, who have not been active in late years. Our captain, Peter Moes, advanced in years, still has that soldier bearing and is seen on our streets nearly every day.

The members living that come to mind at this time are Joe Mertens, Henry Winter, Fred Kooyers, W. Vandenberg, Al Baker, Benjamin F. Dalman, Dick Vander Haar, Cornelius Dalman, Henry De Kruker and Al Vanden Berg.

The late George Van Landegend was also a member of the original corps and often acted as drum major when Capt. Moes was not present.

Rather an amusing incident took place when the band attended a convention at Muskegon. The special feature again was the "spirit of '76." In order to make the tableau more realistic, yours truly "dug up" a large army drum. The drum was so worn and devoid of fastenings that we conceived the idea to glue it together. Anyway the drum was in shape for use more than a week before the convention date and the glue was thoroughly hardened. A young chap by the name of George Vandewoude played the army drum, dressed in a continental, or George Washington, suit in order to picture the painting accurately. NAVEL ORANGE KING HAD COUSIN IN FENNVILLE

Many years ago, when Dorence Atwater of Connecticut was consul to Tahiti in the South Sea islands, he found and brought to this country a seedless (navel) orange, which is still growing in a glass conservatory on the agricultural grounds in Washington. From this one tree have been propagated all of the navel orange groves in California, Florida, and Texas, valued at many millions of dollars. This item has a local interest in the fact that Dorence Atwater was a cousin of the late Stephen A. Atwater of Fennville, the father of Clifford Atwater of that village. Dorence Atwater married a princess of the islands and, at his death in the states, was taken back to the islands for burial.

Young Scout Going Out to See the World

CARL BENSON OF ALLEGAN TO TAKE OLD WORLD SCOUT CRUISE

Carl Benson, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Clay Benson of Allegan, will sail from New York July 14 for a two-months' tour of 10 foreign countries, including England, Denmark, Sweden, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Hungary, Switzerland, Holland and France. He will be in company with 30 other Boy Scouts from nine of the United States, who will attend the fourth world jamboree of Boy Scouts in Godollo, near Budapest, Hungary.

They will sail on the S. S. Aquitania and the boys will be under the personal direction of Dr. and Mrs. Sven V. Knudsen. Dr. Knudsen spoke in Allegan two years ago at the annual dinner of the Boy Scouts and members of the Rotary club.

This jamboree is held only once in four years, it being held in England last time.

In Holland and Denmark the boys will be paired off in twos and will be entertained in the homes of individual scouts, a week in each country. They will spend one full week at the jamboree in Hungary at which there will be 30,000 scouts registered, with 40 countries represented. The boys will have an opportunity to learn the daily habits of the people and to associate with boys of their own age and interest. Each large city where the boys will visit will hold celebrations in their honor. They will return to New York September 4.

Benson joined the scouts when he was 12 years old and for the past two years has been a member of the Sea Scout Ship No. 94 of the Methodist church. He has reached the rank of Able Sea Scout. In November, 1931, he received his eagle palm; in May, 1932, his bronze palm; in November, 1932, his gold palm and this week Wednesday night at the Allegan county court of honor, his silver palm. He has sufficient merit badges to obtain two additional palms, but must wait six months before another can be granted him. He has earned 48 merit badges and on this trip will obtain his "Long Cruise" merit badge which requires two full weeks of steady sailing to earn. Young Benson has also been a student at Culver Military school. His mother will accompany him as far as New York.

MANY ARE GIVEN SIGNAL HONORS AT NEW BRUNSWICK

Rev. John Steketee, formerly of Holland, but now in New York state, sends a letter telling of rewards given Holland graduates at New Brunswick Theological seminary.

The letter follows: May 29, 1933, Kingston, N. Y. My dear Ben:

I enclose a dollar for the Holland City News. It is with much interest that I read the paper on its weekly visits.

In our Ulster Classis of the Reformed church we are looking forward to receiving in a few days one of Holland's sons in the person of Arthur Edwin Oudemool, who is to become the pastor of the Plattekill and High Woods churches. He has just finished his course in New Brunswick Theological seminary, and on June 5 we are to examine him for ordination. That latter event will occur later in the month. It is of further interest that he was given the Rev. Edward Lodewick Memorial prize, awarded to the student ranking highest in the preaching of sermons. Speaking of New Brunswick seminary prizes, Holland again comes in, for Maurice Marcus won, this May, the George Augustus Sandham scholarship, a prize awarded one to each class each year. In 1931-32 Marcus won it in the middle class; this year in the senior class.

Well, so much for Holland's part in New Brunswick this year. Wishing you continued good health and success.

I am sincerely yours, JOHN B. STEKETEE.

Five Holland young men were graduated as members of the class of 1933 at New Brunswick, New Jersey, Theological seminary. All are graduates of Hope college. The five are Arthur E. Oudemool, Maurice Marcus, Stanley J. Verhey, Laverne J. Vanderhill and James Dean Martin. Oudemool, Verhey and Martin have accepted calls to Reformed churches in the East. Oudemool, who will become pastor of Mt. Marion church, New York, was awarded the Lodewick memorial prize for the best preacher in the class and Marcus was awarded the prize in scholarship for the third successive year.

Church Should Not Be Forced On One, Says Divine

BROTHER OF ARNOLD MULDER DOES GREAT CHURCH WORK IN THE EAST

Rev. James B. Mulder, for many years a resident of Holland, a graduate from Hope college and a brother of Arnold Mulder, the author and editor, has been making tremendous progress in the Highland Park Reformed church in New Jersey.

On Easter morning early services were inaugurated by Mr. Mulder and it was thought that no one would attend—still 141 came. An hour later he held a second service for children—125 attended. The 19 o'clock service brought 305, the 11 o'clock service for children, 289. There was also a Christian Endeavor service and an Easter musical service during the evening and despite a very rainy day a total of 1,066 attended all these services during Easter.

It is also indicated that the church is growing rapidly since 68 new members participated in the last communion service; 35 of these were parents; 11 adults were baptized. In spite of the depression Mr. Mulder's church raised as much for benevolence as last year and $1,000 more for current expenses.

At a dinner given in honor of Rev. Mulder a vote of appreciation was extended him for the excellent work accomplished during the year. The New Brunswick Daily News, under its feature stories "Personalities and Opinions," by Beryl Williams, has the following interview on Mr. Mulder:

"I'd like to say first that I'm in love with my work," said Rev. James B. Mulder of the Highland Park Reformed church. "Anything else I might say and anything I do has that as its background."

Rev. Mulder is still a little worn and shaken from a recent illness, but his face is so alive with enthusiasm for life and work that it would be impossible to imagine him actually ill. Nor does his ardor seem in the least forced, but rather completely spontaneous and irresistible.

"I am convinced that my job is the most important one in the world," he declared. "And it is a job—a big one, but I like every phase of it."

He believes that the child is the most important unit of the church organization, and he has done everything in his power to make the church a place where the child feels at home and an integral part of the unit. Thus children grow up with the idea that, as Rev. Mulder thinks, the church is a necessary part of the community.

"I measure the church in terms of its service," he pointed out. "It should be the social as well as the spiritual center of a neighborhood, and the basis of all other organizations in the community. Furthermore, it should not be exclusively a Sunday proposition, either for the pastor or the congregation. Our church is open every day and evening of the week, and its activities are almost constant. Men and women, young people and children all find some answer to their need for interest and occupation."

"I believe that people should belong to the church," he went on, "but not urged to join it. High pressure salesmanship or an appeal to the emotions are unsound bases for church membership. The church should offer enough to draw folk to it."

"And if they are not drawn they should not be harangued. The pastor and the leaders of the organization are at fault, and should look to their own performances to explain empty pews."

"Because people do want to come to church they are willing to respond. It is true, I believe, that they join churches today less as a social habit or obligation, and more on the basis of what the church really has to give them. The era when non-church members were in bad repute has passed, and consequently people pledge themselves quite willingly to the church. This only when they really mean it. This puts the burden of seeking out members completely upon the individual church organizations, and forces them to offer something of real value to induce members. And that is a good thing—for the church."

MICHIGAN FARMERS AND THE NEW MORTGAGE BILL

I am anxious that all Michigan farmers should be fully advised regarding their rights under the new farm mortgage law. Hence this bulletin. I shall be glad to answer any questions. But careful attention to this bulletin will obviate needless correspondence and hasten results. This bulletin, however, necessarily omits much detail which I shall be glad to supply to any farmer who desires it.

SENATOR A. H. VANDENBERG, (Michigan).

1—The Michigan farmer presents his case either to the secretary-treasurer of a national farm loan association if there is one operating in the county in which his farm is located, or in writing to the Federal Land bank at St. Paul.

These sources will respond with specific advice and conduct any necessary negotiations. No applications will be considered at Washington.

2—The Federal Land bank can purchase any existing farm mortgage on a basis not to exceed 50 per cent of the normal value of the land, plus 20 per cent of the value of permanent insured improvements. It will pay the present mortgage holder either in cash or in 4 per cent bonds (with the interest guaranteed by the federal government).

3—If the farmer's existing mortgage is in excess of these percentages, the present mortgage holder may negotiate with the Federal Land bank to compromise the mortgage within the limits described in paragraph 2. It must be understood in either instance (paragraph 2 or 3), it finally is entirely optional with the present mortgage holder whether he will make such a deal with the land bank.

4—If the deal is consummated in either instance, the farmer's new mortgage will bear interest at 4½ per cent per annum, and for five years no payment need be made on the principal, if the borrower is not otherwise in default.

5—All mortgages now held by Federal Land banks will be re-written on the basis outlined in paragraph 4.

6—New mortgages on farms not previously mortgaged can be made directly with the Federal Land bank, within the limits defined in paragraph 2, at 5 per cent per annum, and no principal payment for five years—with the further pro-

WORNOUT TIRES MENACE TO ALL CAR DRIVERS

Warm weather, combined with the additional miles of week-end holiday driving in prospect, will spell the finish of many already worn-out automobile tires, Charles Van Zyl, local Goodyear dealer, asserts.

"Worn-out tires threaten insecurity for the motorist and his family, and hot weather hastens the time when the danger of blowout and puncture is inevitable. Especially because tires worn thin and weak from long service are subjected to the heat of both long and perhaps fast driving, plus the temperature of the weather itself," Mr. Van Zyl said.

"Naturally a tire is not going to select the most opportune time or place to go flat. It will let go when, as and if, and the when may be some night late far from a service station.

"So why not save the added cost that such delays always bring, not to mention the inconvenience, by getting cars equipped with new rubber. Because with tire prices still near the bottom, every motorist in this section can be assured of carefree holiday trips, coupled with safety to his passengers and the car, if he puts new tires on his car now."

The Holland Vulcanizing company offers a weekly checkup of tire inflations, and tire conditions generally, no charge. Mr. Van Zyl invites local car owners to drive in any time for a complete tire inspection.

viso that this interest rate will be reduced to 4½ per cent if the borrower subsequently joins a "farm-loan association" organized in his community by the land bank. In each instance the farmer also must buy $5 of Land bank stock for each $100 borrowed.

7—Under a different provision of the law, the farm loan commissioner (also to be addressed in care of the Land bank at St. Paul), can make special loans to farmers: (1) to refinance on better terms any existing indebtedness, or (2), to provide working capital, or (3), to enable the farmer to redeem or repurchase farm property lost by foreclosure, since July 1, 1931. These loans can cover 75 per cent of the property. They pay 5 per cent interest, with the principal paid in ten annual installments commencing the fourth year. No such loan can exceed $5,000 to any one farmer. But in all such instances the holders of other indebtedness against the farmer must arrange, through the Farm Loan commissioner, to subordinate their claims to the new claim of the government.

BLOSSOM TOURS AND TULIPS MECCA OF MANY TOURISTS

Sunday, May 14, Mother's Day, was the second bright day of the month of May, and many persons took advantage of the pleasant weather to drive to Holland to see the Tulip Time display of millions of gay-hued blossoms. Fruit trees in the Fennville area are now full of blossoms, and the beautiful sight was enjoyed by many who drove over the country roads to see the orchards in their spring-time glory.—Fennville Herald.

Tax Rate In County Fixed Holland 10 Mill

COUNTY TAX IS 4 MILLS, GR. HAVEN SCHOOLS 8, SPRING LAKE SCHOOLS 5.28

Tax rates for the county, state, school districts and townships of Ottawa county were tentatively fixed by the Ottawa tax commission. The general county tax rate is placed at four mills, which is but 21-100 of a mill below that of last year. The state tax will be 8-10 of a mill and the townships and the school districts vary, according to the needs.

A hearing will be held on Friday at 9 a. m. at the courthouse for redetermination of this preliminary division of the 15-mill tax limitation placed in the state of Michigan last fall when an amendment to the state constitution was adopted following the fall election.

Spring Lake schools were cut to 5.28 mills, following their request for 8, and the township tax was fixed at 4.92 mills. Mr. Holmes stated that the schools in Spring Lake would be greatly hampered by the rate, as fixed by the commission. Several weeks ago a tentative budget was made out based on 6 mills, which cut out the kindergarten, free text books, transportation for children living out of the village and many other services now given to the schools. The present rate will mean even greater sacrifices, he stated, if the budget is to be kept within that rate.

Grand Haven schools were given 8 mills, the amount asked for by the board of education based on the reductions made in the budget this year. The city is not affected as under charter provision the city tax is limited to 1 mill with additional for debt service and street districts. The city rate is 1.16 mills.

Holland schools were given 10 mills; Zeeland, 7.34 mills, and rural districts vary from 1-19 of a mill to 7.34.

Following is the list of township rates and the range of rates for the several school districts showing the lowest and highest tax rates for each township.

City Nurse Is Given Praise

In "The Home Visitor" issued by the Holland Teachers' Club a parent contributes the following letter of appreciation:

Too often we forget to think of one's worth to us until it is too late. The unmentioned cannot be blamed for this, but those of us who know of worth and merit should be happy in making it known. I am happy for the privilege of inserting a few lines in appreciation of our city nurse, Miss Alma Koertge.

Along with many of our indispensable needs is that of a city nurse. When I call to mind the quite noticeable spreading of contagious diseases among the children of Holland not long ago when our city nurse was incapacitated, I am inclined to reiterate that a city nurse for a city the size of Holland is after all quite indispensable.

Miss Koertge, our city nurse for the past fourteen years, is indeed "the nurse" to a great many of Holland people. And, "What would we do without the nurse?" is quite a familiar question with those of us who have been privileged to enjoy her services. We rarely appreciate anyone until the help that person yields to us is contrasted with the unpleasant contemplations of going without it. For this reason, Miss Koertge's services can be quite generally appreciated throughout the city; for in the fourteen years of service here she has touched several thousand lives. When one stops to consider that those recently graduated from our city high school were weighed and measured by Miss Koertge when in the primary grades, the thought of her contacting thousands is easily understood. How many there are who through her scientifically trained eye have been spared the ill effects of bad teeth, bad tonsils, improper health conditions in general! What a number there must be who through the benefits of her correct diagnoses have been spared the discomfort and loss from a contagious disease, all because she "caught in time" a neighbor who might have unknowingly passed some dreaded disease around! How many of us, as parents have felt a restfulness and assurance as she has so graciously offered her services in advice and assistance when it was really off duty hours with her. Miss Koertge, the magnanimous soul that is kept, the golden rule as a rule of life, when with a perfect legitimate excuse, she might have done otherwise.

And why should we wait to say these things? She should know that somebody cares, loves, appreciates, and wishes her well. Let those who unwisely would depreciate her labors know that she has already done too much for too many of us, to lose the high esteem in which she is held by parents in Holland? It is a sincere hope that what has been read will enlist others to see and really appreciate. A Parent.
