DICK DEBOER CASE IS AFFIRMED BY SUPREME COURT

MAN WAS PEDDLING LIQUOR TO SOME EMPLOYEES OF A LOCAL FOUNDRY

The supreme court has affirmed the decision in the Ottawa County Circuit court involving Dick De Boer who was found guilty of running liquor to a few of the employees of a local foundry.

De Boer was arrested by Patrolman West and Deputy Ed Vander West who searched his car and found the liquor hidden there. When tried during the spring term of circuit court before Judge Cross, he was convicted and his attorney carried the case up to the Supreme court, the higher courts deciding against Dick De Boer, who will not have to serve his sentence meted out to him by Judge Cross.

Many liquor cases from Ottawa county have been carried to the Supreme court within the last half year, one being the People vs. Harry Ward; another being the People vs. Harry Kamhout, both parties coming from Grand Haven.

Two cases from Holland were the People vs. Schregardus, and the People vs. Dick De Boer. In every instance the higher court sustained the decision in the lower court, and the men were compelled to serve their sentences.

The decision handed down by the Supreme court in the Dick DeBoer matter is rather interesting and follows below:

STATE OF MICHIGAN
Supreme Court
THE PEOPLE OF THE
STATE OF MICHIGAN,
Plaintiff and Appellee.

DICK DEBOER,
Respondent and Appellant.
BEFORE THE ENTIRE BENCH, FELLOWS, J.

Defendant was convicted of transporting and having in his possession intoxicating liquors and reviews his case on exceptions before sentence. By timely motion before trial, objection to receiving the evidence, and motion for a directed verdict defendant preserved the question of the validity of the search and seizure for review. There was testimony before the magistrate that the arrest and search were substantially concurrent and the trial judge therefore had before him and we have before us the question of whether the officer had probable cause for making the arrest. The testimony of the officer making the arrest was to the effect that the evening before he made the arrest the prosecuting attorney had a conversation with him with reference to defendant; that the prosecuting attorney told him that he had been reliably informed by a neighbor of defendant that defendant was "fooling with liquor continually"; that he (the prosecutor) had gone to defendant's place the Saturday night before and watched and listened and heard loud talking and every indication of drinking; that he (the officer) had been instructed by the sheriff to get busy and was told by him that he had heard so much about it that he had got sick of it; that defendant's wife had come to him (the officer) and complained that her husband was drinking heavily and getting drunk, and she showed him where her husband would plant the liquor and where he got it and showed him the containers and said her husband always had liquor; that he went to defendant's place and heard swearing and loud talking, "getting louder and louder"; that he had learned that defendant was taking liquor every morning to the foundry where he worked; that he knew defendant well and always noticed the odor of liquor on his breath whenever he met him.

Upon this testimony the trial judge was authorized in holding that there was probable cause justifying defendant's arrest: People v. Breese, 223 Mich. 597; People v. Guertins, 224 Mich. 8.

The conviction will be affirmed and the case remanded for further proceedings.

MINISTER FROM NETHERLANDS TO VISIT HOLLAND

Observing a custom established more than 30 years ago during the consulate of his father, John Steketee, Jacob Steketee, consul for the Netherlands, will be visited Wednesday and Thursday by the minister plenipotentiary of Holland to the United States when Johnkeer C. J. DeGraeff will arrive at Grand Rapids Wednesday morning. Ever since the '90's Dutch ministers to the United States have every few years visited Grand Rapids which is the largest settlement of people of Holland descent in this country.

The arrival of Ambassador De Graeff will take place just one year from the day an invitation was extended him to visit Grand Rapids by Consul Steketee who last June was attending the national convention of the Shrine in Washington, D. C.

Thursday morning Ambassador De Graeff and Consul Steketee will motor to Holland where they will be luncheon guests of Gerrit J. Diekema at his home. Hope college will also be visited and the ambassador will formally address the student body. Following the return to Grand Rapids Ambassador De Graeff will leave that city at 5:13 P. M. for Washington.

Ambassador De Graeff was appointed minister to the United States by Queen Wilhelmina in 1922. Prior to that time he was Netherlands minister to Japan at Tokio and he was also vice-governor of the Dutch East Indies a number of years ago. "Johnkeer," according to Consul Steketee, is a hereditary title of the Dutch nobility.

TAKE STEPS TO KEEP CITY'S DRINKING FOUNTAINS CLEAN

COUNCIL IS DETERMINED TO MAKE THEM SANITARY OR ELSE REMOVE THEM

A protest made by a visitor to the city a week or two ago in regard to the city's drinking fountains bore fruit at the meeting of the council Wednesday night. Ald. Slaght called attention to the protest and asked the council what ought to be done about it.

Mayor Kammeraad declared that drinking fountains are very hard to keep clean. He said the one near his store is washed twice a day and still it is usually dirty because children put their hands on it and slobber over it. A year ago the same question was up and at that time the people near the corners where the fountains are located agreed to keep them clean. But this system does not seem to have worked out satisfactorily, so something else will have to be tried. The council is determined to have the fountains kept clean or else they will be removed. The matter was referred to the streets and crosswalks committee, which body will have to devise some way of keeping the fountains clean.

BOOMERANG IS OUT FOR DISTRIBUTION

PUBLICATION IS DEDICATED TO MISS METTA ROSS

The annual Boomerang, edited by the class of 1924 is out, and is being distributed among the high school pupils and is found on sale at the local news stands.

The annual is dedicated to Miss Metta J. Ross, who for many years has given expert advice to Boomerang boards. A page is also headed "In Memoriam" and contains short sketches of Harold Johnson and Anthony Meengs, late members of the class who were of exceptional Christian character and scholarship during their high school career.

The Seniors take thirty pages with pictures, activities, history, prophecy, last will and testament, and farewell poem. They are preceded by the faculty and followed by group pictures of lower classes.

Student Government features its Student Council, the Boomerang board, Maroon and Orange staff, Welfare, Library, Literary, Park, and Police Boards. The Society section contains material from the Kappa Delta, Sigma Chi, Athenian, Dnalloh High, Shorthand Club, National Honor Society, Signiferi club, Athletic Sisters, Girl Scouts, Blue Triangle, Hi-Y, and Debating club.

The Athletic Section with cuts of the teams, coaches, Monogram girls, and Volleyball lacks only the newly organized "H" clubs.

The Calendar with its artistic heading for each of the months of the school year is a new feature and very commendable.

Time would fail to tell of the music, art, humor, literary, dramatic, and snap sections, of the splendid ads, and other items of interest. The general opinion is that the plan and arrangement, as also the art work, is exceptionally pleasing. The cover with its Dutch windmill makes the book very distinctively Holland's own.

That America and The Netherlands have the same ideals was the theme of an address made Wednesday in Grand Rapids by Johnkeer A. C. de Graeff who is in Holland today and was entertained at luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Diekema. In his Grand Rapids address he said:

"The United States is today the most powerful country on the globe. Its ideals and history are similar to those of the Netherlands. John Adams once said the history of one might well be the transcript of the other and Benjamin Franklin declared that in its love of liberty and in its defense of it America followed Holland."

"Holland broke away from Spain, as America broke away from Spain, as America did from England, because of the violation of rights and unjust taxation. Holland, too, formed a union of states wrote a declaration of independence, waged a long war for liberty and emerged successfully from the struggle. Both countries are outspoken in their dislike, yes, their hate, of militarism and despotism."

"In '76 Holland sided with the U. S.; Dutch engineers built the fortifications along the Hudson, the orange, white and blue flag led the colonists to many victories, and Gov. DeGraeff, an ancestor of mine, ordered a salute from the Dutch battle ships in honor of the colonists."

"It is no small wonder, then, that when the American constitution was formed, the writers turned to Holland, and copied the best of the Dutch system, while eliminating her mistakes."

"Holland's successful history has been largely due to the wise guidance of the House of Orange, senators for the past quarter of a century when Queen Wilhelmina has so far outshined the ship of state thru troubled waters, domestic and foreign. This noble woman, who splendidly fulfills her task as head of the nation, and is as well a devoted mother, has a firm hold on the hearts of her subjects, especially the common people who adore her for her democracy."

HOLLAND WILL HELP AT BANK- ERS' CONVENTION

MANY FROM THIS CITY ON THE COMMITTEES TO ENTER.

Final details are being worked out for the entertainment of the Michigan Bankers' Ass'n. convention which opens June 17 and continues through June 20. While the bankers will spend part of their time aboard ship out on the bounding billows of Lake Michigan, they will also be entertained in Grand Haven and Spring Lake. That community is preparing for their reception and entertainment and the bankers and their wives will undoubtedly carry home an impression of their visit which will remain with them for some time.

The arrangements for the affair are now in the hands of the committees, composed of Grand Haven men and women, who are working out the program of entertainment, with a great deal of enthusiasm. W. H. Loutit has been named as general chairman and his sub-committees are already on the job.

On these different committees the names of some Holland folks appear. These are: Ladies reception committee—Mrs. G. J. Diekema; Boat reception committee, Otto P. Kramer, G. J. Diekema, W. H. Beach. In all there are at least 200 committee members from Grand Haven, Grand Rapids, Spring Lake, Muskegon, Allegan and Holland.

REDPATH CHAU- TAUQUA COMING TO HOLLAND

DATES WILL BE WEEK OF JULY
FIFTEEN AND WILL LAST SIX DAYS

Holland is to have the best Chautauqua in the country today, namely the Redpath. This chautauqua company is known the world over, as having nothing but the very best talent obtainable.

A committee of Unity Lodge, F. & A. M. have signed up with the Redpath bureau to put on a six day chautauqua beginning the week of July 15, and ending Saturday night of that week. The chautauqua will not be held in a tent with its inconveniences and swarms of mosquitoes, but will be given in the large banquet hall of the Masonic temple with a spacious gallery all around and a seating capacity of at least 1500.

The air in this room can be changed every 10 minutes and even in the hottest weather this is a cool and refreshing place to spend an evening.

The Masonic Order is not to receive the benefits derived from this chautauqua, but the proceeds over and above expenses are to go to the Y. M. C. A. building fund toward which a substantial sum has already been contributed from proceeds received some few years ago when the Lincoln Chautauqua held sway.

Anyway the Masons feel that they wish to do something for the benefit of Holland and the list of 400 members in conjunction with the women's auxiliaries intend to back this project with all their might and in that way endeavor to do something substantial towards a Y. M. C. A. building in Holland.

Mr. Harrington stated that the contract with the Redpath calls for the very best program and that being the case Holland will be privileged to see a real chautauqua. Mr. Harrington says that it will be no cheap affair for the price paid is nearly double that paid to other companies that have put on chautauquas in Holland before.

BEN LANNING BUYS INTEREST IN HOLLE- MAN-DE WEERD CO.

ROLLIE HOLLEMAN RETIRES
FROM THE AUTO FIRM

Al DeWeerd, manager of the Holler-De Weerd Auto Co., made known this morning that Ben Lanning, for four years salesmanager of the company, has purchased the interest of Rollie De Weerd in the above named company. Mr. De Weerd has other interests in Grand Rapids that is occupying all of his time, and he expressed a desire to retire from the company, and the result was that Mr. Lanning purchased his one-fifth interest.

There will be no change in the name of the management or the policy of the firm and Mr. Lanning will continue in the position that he has filled so ably during the past few years.

Before coming to Holland, Mr. Lanning was salesmanager for H. G. Hain Co., of Fremont, a large mercantile house. Some four years ago he decided to come to Holland feeling that this vicinity was a most desirable spot to make a future home.

Mr. Lanning has made good, and the firm appreciative of his efforts gave him the opportunity to become part of them.

The Holler-DeWeerd Auto Co. has built up a wonderful clientele, selling Ford cars and Fordson tractors and also the celebrated Lincoln. The firm also has branches in Zeeland and Byron Center.

Recently the Filleman property on River avenue was purchased by the firm preparatory to future development in Holland.

Al De Weerd of Holland still remains the head of the company.

Dawg Gone It, Good Dog Fight Stopped by Motion To Adjourn

For about two minutes and a quarter Wednesday evening the meeting of the common council threatened to develop into a good old-fashioned dog-fight. But a motion to adjourn was made and supported. As everybody knows a motion to adjourn is always in order, even in the middle of a dog fight, and so the interesting scrap that visitors at the council session were awaiting with smiles of amusement did not develop.

It was this way. The business of the evening was about over. Mayor Kammeraad asked if there was anything else. Ald. Slaght said there was a young fellow in the audience by name of Matt, Bor who wished to say something. The coast was clear at last and Matt went to the mat.

"Charlie McBride's dog, he bit me in the leg," says Matt, "an' I wanna know what to do about it." He said he had appealed to the police department and had received no satisfaction. Since some time ago the council discussed muzzles for a swarm of bees that were bothering a citizen, he thought something might be done by the council about a dog.

Mr. McBride got up and explained that the dog was not his but belonged to a person named Daugherty who was at college in Ann Arbor. As soon as Daugherty came back the dog would be turned over to him.

So far everything was pleasant. Then the scrap, Ald. Slaght jumped up and testified that he same dog had bit him in the hand. Another alderman tried to speak. Ald. Visser jumped up to add his testimony as to the total depravity of the dog in question, while Ald. Vander Hill tried to say something at the same time. They had red in their eyes and the stage was set for a dog fight.

Then Ald. Laepple saved the day. "Mr. Mayor," he cried above the din of battle, "I move that we adjourn." Ald. Visser demanded the floor, but Ald. Laepple pointed out that a motion to adjourn is always in order and is not debatable. The motion prevailed and the fight was over, only to begin again informally after the meeting. Some aldermen said they would not have taken the matter to the council but would have shot the dog, others advised the bitten person to swear out a warrant. But council action was no longer possible. The fight was prevented, dawg gone it!

The dog under discussion was taken out of the city after the flare-up about him and so the matter has been settled.

HOPE COLLEGE GETS $500 THRU WILL OF C. STRYKER

Grand Rapids Press—The will of Cornelius Stryker of Grand Rapids has been filed by Bert Stryker of Chicago, a son. The value of the estate is listed as $10,000. Bequests of $500 are made to the council of Hope college and the Holland Benevolent association. A brother, Albert, is bequeathed $500 and the residue is divided between three children, Bert and Henry Stryker and Clara Hendricks.

A weak sugar market brought about by bearish reports of an immense production in prospect this year resulted in a 10-cent decline in the wholesale price yesterday. The price now is $7.35 per 100 lbs. The lowest figure it has reached in two years.

THURSDAY TO BE OPEN HOUSE AT NEW SCHOOL

Open house will be kept at the new Junior high school on Thursday of this week when the public will be given an opportunity to inspect the fine new building that they have added to the school's equipment. The school building has been partly in use for some time and the finishing touches have been put on during the past few weeks. The grounds are now being improved and by next September all the traces of the building operations will have been removed.

The public is cordially invited to visit the school at any time on Thursday from 1:15 in the afternoon to 10 o'clock at night. During the afternoon the visitors can see the classes at work and in the evening they can inspect the building. There will be guides to show them through the building.

BABY CLINICS IN SOUTH END OF ALLE- GAN COUNTY ANNOUNCED

The baby clinics in Allegan Co. last week were very well attended, the attendance being as follows: Plainwell, 36; Wayland, 31; Ganges, 16; Moline, 10; Pearle, 8; Pullman, 9.

Next week the clinics will be in the following places: Monday, June 9, all day, at the home of Miss Mabel Voorhorst, Overisel Center; Tuesday, June 10, all day, Hamilton; Thursday, June 12, A. M. at the home of Mrs. Arlie Overheiser, Leisure. The clinics are being conducted by Lena M. Laude, R. N. Public Health Nurse of Allegan County.

MISSION AND SCOUT DRIVES TO BE COMBINED

Due to the fact that the same body of men who have for some years been in charge of the annual drive for funds for the City Rescue Mission have also for some years been sponsoring the boy scout movement in Holland, it was decided Saturday at a meeting held for this purpose to combine the two drives this year and make the canvass at the same time. The plan is to collect $3,000 for the city mission and $1,500 for the boy scouts.

The committee behind this joint movement is composed of the following: Con DePree, A. H. Landwehr, G. J. Diekema, John VanderVeen, E. P. Stephan, Chas. Kirchen, James De Pree, Arthur A. Visccher, Frank Whelan, A. H. Heuer, A. B. Bosman, John Bosman, Frank Bolhuis, George Clements, M. J. Cook, B. P. Donnelley, D. B. K. VanRaalte, John J. Good, Walter Lane, Dick Bouter, John VanTatenhove.

The canvass will be conducted in the same way in which other city mission drives have been held. It will be conducted mainly by factories and business houses and the various institutions will make their reports from time to time as they finish the drive. These reports will be printed from day to day in the Sentinel and at the close of the campaign a report of the total will be printed.

It is expected that as usual many individuals who are not seen in the canvass will wish to contribute to one or both of these causes. All such persons are asked to send their contributions to Con DePree, who is again treasurer of the campaign. All contributions sent in will be gratefully received and credited to the two funds.

Persons who wish to designate to which fund the contribution is to go are requested to give this information with the contribution. In all cases where this is not designated two-thirds will be credited to the mission fund and one-third to the scout fund. The canvass will begin immediately and it will be carried out vigorously so that it may be completed in the shortest time possible. Work has been assigned to the various members of the committee.

The work of the city mission is so well known that nothing needs to be said about that. In regard to the boy scouts it is pointed out that that movement has grown rapidly in Holland the past year under the direction of William Slater. The showing made in the Memorial day parade was particularly good. There were 149 in the lineup that day out of a total membership of 230 registered scouts in Holland. When it is remembered that Grand Rapids has only 1,200 scouts Holland's number is seen to be very large in proportion to the city's population.

HOPE COLLEGE MUSEUM IS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Dr. F. N. Patterson, of Hope college, in charge of the Hope College Museum, announced that the museum will be open to the public every afternoon this week, except Saturday, from three to five o'clock. The public is cordially invited to visit the museum. Children must be accompanied by a teacher or parent. It is further announced that teachers who wish to take classes through the museum can make arrangements to visit the place at any time of day by applying in advance to Dr. Patterson.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR BUILDING NEW PARISH HALL

Mr. Herman Helmers has been awarded the contract for the erection of the new parish hall of Grace Episcopal church and for renovating the church. The work is to begin this week.

The new life that this church has taken on under the leadership of Rev. D. D. Douglas was shown Sunday when two largely attended services were held and when the newly confirmed members took their first communion. The Rector based his sermon on John 18:7, his theme being the ascension.

TAKE UP LARGE COLLECTION IN LOCAL CHURCH

As a result of a special collection held by the congregation of the First Reformed church Sunday that church will be redecorated and renovated generally on the interior and the work on the outside will be given some new coats of paint. The collection held for this special purpose Sunday amounted to $3,353. This is the largest special collection ever held in that church.

Frequently requests are made for the use of the post office boxes for the establishing of booths for receiving contributions for patriotic and charitable purposes. Authority for this purpose, however, must be obtained directly from the Treasury department, according to a department ruling.

CLAIM RIVER AS PART OF COUNTRY CLUB PROPERTY

One of the greatest assets of the Holland Country Club golf grounds threatens to become one of its liabilities. When the country club was established it was felt that Black river running through the grounds was one of the finest natural hazards for a golf links. And it has proved to be that. The river is one of the things that distinguish this golf course and it bids fair to make it famous in this part of the state.

But that same river is becoming a liability in another way. The golfers of the country club have been bothered a great deal the past few days by fishermen who seem to claim the river as their rightful possession. It is pointed out by the country club officials that the river running through the grounds is private property. Fishermen seem to be under the impression that they can use the stream and that they have a right there if they are in boats on the stream or if they stay on the immediate bank. It is asserted by the country club members that Black river is not a navigable stream and that for that reason fishermen and others have no rights on it either in boats or on the banks of the stream.

The country club people declare they have no desire to be arbitrary and they are asking for some consideration on the part of the fishermen rather than demanding it. It is pointed out that in golf moving objects in the field of vision are distracting and spoil the game. Moreover the fishermen are in constant danger from flying golf balls. The country club people are asking whether they would be held liable if a fisherman was injured in such a way. The fact is that fishermen are spoiling the purposes for which the country club was established.

Picnic parties are also doing harm. It was pointed out. The greens have been built at great expense and members are not allowed on it unless they wear the proper kind of shoes that will not hurt the grounds. But picnickers are not so considerate. Often women with high-heeled shoes do much damage on the greens. The officials of the club are calling attention to these matters because they believe these depredations are not intentional but due to ignorance of the character of the grounds.

LAYS OUT NEW LAKE MICHIGAN RESORT

Ralph Hayden has brought of Van Zanten & VanderVen a tract of land north of the Alpena road, the tract adjoining the Bosman woods. The tract borders on Lake Michigan and is a fine spot for resort purposes.

Mr. Hayden will plat this tract and offer it for sale as resort property. The property will be laid out in lots and will be cut up by streets 1 1/2 feet wide. All the lots will have access to Lake Michigan and are well shaded by trees. The new resort is eight and a half miles from Holland. This is one of the few remaining resort sites in that section bordering on Lake Michigan.

GRAND HAVEN HAS THREE FIRES IN ONE DAY

The fire department at Grand Haven had a busy time of it Decoration day according to the Grand Haven Tribune, since there were three fires in one day. One was a roof fire in the home of E. E. Emery, Albee street; three minutes afterward the department was called out to the home of John Boyink on Madison street where a blaze was caused by a defective chimney. This was followed by a fire in the home of Ralph Wilson on State street.

MRS. KOSTER DIES AT THE AGE OF 82

Mrs. H. Koster, aged 82, died at five o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Dornbos, 340 Pine avenue. The deceased has lived in Holland for more than 50 years and for many years lived on River avenue near 16th st.

Mrs. Koster is survived by two step-children still living in the Netherlands, namely Conrad Koster and Mrs. Geesje Luterwyk; also by two sons and two daughters, Klaas Koster of Central Park, Martin H. Koster of Grand Rapids, Mrs. William Dornbos of Holland, and Mrs. Peter Vanderhout of Grand Rapids. She also leaves ten grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home and at 2 o'clock at the Fourth Reformed church, Rev. J. F. Heemstra officiating.

Friends are requested to omit flowers.

TO OBSERVE NATIONAL RIFLE DAY IN HOLLAND

Saturday, June 7, has been designated National Rifle day. It is desired on that day to make a national effort to acquaint the citizenship of America with the fact that straight shooting is still a tradition close to the hearts of many. To this end the co-operation of every individual and organization affiliated with the National Rifle association is necessary, and on that day the range will be open to the public free of any charges. Small bore 22 rifles and 30 U. S. army rifles can be used. Sec. 36, Wording also wishes to announce that good Krag rifles and carbines can be bought for $4 and $6 as the war department has only a few left. Orders must be sent in early and left at Corner Hardware before June 8.

This contest will close on June 10th and soon after that the committee named by the mayor will make its decision. The originator of the name chosen by the members of this body will receive the $100 offered by the oil company.

The committee is composed of the following: Mayor Kammeraad, R. B. Champion, Dr. A. Leenhouts, Charles Kirchen, Prof. W. W. W. J. Vanderkuijs, and F. F. Grimes.

William Havenga, Mrs. John Havenga, Albert Havenga and Herman Van Munster motored to Traverse City on Decoration day.

HOPE TEAM PLAYS MT. PLEASANT NOR- MAL HERE FRIDAY

On Friday afternoon the Hope college baseball team will close its season playing Mt. Pleasant Normal. This game is regarded by coach and players as the hardest game on the schedule and the locals will be on edge to win. Poppen who set the Postum Cereals down in fine order will most likely be on the mound for Hope and he will be opposed by Miller who is also a firstclass slab artist. Hope has an even percentage of the eight games played so far this season. The local college team is the strongest that has represented the institution in many years and they have been commanding high respect wherever they played.

But two players among the regulars will be lost by graduation so that Coach Schouten is assured another strong aggregation next year.

TO HOLD CLINICS THRU- OUT THE SUMMER

A pre-natal and baby clinic was held at the Holland hospital annex on Wednesday forenoon from 9 to 11, the usual time. In the past it has been customary to discontinue these clinics during the summer months but this year it is hoped to continue them throughout the summer. The interest in the clinics has been unusual and the attendance has been large, in spite of the fact that house-cleaning time usually interferes with the clinics. Interest has grown so rapidly that the meetings will continue as long as mothers care to come and take advantage of them.

LARGE AUDI- ENCE GREET'S SEN- IOR RECITAL

TABLE SHOWS HOW BONUS IS TO BE FIGURED

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Owing to the fact that various interpretations have been placed on the method by which the World War veteran can compute the amount of his paid up twenty years endowment insurance purchased by the adjusted service credit under the provisions of the adjusted compensation act (Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the United States Veterans' bureau, has released a statement of factors and instructions which will clarify this situation.

He called attention to the fact that the 25 per cent increase to be added to the adjusted service credit has already been incorporated in the factor and should not be added to the adjusted service credit before multiplying by the factor.

The table of factors and instructions follow:

Factors to determine the amount of paid up twenty year endowment insurance purchased by the adjusted service credit, as defined in section 201—

Age	Factor	Age	Factor

42	2.450	65	1.889

Allow $1 per day for each day of home service and $1.25 per day for each day of foreign service. Deduct $60 from this sum. Multiply this remainder by the factor opposite the age nearest birthday to date certificate is issued. The factor includes 25 per cent increase and this increase should not be added to the adjusted service credit before multiplying by the factor.

Example: Age at date of issue.....33 years Home service.....180 days Overseas service.....100 days (180-60) x $1.....$120 100 x $1.25.....$125

Adjusted service credit.....$245 Multiply this by 2.513—factor at age 33—to get adjusted service certificate, which in this case is $615.

HOLLAND INDEPENDENTS PLAY THE FAST IONIA TEAM SATURDAY

Holland Independents play the fast Ionia team Saturday at the Waterworks Park. Holland has a fast team and very member is a clouter. In every season so far this season the locals have pounded out enough runs to win any ball game but the pitching has been weak. Poppen's performance Saturday stamps him as a real comer and he may do regular mound duty for the Independents this season.

Ionia will give Holland a good run Saturday as they have a capable team. On last Sunday they gave Allegan a hard game and were only defeated by 1 score, in a pitcher's duel. In Taft and Oshinski, Ionia has a first class battery. Holland's first game with the Prison City team was postponed on account of rain, two good crowds greeted the team in the Postum series and a large crowd is anticipated Saturday afternoon. The locals are playing A-1 teams and deserve good support from the fans.

HOLLAND SCHOOLS ARE THE DELIGHT OF VISITORS

Within the last few weeks several delegations from other schools about the state have come to Holland to see our school system and incidentally look over our beautiful school buildings.

A party delegated from Albion came here headed by Carl ordahl, a former student at Holland high and now studying at Albion College. There were ten in the party who came all the way from the southern part of the state to give our public schools the "once over." That they received a royal welcome from the school authorities goes without saying.

A delegation was also sent from the Ovid High school, and these students were also entertained, were told how Holland schools are conducted under student government, and the delegation was taken to the main office in the high school where they listened to a talk by superintendent E. E. Fell and Mayor John Mulder.

The delegation was taken to Keefe's restaurant for dinner by Mr. Fell after which Mr. Fell and Principal Riemersma, John Mulder, Clarissa Poppen, and Carl Damson conducted the visitors through the high school and also thru the new Junior high.

The young visitors approvingly expressed their opinions on student government and especially on the Holland school system. Before leaving they gave a vote of thanks to the school authorities and spoke very appreciatively of the hospitality shown them in Holland.

Several delegations have also come from Zeeland, Grand Haven, Grand Rapids, and Muskegon. The Board of Education and the school officials deserve unstinted praise for placing our schools in such an enviable position because of their untiring efforts.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO BE STARTED BY HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

This year, as usual, the girls of Holland high school are going to have a tennis tournament on the high school courts. The girls who want to take part in the tournament have signed up with Miss Osborne the list of girls and their opponents may be placed on the bulletin board in the gymnasium.

The winners of the first game play the winners of the second and so on until all the girls have had their inning. The winners in the finals will then play each other, the winner of this play being declared victorious.

Much enjoyment is obtained from the tournaments and the girls at the local high school are always anxious to participate in the game.

$100.00 for A Name Contest to be extended to June 10th.

We wish to announce that because of a similar contest being conducted by Grimes & Madigan, Independent Oil Dealers, of Grand Rapids, we have decided to extend our $100.00 For A Name Contest to June 10th, the same date their contest closes. This Grand Rapids firm is marketing our product and to avoid any possible confusion or misunderstanding, we are making our contest close on the same date as theirs.

When we placed Our New Motor Fuel on Sale on the morning of May 16th, we intended and expected it would be nothing but a local affair, but the merits of the product spread so rapidly that we have received calls for it and name suggestions from many cities in Michigan -- others from States as far West as Colorado, South as far as Kentucky, and East as far as Connecticut.

The $100.00 we are offering will go to the individual whose name-suggestion is adopted by the Committee appointed by Mayor Kammeraad, and will be selected from cards received at our Office up to Midnight, June 10th.

MUSKEGON CHILDREN GIVE $1,000 TO- WARD MEMORIAL

Muskegon school children, giving their nickels and dimes, have raised the first $1,000 for a memorial to the late Charles H. Hackley, millionaire lumberman, and benefactor. Present plans call for the erection of the memorial on the campus of the new Junior high school building.

Muskegon for several years has talked of erecting a suitable memorial to Mr. Hackley, but it was less than a year ago that the definite plans were made. School children were asked to contribute the first $1,000 and they have done so.

Every year Muskegon school closes for Hackley day, May 25, anniversary of the dedication of the Hackley Public library, donated to the city by Mr. Hackley, for years a member of the board of education.

Mr. Hackley, who came to Muskegon as a boy with only a few dollars in his pocket and starting working in a saw mill became a millionaire lumberman. Others who made millions quit when the lumber business disappeared and moved to other cities. Mr. Hackley was one who remained and helped the city through the lean years.

Mr. Hackley donated about $9,000 to that city in various ways. He gave it a library, a hospital, a manual training school, an athletic field, a gymnasium, a park and provided endowments to care for them. In addition Mrs. Hackley left an endowment fund which yields about $20,000 a year for the care of the poor of the city.

MAGAZINE AGENT GETS GOODS UNDER FALSE PRETENSES

Mrs. George Reimink, 307 West 13th street, went through a trying experience with a magazine agent a few days ago. It seems that Mrs. Reimink was owing $1.20 for a magazine and a collector from Grand Rapids came unexpectedly to get the money. Mrs. Reimink did not prepare for his coming and the man, who gave his name as C. L. Brown, began a bluffing game that he wanted the money immediately or some collateral that would cover the debt. The woman begged that the agent wait until her husband came home at noon, but the agent was obdurate, continuing his threats.

Mrs. Reimink then demanded what right he had to demand collateral. The agent stated he had all the right in the world as he would show her presently. She was thoroughly scared by that time and offered him her wedding ring and a ring of her husband. He stated that he wasn't satisfied with that; it had to be something more substantial.

She then offered a wristwatch given her by her husband, and costing approximately $25.00. The man Brown said that this would do and gave her a receipt on brown paper, stating that he was rooming at 220 Pine avenue, and if they wanted the watch back, to come to that address, pay over the $1.20, otherwise he would be over Saturday.

Naturally the husband when he came home at noon was thoroughly incensed and he and his wife set out to look up the number in question. There is no such number to be found at that location, it being vacant property belonging to the Cappon-Bertsch Leather company.

Mr. and Mrs. Reimink then went over to Chief VanRy, told the story, and the police, together with Mr. and Mrs. Reimink, scoured the town in an automobile, looking for the man in question.

Mrs. Reimink saw the man on East 8th street driving east in a Ford sedan, she being the only person who was able to identify the man. Apparently the agent also saw the woman and quickly made a bee line for the east limits.

Mrs. Reimink however got his automobile number and Chief VanRy quickly called the state police station at Grandville, telling them to intercept the traveling man in a Ford coupe, giving the license number and a full description of the man.

Three quarters of an hour afterwards the state police wired the chief that they had the man in question, and he was brought to Holland on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses.

He was arraigned before Justice Den Herder where it was found out that his real name is William Pease and not Brown. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $25.00.

The man's boss came with him to Holland and emphatically stated that the agent had no authority to demand collateral in that way, and he condemned the action in no uncertain terms.

Holland folks can prevent any such trouble in the future by buying their magazines or outside papers at the local agents. There are several reputable business men here who sell any and all the magazines printed in the United States that are worth while, and sell them at as reasonable a figure as does the pestering agent.

Mr. VanRy states that it seems people will never learn. He says that he has any number of cases where folks complain that they have subscribed for magazines, have made partial or full payment, but have never seen a copy of the periodical for which they gave their good money. He states that almost weekly complaints come in from women who say that sassy agents have been making trouble for them. The complaints generally come in the next day when the agent has come and gone. If those pestering would only call up immediately, the offender might be taken care of.

The most sensible thing to do, however, is not allow strangers in the house, and better yet, buy your reading matter from your home people who help build your town.

BIG STURGEON AT GRAND HAVEN IS LARGEST

Grand Haven Tribune.—An enormous sturgeon, 127 pounds in weight, was netted by Floyd Ladd, fisherman at Brimley, near the Soo, Friday. In a three-hour battle to land the monster, Ladd, single-handed, managed to get the leviathan into his small launch, but only after having suffered a broken arm when the viselike jaws of the fish closed on his left arm.

The fish is one of the largest landed at the Soo in over a year, and the body contained about 30 pounds of caviar, valued at least $2 per pound. It was immediately cut up into three-year lengths and expressed to New York, where the price is much higher than in this state.

The fish caught at the Soo was smaller than the sturgeon recently caught here by William Mieras which weighed 142 pounds.

At present the firm simply makes this fiber for other factories, but wishes to enlarge so as to use their own product in manufacture of furniture. It is proposed to organize at Saugatuck a holding company to purchase the building on the northwest corner of Culver and Griffith streets, the building eventually to be exchanged for stock in the manufacturing company.

Contributes Article To Wisconsin History Magazine

The current issue of the Wisconsin Magazine of History, published at Menasha, Wis., by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin, contains a thrilling narrative written by Postmaster William O. Van Eyck of Holland under the title, "The Story of the Propeller 'Phoenix'." The article covers twenty pages of the magazine and it is of interest to Hollanders because it gives a bit of the history of the early Hollanders who came to America in the emigration of 1847.

In that movement of people from the Netherlands to America some settled in Western Michigan under the leadership of Dr. Van Raalte. A boatload of immigrants late in 1847 boarded the propeller "Phoenix" at Buffalo and made the long journey by water through the Great Lakes and through the straits of Mackinac to Wisconsin. Within sight of Sheboygan, when their journey was almost ended, the vessel caught fire. It was freely charged that members of the crew were drunk and that the fire was due to carelessness, although this has not been definitely established. There were only two lifeboats and these, crowded with passengers, reached shore. All the others, with the exception of three persons were either burned to death or were drowned. Mr. Van Eyck estimates the total number of those who lost their lives in this catastrophe at about 250.

Mr. Van Eyck's narrative is a thrilling one. He has succeeded in giving to the story the touch almost of an eye-witness, so vividly does he describe the scenes of horror and disaster. Mr. Van Eyck went to a great deal of trouble to gather the information for the article and to sift the evidence for and against many statements made in regard to the disaster. He examined the files of newspapers in Milwaukee, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and the various books about the Great Lakes. It was a piece of original research work of great interest and it preserves definitely for future historians of the Dutch migration to America an episode that no historian could ignore, being one of the most dramatic incidents in the early history of the Hollanders in America.

BENJAMIN AGAIN CHARGED WITH LIQUOR VIOLATION

Prosecuting Attorney Fred T. Miles stated Monday that John E. Benjamin, local shoe dealer, was arrested on the charge of violating the liquor law. According to the prosecutor, it is charged that Benjamin and another man, who gave his name as John Brown, went into Robinson township and furnished to one John Simouski three drinks of liquor and later went to Grand Haven and furnished liquor to another man at that place.

Mr. Miles states that he has affidavits from at least two men and admissions from at least one of the men involved who gave information to the prosecutor, Sheriff Fortney and deputy Marvin DenHerder relative to this case.

Benjamin, when arrested, demanded an examination and this will be held on Thursday morning before Justice Dickinson at Grand Haven.

Mr. Miles states that the Ottawa county officers are now looking for Mr. Brown, so called, who had the automobile that took the parties to Robinson and Grand Haven.

KIDS RAISE "HOB" WITH G. R. TELE- GRAPH SYSTEM

Telegraph communication in and out of Grand Haven was seriously interfered with Thursday when it was found that wires at the north end of Third street were down due to loosening and snapping of the guy wires that hold them in place. It is believed that small boys either loosened or cut the guys in such a way that the poles toppled down, carrying the Western Union and Grand Trunk railway communication wires.

W. C. Keal, recently appointed manager of the Western Union at Grand Haven, was equal to the task of reorganization, however, and within a short time after the discovery was made messages were coming in and going out over the Pere Marquette wires. This made a different route necessary but the wires are being handled satisfactorily. Much credit is due Mr. Keal for his quick work in getting the wires in operation.

While every effort is being made to get the wires up again in quick time, an investigation will be made to determine the cause of the poles going down and to discover who was responsible for the affair. If caught the offenders will be dealt with severely as it is a crime of no small magnitude to interfere with the workings of communication lines, either telegraph or telephone.

Grand Haven is of enough importance as a manufacturing city that only a short tie-up of the wires at the present season would work havoc with industry as wires are constantly coming and going for Grand Haven factories. Not only domestic messages are received but the local plants that do a foreign business also get many cable messages each.

MEMORIAL ORATOR LAUDS SPIRIT OF GREAT HOLLANDER

In welcoming the audience in Centennial Park Friday forenoon and in introducing the speaker, Hal H. Smith, Mayor Kammeraad said: "Veterans of three wars, ladies and gentlemen:—We are gathered today in this beautiful park for a purpose that has both a touch of sadness and of joy—sadness for the dead who died that our country might live, joy because of the spirit of patriotism that caused them to give their lives for their country."

"And you, veterans of the Civil war, of the Spanish-American war and of the World war, also offered your lives for your country but the sacrifice was not demanded of you. But today you and all of us are gathered to do honor to those of the comrades who fell on the field of battle or who died in the nation's service. It is not only a duty for all of us to pay our respects today to the soldiers and sailors from our community who gave up their lives but it is a great privilege as well."

"I ask all of you, young and old, rich and poor, to join in commemorating this day in a spirit of true patriotism and to join in these exercises not only as a matter of form but in spirit and in truth."

After these preliminary remarks, the mayor introduced Hal H. Smith, the speaker of the day.

Declaring that the sacrifices made by the men who gave their lives in the Civil war, the Spanish-American war and in the World war, imposed upon us who remain to reap the fruits of their sacrifice the responsibility to live for America and work for America, Hal H. Smith of Detroit delivered an eloquent Memorial Day address in Centennial Park Friday forenoon. Mr. Smith paid a tribute to William the Silent and declared that the great Hollander's motto "I will maintain," should also be the motto of all true Americans today.

Not so many years ago the old boys in blue who fought during the Civil war were the dominant figures in Holland's Memorial Day parades. Some 1550 generally lined up and were not content unless they marched the entire distance to the cemetery and back led by martial music. Friday however less than 15 participated in the exercises and it is doubtful if one was in the marching line, all being inconspicuous, since the few that did participate were given seats in automobiles.

Father Time has played havoc in the ranks of the G. A. R. and within a few years their appearance on Decoration Day will be no more and the Grand Army of the Republic will be only a memory.

The ranks Friday were not lacking for soldiers and marching men. Practically every Spanish War veteran was in line, the Willard G. Leenhouts Post with nearly a hundred men was present with banners flying. Captain Geerds and his entire company of National Guards were out, and the boy scouts were also well represented.

A very imposing sight, thanks to the school authorities, was presented by 1,000 children of our public schools marching in divisions, each school constituting a division, the decoration being shown by banners denoting from which school the children came.

The boy and girl pupils shouldered flags, carried patriotic banners, and here and there a large old glory was surrounded by a group of boys and girls who carried the large flags in the parade. The school children division was headed by superintendent Fell and physical director Slater. Several of the faculty took charge of the separate divisions and everything was done to protect the children in the line of march.

Twelve gold star mothers were also in the parade, carrying large floral pieces representing the golden stars.

Besides several small drum corps, the Juvenile march band, composed of 25 young chaps of 15 and 16 years old and organized and led by Peter Steggerda furnished the march music. As usual, the Willard G. Leenhouts Post American Legion Band with 32 pieces led the parade headed by marshals of the day, Jack Riemersma, Dr. Westrate, John Homfeld and John Bremer.

The W. R. C. and the American Legion Auxiliary were also in the lineup and some 12 patriotic young men and ladies on horseback assisted in the parade.

The weather was ideal for marching, the usual heat of Decoration Day not prevailing.

There was also quite an array of citizens in automobiles, many participating in the parade, the speakers the chaplain, the mayor and city officials being among those who rode to take part in the exercises at Pilgrim Home cemetery after the deliberations in Centennial Park had been finished.

The program in Centennial Park and at the cemetery was carried out according to the program published in full in Thursday's paper.

BE HAPPY EVERY SINGLE DAY!

In the beginning of Fall weather, everybody ought to be just as happy as can be. Thoughts of coming Winter ought to bring nothing but contentment -- the realization of entire security from storm and cold.

Don't stop enjoying life when Winter begins. Why not make your home cozy and cheerful with a HOLLAND Furnace? Winter is the season for more activity, better health and added joy. Holland Independents dropped the first of their two game series with the Postum Cereal team of Battle Creek; final score 9-6. Free transportation, and errors were greatly responsible for the loss but the locals found their equal in the slugging game, the Postums nicking Dobbs for 12 hits. The teams battled on an equal basis for most of the contest the score standing 2 all in the fourth. The Postums loaded the bases in the fifth but a fast double play Dobbs, Ti Roller to Waltz stopped further scoring after 3 runners had crossed the plate. Holland scored 1 in the seventh and 3 in the eighth. Woldring, Walt and Ashley barged out hits in the eighth and a wild throw and another hit produced 3 scores. Woldring's home run in the second was one of the longest hits of the season. The Postums played a fast game and McMillan pitched a good ball.

The Holland Independents, with Jim Poppen on the mound, came back with vengeance against the Postum Cereal team on Saturday afternoon and handed them a severe 13-6 lacing. The visitors were first to score, 2 runs being shoved across the plate in the 3rd inning. Holland knocked in 3 in the 4th, when Woldring obtained a walk. Walt singled, and Ashley crashed out 2 two-bagger. Ashley also scored on an infield error. The Cereal makers tied the count immediately when Godds lost the ball over the right field wall, but Jappinga duplicated this feat also and Holland kept a 1 run lead. Holland scored once in the 6th, when hits by G. Batema, Spriggs and Poppen turned the trick. The count was tied again in the 7th, when Gingrich, former U. of Michigan player, banged out a single. ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN NAME CONTEST

As announced in Saturday's Sentinel, the $100.00 for a name contest being conducted by Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co. to introduce their new motor fuel has been extended to June 10th. It was originally intended to close the event at midnight, May 31st but because of a similar contest being conducted by Grimes & Madigan Independent Oil dealers at Grand Rapids, it was decided by the local firm to extend their contest, making the closing date coincide with the time limit fixed by Grimes & Madigan.

In view of the fact that the latter firm is introducing in Grand Rapids the motor fuel manufactured here, it was thought that any possible confusion between the two contests would be avoided by having them end on the same date.

Many name suggestions have been received from outside of Holland and outside of the state, and the $100.00 offered by Vandenberg Bros. will go to the individual suggesting the name which is adopted by the committee of judges—and it will be selected from cards received by the local oil company. The $100.00 being offered by the Grand Rapids firm will be awarded in accordance with their contest rules. This contest seems to have demonstrated quite conclusively that the new motor fuel has real merit, and oil dealers in several Michigan cities have already accepted agencies for the product.

Mayor Kammeraad states he will announce his committee of judges early this week.

One farmer reports the loss of 25 cows out of a herd of 26 and another farm lost one cow out of a herd of 16. It is estimated that about 10 per cent of the bovine population was condemned.

HELP OLD WORLD, PLEADS DR. DIMMENT

"We who have grown out of the best the old world had to give us ought to stand to help the old world," President E. D. Dimment of Hope college told the congregation of Grand Reformed church at Grand Rapids Sunday evening in a sermon on "Religious Liberty and America," which he preached in commemoration of the centenary anniversary of the coming of the Huguenot and Walloon colonists to New York.

"In the early days we were as children, but now, after 300 years of progress and schooling we ought to be ready to help the old world," the speaker said. "The foundations of our country were laid in religious liberty, contributed by Pilgrim and Puritan Huguenot, Walloon or Dutch colonist. The men and women who came to this new and better country came not for gold or gain, but for God and conscience. That was the beginning of our nation."

President Dimment mentioned the tercentenary celebration recently held in New York and mentioned the fact that names on the honorary committee included those of the presidents of the United States and France and the rulers of Belgium and The Netherlands. He told what each of these nations contributed to America in the early days of her colonization and spoke of religious liberty as among the foremost of these contributions.

"In our country today each congregation whether it be a small country church or a metropolitan cathedral, may worship God in any type of service it chooses," he said. "But there is a time this was not so. America has religious liberty today because in The Netherlands, in France and Belgium there were those who believed that God had given to each individual the inalienable right to worship Him according to his own conscience. For this principle men like Admiral Coligny of France and William the Silent of Holland laid down their lives. Others left their old homes and came to these shores laying the foundation of religious liberty in the new world."

WOULD HAVE SYNOD MEET WHERE THE CHURCH IS STRONG

A considerable number of persons from this community having left for Asbury Park, N. J., where they will attend the annual meeting of the synod of the Reformed church that opens Thursday, an editorial in this week's issue of the "Christian Intelligencer," of interest. The "Intelligencer" thinks that all the synod sessions should not be held in New Jersey but in centers where the Reformed church is strong. If this advice should be followed, Holland, Grand Rapids and other Western Michigan cities would come in for a fair share of the meetings. A meeting of the Synod was held at Hope College several years ago but usually the sessions are held at Asbury Park. The "Intelligencer" editorial follows:

"It is unfortunate that, except upon the few occasions when it meets in Michigan, the sessions of the General Synod cannot be held in centers where the Church is strong. They would undoubtedly attract a large number of spectators from neighboring churches of the denomination. As it is the educational value of the Synod is almost entirely lost; nor does its real inspiration seep down very far into the consciousness of the whole Church. The acts of the Synod furthermore in so far as they are legislative or suggestive for the churches, lose force because of the fact that in the churches, except for the ministers and a few of the elders, there is so little knowledge of the important place in our ecclesiastical life which the General Synod holds. It is difficult to suggest a way in which there may be established a closer relationship between the Synod and the membership of the churches. However eloquent may be the reports which delegates carry back to their churches, the fact remains that a comparatively small minority of the churches are represented in any one meeting of the Synod by their ministers or elders. The narratives of Synodical meetings printed in our church papers have to be prepared from day to day, and unless one is already familiar with the matters discussed and acted upon, they are of necessity rather dry reading. Probably the best suggestion which could be offered is that pastors and consistory members endeavor to develop a real denominational interest on the part of their congregations by providing information concerning the whole subject of Church government. If this endeavor were successful the people would be really interested in Classical and Synodical meetings; and the acts of these bodies would receive a general attention which is not now accorded them."

The program for the meeting of the general synod of the Reformed church in America, which meets at Asbury Park, N. J. June 5, has about been completed. The vice-president, Rev. Henry E. Cobb, D. D. of New York City, will preach the synodical sermon on Thursday evening, June 5. The speakers Friday morning June 6th will be Frank H. Mann, Secretary of the American Bible society, Rev. Harry L. FERRYSBURG INCORPORATION IS DEFEATED

Fifteen votes in the township of Spring Lake defeated the proposal to incorporate the village of Ferrysburg. At a special election held Monday at the Spring Lake town hall a ridiculously small vote was cast, especially by the electors of Spring Lake township outside of the proposed corporation of Ferrysburg. The vote by township electors, small though it was, was sufficient to defeat the project.

Although the one polling place was used, two ballot boxes were provided. In one of these boxes all of the voters within the proposed corporate limits of Ferrysburg deposited their ballots. In the other box the ballots cast by the voters of Spring Lake township outside of the proposed village were placed.

This odd twist in the law defeated the plan of incorporating Ferrysburg as a village. The vote cast by the Ferrysburg electors stood 91 yes and 22 no. The Spring Lake township voters including the village of Spring Lake and the township of Spring Lake outside of the proposed corporate limits of Ferrysburg, voted against the proposal with 43 yes and 58 no ballots. The 15 vote majority against the project in Spring Lake township outside of Ferrysburg knocked out the hopes of Ferrysburg incorporators.

Considering the total vote cast the majority of the electors of Ferrysburg and the rest of Spring Lake township declared themselves in favor of the incorporation of Ferrysburg by a vote of 143 for to 80 against, a majority of 54 votes in favor of incorporation.

In spite of this vote, however, the issue must be declared lost under the provisions of the law governing such elections. To pass the proposal it was necessary for the issue to pass both in Ferrysburg and in Spring Lake township outside of the corporate limits of the proposed village of Ferrysburg. This did not occur and the village will have to wait for incorporation, for the present at least, it is declared.

The Ottawa county chapter of the R. C. will function to assist the veterans of the World War in securing their share of the soldiers' bonus. This announcement was made by Mrs. G. J. Van Duren Wednesday to the veterans in southern Ottawa. As soon as the necessary blanks are received at the local office Mrs. Van Duren will make the announcement through the newspapers and then the veterans can get them at the office in the city hall.

Machinery is rapidly being set up by both the War Department and the Veterans Bureau to carry out the provisions of the bonus act. The war department is preparing to print 15,000,000 applications. Approximately 2,500 stenographers and typists will be added to the government forces to handle the work of examining more than 4,000,000 applications. Special examinations to recruit this force will be held on dates soon to be announced.

Always alert in the interest of the veteran and the service man, the six Red Cross divisions are preparing and mailing to the Adjutant General's office their lists of chapters and the number of application blanks to be sent to each. In turn, the war department will mail to the chapters application blanks in proportion to the number of men in the service in each chapter jurisdiction. The first installment of the 5,000,000 blanks ultimately to be assigned to the Red Cross will begin moving out to the chapters between June 1 and 15.

Publication of news dispatches reporting the alleged existence of a large loan pool in the Middle West for the purpose of buying or loaning on adjusted compensation policies has arrested the attention of the Veterans Bureau officials. The latter point out, for the benefit of all service men, that the act specifically prohibits assignments. It states:

"No right to payment under the provisions of this title shall be assignable or serve as security for any loan. Any assignment or loan made in violation of the provisions of this section shall be held void. The director shall not make any payments under this title to any person other than the dependent or such representative of the dependent as the director shall by regulation prescribe."

The other day Frank Visscher, while walking in an orchard, picked up a card that was attached to the remnant of a toy balloon. On the card was written: "If the owner will return this card with his name and address to the Milwaukee Flower and Candy shop he will receive a box of candy." The card was returned and in a few days the sender received a pound box of "Majestic Chocolates."

PROMINENT AT- TORNEY OF MUSKE- GON DIES AT 87

Philip W. Kniskern, 87, oldest practicing attorney in this part of Michigan, and circuit court commissioner of Muskegon county, died on Tuesday afternoon at his home there after an illness of about four weeks' duration. With his death, a career of adventure, during his earlier days, and of general usefulness to his community during the latter part of his life, came to a close.

Newspaper reporter, editor, traveler, civil war soldier, lawyer and public official were among the vocations which filled his later life with pleasant memories. He was a native of New York, but before the Civil War he traveled through the south studying law and seeing something of his native country. He sensed the trouble brewing between the north and the south and he came to Illinois in 1860. In that state, at Monee, he met Miss Cornelia Goodenow, and in that year they were married.

In 1865 they came to Adrian and Mr. Kniskern started newspapers a short time later at Hastings and Nashville. These were never very prosperous, so in 1885 the family moved to Manistee, where Mr. Kniskern opened a law office. He practiced there until 1891, when Muskegon attracted him. He has been an honored member of the Muskegon county bar association for many years. He was serving his second term as circuit court commissioner at the time of his death.

HOLLAND BOYS TO TAKE PART IN STATE CAMP

The Holland Hi-Y camps will be represented at the state Y. M. C. A. older boys' camp for high school boys that is to be held this year from June 20 to 30 at the state camp Hay-O-Went-Ha on Torch Lake. As lined up now the Holland Senior Hi-Y will be represented by two men and the Junior Hi-Y by one. It is possible that others may be added to the delegation later.

The Junior Hi-Y was organized only a week or two ago and it has a membership of 26. Tuesday night the Senior Hi-Y boys came and put on a model program for the Juniors. The Senior Hi-Y is planning also to put on a fathers and sons picnic at one of the parks on June 18.

One of the honors that the Holland boys as well as boys from all over the state will strive for at the camp this month will be to win a camp emblem.

"The chief business of the boy is to grow," thinks Secretary L. N. Moody of the Ottawa County Y. M. C. A.—"to grow not merely physically but four-square. There at camp any fellow who likes games of all kinds, outdoor life, who is fond of making things, who wants to grow strong so he can help others, will find much helpful suggestion in the four-fold program of the camp. The emblem stands for having measured up to the standard successfully."

The camp emblem will be awarded to the boy who wins 300 points in each section—intellectual, physical, spiritual, and service—or 1,200 points in all. Any boy who wishes further information can write to Secretary L. N. Moody, Holland, or to the state office at Detroit.

Holland boys have attended the camps at Torch Lake from time to time in past years and they have always come back full of enthusiasm for the encampment.

JUNIOR R. C. MAKES CHRISTMAS BAGS FOR ALASKA

The Junior Red Cross, under the leadership of Mrs. N. Hofstee, is engaged in making 33 Christmas bags for the enlisted men of Uncle Sam in the distant parts of the world. The Christmas bags made in Holland will be sent to the soldiers and sailors stationed in Alaska or Alaskan waters and it is necessary to make them so long in advance in order to give sufficient time to send them to Alaska and deal them out at far-distant outposts before Christmas.

Ottawa's quota is fifty of which Holland will make 33. Half of these are assigned to the parochial schools and half to the public schools.

The members of the Junior Red Cross however have been given until September to finish them, headquarters having stipulated that the bags must be in San Francisco by September 15th in order to reach their destination in Alaska in time.

Here are the items contained in each Christmas bag: handkerchiefs, washclothes, pocket knives, memorandum book small size, diaries, mechanical pencil, key-ring and chain, playing cards and puzzles, tobacco pouches, cigaret cases, pipes, return postal cards addressed to chapter, and a bright Christmas card with Christmas greetings.

Last year the local Red Cross also sent out Christmas bags to the forces of Uncle Sam, the bags going to China and numerous replies were received from the grateful sailors who showed their appreciation by not only sending the return cards but in some cases writing letters of thanks.

Central Division of the American Red Cross, in which division Michigan is included, will send 7,500 Christmas bags, and Ottawa's quota is fifty. The cost of each bag is approximately $1.25 and the expense is borne by the Junior Red Cross.

Some of the U. S. men in Alaska are stationed far up the Yukon river and it will take a very long journey for the bags to reach the destination. The final stages of the journey will have to be made by dog team and that is the reason why the work is started so early.

RAILROAD PUBLICA- TION TO BOOST HOLLAND

Station agent E. B. Rich of the Pere Marquette had as guests Wednesday, Geo. Hunt, division freight and passenger agent, and H. C. Malsonville, editor of "Pere Marquette Service," a railroad publication. The men called on this paper and asked for a write-up and cuts of Holland and vicinity. These were furnished them and shortly the magazine will contain a full description of the city and several pictures will accompany the article. Thousands of these papers are printed and sent broadcast. Every train on the entire road carries this small newspaper of the railroad so it can be readily seen that Holland is to receive some more very favorable publicity. Mr. Malsonville stated that it is difficult to keep the trains supplied with enough papers owing to the great demand. Requests for them come from practically every important point in the United States and Canada, the editor said.

EXCITABLE POLE THREATENED TO KILL HIS WIFE

The local police department arrested Anthony Marshall of Waverly who has repeatedly threatened his young wife with death, either by stabbing her or shooting her. Marshall was arraigned before Justice Den Herder and was found guilty. The Justice placed him under a peace bond of $1,000.00 or in default of giving this bond, he was to go to the county jail for six months. The man apparently not able to furnish the bond, is now residing with Sheriff Portney until such a bond can be supplied.

Chief VanRy states that the police now have a rifle at headquarters taken from the house for safe keeping. He further states that the man is one of these quick tempered Poles who has made these threats before. The fact that the man is a Pole leads the police to believe that the name Marshall is an alias, unless originally it was Marshallinski.

PRINTS PICTURE OF ALUMNAE WORKER

The Grand Rapids Herald of Sunday contains a large picture of Mrs. G. J. Diekema and also has this to say about the Holland lady: "Mrs. Gerrit J. Diekema of Holland is chairman for the city and the surrounding towns, in the campaign for funds for the Women's League building in Ann Arbor. Mrs. Diekema and her corps of team captains have worked intensively through the month of May."

FAMILY SCRAP IS FOUGHT OUT IN ALLEGAN COURT

The civil jury case of Richard Oetman, et al., vs. James Oetman, came on for trial in circuit court in Allegan. Plaintiff and defendant are two of eight brothers. Plaintiff claimed he was barred from his father's house following a quarrel and went to live with his brother, working at a scale of wages from nothing to $35 per month. He claimed a balance due of $411. According to his idea he worked steadily from 5 o'clock A. M. until dark. Defendant claimed Richard was like a boy at home, going and coming at will, and not like a hired man. He also put the highest wage at $15 per month, except when cutting wood, when he was willing to allow $1 per day. He disputed the amount of cash paid. It appeared that settlement was set aside by the court because plaintiff was under age. The jury had a hard time agreeing, twice getting further charges from the court, but finally brought in a verdict of $315 for the plaintiff.

WORK ON GRAND RAPIDS ROAD PUSHED HARD

Work is being rapidly pushed on trunk line M-51 between Jenison and Hudsonville. Although the rainy weather prevalent in May has prevented top production, nevertheless excellent progress is being made with the new pavement and over two miles have thus far been laid. The grading and culvert building on this job is nearly completed. The pouring has been going in at the rate of about one-fourth mile a day when the weather permitted and this rate is expected to be increased with the coming of better weather. The new short cut is to be completed in July if no further weather delays occur.

PERCH MOST POPULAR PAN FISH IN STATE

Holland waters being a mecca for perch fishing the following from the pen of Albert Stroll expert fisherman will be of interest here:

"Michigan is a great perch state. Perhaps if a vote were taken among the fishermen to determine the most popular 'pan' fish the little yellow perch would lead by a good margin. Everybody likes the perch. He doesn't seem to have any enemies and his flesh is relished by every one."

"Last year there were more than 50,000,000 small perch running from one inch to five inches reclaimed by our fish culturists, principally in the neighborhood of Traverse City, and transplanted to hundreds of interior lakes and streams of the State. This reclamation work has been carried on for the last five years with the result that waters heretofore barren of this prize food fish now boast of good perch fishing. This total exceeds by far the species of any other fish planted, brook trout running second. "When word is received that the recently hatched perch begin to appear around the wharves and in the bays of the Great Lakes, crews of three to ten men are dispatched to seine these little fellows that ordinarily would become food for other fish. They are dipped out of the seine and placed in large milk cans, which are immediately hauled by motor truck to the inland water, which are to become their new homes."

BUREAU AGREES THAT MAY HAS BEEN COLD ONE

May, 1924, has been one of the three most backward and coldest Mays in the history of the Ottawa county Weather Bureau. For two years previous, Memorial Days have been very good, Memorial Day, 1922, being warm and fair and Memorial Day, 1923, being not quite so warm but a very good day nevertheless.

Only in 1907 has the temperature in May been lower on the average than this year. The average in 1907 was 47.6 and this year so far it has been 47.9 degrees. In 1917 the average for May was 48.4 degrees. The average this year has been 6 degrees below normal.

It was stated that the cold weather here is caused by many low pressure areas sweeping across the southern tier of states and drawing cold blasts down from the north. As a rule the low sweeps across the northern tier at this season and draw warm winds and atmosphere from the south. Conditions on the Pacific coast and out in the Pacific ocean have altered to some extent and are causing the present weather, according to weatherwise officials.

SAYS VILLAGE OF HAMILTON IS BOOMING

Little is heard of Hamilton, only some time ago accounts of hikers. We can say that the town is booming. Business is very good, some places reporting as many as seventy-five customers per day and even more. Team after team comes and goes with loads of feed and what! So the farmers greet each other at their own place of business. Reports are that they are planning to expand the business, on request of members that they handle all farm produce, also what farmers buy. From now on the board of directors will get together from time to time to plan for the future. —Allegan Gazette.

HUNDREDS GET FLAGS FROM OIL COMPANY

Hundreds of youngsters in Holland were made glad on Thursday when Vandenberg Bros. passed flags out to them, and the flags were very much in evidence on Decoration day. This is the third year that this company has passed out flags to the children and they want to continue to do so.

The members of the firm however appeal to the parents to co-operate with them so that children do not take advantage of those who pass out the flags. In some cases youngsters came back five or six times for more flags before they were discovered. They would put on other caps or other coats and get back into the line.

In this way some children hog the flags and others are deprived. The flags are for all the children of Holland and the company appeals to the parents to help make the distribution equitable one. Nearly 2400 flags were passed out.

TOURISTS INTERFERE WITH EXERCISES AT THE BRIDGE

The pupils of the Beechwood school celebrated Memorial Day by marching to the Grand Haven bridge to scatter flowers on the waters in the river in memory of the sailors who gave their lives for America.

The procession was led by three members of the Woman's Relief Corps, who acted as color bearers, and two in the rear.

The children, each carrying a bouquet and flag, sang a very appropriate song. As the line, "We'll deck each sailor's honored grave" was sung, the flowers were scattered on the waters.

Mr. Jacob Heeringa, an old soldier, delivered a very fitting address, saying that we should never forget what the soldiers and sailors have done for us.

The solemnity of the occasion was marred by the unpatriotic attitude of the tourists. The success of the exercises was due to the work of the Beechwood school teachers.

Health is Welcome After Asthma's Agony

HEALTH TALK NO. 15 BY JOHN DE JONGE, D. C.

HEALTH is indeed most welcome to any one after having suffered the agonizing struggle for breath which is characteristic of the spasms peculiar to this trouble. Asthma, some have considered a climatic trouble. Those who change climate in the hope of relief are nearly always disappointed

A moist lake or sea atmosphere may irritate but does not cause asthma, or the big majority of those who live in such an atmosphere would have asthma. The cause of asthma is practically every case that becomes chronic, is pressure on spinal nerves to the bronchial region of the lungs. There is a peculiar spinal stoop noted in the asthmatic sufferer. By my chiropractic health method this disturbance of spinal nerves is corrected and health naturally follows.

14 Years Experience

Graduate of the Michigan College of Chiropractic and the Palmer School of Chiropractic

Suffered for 20 Years—
Then Relief

"I suffered from asthma for twenty years. I was told the California climate would cure me, but it didn't. Then I was advised to go to the mountains, and it had no effect. I consulted one physician after another and received no benefit. I tried a sanitarium treatment that was highly recommended and it failed. I am satisfied now that none of the things that I tried had a chance to succeed because none of them reached the cause of my particular trouble until I began taking chiropractic spinal adjustments. I had good results in twenty-five adjustments, but continued until I was entirely well. During the past winter I caught a hard cold and expected a return of the trouble, but it did not appear. I am sure now that I have a permanent cure"—Mrs. Mary S. Desjardin,

WESSELINK WINS FIRST PLACE IN RAVEN CONTEST

"In founding our country our forefathers had no evil or selfish motives at heart," declared Mr. Gerrit Wesselink of Sioux Center, Ia., in an oration which won the annual Raven contest at Hope college Thursday night. Mr. Wesselink pleaded for less selfishness and "dirty politics" in the affairs of our government.

Mr. John Henry Albers, of Holland, flung a challenge to his audience when he questioned, "The criminal—are we treating him right?" Mr. Albers' oration dealt with our so-called "Black Sheep"—the criminals; he argued for better home training of the children rather than more costly prisons. This oration came in for second honors in the contest.

"We need homes that will produce men—men enamored with the true pilgrim spirit," declared Mr. Theodore Esenbagger of Muskegon in the oration that ranked third. Mr. Esenbagger reviewed American home life, pointing out its fallacies, and finally showing a remedy.

Mr. Wesselink's oration was finely polished and excellently delivered, while Mr. Albers ran him a close second with an oration just as appealing to his audience.

The A. A. Raven prize for oratory was founded in 1908 and is held annually to determine Hope's orator for the Men's Annual M. O. L. contest next winter. First prize has a stipend of $30.00 while second place is awarded $20.00.

Other contestants were: Gerrit Heemstra of Orange City, Ia., Henry Burggraaf of Decatur, Mich., Frederick Stegenga of Holland; and Neil Van Oostenburg of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The judges were: Mrs. G. J. Diekema, Miss Mabel Anthony and Mr. Henry Geerlings. Winants Chapel was well-filled with an appreciative audience.

LOCAL MAN'S BOOKS ARE RECOMMENDED

The committee appointed by the General Synod of the Christian Reformed church to investigate the matter of catechetics in the denomination recommends that the books by Prof. J. E. Kuizenga shall be adopted and made standard for the Christian Reformed denomination to the exclusion of all other covering the same period. It is also suggested that if the Synod should consider any changes desirable in these books a committee be appointed to confer with the author.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE DEVOTES PAGE TO THIS CITY

The Chicago Tribune gave the city of Holland and the Holland Furnace company some free advertising when they devoted a whole page to this city and company in advertising their own advertising pulling power. This is what the Tribune had to say about Holland and the Warm Friends Co.: "Holland, Michigan, was settled long ago by a fine substantial colony of Dutch farmers and burghers. Holland, Michigan, is a thoroughly up-to-date, progressive American city, but it has a character of its own quite distinct from that of any other American city. Its enterprises are marked by simplicity, thoroughness and tenacity, as exemplified in the following story of The Holland Furnace Company.

"This company was organized in 1906 with a capital stock of $50,000, gradually expanded to $300,000. In 1919 total sales amounted to $2,830,000, and the company was recognized as one of the largest in the business.

"Just when another company might have settled down in smug satisfaction with the magnitude of its business, Holland adopted large plans for expansion. That was the American spirit. And with determination and perseverance have those plans been carried out.

"It was decided to use one full page each month in The Chicago Sunday Tribune. This schedule has been religiously followed—in summer and in winter—in boom times and in hard times.

"What has been the result? "Holland sales in Chicago amounted to $145,300 in 1919. In 1923 they had climbed to $1,009,600—an increase of 600%.

"The success of the advertising in The Chicago Tribune soon led to campaigns in other newspapers to conquer other markets. A Holland page now appears each month in 27 cities. Holland sales outside of Chicago have grown from $3,684,700 in 1919 to $9,164,000 in 1923—an increase of 150%.

"The Holland Company has not attempted to sell the entire United States at once—but it sells far more furnaces than any other manufacturer. Holland has taken one zone or kets just beginning to produce and others as yet untapped.

"And zone advertising in newspapers has enabled Holland to control market after another—cultivated it intensively with adequate newspaper advertising, closely co-ordinated with sales work. The result is a ten million dollar business with many mar- its business to an extent that is the envy of other manufacturers. Holland furnaces are sold and installed exclusively by factory branches owned and operated by the company.

"This means that there is no temptation to waste money on advertising designed merely to 'influence the dealer.' All Holland advertising is written and placed for the sole purpose of selling Holland furnaces. And that honest purpose has a great deal to do with its success.

SOUTH ENDS DEFEAT

The South Ends defeated the Cubs by a score of 8 to 7 last night at the 19th street grounds before the biggest crowd of the season so far. The South Ends tied the Cubs in the ninth so that another inning was necessary. In this extra frame the South Ends put across the score that won for them the game. These two teams are members of the city league.

Captain Lippincott, superintendent of the Tenth district United States Coast Guard, was on a trip of inspection in Holland Wednesday.

Hope College and Mt. Pleasant play Friday at Waterworks Park. This is the last chance to see Collegians in action this season. General admission will be charged.

John Vanden Brink, Elmer Lordahl, and Roy Hill, former high school athletes, who have been attending a dentistry school at Chicago have returned to Holland to spend the summer months.

Dr. Wilson, instructor of Semetic Languages at Princeton Theological seminary addressed the student body at Hope college on Wednesday morning at chapel exercises. Dr. Wilson was brought here through the efforts of Prof. Thos. Welmers who studied at Princeton. The theme of the address given was based on the Greek word "ev" meaning one, and Dr. Wilson advised the student to have one aim in life and to make that aim a christian one.

Nearly eighteen years ago the sheriff of Ottawa county who at that time was Henry J. Dykhuys while intercepting a prisoner by the name of Harris who nearly made good his escape, was shot in the jaw by this desperate prisoner who was captured in the jail yard by Hans Dykhuys, who at that time was undersheriff. The bullet was never found, but recently while an x-ray was taken of the ex-sheriff's teeth, the ball was located. Harris who had attempted many escapes was sent up for 20 years at the time.

OIL PAPER TELLS OF NAME CONTEST IN HOLLAND

GIVE VANDENBERG BROS. OIL COMPANY A BOOST

The Daily Oil News published in Chicago containing everything of interest in oil development oil stock markets, oil and gasoline prices, etc., publishes in its issue of June 2 the following item from Holland which is self-explanatory:

"Holland, Mich.—The Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co., Inc., are conducting a contest, seeking a suitable name for a new motor fuel which they have placed on the market to compete with ethyl gas, now being marketed in the S. O. of Indiana territory by the Standard Oil Co. To their knowledge this is the only perparation that is being manufactured under a patented formula; and their method of dispensing of the fluid at the stations is by the use of bottles in sizes of one ounce to ten ounces; using one ounce of fluid to one gallon of gasoline.

The Vandenberg Oil Co. claim that in addition to eliminating carbor, motor knockes and raising the efficiency of the gasoline the mileage increased from 5 to 30 per cent.

In addition to marketing their product through their own stations, the Vandenberg Bros. Oil Co. have made connections in several Michigan cities including Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor, Sturgis, Lowell, and other points."

Warm Friends' Tavern Will Add Considerably to the Varied Attractions of Picturesque and Ever Enterprising City of Holland."

The following writup together with a beautiful cut of Warm Friends Tavern is published in the May number of the "Pere Marquette Service," a railroad publication circulating thousands of these newspapers to the traveling public. Surely another good boost for this town.

"Holland, which is one of the most enterprising of the smaller cities of Michigan, has given considerable thought to the needs of a hotel that would be representative of the city's varied activities. The illustration below epitomizes these parleys. The Warm Friends' Tavern, as it will be called, will cost approximately $500,000.00. Work has already been started and 60 men will be kept on the job until its completion. The new tavern will be distinctly a community affair, and it is believed that it augurs an extensive building boom at Holland. Local residents hold all the stock in this enterprise. An intensive campaign, under the direction of the Holland Chamber of Commerce resulted in the taking up of the stock in the enterprise."

ONE OF THE GREATEST PLAYS EVER STAGED

One of the greatest pictures ever show in this community is "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" to be given at the Strand Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The notice came in too late to make any extended announcement, but the editor wishes to say that this wonderful picture, historically and otherwise, is in the front ranks of anything attempted by film artists.

It is the most thrilling picture ever produced.

AT THE HOLLAND THEATRE

Those who enjoy a hearty laugh and a lot of romance interwoven, will do well to see "Try and Get It" at the Holland theatre this Thursday and Friday.

It isn't a heavy drama; there are no moments of intense human passion, surging relentlessly like the waves against a rocky shore—but there are a hundred laughs, there is satisfaction and real entertainment. Bryant Washburn, the star, is sent to collect a bill that is a standing joke. The one against whom it is charged thinks he has paid it and naturally refuses to consider doing so again.

The collector has the time of his young and innocent life trying to get the money. He eventually does so, wins the daughter of the man and gets a job as general manager.

Billie Dove is the girl. Others in the superlative cast are Edward Horton, Lionel Belmore, Joseph Kilgour, Carl Stockle, Mne. Rose Dione, Hazel Deanne and a bevy of fashion show beauties.

There are gowns and furs worth at least a hundred thousand dollars in the picture—gowns supplied by the leading exclusive shop of Los Angeles where the picture was made under the direction of Cullen B. Tate.

The picture is based on the Saturday Evening Post story, "The Ring-tailed Galliwampus," by Eugene P. Lyle, Jr., and is first-rate entertainment.

Maternal Musings

Slumber, my dear little baby, sleep; But in your future I long to peep; Possibly when you shall be full-grown You will grasp tools and transform a stone

Into a statue as yet unknown; But though the future is dark and deep

Now I know clearly I love you dearly; Slumber, my darling, sweetly sleep; Slumber, my dear little baby, sleep; Still I would lift up the veil and peep; Haply in future you can impart Songs that encourage the Christian heart;

Joy shall be mine if you love such art; And may, some guardian-angel keep Watch o'er my treasurer through pain and pleasure:

Slumber, my darling, sweetly sleep. Peter Van Wynen, Bethesda Sanatorium, Denver, Colorado.
