NO. 22

for Round Trip.

Holland City News.

FRIDAY, June 14.

Lake and Marine.

In order to complete with St. Joseph as a Gretna Green for Chicago couples South Haven has secured the appointment of R. J. Madill as a deputy clerk, with his headquarters on the steamboat dock. Under this system licenses can be obtained within a few minutes after leaving the boat. In that respect South Haven now boasts of an advantage over St. Joseph, as a trip of a half mile to the court house for a license is required at the latter place before the ceremony can be performed. It is expected under the new order of things at South Haven that couples can be married within fifteen minutes after the Chicago steamer gets out her gang plank to the dock.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

West Olive.

Plenty of wet weather will help the potato bugs, but too much warm weather will revive the cut worm.

Our crops are looking well with the exception of wheat, and also some fields of rye. Jack Frost has ate our peach sauce all right enough, and so we must content ourselves with apple pie.

Calvin McKinley is improving his meat market building, inside, this week, and indications are that he will have a place for business soon.

Joseph Weiser was in Grand Haven Friday.

There is no question about whether our religious meetings are always well attended. A crowded house every Sunday with instructive Bible meetings every Saturday and Sunday evening, is the right way to manifest a good religious spirit. Let the work go on as in the past.

John Leland is busy at work drawing coal to Holland this week, from his farm near the marsh.

C. A. Lindabury, who arrived from Arkansas last week, is talking about a photograph gallery. Would it not be a good idea for the correspondent to go into business with him? A landscape and a portrait painter would make a good team.

C. St. Clair's new residence is now occupied by his brother who removed here from Clinton Co. with his family. They will carry on farming and fruit raising and we wish them success.

Some of our people are in favor of a good Fourth of July celebration, but outside of fireworks, horse races, etc., there is something too good which is not right. So let us attend the Sunday school picnic.

G. W. Marble, Jr., arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, where he spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Van.

Christian Shoults came back from Grand Rapids Tuesday, after spending some time at the Soldiers Home.

Is the war ended yet?

Port Sheldon.

Corn is all planted only what has to be planted over after the crows have helped themselves.

Mr. Brace of Chicago, the man who bought the Connell farm, called on Chris Cook Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. C. Welton and a number of others enjoyed a day on the river, if it was cold Saturday.

Two team loads of people from Mendon are camping out this week.

Supervisor Hatch and two other young men are enjoying the week here camping. Two of them came by boat down Grand River and Lake Michigan. Mr. Hatch cut cross lots on a wheel.

Mr. C. J. Smith and others, of New Holland, were Tuesday fishing.

Mrs. C. Cook was in Holland Wednesday.

Ottawa County.

The Coopersville schools will close on Friday of next week. The commencement exercises will be held Tuesday evening, June 25, and the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. J. H. Wilcox in the M. E. church on Sunday evening, June 23. The graduates are: Nina B. Kearney, Grace Barret, Elizabeth E. Guldebeck, Leta A. Morrison, Calla A. Lillie, Edith Hutchins, Harriet A. Minnich and Frank P. Minnich. A reception will be rendered them by the junior class on Wednesday evening, June 26.

Allegan County.

The board of supervisors will meet Monday, June 24, as provided by the state law, which requires a meeting every five years for the purpose of equalizing the assessment rolls of the townships. The board will organize and appoint committees for the year, and may consider other matters, besides electing a delegate to attend the meeting of the state board of equalization at Lansing, August 15.

Allegan has organized a base ball club.

Saves Two from Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Cold. 50 cents and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by Heber Walsh. Trial bottles free.

TOTAL NOT YET AGREED UPON.

Effort of Mr. Rockhill to Have The Hague Tribunal Adjust This Matter Also.

Washington, June 12.—Mr. Rockhill's proposition to submit the indemnity question to The Hague tribunal, it is now learned, carries with it the adjustment of the total of the indemnity. Through a misunderstanding, which perhaps was purposely created by some of the powers, the sum of 450,000,000 taels was supposed to have been finally agreed upon by all the powers as the total of indemnity to be demanded from China. As a matter of fact there is nothing official to show that the powers, or indeed a majority of them, actually made this a matter of formal agreement. It is true that China undertook to pay an indemnity of 450,000,000 taels, but it is equally true that this undertaking, doubtless based upon the misunderstanding above referred to, was at least in advance of a formal agreement among the ministers themselves.

Hence, Mr. Rockhill's proposition to include the total of the indemnity in the matters to be submitted to The Hague arbitration. European criticisms, based upon the idea that Mr. Rockhill's proposition as to arbitration concerns only the method of payment are therefore founded in error. The hope that the arbitration plan will prevail is based upon the belief that no other scheme so far brought forward is sufficient.

WILL FIGHT MACHINISTS.

Manufacturers Organize and Set $500,000 as a Fund to Carry On the Struggle.

New York, June 12.—The convention of the National Metal Trades association continued its session Wednesday. The closing hours of the convention are being devoted to the completion of organization and the final arrangement of plans designed to strengthen the hands of the manufacturers in their fight against the striking machinists. The sum of $500,000 raised by assessment is to be placed at the disposal of a strike committee to be used in behalf of the employers.

The committee is constituted as follows: William Schwanhauser, Brooklyn; John W. Young, Milwaukee; S. W. Watkins, Milwaukee; Charles Bliss, Ansonia; N. B. Payne, Elmira; W. D. Sayle, Cleveland; Thomas E. Durban, Erie; William E. Lodge, Cincinnati, and E. G. Gilbert, Scranton.

REPORT THE ENGAGEMENT.

MacArthur Sends Dispatch Telling of Battle in Which Americans Are Killed.

Washington, June 12.—Acting Adj. Gen. Ward has received a cable message from Gen. MacArthur giving official confirmation of the recent serious engagement with insurgents near Lipa, Luzon. The message is as follows:

Anton Springer, Jr., First Infantry, were killed. Capt. William H. Wilhelm and First Lieut. Charles R. Ramsay, Twenty-first Infantry, were seriously wounded. Four enlisted men were wounded. Modern Woodmen Drill.

St. Paul, Minn., June 12.—Pleasant weather gave the Modern Woodmen a good day for the opening of the competitive drills at Camp Northcott on Wednesday. Over 50 teams have entered the contest, which will continue daily until completed. The head camp resumed work at the auditorium a little after nine o'clock. The matter of city membership was laid aside until after the elections which were then taken up. Head Consul W. A. Northcott, of Illinois, Head Clerk C. W. Hawes, of Illinois, and Head Adviser Dan B. Herd, of Iowa, were reelected.

Emperor Attends a Launching.

Kiel, June 12.—Emperor William, accompanied by the headquarters staff, Prince Henry of Prussia and the chiefs of his majesty's private cabinet, arrived Wednesday to witness the launch of the battleship Zaehringen, at the Germania yards. While the work of removing the shares, preparatory to the launch, was in progress, a crane collapsed killing two men and seriously injuring three others.

Strike Causes Shutdown.

Atlanta, Ga., June 12.—A special to the Journal from Newport News, Va., says: It was announced Wednesday that 1,000 men will be laid off at the yards of the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock company, on account of the machinists' strike. This will make a total of 2,000 men now out, and it is expected that the entire plant will be closed by Saturday night.

Can't Use Money to Pay Teachers.

Atlanta, Ga., June 12.—The Georgia supreme court decided Wednesday that the state treasurer had no right to use the "public property fund" to pay the school-teachers of Georgia or for any other purpose except the payment of the bonded debt of the state.

THE CUBANS MUST YIELD.

The United States Will Not Tolerate Any Proposed Changes in the Platt Amendment.

NOTE SENT TO ROOT IS AN ULTIMATUM.

Administration Does Not Propose to Have Any Strings Attached to the Acceptance-Work of Forming a Constitution Must Halt Until Our Terms Are Met.

Washington, June 8.—Gen. Wood has been instructed officially to say to the Cubans that they cannot proceed to form their government until the Platt amendment in letter and spirit has been accepted. This was the result of a meeting of the cabinet Friday. The latest telegram from Gen. Wood had convinced Secretary Root that the chances for the acceptance of the Platt amendment without a string tied to it were not good at this time.

Results of Cabinet Meeting.
The outcome of the cabinet meeting is thus stated by a member of that body:

"We feel that it will be some time before the Cubans accept the Platt amendment. The determination is that that amendment shall be accepted before the Cubans are allowed to establish their own government. It is very much our affair and the losers, they losing just so much time in getting their government going. We, on the other hand, will continue military occupation and control as at present. There are no indications of a change of policy here, and I am glad to say that there are no signs of trouble in Cuba. In time the Platt amendment will be adopted, but perhaps not very soon."

No New Instructions.
After the cabinet meeting Gen. Wood was again informed by Secretary Root that there were no new instructions, and that the administration would insist on the adoption of the Platt amendment as a prerequisite to the formation of a government without any "understandings" being attached thereto.

Senator Platt's Views.
Washington, June 8.—During the recent conference here between Secretary Root and the Cuban commission the secretary wrote a letter to Senator Platt, of Connecticut, who introduced the Platt amendment, asking for his views relative to intervention, and the senator replied as follows: "I am in receipt of your letter of this date, in which you say that the members of the commission of the Cuban constitutional convention fear that the provisions relative to intervention made in the third clause of the amendment which has come to bear my name may have the effect of preventing the independence of Cuba and in reality establish a protectorate or suzerainty by the United States, and you request that I express my views of the question raised."

"In reply I beg to state that the amendment was carefully prepared with the object of avoiding any possible idea that by the acceptance thereof the constitutional convention would thereby establish a protectorate or suzerainty, or in any manner whatsoever compromise the independence or sovereignty of Cuba; and, speaking for myself, it seems impossible that such an interpretation can be given to the clause. I believe that the amendment should be considered as a whole, and it ought to be clear on reading it that its well-defined purpose is to secure and safeguard Cuban independence and set forth at once a clear idea of the friendly disposition of the United States toward the Cuban people and the express intention on their part to aid them, if necessary, in the maintenance of said independence. These are my ideas, and, although, as you say, I cannot speak for the entire congress, my belief is that such a purpose was well understood by that body. Very respectfully yours, "O. H. PLATT."

Given a Warning.
New York, June 10.—Cuban colonies in New York and Washington warned the Cuban constitutional convention to act quickly on the Platt amendment, as the independence of the island was at stake.

STILL UNSETTLED.

Chinese Indemnity Question Hangs Fire and May Go to The Hague Tribunal for Arbitration.

Washington, June 10.—The United States government has again appealed to the powers to submit the present issues at Peking over the indemnity propositions to the arbitration of The Hague tribunal. Mr. Rockhill, who has been watching for an opportunity, cabled Secretary Hay Friday night for permission to make a proposition and the secretary Saturday morning cabled him authority to do so. It is believed that the ministers at Peking have become involved beyond extrication in the present issues and this proposition may be the only way out.

Aged Fire Chief Resigns.
Chicago, June 11.—Chief Swenke has resigned command of the Chicago fire department after 51 years of service. The step was taken on the advice of his physicians. Assistant Chief Musham is his probable successor.

See Improvement.
Washington, June 10.—Mrs. McKinley's physicians say her illness was caused by blood infection from a bone felon which has attacked the lining membrane of the heart. She is improving.

CENSUS FIGURES.

Thirty-Eight American Cities Have Each a Population of 100,000 or More.

Washington, June 10.—The census office has issued a bulletin giving the population of incorporated places in the country. The bulletin shows that there are 10,602 such places, as compared with 7,578 in 1890, and 38 cities containing more than 100,000 people each. Of the large cities in 1900, three, New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, contain upward of a million inhabitants, the same as in 1890, while for cities having between 500,000 and 1,000,000 inhabitants, those in 1900 number three, as against only one in 1890.

The incorporated places contain in the aggregate 35,849,516 inhabitants, as compared with a total of 26,079,828 persons living in incorporated places in 1890. The combined population in the incorporated towns and cities constitute 47 per cent. of the population of the entire country, as against 41 per cent. in the towns in 1890. In the state of New York, which takes the lead in this respect, 77 per cent. of the people live in the cities and towns, as against 69 per cent. in 1890. In six other states—namely, Massachusetts, Illinois, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Colorado and Connecticut—more than two-thirds of the people live in the incorporated places. Mississippi has the smallest percentage of its people living in the towns, the percentage being 15.

NIPPED IN THE BUD.

President McKinley Puts a Quietness on Third Term Rumors in a Statement to the Public.

Washington, June 12.—President McKinley has administered a mild rebuke to third-term shouters by giving out a formal statement expressing his regret that such a suggestion had been made and declaring not only that he is not and will not be a candidate for another term, but that he would not accept a nomination if tendered to him. He says: "I regret that the suggestion of a third term has been made. I doubt whether I am called upon to give it notice. But there are now questions of the gravest importance before the administration and the country, and their just consideration should not be prejudiced in the public mind by even the suggestion of the thought of a third term. In view therefore of the reiteration of the suggestion of it, I will say now, once for all, expressing a long settled conviction, that I not only am not and will not be a candidate for a third term, but would not accept a nomination for it if it were tendered me. "My only ambition is to serve through my second term to the acceptance of my countrymen, whose generous confidence I so deeply appreciate, and then with them to do my duty in the ranks of private citizenship."

Two of Three Desperate Prisoners Die Before Being Sentenced for Their Deeds of Crime.

Toronto, Ont., June 8.—Of the three men, Fred Lee Rice, Thomas Jones and Frank Rutledge, extradited from Chicago to stand trial for the robbery of a bank in Aurora, Ont., Rice is the only living survivor of the trio to serve out the 21 years imprisonment to which he was sentenced Friday morning. Two tragedies have put Jones and Rutledge beyond reach of the law. Jones died from bullet wounds received in a desperate attempt to escape from the officers who were transferring the prisoners from the courthouse to the jail last Tuesday, and Rutledge committed suicide Friday by jumping from the gallery in the jail to the stone court, 30 feet below.

Gen. MacArthur Announces That All the American Volunteers Have Left Philippines.

WILL SOON BE IN THE UNITED STATES.

Philippine Gen. Cailles Willing to Surrender Under Conditions—Taft to Be Head of the Civil Government in the Islands—Change from Military to Civil May Be Delayed.

Washington, June 8.—A cablegram was received at the war department yesterday from Gen. MacArthur, at Manila, announcing that all the volunteers have left the Philippines, en route for the United States. Gen. MacArthur will probably sail for home in July on the transport Summer, which will be fitted up for his use. He will return to the United States by way of Japan and the Pacific ocean.

Taft to Be Governor.
Washington, June 8.—When Judge Taft, of the Philippine commission, becomes the head of the civil government in the Philippine Islands he will have the title of governor. While it is expected that he will become governor of the Philippines about the first of July, there may be some delay, as the civil governmental machinery may not be ready at that date. Both Judge Taft and Gen. MacArthur have informed the secretary of war that July 1 was as early as the proposed civil government could be put in operation, and as neither have made any modification of their views it is presumed that they still are of that opinion.

Grant on Aguinaldo.
New York, June 8.—Gen. Frederick Dent Grant was given a reception last night by the U. S. Grant post, G. A. R. in a brief address Gen. Grant said:

"Aguinaldo was not as much of a capture in the Philippines as he seems to have been here. To tell the truth he had lost about all his influence. We do not treat him as if we considered him of some importance. We cannot kill him, of course, but we want to make him feel that he stands on the same footing with any other Filipino."

"If we should fine him ten dollars and send him to jail for 30 days, and set him to breaking rock, it would be better for him and for ourselves. If, when he comes over here, we treat him with contempt and will be treated with contempt by the natives when he goes home. But if over there they get the idea that we have a high idea of Aguinaldo's importance when he gets back he will have a following which will make us trouble."

Surrender Terms.

Manila, June 10.—Gen. Cailles, the insurgent commander in the province of Laguna, has promised to surrender under the following terms: That hostilities shall be suspended while the negotiations are pending; that his troops shall receive the customary considerations and the benefit of the franchise, and that instead of the government paying the usual $30 for every rifle surrendered, a fund of $100,000 shall be created for the benefit of the widows and orphans of Filipino soldiers.

Holland High School Commencement Exercises.

The members of the senior class of the Holland High school have completed their high school career and this week was devoted to graduating exercises. The class is one of the largest ever graduated in this city and consists of 15 boys and nine girls as follows:

John Grevenoged, Fred Gilbert Kleyn, Hoyt Garrod Post, Peter Rafenand, William Rotschafer, John J. Schoon, Herman Vaupell, Lewis A. Holley, Louis P. McKay, John Praken, William J. Robinson, William Rozeboom, Harry B. Takken, James Verbeist, William G. Winter, Lena Luberta Arendsen, Matilda F. Damson, Sarella Jeanette Kiekintveld, Cornelia Henrietta Steketee, Blanche Elizabeth Cathcart, Johanna Henrietta Mokma, Grace Rowena Shaw, Ernest Lizabeth Stokes, Dora Catharine Strowenijens.

The class motto is, "Labor's Reward is Success."

The young men and women of "1901" have had practically the same history and experiences that fall to the lot of all high school graduates. They have been faithful and conscientious in the pursuit of knowledge and as a result are well equipped, either to continue their studies and attain a higher degree of learning or to take up the serious and perplexing problems of life.

It means something to graduate from the Holland High School. It means something to triumph in the preliminary struggle for an education, and the members of the class of 1901 deserve unbounded credit for the progress they have made thus far in the work of acquiring such education.

It should serve as a stimulus to a higher endeavor and its result should be ultimate success.

The class gathered at the Third Reformed church last Sunday night to listen to the baccalaureate sermon delivered by Rev. G. H. Dubbink. The text was found in Col. 1:9-11. The sermon was a masterly effort and was delivered in a sincere, earnest manner that held the close attention of an audience that thronged the church to the doors. Among other things Rev. Dubbink said:

"Our life is as we are. Things without us are simply the occasions, the materials, which we use, each according to his several ability. It is then vital to us that we should know how to use them. And this we are enabled to do by the spirit of wisdom and understanding."

These two-fold gifts, these twin graces go hand in hand, but are not exactly the same. Wisdom is the power of understanding things as they are in themselves; understanding is the power of discerning their true relations as they come before us. Wisdom, strictly speaking deals with that which is spiritual and with moral principles; understanding with that which is earthly, intellectual. It deals with embodiments. We require both.

For we are on one hand, in continual danger of being distracted and deceived by the show of busy energy; the return of quick results; the spirit of wisdom discloses a larger, deeper, surer view of life and duty.

On the other hand we are in continual danger of being perplexed and confused by rival paths which profess to lead to the same end; by conflicting schemes which challenge our sympathy, by half-truths which offer themselves and claim our absolute allegiance. Then the spirit of understanding brings back order and harmony to our purposes and efforts.

Wisdom is the pilot; understanding the ballast that steadies.

Wisdom deals with that which is; understanding with that which is presented to us.

Wisdom is the support of faith, understanding the preparation for action.

"Happy is the man that findeth wisdom and the man that getteth understanding. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver; and the gain thereof than fine gold. She is more precious than rubies and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her."

"How much better to get wisdom than gold; and understanding to be chosen than silver. For wisdom is a defense and money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom giveth life to them that have it."

But what is the aim or object of all this?

It is to "Walk worthily of the Lord." Walk or live fittingly; becomingly, worthily of the Lord.

To whom much is given, of him much is required. Our responsibilities are co-extensive with our privileges.

As citizens of the United States we must walk worthily of our country. For whatever may be true of others, we believe that for us this is the best country on earth, walk worthily of it.

Walk worthily of the advantages you have had.

Walk worthily of your parents, your older brothers and sisters, of their love, their disinterestedness; of their self-sacrifice.

Walk worthily of what school board has done for you; of what your teachers have done.

Walk worthily of your school; of your class and class-mates, of yourself, but above all walk worthily of your Lord, unto all well pleasing.

My young friends, when asked to address you on this occasion we experienced the embarrassment of riches. The word of God is so full of truths suitable for such occasions that we found it hard to make a selection.

We have tried to impart if possible high and noble ideals of life, to give you a glimpse of the wonderful and blessed life God offers in Christ.

We say God offers this life. For what Lowell says is true:

"The only heaven that is given away, And only God may be had for the asking."

This life has all the elements you need. A rule of faith and conduct the will of God, as expressed in S. S.; the spirit of wisdom and understanding that teaches us to make the most of life's opportunities; a personal Master and Redeemer of whom we try to walk worthily; a life that is a blessing to others, full of good works; it is prepared to meet hatred, trial, persecution, tribulation with patience, long suffering and even with joy.

Let not your learning be a "thing apart, a pillared hermit of the brain." But remember the spirit of man is the Lord's candle. Be useful.

Do not worry, learn to throw off your care with your coat. We have no sympathy with the student who burns his life and his oil together, but for the rest, we agree with President Hastings of Union Seminary, who when stood before a graduating class said, "I have but two pieces of advice, first find the place where God wants you; second when you have found it, burn to the socket. For idleness gets the better of some; vice of others; and in still more the cold air of the world throws their nobler nature in a frozen sleep."

"Labor's reward is success"—labor in the right direction.

You have life before you; enter upon the inheritance that God gives you. For the mean and the passing can never rival the noble and the enduring.

For in the Christian religion everything is on a scale of unpeakable grandeur says Dr. Geike: "This life is a mere point from which we look abroad into the illimitable; the interests, eternal; the actors, spirits, there is nothing insignificant and even-est all has its proportionate grandeur. He that does the will of God abideth long after the world and all its pleasures pass away; such one shall dwell in a world of perfect light, love, holiness, truth, far removed from sin, sorrow, disappointment, darkness and death."

God grant that the reward of your labor may be success; such success, that on that illustrious day the Righteous Judge may say, faithful servants enter into the joy of your Lord."

The twenty-second annual commencement took place last evening at the Third Reformed church. At 8 o'clock to the music of a march, the graduating class, the chorus, members of the board of education, officers of the alumni and teachers of the public schools filed into church and took reserved seats in the front part. The remainder of the auditorium and the gallery was crowded with the relatives and friends of the graduates.

The first number on the program was the rendition of "God Bless Our Native Land" by the High school chorus. The girls were dressed in white and formed a pretty picture. They were in charge of Miss Grace Yates and sang beautifully. After prayer by Rev. Dosker the chorus sang Rossini's "Carnovale."

Then came the address of the evening by Dr. D. F. Fox, the noted lecturer of Chicago. He is a brilliant, eloquent speaker and held the audience spell bound for nearly two hours by his wonderful word pictures. His theme was, "The Neglected Cavalier" and he portrayed graphically the leading events in the life of Sir Walter Raleigh, deducing therefrom many lessons of burning interest to all, particularly the young men and women of the graduating class.

After another song by the chorus Superintendent F. D. Haddock presented the diplomas to the graduates. As their names were called they stepped to the front, received the much prized diplomas and filed to the platform where they stood in line waiting for the members of the chorus who joined them in the closing song.

As they stood in full view of the audience one thing was particularly noticeable, and that was the youth of the members of the class. It is a tribute to their brightness, their earnest effort and their ability to learn that such a young looking class should master the course of the Holland High school, for without a doubt it is the equal of any high school course in Michigan.

Following are the instructors of the high school: F. D. Haddock, Supt.; O. S. Reimold, Principal; E. T. Cameron, Miss Candace Reynolds, Miss Carrie Krell, Miss Julia C. Van Raalte, Miss Grace Yates, Director of Music.

The members of the Board of Education are, H. Kremers, M. D. president; G. J. Van Duren, secretary; Isaac Marsilje, J. C. Post, O. E. Yates, M. D., H. Geerlings, Jr., B. Steketee, J. A. Mabbs, M. D.

PRESENTATION OF DIPLOMAS.

Addressing the class, Supt. Haddock said,—

"I desire to emphasize four thoughts each of which has already been suggested, if not dwelt upon, by the orator of the evening.

The Saxon has attained supremacy in the world's affairs. America is today the most powerful nation in the world. This brings untold responsibility upon us a nation, and as individuals. Loyalty to America, means loyalty to our most beneficent institution, the public schools.

Secondly, remember that this evening marks commencement, not completion. It has been well said that the largest room in the world is the room for improvement.

In the third place I commend to you the sentiment "For value received we promise to pay." None can truly estimate what it has cost to secure to us the blessings and opportunities of this hour. But there comes to each of us a clarion cry to perform unflinchingly the duties that are ours, ever mindful of the heroic men and women who in the past have paid the last full measure of devotion to the cause of right.

Finally, be optimistic not pessimistic.

There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave. There are souls that are pure and true; Then give to the world the best you have, And the best shall come back to you.

Give love, and love to your heart will flow, A strength in your arm's most need; Have faith, and a score of hearts will share Their faith in your word and deed.

For life is the mirror of king and slave, 'Tis just what you are and do; Then give to the world the best you have, And the best will come back to you.

And now I have only to say, that I have been instructed by the President of the Board of Education to present to you on their behalf and in behalf of the teachers of the public schools, these diplomas which certify to all that you have faithfully and satisfactorily completed the work prescribed by our course of study."

Board of Education

At the regular meeting of the board of education held last Monday evening the committee on buildings and grounds, consisting of J. A. Mabbs and I. Marsilje handed in the following report: "Your committee on buildings and grounds find that the grounds of Central and Maple street schools are being trespassed upon at night, and would recommend that electric lights of sufficient power be kept burning at night in such dark places on said grounds, not to exceed one lamp on said school grounds."

The following communication was also presented to the board by the Superintendent.

"I take pleasure in informing you that the committee on diploma schools have placed the Holland High School, upon our list for this year and the two following years.

Yours Truly,

King Edward's Double.

An amusing incident occurred during the Easter holidays at Boulogne. The editor of a London weekly—a gentleman who bears a striking resemblance to King Edward—was enjoying his cigar in one of the principal cafes in the town, when he suddenly became aware that his presence was causing unwonted interest and no little commotion. Presently an old gentleman rose up and shouted: "Vive le Roi de l'Angleterre!" a sentiment which was heartily joined in by most of the people in the cafe. The conductor of the orchestra, not to be behind hand, immediately struck up, "God Save the King," but this was too much for the journalist, who made a bolt for the door, and made good his escape.

Longevity of Lobsters.

Among the marine articulates, life is often prolonged for years. Some of the larger crabs and lobsters probably endure for a decade or more; a few species may live on to nearly two decades before attaining their fullest growth.

Four Ministers

Tell of Magical Results Brought About in Burning, Itching, Bleeding Skin Troubles by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. Chase's Ointment draws more praise from ministers, physicians and lawyers than any other medicine in the world. It is endorsed by every profession.

Extracts from their Letters.

Rev. W. N. Edwards, Baptist minister, 100 Trilby Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "For over fifteen years the itching piles have been a source of constant annoyance to me, and frequently, too, the suffering has become intense. At times there was bleeding and the itching and burning was beyond endurance. The results I have derived from Dr. Chase's Ointment have been magical and the benefits lasting. I feel it a duty to fellow sufferers to recommend it."

Rev. J. N. Van Natter, Methodist minister, Albion, Wis., writes: "My wife was terribly afflicted with protruding piles and contemplated a surgical operation when her notice was drawn to Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a cure."

"I then used it for an unsightly and troublesome skin affection, which had baffled medical skill for twenty-five years. Dr. Chase's Ointment thoroughly cured it. For piles and skin disease it is worth its weight in gold."

Rev. J. A. Baldwin, Baptist minister, Arkona, Ont., writes:

"For over twenty years I was a great sufferer from itching and protruding piles. I used many remedies and underwent three very painful surgical operations, all without obtaining any permanent benefit. When about to give up in despair I was told to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and did so, finding relief at once. I used three boxes, and am entirely cured. The itching is all gone. I have advised others to use it, believing it would cure them as it has me."

Rev. Chas. Fish, Methodist minister, 104 Dunn Avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes:

"Ten years ago eczema began on my ears and spread over my head and hands. During that time I was a great sufferer. I tried many remedies, and some of the best physicians—specialists on skin diseases—treated me. The first box of Dr. Chase's Ointment gave much relief, and five boxes completely cured me. I think my cure a marvel, and gladly recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Just as good for every form of skin trouble, no matter how long standing. 50 cents a box, all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Hermanus Boone and John De Haan two sixteen year old boys from Zeeland were drowned in Black River about two miles east of Holland last Tuesday evening. They went to the river in search of plants for the botany class and about five o'clock went in bathing in the river back of J. H. Boone's old homestead. Two young men named Van Peltz found their clothes on the bank about six o'clock and upon investigation the bodies of the boys were found at about seven o'clock in five feet of water. The bodies were about four feet apart. The friends of the boys say that both were good swimmers and they do not understand how they could be drowned in such shallow water. Coroner Yates viewed the scene of the accident and as all the circumstances showed that death was due to accidental drowning no inquest was held. The funeral of H. Boone will be held this afternoon in the First Reformed church of Zeeland. The funeral of John De Haan was held yesterday from the First Christian Reformed church. Rev. Groen, of Grand Rapids, officiating.

Pain in Stomach

Flatulency, sourness, bad taste, loss of appetite, a sense of weight or fullness after eating, together with uneasiness, impatience, irritability of temper, nervousness, anxiety, lost energy, depression of spirits, sick headache, bad dreams and sleeplessness, come from weak and debilitated nerves. That kind of nerves have to be braced up, strengthened, invigorated and helped if you would have a sound stomach, a keen appetite and a cheerful mind.

"My stomach was so weak that I could eat only the lightest food and that caused me great distress. In spite of the best physicians here and in Chicago I grew worse until I was confined in bed, where I remained eighteen months. I began to improve with the first bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine and grew steadily stronger until I was well. My weight increased from 90 to 160 pounds." MRS. H. C. JONES, Kentland, Ind.

DOG BAROMETERS.

Sailors Place Implicit Reliance in Their Weather Signs—Afraid of Storms.

Sailors generally show an inclination for pets, but the dog is a valuable member of the crew. He is considered as trustworthy as a barometer in giving notice of an approaching storm. Most dogs are cowards in storms. Occasionally a captain finds a dog that is not afraid of heavy weather, and seems to enjoy the rolling or pitching of the ship; but as a rule dogs are as afraid of a gale as a woman passenger, and at the first sign of a storm hunt for a hiding place.

"I had a dog that was as much like a woman as it was possible for an animal to be," said a captain who has carried a dog with him for nearly a quarter of a century. "He could tell when a storm was coming long before I could, and often before the barometer changed. He would come to me whining and crying, and I couldn't keep him from my heels. He seemed to be asking me to put him ashore, or to find a comfortable place for him. I used to feel sorry for him. When a storm struck us he would be out of sight, and we often found him hiding under the bunks and in corners where he could not see anything and could not be easily seen."

WISE ANIMALS.

Some That Seem to Do Some Thinking When They Get Into Trouble.

A naturalist found black ants were devouring the skins of some bird specimens on a table, so he made tar circles on four places of paper and put one under each leg of the table. Ants will not cross tar. Pretty soon he found the ants busily at work again, and, looking at the tar circles, found each one was bridged by bits of sand which the clever ants had brought in from the street.

On one occasion, owing to excessive heat, one of the combs of a beehive became detached and was in great danger of falling. The bees at once set to work and erected a shoring pillar between the endangered comb and the one next to it. The pillar braced the comb and kept it from falling. Then they rebuilt the wax cells, fastening the comb to the wall, and afterward removed the pillar. A Capuchin monkey was given some walnuts, which he tried to crack with his teeth, but found he was not strong enough. He then seized a stone which was near by, held the nuts on the ground with one hand and used his stone hammer with the other, with excellent results. Other monkeys have been seen to utilize nutpicks.

SAMOAN GIRLS.

Native Belles Pick Their Party Dresses, Nearly Ready Made from the Trees.

Party gowns for Samoan girls grow on the tropical trees and almost ready to wear. When a native beauty of Samoa decides to go to a special entertainment she enters the forest to look for her gala attire. The native kiki, or kiki, is the only addition to her ordinary costume that the Samoan girl provides for special parties. The material for the kiki grows on the ti tree. It consists of a ribbon of bark a few inches wide that is stripped from the tree easily. While damp the bark, which is very thin, is crinkled so as to form wavy outlines, and the ribbons are colored all sorts of bright hues. The Samoan girl then plait a waistband from the same kind of bark and hangs the ribbons on it. Handmade flowers of the same material are often added also. When the kiki is completed the dusky belle puts it on over the scanty lava-lava, or waistcloth, and goes to the dance or other entertainment. The girls thus make their own party dresses, and some of them show great taste and skill in fashioning the odd garments.

THE WORK OF A TORNADO

Sweeps Over Portions of Kansas and Oklahoma, Leaving Death and Ruin Behind.

SEVERAL PERSONS LOSE THEIR LIVES.

The Storm Covered About Fifty Miles in Length, and Its Pathway is strewn with Wreckage—One Town Entirely Destroyed—Wheat Fields in Kansas Ruined.

Perry, Okla., June 10.—In a furious tornado which swept over portions of Kansas and Oklahoma several persons were killed. Information from the devastated district is meager. Rushing down from the Kansas state line and covering about 50 miles in width, the rain, wind and hail swept over the country to the southern boundary of Oklahoma. The rain fell in torrents from early Friday evening until midnight. The fury of the storm centered in a tornado at about 6:30 p. m., which formed at a point near the Kansas state line and just on the county lines of Kay and Grant, Okla. It took a southeasterly course and was most disastrous on a belt of ten miles square in eastern Kay county. The little town of Eddy was struck and of the 12 or 15 buildings in the place all were leveled to the ground except the railroad station and elevator. Flying lumber was scattered for miles. One unknown man was killed and several persons injured by flying debris.

Country Laid Waste.
The country in the track of the storm between this point and Tonkawa, a distance of about eight miles, was laid waste. Five farmhouses with barns and outbuildings were blown away, but the occupants all escaped without injury.

At Tonkawa 30 dwellings and business houses were scattered like so much loose lumber. The citizens of the town had been watching the advance of the storm and had sought shelter in caves and cellars. No fatalities are reported at this point.

At Blackwell, a few miles north of Tonkawa, F. H. Crawford, a carpenter, who was working on a house, was struck by lightning during the storm and instantly killed.

Wheat Fields Devastated.

Wichita, Kan., June 10.—A correspondent who has arrived here from the scene of devastation in Kay county, Oklahoma, says that the storm of Friday night ruined the wheat crop of 400 farms west and northwest of Blackwell. These farms are all in one body of territory. The farmers, who had purchased twine and harvest machinery, are asking the local dealers to take them back, and the dealers have referred the matter to the factories. The loss of crops will cause no distress, as the farmers are in good condition financially, owing to a succession of good crops during the past five seasons.

The opening session was devoted to addresses of welcome delivered by the mayor of the city, governor of the state and other leading citizens.

FOUND GUILTY.

Jury in Chicago Declares Unger and Brown to Be Insurance Conspirators.

Chicago, June 11.—Dr. August M. Unger and F. Wayland Brown were yesterday found guilty of conspiracy to commit the insurance frauds which culminated in the death of Marie Defenbach last fall. Punishment by imprisonment in the penitentiary for an indeterminate term of from one to five years is the penalty.

[The Defenbach case may be said to have had its inception April 3, 1900, when Dr. Unger, under the assumed name of Dr. Scott, in company of Marie Defenbach, called on one of the officials of the Independent Order of Foresters. Marie sought to secure $5,000 insurance, and after some weeks of waiting her name was finally entered on the rolls of the organization. This was the beginning of a series of dealings with insurance companies and organizations which finally resulted in an aggregate of $12,000 in insurance being secured on the life of the girl. This money was distributed as follows: Independent Order of Foresters, $5,000; New York Life Insurance company, $5,000; Knights and Ladies of Honor, $2,000. If they had been successful in all their efforts she would have carried a total of $67,000 in insurance. Brown and Smiley came into prominence through an arrangement making Smiley, as her affianced husband, the beneficiary in the foresters' policy. The girl died on the night of August 25. For an hour before her death she suffered intense agony. She called repeatedly for Dr. Unger. The day following the body was embalmed at a neighboring undertaking establishment. Brown and Smiley called at the house and made all preparations for the funeral and the disposition of her personal effects. Tuesday she was cremated at Graceland in accordance with the provisions of a will found in her bedroom and dated August 25. Smiley and Brown set to work to collect the $5,000 policy in the foresters and Unger sought to get the money called for in the other two policies. Smiley attempted to probate the will and the publicity brought about an expose, arrests and finally conviction.]

BANKS ARE THRIVING.

Comptroller's Reports for the Year Show an Unusual Increase in Depositories and Deposits.

Washington, June 10.—All the reports called for by the comptroller of the currency dealing with the condition of national banks at the close of business April 24 are in, and the showing is held by treasury officials to be a remarkable one, far in excess of anything of the kind in history. There is a total of 4,064 banks; at the close of business April 26, 1900, there were 3,631. Total resources are $5,690,794,367; in 1900, $4,811,956,048. Total individual deposits $2,893,665,449; in 1900 they were $2,449,212,656. Loans and discounts are $2,911,526,276; in 1900, $2,566,034,990. Surplus funds and undivided profits amount to $416,017,134; in 1900 they were $383,757,200. Lawful money in reserve, including the five per centum redemption fund with treasurer, is $565,669,294; last year it was $516,190,886. The average reserve held is 29.1 per cent.

PERISH IN A MINE.

Explosion in a Colliery in Pennsylvania Kills Sixteen Men and Destroys Vast Amount of Property.

Port Royal, Pa., June 12.—As a result of Monday night's explosion in the Port-Royal mines of the Pittsburgh Coal company 16 are dead, seven injured and thousands of dollars' worth of property destroyed. Twelve of the dead were men who went into the mine as rescuers. What caused the explosion and loss of life is something the mine inspectors of the Ninth and Eleventh districts spent the greater part of the day trying to find out. The officials of the coal company declare that none but regulation mine lamps were used, while others are of the opinion that one of the men carelessly ignited the gas and caused one of the greatest mine catastrophes in the history of Westmoreland county.

DECLARED CONSTITUTIONAL.

Iowa's Anti-Cigarette Law Held to Be Valid by the District Court at Marshalltown.

Marshalltown, Ia., June 10.—Judge Burnham, of the district court, Saturday decided that the Iowa cigarette tax law is constitutional, and that the property of dealers in cigarettes and owners of buildings where they are sold may be attached and sold for said taxes. There are several thousand dollars in this county alone in back tax money due the state. Similar suits pending in other counties have been awaiting the decision in Marshall county. The American Tobacco company, it is said, will appeal.

News of Suicides Suppressed.

Emporia, Kan., June 12.—An epidemic of suicides, which has caused in the towns and county two dozen suicides or attempts in as many months, has led the mayor and board of health to forbid the publication of details of the crimes in local papers. Their action is taken on the theory that publication spreads the contagion by psychic suggestion.

ENJOYS A ROLLER CHAIR.

Mrs. McKinley Continues to Improve and Leaves Her Bed for Short Time.

SHORT CABINET MEETING IS HELD.

Course of the President in Putting Stop to Third Term Talks Commended by His Advisers—Secretary Long Declares His Statement Is Intensely Patriotic.

Washington, June 12.—After the consultation of Mrs. McKinley's physicians Wednesday forenoon, the following statement was issued:

"Mrs. McKinley's physicians report that she continues to show improvement and expects to spend part of the day in her rolling chair."

Indorse President's Course.

Washington, June 12.—The cabinet meeting Wednesday had no important questions before it. Secretary Root and Secretary Hay were both away and the heads of the other departments had only minor matters to present. After the meeting one of the members said they were unanimous in their approval of the president's pronouncement regarding the third term. The member pointed out that if the president had allowed the discussion to proceed for any length of time, notwithstanding the fact that he has never entertained even the most remote idea of being a candidate for a third term, an announcement similar to that made Wednesday would have been subject to the misconception that he had been forced by public opinion to give up an ambition which he had never had.

Comments of Cabinet Officers.

New York, June 12.—Secretary Long is quoted by the Washington correspondent of the Tribune on the subject of President McKinley's statement on the third term as follows:

"I think the president by this act has given another evidence of his wisdom and patriotism. After eight years of the burdens and responsibilities of office he looks forward to the relief of private life. As a matter of principle and conviction, also, he would not accept a third term, and has evidently felt it his duty to conform to the traditions of his country in this respect. This action of his, I believe, will do more than anything else can do to settle this question for all time."

Secretary Hitchcock said: "It is a noble statement, saturated with patriotism from beginning to end. It will be forever historic, and is just what might have been expected from such a loyal lover of his country and his countrymen."

Postmaster General Smith said: "In taking this step he has not only followed his personal inclinations, but he has acted from a deep sense of duty and from his belief in a principle of our institutions which he thinks absolute and unchangeable. Beyond this, his administration is dealing with great public questions of the first magnitude, which he feels should everywhere be considered fully and exclusively on their own merits, without the possibility of the imputation in any quarter of personal thought or purpose."

Miss Flagler Weds.

Washington, June 12.—Miss Elizabeth Moore Flagler, daughter of the late Gen. Flagler, and Dr. George W. MacKean, of Nova Scotia, were married at St. Margaret's church in this city Wednesday. The bride's brother, Capt. Flagler, gave her away. None but relatives and personal friends witnessed the ceremony, but 800 persons attended a reception afterwards, given at the residence of the bride's mother.

ORGANS CARRIED IN TRUNKS. One That Traveled Around the World—Many Are Thus Carried in This Country.

"In the Sun awhile ago," said a man, "I read an interesting paragraph about a trunk that a New York manufacturer had made for an organ that was carried around the world by Ira D. Sankey, the singing evangelist. He carried the organ with him to be sure to have one to use when ever he wanted it, and he had that trunk made for it to insure its safety in transportation, and to make it easy to transport instead of boxing and unboxing it every time. They used to carry this organ in its trunk right onto the stage and just open the trunk and throw the top and sides back and there was the organ ready for use."

"Very probably that organ trunk made the longest continuous journey of any ever made, but I guess you would find a dozen or dozens of organs toted all over this country in trunks made to carry them in. These organs are carried by theatrical and other traveling entertainments. It might seem as though an organ could be found anywhere in the country, but as a matter of fact that is not so. Carrying an organ along they avoid all difficulty and have just what they want. And if you could get them all into a bundle together I guess you could gather up something like a carload of baggage consisting of organs carried in trunks."

ACTS AS GAME CONSTABLE. The Young Husband of Queen Wilhelmina Acts in a Humble Official Position.

Queen Wilhelmina's new husband has acquired distinction in the vicinity of the royal residence by acting as a game warden. Two jolly Dutchmen fond of poaching entered the forest of Loo a few days ago in the hope of being able to snare a few partridges, says a London exchange.

In this task they were quite successful, but as they were sneaking home through the trees at a little distance from the royal castle in which Queen Wilhelmina and the prince of Mecklenburg are spending their honeymoon they found themselves face to face with another sportsman.

It was, in fact, the prince of Mecklenburg himself.

The poachers did not know him, and the two Dutchmen never suspecting that this handsome young gentleman was laying a trap, told him all about themselves and consequently were surprised when the prince told them to hand over their partridges and give him their names. They complied sullenly and then went home, where they were arrested a few hours later on the charge of poaching.

The prince of Mecklenburg has never been popular with the people of Holland, and his action on this occasion has helped to intensify the ill-feeling against him, since the general opinion is that a man in his position could afford to overlook the peccadillo of which the two Dutchmen were guilty.

Gold in the Carpets. An order has gone out from the treasury department that before the various superintendents submit their reports for the current year they shall burn the rugs and carpets on the floors of the rooms where melting and refining of gold and silver takes place. All the old cloths, gloves and other paraphernalia used in handling the precious metals are to be burned also and careful stock taken of the residue. The government expects to save anywhere from $50,000 to $100,000 from this process. It is customary to go through this formula every year or so and glean out all flakes of gold that may have been scraped or clipped off and lost to sight. Even the towels the employees wash their hands on are saved and submitted to fire.

MUSIC OF BEETLES. While the structure of the music of stridulating organs of beetles is extremely simple, they sometimes possess contrivances for varying the pitch. The general structure of such an organ is a hard surface covered with striations, over which some other member of the body furnished with a rasping edge or area is rubbed. When the striated surface is divided into parts with finer and coarser markings, variations of pitch can be produced.

Speculation in 1901 CENTS. A flustering young woman, out of breath as though walking fast, rushed up the steps of the mint the other day, and asked to be directed to the bureau of information.

"There isn't any," replied the uniformed messenger, a very fat man, reports the Philadelphia Record.

"Perhaps I can tell you what you want to know," "Perhaps you can," said the young woman, producing a copy of a frivolous weekly paper. "I want to know if this is true." She pointed to a paragraph which read: "Among the curiosities of collecting is the fact that 1901 cents now bring about $19 in the coin market."

The fat messenger adjusted his glasses and scrutinized the paragraph. While he was thus engaged the young woman explained that she had four 1901 cents, and wanted to know what made them so valuable, and where she could realize on them. Then the fat messenger grew purple in the face from suppressed laughter, which finally exploded and seemed in momentary danger of having an apoplectic fit. He called the attention of the other messengers to the paragraph, and then followed combined roars of merriment. In the meantime the young woman with the four 1901 cents wondered if she had strayed by mistake into a lunatic asylum. Finally the fat messenger regained his breath sufficiently to gasp: "It's a joke. Don't you see? I'll give you $19 for 1,901 pennies, and I'll be a cent ahead of the game. See?" A great light seemed to dawn in the mind of the young woman. "I dare say it's very funny," she said, "but I don't think such things ought to be printed." And she made her exit sorrowfully.

TO MAKE MEN BEAUTIFUL. Moscow Establishment Where the Deformed and Ugly Are Transformed.

That men ought to desire physical beauty as much as women is the firm belief of two German merchants, who have opened at Moscow a store in which, they claim, any man who is deformed or ugly can find appliances that will speedily remove all his defects and transform him into a thing of beauty, says a foreign exchange.

This transformation will naturally cost him some money, but not much. If his calves are not well shaped and he desires to have them padded he need only pay ten francs, and if he is pigeon-breasted and desires the chest of a gladiator he can acquire that commodity by paying a trifle of 25 francs.

"We guarantee," say these ingenious merchants, who are evidently good judges of human nature, "to provide anyone with a first-class bust of Apollo for 62 francs 50 centimes, with an ordinary bust of Apollo for 37 francs 50 centimes, with a pair of shoulders like Hercules for 25 francs, and with an improved pair of such shoulders, made of whalebone and nickel, for 75 francs."

Indeed, a glance over the price list shows that for 200 francs any gentleman who is at all lacking in personal beauty or grace can have himself speedily changed into a faultless Adonis.

Ships Disappear and Leave No Sign. A paper bearing the prosaic title of "Underladen Sailing Ships and Steamers," read before the Shipmasters' society by William Allingham, contained enough material to have furnished Clark Russell with a foundation for a dozen sea romances, says a London paper. The public know of some of the risks incurred by those who go down to the sea in ships. But one not frequently heard of by landmen is that of "underloading when in ballast."

The danger of underloading, Mr. Allingham pointed out, was hardly less great than that of overloading. Yet sailing ships and steamers proceed to sea daily with insufficient ballast, whereas an overlaid vessel would be prevented from leaving port. The question of providing an underload line in addition to the present load-line might well be considered. In the period from 1890 to 1900 no fewer than 22 British ships disappeared while on interocean voyages without leaving a trace as to their fate.

An Insulted Gaffer. An inquisitive commuter on one of the trains that pulled into the Grand Central station had his dignity ruffled the other day by a facetious engineer. The commuter wore a golf suit of the latest pattern. His suit wasn't ruffled, but his temper was, when the engineer took him for a bicycle rider. Mr. Inquisitive, seeing that the big locomotive in the yard was in some sort of trouble, yelled at the engineer a query as to what was the matter. His curiosity was satisfied and his suit of clothes insulted when the grimy engineer shouted back at him: "Nothing much; just punctured my tire. Got a pocket pump with you?"

GLASSES FOR AUTOMOBILISTS. Kind Used to Protect the Driver's Face When Going at High Speed.

To the various sorts of glasses designed for drivers' use have now been added automobile glasses, especially designed for the use of the automobile driver. These are not worn in the city, where, with the restrictions on the speed of automobiles, they are not needed; but they are worn in the country, where the automobilist unshackles the machine and lets it go at 40 or 50 miles an hour, more or less. Going at that speed his eyes need protection; and this is afforded by the automobile glasses, says the Chicago Inter Ocean.

These glasses are spectacles fitted with very large shell-shaped or convex glass lenses, the size and the shape giving a wide field of vision. Attached to the frame is a mask that projects high enough above the glasses to cover the forehead of the wearer, up under the peak of the cap, and that extends below the glasses and out at the sides along the spectacle bows, sufficiently to cover the entire face, front and sides.

For winter wear, when some warmth it would be desirable, the mask is made of suede leather, lined with silk; for summer use these glasses are made with the mask of unlined silk, either of the gray suede color or of black.

Automobile glasses are a French notion, and originally all those sold here were imported from France. Now they are made here. Lots of them are sold. They cost, according to the material the mask is made of, from $2.50 to $5 a pair.

POSITIVE PROOF. Because its evidence in Holland. It's from a citizen, perhaps a neighbor. Investigation will confirm it.

Mrs. F. Andree, of 243 West 12th street, says: "For a year or more I had a constant aching pain through my loins in the side and also a soreness of the stomach. I could hardly stoop to lift anything without suffering severely. I did not rest comfortably at night and became so lame and sore from lying in one position that in the morning I arose feeling tired and unrefreshed. I was bothered a great deal with headache, spells of dizziness, and the kidney secretions became affected, were irregular, too frequent and unnatural. I doctored a great deal and took many kinds of medicines, but without getting better. I believe I would still be suffering if I had not heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from J. O. Doesburg's drug store. I felt better after taking a few doses and continued their use until cured."

The commuter wore a golf suit of the latest pattern. His suit wasn't ruffled, but his temper was, when the engineer took him for a bicycle rider. Mr. Inquisitive, seeing that the big locomotive in the yard was in some sort of trouble, yelled at the engineer a query as to what was the matter. His curiosity was satisfied and his suit of clothes insulted when the grimy engineer shouted back at him: "Nothing much; just punctured my tire. Got a pocket pump with you?"

GLASSES FOR AUTOMOBILISTS. Kind Used to Protect the Driver's Face When Going at High Speed.

To the various sorts of glasses designed for drivers' use have now been added automobile glasses, especially designed for the use of the automobile driver. These are not worn in the city, where, with the restrictions on the speed of automobiles, they are not needed; but they are worn in the country, where the automobilist unshackles the machine and lets it go at 40 or 50 miles an hour, more or less. Going at that speed his eyes need protection; and this is afforded by the automobile glasses, says the Chicago Inter Ocean.

These glasses are spectacles fitted with very large shell-shaped or convex glass lenses, the size and the shape giving a wide field of vision. Attached to the frame is a mask that projects high enough above the glasses to cover the forehead of the wearer, up under the peak of the cap, and that extends below the glasses and out at the sides along the spectacle bows, sufficiently to cover the entire face, front and sides.

For winter wear, when some warmth it would be desirable, the mask is made of suede leather, lined with silk; for summer use these glasses are made with the mask of unlined silk, either of the gray suede color or of black.

Automobile glasses are a French notion, and originally all those sold here were imported from France. Now they are made here. Lots of them are sold. They cost, according to the material the mask is made of, from $2.50 to $5 a pair.

POSITIVE PROOF. Because its evidence in Holland. It's from a citizen, perhaps a neighbor. Investigation will confirm it.

Mrs. F. Andree, of 243 West 12th street, says: "For a year or more I had a constant aching pain through my loins in the side and also a soreness of the stomach. I could hardly stoop to lift anything without suffering severely. I did not rest comfortably at night and became so lame and sore from lying in one position that in the morning I arose feeling tired and unrefreshed. I was bothered a great deal with headache, spells of dizziness, and the kidney secretions became affected, were irregular, too frequent and unnatural. I doctored a great deal and took many kinds of medicines, but without getting better. I believe I would still be suffering if I had not heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from J. O. Doesburg's drug store. I felt better after taking a few doses and continued their use until cured."

ORGANS CARRIED IN TRUNKS. One That Traveled Around the World—Many Are Thus Carried in This Country.

"In the Sun awhile ago," said a man, "I read an interesting paragraph about a trunk that a New York manufacturer had made for an organ that was carried around the world by Ira D. Sankey, the singing evangelist. He carried the organ with him to be sure to have one to use when ever he wanted it, and he had that trunk made for it to insure its safety in transportation, and to make it easy to transport instead of boxing and unboxing it every time. They used to carry this organ in its trunk right onto the stage and just open the trunk and throw the top and sides back and there was the organ ready for use."

"Very probably that organ trunk made the longest continuous journey of any ever made, but I guess you would find a dozen or dozens of organs toted all over this country in trunks made to carry them in. These organs are carried by theatrical and other traveling entertainments. It might seem as though an organ could be found anywhere in the country, but as a matter of fact that is not so. Carrying an organ along they avoid all difficulty and have just what they want. And if you could get them all into a bundle together I guess you could gather up something like a carload of baggage consisting of organs carried in trunks."

ACTS AS GAME CONSTABLE. The Young Husband of Queen Wilhelmina Acts in a Humble Official Position.

Queen Wilhelmina's new husband has acquired distinction in the vicinity of the royal residence by acting as a game warden. Two jolly Dutchmen fond of poaching entered the forest of Loo a few days ago in the hope of being able to snare a few partridges, says a London exchange.

In this task they were quite successful, but as they were sneaking home through the trees at a little distance from the royal castle in which Queen Wilhelmina and the prince of Mecklenburg are spending their honeymoon they found themselves face to face with another sportsman.

It was, in fact, the prince of Mecklenburg himself.

ACTS AS GAME CONSTABLE. The Young Husband of Queen Wilhelmina Acts in a Humble Official Position.

Queen Wilhelmina's new husband has acquired distinction in the vicinity of the royal residence by acting as a game warden. Two jolly Dutchmen fond of poaching entered the forest of Loo a few days ago in the hope of being able to snare a few partridges, says a London exchange.

In this task they were quite successful, but as they were sneaking home through the trees at a little distance from the royal castle in which Queen Wilhelmina and the prince of Mecklenburg are spending their honeymoon they found themselves face to face with another sportsman.

It was, in fact, the prince of Mecklenburg himself.

The poachers did not know him, and the two Dutchmen never suspecting that this handsome young gentleman was laying a trap, told him all about themselves and consequently were surprised when the prince told them to hand over their partridges and give him their names. They complied sullenly and then went home, where they were arrested a few hours later on the charge of poaching.

The prince of Mecklenburg has never been popular with the people of Holland, and his action on this occasion has helped to intensify the ill-feeling against him, since the general opinion is that a man in his position could afford to overlook the peccadillo of which the two Dutchmen were guilty.

Gold in the Carpets. An order has gone out from the treasury department that before the various superintendents submit their reports for the current year they shall burn the rugs and carpets on the floors of the rooms where melting and refining of gold and silver takes place. All the old cloths, gloves and other paraphernalia used in handling the precious metals are to be burned also and careful stock taken of the residue. The government expects to save anywhere from $50,000 to $100,000 from this process. It is customary to go through this formula every year or so and glean out all flakes of gold that may have been scraped or clipped off and lost to sight. Even the towels the employees wash their hands on are saved and submitted to fire.

MUSIC OF BEETLES. While the structure of the music of stridulating organs of beetles is extremely simple, they sometimes possess contrivances for varying the pitch. The general structure of such an organ is a hard surface covered with striations, over which some other member of the body furnished with a rasping edge or area is rubbed. When the striated surface is divided into parts with finer and coarser markings, variations of pitch can be produced.

Speculation in 1901 CENTS. A flustering young woman, out of breath as though walking fast, rushed up the steps of the mint the other day, and asked to be directed to the bureau of information.

"There isn't any," replied the uniformed messenger, a very fat man, reports the Philadelphia Record.

"Perhaps I can tell you what you want to know," "Perhaps you can," said the young woman, producing a copy of a frivolous weekly paper. "I want to know if this is true." She pointed to a paragraph which read: "Among the curiosities of collecting is the fact that 1901 cents now bring about $19 in the coin market."

The fat messenger adjusted his glasses and scrutinized the paragraph. While he was thus engaged the young woman explained that she had four 1901 cents, and wanted to know what made them so valuable, and where she could realize on them. Then the fat messenger grew purple in the face from suppressed laughter, which finally exploded and seemed in momentary danger of having an apoplectic fit. He called the attention of the other messengers to the paragraph, and then followed combined roars of merriment. In the meantime the young woman with the four 1901 cents wondered if she had strayed by mistake into a lunatic asylum. Finally the fat messenger regained his breath sufficiently to gasp: "It's a joke. Don't you see? I'll give you $19 for 1,901 pennies, and I'll be a cent ahead of the game. See?" A great light seemed to dawn in the mind of the young woman. "I dare say it's very funny," she said, "but I don't think such things ought to be printed." And she made her exit sorrowfully.

TO MAKE MEN BEAUTIFUL. Moscow Establishment Where the Deformed and Ugly Are Transformed.

That men ought to desire physical beauty as much as women is the firm belief of two German merchants, who have opened at Moscow a store in which, they claim, any man who is deformed or ugly can find appliances that will speedily remove all his defects and transform him into a thing of beauty, says a foreign exchange.

This transformation will naturally cost him some money, but not much. If his calves are not well shaped and he desires to have them padded he need only pay ten francs, and if he is pigeon-breasted and desires the chest of a gladiator he can acquire that commodity by paying a trifle of 25 francs.

"We guarantee," say these ingenious merchants, who are evidently good judges of human nature, "to provide anyone with a first-class bust of Apollo for 62 francs 50 centimes, with an ordinary bust of Apollo for 37 francs 50 centimes, with a pair of shoulders like Hercules for 25 francs, and with an improved pair of such shoulders, made of whalebone and nickel, for 75 francs."

Indeed, a glance over the price list shows that for 200 francs any gentleman who is at all lacking in personal beauty or grace can have himself speedily changed into a faultless Adonis.

Ships Disappear and Leave No Sign. A paper bearing the prosaic title of "Underladen Sailing Ships and Steamers," read before the Shipmasters' society by William Allingham, contained enough material to have furnished Clark Russell with a foundation for a dozen sea romances, says a London paper. The public know of some of the risks incurred by those who go down to the sea in ships. But one not frequently heard of by landmen is that of "underloading when in ballast

What the Holland Rooters Wore.

HOLLAND WINS.

ZEELAND IS VANQUISHED.

A Hard Fought Game—Score 6 to 5.

This is what 700 Holland citizens said to the Holland Base Ball club yesterday:

"To the boys who carried the colors of Holland to victory on the field of contest in Grand Rapids, Greeting—

Splendid, determined athletes that you are we admire the grand spirit that you displayed at every stage of the game. Whether the outcome was dark or bright, whether bitter defeat or glorious victory appeared to be your lot you were not dismayed, you changed not from the cool, brave demeanor that has always characterized you, but with grim, dogged determination played nervily and steadily until the laurel of victory was wrested from the brow of Zeeland."

When "Vaudie" knocked a three base hit.

The Holland boys deserve this encomium, for in a hard fought up hill contest on the diamond at Grand Rapids yesterday afternoon they defeated the Zeeland nine by a score of 6 to 5 and won the $200 stakes put up by the backers of the opposing nines. The game was witnessed by over 1200 people and the rooting was the greatest ever heard on a base ball diamond. Holland was represented by about 600 people who went on a special train, headed by the band. It was jolly crowd and nearly everyone wore badges conveying the tidings, "We root for Holland. Zeeland was represented by about 200 people and the remainder of the crowd came from Grand Rapids and near-by towns.

The game began at 3:30 sharp with Holland to bat. Slabbekoorn was in the box for Zeeland and the Holland boys found his curves right away. "Vaudie" Van den Berg banged a hot single, Van Putten made a two base hit, Vander Hill singled to right and "Vaudie" crossed the plate with the first run. Banninga came to bat and flew out. Then "Tards" Ver Schure struck Slabbekoorn for a single and brought in Van Putten and Van der

Hill making the score 3 to 0. Rob and Jim De Pree were put out and Holland took the field with Andrew Ver Schure (Tards) in the box. He zigzagged them over the plate in such beautiful style that Zeeland was presented with a goose egg. "Tards" kept up the work in the second and third inning and not a Zeeland player crossed the home plate. In the first half of the fourth Holland failed to score. The game was still 3 to 0 in favor of Holland and the enthusiasm of the Holland fans was in striking contrast to the despondency of the Zeeland rooters. Then Zeeland with its proverbial luck and a nice bunching of hits made five runs and forged ahead.

A Zeeland Sport—Dead Broke.

The Zeeland rooters went wild with delight. They felt that victory was within their grasp and assumed an air of confidence. They thought they had the Holland players going and were loud in their boasts. But the Holland boys did not lose their nerve. They made another score in the fifth and gave the Zeelanders another goose egg. In the sixth both drew blanks. "Tards" was at his best, the men behind him were playing with dogged determination and both sides were blanked in the seventh. In the eighth the excitement was intense. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of Zeeland. Then "Vaudie" touched up Slabbekoorn for a three base hit. He kept up the good work and brought in a run that tied the score. Then came the eventful ninth. Jim De Pree steady and reliable, biffed a three base hit to left and aided by Ben Van den Berg and "Brick" Huntley brought in the winning run. Zeeland failed to score in its half and the game was Holland's by a score of 6 to 5.

Pandemonium reigned. Hats were thrown in the air, shouts rent the heavens and the enthusiastic rooters carried the Holland players in triumph from the field.

The Holland boys deserved their victory. Everyone played a cool, steady game. Jim De Pree, Bert Huntley and Ben Van den Berg in the outfield played like veterans. "Vaudie"

was worth his weight in gold at short. Van Putten took care of everything that came his way at third and his remarkable catch of a high fly was an important factor in the game. Rob De Pree on second and Banninga at first were stars of the first magnitude while the battery work of Ver Schure and Van der Hill could not be excelled. "Tards" was a whirlwind in the box and his nerve was with him at all times. Not only that, but he put on his batting clothes Wednesday and never took them off until the game was ended on Thursday. Tony never let the ball pass him and threw to second with the speed and accuracy of a cannon ball. Con De Pree, president of the association, was with the boys through thick and thin and aided materially by counsel and encouragement.

He told the boys that he had a grip to carry home the money and wanted to take the 75 per cent end of the receipts. Just to please him the boys batted out a victory.

W. J. Tibald, of the Olympic Athletic club of Grand Rapids, umpired the game. Not one of his decisions were questioned and both sides were greatly pleased with his work.
