THE MAN FROM MISSOURI

may want to know the reason why. Not only to the man from Missouri, but to any man we can demonstrate the reason why he should look over our line of clothes before purchasing.

You can find BIG BARGAINS at little prices.

One trial makes you our fast friend.

The recollection of quality remains long after the price is forgotten.

You may match the prices but never the values.

Every suit we sell is a trade bringer. Every price a money saver. Every article a good one.

Our doors are always open to visitors.

No trouble to show goods.
Don't be reticent about asking questions, the more you ask the better we like it.

One point which you should never forget: Our prices are, and always will be, the lowest. Real values can only be judged by inspection, consequently we appeal to the practical wisdom of economical buyers.

Louis P. Ernst, Prof. N. J. Stanton, and Prof. Leonard Reus, the board of examiners of Ottawa county, are conducting a teachers' examination at the High school. There are fifty-two applicants.

Charles Harmon can land them when it comes to catfish. Accompanied by his brother Henry, he went out Thursday morning bright and early determined to catch the choicest. Many he passed by in disdain, when in a low part of the river, east of the bridge quite a ways, he hooked a catfish weighing 21½ pounds and promptly landed it, though it struggled as if it had nine lives to escape the wary angler.

Ceaseless and vigorous warfare will be carried on against gossipers in Grand Haven according to the following from the Grand Haven Tribune: Ed. Tribune: "I will give a reward of ten cents for the name of the meddlesome female gossip who has reported that I issue saloon chips at my pool and billiard rooms."

Louis McKay's music class in Zeeland gave a musical at Ossewaarde hall last Monday evening which was attended by a large number from this city. The good work of the pupils shows that Mr. McKay understands the art of imparting musical instruction. Martin Dykema and W. Hawthorne assisted in the entertainment and pleased the audience greatly.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Twenty-four young people were graduated from the Allegan High school last week.

Tomorrow the Goodrich line and the Barry line will begin running daily boats from Grand Haven.

John E. Benjamin is enlarging his shoe store at 67 East Eighth street by building a second story in the rear.

Jacob Geerlings is taking his annual two weeks vacation and his place on the letter carrier route is filled by John J. Schoon.

All of the barber shops in Holland excepting one will close at noon Saturday, July 4 and will remain closed for the day and evening.

A three-story brick building with stone front will be built by J. C. Post on River street between Seventh and Eighth street back of B. Steketee's store.

Rev. James F. Zwemer has been delegated by the General Synod to give instruction on theological subjects in the Western Theological Seminary next winter.

John Wesselink has resigned his position at the Northwestern Classical Academy at Orange City, Iowa, and will study theology. Mr. Wesselink was graduated from Hope college in 1902.

Since the last quarterly report of the Grand Haven State bank in which Attorney J. C. Post and other citizens of this city is interested the deposits have been increased about $40,000. This is a magnificent showing.

Euretha lodge, D. of R. has elected the following officers:

Noble Grand—Mrs. Ella Drinkwater.
Vice Grand—Mrs. Rose Harris.
Secretary—Mrs. Jane L. Higgins.
Treasurer—Mrs. Bertha Wise.
Captain of the staff—Richard Van Lente.
Planist—Miss Minnie Kramer.
Representative to Assembly—Mrs. Jane L. Higgins.

The election of the Rev. Nicholas M. Steffens, D. D., now professor in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, at Dubuque, Iowa, as Professor of Historical Theology in our Western Theological Seminary, promises to bring back to that institution one whose ripe scholarship, teaching ability and sympathy with our church, fit him pre-eminently for the position. He is in every way qualified to take up and carry on the excellent work done by Professor Dosker. It is to be hoped he will accept the position.—Christian Intelligencer.

Children's Day exercises in Hope church Sunday morning were attended by a large congregation. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, palms and potted plants. An excellent program of songs and recitations were rendered, those who took part being Hazel Wing, Katherine Post, Marguerite Diekema, Evelyn De Vries, Harold McLean, John Post, Bernie Bosman, Arthur Vanduren, Herbert Cook and James H. Mills. Addresses were made by Dr. David J. Burrell, of New York, Rev. J. T. Bergen and Hon. G. J. Diekema.

As the result of the arguments presented by Mayor Charles K. Hoyt and City Attorney Walter I. Lillie, the Grand Haven delegation sent to Washington to protest against the removal of the weather bureau from Grand Haven to Grand Rapids, and Congressman William Alden Smith, Chief Moore has modified his previous order somewhat. A station will be retained at Grand Haven to look after marine interests and will be run in connection with the Grand Rapids office. Reports from Chicago will be received every morning, and during storms telegrams will be posted every hour.

Rev. Dr. Henry E. Dosker delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Central University of Danville at the First Presbyterian church at Danville June 7 and the papers of that place have made very favorable comments. The Danville News has the following: "The Rev. Henry E. Dosker, of Holland, Mich., preached one of the strongest baccalaureate sermons that the Danville people have had the pleasure of hearing for some time. The sermon was preached at the First Presbyterian church and it was filled to overflowing with interested hearers." The Kentucky Advocate devotes a half column to the exercises in which the following appears: "Dr. Dosker has recently been elected as one of the Faculty of the Louisville Theological Seminary to fill the chair made vacant by the death of Dr. C. B. H. Martin. His masterly sermon yesterday morning was listened to with deep interest by a very large congregation. Dr. Dosker comes to Kentucky with a high reputation for learning and scholarship, and that reputation was fully sustained by his sermon on Sunday, but the scholar was overshadowed by the preacher as he pressed upon the graduates the thought of the text, 'Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, my Father, thou art the guide of my youth?' The sermon, which was a literary gem, glittered with beautiful thoughts, and was earnest, forceful and tender."

The Grand Rapids Herald has the following editorial expression on the election of Hon. D. B. K. Van Raalte: "The election of D. B. K. Van Raalte of Holland to be department commander of the Michigan grand army will be pleasing to every old soldier in the state. Mr. Van Raalte is a Hollander by birth, with ancestors who fought for 80 years to break the hold of Spain upon the Netherlands. His father, A. C. Van Raalte, was at the head of the original Holland colony, coming to this country to enjoy the blessings of liberty. When the war broke out the father enlisted and so did the son, and the son's empty sleeve and the scar on his face are eloquent tributes to the fact that he was on the firing line. Mr. Van Raalte's career as a citizen since the war has been as commendable as was his war record. The department did itself credit in electing Mr. Van Raalte as commander. The honor was worthily bestowed."

P. H. McBride, prosecuting attorney, was elected state delegate at large at the G. A. R. encampment in Muskegon last week.

The members of Major Scranton Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., went to Saugatuck Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Grant, a member of the Circle.

Miss Mae Brusse, daughter of Ex-Register of Deeds Peter Brusse, will be graduated from the Grand Haven high school next week. On class day she will read the class prophecy.

Tri-weekly boat service has been started between Saugatuck and Chicago by the steamer Saugatuck. The steamer McVey will be put on the route as soon as the harbor is dredged and daily trips will then be made.

Peter Oosting has been awarded the contract for the mason work on the new Arendshorst block to be built on Eighth street, and S. H. Ocker of Grand Rapids has been awarded the contract for the carpenter work. The building will be three stories, brick and stone, will cost $15000 and will be finished in six months.

Drs. Runyan & Arnold, dentists, of South Haven sent their office carpet, with the lining under it and the sweepings from it for two years, to Chicago, where a refiner extracted by burning $45 in gold as their share of the proceeds. Go thou and do likewise dentists of Holland, or better still have the work done here and keep all the gold.

The Grand Haven Senior class has fallen in line with the custom followed by the Senior classes of the large colleges. Instead of holding the class day exercises this year within the four walls of a building it will hold them in the grove of the school yard. The spreading trees and the nodding plants are expected to lend a classic air to the occasion.

Geo. H. Souter, proprietor of the nursery at Beechwood on the north side, can beat most hot house men a mile when it comes to raising flowers. Proof of this statement can be furnished in abundance at the Holland City News office for Mr. Souter brought a huge bouquet of the choicest flowers here Tuesday. One of the flowers is a curiosity in that it is the abiding place of a diminutive tree toad, that has made of one of the leaves his permanent home.

Albert C. Keppel, chief of the fire department, and A. Smeenge and Jacob Lokker, members of the department, returned Friday from the annual convention of the state firemen's association at Alma. Mr. Keppel says that two familiar personages who in the past were the soul and life of the convention were missing—L. T. Kanters of this city and Capt. Hogan of Detroit—both of whom passed away since the last convention. Mr. Kanters was very popular among the firemen of the state and many expressions of sorrow were expressed to the Holland firemen. Chief Keppel gave a touching eulogy upon the life and work of Mr. Kanters, designating him as "Ons aller vriend."

We have all heard the expression, "She wears the pants," and this finds true in many beet fields where women are employed. Last season on the 1,000 acres grown at Owendale by the publishers of this journal one of the experiments tried was that of clothing several of the women, working in the fields, in "blue jeans," such as may be bought at any store for 50 or 60 cents. It was a success. Those wearing them liked the plan much better than the form of dress. The jeans were simply slipped on and the dress tucked in. They could get along over the rows and not drag down the beets and could get over the ground faster. We have seen several women thus clothed this season.—Michigan Sugar Beet.

An idea of what it costs some men to serve a term in the Michigan state senate may be gathered from the following from an article by Senator Jas. E. Scripps of Detroit in which he tells of his experiences in and his impressions of that body: "In conclusion, I have received from the state the customary emoluments of the office, $511.64—not one cent more from any source. My expenses, including the cost of the campaign, railroad fares, board bills and incidentals, have reached $1,400.05, leaving as the net cost of the honor of one term in the Michigan state senate the sum of $888.41." Of course Senator Scripps lived better than the average legislator, many of whom stayed in modest priced boarding houses or depended upon one dollar a day hotels, but in the main his statement proves that there is not barrels of money to be made in going to the legislature.

The Grand Rapids Herald has the following editorial expression on the election of Hon. D. B. K. Van Raalte: "The election of D. B. K. Van Raalte of Holland to be department commander of the Michigan grand army will be pleasing to every old soldier in the state. Mr. Van Raalte is a Hollander by birth, with ancestors who fought for 80 years to break the hold of Spain upon the Netherlands. His father, A. C. The death of Mrs. Jan Kieft occurred Sunday morning at her home on East Eighth street at the age of 41 years as the result of bronchial trouble from which she suffered for some time. She leaves a husband and four children. The remains were taken to Muskegon, the home of deceased's parents, Wednesday for burial.

Little Alden Brown, the 7-year-old son of County Clerk Fremont Brown, had a narrow escape from drowning Monday afternoon near the south channel bridge. The little fellow, with some playmates, was playing near the edge of the channel and in some manner fell into the channel. He was rescued from certain death by bridge tender Kohlof.

Judge Padgham recently dismissed his only case that has been appealed from the Probate court in Probate Judge Kirby's administration. The matter was a drain case relating to the Black Creek drain. Henry Haxtable asked that the drain be taxed for costs which Judge Kirby refused to do. The case was carried to circuit court and Judge Padgham was asked to institute mandamus proceedings against the probate court. Judge Padgham, however, sustained Judge Kirby's decision and dismissed the motion.

The steamer Post Boy in command of Captain Austin Harrington has returned from Chicago where it was taken to undergo some slight repairs and is now ready for resort service. It will give its first excursion for the season next Monday evening. The West Michigan band will be aboard and that means good music and a good time. These excursions were very popular last season and a repetition of this popularity and increased patronage will result this summer.

Holland City News.

FRIDAY, June 19th.

WILL BE NO STRIKE.

Miners and Operators Come to an Agreement at Scranton and Peace Prevails.

Scranton, Pa., June 17.—There will be no strike in the anthracite region growing out of the refusal of the operators to recognize the credentials of District Presidents Nicholls, Fahy and Dettrey, instructed by the joint executive board of the United Mine Workers as the miners' representatives on the board of conciliation. The convention of the United Mine Workers on yesterday elected the three district presidents by districts as their representatives and the operators, through President George F. Baer, of the Reading company, announced that this action was satisfactory.

Congressman Dies.

Piqua, O., June 15.—Hon. John F. McKinney, a prominent lawyer and one time democratic state leader, died here of paralysis, aged 75 years. He served two terms in congress. He was elected to the Thirty-eighth congress in 1862 from the Fourth district, and was again elected to the Forty-second in 1870. He was chairman of the democratic state committee for several years.

Begins Her Term.

Lansing, Kan., June 11.—Jessie Morrison arrived at the state penitentiary here Wednesday and began serving her 25 years' sentence for killing Mrs. Olin Castle. She was assigned to the dressmaking department, but will be permitted to do fancy work until she has recovered her health. Miss Morrison was weak and nervous, but showed no signs of breaking down.

Bridge Gave Way.

Eau Claire, Wis., June 17.—The approach to the Madison street bridge went down under the weight of a big crowd gathered to witness the street carnival. Nearly 200 people were on the approach at the time it fell to the beach below, a distance of 25 feet. Six are badly hurt and two will die. Twenty-five others received serious injuries.

Two Hanged.

Michigan City, Ind., June 12.—Ora Copenhaver (white) and William Jackson (colored) were hanged in the state prison here this morning before one o'clock. Copenhaver murdered his wife in Indianapolis and Jackson killed a woman near Evansville for the purpose of robbery.

Chinese Statesman Dead.

Shanghai, June 13.—Lo Feng Luh, the former Chinese minister in London, is dead at Foo Chow.

Lipton Leaves London.

London, June 17.—There was a large gathering of people at the Euston railroad Wednesday to bid good-by to Sir Thomas Lipton, who started for Liverpool to board the steamer Oceanic for New York. The crowd cheered heartily while Sir Thomas waved his farewell. On the same train was J. Pierpont Morgan, who was also cheered by the Lipton contingent. King Edward telegraphed to Sir Thomas Lipton as follows: "As you are just about leaving for America, let me wish you a prosperous journey and all possible good luck for the great race in August." (Signed) Edward R. and I."

Danger About Over.

Albuquerque, N. M., June 17.—The break in the dyke at Alameda, eight miles above town, has been effectually closed and with a falling river and a large force of men to guard the levee, there is little further danger of a flood here. Six miles of the lower valley farms are under water and the people are living in tents on the high lands. It is feared that there will be severe suffering among those driven from their homes. The loss to crops is almost complete.

Woodmen Elect Officers.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 17.—At the Woodmen's convention here Wednesday the election of officers resulted as follows: Head consul, A. R. Talbott, of Nebraska; head adviser, D. B. Horn, of Iowa; head clerk, Charles W. Hawes, of Illinois; head banker, P. R. Smith, of Missouri. Directors: G. W. Reilly, Illinois; C. G. Saunders, Iowa; R. P. R. Smith, of Missouri; E. E. Murphy, of Kansas; C. J. Byrnes, of Michigan. The anti presented no candidates.

Worst of All Experiences

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by Heber Walsh, Druggist.

Dyspepsia—bane of human existence. Burdock Blood Bitters cures it, promptly, permanently. Regulates and tones the stomach.

Is it a burn? Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. A cut? Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At your druggists.

FOR SALE—Or exchange for city property in Holland, 40 acre farm, good apple orchard and all kinds of small fruits and berries. 13 miles north of Holland on Grand Haven road. Inquire or address, Mrs. Charles Winters, Agnew, Mich.

WANTED—Men and boys wanted at Heinz Pickle factory.

LOST—Bird Dog. Black head, large black spot on rump. Reward for return to 126 North Central avenue.

Driven to Desperation

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in burns cuts, wounds, ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c. at Heber Walsh's Drug store.

FOR SALE—Some Buff Rock chickens, chicken coop, and wire netting. Apply at 91 West Fourteenth street, or at De Grandwet office.

The June sun shines on many a fair bride, made doubly lovely by the use of Rocky Mountain Tea. The bride's best friend.

Startling Evidence

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va. serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and being doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles. Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by Heber Walsh, Druggist. Trial bottles 10c, regular sizes 50c., and $1.00.

Cures croup, sore throat, pulmonary troubles—Monarch over pain of every sort. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

It's a mistake to imagine that itching piles can't be cured; a mistake to suffer a day longer than you can help. Doan's Ointment brings instant relief and permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.

LaGrippe Caused Heart Trouble.

Nervous Prostration and Dyspepsia.

My Friends Know Heart Cure Cured Me.

Mrs. C. O. Hurd, 118 W. Third St., Muscatine, Ia., is well known throughout her section of Iowa as an ardent worker in the M. E. Church. She says: "LaGrippe left me with a severe case of nervous depression and nervous dyspepsia, which soon affected my heart. I suffered from sleeplessness, headache, extreme nervousness and twitching of the muscles. The slightest exertion would cause shortness of breath, a numbness of my body and hot flashes with pain. I will tell you what I am constantly telling my friends—that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me so that all these disagreeable symptoms left me. I may add that for severe pain I have never found anything to equal Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and that the Nerve and Liver Pills are a wonderful stomach remedy."

"Our son was stricken down with heart trouble in his twentieth year. For two months we got no sleep with him at night, so we commenced to use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve and the Nerve and Liver Pills and today he is sound and well. In fact he passed a physical examination since his sickness and is with the Army in the Philippines. I desire to add that Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have certainly been a boon to me. I am frequently troubled with sick and nervous headaches and I have never found anything that would relieve me so quickly and leave me feeling so well thereafter."—Mrs. Alice Moad, Buffalo, Mo.

THE TESTIMONY IS ALL IN

Lawyers for Defense Begin Opening Arguments in Marcum Murder Trial at Jackson.

BELIEVED NO RESULT WILL BE REACHED

Action of Grand Jury in Releasing Man Held for Arson Causes Renewed Anxiety to Citizens of Fend-Ridden County — Witness Ewen Goes to Lexington.

Jackson, Ky., June 17.—With the testimony closed, jury charged by Judge Redwine and arguments of counsel proceeding Wednesday, there is a general belief that no decisive result will be reached in the present trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of Marcum. Although the jurors are not residents of Breathitt county, the most sanguine predict nothing more than a disagreement of the jury and others anticipate acquittal. Under these conditions the reign of terror continues. Part of Ewen's family have gone to Lexington and others are arranging to become refugees from their homes. Following the action of the grand jury Tuesday in releasing those held for arson and the alleged attempt Tuesday night to kill those who testified in the arson cases, there is increased anxiety as to what may happen to other witnesses in the murder cases after the trial closes. It has been decided that Capt. Ewen was not courtroom. Judge Redwine then threatened to send Judge Blanton to jail for contempt of court and admonished Judge French to be more temperate in his language.

Judge French spoke for two hours and was followed by Capt. Hurst for the prosecution. Capt. Hurst declared that his only motive for taking part in the prosecution, which was the first time in many years he had taken part in a prosecution, was to secure justice. He said he wanted to see the law enforced in Breathitt county.

Capt. Hurst, who is 73 years old, made an impressive speech for law and order notwithstanding his feeble voice. His appeal for justice was vivid and at times dramatic. He was followed by John O'Neal, of Covington, Ky., for the defense in an elaborate review of the evidence to show an alibi for the defendants.

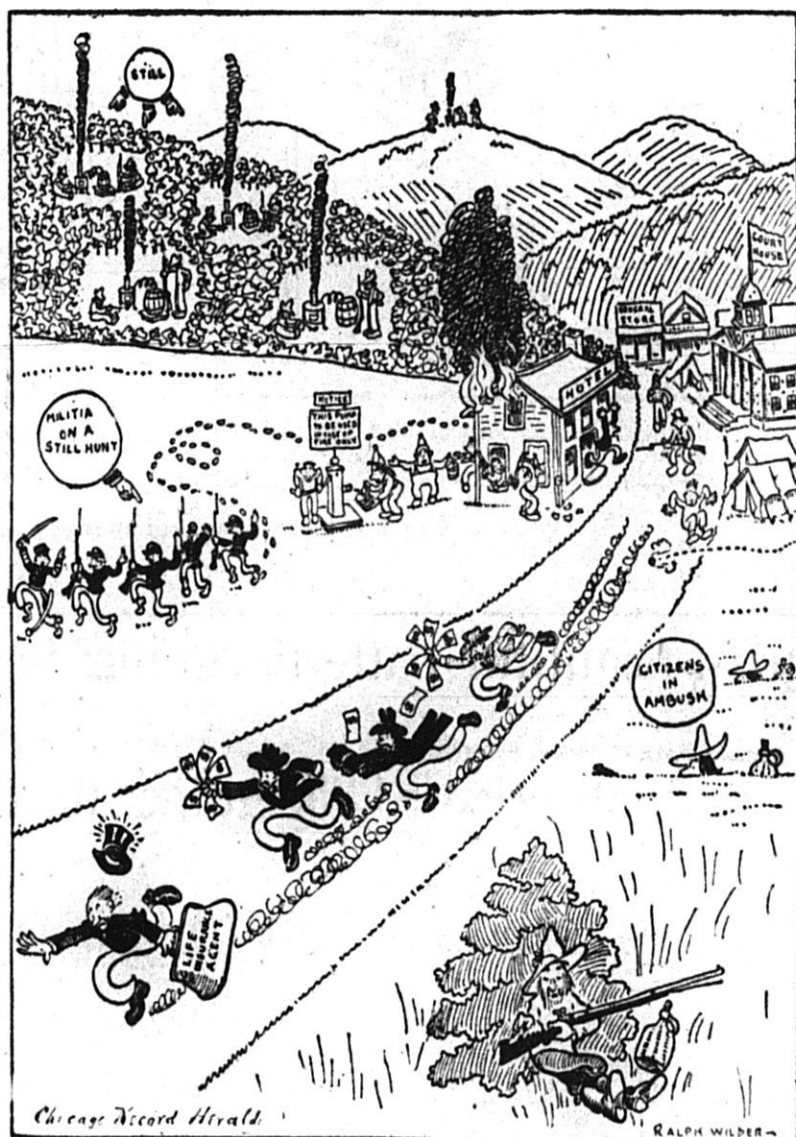

Ewen Arrives at Lexington.
Lexington, Ky., June 17.—Witness B. J. Ewen arrived here Wednesday accompanied by his little daughter, Mattie, and 20 soldiers under Sergt. Swope. He was met at the depot by friends and taken to the Gordon home. Capt. Ewen said: "I can work at almost anything and will seek employment in Lexington, Winchester or Louisville. I had contracts with Hargis Brothers involving several thousands of dollars which, of course, I will lose now."

FATAL COLLISION.

Passenger Train Runs Into Gravel Train at Elmira, Ia., and Three Men Are Killed.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., June 17.—Three men were killed and four injured as the result of a collision of a Rock Island passenger train and a gravel train at safe here even in camp with the soldiers, as sharpshooters might pick him out some time when he was not in the tent.

LIFE IN KENTUCKY.

A Quiet Day in the Marcum Trial.

Ewen Leaves Camp.

B. J. Ewen, who was reported to have fled from camp here Tuesday night as well as the previous night, did not leave until Wednesday morning. He took the six o'clock train, boarding it at a point across the river, which he reached by way of a foot-bridge on the Panhandle. A guard of soldiers accompanied him and saw him safely aboard the train. The camp is located on the river bank and he did not have to expose himself to the part of the town controlled by the dominant faction. He sent several of his children away Tuesday to relatives and friends at different places and secured a place for his wife and younger children here until he can make other arrangements.

For the first time in 18 months Police Judge Cardwell tried an offender Wednesday morning. Cardwell is a Cardwell-Cockrill partisan, and like the late J. B. Marcum, up to the time the militia took possession of the town he had been a prisoner in his own home, having received repeated threats of assassination. The prisoners brought before him by the militia were Lee Gay and Lewis Johnson, known as henchmen from Perry county of the dominant faction. They were charged with assaulting Gray Haddicks, who had been a witness before the grand jury against Crawford and Thorne, charged with having set fire to Ewen's hotel. Judge Cardwell fined Gay nine dollars and costs, and Johnson $25 and gave him ten days in jail for carrying concealed weapons.

Trouble Narrowly Averted.

When court convened in the morning Judge B. F. French, the noted leader of the French faction of the French-Eversole feud who is the leading lawyer for the defense of Jett and White, began the opening argument for the defense before Judge Redwine. He declared that County Judge Blanton, who had said that Witness Crawford had been arrested, had lied. Judge Blanton sprang to his feet and approached Judge French, but Elisor Jones threw himself between the men and Judge Redwine finally secured quiet in the Elmira, 20 miles south of here, early Wednesday morning. The accident was caused by the failure of the gravel train to clear the main track before the passenger arrived.

The dead: Eldon Herring, Lisbon; Earl Herring, Lisbon; Fred Risler, Davenport.

Injured: T. A. Myers, passenger engineer, Cedar Rapids; internally; serious. James Barnes, baggage man, leg, arm and thigh broken; serious. Barnes, fireman gravel train; jaw broken. Theodore Heche, of Traer, passenger, ribs broken. A number of passengers sustained minor hurts.

Quiet Restored.

Washington, June 17.—The latest information which the war department has received from Gen. Baldwin concerning the situation at Morenci, Ariz., is to the effect that quiet had been restored and that United States troops were no longer necessary. Gen. Baldwin, however, intended leaving a company at Morenci and had directed that a squadron of cavalry should make a practice march in the direction of Morenci to be available in case there was further trouble.

The Montana Flood.

Big Timber, Mont., June 17.—The washouts on the Northern Pacific between this point and Billings were even worse than was first reported. Near Columbus a steel bridge 30 feet long was swept away. Oliver Bassett, of Park City, lost about 2,500 sheep. The shearing pens of Cabot Thomas were swept away. Traffic has been resumed on the Northern Pacific. All trains are running late.

Body of Rev. Hall Found.

Binghamton, N. Y., June 17.—The body of Rev. Robert Emmett Hall, widely known on account of his literary talent, has been found in the Susquehanna river here. He was brought from Connecticut to the state hospital for insane here a year ago. He recently escaped and it is thought fell into the river.

New Civil Service Commissioner.

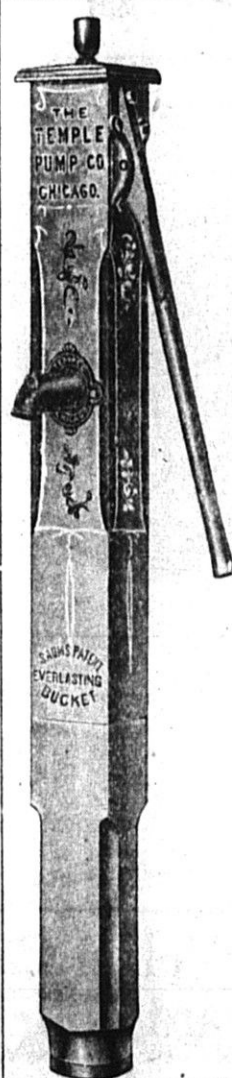

Washington, June 17.—Henry F. Greene, of Duluth, Minn., has been appointed civil service commissioner to succeed Mr. Garfield. Mr. Greene is a lawyer.

Answer It Honestly

ARE THE STATEMENTS OF HOLLAND CITIZENS NOT MORE RELIABLE THAN THOSE OF UTTER STRANGERS

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Holland. It permits of only one answer. It cannot be evaded or ignored. A Holland citizen speaks here. Speaks for the welfare of Holland. A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

Mrs. John Kloosterman, two miles of Zeeland says: "For ten or twelve years I looked in vain for some medicine to free me from distressing kidney complaint. I suffered at intervals during that period with aching pains through the loins, twinges up and down the muscles of my back, irregular and unnatural condition of the kidney secretions and frequent attacks of dizziness. My son John Kloosterman a tailor, 133 East Eighth street, Holland noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the Holland paper and highly recommended by people who had used them. Thinking they might help me he procured a supply at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and sent them out to me. I noticed shortly after I commenced the treatment that it was doing me good and as I continued my condition improved. In my estimation Doan's Kidney Pills are by far the best remedy on the market."

Hope College's Week.

Hope College owned this week. It was commencement week of that institution, and the time of a great number of citizens was devoted to the exercises incident thereto. For the time being even the cares of business and professional life were laid aside by many and educational matters with their attendant educational inspiration took precedence.

The baccalaureate sermon marked the opening of the inspirational week. It was delivered in Hope church last Sunday evening by Rev. David J. Burrell of New York before an audience that filled the spacious auditorium to overflowing. The church was handsomely decorated, a profusion of flowers, wreaths and potted plants banking the front part of the pulpit and setting off a harp made of blossoms and evergreens.

Promptly at 7:45 o'clock Thomas Welmers of the Senior class played a voluntary on the pipe organ and the president of the college, the speaker of the evening, the members of the faculty and the Senior class filed down the aisle.

The class has made a decided innovation, adopting the custom prevailing in so many great institutions of learning of wearing caps and gowns. They wore the costumes for the first time Sunday night.

Opening remarks were made by Dr. G. J. Kollen, the president, and after a song by the congregation Rev. J. T. Bergen gave the invocation. A song by Prof. J. B. Nykerk and by the Misses Vanderploeg and De Feyter followed, and the speaker was introduced by Dr. Kollen.

Dr. Burrell's sermon was grand. His delivery was effective and dramatic and he held the audience under the spell of his great eloquence.

His sermon abounded with sentences that showed remarkable literary training. The lesson he taught was that men should so live that they should be ever ready to receive the spirit of God and be influenced by the Great Master to live according to His laws. A conversation with a number of men of whom Signor Marconi formed the central figure suggested the theme of his discourse and he depended upon an exposition of wireless telegraphy to illustrate his thoughts. He contended that Marconi with his skill and insight has by the great use to which he has put electric wires and wireless currents of electricity but made a demonstration scientifically of what has been spiritually going on in the world for ages. The central thought brought out was that as the vibrations from the Marconi instruments of science sent out vibrations that were received only by other instruments attuned and adjusted to a like degree so the great Ruler of the universe sent out perpetually spiritual vibrations the receiving of which demanded that our minds and hearts be adjusted and attuned to His ideas in order that we might be capable and suitable to receive the message of truth and the beams of spiritual light.

"If," said he, "we are not adjusted to the mind of the infinite, the messages of hope and love, and truth will pass over our heads, leaving us in spiritual darkness. Nature is full of divine voices. The flowers, the brooks, the trees, the rocks, the everlasting hills speak the messages of God and some of us are so commonplace that we cannot understand or appreciate the wonderful truths. Some of us do not even realize that messages are being delivered, so dead are we to all that is good and ennobling."

"Our minds should be keyed aright to comprehend the voice of God that speaks through the bible. There are some who see in the bible nothing but literature, full of the beauties of rhetoric but containing nothing which should not be submitted to cold criticism. The message in the Word passes over their heads. If our souls are not attuned to the divine soul we will never read the bible aright, never hear the voices of the incarnate word."

The closing words of Dr. Burrell were particularly apt and impressive. "You are," he said, "going out into the world under a rainbow arch of promise. May God go with you. You will never forget the sweet associations of college life, the faces of your teachers and classmates. Do not think you are going out fully educated. The machinery of your minds is but prepared and oiled for the broader education you will now begin to receive. You are going on a quest that is holier than that of the Golden Fleece or the Holy Grail. When you hear God's voice what will you answer, what will you do with truth, what does it mean to you? Always be ready to answer, and whatever he saith unto you, do it."

The services were closed by a song by Prof. J. B. Nykerk, Mrs. G. J. Diekema, James C. De Free and the Misses Van der Ploeg and De Feyter.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT EXERCISES.

It has become the habit of late years on the part of those interested in Hope to look forward to the graduating exercises of the preparatory department with nearly as much interest and anticipation as the exercises of the Senior class. The reason for this lies in the fact that the graduates of the preparatory department have always been, when weighed in the balance of public criticism, found up to the right standard—a standard that means excellence. This year was no exception to previous years and the large audience that gathered at the chapel Monday afternoon had its expectations fulfilled.

Prof. J. T. Bergen, following a rule that he laid down convincingly several years ago, was brief but pointed and pleasing in his opening remarks.

The Processional march was played by Miss Estelle M. Kollen, and Rev. N. Boer of Grand Rapids made the opening invocation. "Welcome, Sweet Springtime," was sung by the Ladies' Choral Union, with Thomas Welmers accompanist. "College Oil Cans," was recited with pathos and a touch of the dramatic, by Miss Bessie Bottume.

James Veneklassen told the Class History. According to his version the class of 1903 was a full rigged ship, manned by stout mariners from all points of the compass, who were bound for the haven of success as comprehended in the curriculum of Hope's preparatory department. Despite the storms that lingered over the face of the deep sea of learning, despite assaults from piratically inclined highwaymen of the ocean of life the class ship weathered all gales thanks to the able seamanship of the faculty and finally anchored safely and snugly in the haven of Hope, ready for a collegiate voyage.

An original poem parodied after Holmes, "Bunker Hill Battle," was read by Arnold Mulder, and Maunes A. Stegeman delivered an oration extolling Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden as a patriot, hero and martyr par excellence.

Miss Myrtle K. Beach captivated the audience with a soprano solo, "The Shoozy-Shoo," by Ambrose. She has a sweet, clear voice and sang with such pleasing effect that her number was one of the best on the program.

Paul E. Kleinkekel was grotesque in his reproduction of the arguments of "Hiram Haystack and Jacob Jacobstein" and was decidedly good in his recitation "The Blue and the Gray."

Henry Vis read the class poem entitled "The Tale of the Buccaneer."

Herman Van Hasselt, with Miss Avis Yates accompanist played a violin solo, a serenade from Pierne, in a manner that brought forth a hearty demand for an encore.

The exercises were closed by a rendition of two scenes from Irving's "Rip Van Winkle" by an all star cast from the preparatory department consisting of Andrew Bonthuis, Katherine L. Duffy, Bessie W. Bottume, Martin Nienhuis and Benjamin De Young. Here is the class roll:

FRATERNAL SOCIETY BANQUET

One of the particularly happy events of the week was the Fraternal Society 40th anniversary alumni banquet at Hotel Holland Monday evening. Members of the society representing nearly every state of the union and some of the foreign countries were there and fraternal reminiscences were indulged in to their hearts content.

Hon. G. J. Diekema was the toastmaster, and the gentleman now from Washington and elsewhere, and later destined to be from Lansing if the people have their way, kept the guests on the borderland of pathos and laughter by his humor and eloquence.

C. VanderMel, president of the society touched the chord of fraternity in his opening remarks. He said in part:

"I consider it a matter of great joy tonight to extend to you all a most cordial welcome to this, the 40th anniversary alumni banquet of the Fraternal Society. This occasion, I am glad to say does not call for a set speech on my part, and yet I must not refrain from expressing my intense pleasure in meeting here tonight on this festive occasion as members, alumni, and friends of the Fraternal society, the society which we all love, not for itself alone, but for the good it has accomplished in the lives of many of us here present, and for the happy associations and inspiring memories which its name brings back to us."

"Fraternal Society has a history and record of which any society may justly feel proud. About 70 years ago it was formed in Union College. In 1861, it fell asleep only to be transplanted to Hope college and awake in 1863 with new life to continue its glorious future. But enough for its history, I shall leave this for others to recall and extol."

"We tonight celebrate the 40th anniversary of the life of Fraternal Society here at Hope college, and the assembly here present, though but a small part of its alumni, is testimony enough to its brilliant record. Fraternal Society is the oldest society at the college and we say with all confidence, that the best alumni of Hope whether they be lawyers, doctors, ministers, teachers or in whatever profession they may be found can ascribe some if not much of their success in life to their work in the Fraternal Society."

"Fraternal society has become the garden spot of our college days and richly lends its fragrance still. May its future fruit be as abundant and hallowed, as its past is rich and beloved. Still advancing may the Fraternal Society remain the center of pleasing and useful influence."

"Fraternalism Abroad" was the subject of Rev. A. Oltman's toast and he dwelt feelingly on the sentiment "Absence still increases love." He called attention to one fact that should serve as an inspiration to the graduating class, and that is that out of the twenty four of the alumni of Hope who are in the foreign missionary field nineteen are members of the Fraternal Society.

J. A. VanZomerem carried away the batting honors of the evening. He made a hit on every member of the faculty, many of the seniors and a number of the members of the society. His sentiment was "The world knows nothing of its greatest men" and he never missed an opportunity to twist the sentiment into a hit at some fancied trivial folly or some story characteristic of those present. His response was, as the boys would say, "certainly good."

Rev. H. E. Dosker, D. D., was as eloquent and pleasing as usual and handled the toast "Fraternalism of Bygone Days" ably.

Dr. Kollen was witty and serious and interspersed in his remarks were gentle hits on the assembled guests. A. J. Muste said a few words of general interest and good cheer and Prof. E. D. Dimment told about "The Ladies" the sentiment that guided him being:

"He is a fool who thinks by force or skill
To turn the current of a woman's will."

Music was furnished by the F. S. quartette and Miss Grace Yates.

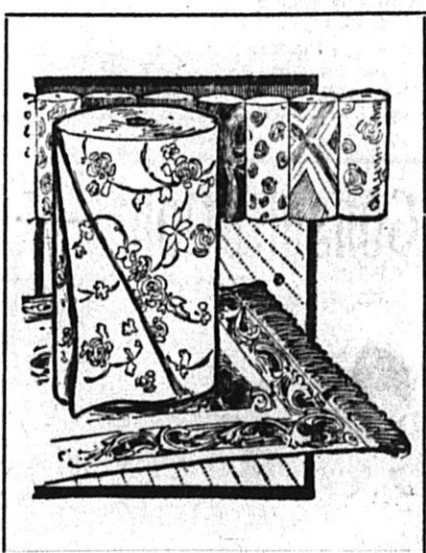

The purpose of the F. S. is found in the following words of an early historian of the society: "The Fraternal society makes no empty pretensions, seeks no valueless instructions; courts not the glare of uncongenial friendship; but as far as possible, discovers and associates as kindred spirits those who may mingle as 'Fratres' in prin-

ULFILAS CLUB

The Dutch language was in the ascendency Monday evening. The Ulfilas Club, devoted to the idea of gaining greater proficiency in that language, held its annual entertainment. It was very good and emphasized the value that the Ulfilas club is to Hope and to all who love the language.

Those who took part in the program marched in to the tune of a march played by Thomas Welmers. Rev. A. W. De Jonge made the opening invocation and the following program was carried out:

Address.....H. VanderNaald
Declaration.....Z. Roetman
Oration.....D. Muyskens
Piano Solo.....Miss Estelle Kollen
Oration.....G. Stuart
Declaration.....E. Roetschafer
Violin Solo.....Prof. E. L. Norton

The program was closed by a play in which the following participated: R. D'Zeeuw, F. Roetman, B. Poppen, Willis Hoekje, B. Roetschafer, G. Pennings, D. Muyskens.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

Tuesday evening belonged to the Alumni association. Sons and daughters of Hope came from all points of the compass to pay tribute to Alma Mater.

The exercises were opened by the singing of the college song in honor of Rev. H. E. Dosker, D. D., who will this fall go to Kentucky to join the faculty of the Louisville Theological Seminary. Miss Amy Dosker was the soloist and all present joined in the chorus with a will. Memories of old college days returned as their voices rose to the words:

"Shout a shout, Sons of Hope,
Like a bugle blast,
'Alma Mater semper tua sit';
Sing in jolly College lays
Of our golden College days
And the merry, merry life of the past."

Then the Ladies Choral Union sang "Anchored" and the college song composed by Miss Grace Hoekje of the graduating class. After the invocation by Rev. William Steggink the Choral union sang "Hark! Hark! My Soul."

Rev. G. H. Dubbink of '92 was the orator of the evening. His subject was "Higher Education as a factor in the development of God's kingdom on earth." He treated it in masterly style. His discourse was full of sound reasoning and opened up a vast field of thought.

Miss Dosker sang "Beloved it is morn" so well that she had to respond to an encore.

Rev. Jacob Meulendyk, '73, wrote the chronicles but he was absent and his record of events was read by Prof. Henry Boers, '78. The chronicles were spicy and interesting and called forth many a laugh from the older graduates of Hope.

Addresses limited to four minutes were made by Hon. G. J. Diekema, '82, Rev. P. Moordyk, D. D., '60, and Rev. M. Kolya, '71, James DeFree sang "The Mighty Deep."

Rev. T. Mullenberg, the chairman of the evening, spoke the welcoming words to the class of 1903, and the exercises closed with benediction by Rev. J. P. DeFree.

The officers of the alumni association are: President, Rev. E. J. Biekkink; vice president, Rev. T. Mullenberg; secretary, Prof. Edward D. Dimment; treasurer, Hon. Arend Vlisscher.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Undoubtedly one of the brightest and best classes ever graduated from Hope received diplomas last Wednesday night. Their record of work done is especially good and the showing they made at the commencement exercises was fine, all of the orations being of a high order.

The commencement exercises were opened by the invocation by Prof. Dr. Oltman of Tokio, Japan. Then Mr.

G. J. Dinkelspiel, of Chicago sang a tenor solo by Beethoven entitled "Jesus only."

Edward J. Strick gave the first oration. He spoke on "Universal Public Instruction" and traced the history of the system from the earliest days to the present.

He contended that one of the most important elements in our ideal of education is the principle of universal public instruction, which has revolutionized the entire world of education, and the effects of which are now being felt in every country where civilization has spread its light. Mr. Strick said in part:

"The event in the history of the world that did most to bring about the universality of education was the coming of Christ. The central figure in religion is also the grandest figure in education. It was among the followers of Christ that the need for universal public instruction was first recognized. The spirit of the Reformation demanded that all should be taught so as to understand the word of God."

"The strength of the state lies not so much in the strength of the leadership as in the average strength of the individual citizen. Individuals also have recognized that safety lies in education. What more glorious tribute could be paid to the potency of ideas than that Napoleon Bonaparte should establish the French system of schools and found the state university."

Henry G. Pilgrim spoke forcibly and convincingly on the "Power of Character." He has the presence, the voice and the delivery of an orator.

He drew out the idea that character is behind every action; that the heart as the seat of character has a greater power to mould than has the mind, the seat of genius. He told of the influence of character upon American history, paying tribute to the Puritan fathers and to America's great men. He then gave a vivid portrayal of present day evils and made an eloquent plea for higher moral life.

"It has been," he said, "a smile of fortune, nay a providence of God, that in the past when the resisting force seemed about overpowering we had men like Washington, Lincoln and McKinley, men of integrity, honest purpose and faithful endeavor, men of power greater than an army a hundred thousand strong, men whose character is a part of the Western world forever. But our nation's cry today is for men to stem the tide of evils threatening us in every department of life."

"Twentieth Century Knighthood" was the subject of Lucas Boeve's oration. He brought out strikingly the idea that men were needed now to battle not so much in a physical sense as did the warriors of old but in a spiritual sense against the powers of darkness and the menace of materialism. His view of the future had a tinge of the pessimistic. He held among other things that we have progressed more in material things than in the moral and spiritual, and that rationalism had deluged us.

"God," he said, "is dethroned. Ethics have been substituted for true fundamental principles of Christian doctrine. Lines have been tightly drawn between labor and capital."

Mr. Boeve also dwelt on political corruption and said that the country needed men like Clay, Grant and McKinley of the past and Roosevelt of the present to stem the tide.

"What the world wants," he said "is earnest, true, faithful self sacrifice men and women."

Miss Maud E. Squier, of Grand Haven, played "Recollections of home."

Miss Grace Hoekje had for the subject of her oration the significant words "Does It Pay?" Miss Hoekje applied this question to the great work now being done in the missionary field, and as she intends to enter this branch of the Lord's service her words were especially important. She proved that even as a purely financial investment Christian missions have been eminently successful, the first obvious product being the discovery and exploration of new lands. Science and literature must also pay tribute to missions. So also must natural history, ethnology and ancient philosophy. But more than all Christian missions have vindicated the claims and character of Christianity itself. Miss Hoekje closed with the following eloquent words:

"Fame, position, influence, affection put them all aside, for there is a higher challenge to the individual. It is a challenge to lead a heroic life, to make character, though one has not time to study it. Men, true men, in all ages have longed for the fire of trial. They have gloried in persecutions. In these later days a service is open to brave men, true men, heroic men. A service untold death, a service to make perfect through suffering. Take away all material gain from missionary effort; let pass fame, influence, affection. Forget even its moral effects and shall not this opportunity compensate for all its costs?"

Ned E. Hesselius spoke on "American Genius" contending that this genius of Americanism is revealed in the spirit of patriotism but that corruption greed and corruption, socialism, strikes and conflicts between labor and capital was a great menace to our welfare.

Mr. Hesselius said many good things and said them in a way that caught the sympathies of the audience.

Though he sounded a note of warning, his oration was nevertheless vibrant with the true American spirit of patriotism and progress.

"A son of the desert am I" was sung by Dr. A. C. V. R. Gilmore after which in a few well chosen, encouraging words President Kollen presented certificates to the graduating class of the preparatory department.

The Mrs. Sam Sloan foreign missionary prize of $25 on the subject, "The Story of the Moravian Mission," judges, Dr. J. Otte of Amoy, China, Dr. A. Oltmans and J. W. Beardslee Jr. was awarded to L. Boeye. This was open to the college department.

The George Birkhoff Junior $25 prize essay in English on the subject "Shakespeare and his Tragedies," awarded to W. Hoekje. The Birkhoff prize for the best essay in Dutch, $25, judges, Revs. A. Keizer, S. Vander Werf and Dr. Dosker, was awarded to Peter Grooters, subject, "De Slag Bij Nieuport." Stanley Fortuin won first prize, $15 and Miss Hilda C.

Stegemen second, $10, on best examination in English grammar and orthography. The judges were, Miss V. Smith, Commissioner Ernst and Prof. J. G. Winters.

Dr. Kollen announced that degrees were conferred as follows:

In consideration of his scholarly attainment, and the high position he holds in the church as an able minister of the Gospel, the degree of Doctor of Divinity is conferred upon the Rev. Adam D. Campbell of New Brunswick, New Jersey.

For wide, distinguished scholarship, for fostering the fine arts, and showing a beautiful spirit of helpfulness and benevolence, the degree of Doctor of Laws is conferred upon Jonathan Ackerman Coles, M. D., of Scotch Plains, New Jersey.

B. A. diplomas were conferred upon the following:

Cornelius K. Baarman, Lucas Boeve, Wm. H. Cooper, Peter Grooters, Ned E. Hesselius, Grace W. Hoekje, Alice E. Kollen, Anthony Karreman, Henry G. Pelgrim, Edward J. Strick, Gerhardus J. Stuart, Cornelius Van der Mel, Henry Vander Naald, Edward VanLandegend, Thomas E. Welmers, Sidney Zandstra and Minnie Vanderploeg.

A violin solo by Mr. VanHasselt and Dr. Norton followed.

Sidney Zandstra pronounced the class valedictory. He was very good, presenting the sentiments of class fraternity in an attractive light. His remarks to his classmates were particularly impressive and rung true with class and college spirit. He, too, allowed a note of pessimism to prevail in his speech and uttered striking sentences like the following:

"The political world is in an unsettled condition. There are storm clouds on the international horizon. A tremendous crisis seems imminent. The laboring classes are ground under the feet of capital. Religious unrest prevails. Truth is obscured by a multiplicity of creeds."

Then the doxology was sung, Rev. James F. Zwemer, president of the council of Hope college, pronounced the benediction and the great yearly event of importance in Hope came to an end.

High School Graduates Twenty-two.

The Holland High school graduated an especially large class this year, twenty-two, sixteen boys and six girls, receiving diplomas at the commencement exercises in the Methodist church last night.

High school commencement week was ushered in by the preaching of the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning at the M. E. church by the Rev. A. Trott. The stage was tastefully decorated with palms, flowers, wreaths and potted plants.

Promptly at 10:30 o'clock the senior class, preceded by F. D. Haddock, superintendent, and followed by the teachers of the public schools and the members of the school board, filed in and took seats in the front of the auditorium. After music by the choir and congregation the Rev. Trott delivered the sermon.

He spoke on "Character Building," presenting the idea clearly and forcibly that life and all that life meant depended upon the character of the individual. His sermon was very able and held the audience to close attention by its eloquence and logic. He said in part:

"The first essential in a life is character, and that is the only foundation upon which can be built a perfect spiritual, mental and physical structure. However great might be the educational attainments of a person their value in the world and their promise in a life to come were ruined if their character was uncertain. As a spider weaves its web so we are building character, and upon the strength of the foundation depends the stability of the structure. In this commercial age we are prone to believe that success is no higher thing than brain, brawn and bullion. Success is true manhood. Mawkish sentimentalism inspires people to extol criminals sometimes, but a man of noble character is always praised and respected. The world takes off its hat to him. Persecution will not affect him and temptation cannot accomplish his undoing."

"It may seem of little moment what we put into our lives, but the test will come and if we have build right the structure will stand. Character is the eternal thing. It always recommends men to God. Character determines our destiny and it is important that we allow nothing in our lives but the good, the noble and the true. Let us build wisely and well. Let us take Jesus as our model and put into our lives only the things bearing the stamp of the King."

"I ask you to remember that life is real and earnest, and that we must prepare not only for this life, but the future life. The soul must be cultivated as well as the mind, and I pray that your character may be modeled after the beautiful and perfect character of Jesus Christ."

Last night the Methodist church presented an attractive appearance for the commencement exercises.

The stage was prettily decorated with the class colors, purple and white, potted ferns and field daisies, the class flowers.

Promptly at eight o'clock, to the strains of the grand march played by Ray Hadden, the graduates, followed by the High school chorus, the school board and teachers and the eighth grade graduating class, marched into the church to the seats that had been reserved for them.

The opening chorus, "Blow, Soft Winds," rendered by the eighth grade pupils, was immediately followed by the singing of "The Torrent," by a sextette composed of Misses Fairbanks, Ederle, Reidsema, Habermann, McKay and Kuite, members of the class of '03. Misses Maude Kleyn and Hazel Wing, accompanists.

The music was in charge of Miss L. Evelyn Roberts, director of music in the schools, and showed the good effects of the careful training the children have received. The invocation of the divine blessing was given by Rev. Dr. Bergen.

The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. J. F. Loba, D. D., of Evanston, Ill. His topic was "Young People of the Orient." He strongly brought out the vast difference in modes of living, instruction and society in India and the island of Ceylon from the more civilized, Christian countries.

In conclusion he said: "Our sympathy should be with the Orient. Think of the wonderful opportunities and advantages given the people of our country."

try. Five great universities scattered throughout our country from which an average of 1,500 students are graduated each year without regard of sex or race. In India all doors are opened to men and closed to women."

Following the address, "The Soldiers' Chorus" (from Faust) was rendered by the High school chorus.

Sup't Haddock's farewell remarks were very impressive. "As I am about to leave Holland, I leave part of my heart with the schools and work done in the different departments."

"In the first decade of the High school the number of graduates were few, numbering 16, at the end of the second there were 70. During the last ten years ending last June 173 and to this we add 22 more."

"During the ten years ending last June the school enrollment had doubled and now the enrollment of the High school is trebled. This class is the first that has done its entire work in the High school dept. in selected course of study. The selected course has not been a mistake. The records show that they have chosen wisely and well under the direction of teachers and friends at home. It shows no endeavor to shirk or how easy a course they could pursue but to develop their talent and fit themselves for the highest work in the world."

"To the class of 1903. I wish to thank you publicly for the good spirit you have shown during the years of your course, for your loyalty to the school, for your helpfulness and assistance you have given the Sup't and teachers in their efforts to make the school better. I thank you most heartily for this. I have no words of advice to give you tonight, I only wish that you take with you the words of our closing song."

The closing song was then sung as follows:

God bless us as we part!
Touch and inspire each heart:
Teach us to know
What tasks Thou hast for us,
Where we may serve Thee most,
In calm and storm, to trust
In Thee alone.

Ne'er shall our school days end—
Though Time part friend from friend—
In this great school,
Prepare us there, we pray,
For that eventful day
When home, in Thine own way,
Each comes from school.

Diplomas were presented to the following: Everett S. Hoek, Henry P. Dutton, Edw. E. Nies, Edward Steketee, Will C. Van den Berg, Bert Van Eyk, Maud Charlotte Kleyn, Clara Gertrude McKay, Owelia Amella Olson, Elizabeth S. Schepers, Jeannette E. Westveer, Fannie W. Belt, Florence Fairbanks, Phila Mae Ederle, Agnes M. Habermann, Jeanie E. Jennings, Reka Kamferbeek, Rena Bylsma, Emma Damsou, Cornelia Kuite, Evelyn Reidsema, and Lois F. Tuttle.

Holland will have the best service to Chicago in its history this summer. The Graham & Morton company will put three steamers on the route—the Puritan, Argo and Soo City—beginning June 22. Triple daily service will be given.

The council of Hope college has elected the Rev. Mathew Kolyn of Grand Rapids to the chair of Psychology and Pedagogy to succeed Dr. E. L. Norton. Rev. J. W. Beardslee, jr. was elected to fill the vacancy of Prof. G. J. Winter who has been granted leave of absence for a year to take up work at the U. of M. Rev. J. J. VanZanten of Cedar Grove, Wis., has been elected as financial and educational agent of the college.

Grand Haven had a magnificent celebration yesterday, in honor of the entrance of the first electric car to the heart of the city and the inauguration of a free bridge in place of the toll bridge. A large crowd was present from the surrounding cities and the day was one of the biggest in the history of the city. There is no doubt that these two important events mark a new era of advancement for Grand Haven.

Worst of All Experiences

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by Heber Walsh, Druggist.

INQUIRY TO BE IMPARTIAL

President Roosevelt Orders Fulltest Investigation of the Post Office Scandal.

IS MOST ANXIOUS TO FIX THE BLAME.

Determined That No Guilty Person, No Matter How High His Position, Shall Escape Penalty for Wrong Doing—Public Will Be Given the Facts When Proper.

Washington, June 15.—There appears to be a lull in the investigation of the post office scandals just at present, but it is only temporary, and due to the fact that evidence is being prepared on which to arrest and punish the next of the ring. It can be stated on the highest authority that the crisis of the investigation will come within a few days, perhaps this week, and that it will be foreshadowed by the arrest of a former official of the department, who has for several weeks been under surveillance at his home.

President in Earnest.

President Roosevelt is in dead earnest in demanding that the investigations shall go to the bottom and take in everybody who has been guilty of wrongdoing in any branch of the postal service. He means business, and he has, moreover, given his assurance that at the proper time the public shall be made acquainted with every fact developed, no matter who is the victim.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow has been told to make the investigation thorough without fear or favor, and he will do it or President Roosevelt will demand the reason why. Bristow's reply to the Tulloch charges will soon be completed and made public, and it will show clearly what basis there was for the Tulloch charges, which, however true they may be, are not in themselves very serious as compared with the accusations against Machen, Beavers and the rest.

Gossip About Heath.

There has been much irresponsible talk about the alleged maladministration of former Postmaster General Perry S. Heath, secretary of the republican national committee, based on the somewhat intangible charges of Seymour W. Tulloch, former cashier of the Washington post office, which Heath, Charles Emory Smith, Postmaster General Payne, and all others directly concerned have pronounced to be false.

Now that they have started in, the president and Postmaster General Payne will not rest until every guilty person has been exposed and punished. The storm will, it is thought, have reached its fullest height before the president goes to Oyster Bay for the summer time during the present month.

A LIFE-TIME LOVE.

Oh, I am tired of having you dead—
Tired of an anguish uncomfoted,
I never get used to your empty place,
Nor cured of missing your vanished face.

For a year's young love a man mourns a year—
You were half of my life for a lifetime,
And all of its sunshine, and all of its spring,
And the grace and sweetness of everything.

More love for the asking, old friends and new?
Yes; but where is a friend like you?
All that woman and man can be,
Lovers and comrades and friends were we.

Did our love begin when our lives begun?
Was there ever a day when we were not one?
Had we ever a separate hope or fear,
Oh, can you, can you, remember, dear?

Oh, I am tired of having you dead—
Tired of waiting the word unsaid;
Tired of the night and tired of the day;
In the house that was home until you went away.

Oh, life-long love, don't you mind how we Pledged our troth for Eternity?
"Till Death do part us"—Oh, short and slight!
When Death has parted, till Death unite.

Oh, life-time love, in your Heaven pray,
That God may speed us our meeting day;
For I'm broken with sorrow, uncomfoted,
So tired, so tired, of having you dead,
—Katherine E. Conway, in Chicago Inter Ocean.

The negligent jolting of a train by which a passenger is hurled through the rear door and left in an insensible condition upon the track, is held, in Southern R. Co. vs. Webb (Ga.), 59 L. R. A. 109, to be the proximate cause of his death, where he is subsequently run over and killed by an engine belonging to another company, which the first company knew had a right to use the track, and was likely to use it at any time.

The carpets are going. Nothing can hold them. They are going—from James A. Brouwer's store. The exodus will begin tomorrow when he starts his great pre-inventory sale of carpets. The cut in prices is decisive. Velvet carpets will go for 77½ cents per yard; Saxony Axminsters will be cut from $1.40 to $1.08½ cents, and other cuts will be made in proportion. The sale will last but a week and the wise ones will go early to secure the bargains.

WHOLE TOWN WIPED OUT.

Hundreds of People Are Reported Drowned by Great Flood at Heppner, Oregon.

BODIES OF 300 VICTIMS RECOVERED.

Many Houses Wrecked and Damage Estimated at $1,000,000—Scores of Persons Still Unaccounted For—Cloudbursts Cause Damage at Other Places.

Portland, Ore., June 16.—The most appalling disaster in the history of this state occurred Sunday evening about six o'clock, when the town of Heppner was almost entirely destroyed by a cloudburst and probably 500 people drowned. Heppner is the county seat of Morrow county, and has about 1,250 inhabitants. The most reliable reports state that the loss of life at Heppner will be at least 500, though the number of dead is probably larger. All the telegraph and telephone lines are down and no accurate information can be secured.

Bodies Recovered.

A report from Ione, 17 miles from Heppner, states that 300 bodies have been recovered. A messenger who arrived at Ione states that a wall of water 20 feet high rushed down into the gulch in which Heppner is situated and carried everything before it. The flood came with such suddenness that the inhabitants were unable to seek places of safety and were carried down to death by the awful rush of water. Almost the entire residence portion of the town was wiped out, but some of the business part, which is on higher ground, escaped.

Dashed Against Rocks.

Huge boulders weighing a ton were carried down by the current and many people killed by being dashed against the rocky bluff. Early in the afternoon a thunder storm occurred, covering a wide region of country, and later a heavy rainstorm set in, many of the small streams overflowing their banks in a considerably short time. Bridges were swept away like straws, and the darkness of the night soon made the situation more appalling.

Work of Relief.

As soon as possible after the terrible flood subsided the work of relief was commenced by the citizens of the town. Dozens of bodies were found lodged along the bends of the stream, and several places they were piled over one another. Up to Monday afternoon 200 bodies had been recovered almost within the city limits. The buildings which were not carried away were moved from their foundations or toppled over. Hundreds of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs that had gone into the creek bottoms for water perished.

At Other Points.

Fifteen buildings in the town of Lexington, nine miles below Heppner on Willow creek, were washed away, but with no loss of life, the inhabitants having time to save themselves from the surging torrent.

At Ione considerable damage was done to buildings, though no loss of life is reported from there.

Death List Grows.

The Dalles, Ore., June 17.—A telephone message from Ione states that the latest find in the ruins of Heppner indicates that the loss of life will be much greater than at first supposed. The casualty list will foot up 500, and many of the bodies will never be recovered. The property loss by destruction of buildings alone will aggregate probably $1,000,000. This is regarded as a conservative estimate. One hundred and fifty of the best residences were swept from the earth. The debris is piled along the railroad track to the height of freight cars. The relief work is progressing at a satisfactory pace.

The Worst Over.

St. Louis, June 16.—The river has so far receded that several of the eastern roads that have been cut off from St. Louis since Monday last are now entering union station, and it is expected that the others will also be enabled to do so, either over their own tracks or the rails of competitors in a few days.

Arthur Gibbs, aged 18, and Annie Reardon, 15 years old, were drowned Monday near the McCausland opera house, East St. Louis, by falling from a raft on which they were playing. Their bodies were recovered, making the known dead from drowning in East St. Louis since the flood began number 11.

Killed Himself.

La Crosse, Wis., June 16.—William E. Tippetts, charged with the murder of Mrs. Shrike, about six weeks ago, and released on $5,000 bail, shot the top of his head off with a shotgun. Tippetts was bound over to the circuit court under the charge of murder, and his trial was to have been held in September.

Murdered by Stepdughter.

Sneedville, Tenn., June 13.—Lewis Babin, aged 60, was murdered Thursday night by his 13-year-old stepdaughter, who sank the blade of an ax deep into his skull. Babin was chastising a stepson when the boy called to his sister for help.

Succeeds Judge Caldwell.

Washington, June 13.—William C. Hook, of Leavenworth, Kan., has been selected to succeed Judge Caldwell, who recently resigned the circuit judgeship of the Eighth district. Judge Hook is at present a district judge.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 17.—The coal shipments to the south Tuesday aggregated 3,300,000 bushels.

ADMITS HER GUILT.

Mrs. Mary McKnight Confesses to the Murder of Three Relatives at Kalkaska, Mich.

Kalkaska, Mich., June 11.—Prosecutor Smith announced yesterday that Mrs. Mary McKnight has confessed to the poisoning of her brother, John Murphy, and his wife and baby. The prosecutor said Mrs. McKnight confessed voluntarily to him that she administered strychnine to baby Murphy, Gertrude Murphy and John Murphy.

Eight other persons, besides the three to whose murder Mrs. McKnight confessed, investigation shows, have died in the past 15 years under circumstances that in view of the woman's confession are now thought to be very suspicious. All of the eight were either relatives or intimate friends who died while living with Mrs. McKnight, or while she was at their house. All are said to have shown symptoms that are now believed to indicate strychnine poisoning.

MANY CASES DECIDED.

Illinois Supreme Court Sustains Judicial Reapportionment Act—One Dissenting Opinion.

Springfield, Ill., June 17.—The supreme court handed down 76 opinions Tuesday. Their opinion sustaining the reapportionment of the Fourth supreme judicial district was the most important. The majority opinion, signed by all the judges except Magruder, holds that the constitution provides that but one district can be changed at a time, and that there is no doubt that, by changes of population in the state, the old Fourth district was 100,000 short on population as compared with other districts, that the reapportionment equalized the population of the districts, and that the new district was contiguous. They also held that the change must be made at the session of the legislature preceding the election for judges. Judges Magruder handed down a dissenting opinion.

FINED FOR CONSPIRACY.

Chicago Judge Upholds Anti-Trust Law and Punishes Coal Dealers' Association.

Chicago, June 13.—Members of the Retail Coal Dealers' Association of Illinois and Wisconsin and of the Northern Soft Coal Dealers' association, who were indicted last winter by a special grand jury summoned during the coal famine to investigate the charges of conspiracy lodged against them, were found guilty Friday by Judge Horton. The 18 defendant companies and corporations represented in the Northern Illinois Soft Coal Dealers' association were each fined $500. An appeal was taken at once on writs of error. In the case of the retail dealers' association Judge Horton accepted a pro forma plea of guilty in each case several months ago and instructed the jury to return a verdict of guilty to conform with the pro forma plea and fined the defendants—nine officials of the association—$100 each.

Pays Pius Fund Award.

Washington, June 17.—Ambassador Clayton has cabled the state department that the Mexican government has deposited to his credit $1,420,682 on account of the Pius fund award. This promptness on the part of the Mexican government in meeting its obligations has broken all records in arbitrations. The money will be remitted to Archbishop Riordan, bishop of San Francisco, the titular claimant, as there have been no assignments to attorneys in interest.

Reprimanded.

Springfield, Ill., June 12.—The supreme court of Illinois on Thursday took an action unprecedented by a supreme court in the United States when they entered an order reprimanding Justice Magruder, of Chicago, one of their own body, and who was at one time chief justice, for filing a dissenting opinion during vacation and before the majority opinion of the court had been filed.

Dropped Dead.

Springfield, Ill., June 16.—Berry T. Webb, a well-known farmer of Windsor, Shelby county, dropped dead in his field Monday morning. He was a veteran of the Mexican war, and for his service in that war was given by the government a tract of land near Windsor. He was a native of Tennessee and was for 40 years a resident of Shelby county. He was 78 years old.

Forest Fires Raging.

Marquette, Mich., June 16.—Forest fires have been raging for three days near Eckerman and other points in the east end of the upper peninsula. Much standing timber as well as logs, cordwood and tanbark has been burned and several lumber camps have been saved only after a hard fight. Unless rain falls soon, the losses will reach a high figure.

Declared of Unsound Mind.

Fowler, Ind., June 12.—The jury hearing the Fowler case returned a verdict that Moses Fowler Chase was a person of unsound mind and a resident of Tippecanoe (Lafayette), Ind. The court announced that a guardian for the young millionaire would be appointed. The verdict is a victory for Frederick Chase, the father.

Struck by a Train.

Montgomery, Minn., June 15.—John Zeelinka and wife, an aged couple, were instantly killed by being struck by the North Star limited on the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad. They were returning from a wedding celebration and their buggy was struck as they attempted to cross the tracks.

GROW CUCUMBERS FOR SEED.

This is a great money making crop, twice the money in it there is in growing beans, no more work and not so much risk.

Man and machine furnished to take out, wash and dry the seed. Can take out 10 acres per day. A fair yield is 400 pounds per acre. No trouble from bugs. Sow clover the last time you cultivate them and you are generally sure of a good catch. I wish 500 acres grown on contract, 12 to 16 cents per pound.

BEANS—Why grow pea beans and run the risk of the market price, when I have a better proposition to offer. I pay from $1.35 to $2.00 per bushel and furnish the seed.

SWEET CORN—Leading kinds, price 70c per measured bushel shelled, besides you have the fodder to feed.

SQUASH—Hubbard 20c per pound pumpkin 15c to 30c. Squash and pumpkins are worth growing to feed stock and you have the profit from the seed besides.

I will furnish the stock seed and pay above prices for all you grow for me on contract, cash on delivery.

Wanted to rent, 25 to 100 acres good land for cucumbers. Write at once.

It Is a Mistaken Idea

To give too much time to the selection of a Piano; this time could better be spent in selecting a dealer. It should not be hard to size him up by the very appearance of things; for instance, if he be disposed to depreciate his competitor, its pretty strong evidence he hasn't much to offer for himself. One may well have reason to be suspicious of a dealer who promises very much more than is promised by other dealers in a like business. Select the dealer right and the good piano follows. NEW RULER IS GREETED.

King Peter of Serbia and Emperor of Austria Exchange Cordially Worded Telegrams.

LATTER DENOUNCES ACT OF ASSASSINS.

Other Rulers Also Send Congratulations, and Cabinet Ministers and Other Officials Are Highly Pleased—Press Correspondent Describes Scene of the Tragedy.

Vienna, June 17.—Cordially worded telegrams have been exchanged between Emperor Francis Joseph and King Peter, but the emperor, in the midst of his congratulations to the new ruler, seizes the occasion to denounce the assassinations. The text of the king's message follows:

"Geneva, Switzerland, June 16.—His Majesty, the Emperor of Austria: I hasten to inform your majesty of the call to the Serbian throne to which I have been elected by the unanimous vote of the senate and skupshtina. I intend to take up again my ancestral traditions and hope to bring freedom and happiness to my fatherland. I respectfully pray that your majesty continue to evince to me those feelings of sympathy which your majesty entertained for my father up to the time of his death. Should your majesty be pleased to show me the same sympathy in the fulfillment of my duties it will make lighter the task for me. It is my intention and firm resolve to merit it."

PETER.

The emperor replied in the following terms:

"Vienna, June 17.—His Majesty, the King of Serbia: In acknowledging the friendly notification of your accession to the throne, I desire to assure you without delay of my complete sympathy and wishes that you may have a long and happy reign. May it be vouchsafed to your majesty to carry out successfully the noble mission devolved upon you by restoring peace, quiet and esteem to your unhappy land, so sorely visited by a succession of internal storms, and by raising it again after the severe fall which it recently sustained in the eyes of the civilized world, through the heinous and universally reprobated crime. Your majesty may rely on my support and friendship in executing this task, and you may be convinced that it will always be my heartfelt desire, as it is your own, to maintain and strengthen the friendly and neighborly relations which have existed so long between our two countries."

FRANCIS JOSEPH.

Diplomatic Relations Broken.

London, June 17.—In accordance with his promise, Premier Balfour in the house of commons Wednesday amplified the information regarding the attitude of the British government towards Serbia. He said the diplomatic relations with Serbia which ended with the death of King Alexander had not been renewed. The government had considered whether it should mark its disapproval of the crimes which had disgraced the Serbian capital by withdrawing the British minister. It, however, had been thought better that Sir George Bonham remain at his post and protect British interests. He would not be accredited to the new government until further information was received regarding the circumstances under which it had come into power. Those powers in regard to whose attitude the government had received information had instructed their representatives to accept the provisional government as the de facto authority with which current business should be transacted.

Cabinet Ministers Jubilant.

Belgrade, June 17.—The cabinet ministers and other Serbian officials here are jubilant over the czar's telegram to King Peter, demonstrating sympathy on the part of Russia. King Peter has telegraphed to the czar, thanking him warmly for his message.

Congratulations from King of Italy.

Rome, June 17.—King Victor Emmanuel has telegraphed his congratulations to his brother-in-law, King Peter of Serbia, also expressing his wishes for the tranquillity and prosperity of the country under the new regime.

Assassins Will Not Be Punished.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—The czar's congratulations to King Peter are considered a public expression of the unqualified favor with which the proclamation of King Peter was received in official circles here. It is regarded as extremely unlikely, in view of the attitude of the Serbian people, that Russia will support the suggestion that the powers should demand the punishment of the assassins of King Alexander and Queen Draga.

Visits Scene of Tragedy.

Belgrade, June 17.—A correspondent of the press Wednesday was allowed to inspect the palace in which King Alexander and Queen Draga were murdered. The bedroom, which is furnished in Empire style, remains in the same condition as when the king and queen fled from it on the approach of the assassins. French novels lie on the king's table and the queen's toilet articles, perfumes and cosmetics, cover her dressing table. The costly silk bed coverings are full of bullet holes, the conspirators having shot wildly in all directions, through and under the bed, chairs and tables, in the efforts to find their victims. A simple wardrobe room, leading directly from the bedroom, was the scene of the final act in the drama. The apartment is lofty but scarcely seven feet wide and 15 feet long and is furnished only with three great wardrobes. The officers who attended the correspondent showed the latter the bloodstained floor at one end of the room, where the king and queen fell, and the broken Venetian shutter at the window through which their bodies were thrown to the ground below. A secret stairway leads through the floor to rooms in the southern end of the palace. By this stairway the hapless couple might have attempted to escape, but they were unable to do so because the opening of this stairway was covered by a heavy chest. Escape, in any event, would have been impossible as the soldiers who had surrounded the palace were so determined to kill the king and queen that they had even placed cannon in front of the palace and were prepared to destroy the building in the event of failing to find their prey. Each of the three rooms between the vestibule and the bed chamber showed marks of the tragedy. Mirrors were shattered, pictures were shot through, the furniture was broken, there were bullet holes in the doors and in the oil portraits of the king, which were in every room, and most of the latter were otherwise mutilated. Contrary to the general understanding, but little effort had been made to renovate the apartments except where the carpenters were making two new doors to replace those which had been blown to pieces at the time the conspirators forced their way into the rooms occupied by the king and queen.

The royal apartments were simply and tastefully furnished, chiefly in oriental style, and presented a homelike appearance. The interior of the palace might have been that of a country house belonging to a prosperous American.

The house of the king's adjutant, Lasar Petrovics, which was the first attacked, is even a greater wreck than the royal apartments in the palace. The entrance was completely destroyed by dynamite. The adjutant then escaped unhurt, but he was killed later in the vestibule of the palace. A large bloodstain marks the spot where the officer died.

It was in a bare, whitewashed room of the commandant's quarters, adjoining the palace, that Queen Draga's two brothers were shot while sitting on wooden chairs, which bear marks of the bullets.

The proceedings in the palace Wednesday showed the same absolute callousness which has characterized the actions and demeanor of everybody in Belgrade since the tragedy.

SPECIAL SESSION CALLED.

Kansas Legislature Asked to Meet to Provide for Replacing of Bridges.

Topeka, Kan., June 17.—Gov. Bailey Wednesday issued the following proclamation, calling together the legislature in special session:

"Whereas, The recent floods have, in addition to the destruction of vast amounts of property, swept away numerous bridges, the immediate rebuilding of which is imperative but for which no adequate law exists, thereby bringing about an extraordinary occasion within the meaning of the constitution authorizing a special session of the legislature;

"Now, I, therefore, W. J. Bailey, governor of the state of Kansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution do hereby convene the legislature of the state of Kansas in special session at the capitol in the city of Topeka on Wednesday, June 24, at two o'clock, for the purpose of enabling counties and other municipalities to build necessary bridges."

St. Louis, June 17.—The Mobile and Ohio and the Toledo, St. Louis & Western roads Wednesday resumed their train service into union station. With the exception of the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis, the Chicago & Alton, Big Four and Burlington (east), which are still using the boats from Alton, and the St. Louis Valley, which is under water at many points, all the roads are again using union station. The river has fallen to about 32 feet, still two feet above the danger line, and is going down at the rate of about one foot a day.

Squared the Account.

Something was coming to the Bangor baseball club. The Holland boys owed them a little drubbing in return for a playful chastisement administered by the Bangorites two weeks ago, when they caused Holland to turn up its toes to the tune of 5 to 3. The Holland team has a habit of paying its debts, and the husky boys from the land of grapes, peaches and strawberries were given all they had coming last Tuesday afternoon when they were trounced on the Holland diamond to the tune of 5 to 1. At that they did very well, and their defeat would not be so decisive if it were not for errors on the part of their first baseman, who was too corpulent to stoop after the low ones.

Paige, the hero of the elusive high in-shoot, did the box honors for the boys from Bangor and did them remarkably well. With support such as Holland had the game would have been 0 to 0—probably after 18 innings of agony.

But the Holland boys had to be reckoned with at every turn of the road. They played faultless, gingery ball and hit—when they got a chance. Bangor shivered the Holland fans in the first, when two bases on balls and a passed ball netted them a run. This run looked mountainous until the fourth, when Shippe hit a safe one and scored on the Bangor center fielder's miff of a zigzag fly. The only thing that prevented Jim DePree from scoring was the unchivalrous conduct of the catcher in nipping him at the plate. The fifth was noticeable for a magnificent running catch in center by Gorton. It was the spectacular play of the season and stirred the grandstanders and the bleachers to a salvo of applause. Doggie Andrews scored in this innings on a hit, a steal and Ball's timely two-bagger. Chilly weather prevailed until the eighth, when Andrews hit clean and scored on the corpulent first baseman's failure to catch a low one from the shortstop. Sebastian scored on errors of first and second basemen, and Shippe scored on first baseman's error and Jim DePree's hit.

Sporting News.

Emerson Dickerson, the will-o'-the-wisp of sporting circles, is not suffering with failing of the mind. The baseball fans of the state thought he was, owing to the fact that he has been slow in making boasts this summer. But now they know that Dickerson is well and healthy, for he has come out with a newspaper report bearing all the Dickersonian earmarks, to the effect that he claims for his Big Rapids team the championship of the state, over the heads of Ionia and Holland. Upon what grounds he bases his claims is a mystery. He just claims. Won't there be fun if the doughty "Dick" comes here to play?

Ganzel, in an Ionia inspired dispatch, claims the state championship for the Ionia team and wants to meet any semi-professional team in the state for any sum from $100 to $500. Why all this empty indulgence in hot air? Ganzel knows, and many of the enthusiasts of Ionia know to their sorrow that bets of from $100 up can always be placed on games between Holland and Ionia. The Holland fans have always been glad to do that just to make the game interesting. Of course if Ganzel's head is in such bad shape that it needs the loss of a $100 bet to restore it to its normal condition he can find takers for his money any hour of the day or night that he flashes his roll.

On account of the slim attendance Manager Goldman has found it too burdensome financially to carry ten men and has released Payne of Whitehall, who has played in the outfield since the beginning of the season.

A club descended from the Page Fence Giants, the U-Ion Giants and the Chicago Union Giants, in their respective days three of the best colored clubs in the world, has been formed and is known as the Peninsulas. The Peninsulas have met with great success this year and have beaten every colored club in the country to a peak. They have also won from every white club against whom they have been pitted. Now they are looking for Holland's scalp anxious to do what the Union Giants failed twice to do. They will play here Saturday afternoon and the game will be a scorcher.

Holland has accepted the challenge of Ionia Base Ball team. Namey to play a series of five games two to be played at Ionia and two at Holland, and one at Grand Rapids. All games to be played for $100, a game, winner taking the money. A side bet for $250.00 on the general result will also be posted.

Cereal Food Name Contest.

The committee on awarding the prizes for best suggestion for names for the new cereal foods of the Walsh-DeRoo Milling & Cereal Co. found themselves confronted with quite a problem. There were several hundred names, most of them possessing more or less merit and from such a mass containing general excellence, it was difficult to select those of special excellence. In some cases, too, the same name was suggested by more than one person, in which event the committee took the course of awarding the prize to the sender whose coupon was first received at the office. The following are the prizes awarded by the committee, together with the name of the sender and the suggested name:

Puritan, Albert J. Huizenga, Holland, $25 in gold.
Caramel, Mrs. S. C. Fell, Petoskey, $10 in gold.
Banner, A. B. Kober, Hart, $1.
You'll Like It, Mrs. J. G. Clark, Goblesville, $1.
Wheatara and Cornara, Miss Abbie S. Pools, Chicago, $1.
Self Zephyrus, Geo. S. Howe, Burlington, Vt., $1.
Bittmore, W. C. Whitcomb, Benton Harbor, $1.
Success, Mrs. H. J. Davis, Port Sheldon, $1.
Holland Cream Flakes, D. J. Tekolter, Holland, $1.
Walsh-DeRoo Cream Flakes, L. C. Bradford, Holland, $1.
Princess, Maud Marjell, Holland, $1.
L. X. L. Others, Rosa DePree, Holland, $1.
Sweet, Joe Kanfers, Holland, $1.
Gossom Sense, Francis Karr, Holland, $1.
Try Me, Mrs. Gertrude L. Yates, Holland, $1.
Verigood, Kate Prakken, Holland, $1.
Zestorito, Mrs. Viola Lewis, Holland, $1.

Driven to Desperation.

Lying at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in burns cuts, wounds, ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c, at Heber Walsh's Drug store.

Battled the Waves an Hour.

D. C. Huff of the Lake Shore, Edward Huff, his son, and Bert Knickerbacker, his nephew, came nearly losing their lives Tuesday forenoon.

They went to Port Sheldon early in the day on a fishing trip and started back to their home on the lake shore about noon. The wind was blowing fresh from the northwest and rising every minute. When about a half mile out a heavy sea curled over the rail, swamped and then capsized the boat. When the boat capsized Edward Huff, knowing it would not sustain the three of them, struck out for shore through the breakers, while his father stayed on the boat to assist Mr. Knickerbacker, who cannot swim very well. The young man reached the shore after a half mile swim in a chilled and exhausted condition and went to the home of Walter Drinkwater, where he was taken care of.

D. C. Huff steadied the boat while it floated towards shore and, when about thirty rods from shore, the anchor attached to 14 feet of chain, caught on, holding ground and kept the boat from drifting further. The men were fast becoming helpless from exposure and exhaustion. When Mr. Huff, realizing that something desperate had to be done, wound the anchor chain around his leg and hitched it along foot by foot, allowing the boat to drift towards shore. Before safety was reached, Mr. Knickerbacker lost his hold on the boat and sank twice before he was rescued by Mr. Huff with the aid of an oar. When bottom was struck the men were washed off the boat and crawled ashore, while the boat drifted up the lake and has not been found.

Messrs. Huff and Knickerbacker crept up the bank and timely help by Mrs. Eddy and by Mr. Eggamen's family restored them to strength. Before they reached shore their vitality was so low that their escape was almost miraculous. They were in the water about an hour.

Prange Will Pave.

Albert Prange of Grand Rapids has been awarded the brick paving contract by the common council at a cost of $30,848.20. He will pave with metropolitan brick, the best in the market, and the quality of the brick had a great deal to do with the capturing of the contract. The work must be completed 90 days after the signing of the contract, and the means that by next fall the job will be done.

Mr. Prange is now engaged in paving the streets of the city of South Haven, and is in a position to rush the job here when the work is started.

The council at its special meeting Wednesday night adopted a resolution that the G. R. H. & L. M. Ry. Co. be requested to sell family tickets, 40 trips, to Grand Rapids and return, for $10, same as they sell such tickets from Grand Rapids to Macatawa Park and return.

After Council With a Sharp Stick.

The labor unions of this city are after the common council with a stick of exceeding sharpness. At the last meeting of that body they presented the following communication, which was filed with dexterity and quickness: "Whereas, The common council of the city of Holland unanimously concurred in Alderman Van Putten's amendment to pay the street laborers at the rate of $1.00 per day in place of $1.75, proposed by the original motion; be it therefore

"Resolved, That Holland local union No. 42, Amalgamated Leather Workers' Union of America, do consider this a very unjust act, that with raising the salary of city officials, at the same time seeks to buy common labor as cheaply as possible. We call the attention of your honorable body to the fact that several employees of labor in this city pay common labor at the rate of $1.75 per day; that the City of Holland is setting a poor example in the refusal of their laborers a similar wage. It seems to us most unacceptable if it were not for the fact that certain of your members are interested in maintaining a low rate of wages in this city to ensure them more profit. While the council is supposed to be a representative body we assure you that in this act you very incorrectly represented the will of your constituency. We therefore request your honorable body to rescind your former action and also to substitute the words 'entire year' for the words 'summer months'. And, furthermore, to publish your full proceedings with the year and may vote on every question to enable us to fix the responsibility where it belongs."

The communication was signed by Arie Van Doesburg, William L. Norlin, Gunder Anderson, a committee representing the Tanners' Union, and endorsed by Peter Vandenberg, president of Holland lodge, No. 207, International Association of Machinists; F. L. Robinson, president of Holland local 877, of the Brotherhood of Painters and Paperhangers of America; John Buchanan, president of Holland local No. 1112, Carpenters and Joiners Union of America.

Outside of the ripples of perturbation caused by this round robin the meeting was tame, although one particular important matter was up for consideration, the receiving of paving bids. Eight bids were submitted and referred to the committee on streets and crosswalks for further consideration.

The election of George Hueneveld to succeed Albert Siersma as fireman at engine house No. 1 was confirmed. The appointment by Chief Keppel of Albert Klooster as assistant chief of the fire department was also confirmed.

Marine Interests of Grand River Need Protection.

In this age of the telegraph, telephone and wireless telegraphy it is very difficult to figure out the reason that animated that august controller of the wind and weather, clouds and sunshine, rain and snow—the weather bureau—in its determination to locate the main signal and display station of this state at Grand Rapids instead of at Grand Haven, where it is now located, and palm off on Grand Haven a measly branch of the bureau for marine purposes.

The main station is now at the proper place—Grand Haven. The name of that place has become a synonym for weather reports of this section. Grand Haven is situated on the shore of Lake Michigan, a place where the people value weather reports and pay attention to them, even though in the majority of cases a fair weather report means a foul weather certainty. Just why this fixture in Grand Haven's civic makeup should be transferred 25 miles inland is a mystery.

Perhaps the Valley City, now that Grand River is navigable by ocean steamers drawing twenty-four inches of water, wishes to protect its shipping interests. If so Grand Haven should give the child the rattle and thus quiet its plaintive wails.

Mr. Williams has not only made a hit in character delineation, but he has more than caught the fancy of the people of Holland by his excellent work as a vocalist and pianist. It has been many months since his equal has appeared here. Mr. Williams is also the author of "My Dear Old Southern Home," "Bright Days of Long Ago" and several other popular songs.

Hamilton Will Celebrate

Hamilton will celebrate the fourth day of July in royal style. This bustling village will outdo all of its previous efforts (and they have been great) and will give the visitors within its gates that day a time not excelled by any city in the state.

A grand street parade will be given at 10:30 in the forenoon and from then until the evening display of fireworks there will be "something doing every minute."

The celebration will be of the good old-fashioned sort and there will be music, games, races and athletic contests in plenty. Lovers of base ball will have an opportunity of witnessing the great national game. The Monterey band will furnish music. Speeches will be made by Prof. Cosner, Rev. Rozendaal and Hon. M. McCarthy.

If you go to Hamilton on the fourth you will see everything interesting from a balloon ascension to a $200 firework display. So go.

Star Banners Beaten Hands Down.

Grand Rapids sent a base ball aggregation here last Saturday afternoon with the avowed intention of wiping the local team off the face of the earth. The members of this team were broad of beam and bluff in the bows and when they strode upon the diamond with mighty tread it looked very much "all day" with the modest wearers of wooden shoes.

Nerves were at a high tension when the game was in its early stages, but nerves relaxed and set faces became unstruck before the game was twenty minutes old. The Holland boys found they were up against pie. Between times they played tag to keep warm, and paid barely enough attention to the game to win from the visitors by a score of 23 to 2. It is not recorded that there was an umpire present.

Towards the close of the game the Holland outfield came in and reinforced the infield. They had to do it for a demon with the sphere—Doggie Andrews, the bridegroom—was put in the box and it was impossible to solve his kinks for a bit in outfield territory. There was one good thing about the visiting team—the name—they called themselves the Star Banners.

Will Discuss Secret Societies

A convention will be held next Monday and Tuesday in the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church under the auspices of the National Christian association opposed to secret societies. The opening session will be held Monday evening at 7:30. Rev. D. B. Drukker will give the opening address. Rev. H. A. Day, state president, will respond. Outing

Suits

Summer clothing has always been wanting in fit and permanency of shape.

Linings and tailorings were sacrificed to coolness and a man obtained comfort at the cost of appearances.

We offer our customers thin, cool, comfortable clothes that fit as perfectly as regular full lined garments and retain their shapes.

The suit is light and cool—the coat weighing but 22 ounces. The trousers have permanent cuffs to turn up at the bottom and loops at the waist band for belt. The materials are light flannels and summer outing cloths.

Each suit pattern is twice sponged and shrunk before it is cut and guaranteed not to shrink after it is made up.
