NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

This city seems to be over-run of late with peddlers and magazine agents. I find many of these are fakirs of the first order. I want to caution our citizens not to entertain them in any way as they are not giving you value for your money, even going as far as charging $3.50 for an article that cost only 75c. The public will confer a great favor upon our city if they will inform me, the chief of police or the city clerk, when any of these people call at your homes and their case will be looked into. I am bound to rid our city of impostors if possible.

JOHN VANDERSLUIS,
Mayor.

HOLLAND TO HAVE BIG 4TH JULY CELEBRATION

RAISE IN SALARY FOR BOTH CHIEFS TURNED DOWN BY COUNCIL; PRINS ESPECIALLY WRATHY

Council Accepts Invitation to See Hope College Parade From Review Stand.

The principal action of the Common Council last evening at their regular session was the resolution passed unanimously that Holland have an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, peanut stands and all. The first step towards the realization of this was the appointment of a committee of council members and citizens with Ald. Frank Congleton, the promoter of the idea, as the chairman. Great preparations are already started and a sort of homecoming with a parade and games in the afternoon and fireworks at night will be the program for July 4th in this vicinity.

A committee of the council members appointed by the mayor to take charge of the project is Aldermen Congleton, Wiersema, Brive, Brink and Postma. A committee of citizens was named to co-operate with the aldermen in the preparations as follows: A. H. Landwehr, Frank Wall, E. P. Davis, Frank White, S. Henkle, B. Mulder, Roy Gilbert, Dick Boter, J. Van Putten, Jr., Henry Geerlings and W. H. Orr. This able body of men will do their best to provide Holland with a celebration never before equalled in this city.

The C. L. King property has been suggested as the best spot for the public games that will take place on that day and for the fireworks at night, to be shot from a scow near the shore. The site in consideration is a fine and beautifully situated location for this kind of a celebration, if this spot is chosen, a large gang of men will be placed there at once to clean it up and equip it for the day.

The resolution met with the heartiest favor on the part of every council member, the mayor especially commending the action. "It's just what we want. Interest the people at home and the people of the surrounding vicinity in Holland, instead of sending them away to other cities or parks for the celebration of the Fourth. More celebrations would be better for Holland."

"What will the expense be?" asked Ald. Verschure. "Where will the funds be secured? Of the city's money?" "Contributions from only those who are interested in the project and wish to help it. Entirely voluntary contributions," he was answered.

Refuse Raise in Salaries
Another important matter was the reconsideration and dropping of the recommendation of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners submitted some time ago that the salaries of the Fire Chief and Chief of Police be raised to $600 and $1200 per annum, and which was tabled when first submitted.

Quite a warm discussion, or rather one-sided attack, accompanied the consideration of the motion by Ald. Congleton that the recommendation of the Board be carried out, the motion being made to simply bring the matter before the meeting. Ald. Verschure suggested raising Blom's salary $50, making it $400 a year, and not raise Chief Van Ry's. This was not acting on the recommendation before them and was dropped.

Alderman Prins became alarmed within himself, saying afterwards that he was afraid they really were seriously considering the raise in the salaries. Rising to his feet, he began a tirade on the fire chief, a great deal of which was uncalculated, and no doubt is an outgrowth of the fire truck mix-up. Anyway, Prins was unalterably unequivocally against raising Chief Blom.

The question was then put before the council and the two officials under consideration, if they had entertained any hopes, were sadly disappointed, as the vote was unanimously against them.

Pelgrim on Bonus Committee
Voting first on an informal ballot, and then turning the informal ballot into an official one, the council elected Henry Pelgrim, Jr., as a member of the Board of Bonus Trustees, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Postmaster W. O. Van Eyck. The vote was Pelgrim 8, Ray Visser 1, and one blank, ten votes being cast as two aldermen, Kammeraad and Postma were absent.

Junk Dealers Get Licenses
A petition of A. De Groot that he be allowed to come under the compulsory sewer ordinance was looked upon with favor by the city fathers and granted, the amount involved being $95 at an estimate.

Junk Dealers applied for licenses and gave their sureties, all of them being granted. They were: Feringa, with H. Vander Warf and I. Vos as sureties; H. Vunder Warf, with H. Haveman and John Barkel as sureties; Holland Iron & Metal Co., Louis Goldman, proprietor, with Alex Van Zanten and John G. Rutgers, sureties. The question came up as to certain junk dealers who were operating in the city but had not yet applied for a license. The clerk was instructed to investigate the junk dealers' directory of the city and canvas them for licenses.

Sidewalk builders also applied for licenses. They were H. Oosting, with Dick Boter and H. Kars, as sureties; C. Kalkman, A. B. Bosman and Krine Kalkman, sureties; Albert Van Huis for a fish peddler's license; E. Miedema as

ZEELAND MAN HELD IN CHICAGO FOR ROBBERY

Bert Schumacher, Who Claimed He Was Held Up, Is Under Arrest; Wanted in Home Town

CLAIMS ROBBED OUT OF FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Chicago, June 8—Bert Schumacher, the Zeeland, Mich., man who reported to Chicago police Monday that he had been robbed of $500 in currency while seeking to keep an appointment, with a strange young woman, was himself arrested Tuesday night charged with the theft of the money for which he was held up.

It developed that Schumacher is wanted in Zeeland, Michigan for grand larceny. He is charged in the warrants issued June 3 with stealing $1,000 in certificates of deposit belonging to his brother Klass. Following the alleged theft he went to Grand Rapids where he roomed temporarily at 354 Indiana avenue with Martin Boowers. There he cashed $750 of the certificates, and left $250 in his trunk which the authorities recovered. He came to Chicago with the money and struck up an acquaintance with a girl on the street. When he went to keep the appointment at her home two men claiming to be police officers, held him up, took him to a patrol box, relieved him of the $500 he had on his person and disappeared.

Schumacher gave his own name in reporting the theft to Chicago police and Undersheriff J. W. Bailey of Grand Rapids who was attending the Republican convention here, notified the authorities that Schumacher was himself wanted for larceny. When he went to inquire at the police station whether the authorities had located the holdup men and recovered the money he was detained.

Schumacher is a barber. Evenings he was studying to be a detective, using a correspondence course which was found in his trunk.

ZUM ZEELAND HE GOES WITH OLD PETE DE VRIES

Concerning One Shoemaker Who Got In Dutch Because of Alleged Thrift With Another's Money

Chicago Tribune gives the following:—Peter De Vries, sheriff, puffed stolidly on a long stemmed pipe as he surveyed Bert Schumacher yesterday in the latter's cell at the Chicago avenue police station. Shoemaker gouged off another slice from the Edam cheese at his side and reiterated his story that two men with stars had robbed him of $500. "Yah," observed De Vries, "under mebbe it iss that these city constables fool. Not me. Ven you go, your brother Klaas' $600, he go, too. I tink it iss better you coom mit mir zu Zeeland back."

And, sure enough, back went Bert in the afternoon to the farm where Klaas awaits him. A page from a Dutch comic opera? Not at all. Zeeland is in Ottawa county, Michigan.

John Vaupell and Miss Hattie Kammeraad were united in marriage last evening by Rev. A. Bruske. They left for a short wedding trip and on their return will reside at 176 W. 13th St. Mr. Vaupell is one of the partners in the firm of Vaupell & Aldworth drug store. Mrs. Vaupell is a sister of Ald. Nicholas Kammeraad of this city.

A very agreeable surprise was pulled off on Miss Anna De Groot at 125 Central avenue. The occasion being her eighth birthday anniversary. The little juveniles gathered at 4 o'clock and spent an enjoyable afternoon in games and other diversions. At six refreshments were served after which the little friends departed for their respective homes. Those present were Harvey Woltman, Ruth and Gertrude Smeenge, Kenneth Sandy, Edward, Nella and Josephine Hulst, Ella Drinkwater, Mary Ellen Byron and Leonard De Groot.

TELLS STORY OF DAYS WHEN LAND WAS NEW

ESTABLISHED TRADING POST IN GRAND HAVEN IN THE EARLY DAYS

Writer in Michigan Farmer Tells Interesting Story of Rix Robinson, the Founder of Ottawa County.

Mary L. Dann, recently published an interesting story of Rix Robinson, the founder of Grand Haven and Ottawa county, in the Michigan Farmer. The story of Rix Robinson, pioneer, is especially interesting to every resident of this county and it is published below.

"If a bit of broken pottery from Pompei, or a translation from the obelisks of Egypt are interesting and instructive, how much more so for us must be a few pages from the lives of those splendid pioneers, who put Michigan on the map and made her one of the favored states of our nation. They were stalwart men and women who endured privations, inhaled the effluvia of undrained swamps, were bitten by mosquitoes and shaken by ague.

"Among the rugged pioneers of Michigan, whose memory should be perpetuated, is Rix Robinson, who settled on Grand river in the territory of Michigan, about ninety-three years ago, and through whose efforts the Indians of Michigan sold their lands north of Grand river to the government for a fair compensation, so that the early leaves of Michigan history are not blotched with blood, like those of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky—the man who, for love, declined the highest office within the gift of the people of his state.

"Rix Robinson was born in Richmond, Mass., August 28, 1789. His father was a blacksmith and Rix was the third of thirteen children. In 1870 the family moved to Cayuga county, N. Y. At the age of 19 he began the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1812, but before he began to practice, the war of 1812 broke out. His father opposed the war as unnecessary and suicidal. Rix Robinson was drafted, but when the officers came to pick him up, he was not to be found. Process was issued against him for the penalty for non-appearance to do military duty, but could not be served because of his continued absence from the state.

"When Mr. Robinson left New York he went to Wisconsin and entered into partnership with a man named Phelps in the buying of furs. He continued the business until he earned sufficient money to pay up his indebtedness, including the amount he owed as penalty for refusing to do military duty.

"At about this time it occurred to the mind of John Jacob Astor that Rix Robinson, who was large, powerful, of fine presence and acquainted with Indian habits, language and trading, might hold one of his trading posts, from which his trader had been driven each year by the Hudson Bay Fur company. Robinson held it, altho the same course was pursued toward him as towards his predecessors. The chief of the principal tribe of Indians would pass his door, brandishing his tomahawk and flourishing a bundle of furs, which he would take over and sell to the Hudson Bay company. One evening this Indian chief, accompanied by several of his tribe, entered Robinson's shanty. The chief seated himself on a three-legged stool and inquired if Robinson had any whiskey, and on being told that he had, demanded that he be given some. Robinson refused. The Indian seized his stool and threw it with great violence against the door, behind which was the whiskey, breaking it in. He started toward it, declaring he would help himself. Robinson struck him and he fell senseless into the fireplace, in which was a good fire. He dragged the bruised and burned Indian to the door and threw him out, ordering his followers to take him away. After this Robinson was warned not to go in the woods hunting or the Indians would kill him. He continued to hunt as usual, and the fifth day after this incident, he sat by the fire priming his rifle, when the Indian chief appeared in the doorway. Robinson straightened himself and inquired: 'Want to fight?' 'No, I do not,' the chief replied. 'Made fool of myself the other day, want to mak all up with you.' Robinson handed him pipe and tobacco and they sat down and smoked. From that day the chief and his tribe were fast friends of Robinson and the Hudson Bay company got no more furs.

"Mr. Robinson often said that he had learned two things in dealing with Indians. The first was never to take an insult from an Indian without chastising him and never to show fear of an Indian, no matter how many his followers. "A few years later Mr. Robinson was taken into partnership with Mr. Astor, of the American Fur company, and took the management of the trading posts at Ada and Grand Haven. He had become so completely weaned from civilized life that he had no desire to return to it. He married Flying-Cloud-Woman, the daughter of the principal chief of the Pere Marquette Indians in 1821. The marriage was solemnized in accordance with the strange Indian ceremonies and customs. To them one child was born, Rev. John Robinson, missionary among the Ottawa and Chippewa Indians of our state. "Flying-Cloud-Woman died, and he then married in the white man's way, another Indian woman, who had been educated in the mission at Mackinac. Her name was River-Woman, and they

YOUNG BOY IS KILLED BY 9:42 P. M. TRAIN

JULIUS SIEBELINK 11 YEARS OLD, DRIVING COWS TO PASTURE IS RUN OVER.

Engineer Claims Boy Was Lying On Rails As If Sleeping; Dog Playing Near.

At 9:30 Friday morning Julius Siebelink, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Siebelink, living on a farm near East Saugatuck, was killed instantly when run over by the Pere Marquette train number 15 due here at 9:42. The accident occurred about five miles south of this city. How the boy happened to be lying on the track, as the story of the engineer runs, is a mystery.

Julius was driving the cows to the pasture on their farm. The place is cut through by the Pere Marquette and while crossing the track, the accident happened. The cows were just across the track, and the boy's dog was running around him. The engineer said that when the train came up to the spot he saw the boy lying across the rail too late. One arm was across the track, his head resting on the rail as if for a pillow, the rest of the body being outside of the track. The arm was severed and the head crushed.

The father of the slain child was formerly a butter-maker in the East Saugatuck Creamery and is well known in this vicinity. He is a brother-in-law of Frank and Herman Fredericks of this city.

The grandfather of the boy, G. Olives, is living in Holland. The father is horrified and cannot realize this sudden taking of his son. The boy's mother is dead.

A FARMER, A CHAIN, AND A SPAN OF HORSES

AUTOISTS LOOK OUT FOR A DEEP HOLE IN THE ROAD NEAR NORTH DRENTHE

When Mr. and Mrs. William Weihe returned from their winter home in Florida to their cottage at Macatawa, they made the trip by auto and they tell us that the trip was delightful until they struck Michigan. In fact the road in the mountain passes are even better than the highways in the Wolverine state. They say that the further into the state you go the worse the road became, and the poorest of them all are in the vicinity of Holland.

That much for good roads. However on their trip they encountered a great many experiences but none quite so unique as what happened at North Drenthe, when they were near their journey's end.

As they came bowling along, all of a sudden, while rounding a sharp curve, ran into a deep mud-hole, right in the middle of the road, and sure enough, they sank in and were soon stuck hard and fast. But the greatest surprise of all was when they looked up to find on the opposite side of the hole a farmer leisurely smoking and grinning. Hanging over the fence was a big log chain and a span of a horse were in close proximity.

The farmer hailed the party who were in the predicament, asking them if they were stuck. Weihe got sore and told the farmer no, that they were merely taking a boat ride for pleasure.

But after trying for some time they did not succeed in getting the boat out of the ooze. Mr. Agriulturist remained astride of the fence grinning and smoking, until Mr. Weihe asked for his assistance and the farmer then said, "two dollars please." When the party was pulled out, the Weihe's through curiosity asked the farmer why he was all prepared to pull them out, in fact had his chair ready. "Was there some other party who were stuck shortly before they were?"

"Well, I will tell you," said our farmer friend. "I keep that log chain hanging right near this big hole. Then I watch them sail into it and when I find that they are stuck, I offer them my services at $2.00 a pull. You are the seventh party so far this week, so you see that this is much better than farming."

Billy and Nellie looked at the farmer looked at themselves and rode quietly away with never a word.

DEAD FISH ARE FOUND ON LAKE SHORE

DOES NETTING KILL FISH IN BLACK LAKE? FISHERMEN SAY IT DOES.

Doubtful if Nets Will Be Allowed In These Water For Some Time To Come

The fishermen are up in arms. For the last two days this paper has been besieged by men who fish for sport and by residents living around the bay.

At least twenty-five or thirty have called up deploring the fact that along the shores of Black Lake dead fish can be found everywhere. Not simply scattered along the beach here and there but in some instances bushel baskets and barrels full can be found in a radius of a few feet.

The Sentinel does not wish to pass judgment as to whether netting is entirely to blame for the dead fish. However it does seem reasonable that tons of game fish mixed with heavy cannibal fish must certainly do damage to one another when the nets are drawn and when this mess of jumping, wiggling finny tribe is jumbled together and handled over and over again.

It seems as if the small fish would stand about as much show as a lot of children who were stamped with a great many grown folks. The children would have very little show, if it were not for the protecting arm of the grown ups.

It is very significant that 4 years ago when the lake was also netted that the next summer dead fish were found everywhere. The two years after that no netting was done. The result was no dead fish in the summer time.

This winter the netting for cannibal fish was again allowed and this summer the dead fish are more numerous than ever. In fact residents along the shores of the bay in a great many instances were compelled to bury them to get rid of the stench caused by these dead fish.

The Deputy Game Wardens in this vicinity are very out-spoken and say that the netting was the sole cause of the fish dying in such large numbers. A fish that is injured, they claim, will never be a healthy fish again, and when warm weather comes the injured parts rot and the fish soon die and are cast upon the shore by the waves.

We hope that the authorities will give this netting proposition a thorough investigation and if it were found that the dead fish can be attributed to that cause, that this way of exterminating the cannibal fish should be abolished at once for not alone does it diminish the chance for good fishing but these rotting fish are a menace to public health.

It is doubtful if netting will be allowed in Black Lake for some time to come if citizens of Holland and vicinity have anything to say about it.

KUIPER BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

CHARGE IS "ASSAULT ON DO GREAT BODILY HARM LESS THAN CRIME OF MURDER"

At the hearing of the case of Albert Kuiper charged with "assault to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder" upon Mitchell Kulacki, Justice Robinson bound Kuiper over to Circuit Court and his trial will come off in August.

The witnesses called in were Richard Jackson, Chris Johnson, and Dr. R. H. Nichols, the latter who attended the injured man.

It is alleged that both men got into an altercation at the head of Eighth Street and that Kuiper struck Kulacki over the head with a blunt instrument cutting a hole in the Pole's lip and injuring his head.

Attorney Dana Ten Cate of the firm of Diekmann, Kollen & Ten Cate is defending Kuiper. Justice Robinson placed the bond for his appearance at $200 and this was signed by Lewis Vanden Berg of the Thompson Mfg. Co. where Kuiper is a faithful employee.

PROGRESS

An Announcement of State-Wide Importance
M. Friedman & Co.
Grand Rapids, Mich.

have purchased the Merchandise, Real Estate and assumed the Good Will of the old and reliable firm
The Spring Dry Goods Co.
of the Same City.

IT IS needless to emphasize the unrivaled position held by this well known firm, who have faithfully served the public of this city and of Western Michigan for more than half a century.

The satisfactory merchandise and service given earned for them the loyal support of the best clientele of this state. In taking over the business, M. Friedman & Co. wishes to assure the patrons of The Spring Dry Goods Co., as well as their own, and also the public in general, that they shall use their best endeavors to exceed all previous efforts by giving UNEXCELLED SERVICE AND EXCEPTIONAL VALUES IN MERCHANDISE OF THE HIGHEST QUALITY.

WE THANK YOU

"A simple statement with a heap of meaning."
We do most heartily thank the public for their generous support and patronage in the past which made possible this purchase and now, as we stand on the threshold of

Greater Development - of Further Progress
we shall aim to give to the public of Western Michigan—service, satisfaction and values that will merit the continued confidence of the patrons of The Spring Dry Goods Co., M. Friedman & Co. and the public of Western Michigan.

In The Combining of Two Such Large Stores

there will naturally be a great deal more merchandise than we require and this will have to be disposed of in the shortest possible time. We therefore plan the most ever held in this section of the country. In preparation for this event the store of M. Friedman & Co. will be closed, and the merchandise removed to The Spring Dry Goods Co.'s Store, there to have prices reduced and stocks arranged.

We WILL NOT CARRY Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Draperies, Lace Curtains, nor Men's Furnishings; the entire buildings will be devoted to the enlargement of the lines we have carried heretofore, in order to make them the most complete in the middle west, with the addition of Shoes for Women and Children.

WATCH THE DAILY PAPERS

We promise that the values offered during this Sale will positively eclipse all precedent, and stand without equal.

Realizing the enviable position held by The Spring Dry Goods Co. we have decided to utilize their name in connection with our own and the firm name hereafter will be known as

The Spring-Friedman Co.
ON CAMPAU SQUARE
"The Hub of Grand Rapids"

To the Employees of Both Stores

It is our intention to utilize the services of all employees of both stores. At least for the immediate present there can be no doubt of our ability to guarantee employment to every employee of the Spring Dry Goods Co. and M. Friedman & Co., in fact, for the forthcoming

MAMMOTH SALE

It is more than likely that additional help may be necessary.

It is our hope that the increased business will enable us to permanently retain all employees.

To the end, however, that this statement may not be misconstrued let us add that if we find ourselves unable to do so, there will be

NO PEREMPTORY DISMISSALS.

Ample and reasonable notice beforehand will be given to enable such employees as we cannot retain, to secure suitable employment.

We thank the employees of both stores for their loyalty and solicit the continuance of the same.

FAIR SOLICITOR RE- FUSES TO GET LICENSE

TWO YOUNG LADIES TAKEN BY POLICE—ONE CAUSES TROU-BLE—OTHER DON'T

Sight of the Bars Causes Her to Tell
Her Name and Beg Lenience;
Pays Costs

Two more magazine solicitors without licenses were taken in tow by the police Tuesday, this time being two young ladies. One, on learning the grievance against her, agreed to stop soliciting, but the other showed a tendency to fight the law. She finally was made to realize her predicament, however, and pled guilty and departed after paying the costs.

About 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Officer Bontekoe noticed the two entering business houses and soliciting for a magazine, "The People's Home Journal." One of them then accosted Officer Bontekoe as a prospective subscriber. After becoming interested he learned that she had no license. He warned her, and she claimed ignorance of the license ordinance, but agreed to stop.

Then the second one was encountered and a different reception was given the warning. When told that either a license must be secured or she must stop soliciting, she snapped, "I will do neither." When told that her next attempt to secure a subscriber would mean arrest, she answered by entering the Holland City State Bank and approaching the cashier. On leaving, disappointed, Officer Bontekoe laid his hand upon her and directed her steps toward police headquarters, against some opposition on her part. Chief Van Ry offered to let her go if she would drop that line of work without a license, but she made a flat refusal.

She was then taken to the court of Justice Robinson, where she refused to give her name or enter a plea. A complaint was made out naming "Mary Roe" as the offender, and a plea of not guilty was entered by the court. Her trial was set for Monday with a $100 bond. As she did not have it, she was remanded to jail to await trial.

The seriousness of the situation penetrated Mary Roe's being, and when the city hall was reached she asked if she might phone the justice. He was told over the wire that the young lady wanted to talk now, so she again was taken before the court. Leaving the city hall, she was invited to inspect the cell that would be her home till Monday. She ran into the corridor and called back that she was not anxious to see it.

Her name was then changed from Mary Roe to Evelyn Pose of Chicago. She begged to be let off by the court, but was told that costs of $3 awaited her payment before her release. She paid this amount and promised to leave town.

The two solicitors boarded the Chicago boat last night, and are now possibly pouring out their troubles at the headquarters of the "People's Home Journal."

ELECT SUCCESSOR TO PROF. YNTEMA AT HOPE

W. B. PIETENPOL HAS SIGNIFIED
ACCEPTANCE OF HOPE COL-LEGE OFFER

The Chair of Physics in Hope College made vacant by the resignation of Prof. D. B. Yntema, has been offered to Mr. W. B. Pietenpol, who has signified his acceptance of the same and will be prepared to take up his new work at the opening of the next school year in September.

The professor-elect is a son of the Rev. H. J. Pietenpol, pastor of the Reformed church of Alto, Wis. He has received his A. B. degree from Central College, Ia., and his Master's degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1913, from which institution he will receive his Ph. D. degree this month.

Mr. Pietenpol has had seven years of successful teaching experience, one year in Pella High school, two years in the High school at Mt. Pleasant, Ia., and four years while doing graduate work at the University of Madison. He is a member of the American Physical society and the Sigma Xi, an honorary scientific society.

CHAIRMAN APPOINTS FIRE TRUCK COMMITTEE

At the last meeting of the Common Council that body complied with the request of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners to appoint a committee of three to again delve into the perplexing fire truck proposition. The mayor appointed Aids. Frank Congleton, Arie Vander Hill and Frank Brievie together with Mayor Vanderhuis and city attorney C. H. McBride who will be members ex-officio. A request was made that the chairman of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners also appoint three members to confer with this committee and at a meeting held Tuesday evening Chairman Mulder appointed Com. Henry Brusse, Dr. M. J. Cook and John Schoutenn.

The Police Board is also trying to devise some means of having autoists turn square corners instead of cutting across in congested districts. Suggestions have been made that large circles be painted on the pavement that can be plainly seen by the autoists and instructions be given that the autos stay on the outside of these circles when turning the corners. It has also been suggested that on the corner of 8th and River a dummy be placed when a patrolman is not on duty in person, and that all drivers of automobiles be instructed to go around the dummy. This would necessitate the removing of the dummy when the interurban cars went thru to the boat dock and freight house and the conductor would be compelled to remove it while the car passed and replace it afterward.

Nothing has been decided on definitely and any suggestion will be welcomed by the Board.

HOME FURNACE TO LO- CATE ON EAST EIGHTH

SITE OF NEW FACTORY LIES BE-TWEEN FAIRBANKS' AVE., P.
M. AND MICH. RAILWAY

Purchased Kuite and De Boer Property; Will Occupy Site On Sept. 1.

The Home Furnace Company has purchased the Jacob Kuite, sr., and Mrs. Lucy De Boer property, located south of the Interurban and directly east of the Pere Marquette viaduct. This is an ideal location, it is accessible by interurban and Pere Marquette railroads, and is bounded on the east side of this property by Fairbanks Avenue.

A more adaptable location could not have been selected than this one. Mr. N. J. Yonker, the manager of the new company, is now in Chicago buying a new foundry outfit and is also going over the building plans with architects so that contractors may be able to figure on the erection of the building next week.

The work on the new building will be rushed to completion as the foundry must be ready for occupancy by September 1.

Already orders for furnaces have come in and this fact certainly speaks well for the newly organized company.

CENTRAL AVE. PAV- ING QUESTION MAY BE SETTLED SOON

ATTORNEYS FOR VANDER VEEN
TRY TO GET TOGETHER WITH CITY.

Sybrandt Wesselius, attorney for Contractor Vander Veen was in the city a few days ago trying to patch up the differences between the city of Holland and the contractor who laid Central avenue paving.

The street committee, the mayor and city engineer together with the engineer of Contractor Vander Veen went over the street from beginning to end and both sides are figuring out what is expected of each other.

There is no doubt that if the proposition comes to an amicable settlement that the city will do the work. However Engineer Bowen says that with the present weather conditions it would be difficult and expensive to start on the job, and it would be far better to have the weather settle down with summer heat before the job of paving is started. From all appearances it seems that Central avenue will soon again be one of our popular thoroughfares if we only have a little patience and forbearance.

TEACHER OF 1ST GRADE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

GREATER STILL THAN THE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL, SAYS SUPT.
KEELER TO TEACHERS

Several excellent addresses were enjoyed by the teachers of the Holland Public Schools at the annual banquet held Tuesday night in the Domestic Art Department at the High school. The toastmaster, Supt. E. E. Fell, was introduced by Miss Haefliger, who is the president of the Teachers' club.

Mr. Fell introduced Principal C. E. Drew as the first speaker. His subject was "The Value of Ideals." Mr. Drew spoke of the ideals of the High school, first in regard to the faculty and student body, second as to the course of study and third, physical training. Miss Vennema, a teacher in Maple Avenue Building, spoke next on the "Changes in Kindergarten Work." She said that the object of the kindergarten today is not to make the child study, but to teach it to observe and to grow. The third speaker introduced was Miss Crosby, of Junior High. Her subject was called "A Great Decision," and dealt chiefly with those who are leaving school to get married. Miss Crosby made a splendid parody on Shakespeare's lines "To be or not to be," changing them to read, "To leave or not to leave."

Supt. Keeler was next introduced by Mr. Fell as the speaker of the evening and a man who had done much for the schools of Michigan. He spoke on "The Essentials of Education." Mr. Keeler made the statement that the 1st grade is the most important in the school system, and a first grade teacher more important than a High school principal. He emphasized that reading and appreciation for literature should be encouraged. He also advised mental arithmetic, dealing chiefly with community problems.

Mr. Keeler is a powerful speaker and backed by his wonderful personality he always succeeds in impressing his audience with the messages he has to deliver.

The musical part of the program was furnished by Miss Steketee, who rendered two vocal solos, and the Faculty Trio, Misses Anthony, Haefliger and Wright. Tuesday night's banquet was one of the most successful the teachers have ever given.

Buy a Car You Will Want to Keep

In the whole history of the automobile business there has never been a time when real care in selecting a car is more imperative than today.

No longer is it possible to buy any make of car, drive it 12 to 15 months, and then trade it in for a new car at one-half or two-thirds of its original cost. The market on used cars today will not permit this.

Consider then, the importance of buying a car that will give you such service and satisfaction that you will enjoy running it season after season, until you have realized every last dollar of the price you paid, —before you even think of trading.

Buy your car on this value-getting basis and it will be a Dort.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC GIVES FINE RECITAL

THE GREATEST EVER—WINANTS CHAPEL WAS CROWDED TO THE DOORS.

Tuesday night, at Winants Chapel, the June recital of the College School of Music took place. The largest audience in the history of Holland music recitals listened respectfully to the finest program ever rendered on similar occasions. The offerings were very superior, from little Kathlene Mersen, who, with her chubby arms and tiny fingers, evoked dainty melodies from her violin, to tall Mr. Page, whose rich resonant voice is capable of soothing the most savage breast.

Perhaps the climax of the program was reached in Miss Harriet Baker's exquisite rendering of the Allegro-Maestoso movement from de Beriot's Concerto, No. 9.

So thoroughly did she take the audience by surprise, that an insistent recall followed. Miss Baker came forward and graciously acknowledged the ovation with a bow. Miss Nella Meyer also sustained her reputation formerly made, of being a wonderful little artist, with a great future. She interpreted Raff, Liszt, and Moszkowski with equal skill and musicianly breadth of interpretation. Her twenty-minute exhibition of memory work elicited thunderous applause.

The novel feature of the program was the pleasant rendering of Longfellow's Farewell of Hiawatha, set to music by Arthur Foote, by the College Glee Club, ably conducted by Mr. Deacon, and artistically accompanied on the piano by Mr. Arthur Heusiakveld of the

Why We Are Opposing A Government Armor Plant

To the People:

Some people say that the very fact that the Bethlehem Steel Company is so aggressively fighting the proposal to build a Government armor plant is conclusive proof that the Company is seeking to assure for itself the "vast profits" derived from private manufacture.

The fact is that armor making is the least profitable feature of steel manufacture.

The reason we oppose a Government plant is very simple. It is this:

Even though there is but little profit in the making of armor, we have invested over $7,000,000 in our armor plant;

That plant is useless for any other purpose; if a Government plant is built the usefulness of our plant is destroyed.

It would be good business for us to make armor for the Government at any price over and above the actual shop cost, RATHER THAN SACRIFICE OUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT.

We do not seek to save big profits; our purpose is very frankly to save our armor plant—itselt built solely for the use of the Government—from going to the scrap heap.

To do that, we are prepared to agree for any period to any terms of manufacture which the Federal Trade Commission shall say absolutely protects the Government of the United States.

their home Tuesday and applied to County Agt. Roosenraad of Zeeland for aid, claiming that they were badly mistreated at home. Roosenraad has filed a petition in Probate Court to have them removed from the home and placed with other families.

The two girls were reported missing Tuesday by the parents and were searched for by the local police as runaways. Yesterday the father, Charles Schaff, went to Zeeland to try to find his daughters among friends there. He found them in the care of the County Agent, and was not able to see the girls, being told to appear in Probate court the latter part of this week, when a hearing can be arranged.

The Schaff family moved to west 26th street Sunday from Zeeland. According to the girls, the father became intoxicated very frequently and was abusive, causing them to leave their home and appeal for aid.

W. L. C. CLOSES YEAR WITH LARGE BANQUET

HOTEL BUTLER AT SAUGATUCK WITNESSES CELEBRATION OF TWO CLUBS AND GUESTS

Tuesday morning about 11:30 two special interurban cars took the members of the Woman's Literary club and their guests out to Saugatuck. At the door of the Butler House they were greeted by the members of the Luncheon committee, the chairman of which was Mrs. Dryden.

When the luncheon hour came the officers of the club and those taking part on the program, with the guests of the club, the officers and directors of the Saugatuck club led the way into the dining room. This was decorated in green, yellow and white. Large cornucopias of snow balls were in the upper corners of the room. Around the posts turned black-eyed Susans. In the center of each table stood a large basket filled with yellow lilies and spirea. At each place was a souvenir, yellow paper-mache nut basket with its handle decorated with a yellow rose-bud and leaf. The white candles had shades of yellow and green.

The after luncheon toasts were all witty and those who sang were in fine voice. Mrs. Van Verst and Mrs. Arthur Visseher acted as accompanists. Mrs. De Pree's "Pipe Dreams" was a poem of prophecy in regard to some of the members of the clubs. Mrs. Henry, recent president of the Saugatuck club made a few remarks.

The following was the after-luncheon program:

Toasts—Mrs. G. E. Kollen, toastmistress; Invocation, Mrs. E. J. Blekkink; Our Club, Mrs. G. J. Van Duren; solo, Mrs. Milton Hoffman; As Men See Us, Mrs. J. G. Sutphen; Duet, Mrs. G. W. Van Verst, Mrs. Milton Hoffman; Pipe Dreams, Mrs. Rob De Pree; Possibilities, Miss Martin; solo—1 and 2, Misses Grace Browning.

Just as the ladies were to get on the cars for the trip home the rain began to fall, but too late to interfere with the happiness of the final event of the club year.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER
THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

For a coincidence we can mention the following: Mr. Gilbert Van Tubbergen, residing at East Saugatuck and Mr. John Van Tubbergen residing in this city, brothers, were both presented with a bouncing boy on Wednesday, May 25, at exactly the same time, 9 o'clock.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Breakman John Vandershuis last week Friday had the misfortune to get two of his fingers of his right hand pinched off while coupling cars. Mr. O. N. Moon of Pennville dressed the wound.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Wednesday Ald. M. Van Putten resigned his office and moved out of the Fourth ward home to a home of his own in the Second Ward, all of which is explained by the following notice: "Married, in this city, June 3, by Rev. E. Vander Vries-Marinus Van Putten and Miss Mary Dyke.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Oxner, 14th street, on Wednesday—a daughter. Cards are out announcing the wedding of Albert Hidding and Mary J. Geerlings.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burg, East Eleventh street, Saturday—a son. Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hanchett, Thursday—a son.

TEN YEARS AGO

Miss Dora De Pree of Zeeland and Albert Rooks of the firm of Boonstra & Rooks of this city, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. DePree at Zeeland, Rev. Wm. Moerdyke officiated.

Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Brinkman have gone to Englewood, Ill., where Mr. Brinkman will be installed as pastor of one of the Reformed churches.

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Mulder and Rev. Anthony Karreman was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. Mulder, 29 E. 14th street, on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, in the presence of immediate relatives. To the sweet strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Gertrude De Jongh, an intimate friend of the bride, the bride and groom entered the parlors, preceded by the bride's brother-in-law, Rev. Henry Geerlings, who performed the ceremony, and the ring-bearer, the bride's nephew, Master Leonard Mulder Steketee, who bore the ring in a calla lily. Rev. D. R. Drukker assisted in the ceremony. The bridal couple stood before an embankment composed of bridal wreath, ferns and palms. Miss Gertrude De Jongh played "Hearts and Flowers" during the ceremony and "Les Sylphides" during congratulations. The bride wore a beautiful gown of champagne taffeta silk with lace trimmings and carried Bridal Roses. A large bouquet of white carnations was the center piece of the dining room table. An elaborate supper was served.

The bride and groom left for Cleveland, Ohio, Friday afternoon, the bride's traveling suit being of handsome green panama cloth with hat to match. Rev. J. F. Grootenhuis of Detroit accompanied them from Detroit to Cleveland. Rev. Karreman was installed as pastor of the Reformed church of that city, Sunday, June 3.

TO WEAR DRAB UNIFORMS

Coast Guard Stations Will Have New Regulation—Effective June 30

Coast guard crews on the lake wear army olive drab uniforms this summer. A regulation has just been announced to go into effect on June 30, which will dress the members of the Holland coast guard in olive drab uniforms. The clothes will be cut on the order of those worn in the army, with the exception of long trousers. Leggings will be worn only when the crew are on the hike. Formerly the guards have only worn white for common and blue for dress. In addition on one suit of olive drab a new blue uniform will also be worn. This outfit will also have a military cut with color decorations.

The local coast guard station has not as yet sent in an order but will, in the near future.

DANDELION PEST

GROWS IN CITY;

HERE IS A REMEDY

Dandelions have become a serious pest in Grand Rapids and do not seem to be under control of the usual methods—that of digging, says H. G. Smith, county agriculturist.

Several of experiment stations, with Colorado experiment station as the leader, have worked out a simple and more certain remedy. Three applications of a twenty per cent solution of iron sulphate applied at intervals of six to ten days, will in most cases kill all dandelions. The solution must be applied as a fine spray or mist for good results. One to two pounds of iron sulphate will be sufficient for most all lawns.

The grass is not injured in any way and may be slightly benefited.

RESULT OF LEAKY CARBURE-
TOR; GARDEN HOSE SAVES IT

At eight o'clock Thursday evening the fire fighters were called to the home of G. J. Diekema, where the Cadillac Eight belonging to J. E. Telling had caught fire. A leaky carburetor is blamed for the disaster. Mr. Telling was about to start the car when flames shot up from the hood. Pans of water and a garden hose were used in the excitement, the fire apparatus not being needed at its arrival. The damage amounts to about $50, the wires being burnt out and the hood being badly blistered.

SELF OUT OF THAT CLASS, BUT COURT DIDN'T

"I'm no hobo. I ain't ever bin sick, never save no money, and I'm always workin'." I was born in Tennessee but I didn't stay there. I've traveled all over this country. But I ain't no hobo."

So went the tale of Charles Daily when arraigned Monday morning before Justice Miles on the charge of having been badly intoxicated. The court considered the case and then gave the prisoner a suspended sentence, the brace holding up the impending doom being either that he leave Holland or pursue some lucrative profession. It is said that Daily has sought greener fields.

GRAND RAPIDS PASTOR
SUMMERS AT MONTAGUE

Leader of Largest Church of Christian Reformed Denomination to Rest For a Few Months

The Rev. John Groen, pastor of the Eastern avenue Christian Reformed church of Grand Rapids, the largest church in the Christian Reformed denomination and one of the leading orators of the church, will spend his summer at Montague.

Arrangements have been made whereby the small Christian Reformed congregation at Montague will supply him with a house and he will preach there during the summer months. The Rev. Mr. Groen is in poor health and for this reason desires to take a rest from the arduous duties of looking after a congregation of 2,200 people. The recent assault upon him by William Hoekstra, an insane man, who shot twice at him without hitting him, has aggravated his condition.

DRAIN CASE IN CLYDE
FOUGHT FOR 2 WEEKSLOCAL ATTORNEYS ARE SUCCESS-FUL IN THE CASE

Friday afternoon in the Allegan County Circuit Court at Allegan, a jury that had been sitting for the past two weeks in the case of Henry Truax vs. the Township of Clyde and Burton Harrington, Highway Commissioner, brot in a verdict of $1200 damages in favor of the plaintiff.

Burton Harrington, who is a brother of Austin Harrington of this city and well known in Holland was represented in this suit by Attorneys Visser & Robinson of Holland. Clare E. Hoffman, well known Allegan attorney, handled the case for the plaintiff and Charles Wilkes of Allegan represented Clyde Township.

The case was a long one and was hotly contested by the three factions. It aroused unusual interest in Clyde township owing to certain political aspects that were more or less suppressed on the trial, and the court room was thronged on the closing day of the trial with adherents of the warring factions.

Henry Truax, the plaintiff, sought $6,000 for damages to crops, garden truck and mint roots, growing on his 80-acre muck farm by reason of an alleged unlawful tapping of a ditch by Harrington which it was claimed caused a flooding of the plaintiff's land. The township sought to shift the entire responsibility to Harrington denying his authority to do the work in question. Harrington stood upon his rights as Highway commissioner.

This is the second time the case has been tried, a jury last winter having acquitted Harrington and assessed a verdict of $2000 against the township. This was not allowed to stand however, Judge O. S. Cross ordering a new trial. Friday the jury brought in a verdict of $50 against Harrington and $1150 against the Township but Judge Cross refused to receive it and sent them back for further consideration of the case.

Considering the attitude of the juries in both trials toward the defendant, Harrington, the result is a splendid victory for the local attorneys. Officials of the township have expressed themselves as satisfied that he has been vindicated fully and whether the case be appealed to the supreme court or the judgment paid, the highway commissioner does not stand to lose a dollar.

PLANS ARE MADE OF
NEW CHRISTIAN HIGHPLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS OUT.
DAVE HOLKEBOER SUBMIT-TED PLANS MONDAY.

The New School Will Have Four Rooms, Will Be Two-Story and a Basement.

David Holkeboer has the plans and specifications ready for the new high school for the Christian School and these were given to the contractors to figure on Monday.

Recently the school directors purchased ground adjoining the school on Fifteenth street and the houses on these lots are now being moved away.

When the bids are opened some time this week the lucky contractor will get busy at once as the school must be ready for occupancy by September 1, when school opens.

The building will be two stories high with a basement and will be 50x80 feet and will be built of brick and stone. All the modern, sanitary plumbing will be installed as well as an up-to-date heating plant. The new building will house more than 200 students and will also contain a fine library to which the scholars can refer at any time.

Prof. G. J. Eining will be the superintendent and Mr. M. J. Fakkens of Ann Arbor will be the principal of the high school. The appointments of this building will be modern in every particular.

RUMOR AFFIRMS GAS
MAIN FOR NORTH SIDEHOLLAND GAS CO. IS CONSIDER-ING THE PROPOSITION.

This Will Means Laying of Three Miles of Gas Mains to Supply People Living There.

Gas on the North Side is now being agitated and this was brought about because the new Dye Works must utilize a lot of it in their business.

Mr. Davis states that Mr. Franken of the Dye Works says he will contract for 100,000 feet a month and in a short time this amount would be materially increased.

It would take considerable money to lay the mains along the North Side Drive, but on the other hand the residents living along the route are willing and anxious to be consumers should the main be laid. Of course these would have to pay Zeeland rates and this they are willing to do if only the modern conveniences can be installed in their homes. The Kelsey-Brewer Power and Light Co. have the proposition under advisement and it is understood that they have made an offer to the Holland Dye Works and to prospective customers along the line.

Should these plans materialize a high pressure system will have to be installed the same as is now in use in forcing the gas to our neighboring city, Zeeland.

It is very important that the Holland Dye Works can be put in a position to get gas to be used in the manufacture of their dyes.

WALK GIVES WAY;
FISHERS SOAKEDFOUR ANGLERS SUDDENLY DROP-PED INTO LAKE; COAST GUARD
CAPTAIN TO RESCUE

Fishing expeditions are always filled with the spice of adventure, and sometimes the fishermen are in turn fished. Friday such an incident occurred that only on account of the fast work by the Coast Guard was a fatality avoided.

Four were holding lines in the bay between the theater at Macatawa and an adjoining boathouse. Suddenly the walk gave way and let the party of two women and a man and a girl into the dark water. Cries for help were heard by the man on Pier watch, and he pulled the alarm and ran for the spot. Capt. Van Weelden also happened to be near and heard the cries. Before the crew had arrived, the involuntary bathing party had been rescued. The water at this spot is quite deep, and it is very fortunate that aid came as soon as it did.

USE HISTORIC BOWL
AT CHRISTENINGSon of Professor and Mrs. Wynand
Wichers Baptized in Presence of Relatives and Friends

Beautiful and impressive christening services were held Friday evening at the home of Professor and Mrs. Wynand Wichers when their son William Alan was baptized in the presence of some thirty relatives and friends. The Rev. Peter Moerdyke, uncle of Mrs. Wichers, was in charge of the services and administered baptism. President A. Vennema read scripture and offered prayer, and the Rev. M. Flipse read the litany and gave a short address.

At the christening services a baptismal bowl was used which had been used at similar services for many generations back in Mrs. Wichers' family. The Rev. Moerdyke told the history of the bowl and estimated that it was at least 300 years old. He obtained it from a church in Biervliet, The Netherlands, where his ancestors had worshiped for many generations back. He obtained it a few years ago while on a visit to his birthplace, giving a bowl of American design in exchange.

Five members of this year's class will not be on the roll next year for various reasons. These members were each presented with souvenir spoons. They are Miss Dessie Marx, who leaves for Chicago to take up teaching there, Miss Jessie Clark, who will attend school in Ann Arbor, Miss Bessie Crowfoot who will attend the Deaconess Training School in New York, Miss Netta Cowin who will also attend school in Ann Arbor, and Beth Huggett, who will enter the field of matrimony this summer.

IMPERSONATE MONTHS
AS GAME AT SOCIALINTERESTING PROGRAM CARRIED OUT AT SENIOR C. E. SOCIAL IN THIRD CHURCH.

The Senior Christian Endeavor society of the Third Reformed church Monday evening entertained the young people of the church with a social in the parlors of the church. Music by a quartette composed of Messrs. Dick Van Kolken, Ralph Van Lente, Peter Oostering and John Dykema opened the program of the evening. Devotional exercises were in charge of Edward Steketee.

Miss Margaret Muller entertained the audience with a reading, "Keeping a Seat at the Benefit." After a humorous encore, Miss Henrietta Rosendahl bid the "O Dry Those Tears," in a soprano solo, accompanied by Miss Ruth Reidsma on the piano and Edward Steketee on the violin. William Vander Hart entertained the company with his usual style of readings, after which games were indulged in by the entire audience. One especially fascinating game was that of separating the company into twelve groups according to the month in which they were born, and one representative of each group costuming him—or herself in a way that spoke of that month, when the audience decided what month it was. June saw a beautiful bride entangled in the folds of a lace curtain, and so forth thru the year.

Refreshments were served by the Senior C. E. at the close of the evening, and the company dispersed, more interested in C. E. work than ever before.

QUETERS IN HIGH SCHOOL

The teachers of Holland banqueted Tuesday evening in the high school. Especially fortunate were they in being able to have with them State Superintendent of Public Instruction Fred L. Keeler, Lansing, who appeared on the program for an address. This banquet is an annual affair of the Holland Teachers' club.

After the banquet some toasts were given, Supt. E. E. Fell acting as toastmaster. A vocal solo by Miss Harriet Steketee, teacher of the first grade at Central school was followed by a toast, "Ideals of the High School," by C. E. Drew, principal of the high school. "Changing Conceptions of the Kindergarten," was the subject of the toast by Miss Florence Vennema, teacher of the Maple Avenue kindergarten. Miss Margaret Crosby, instructor of history in Junior high responded to "A Great Decision." Then followed the address of the evening by Supt. Fred L. Keeler.

A trio was sung by the Misses Anthony, Wright, and Haefliger, the evening closed with the singing of school and college songs by the banqueters.

WOULDN'T TAKE DARE;
CUPID SMILES BLANDLYTWO HOLLAND PEOPLE ELOPE
AND ARE HAPPILY

When Miss Mable Bradward, one of Holland's most beautiful girls, stepped into the automobile of Orrie Maal also of that city, she little thought the return trip would be made as Mrs. Orrie Maal. It was a great day for a drive and the roads were good and St. Joseph the best place on earth for their destination, so either they came. Last evening they met Julius J. Brusse of their home city and laughingly he dared them to get married while in the Gretna Green.

County Clerk Larkworthy was routed out, the necessary license procured and the peaceful slumbers of Rev. W. H. Camfield interrupted. In the absence of a bridesmaid Mr. Brusse was pressed into service and F. P. Luke of Louisville attended the groom. Both young people are well known in Holland.—St. Joe Press.

Orrie Maal was formerly foreman in the finishing department of the West Michigan Furniture Co. Mr. Maal has a position in Benton Harbor in the same capacity. This is the second elopement in the family, a young sister quietly stole away and married Walter McCarthy, son of the Mayor of Bird Center and are living happily together in the city of Grand Rapids.

EAST 8TH ST. COLONY TO TO COME INTO CITY?

RESIDENTS OF THICKLY POPU-LATED DISTRICT KNOCKING AT CITY'S GATE

Affords Best Factory Sites and Conditions for Facilities Almost Complete.

Holland is ever trying to increase its size. That is characteristic of any progressive city. Now arises an opportunity to stretch the city limits in order to take in a territory now part of Holland township, and desirous of becoming a part of the city of Holland.

The section lies on the eastern border of the city limits, the most thickly populated portion of the township near the city of Holland. It is just east of the pavement on East Eighth street and stretches along Fairbanks Avenue north to 4th street, a territory of four blocks. Seventy houses fill this part of the township, not one being vacant, with about 210 children attending school from these families. These children now either have to walk a mile and a half to the district school east of the fairgrounds or their parents must pay a large fee of $30 for the high school or $12 for the grade school. Some are now doing this, but if that part of the township could enter the city's limits, it would not be necessary. The school districts in some cases aid the parents in paying the high school tuition, but not so in the grade schools.

The homes now are not fitted with electricity, unless the owner is willing to pay on the average of 12 cents per kilowatt while the people in the city are paying 7 cents. Of course the city inhabitant is also paying taxes, but the difference in the rates is greater by the comparison. The wires run along Fairbanks Avenue and are used by the people on the west side of the street, while those on the east side must go without.

Gas cannot be used by the residents of this district, because they are outside of the city. Yet the gas main stretches along the front of the lots on the drive east of the pavement, the main running to Zeeland. A main would only have to be laid from 8th to 4th street to accommodate those along Fairbanks Avenue and the houses inside these streets.

The road along the drive east of the pavement on Eighth street is a fine stone stretch, better by far than many of our city streets.

The boundary line east is suggested by the property owners of that territory as the section line that crosses north and south at a point about a quarter of a mile west of Vanderhaar's corner, the road junction a mile east of the present city limits. This line is a short way beyond the long line of houses along East Eighth street, and affords a fine limit.

This will then include factory sites that are of the best. The Allegan track cuts a diagonal thru these fields that affords excellent opportunities for railroad facilities, and the Pere Marquette officials have expressed themselves as preferring to run sidetracks out from the Allegan track than off the main line. Several prospective manufacturers have in their search for a factory site, said that they would certainly locate on a site in this territory if it were only inside the city limits so city privileges might be enjoyed. This has so far been an immovable barrier. The Michigan Railway passes along the foot of the hill on which these sites are located, and with its present shipping facilities is a big factor to be considered in locating an industry.

The matter must be considered by the city voters, as the charter must be amended to change the city's limits, and the township must place the matter before the Board of Supervisors. The legal form accompanying an addition to the city has been changed since the last addition 16-land when the district between 16th and 32nd streets was added thru the state legislature.

NIGHT HAWKS BUILD NESTS ON CITY BLOCKS

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN A NIGHT HAWK LIGHT?

Night hawks seem to be more common around Holland than formerly. When saying this we do not mean the individual who stays up most of the night, but we mean a winged bird, whose shrill note can be heard the whole night long with a silent pause, a swoop and a roaring sound.

It is doubtful if any person in Holland has seen a night hawk light. They seem to be constantly on the wing, always tireless.

A book loaned this paper by Harry Doesburg, called Common Birds of Town and Country, published by the National Geographic Society, gives the following description about the Night Hawk which is especially interesting.

Length, 10 inches. Not to be confused with the whippoorwill. The latter lives in woodland and is chiefly nocturnal. The night hawk often flies by day, when the white bar across the wing and its nasal cry are distinguishing.

Range: Breeds throughout most of the United States and Canada; winters in South America.

Habits and economic status: The skillful evolutions of a company of night hawks as the birds gracefully cleave the air in intersecting circles is a sight to be remembered. So expert are they on the wing that no insect is safe from even them, even the swift dragonfly being captured with ease. Unfortunately the erratic flight tempts

FIFTY TREES BOUGHT FOR HOPE SPECTACLE

DUTCH WINDMILL PATTERNED
AFTER LOCAL ONE, TO BE 20 FEET HIGH.

That historical pageants are becoming popular all over the country is given. At present Ft. Wayne, Indiana, is the scene of a great pageant as was ever given in this country. It is of a historical nature, as the one will be presented by the students of Hope college, June 17 and 19. Its lighting system alone cost $10,000.

In order to improve the Hope College pageant in every way possible, the several committees are going to great expense. A committee of four was sent to Ft. Wayne today to see the pageant and to take home with them what suggestions they could that will improve the spectacle to be given here. The committee is composed of Harris Meyer, Arthur Cloetingh, Frank Douma and Girard Raap. They left this morning, returning down, and will arrive tomorrow noon, to be the guests of the producers of the pageant.

Work is fast progressing here on the Hope pageant. Fifty large hemlocks were contracted for at West Olive recently. These are to be placed in a hemlock base on the campus stage to give the woodland effect. The stage and audience sections have been marked out.

An old Dutch windmill will be made for one of the scenes, the original to be found a few miles this side of Grand Haven on the pike. The original is 40 feet high, while the one for the stage will be made 20 feet in height.

SEVEN SPEEDERS STOPPED SUNDAY

ONE MORE ON SATURDAY GIVES
TOTAL OF EIGHT TO JUSTICE
ROBINSON.

Seven speeders were arrested Sunday and one on Saturday. The fine weather was responsible for this number of offenses, the roads in and near Holland being covered with motoring parties. When a clear stretch of road is ahead it's an awful temptation. The city streets seemed to appear in the same way. Six of the seven were Grand Rapids tourists, while one committed the crime in his home city.

Those who have orders to appear before Justice Robinson are M. Sherwood, P. J. Harl, C. A. Connors, H. M. Goshel, W. B. Jarvis all of Grand Rapids and C. A. Beurman, Grand Rapids, who has already telephoned his guilt and will pay $5, and Lewis Goldman, of Holland. Jay Flipse of this city was arrested Saturday for speeding while driving the car belonging to the Nies Hardware Co.

"Speeding has got to be stopped," declared Chief of Police Van Ry this morning. Human life is worth more than all the automobiles in the country. We're going after them hard."

SYNOD HONORS HOPE PRESENCE SOON

GREAT MEN OF AMERICA TO VISIT
HOLLAND NEXT WEEK WITH SYNOD.

Institution at Pella, Ia., May Be Taken
Over From Baptists; Delegates Named.

The annual synod of the Reformed church of America, the highest ecclesiastical body of the denomination, that meets this year at the Ottawa Beach hotel, convening Thursday, June 15, will draw a large number of the big men of the Reformed church in the east to Michigan. The Reformed church is especially strong in New York and New Jersey where it dates back to the settling of New York by the Hollanders in 1613 and its collegiate church on Fifth Avenue in the heart of the city is the oldest Protestant church organization in America. All the churches of the Reformed denomination in New York city are governed by a unique system called collegium which has come down from the days of the old patroons. All the churches are under one organization governed by one large consistory: chosen from the different churches and have all their finances in common.

Some of the big men of the church in the east who will come to Michigan to attend the synod are: Rev. James M. Farrar of Brooklyn who has acquired considerable fame through the publication of sermons for children Rev. Malcolm James Meled, D. D., pastor of the Marble Collegiate church, New York; W. H. S. Demarest, president of Rutgers college and a former president of the synod; Prof. F. B. Hutton, an elder in one of the New York city churches, and who is chairman of the constitutional revision committee; Rev. Philip T. Phelps, son of the first president of Hope College.

Honors Hope College

The synod meets this year in honor of its western college which this year celebrates its fiftieth anniversary. Some very important matters will come before the synod for adjustment. The final adoption of the revised constitution will in all probability take place at this session. This matter has been before the synod at two previous sessions and at the last session was sent to the classes of the church for ratification. The revision of the constitution has received the earnest attention of the church at large for several years and appears difficult of adjustment.

The proposal to take over Central college at Pella, Ia. from the Baptist church will also engage considerable attention. Central college is situated in the center of a district densely populated by Hollanders of the reformed persuasion and the Baptists desiring to locate in a more centrally located district have offered the college which has a large campus and is well equipped to the Reformed church. The proposal has received the sanction of the western classis and the board of education.

The missionary interests of the denomination will also receive careful consideration. The Reformed church has very extensive missionary interests both home and foreign, the denomination standing in the first rank in its contributions for missions.

Rev. Isaac Gowen, D. D., of North Bergen, N. J., president of the 1915 synod, will convene the synod Thursday June 15 at 2:30 p. m. in the Ottawa Beach hotel and will preach the synodical sermon in the evening of the same day at Hope college, Holland. Permanent officers of the synod are Rev. Henry Lockwood of East Milestone, N. J., stated clerk, and Rev. Clifford P. Chase of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., permanent clerk. The committee on correspondence and religious exercises which prepares the program for the synod is composed of Rev. J. S. Hogan, D. D., chairman, Rev. Isaac Gowen, D. D., Rev. Henry Lockwood and Elder Frederick R. Hutton.

Michigan pastor delegates who will go to the synod are Rev. Peter Moerdyke, Holland; Rev. C. H. Span, city Rev. John Van Peursem, Holland, representing classis, Michigan; Rev. M. D. Vander Meer, city; Rev. A. Oosterhof, Decatur; Rev. W. J. Hoekje, missionary pastor to Japan, in this country on furlough, representing Grand River classis; Rev. H. Mollema, Vriesland; Rev. F. M. Wiersma, South Brandon; and Rev. W. C. Walvoerd, Hamilton, representing classis, Holland.—G. R. Herald.

STATE ORATORS WILL MEET IN HOLLAND NEXT

Irwin J. Lubbers of Cedar Grove, Wis., and Edward H. Koster of Morris, Ill., are the contestants for the honor of representing Hope college in the next state oratorical contest to be held in this city in March.

MAYOR VANDERSLUIS MAKES FIRST ARREST

TWO SYRIANS PEDDLING UNDER ONE LICENSE

John Vandersluis made his first arrest yesterday as a public official. It seems that two Syrians were peddling lace bed-spreads and fancy goods under one license and John got wise to the double cross. The mayor with the chief of police followed up the men and accused them of the offense. One claimed he had been ill and did no peddling however he appeared spry enough when caught in the act of selling. Owing to the lateness of the hour they were let go on their own recognition to appear in the morning but this morning they had down to parts unknown and the city is rid of them.

Miss Grace Houting of North Holland attended the Spring recital of Hope College Tuesday evening.

William Olive is in Grand Rapids today.

were married by Rev. Slater, a Baptist missionary.

"Mr. Robinson, because of his firmness and fairness, his knowledge of the Indian language, character, traditions and laws, his truthfulness and his taking an Indian wife, was very influential among the Indians of the state. Nevertheless, he sometimes had disagreeable encounters with them. An Indian at the Grand Haven post, who had been chastised by Robinson, secreted a knife in his garment and was about to stab him, when Robinson threw him into the river and held him under water until he was unconscious. He drew him up on the bank and left him for the squaws to resuscitate. Some months later the same Indian came back and asked Mr. Robinson's pardon, entered his employ and for many years was his most trusted man.

"He was one of the men who prompted the land, platted it and named it Grand Haven. He threw his energies into turning emigration toward western Michigan, and induced his six brothers, with their families, numbering forty persons, to come from New York to Michigan, where they became large farmers at points along the Grand and Flat rivers.

"Mr. Robinson was largely instrumental in the making of the Treaty of Washington with the Indians, by which more than half the area of the lower peninsula was ceded by the Indians to the general government and compensation paid. The Indian chiefs of the different tribes were required to go to Washington, but declined to go without Mr. Robinson. He took them in charge and they filled two stage coaches. One day, Mr. Robinson ordered dinner for his chiefs at a tavern. Just as dinner was served, the coaches drew up and they were all ordered to get in, the landlord declaring they were all mail coaches and could not be delayed. The Indians had no dinner, but the landlord required Robinson to pay fifty cents apiece for them, saying that was his price and he was not to blame because the coaches could not wait. Mr. Robinson made no protest, but on the return trip would not allow his chiefs to have anything to eat for an entire day before arriving at the tavern where they had been outwitted before. When they complained of hunger, he ordered them to tighten their belts. Arrived at the tavern he ordered a good dinner and it was placed before them. 'Loosen your belts,' Robinson commanded. They did and began to eat. They ordered more and the waiters brought it. The landlord rushed to the door, but no coaches appeared. The Indians called for more food, and everything eatable, including cold meats prepared for supper, were brought in and disappeared. Famine faced the housekeeper. Robinson threw down fifty cents apiece for the chiefs. 'That will not pay for the raw material,' the landlord stormed. 'I can't help that. You have set your own price,' Mr. Robinson declared. 'You shall not go until you pay my charges,' shouted the landlord. Mr. Robinson, with a twinkle in his eye, gravely said, 'At a signal from me, you and every one of your helpers would be killed inside ten minutes. It would not be well to attempt to keep us.' The coaches appeared at a signal from Robinson and they all clamored in. The secret of it was, Mr. Robinson had paid the drivers more to delay the coaches than the landlord had given them to hurry on.

"Mr. Robinson drove Sim Johnson, one of Buchanan's political friends away from Grand Rapids, by kicking him through the streets of one of the busiest parts of the city at midday. This he did because Johnson would not return two thousand silver dollars lent him to enable his wildcat bank to make a good showing to the banking commission.

"Of cultivated taste, pleasant social ways and excellent habits, Mr. Robinson always associated with men of high standing. He was always neatly dressed and attracted attention on the street by his imposing stature and splendid bearing.

"He was state road commissioner, commissioner of internal improvements for the state of Michigan; senator from the fifth and seventh districts; associate justice of the circuit court of Kent county, and member of the convention which formed our state constitution in 1850. It was within his power to be governor of Michigan, but he declined to allow his name to be used because of the fact that his wife was an Indian and would be unable and unwilling to perform the social duties that would be required of her. He had the tenderest affection for his Indian helpmeet and would not think of accepting any office which might submit her to humiliation.

"His intellect remained clear up to the day of his death, which occurred January 13, 1875. Without even a monument to mark his last resting place, he sleeps on the hillside near Ada, where the river he so dearly loved ripples by, and where so many years of his busy useful life were spent."

RAIN FALL SAVES MUSKEGON COUNTY FRUIT

Muskegon, June 8—With the thermometer steadily descending and threatening to come not far from the freezing point tonight, fruit men in this section of the state asserted that all that would save their crop from a blighting frost before morning was the heavy rainfall which started late this afternoon and a terrific gale, these practically removing the danger of frost for at least the next 24 hours. For the first time in many years for so late in the season it was necessary to have fires in both homes and business blocks to maintain ordinary comfort.

JUNE 14 IS DESIGNATED

AS FLAG DAY BY FERRIS

Lansing, June 8—Gov. Ferris has designated Wednesday, June 14 as flag day in Michigan. In his declaration, the governor says in part: "May the time come speedily when every man who seeks a permanent home in this country get under this flag in the shortest possible time as a full-fledged American citizen or else return to the land whence he came. Enduring patriotism demands this form of loyalty."

Just Like a Gold Bond

A good cattle barn begins to earn money for you from the day it is completed. And the returns keep coming in year after year without interruption.

Look at the building shown in the picture. It is one good suggestion for a profit-earning cattle barn. You will see from the illustration that it is designed for a good sized herd and it has plenty of room for hay overhead.

Notice, also, the shelter shed, arranged by an extension of the main roof. The cattle appreciate this protection from the weather. When the cattle gain in weight, you gain in money.

Let us help you with your plans for a new cattle barn. There is a certain best material for cattle barns just as there is for all other farm buildings.

You can see this certain best material in our yard.

Insure Your Automobile

IN THE

Citizens' Mutual Automobile Insurance COMPANY, HOWELL, MICH.

The garage at Lamb burned about two weeks ago in which sixteen automobiles were burned. Sometime ago a garage at Albion, Michigan burned and also a garage at Montague with six automobiles, which shows the necessity of carrying fire insurance, and as about fifteen hundred cars were stolen last year and there were about two thousand accidents in which many law-suits were started against automobile owners, shows the prudent man the necessity of carrying insurance to cover theft and liability.

The Citizens' Mutual Automobile Insurance Company of Howell, Michigan, now has over 6,000 members; they organized at the right time of the year, in the fall, and built up a large membership, agency force, and surplus to take care of the losses during the automobile season. The Company has paid fourteen claims for liability, three fire losses, and have had fourteen cars stolen; all claims have been adjusted with the exception of one personal injury case, and a small claim of damages to a car by theft. The Company is therefore in a position to give its members service. Had these losses occurred when the company first started of course, they could not have paid them, but it is now writing about five hundred new members per week, with a surplus of $13,000 on hand.

Two Ex-Governors of the State, several state officers, circuit court judges, many lawyers and bankers, are now insured, as they feel the Company is well established.
