Chris-Craft Corp. Plans New Wing At Holland Plant

Additional Facilities Will Boost Employment By About 25 Per Cent

Chris-Craft Corp, which has been turning out pleasure craft here since 1940, is planning to build a 200-foot addition to the local plant north of Holland which is expected to increase local employment by about 25 per cent. Construction is expected to get under way this summer.

Announcement of the new addition was made Wednesday by Harsen Smith of Algonac, vice-president and manager, who emphasized the addition is still in the planning stage and no contracts have been let. Plans call for the addition to be built to the south toward Douglas Ave.

The local plant currently has 200,000 square feet of floor area and a force of 550 employes producing cabin cruisers up to 40 feet long. The plant was built in 1939, began production in 1940 and added a 600-foot addition to the east in 1950.

The Holland plant is one of the larger Chris-Craft plants which operate in Algonac, Cadillac, Grand Rapids, Caruthersville, Mo., and Chattanooga, Tenn.

Harsen Smith, a grandson of Chris Smith, pioneer builder of speed boats and founder of Chris-Craft, also announced that the corporation is seeking to sell the concern's Grand Rapids plant and discontinue making outboard motors there. He said, however, that current production of military items and outboard motors for civilian trade will continue for several more months. He added he hopes the plant will be sold to a purchaser who will continue present production. He did not disclose whether such a deal is now in progress.

The Grand Rapids plant was erected in the early war years and enlarged in 1950 when Chris-Craft began production of outboard motors. Harry H. Coll of Holland is manager of both Holland and Grand Rapids plants. Russell Fredericks is assistant plant manager in Holland.

Memorial Day Parade to March Down 12th Street

Committee to Continue Use of Shorter Route, Eliminate Re-Formation

Holland's Memorial Day parade Saturday will march down 12th St. after all, it was decided at a meeting of the Memorial Day committee Monday night in City Hall. Mayor Harry Harrington presided.

Memorial Day parades have followed the 12th St. route for the last two years, thereby eleminating the time consuming period for re-forming the ranks at 12th St. The plan is being continued mainly because the extra half-mile over Eighth St. is too long for the school children, plus the fact that the re-formation at 12th St. provided an opportunity for too many persons to go home instead of to Pilgrim Home Cemetery where the main ceremonies are held.

Arthur C. Hills, band director speaking for the schools, said the longer line of march is too long for school-age marchers, and pointed to the many casualties in Tulip Time parades. The Red Cross first aid unit, which cared for the Tulip Time casualties, most of them fatigue cases, will be in the Memorial Day parade.

It also was pointed out that crowds seemed to be larger on 12th St. than they were when the parade marched over Eighth St., mainly because of the shade afforded on the residential street.

The parade will start at 9:30 a.m. lining up in the vicinity of 12th St. and Central Ave., and marching east on 12th to Columbia, south on Columbia to 16th, and east on 16th to the cemetery. J. J. Riemersma will serve as marshal of the day.

George Lumsden will take charge of ceremonies in Monument Square in Pilgrim Home Cemetery No. 1. The Rev. Christian H. Walvoord will serve as chaplain of the day.

State Senator Charles R. Feenstra of Grand Rapids will give the oration. Don Lubbers of Hope College will read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and Kenneth Brummel of Holland High School will read Gov. Williams' Memorial Day proclamation. Camp Fire girls will give choral readings, "In Flanders Field" and "America's Answer." The Civil War monument will be decorated by Betty Hamm, Mary Lou Nash, Donna Stoner and Phyllis Ver Hoef, daughters of veterans. The American Legion Band will provide music for the ceremonies. Members of the National Guard will fire a military salute and Boy Scouts will decorate graves of veterans.

Two more casualties have been added to the list of Korean veterans, two more to World War II, and 14 more to World War I: Korean casualties are Kenneth Young and Harven Overbeek. World War II veterans are Harry Lergner and Kenneth R. Williams. Added to the World War I list are Floyd Bedell, Benjamin Batema, Gerrit Lokker, George B. Perry, Leonard Overway, Charles R. Harrigan, John Meyer, George S. Everhart, Henry J. Boone, Gerrit J. Glupker, Dick Brondyke, Frank Jillson, George Vander Wall and William Van Anrooy.

Only the thought of a new boat acting like it in Germany comforts Hugh Schaddelee as he sits on the old Hilaria tied up at Jesieks after he and his sister, Mrs. James Lugers (left) helped put the boat in the water on May 7. New owners of the boat, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Engholm of Toronto, Canada, with Schaddelee and Allan Willard of Grand Rapids, plan to leave Holland Memorial Day to start the boat, rechristened "Ivanhoe II", on the trip to Toronto. The Schaddelees and son, Dick, will go to Germany this summer to see their new yawl being built.

New Yawl Will Replace Macatawa Bay's Hilaria

Missing from the familiar mooring in Lake Macatawa this summer will be the 55-foot yawl, Hilaria, and her skipper, Hugh Schaddelee, who has sailed her to many victories in seasons past.

The Hilaria has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Engholm of Toronto, Canada, and rechristened the "Ivanhoe II."

Schaddelee is joining the new owners on Memorial Day to start the trip home to Canada. Also on deck will be Allan Willard of Grand Rapids, who has crewed for Schaddelee many times.

There will be another Hilaria in the Macatawa Bay Yacht Club sail fleet, however, since a new 55-foot yawl is being built in Germany at the Abeking and Rasmussen shipyards.

Like the Hilaria, the new ship will sleep seven persons. It will have a center board and shallow draft for cruising. The keel has been laid and much of the work is being done by old time craftsmen in Germany. The boat will be fitted for salt water.

"We decided to take a trip to Europe this summer so we could watch the boat being built," Schaddelee said. "We may as well take the trip now, as long as we will be without a boat until fall. The new Hilaria won't be completed until September and then it wouldn't be safe to make a crossing, so we will put her aboard another ship for the trip to America."

Mr. and Mrs. Schaddelee and their son, Dick Schaddelee, will leave some time after Memorial Day. They will take the new boat to Florida and use it there during the winter before bringing it to Holland.

Parting with a boat that has won so many races and performed so well is always sad, but Schaddelee will have the satisfaction of seeing her safely to her new port. Hilaria won the Class A Mackinac race in 1952, the 1952 Class A LMYA, Michigan City-Chicago, Chicago-Saugatuck, first in Macatawa-South Haven and Macatawa-White Lake.

Mrs. James Lugers, Schaddelee's sister, who lives on South Shore Dr., helped him put the boat in the water at Jesieks on May 7. More work has been done in preparation for the Memorial Day trip.

Gregory Declared Insane; Ordered To Ionia Hospital

Slayer Ruled Innocent By Reason of Insanity In Trial Without Jury

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Harold D. Gregory, who admitted he killed two neighbors who had befriended him, was acquitted of murder but ordered committed to Ionia State Hospital for the criminally insane late Tuesday.

Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith acquitted the 25-year-old farm hand on a murder charge but ordered him committed "for life" on the basis of testimony by psychiatrists.

Gregory left Wednesday for Ionia, accompanied by Sheriff Jerry Vanderbeek and Deputy Vernon Conant.

The slayer, an escapee of the Traverse City State Hospital, confessed he killed Andrew Kuntz, 22, a neighbor, with a shotgun, and fatally wounded the latter's wife, Ethel also 22, with 48 stab wounds the night of April 10.

Gregory was charged specifically with the murder of Kuntz and in event he should be declared sane in the future, authorities could charge him with the murder of Mrs. Kuntz. The two-day trial was without jury. Howard W. Fant had been appointed by the court as Gregory's counsel. The prosecution was carried on by Prosecutor Wendell A. Miles.

In announcing the verdict, Judge Smith declared: "Harold Gregory stands acquitted of this offense by reasons of insanity and thereupon revolves the court's duty to order Gregory to be committed forthwith to the Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane for the rest of his natural life.

"There can only be criminal responsibility where there is a mentality involved that is capable of appreciating the nature of the offense and notwithstanding the temptation to perpetuate it."

Gregory, formerly of Muskegon, had been in and out of Traverse City State Hospital several times since he was 15. He escaped in August, 1950, and was never returned.

He had admitted robbery was the motive for his visit to the Kuntz home. At the time of the slaying he was living with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Corbett, who have since moved to Grand Haven.

Gregory's mother, Mrs. Mary House of Muskegon, took the stand on behalf of the respondent Tuesday afternoon. Mother of 14 children, eight of whom are living, she said Harold did not make good in school and had been placed in an "opportunity" or ungraded school. As a child he imitated chickens and dogs until he was eight years old. In 1943, the mother signed a petition in Muskegon County to admit him to a mental institution.

Mrs. House said she visited her son several times while he was in the county jail. To her questions on why he committed the murders, she said he replied, "Ma, I don't know." Another question he asked was: "Will they give me the electric chair?"

Mrs. House said she never felt Harold was a "bad boy" until the time of the murder. During the period following his escape from the institution in 1950, she often thought him "funny" but never thought he would commit murder. When he first saw his mother in the county jail, he broke down and cried.

Appearing as witnesses during the two-day trial were Henry Molenkamp, bartender at the Yellow Jacket; Joseph E. Kammeraad, coronor for northern Ottawa county; Bernard Corbett, brother-in-law of Gregory; Louis Wolfe, a neighbor of Corbett; Mrs. Herman Swainston, deputy register of the Muskegon County Probate Court; Dr. R. A. Morter, superintendent of the Kalamazoo State Hospital; Dr. David A. Davis of Grand Rapids; Sheriff Jerry Vanderbeek, Undersheriff Harris Nieusma; Mrs. Mary House, Gregory's mother, and Mrs. Hagstrom, his sister.

Knights to Begin Active Competition In Cross-Country

KALAMAZOO—The MIAA governing board unanimously voted Calvin College to membership Thursday, making the MIAA an eight-team conference.

Calvin will be on probationary status for one year "to see if the college observes all the regulations."

The governing board is meeting here in conjunction with the annual MIAA Field Day that includes competition in golf track and tennis.

Calvin made application for membership "some years back" but in recent months it has been revived and the matter was brought to a head at Thursday's meeting.

Calvin will enter league competition next basketball season and all spring sports in 1954. The Knights have been playing all MIAA schools with the exception of Adrian in basketball in recent years and most of the schools in spring sports.

One of the stumbling blocks to acceptance of the Knights was the fact that the Grand Rapids school does not have a football team. However, the Knight representatives at the meeting of faculty representatives and athletic directors—John Tuls, acting athletic director and John DeVries, faulty representative — said Calvin is willing to field a football team as soon as they can.

Milton "Bud" Hinga, Hope Athletic director, said, "We at Hope realize you can't do that sort of a thing in five minutes. It takes time."

"I have been interested in some time in getting them into the league, because they are playing every school but Adrian in basketball and spring sports," Hinga said. "We felt that Calvin is a good and highly credited institution and believe the only fly in the ointment is football and that takes time."

"We at Hope are glad to have them in," he said.

John Tuls of Calvin College had this to say Friday: "We're highly pleased and very excited about it and like it very much. It's something we have looked forward to for years and years."

"I understand the league has changed its by-laws to permit a school to compete in six out of seven sports and since we do not play football we will play all the other sports beginning with cross-country next fall."

Hope faculty representative Clarence Kleis and Hinga, along with Al Vanderbush and track coach Larry Green were among those attending the meeting Thursday at Kalamazoo College.

Vanderbush is chairman of a special committee named to work on a revised football schedule for the next years.

Man Charged With Armed Robbery

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Hartley Moore, 26-year-old Spring Lake man who led city, state and village officers on a search and chase which lasted 14 hours Sunday, was to be charged with armed robbery in Beulah Wednesday in connection with a holdup Saturday night at the Beulah A and P store in which more than $2,000 was taken. Moore was taken to Beulah Tuesday afternoon by state police.

Also charged with the same offense is Harold Cady of Muskegon who is alleged to have been with Moore Saturday night. Both are ex-convicts.

Warrants charging Moore with larceny of an automobile and nighttime breaking and entering also were expected to be issued out of Ottawa county. The larceny charge involves a 1952 sedan owned by Charles Allen of Grand Haven which was stolen May 19 and recovered last Sunday in Muskegon. It is believed the Allen car may have been used in the Beulah robbery.

The other offense allegedly occurred May 20 when the Kooiman Sports shop on North Seventh St. was broken into and two .22 caliber automatic pistols were taken.

One of these pistols as well as $275 in cash was found on Cady when he was apprehended by Muskegon officers. Moore had $270 in his possession when he finally surrendered at 5:30 p.m. Sunday when he was cornered at McLean's bayou in Spring lake. It is believed the other gun may be in the bayou and state police were attempting to recover it today.

Moore also was to have appeared for examination in justice court Tuesday afternoon on a cohabitation charge pending against him in Ottawa county.

Damage to the '50 model White car was estimated at $600 and at $300 to the Wismar '51 model car, police said. Wismar was issued a ticket for failing to stop at a stop street by Holland police.

Drivers Urged To Take it Easy

With the arrival of the summer months, speed, the No. 1 public enemy on the highways, is increasing its harvest and wise motorists anxious to save their lives will keep this in mind by driving with the utmost safety, according to Sgt. Carl Kamhout, commanding officer of the Grand Haven State Police Post.

"Figures just revealed show that last year 48 per cent of the traffic violations reported in fatal accidents were for driving too fast, the highest percentage in the history of the state," Sgt. Kamhout said. "Driving too fast doesn't just mean getting everything out of the car you can, but going too fast for conditions such as traffic, weather and visibility."

Police agencies throughout the state now are co-operating in a campaign to urge drivers to control speed, Sgt Kamhout reported.

"Safety appeals are not just idle talk," Sgt. Kamhout said. "The record shows just how foolish it is to drive faster than you should. During 1952, for example, there were 160,829 accidents as compared with 176,587 in 1951, a reduction of 15,758. But even with fewer accidents, more people were killed or injured last year than during the year previously, or 50,837 casualties in 1952 and 50,058 in 1951. The answer was that cars were being driven too fast and hit with greater impact with more serious results.

"The law does not set a specific maximum speed limit, but it does require that cars be driven at a speed that is safe according to conditions. Sometimes this is higher and sometimes lower. But a driver who is anxious to save his life will not only drive cautiously, but watch out for the other fellow who isn't. And this is the season of the year for more accidents."

Dutch Beat Out Albion Britons In Annual Meet

KALAMAZOO—Hope College is MIAA track king for the second consecutive season.

Paced by Ron Bos' victories in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, the Dutch squelched their nearest threat—Albion—and walked off with top honors at the annual MIAA meet run off at Angell Field Friday afternoon and evening.

Hope ended up with 82 and three-quarters points to 62 for Albion. Others down the line were: Kalamazoo, 33½; Adrian, 18½; Hillsdale, 13 and three-quarters; Adlma, 12½ and Olivet 2½.

Bos was the individual star of the meet as he equaled the Angell field record in the 100 of 10.1—held jointly by himself and three others—and won the 220 in 22 flat. He won the same events in last year's MIAA meet. The Hope speedster was the only man to win two events. He beat the pack by a good 12 yards in the 220 and was three yards ahead at the tape in the 100.

That was the only record tied during the meet which was run off in some chilly weather and on a comparatively "slow" track. Field events and qualifying rounds were run off in the afternoon and the finals under the lights before a crowd of about 500 spectators.

All the way along the line, Hope's runners gave their best performances of the season.

The Dutch got the jump on the field in the afternoon finals of field events when they piled up 37 and three-quarters points to 19 for Albion in second spot. Especially decisive was the discus where John Brannock finished first, followed by Ken Bauman, second, and Frank Talarico, fifth. That meant 10 points for Hope to none for Albion.

Six men tied for first in the high jump at the low height of 5'6". Rain had loosened the take-off area and none of the jumpers could get much spring.

Another incident occurred in the two-mile run. Weingandt of Hillsdale put on a terrific last lap spurt and on overtaking leader Rathbun on the last turn before the stretch, he elbowed the Adrian runner and was disqualified. Thus, Rathbun was declared the winner, Weigandt's time was 10:-31.

Hope erased any Albion hopes of victory in the next-to last event—the 220 low hurdles—as the Dutch finished second, third and fourth for nine points to none for Albion.

Coach Larry Green, in his first year at the helm, managed to say, "It sure was nice to win," between receiving and handing out congratulations to his men.

The victory was a glowing tribute to all the Hope College coaching staff that has generated intense interest in track on the campus in the last couple of years.

As Milton "Bud" Hinga said, "A couple of years ago we would have been satisfied with eight or nine points at one of these affairs, but look at us now."

Holland High Baseball Team Chalks Up Fourth Straight Victory of Week

Holland High School's baseball team is about as hot these days as the Yucca Flats atomic testing grounds out in Nevada. Look at this. The Dutch won four out of four games last week.

Latest victim was Benton Harbor to the tune of 11-4 at 19th St. field Thursday afternoon

Holland scored its first run in the second inning Thursday when Bob Van Dyke got to first on an error. Joe Okrie singled. Dick Plagenhoef struck out and Ron Boeve was safe on a fielder's choice. Van Dyke scored on an error.

Benton Harbor took a brief lead in the top of the third with two runs on two hits, a stolen base and three walks. During the inning Coach Ned Stuits sent Jerry Victor in to relieve starter Dean Vander Wal.

Holland snapped right back with three runs on just one hit in the bottom of the third. Bob Van Dyke got the first of his three doubles for the afternoon. Two errors and a walk helped the cause.

The Dutch added three more in the bottom of the fourth on singles by Terry Burns and Ron Boeve and another double by Van Dyke, plus three errors.

The Dutch came up with two more in the fifth on four hits, including singles by LaVerne Hoeksema, Victor, Burns and Plagenhoef.

Benton Harbor scored its only other runs in the sixth on four hits— including doubles by Schlender and Barchett and singles by Zacha and Arent—and a walk.

Holland polished off with two more in the same inning on another double by Van Dyke, a double by Ron Boeve and a walk.

The short left field at the 19th St. accounted for the many ground rule doubles.

For Holland it was 11 runs, 12 hits and one error to four runs, nine hits and four errors for Benton Harbor.

Vander Wal hurled two and two-thirds innings, allowing two runs, two hits, struck out four and walked two. Victor went the rest of the way and allowed two runs, seven hits, struck out four and walked two.

19-Run Attack by Bareman's Leads To North End Loss

Bareman's Service went on a hitting rampage in the first game of Holland City Softball League play at Van Tongeren Field Monday evening and when the dust had cleared the scoreboard read a final 19-3, against North End Tavern.

In the second game, Main Auto topped the Moose 6-4.

Jun Bremer paced that 19-hit-attack in that first game with three home runs and a single in five times at bat. He was followed closely by George Knoll who also had four hits in six times at bat.

Bremer's circuit blows accounted for six of the winner's runs. A homer by Knoll accounted for another three.

Case Velderman started on the mound for North End and gave way to Ed Stille and Herk Cramer in later innings. Together they allowed 11 walks and let go three wild pitches. North End was charged with three errors.

Besides Knoll and Bremer, Lou Altena had two out of three; Chet Warner one for four; Bob Altena, three for four; Norm Bos, two for four; Bob Borgman, one for three and Joe Berens, one for three.

Every Bareman player scored at least one run and all hit safely at least once.

Berens allowed North End nine hits, including three for four by Lou Borgman. Other Bareman hitters were Jun Buursma, two out of three; Dell Koop, Cramer, Ray Klomparens and Ed Stille, one apiece.

Home runs by Herb Maatman and Mel Koenes accounted for four out of the six Main Auto runs in the second game and one by Gil VandenBerg brought in two of the four Moose runs.

The winners outhit Moose 10-7. Jason Ebels was the winning pitcher while Bob Birce started for the Moose and was relieved by Bob Fortney in the fifth.

Maatman with two for four, Howie Glupker with three for four and Jerry Prince with two for three were the leading Main Auto hitters. Others were Koenes, Ebels and Ernie Prince with one apiece.

Almost 10,000 Defeat Boros

Almost 10,000 golfers from throughout the nation including 10-year-old Patty Shook of Saugatuck—owned shiny bronze medals today which proudly proclaimed: "I Beat Julius Boros."

That was the number of fans who posted better scores during the week-end than the round of 70 shot by National Open champion Boros at the Oakmont Country Club course in Pittsburgh.

Patty, daughter of Saugatuck Golf pro Lorin Shook ,was playing her first round of the season in this event. She was playing from a 48-handicap plus seven strokes allowed under national golf day rules. That gave her a total of 55-stroke handicap.

She tied her old record of 62 on the first nine, set last year when she was nine, and then came back in a 59, three strokes better than her old record. That gave her a gross of 121 and a net of 66. She, therefore, beat Boros by four strokes.

Patty not only won a medal but received a new golf bag from her father who made the promise if she ever shot lower than 60.

Jake Boersma, also playing at Saugatuck, beat Boros with an 87, less 18 handicap for a low net of 69.

Eight golfers at American Legion Country Club beat Boros. Low gross was Bernard Arendshorst with a 72 minus a five handicap for a low total of 67. Ted Yamaoka with a 75 gross and 10 handicap was low for the day with a 65.

Others were (first number is gross score, second handicap and third net):

Ted Kino, 94-25-69; Larry Bowerman, 76-9-67; George S. Barnes, 85-15-69; Jay Petter, 79-10-69; Edward Rackes, 77-8-69; and George Botsis, 7-10-68.

Kempker Pitches Two-Hit Shutout As Holland Edges Godwin Heights

Jack Kempker accomplished something that few pitchers around these parts have done Monday afternoon when he set Godwin Heights down with just two hits and no runs. Final score was 2-0.

It was sweet revenge for Holland High's baseball team that had bowed to Godwin in two previous meetings this season, including that Saturday night ball game.

The win also gives Holland a .500 mark with six wins and the same number of defeats.

And one of those measly two hits was a bunt that third baseman Bob Van Dyke undoubtedly would have fielded for an out had he not slipped on the wet grass and bobbled the ball. The only other hit was a double by Sweeris in the third inning.

What makes Kempker's feat more remarkable is the fact that he ssued 10 walks along the route, but each time the men died on base. The diminutive senior struck out five.

Of course Kempker was afforded some good support by his mates, especially plays by shortstop Joe Okrei and second baseman Bill Sandahl. Besides his play afield, Okrei singled two out of three times at bat for two of Holland's four hits.

The Dutch scored both their runs in the bottom of the sixth on a combination of a single by Dick Yskes, two errors and a fielder's choice.

Dick Plagenhoef had Holland's other hit, a single in the second inning.

Holland was charged with just one error in the game while Godwin players muffed four times.

Coach Ned Stuits and his lads travel to Portage for a game this afternoon.

Stingy Pitching Features Holland Softball Action

Holland City Softball League pitchers were just as stingy Friday night as they were generous Thursday night when they allowed just 14 hits compared with 34 Thursday.

Rog Schutt of the VFW allowed Hulst Bros. just one safety as the Vets downed the implement dealers 2-0, and in the opener, Main Auto made four hits to two for Barber Fords to take a 4-1 victory.

Jerry Prince started for Main Auto and a streak of wildness in the second inning gave Fords its run on four walks and a wild pitch. However, Jason Ebels spelled him in the fourth inning and allowed just one hit the rest of the way.

Don Sundin and Stan Wlodarczyk got Fords two hits.

Norm Boeve was on the mound for Fords and allowed four hits. The winners scored twice in the second on a single by Ernie Prince, an eror, a stolen base, a wild pitch and a fly ball.

Prince accounted for the other two Main Auto runs in the sixth when he homered to score behind Jun Maatman who had walked.

Prince and Howie Glupker each had two for three.

Denny Kimber provided the only two runs in the VFW's 2-0 shutout of Hulst Bros. He socked a home run in the sixth inning with Bob Schut on base for the tallies.

The Vets had seven hits including two out of three for Doug Harmsen, two out of four for Don Van Duren, and one each by Schutt, Bob Schut and Kimber.

Mel Zoerhoff made the only Hulst Bros. hit, a single to right, in the third inning.

Dale Hulst and Bob Vork hurled for the losers. Schutt, the winner, struck out seven and walked two.

The first game went nine innings, regulation time for these Zeeland Softball Association games being seven. In Wednesday night's contests at Legion Field, North Holland squeezed by Jamestown 4-3, and South Blendon beat North Blendon 5-4 in the second game.

Holland Christian Bows to Fennville In Baseball Game

Holland Christian's baseball squad went down to its eighth defeat of the season Thursday afternoon at Fennville, bowing to the Hawks, 6-3. Fennville also took an earlier decision over the locals in Holland.

For five innings the game could have gone either way with both clubs playing on even terms. But a big four run rally by the winners in the sixth frame spelled defeat for Coach John Ham's aggregation.

Allan Van Houten went all the way on the mound for the Dutch, giving up six hits, five in the big sixth inning. Meanwhile, Skip Bale was turning in a neat performance for the Fennville club, scattering just three hits to the Maroons. His defensive support was not up to par, however, as his mates committed six errors. Christian was guilty of four misplays.

Fennville sent the first run across the plate in the second inning without the aid of a hit. A walk, a hit batsman and an error did all the damage for the locals. They added another marker in the third inning on similar circumstances. Two hit batsmen, an error and an infield out accounted for the run on this occasion.

Christian got one run back in their fourth inning on a double by Shortstop Bill Vryhof, an error and a fielder's choice. They totaled another unearned run and tied up the game in the fifth on three Fennville errors and a fielder's choice.

Then the roof literally fell in on the Dutchmen in the big Fennville uprising in the sixth inning. Five singles, bunched with a walk and a couple of costly Holland errors was all that the winners needed to clinch the victory.

The Hollanders came back in their seventh frame to score one run on a single by Centerfielder Bob Venema, a walk and a fielder's choice, but they couldn't keep the rally going to knot the count.

Third baseman Smith was the Hawks' leading batter with two hits in two trips to the plate. Justin Gebben, Maroon second baseman, got the third Dutch safety.

Christian School Society Maps Further Expansion

Holland Christian school society took another expansion step Monday night in a special meeting held in the high school gymnasium, when it unanimously approved a school board proposal to add rooms to new school buildings. The meeting Monday night was a follow up of an earlier session when the board plans were outlined in a discussion with the school planning committee.

Officially the society adopted two board proposals. The first motion provided that the board of trustees be authorized to obtain detailed plans and specifications for a six-room addition to the South Side Christian grade school and a eight-room addition to the present "B" building of the high school, and arrange for their erection so that if possible the buildings may be used by September of 1954.

The other proposal was that the board of trustees on behalf of the society be authorized to borrow funds needed to build the proposed additions and grant such real estate mortgage or mortgages as may be deemed necessary by the board as security for the society's obligation, bearing interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent per annum.

Cost of the entire project was estimated at $150,000 by Harold Vander Bie, chairman of the construction committee. The high school addition figure was set at $80,000 and the grade school structure at $70,000.

The grade school addition would be erected adjacent to the present South Side school and would extend west, forming an L-shaped school, Vander Bie said. The buildings would be connected with one corridor running through the new structure and linking it with the the old. The South Side school is a comparatively new school which was completed in 1949.

The high school addition of eight rooms will be connected as part of a long range plan, to a building which is not yet completed. The present "B" building of the high school is now under construction and will not be completed until fall. However, the society voted to extend the present new building to include eight more classrooms.

Supt. Bert P. Bos in an elaborate statistical report showed that the immediate problem now and for the next few years is in the grade schools. However, he pointed out that the addition in the high school will alleviate the situation a great deal since it would release the present high school building for junior high purposes. In turn this would allow the elementary grades to use the present junior high school building on 15th street. In his remarks Bos said he was basing his figure on very conservative figures. He pointed out that it was extremely difficult to estimate just how high the enrollment will go in future years.

He said, "It has been pointed out in a recent report that the public elementary and high school enrollment on a national scale had increased 15 per cent from 1946-1952. However, the part which makes our problem so much more difficult, is that we find that our Christian schools here in Holland have increased about 70 per cent in the same period."

Following the discussion on the new buildings led by Vander Bie, Jerry Jonker, chairman of the finance committee, outlined tentative plans for the financing of the new program. He said the committee as yet had no definite recommendations to make, but he did outline some of the steps which will be taken in the future to raise the funds.

John Veltkamp, president of the board, presided.

Hope Nine Defeats Grand Rapids JC To Avenge Loss

Hope College's baseball team had a chance to avenge one of its three defeats of the season—and did so — Thursday afternoon against Grand Rapids Junior College at Riverview Park.

Final score was 4-2 in favor of the Dutch and gives the MIAA co-champions a 9-3 record with two games left on the schedule.

Coach Russ DeVette wasn't going to fool around with second-stringers this time against the Raiders and his men were just as determined as they banged out a total of 10 hits.

Junior College managed eight hits, but both Raider runs were unearned.

Hope started with one run in the first inning. Dick Ortquist beat out an infield hit to gain first base. Zeke Piersma flied out to right. Al Dykema singled to right to score Ortquist.

Jaycee tied it up in the fifth when Hoop was hit by a pitched ball. Kulczak singled and Chayes was safe on a fielder's choice. Hook scored on a passed ball.

Hope got two runs in the bottom of the fifth. Piersma doubled. Dykema followed with a single to score Piersma and Dykema came home when the third baseman erred on Van Hoeven's grounder.

The Dutch added another in the seventh. Piersma beat out a grounder to third. Jerry Lubbers was safe on an error and Van Hoeven singled to score fleet Piersma.

Jaycee got its other run in the eighth when Bale gained first when Van Hoeven bobbled a grounder. Cook singled and Bale came all the way when Willie Rink let the ball get past him in left field.

John Busman went all the way for the Dutch and struck out four and walked just one. Baker was on the hill for the Raiders and struck out five and walked three —including an intentional pass.

Piersma had a double and a single for Hope. Ortquist and Dykema each had two singles. Busman had a double. Klomparens, Van Hoeven and Lubbers had a single apiece.

A beautiful rededication wedding ceremony was performed Friday evening in the Hope Church sanctuary when the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Drew, made their vows, which were repeated softly with them by each couple in the audience. Guests were members of the Hope Church Mr. and Mrs. Club and other invited guests.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of beige embroidered net and fingertip veil of bridal illusion. She carried a bouquet of shaded lilacs.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Vanderham, wore a pale blue embroidered net gown and carried a spray of lavender and white lilacs tied with rainbow ribbon. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Leonard Swartz and Mrs. Gerard Haworth, wore pink and aqua marquisette gowns, respectively, and carried lavender and white lilacs. Little Julie Haworth as flower girl wore a gown of pink nylon trimmed with white lace.

Robert Vanderham assisted the groom as best man. Leonard Swartz and Gerard Haworth were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Lamb, Jr., served as master and mistress of ceremonies and also were in charge of the guest book.

Music was provided by Mrs. Marion de Velder, who sang "O Perfect Love" preceding the rites and "Wedding Prayer" following the prayer. She was accompanied by Mrs. W. Curtis Snow, organist.

Before the wedding, the purpose of this rededication was explained to the audience by the Rev. William Hilmert.

The church was beautifully decorated with white lilacs by Mrs. Paul Fredrickson, assisted by Mrs. William Beebe and Mrs. H. J. Thomas. Mrs. Walter Wrigley, assisted by Mrs. Fred Coleman, decorated the wedding table and church parlors with white and shaded lavender lilacs for the wedding supper.

The gift table was uniquely set up by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Westerhof and Mr. and Mrs. John De Haan, Jr., with displays representing the ways in which couples earned money presented as "wedding gifts" to the Mr. and Mrs. Club. Thirty one-dollar bills were distributed among the club members to be increased as they saw fit. Through dinners, Tulip Time Parking, baking, sewing, lawn work and other projects, $259.43 was returned to be used for the club and church activities.

General chairmen for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Haworth. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Deridder and Mr. and Mrs. George Steininger were in charge of invitations. Mrs. Leonard Swartz and Mrs. L. W. Lamb, Jr., made the wedding bouquets. Co-chairmen for the food committee were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. De Witt and Dr. and Mrs. John Hollenbach, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Marsilje, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Howard, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Towe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drew and Mr. and Mrs. John Van Putten.

Hitting Features Softball Games; Six Homers Listed

Holland City Softball League players put their bats to work in the two scheduled games Thursday night at Van Tongeren Field and banged out a total of 34 hits —including six home runs.

North End Tavern thumped hapless North Holland, 13-0, in the one game with a 13-hit attack while Bareman's Service rapped out 11 hits to down the Moose 6-4. Home runs figured prominently in both games.

Successive four-baggers by Herk Cramer and Bill Zych in the second inning set the stage for the North End rout of North Holland. Cramer got another one in the seventh inning and third baseman Jun Buursma rapped one with two mates aboard in the sixth inning.

The winners scored two in the second, eight in the sixth inning and finished off with three in the seventh.

Cramer and Lou Borgman each had three hits for North End, Buursma had two, and Case Velderman, Ron Wiersma, Dell Koop, Bill Zych and Ed Stille each had one apiece.

Stille went the distance for the winners and allowed four hits—two by Vern Hop and one each by Bern Ebels and Jun Hop.

A three-run homer by Bob Altena in the seventh inning enabled Bareman's to overcome a two-run Moose lead and gave his team a victory. Moose had scored all four runs in the fifth inning on four hits—including a homer by Jason DeVries—an error and a wild pitch.

Bob Berens went the distance for the winners and gave up six hits while Bob Fortney was on the mound for Moose and gave up 11 hits.

Frank Van Dyke with three for three paced the Bareman attack. Bob Altena and Bob Berens each had two for four, and Lou Altena, Bob Borgman, George Knoll and Joe Berens each had one hit.

Paul Fortney led the Moose attack with two for four while Stu Baker, Don Hulst, DeVries and Gil Vanden Berg had one apiece.

League Observes 60th Anniversary

Zion Lutheran Church joined all Lutheran Churches in the United States, Canada and Europe, on Saturday when they celebrated the 60th anniversary of Walther League.

Zion Church had a banquet for all Walther Leaguers and parents to welcome incoming leaguers, who will be confirmed next Sunday. New members, Phillis Enstam, Richard Ruhlig, Owen Carlson, Nancy Francis and Joanne Ruddick, with their parents, were guests of honor.

Dinner was followed by a musical program, including a piano solo by Mari Van Dyke and a trombone duet by William Steininger, Bruce Rathke, accompanied by Ruth Wendt. Group singing was conducted by the choir director, Mrs. F. Hoogerhyde.

Addresses were given by representatives of church organizations. In the absence of the church board chairman, the treasurer, Phillip Enstam, welcomed the young men to the meeting, so that they may acquaint themselves with various offices of the church. E. Strunk, representative of the Sunday School, stressed the bond between the church and home in the instruction of the young children and continuing through the junior and senior Bible classes.

Mrs. P. Kromann, president of Lutheran Women's Missionary League, brought greetings from that group and from the Ladies Aid. She emphasized the importance of youth groups and the value of youth counselors. Mrs. Hoogerhyde extended an invitation to all new league members to join the church choir.

Augie Overway was master of ceremonies for the event. Myra Frundt was in charge of decorations, assisted by Mari Van Dyke, Patti Overway and Lyle Vander Meulen. The league colors, yellow and black, were used in huge emblems which decorated each side of the room. The words "Triumph in Christ," league motto for this year, were written underneath. Centerpieces of yellow tulips and narcissus, from Mrs. H. Wendt's garden, decorated the banquet tables.

The remainder of the program was held in the church auditorium, where the Rev. E. Ruhlig installed new league officers and outgoing officers were recognized for their services during the last year. The climax was a candlelight ceremony in which each member, new member and counselor was asked by the pastor to consecrate himself to work in the church. During the ceremony, the league president, the chairman of Christian service and a representative Walther leaguer brought out the history, aims and service of the organization. Counselors, Mr. and Mrs. John Steininger, were recognized for their work with the group.

Women who served, volunteers interested in the youth program, were the Mesdames J. Gutknecht, K. Conklin, J Kvorka, E. Benke and E. Howlett.

Return to Faith Of Fathers Urged In Memorial Talk

"The year 1953 presents a great challenge and a great responsibility," the Rev. Christian H. Walvoord told city officials and patriotic orders of Holland at their annual Memorial Sunday service in Third Reformed Church Sunday night.

Speaking on the Subject, "Christ and the American Ideal," Rev. Walvoord said a great many things which men fought for are in greater danger today than they were when men fought for them.

"America leads the world and we are most fortunate that this great country is tremendously rich in resources. Yet we realize more and more that our prosperity is increasingly dependent on the prosperity of all nations in the world, and that 'the American way of life' is in greater danger now than it was at the start of World War I when 'Make the World Safe for Democracy' was the motto. As the world gets more complex, it becomes easier to turn and twist the truth, and too often it is not morals but expediency which charts the way," Rev. Walvoord said.

To guarantee the American Way of Life, the minister said every person personally must cherish his own ideals, for the morals of a nation can never be higher than the morals of our finest invididuals. He also urged a return to the faith of our forefathers in God and Jesus Christ. "Only then can God give us strength and courage so that those who died shall not have died in vain."

Rev. Walvoord chose his text from Hebrews 11 with its great roster of patriots of Israel who died without receiving the promises of God. "This is true today too," he said. "The dream of the patriots in 1861 for union in this land and non-segregation is not yet complete. The Spanish-American war was fought to liberate a few islands from oppression, and that danger still is present today. World War I was fought to make the world safe for democracy, and World War II was fought so that one, two or three monster states could not take command of the world. We even allied with one to defend oppression and now this nation stands against us. There is only one thing to do. We must carry one the things our forebears started."

City officials and members of patriotic organizations marched from City Hall to Third Church for the service, gathering in the central section which had been reserved for the purpose.

Music was provided by the National Guard Choir under the direction of Roger Northuis which sang arrangements of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Onward Christian Soldiers" and following the benediction, "Day Is Dying in the West."

OFFSTREET PARKING

Half a century ago the average citizen would have snorted at the idea that he could not leave his vehicle anywhere he wanted at any time. Now the word "parking" is one of the most used in the United States. So serious has the parking problem become that some say all a winning presidential candidate would need would be a program for convenient parking for everyone.

This explains the rise of offstreet parking, which more and more communities are providing near shopping centers and other much-frequented business neighborhoods. The International City Managers Association reports that of the 1,126 cities with populations over 10,000, 519 are operating 1,465 parking lots. Los Angeles leads them all with parking and garage space available for one-third of all the city's cars. The others are supposed, presumably, to be on the move.

In 52 per cent of the cities parking in the lots is free; these, however, are mostly the smaller cities, those with from 5,000 to 10,000 inhabitants. The rest get their expenditures for parking areas back from meters, sometimes supplemented by bond issues or special tax levies.

What of the future? Offstreet parking is bound to increase, but there are limits to its possible extension in downtown areas. More and more the driver of the future will be compelled to leave his car in a suburb, and take a public transportation to the business district.

There is another thought on this parking problem. That is, it would be better for most of us if we did a little more walking. If we would do this in Holland we would all be surprised just how much the parking problem would be solved.

HISTORIC NOVA SCOTIA

The Nova Scotia Historical Association has before it a project to mark the site of the first grain mill in North America. This was set up in 1606 at L'Equille a tiny Nova Scotian village. It was also the first mechanized industry on the continent, so doubly deserves commemoration. Both events just preceded the Jamestown, Va., settlement by one year, and Plymouth, Mass., by fourteen.

Canada was settled before the United States for a simple reason. It was nearer Europe. It is thought that French fishermen may have on this account found the Labrador cod banks many years before Columbus. This extra nearness makes it probable that the scene of the Northern's voyages to Vinland in the year 1,000 was the upper coast rather than, as some have maintained, New England.

The Nova Scotians would do well to see that this interesting site is marked before the tradition regarding it becomes dim. Interest in the past is a legitimate and desirable activity of which there is none too much.

The Way of Christian Love
I Corinthians 13:1-13
By Henry Geerlings

Love is not only a fundamental element in religion, but it is a persistent charm wherever it appears in life, even though that life is very primitive. Its analogy appears in the little plant growing near a window, and extending its tendrils toward the sun because it loves the light. It appears in the mother hen that risks her life for her little brood, and covers them with her feathers.

There is hardly a human being so ignorant who does not love some one dearly enough that he would die for the object of his love. It is this natural love in the heart of unsaved humanity, an extension of prevenient grace that makes it possible for a Christian child to lead a wicked father to the foot of the cross.

But far above all forms of natural love designated in the Scriptures by an entirely different term because it is exotic. We do not have it by nature. It comes to the heart through the new birth shed abroad by the Holy Spirit. Later, as we hunger and thirst after righteousness, it reaches the standard of perfect love when the heart is purified so as to contain nothing contrary to love.

The church of Corinth was in a sad spiritual condition. It seems that the people had the mistaken notion that since they were saved by grace it did not matter how they lived afterward. The apostle Paul shows them in our present lesson the high plane on which a Christian should live, which is the way of Christian love.

The apostle rebuked these people for sectarianism, careless walk, indifference to the misconduct of their fellow believers and tolerance of evil, going before heathen judges to settle disputes. Paul emphasizes the value of love. It is better than eloquence, better than speaking with tongues of men and of angels. Friendly, encouraging words spoken in a kindly way have a certain value. They can be very helpful to one who is downcast and discouraged. But it is possible to speak such words as a matter of duty or of expediency and without love.

Or, it may be that the apostle had in mind the so-called gift of tongues which he had just described and about which he had a good deal more to say. If that be the case, he shows that it is possible to appear to be deeply spiritual and yet lack the essential quality of true Christian love. Words of eloquence or words spoken in another tongue without love are nothing more than a hollow sound, a blaring trumpet, or a tinkling symbol.

It is better than some of the gifts God bestows on us, such as prophecy, knowledge and faith. Prophecy here seems to refer to the proclaiming of God's message. It is the means He uses of bringing men to faith in Christ. It is of such great value that we should earnestly covet it. But it is possible to preach without having love. It is a wonderful gift to have the ability to understand the deep mysteries of God, or the gift of faith which makes possible the working of miracles. But even this can be done without love.

And then it is much better than deeds of benevolence or heroic martyrdom. We should by all means give to the poor and every believer ought to be loyal to the faith if it leads to a martyr's death. But it is possible to contribute to all kinds of welfare projects from a sense of duty or for the sake of appearance.

The apostle emphasizes the behavior of love. It often helps to understand a thing better if we know what it is not or what it will not do. Thus it is with love. It is not impatient, nor envious, nor proud, nor boastful. It has no ill feeling when others have better talents. Nor does it engage in doing good to gain applause. On the positive side love bears and endures silently and does not let the world know anything about its distress. It is always hopeful. Even when others have despaired love still looks for something good from the one upon whom it is fixed.

The apostle emphasizes the endurance of love. Love is a heavenly plant transplanted to earth into human hearts by the Holy Spirit. Can it survive the rigors of its earthly surroundings? In our gardens we eagerly look for the first blades of the seeds we planted to appear above the ground. Too often we see weeds long before we see the useful plants, but sometimes the seeds do not come up at all, or are choked by the weeds around them. It is not so with love.

Again the apostle employs comparisons to set forth this marvelous truth of the eternity of love. He compares it first to prophecy. But prophecy will come to an end for it will no longer be needed in the day when the Lord comes again. He compares it with tongues. This may refer to tongues as representing languages. The thousands of languages spoken by men in the world are the result of God's judgment of sin, but when the work of redemption is complete this judgment will be wiped out and men will be brought back to one language once more.

He also compares it with knowledge and its duration. Even that shall pass away, just as the things we thought and said and did in our childhood have passed from us now that we are adults. At best all of it is only partial. We know nothing perfectly. Men of science demonstrate this time and again. And so our boasted but imperfect knowledge shall all disappear in the coming of a wider and nobler intelligence.

Mrs. Welling Wins State 'Wife of the Year' Honor

A Holland woman has won the distinction of being named Michigan's Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary Wife of the Year.

Mrs. Willis Welling, member of the local JCCA, was chosen over representatives from 20 other chapters for the Wife of the Year honor. The award was presented by Mrs. Owen Cleary, wife of Michigan's secretary of state, at a luncheon for state Auxiliary members Saturday at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit, headquarters for the Michigan JCC convention May 22-25. Mrs. Cleary, one of the contest judges, presented Mrs. Welling a corsage, a U.S. Savings Bond and an engraved pen and pencil set.

Mrs. Willis Welling

Her husband, who has been active in local and state Jaycee activities, was presented an "Exhausted Rooster" pin by Michigan JCC President Dick Peters of Benton Harbor, in honor of his work as a past state vice president and a national JCC director. This pin is given when a Jaycee reaches the age limit of 35 and must retire from active JCC work.

Mrs. Welling, whose name was submitted in the state contest after local Auxiliary members chose her as Holland's "Wife of the Year," was chosen for the state honor on the basis of not only her service to the JCCA, but her other civic, church and home activities.

Described by her fellow Auxiliary members as "one of those rare individuals who can always find time from an already overcrowded schedule to serve as chairman" or in other capacities, Mrs. Welling was born in Holland on May 7, 1922, and attended Holland Public Schools. In 1939 she married Willis Welling and thus began an incomparable "Mr. and Mrs. Jaycee" combination. The Wellings have two daughters, Carol, 12, and Mary Lynn, 10. Mrs. Welling and her daughters are all accomplished musicians.

Mrs. Welling takes an active interest in school affairs. She's been active in PTA work, has served as class mother and headed a preparations committee. She is a Camp Fire group sponsor and does much work in that capacity. A member of Trinity Reformed Church, she is a willing worker in church groups.

An outstanding wife and mother, she has made her home a gathering place for her daughters' friends. Her family group also includes an elderly father, who is a real "part of the family" and takes part in all family activities. Sharing her husband's interests, Mrs. Welling helped organize the Jaycee Auxiliary when he became active in the JCC. She is an enthusiastic charter member and has worked diligently on all the Auxiliary's worth-while projects.

Locally, she has served in every Auxiliary capacity, including a term as president in 1947-48. Her work as membership chairman in 1949-50 and as hospital project chairman in 1951 was especially outstanding. The hospital project includes the tremendous job of indexing more than 350 books and checking many magazine subscriptions for the Auxiliary's hospital book cart, maintained for the convenience of local hospital patients. While serving as president of the local chapter, she also served as state director for six years.

Last January, Mrs. Welling served as co-chairman of the highly successful Mothers March on Polio, which netted more than $5,000 for the polio fund.

In addition to her many organization activities, she finds time to be a "good neighbor" and to pursue her hobbies, which include care of her lovely yard and garden, and sewing for her family and friends.

Local Jaycees and Auxiliary members attending the state convention included the Wellings, Les Deridder, local president, Ray Helder, Mr. and Mrs. George Braun, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nyland and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Van Oort.

Rotary Club Hears Fulbright Teacher Talk on Thailand

Miss Doris Wade addressed the Holland Rotary Club Thursday noon on "Observations of an American School Teacher in Thailand." Miss Wade just returned from Thailand where she spent two years as an exchange teacher under the Fulbright Plan, teaching English in a girls' school and an agricultural school.

Miss Wade described the people as forward-looking with a broad outlook. They are a good natured lot for two reasons: they have always been an independent nation, and have never known famine or want of the necessities of life. Their form of government is a democratic monarchy with the king a figurehead, and the prime minister their political leader.

Rice is a major industry in the country with silk-weaving a cottage industry and some lumbering as well as some mining of jewels. In the recent Philippine emergency the Siamese shipped 200,000 tons of rice as a gift.

The majority of the people are Buddhists, Miss Wade said. The Buddhist priests have for a number of years assisted Christian missionaries by providing places for them to live and teaching them the language of the people of Thailand. Of the 18 million people only some 18,000 have been converted to Christianity. When asked about Christianity the Siamese say that there is little difference between Buddhism and the teachings of Christ. They deny a deity in both Christianity and their religion, Buddhism.

Education in Thailand is very expensive. Only the rich complete 12 grades and it is only the very rich who enter the universities, of which there are three recognized by European and American schools. A law of the land requires that all shall complete at least four grades, but the expense and the lack of government agencies to enforce the law preclude education to the masses. The schools for the most part are private, but granted subsidies by the government.

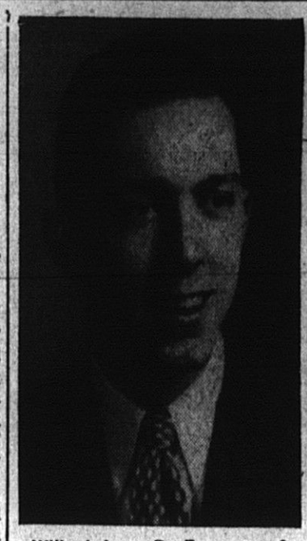
In speaking about the students, Miss Wade said that they are eager to learn; there is no need to entertain and no discipline problems. Miss Wade expects to return and continue her work as a teacher.

Attending the luncheon with Miss Wade was Miss Suphat Sotthitada, a native of Thailand, who in the fall will enroll as a freshmen at Hope College.

Best wishes were extended president-elect Harold Ramsey and his wife as they leave today for the Rotary International Convention to be held in Paris next week.

Visiting Rotarians included Dr. Miner Stegenga, past-president of the club in Union City, N. J., and Robert De Nooyer, a member of the Kalamazoo Rotary Club.

The cottontail rabbit is essentially a species of the borderlands, living in neither forests or plains.



Willard Ames De Pree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian De Pree of Zeeland, has been awarded a Fulbright scholarship to study in Germany for a year and expects to leave in August. De Pree is a graduate of Zeeland High School, attended Hope College for two years and was graduated from Harvard University in 1950. He spent a year at Cardiff, Wales, on a Rotary foundation fellowship and returned to enter the University of Michigan where he received a master's degree in political science last year. For the past year he has been working on his doctorate at the university besides teaching some classes. He spent last summer in Washington, D.C., with the State Department.

Finalists to Play In State Tourney At Stowe Stadium

Two local tennis squads, Holland High and Holland Christian walked off with the honors in the state regional tournament held here Friday and Saturday as both schools took the championship in their respective classes. Holland took the A title for the 11th straight year, while Christian copped the B trophy— the first time in the history of the school. The class C crown went to Wyoming Park, defending state champion.

With winners and runnerups qualifying for the state finals to be held at Stowe tennis stadium in Kalamazoo on June 5 and 6, both Christian and Holland will send one doubles and one singles entry. In addition to winning the team trophy on the greatest number of points, Christian also won the singles and doubles championships. Dave Schreur won the singles crown for the second straight year, while Jim Teerman and Paul Dykema teamed up to capture the B doubles title.

Holland's Henry Visscher, competing in the regionals for the first time, annexed the A singles crown, while the local doubles team of Paul Mack and Dave Bosch were runnerups for the doubles title. Budge Sherwood and Tom Otley defeated the Holland duo for the championship. Denny Telder of Wyoming Park, defending state singles champion, took the C singles laurels with ease, losing only one game in four matches. Grand Rapids Lee took the C doubles honors with John Jeltes and Ron Newman annexing the finals win.

The A race was close up to the semi-finals with Holland and Muskegon fighting it out. However, the Dutch pulled ahead in the semis to win without too much trouble. Visscher weathered one storm in the semi-finals to move into the finals. His biggest obstacle was Ron Maycroft, Muskegon No. 2 man, who forced Visscher into three sets. Point totals in the A bracket show Holland with 10½, Muskegon, 7½, Grand Haven 5½, Benton Harbor, 1½ and Muskegon Heights., 1½.

In class B, it was strictly a race between Holland Christian and East Grand Rapids. Going into the final day, the Maroons needed only a split in two doubles events with East, plus Schreur's victory to gain the title. Teerman and Dykema copped the necessary semi-finals win and then went on to defeat East's No. 1 squad for the title. Christian nearly had two doubles squads in the finals when Rich Sharda and Norm Lokker bowed in three close sets to the East squad, in the semis. Dave Schreur didn't have too much difficulty in winning the singles, with all matches going just two sets.

Christian led the B field with 13½ points, followed by East with 8, Rockford, 2½, Grandville, 0 and Godwin, 0.

Wyoming Park had Telder and too much team balance for the six other schools competing in the C-D bracket. Although Lee had two doubles squads in the finals, Wyoming dominated the singles to take the victory. Following Wyoming with 12 points, Lee had 10, Wayland 2½ Gobles, 2½, Middleville, 2, Portland St. Patrick, 1 and Paw Paw, 0.

Coach Joe Moran, of the Holland High school tennis squad, served as tournament manager and did a great job in keeping the matches between the 17 participating schools on schedule despite threatening weather.

Saturday results in the semi-finals and finals are:

Class A-singles — Wayne Kieft, (M), defeated Bill Grall, (BH) by default; Henry Visscher (H) def. Ron Maycroft (M), 6-2, 4-6, 6-3; Visscher def. Kieft in finals, 6-2, 6-4.

Class A doubles—Budge Sherwood-Tom Otley (GH) def. Norm Scheerhorn-Phil Boersma (H), 6-3, 6-3; Paul Mack-Dave Bosch (H) def. Mike Humenick-Thurman Brown (M), 8-6, 6-3. Sherwood-Otley def. Mack-Bosch in finals, 6-2, 6-1.

Class B singles—Dave Schreur (HC) def. Doug Smith (R), 6-2, 6-0; George Hitler (EGR) def. Ken Volkema (HC), 6-0, 6-0; Schreur def. Hitler in finals, 7-5, 6-3.

Class B doubles—Glen Young-Dave Berles (EGR) def. Rich Sharda-Norm Lokker (HC), 6-2, 8-10, 6-1; Paul Dykema-Jim Teerman (HC) def. Bob Steed-Dave Leavenworth (EGR), 1-6, 6-3, Berles in finals, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3.
7-5; Dykema-Teerman def. Young-

Class C singles finals— Denny Telder (WP) def. Walt Tazelaar (WP), 6-0, 6-0.

Class C doubles finals—John Jeltes-Ron Newman (L) def. Ron Hommerson-James Coeling (L), 6-1, 6-0.

Payne-Van Wingeren Rites Read

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Payne

(Du Saar photo)

In a 4 p.m. ceremony Saturday, Miss Shirley Van Wingeren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Van Wingeren, 189 East 26th St., became the bride of Robert B. Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walcott, 313 West Washington St., Zeeland.

The Rev. John den Ouden performed the double ring ceremony in Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed Church before a setting of ferns, candelabra and bouquets of lilacs, tulips and snapdragons.

Miss Shirley Walters sang "I Love Thee" preceding the rites and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt. She was accompanied by Miss Dianne Nagelkirk, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a floor-length gown featuring a white lace bodice with long lace sleeves and a stand up collar, tiny buttons down the back and a full net-over-satin skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with yellow roses and streamers of white satin and lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Myra Rooks as maid of honor wore a ballerina-length gown of blue net over taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations, yellow satin ribbon and lily-of-the-valley. Miss Arlene Van Wingeren, sister of the bride, bridesmaid, wore a ballerina-length yellow net-over-taffeta gown and carried a blue colonial bouquet.

William Payne served as best man and Dick Payne was the usher. They are brothers of the groom.

Donna Van Wingeren, sister, and Barbara Gebben, cousin of the bride, dressed alike in white nylon blouses and navy blue taffeta skirts, lighted the candles.

The bride's mother wore a navy sheer dress with white accessories and a red rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a beige dress with beige and white accessories and a pink rose corsage.

A reception for 60 guests was held in the church parlors with Gerald Slagh acting as master of ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nagelkirk were at the punch bowl. Mr. and Mrs. Al Gebben were in charge of the gift room. Waitresses, all cousins, were Joan Van Wingeren, Mary Nagelkirk, Marcia Nagelkirk and Judy Nagelkirk.

Shirley Veltman sang "Through the Years" at the reception.

A wedding supper was served from tables attractively decorated with tulips, lilacs and tapers. Rev. den Ouden spoke briefly and closed with prayer.

The bride was graduated from Holland Christian High School and is employed as a telephone operator. The groom, a Zeeland High School graduate, is employed at the Herman Miller Furniture Co. in Zeeland.

For their southern wedding trip the bride wore a mauve suit with navy and white accessories and a yellow rose corsage. After June 1, Mr. and Mrs. Payne will be at home at 47½ East 16th St.

Flying Dutchmen Prepare to Launch Season Against Black Sox Saturday

Manager Lorin Wenzel and his aide, Lou Humbert, are whipping the Holland Flying Dutchmen into shape these evenings for the Memorial Day inaugural against the Grand Rapids Black Sox at Riverview Park.

As usual, there will be a single game Memorial Day evening at 8 p.m. under the lights.

Although the starting lineup appears rather uncertain at this time —pending arrival of several players from school teams—a few of the veterans appear to have positions cinched.

Tony Wentzel will be at first base, his favorite position. Tony has alternated at third base and in the outfield, but this year will be back at the position he started out at.

At shortstop will be Ron Fortney. The peppery infielder will be back in a Dutchmen uniform this year, having served his stint in the armed forces.

At third base will be another veteran of last year's team—Morrie Witteveen. Frank Wlodarczyk will be behind the plate and is expected to provide a lot of hitting punch for this year's team. Frank also is back this year after duty with the armed forces.

Wenzel has a good mound staff that will include Roger Eggers from Western Michigan College, ace Willie Rink from Hope College and Casey Van Liere will be available if needed. Eggers isn't expected to be with the team at the outset but will be by the time the Dutchmen begin Southwestern Michigan Baseball League play June 15.

Warren Victor also will be available this season, along with Elmer Van Wieren and Humbert.

Several player are expected to report after schools close. This roster includes Butts Kool, Ed Setters and Terry Burns.

The always colorful Black Sox are also members of the Southwestern Michigan league and Saturday night's game will serve as a good indicator for both managers.

The Dutchmen work out each evening at 6 p. m. at Riverview Park.

Essenburg Sells Complete Line Of GE Products

The new General Electric Twin-System Refrigerator-Food Freezer sold by Essenburg Electric Co., local dealer in all G-E products, is two appliances in one—a real food freezer and a spacious refrigerator, with completely automatic defrosting. GE Twin-System provides separate refrigeration in the freezer and in the refrigerator. Each compartment is separately insulated.

Among the many features are the redi-cube ice trays. It is not necessary to run water on trays to free cubes—just raise lever release, lift out dividers, select one or as many cubes as you need. The real food freezer provides long-time storage of frozen foods. No heat is ever applied to the freezer and it requires defrosting only once or twice a year.

The refrigerator compartment never needs defrosting. An ingenious new GE development gives you not only completely automatic defrosting but also the lowest average temperatures ever provided in a General Electric refrigerator. The automobile industry now has a "Big Four" instead of "Big Three." It is a Henry J. Kaiser enterpise.

According to announcement received by the United Motor Sales, 733 Michigan Ave., local dealers, the Kaiser-Frazer Corp. has completed an agreement to purchase the 50-year-old Willys-Overland Motors, Inc. Groups Discuss Problems; Aided By Farm Planner

According to L. R. Arnold, County Agricultural Agent, the soil conservation program in Ottawa County has reached quite an impetus through a new technique carried on by Bill Miller, conservationist for the West Ottawa Soil Conservation District.

Miller contacts a group of neighboring farmers and organizes them into a study group. These men have similar problems. After several meetings at which the group discusses phases of the soil conservation program as it applies to their farms, they visit the various farms, observing conditions and discussing proper practices for conditions which may need corrective measures.

Each farmer then draws a map of his farm, works out a farm program considering crops, livestock needs, erosion control measures etc., and with the aid of the farm planner finally emerges with a complete conservation program for his individual farm.

One of the newest groups is the Wezeman group near Nunica. These men have attended several meetings during the winter. At one of these meetings the subject under discussion was pasture. A sketch of a modified grain drill was made on the blackboard by the farm planner. With this drill the grass seed is dropped in rows on top of the soil just above the fertilizer which has been placed on the ground. Satisfactory results were shown at Michigan State College where the drill first was introduced. The grass grows much faster as it feeds on the fertilizer just below the surface of the ground.

Art Kulikamp, one of the Wezeman group, constructed a modification of this drill at the cost of $5. With an old garden hose which was used for the down spouts, it was necessary to buy short spouts over which the garden hose was fastened. Kulikamp uses this outfit when seednig his oats. He also plans to renovate some of the bottom pasture land on his farm and will use this same tool for seeding of Ladino for permanent pasture. As there are several small gullied spots in the tilled fields on this farm, he plans to make these into wildlife areas by planting suitable shrubs and trees.

Kulikamp has selected a five year rotation of wheat, corn, oats and two years of alfalfa-brome-ladino meadow. Sweet clover will be seeded in the wheat, then plowed under before corn planting.

Tulip Time has come and gone and a great festival it was this year.

Not for several years have the cups of the tulip blooms been so large nor the stems so long. And there's still enough left to give the visitors quite a show this weekend, despite heavy winds and rainstorms.

Local residents have been fairly bursting with pride over the big floral show. Thousands of visitors took time out to tell us how much they enjoyed the flowers.

It's certainly great to live in a town that loves beautiful flowers and knows how to share them with others.

A freak tulip bloomed this week at the Donald Johnson home on route 1 on West 32nd St. It had three yellow tulips, all on one stem.

If you wondered about those planes flying over Holland shortly before the big parade of bands last Saturday, it was part of the salute for Armed Forces Day. There were 12 Navy fighters and three Air Corps jets, according to Bill Sikkel.

The VFW float that appeared in Tulip Time parades also will appear in the Memorial Day parade next Saturday. Arrangements for the float to appear were made at a meeting of the Memorial Day committee last Monday night.

"It's a good thing you told us," some VFW members said. "It was going to be torn down tonight."

The Red Cross parade entry also will be in the Memorial Day parade. It was a station wagon set up to serve as a first aid unit. It was a lucky thing it was there, since there were 12 casualties during the parade. Most of them were visiting majorettes who worked a trifle too hard, according to Harold Karsten. Howard Davis, first aid chairman, and some nurses' aides took the casualties in stride.

Billy Stryker learned a good lesson in salesmanship from his great-uncle, Bill Olive, during Tulip Time. Billy was selling The Sentinel's Tulip Time edition and was so busy hawking his wares that he even asked his uncle to buy one without recognizing him.

The elder customer admonished him: "Don't say 'buy a special edition.' You should say 'Take home a Tulip Time souvenir.'"

Billy followed his advice and quickly sold 146 copies. He would have sold more, but the supply was low.

It was "Happy Birthday" for Al Bransdorfer, Sentinel photographer, last Monday, and Al came through with the usual nickel candy bar. Cognizant of all the hard work and headaches The Sentinel crowd had experienced during the busy Tulip Time festival, he taped an aspirin to each bar.

The payoff came the next day when he received one of the pills in the mail, still all stuck up with scotch tape.

If anybody wonders about those terrific tulips that bloomed early in Centennial Park a couple of weeks ago, Park Supt. Dick Smallenburg says they're a new variety called "Red Emperor." The cups were 4½ inches across and the brilliant red-orange blooms could be seen clear across the park. Yes, Dick's ordering more for next year.

Holland's not the only place that has a lot of tulips. The Pontiac Press the other day called attention to the annual tulip display at White Chapel Memorial park where 100,000 tulips were approaching their peak. The display had several dozen varieties and colors.

The Chamber of Commerce has received a copy of Leslies Weekly dated Feb. 23, 1918, showing a page layout of what is believed to be the heaviest snowfall here in Holland's history. It shows scenes of trains blocked on Tubergen's Hill in which heavy snows blocked the Pere Marquette trains for 48 hours. The magazine was sent from a New York person.

Holland hospital nurses and patients are abuzz over the robin that has just completed building a nest on the second floor fire escape just outside the maternity ward. Can it be the same robin that chose Holland Hospital last year using almost the very same spot, and hatching three eggs? The offspring at that time were named Christopher, Christine and Chirping Tulip, the latter in honor of Tulip Time.

Others think maybe it's one of the baby robins of last year now grown to maturity.

Another speculation is that it may be the robin that built a nest in a tree outside Zeeland hospital a week or two ago. Nobody seriously thinks that, though.

If you stop at the south end of the hospital corridors on the first and second floors, you might look at the snazzy new doors that have been installed. It's the kind popularly used in Florida with a Venetian blind effect in the glass, one that allows the fresh air to come in without opening the door.

Laff for the day:

A little boy had been pawing over a stationer's stock of greeting cards for some time when a clerk asked, "Just what is it you're looking for, sonny? Birthday greeting? Message to a sick friend? Anniversary congratulations to your mom and dad?"

The boy shook his head "no" and answered wistfully, "Got anything in the line of blank report cards?"

Couple Injured On Wedding Trip

CADILLAC (Special)—A Holland soldier and his bride of only a day were hospitalized in Cadillac Friday following a car-truck accident Thursday noon while on their wedding trip.

Pvt. John Vander Myde, 20, route 2, Holland, on leave from Camp Atterbury, Ind., and his wife, the former Joyce Marie Walters, 18, of Beaverdam, were injured when his car struck a semi driven by Elmer Boyer, Jr., 22, of Manton, Mich., on US-131 a half mile north of the Wexford-Grand Traverse county line.

Vander Myde received a double fracture of the left jaw, deep lacerations on the face, mouth and left leg. His wife received lacerations on the chest, left hand, a bruised left arm and left leg. They were taken to Mercy Hospital in Cadillac.

The truck driver told Cadillac state police that he pulled his truck onto the shoulder as the oncoming car crossed the centerline. The car hit the tractor in the left side. The truck driver said it appeared that Vander Myde had fallen asleep.

The couple had been married at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday in Third Christian Reformed Church in Zeeland. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Walters of Beaverdam.

Cadillac state police said they are investigating Vander Myde's operator's license. It had been revoked and there is a question whether it had been officially restored.

It's not too late to enter the contest. Entry blanks can be picked up at principals' offices in the elementary schools and at the Chamber of Commerce.

The contest was originally rescheduled for May 30, but since it is Memorial Day the sponsors set June 6 as the new date.

Failure to Stop Causes Accidents

ZEELAND (Special)—An accident Saturday afternoon caused injury to one person and extensive damage to a 1950 model auto. The crash occurred near the railroad tracks east of Zeeland on M-21.

A Greyhound bus stopped near the tracks to allow a train to cross, and two cars stopped immediately behind. A third car driven by Frank W. Creaser of 520 Lafayette St., S. E., Grand Rapids, was unable to stop and crashed into the rear of a stopped auto driven by Emily French Richards, 27, of 431 Paris St. S. E., Grand Rapids.

The Richards car in turn was pushed into the rear of a stopped 1950 model car driven by Jack L. Buckley, of 428 33rd. Ave. Grand Rapids. Damage to the Creaser auto estimated at $200, to the Richards auto at $300, and to the Buckley auto at $100.

Evelyn Revenick, 68, of Grand Rapids, a passenger in the Creaser auto, was treated by a personal physician for head injuries. Creaser was issued a summons by investigating officer Lawrence Veldheer and Police Chief Jim Flint for failure to have assured clear distance ahead causing an accident.

Hudsonville Youth In Fair Condition

HUDSONVILLE (Special) — Twelve-year-old Calvin Dyk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dyk of Curtis St., Hudsonville has been removed from the critical list at St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Rapids.

The youth was struck Thursday by a car driven by Mrs. Henrietta Dykema, 38, of 6262 Balsam Dr., Hudsonville as he walked into the path of the auto near the intersection of Park and Van Duren Sts. about three-quarters of a mile west of Hudsonville.

He suffered a skull fracture and brain concussion as well as severe head lacerations and multiple body bruises. He was hit by the right front fender of the 1939 model auto which swung him around striking the protruding door hinge with his head. He lost a considerable amount of blood. His condition is now listed as "fair."

The accident occurred as the child walking with traffic east on the highway, suddenly turned to cross the road. Mrs. Dykema had swung way to the left to allow plenty of room, but the child moved so quickly her efforts to miss him were useless, deputies said.

Officers said she crossed the highway to avoid the collision, hitting a mail box post. Her speed was estimated at about 20 miles an hour.

Calvin, who was returning from a band concert, was carrying an instrument in his hand which was badly damaged by the crash.

Zeeland officer Lawrence Veldheer investigated.

Holland Bows to Godwin in First Night Encounter

Except for the score, Holland High School's first night baseball game at Riverview Park Saturday was a great success. A crowd of 150 attended and they contributed $25, money that will just about cover the light bill.

Godwin Heights beat Holland 2 to 1 in what was a tight pitcher's battle all the way. Godwin's Jack Rumohr was outstanding, striking out 12 and allowing only one base on balls. Holland's pitcher, George Pierson, struck out 11 but allowed seven bases on balls and uncorked a wild pitch that brought in the winning run in the sixth.

Holland's loss snapped a four game winning streak and gave the Dutch five wins and six setbacks for the season. Godwin scored in the very first inning when Ver Hulst walked, went to second on Denton's sacrifice and scored on a double by Sweeris.

In the decisive sixth, pitcher Rumohr abetted his cause with a double to right and scooted to third when the right fielder, Jerry Victor, allowed the ball to go between his legs. He scored a minute later on Pierson's wild pitch.

Holland's lone run came in the third when catcher Ron Boeve banged a double to right and came in on a too bagger by Victor. Victor got to third on a passed ball, but was out at home when Bill Sandahl failed in a squeeze attempt.

Boeve was the hitting star for the Dutch with two out of three, and Ver Hulst got two out of four for Godwin. No complaints about the lighting were heard from either players or fans. Admission was free, but contributions were solicited during the game.

Bronco Freshmen Drop Hope Nine in Non-League Tilt

What Western Michigan freshman baseball coach Fred Gills terms "one of the strongest frosh teams I ever had" was just that Tuesday afternoon at Riverview Park as the Broncos dropped Hope College 8-3.

It appeared the strain of a tough season in the MIAA conference in which the Dutch finished in a tie for first place took its toll, with the Dutch committing a couple of errors at crucial times.

Things started right out badly for Hope as the first man up for the Broncos, Ken Erickson, poled a solid triple to right field. Next man up struck out and another grounded out to the shortstop, but a single by Dobbek to center field was enough to score Erickson.

Hope also scored in the first inning when Al Dykema walked, and went to third on Jerry Lubbers' single to centerfield. Don York drew a walk filling the bases before Jim Van Hoeven hit to the shortstop who threw to second tagging Yory. Dykema scored on the play.

With one out in the third inning Schwanzki poled a long double to right field, and then took third on a passed ball. Erickson struck out before O'Connell hit one through the second baseman's legs scoring Schwanzki on the error.

O'Connell then stole second, went to third on a passed ball and Krings walked. Dobbek scored them both with a double.

Hope's final tally came in the sixth inning when Jerry Lubbers singled to center field. Next little Don York, Dutch catcher who stands about 5'7", slammed a home run to center field.

Western scored twice more in their half of the seventh, and another pair in the eighth.

Hope's Willie Rink went the distance on the mound, giving up 13 hits while striking out seven men. Schwanzki was winning pitcher for the Bronco's going eight innings before being relieved by Fioushy.

Western's ace gave up five hits striking out eight men. Fioushy did an excellent job of relief pitching as he struck out five of the seven men he faced, allowing no hits.

At the plate for the Dutch it was a bad day, but Jerry Lubbers had two safeties in four trips while Piersma and Van Hoeven each had a single. Top honors go to York for his two run homer.

For Western's freshmen Erickson had a triple and single in four trips, Krings and Schust had a triple while Barkeley slammed a two run homer in the eighth inning.

Friends Chip in to Furnish House Of Allegan Health Center Employe

ALLEGAN (Special)—For Mrs. Maggie Hyde, well-known to hundreds of Alleganites as the chipper and cheerful lady who helps keep the Allegan Health Center so spotless, it was a heart-warming, as well as a house-warming.

But it all began with a ruse that had Maggie just a little irritated with one of her fellow workers.

Mrs. Hyde recently purchased a small cottage and had it moved to a lot just west of Allegan. She was pleased with her new home and anxious to devote her day off to setting things straight.

So she was naturally miffed a bit when a co-worker pleaded with her to change days off and work in her stead. Maggie agreed reluctantly. At the end of the day, another co-workers suggested that Mrs. Hyde have supper at her home, then the two would drive out to the new house.

After supper the two drove to the new house where Maggie was met at the door by virtually the entire staff of the hospital. And when Maggie stepped inside she was really stunned. The house was completely furnished with curtains at the windows, rugs on the floor ... and everything as spic and span as Maggie keeps the hospital. Although much of the furnishings was Mrs. Hyde's, the gaps had been filled in with gifts from staff members and hospital patients.

For Mrs. Hyde, who was widowed last year, it was too much. She was literally speechless. But when she regained her composure, she joined in the festivities and had a wonderful time.

Top picture shows men of Fillmore Township pitching in to make the Maplewood Recreation Center a reality. Rakes, shovels and tractor are busy making a baseball diamond that will be for the use of everyone in the community. Much work still has to be done, so John Jousma of the Maplewood Park Association asks that young and old give a hand each Wednesday night—work night. Workers take time out in the picture below to watch two kids try out the swings they just erected. Trees have been planted around the 11 acres of the center at 35th St. and College Ave. Jousma says that the center will make ideal picnic grounds this summer. Idea for the recreation area came from two ministers four years ago, but nothing much was done beyond buying the 11 acres until this year.

Recreation Center Fast Shaping Up in Fillmore

Until this year, the Maplewood Recreation Center was mostly still a dream. Eleven acres of ground on 35th St. and College Ave. were there and so was a temporary baseball diamond, but that was about all.

But of late, the men of Fillmore Township have bestirred themselves, have gotten out a tractor and taken up rakes and hoes. As a result, a permanent diamond is now on 11 acres-along with a volley ball field, shuffleboard court and horse shoe area.

Swings have been erected and a softball field will take shape soon. Picnic grounds will be laid out and trees have been planted. John Jousma, president of the Maplewood Park Association, said that the projected work will be completed much more quickly if a few more people pitch in each Wednesday night—work night.

Four years ago, two ministers was kicking around for a Maplewood Recreation Center. The Rev. James Baar of the Reformed Church and the Rev. Oliver Breen of the Christian Reformed Church organized the Maplewood Park Association for the purpose of buying ground that would be used for the center.

The association thought the 11 acres at College Ave. would do fine and made a down payment. Money for the payment came from voluntary contributions, but soon Fillmore Township got into the act. Thus the recreation center is now being paid for through taxes levied by the township.

Changed Methods Speeds Project

ZEELAND (Special)—Addition of a new crane and a switch to a different technique have helped speed up work on the $150,000 West End Sewer project considerably, according to officials of Mulder Welding and Prefabricating company.

Big problem throughout the course of the project is water. In many places the ditches must be dug more than 20 feet down, and water is hit at around six feet.

First approach used was to shore up both sides of the entire ditch with heavy metal shoring braced with heavy wooden timbers. Then a pump intake was inserted in the bottom to drain the water.

When several months of attempting this proved so difficult officials started experimenting with a new approach.

Result was a method which uses an eight inch piping system on each side of the ditch, with well points dropped every two and one-half feet. Using this method progress has been much better.

Another obstacle is a heavy clay base running throughout the area. This makes both digging and pumping extremely difficult. Then too, spring rains have raised the water table.

Started in December, the project involves nearly three miles of piping. Mulder is installing a main trunk line with laterals down several streets. Laterals to individual houses are installed only under special contract.

Completion date is set at sometime this fall. This includes a pumping lift station now about two-thirds completed.

An acre of land first was defined as the amount of land a yoke of oxen could plow in a day.

The highly succeseful musical "Tour The Town", written, directed and produced by Holland High School faculty members George Lumsden and Bill Fast is now in process of being filmed in color. Only instead of using stage scenes as presented during Tulip Time in the high school, all scenes are being shot "live" on location. On Wednesday scenes of klompen dancers and tulips were filmed. Later this month and during the summer other portions of the film showing Ottawa Beach, industries, farms, etc. will be shot. All finally will be edited and the voices of the 100-voice choir dubbed onto the film to give a sound color motion picture. Above (left to right) Russ Hornbaker, faculty member in charge of films and George Lumsden line up a scene as Bill Fast (right center) explains what pose he wishes the dancers to be in.

Miss Jantina Holleman Given AAUW $500 Grant

Holland Branch, American Association of University Women, awarded its first $500 scholarship grant for graduate study to one of its own members—Miss Jantina Holleman, assistant professor of music theory and piano at Hope College. Miss Gertrude Steketee, chairman of the scholarship committee, made the award Thursday evening when the branch celebrated its 15th anniversary at a dinner meeting in Durfee Hall, Hope College.

Miss Holleman plans to study next year at the University of Amsterdam in the Neherlands. She is a native of Springfield, S.D. She studied at Morningside Conservatory, Sioux City, Ia., and State Teachers college in her home town. She has a B.A. degree from Central College and an M.A. degree from Columbia University. She also has done advanced work at Michigan and Northwestern.

She was chosen from applicants received throughout the last several months by the scholarship committee. All women college graduates in Ottawa county, those who graduated from Hope and women teaching in the area were eligible to apply.

Guest of honor at the anniversary dinner Thursday evening was Mrs. Arthur L. Brandon, president of the Michigan State Division of AAUW, who spoke on "How Wide Is Your World?" In telling of international aspects of AAUW work throughout the years, Mrs. Brandon emphasized that the organization utilizes the skills, inventiveness, initiative and originality of educated women and gives them an opportunity to broaden their experiences.

The speaker related the extremely intersting history of AAUW, which began in 1881 with 17 young women who established rules and policies which are still followed. She traced the development of the group and its influence locally and nationally and its branching into international relations. AAUW was called upon by the government in World War I to assist in war work and post-war projects, which led to increased international activity. In 1920, American branches were established in foreign countries and finally, the International Federation of University Women, with foreign women members of their own branches, was organized.

Mrs. Brandon cited the present million dollar fellowship program, International study grants, sponsorship of the Ambassador plan which brings foreign high school students to the United States for a year of study, and other famous AAUW projects.

"Personnel as well as the program contributes to the richness of AAUW," Mrs. Brandon said. A unity of approach in a program which is flexible, dynamic and changing makes AAUW a worthwhile and broadening experience, she said.

A history of the local AAUW branch was presented by Miss Maibelle Geiger, historian, who has worked throughout the year compiling an account of activities during the last 15 years. She presented a "capsule" version, highlighting several humorous events and difficulties members faced in the early years.

Mrs. Henry Steffens, retiring president, introduced Mrs. Brandon, who was making her first visit here, and also presented the other honored guests, past presidents of Holland Branch. She also introduced the president-elect, Mrs. Orlie Bishop, who assumes office this summer.

Two branch members, Miss Nela Meyer, pianist, and Mrs. Morrette L. Rider, violinist, presented music for the evening program. They played the first movement of a Mozart sonata.

During the business session, Miss Lavina Cappon reported on the branch's Tulip Time project. Mrs. Steffens announced that five local members will attend the national AAUW convention in Minneapolis in June. Mrs. Steffens, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Vincent Martineau, vice president, will represent the branch and Mss. Peter M. Prins and Mrs.

Miss Jantina Holleman

H. W. Schoon will represent Hope College.

Dinner arrangements were made by new members of the branch, under chairmanship of Mrs. Margaret Lashua and Mrs. D. K. O'Meara. Tulips and lilacs were used as table decorations.

Festival Housing Up 20 Per Cent

If reservations for overnight guests in Holland during Tulip Time are any indication, Holland had more visitors during the 1953 Tulip Time festival than ever before.

Manager Larry Wade said today the housing bureau has almost completed its work in processing after-festival accounts. Checks totaling $3,449 have been mailed to local guest homes, representing roughly $2 deposit per person.

Checks totaling $2,601 have been mailed to hotels, motels and cabin courts, making a total of $6,050 collected through the housing office in deposits for advance reservations.

Besides that, a total of 1,312 persons were accomodated through the housing bureau during the four-day festival who did not have advance reservations. They were largely persons who came to town for the festival and decided to stay over. Many visitors had not known about the housing bureau.

The bureau was operated by Mrs. Earl Vanden Bosch and Mrs. Ray Knooihuizen who worked several weeks on placing visitors through correspondence. They had additional help in the Tulip Time office the last two days of the festival.

Manager Wade said the housing bureau totals reflect a 20 per cent increase in local accommodations over last year. A fee of 35 cents per person placed through the bureau (10 cents apiece for those in groups) finances the work of the bureau.

A more efficient system this year calls for sending deposit checks to each guest home in a single check after the festival instead of mailing several checks in advance ofr each party as was done previously.

Let's Plant Beauty; Replace Tulips With Marigold, Petunias, Alyssum

Last week our mayor, Mr. Harrington, made an excellent suggestion, that we keep our tulip lanes beautiful through the summer. After the tulips die down the bare strips of ground are certainly unsightly and apt to fill with weeds unless planted with desirable plants. A little effort can make them something to be proud of.

Park Supt. Dick Smallenburg replants the boulevards for the summer, usually using dwarf marigold, but he says that petunias and alyssum may also be used. This is a project where block cooperation would be very desirable in the selection of what should be planted. From the aspect of civic beauty the idea would be to have the same flowers and harmonizing colors used not only in one whole block but down the whole street.. But at least the block should be considered as a unit for pleasure of all its residents, who will see it most often, and whose property will gain attractiveness from the whole planting.

For most satisfactory results the common bedding petunia should be used rather than the large or ruffled varieties, Mr. Smallenburg says. Their colors and the purple, violet and white of alyssum harmonize well. Both plants are easily grown, flower freely, and spread out, making a good border, though alyssum is the more compact. Both may be grown from seed sown directly in the bed but many people prefer to use petunias which have been started in a flat.

Dwarf marigolds, single or double, flower more freely in soil which is not overly rich. It is better to set out small plants than to raise from seed. A block in which all mariglods are used can be attractive, but mixed plantings down the street of the pinks and purples of petunias and the yellow, orange, and reds of marigolds should be avoided.

One who sows seed or sets plants in the border should put up a marker at each end of his planting to indicate this. A stake six inches above ground with a broad yellow mark on it can serve as a warning to the city gardeners when they remove the dead tulip tops and will also be a mark of honor in this co-operative project. Planting can be deferred until the tulips have died down.

One may see at 18 East 21st Street that dogwood makes a very beautiful tree for use in the curb where one does not depend on the tree for shade. Don't miss the lovely blossoming of the wisteria vines. One grows on the south wall of a home on Central Avenue between 13th and 14th Sts. Another drapes the entrance of 659 State Street.

Another season of tulips is passing, an unusually long one of exceptionally fine blossoms. Let's follow the mayor's suggestion and seek other ways in which we can create year round beauty for our city.
