Colvin Brown Shows How Town Can Be Built

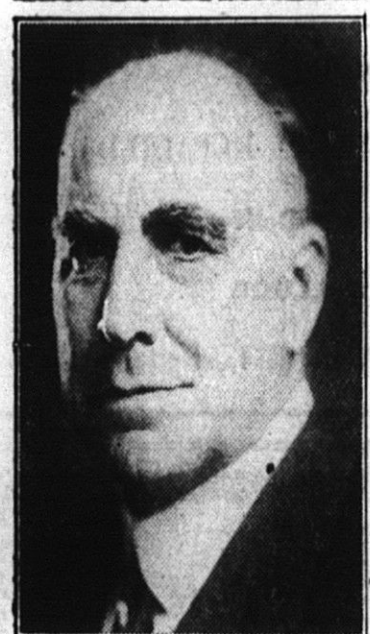

SAYS NATION IS NOT POOR BUT PEOPLE ARE SCARED TO DEATH

President Borer of the Holland Chamber of Commerce Presides At Important Meeting

A real note of optimism was sensed in the short speech made by Colvin B. Brown, manager of the commercial department of the Chamber of Commerce of United States, who was the guest speaker at a joint meeting of the Holland Exchange Club and the local Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Dick Borer, president of the Holland Chamber, was called upon by President Hinkamp of the Exchange club to introduce the speaker of the day. Mr. Borer stated that he recently attended the national convention of Chambers of Commerce as a delegate from Holland to Atlantic City and as long as he can remember he never met better men, bigger men, men of higher character and men, who although great, were democratic to the core, and one of these great men was Calvin Brown, the speaker of the day.

Mr. Brown modestly accepted the compliment when he arose to speak. However, he immediately launched into his talk stating that this was not the first time he had been in Holland, that eight years before it was his pleasure to speak here and see the city and wondered at its beauty. But after a lapse of eight years, he again was privileged to see the Holland and marveled at the transformation even in that short period of time.

Mr. Brown is an authority on co-operation in industrial and commercial activities. His subject was "The Business Man and His City." He declared that his wide experience had proven to him that organized effort in any community was much more effective than individual effort. He said that there were 4,000 chambers of commerce organizations in the United States; that of this number 982 were in cities of 10,000 population or over, leaving over 3,000 in cities and towns of less than 10,000.

He said that chamber of commerce organizations looked upon their towns as their plant and the entire community was served. Any thing to better the town was the program of the organization, that they did not serve any particular clique or group. The purpose, he declared, was to get the ideas of many citizens in the community and then reach an agreement as to the ones upon which the organization should center its work.

He said that the duty of a chamber of commerce was not only to take care of the present problems but to visualize the future of the city in which it functions; that every organization of this kind should have an attainable goal in order to accomplish the most.

"New and complex problems of a very practical sort are arising on the horizon of the communities and demanding the collective attention of business men," the speaker said. "Cities are entering the competitive industrial field. They are undergoing amazing structural change to meet changing transportation conditions and these in turn call for no less striking changes in administrative practice. These profoundly affect all classes of business in a community."

"Business, moreover, has become aware of the necessity of meeting these problems by collective effort. The chamber of commerce is the more advance communities is becoming as much a recognized institution as the post office and the railway station. It plays an essential and very definite part in the upbuilding of the community and its economic expansion."

"Chambers of commerce organizations have learned," the speaker said, "that whatever they try to do that will not benefit the public as a whole is not good for the business interest of the community. Nothing can stop the driving power of a community that gets together and works together."

Any city that has a margin between what that city is and what it might become, needs a chamber of commerce, Mr. Brown said, and in his experience he had never seen a city in which this margin did not exist.

He declared that the most valuable assets that any community had were the people and the business that it already had; that the first duty was to help its own people and its own industry.

The speaker declared for an interest in the other fellow. He gave many interesting incidents of advancement that came from such an interest.

Mr. Brown said that he believed there was enough intelligence and scientific knowledge to solve the serious economic problems that faced us and that eventually busi-

FIRST RAIN ON DECORATION DAY IN FORTY YEARS

With the steady downpour of rain on Memorial Day, the same stereotype expression "It always rains on Decoration Day" was heard repeatedly Saturday.

Whether the solemnity of the occasion has anything to do with this foolish question is difficult to state. But no one knows better than your editor that Decoration day rains are few and far between, in fact until Memorial day, 1931, there has not been a rainy Decoration day in 40 years with the exception of 14 years ago when a sudden shower blew up as the parade swung into Columbia avenue on the way to Pilgrim Home Cemetery. Marchers scurried to nearby porches, many were drenched, but the shower lasted only about 15 minutes.

The marchers of Saturday in many instances were well drenched since the rain was almost continuous from the time the exercises began in Centennial Park.

Some years ago there was an all day drizzling Decoration Day rain and the exercises were held in Lyceum Opera House, then located where the recent Knitting Mills store stood. A committee was appointed during the exercises and this committee was delegated to place the flowers on the graves of the soldiers after the rain, which was a day later.

Since the editor has been in every parade for more than 42 years without a miss, he should know something about weather conditions on this particular day.

"OLD DEAD FISH" CRY IS AGAIN HEARD

About ever so often, especially in the spring, dead fish appear upon the shores of Black Lake like they do in every other lake in Michigan and then the whole countryside expresses an opinion as to the cause.

The last occurrence was about nine years ago, when there were quite a number of dead fish found on the shores. This year there has been a recurrence and dead fish are quite numerous, especially speckled bass.

Conservation Officer Maurice Kuite, when he noticed the number of dead fish immediately got in touch with the conservation department and the cause was soon apparent. The winter has been very mild and even as early as March the temperature jumped up fast and the water has been unusually warm. Mr. Kuite also sent some of the fungus growth from the lake bottom and water to Ann Arbor for analysis and there is nothing to be alarmed at. Mr. Kuite has all this information at hand, he having made a study of such conditions with the late Mr. Tazelaar, a fish expert from The Netherlands employed by the state. However, he again checked up to be sure.

Dead fish are found mostly in Pine Creek bay possibly for the reason that there is very little current there which brings a higher temperature to the water.

There is no truth in the statement that there are tons of these fish on the shores. A few fish scattered on the beaches make quite a showing but even these dead are put to good use by those living in the vicinity for they are being gathered up and used for fertilizer in garden patches.

TWO FAWNS ADDED TO ALLEGAN'S HERD

Two fawns were born recently in the deer yards maintained at Daily bayou by the Allegan Rod and Gun club. The mother was received about a month ago from the reformatory park at Ionia. The fawns bring the club's herd to nine.

ness will be brought on a plane where it will go along on an even keel.

He said that over 400 firms have already adopted the plan of producing one-twelfth of their product every month and that this was sure to stabilize business. Of course, he said, all lines of business did not lend themselves to this program.

He said no man in the world was competent to say when the present depression was going to be over, but he called attention to the fact that this country had technical possibilities for rapid recovery when this time came.

"At present commodities have dropped to so low a point that many of them are below the cost of production," he continued. "As soon as the start starts, millions of dollars are waiting to be invested. Inventories are now greatly reduced and $28,500,000,000 are in the savings accounts of America ready to be invested when fear in this country and over the world is overcome."

In closing, Mr. Brown stated that he preferred to talk of the optimistic side rather than the dark side of the present situation and enumerated the bright and encouraging phases of 1930. He said:

1. 45,800,000 freight cars were loaded during last year.
 2. One automobile for every ten families were sold costing, in total, $2,159,600,000.
 3. 1930 auto registrations were the highest in history.
 4. Four and one-half billion yards of textiles were manufactured.
 5. 35,000,000 pairs of shoes, an average of two and one-half for each person, were made.
 6. Work was given to 40,000,000 people.
 7. $1,000,000,000 were added to the savings accounts of the country.
 8. $22,000,000,000 of new life insurance was written.
 9. The year ended with 53,000,000 separate deposit accounts in the banks of this country.
 10. Eugene Heister of Holland High school again provided the club with excellent music, on this occasion the numbers coming from the Junior High Boys' Glee Club. Every number was given hearty applause. These were "Down Mobile," "Steal Away," (Negro Spiritual) and "Sweet Urchin Medley."
- President Hinkamp thanked the young lads for the excellent music and the members of the two clubs for giving one another a "Dutch Treat."

Fireworks and Sports Program For July 4th

HOLLAND TO CELEBRATE INDEPENDENCE DAY

It has been "many a moon" since Holland has had a real 4th of July and the Willard G. Leenhouts Post American Legion has felt for some time that this great Independence Day should not be forgotten and at a preliminary meeting it was decided to celebrate in a whole-some modest way with a real while speech in Centennial Park, and with a complete program of sports on Eighth street, in which boys and girls are to participate. All the sports commonly seen at such functions and many new stunts are being arranged for by Ernest Hartman and his committee and Ernest surely knows how to put these over.

In the evening there is going to be fireworks on Black Lake front with audience sitting on the hillside on the tannery site at Pine avenue and Eighth street. This spot has not been fully decided upon as a great many of the plans are still in the making.

Dr. William Tappan and Dr. A. Leenhouts are arranging for the speaker and Mr. Oscar Hoek will provide the loud speakers. There will be plenty of band music throughout Friday evening as well as all day Saturday and on the evening of that day.

Mr. Dauchy of Warm Friend Tavern is making arrangements for prizes to be awarded to the winners in the sports.

George Manting, Post Commander, is general chairman, and former commander Jack Knoll is taking care of the publicity.

Yes, Holland is to have an old-fashioned 4th with the exception of the fire crackers which is against the state law.

Former Holland Business Man Dies Suddenly

WAS IDENTIFIED WITH LOCAL DRUG FIRM AND FOR MANY YEARS LIVED AT VIRGINIA PARK

J. Leo Kymmer age 75 a former resident of Holland now of Grand Rapids, died Saturday afternoon at the family residence, 210 Charles av., S. E. Heart disease was the cause of Mr. Kymmer's death.

Mr. Kymmer was born at Beemer, Holland he having been identified with the Martin Drug store some years ago where the Model Drug store is now. He was wed to Mrs. Emilie Stevenson sister of Roy Stevenson local optometrist. Miss Stevenson before her marriage to Mr. Kymmer was the second telephone operator in Holland this was when the Michigan Bell company was the only system here and there were but 40 phones in the entire city and only one operator was necessary. The late Mrs. J. B. Mulder was the first operator in Holland. The exchange occupied but one small room in the Kanters building on East Eighth street.

For many years Mr. and Mrs. Kymmer have been spending the summer and fall at their summer home at Virginia Park and divided the rest of the seasons between Grand Rapids and Florida.

Mr. Kymmer was born at beemer, N. J., and came to Grand Rapids in 1871. He was a clerk in the Currier & Putnam bookstore in that city when he was 16 years of age and in 1890 went with Eaton, Lyon & Co., book dealers on Monroe Ave., later becoming a member of the firm.

He retired from active service in the stationery field in 1902 when he sold his interest in that concern but retained part ownership of the Beecher, Kymmer & Patterson Co. and the Finch Card Co., both of Kalamazoo.

He was an active member of the congregation of St. Mark's cathedral at Grand Rapids. Besides his widow, Emilie S. Kymmer and daughter, Miss Ethel May Kymmer, who returned with him two weeks ago from Florida where they spent the winter, he leaves a brother, George O. Kymmer of Branchville, N. J.; two sisters, Mrs. W. I. McKay of Sussex, N. J., and Mrs. Mina Hyatt of Branchville, N. J., and an aunt, Mrs. F. A. Cole of Grand Rapids.

Jackson, rector of St. Mark's and by Bishop John N. McCormick. Those from Holland attending the funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevenson and daughter, Miss Mary Louise Stevenson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leo Stevenson of Danville, Ill.; also Mrs. Ed. Vaupell, of Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huizenga and son of Zeeland called on the parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Huizenga at Holland Saturday. On that day Mr. and Mrs. Huizenga were enjoying their 44th wedding anniversary.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Once more the question comes up whether we will allow cattle to run at large on the streets of Holland and in the "public square" and force us taxpayers to continue to build costly and sometimes unsightly fences to keep the cows out. It appears that some relief is in sight for an ordinance was introduced by Alderman Landaal prohibiting cattle to roam about the city streets. We glory in his grit and we heartily approve. The old cry "that the poor people only keep cows" is exploded. That has been looked into and has been found to be not the truth. The people who keep cows can afford to take care of them. They have no more business to run at large than a mad dog. The people of Fillmore voted to shut up their cattle, why should Holland not do likewise? We are weary of the times in this matter; and we shall hail the day when we can tear down our front picket fences with safety. We hope the ordinance will pass and be rigidly enforced.

The first excursion of the season was given by Miss Ida Brower on Monday last, on the tug boat Twilights. Quite a number of young folks were invited and participated and united in telling the young lady that they had a splendid time. Note: Miss Brower was the daughter of Capt. Frank Brower, the pioneer excursion steamboat man of Holland. The last boat Mr. Brower owned was the Barker. A steamboat war between the steamers Macatawa, Queen of the Lakes and the Barker, made Mr. Brower pull out and he left for Ashland on Lake Superior, where the family lived for many years.

Several laboring people were offered good jobs by Mr. Rokus Kanters to go to Galveston, Texas where the Holland man is doing a larger harbor job for Uncle Sam. In spite of good wages, all labor refused to go because it was too far away. If they apply to the poor master next winter, they ought to be refused. Note: Mr. Kanters used the method of harbor building the way it was done in the Netherlands with brush and stone. The United States government engineers favored that kind of construction at the time and Mr. Kanters not only rebuilt Holland harbor in that way, but did construction at Lincoln Park Chicago and also at Galveston, Texas. The Holland man made a great deal of money through harbor work. He later became editor and publisher of De Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Brouwer and daughter, Miss Jennie, spent a few days in Detroit attending the graduation recital of Herman Brouwer, a graduate from the Detroit Conservatory of Music.

The marriage of Rev. Marinus De Herder and Mrs. Elizabeth Roseboom occurred, also the marriage of Miss Grace Prins to Albert Waalkes. Both Mr. De Herder and Mr. Waalkes were graduates from the local seminary.

Miss Anna Kolyn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Kolyn, was awarded a scholarship by the University of Chicago. Miss Kolyn took second place in the state oratorical contest this year. She has also written the lyric and verse of the "Book of Words" of the Hope College yearbook which was the most outstanding college attraction of a decade. This signal honor to Miss Kolyn again speaks well for Hope's English department and Dr. Nyker's fine work at the institution.

DR. AND MRS. ARNOLD MULDER TO TOUR EUROPE

It is stated that Prof. and Mrs. Arnold Mulder, formerly of Holland, now of Kalamazoo, are to tour Europe during the summer vacation. Mr. Mulder it is said will take his car with him on the ocean liner and will do the continent on wheels. Mr. Mulder is now on the faculty of Kalamazoo College. He was the former editor of the Holland Evening Sentinel. Mr. and Mrs. Mulder, during the past many years have out-toured the United States and Canada and are now looking for other countries to travel in.

Arrest is Made For Violating State Road Laws

MAN DRIVES ACROSS HIGHWAY AND IS TAKEN IN BY ZEELAND OFFICER

Arie Ponstein was placed under arrest by Chief of Police E. Ryenga of Zeeland Tuesday morning on a charge of driving onto a state highway without stopping. The incident in question occurred Monday evening, resulting in a collision that caused the injury of four persons, besides badly damaging a car.

Ponstein, who was driving north on the Beaverdam road, attempted to cross M-21 at the Beaverdam Crossing ahead of a car driven by Jack Tietsema of Grandville, east-bound.

In the car with Mr. Tietsema were three of his children, and all were badly bruised and cut in the smash that followed. Mr. Tietsema was injured more severely than the children and all were brought to Zeeland Memorial hospital where their injuries were dressed.

Road rules beyond the limits of cities plainly stipulate that one must first stop before driving onto a state highway to make sure that the road is clear. In many places there are no signs but the stipulation in the law is there nevertheless.

MISSION WORKER TO SPEAK AT TRINITY CHURCH

John Van de Water of Grand Rapids, well known Home Missionary worker, will be in Holland on Monday night, June 8, and will speak at Trinity Reformed church, beginning at 7:45 o'clock. Mr. Van de Water has had a tremendous experience working in the slums of Chicago, but his health failed because of this strenuous work and he has been in Grand Rapids since the domestic mission field. His message will be interesting and the public is urgently requested to attend.

Increases in wages ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 a month, was granted by the Pere Marquette to employees at the Holland Freight house. Note: Don't be elated, that was in 1906.

Attention is called to the notice that Marshall Kamferbeck gives regarding the practice indulged in by children and some grown-ups to throw stones at and lay obstacles in the way of automobiles. Note: How those who didn't have a car hated them, and this was especially true of the farmers who were still driving horses.

Cashier C. Ver Schure, of the Holland City State Bank, sent a draft for $2,014.24, the amount contributed by the Holland people for the San Francisco earthquake sufferers. In addition to this amount, $64.50 was sent in from the Graafschap Christian Reformed Church.

Keppel Bible Memory Contest Brings Rewards

Holland School Pupils Are Becoming Bible Readers Because of Holland Man's Annual Gift

The annual Bible Memory Contest at the Holland Public Schools was held recently, and the grading of the papers has just been completed. This is a test on the Bible study that has been done during the year in the fifth and sixth grades and the junior high school. All of the fifth and sixth grade pupils participated in the contest, and 122 junior high school pupils took the examination.

The following pupils had perfect papers:

Gerald Bax, sixth grade Van Raalte School; Louis Kruthoff and La Verne Wiersma, sixth grade Lincoln School; Mildred L. Bos and Warren Hyser, sixth grade Washington School.

These pupils will be awarded Testaments as prizes. Marian Tyssse, sixth grade Froebel School won a Testament last year and also had a perfect paper this year. The following pupils receive honorable mention for having passed very high in the test:

Geneva Helen Strong and Lucille Meyer, sixth grade Van Raalte School;

George Wolfert, Bernard Rowan and Lillian Dirks, sixth grade Lincoln School;

Donald Lievense, James Van Dyke, Ellen Rhea and Gordon Bekel, sixth grade Washington School;

The following junior high school students made the highest record: Oliver Lampen, eighth grade; Peter Veltman, ninth grade; June Pomp, ninth grade.

These pupils will be awarded Bibles as prizes. The following receive honorable mention for passing excellent examinations:

Esther Badd and Florence Schipper, ninth grade;

Evelyn Van Pernis and Cornelius Greenowood, eighth grade.

This Bible Contest is based on the daily Bible readings that are outlined for the entire school year. The prizes are made possible through a donation made each year by Mr. Bastian D. Keppel, East 12th St., this city. The gift surely has stimulated Bible study among the young people of Holland, and was a commendable and thoughtful provision on the part of Mr. Keppel.

ZEELAND MAN IS ARRESTED AGAIN

Nicholas J. Danhoff was arrested Wednesday evening by Chief of Police Edward Ryenga on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. Danhoff was released on a similar charge May 28 when a circuit court jury disagreed. He is to appear in the next term of court for the charge of possessing liquor.

When arraigned before Justice Henry Huxtable late Wednesday night Danhoff pleaded not guilty. He was released on $50 bond and trial was set for June 20. It is said the officers had a "check" of a time arresting Danhoff last night and the man had to be taken out bodily.

ZEELAND STYLE SHOP AGAIN CHANGES HANDS

Last Monday the ownership of The Style Shop passed to a partnership of Zeeland people when the Misses Cornelia Telgenhof and Elizabeth Heyboer purchased it from Sam Knorr.

The young ladies took possession Tuesday and as soon as store rearrangements can be completed they will add to the stock of ladies' and men's wear.

Mr. Knorr plans to return to Grand Rapids at some later date and re-enter the wholesale field.

SAUGATUCK MAN LIVES FOR MONTHS WITH BROKEN BACK

Funeral services for the late Dewey C. Lyndon were held at Grand Haven Monday afternoon from the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Miller, by Rev. Henry Beltman of the Second Reformed Church officiating and burial was in Douglas cemetery at Douglas, Mich.

Mr. Lyndon died at the home of the grandparents, Friday at 11:00 p.m. following injuries received in an automobile accident, Dec. 28, 1930, just outside of the city of Grand Haven. His back was fractured, but for a time it seemed that recovery might be possible. He was removed from Hutton hospital to Grand Rapids, where he spent many weeks and later was again removed to the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, where he has lingered for weeks. His suffering was intense, but the fortitude and bravery with which the young man met his affliction endeared him to many during the period of this confinement.

He was born Aug. 23, 1907 at Saugatuck, Mich., and came to Grand Haven 13 years ago.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS ENTERTAIN MOTHERS WITH A TEA

The girls of the Holland Campfire organizations entertained their mothers with a tea at the Woman's Literary Club, Wednesday afternoon. There were eighty girls present and sixty-seven mothers.

The program was opened with the reading of the paper entitled "Arms of Campfire," explaining the object of the international birth-day activity. Dances of foreign countries by girls in costumes and songs of foreign lands were featured. The dances were taught by Mrs. Peter Van Dornen and the costumes were designed by Miss Betty Kraai. Spain, England, America and The Netherlands were represented in the songs and dances. Tea was poured by Miss Carol Van Hartesveldt and her committee from a table decorated and lighted with candles.

HOLLAND-ZEELAND ROAD READY BEFORE THE 4TH

The new routing of M21 through Zeeland is open to travel. The highway is a block north of the business district. The road bed is finished, but the shoulders of the road and leveling will not be completed for a few weeks.

Contractor H. Flagmeiers is pushing the stretch between Zeeland and Holland and it is expected the new route will be opened all the way from the east limits of Zeeland to the east limits of Holland before the 4th of July.

Zeeland will benefit by the Dykstra bill recently signed by Gov. Wilber M. Brucker, since the state pays for at least part of the highway passing through that city.

DOG OWNER SUMMONED TO COURT

James Cheesman, Grand Haven, has been summoned to appear in Justice C. E. Burr's court to show cause why his dog, a large police dog, should not be killed. George Beach, living across the street, caused the summons to be issued, alleging that the Cheesman dog bit his small son, Harold. Cheesman has until Thursday to appear in behalf of his dog.

"TULIP TIME" KEPT SPOOKER FROM APPEARING AT FENNVILLE

The committee and nearly three hundred persons who drove to the Loomis school grounds near Fennville a few Sundays ago to attend the Apple Blossom festival, were disappointed when the speaker, Rev. Henry Hallwood, of Grand Rapids, failed to reach the grounds until after many had become tired of waiting and had left for their homes. Mr. Hallwood explained that his delay was due to stopping in Holland to see the tulips on his way to Fennville, and that the tremendous crowd made driving by automobile exceedingly slow work near and through Holland and besides the "dominie" no doubt also took a peep at tulip beds.

STRANGE BURNING ACCIDENT AT ZEELAND

John Meengs, Sr., Zeeland, met with a very peculiar incident on Tuesday that was unusual to say the least. The aged gentleman was on his way from his home just east of Zeeland, to visit his daughter, Mrs. H. Wabeke, near Vriesland, driving his horse and buggy. Suddenly he discovered that the lap robe or duster was ablaze, probably caused by a spark from his cigar. The fire spread rapidly in the dry cotton material, and before Mr. Meengs could extinguish the flames he was considerably burned about the lower legs as the fire spread to his clothing.

He succeeded, however, in putting out the fire and the physician says he will recover from his burns.

Michigan's summer camping season for men and women, boys and girls is not far distant. Camp managers are making plans for the summer and many camps are being enlarged because each year more want to share in the pleasures and benefits they afford. Boy Scout camps are increasing in number and size over the state.

Countless other organizations have these camps, because they know the advantage for the boys and girls in getting outdoors for a stay. When well organized and supervised, these camps provide important education for boys and girls in addition to the pleasure derived therefrom.

Young folk learn lessons of importance for the future in their civic duties and business life. They are taught by the experiences at the camps something of the relation they sustain to one another and a community spirit is developed, most important.

If the boy or girl has been busy in school the camp offers fine service in helping keep him or her fit for work of the next year. It helps in physical growth, under right direction, and that is found in most camps. Michigan has much to offer in the way of summer camps, particularly around Holland along the sand dunes of Lake Michigan.

Five millions have bought tickets, and whether they win or lose they are a little nearer to the certainty that they will never make any permanent success. Gambling prevents that. And the chances are more than 1,000 to one against winning any prize.

The queen of England recently celebrated her sixty-fourth birthday, and the British people, well it may be said, Queen Mary attends to her business and sets a good example, from her old-fashioned hats to her old-fashioned shoes, from her kindliness to the long skirts that come down to the ankles.

Others may be foolish; she never will be, and she will make no concessions to foolishness.

An English lady who had devoted her life to horse racing, relatives to cremate her body and scatter the ashes on the racetrack. She liked to think of the "thundering hoofs" coming down the track to victory over her dust. She might, no longer see or hear them, but perhaps she could feel them.

Ward Randall, twelve years old, of Whitehall, Ill., wins the American spelling championship. The word "tougher" was too much for the boy next to him.

Blanche Kell of Detroit almost won the girl's championship, but "impugn" was too hard for her. Mary Schellinger, age fourteen, won.

Correct spelling, easy for some, impossible for others, is an inborn talent, as is music. One of the best spellers in the world was Leo Ashley Grace, formerly of Plainfield, N. J. He could spell "phibistic" when barely three years of age, and never made a mistake.

Up in the Air-Ocean
Rome Sends Bad News
A Great U. S. Flyer
Cash for Three Things

Men deal with two oceans, one above the other, and water and air. In one we die if submerged too long, in the other fishes die. For centuries men have been familiar with the ocean of water, inventing legends about it, diving into it for pearls, sailing over it for commerce and recently men have explored it in diving bells.

Now Professor Piccard, courageous scientist, takes his "diving bell" in the other direction, upward. In an air-tight round ball, supplied with oxygen for artificial breathing, attached to a balloon, Professor Piccard went up to investigate the stratosphere, near the top of our air-ocean.

He broke the record for height by 12,000 feet, going up 52,000 feet, and risking his life. If the balloon had not come down, he and his assistant, Charles Kipfer, must have suffocated. They had a narrow escape as it was.

For the first two miles the scientific "climbing bell" went up through the layer of clouds, storms and changing temperatures that lies close to the earth, at the "bottom" of our air-ocean.

Higher up the temperature fell to 135 degrees below zero, still "warm" as compared to absolute zero outside of our atmosphere, more than 400 degrees below zero. In the upper air a wind blows steadily from the east, caused by the "thermo" movement. No storms or clouds up there.

And far up the sun and stars shine in a sky jet black, due to the fact that there is no dust in that high atmosphere. Without dust, so plentiful on the "bottom" of the air, the sky would be always black, there would be no rainfall, and we probably would not be here.

Professor Piccard will have interesting things to tell his fellow scientists, who look upon his escape from death as a miracle.

No monument will be built to him, of course, because he only went up in the interest of science. If he had gone up to kill somebody or destroy a whole city he would have a large monument.

News from Rome continues bad. The fact that for three months the pope has refused to receive an ambassador from the Fascist government, while Mussolini has refused to receive the ambassador sent by the pope, indicates strained relations between the government of Italy and the Vatican City.

Outbreaks against the pope and the Catholic religion continue. A picture of Pope Pius was publicly trampled in by Fascist students. The pope is publicly called a traitor by the mob and Catholic books are burned.

Captain Hawk, champion American flyer, had his breakfast in London, luncheon in Berlin, and dinner in Paris.

The crowd welcoming him at Le Bourget, the Paris flying field, called him "America's meteor." He flew from London to Berlin in 8 hours and 15 minutes, spent an hour and twenty-seven minutes in Berlin, plenty of time for luncheon, and flew from Berlin to Paris for his dinner in 3 hours and 5 minutes.

Good times or bad, men will find money for three things—Racing, gambling, smoking. And the worst of the three is gambling.

The Irish sweepstakes, to help to build Irish hospitals, total amount $150,000. Hospitals will get more than $300,000, gambling about $80,000; expenses will eat the rest. There will be many prizes of $150,000, also $75,000 and $50,000, and smaller prizes, totaling 4,000 prizes in all.

Five millions have bought tickets, and whether they win or lose they are a little nearer to the certainty that they will never make any permanent success. Gambling prevents that. And the chances are more than 1,000 to one against winning any prize.

HOLLAND SEA SCOUT IN RESCUE OF THREE MEN

James Jack and Mark McCarthy decided that the wind was just right for a pleasant afternoon of sailing last week. Soon the boat could be seen bobbing about and being moved along at a good gait.

During the maneuvering of the boat one of the blocks became jammed and the boat was capsized. The three men hung on to the boat and began calling for help. This continued for a half hour. Their cries were finally heard by First Mate Hendrick Nobel, leader of one of the Holland Sea Scout ships, who had been engaged in working aboard one of the boats in preparation for a week-end cruise.

Mate Nobel, hearing the cries for help and seeing the difficulty, hurriedly found a rowboat and pulled the men to safety. He and the other two men reached the afternoon's sailing might have ended disastrously.

CEMENT UNLOADING GIVES JOBS TO 100 MEN AT GRAND HAVEN

Nearly 100 men have been employed in unloading the Oscar J. Lingeman, freighter, which came into Grand Haven with 11,000 barrels of cement, consigned to the storage house of Nathaniel Robinson, from where it is being trucked by the Vyn Co. to the several state road jobs in this section of Michigan.

The work has been very heavy and many of the men employed for eight hour shifts have not been able to stand the strain. They are covered with the dust from head to heels. The work in the hold of the ship was particularly hard. Shifts of between 60 and 70 men worked for three days until the ship was unloaded and returned to Bay City.

While working as one of the crew to rush the cargo from the big Portland Cement company steamer Richard H. O'Brien suffered a crushed left hand, which he is still using. The hand was caught in one of the conveyors which hauled the sacks out of the vessel's hold.

Mr. Robbins could not say when another shipment would be received but is in hopes there will be frequent trips, which all helps on the tonnage for Grand Haven harbor. The ship Lingeman is an imposing one, built on the lines of an ocean-going freighter.

DECIDES NO CAUSE FOR ACTION IN PLANE CASE AGAINST HOLLAND MAN

No cause for action was the verdict rendered by a jury in circuit court today in the case of Adrian Koolman vs. Cornelis Steketee, sheriff of Ottawa county, and George Barnard, deputy. Action was taken by Koolman for alleged neglect of an airplane in which he held an interest, and which had been attached by the officers for the payment of a $22.23 repair bill for the Lake Shore Airway Corp. of Muskegon.

The plane was purchased from Koolman by George Snyder upon which Koolman held a chattel mortgage of $1,100. Alleged neglect of the plane, which lay on the former airport for several weeks, was the reason for Koolman's claim of $205 against Sheriff Steketee. It was shown in the testimony, but the plaintiff couldn't make the claim stick in court against the Holland man.

HOLLAND MAN IS SENTENCED TO JAIL

Oliver Guilford, 27 years old, of Holland, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and must pay $10 or serve 30 additional days, according to a sentence by Judge Fred T. Miles in circuit court. Guilford was convicted of larceny from a shop in Holland where he had been employed as night watchman.

Vander Linde of Ferrysburg, against Fred Bolthouse for damages in the death of a Pekinese dog which was killed by a police dog owned by Bolthouse. ONE HUNDRED MEN AND WOMEN
HEAR ESTHER LOTT

More than one hundred men and women visited the various demonstration gardens in Ottawa county during the past week according to Esther C. Lott, home demonstration agent who is sponsoring a garden campaign.

These gardens are planned to supply a family of six with vegetables for two months of the year allowing for canning and storage, also to teach the approved methods of planting and arranging gardens and the control of insects. The most prevalent pest in the garden during this time of year is the cut worm. Mr. Geo. E. Woodbury, garden specialist of Michigan State College who is assisting in the campaign, gave helpful suggestions for the control of cut worms during his visits at the various gardens as follows:

Mix thoroughly one bushel of bran, 1 quart of cheap molasses, a little water, 1 pound of white arsenic, 2 ounces of banana oil (to scent the mass slightly.) Scatter this mixture along rows at night. Repeat as often as necessary until the cutworms are under control. Applying at night prevents song birds and chickens from eating the poison.

For further information on control of insects may be obtained by writing the home demonstration agent at Grand Haven.

ZEELAND

Since the second of September, 1926 books and 551 magazines have been circulated from the Zeeland Public School library, exclusive of the books used in the library by the public and school pupils, which shows a remarkable, steady increase of public use of these free facilities. During this period there were also added 316 books from various sources.

Miss Ellen Bridges is devoting a week to making summer a pleasant prospect for the members of the women's organizations of Zeeland. Last Friday she had as her guests at the "cooking with cold" demonstration, the ladies of North Street Church. Tuesday afternoon the ladies of the Third Christian Reformed Church sampled the Frigidaire foods. On Wednesday the Ladies' Aid of the Second Reformed Church attended and today the American Legion Auxiliary will have a turn. Tomorrow the ladies' societies of the First and Third Reformed Churches will be given an opportunity to see how simply and economically lagging hot weather appetites can be stimulated.

Mrs. Julius Van Eenennaam and children of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting here at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Van Eenennaam on East Central Avenue. Julius Van Eenennaam also spent Memorial Day at Zeeland.

Nelson Vande Luyster of Ann Arbor spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vande Luyster, on the North Fairview road.

THOUSAND DISASTERS RECEIVED RED CROSS AID IN 50 YEARS

American Society to Celebrate Its Birth Year With Nationwide Observance

Tornadoes, floods, forest fires and other calamities and upheavals of nature have visited the United States more than one thousand times in the last half century.

All of these were of severe intensity, causing loss of life and great property damage. Minor catastrophes were not counted in this list of disasters, which has been made public by the American Red Cross, in connection with the celebration this year of its fiftieth birthday.

It was on the evening of May 21, 1861, in the modest home of Miss Clara Barton in Washington, D. C., that the American Association of the Red Cross was first formed. Before the year was out, and before, indeed, the United States Government had officially moved to approve the Treaty of Geneva, adding this nation to the company of thirty-two others adhering to the treaty to protect the wounded in warfare, Miss Barton had plunged the small society into a disaster relief task.

First Red Cross Unit

This was in the north woods of Michigan, where forest fires swept the homesteads of pioneering families. Miss Barton, as president of the Red Cross, had organized a branch in Danville, New York, where she was sojourning. This little group immediately raised money, food, clothing and other supplies and sent them to the forest fire victims. In Rochester and Syracuse, New York, nearby, word spread of this charitable enterprise, and Red Cross auxiliaries were organized there to help. So began the disaster relief work of the Red Cross fifty years ago. In the intervening years, millions of men, women and children have been aided. Thousands of homes have been restored. Thousands of persons, overwhelmed by floods, tornadoes, and fires until all they possessed had been wiped away, have been rehabilitated and prosperity and happiness smiled upon them once more.

This year has been dedicated by the Red Cross and its chapters in 3,500 communities to commemoration of the events which led to the birth of the society in the United States.

President Hoover Speaks

The celebration of the anniversary was inaugurated in Washington at a dinner, attended by many distinguished men and women, at which Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes presided, and President Hoover, who is the president of the American Red Cross, was the chief speaker. Judge Max Huber of Geneva, Switzerland, the president of the International Committee of the Red Cross, in which fifty-seven nations are joined in a Red Cross brotherhood, also was a speaker, as were Chairman John Barton Payne of the American Red Cross, and Miss Mabel T. Boardman, secretary, and veteran leader of the society.

The Red Cross standard, which flies all around the world where mercy is needed, was first introduced as

The monument, about three and one-half feet high, stands in a sodded field, studded with 46 small crosses, each bearing the name of a "buddy" from Holland and vicinity. It is mounted by a bronze doughboy, carrying a rifle. Poppies are blowing in a field resembling Flanders. A flag at half-staff appears at one side. Huyser has memorialized his window for the seventh consecutive year, each time in a different manner, as a tribute to the departed. LITTLE LASS FROM ZEELAND IS INJURED BY FALLING

Henrietta Riemersma, four years of age, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Riemersma, who reside on a farm two miles southwest of Zeeland, was seriously injured Sunday noon, when she fell from a moving automobile which her father was driving to Zeeland. The child was accompanying her father on a trip to town, and they approached the hill at the south city limits, the door of the car suddenly swung open and the child fell out of the car onto the gravel roadway.

She was picked up in a dazed condition by her father and brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Koeveering, Zeeland, where efforts were made to secure a doctor. No doctor was available, so Mrs. D. D. DePree, who is a nurse by profession, was secured to give first aid and the child was soon restored to consciousness, little the worse for her experience.

Zeeland Shop is Swept by Fire Early Tuesday

NEIGHBOR HAS TWO FIRES WITHIN FEW DAYS

Fire originating in a defective chimney, did $300 damage to the home of H. Ensing Sunday afternoon. The roof and a part of the second floor were burned. Nathan Tanis, 14, while running to the fire, was struck by an automobile, said to be from Lansing. He was sent to Zeeland Memorial hospital, suffering from bruises and cuts about the head and legs and a gash across the head. He has since been discharged from that institution.

Fire which started shortly after midnight, Tuesday, gutted the interior of the plant of the Bettie Furniture Shops, Inc., destroying machinery, sample furniture, oils and paints and causing a loss of several thousands of dollars.

The Zeeland fire department which has its headquarters in the same block, battled the flames for more than an hour before getting the fire under control.

Origin of the fire was not known. The Bettie Furniture Shops, Inc., is owned by a group of eastern capitalists with headquarters in New York, and there are no Michigan stockholders. It was named for Miss Bettie Loeb, daughter of the head of the company. No officials were in Zeeland and an estimate of the loss was not available.

The brick building, in which the plant was located is a structure about 200x50 feet and two stories high. The building also was badly damaged by the fire. It was formerly occupied by the Zeeland Art Products company, and later by M. Languis' furniture plant.

About 50 employees were thrown out of work by the fire that caused several thousands dollars damage to the Bettie Furniture Shops, Inc., of this city.

John Bultema, local manager is awaiting the arrival of L. Loeb, of New York owner of the local plant, before beginning work. The fire adjusters have notified Fire Chief J. N. Clark that complete examination of the cause will be investigated. Workmen stated that a fire had been caused by the boiler earlier in the afternoon and that they had extinguished this blaze. The fire in the evening is believed to have started in the same part of the building and from the same source. Much of the sample furniture for the Chicago and Grand Rapids shows was damaged, as were several pieces of machinery.

C. Dornbos and Milo DeVries of the DeVries-Dornbos Furniture Co. attended the opening of the Grand Rapids Furniture Exposition this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Heneveld received word from Pine Ridge, S. D., of the birth of a son to Dr. and Mrs. Bert Kemper. Mrs. Kemper was Harriet Heneveld.

Miles Compares Saloon Days With Dry Period

SAYS OTTAWA COUNTY IS BENEFITED — HELPS COMMUNITIES WITH A RELIGIOUS COMPLEX

Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles of Holland, still believes that the eighteenth amendment has been a step in the right direction as far as small communities are concerned and especially those where the church and religion still hold sway and is the cornerstone of community life.

In a compilation in which the reports of prosecutions and misdemeanors in which liquor was the indirect cause Judge Miles marshals together many figures especially as this relates to Ottawa county and from these figures the local judge points out that Ottawa county as a county has benefited as far as sobriety goes.

Mr. Miles gives the following interesting figures.

By Fred T. Miles

Prosecuting attorneys' reports for 1900-1905-1910-1915-1920-1925-1930 so far as liquor enters into them and comparisons with whole number and with and without saloons. State prohibition law went into effect May 1, 1918. Ottawa county had never been under local (county option), although there were no saloons in Zeeland, and for a time Holland prohibited the open saloon by city ordinance. Holland, however tried to allow the sale of liquor by wholesale only, not to be drunk on the premises, which created a disgraceful situation, and saloons were returned, and continued until driven out by prohibition in May, 1918. The national prohibition law went into effect, January, 1920. This has always been known as the Volstead law. All liquor cases prosecuted in our state courts, however, are under the State laws which went into effect in May 1918. Violations of the National Law are heard in the U. S. Court at Grand Rapids, for Western Michigan. The compilation below is prepared by five year periods with two objects in view: First, to show the effect of prohibition on drunkenness in this Ottawa county. Second, with the idea that crime is not materially on the increase in this county. It may be over the country as a whole, in communities where religion is breaking down, but this deals only with Ottawa county.

1900—P. H. McBride, prosecuting attorney. Total number arrested for all crimes, both felonies and misdemeanors, 602. Of these, drunkenness, 389; vagrancy, 68; saloon keepers, 3. Other offenses make up the remainder.

1905—Daniel F. Pagsel, prosecuting attorney. Total number, 1091; drunkenness, 586; vagrancy, 285; saloonkeepers, 10.

1910—Corie C. Coburn, prosecuting attorney. Total number, 629; drunkenness, 391; vagrancy, 68; saloonkeepers, 13.

1915—Louis H. Osterhaus, prosecuting attorney. Total number, 817; drunkenness, 511; vagrancy, 161; saloonkeepers, 7.

1920—Fred T. Miles, prosecuting attorney. Prohibition law in effect 2 years. Total number, 395; drunkenness, 49; prohibition law violators, 14; motor vehicle law, 151.

1925—Fred T. Miles, prosecuting attorney. Total number, 264; drunkenness, 27; prohibition law, 47; motor vehicle law, 61.

1930—Clarence A. Lokker, prosecuting attorney. Total number, 574; drunkenness, 89; driving intoxicated, 33; motor vehicle law, 229; prohibition law, 27.

In this classification, I have classed under drunkenness the offense of "disorderly conduct." In the reports of the prosecutors to the Attorney General, they are divided into "Drunk" cases and disorderly. The disorderly usually are the effect of drink, together with conduct added.

Five year periods are taken, rather than year by year to avoid tediousness.

1900—Assault and battery, 29; stealing and burglary, 22; other assaults, 1.

1905—Assault and battery, 40; stealing and burglary, 33; other assaults, 3.

1910—Assault and battery, 27; stealing and burglary, 26; other assaults, none.

1915—Assault and battery, 28; stealing and burglary, 30; other assaults, none.

1920—Assault and battery, 23; stealing and burglary, 32; other assaults, 1.

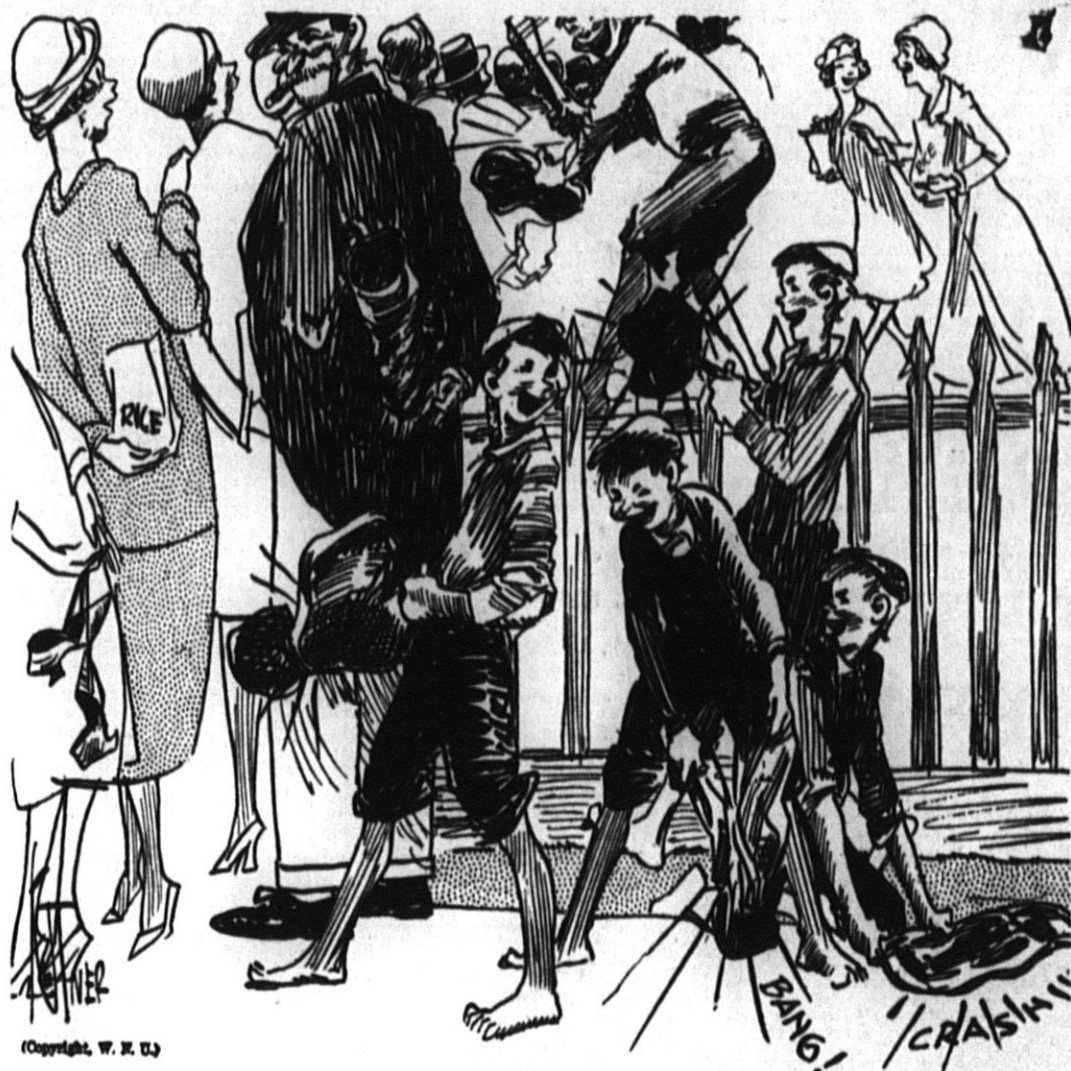

1925—Assault and battery, 23; stealing and burglary, 24; other assaults, 3.

1930—Assault and battery, 19; stealing and burglary, 52; other assaults, 1.

Each report shows various other crimes such as forgery, indecency, defrauding, etc.

My object is to compare by 5 year periods, however, so that an estimate may be made, as to the effect of the times on various so-called crimes of violence.

LEGIONNAIRES TO ATTEND MEET AT CALEDONIA

Legionnaires of the fifth congressional district meeting will be invited to Caledonia, Michigan, on Wednesday, June 10, and extensive preparations for the entertainment of the visitors are being made by that post.

A regular army meal will be served from two field kitchens in army style at 6:30 o'clock in the evening. Following the meal a brief program and business session will be held. A campfire will close the district meeting.

This is the last meeting to be held before the state convention and it is important that all posts be well represented and that all delegates to the state convention be present. Large groups are expected from the following posts: Cedar Springs, Kent City, Lowell, Rockford, Haven, Holland, Zeeland and from the seven Grand Rapids posts. It is expected fully 500 legionnaires will be present.

TWENTY-SIX HAY MEETINGS IN OTTAWA CO. INCLUDING HOLLAND

Alfalfa week will be celebrated in Ottawa county next week. Twenty-six meetings have been arranged on farm growing this crop successfully in fourteen townships. Farmers will do the talking at meetings, giving information on their methods of securing a successful stand. Kind of seed, amount sown per acre, kind and amount of lime spread, time planted, nurse crop, yields obtained, results of feeding alfalfa hay and their opinion as to the value of crop will be discussed.

"Alfalfa Hay Makes Farming Pay" is the slogan of the meeting. Agricultural Agent Milham will test soil samples and urge farmers to bring sub-soil as well as top soil samples. The following schedule is on fast time.

Monday, June 8, meetings will be in Chester, Wright and Tallmadge townships. 10 A. M., Karl Kober, 11 A. M., O. Davenport; 1 P. M., Ruel Root, 2 P. M., Glenn Luther; 3 P. M., Stanley Kurek and 4 P. M., Jacob Kishman.

Tuesday, June 9, meetings in Spring Lake, Polkton and Allendale townships. 9 A. M. Sam Rymer, 10 Chas. Erhorn, 11 A. M. John Schmitz, 1 P. M. Chas. Taylor, 2 P. M. Greenville Farm, 3 P. M. Eugene Ten Brink, 4 P. M. Abe Robinson. Wednesday, June 10, meetings in Robinson, Olive, Zeeland and Holland townships. 9 A. M., Tony Wolf, 10 A. M., John S. Hiemstra, 11 A. M., Frank Brandsen; 1 P. M., Marinus Brandt, 3 P. M., Wolverine Farm on State street, Zeeland, 4 P. M., John Van Huizen.

Thursday, June 11, meetings in Blenden, Georgetown and Jamestown townships. 9 A. M. John Moeke Farm, southeast Beroclo, 10 A. M., Fred Behrens, 11 A. M. E. Kunzi, 1 P. M., Blissveldt Farm, 2:30 Harry Bos, 3:30 Gerrit Van Dam.

Albert Vander Vliet of Central Avenue has moved to Des Moines, Iowa.

Lloyd M. Kanter of Waukasha, Wisconsin, spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kanter on State street.

Dr. L. Beuwkes of Detroit spent Saturday and Sunday in Holland, at the home of his father, Fred Beuwkes.

Dr. Justin Bussies of Columbus, Ohio, spent the week-end at his home near Holland.

No consideration is given to the fact that there has been considerable increase in population during the last thirty years. The races are represented more fully than a few years ago. As compared to the population, it is my opinion that there has been no increase in crime, in this county.

The automobile has brought new offenses. The game laws have created new offenses. The highway laws have increased in number. Injuries to trees have been prohibited.

I can truly state that I candidly believe that the Eighteenth Amendment, better known as the Volstead Act, has brought a much improved liquor condition in Ottawa county, at least over the period of open saloons of yesteryear.

ULFILAS CLUB WILL PRESENT DUTCH PROGRAM ON JUNE 15TH

The Ufilas Club of Hope College will give its annual commencement program on the Monday during commencement week, June 15th. For the past few years this Dutch club has failed to give a program, but this year under the able leadership of Prof. Thomas Wemers, they are going to give to the public a real entertainment. This play will be given to the public without admission, therefore we urge all who are interested to come to Carnegie Gymnasium on the night of June 15th. The program with possibly a few slight alterations will be as follows:

7:30 to 8:00—Dutch pieces played on chimes of Memorial Chapel by Prof. Wemers. Music by a Dutch Male quartet. Dutch readings, Justin Van Den Kolk, Dutch Oration, Harri Zegerius. Dutch Budget, Martin Klomparens. Play entitled Herrenknechten. Cast as follows:

Fritz.....Raymond Schaap
Piet.....Ralph Biema
Janus.....Harvey Hoffman
Jan.....Anthony Van Harn
Baron Van Straten.....Theodore Schaap
Anton.....Peter Cuperly
Paardekooper.....Gerard Gallard

The play is a humorous comedy which takes place in the home of the Baron Van Straten. The Baron goes away on a visit, meanwhile his hired servants have a delightful time—inviting their friends over, contrary to the Baron's commands. While this is going on the Baron unexpectedly returns and then comes the conclusion. Come and see how humorously it ends.

A delightful musical, consisting of piano and vocal selections, was given recently at the home of Gerard Hanchett, 307 West 12th St.

The program was as follows: "Soldier's March," by Lange and "The Volunteers," by Krogman Op. 110 by Morris Tardiff; "Indian War Dance," by Brounoff by Craig Trueblood; "Santa Claus Guards," by Krogman Op. 15 by Ethel Brandt; "Dainty Waltz" and "Triplets" by Ruth by Ruth Kramer; Romance from Thomas "Raymond Overture" by Ruth Eleanor Trueblood; Prof. Perry P. Weid's piano pupil Jean Berkel played "Vesper Bells," and "The Merry Bobolink" by Grogman Op. 15; "Phyllis Waltz," by Brown by Lois Cramer. The original edition of "Star Dust" by Carmichael by Angelyn Zweering; "Two-part Invention No. 8 in F Major" by J. S. Bach by Beulah Weatherholt; "Nos. 6 and 12 from Selected Studies" of Heller by Theresa Weller.

"Spirit of Chivalry" and "Grace" by Burgmuller Op. 100 by Angelyn Zweering; "The Litany," by Schubert by Beulah Weatherholt; "Minuetto and Trio in B minor" by Schubert, "Two-part Invention in B Flat Major" by J. S. Bach and "Avalanche" by Heller by Theresa Weller.

The feature of the program was reached when Miss Lucile Mulder, lyric soprano, sang two groups of songs.

Her first group of numbers were "Down in the Forest" by Landon Ronald, "A Spirit Flower" by Campbell-Tipton, and "Thank God for a Garden," by Del Riego. Closing the program Miss Mulder sang "Sunlight" by Harriet Ware, "Violets" by Ellen Wright and "The Star" by James H. Rogers. The soloist graciously responded with one of Dwight Fiske's songs, "The Bird" as an encore.

Miss Lucile Mulder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben A. Mulder, was a pupil of J. Jans Helder and the late William H. Andersen, both of Grand Rapids and of Mrs. Jeannette Brumbaugh, formerly of Holland and Grand Rapids and now of Cincinnati, Ohio. Miss Mulder has frequently appeared in recital and concert work, and has much professional experience to her credit. This was evident in the poise and clarity with which she rendered her songs particularly the dramatic climaxes.

Mr. Hanchett accompanied Miss Mulder at the piano.—Holland Evening Sentinel.

Zeeland In The Air About Its Milk Situation

MILK DEALER THERE IS ARRESTED, IT IS CLAIMED, ON TECHNICALITY

According to a recent issue of the Zeeland Record many of our neighbors as well as the editor of that publication are wrought up about the milk situation bringing certain restrictions because of a recently passed ordinance.

It appears that certain dealers have been hauled into court, were given warning for disobeying the new milk law. The one mentioned in particular is John M. De Jonge, who is to appear before Justice De Keizer, Holland, Wednesday.

The Zeeland paper waxes rather vehement when it says: "The ordinance passed some time ago demanding that milk sold in Zeeland city be pasteurized has stirred up more fuss than was anticipated by its sponsors, and apparently, the trouble has only just begun. If it has done nothing else, it certainly has raised havoc with the dairyman's business, not only cutting the prices but cutting the quantity as well, making the dairy business a decided loss to the men with heavy investment. Thanks to the agitators for 'pure milk'."

It is not our purpose to depreciate the work of our common council, but had they seen the results as they appear today, we believe they would have hesitated before instituting a move that has done so much damage without fulfilling its aim. Of course, that which is lost by the dairyman is gained by the public but we believe it is unfair to force a loss onto the dairyman by causing a heavy investment at no purpose.

The action was ill advised. Milk without the semblance of regulation or inspection is entering our city in greater quantities now than ever before, and some of this abuse is carried by the very people who advocate and even caused the adoption of the ordinance.

That pasteurized milk is not so very popular is evidenced by the selling of raw milk by new dealers, all of whom are selling enough to remain in business, in spite of the efforts made to put them out and arrest on technicalities.

The Zeeland Record claims that the spy system was employed to catch Mr. De Jong and that the methods of selling milk and the tank in question used as a container was not as bad as pictured, but was suitable for the purpose it was put to. Mr. De Jong is still selling milk and is probably dealing within the law. How a state inspector can catch a violator without spying on him is not made plain.

CRASH SENDS GRANDVILLE MAN IN ZEELAND HOSPITAL

Jack Tietema, 35, of Grandville, is in the Zeeland hospital in a critical condition because of shock, severe body bruises and lacerations about the face and head suffered when his car was struck Monday evening by a car driven by Orrie Ponsterin of Byron Center at the Beaverdam crossing on M21, throwing Tietema to the pavement.

With him were his wife and three sons, all of whom were injured to varying degrees.

Ponsterin was to appear in justice Clark's court Tuesday afternoon on a charge placed against him by police for failure to stop at a trunkline road. Both cars were wrecked.

The college recommends for spray this week 2 1/2 gallons liquid lime sulphur and 3 lbs. of lead arsenate to 100 gallons of water for apples and plums. Pears require Bordeaux 2-8-100 to which has been added 3 lbs. lead arsenate. Peaches should be sprayed with 2 lbs. lead arsenate, 10 lbs. hydrated lime and 100 gallons water. Sour cherries apply 2 1/2 lbs. sulphur, 2 lbs. lead arsenate in 100 gals. water.

JURY DISAGREES IN ZEELAND LIQUOR CASE

A circuit court jury at Grand Haven disagreed after deliberating about three hours in the trial yesterday of Nicholas Danhof of Zeeland on a liquor charge. Danhof's attorneys previously had moved to have the case dismissed alleging illegal search by Chief Edward Ryckens of the Zeeland police. Judge Fred T. Miles denied the motion.

LEON MOODY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF HOLLAND CIVIC CHORUS

The Holland Civic choir held its final meeting of the year Monday evening and decided to accept the invitation to sing as a part of the national orchestra camp chorus at Camp Interlochen, in July. The following officers were elected or the year: Leon N. Moody, president; Mrs. Roy B. Champion, vice-president; Miss Alberta Brat, secretary, and Ralph Van Lente, treasurer.

Ray Fleming, a senior in Fennville High school, sent an announcement of the class to President Hoover. ALLEGAN FARMERS TO LEARN HAY GRADING

Hay grades will be explained at a hay curing demonstration on the Mont Baird farm, northeast of Hopkins, Allegan county, Thursday, June 18, at 2 p. m. A Michigan state college specialist will be present. In view of the increased acreage of alfalfa in the state, County Agricultural Agent Morley believes there will be a heavier movement of hay to out-of-state consumers, and urges growers to grade their hay in order to secure the best prices.

Many Resort House Cats Have Gone Wild

NIMRODS DISCOVER THERE IS PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF FELINE LIFE IN MICHIGAN

Is there a new type of "wild cat" in Michigan? Hunters who have tramped the fields and woods of Michigan are comparing notes and discovering there is a plentiful supply of feline life—whether it be bob-cats, or just plain house cats gone wild.

Early in the Fall, Charlie Corbin, veteran outdoorsman, called my attention to a strange thing he had seen up in Lake County. Near his fishing shack he had noticed large footprints—exactly like those of bobcats which he shot in the woods some 30 years ago. And he heard stories of catlike animals which had been seen there, and finally, he ran across one himself. He says it was much larger than a housecat, but not quite as large as a bob-cat, but it had a long tail.

Near Alpena, James Robarge came in with a 29-pound bob-cat. Robarge was hunting, when his dog ran afoul of the cat and drove it out into the open. Robarge dropped it with a charge of shot from his 12-gauge shotgun before the cat was aware of his presence. Alpena sportsmen say this is the largest cat shot in their vicinity for some time.

Hunters are comparing notes and discovering there is a plentiful supply of feline life in the fields and woods of northern Michigan. They are puzzled as to whether they are bobcats or just plain house cats often left by resorters because a real menace to game. Usually hungry, they become rapacious.

Hunters need go no further than the wilds of Macatawa to see hundreds of just such cats set adrift by resorters who leave in the fall.

Mrs. Jennie Den Uyl returned to her home Friday after being confined to the Holland hospital for three weeks.

Gerald Green, newly-elected coach of Holland High school visited the local school Monday and addressed the student body during the chapel hour.

Sparrows That Bring $30 Judged Legally Worthless

Grand Rapids Herald.—Sparrows have no legal value, and hence if they were stolen the culprits would be guilty of no offense. Atty. John Smolenski argued in Kent circuit court.

Judge Major L. Dunham agreed with him, and dismissed charges of larceny against Edward and John McCall, Lowell brothers accused of collecting bounties twice on the same sparrows from Chris Bergen, Lowell township clerk.

The McCall brothers were ordered into court when Bergen secured a warrant from Pros. Bertel J. Jonkman charging them with larceny Feb. 7. Bergen claimed they collected $30 in bounties at 2 cents each on 1,500 sparrows, and then later appeared with the same sparrows and collected another $30.

Justice Harry Cresswell convicted the McCalls March 10 of the charge, holding that if 2 cents were paid on each sparrow, they represented something of value and that therefore in securing what was alleged to have been a second $30, the brothers were guilty of larceny. They appealed the conviction and fine of $25 and costs.

Atty. Smolenski delved into statistics on the matter to prove his claim that the sparrows had no legal value. He further asserted the 2-cent bounty on each sparrow was paid for services and work performed in killing off the birds, which are nuisances to farmers, and not actually for the sparrows themselves. And last, but not least, the clerk failed to dispose of the birds by burning, as required by law.

Delegates From Here Chosen For General Synod

REFORMED CHURCH WILL HOLD 125TH MEETING JUNE 4-9

Church Union, Constitutional Questions and Modern Tendencies to Be Discussed

The Holland classis in the Reformed Church of America at its spring session in Sixth church, in Holland recently elected the following delegates, and these left yesterday for Asbury Park, N. J., to participate in the sessions that opened this morning and will continue until next Wednesday.

General Synod—Rev. E. P. McLean, Hope college; Rev. Seth Vandewerf, Holland; Rev. A. Oosterhof, East Overisel; Rev. R. J. Vandenberg, Zeeland; Elders H. J. Vandenberg and Herman Mooi, Holland; G. H. Meengs, Vriesland; M. Lugtmeijer, Dunningville, Secudus; Rev. H. VanDyke, Rev. T. E. Welmers, Rev. J. P. DeJong, Rev. G. Tyse, all of Holland; Elders K. Dees and J. Andringa of Holland, H. Roelofs of Vriesland, and J. Nevenzel of Dunningville.

The 125th annual session of the general synod of the Reformed church in America will open this Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the Reformed church at Asbury Park, N. J. The retiring president, Rev. Milton J. Hoffman, D. D., professor of church history at New Brunswick, N. J., called the synod to order. He also delivered the synodical sermon this Thursday evening.

The day sessions of synod are given over to business and the evenings are public meetings on behalf of the various enterprises of the denomination. Friday evening, June 5, will be in the interest of young people's work and will be under the joint direction of the boards of education and Bible school work. The speaker will be Wynand Wichers, president-elect of Hope College, Mich.

On Saturday afternoon there will be a reception to the delegates and their friends given by the Women's Board of Domestic Missions. Sunday morning the general session of the synod will preach the sermon at the convention church and the Lord's supper will be administered. This year the board of domestic missions completes a hundred years of work. A service commemorating this centennial anniversary will be held on Sunday evening and the speaker will be Rev. John MacDowell, D. D., of New York city, president of the home mission council, comprising 30 denominations in the field of home mission work.

The report of the board of foreign missions will be given on Monday afternoon, June 8. Dr. F. M. Potter, treasurer of the board, of Metuchon, N. J. will speak for the report. In the evening there will be a public meeting on behalf of foreign missions and the speakers will be Rev. John A. Muyskens for India, and Rev. A. L. Warnhuys, D. D., of New York city for China.

The board is very happy over the outcome of this year's work. It started the year with a deficit of $82,528.72. With the regular receipts of the fiscal year just closed, it was able to meet the full budget of the year with a small surplus which reduced its deficit to $77,913.55. It was then able by the use of special funds, which were designated for that purpose by the board, to bring about a further reduction of the deficit, which brought the final figure to $35,019.92. This was brought about by the reduction of expenses by $18,000 and an increase of receipts of nearly $10,000. Regular gifts from the churches were about the same as last year but the increase came largely through individual gifts.

Tuesday evening will be in the interest of domestic missions, but the program is not yet ready. Tuesday will also be ladies' day at synod and special services will be held. The morning service at 10:30 a. m. will be in charge of the synod's board of domestic missions and the speakers will be Mrs. Charles Hogg of Ridgewood, N. J., chairman of the Indian committee; Dr. James Kittell of New York city, secretary of the board; and Rev. William A. Worthington of Annville, Ky.

The important items that are to come before synod are:

An effort to consolidate the two denominational papers, the "Christian Intelligencer" in the east and the "Leader" in the west. A committee was appointed last year to bring this about.

It is very doubtful that this can be accomplished since these are the properties of Hope College and not of the General Synod.

The question of church union with the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. in particular and church union in general.

The question of changing the form of ordination of deacons so the old flannel shirt certainly could shrink

By spring, it had reached the elbows. And insurance, if it isn't reviewed to fit your needs, and if it isn't reviewed to meet your changing risks, can crawl away from the places it's needed.

LAW CLASS ZEELAND SCHOOL GIVES TRIAL

Zeeland Record.—Last Friday morning the Law Class presented a mock trial in the high school gymnasium. Miss Virginia Kamps, the plaintiff, brought suit against Mr. Gerald Ver Hage, defendant, for breach of contract to the amount of $123.16. This contract had been made in August, 1930, concerning baggage that Mr. Ver Hage was holding in payment of Clarence Yntema's bill.

All the necessary court officials presided. Willis Van Farow was the attorney for the plaintiff and Miss Gertrude Van Hoven for the defendant. After John Boone, Mr. Muller, Clarence Yntema and Dorothy Voris had been called as witnesses to the stand, the pleas to the jury were made by the two attorneys. The jury was then given the charge by the judge and dismissed to the jury room. They returned a verdict in favor of the defense, giving no cause for action.

as to include their modern duties.

The question of revising the constitution so that reports are given from April to April is now done.

There are several overtures that will be discussed; one concerning the modernistic tendencies found in the booklet "The Fellowship of Prayer," published by the Federal Council of Churches and another from the classis of New York that an amendment be made to section 77 of the constitution regarding the dropping of members so that absentee members may be dropped without the process of a trial.

The Northwestern Junior College which was given the permission to organize in 1928 at the synod at New York city, now asked to be recognized as one of the accepted schools of the church.

There will be about 400 at synod including delegates, visitors, officials, speakers and fraternal delegates.

—Grand Rapids Herald.

The question of withdrawal from the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America will be discussed at the synod of the Reformed church in America, which convenes today in Asbury Park, N. J.

The council was organized some time ago with the avowed purpose of uniting all Protestant churches on great issues which come before the church. According to Rev. Jacob Prins of Calvary Reformed church, it is dominated by a few who speak for the many.

Among questions on which the Reformed church differs from the policy of the council is birth control. Rev. Prins said. Many members of the Reformed faith also take exception to the theology expressed in the letter prayers issued by the federal council this year and last, he said.

The synod is likely to be divided on the matter of withdrawal, Rev. Prins said, the east favoring the council and the west being opposed to membership.

Rev. Prins was named a delegate to the synod from Grand Rapids classis, but was unable to attend and Rev. John A. Dykstra of Centra Reformed church went in his place. Other delegates are: Rev. C. Miller, Rev. G. J. Hekhuis, Rev. G. J. Roseboom and by Elders Henry Zial, Joseph Kooyers, Martin De Vries and H. J. Beld.

ALLEGAN COUNTY HAS NEW GAME PRESERVES

The Oakwood game preserve consisting of 1200 acres, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Balch of Kalamazoo, is at this season if not at all seasons one of Pullman's most beautiful assets in Allegan county. The owners have spared no expense and labor to make an ideal country home. The house, which was formerly Judge Severens' country home, has been completely overhauled and with the installation of all modern equipment it is one of the most comfortable as well as beautiful. The dogwood and lupine with which the place abounds and the tulips which Mr. and Mrs. Balch have planted furnish the most artistic setting for one of nature's grandest paintings. The birds seem to know that here they find protection, for the woods abound with rare specimens. Mr. Balch has released several turkeys to add to the charm. The state has made this place a wild life sanctuary and so it is a state offense for anyone, even the owner, to do any shooting there.

MAN WHO BROKE INTO JAIL JAILED AS SMART ALECK

Here's a new crime—trying to be a Smart Aleck. Charles Oskers, of Seattle, Wash., was sentenced to 30 days in jail and a $50 fine for it here today.

Oskers recently broke into the Auburn city jail, near here—a place most men try to keep away from—and removed beer seized in a raid on his home. He "was not guilty of a crime as serious as burglary, but he was guilty of trying to be a Smart Aleck," said Judge John B. Wright, in imposing sentence.

A charge of liquor possession also faces Oskers, who returned to the jail to destroy the evidence after being released on bail.

Death-dealing instruments used in crimes at Muskegon are being assembled by the Muskegon police department for shipment to the state department of public safety at Lansing.

Several of these weapons, including the revolver which George "Dutch" Anderson carried when he was shot to death in an alley at the rear of the city hall, probably will be included in Muskegon's contribution to the state exhibit. The state department plans to loan the exhibit to county and state fairs.

Chief Peter Hanson and Lieut. Arthur J. Siplon have sorted over weapons of various sizes and descriptions which figured in important cases at Muskegon and it was agreed that the least formidable appearing of all was a small red colored pair of scissors. However, this small pair of scissors was used in the murder of a woman by the name of Christiansen.

Grand Haven expenditures for welfare work during April showed a big drop, $688.50 being spent as against $1,114.58 during March. May promises to show another decrease according to Anthony Pintel, welfare director. The April items were $498.69 for food, $61.19 for fuel, $122 for rent and $67.0 for light. March figures showed $654.86 for food, $290.84 for fuel, $71 for rent, $90 for burial expense, $6.40 for janitor service and $14.8 for repairs.

BEAUTY CONTEST HOPE

A special feature of the Hope College 1930 Milestone released this week after some delay, was the beauty contest whose winners were selected for the Milestone by John Held, Jr., artist of New York City. Six co-eds have separate full page photographs in the book as being the most attractive of those chosen by each sorority and fraternity of the college to enter the contest. Beauty winners were Jeanette Herman and Marian Anderson of Holland; Sady Grace Masselink of Zeeland; Ruth Koster of East Williamson, N. Y.; Ruth Hosper of Chicago; Mildred Klow of Spring Lake; and Lucille Walvoord of South Holland, Illinois. These girls are still enrolled at Hope College with the exception of Ruth Koster who was graduated last June.

CLAIMS STATE MUST RESCUE ITS DUNES

The scientists of Europe declared that the Dunes of Lake Michigan, owing to their beauty and geologic and botanical interest are among the wonders of America being out-classed only by the Grand Canyon of Colorado and Yellowstone Park and the Yosemite Valley.

George A. Brennan, author of "Wonders of the Dunes," says: "The flowers of the Dunes are marvelous. This is the meeting place of plants from the north and the south and the east and the west. The Bearberry, Raindeer Moss, the Northern Willow and Trailing Arbutus from the north. The Tulp, Sassafras, Coffee Tree and Papaw from the south. The Beach Plum, Beach Pea, Saltwort and Sea-crow-foot from the east. The great cactus and other plants from the west."

"There is probably no spot in America that has a greater variety of birds than the Dune region. Over 300 species have been found. Thirty are residents all year; 75 are summer residents; 15 are winter residents; 10 are migrants, which use the Dunes as a tourist camp in the spring and autumn.

"The Dunes shelter many a rare animal or plant."

It is plainly the duty of the state to rescue this land of unsurpassed beauty and protect it for all time to come.—(Watervliet Record, March 6, 1931).

HISTORIC GRAND HAVEN AND OTTAWA COUNTY

WHAT

Grand Rapids Herald Says:

GRAND HAVEN'S HISTORY
Leo C. Lillie's "Historic Grand Haven and Ottawa County" is just off the presses. It is an extensive volume which will call for more complete review; but first casual scrutiny invites commendation. Mr. Lillie has given Grand Haven something of which it should be proud. He has taken the rich romance and tradition of the lower Grand river valley and woven it into an interesting and comprehensive story of western Michigan's history.

Providing a background for his story, the author first surveys the whole story of the discovery and settlement of North America from the era of the Norsemen down through the British and French excursions into the Lake regions. From this beginning, Mr. Lillie plunges with a confident pen and understanding knowledge into the local history of his own community. Its beginning as the headquarters for the 20 trading posts of the American Fur company, its growth through the early pioneering years when Rev. William M. Ferry of French ancestry and the Scotchman, Robert Stuart, were leaders, and its prosperity as a lumber town, lake port and industrial center follow.

From the pioneering period of the first Ferry down to the present is a period of nearly 100 years. Saw mills and shingle mills followed the trading posts. Sailing schooners succeeded the Indian canoes. And then, finally, the lumber industries gave way to the present sound prosperity of Grand Haven with steamships pushing the last of the schooners into oblivion.

Mr. Lillie has omitted no detail of romance or value. He has labored with care and has produced a well-written book that has an interest not only for Grand Haven, but for all western Michigan. Grand Rapids may note with regret that it has nothing in its libraries comparable to the Lillie Book.

WHAT

Dr. George N. Fuller, Secretary Michigan Historical Commission Says:

DEAR MR. LILLIE:
I have read your volume "Historic Grand Haven and Ottawa County" and find it most interesting and well executed. You have brought together a vast amount of knowledge not otherwise accessible in so compact a form, and you have given commendable attention to careful selection of illustrations. This volume ought to be in every public library of the state and in every home in Ottawa County—that can afford to have it.

Very respectfully yours,
G. N. FULLER,
Secretary, Michigan Historical Commission.

WHAT

Grand Rapids Press Says:

GRAND HAVEN'S BAXTER

Happy the town with a historian—and three happy the town with a good one. Grand Haven and Ottawa County owe to Leo C. Lillie, we suspect, a great deal more than the pleasure of reading the story of their development from little trading posts to thriving communities. His new book, "Historic Grand Haven and Ottawa County," is a text, a reference book and an inspiration.

It will lead young "Ottawas" of the future to devote themselves spontaneously and gladly to a study of Northwest territory, Michigan, western Michigan and local history. It opens up a fascinating discovery to them—namely, that the romance of Spanish, French and British exploration, religious and commercial advance, and military conquest of their own home region is as vivid as any romance of the old world, full of heroic figures against a background of forest, savagery, danger and dormant riches.

What Albert Baxter did for Grand Rapids—leaving a chronicle to which local folk turn for reference and instruction today—Leo C. Lillie has accomplished for Grand Haven. His book may well be studied as a model by prospective historians for other communities up the coast.

WHAT

Earl H. Babcock, Superintendent Public Schools, Says:

DEAR MR. LILLIE:

This simple outline history of Grand Haven's development will be read with interest and enjoyment. It will be prized by the older members of this community for the many incidents and events which are herein recalled.

It makes possible a better understanding of our city's past in the minds of the many new residents.

Its greatest value, however, will be to the younger generations, who have long felt the need for just such a book when crying to understand the growth and development of our social institutions.

Through its reading should come a stimulating of civic pride in our community's historical background and a desire to preserve and commemorate many historic spots in Grand Haven and Ottawa County.

No home can afford to be without a copy of this book.

EARL BABCOCK,
Superintendent of Schools,
Grand Haven, Michigan.

"Green Stockings," the spring play which is being given by the American Literature class in the Saugatuck high school auditorium on June 5th, is a clever English comedy, sure to bring many laughs and prove very entertaining. Phyllis, the youngest daughter, a very delightful young girl, falls deeply in love with Larver, who is the empty headed young swell. They desire to marry, but it is the custom in England for an unmarried lady to wear green stockings at her younger sister's wedding; and Faraday, the stern father, refuses to let his oldest daughter, Celia, wear green stockings a third time. Celia comes to the front with strange tales about Colonel Smith, a soldier in service in East Africa. The plot thickens when Don Bird, the colonel, comes on the scene, and Celia and Aunt Ida find things difficult to manage. Many humorous and exciting things happen before the matter of wearing green stockings is settled forever in the Faraday home. Phyllis, the charming, sweet young girl, is acted by Betty Singaber, with Bud Strader playing the part of the clever and witty Larver. Ellsworth Bartholomew is found playing the part of Faraday, the aristocratic Englishman; Aunt Ida, who is the rather shocking aunt from Chicago, is played by Mardelle Taylor, and the astonishing Celia is played by Joy Taylor; Eleanor Koning and Lucille Kelly are the charming attractive sisters, Made and Evelyn, while Bud Edgcomb and Joe Hirtzer play the parts of two stylish young Englishmen.

The house has seven large study rooms upstairs, two lounge rooms, a den, and a spacious meeting room. The third floor will be converted into a dormitory.

Hope College News

The Alumni banquet will be held a week from next Tuesday, June 16, in the church parlors of Hope Church. The dinner will be served by the women of the Hope College Women's League at $1.25 per plate. The president of the association, Mr. C. Van Der Meulen, class of 1900, will be the toastmaster. The speakers of the evening will be Dr. Dimment, President-elect Wichers, and Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer of the Princeton Theological Seminary. The other members of the staff of officers of the association are Rev. John A. Dykstra, D. D., class of 1909, vice president; Miss Hazel Albers, class of 1928, secretary; and Professor C. Kleis, class of 1912, treasurer.

Invitations are being sent to all the alumni. For convenience sake, it is very much desired that reservations be made as early as possible. The banquet is not strictly limited to only alumni but to those who are interested in Hope and perhaps have attended any previous banquets. The Senior class whose names will soon be added to the alumni list are especially invited to attend. Reservations may be made by writing or calling Professor C. Kleis, 98 E. 15th St., Holland, Tel-9865.

Thursday afternoon the Knicks entertained the Emersonians at a stag beach party at Ottawa beach. One of the main features was a baseball game, in which everyone took part, however little that part may have been. The Emersonians won the hotly contested game by a convincing score. About half past six, "Come and get it!" was heard, and the boys did. Hot dogs, pop, and pickles never tasted better, or disappeared faster. After supper, the boys played about on the beach for an hour and then came back to town to rush a show. They succeeded—news reel and everything. In the fraternity vernacular, they had "a plenty good time."

Plans to make the final meeting of the Senior Girls' Association of the Class of 1931 unite culminated in a tea at the Holland Country Club last week Wednesday. Term papers, studying for examinations, and other banes of seniors' existence prevented many girls from attending, but the small crowd present had a delightful time chatting over the tencups, signing Milestones, and enjoying the athletic facilities of the Club. Many expressed their regret that this was the last meeting of the Association.

The Girls' Glee Club furnished the music at Hope Church Sunday evening. The numbers rendered were: Deep River, The Radiant Morn, Oh, Make my Spirit Worthy, and How Lovely are the Messengers.

Miss Minnie K. Smith, principal of Junior High school, underwent a serious operation in the Brunson hospital, Kalamazoo.

New Emersonian Home

The Emersonians are justly proud of their new residence on the southeast corner of River Avenue and Twelfth Street, opposite Centennial Park. A good-looking fireplace, hardwood floors, large meeting room, several bathrooms, a large hall with a beautiful winding staircase, are all "features" of the house favorably commented upon by visitors. An extension radio loud speaker in the meeting room is another point of note. Oh, yes, De Cook is responsible for an interesting innovation in fancy window drapes.

IMPORTANT! The Emersonian Society will be "at home" to its friends this Friday, June 5th, at the house from two to four P.M. It is rumored that the supply of tea and cake will be sufficient to withstand a healthy onslaught.

The program centered about the theme suggested by the meeting-place. Chief executive Nettinga cleverly introduced the speakers who had official titles. Henry Engelman and John Cotts furnished vocal and piano selections. Gerald Heersma, as the page-boy, upheld freshman tradition for furnishing comedy. Philip Engel toasted to the guests and members through the means of his excellent poetry. Prof. Albert Lampen, as chief justice handed down his Solomon-like decision.

After the program, members and guests who were aquatically inclined enjoyed the boating facilities at their disposal.

The Student Volunteer Band met on Thursday of last week for a discussion and business meeting.

The group has had a very active year under its present leadership.

engaging more extensively in deputization work, in an endeavor to stimulate missionary zeal in the churches, than it has for some years past. Although the organization is somewhat small in numbers it has sent out twelve teams since December first, and everywhere they were received by large and cordial audiences. Even greater things are anticipated in the coming year.

The discussion, centered around the theme "The Missionary and His Critics" as set forth in the chapter under that title from Brown's "The Foreign Missionary," was conducted by Stanley Ynkema of the senior class. Various criticisms of the missionary were brought up and met, showing wherein lay their fallacies. In contrast with much destructive criticism hurled against the missionary, the author shows that "the world has not yet discovered any plan for the spreading of civilization which is comparable to the propagation of Christianity."
