The Spring Lake people who supposed that it was an Governor Cyrus G. Luce of Coldwater, who was rescued from a watery grave, were very much mistaken. The sage of Gillead is not a sailor, and has never been disposed toward the delights of sail boating, and last Sunday he was just as high and dry upon land as he could have been; and therefore was in no danger whatever of drowning. It was Ransom C. Luce of this city who was at Spring Lake and was rescued after the boat had capsize. Dr. McDonald uses only the purest medicines from the vegetable kingdom. He pays special attention to the cause of the disease and instructs his patients the way to health and happiness. Dr. McDonald can show hundreds of testimonials in the hand writing of grateful patients who have been cured by him when others failed. Lake and Marine.

The fine Goodrich line steamer Virginia began her day runs between Milwaukee and Chicago on Tuesday last. According to the schedule she will reach Chicago at 2:30 p. m. each day.

The New York Journal has an illustration of a brake for steamships, an iron parachute, which when dropped into the water astern of the vessel, opens out and catches the current so strongly as to bring the vessel to a standstill. On trial the steamer, with reverse engines, and without the use of the brake, was stopped in a distance of 900 feet. On the second trial, with the engines running full speed ahead, the brake was lowered into the water, and the vessel was brought to a standstill in a distance of twenty feet. If this is a true account, and there seems no doubt of it, steam vessels should all be supplied with this mechanism.

Robert B. Rice, of Muskegon, associated with members of the firm of E. G. Crosby & Co., has secured the contract from the United States for making extensive harbor improvements at Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha. The three contracts amount to $287,565.50, and are severally for the following sums:

Milwaukee.....	$132,955.00
Racine.....	68,915.00
Kenosha.....	85,695.50
Total.....	$287,565.50

The work is to be started at once at Milwaukee and Racine and about half of the contract at each of those places must be finished this year, the rest of it next year. The Kenosha contract is to be done next year.

Captain Andrew Hackett, of Grand Haven, has purchased the hull of the old revenue cutter, Andy Johnson, and will convert it into a lighter.

The striking tugmen at Duluth sprung a new departure on their former employers yesterday. All along they have insisted that they did not wish to interfere with the commerce of the port, and yesterday they picked up eight tugs in the harbor not owned by the regular lines and have relieved the situation considerably. Several lumber tows were started out and the harbor was cleared.

Captain Nequette of the Sheboygan, Wis., life-saving station says that Saturday night Lake Michigan rose three feet; that it was tide water, not a heavy sea or swell; that it remained high for half an hour and then receded. There was little sea at the time he says and land around the station, where there is water when big storms come, was covered.

Listed far over to the port, resting firmly on the bottom with her masts overhanging the land, her deck bulging, sides broken and her shrouds dangling in the air, the whaling bark Progress lies in the Calumet river near its mouth blowing going to pieces. On her stern panel, still dimly decipherable, is the name of her home port, New Bedford Mass., over 1,000 miles away.

Lou Comfort superintendent of light house construction has received orders to come to Holland about June 20 and tear down the elevated walk built where the piers need repairing. The timbers will be stowed away for future use.

The schooner Thomas C. Nelson of Chicago and the steam barge J. S. Crouse cleared for the north Tuesday morning.

The Philletus Sawyer cleared for the north last Monday night.

The U. S. lighthouse tender Mari-gold has recently placed a gas buoy, painted red, to mark the rocky shoal off Gros Cap, head of St. Mary's river, Michigan. Vessels passing in and out of the river will give the buoy a berth of about 200 feet, and should not attempt to pass to the eastward.

The various lake port collectors will probably be more stringent this year in enforcing the law requiring freight boats carrying passengers to have a license than ever before. Originally the boats carried only the immediate members of the owner's family. Then the friends of the various members of the family got to be invited. Then the owners saw it would be to their benefit to allow the families of the shippers to ride free for one or more trips; the brokers could do so much or so little, according to circumstances, toward getting the boat her cargoes. Then the friends of the shipper's families got into the swim, and the last straw came when the friends and families of the master and other members of the crew were put on list.

Within the last few years no freighter of any size left a lower lake port bound up with less than from two to half a dozen people aboard on every trip during the hot period. They have done this in total disregard of the law which requires boats carrying passengers to also carry proper life-saving apparatus, rafts and life-preservers, and other apparatus for the proper care of human life in case of accident. They will hereafter be compelled to take out a license showing that they have provided this apparatus, and limiting them to a number of passengers per trip.

Three d-h boats from Saugatuck, cleared from Holland harbor Sunday evening, but were driven back by the heavy squall that came up at about 11 o'clock. Fortunately they reached this harbor without any serious mishaps.

All records for fast elevating were broken at the Great Northern elevator at Buffalo Friday. The propeller Neo-sho tied up at the Great Northern Friday morning with 195,000 bushels of barley in her hold. Just three hours and 40 minutes afterwards she cleared light.

The passenger steamer R. G. Stewart, from Hancock to Duluth, ran ashore on Michigan Island, one of the apostles group, at midnight Saturday night. At 10 o'clock Sunday morning she was burned to the water's edge. One of the crew, George McKenna was drowned in escaping from the burning boat. The rest, with the three passengers were saved. The life boat was launched when the fire broke out, and all had entered it except McKenna. He jumped into the little boat from the steamer's deck and capsize it. All the rest managed to get hold of life lines, but McKenna was drowned. The life boat drifted ashore soon afterwards. McKenna's body was recovered, and when the shipwrecked people were taken off today, his body was brought ashore for burial. All those who escaped saved nothing but the clothes they wore.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Burnips Corners.

The Eighth Annual Commencement exercises of the Burnips Corners High school was held at the Church of God, Friday evening June 2. An elaborate program was prepared and carried out in a manner that impressed the large audience that this village can well feel proud of its High school. A class of three was graduated, George Brown, George R. Newell and Martin C. Loew.

Mr. Brower delivered an oration entitled, "The Twentieth Century, in a very creditable manner. He touched upon the leading events of the present century in art, literature and history, bringing out the idea that the world had witnessed great advancement in that period. He then told of the great opportunities of the coming century and closed with a graphic description of what the coming generation would witness in everything that goes to make the world greater and better.

George R. Newell was allotted the pleasant duty of chronicling the historical events of the senior class. He cited history in a way that caused laughter and applause from the audience and ended his essay with an eloquent and touching reference to the friendly relations of the members of the class during the years they were together and closed with the sentiment that the feeling of friendship and harmony engendered by long companionship should always exist.

Martin C. Loew spoke on the subject "Our Nation." His words showed that he is versed in the graces and accomplishments that are found in the true orator. After alluding to the glorious future in store for the United States he closed his discourse with a few well chosen words of farewell to the class, the superintendent, the school board and the audience.

The good work done by the three graduates merited the congratulations showered upon them by assembled friends and reflected the greatest credit upon Prof. F. M. Cosner, principal of the school.

One number on the program that was a cause of just pride to all residents of Burnips Corners was the address of State Superintendent of schools, Jason E. Hammond. He chose for his subject "The Golden Mean" and gave a talk brimful of good advice and sound thoughts.

MRS. JOHN WALLEY, of Jefferson, Wis., than whom none is more highly esteemed or widely known, writes: "In 1890 I had a severe attack of LaGrippe and at the end of four months, in spite of all physicians, friends and good nursing could do, my lungs heart and nervous system were so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My lungs and heart pained me terribly and my cough was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all."

Hon. W. P. Sutton received a cablegram from Hamilton King, U. S. Ambassador to Siam, which read as follows:—"Sutton, Saugatuck, Mich. Expansion!" The cablegram is in cipher and relates to the Cheek estate in which Mr. Sutton is interested. "Perhaps it relates to the elephants." The cost of sending the above was $1.92 per word, but Mr. Sutton says that every letter of the word "expansion" is equivalent in meaning to a page of a written letter. The message was received at 7:50 A. M. of the day on which it was sent.—Fennville Herald.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in the most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c guaranteed at Heber Walsh, Holland and Van Bree & Son, Zeeland.

Holland-Grand Rapids Ordinance.

The special committee, appointed to prepare an ordinance "granting to Alexander E. Blopelle, William T. Hess and Robert Hanneman and to a corporation hereinafter organized for the construction and operating a train railway from Grand Rapids to Macatawa Park," the right to maintain and operate a train railway on certain streets of this city reported to the council last Tuesday evening and submitted a draft of the proposed ordinance to that body for action. Upon motion of Alderman Sprietsma the proposed ordinance was ordered printed, referred to the committee on the whole and placed on the general order of the day. This will give all citizens interested an opportunity to examine the measure in detail and pass judgment upon its merits. Very likely the council will take the matter under consideration at its next regular meeting. The proposed ordinance is a very exhaustive document and touches upon every imaginable detail necessary, to an instrument of this kind. Following is a brief summary of the matters set forth: The grantees are given the right to construct a street railway, commencing on Ninth street at a point where said street intersects Fairbanks avenue; thence west on Ninth street to Land street; thence north on Land street to Seventh street; thence west on Seventh street to Tannery creek (so called) where said railway is to enter upon private property; thence commencing again on Eighth street and entering upon said street near Pine street, west on Eighth street to Lake street, thence on Lake street to Van Raalte avenue, south on Van Raalte avenue to 15th street; west on 15th street to Cleveland avenue. The tracks must be laid in the center of the street and the road-bed must be paved with the same material that is used in the balance of the street. The company upon notification shall remove its tracks and poles when necessary in case the city desires to do any work on the street and must do so at their own expense. The company is permitted to use any kind of power subject to the approval of the council, except steam and animal power. The cars shall be used for the carrying of passengers, freight, express, baggage and U. S. mail. The rate of fare for passengers shall not be in excess of 5 cents within the city limits and eight tickets are required to be sold for 25 cents. The rate of fare to Macatawa Park cannot be in excess of 7 cents and 5 tickets for 25 cents; while the rate from Zeeland to Holland and return is fixed at 10 cents.

Cars cannot be run faster than 10 miles per hour on Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Land streets. The cars must be equipped with fenders. The franchise is granted for thirty years, and the company is required to deposit $1,000 with the city treasurer upon the acceptance of the franchise and must have the road between Grand Rapids and Holland constructed within one year in which case the $1,000 will be refunded. Ten dollars a day must be paid the city for each day the cars are not operated. The property of the railway company may be assessed for state, county and municipal purposes. In consideration of the rights granted the company by the city the company must pay an annual license fee of $25 to every 1,000 inhabitants, and when the city has attained a population of 20,000 the license fee shall be $50 annually for each 1,000. Before any work is begun the company must file a bond of $5,000 to cover any damage suffered by the city by reason of injury to the streets. The company is not permitted to furnish light or power except for its own use. The ordinance must be accepted within four months. In case other electric railway companies are granted a franchise in Holland such companies are given the right to connect and use the tracks of the grantees by paying such price as may mutually be agreed upon. If an agreement cannot be reached arbitration is provided. The ordinance is to go into effect 20 days after its passage.

F. D. Haddock Superintendent

At a special meeting of the board of education held last Friday evening F. D. Haddock was elected superintendent of schools to succeed Mr. McLean who has been elected manager of the Holland Sugar company. There were quite a number of applicants for the position but the board of education taking into consideration the long term of service of Mr. Haddock as principal, and that he had successfully performed the duties of that position honored him with the appointment. The fact that Mr. Haddock was tendered one of the most responsible offices within the gift of the people of Holland proves that his services are appreciated, that the board of education has confidence in his judgment and ability, and is a fitting reward for the good work done by him since he has been a resident of this city. The action of the board of education is approved by every citizen of this community for they realize that Mr. Haddock has the energy, education and ability required in a position of this kind, and will maintain the present high standard of excellence possessed by the public schools of Holland. Mr. Haddock was born in Michigan City, Ind., and his education began in the public schools of that city. He attended Olivet college, and in the winter of 1890 was employed in the office of Prof. Estabrook who was state superintendent of public instruction at that time. Later he studied pedagogy under Prof. Estabrook, and in September 1893 accepted the position of principal of the Holland High school and has continued in that capacity the past six years. During that time he has done all possible to keep pace with the times in educational matters, and his well directed efforts have met with remarkable success; for Holland High school now ranks with the best in the state and is in the list of schools approved by the university of Michigan. Its graduates are admitted to the several departments of that institution on presentation of diploma without submitting to the usual examination. Mr. Haddock has never neglected an opportunity to add to his stock of education and experience. During his summer vacations he has taken up the study of special subjects at different universities. He studied in Chicago under Dr. S. S. Curry, instructor in oratory at Yale Theological seminary, at Cornell under Prof. Charles E. Bennett, author of one of the best Latin grammars printed, and spent two summers at the University of Wisconsin. Fortified with the knowledge and experience gained under such circumstances Mr. Haddock is well prepared to assume the duties of superintendent of the public schools of Holland.

Yacht Club Plans.

Carpenters are working on the club house of the Macatawa Bay Yacht Club this week and as a result a fair idea of the building may be obtained. Every move made by the club shows that the right men are at the head of affairs and that they mean business. The club house will be completed in time for the first regatta, which takes place on the last Saturday of the present month. At a meeting of the regatta committee held last Friday evening an interesting season's program of racing events was mapped out.

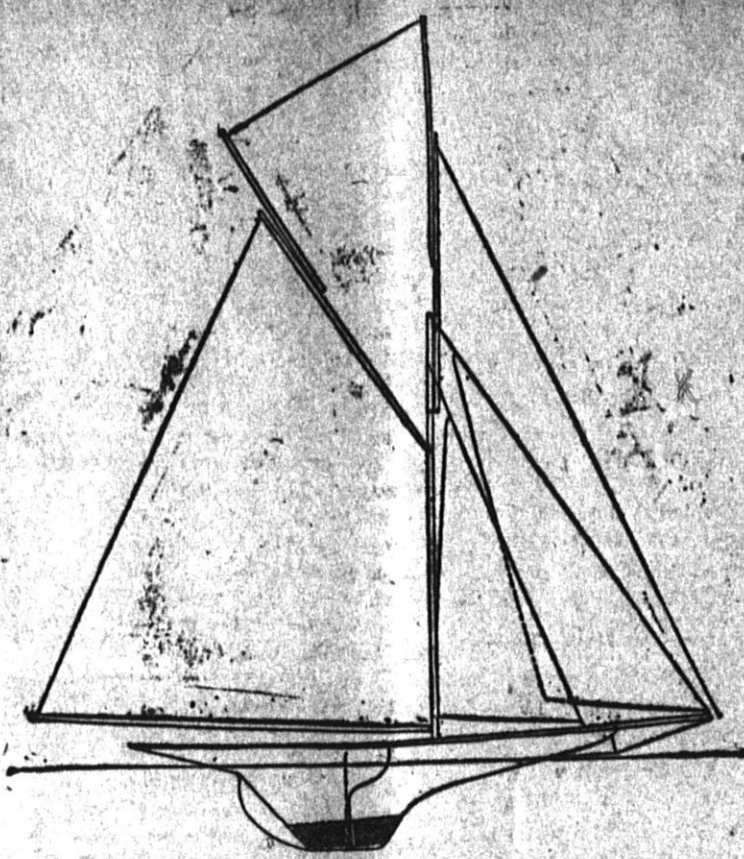

The principal trophy to be contested for this summer is the Foster Stevens cup, a handsome ornament and a valuable prize. It will be raced for either as a perpetual cup, to be raced for each year and held for the season by the winning boat, or, it will be raced for in two consecutive seasons, the winner of the second year taking final possession of it. The matter is as yet undecided, but it is probable that the former course will be pursued. Three other trophies have been presented respectively by Gardiner & Baxter, A. W. Hompe and E. E. Dryden, and others will undoubtedly be added to the list.

The dates of racing for the Foster Stevens trophy this season will be July 4 and 22, Aug. 5 and 19, and Sept. 1. These races will undoubtedly be participated in by the boats of class B—seventeen to twenty-one feet racing measurement—the class which includes the largest number of boats and the flower of the Macatawa bay fleet. For the benefit of the uninitiated, it may be stated that "racing measurement" is not actual water line measurement, but the result of a calculation taking in the general make-up of the boat. The formula is one-half the sum of the load waterline measurement added to the square root of the sail area. The time allowance is based upon the racing measurement in every case.

Besides the regattas on the dates named there will be class regattas on the following dates: June 24, July 1, 8 and 29, and Aug. 12 and 26. These will be for three classes, and the selection of the winners will be on a percentage basis; the boat doing best which has the largest number of points in its class. There will be three prizes in these races for each class; nine in all.

The two principal events of the season, however, are the regatta on July 4 and the big annual regatta Aug. 5 and 6. At the latter a large number of boats from outside will compete for prizes. For the annual affair the following prizes will be offered: A marine clock, boat fenders, ring buoy, hand lantern, holding anchor, anchor light, gift balls, compass, anchor cable, marine glass, 100 feet five-eighths inch rope, boat hook, chafing dish, yacht cap, binacle, pocket compass. For the event of July 4 championship flags will be presented the winner and ensigns are offered to the second best in the race.

Chairman Campbell of the committee is at work upon a booklet for members of the club which will contain the season's program, prize lists and yachting rules of the club, which are the rules of the Long Island Sound

THE AMERICAN CUP DEFENDER COLUMBIA.

The diagram given here shows America's hope against Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock from keel to truck. The new boat has more beam, draft and lead than the old Defender, and carries more sail; has, in fact, the largest sail plan ever given a racing yacht. Her length over all is 131 feet 6 inches; her waterline 89 feet 8 inches; beam, 24 feet; draft, 20 feet; mast, 107 feet 6 inches; mast, deck to hounds, 77 feet; boom, 109 feet 8 inches; gaff, 70 feet; bowsprit, 33 feet; topmast, 34 feet; spinaker pole, 73 feet. From tip of bowsprit to end of her main boom the Columbia will be close to 187 feet.

Yacht club, modified to suit local conditions. The club is making an effort to engage the steamer Harvey Watson to follow each race during the season for the purpose of carrying the judges and such passengers as care to go in the track of the fast boats. On account of the intimate friendly relations existing between the Macatawa Bay club and the Spring Lake Yacht club—many members of one being members of the other—it is expected that there will be interchanges of races and other pleasant arrangements made during the season.

Truths About Holland.

Every person interested in this city will be pleased to read the following article from the Grand Rapids Chronicle. It shows that the people of the Valley City are beginning to realize that Holland means business, and the era of business prosperity has come to stay:

"The loyal citizen who is banking on Grand Rapids having a population of several hundred thousand one of these days, should keep his weather eye out for a storm of sharp competition from the little city of Holland down on Black Lake. Not much is said about the quiet little town down where George P. Hummer makes furniture, but it is pushing right ahead just the same and one of these days our own people will awaken to the fact that in Holland Grand Rapids has a sharp rival for first place in Western Michigan. Holland is well laid out, it has the advantage of the lake and transportation by boat to all the great cities on the chain of lakes. If there is anything in the argument that water navigation helps to make cities, all the advantages in this respect are laid at the feet of the Black Lake city without an effort or the asking. For summer homes for capitalists no place in the state presents better opportunities or advantages. Here can be combined business, health and pleasure, all for a single investment. This is calculated to attract attention from those seeking such a combination and there are many such. Then Holland has a way of going after things and landing them, and people like that sort of style. About the time Grand Rapids started out to secure a beet sugar factory, Holland did the same thing. The walls for the factory are rapidly rising and the building will be ready for business this fall, while Grand Rapids abandoned the project because sufficient capital could not be had to swing it. There has been a whole lot of fuss and feathers in Grand Rapids about suburban electric roads to all points on the map, but none of them are built and none are likely to be built very soon. Holland didn't do much talking about it, but went right ahead and secured a road to the great fruit region around Saugatuck, which is now about completed, besides building a line to Macatawa Park and Ottawa Beach along the south shore of Black Lake. These roads will be of great value to Holland and in a few years the entire south shore of the small lake will be built up with homes, for there is no more desirable place to live in Michigan. Grand Rapids may well keep an eye on Holland or she will wake up some fine morning and learn that the fame of the Valley City has been taken away by the modest rival down on the lake shore."

Representative Robert Alward

The recent pronounced activity of the farmers' club of the legislature in matters of legislation says, the Grand Rapids Herald, brings prominently before the public eye the leading member of the steering or floor committee of the club in the house, Representative Robert Alward, of the Second Ottawa district. Mr. Alward, who is serving his second term in the house, is thoroughly equipped for this special position as a watchdog of the state treasury, by a thorough acquaintance with legislative technique, and he has the entire confidence of the farmer members of the house and the respect of those who oppose him. He is constant in his attention to the duties devolving upon him, and very watchful and alert must the man be who secures an advantage over him.

He is thoroughly satisfied that the position of a kicker is not what it is sometimes said to be, but believes, nevertheless, that his duty requires him many times to get in the way of other's pet projects, and especially anything in the nature of an unnecessary expenditure of the funds of the state.

Mr. Alward was born in 1844 in Norfolk county, Ontario, the descendant of Pennsylvania Dutch stock, and he comes honestly by his hard-headed proclivities, which were accentuated by the 19 years he spent in the queen's dominion. In 1863 he came to Michigan, and practically all of his time since then has been spent on a farm in Georgetown township, in Ottawa county, one and one-half miles from Hudsonville. He has had to paddle his own canoe almost since he was a little child, and the 160 acres of wild land to which he devoted his attention constituted no novelty as a hard work proposition. He has created a splendid farm out of that same wild land, and his clear business foresight has stood him in good stead at all times.

His good standing at home, the best credentials a man can have, is evidenced by the numerous votes of confidence he has received. He has served four terms as townships treasurer and eight terms as supervisor, has been a representative of Ottawa county before the state board of equalization, and has been three times nominated by the republicans of the Second Ottawa district for member of the lower house. The first time he was caught in the democratic landslide but nothing daunted, the party again placed him on the ticket and he went through easily.

As a party worker Mr. Alward stands well and his clear cut campaign talks are not to be discounted. As a business man he has been successful, and has been largely instrumental in the prominence in mutual fire insurance circles which has been reached by the Kent Allegan, Ottawa Mutual Fire Insurance company, of which he is vice president and chairman of the board of directors.

Notwithstanding the extreme heat, a large amount of business was transacted at the meeting of the council, held Tuesday evening. The committee on street railway franchise reported the ordinance prepared by them for the Hess-Hannamen road; it was ordered printed in the official paper, referred to the committee of the whole, and placed on the general order of the day. The resignation of Alderman Kamferbeek was accepted, and after balloting three times, Louis Schoon was elected to fill the vacancy. After balloting three times Alfred Huntly was elected a member of the board of public works. Alderman Kooyers gave notice that at the next regular meeting of the council he would introduce an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to amend section two of an ordinance entitled "an ordinance relative to saloons and saloonkeepers" approved February 25, 1897. Steps were taken to carry into effect the improvement of the fire department, as the following resolutions will show: "By Ald. Kooyers, Resolved, that the committee on fire department, together with the chief of the fire department, be and are hereby instructed to prepare as soon as possible, plans and specifications for the improvement of engine houses, numbers one and two, in accordance with outlines given in the fire department loan proposition submitted at the last annual election. By Ald. Kooyers, Resolved, that a special committee consisting of the committee on fire department, the chief of the fire department and two citizens to be appointed by the common council, be authorized to purchase three horses, and also the necessary horse wagons for the use of fire department, subject to the approval of the common council. Messrs. Andrew Steketee and C. J. De Roo were appointed to act with the committee on the fire department and the chief of the fire department on such committee. The official report of the council proceedings will be found on the last page of this issue.

The circulars sent out to the Grand Army men of the State show that the Petoskey people are making extraordinary preparations for the Department Encampment to be held in that city the 21st and 22nd. The railroad rate is one fare for round trip. The tickets are good in the lower peninsula from the 19th to the 27th, both inclusive, and in the upper from the 20th to 27th. Generals Alger, Joe Wheeler, Duffield and Armstrong have accepted invitations to be present. Special excursion rates to Mackinac Island and the Island Route of one dollar each are fixed, while the round trip to Charlevoix can be made for 25 cents, and each of the beautiful summer resorts within ten miles of Petoskey can be visited on commutation tickets at 61 cents a ride. Enough is known to indicate the largest attendance at any Department Encampment for years past.

Columbia post G. A. R. of Chicago has arranged to come over to Ottawa Beach on the Soo City June 16 to remain until June 18. The program includes a campfire and banquet at Hotel Ottawa and Gen. Bliss, Gen. Pierce and Col. Crawford will be in attendance. The following instructions are given the veterans:

"Sunday, attend religiously to the pursuit of happiness. You'll find good fishing in the numerous bays and inlets; pleasant excursions by yachts and launches to city of Holland; rowboats in plenty; delightful paths for strolling; sand-hills to climb if you like to view the landscape o'er, a government life-saving station with a hospitable crew of jolly fellows; a number of charming summer homes of Chicago people, among others W. B. Conkey's 'Gremorne,' which is one of the finest in the land, and your own comrade, E. T. Mason's, who will be there to bid you welcome."

Last Sunday the good steamer City of Holland arrived in port from Montague where she has been newly painted and her engines compounded. Her gallant skipper says that she will rank with the best of them this season. After undergoing slight repairs in Chicago she will begin the regular season's run between this port and Chicago, June 12. Every patron of the line will rejoice when they board the steamer and find Capt. Mitchell in command this summer. He is one of the most genial, accommodating and kind hearted captains on the lake, but intermingled with his kindness and courtesy is the steady nerve, the cool demeanor, and brave heart that makes him master of the situation at all times. One of the most stirring incidents of his career occurred a few winter's ago on the Mississippi. While on the way to New Orleans in a naphtha launch, accompanied by his nephew Mr. Bryan, the gasoline tank exploded, and Mr. Bryan was thrown into the river in the midst of the flames from the gasoline that was burning on the top of the water. Capt. Mitchell saw him struggling for his life and without a thought of the danger plunged in the water, swam through the fire to his comrades assistance and pulled him to shore; but it was too late, and Mr. Bryan died soon after from the effects of the burning he received. Capt. Mitchell was badly burned and for a time hovered between life and death between reason and insanity; but thanks to his strong constitution and indomitable will he recovered health and retained his reason; but to this day his face and hands bear the honorable scars resulting from the thrilling occurrence. Capt. Mitchell's papers are among the best for before coming here he commanded some of the largest liners on the chain of Lakes. With such a man on the quarter deck passengers can feel assured of a safe trip regardless of ordinary storms.

Fred J. Addison factory and workshop inspector for the third district of Michigan came to Holland on Monday and after a few days careful investigation of the principal business institutions of the city appeared before Justice J. C. Post and lodged complaints against F. W. Hadden of the West Michigan furniture company, H. Van Ark of the Holland furniture company, Geo. E. Browning of the Ottawa furniture company and H. Van Tongeren, cigar manufacturer, accusing them of employing children under the age of 16 in violation of section 2, Act No. 184 of the public acts of 1895 which reads as follows:

"No child under fourteen years of age shall be employed in any manufacturing establishment within this state. It shall be the duty of every person employing children to keep a register, in which shall be recorded the name, birthplace, age and place of residence of every person employed by him under the age of sixteen years; and it shall be unlawful for any manufacturing establishment to hire or employ any child under the age of sixteen years without there is first provided, and placed on file a sworn statement in writing made by the parent or guardian, stating the age, date and place of birth of said child. If said child have no parent or guardian, then such statement shall be made by the child, which statement shall be kept on file by the employer, and which said register and statement shall be produced for inspection on demand made by any factory inspector appointed under this act."

The violation in Mr. Browning's case was found to be purely technical and he was discharged upon the payment of costs. H. Van Ark pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. F. W. Hadden pleaded not guilty and trial of the two cases against him was set for Tuesday, 9 o'clock in the forenoon. Mr. Van Tongeren pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs.

SERIOUS HINTS ON DRESS.

Accompanied by Some Flippant Comments by a Boston Man.

We have received a little pamphlet which we hope has been distributed widely among our readers, observes the Boston Journal. The careful study of it may put an end to doubts that have embittered households and poisoned the wells of domestic happiness.

This little book—we dislike the term "booklet"—tells in simple language how to dress your coachman, groom, butler, doorman and page.

Thus, for instance, the coachman should wear six buttons on his coat—two on the back at waist and two at the bottom of skirt. He should also have flaps on his pockets. Otherwise he might be mistaken for the groom, who has no flaps on his pockets and has five buttons in front and six behind. These buttons should always match the metal trimmings on the harness. Ardent Bryanites will, of course, use silver.

The hat must be silk. There is no alternative. Slouch hats are no longer worn by the coachmen of our more exclusive citizens, and the more fastidious insist that the hat should be a new one, not a cast-off deer of the master. The coachman, when on duty, should smoke only cigars. They should cost at least at the rate of three for a quarter. Green baize cloth aprons should match your billiard table. Crest buttons, worn by your servants, should be dual. There are several ducks in England, so there may be a variety in the device.

By paying attention to these details and the advice as to other matters given by this pamphlet, you will be obliged to be more scrupulous as to your own dress; for it is a sad sight when the groom is mistaken for the master.

A LOVELY FLAG.

Several of the Stars of Miss Mulford's Banner Made in Historic Places.

The largest flag in the world has just been completed, says Harper's Bazar. It was planned by Miss Josephine Mulford, of Madison, N. J. Miss Mulford might not have become an expansionist in the line of flags had we not fought with Spain. When the country went to war, Miss Mulford's patriotism demanded some expression and the largest flag in the world was none too big for the purpose. This particular star-spangled banner is 100 by 65 feet. It is made of bunting manufactured especially for it, and is sewed with silk. The stars are almost three feet in diameter, and each one is embroidered with the arms of the state it represents and the date of its admission to the union.

One interesting detail is that Miss Mulford made several of the stars in historic places. Sitting in John Hancock's chair in Independence hall, she partly made the Pennsylvania star, which she finished in the house of Betsy Ross, who made the first American flag. Miss Mulford went to Washington's headquarters at Morristown in order to make there the New Jersey star. The Maryland one was made at Fort Mifflin, the Virginia one at Mount Vernon, and the New York one partly on board the flagship New York and partly in France's tavern, where Washington took leave of his officers after the revolution. On the halyard canvas Miss Mulford has embroidered a long dedication to the American army and navy.

THE LATEST FAD.

In London It Is Telling One's Fortune and Future by Various Means.

Astrology, chiromancy and kindred sciences survived the middle ages, and for aught we can tell many an anxious inquirer to-day is busily engaged, with the aid of retort and crucible, in quest of the philosopher's stone, or in seeking to fix the site of buried treasure by means of a simple fumigation, says Blackwood's Magazine. People pay money to have their characters told from their handwriting. No fancy bazaar is complete without its soothsayer or spawwife. This adept is, as a rule, more polite and discreet than Cadwallader in "Peregrine Pickle." But for an adequate fee he or she is quite prepared to frighten clients into fits by predicting evils imminent or remote.

In private life many ladies may be found to read your hand with the perspicacity of a Heyraddin Maugrabin, or to construct your epigrams with the judgment of a Galeotti. They will discourse to you fluently of lines of life and health, of Jupiter, of Mercury and, above all, of Venus. If Saturn appear combust they will pull a long face and their alarm for your future will know no bounds if Mars have more dignity than is rightly his in the cusp of the twelfth house. As for "acrying" in a crystal globe, do we not all know that Mr. Lang finds therein his chief diversion after golf and fishing?

Queen Victoria Liberal-Minded. Some one once asked a frequent visitor to the table of Queen Victoria: "What do you talk to the queen about?" "Everything," was the reply. "Everything and anything. There is no topic on which her majesty is ignorant. She appears interested in everything and accepts all new ideas and views with a large-mindedness which is simply astonishing in a woman of her age."

Nobles as Thick as Flies. In 1890 it was estimated that there were 840,000 princes and other hereditary nobles in Russia, and since then the number has increased.

Only One Regiment Necessary. In his new volume on China, Arnold Reid declares that 1,000 European soldiers could conquer that country.

Care of Sugar Beets.

For hoeing and for spacing out the plants in the rows, use a hoe of six inches, and a hoe of eleven inches for hoeing the developed beets.

Under no consideration let the weeds get the start of the beet plants. Put your cultivator to work and follow the marks of the press-wheels as soon as the least growth of weeds appear between the rows.

In about two weeks the beet plant will break through the ground.

As soon as the plants have formed their fourth leaf, use the hoe with a six inch blade. This hoe should be applied in regular intervals; the hoe will take out six inches of plants, leaving a bunch that contains about two inches of plants. This remaining bunch will be carefully taken hold of with the left hand, the right pulling out the surplus plants leaving the strongest specimen to stand. After this procedure, press the ground firmly around the remaining plant.

If the ground should be packed, it is advisable to apply the first hoeing even before the plants appear, following carefully the drill marks.

Instead of the hand hoe, a cultivator might be carefully applied with the flat shovels, but care should be taken by setting the knives as closely as possible to the rows, and never more than two inches from the rows, as long as the beets are small. It should be understood that hoeing is more beneficial to the plant and to the beet than the work with the cultivator. After the second hoeing (this should be applied after the beets are thinned out) use the cultivator every eight or ten days, but after that if growing weeds demand it. Cultivate the soil as deep as advisable, according to its kind.

As soon as the leaves of the beets cover the ground, the work in the field should be stopped.

As soon as the beets are ripe the color of the leaves will turn from green to yellow, and the leaves will drop.

Never hill your beets. Beet plants cannot be transplanted.

Yes, or No?

Holland people are respectfully asked to answer these questions:
Is there anything in the evidence of one's senses?
Is there anything in the testimony of one's friends?
Can reliance be placed upon statements from people we know?
Are the opinions of local citizens of any greater moment than those of strangers?
Would you sooner believe people living in some far away place than citizens of your own city?
We think not! For home proof can easily be investigated.
Mr. E. Brevel, of 67 W. First street, employed at Mohr's Soap Factory, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for ten or twelve years and until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. O. Doeburg's drug store I never found a remedy which gave me any effectual relief. I had constant aching pain in my loins and soreness over the kidneys. The kidney secretions became irregular, and I suffered from headaches and attacks of dizziness. I took Doan's Kidney Pills but a few days when I felt they were doing me good and I continued their use until the trouble left me entirely."

REBELS ESCAPE THE TRAP

Gen. Hall Fails in His Plan to Corner the Filipinos in the Mountains.

A CORDON PROVES TO BE IMPRACTICABLE

Insurgent Soldiers Pass Through Our Lines in Disguise and Under Flags of Truce—American Army Contents Against Great Difficulties—Rebels Burn a Town.

Manila, June 7.—The American forces have occupied the peninsula and Gen. Hall's column is encamped at Morong. Maj. Truman, marching across the Binangonan, found it impracticable to form a cordon; and the insurgents, with the exception of a hundred or two, escaped through the mountains after Gen. Pio del Pilar, dragging their battery by buffaloes, at night. A few, however, may be trapped.

The Washington troops have returned to Pasig, but the programme of the other troops is uncertain.

The present expedition shows the difficulty which is encountered by an army which must depend upon wagon trains in catching barefooted bandits in their own mountains, and also gives proof that the rebels do not intend to fight battles.

Lightning Change Artists.

En route to Morong the Americans met flocks of Filipinos and flags of truce, many of them young men with the bearing of soldiers. Many discarded uniforms were found in the houses, apparently those of soldiers who had escaped by changing their costumes from "insurrecto" to "amigo" and walking boldly past the army, which had expected to corral them. Few were found about Morong, one member of the Washington regiment was killed and two were wounded in the encounter with the outposts.

Gen. Lawton, on board a gunboat, searching the coast for Maj. Truman, stopped at Binangonan, opposite Morong. The natives immediately ran up a flag of truce, but a delegation in canoes put off and greeted the Americans with the usual protestations of friendship.

Town of Macabebe Burned.

Manila, June 7.—The rebels on Saturday night made an attack upon the friendly town of Macabebe and after driving the inhabitants out burned the town.

The insurgents nightly annoy the troops at San Francisco. Several Americans have been slightly wounded recently. The enemy have several Krupp guns, which they bring forward and use for firing large shells into the town, then retreating with their guns. One of the insurgent shells fell within 30 yards of Gen. MacArthur's headquarters Saturday evening.

Asked More Liberal Concessions.

New York, June 7.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: President Schurman, of the Philippine commission, in a dispatch to Secretary Hay has, it is believed, recommended more liberal concessions to the Filipinos, with a view of ending the insurrection at once. An official acquainted with the message said it reviewed the situation in the islands and was of an encouraging nature.

The dispatch was considered by the president and Secretary Hay, and the president has sent a reply. The nature of the answer is not divulged.

It is significant, however, that coincident with his message to Mr. Schurman a cablegram was sent to Gen. Otis, with instructions in line with the president's belief that the restoration of peace can only be accomplished by the complete subjugation of the Filipinos. Gen. Otis will continue his military operations throughout the rainy season.

Johann Strauss Dead.

Vienna, June 5.—Johann Strauss, the famous composer, died yesterday, aged 74 years. Strauss was a most prolific writer, and the Strauss dances now number nearly 500. "Artist Life," "The Beautiful Blue Danube," "Wine, Women and Song," "From the Mountains," "German Hearts," and "Village Swallows," are some of the most famous. Aside from his waltzes, he was also the composer of numerous polkas which are known the world over.

Father and Daughter Killed.

Alliance, O., June 6.—Isaac Reck and daughter, Mrs. Mary J. Cope, while standing on a crossing, were run down by a light engine and instantly killed, the remains being mangled beyond recognition. They were watching the approach of an east-bound train and did not hear the other engine. William H. Reck, a son, who is yard conductor, while assisting in gathering up the remains, recognized his sister by the jacket she wore.

The Patent Office.

Washington, June 5.—The receipts of the patent office in May were $116,336, against $93,553 for the corresponding month of 1898. The number of applications for patents was 3,856, against 3,870 for May, 1898.

Kill Each Other.

Strickler, Ark., June 7.—In a quarrel Jim Herriek and John Hinkle killed each other, and a younger brother of each man took up the battle and fought until both were mortally wounded.

Dewey Leaves Hong-Kong.

Hong-Kong, June 7.—The United States cruiser Olympia, with Admiral Dewey on board, left here at four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Took the Oath.

Columbia, S. C., June 5.—Lieut. Gov. McSweeney was inaugurated governor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gov. Ellerbe.

The Secret of Health

The health of the whole body depends upon the blood and nerves. Therefore the medicine that expels impurities from the blood and supplies the necessary materials for rapidly rebuilding wasted nerve tissues, reaches the root of many serious diseases. It is these virtues that have given their wonderful power to conquer disease, and caused the miraculous cures that have startled the scientific world. Thousands of cases have demonstrated that this remedy is an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Frank Tucker, is a prominent farmer, of Versailles, Indiana. His daughter, Lucy, is now fifteen years old; three years ago she began ailing. The rosy color in her cheeks gave way to a paleness, and she became rapidly thin. As she grew weaker she became the victim of nervous prostration. Most of the time she was confined to the bed and was almost on the verge of going into St. Vitus' dance.

"Finally the doctor told us to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Said he was treating a similar case with them and they were curing the patient. We began giving the pills at once, and the next day we could see a change for the better in her. The doctor told us to keep giving her the medicine. We gave her one pill after each meal until she was well. We began giving her the medicine last August, and she took the last dose in October, having used eight boxes. She is now entirely well and has not been sick a day since. We think the cure almost miraculous."

FRANK TUCKER, Mrs. FRANK TUCKER.

Mrs. Warren Neal of Long Lake, near Traverse City, is deputy game and fish warden, her husband is justice of the peace, and her son is constable. This makes a very complete arrangement. The warden watches out for lawbreakers and enters the complaints, the justice issues the warrant, the constable makes the arrest, and arraigns the offender before the court and the warden prosecutes the case and furnishes the proof to convict. No complaint has been made that the ends of justice are not properly served by this arrangement.

A few days ago a woman and her son called at the Jackson prison and asked to see a certain prisoner. The question was asked if the convict was a relative. The woman said he was her husband and the boy his son. The prisoner had never seen his boy, who was born a few months after he went to prison. The lad was 16 years old, and the father was serving a twenty-year sentence, which would have ended several years ago if he had made good time.

There are some wealthy districts in this state that pay their school teachers but $20 per month. Some (we blush to say) pay even less than that. Take out of that salary the $10 or $12 for board, the $2 or $3 per month for clothes, and what is there left as a respectable compensation for skilled labor, for interest on capital invested in preparation, and for the wear and tear of nervous energy? The Moderator next fall will publish the names of directors, the location and wealth of the districts that are most niggardly in this matter. The people in this state should know where the smallest
