The dredge has completed one of the cuts through the channel at the harbor and there is now water enough for the Puritan to come in without touching.

The Letter Carriers band of Grand Rapids will play at the opening exercises.

There is no disguising the fact that Holland has the strongest ball team in Western Michigan. Manager De Pree has listened to the fans and dropped some of the local "dead ones" and by filling their places with first-class, high price men has secured an organization that is a credit to the town and a team that can hold its own with any club in the state league. Some of the wealthy citizens, catching the fever, gave DePree backing that has enabled him to secure his present winners.—Saugatuck Commercial.

The Scott-Lugers Lumber Co. of Holland have taken an option on Oak Whitney's 160 acre farm just east of town. There are some valuable clay deposit on the place which they desire to utilize in the manufacture of brick and pottery. There is also a stone quarry which yields a gray sand stone of Waverly formation. Should the Holland parties conclude to make the purchase, a spur from the electric railway will be built across the farm and a large industry established.—Saugatuck Correspondent to Fenixville Herald.

The firemen have not monopolized the attention of the people of Holland this week. The thoughts of a number of the people, for various reasons, matrimonial and otherwise, have turned to the furniture market and naturally to James A. Brouwer's store on River street. There they found inducements in the bargain line sufficient to hold them for awhile and chief among these bargains are 50 solid oak quarter sawed swell front dressers with large oval French bevel plate glass that are offered for $9.98. They are valued at $15.00. What a chance to save money!

There has been some talk of establishing a hospital in this city but so far nothing definite has been done towards it. Attorney J. C. Post, Judge Everett and Dr. Everett have had the matter under advisement for nearly a year but are not yet in a position to carry their plans into effect. The project may be taken up later.

A. G. Van Hees, of Zealand, the leading horticulturalist of this part of the state is meeting with great success with his fruit this year. He brought to the News office two boxes of strawberries, one of the Rough Rider, the other of the Bismark variety and one box of Gov. Wood cherries. To say the contents of the boxes were fine is putting it mildly. At the June meeting of the Grand River Horticultural society held at Grand Rapids this week Mr. Van Hees was presented with a handsome souvenir medal for his display of fruit. The next meeting of the Grand River society will be held at Macatawa Park the second Thursday in July.

Gerrit Tubergen is suffering with smallpox at his home, Central avenue and Sixteenth street. It is thought he contracted the disease in Milwaukee. John Sass is acting as nurse. Health Officer Godfrey has established a strict quarantine and it is likely that the disease will be kept from spreading. Some of the members of Ben Tubergen's family living on Eleventh street near Land were exposed and his house is also quarantined.

One of the leading sugar brokers of the state was in town this week and made the statement that sugar made in the Holland factory is graded higher than sugar made any other place in Michigan. He said that he never sold a barrel of it that gave dissatisfaction or that was returned and that all of his customers write that they prefer Holland sugar when it can be obtained.

News received from Bloomfontein states that there is a bitter feeling between the burghers who are surrendering under the peace terms and those Boers who surrendered during the campaign. When the Boer leaders came to Bloomfontein previous to the conclusion of peace they refused to shake hands with those who had previously surrendered. The general belief is that there will be a lasting bitterness between them.

A gentleman employed by the Pere Marquette railway at Ottawa Beach has a new name. His friends call him "Pitchfork." He borrowed a pitchfork from a friend and went out to spear fish. Luck was with him and he impaled on the glistening times a ten-pounder. He thought it was a muskallonge and invited his friends to dine with him. They did so but found that the tempting looking dish of fish was hard to masticate. This led to investigation and it developed that the supposed muskallonge was a tough old dog fish. They say that spearing with a pitchfork is now the style at Ottawa Beach and that Murphy, the keeper of the fishing tackle, is going to put in a stock of pitchforks and rent them instead of hooks and lines.

The death of Henry Vander Sluis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vandersluis, occurred last Sunday morning after a three years illness. His age was 18 years. Henry Vandersluis was one of Holland's brightest boys and prospects for great success in life were his until he became afflicted with the malady that caused death. He was employed at his father's store for some time and his tact and courtesy made him successful in business. He was popular with those who made his acquaintance and a large number of friends mourn his death. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Third Reformed church, Rev. Dr. B. E. Dosker and Rev. J. T. Bergen officiating. The Sunday school class of which Mr. Vandersluis was a member attended the funeral in a body. NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

After the services at the church the people took their well filled lunch baskets and repaired to Campy's Island when a sumptuous repast was served to all present, the old soldiers furnishing the lemonade for the occasion.

Your correspondent desires to say that some girls of Holland are not very faithful, at least not to him. They played ghost, sew a ruffie on his coat and fed him chocolate candy. Now he is sorry that he refused to take them to church.

Mrs. Julia Mosier of Hamilton passed decoration day with her brother Frank Barry.

Only 25 of them so call before they are gone.

FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1902.

Firemen's Convention.

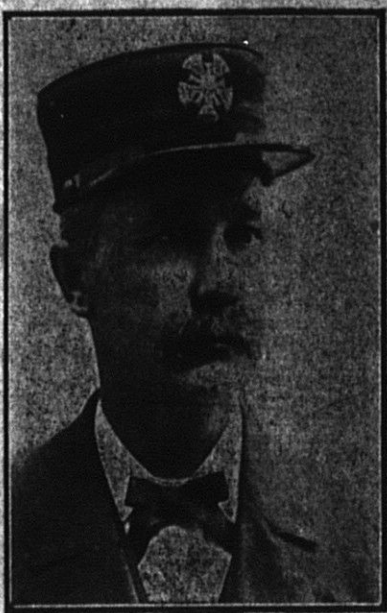

Firemen from all parts of Michigan were here this week in attendance upon the twenty-eighth annual convention of the Michigan State Firemen's association. Some were accompanied by their wives, some by their sweethearts—some monopolized the sweethearts of others while they were here. They were a jolly lot and had a jolly time. Never did a finer lot of men meet in Holland. Every one of them strong and manly, every one an athlete, they reflected credit upon the state they represent. They owned the city while here, and so well did they exercise the rights of ownership that the people were glad to see them here, were sorry to see them go, and would gladly welcome them if they see fit to repeat their visit at a future time.

They began arriving Tuesday night, and high tide was reached Wednesday night, when nearly 200 were present.

A great volume of business was transacted at the different sessions, making the convention highly profitable as well as pleasurable.

The convention was called to order Wednesday morning by B. J. Healey, of Kalamazoo, president of the association. Rev. J. T. Bergen led in prayer. Mayor C. J. De Roo extended a cordial welcome in behalf of the city. Chairman Healey responded with a few words of thanks. Then came a song by the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Keppel. Mrs. Keppel played the piano accompaniment. The song was entitled the "Fireman's Dream," and was greeted by great applause.

"We expect to learn from the papers written on the topics and the discussions which may follow the most efficient and economic way of maintaining fire departments in small towns, the most practical methods and modern machinery used to control large fires; the precautions to be used to prevent accidents at fires from electric wires, etc.

"It is also gratifying to know that the treasurer's report of last year shows a creditable balance on the right side of the book. But I think there should be an improvement in both, and with this object in view I would venture to make the following suggestions:

"That article 5 of section 7 of the constitution be changed to read: six delegates instead of three, as now, and that the annual dues be $5, the same as the admission fee for membership. This I think will increase the attendance and the cash in the treasury at each meeting, and be in consequence a benefit to the association."

The matter of pensioning members of the fire department was one of the most widely discussed questions of the convention. Attorney Charles S. Marr, of Muskegon, read a paper on the subject, saying in part: "We have full paid, part paid and volunteer firemen; we have chiefs, captains, lieutenants, drivers and privates, and each class and grade desire the law to apply to the necessities of their class and grade, and especially to the municipality which employs them, without regard to the claims of other friends."

"Thus a union of purpose and effort is defeated. Now, there is a measure of justice in the claim of each; there is a basis for an argument on each side of these claims and questions, and all these differences can be reconciled only in the way that the thirteen original states or colonies of the United States were able to reconcile their different interests and privileges and establish a nation. There must be a

L. L. Thompson, President of the Michigan State Firemen's Association.

Then came a speech that touched the hearts of the fire laddies. It was but three minutes long, but was long enough to create a profound impression. Rev. Dr. E. Collins, of Detroit, chaplain, delivered it, and so eloquent was he that his pathetic reference to the heroic dead brought tears to the eyes of many of the strong men present.

After the speech came a song by Capt. Hogan, of Detroit, and his two sons. So well was it rendered that another song was demanded. Then Mrs. Hogan went to the piano and played "Goo-Goo Eyes," while her husband and the two boys sang and gave a cake walk that made the Hogan family solid with all. But it was not all song and speech-making. The firemen were here for business and covered a multitude of matters. The following topics were ably presented and exhaustively discussed:

1. Should not all cities and towns where a regular fire department exists adopt a standard uniformity of hose couplings and hydrants?

2. Would it not be a source of economy to the citizens and taxpayers in the small towns to keep and maintain a regular team of horses and a salaried fireman stationed at fire headquarters?

3. What method can the Michigan State Firemen's association adopt to secure hearty co-operation of all Michigan firemen relative to the enactment of a Michigan pension law?

4. To improve discipline among the men in part paid departments.

5. The most practical methods and modern machinery used to control large fires as adopted in up-to-date cities.

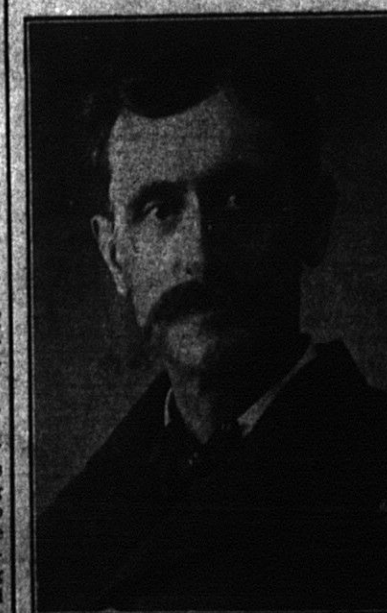

A. R. Canfield, Secretary and Treasurer.

compromise. Each must surrender something of value to himself that he may get a part—that the whole body of firemen may be benefited. The time for debate and discussion, for crimination and recrimination is past, and active operation is at hand. Then, stay not your hand; stand not on your individual privileges, but let us have the law on the statute book; then amend it from time to time as opportunity affords until it is perfect in all its bearings and satisfactory to all."

Jacob Lokker, of Holland, in presenting Topic No. 2, had the following regarding Holland: "Through our varied experience in Holland we have learned this most important lesson—that when the town is small and the fire fund low it is policy to have at least one man stationed at the engine house. It is also good policy to have a team of horses stabled near. In small towns arrangements could be made with some person owning a team to be stationed at the engine house or near it. Some bachelor member could be the man to be stationed at headquarters. In this way time would be gained and much loss prevented, and gradually with the rise of the town the fire department would be placed on a good basis."

The banquet at the Lyceum opera house Wednesday night was an event that never will fade from the memory of those who were present. At the banquet board were citizens of Holland, firemen, their wives and sweethearts. Gerard Kanters was in charge of all arrangements and assisted by several young men from Holland, resplendent in white coats, trousers and buttonhole bouquets, served the guests until the hungry were appeased.

Hon. G. J. Diekmann was toastmaster, and his wit and eloquence kept all in such rare good humor that they lingered until the midnight hour was passed.

City Attorney George E. Kollen caught the banqueters with an able response to the toast, "Our City." He paid tribute to the municipality, the city officials, and the citizens in a manner that brought the flush of pride to the cheeks of all and gave the visitors a most favorable impression of the city of Holland. He was followed by Miss Grace Yates who, with her sister, Miss Amy Yates, as accompanist, sang a solo that was so enthusiastically received that she had to respond to an encore.

A bright particular gem of the evening was the speech of Rev. Dr. Collins, chaplain of the association, who responded to the sentiment, "Our Association." With graphic description he portrayed the history of the association, and bade its members persist in the work of organization and foster friendship, fraternity and brotherhood. Rev. Collins is heart and hand with the brave fire-fighters and his remarks touched his hearers deeply, especially when he feelingly referred to the brave boys whom death had taken from the ranks of duty in the years that had passed. For a number of years Rev. Collins has been one of the "boys." He knows the needs and understands the aspirations of the firemen, and his broadminded spirit of brotherly love makes it possible for him to reach their hearts and exert a powerful influence for good over them. He has done a great deal to keep the firemen's association alive, and his speech of Wednesday night will add another large measure of strength to the links that bind the firemen of this state together.

Mayor De Roo tied another knot to his hold on the affections of the firemen by a witty speech, conveying the sentiment that the firemen were welcome visitors; that Holland and its citizens would linger in their memory, and that some time in the future their visit to Holland would be repeated. To make that repetition a certainty, he told them that it is said that any one who takes with them some of the MacIntosh Park sand would return here some day, and that all should fill their pockets with the sand as a guarantee that they would return in the future.

Others who responded to toasts were N. J. Whelan, of this city; A. R. Canfield, of Claire, and A. F. Stevenson, of Paw Paw.

Musical numbers were given by John Dykema, and by a quartet composed of Fred Browning, Dr. A. C. V. R. Gilmore, John Dykema and Fred Kiehn. Every number was encored.

The redoubtable Capt. Hogan of Detroit read an appropriate poem, commendatory of men that die at their post of duty. Then he sang a song about "O'castmaster Diekmann, in closing the program, spoke a few words of warm commendation of the firemen, and the banquet was ended by "Auld Lang Syne" and "America."

Convention Notes.

At their annual meetings the firemen transact a great deal of business. They meet for that purpose and allow nothing to interfere with it, but some time the pressure brought to bear by the citizens of the cities they visit and their own inclinations cause them to drift into good times. This was the case in Holland and every moment that could be spared from business was a moment of pleasure. The trip on the steamer "Post Boy" was one of the most delightful of the times given to enjoyment. The West Michigan band and Dugan & Smith's orchestra was aboard and kept the pulses thrilling. There was something else aboard. It was called a Dutch lunch (whatever that may be—the firemen know) and it added immeasurably to the good feeling prevailing. H. Van Zailigen of Muskegon, representing the Edwards Co. of Detroit, was reigning monarch of the Dutch lunch and his generosity and thoughtfulness made him a popular ruler. Captain Austin Harrington made a hit with the crowd by his readiness to accommodate, and particularly by turning the steamer back to pick up two hats that had fallen overboard. A surprise was in store for the excursionists. When the boat landed at the pier, Captain Peter Jensen and the life saving crew, although they had not been notified, gave an exhibition drill with the beach apparatus, showing how a line is shot to a ship in distress and the sailors rescued by means of the breeches buoy.

Captain Hogan and his two little boys, Milton B. and Emory A., were the life of the social gatherings. The trio is hard to beat when it comes to singing and cake walking. Captain Hogan can tell stories in one language, recite poetry in two languages, sing in three languages and dance in all languages. He is a "good old friend," "jolly old friend" in all sorts of weather.

It is the custom when the firemen hold their convention to summon the fire department out at the dead of night and they did not depart from that custom in Holland. About 2 o'clock Wednesday night some of them made a bonfire on River street and, obtaining by strategy possession of the Hotel Holland key, turned in the alarm. Both companies responded in incredibly short time and after extinguishing the fire quickly disappeared from the crowd of jokers.

The Holland firemen are solid with their mates all over the state. They entertained most hospitably and barely gave the visitors time enough to sleep.

L. T. Kanters, chief of the Holland fire department, was in evidence every minute of the day and night. Through him the convention came here. It was up to him to see that they had a good time and, aided by citizens, particularly factory proprietors, who contributed time and money liberally, he gave the visiting firemen the best meeting of their history.

The exhibition given by the Holland fire department Wednesday noon was good. So was the exhibition of the sprinkling system of the Holland furniture factory. Manager Van Putten had a bonfire built and it looked as if the factory had seen its last day, but when the right temperature was reached the water broke from the pipes in showers and quenched the flames in a twinkling. Some of the firemen were accompanied by their wives. The ladies were very favorably impressed with Holland and if they had the right to vote the next meeting would be held here.

Two of the visitors persisted in wearing wooden shoes and they made noise enough to awaken the dead when they clattered down Hotel Holland stairs when the alarm sounded.

Compliments were heard on every side regarding the excellent way that the Hotel Holland management cared for the crowd. The table service was excellent. For sleeping accommodations Hotel Macatawa was brought into requisition, those who could not be cared for at Hotel Holland being sent there in a special trolley car.

The next convention will be held in Alma, that city winning in a contest with Otsego by a vote of 43 to 35.

The following officers were elected: President—L. L. Thompson, of Allegan.

First Vice President—A. T. Lane of Ithaca.

Second Vice President—L. T. Kanters, of Holland.

Third Vice President—Charles Fishbeck, of Alma.

Statistician—Samuel Robinson, of Charlotte.

Secretary and treasurer—A. R. Canfield of Claire.

The following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, that the attention of the chief of every department in our association be directed to the ritual for firemen's memorial services adopted at the last session of the convention and earnest effort made to comply with the same; that in honoring the memory of our beloved comrades the 30th day of May will have to us an added significance. And be it further

Resolved that the plan of insurance adopted at St. Clair is well worthy the consideration of every member of the department and that we make an honest effort to make the insurance department of this association the success which the merit of the plan demands. And further,

Resolved, that our sincere sympathy be tendered to the relatives of all firemen who mourn the loss of beloved ones who have passed into the eternal beyond and those that are in trial, trouble or any other adversity.

Resolved, that the hearty thanks of the Michigan State firemen's association be tendered to Chief L. T. Kanters and his department, the Mayor and Citizens of Holland for the magnificent entertainment provided for us in the city of Holland and we shall look back upon our twenty-eighth anniversary as a red letter time in our history.

High School Commencement Exercises.

To the graduating class of the Holland High school the greater part of this week has been devoted by those interested in educational matters. Again has come the time marking the advent of young men and young women from the quiet of the school room to the turmoil and trials of actual life. Each year Holland turns out its quota and this year it adds 22 to the list. Their names follow:

G. William Boot, William Harry Browne, Edward O. Davidson, Leonard Fileman, Clarence H. Kremers, Wilbur C. Lindsey, Ray S. Mabbs, Wallace Olsen, Grover Rogers, Bernard Rotschafer, John Schuurman, Robert E. Van Houten, Oliver N. Wilms, Daisy N. Davidson, Matilda J. DeFeyer, Kittle Francis Doesburg, Magdalene Dykema, Mary E. Bledsma, Helen Lillian Scott, Gertrude C. Sprietama, Gertrude I. Taylor, Leah Wise.

The first event of commencement week was the baccalaureate which was delivered Sunday evening at Hope church by Rev. Dr. Henry E. Dosker, D.D. After music by the choir and a solo by Miss Grace Yates the sermon was preached. It was an eloquent and powerful address and made a profound impression on all who were fortunate enough to hear it. Dr. Dosker spoke from the text, "Will thou not from this time cry unto me, My Father, Thou art the guide of my youth."

"My dear young friends," said the speaker, "let me but leave with you this evening this little thought to bear you up, to be unto you a buoyant force—the thought that you need in the present day the companionship of your Heavenly Father. Our day is a day of intellectual pride. The children of the nineteenth century have become exceedingly learned. They have scaled the heavens as the giants in Greek mythology and unlocked the hidden treasury of science and philosophy. They have over topped the highest ambitions of the fathers, and have eliminated the very word "impossible" from our vocabulary. Ascending the heavens they have robbed the most distant star of its secrets; descending into the bowels of the earth they have twisted from it the most hidden treasures. Every domain of human knowledge has been penetrated, yet we have just begun. See what a vast field remains to be discovered. And as I look into your faces buoyant with the vigor of youth, I envy you because you are so young. I say with all sincerity that I would gladly part with my right arm if my youth could be restored to me. I say with all solemnity and reverence that a youth with a sound body and vigorous brain has the possibility of becoming a god. But remember that with all these educational advantages you are thrown into a stream of rationalism that so characterizes learning of the present day, and that will inevitably lead to the destruction of innocent victims unless protected by the companionship mentioned in our text. As man rears his own tower of intellectual pride, God's pedestal of omniscience and our impotence crumbles down. Man grows proud and haughty and denies God standing room in his own universe. But this is not true scholarship. True scholarship humbly bows to the eternal Lagos, by whom the worlds were created.

"You entered as raw material into the kindergarten, you came out a little later, as a finished product. You entered another department, again as raw material and came out of the eighth grade a finished product, proud of placing in the hands of your parents a diploma. You next entered the high school and are now again a finished product. Soon you will receive your diplomas. Many a parent has watched your career with a mingled feeling of joy and anxiety. Some of you will take up collegiate work and after four more years will receive another diploma. Some will then enter upon professional work, another course of three or four years, and then you enter the school of life. This will be for real or for woe. You have studied not for the school but for life. You will be successful in just so far as you have builded upon a safe and sound foundation. Booker T. Washington says, 'to do the common things uncommonly well is the secret of success.' McCloud, when he became actively engaged in an occupation of usefulness exclaimed: 'O that I had done all things accurately and diligently when I was a boy!'

"Some of you will go into the world as teachers. What a grand work! Parents will entrust you to their dear children. How essential in that work to have this companionship. Some will, I hope, enter that greatest of all callings, the gospel ministry. Look at the needs along that line. I am authoritatively told that half of all the citizens of Grand Rapids, a fair representative of city life, never enter the church. No one looks after their souls. Oh for the Jonathan Edwards and the Jeremy Taylors! Young men plead this text: 'Some will become lawyers, not for mercenary sake, but because you are actuated by the high principle of justice. Think of the Websters and the many sons of America that have entered that field; some will be physicians, probably, ah, and many we hope in whose eyes we shall see and in whose touch we shall feel the love of the Son of Man? Whether you be in the home or in business, or in professional work, do something to show that you have not been privileged in vain by anxious fathers and mothers."

The commencement exercises in the M. E. church last evening were in charge of the graduating class and the different numbers on the program were carried out by the class instead of by others as last year.

At eight o'clock the members of the chorus in charge of Miss Mabel Fister, director of music and drawing, took their place on the platform. They were followed by the graduating class. Principal J. H. Ehlers, Mr. M. E. Dick, Miss Candace Reynolds, Miss Carrie Krell and Miss Julia Van Baulte, teachers, and Messrs. H. Kremers, G. J. Van Duren, Isaac Marsilje, J. C. Post, C. M. McLean, H. Geerlings, Jr., B. Steketee, P. Boot, Dr. J. A. Mabbs, members of the board of education, occupied a pew in the middle of the church.

The program was opened by a song by the chorus entitled "Eye Hath Not Seen" from the Holy City, after which Rev. Adam Clarke led in prayer.

C. William Boot played a piano solo "Le Retour des Gondollers" in a very creditable manner.

The first essay was read by Leonard Flichman and was entitled "Character." The thought was good, the style vigorous and terse.

Miss Matilda J. DeFeyer gave a pleasing recitation, "The Statue."

William Harry Browne declaimed "The Curse of Regulus" with good elocutionary effect. His gestures were graceful and his voice well modulated.

Miss Leah Wise demonstrated her right to be classed with the best pianists in Holland by playing "Troiseme Ballade" by Chopin in a highly artistic manner.

Miss Daisy N. Davidson was on the program for an oration on "Self Reliance" but owing to the recent death of her father she did not appear the class.

Miss Kittle Francis Doesburg recited "The Phantom Army" in a pleasing manner and Edward O. Davidson declaimed "Catinines Defiance" with force and effect.

Robert E. Van Houten delivered an oration on "The Scratch of a Pen" and Bernard Rotschafer gave an oration on "Determination." Both young men are forcible and talented speakers and made a very favorable impression.

Besides the chorus, which was decidedly good, musical numbers were rendered by a ladies quartet composed of the Misses Dykema Bledsma, Sprietama and Taylor and a mixed quartet composed of these young ladies and Messrs. Wilms, Kremers, Flichman and Mabbs in a way that evoked great applause. The accompanists were Miss Hazel B. Wing and Miss Mabel S. Fister.

The class of 1902 deserves great credit for the way it attended to the arduous task of arranging and carrying out the program. It was entertaining throughout and the personnel of the class proves the oft-repeated statement that the Holland schools are among the best in Michigan. In presenting the diplomas to the class Supr. Haddock spoke as follows:

MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1902: By authority of the Board of Education I am now to present to you these diplomas which certify that you have satisfactorily fulfilled the requirements prescribed for graduation from the highest department of school system maintained by the people of this city.

Public school systems are maintained in other countries. But in none do the citizens contribute so generously as in America for the support of schools.

Society and Personal.

Veneklassen-Suyter.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Veneklassen of Zeland last Tuesday evening when their daughter Bertha was united in marriage to Rev. Henry Suyter in the presence of nearly 200 guests by the Rev. Dr. Peter Moordyk, of Chicago, assisted by Rev. John Ossewaarde, of New Era, Mich. The bride was charmingly gowned in white and carried bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mae Veneklassen, and John Van Een, of Chicago was best man. Miss Hattie Timmer of Holland played the wedding march, and the Misses Minnie and Nellie Veneklassen scattered rose petals before the bridal party.

After the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served in Ossewaarde's hall. Many beautiful and costly presents were received.

Rev. and Mrs. Suyter are well known in Holland and a number of their friends from this city attended the wedding. They will leave in a short time for Berne, N. Y., where Rev. Suyter, who is a graduate of Hope college and the New Brunswick Theological seminary, will assume the pastorate of the Reformed church.

VanderHaar-Steketee.

Miss Mary Van der Haar and Fred Steketee were united in marriage last evening at 7 o'clock at their new home, 114 West Eleventh street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Van der Werf in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride wore a beautiful gown of tan silk batiste over green silk and carried white roses. She was attend by Miss Harriet Huntley who carried pink roses. Henry Steketee was best man. The parlors were decorated with ferns, smilax and carnations.

After the ceremony elaborate refreshments were served by the Misses Madalene Van Putten, Harriet Huntley, Jeannette Van Putten and Helen Scott, members of the Girls Club to which the bride belonged. Each of the waitresses was presented with a quaintly carved image.

Mr. and Mrs. Steketee received many handsome presents. They left this morning for a trip to Kalamazoo, Milwaukee and other points. They will live at 114 Eleventh street.

Entertained in Southern Style.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. DeMerrill entertained at progressive pedro at their home on Eighth street last Friday evening having for their guests members from the Mystery club, the Jolly Times club and the East End club. Prizes were won by Mrs. M. J. Kinch and P. F. Boone. The evening was delightfully passed. The term "echoes from Southland" might with propriety be applied to the hour devoted to the serving of refreshments as southern dishes prevailed, some of the courses being served upon sea shells brought by Mr. and Mrs. De Merrill from the Gulf of Mexico. The hostess was assisted in receiving and serving by Mrs. G. F. Stevens of Chicago. Following was the menu:

- Escalloped Fish
- India Relish
- Long Island Waters
- Salted Nuts
- Iced Liquid Fruits
- Chicken Tamale
- Dobies
- Coffee
- Pineapple Cake
- Vanilla Wafers
- Confections

The very foundation of government, of, for and by the people, rests upon popular education. Ignorance means physical want, physical suffering, physical disease—it means the survival of the fittest, incomplete living by all, and early death. Ignorance, always and everywhere means disregard for law, immorality, vice, crime.

One hundred fifteen years ago the four million people of the thirteen American states decided that because "Religion, morality and knowledge are necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education should forever be encouraged." They recognized the truth later expressed by (Whittiers words) that none

"need fear the skeptic's punny hands
Nor near the school the church spire stands;
Nor fear the blinded bigot's rule,
While near the church spire stands the school."

The four millions people have become eighty-four millions. The flag unfurled by Washington—it's stripes dyed a deeper crimson by the blood of other patriots, its many stars gleaming with increasing lustre beneath a never setting sun,—that flag for which our fathers, our brothers, have with unstinted devotion laid down their lives, that flag, in every country and in every clime, projects today beneath its folds the humblest citizens with all the prestige, with all the untold resources of the foremost republic and the wealthiest nation in the world.

Yet even these things may be forgotten in the turmoil of our daily life. The obligations and duties of citizenship mean but little to those who in their ignorance know not

"Who made each mast, and sail and rope,
What anvils rang, what hammers beat,
In what a forge and what a heat
Were shaped the anchors of our hope."

But from the public school—reared innumerable upon the hillside and in the valley, amid the restful quiet of rural scenes or surrounded by the din of the mighty city—from the schools, maintained by appropriations as large, as regular, and as unfailing as the love of parents for their children—from the public schools, the people have a right to expect that there will come forth on graduation day those who will be leaders in the cause of Right. They are justified in expecting much from those who from infancy have enjoyed opportunities hitherto unequalled in human history.

For twelve years the people of Holland have contributed each year that you might be better equipped for citizenship; better prepared to think clearly, correctly, quickly; better prepared to act wisely, promptly, efficiently, unselfishly for the public weal.

We believe that you will make good return for all.

Mrs. A. Kamper, of this city was relieved of a pocket book containing six dollars Wednesday. While standing on Eighth street after making some purchases a man accosted her and at the same time snatched her purse from her hand and ran north on College avenue with it. Several people standing near saw the man dash by but did not realize that he was a thief. Sheriff Dykhuus was here Wednesday evening and picked up two suspicious characters but Mrs. Kamper did not identify them as the same persons. He is still at large.

The livery barn of Henry Sprick of Grand Haven was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. All the horses and vehicles were saved but the hay, fodder etc., were all consumed. There was no insurance on the barn. The home of Mr. Sprick and also other houses in the neighborhood were badly scorched. Sprick claims the barn was set on fire by a tramp named Paul Richardson, of Racine, Wis., who was forbidden to sleep or hang around there and committed the crime for revenge. But thus far the sheriff has not succeeded in getting sufficient proof against him and instead he was sent up for 15 days for vagrancy. In the meantime something may develop. Mr. Sprick is well known in Holland and some years ago was a resident of this locality.

ILLINOIS TOWNS STRUCK

Violent Tornado Deals Death and Destruction in Central Part of the State.

THREE KILLED AND MANY HURT AT MERNA

Mother and Her Babe and a Little Boy Killed at Kingston Mines—Great Damage Done at Bloomington—Storms Do Great Damage in Iowa—No Lives Reported Lost.

Bloomington, Ill., June 11.—Death and destruction followed in the wake of the worst tornado Tuesday night that has ever visited central Illinois. The wind wrought ruin and woe, and the property loss will be tens of thousands of dollars. There is no way of estimating the loss at present, owing to the uncertainty as to the effect upon the growing crops, which it is feared suffered heavily. The saddest feature, however, was the killing of three young women who were attending a dance at the town hall of Merna, a small village ten miles east of this city. There was a party of 250 young men and women at the dance in the hall when the tornado struck the building about 11 o'clock at night. Everybody rushed for the door. A number of young men held the doors to prevent the people from escaping, fearing that they might be injured or killed if they got outside. About half of them, however, escaped, and then the building collapsed. The others were buried in the wreck.

Three were killed and 40 or 50 more or less injured, some of them seriously. The dead are: Miss Lena Jahagum. Mrs. Edward Martin. Miss Anna Kelly. All are daughters of prominent farmers in the vicinity. The bodies were horribly mutilated by the heavy timbers. Quite a number of young men and women were taken from the ruins in an unconscious condition, and some of them are still in that state, and it is feared there may be other deaths.

The storm struck Merna with the greatest fury—greater than any other place in the county. Many of the finest houses and barns were destroyed.

Three Killed at Kingston Mines.

St. Louis, June 11.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Peking, Ill., says that a tornado passed over Tazewell county Tuesday night, killing three and fatally injuring two persons at Kingston Mines, south of there. The dead are:

Mrs. Thomas Murray. Infant child of Mrs. Murray. Willie McElwee, aged three years.

Patrick McElwee and wife were fatally injured. The entire east end of that little village of 1,000 inhabitants was swept away. The storm struck Kingston Mines about 10:30 p. m., and lasted half an hour, causing $15,000 damage. A second storm did considerable additional damage at 1:30 a. m. Physicians from Pekin, Glasford and Mapleton were called to care for the wounded.

Houses and barns were blown down in Groveland, Minier, Dillon, Hopedale and Delavan, but so far no loss of life in any of those places has been reported. The most destruction seems to have been at Kingston Mines.

Opposite Pekin the river overflowed its banks and covered 60,000 acres of corn, which is believed to have been ruined.

Many Killed at Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., June 11.—The storm at Peoria was very destructive. Many lives were lost and the property damage extensive. The mercantile loss will be hundreds of thousands of dollars. The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific passenger train was caught in a landslide and the engine and mail car buried in the mud. All train service is delayed, many tracks washed away and thousands of acres of corn a total loss. One man was killed Wednesday morning by live wires and two were injured. There has been serious damage to shipping in the river.

El Paso Suffers Severely.

Bloomington, Ill., June 11.—El Paso, a town of 4,000 inhabitants, 20 miles north, was badly damaged by storm. This is the first adjacent town to be heard from excepting Merna. The storm visited the city about 11 o'clock p. m., wrecking the town hall containing the fire department apparatus and completely ruining vehicles and attachments. A tower 50 feet high, on the summit, was blown 300 feet. No one was hurt nor serious injuries reported. The city is blocked with wrecked buildings, trees and other debris and scores of houses unroofed and chimneys blown over.

Small Town Wiped Out.

Jacksonville, Ill., June 11.—There was a hard windstorm here Tuesday night, but no damage to this immediate section has been reported. Danvers, on the Alton road north of this place, was reported wiped out, just after the Kansas City limited train pulled out. At San Jose, this side of Danvers, a large elevator was blown on the track. Meager reports show widespread damage in county north.

Woman Dies of Fright.

Champaign, Ill., June 11.—A terrific storm swept over this city at midnight, doing considerable damage to buildings, railway property, electric wires, trees and crops throughout the surrounding country. No loss of life is reported. The roofs of the Avenue public school and of the new German Catholic school were blown off, and in the business section plate glass windows generally were demolished. Several frame houses and barns were overturned and the German Catholic church was wrecked. Telegraph and telephone wires are down, and the street railway plants have been compelled to temporarily suspend operations. Hundreds of trees throughout the city were leveled and the city park is almost ruined. Five freight cars were blown from an Illinois Central freight train north of this city, while it was running at full speed.

During the height of the storm Mrs. Martha Hayworth, living on Green street, collapsed from fright, and later died.

Other Villages Feel Force of Storm.

Lincoln, Ill., June 11.—This city and immediate locality was visited at midnight by a severe and destructive hurricane. Hard rain and lightning did additional damage. Public buildings, factories and residences were unroofed, and telephone and electric street railway systems were badly crippled. Most of the streets are blocked with fallen trees and wires. The villages of Atlanta, Lawndale, Elkhart and others in this county suffered heavy losses on elevators and other buildings. Small grain is damaged to a considerable extent. So far no loss of life is reported.

Great Damage Done in Different Sections of the State.

Des Moines, Ia., June 11.—Word was received from Laurel at noon to the effect that the town had not been swept away, but had suffered considerably from the effects of a strong wind. The extent of the damage consists of several roofs being blown off, and no one was injured.

Burlington Cut Off.

Burlington, Ia., June 11.—Burlington has been practically cut off from telegraphic communication with the outside world since nine o'clock Tuesday night, the wires being down in all directions. Tuesday night's storm was the worst in years and was attended by a most thrilling electrical display. There were no lives lost in this city. Two hundred thousand feet of lumber belonging to the Gilbert & Hedges Lumber company broke from its mooring above the city, part floating down the river and the rest piling up on shore.

Much other damage to property resulted. Lightning struck in several places. The steamer Comet broke in half and sunk, but no lives were lost. Rob Roy, a pleasure craft, was badly damaged and washed ashore. Barges and boat houses were filled with water or blown high and dry on the bank.

There are many reports of damage in the surrounding country, but details are lacking.

Trains Blown from Track.

St. Paul, Minn., June 11.—A Corwith (Ia.) special to the Dispatch says: A tornado struck an empty excursion train on the Iowa Central five miles west of here Tuesday night and blew three cars from the track while the train was running 30 miles an hour, leaving the engine and the two last coaches on the track. No one was hurt.

List of Dead in Minnesota.

Detroit, Minn., June 11.—The list of the killed in the tornado of Monday afternoon is as follows: Mrs. E. C. Berg and four children of Andrew Hium, two girls aged 13 and 11, and two boys aged 15 and 6.

The Hiums had five other children who were more or less injured. Mrs. Hium was hurt probably fatally, but Hium himself was unscathed. In all 30 farmhouses and barns were totally destroyed.

TREATY WITH CUBA NEEDED.

Our Minister to Island, Mr. Squiers, Instructed to Negotiate Extra-territorial Agreement.

Washington, June 11.—It is probable that Mr. Squiers, our minister to Cuba, will be called upon at once to open negotiations with the Cuban government for an extradition treaty. While it has been decided that nothing can be accomplished toward the negotiation of the full fabric of treaties required with Cuba under the Platt amendment until congress has taken some action upon the pending Cuban reciprocity provision, yet it is felt that delay in the negotiations of an extradition treaty will speedily make Cuba a sink for American criminals.

GERMAN WARSHIPS SENT.

Two Cruisers Start for La Guaira, Venezuela, on Request of German Official Who Fears Revolution.

Berlin, June 11.—The German cruisers Gazelle and Falke have been sent to La Guaira, Venezuela, at the special request of the German charge d'affaires at Caracas, Herr von Pilgrim-Baltazzi, in consequence of a revolution having broken out in the suburbs of La Guaira, leading to the bombardment of the town by the forts and Venezuelan warships.

Renominated.

Portland, Me., June 11.—Gov. John F. Hill was Wednesday renominated by acclamation for a second term by the republican state convention. Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw was present, and made an address in which he discussed tariff reform and the alleged cruelties in the Philippines as possible issues in the fall campaign.

Moonshiner Arrested in New York.

New York, June 11.—Harris Friedman, dubbed "King of the Moonshiners" by secret service men, and two women, have been arrested for alleged complicity in varying degrees with the operation of an illicit distillery recently discovered by firemen in Yonkers. Friedman is said to be wealthy.

WORK DONE IN CONGRESS

Both the Senate and House Have Measures of Great Interest Under Consideration.

DAILY SUMMARY OF THE PROCEEDINGS.

Senate Has Under Discussion the Isthmian Canal Project—The House Passes the Anti-Anarchy Bill—Will Discuss the Philippine Government Measure.

Washington, June 5.—A bill was passed in the senate yesterday providing that the postmaster general may extend free delivery to cities of 5,000 inhabitants or $5,000 gross income, instead of 10,000 inhabitants, as at present. Senator Morgan opened to debate on the isthmian canal project.

Washington, June 6.—Senator Hanna (O.) addressed the senate yesterday in favor of the Spooner amendment, conferring on the president authority to purchase the rights of the Panama Canal company if a valid title can be obtained. Senator Mitchell (Ore.) advocated the Nicaragua route. The military academy appropriation bill was passed.

Washington, June 7.—In the senate yesterday further discussion of the isthmian canal measure occupied the time.

Washington, June 9.—The senate on Saturday discussed without action the bill appropriating $10,000,000 for the purchase of 2,000,000 acres of land for a national forest reserve in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee. Senator Mitchell (Ore.) spoke in behalf of the Nicaraguan canal route.

Washington, June 10.—During the early part of the session of the senate yesterday the naval appropriation bill was considered. The canal bill was further discussed.

Washington, June 11.—Another of the big supply bills of the government was disposed of by the senate yesterday, the naval bill, carrying more than $78,000,000, being passed. It includes provisions for two first-class battleships, two first-class armored cruisers and two gunboats.

Washington, June 5.—In the house yesterday the debate on the anti-anarchy bill continued all day.

Washington, June 6.—The general debate on the anti-anarchy bill ended in the house yesterday except for two speeches which will be made to-day. Mr. Littlefield (Me.) will make the closing argument in support of the measure. The debate yesterday was devoted to legal arguments. A resolution introduced by Mr. Ruppert (N. Y.) for final adjournment of congress on June 28 was sent to the ways and means committee.

Washington, June 7.—Mr. Richardson (Ala.), during the course of some remarks upon the anti-anarchy bill in the house yesterday, caustically criticized President Roosevelt's Memorial day oration at Arlington. Mr. Littlefield (Me.) closed the general debate with an hour and a half speech in support of the measure.

Washington, June 9.—In the house on Saturday a resolution was adopted authorizing the conferees on the sundry civil appropriation bill to insert in that bill the necessary appropriations authorized by the omnibus public building bill. The anti-anarchy bill was further discussed.

Washington, June 10.—In the house yesterday the anti-anarchy bill providing for severe punishment of those who practice or teach violence was passed by a vote of 175 to 38. Mr. Thompson (Ala.) introduced a bill appropriating $100,000 for the removal of all the deceased presidents of the United States, except George Washington, to the National cemetery at Arlington. The house committee on rules decided to allow seven days for debate on the Philippine civil government bill, beginning June 18 and continuing to June 25.

Washington, June 11.—The house yesterday defeated the bill to transfer certain forest reserves to the agricultural department and to authorize the president to establish game and fish preserves. The bill for a Pacific cable was discussed.

Killed by Gas.

San Francisco, June 9.—Blanche Warren a well-known soubrette, and her mother, Mrs. G. W. Brown, were asphyxiated in bed at 425 Golden Gate avenue, a boarding house. The dead bodies of the unfortunate women were found in bed with the room full of the fumes of illuminating gas.

REWARD FOR KITCHENER.

King Edward Asks House of Commons to Vote South African Hero $250,000.

ALSO GIVES HIM TITLE OF VISCOUNT.

Irish Nationalists Will Fight Grant—Gen. Kitchener Leaves Pretoria on His Way to England—Peace Thanksgiving Service to Be Held at Pretoria Next Sunday.

London, June 4.—In the house of commons, Wednesday, the government leader, A. J. Balfour, presented a message from King Edward, as follows:

"His majesty, taking into consideration the eminent services rendered by Lord Kitchener and being desirous, in recognition of such services, to confer on him some signal mark of his favor, recommends that he, the king, should be enabled to grant Lord Kitchener £250,000."

John Dillon, William Redmond and Swift McNeil, Irish nationalists, announced their intention of opposing the grant at every stage.

A resolution giving effect to his majesty's message will be discussed Thursday.

Made a Viscount.

London, June 4.—It was announced

BRINGING HOME THE NEW PET.

Wednesday afternoon that Lord Kitchener had been created a viscount, by King Edward.

New Taxes to Be Retained.

London, June 4.—The chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, made his financial statement to the house of commons Wednesday evening.

Reviewing the necessities of the situation, now that the South African war is terminated, the chancellor of the exchequer said that the new taxes, including the duty on grain, would be retained in order to raise the money required, but if there is any surplus, it will be devoted to the redemption of part of the national debt.

Kitchener Starts for England.

Durban, Natal, June 4.—The Times of Natal states that Lord Kitchener has left for England, and that Gen. Lyttleton is acting commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa.

Arrange Thanksgiving Services.

Pretoria, Transvaal, June 4.—The Boer delegates, at Vereeniging, in suit in 34 votes in favor of surrender and six against it.

Preparations are being made here for the surrender of the Boer commandoes, which will take place on the race course. All the Boers are allowed perfect freedom.

There will be a thanksgiving service Sunday, June 8, on the church square, in which it is hoped the Boers will participate.

The women in the concentration camps are anxious to return to their homes immediately, but this will be impossible until a system of supply depots for the outlying districts is established.

Gen. Baden-Powell is arranging for the distribution of mounted constabulary in various districts. The police, railroads and telegraphs will be handed over to the civil authorities as soon as possible, and the restrictions of martial law will be gradually relaxed.

The Boer delegates who, during the peace negotiations, were stiff, formal and unfriendly, are now extremely cordial. All the commandoes are returning to their commandoes in order to explain the situation.

Botha's Message to Boers.

Gen. Louis Botha, the Boer commandant general, has written an open letter to the burghers thanking them for their obedience in the past, and exhorting them to be equally loyal in their obedience to the new government.

Lord Kitchener's address to the ballot of the Boers at Vereeniging, which the British commander-in-chief said that if he had been one of them, he would have been proud to have done so well in the field as they had done, made the best possible impression, and drew forth a hearty response from Gen. Beyers, the chairman of the Boer conference, who expressed the pleasure the Boers experienced at meeting Lord Kitchener as a friend, adding that they had fought so long against him, that they had acquired full appreciation of his worth.

Rejoice Together.

The departure of the Boer commanders from Vereeniging for their various districts was marked by remarkable scenes of fraternization. The trains conveying the Boers started late, and the night being extremely cold, the sentries along the railroad track lighted huge bonfires, round which Boers and Britains gathered, forming a highly picturesque scene. The late opponents joined in such songs as "Hard Times Come Again No More," and "Old Folks At Home," the British soldiers and burghers outwitting one another in their demonstrations of joy. In brief, the scenes at the departure of the trains resembled nothing so much as the starting point of huge picnic parties.

The same signs of rejoicing were witnessed throughout the Rand. Flags were displayed everywhere and thanksgiving services were held in all the towns.

Botha and Delarey Going to Europe.

Gens. Botha and Delarey and other Boer leaders will start for Europe shortly, for the purpose of raising funds for the distressed burghers.

MAD RAGE OF STRIKERS.

Police at Chicago Have Desperate Battle With Stubborn Mob of Teamsters.

EFFORT TO PREVENT MEAT DELIVERIES.

Adjutant General Ready to Send Militia Should Situation Get Beyond Control of City Authorities—Fatal Riot Between Union and Non-union Men at Edwardsville, Ill.

Chicago, June 4.—Wednesday's meat riots were a repetition of Tuesday, with double the number of injured men and increased ferocity on the part of the mobs. At times the police were helpless and drew their revolvers, forcing the crowds back and threatening persons on the "L" structure at Congress and State streets. In many instances they were beaten with their own clubs. Several officers were seriously hurt. An unknown number of rioters and spectators were clubbed and arrested. The hospitals began to feel the results of the melees and a number of persons are near death from injuries received in the chief battle of the day, which occurred in State street, between Harrison and Monroe.

In a desperate battle at Harrison and State streets, at 11 o'clock, the teamsters, by what appeared to be a shrewdly planned maneuver, divided a 38-wagon meat caravan of the packers, which left "the yards" early in the day. It was guarded by a large force of police. A handful of bluecoats were by some misunderstanding left to protect this end of the procession.

Recalls Haymarket Trouble.

The mob took advantage of the opportunity. They dashed through the line with wagons, and, while the front end of the procession went on, stormed by eggs and bottles, the rear came in for the brunt of the conflict.

Rallying to the aid of the helpless drivers whom the mob threatened to tear to pieces the squad of bluecoats left behind charged the infuriated mob three times. Twice the crowd battled with the police and twice drove back the officers. The third charge equalled any police charge seen in Chicago since the Haymarket riots for merciless clubbing and grim defiance of the law by a mob.

The crowd was finally beaten back, but while this was done the teamsters had been busy. They had surrounded the wagons of the packers. The vans with the meat were tied up. Another similar battle took place a few moments later at Congress street.

Adjutant General Is Ready.

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—Adj. Gen. Smith is keeping close watch on the strike situation in Chicago and will be prepared to act quickly should any requests be made for the militia to aid in preserving the peace. He does not expect, however, to be called upon until the local authorities are unable to cope with the situation.

A FATAL RIOT.

Five Men Shot at Edwardsville, Ill., During Labor Troubles.

St. Louis, June 4.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Edwardsville, Ill., says that a riot broke out Wednesday morning between several hundred striking molders and non-union employees of the American Steel and Foundry company, and as a result five men—two negro nonunion workers and three white strikers—were shot, two of the latter fatally. At present the names of the injured are not obtainable, as they were hurried away to places of safety by their friends.

The trouble broke out at five a. m., when a train load of employees of the steel company, who had not struck, reached Granite City. As the men were proceeding through a narrow lane to their work in the mills they were first threatened by the strikers and then assailed with stones. Revolvers were then brought into play and several shots were fired by both parties. Two nonunion men, negroes, and three white strikers received wounds. Two of the latter were shot in the back, and it is believed they will die as the result of their wounds.

Another account says that only three men were wounded, as follows: John Buffington, aged 24, shot in the back, bullet lodging in the kidneys, condition serious. S. B. Melford, aged 35, shot in the right arm. Alexander Mathews, aged 30, shot in the left leg. This account states that the trouble occurred between 25 negroes imported to take the places of strikers and strikers themselves. A warrant has been sworn out for the arrest of one of the negroes named Bird, charging him with the shooting of Buffington.

Killed by a Pump-Handle.

Milwaukee, June 4.—An Evening Wisconsin special from Platteville, Wis., says: John Lugjen, president of the Empire mine, in this place, was killed by being struck by the handle of a pump as he was leaning over the shaft. He lived long enough to exonerate the engineer from blame.

American Jockey Wins Derby.

London, June 4.—J. Gubbins' brown colt, Ard Patrick, at 7 to 1 against, ridden by J. H. Martin, the American jockey won the Derby. Col. H. McCallmont's Rising Glass was second, and the duke of Portland's Friar Tuck was third. Eighteen horses ran.

Closing Arguments Begun.

Des Moines, Ia., June 4.—The closing arguments in the Letson Ballot case were begun Wednesday morning. United States District Attorney Lewis Miles opening for the prosecution.

He enjoyed the respect and confidence of a large circle of friends.

Besides his wife he leaves four daughters, Rose, Daisy, Blanche, Lillie, and four sons, Will, Eddie, Earl and Russell. Mr. Davidson was insured for $2,000 in the K. O. T. M.

Terror in Saugatuck.

Terror has been on the throne in Saugatuck the past ten days. Walter Trude is languishing in the Allegan jail charged with criminal assault on Miss Mary Skinner at Saugatuck.

Miss Skinner was returning home about 9 o'clock Saturday night when a man approached from behind and threw his coat over her head. A fierce struggle followed and the clothing of the young woman was torn into shreds. She was almost overcome when Arthur Doud happened along and the assailant ran away leaving his coat behind.

The coat is regarded as strong evidence against Trude. It is said to just perfectly match the balance of his suit. It looked as if there might be a lynching bee when Trude was arrested and he was removed to the Allegan jail for safety.

Walter Drinkwater was arrested in Saugatuck Tuesday morning, suspected of being the author of three mysterious fires which have occurred there during the past week.

The Ward school building, located a mile north of the village, was burned at midnight Friday last and Monday at noon a farm house in the same neighborhood was fired and Drinkwater was seen running away from it about the time the fire broke out. Later in the day an attempt was made to fire a vacant factory building in the village. The carnival of crime was capped by the burglary of Leland & Co's. store.

Wine Two In One Day.

The Holland team, fresh from a shaking up and a shifting that completely changed its line up, won two notable victories over the Giant Clothiers Memorial Day.

The first was notable for plucky playing in the face of apparent defeat and a display of headwork by wise Bill Tibald, the man who now claims the right to protect all of the territory surrounding second base. Ryder was in the box for the visitors and he kept the locals guessing to such an extent that the eighth inning came without a score for Holland while the Giants had four healthy looking tallies and looked like surething winners. Then Tibald got in his work and by a well timed kick and a display of elocutionary ability he caused Ryder to lose his grip on his judgment and to part company with his nerve. Andrews, Fairfield, Van der Hill, DePree and Van den Berg took advantage of the ariel voyage of Ryder's head and by timely stick-work and sizzling base running 3 Hollandites crossed the home plate. They tied the score in the ninth and won out in the tenth in dazzling style.

Sheer pluck brought the victory. Many a team would have laid down in the face of the eighth inning situation, but the locals are not built that way.

Root pitched for Holland and so good was his work that his team would have scored a shut out had the fielding equalled the pitching. His excellent showing placed him solid with the fans and it will be a cold day when they go back on Root.

The second game lasted quite a while—long enough to give Holland time to make nineteen runs. The visitors were shut out. They couldn't solve Ball's assortment of pretzels and were glad to be relieved from the arduous task of scouring the south end of the city for the ball, which was knocked in every conceivable direction by the Holland batmen. The game showed that with Neal Ball and Tony Van der Hill as battery, with an infield composed of Jim DePree, Tibald, Andrews and Fairfield and an outfield composed of Van den Berg, Root and Sargent, and with all of these men playing together the Holland team is a power. Java Ver Schure umpired both games.

Sporting News.

The Grand Rapids High school defeated the Hope college nine Saturday in a game that broke the hearts of the collegians. It was theirs until the sixth inning when Huizenga's arm went back and the Grand Rapids boys, who until that time were trailing in the dust without the sign of a score, began to canter across the plate. The High school lads kept scoring until the ninth when with the score a tie Rob DePree was put in the box in place of Huizenga and he immediately began the strike out act. In the tenth he was not so fortunate. With three men on bases, two men out, and three balls and two strikes called on the batter he made it four balls and forced in the winning run. Score, G. R., 10; Hope, 9. Umpire, Fairfield.

The Twin Cities (Saugatuck and Douglas) ball club will win the championship of Allegan county this season for money, marbles or talk.—Saugatuck Commercial.

Bill Tibald says there was "nothing to it" so what's the use telling about it. But the fact cannot be overlooked that the Fennville club came here Wednesday afternoon and all they could show after a fierce struggle on the diamond was three tallies while the Holland club had 12 tallies to their credit. The Fennvillites were busy gathering goose eggs until the ninth inning when a couple of well-placed hits and a little ragged playing enabled them to get acquainted with the home plate. The game had one exceptionally good effect. Coupled with the victories of Decoration Day it knocked the Knockers club into the land of dreams. Yes, the faultfinders organized for the purpose of running down the Holland team is no more, and no one regrets its demise as it served no good purpose, its main stock in trade being kicks, kicks, kicks, knocks, knocks, knocks.
