Suicide With Rough On Rats.

After several attempts to end his life Claude Cartwright finally succeeded in accomplishing his purpose last Wednesday. He took "Rough on Rats" about ten o'clock in the forenoon and passed away a little after 2 o'clock in the afternoon after great suffering.

A form of dementia that caused his thoughts to drift constantly to self destruction impelled him to commit his rash act. He had tried to end his life in various ways. Once he attempted to strangle himself with his necktie; another time he tried to hang himself by fastening one end of his tie to the bedstead; again he took a dose of morphine. The suicide idea seemed ever uppermost in his mind. He told the folks with whom he boarded that many a time he had stood ready to throw himself in front of an approaching train but feared the last second held him back.

Wednesday he took a large dose of "Rough on Rats" when the poison began to take effect he told the family of Samuel McClintock with whom he boarded that he had taken poison and was sure that he was going to die. Dr. Mastenbrook was called and attended him until death came.

Mr. Cartwright was 26 years of age and worked at the teaming business. He has a sister and two brothers living in Salem.

The Boer-Briton war is ended, and with it ends all hopes of independence cherished through so many vicissitudes by the Boer patriots. That they did not win, that they were forced to surrender is deplorable, for if ever a people deserved freedom they did.

They deserved it because they were good soldiers—soldiers who in the face of overwhelming odds, in the face of privation and misery turned not their back upon duty, faltered not in their hopeless fight.

They deserved it because they are capable of self government, a capability proved by their every act in statecraft and diplomacy, because they are of a deeply religious spirit and sought to benefit humanity by their religious faith, a faith that makes them worthy to undertake the greatest tasks connected with the uplifting of the human race.

They deserved it because their cause was just.

But all these virtues of statecraft, bravery and religious zeal prevailed not against the armed hosts of oppression and they are forced to quaff the bitter cup of defeat.

This unjust war of oppression has brought home to the world strong proof of some of the contentions of President Kruger and his political advisers. They said that the war would stagger humanity—and it has. They said that one Boer soldier was equal to six Britons and the war proved that he is equal to ten Britons.

While the spoils of war belong to the Britons the glory belongs to the Boers. The Boers lost territory, the English lost money; the Boer lost liberty, the English, prestige; the English can recoup themselves for their losses. What the Boers lost can never be regained, therefore they are the heaviest losers. But they have not lost the respect and admiration of the world and in future years their names will be mentioned in the same breath and with the same feelings of veneration and awe as are mentioned the heroes of Thermopylae.

During the dark days of the war material aid and good wishes were extended from people in this country, particularly people of the same nationality as the sturdy Boers, and now in the hour that they accept peace with honor these people extend the largest measure of sympathy.

REMARKS MADE BY G. J. DIEREMA

AT THE UNVEILING OF THE SOLDIERS MONUMENT IN PILGRIM HOME CEMETERY ON FRIDAY.

MAY 30, 1902.

I desire first of all to acknowledge to the A. C. Van Raalte Grand Army Post my sincere appreciation for having so often honored me by invitations to address them on Memorial Days. On these days, which grow more sacred and impressive as the mellow haze of fall spreads over the faces of the veterans and as the silvery gray turns to snowy white upon their heads.

For the erecting of monuments to mark great and decisive events in the history of a nation we have the highest authority. When the children of Israel had ceased wandering in the wilderness and had passed through the River Jordan on dry land, God spoke to Joshua, their new leader, saying: "Select me twelve men from the Tribes of the Children of Israel, from each tribe a man, and let them pick up from the river-bed where the feet of the priests that bore the Ark of the Lord stood on dry land, each a stone, and let these stones be carried to the place where the camp shall lodge this night and there let them be erected into a monument; and it shall come to pass when your children shall ask their fathers, 'What mean these stones, then?' they shall tell them how Jehovah led the hosts of Israel across the River Jordan on dry land while the priests of the Lord stood in the midst of the river-bed holding the Ark of the Covenant."

In obedience to this God-inspired example the citizens of Holland have erected this monument lest we should forget the bloody price which was paid for union and liberty; for our flag, our constitution, and our destiny.

As from ancient Sinai's trembling sides there rang Jehovah's commandments, "Remember, remember," so from this granite base and bronze figure there will come to generations yet unborn the message "Remember, remember."

It is fitting that the tender hands of loving woman should unveil the statue, for she cannot forget. Her heart is a treasure-house of sacred memories. She sacrificed father, husband, son, brother and lover upon the altar of liberty. No orator can speak, no poet can sing the full measure of her patriotic love and devotion.

It is fitting that to Adriana Karsten, sister of Johannes Van Den Tak, who on the 10th day of April, 1862, at Williamson Island, Georgia, was the first of our young Holland heroes to fall upon the field of battle, should be assigned this loving task. Her hands helped to make the beautiful silk flag which the ladies of Holland gave to Company I, and upon which was inscribed in the very depths of their love the sublime words of faith, "The Lord is our refuge."

What then must you answer when your children shall ask their fathers, "What means this monument?"

(1). Tell them that the Holland colony furnished its full quota of volunteers to the Union Army of our brave soldiers as ever fought liberty's battles in any land under any flag; worthy successors of William the Silent, Prince Maurice, Van Spyk, and De Ruiter.

That these Holland boys were patriots with the blood of the Puritans coursing through their veins; that they loved the land of their adoption with unselfish devotion and easily transferred their allegiance from their flag of red, white and blue, to our flag of the same colors studded with the stars of liberty; that their leader was a patriotic, far-seeing statesman, as well as a powerfully eloquent preacher; that when the crucial moment came he did not spare his own flesh and blood, but announced to the gathered multitude, after an enthusiastic outburst of matchless patriotic eloquence, "Like Israel of old I have struggled and prayed, and prayed and struggled with my God, and like Israel of old I have triumphed. Thank God I have a patriotic Dutch wife, whose full sympathy I have. Our boys are ready to go." And when he bade these boys goodbye, he said, "You may return wounded, maimed, crippled or dead, but never a coward." The empty words of the commander and the military bearing of the color bearer of this Post witness how well they kept their last injunction. In the hell of battle they fought so madly on that they seemed to covet death.

Holland has seen many dark, sad days, and has witnessed devastation and death by fire and epidemics, but the saddest day of all was that dreaded September day in 1862 when the flower of the city about eighty-five strong marched in long procession through our streets until they disappeared behind our eastern hill. They had enlisted, away from honored father and sainted mother, away from loving wife and tender maid, from helpless child and devoted friend, from home and peace, from all that the heart loves and cherishes they marched: away from aching hearts and tear-stained pillows to the far off sunny South to lay down their lives, if need be, upon their country's altar. Love bade them linger, but stern duty bade them go. Those who have returned are our heroes; those who fell, whether in dark jungles, in tangled thicket or upon the open field, are our martyrs, and upon this monument we have inscribed their names for posterity to venerate.

(2). Tell them that these brave boys marched for miles over the dead bodies of their comrades, while the earth trembled with the booming of cannon, while the deafening rattle of musketry filled the air, and the hellish hiss of the deadly shell was heard on every side. On, they marched, fighting like demons and holding the stars of the Union aloft until they shouted the victor's cry. Tell them of the long marches; of the damp, cold nights; of lying down with frozen garments in beds of mud and filth, with only the stars of heaven for their covering; of hunger and thirst; of sickness and death; of Libby prison and Andersonville. Tell them of Grant, Sherman and Sheridan; of the march to the sea and through the Shenandoah Valley. Tell them of Lookout Mountain, Resaca, Gettysburg and Appomattox. That braver soldiers never faced each other upon deadlier fields of conflict; each foeman was worthy of the other's steel.

(3). Tell your children that they are the heirs of all ages; that between the Egypt and Canaan of every nation lies a Red Sea of blood and a wilderness of dead bones; that free speech, a free press, free schools, and a free ballot, religious and civil liberty, independence, union and emancipation have all been purchased as the price of blood.

(4). Tell them that it is only the path of sacrifices that leads to the crown of glory; that he who would save his life must lose it.

(5). Tell them that Michigan is one of the most patriotic states in the Union; that one-eighth of our entire population enlisted in that fearful war.

(6). Tell them that when man enslaves his fellow men, God and the stars in their courses fight against him.

(7). Tell them that the soldiers of 1861 fought two enemies; one in the rear and one in the front, and that the masked batteries in the rear often did the most deadly execution; that history repeats itself, and that even now our boys who are fighting for the supremacy of our flag in the far off distant islands are subjected to the same double fire.

(8). Tell them that Sherman truly said "War is hell," but that American soldiers are not devils. They are our most patriotic sons, whose undying devotion to our flag and all that it represents causes them to fight our battles. That they are neither hirelings nor adventurers; that whether they are engaged at Bunker Hill, Gettysburg, San Juan Hill, El Caney, Pekin, or the Philippines, they always fight for principle and not for conquest. China when in the very throes of the great Boxer uprising begged our invading army to stay for the protection of her most sacred treasures in the celestial city, a mark of distinction which in all the annals of history has never come to any soldier. Shame upon that un-American, unpatriotic American who does not have the greatest admiration and the profoundest respect for the American army.

We do not forget that in every war there have been individual acts of unpardonable cruelty, caused perhaps by hellish provocation, but we do not let it be as unjust to judge the record of our army by these exceptions as it would be to judge the noble martyr record of the Apostles by the treachery of Judas Iscariot; as it would be to judge the pure and spotless life of the Church with its countless hosts of saints and martyrs singing before the throne and performing their lowly service upon earth, by the wolf in sheep's clothing who sometimes enters her sacred precincts.

(9). Tell your children to annually visit this spot and here drink in the lessons of patriotism which it teaches; to listen to the myriad voices which here speak to them from the earth and sky, from marble, granite and bronze. In the presence of the bones of these heroes and of the graves of the fathers, in the midst of this awful silence let them dedicate their lives to God and country.

Silent, sombre, sphinx-like, yet eloquent monument, erected by loving hands in the midst of this city of the dead, where within the very sound of my voice our fathers (God bless their memory) sleep their last long sleep, and where when the battle of life is over, we too hope to lie down to rest, speak out amid the cold blasts of winter, the radiant verdure of springtime, the gentle zephyrs of the summer eve, and the golden glories of autumnal beauty, to generations yet unborn, your message of sorrow, suffering, pain and final victory; teach your lessons of patriotism; gather one by one to this sacred enclosure the veterans who now with tear-stained eyes behold your suggestive presence, until the radiant dawn of the resurrection morning shall change this dark night of death into the light and life of eternal day.

Memorial Day. Monument Unveiled.

The Memorial Day just passed was one of the most impressive ever observed in the city of Holland for there were double exercises. Not only was the customary tribute of respect paid to the heroes of 61-65; but the soldiers monument, silent reminder of great deeds, was unveiled.

The parade led by girls in white was the same as in previous years, excepting that from the ranks of the veterans some of the boys in blue were missing. Death called them during the year that had passed.

Mayor C. J. DeRoo presided at the exercises at College Grove and opened the exercises with a brief speech. Rev. J. T. Bergen led in prayer. After songs by the members of the Choral Union led by Prof. J. B. Nykerk, the oration of the day was delivered by Capt. E. M. Allen, of Lansing, past commander of the G. A. R.

Capt. Allen is the ideal Decoration Day orator. He knows of the suffering, the heroism and the sacrifices of the soldier boys. His oration was a masterpiece. From beginning to end it was a combination of figures, flowery and elegant, and noble. All of the good, the true, the brave, the exalting that can be gleaned from a study of the lives of the soldiers was appropriated by Capt. Allen and incorporated into a speech that ranks with the best ever delivered in College Grove. It touched a responsive chord in the hearts of his hearers and awakened enthusiastic outbursts of applause.

The unveiling of the soldiers monument at Pilgrim Home cemetery was an event that will linger long in the memories of those who witnessed it. It took place after the graves were decorated and the usual services were conducted, and was impressive in its severe simplicity and its element of pathos. To the strains of the song "Let the Flag on Their Graves," Mrs. J. H. Karsten pulled the cord holding the drapery and the statue, heroic in pose, stood revealed. Three cheers welled from the hearts of the veterans in greeting of the symbol of courage, patriotism and devotion. Mayor DeRoo presented the monument for dedication to A. C. V. R. post G. A. R., saying in part:

"Having been delegated by the soldiers' monument commission to make their report to you, I will state that the project of erecting a monument to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of the war of the rebellion was first broached at a meeting attended by a few citizens in the year 1894, and the project being approved, a commission was appointed and given charge of the matter.

"This commission has collected the sum of $1,117.00, of which amount nearly $100 was provided by A. C. Van Raalte Post, G. A. R., being the proceeds of some lecture and some other sources, and the balance was subscribed by citizens of Holland city and township. Of this amount $1,083.00 had been paid for monument and statue and the balance of $34.00 will be used to pay for some recent expenses of erection, and any further balance will be expended on the monument or grounds.

"In addition to the above expenditures by the commission, the G. A. R. post has expended about $100 in building cement curbing around the plot occupied by the monument and soldiers' graves. Like many projects of this nature, delays due to various causes have occurred, chief of which were the hard times which set in at about the time of the inception of the project, and later the desire of the commission to add to the original project by placing a bronze statue upon the granite shaft.

"In a special and, particular sense, this monument is intended as a memorial to the memory of those 31 of the 'boys in blue' who served in the Union army, enlisting as volunteers from the village and township of Holland and who never came back and now lie buried in known or unknown graves in the south, and for this reason it was deemed best that this memorial should be erected here in this resting place of the dead."

Mr. DeRoo then read the roll of the 31 absent dead and closed by saying: "and now Commander Van Raalte, to you, as representative of the G. A. R., and of all soldiers and sailors who fought for the Union, I, in behalf of the citizens of Holland City and township, turn over to you for dedication this monument expressing in enduring granite and bronze the same sentiments that their presence at these Memorial day exercises annually express—sentiments of love, gratitude and appreciation."

Hon. D. B. C. Van Raalte, commander of the local G. A. R., responded in behalf of the members of the Post and other veterans in an eloquent manner closing by admonishing:

"Never let us allow one of the stars that adorn the flag, to be torn away. They are our glory and our strength. The glory of the flag is our glory and the honor of that flag, our honor."

Hon. G. J. Diekema delivered the address of the occasion in his usual inspiring and eloquent way and the exercises were closed by the singing of the doxology.

The Two Graves.

Sweet flowers kissed by the morning light,
Languid thy beauty, thy colors bright
To deck the silent, the forgotten grave,
Of those who stood so gallant, fought so brave.
Some struggled the tied slave to free,
Fought for their freedom, for their country,
Wearing the untarnished, the favorite blue,
Under the loved, gallant banner, ever true.
Beside them sleep some wearing another hue,
But friendship intermingled, the grey and the blue,
They who once fought as bitter foes,
Now rest side by side in calm repose.
Peal on, stern drum, thy muffled roar,
While the white clad maids cover o'er
With flowers the graves of the blue and grey,
Resting so peaceful this and Memorial Day.

Mrs. E. Mulder, living five miles east of Holland near Ebenezer, says: "I suffered for years from a deranged condition of the kidneys. The secretions from those organs were irregular and unnatural. I could not rest comfortably at night and rose in the morning feeling tired and unrefreshed. The least cold or a strain always aggravated the constant heavy aching pains through the small of my back. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that I procured a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and used them. I felt better after taking a few doses and in a short time I was entirely rid of the trouble."

SURRENDER THEIR GUNS.

Disarmament of the Boers Proceeding Satisfactorily—Thanksgiving
Over Return of Peace.

London, June 9.—The war office has received the following message from Lord Kitchener, under Sunday's date: "The disarmament of the Boers is proceeding satisfactorily, and good spirit is displayed everywhere. Yesterday 4,342 rifles had been surrendered up to date."

Dispatches received from Pretoria confirm the statements made in Lord Kitchener's communication to the war office, and say that the whole staff of the late Transvaal government, with a bodyguard of 50 men, surrendered last Saturday.

Throughout the dominions of the British empire, and especially in all the principal towns of South Africa, thanksgiving services for the return of peace were held Sunday. Lord Kitchener attended a thanksgiving service at Pretoria, at which 6,000 British troops were present.

Murderer Wheeler Hanged in the Northern Indiana Prison at Michigan City.

Michigan City, Ind., June 6.—Willis B. Wheeler, who brutally murdered his son-in-law, Elias Burns, in Warwick county September 7 last, executed his crime on the gallows in the Northern Indiana prison shortly after midnight. The trap was sprung at 12:05 a. m., and in five minutes Wheeler was pronounced dead. The crime for which Wheeler paid his life was a dastardly one. Without provocation, on September 7 last, he attacked his son-in-law, Elias Burns, who lived with him, and nearly severed Burns' head from his body with an ax. Immediately afterward Wheeler attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself in the head, but was unsuccessful. His attorneys made a plea for a new trial to the supreme court, but this was refused.

AN INDIANA TRAGEDY.

In a Dispute at Fairmount an Aged
Farmer and a Barber Lose
Their Lives.

Rushville, Ind., June 11.—As the result of a shooting affray which occurred at Fairmount, 13 miles north of here late Tuesday afternoon, Oliver Cameron, aged 70 years, a wealthy retired farmer, and John Bailey, a barber, aged 35, are dead. Bailey's wife left him a few days ago, and thinking she was at the Cameron home he went there Tuesday and when Cameron appeared at the door Bailey drew a revolver and fired, the bullet piercing the old man's body. Cameron seized a shotgun, which was standing in a corner of the hall, and emptied the contents of both barrels into Bailey's body, killing him instantly. Cameron expired in a few minutes. Both men leave large families.

VOLCANO DESTROYS CITY.

Many Hundreds of the Inhabitants of Retalhuleu, Guatemala, Are Slain by the Eruption.

San Francisco, June 7.—Another city in Central America has suffered almost complete destruction and hundreds of its inhabitants have been killed by volcanic eruptions.

The steamer Palena, which arrived Friday from southern ports, brings the news that the town of Retalhuleu, situated at the foot of Mount Tacana, in Guatemala, has been buried under a mass of lava, stones and ashes thrown from the volcanic crater, and probably 1,000 of its people have perished.

The volcano is about 25 miles from Champanico, and near the town of Tapachula, which, it is believed, also suffered severely.

DISASTER IN A MINE.

Three Men Killed by an Explosion in a Shaft at Ironwood, Mich.

Ironwood, Mich., June 11.—Three men were killed Tuesday afternoon by an explosion in Aurora mine of the Olive Mining company. The dead are: Isaac Ryan, Thomas Johns and Arthur Tregembo. The men were at work in a drift when, in some unaccountable manner, some dynamite near at hand exploded. The men were blown to pieces. Two of the victims were identified by their shoes and a third by shreds of clothing.

Two Killed.

Macon, Ga., June 11.—The south-bound passenger train of the Southern railway, which left Atlanta at noon for Macon, collided with a north-bound freight train near Juliette, 23 miles north of Macon, at 2:10 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The engineer and fireman of the passenger train were instantly killed and 19 of the passengers more or less severely injured.

SURE DEATH TO MOSQUITOES

Kerosene Oil Distributed Over Surface of Water Where They Breed Kills Insects.

The method of using kerosene to exterminate mosquitoes is explained by Popular Mechanics as follows: "There are several ways by which war against mosquitoes can be successfully waged. The best method is to drain the swampy regions in which the insect breeds, but where this cannot be done a small quantity of kerosene oil will remedy the nuisance."

"When a thin film of oil is distributed over the surface of the water it seals up the young mosquitoes' breathing funnel, causing death. If people living in country places or those camping out, even where there is no stagnant water, will see that every open receptacle, tub, or barrel is treated once or twice a month with a spoonful of kerosene they will relieve themselves of much misery. When stagnant ponds are treated in this manner, the treatment being repeated once in every 20 days, in order to catch each succeeding generation, life in the neighborhood may be made bearable where once it was a burden."

"The people in an entire neighborhood may be miserable from one small breeding place, and they may be made correspondingly happy by the use of oil. It is estimated that an ounce of oil is enough for 15 square feet of surface."

TREES ARE TREASURES.

The Destruction of Many in This Country Has Made Remaining
Old Ones Very Valuable.

Time changes all things, and time is changing the public and private estimate of trees in this country. When the pioneers came upon a vast wilderness the trees were as much opposed to their making comfortable livelihoods as were the copper-skinned savages. They made war upon the forest with more zeal than judgment; they slaughtered and laid waste, says the Pittsburg Post. With such beginnings of the people their constituted authorities have been slow to make laws for the protection of mere trees, though gradually the worth of the latter has come to be understood by many. Old trees soon will be held, as they should be, to be sacred, and young trees as something to be encouraged, fostered and trained in the way they should go. It is only a few years since Dr. Marshall, of this state, astonished the public by bringing suit against a telephone company for backing branches off some stately trees because they interfered with the stringing or proper insulation of its wires. The courts sustained the doctor's contention that ancient trees are treasures. The telephone company will not soon forget the fact, for it was compelled to pay smartly for the destruction wrought.

A TAILOR'S SHREWD TRICK.

Makes Overcharge in His Statement to Bring Slow-Paying Customers to Time.

"You've made a mistake in my bill," said a young man excitedly, recently, to the proprietor of a prominent tailoring house, relates the Chicago Post. "That can't be," answered the tailor, mildly. "Oh, but it is so," exclaimed the youth in a hurry. "Look here! Ten dollars too much charged on this bill." The proprietor compared the bill with his books. "You're right, Mr. Blank," he admitted. "I'll take ten dollars off, and how much did you say you wanted to pay on account?"

The young man grew red, coughed, and finally produced a five-dollar note. "That works every time," continued the tailor to an interested bystander, after the customer had departed. Nothing brings a man here in such a hurry as to overcharge him on his bill. When a customer gets a little backward and dodges the place I send him a bill overcharging him. He comes on a rush to have the mistake corrected, and a little diplomacy does the rest. Best of all, it doesn't hurt his feelings, as would a visit from a collector."

PRINTERS ARE TOO SLOW.

The Value of Government Reports
Is Impaired by Delays in Publication.

The public as well as the government suffers greatly by the dilatory methods in vogue in the printing of official reports. The value of work done by the scientific bureaus maintained by the government especially is lamentably lessened by the tardiness with which the results are given to the public. Official information does not make its appearance until the question has become obsolete or enough light has been shed on it through the medium of a more energetic press.

The delay, says the Chicago Chronicle is caused by the difficulty in getting the reports printed. In many cases the manuscripts prepared under the direction of the bureaus do not see the light of publication for three years. Pressure, it is claimed, is frequently required to rescue the fruits of laborious research, and the author of a timely and well-designed paper is met by most persistent and disheartening dilatoriness.

American Invasion of Scotland.

An American tourist in Scotland cites a new example of "the American invasion," showing that what is usually considered the most thoroughly Scottish Scotch organizations, the famous "Black Watch" regiment, drills according to West Point tactics, is armed with Springfield rifles, and its band wears uniforms cut in New York, uses instruments made in Chicago, and plays Sousa's marches.

FARM GARDEN

A FARM WATER SUPPLY.

A Small Spring Made Very Useful in Crop Production.

The opening up of springs is often a very satisfactory means of obtaining a farm supply of irrigation water. Their development sometimes consists in the excavation of a reservoir in a piece of springy or marshy ground or in laying underdrains to take their flow and connecting them with a more convenient reservoir site at a distance. Sometimes a spring whose flow cannot be recovered from the area of boggy ground below it can be opened up and its waters readily directed to a single channel or to a pipe leading to a reservoir (see the cuts). Professor Wickson of California in writing of field and garden irrigation tells how by this means waste land which is both useless and treacherous is reclaimed and made productive, while at the same time the waste water which destroyed it is utilized to make other lands more productive.

Professor Wickson says: Many farms have blemishes of this kind to be removed, and long and costly channels are cut merely to provide an outflow to a water course. It would often be less expensive to include a system of irrigation and thus to double the return for the necessary expenditure. Foul mudholes which are maintained for watering stock can be made to yield a wholesome water supply for stock and an irrigation supply for the farm garden by piping from the reservoir, which can be constructed on the site of the old mudhole at a little cost. All these improvements can be accomplished by the ordinary methods and materials for underground drainage.

There is one matter in connection with a projected utilization for any small outcropping of water to which careful attention should be given, and that is approximate knowledge of the amount of water which can be made available. This may be obtained before investment of labor or material is made by opening up the spring thoroughly, cleaning it out to expose its outflow and measuring the flow in a water tight basin or a vessel of known capacity. Note the time required to fill the vessel, and it can be quickly calculated how much the spring will yield in twenty-four hours. Almost every one will be surprised at the result of the measurement. A trickle of water thought to be too insignificant for consideration will be found to yield a very effective continuous flow if the water is collected.

A five gallon oil can is a handy measure. Suppose the spring fills it in two minutes, the yield would then be 3,000 gallons in twenty-four hours, or 108,000 gallons in one month, and this amount is equivalent to nearly four inches of rainfall on an acre of ground. Such an amount, if carefully collected and applied, would keep a garden of small fruits and vegetables in good growth even with very little rainfall if the soil be of a fairly retentive character. As a safety supply against the short droughts of the humid region it would rescue a crop which might be worth several hundred dollars.

Thus a little outflow from a spring which might pass away unnoticed underground or at most by surface flow would only make a sedge streak across a corner of a field, can be made a potent factor in production. Of course in handling water from such a small source of supply it must be constantly protected from loss. It would disappear in an open ditch in a short time. Usually it must be conveyed in a pipe to a tank or tight reservoir and collected in sufficient volume to cover quite an area at each application.

Connecticut Cloth Grown Tobacco.

Much is yet to be learned in growing tobacco under cloth tents. Speaking of a crop grown last year in Connecticut on quite heavy land, the New England Homestead says it is admitted by some of the government experts to be one of the best in quality. This leaf seems to have more body in it than the very thin and papery leaf grown under cloth on lighter soils. There is much speculation among growers also as to how shaded leaf on light soil will cure down should the curing season happen to be quite dry instead of moist, as it was last fall.

Peep of Day is an extremely early sweet corn.

The Puritan Here.

Resorters, residents of Holland, through travelers from the east—in fact every person that patronizes the Graham & Morton boat line—are glad to hear that the staunch ship Puritan has taken her place on the Holland and Chicago run, for, as a general thing, the people like stern wheelers better than side wheelers.

The Puritan is in command of Capt. W. A. Boswell and his presence on the bridge is a guarantee of courteous treatment and good service. F. S. McCabe, formerly purser of the Soo City, is head purser on the Puritan, and the people are glad to see him back. He has been identified with the passenger trade of this port so long that it seems strange when he is absent. In putting the Puritan on this run the Graham & Morton company has shown its desire to give Holland the best service and their action is appreciated. The Puritan presents a rakish appearance in its coat of green surmounted by white painted cabins.

Double daily service will be started June 21. The Soo City will run in connection with the Puritan this summer, but for a few days the City of Chicago will continue on the run.

Sporting News.

Not content with professional honors the Holland base ball club will go after collegiate honors. It will play the Kalamazoo College club at the grounds in this city tomorrow afternoon and will have a large contract on its hand as the Kalamazoo club stands second in the inter-collegiate race. Karsten, of Zeeland, who has pitched the Albion college to victory this season will be in the box for Holland.

The Twin City club defeated Fennville Wednesday by a score of 13 to 5. Vanden Berg and Andrews played with the Twin Cities.

Henry Karsten, of Zeeland, who will pitch for Holland tomorrow has received from Albion college a gold medal for the highest batting average of the college team.

The Holland team is now, without doubt, one of the strongest independent teams in Michigan—Fennville Herald.

Drenching rain and misty umpting brought the Holland-Fennville game to a close in the third inning at Fennville last Saturday. The score was 4 to 0 in favor of Fennville when the game was called.

The 19th and 20th of June will be busy days for the Holland club. It will be pitted against two of the fastest clubs in the state, playing Greenville at Greenville the 20th and Ionia at Ionia the 19th. These clubs will play return games in this city later in the season.

Took the Leaguers into Camp.

The Holland team covered itself with glory last Monday afternoon by shutting out the Muskegon state league team in a remarkably fast game. It was the first time that Holland did a turn in state league company and a large crowd gathered at the grounds to see what would happen when the fur began to fly.

They saw the leaguers submit to a trimming that it took the locals but 55 minutes to administer. The game was fast enough to make the diamond smoke. Both sides played swift enough to keep a National league team busy, but the Holland boys were one too many and won by a score of 2 to 0.

Ball pitched the best game of his career, holding the Muskegon down to two measly hits. Tony Van der Hill played a perfect game behind the bat and made a sensational catch of a high fly. Andrews delivered the base running goods and brought in both of the tallies. He was assisted by Bennis Van den Berg who was strictly in it with his trusty bat. Bennis is hitting in old time form. The outfield had an easy day of it as the red suited visitors could not get a ball through the stone wall infield. Muskegon's battery work was fine but the Holland boys found the soft spot on the ball often enough to keep the rest of the team busy. Tards Ver Schure umpired and not a kick was made against his decisions.

PRESIDENT AT WEST POINT

Attends the Centennial Celebration of National Military Academy.

PINS MEDAL ON BREAST OF TITUS.

Cadet Who Sealed the Wall at Peking During the Siege Is Rewarded for His Bravery—Brilliant Reception Is Held at the Residence of Col. Mills.

West Point, N. Y., June 11.—President Roosevelt arrived at West Point at ten o'clock. He was met at the station by Col. Mills, superintendent of the West Point military academy, and his staff and the academy band. The detachment of cavalry stationed at the post under command of Capt. Sands acted as an escort to Col. Mills' quarters.

VIEW OF THE HUDSON RIVER FROM THE SIEGE BATTERY AT WEST POINT.

A salute of 21 guns was fired as the president appeared on the top of the hill. The cadets were paraded in front of the barracks and stood at attention as the president and party passed on the way to the superintendent's house. A review of the corps of cadets followed immediately. A feature of this was the presentation of Cadet Calvin Titus, of a medal provided by congress for his bravery in scaling the wall at Peking, China. The order was read by Capt. Rivers and President Roosevelt pinned the medal to the coat of the young man, and as he did so, extended his congratulations. After the review a reception was held at Superintendent Mills' quarters. The reception at the residence of Col. Mills grew into a sort of garden party and for several hours, while President Roosevelt stood on the porch of the house reviewing, the lawn was covered with a large group of handsomely dressed women. The army and navy officers wore full dress uniforms. Gov. Odell arrived while the reception was in progress. Later the president, Gov. Odell and Postmaster General Payne were in conversation for some time.

Managua, Nicaragua, May 23.—Dark, high, ugly-looking columns of vapor and gas have within the last few days been arising from the cratered cones known as Motombo and Santa Maria, on the large mountainous range of volcanic ejecta west of Lake Managua, causing an uneasy feeling among many of the people in the adjacent towns.

COL. LYNCH ARRESTED.

Irishman Who Fought with Boers Lands in England and Is Jailed on Charge of High Treason.

London, June 11.—Col. Arthur Lynch, who fought with the Boers in South Africa and who in November last was elected to represent Galway in the house of commons, was arrested Wednesday morning on his arrival at New Haven from Dieppe, France. Col. Lynch, who was accompanied by his wife, was brought to London and was afterward taken to the Bow street police station.

Subsequently Col. Lynch was arraigned at the Bow street police court on the charge of high treason and was remanded until Saturday, June 14, after formal evidence of his arrest had been presented.

The prisoner, who was described on the charge-sheet as a "journalist," sat in the dock apparently unconcerned until the magistrate asked him if he had anything to say in reply to the charge. Then he arose and replied almost inaudibly: "No, sir." He did not apply for bail and was taken to the cells.

The Irish nationalists in the house of commons Wednesday heckled the minister on the subject of the arrest of Col. Lynch. They wanted to know why the colonel had not the same right to surrender as other burghers. The government leader, A. J. Balfour, replied tersely: "He is not a burgher." Lieut. Col. John Philip Nolan (nationalist) applied for the release of Col. Lynch on bail, but the magistrate said he had no power to grant the request.

NEGRO BOYS LYNCHED.

Mob in North Carolina Hanged Two Youngsters, Aged 14 and 16, for Killing a Woman.

Charlotte, N. C., June 11.—Two negro boys, Harrison and James Gillespie, aged respectively 16 and 14, who were under arrest charged with killing Miss Benson on a farm in Rowan county Monday last, were taken from jail at Salisbury, N. C., early Wednesday morning and hanged to a tree in the railroad yards. Their bodies were riddled with bullets. The active members of the mob numbered about 50, and wore masks. The militia had been called out by authority of the governor about midnight, but as everything appeared quiet they had disbanded, when the mob suddenly appeared and battered down the jail door. No resistance was made. The negroes were in the attic of the jail, but the mob readily found them and drove rapidly out of town, firing as it went. After hanging the negroes the mob quietly dispersed. The negroes admitted that they beat the young woman's brains out with rocks because she tried to make them leave her premises.

TEN PERSONS CREMATED.

Lose Their Lives in a Fire That Destroys St. Luke's Society Sanitarium in Chicago.

ELEVEN MORE MISSING AND 40 INJURED

Victims Are Penned in Their Rooms by Iron Bars and Heat Helplessly for Aid—Alderman Kent, Blind and Bound to His Bed, Among Those Suffocated.

Chicago, June 10.—Ten lives were lost in a fire that swept through the sanitarium of the St. Luke society, an institution for the treatment of habitual users of drugs and liquors, Wabash avenue and Twenty-first street, Monday afternoon, among the victims being Alderman William E. Kent, of the Fourth ward, known as "Blind Billy" Kent. Some beat out their strength against the iron-barred windows and double-locked doors that cut them off from freedom and life on the top floor of the five-story building, and others hurled themselves to death or fatal injuries on the pavements of the street. Eleven persons are missing, some of whom are probably among bodies which were burned beyond recognition. Over 40 persons were injured.

Ten Dead.

Following is the list of the known dead: S. J. Newell, 474 Fairfield avenue; Joseph Harrington, 11 South Carpenter; salesman. Samuel Dalzell, St. Luke's society; paper hanger. Dr. J. T. Stanton, 182 North Curtis street. J. B. Bishop, St. Louis, Mo. George A. Ribbeck, Hillside, Mich. Alderman William Kent, 204 Princeton avenue. John E. Knapman, 109 Fifty-fourth street. Mrs. M. Baumann, Florence Crittenden Anchorage, 1249 Wabash avenue. Dr. J. H. Boyd, 5322 Calumet avenue; died at Mercy hospital.

Jumped from Windows.

The cry of fire was sounded through the building. Patients sprang from their beds, and before they could be restrained, jumped from the windows. Some were shackled to their beds and left to suffocate. Attendants helped their patients until forced to abandon them. Wild excitement followed. The fire department then appeared on the scene. A marshal's arrival a 4-11 alarm was turned in and all the officials at the head of the fire department hurried to the scene. Ladders were hoisted up and men and women were carried out.

Alderman Loses His Life.

On the third floor in the rear, behind a wall that was said to be fire proof, was the violent ward. Here were many patients in delirium. Others were unable to walk. Some were shackled because of their violence. Among these it is said was Alderman William Kent. Three hours later a body was found by Capt. White, of truck 2. It was by the doorway of his room, huddled in a heap. The hands were held close to the stomach and the head was burned into an unrecognizable mass. This, the authorities of the hospital said, was the remains of the blind alderman.

Another man, a saloon-keeper named Newell, held fast in a strait-jacket and with his hands cuffed across his breast, lay helpless in his place, unmindful of the bolts and locks that hemmed him in because of the fever of delirium which possessed him. He was found where he had been left by his attendants, burned almost to a crisp.

A woman maddened with the frenzy of fear, locked herself in a closet on the fourth floor and met death there while rescuers thronged the hallways all about her searching for whom they might carry beyond the reach of the greedy fire.

The Burned Building.

The burned building originally cost $100,000. It was erected nearly 30 years ago, being one of the oldest in the vicinity. Samuel K. Markham, 134 Monroe street, who is attorney for the society, said: "J. A. Brophy, of 79 Dearborn street, holds a mortgage on the building of $40,000 and $7,000 on the personal effects. The building was insured for $42,000, and contents for $5,000. I think $25,000 will cover the entire loss."

Fix the Blame.

Chicago, June 11.—As the first result of the police investigation of the burning of the St. Luke society's sanitarium, in which ten persons lost their lives, O. E. Miller, president of the society, has been held on the charge of manslaughter. With the head of the institution are ten of its officials and employees, charged as accessories before the fact, or otherwise retained under bond.

Justice Acts Quickly.

Racine, Wis., June 7.—Joseph Minetti, in the circuit court of Racine county, pleaded guilty Friday to the charge of murdering John Mulaney, of Waterford, on Monday last, and Judge E. B. Belden sentenced him to the state prison at Waupun for life.

Held a Conference.

New York, June 10.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, visited this city to give information on the strike to Carroll D. Wright, United States labor commissioner.

Ohio Democrats.

Columbus, O., June 11.—The democratic state central committee has decided that the democratic state convention shall be held in Sandusky September 2 and 3.

Spanish Officers Drowned.

Gijon, Spain, June 7.—A boat containing eight Spanish artillery officers was run down by a steamer Friday, and five of the officers were drowned.

President Says Filipinos Must Show Capacity for Self Government Before It Is Granted.

SYNOPSIS OF ADDRESS AT ARLINGTON

Will Not Turn Over the Islands and Friendly Natives to the Merciless Enemy—Stands by the American Army and Says It Must Be Upheld.

Washington, May 31.—President Roosevelt spoke for the new policies of the government of the United States at Arlington yesterday. While the occasion was the annual tribute of love to the soldier dead at the national cemetery, extraordinary interest was shown in the president's speech owing to the fact that it was current report in the capital he would touch on subjects close to the nation's heart.

Stands by the Army.

In this no one was disappointed, for the president spoke gravely and deeply on topics now agitating congress and the country, and which have everything to do with the future conduct of national affairs. His introductory remarks were almost wholly confined to the careers of Grant and Lincoln. From them he passed to an eloquent defense of the course of the army in the Philippines, a condemnation of lynching, an exposition of the rules of warfare, a declaration of the government that all guilty offending army officials would be punished, and a renewed pledge to the Philippine people that when they showed themselves worthy of self-government the United States would be willing to grant it to them.

Reply to Hoar.

When the president referred to the "counsels of unmanly weakness" in connection with the Philippine situation it seemed to many a direct challenge to the speech of Senator Hoar delivered a few days ago. The inference was drawn, apparently with reason, that the president had chosen the occasion to declare definitely his Philippine policy and to reply to the critics of the government. He said:

"Our soldiers conquer. And what is the object for which they conquer? To establish a military government? No. The laws we are now endeavoring to enact for the government of the Philippines are to increase the power and domain of the civil at the expense of the military authorities, and to render even more difficult than in the past the chance of oppression. Great is the gain to humanity which follows the steady though slow introduction of the orderly liberty, the law-abiding freedom of the individual, which is the only sure foundation upon which national independence can be built."

Not a Party Question.

The president carefully analyzed from his point of view the state of mind and the present position of the Filipino and what American civil rule would bring to him in the way of blessings of civilization. He said of the course of the army in the orient:

"This should no more be a party question than the war for the union should have been a party question. At this moment the man in highest office in the Philippine islands is the vice governor, Gen. Luke Wright, of Tennessee, who gallantly wore the gray in the civil war and who is now working hand in hand with the head of our army in the Philippines, Adna Chaffee, who in the civil war gallantly wore the blue. Those two, and the men under them, from the north and from the south, in civil life and in military life, as teachers, as administrators, as soldiers, are laboring mightily for us who live at home. They are doing a great work for civilization, a great work for the honor and the interest of this nation, and above all, for the welfare of the inhabitants of the Philippine islands. All honor to them; and shame, thrice shame, to us if we fail to uphold their hands!"

JOLIET UNDER WATER.

Cloudburst Kills Three Persons and the Loss of Property is Estimated at $600,000.

Joliet, Ill., June 4.—A cloudburst submerged half the area covered by Joliet, killed at least three persons, destroyed property to the value of $600,000 and ruined hundreds of acres of growing crops in the vicinity of the city. Joliet is now without street car service; the number of trains between the point and the outside world is limited; the waterworks are impaired and hundreds of persons are living on the charity of the citizens. The dead so far as known are: Eddie McGovern, aged 11, son of Felix McGovern; Lizzie McGrath, aged 23, and Miss Mabel Kennedy.

The entire republican ticket, with the exception of the governor, is elected by from 7,000 to 12,000.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4.—The state board of health has formally declared an epidemic of smallpox in the state. FIXES RULE OF ISLANDS.

Senate Passes Philippine Bill Providing for Civil Government When Peace Prevails.

VOTE ON THE MEASURE WAS 48 TO 30.

The President and the Commission Named by Him Are Given Full Power Until the Troubles Are Ended—Complete Synopsis of the Important Document.

Washington, June 4.—The Philippine government bill passed the senate yesterday by a vote of 48 to 30 as it was reported by the Philippine commission with the exception of a few verbal amendments suggested by the chairman of the committee. The measure has been under debate seven weeks and two days. Its provisions are as follows:

Provisions of the Bill.

The Philippine government bill as passed by the senate approved the action of the president in creating the Philippine commission and the offices of civil governor and vice governor of the islands, and authorizes the governor and vice governor to exercise the powers of government as directed by executive order. Future appointments of the governor or vice governor shall be made by the president with the advice and consent of the senate.

The "bill of rights" of the United States constitution are applied to the Philippine islands with the exception of the right to bear arms and the right to a trial by jury. The supreme court and other courts of the islands shall exercise jurisdiction as heretofore provided by the Philippine commission and the justices of the supreme court shall be appointed by the president and the senate; the others by the civil governor and the commission.

Entitled to Our Protection.

All the inhabitants of the Philippine islands are deemed to be citizens of the Philippine islands and entitled to the protection of the United States.

When the insurrection in the islands shall have been subdued a careful census of the islands shall be taken, and after such census the governor of the islands shall make a full report to the president, and make recommendations as to future government. Meantime the Philippine commission is authorized to establish municipal and provincial governments with popular representative government, so far and as fast as the communities are capable and fit for the same, the Philippine commission being authorized to determine the qualifications of the electors. The president is authorized to regulate the commercial intercourse with the archipelago in the interest of the general welfare.

The government of the Philippines is authorized to provide for the needs of commerce by improving harbors and navigable waters, providing warehouses, lighthouses, signal stations, etc.

All land in the Philippines is placed under the control of the Philippine commission for the benefit of the inhabitants of the islands, except such as may be needed for the use of the United States.

The government of the Philippines shall make rules and regulations for the disposition of the public lands, but the regulations shall not go into effect until approved by the president and congress; provided that a single homestead entry shall not exceed 40 acres, and also provided that no such land shall be leased, let or demised to any corporation until a law regulating the disposition of the public lands shall be enacted.

Upon the supreme court of the United States is conferred the right to review the decisions of the supreme court of the Philippines.

May Issue Bonds.

Municipalities are authorized to issue bonds for municipal improvements with the consent of the president and congress, the entire indebtedness of any municipality not to exceed five per cent. of the assessed valuation of property. It is provided that the bonds shall be gold bonds and shall be free from any taxation. A sinking fund for the payment of the bonds and interest thereon must be provided by the municipality issuing the bonds. The city of Manila is authorized to incur indebtedness, in gold bonds, to an amount not exceeding $400,000, to pay for a sewer system and water supply.

The government of the Philippines is authorized to grant franchises and concessions, including the right of eminent domain, for the construction of works of public utility, provided that no private property shall be taken without just compensation; that no franchise shall be granted to any corporation that shall not be subject to review by congress; and that all lands granted shall revert, at the expiration of the concession, to the governments by which they were made.

No corporation shall be authorized to conduct the business of buying and selling real estate, and the amount of real estate which shall be held by any corporation shall be determined by congress.

Coinage.

A mint is to be established in Manila and coins authorized may be coined at the mint, the coinage laws of the United States being extended to the islands. The Philippine government is authorized to coin a silver dollar, containing 48 grains of standard silver, to be a coin of the Philippine islands, the denomination of the coin to be expressed in English, Filipino and Chinese characters. Silver brought to the Manila mint shall be coined for the benefit of the depositor, the mint charge being one cent for each dollar coined. The same coin may be made at the mint in San Francisco upon the request of the Philippine government, with the approval of the secretary of the treasury, provided that such deposits at the San Francisco mint shall be confined to silver produced in the United States. Subsidiary coins of silver also may be coined at the Manila mint, under restrictions similar to those regulating the coinage of the dollar. The dollar shall be legal tender in the Philippines for public and private debts, except where otherwise stipulated. Silver certificates may be issued for deposits of Filipino dollars in sums of $20 or more. Other minor subsidiary coins are provided for.

Denies Stories of Cruelties.

Washington, May 31.—Gen. Felipe Buencamino, of Manila, formerly Aguinaldo's secretary of war, called on President Roosevelt and said the stories of cruelties perpetrated by our soldiers were either wholly untrue or greatly exaggerated, and also said that the civil government was doing a wonderful work for good on the islands and that it had been ably seconded by the army.

Holland City News.

FRIDAY, JUNE 6.

NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

News from correspondents was omitted from this page last week as the paper was issued a day earlier than customary on account of Memorial Day. It is inserted this week but necessarily has been somewhat abridged.

Laketown.

The drain commissioners for Ottawa and Allegan Counties, have let contracts for the enlarging of the outlet of Kelly Lake into Macatawa Bay the object being to lower the lake level in order to better drain the adjacent farms. Jacob Van Dyke and others interested have been circulating a petition for opening the outlet of the Holt Lake into the Kelly Lake for the same reason.

Corn planting is well along and probably will be finished this week. The wet weather of May delayed farming operations very much, but was due for the meadows and young orchards. The outlook for all kinds of fruit are excellent. Much truck farming is done in this township and the farmers find ready sale for their fruits and produce at the nearby resorts, Macatawa, Seneca, Virginia and Central parks. A much larger acreage of corn and potatoes is being planted this season, the high prices, the past season being the great inducement. The strawberry season has just commenced and from present appearances the season will be much longer and better than last year.

The very good success by the farmers last year in beet and pickle raising together with higher prices paid, have induced them to go more extensively in the business. The farmers in nearly every section are certainly enjoying their share of the present national prosperity.

Noordeloos.

Richard Wagner of the firm of Wagner and Devries of Constantine is here on business. He is the guest of his uncle, Chris Schilleman.

P. De Kraker, one of our truck farmers, claims he has eighty thousand tomato plants in a small hotbed. His first crop did not come up in due time, a reworking was tried, hence the many thousands.

Next Friday evening, June 13, we will have a rare treat in the form of an entertainment to be given by W. H. Cooper of Holland. When Mr. C. was here a few weeks ago the weather and that unavoidable ceremony, a wedding, detained his audience. At the earnest request of those who were so satisfactorily entertained he has consented to give us a new program equal in merit to the former. If our young people desire to spend an evening not only pleasant but also profitable be sure and attend this feast.

John Meyerling, C. D. Schilleman, Philip Heyboer and Paul Schilleman were delegates among others who went to the Ottawa County convention held at Grand Haven last week.

Charles Diepenhorst and Anna Muller were married a week before last. The wedding presents were many. The bride has been down with measles for the last week. Some of our families have measles to burn.

Wednesday, the fourth of June, Miss Grace Bosch of this place and Henry Pyl of Zealand will be quietly married in the presence of their relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bosch, parents of the bride.

News is scarce at our place. Farmers are all busy at work, even too busy to look at the smoke of neighboring chimneys.

The fourth of July will be celebrated at North Holland. Particulars will be given later.

Hamilton.

We have been having very cold weather and light frosts have been reported in some localities.

Some of our boys did not stay long in the north. Hamilton and their best girls are good enough for them if there isn't as much money in it.

Memorial services were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday. Quite a number of the soldiers were present.

Charley Williams and wife of Grand Rapids visited relatives here last week.

A game of base-ball was played here Saturday between the Bradley and Hamilton teams. The score stood 11 to 15 in favor of the home team.

We believe John Kolvoord knew the cold wave was coming, as we saw him going with a straw bed on his wheelbarrow just the day before it appeared.

Mr. Parker is still very ill, he is having a bad run of fever. He has the sympathy of the entire community.

Garrig Hagelskamp has gone north on a business trip, in the interest of his lumber business.

Johnny Holmes is meeting with some disappointment these days, his printing material was in the Kalamazoo wreck, but Johnny must have patience and wait for all is well that ends well.

Arie Company is home from Grand Rapids.

West Olive.

Prospects for fruit are good enough for a canning factory, evaporator and cider mill combined.

Edward P. Kirby, Ottawa's youthful Judge of Probate, made us a pleasant call Thursday. He looked after our political fences while here, but we are glad to say that prosperity has kept them repaired.

Theodore Schilling returned to Milwaukee Wednesday. His new barn is completed and it will shortly be followed by a windmill.

A dog's tail is just like the heart of a tree because it is the furthest from the bark.

Messrs. Baker, Shehan, Owens, Brunsma, Soerheide, Babcock, Van Dyke, Blackford, Goodman and Welton composed the 10 delegates from Olive at the Republican county convention held at Grand Haven Tuesday.

Chas. P. Babcock was in Holland Wednesday on business.

Your correspondent visited Friedrich Point and was surprised at the great improvements made there inside of one year. Upward of a dozen buildings are completed, or in course of construction. Eight carpenters are at work on the hotel which is 150 feet with a porch running the whole length, facing a beautiful piece of wood. The "point" seems to be directed by nature.

In conclusion for this week, Michigan has got two kinds of "dears" one runs away from men and the other runs after them.

Saved From An Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shilde, of Chambersburg, Pa., "I was so low after six months of severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Asthma, that a few thought I could not get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, used it and was completely cured." For desperate throat and lung diseases it is the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles at 10 cts. at Heber Walsh.

'Tisn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by drug-gist G. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, Salve 25c at Heber Walsh.

Mothers lose their dread for "that terrible second summer" when they have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house. Nature's specific for bowel complaints of every sort.

Happy Time in Old Town.

"We felt very happy," writes B. N. Beville, Old Town, Va., "when Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head. It delights all who use it for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Boils, Ulcers, Eruptions. Infallible for Piles. Only 25c at Heber Walsh's drug store.

Only one remedy in the world that will at once stop itching of the skin in any part of the body; Doan's Ointment. At any drug store, 50 cents.
