NUMBER TWENTY-FOUR

A Pageant to Depict the Foundation of Hope College, its Development and to Commemorate its Fiftieth Anniversary

Pageantry, it may be said, is a new adaptation of an ancient art. Long before plays were produced as we see them today shows were held which we can say were the forerunner of the modern pageant. The rulers of ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome occasionally gave a great display to humor and appease their subjects. Out of these entertainments thru a series of evolutions grew the modern theatrical play. A line of demarkation then appeared. The play became more and more the product of the writers fancy while the pageant so developed that, as we have it today, it is usually founded in historical fact. The object of the historical pageant is to give a realistic presentation of the historical facts surrounding the development of a community.

Many are asking the question "what is a pageant." The definition is difficult for no two pageants are identical. However, we must not think that a pageant is a mere show. It is only the spirit of loftiest devotion that prompts the giving of a pageant. Percival Chubb has defined the pageant as "a festival of thanksgiving to Almighty God for the benefits of the past, the opportunities of the present, and the hopes of the future."

The presentation of the pageant is divided up into episodes just as a play is arranged in the form of acts. Between the consecutive episodes the pageant offers an opportunity for presenting interludes. The episode consists of the reproduction of the significant historical events. The interludes consist usually of the employment of symbolism and pantomime and the presentation of the realistic scenes which are pleasing ves equal to the occasion. The pageant at its completion passed censure at the hands of the committee and was highly commended. The members of this committee who were appointed by Dr. Vennema are: Prof. Nykerk, Prof. Dimment, Mr. Heusinkveld and Miss Hunt.

In order to show how elaborate the pageant will be, it might be well to state that over 600 characters will be used during the production. This number includes a company of Dutch soldiers, the band of forty-seven Dutch colonists who settled on the shore of Black Lake, a band of Indians who came to treat with Dr. Van Raalte, the leader in the colony, groups of little Dutch children, Indian maidens, squaws, Civil war volunteers. The foregoing will appear in the episodes while the interludes call for groups to symbolize the hardships to be met in the new country, such as: cold, hunger, fever, rather than important historically. Recently, especially during the last half dozen years, the pageant has become very popular in the United States. Among the largest we might mention the Pageant of Warren, Warren, Mass.; the city of St. Louis gave a pageant in 1912 which was the largest up to date. Only a week ago Fort Wayne celebrated the state's centennial anniversary with a pageant in which eleven hundred characters appeared.

Our country has had a remarkable history and has provided abundant material for presentation in pageant form. Especially interesting has been the history of our city of Holland. Our sturdy Dutch antecedents have fought against the elements and overcome obstacles in a way that stirs our pride. This year Hope College celebrates her fiftieth anniversary. What can be more fitting than the reproduction of those history-making events in a great "Pageant of Hope?"

As early as last fall the movement was started. The class of 1916 offered to act as sponsors for the stupendous undertaking with the provision that the college pay any deficit which might result if the project turned out to be a financial failure. The college authorities agreed to this and the necessary committees were appointed.

Much credit is due to the pageant committee. The members are A. C. Oeltingh, of Muskegon, chairman, Gerard Raap, Holland, Miss Francis Bosch, Holland, Miss Janet Mulder, Holland, Ed. H. Koster, Morrison, Ill., and Miss Harriet Baker, Grand Haven. Together with this committee, the entire student body labored to collect information in regard to the Holland colony. Dutch books and accounts were translated; old settlers still living in the community were interviewed. This task required a great deal of time and diligent application but it proved to be very interesting and resulted in the collection of a great mass of information. The next step in producing "The Pageant of Hope" was composing the pageant. This required good judgment and a large degree of dramatic talent and the pageant committee proved them-fire, water, the wilderness, etc. An enormous amount of original work was necessary in providing words and music. Miss Anna Kolyn, who has gained a reputation for her work along literary lines, wrote the Book of Words and also the words for the songs that will be sung. This Book of Words is truly a work of art and will be obtainable on the pageant grounds. Mr. Harris Meyer composed several songs for the large orchestra that will supply the music for the performance.

Story of the Pageant
The story that "The Pageant of Hope" tells begins with the departure of Dr. Van Raalte's band from the Netherlands and closes with a review of Hope College and a statement of her mission in the world.

The pageant opens with a great procession. Then the Spirit of Progress utters the prologue. After telling of the occasion and the purpose of the pageant, she says,—"This is not for sport we act, nor idle show; Our spirit, 'tis near reverent, so bright the flame of love for Hope in us doth glow."

The first episode finds the people in the Netherlands distressed by crop failures. In addition to this, the establishment of a state church had led to the curtailment of their religious liberty. By a royal decree secret meetings with more than nineteen in attendance were prohibited. Scene 2 of this episode shows us just such a meeting which is contrary to law. Dr. Van Raalte stands up before his flock and pleads for religious enthusiasm. In order to escape the cold formalism and lifeless orthodoxy of the state church, he even suggests emigration to America where they may worship in freedom and as their hearts dictate. At this juncture, a very stirring scene takes place. A Dutch captain and twelve soldiers enter and arrest Dr. Van Raalte in the name of the king, William I. Instead of surrendering, however, the preacher replies that his orders come from the greatest of powers, the King of Kings. He opens his bible and reads, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel unto every creature." After an

With this arrangement the Sunday school hour will immediately follow the morning services, instead of the afternoon services as at present. Up to the present time the Third church has been following the example of the Holland-speaking churches in Sunday services, instead of that adopted by all English speaking churches. The consistory has deemed it wise to bring the matter of changing the hours of worship before a congregational meeting in the form of a proposition of trying it out for the coming summer months, giving the congregation a chance to express to the present system next fall if so desired, rather than to adopt the plan permanently at this time.

What proved to be one of the most practical and instructive demonstrations ever given in Zeeland for the benefit of the ladies, was held Friday afternoon in Wyngarden's hall. A free demonstration of improved methods of canning was conducted by Miss Anna Cowles, home economics specialist, assisted by Mrs. D. L. Hagerman.

This is one of the features of the county agricultural agent work. Two demonstrations are to be given in Ottawa county, one just held at Zeeland and the other in Coopersville. The purpose of the meeting was to explain and show the cold pack method of canning fruits and vegetables, a method which has for some time been encouraged by the department of agriculture and is now being promoted by the Home Economics Department of the Michigan Agricultural College. The object of the work was to encourage those who are canning and preserving to use more economical and labor-saving devices for the work, and to use what would otherwise be some of the waste products of the farm.

The exhibit of the work done by the pupils in the Public Schools in drawing and painting was held at the school building Friday afternoon from 1:30 until six o'clock. Hundreds of parents having children in the school and all others interested in the world, thronged the entrances to each grade. The best drawings and paintings made by the pupils and also some of the regular work of each day were on exhibit in the room where the pupils attend. A good idea of the plan and arrangement of the work this year, as obtained by the parents and friends, as they commenced with the work in the Kindergarten building and passed from room to room, finishing with the work of the seventh and eighth grades on the lower floor of the High school building. There was no exhibit on the second floor of the high school building as the high school was in session. The pupils in the grades were given a half day holiday. Every pupil had some work in the exhibit. Several new features have been worked out this year which were very interesting. Dainty refreshments were served in the kindergarten room.

JUNIORS OF ZEELAND HIGH HONOR SENIORS

ANNUAL AFFAIR TAKES PLACE ON SITE WHERE SETTLERS WERE 70 YEARS AGO

The annual reception given in honor of the Seniors by the Juniors was given Monday evening. Although the affair proved to be somewhat different from other years, nevertheless it proved to be a great success.

The Seniors, the members of the Faculty, the members of the school board and their wives, as guests of this year's Junior class left Zeeland at 5:30 in automobiles. There were sixteen machines in all, which were driven by several business men. The whole party, which consisted of about seventy enjoyed a pleasant motor drive to Macatawa Park. After a half hour had been spent at the park, the return trip was made.

At the farm of D. F. Boonstra, a few miles from Zeeland, a sumptuous repast was enjoyed by all. The program of toasts and speeches followed. John Roek, Jr., president of the Junior class, acted as Toastmaster. After welcoming those present, he introduced Superintendent A. H. Washburn, the first speaker on the program. Mr. Washburn responded in his own clever way. Chris DeJonge, representing the class of 1916, thanked the Juniors for the many favors they had received at their hands and responded to the toastmaster's call for a toast on music. C. J. Den Herder, representing the School Board, also thanked the Juniors and gave a few jokes that applied to those present. Eva Te Paske of the class of 1916 gave a short toast also. C. Van Loo was next called on for a few remarks. His enthusiastic speech was followed by a few remarks from Mr. Neerken, another member of the school board. From Mr. Neerken it was learned that the reception was being held on the very spot, where seventy years ago this fall, the reason for the coming of the Seniors and the Juniors to go on in life and also be the sturdy settlers of their cause. D. F. Boonstra was the last member of the school board to respond to the toastmaster's call. He made a few very appropriate remarks. Then the High school song, "The White and Gold" was sung. The new High school song, which had been composed this year, was also sung. Then after nine raps for the Seniors, Faculty, School Board and Juniors, the party left for Zeeland at a late hour.

EXTENSION OF CENTRAL AVE. MEETS OBJECTION

TWO PROPERTY OWNERS FILE PROTEST; ROW OF MAPLES IN WAY OF ROAD

The decision of the highway commissioner of Fillmore township to have Central Avenue of this city extended a half-mile into Allegan county has met with a protest on the part of the property owners on the border of the township. Gradus Van Ark and Mrs. A. Kerrinus, the property owners along 32nd street, have filed a protest with the township board of Fillmore asking that the decision be repealed.

The reason given are that a fine row of large Maples, 27 in number, now standing on a line directly in the center of the proposed highway will have to be cut down, greatly reducing the value of their property. The road, if cut through, will not be of importance sufficient to countenance the removal of the trees.

They have suggested as a remedy that a boulevard drive be made of it, leaving the row of trees in the center of the road. This would make a fine drive for the people of Holland and vicinity, as the country about there is very picturesque.

AUTO LOCALS

The following auto sales were made through the city Garage recently: a Chevrolet, Model 490 to L. Goldman, the junk dealer, Chevrolet Baby Grand to Peter Koek of Zeeland, Chevrolet Model 490 to J. Vander Velde of Zeeland.

Tennis Prins of the City Garage drove in a Buick Friday from the Flint factory.

C. J. Dregman has purchased a Studebaker runabout, Klas Koster, a Studebaker Four, and G. J. Kooiker a five passenger Dodge from Venhuizen & Kooyers, automobile dealers.

The Pres-O-Lite Co. of Indianapolis have placed a service station in the City Garage. A full line of repairs will be kept in stock. The territory will comprise Southern Ottawa and northern Allegan counties. Auto owners will be able to get any make of Prest-O-Lite tanks repaired at this station.

Harry Knipe, the garage man has installed a new gasoline pump in front of his place of business, Corner of Central Avenue and 7th street.

The Ford agency of this city thus far have sold over 80 cars this season. It has been reported that this is two to one to any other make of car in this locality. F. W. Jackson stated Saturday morning that the Ford factory reached the 400,000 mark and by July 31 will get up to 500,000 cars as estimated by the company for one year's output.

Overland's sold for the week by Westrate & Brouwer were a 5 Passenger to Ex-Mayor Henry Brusse, to J. Bouwman of East Saugatuck, Enos Stone of this city, and to Al Ten Hagen.

ALLEGAN AFTER STREET PEDDLERS

THEY MUST NOW PAY $10.00 FOR A LICENSE BEFORE PEDDLING

Allegan Gazette—The city council passed a resolution Monday night that that caused a great deal of discussion. It imposes license fees on all persons peddling merchandise within the city limits. It was intended to keep out of the city such fellows as the one who recently sold raincoats here and another who sold spectacles of questionable worth but at a high price. As the resolution was passed it would seem that everyone selling anything except in the stores or in regular positions (that is, anyone moving about the city) must pay the high license fees, $10 per day for selling from stands, etc., and $25 per day for going about the city on foot. Men wondered if the council intended to make milkmen pay a license, and it was a matter of wonder just how far-reaching the resolution was intended to be. City clerk Peet figures that the fees are prohibitive and that the city will lose in license money between $200 and $300 a year. Alderman Stern who offered the resolution says the council does not intend to handicap home industries such as milkmen, but simply keep out undesirable.

APOLLO THEATER NOW HAS A NEW MANAGER

ROY L. NEWMAN SELLS POPULAR MOVIE HOUSE TO E. F. KIRKPATRICK OF CHICAGO

Newman to Move to Flint; Kirkpatrick to Personally Manage Apollo in Future

Today Manager Roy Newman of the Apollo Theater abdicated his position in favor of Mr. Edward F. Kirkpatrick of Chicago. Manager Kirkpatrick of the Apollo is now in possession of the place of amusement and will conduct the moving picture house under his personal direction.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Newman will leave the city in the near future to make their home in Flint, where Mr. Newman expects to continue in a similar line of work. The public in general is very loathe to see the former manager and his wife leave, as during their stay in Holland they have made many friends. Countless expressions of regret accompany the news of the departure of Mr. Newman from the theater and the city. His courtesy and service to the many patrons of the Apollo Theater has won for him the admiration and respect of the public and his leaving is a source of regret.

Former Manager Newman Monday expressed his dislike at feeling himself forced to leave Holland. His treatment at the hands of the public has always pleased him, and he feels very grateful for their patronage.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick came to Holland about ten days ago with no idea of staying here. On a vacation, they decided while on the train en-route to Grand Rapids to stop a while at Holland to look over the city. The result of that decision is that Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick are so pleased with the city that they have made up their minds that Holland is where they will make their home in the future.

Mr. Kirkpatrick, now Manager Kirkpatrick, has lived in Chicago for the past 26 years. He is interested in the Grand Ledge Clay Product Co., with an office in Chicago since 1908. For some thirty years he has been in the electrical business, being employed with the Westinghouse and the General Electric company at different times. He is now entering the "movie" business with a vim that bids success and the continued popularity of the Apollo Theater. He is a thirty-second degree Mason.

In opening the Apollo theater Monday Manager Kirkpatrick says, "It will be my aim as manager of this place of amusement to conduct it in such a way that Holland will be proud of this house and the public in general as well as the city officials will be pleased. Only high grade, first class pictures will be shown."

THE ROYAL BELL RINGERS AGAIN MAKE HIT

DUTCH FAMILY, DEVOTED TO AMERICA, ARE DETERMINED TO "SEE IT FIRST."

Heer Brouwer, Holland Musician Expresses Great Love for U. S. A., in Entertaining Chat With Reporter

The following clipping was sent us by Prof. Brouwer of the Dutch family of Bell Ringers, who was formerly a correspondent in Zeeland for this paper. It will be remembered that the Brouwer family played their bells before Queen Wilhelmina about four years ago when in the Netherlands on a visit.

De Moines Register and Leader:—

All the while the thousands of Des Moines men and women were marching in the great preparedness parade the great bells of St. Paul's cathedral pealed out the national airs and a little Dutchman with a great love for America in his heart push and tugged at the heavy levers which manipulate the chimes. He is Myn Heer Brouwer, born in The Hague forty years ago, but now an American citizen whose slogan is "See America First."

When the plans for the parade were made Heer Brouwer sent word to the city council that he would supply the marching music. Why? Because he believes in preparedness and because, to quote his own reasons, "When the people are kindly to us we have to give them something back."

It was not an easy undertaking for the slight little man.

"Oh, oh! Whew. Two hours I play," he gasped to a reporter. "I hope that no preparedness parade will happen again. When I saw the last man pass I was glad and played the 'Star Spangled Banner' and said amen. S-u-r-e, I believe in preparedness but not so as was here. Every young man between 18 and 35 to be a soldier—that's what I believe in. You bet, and it will become so. Some of the congressmen are voost in the same opinion with me. We want our three boys to become soldiers you bet."

To See America First

Myn Heer and Mevrouw Brouwer, who with their four children compose the Royal Holland Bell Ringer family, are soon to leave Des Moines on their quest to "See America First." That is their only ambition and it arises from a great pride in their adopted country and a desire to educate their children by travel. During the winter months they settle down in some large city where they give their novel bell ringing entertainments and where Heer Brouwer acquires a position of bell ringer in the largest church. But when the school term closes the wanderlust seizes them and off they start again. They have already seen more of the east and south than most Americans. This year they hope to see the Yellowstone. Within six years they will have seen the entire country.

Before the family leaves Heer Brouwer wishes to give a final concert on the cathedral chimes on the Fourth of July in gratitude to the people of Des Moines who have treated him well.

"I try many times," he says, "so long as I'm here to teach the church members to play the chimes, but that is very hard. Often the ladies come to watch me play but some are afraid to climb the ladder. Some ladies are menlike ('soofragists,' his wife interpolated with a chuckle) and climb the ladder but it is a hard job to get them down again."

Two years ago the Brouwers returned to Europe on a musical tour of the world and three weeks after they arrived in their native Holland the war broke out. For six months the family played and amused the interned soldiers of every nation who were interned in Holland and so popular did they become that Queen Wilhelmina heard of them and commanded them to the palace to play before herself, Princess Juliana and the Prince consort. As a result of their visit Myn Heer proudly displays an autograph picture of the queen and princess and the letter in which the Wilhelmina confers on the humble little family the title of "Royal Holland Bell Ringers."

When finally the Brouwers become homesick for their adopted country they found themselves unable to leave Holland. Henry Van Dyke, the American minister, proved their salvation when he found that Myn Heer was a bona fide American citizen and gave the family a passport to England. But upon arrival at Folkstone more trouble was in store for the family. Myn Heer was arrested as a German spy. In broken English he tells the story of his adventures.

"Henry Van Dyke says, 'Show dot passport, say America, and you are all right.' When I get to Folkstone, they say, 'Vel what you are?'

"I'm a Dutchey."

"Oh, you are a German."

Letters Prove Identity

And it was not the passport of an American citizen, but Wilhelmina's letter which established their identity and obtained the release of the bell ringers.

Myn Heer Brouwer is a newspaper correspondent for the largest Holland paper published in this country. "Every blessed week I let the people know how Des Moines is," he says and points with pride to a description in Dutch of the Memorial day parade.

"You are a reporter," said Mevrouw when the reporter was about to leave. "Maybe you don't like fancy work."

And then she unfolded the most exquisite, embroidered christening robe, made by her great grandmother 125 years ago and worn by every child in the family since that day. Lace veils, cobwebby as a dream, the good vrow also displayed. She has been offered large sums for the robe and veils, but "Ve don't sell. They are for her," and she pointed to her small, 10-year-old daughter.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake is Made By Many Holland Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the A. Holland resident tells you how.

J. W. Fliemann, 83 River St., Holland, says: "Physicians told me I had lumbago. I suffered from dull pains in the small of my back and limbs and my joints were stiff. I could hardly stoop or lift and after sitting, it required a great effort to get up. Physicians' medicine did not help me, but a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Doeber's Drug Store, removed the aches and pains in a short time."

OVER TWO YEARS LATER, Mr. Fliemann said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me is still lasting."

PROF. J. H. KLEINHEKSEL OF HOPE, PASSES AWAY

WAS PUBLIC-SPIRITED MAN. AN EDUCATOR OF RARE ABILITY

Funeral Was Held This Afternoon at Hope Church, at Two O'clock.

At 9:15 Sunday evening, June 11th, Professor John H. Kleinheksel died at his home in Holland, Michigan, after a lingering illness caused by chronic pleurisy and heart trouble.

He was born in Overisel, Allegan county, Michigan, in March, 1854 and graduated from Hope College in 1878. Immediately after his graduation he and Professor Henry Boers, his classmate, were elected as instructors at Hope College and in 1885 both were elected to full professorships. In 1893 when Dr. Kollen was elected President, Prof. Kleinheksel became the Vice-President of the College, which position he has held ever since.

In August 1884 he was married to Anna, the youngest daughter of Dr. A. C. Van Raalte. The union was a very happy one and the Professor's life was saddened through the loss of his companion on February 22nd, 1914. Four children, three sons, Paul, of Chicago, and Frank De Moen and John Lewis, of this city, and one daughter, Vera, who died in Feb. 1910, were born to the deceased.

Prof. Kleinheksel was a great educator and as professor of mathematics his ability was recognized in educational circles throughout the whole state; his students not only held him in the highest esteem, but loved him. To them he was always the embodiment of their highest ideals. His clean, strong and unique personality entered into their lives and became a part of their characters. He was a man of strong convictions, of broad sympathies, of spotless life and of large vision; always just, always open-minded, and always sympathetic. His heart was as large and kind as his mind was brilliant. While Hope College was the center of his life's activities, his influence was strong in the religious, political and social life of this city.

At the time of his death he was an elder and first assistant Sunday school superintendent of Hope church. He was connected with many of the largest and most substantial business interests of the city and was a director in the Peoples State Bank. Socially his good cheer and intelligence endeared him to his friends; politically he was intensely patriotic and deeply interested in civic improvements and development. His life touched every phase of human society. He loved his God and served his fellowmen.

As husband, father, teacher, loyal friend, devoted Christian and patriotic citizen, his life was everywhere exemplary. Hope College and Holland have suffered a great loss, which will be deeply felt for years to come.

The funeral services will be held at the home this afternoon at 1:30 and at Hope Church at 2 o'clock. President Vennema, Dr. John M. Van der Meulen and Dr. Henry E. Dosker, both of Louisville, Ky., will officiate.

NATION'S FLAG REMEM- BERED BY B. P. O. E.

GEORGE STEININGER WILL BE
ORATOR OF THE EVENING

Flags, Music and Flowers Will Contribute to Impressive Public Flag Day Services.

This evening at eight o'clock at the Woman's Literary Club rooms the Holland Lodge of Elks will hold the annual public flag day exercises provided by the Grand Lodge of the Order. These services will be of a patriotic nature entirely and will be free to the public.

Special committees have been working for the past two weeks preparing for the event which will be of unusual significance this year in view of the new attitude toward flag day of all citizens caused by the preparedness agitation that is sweeping the country, as embodied in the proclamation of Governor Ferris for the state of Michigan and Mayor Vandersluijs for this city.

The flag day services are an annual event with every lodge of Elks and are of unusual impressiveness and beauty. Moreover they are carried out on flag day under the auspices of every lodge of Elks in all the fourteen hundred cities in the United States where Elks lodges exist.

The lodge has been fortunate this year in securing for the address of the evening Mr. George H. Steininger of Hope College who will deliver his oration, "The Military Uniform and the Christmas Tree." Musical numbers will be rendered by a special five piece orchestra under the charge of Mr. John Van Vyven and will consist almost entirely of patriotic selections. Mrs. Helene Pardee and Mr. John Heinz will render vocal solos. The work of the evening will be in charge of Mr. Jud Michmershuizen, exalted ruler of Holland Lodge, assisted by the other officers, Mr. John A. Kelley, Mr. Ed Michmershuizen, Mr. Isadore Altman, Mr. Percy Ray and Mr. Thomas N. Robinson. The latter will also deliver the "Elk's 'Tribute to the Flag.'"

The Literary rooms are being specially decorated and prepared for the occasion with flags and flowers.

FEARED BROKEN NECK; CONDITION IS CRITICAL

YOUNG MAN FALLS FROM WAGON
SEAT, STRIKING ON NECK;
BONE BROKEN

Harry Derks, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Derks, on West Main street, Zeeland, narrowly avoided death Monday, when he injured himself in a fall from a wagon.

He is a young man of this city and was delivering coal for the firm of Derks & Butler in the western part of the city when the accident occurred. He had to pass under a tree, and in order to avoid the low hanging branches, he leaned backwards. He leaned so far backward that he lost his balance and as the seat tipped over he fell heavily to the earth. When he fell he immediately grasped a spoke of the front wheel. By doing this he placed his body in such a position that he landed on his head. It was first thought that the young man's neck was broken, for so many cords in his neck had been strained and torn loose that he could not even move his head voluntarily. A bone had also been broken in his shoulder and now he lies in a pitiful condition at the home of his parents.

SHOE SHINERS ARE ERECTING A BUILDING

ONE-STORY CEMENT BLOCK HOME
OF ITS OWN NEXT TO MEYERS IS PLAN

Cheer up! Holland is getting there. A real building is in course of erection on Eighth street. We say building so it will be properly recognized as such. The property next to Meyers' Music House has been leased by Bill Davis and Steve Gropps, the present proprietors of the Shoe Shining Parlor in the Harmon building, and they will soon be escensed in a 9x12x15 skyscraper.

The moving of the Western Union Telegraph office in the near future to the Harmon building will put them out, and this is a preparation against the emergency. Contractor A. Postma has the contract for the new place of business. It will have a 15foot front, one story high and 12 feet deep, and is to be built of cement blocks.

MINING STOCK MADE GOOD FOR MR. CASTLE

GET 2 PER CENT ON TWENTY THOUSAND SHARES, PURCHAS-ED YEARS AGO.

Father Was the Founder of K. of P.
Lodge in Holland, Now a Flourishing Organization

Harry Castle, whose father was formerly a telegraph operator for the old C. W. & W. M. Railway, and founder of Castle Lodge, K. of P., of this city, is a very lucky boy. Harry is well known in Holland and is now living at Pocatello, Ill. Last year he spent a great deal of his time in Holland at the home of J. Van Putten, Sr., also attending our public schools.

Several years ago he secured through his father, mining stock, amounting to 20,000 shares. Harry, zealously guarded the beautiful gold labeled documents, but of late had paid no attention to them as nothing was forthcoming in the line of dividends. But to the young man's surprise he received an envelope containing 2 per cent dividends on his 20,000 shares. It seems that the mine had been worked recently and that considerable mineral matter was discovered, and is proving a good mine.

SUPERIOR PLANT TURN- ING OUT CASTINGS

MAYOR CHRISTENS FIRST HEAT WITH BOTTLE OF CHAMPAGNE
—DUNN GETS FIRST CAST

Holland's New Foundry Has Force of Men Making Castings for Orders

Monday morning work was started in Holland's newest industry, the Superior Foundry Company. A force of fifteen men started the industry into motion, and more helpers will be added at intervals as the work demands. Each man is an experienced moulder.

At 4:15 in the afternoon the first heat was taken off with some ceremony. As it was being drawn off by Alderman Arthur Drinkwater, one of the workers in the new plant, and Mike Hall, Mayor John Vandersluijs christened the first product of the plant with a bottle of champagne, with the spoken wish for success and prosperity to the latest Holland industry, the Superior Foundry Company.

The first heat was made into castings for a Holland firm also, a very fitting order. The Dunn-Manufacturing Co., manufacturers of cement-mixing machines, are the recipients of the first castings.

The finishing touches are being put on the building now, difficulty being experienced in securing some of the needed material. The skylights, among the first of the equipment ordered, have not arrived but are expected daily.

Starting the work in a new foundry for Holland is the outcome of a newspaper story. Some time ago when a casual investigation of the industries of Holland revealed the pressing need for castings and at the same time the conditions in this city for a foundry making themselves prominent, the Holland papers came out with a story suggesting the forming of such a corporation, and the announcement of it closely followed the story. The stockholders in this new concern being all Holland citizens, and the manager being A. Knooihuizen of this city makes the launching of this plant more important than the average.

Why Not Face the Facts About Armor Competition?

To the People:

The policy of the United States Government for many years has made real competition in armor-making ineffective.

The Government might have asked the three armor plants for bids and let the entire tonnage to the lowest bidder. That would have made competition effective.

The result of such a course would have been to drive two of the three manufacturers out of business, and leave the country with facilities of only one plant in time of need.

The Government in fact has always asked for bids from the three manufacturers, but no matter what the price quoted, each year's business was divided among them.

Armor makers serve but one customer—the Government, just as a public utility serves but one customer—a community.

The solution of the public utility problem is regulation of rates.

The solution of the armor problem is for the Government to fix the price.

We voluntarily agree to accept any price fixed by the Federal Trade Commission. Isn't acceptance of that offer better than the destruction of an industry built solely to serve the Government?

Charles Evans Hughes

The expected has arrived. Charles Evans Hughes is the Republican candidate for President of the United States. Against his wish, without the slightest effort on his part to obtain the nomination, without an authorized leader working in his behalf, without an organization of any kind, with some of the most influential men in the country laboring against him, Charles Evans Hughes is made the unanimous choice of the representatives of the Republican party for the highest office in the land. It is a fact utterly without precedent since the rise of political parties in this country. Never before has the office sought the man with such persistency; never before has it had to overcome obstacles set up by the man himself or by the circumstances of his position. Nothing less than an absolutely overwhelming public sentiment in his favor could have accomplished this result; nothing less than a complete confidence in his ability, his integrity and his courage; nothing less than a profound conviction that Charles Evans Hughes was the one man fitted in every way for the present situation.

The development of this sentiment and conviction is not measured by weeks nor yet by months. It has been slowly growing in the minds of the people for a long time. Earnest men throughout the country, men for the most part, not connected with political activities—business men, professional men, farmers, workmen, all classes of citizens who have been giving thought to the question of the candidate to be put forward by the Republicans at this time, and a year ago the trend of opinion toward Hughes was plainly discernible.

There should be good reason for such unanimity of popular opinion, particularly so when it is uninfluenced by personal appeal or partisan passion; and there is good reason. The public became aware of the qualities and abilities of Mr. Hughes through his conduct of the gas and insurance investigations in New York in 1905-06. The popular approval at that time forced him into the office of governor of the state after he had declined the nomination for mayor of New York City. He did not seek the gubernatorial chair. Then, as now, he felt that the call for his services, if his services were desired, should come from the people without solicitation. He was bitterly opposed by certain strongly entrenched political and corporate interests, but the people would have no other. Nor were the people mistaken in their judgment. "No individual or group of individuals and no private interest will be permitted to dictate my policy," he said, when notified of his nomination for governor in October, 1906. "I shall decide and act according to my conscience and as I believe the public interest requires." And when he became governor he did exactly what he said he would do. His administration was notable for its absolute independence of action. It was a continuous battle against hostile interests for the public welfare, and his triumphant re-election, against all the powers that could be brought to bear against him, was one of the most dramatic and striking events in the history of American politics. His removal from the office of governor of New York to the higher position of justice of the Supreme Court of the United States in 1910 took him out of the field of political and executive activity, but he left a record as a public administrator for the public good that impressed not merely New York but the entire country. So impressive it was, so remarkable in its quiet but determined aggressiveness, so just in its application of the law to all men with equal exactness, so filled with sympathy expressed in action for the down-trodden, so utterly undismayed by predatory opposition, so free from any indication of sinister influence, that it was not forgotten in the years of judicial retreat that followed and when the time came to conduct a candidate for president possessing all the qualities that a Republican candidate for president should have, and who at the same time should be free from the enmities or jealousies of factional bias, the party turned with an unparalleled unanimity to Charles Evans Hughes.

Such is the man whom the Republican party has selected for its standard-bearer. The Republican party is still the Republican party, proud of its record, convinced of the rightness of its cause, facing the future determined and unafraid. With a vigorous and irreproachable leader, with a vice-presidential candidate, himself of presidential stature, one who has the confidence and esteem of the entire nation; with a platform that every Republican can support with ardor and sincerity, with a situation in federal administration that demands a change, there can be no doubt of the result. Mr. Roosevelt has shown by his offer to withdraw in favor of Mr. Lodge that the Republican platform is satisfactory to him, and he has shown by his conditional declaration of the Progressive nomination that he is prepared to support the nominee of the Republican convention if his attitude on "the vital question of the day" meet with his approval.

The time has come to put aside every thought that is not centered upon the national good. Politics should always be synonymous with patriotism, but never was the synonym more essential than now. No animosities should be permitted to have weight, no personal advantage should be allowed to influence; the sole question should be, what is my duty to my country? In answer to that question is to be found the guide to the action of everyone who believes in Republican principles, whatever party name he may give to himself.

The Republican party has spoken. It has no regrets and no doubts, and it looks forward to November with a firm faith in the intelligence and patriotism of the people.

Gerrit J. Diekema for governor, will be the slogan of western Michigan republicans during the primary campaign, which will end in August. This step was practically decided at a recent dinner party in Grand Rapids, when many of the prominent men in the party in Grand Rapids gathered at this dinner given as a compliment to the man from Holland and pledged their undivided support to him. The result of the dinner is important in several ways to the Diekema boom. In the first place it removes a serious doubt from the minds of his friends as to what Grand Rapids is going to do, and in the next place it indicates that Diekema is very likely to be the Western Michigan candidate.—Conklin Enterprise.

The garage at Lamb burned about two weeks ago in which sixteen automobiles were burned. Sometime ago a garage at Albion, Michigan burned and also a garage at Montague with six automobiles, which shows the necessity of carrying fire insurance, and as about fifteen hundred cars were stolen last year and there were about two thousand accidents in which many law-suits were started against automobile owners, shows the prudent man the necessity of carrying insurance to cover theft and liability.

The Citizens' Mutual Automobile Insurance Company of Howell, Michigan, now has over 6,000 members; they organized at the right time of the year, in the fall, and built up a large membership, agency force, and surplus to take care of the losses during the automobile season. The Company has paid fourteen claims for liability, three fire losses, and have had fourteen cars stolen; all claims have been adjusted with the exception of one personal injury case, and a small claim of damages to a car by theft. The Company is therefore in a position to give its members service. Had these losses occurred when the company first started of course, they could not have paid them, but it is now writing about five hundred new members per week, with a surplus of $13,000 on hand.

Two Ex-Governors of the State, several state officers, circuit court judges, many lawyers and bankers, are now insured, as they feel the Company is well established.

OUR PAGEANT EDITION

The News comes out one day early this week and devotes considerable space to the Hope College Pageant which is being staged by the students of Hope College. This spectacle tips the founding of Holland, the inception of Hope and the development of our local educational institutions. The cause is worthy of all we can do for it and for that reason this paper is dedicated to the 50th anniversary pageant of Hope College.

HOPE BEREAVED AGAIN

In the death of Professor J. H. Kleinheksel, vice-president of Hope College, the hand of the reaper, for the third time in less than a year, has snatched from Hope College and Holland another beloved adviser and citizen. Early last fall, Dr. John E. Kollen, President emeritus of Hope college, died. A few months ago the community was shocked through the death of Professor Lambert Eldson, former head of the department of education.

Professor Kleinheksel, who had been vice president since 1895, was loved and revered by every student of Hope college. He was the last of the few men who had shaken hands with every graduate of both the preparatory and college departments of the institution. College spirit broke loose whenever the professor put in his appearance at the meetings of the student body. "We want Klein, we want Klein," was the invariable cry. The aged professor would mount the platform to respond with a talk that rang with sincerity, and which went straight to the heart of every student.

His passing away at this time is doubly unfortunate, for he will be missed at the celebration this week of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Hope College. Alumni from all parts of the country, and from the Orient and Occident, will be grieved in not seeing him.—Grand Rapids News.

FORD MEETS RIG; RIG IS DAMAGED

WEERSING CAR AND OOSTING BUGGY IN ACCIDENT ON 16TH STREET.

Last evening another Ford story happened. As usual, the little buzz wagon was not scratched, the other party in the incident having to suffer the damage. Do two Fords ever meet?

James Weersing, while driving his car on East 16th Street after dark, suddenly came upon the buggy of Peter Oosting of Central Park, the rubber tires on the buggy contributing to the accident. Unaware of its presence, Weersing kept the middle of the road and ran into the rig. Oosting and his son were thrown over the dash into the side of the road. A broken wheel and shaft was the extent of the damage to the buggy, the Ford, as aforesaid, not sustaining a scratch.

CELEBRATION DAY TO WITNESS PARADE, EXERCISES, EXCURSION AND BANQUET

Imposing Array of Hope College and Synod Officials Lead the March.

The program of the Commencement events at Hope College has been announced in detail, and principal among the days will be June 16, Friday. It is known as Celebration Day, celebrating the founding of Hope College fifty years ago. The list of events of the day includes a grand parade, unusual a grand parade, unusual exercises in Carnegie Gymnasium, an excursion on the lake and a banquet at Ottawa Beach.

At 9 o'clock in the morning the Academic parade will start, forming in front of Carnegie gymnasium. The line of march is south to 12 street, west to River Avenue, north to 10th street, east to Central Avenue, south to Graves Place, east to College Avenue, north to 10th street and east to the Gymnasium on the campus, the starting point.

The order of the parade is: music at the head, then the three presidents abreast, President-elect of the Synod, President Vennema of Hope, president of the Council, Rev. A. At 10 o'clock the celebration exercises will open in Carnegie Hall, President Vennema of Hope presiding. A. Vanden Berg, '85, president of the council, and Dr. Ame Vennema '79, will follow with an address of welcome. The President of the Synod will respond to the welcome.

D., '76, professor of Church History in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky. A historical sketch will be given by Rev. G. De Jonge, '82, of Zeeland. After singing by the audience Rev. John Vander Meulen, D. D., '91, of the Second Presbyterian church of Louisville, Ky., will give the address for the alumni. Rev. SYNOD WILL THRASH OUT BIG QUESTION

REFORMED CHURCH OF AMERICA MAY MERGE WITH GERMAN DENOMINATION

The 110th regular session of the general synod of the Reformed church in America which will convene at Holland tomorrow will be of unusual interest and importance. In connection with this meeting the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Hope college will be celebrated. Hope is the Western college of the Reformed church and grew out of a school established in 1851. The college began its work in 1866 and is under direct supervision of the general synod and in fact is the only college the synod does now so control, for Rutgers college has been independent of the synod for several years.

With Hope college is the Western Theological seminary, also under control of the synod, so it is most fitting that the synod should be present at the fiftieth anniversary. Hope college has grown to be one of the leading colleges of the middle west and numbers among its graduates many men and women prominent at the present time.

Several important questions are to come up before this meeting. The amendments to the constitution which were sent to the classes last year for consideration have been adopted by the required number of classes and synod therefore will declare them passed and put into operation. Several new amendments will be considered and disposed of. There is to be a report concerning the possible union of the Reformed church in America with the Reformed church in the United States usually known as the German Reformed church. The chairman of this committee is Rev. T. H. McKenzie of Flushing, N. Y.

The matter of establishing another college in the west also will be taken up by this synod. Central college of Fella, Ia., formerly under control of the Baptist church has been offered to the Reformed church. The reason for this offer is that the Baptists have another college only sixty miles away and wish to combine the two as neither has been altogether successful, being so near to the other. There apparently is need of another Reformed college farther west and the board of education has investigated this new site and will recommend that the synod consider it.

Another question that may arise is the property rights of crasses in the church property organizations that cease to exist. This question recently has been much discussed by the classis of New York, which recently lost three or four churches and their property.

Year Is Successful

The year has been most successful in the denomination. All the eastern synods except Albany have made large advances. The report of the western is not at hand, but report says it also has made an unusual advance and this is only what is to be expected for the western synod has made in recent years greater gains than all the eastern synods combined.

Synod will convene in the assembly room of the Ottawa Beach hotel, Thursday at 2:30. At this session the officers will be elected, the report of the committee of necrology will be read and in order to give the evening to young people's work the president, contrary to custom, will preach his sermon at this time.

In order to devote Friday evening to Hope college the public meeting in behalf of young people's work will be held Thursday evening in Hope church,

Holland. Addresses will be made by Rev. T. F. Bayles, secretary of the board of publication and Bible school work and Rev. G. W. Richards, professor of history at the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church of the United States at Lancaster, Pa., who will speak on "Religious Education, Its Aims and Its Methods."

Excursion Is Planned.

All day Friday will be given over to Hope college. The Academic procession will form at Wannants chapel at 9 a. m. An hour later the exercises commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Hope college will take place on the campus or in Carnegie gymnasium. In the afternoon there will be an excursion on Macatawa bay and Lake Michigan and at 6:30 the alumni banquet with the general synod as guests will take place at the Ottawa Beach hotel. Dr. and Mrs. Vennema will give a reception Saturday afternoon and at 7:30 the senior class of the college will give an historic pageant on the college campus.

The president of the synod will preach before the synod Sunday morning and the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered afterwards. In the afternoon there will be a special meeting in recognition of the centennial of the American Bible society. Sunday evening the baccalaureate sermon of Hope college will be preached in Hope church. At other churches there will be special services celebrating the college anniversary and the general subject will be the influence of Hope in the half century.

Delegates Total 203.

Monday and Tuesday will be given over to business. Monday evening there will be a public meeting in Hope church in behalf of foreign missions and Tuesday evening a public meeting in behalf of domestic missions. Tuesday will be ladies day and meetings will be held all day in Hope church.

The women's board of domestic missions will have charge of the morning session and the speakers will be Rev. William Worthington of Annville, Ky. Rev. G. Watermuller of the Winnebago Indian mission, Nebraska; Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore, vice president representing the particular synod of Chicago, and Mrs. John S. Allen, secretary of the Woman's board. The afternoon session will be in charge of the woman's board of foreign mission. Synod probably will conclude its sessions on Wednesday evening will end its work.

There are 203 delegates and the visitors, officers of synod, boards and speakers probably will bring the number of those present to more than 400.

FINDS GOLD BURIED IN RUINS OF BURNED HOME

Wilbur Lyttle of Ferrysburg Unearths Box of Gold and Bills Buried By His Father Many Years Ago.

Wilbur Lyttle lost his home a few weeks ago when the old Ferrysburg boarding house, which he occupied as a residence, was burned to the ground. Nothing but a ruin of the well known old building was left, and what furniture was saved from the fire was that carried out by neighbors during the blaze.

Mr. Lyttle did not lose heart over his misfortune, however, and began excavating at once for a new home. He had turned over but little of the earth and ashes, however, before he unearthed a partly consumed wooden box. To his amazement he discovered that the charred box contained money, in gold coin and bills. When he counted it he found that $1300 had lain buried under his feet for many years. The bills were in rather bad condition, but all of them can be redeemed, it is believed. There is no doubt but that the money was placed in the box and buried many years ago by Mr. Lyttle, who has been dead for nearly twenty years. Mr. Lyttle, it is said, always believed that his father had left some money, but had never been able to find any trace of it. The father had died without revealing the secret, and during all of these years the money has lain in its hiding place. The story reads like a tale of hidden gold of the Spanish main, but truth is often stronger than fiction and this is evidently one of the cases.

O. E. S. 40 HOLDS VALUABLE SOCIAL

BOXES OF EATS WERE MUCH BOUGHT FOR OBJECTS AMONG MEN THURSDAY NIGHT

The members and friends of the Star of Bethlehem Chapter No. 40, O. E. S., Thursday night enjoyed a box social in the lodge rooms. Some games preceded the auctioning of the boxes, the main event of the evening.

Frank Oosting acted as auctioneer, demanding high prices for his valuable wares. In this way a neat sum was realized for the lodge to be used in purchasing linen for table cloths.

Tomorrow evening a class of six will be initiated into this Chapter with impressive ceremonies. A banquet will follow the initiatory work.

Joe Kookier left Thursday night for Chicago in the interests of the Geo. H. Huizenga & Co. Jewelry store.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

This week commenced glorious for Dr. F. J. Scouten—a bouncing boy early on Monday morning.

Mrs. Essenburg, residing about three miles southeast from Graafschap, was seriously hurt, by a run away, on Sunday afternoon, June 5.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Last week Thursday Mr. Henry Nyland, engineer of the steamer Macatawa was married at the residence of Mr. R. Ash of this city to Miss Mary Cantwell.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

T. Keppel celebrated his 68th birthday Wednesday, and it was made a general family gathering.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Married, at the home of the bride in this city on Thursday evening, June 18, by Rev. G. H. Dubbink, assisted by Rev. A. Vennema, cousin of the bride, John J. Mersen and Miss Senie Visscher, both of this city.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

The six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kote died Monday after a short illness.

Mrs. Albert Huizenga died yesterday morning at the family home, 197 East Eighth street at the age of 38 years.

The death of David L. Sherman occurred Wednesday afternoon at his home on West Fourth street. The deceased was 56 years of age.

TEN YEARS AGO

Born to Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Whelan Wednesday—a daughter.

John Garvelink and Miss Elizabeth Kramer will be married this evening at 8 o'clock at the future home—417 College avenue.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Nellie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith of New Holland, and Henry Wordhuis, which will take place next Thursday evening at seven o'clock at their future home 220 West Fourteenth street.

A quiet but pretty June wedding took place last Thursday evening when Ralph Schols and Dena Hamm were united in marriage by Rev. D. R. Druker. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin Bridal chorus, played by Miss Tena Huisman, of Grand Rapids. During congratulations "Hearts and Flowers" was played, and Mrs. W. D. Zoethout from Chicago, sang "If I Were a Rose." The bride party stood under an arch made of ferns and syringas which were also effectively used in the other room.

The bride looked charming in her wedding dress of Alice Blue Lansdown silk trimmed with embroidered chiffon. She was attended by her sister Miss Helen Hamm who wore a grey dress. Nicholas Dykema was best man.

Holland bass fishermen who are cheerfully planning on going out early next Thursday morning to land the biggest black bass that ever snapped at a hook will find themselves facing a justice of the peace on a game law violation charge if they don't look out.

The annual bass fishing season opens Friday, June 15, not Thursday, June 15, as erroneously believed by a number of local fishermen. There are any number of fishermen in the country who would be willing to take an oath that the law fixes June 15 as the opening date for the bass season. As a matter of fact the law does not mention the open season at all. It states that the closed season shall extend "from the first day of March to and including the fifteenth day of June."

CITIZENS PHONE CAN MAKE BETTER CALLS

WIRE DIRECT TO COUNTY SEAT; WILL MAKE PHONING MORE CONVENIENT

Arrangements have been completed for the consolidation of all the telephone properties in Muskegon, Grand Haven and in Oceana, Mason, Muskegon and adjoining counties. All the telephones are now connected and operated under one management, and all can now be reached over the Citizens line with more convenience.

This certainly will improve service to the county seat from Holland. Formerly connections had to be made with Grand Rapids and relayed to Grand Haven, while now the whole thing will go direct.

There may be more developments along telephone lines in the very near future which may materialize later.

BILLY RAMON ARRESTED —VIOLATION OF HOTEL ACT

WAS CAUGHT AT BAY CITY FOR JUMPING BOARD BILL AND WAS UNABLE TO PAY

When Bill Ramon left Holland for Bay City, he little thought that he would be called back to pay his room rent at the Bristol hotel. Nevertheless the Holland authorities returned from Bay City with Ramon, having arrested him under the Hotel Keeper's Act which provides for the protection of hotels. He was brought before Justice Miles early Saturday morning, where he pleaded guilty to jumping his bill at the Bristol. Miles ordered him to pay the hotel bill and costs amounting to about forty-one dollars and in default of this, he would have to spend thirty days in jail. Raymon, however, said that he would pay up and was given until noon to do so. He was unable to pay the hotel bill and costs for long distance calls failed to bring the coin. So the next thirty days will be spent in jail at Grand Haven.

NAMES OF CITY SCHOOLS ARE CHANGED

PATRIOTIC, POETIC, HISTORIC NAMES ARE USED IN CHANGE

Playgrounds To Be Started For the Summer Months at Columbia and Central Avenue Schools.

At the meeting of the Board of Education held Monday evening considerable important work was done. It has been felt for a long time that the common names, with which our schools have been christened some years ago, more as a matter of usage than anything else, should be changed to names that are more appropriate and stood for something. For that reason the Board has selected such names that are patriotic, poetic and historic.

For instance, Maple Avenue School will in the future be named after George Washington; Maple Grove after the great American poet, Longfellow; Van Raalte Avenue School will be simply Van Raalte school, named after the great pioneer and founder of this city. Columbia Avenue school will in the future be called Lincoln after the great emancipator. The Central school will be called Froebel after the great German educator, who years ago originated the kindergarten system of teaching little children.

Suitable names for the High school and Junior High will be decided upon later.

Progress along the line of playgrounds for the summer vacation has also been made. The parents of Columbia Avenue school, now Lincoln, have done a great deal to further the playground idea. They have given their money and their time to install new equipment and are advanced further along this line than any other school in the city.

The Central School, now Froebel, also has a fine playground. It has been decided that the first four days in the week be set aside for playground work. The Y. M. C. A. to take Monday and Tuesday and the Board of Education Wednesday and Thursday. A suitable instructor and a man well versed in playground work, will be hired to take charge of the grounds and will educate the children and young men of the city in the diversions that a play ground affords.

It has also been decided that the baccalaureate service be held at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Third Reformed church, when Prof. C. B. McCreary, of Hope College will deliver an address to the graduating class of the High school.

It has also been decided that the graduating exercises be held on Thursday evening, June 22, in the auditorium of the High school. These preparations have all been going into so as not to conflict with any meetings of general Synod.

HOPE GRADS. ARE HONORED IN EAST.

James B. Mulder of Zeeland, Eldred C. Vander Laan of Muskegon, Gerrit De Vries and Cornelius De Young, all Hope College graduates, have been awarded diplomas of graduation from New Brunswick, N. J., Theological seminary.

De Young won the Dodewick prize for the best preacher in the class and Vander Laan was awarded the Van Schaick fellowship, which will entitle him to a year of special graduate study. Mulder has accepted a pastorate at Stone Ridge, N. Y.; De Young at Schenectady, N. Y., and De Motts at Walkkill, N. Y.

BURGLARS ENTER THREE STORES

REWARD OF $240 FOR THEIR WORK IS ALL; NO CLUES FOUND AS YET.

Burglars have started operation in Holland. Friday night three places of business were entered but very little secured. At the Cook's Feed store a back door was forced and $2 in stamps taken away. At the Model Laundry a back door was again broken open but nothing has been missed. The City Garage was another point of contact, the side door on Columbia Avenue being separated from the lock and the place entered, but $40 was their reward.

It is certain that the work was done after midnight. No clues have been found by the police so far.

FISHING WITH NETS DOES NOT HURT FISH

EDW. OSWALD SAID TO THE NEWS
THAT HIS WAY WILL NOT KILL FINNY TRIBE

Ed Oswald who had the contract for fishing the carp out of Black Lake called on this paper Saturday telling the editor that at no time did he fish in such a way that the fish would die as a result and this also holds true at Saugatuck. This year he has also been fishing, taking only small hauls, and that very carefully and to that he says that the game warden can testify.

"It is two months ago since we fished and it would be strange if the fish would swim around two months and then die."

In justice to Mr. Oswald the News will state that when he fished in Holland six years ago that no dead fish resulted and this year he has also been very painstaking in his work. One thing seems true and that is if netting killed fish in large quantities that the game warden's department certainly would not allow the netting to go on.

For that reason the News would not like to attribute the ease of dead fish to netting alone. There are always more or less dead fish at certain times of the year in any lake and it seems that there could be some way to find out the real cause of the fish dying in such large numbers. Many attribute the cause to pollution and no doubt this may be the cause in some parts of the lake.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE BEING MADE FOR BIG FOURTH

COMMITTEES APPOINTED FOR THE CELEBRATION AT THE HALL.

Will Have Four Brass Bands, Three
From Holland and One From Zeeland.

At a rousing meeting held in the City Hall Thursday evening plans were made for a big fourth in Holland. There will be four bands, three from Holland and one from Zeeland. Arrangements are being made for a large fire works display on the C. L. King property where the games in the afternoon will also be pulled off. A large industrial parade will also be held in the morning after which a patriotic speech will be given at Lincoln park by an orator to be selected by the committee.

HARMONY CLUB SERVED REAL DUTCH BANQUET

TWO WAITRESSES IN COMPLETE
DUTCH COSTUME TREAT
CLUB TO SPREAD

A Dutch banquet took place Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hofstee, 158 West 14th street, with the Harmony club as the guests. About forty members composed the crowd that sat down to tables of cards before the banquet, progressive pedro being the vehicle to first prizes for Mrs. William Seehase and Jacob Hoffman and to consolidation awards to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garde.

The banquet was a revelation of the goodies the natives of the Netherlands enjoy at a real feast. Every dish served claimed the Netherlands as its origin, and the people of Holland may well be proud of their favorite dishes. The guests were served by Mr. and Mrs. Hoffstee and the Mrs. Frank Oosting, the two ladies being in Dutch costumes, the wooden shoes kept busily tapping from kitchen to dining room.

SERVED 15 DAY SENTENCE IN GRAND HAVEN WHEN ON PAROLE SECOND TIME

Simon Yonkman of this city, who came to Holland last Saturday after an absence of a year and a half and was arrested on Sunday for intoxication, was Thursday taken to Ionia by Deputy Warden Walker of that prison to complete a sentence imposed upon him in 1914 under the "jag" law. He will remain in Ionia till the latter part of August.

Since being sentenced to Ionia, Yonkman was paroled twice. The last time, during the winter, he went to Grand Haven and soon was arrested there for drunkenness. He has promised to let drink and "dope", a compound of Bromo-chloral being used as his favorite, alone, for the future.

appeal from the minister that they all come to the altar, the captain is converted and his band of soldiers follow him in surrendering themselves to Christ. The third scene witnesses the departure for America.

The first interlude brings before us an Indian setting. Indian maidens enter a clearing in the forest and build a fire. Then as the sun rises in the east, they chant a greeting to the dawn.

Episode 2 follows. All the braves of the tribes are gathered in full war regalia. The chief of the Pottwatomies addresses his men and stirs them to do great deeds. The episode closes with the arrival of Dr. Van Raalte and his followers accompanied by Dr. Smith who was a friend of the redmen in this locality. With them are Judge Kellogg of Allegan and Mr. George Harrington who drove the ex-team. The Indians are very kind and welcome the strangers. They sit around the camp fire and

Such dangers are but tools of Providence

To build a character. O death, 'e'en thee

I now defy. Be gone!"

Death gives way answering:

"We go,—unconquerable man, we go."

Intensely interesting and highly artistic, the interludes throughout the Pageant give us the atmosphere in which the struggling pioneers nursed their little colony. From the very first they enlist our sympathy and we can not help regarding the history of the Holland colony as almost sacred.

The remaining episodes and interludes trace the development of Holland which is necessarily slow at first since the wilderness must be made habitable, farms must be cultivated and churches and schools must be built.

An especially touching scene occurs in the third episode. The civil war volunteers are shown drilling and departing for the front. Fathers and husbands and sons say farewell to their dear ones. After the war, the soldiers crippled and bandaged return to their homes. But not all return. One old man, welcoming the returning heroes, looks anxiously about for some one he does not see. It is pathetic to see the old man (who is, historically, Mr. Boot) pull one of the soldiers aside and, upon finding that his son Tom was killed, trudge sorrowfully but resignedly off the stage.

The burning of Holland will be shown in a very spectacular display. Colored lights and smoke will be used to produce a very realistic effect. As during the disastrous conflagration of 1871, people bring their goods to a spot in the center of the campus and Dr. Van Raalte assigns to the refugees a place to sleep.

The closing episode and interlude consist of a grand procession. The spirit of Hope sits enthroned upon a high platform and reviews the different departments of the college. She also witnesses the symbolization of the mission of Hope College in the world.

Finally, the spirit of Progress comes forward once more and delivers the epilogue. She closes with the following words:

"... My name is Progress. I

In all the ways of Hope do move. For this

It is that I have let you glimpse the past,—

That in your inmost heart may reawake

The ardent love for Hope that lives and works

And bears here ever one. The past is great.

The present greater still, but we shall see

A grander, nobler future, yet to be."

Everything in connection with the pageant will be carried out on a huge scale. It will be given in the open air and the entire athletic field on the campus will be required for its production.

The grounds will be surrounded by a high canvas wall which is being loaned from the Muskegon School Board. The boy scouts of Holland will police the grounds during the performance. Over 1500 seats will be placed on the east end of the campus near the gymnasium where the ground slopes in such a way that an excellent natural amphitheater is formed. The Holland Board of Public Works has already installed four are lights to light the section occupied by the audience.

The stage likewise will be constructed on a large scale. Extremely large proportions are necessary since several Indians on horseback will occupy the stage at one time. A yoke of oxen will draw an oxcart before the footlights and a company of soldiers will maneuver before going off to war. In the background, the woodland effect will be obtained by the use of full-grown hemlock trees.

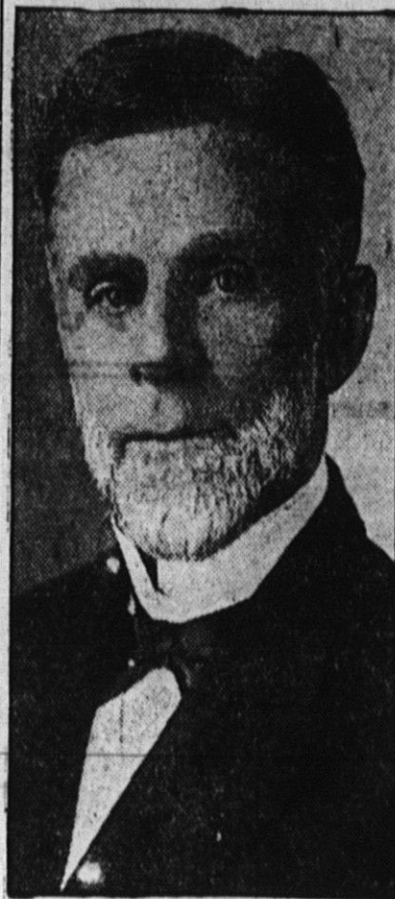

Perhaps the most important factor aside from the presentation of the pageant itself will be the lighting effects. Gerard Raap has charge of this work and has arranged an intricate system of colored lights and footlights and spotlights which will undoubtedly produce some wonderful effects.

A large costing house in Chicago has arranged to furnish over a hundred costumes. All the costumes—between four and five hundred in number—will be made specially for the Pageant or loaned for the occasion. Mrs. J. P. Ogden and Miss Hunt directed the costuming of the spirits which occur in the second interlude. These costumes are quite elaborate as are also those of the little Dutch children who appear in the first episode. The most beautiful of all, however, are those worn by the Spirit of Knowledge and the Spirit of Hope. The latter wears a gown of satin trimmed with silver and presents a very striking appearance.

Nearly all the characters chosen to play the various roles are Hope College students. Those who are to have the children's parts have been selected from the Holland Public Schools and are under the able supervision of Miss Florence Vennema and Miss Janet Mulder. The part of Dr. Van Raalte will be taken by Mr. George Steininger. Miss Christine Van Raalte will have the part of the good doctor's wife. The three important symbols who appear throughout the Pageant are: Miss Frances Bosch, who will represent the Spirit of Progress, Miss Grace Browning who will represent the Spirit of Knowledge and Miss Anna Visscher who will appear as the Spirit of Hope.

"The Pageant of Hope," will undoubtedly prove to be the greatest and grandest spectacle this part of the state has ever seen. It will also line up with the largest and foremost productions of this nature ever presented in the United States. This pageant is bound to be a grand success and all who see it will receive such an inspiration as can never be wiped out. It will set our aunts throbbing to see those earlier days live again; our loyalty to our worthy ancestors will be increased; our ambitions will be kindled to greater and better deeds.

Of course, in order, to perfect the pageant in every detail, the expenses have mounted up to several hundreds of dollars. To insure the strictest economy the Senior class elected an executive committee who shall have entire charge of the project. Frank Douma is the chairman of the committee and the other members are A. Van Westenbergh, G. Pelgrim, A. Cloetingh and T. Elferdink.

Tickets for admission and also reserved seats are on sale at Hardie's jewelry store. Mr. Theodore H. Elferdink has charge of the seating accommodations and will be glad to answer any inquiries in regard to tickets.

This is a mere skeleton of "The Pageant of Hope," which will be given on the college campus, June 17th and 18th, but it may serve to explain the "what" and "wherefor" to a few inquiring minds.

LEGEND OF BLACK LAKE

By WM. A. SHIELDS, '66...

Through correspondence with the Pageant committee, Mr. Shields submitted the following, which he thought might be of interest. Mr. Shields, who now resides at Winfield, Kan., is a graduate of the class of 1866, and has the distinction of being the oldest living college graduate in the United States.

Years ago, before the white man had devastated the stately forests of Michigan, when the Ottawas still inhabited these wilds, tradition hath it that what is now Black Lake was a beautiful valley. The gently sloping hills were covered with dense forests. This sheltered valley afforded a favorite camping ground for the Indian hunters, and the forests around furnished abundant supplies of game. Following the valley to its outlet, the fisherman came to the blue waters of Mitchaw Sagiegan, "The Great Lake," called later Lake Michigan.

In 1666, Father Alonzo established a mission at the Falls of St. Mary. Here he was joined by Father Dablou and Father Marquette. In the course of three years they had explored the country along the shores of Lake Michigan, making the entire circuit of that lake.

Charmed by the beauty of the valley before-mentioned, Father Rene, one of the exploring party, determined to tarry here and begin a mission. He erected a hut, and began to treat with the Indians who were friendly. Pursuing the advantages gained, he secured their good will, and began to tell them of the great All-Father. It was the beginning of June when he arrived. In July a drought began. The sun poured down his fiercest rays. The herbage parched. The foliage shriveled. The springs dried up. The drought grew more severe. The patches of maize, cultivated by the squaws, were like dried reeds. Fever burned in the veins of the braves. Many of them died.

The medicine man of the tribe said the Great Spirit was angry, because they had listened to the pale-face. The pale-face was a foe to them. To please the Great Spirit the pale-face must die. It was now October, and still the drought continued, the fever still raged.

In a council of the old men it was decreed that the pale-face must be put to death. With hideous rites and horrible cruelty, the decree was executed. Then they fired the hut and danced around it in wild frenzy. But the fire thus kindled swept through the dried grass, it spread to the forest and found abundant food. Many of the tribe perished before they could reach the lake which was their only hope of safety.

For days the conflagration continued, leaving a blackened, desolate waste behind it, burned trunks and charred logs, nor any trace of animal life. At length a terrific thunder-storm burst upon the raging flames. Torrents of water fell. It seemed as if the very hills would be loosened from their foundations. The storm subsided as suddenly as it had arisen. A piercing icy blast from the west blew over the land, and it was a field of ice. Upon this mass of ice the snow began to fall, and so continued during the long and dreary winter that followed. The valley was filled with snow, snow was piled upon the hills around, and yet it fell, drifting deeper and deeper.

Late in the spring following this terrible winter, heavy rains fell upon this accumulated mass of snow and ice, pouring down upon the valley which was the only outlet. With resistless force this mighty current forced its way to the great lake. The burnt trees upheaved by the roots, the charred logs swept along by the tide, dredged out a channel which has never since been dry. The storm subsided, but over the once beautiful valley there lay an expanse of turgid, black water, which, in later days, was called Black Lake.

MISS CHRISTINE VAN RAALTE, Great-granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Van Raalte, who will carry the role of Mrs. Van Raalte in the pageant smoke the pipe of peace.

In interlude 2 the obstacles confronted by the pioneers are symbolically presented. The geni of the waters, the cold, the wilderness and the four winds and fire appear and utter due threats to Dr. Van Raalte. To present these symbols, girls dressed in elaborate costumes of appropriate colors pass over the stage. Then, horrible to see, hunger comes forward, followed by cholera and malaria.

Even the heavens cry out dire threats accompanied by flashes of lightning and peals of thunder. Finally Death itself enters and comes up to Dr. Van Raalte. Overcome by the gruesome figure, the sturdy minister hides his face. But he speaks at length in defiance to all the threats:

"O spirits, get you gone, I fear you not!
