CITY AND VICINITY.

Henry Truax of Fennville sold his 80-acre farm to John A. Kooyer, park superintendent of Holland, for $2,500.

During the month of April there were 56 deaths and 97 births in Ottawa County. Grand Haven reported 9 births and 9 deaths. Holland had 15 deaths and 40 births.

George Wellington of Pullman, Allegan county, was in Holland last Wednesday and purchased a fine little gasoline launch, which he ran down to Glenn where he was met by his son and J. T. Masters, who with teams brought it to Scott lake.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of E. E. Nies, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nies of this city to Miss Grace Perry of Charlotte. After the marriage in June Mr. Nies will take a position with the paper owned by George Perry, the father of the bride-to-be.

Rev. Francis C. Willekes of this city has received a call from a Holland Presbyterian church at Milwaukee. Mr. Willekes is at present employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. He has been holding a series of services in the German Lutheran church every Sunday evening.

With the exception of deciding who will furnish the hard boiled eggs, plans for the annual picnic of the Madison Square board of trade have been nearly completed. The event will be pulled off at Jenison park June 18. Special cars will be provided to carry the crowds to the scene of festivity. It is estimated that 1,500 people will participate in the event.

Clarence Fairbanks of this city, the representative of the Holland postoffice branch, has returned from the seventh annual convention of the Michigan branch of the National Association of postal clerks held in Muskegon Memorial day. The convention adopted a resolution thanking U. S. Senator Burrows for the courtesies and favors extended to the association. Port Huron was chosen as the place to hold the next year's convention.

The friends of the Baptist society wish to announce that their services will not be held in the Woodman hall in the future as they have rented the German Lutheran church, corner Twelfth and Maple streets, and will hold their services there next Sunday. They will also organize a church at that time. All Baptists are invited to unite, also all who are interested in our society to come to the services. Sunday School at 2:30; preaching at 3:30 p. m.

Five weeks ago Boven Brothers caught a large mud turtle and painted on the shell was "Smoke Boven Bros. Champion cigar." The turtle was thrown in Black river and it was never expected to be heard from again. Once again the old slogan "It pays to advertise" came true. Yesterday Harley Scott found the turtle with the adv upon its back down by the log jam. It had attracted the attention of many, but none went after it until Scott came upon the scene.

The dictum has gone forth that the so called "temperance beer" shall not be sold in this city. At several places this beverage was being sold to those who chafe under the restraints of the "water wagon" regime. One brand of this beer was known as Viki, and another as Hop Cream and most characteristic of all was the name of Beer-Nit. Last week one of the members of the Police and Fire Board had a bottle of this beer examined by a local chemist and it was found to contain more than two percent of alcohol. The board of police and fire commissioners are using the state law to back them. The state law does not allow the selling of liquor that contains any percent of alcohol without a license. In order for the men to sell temperance beer they must take out a state license at the cost of $500.

The freighter Topeka brought in a cargo of coal Monday for Austin Harrington weighing about 1500 ton. It took twelve hours to unload her.

The Muskegon County Republican club will hold its annual June 25, if present plans do not miscarry. Congressman McLaughlin has suggested this date.

Arthur Visscher and Otto Kan returned to Holland last Thursday after an extended trip through Europe. The young men left here on Feb 13 and report a fine trip.

George Iesdell of Saugatuck was arrested Monday by officers Koeman and Meeuwse on a drunk charge. Arraigned before Justice Van Duren Tuesday he pleaded guilty and paid a $9 fine.

Sunday will be Children's Day at Hope church. The regular morning services will be given over to the Sunday school. The children have been drilled by Meadames A. C. Keppel, C. J. Dregman, A. B. Marsh and Geo. E. Kollen.

In spite of the wet weather, apples and peaches have set their crops well and prospects for most kinds of fruits are excellent. The continued rains during blossoming time prevented the cherry blossoms from fertilizing and sour cherries will be not much over one-tenth of a crop, while the sweet cherries are only a little better. This condition seems to be general all over the state.

Chris DeJonge of Zeeland was paid a well merited compliment recently regarding the cement silos which he is erecting in different places in this part of the state. A representative of the M. A. C. after careful investigation, said that the silos were the best in the state, and in fact among the best that he ever saw. Last week Mr. DeJonge contracted to erect five of these silos near Coopersville.

An unusually low and lawless class of toughs followed the Sparks circus into the city last Tuesday. First fights on the show grounds attracted about as much attention as the small show. Several arrests for drunkenness were made and others would have been justifiable. The noise and alleged music from the bawdy dance in the opera house put the finishing touches on an unusual night. — Allegan Gazette. They show here tomorrow so look out for pickpockets.

Clark, the well known nurseryman, has taken the agency for the sale of West's Sanitary Fruit Gatherer, a recent invention. This fruit gatherer is made of tin and a small clasp at the top enables the picker to snap the cherry, or similar fruit, from the branch to the gatherer without touching it. The bottom of the contrivance is hinged and held in place by a spring clasp which is easily released, allowing the fruit to fall into the shipping box ready for shipment. Mr. Clark has the agency for the sale of the invention for the entire state and should realize good profits.

Nathan Kenyon, aged 88 years, died at Los Angeles last Friday. He was well known in this city, having started the first bank in Holland in 1861. At that time he rented a house that stood where the Hotel Holland is now. The bank was known as the Holland City bank. In 1874 owing to the increase in his business build a large structure at River and Eighth streets, known as Kenyon's hall, where he remained until the fire in 1877 destroyed his building, a full account of which fire appeared in our "Thirty Years Ago" column a few weeks ago. In 1878 he sold out to Jacob Van Putten.

Al Tanner of Macatawa park has planted some 150,000 wall eyed pike in Black lake the past week. The fry came to Tanner in what looks not a great deal unlike huge milk cans, shipped down from the famous Mill Creek Bass hatchery, just above Grand Rapids. These are not the first young wall eyes which Mr. Tanner has planted in Black Lake, as he put in a batch of 150,000 one year ago. "I have every reason to believe that the first bunch are doing first rate" said Mr. Tanner, "as just recently I saw several which had grown to good proportions. Another year will no doubt furnish excellent pike fishing and, well if you've ever landed a three or four pounder you know the kind of game they are," said Mr. Tanner.

Douglas.

The commencement exercises on Thursday evening attracted a large audience. Mr. Kelley's address was listened to with intense interest throughout, notwithstanding the fact that a violent electric storm was in progress outside.

The class of 1908 is composed of the following members: Harold Durham, Marguerite Gerber, Lester Miller, Madeline Gerber, Hazel Campbell, Irene Campbell, Gladelle Todd, Frank Phelps.

Hamilton.

Memorial day was fittingly observed in this village. In the morning under the auspices of the veterans of the rebellion, the graves of 15 soldiers were decorated by the children of the school, after which a prayer was read from the ritual. A fine discourse was delivered by Rev. Rice and Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read by one of the comrades. The Hamilton Cornet band led the long procession to the cemetery. In the afternoon a program was given by the school children, which was finely executed. Some 150 people were served at dinner in the Odd Fellow hall under the auspices of the W. R. C.

The officers of the Hamilton base ball team are Ray Siple, manager and Arthur Deright, captain. They challenge any team in the county.

The Hamilton ball team crossed bats with a Holland team in this village May 30 and the game was a spirited one, the score being 16 to 1 in favor of the home team. The visitors had a strong battery but the batters were unable to cope with the home pitcher.

CLAS S SONG.

First the sweet pale hint of morning.
Then the faintly tinted sky.
And the rosy glint of dawning
Slowly breaks upon the eye
Bright and brighter every moment
Does the happy daylight spread,
Till the sun in all his glory
Is shining overhead.

Chorus:-

But now the wind is sighing,
As it fans each school yard tree,
"No more for us will ring the high school bell."

It seems that we can hear
Teacher's voice to us so dear,
As the breezes softly whisper
"Oh, Farewell."

In the early morn of school days
Faint the light upon us shone;
But "Noch und Noch," dear schoolmates,
Light upon our minds has grown,
This our longed for dear Commencement

Is our early morn's bright ray;
But wisdom still will light us
Till time of perfect day.

Chorus:-

Mrs. Hattie L. Bird.

The Saugatuck harbor is gradually improving in depth as the work on the pier proceeds. The fact that the steamer Woods which draws ten feet and three inches of water went out Sunday without any trouble, shows that the fears of many that the government engineers had made some great mistakes in their plans, were not well grounded.

The north pier will probably be finished this week and the south pier will be done in two or three weeks which is sooner than Mr. Love, the contractor, had figured on in the spring when he began.

It is gratifying that the water is so deep and that but little if any dredging will be necessary to admit large boats.

Comforting Words

Many a Holland Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Holland readers.

Mrs. F. Brieve, living at 60 West First street, Holland, Mich., says: "My husband suffered from kidney trouble, had backache and a stiffness of the limbs so severe at times that he could hardly lift anything. The secretions from his kidneys were greatly disordered and he was restless and unable to sleep well at night. He also suffered from headaches and had frequent dizzy spells. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised he procured a box at Doeburg's drug store, used them as directed and was soon cured." (From statement given April 26, 1900.)

A PERMANENT CURE.

On December 12, 1906, Mrs. Brieve confirms the following statement saying: "Mr. Brieve thinks just as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills as he did in 1900, as the cure they then effected has proven permanent."

The Perfect Silo

Because it has all the Points to be perfect. It is built of Cement and Steel, therefore cannot rot, cannot burn down, cannot dry out, needs no paint, needs no guy wires.

All these six points are a draw-back on the wooden silo, while the cement silo has nothing against it. It is the same as if you would put your winter's supply of pickles, beans or sauerkraut in a stone crock, while the wooden silo represents, while the wooden silo is like a tub or barrel.

When the wooden silo man starts to build a silo he does not start with wood, but with cement, which he admits is better. Why not keep at it that way and have a silo that will last for all time, while the life time of a wooden silo is but ten years on an average.

I will build cement silos cheaper than you can get a wooden silo put up for as the wooden-silo-man does not furnish the base, nor the roof, nor the labor to put it up.

I will give you full instructions how to build a cement silo yourself. I can furnish the moulds to make the blocks, the steel door frame and bands, the wooden doors and the roof.

Westinghouse Co. Dissatisfied

When the members of the board of public works, who met Monday night, accepted the bids of the Allis-Chalmers Co., of Milwaukee a few days ago for the steam turbine and generator they did not expect to "start anything," but they did. The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co., of Chicago has sent a communication to the board stating to them that they do not consider the accepting of the Allis-Chalmers Co. bid just.

The Westinghouse Co., protest vigorously against the analysis and tabulation of the bids from the Allis-Chalmers Co. The Westinghouse Co., believes that the board based its action on the report of Jas. De Young, superintendent of public works, as to the tabulation of the bids in which the Allis-Chalmers Co., were low bidders. The Westinghouse Co., are willing to say, that if, the board of public works can find engineering authority who will justify Mr. De Young's deductions as made or even if the Allis-Chalmers Co. itself can present any tangible truths in support of Mr. De Young's deductions as he has made them, then the Westinghouse Co., are willing that the city should proceed to award this contract to the Allis-Chalmers Co., otherwise they believe that they are entitled to it on the face of the bids and that the board should reconsider its action. The Allis Chalmers Co., will soon file an answer to the communication of the Westinghouse Co.

The work of ridding the sewers of the sand that always congregates at this time of the year will start soon. A few "kicks" are coming in regard to sewers being stopped up. The sand is at the bottom of the trouble. Now that many citizens of Holland are having water put in their homes the board of public works thinks it would be a good idea to employ a man to be on the ground at the time the work is being done. The idea of the board of having a man on the ground would be to assure itself that the work of connecting the pipe lines to the city sewer would be done properly.

Three plumbers bonds were accepted last night. They were from Henry Kroker, Tyler Van Landegand and Martin Kerkhof.

President Vischer of the board appointed the following standing committees: Committee on water, Van Duren and Hanchett; committee on light, De Merrill and Van Duren; committee on sewers, Van Putten and Hanchett; committee on buildings and machinery Hanchett and De Merrill and committee on claims and accounts, Van Duren and De Merrill.

A Decided Success

From a musical standpoint the concert given by the Choral Union in Carnegie Hall Monday evening was a decided success. For some reason the attendance was lamentably light though the program was one of the best ever presented by the Choral Union. The work of the chorus was most commendable, for not only was there volume and clean attack but there was also enthusiasm and warmth in their work. The chorus was heard in two short cantatas, a patriotic number, "Barbara Frietche" with incidental solos by Mrs. Fenton and the "Hymn to Dionysus," a difficult but very pleasing number which the chorus handled with skill. Too much cannot be said of the work of the director Prof. J. B. Nykerk and of the accompanist, Mrs. E. D. Kremers, who together have made a Choral Union in this city a possibility.

The recital given by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fenton of Grand Rapids, which formed the second half of the program was a rare treat. This was the first appearance of these talented singers before a Holland audience although Mr. Fenton won many admirers on his visit to Holland in February when he gave a private recital before the Century club.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton are equally happy in solo and in ensemble work and the two duets, "O, that we Two were Maying" and "Good Night" were delightful.

Mrs. Fenton's solo numbers were "The Cry of Rachel," a dramatic number in which she displayed abundant temperament, and a group, "Il Neige," "A River Dream," and Madcap Margorie." Mrs. Fenton's voice is a coloratura soprano of real warmth and sweetness and her interpretation is sincere and artistic.

Mr. Fenton is a tenor robusto of splendid talent and attainments. The "Adelaide" aria by Beethoven which he sang by request was most gratifying and his group which included "The Green Hills of Ireland," "The Wanderer" and "I Know Two Bright Eyes," was enthusiastically received. His encore was "Rolling down the Rio."

Both singers were ably supported by Mrs. Kremers, the accompanist of the evening.

Decoration Day Fittingly Observed.

Though a trifle thinner than a year ago the ranks of the Civil war veterans last Saturday marched in the greatest Memorial Day parade that ever formed in this city to do honor to the dead, who 47 years ago marched out to defend the nation's flag. The veterans, though carriages were on hand for them, insisted upon falling in line. Many of them faltered during the march but bravely kept on.

Fire Department Leads.

Before the old soldiers the Spanish War veterans and drum corps and behind them their sons marched with strong, steady stride. The parade was led by the fire department, followed by the citizens band. Then came the children, the little ones marching, dressed in white and carrying flowers made a very impressive sight. There were fully 350 children in line.

The third division was led by the Holland Cornet band, followed by the city officials. Then came the Holland Merchants' association, to whom much credit is due to the enthusiasm worked up in the observance of Memorial Day this year. The organization was represented by about 60. The rear of the parade was brought up by the officers of the day in carriages.

A Fitting Tribute.

The parade was a fitting tribute to the veterans that have passed to the other world beyond. All Holland turned out to join in the observance of the day. The parade marched from Ninth and River streets to Lincoln park where a fitting program was rendered.

The program was started by a selection by the citizens band which was followed by the opening remarks by Mayor Henry Brusse. Rev. N. F. Jenkins then asked the invocation. After a selection by the Holland Concert band the orator of the day, Hon. W. W. Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor spoke. The open remarks of his speech trended along lines regarding the thinning ranks of the nation's heroes. He related several deeds of the soldiers during the Civil war.

Somebody recently made the remark that war was an issue of state rights and not an issue of the slavery question," said Mr. Wedemeyer during his speech. "The somebody who said that is very wrong. Slavery was at the bottom of it. If it had not been for slavery the question of state rights would never have come up." In his closing remarks Mr. Wedemeyer especially praised the children for the fine showing they made. The services at Lincoln park were concluded by the song, "America."

Decorate the Graves.

The parade then moved on to Pilgrim Home cemetery where the children decorated the graves of the veterans who have passed on to the eternal camping ground. The grave of A. C. Van Raalte was decorated by the G. A. R. and veterans. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read by William Waloorvd. The monument in memory of the absent dead was decorated. The services were ended by the firing of a salute.

At five o'clock a banquet was served to the veterans by the Woman's Relief corps in the G. A. R. hall which was appropriately decorated with flags and bunting. About 300 were served. At the speaker's table were seated the Hon. W. W. Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor, orator of the day, Mayor Henry Brusse, Rev. N. F. Jenkins, William Walvoord, J. Lokker, Commander P. H. McBride, former Commander A. J. Ward of Grand Haven, B. Van Raalte, son of the late Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, postmaster G. Van Schelven, C. M. McLean Mrs. T. A. Boot, president of the W. R. C. and the regent and nine members of Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton chapter D. A. R., who were the guests of the W. R. C.

Speech Making Followed.

Following the supper Commander McBride arose and introduced Mrs. T. A. Boot, president of the W. R. C. who extended to all the greetings of the corps and called on several for short addresses. Mayor Brusse was the first to respond after which C. M. McLean manager of the Holland Sugar Co., made an eloquent address which stirred the hearts of all. Mr. McLean spoke feelingly of his boyhood recollections of the great war and of his father's grave in the National cemetery at Chattanooga.

Rev. N. F. Jenkins paid a glowing tribute to the "boys in blue" dwelling on their bravery and the great opportunity which was theirs to perform valiant deeds in one of the world's greatest conflicts.

Mrs. C. M. McLean regent of the local chapter D. A. R. brought the greetings of the chapter.

Hon. W. W. Wedemeyer struck a pleasing note in his remarks telling several amusing stories and commending the work of the various patriotic organizations.

A. J. Ward, former commander of the local post brought a few words of greeting to his comrades and told some interesting reminiscences of the war.

A social hour followed the supper.

Enlarge Plant

In order to meet the demands of their customers, the Holland Dry Cleaner Co., 9 East Eighth street have made several improvements at their plant. The company has been in existence a little over a year and during that time has worked up a trade that speaks well of their work and made it necessary to make the improvements that will increase the working capacity of the plant.

The largest and most expensive improvement was the enlarging of the steam room. The room has been lowered about 15 feet below the surface of the ground and is completely lined with brick. The boiler has been overhauled. This room has been the leading factor of the business and has many secrets. In this room the old suits of ladies' and gentlemen's clothing are made to look like new.

In the room back of the office and display room is the place where the clothes are pressed, spots removed and if so ordered, dyed. This room contains much heavy and expensive machinery that has all been fixed up.

THE BIG BATCH OF RAIN HAS DEVELOPED BIG HAY CROP;

It's an ill-wind that blows no one no good."

The wet weather is not without its good results, either for it is said that as a general thing the prospects for a good hay crop were never better. Some of the other crops are said to be thriving under the continued dampness.

Green stuffs have been arriving in good quantities during the past few days and they have found a ready sale. The demand for this class of goods is on the increase.

Fruits of all kinds are growing in favor, and with the exception of some strawberries which have arrived late last week most of the stock was first class. "Lemonade season" is upon us and the demand for the sour fruits is increasing.

New potatoes from Texas will arrive soon and the demand for the old ones will then take a big slump.

Death Was On His Toes.

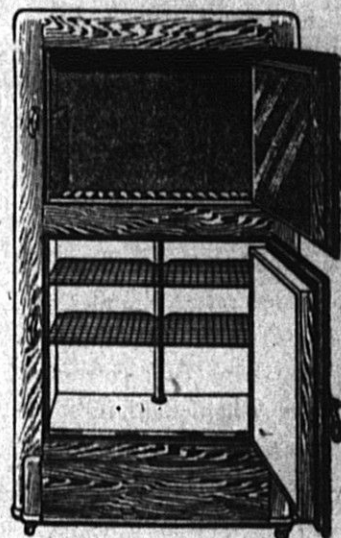

Jose P. Morris, of Skippees, Va. had a close call in the spring of 1907. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again, I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lungs disease in all the world." P. T. MCCARTHY
PROPRIETOR

Taught the Republicans

A great deal has been said and written regarding the scrap between the mayor and the common council, as to who shall be seated on the police and fire board, Mr. Brusse or Mr. Keppel; but the dissolution of the mayor's injunction by Judge Padgham practically clears up the situation and no doubt matters will run along smoothly at least for a time.

There has also been much talk about individual spite, etc.; but the News contends that the republicans are simply doing that which their democratic brethren have taught them so thoroughly, namely, bringing politics into municipal affairs.

While the democrats were in the minority their cry was "Keep politics out of city business" (rightly so.)

The republicans, who are a liberal and easy going lot, readily concurred with their democratic colleagues with the result that said democrats soon held the lion share of the patronage.

But lo and behold along rolls another election, and after the ballots have been cast the council members stand tie with a democratic mayor.

Now they have a chance to show how magnanimous they can be, and how sincere they are in sticking to the non partisan rule.

We have a police board to elect and our republicans again show their magnanimity by honoring the mayor to first place and full term on that board. This is where the democrats get enlargement of the heart, when it comes to electing the second member of the board. The republicans, considering that they have shown such a fair and non-partisan spirit, think Mr. Democrat will at least do the handsome thing and give this place to a republican.

They vote. The votes are counted, ten votes in all; results, five votes for a democrat and five for a republican. Now here is where the mayor (who by the way was endorsed without opposition by the republicans at the polls) gets busy and is going to show how party lines should be obliterated. He casts the deciding vote,—for a republican, did you say? No, for a democrat.

What would naturally be the result from such treatment? It can not be denied and has been stated in the News from year to year that by the grace of the republican party, until this year, the monied patronage has been held by the democrats, but this year the republicans have demonstrated that two can play the game, and results have shown that they have.

The fact that Mayor Brusse said he would resign from the board provided one of three persons selected by him should be named instead of Keppel and when he was asked to name them trotted out three democrats, goes to show that politics are being played very strongly.

For a time the republicans were satisfied with the little electric light collector but we much branch out, for as the saying goes "what is good for the goose is good for the gander."

The Northwestern States report that their crop prospects are better than ever before, and this is a sort of sunshine talk that comes from all sections of the country.

Mr. Bryan, who is resting on his farm, says he looks for good news in the fall. It is inferred that Mr. Bryan expects great things from his crop of buckwheat.

"Cuba libre" has long been a war cry and watchword. A new kind of "Cuba libre" is reported by Governor Magoon, who declares, after a careful investigation, that the island has not a single case of yellow fever. That is a better kind of "free Cuba" than even its liberators dreamed of.

A problem in all countries is to keep the young men in the small towns. The remedies suggested are many, but we fail to find the most practical and the most potent. The way to keep the young men anywhere is to keep the pretty girls in the same neighborhood.

Why not transfer the injunction from Keppel to the cows in the park?

Who is Entitled To Reward?

W. J. Reed, who first saw the body of Margaret Hudson in the river last Saturday, claims the $300 reward offered, and a hot controversy has been started. It is said that he was not assisting in the search, being only a spectator, and had refused to help pull on the rope that raised the log which released the body, but did walk down stream to watch, at the suggestion of some of the party, and that was how he happened to find the body. He notified the others and they went with a boat to the place.

What the legal phase of the matter is we do not know, but it would seem that in justice to the men who had been working day after day and part of the nights to find the body, the reward should be divided and the others get at least enough to compensate them for the time spent—Allegan News.

Give it to the men who have worked diligently and not to a morbid sight-seer who perchance happened to guess the right spot where the body was found. The men who worked are those who paved the way to make successful the search so untiringly performed. Furthermore do not make the parental burdens harder to bear by a long drawn squabble over money matters in which they unwillingly would become the central figures.

It costs a new British earl, with the Garter included, $8750 for initiation fees. An American heiress usually pays $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 to get out of it.

If Homer Warren of Detroit, who made the "Sword of Bunker Hill" famous, should run for governor and meet State Senator Huntley Russell during the campaign, who would do the singing?

Some of the state papers enlarge on what should have been done with the state's pine forests. If such talk induces states that still have forests to conserve them, it will be something more than a lament.

The price of coal is decreasing, says a news report. However, this was to be expected. Now the really wonderful thing would happen if the price of coal were to decrease in the autumn instead of in the glad springtime.

New York's Department of Agriculture has been inquiring how many high school boys in the cities want vacation work on the farm and in a short time has received a list of 2500 from New York city alone. If the work is not made too hard for beginners the idea is likely to be valuable.

In Pennsylvania Cleveland received 446,632 votes in 1888 and 452,265 in 1892. Bryan's highest vote in the state was 427,125 in 1896. Last year the Democratic candidate for state treasurer, polled only 260,000 votes. The Pennsylvania Democrats have just declined to instruct for Bryan, and no wonder. What he has done to the Democratic party can be powerfully shown by official figures.

Here is another indication that business is improving at home and abroad. The commercial papers announce that room on vessels has been engaged for shipping 150,000 tons of pig iron from Alabama furnaces to Mediterranean ports. This means not only that there is a growing demand in the old world, but that in supplying the requirements American producers will have a fair market and will be enabled to give employment to more American labor.

A lady friend who has tried it states that horseradish can be ground very nicely in the ordinary meat grinder. The roots are washed and scraped as much as is desirable and then put through the mill, the job being just as well done and attended with many less tears than in the old way.

While social standing and the possession of money may be factors in determining the amount of happiness that a young married couple will have as they go through life, it after all depends more largely upon themselves how much of happiness or misery will be theirs. They can make their life the one or the other largely as they choose.

The Beach Brothers have opened a regular commission business in the store recently occupied by H. Gezon, in the first ward, and will give their attention principally to buying wheat. They will also handle flour and country produce, and this will add one more market where farmers may expect to get the regular market value for their grain. We hope the Beach Brothers will succeed in forcing the confession from our farmers that they can do just as well in Holland as in Grand Rapids.

Yesterday morning P. Wilms intended to go to Ventura with his horse and buggy. On arriving at the river, this side of the bridge on River street, he thought he would give his buggy a wash and drove into the water. The beautiful little propeller S. B. Barker, arrived at Vaughn's dock at Ashland, Wis., on Wednesday, after a twenty day's trip through Lakes Michigan and Superior. The Barker is the Hotel Chequamegon's excursion steamer, and has already gone to work. Captain Brower reports that he was considerably bothered with ice until he passed Marquette, which accounts for his long trip. Not being ironed to fight ice, care had to be used in making way through the floes. The Barker has been chartered by the Wisconsin Central Co., for a term of years and will be run in connection with the hotel and trains. She was built at Grand Haven by Thomas Kirby especially for the excursion business and is a new boat.

A crowd of some one hundred men and boys with a sprinkling of ladies witnessed the first game of baseball in this city this year. The game was between the Peerless and the Hope college nines of Holland. The weather was all that could be desired. Henry Kleyn was selected as umpire and performed that duty fairly well, calling the game at 2:30. Each inning was evenly contested and made the game exciting, the clubs being well matched as far as players were concerned. Errors and passed balls were the order of the game and afforded much amusement to the spectators. The victory, if such it may be called, was won by the Peerless club through an error of judgment on the part of the umpire. The score by innings was as follows.

LETTER FROM GEO. W. MOOMEY

Camp Alger, Washington, D. C.
Dear Parents: We are now on the state line between Maryland and Virginia, but how long we'll remain here I do not know. The camp is 7 miles from Washington.

We left Island Lake on Saturday noon, in sleeping cars, with a guard at each door so we couldn't get out until we reached Washington. It took us 44 hours. Of Michigan we did not see much, but in passing through Ohio we saw the oil pumps for about 15 miles. On the second morning we crossed the Ohio river into West Virginia, when we struck the mountains. I never seen such high mountains before. We passed through 24 tunnels, some of which are two miles long. The first one we struck they did not notify us, and as we had the windows up the car was soon filled with smoke; it scared me some.

Every city and town through which we passed the people cheered us and handed us flowers and lunches and milk through the windows. The girls gave us their addresses and the negroes were as enthusiastic as any.

It is terribly warm here, and there are several deaths. Our camp is in the woods and we get our water from a spring. Today three Spanish spies were caught putting poison in the spring. They will be shot tomorrow. We all drank the water before we knew of it and the result is that three of the men died and there are over one hundred sick. It did not affect me any, but may do so yet. What I dread about these spies is when I'm on guard duty; they are thick around here. If the hot weather don't trouble me I guess I'll be all right. The people around here say that if we get back in two years we'll do well.

We had strawberries for dinner today. Apples are already half grown and potatoes are almost big enough to eat. Cherries are ripe and everything is like summer here. There are some stylish darkey girls here, all dressed in white. Tell the boys in the shop where I am, and my address:

The advent of the Detroit, Toledo & Milwaukee railroad into this city last fall, which was deemed to be a permanent addition to the transportation facilities of Holland, has proved a short lived affair, and the rumors that were afloat during the past week that existing relations between the D. T. & M. and the C. & W. M. were to terminate on the 1st of June have been verified to the letter. The latter road has again assumed absolute control of the Allegan Holland branch and the lease by which the D. T. & M. ran its trains over the C. & W. M. track between here and Grand Haven terminated on that day.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

THE BIG GAME.

The game of life is give and take. A steady rough and tumble. The winner often puffed with pride. The loser sore, but humble. And there are many pitfalls on The path the pilgrim chooses. And many joists along the way And many cuffs and bruises.

Not every stroll is through a land That flows with milk and honey. With naught to do but gather flowers And rake in easy money. No; it's a foot race or a fight. With trouble always brewing. And when he looks for his reward The sign reads, "Nothing Doing."

Not many things worth taking home In books or food or raiment Are freely handed to a man Without a thought of payment. For every article he gets Like mad he has to hustle. Pull all the strings at his command And exercise his muscle.

A strenuous and busy time Man finds in just existing. For there are many tangled skeins And ends that need untwisting. And sometimes when, as from a tree, He manages to view it He almost gasps and wonders how He ever does get through it.

Taking the Sting Out of Work. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who is driving a coach up and down England just for the sport of the thing, might not find in the job such unalloyed pleasure if he had to curry his own horses and wash the mud from the coach after a rainy day.

Almost any kind of work may be made as agreeable as a kissing game if the hard worker has a retinue of servants to do the heavy lifting and the puttering around.

Engaging in this kind of work to secure a living and doing it to make a millionaire's holiday are horses of two different tints.

If he had to do the chores around the stable after supper we fear that Mr. Vanderbilt when he felt he was needing exercise would go back to his old job of cutting coupons. It is a fine way to pass a life, isn't it, when a man has the money that opens up so many possibilities to him?

Not All in Size. "Johnson must have to walk chalk at home." "Why so?" "His wife is almost twice as large as he is." "Don't worry about him. It is the wives who are only half as large as their husbands who are the tyrants."

Hard to Guess. "This," said the actress sweetly, presenting a bright, well preserved lady, "is my mother." "One would never guess it to look at her." "Don't you notice a resemblance?" "Yes; it is plain enough, but she looks too young." "That is complimentary." "No; it is just a matter of observation. By the way, I would like to ask you a question. I hope you will not be offended." "No danger. What is it?" "Are you older than your mother or younger?"

Quite Hopeful. "Skroggs is the premium optimist." "What has he done now?" "He was out looking for his seeds to grow this morning." "Why not?" "He hasn't planted them yet."

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

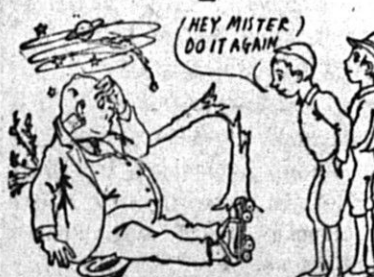

Blessed are the known dispensers of advice, for they shall not be disturbed.

Hypocrisy is a hidden apology.

What claim to be good intentions are nine times out of ten not real, but fake intentions.

Some men are so mean, that they would steal an umbrella from an Easter girl on a wet Sunday.

Don't talk about your failings. They are undoubtedly self evident and need no advertising.

A pair of nice new roller skates and a fat man who used to know how to cut the pigeon's wing are rather a dangerous combination to bring about during the present craze.

If generous people would only stop at giving their own things away they would make a greater hit with some of us.

If you find other people profiting by your experience it is good business to charge a commission.

When a man gets too fresh he is apt to get things salted to him.

The genealogical tree of some people we all know must be basswood.

How About That Automobile?

There is more in automobiling than shows on the surface—more of health—of happiness—of exhilaration—for yourself, your family and your friends.

Just think of the delightful trips you could take, and still be on hand every day for business.

There is a difference in automobiles—some cost too much originally—and others cost too much afterwards.

Rambler

Automobiles are not in either class. They sell at $1,400 and $2,250 and they cost next to nothing to operate.

We will gladly give you facts and figures to prove it.

All we ask is the opportunity to show you the new Rambler models and to take you out for a ride—that you may know from actual experience how comfortable the Rambler is, how smoothly it runs, and what lasting satisfaction it gives.

No matter how little or how much you know about automobiles, we can tell and show you many things about the Rambler that are exceedingly interesting.

We are willing to put our time against yours—and a call from you won't mean a promise to buy.

Come in and let's talk it over. Will you?

Holland Gas

Do you burn gas—either for illuminating or heating purposes? If you do, a new department, just innovated by the Holland Gas Co., will be of interest. If you don't, it will be interesting just the same.

In conforming with all gas companies in large cities who are establishing departments "which comes under the head of new business." It takes an experienced gas man to successfully operate this department, and to this end the Holland Gas company has secured the services of H. L. Bangs, of Grand Rapids, a gas expert.

Time was, and not long ago, when the open flame gas jet, now practically obsolete, was a luxury and a long stride in the coal oil lamp. To have gas illumination then was almost like sporting an auto nowadays.

Then came the small gas stove. My but it was surely a wonder and a marvel to the housewife who before that time had sweat and worried over a big red hot wood stove.

That was a big step too. Then came the bigger stove—a range now, and gradually various improvements were added. A broiler, toaster, heating oven, hot water attachment, hood with draft to carry off the fumes. So much for the gas range, only to add that no home is considered modern without one. Of course the gas heaters, for parlor, bed room, bath room and even the kitchen are late improvements and are "catching on" with great favor.

However, it may safely be said that of all late appliances and improvements in the field of gas companies, it is in the lighting line.

From the old style, whistling, flickering gas tip to the up-to-the-minute inverted, non-flickering, non-shadow, more-light and less-gas consumption type of light is certainly a radical and most desirable improvement. In connection with this new inverted style a most handy adjunct is the "flexible cord," which allows of the light being swung in any position desired or moved about the room at will, something never known produced before by gas fixture inventors or manufacturers.

Then there are the magnificent dining room gas domes with their beautiful designs of art glass, which give to the home a finishing touch of elegance almost indispensable, after once used or even seen. The foregoing and lots more is "new business"—and it is for this that Mr. Bangs is connected with the local gas office. He is here permanently and will make personal visits to every consumer of gas in the city, explaining to them the very latest improvements on the market, how they can have these new features, giving more light and more heat at really less cost in the end than the old-fashioned equipment.

Farewell to Martin Dykema

As a token of the esteem in which he is held by the choir of which he has been the director for the past five years, C. De Koster on behalf of the choir, presented Mr. Dykema with a handsome set of military brushes appropriately engraved.

While the many friends of Mr. Dykema rejoice in his promotion, he will be greatly missed in local musical, business and social circles. During the years that he has been associated with A. H. Meyer & Co., he has done much to build up the business of that firm and a choir director he has been very successful. Gifted with a fine tenor voice and much natural musical ability he has always given generously of his services whenever called upon and Holland is losing one of its foremost musicians.

Mrs. Dykema and two daughters will remain in the city a few weeks before joining Mr. Dykema.

Alumni Anchor

The Hope College Anchor was published last week. It is the alumni number and is consequently a souvenir edition of some fifty pages. The alumni association publishes one number of the Anchor each year and alumni of Hope thousands of miles away, as well as those at home, are asked to contribute to it, so that although it is an unpretentious little booklet, it numbers among its contributors men of international reputations. An extra large edition of 1000 copies has been published and will be sent to all the people that ever belonged to Hope College.

The cover design is from a drawing by Henri G. De Kruij of Grand Rapids. It is a night scene on the college campus with Van Vleck hall, one of the oldest buildings of Hope College looming up in the foreground. The booklet contains a cut of five Japanese graduates of the college named T. Matsuda, Namomiya, R. Tsugawa, K. Kimura and M. Ohgimi.

Following are the present officers of the alumni association: College Department—Gelman Kulper, '89, president, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Rev. E. W. Stapelkamp, '83, vice-pres., Holland, Mich.; J. G. Van Hess, '81, secretary, Holland, Mich.; Hon. A. Visscher '72, treasurer, Holland, Mich.; Rev. M.

Kolyn, '77, Necrologist, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Preparatory Department: J. J. Merssen, '85 M. D. President, Holland, Mich.; John G. Huizinga, M. D., '86, secretary, Grand Rapids, Mich.; R. Mauritz, '89, treasurer, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Getting Ready

The students of the the graduating classes of both the preparatory and college departments of Hope are busily engaged in getting ready for their class day exercises. A week from Friday evening the first entertainment will be given, being the annual blow-out of the Telephone society. After that for a week there will be something doing every evening and afternoon.

The feature of the "A" class program that will be given on Monday afternoon of Commencement week is a pantomime. It is a collection of scenes from Longfellow's story of Hiawatha and will be rendered by reading, posing and scenic effects. The greater part of the members of the class will take part in this pantomime.

The rest of the program is as follows: Piano duet, Misses Boss and De Pree; piano solo, Arthur Heusinkveld; Oration, Fred Weersing; Original Poem, Anthony Luidens; prophecy, Hessel Yntema; reading, Mary Lokker; reading Irene Stapelkamp; male quartet, A. Luidens, J. Heines, A. Heusinkveld, G. De Kruij; violin Solo, Bertha Bemis.

The senior class has arranged the following program:

This program will be highly flavored with music.

Niel Making Good

Nell Ball, the Holland boy who is at present making the hit of his life with the New York American league baseball team is receiving the praise of the greatest sport writers in the country who see nothing but a bright future ahead of the young man in base ball. It is indeed a great player who can jump in play the game he is since the injury of "Kid" Elberfeld. Nell has made good, and in a very short space of time at that.

Here is what John Curley, writing for the New York American, has to say of our own Nell Ball, who got his first taste of base ball in this city:

"When a ball player can jump in and play the game Neal Ball of the New York Americans has since the injury to 'Kid' Elberfeld, and make good in such a short space of time, we will have to put the 'make good' in the big league' tag on him. Those who have seen Ball maneuvering around the short field predict a great future for the broad shouldered chap.

"Like other ball players, Neal used to sneak out of the house and neglect his school studies for baseball. It was not long before they were saying, 'There's a good ball player.' There was no mistake about that. Ball was with the Atlanta club for a while and then was let out to Montgomery, because his arm was not in the best of health for shooting the ball around.

"It was all to the good the day I went to Montgomery," said Ball, as he was in a hurry to indulge in a little practice on Saturday. Then Ball was sold to the Yankees. In the south many good things were sent up from Atlanta about him and the recommendations were all right. Willie Keeler was asked one day what he thought of Ball. 'He looks like a good ball player,' said the Yankee's right fielder. 'He's a strong base runner, and will make a good hitter.'

"Ball has jumped into the big league bunch about as fast as Hal Chase. He was with the Montgomery club for a while, three years in the the Cedar Rapids club of the Three I league, and a month with Toledo, where he learned his baseball lessons.

"He is 26 years old and as strong as they make them. He has also a great whip, and works hard all the time. Batting may be his weakness is what some said about Ball, but he is batting at a pretty fast clip these days. He is an unassuming fellow, and is a player who will be helped out by men who can teach him things such as the Yankees are doing."

The new parsonage must be completed and ready for occupancy not later than November 1st.—Zeeland Record.

The decision of Judge Padgham in the Circuit court at Allegan Monday in regard to the injunction served by Mayor Brusse some time ago, restraining Mr. D. B. Keppel from serving on the board of police and fire commissioners was against the mayor, and the injunction was dissolved. Mayor Brusse was duly appointed a member of the board of police and fire commissioners of this city in May 1907 and held the position until April 1908, at which time he was elected mayor. The common council then elected D. B. Keppel to take the place of Mayor Brusse on the board, on the plea that Brusse could not hold both offices at the same time. The mayor then had the injunction served on Mr. Keppel, which was Monday dissolved by the decision of the court.

(For the Holland City News.)

Well—they are back. Who's back? Shackleton, Bennie VanRaalte and Ed. Westveer.

Yes they've been trout fishing. Did they get any? You bet! They landed them in trees and tried to make a mirror of the bottom of the stream. You ought to call at the Sentinel office and see their catch. A barrel wouldn't hold them. Oh what a time! Everybody ought to go trout fishing.

Allegan County Men Duped

W. J. Middleton, of Minneapolis, Minn., is a very much wanted man by two Fennville merchants as well as by others who have been defrauded by endorsing his worthless check.

Middleton is the husband of Ida Withrow, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Withrow of Fennville. About three weeks ago he came to Fennville and spent Sunday with his wife's relatives. He represented himself as the manager of the Middleton Co., of Minneapolis and told his friends that he was doing well in selling advertising novelties.

That Saturday evening, after the bank closed, he asked Fred Benthon, the groceryman, to cash his personal check for $70. Benthon gave him part of the amount that night and the balance Monday. Middleton also called on A. M. Holsen, the jeweler, and asked the latter to identify him at the Old State Bank, so that he could cash a check for his personal expenses. Cashier Hutchinson demanded an endorser for the check, and without much thought, Mr. Holsen endorsed the check, on which he drew $200.

The amount of the check aroused the suspicion of Mr. Holsen, but it was too late then as Middleton had left. Both checks were drawn on the Northwestern National bank of Minneapolis by Middleton as manager of the Middleton Novelty Co. A few days later word was received from the bank stating the checks were not paid for the reason "not sufficient funds."
