A very entertaining program was given after business was transacted. Mr. Louis Burriel of New Richmond entertained with several selections on his violin, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Severance and by Mrs. Vander Hill. Mr. Lem Harris sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Vander Hill. Mrs. Daugherty gave a reading in her usual pleasing manner. Mrs. E. Hartman, with the assistance of Miss Bird, Miss Bond, Miss Kline and Miss Larson, gave a demonstration, "The Transformation of Mrs. Ordinary Woman," which proved very interesting. Unusual refreshments consisting of strawberry shortcake with coffee, were served by Mrs. Lem Harris and her committee. Miss Harriet Heneveld and Bert Kemme were married at the home of the bride's parents on Thursday, June 14. Both are graduates of Hope College and plan to enter foreign missionary work when Mr. Kemme completes his medical training at the University of Chicago two years from now. Miss Heneveld has been teaching during the past year in Coopersville high school.

Christian Ref. Synod Meeting in Holland

AMUSEMENT, DIVORCE, INSURANCE, CHURCH, RADIO-PREACHING MATTERS CONSIDERED

Sessions Now Being Held in Large Central Avenue Church

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock general Synod of the Christian Reformed Church of America convened in Central Avenue Church, this city. This church was chosen since it was the largest of the six churches of that denomination in Holland.

Practically all of the 90 delegates have arrived for deliberations, representing classes of California, Grand Rapids east and west, Hackensack, Holland, Hudson, Ill.; Muskegon, Orange City, Oostfriesland, Pacific, Pella, Sioux City, Wisconsin and Zeeland. Each class is represented by three ministers and three elders.

A pre-Synod session was held on Tuesday in the form of a prayer meeting which was led by Rev. H. Keegstra of Holland, vice president of the Synod.

In the absence of Rev. W. P. Van Wyk of Grand Rapids, retiring president, who is representing the denomination as fraternal delegate at the synod of the Reformed Church in America, now in session in New York City, Mr. Keegstra of this city presided at the opening session Wednesday.

The business of the synod was to be set in motion by the election of officers and the appointment of various committees.

Rev. Keegstra, who opened the session Wednesday, was vice-president of the synod which met here two years ago and called the session to order as temporary officer. The first meeting Wednesday opened by singing the Eighty-fourth Psalm in the Holland language, which is used throughout the business sessions.

Rev. D. Zwier of Holland read the scripture lesson. Rev. Keegstra welcomed the delegates to the city and stressed the importance of the work before them.

The secretary's report showed that death had taken ten pastors since the synod of two years ago. The credentials of the 18 classes represented were accepted and the meeting declared constitutional.

Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Rev. H. J. Kuiper of Grand Rapids; secretary, Rev. D. Zwier of Holland; vice-secretary, Rev. J. Dolfin of Muskegon.

The afternoon sessions were largely devoted to general business and the appointment of the various committees which are to report on a number of questions.

Many questions covering the denomination's work will be considered during meeting of synod here. These will include reports by committees on worldly amusements, improvement of public worship, reduction of curriculum, English sermons for reading service, Paterson Hebrew Mission, divorce, education, church aid, home missions, Hebrew mission board and the Theological school and Calvin college.

One of the leading questions at issue will pertain to the introduction of a collection of hymns for public worship, doctrinally sound and poetically and musically fit. Overtures will be presented pro and con, some classes favoring and others strongly opposing.

Synod also will be asked to consider an overture with respect to making radio-preaching denominational. The reasons given by the two Grand Rapids classes are for enlarging the field of usefulness and lessening the expense. Another overture for consideration will be with respect to the advisability of taking over from the Sudan United missions the territory in which Miss Johanna Veenstra is laboring, which now is British territory.

Miss Veenstra is receiving her financial support from the people of the churches in the denomination, without the jurisdiction of the church. Another will be to provide ways and means whereby the membership of the Christian Reformed board of missions shall be made to consist of laymen as well as ministers.

An overture will be introduced to provide ways and means to enable churches established in localities where the denomination is little known to borrow money at a reasonable and uniform rate of interest.

The consistency of Rehoboth, N. M., has extended an invitation to synod to hold its 1930 session in that city. This invitation has been endorsed by the California class largely because a synodical meeting in Rehoboth would awaken a keen interest in missionary activities among the Indians. Low railroad fares via the Santa Fe from Chicago are given as an inducement.

Another overture for consideration covers the advisability of organizing a mutual insurance company for protection of the churches and other property against losses by fire.

Michigan is represented at general synod by five classes, numbering 30 delegates on one-third of the synod. The delegation will consist of the following: Class Grand Rapids East, Rev. D. H. Kromminga, Rev. J. M. Vandekleef, Rev. H. Verduin and Elders B. Sevenma, K. Boersma, J. Kamstra; Class Grand Rapids West, Rev. H. J. Kuiper, Rev. Y. P. De Jong, Rev. R. B. Kuiper and Elders A. Rodenhuis, J. Manni, A. J. Rooks; Class Holland, Rev. J. De Haan, Jr., Rev. H. Keegstra, Rev. D. Zwier and Elders E. O. Holkeboer, A. Lyzenga, H. Mannes; Class Muskegon, Rev. J. C. Schapp, Rev. J. Gritter, Rev. J. Dolfin and Elders M. A. Postmus, A. L. Timmer, H. J. Dornbos; Class Zeeland, Rev. K. W. Fortuin, Rev. J. G. VanderRiet, Rev. B. Essenburg and Elders S. Gras.

GET YOUR FISH POLE DOWN FOR SATURDAY

Saturday (tomorrow) ushers in the bass, and pan fish season throughout Lower Michigan and that includes Black Lake, Holland. Bass fishing in the Upper Peninsula is delayed until July 1. All of the inland lakes that were closed by special order to all fishing from April 1 to June 16 automatically invite the fishermen to wet their lines. In one sense it is a bigger day than May 1, the opening of the trout fishing season, for where one person fishes for trout at least five will "still" fish, troll or cast for bass, bluegills, perch or walleyes. The season this year is not far advanced so far as spawning is concerned. It is doubtful if all of the species that were protected by this closing order have finished their spawning. This is especially true of the bass in the colder waters. But the fishermen have waited long enough for the sport and to delay the opening day any longer would mean general dissatisfaction.

Holland fishermen have chafed under the delay but can take down the old fish pole and start out early tomorrow. There has been no hot weather hereabouts that anybody knows of so speckle bass will still be fine for some weeks yet. Go to it, you fishermen!

Ex-Missionary, Ill, Ends His Life

REV. HUIZENGA, FORMERLY OF HOLLAND, FOUND HANGED IN PORTAGE HOME

The body of Rev. Gerrit Huizenga, 65 years old, was found hanging in his home near Portage late Saturday. He had been in ill health for several years and it is believed despondency caused him to commit suicide. The body was found by his daughter, Dorothea, when she returned from school.

Rev. Huizenga, formerly of Holland, was a minister of the Reformed church and for many years was a missionary to India. About 10 years ago he suffered a nervous breakdown and returned to the United States. Since that time he has had a celery farm near Portage.

Besides his daughter, who will be graduated from Western State Teachers' College in June, his widow survives. Huizenga was a graduate of Hope many years ago.

NORTH HOLLAND SCHOOL EXERCISES

The North Holland high school exercises will be held tonight at the North Holland Reformed church at eight o'clock, and the school is looking for a big year next term. There will be 14 eighth graders, who have passed the seventh grade examinations with honors under the direction of Miss Metta Kemme.

No. Holland school has been signally honored since Henry Veenhoven, an eighth grade graduate, has received the prize to the State Fair at Detroit, where he will be a guest with other boys from different parts of the state. Under the instruction of James Vander Veen of Holland, he showed the highest averages for the regular examination combined with the special agricultural exams.

Last Sunday evening, Rev. Maatman delivered the baccalaureate address to the graduates and it was an inspiring discourse in which he pictured that graduation was only the beginning of real life, that the guiding star should be religion, and a living up to God's precepts. A man or woman who does these things cannot go far wrong in the aims of life. The Holland high school chorus came to New Holland by auto and sang two beautiful selections greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The program to be given tonight, Friday, follows: Processional; Invocation; Salutatory; Mabelle Smith; song, "We Praise Thee," 8th, 9th, and 10th grade; poem, "Graduation"; Dena Bosman; piano solo, Genevieve Ter Haar; Valetuditor; Henry Nykamp; address, Rev. Richard Vanden Bergh; presentation of diplomas; remarks, James Vander Veen; "America"; Audience; and benediction.

The eighth grade graduates are: Dena Bosman, Florence Brower, Anna Schellman; Marvin Overbeck; Henry Veenhoven, and Henry Veenhoven.

The tenth grade graduates are: Willis Bosch, James Brower, Albert Nierhuis, Henry Nykamp, Valetuditorian, Lewis Prins, Martha Bosma, Gale Schilleman, Mabelle Smith, Salutatorian and Genevieve Ter Haar.

The class colors are old rose and silver, the class flower is the snowball. Their motto is "The Horizon Widens as We Climb."

The teaching staff are James H. Vander Veen, the principal, Metta Kemme and Florence Kossen. Miss Kossen is to be married sometime during the summer and Miss Esther Kooyers will fill the vacancy at the next term.

Gerald Boners underwent an operation in the Holland hospital Thursday.

Mrs. G. Cornelius of Santa Barbara, Calif., Mrs. H. Stekelen and children, Arvin, Hugh Stanley of Holland, expect to leave Monday for St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Van Asselt, and Mrs. Wayne Beck of Holland attended the birthday celebration of Mrs. Walter Van Asselt at Zeeland Wednesday evening.

He said, "the influence which encourages nobility in the lives of others was probably best exemplified in public life of the past 50 years, by Theodore Roosevelt, and Robert Louis Stevenson in the realm of literature."

"What these great men possessed in an outstanding degree we all possess, and I believe there are latent possibilities in your life and mine greater than we realize."

"This ministry of influence is often exerted unconsciously. We oftentimes argue on sides of a question which we do not believe in, but our unconscious influence must ever follow us as the shadows follow the sun."

Christian Ref. Synod Meeting in Holland

AMUSEMENT, DIVORCE, INSURANCE, CHURCH, RADIO-PREACHING MATTERS CONSIDERED

Sessions Now Being Held in Large Central Avenue Church

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock general Synod of the Christian Reformed Church of America convened in Central Avenue Church, this city. This church was chosen since it was the largest of the six churches of that denomination in Holland.

Practically all of the 90 delegates have arrived for deliberations, representing classes of California, Grand Rapids east and west, Hackensack, Holland, Hudson, Ill.; Muskegon, Orange City, Oostfriesland, Pacific, Pella, Sioux City, Wisconsin and Zeeland. Each class is represented by three ministers and three elders.

A pre-Synod session was held on Tuesday in the form of a prayer meeting which was led by Rev. H. Keegstra of Holland, vice president of the Synod.

In the absence of Rev. W. P. Van Wyk of Grand Rapids, retiring president, who is representing the denomination as fraternal delegate at the synod of the Reformed Church in America, now in session in New York City, Mr. Keegstra of this city presided at the opening session Wednesday.

The business of the synod was to be set in motion by the election of officers and the appointment of various committees.

Rev. Keegstra, who opened the session Wednesday, was vice-president of the synod which met here two years ago and called the session to order as temporary officer. The first meeting Wednesday opened by singing the Eighty-fourth Psalm in the Holland language, which is used throughout the business sessions.

Rev. D. Zwier of Holland read the scripture lesson. Rev. Keegstra welcomed the delegates to the city and stressed the importance of the work before them.

The secretary's report showed that death had taken ten pastors since the synod of two years ago. The credentials of the 18 classes represented were accepted and the meeting declared constitutional.

Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Rev. H. J. Kuiper of Grand Rapids; secretary, Rev. D. Zwier of Holland; vice-secretary, Rev. J. Dolfin of Muskegon.

The afternoon sessions were largely devoted to general business and the appointment of the various committees which are to report on a number of questions.

Many questions covering the denomination's work will be considered during meeting of synod here. These will include reports by committees on worldly amusements, improvement of public worship, reduction of curriculum, English sermons for reading service, Paterson Hebrew Mission, divorce, education, church aid, home missions, Hebrew mission board and the Theological school and Calvin college.

One of the leading questions at issue will pertain to the introduction of a collection of hymns for public worship, doctrinally sound and poetically and musically fit. Overtures will be presented pro and con, some classes favoring and others strongly opposing.

Synod also will be asked to consider an overture with respect to making radio-preaching denominational. The reasons given by the two Grand Rapids classes are for enlarging the field of usefulness and lessening the expense. Another overture for consideration will be with respect to the advisability of taking over from the Sudan United missions the territory in which Miss Johanna Veestra is laboring, which now is British territory.

Miss Veestra is receiving her financial support from the people of the churches in the denomination, without the jurisdiction of the church. Another will be to provide ways and means whereby the membership of the Christian Reformed board of missions shall be made to consist of laymen as well as ministers.

An overture will be introduced to provide ways and means to enable churches established in localities where the denomination is little known to borrow money at a reasonable and uniform rate of interest.

The consistory of Rehoboth, N. M., has extended an invitation to synod to hold its 1930 session in that city. This invitation has been endorsed by the California class largely because a synodical meeting in Rehoboth would awaken a keen interest in missionary activities among the Indians. Low railroad fares via the Santa Fe from Chicago are given as an inducement.

Another overture for consideration covers the advisability of organizing a mutual insurance company for protection of the churches and other property against losses by fire.

Michigan is represented at general synod by five classes, numbering 30 delegates on one-third of the synod. The delegation will consist of the following: Class Grand Rapids East, Rev. D. H. Kromminga, Rev. J. M. VanKleeft, Rev. H. Verduin and Elders B. Severance, K. Boersma, J. Kamstra; Class Grand Rapids West, Rev. H. J. Kuiper, Rev. Y. P. De Jong, Rev. R. B. Kuiper and Elders A. Rodenhuis, J. Mann, A. J. Rooks; Class Holland, Rev. J. De Haan, Jr., Rev. H. Keegstra, D. Zwier and Elders E. O. Holkeboer, A. Lyzenga, H. Mannet; Class Muskegon, Rev. J. C. Schaap, Rev. J. Gritter, Rev. J. Dolfin and Elders M. A. Postmus, A. L. Timmer, H. J. Dornbos; Class Zeeland, Rev. K. W. Fortuin, Rev. J. G. VanderRiet, Rev. B. Essenburg and Elders S. Gras.

GET YOUR FISH POLE DOWN FOR SATURDAY

Saturday (tomorrow) ushers in the bass and pan fish season throughout Lower Michigan and that includes Black Lake, Holland. Bass fishing in the Upper Peninsula is delayed until July 1. All of the inland lakes that were closed by special order to all fishing from April 1 to June 16 automatically invite the fishermen to wet their lines. In one sense it is a bigger day than May 1, the opening of the trout fishing season, for where one person fishes for trout at least five will "still" fish, troll or cast for bass, bluegills, perch or walleyes. The season this year is not far advanced so far as spawning is concerned. It is doubtful if all of the species that were protected by this closing order have finished their spawning. This is especially true of the bass in the colder waters. But the fishermen have waited long enough for the sport and to delay the opening day any longer would mean general dissatisfaction.

Holland fishermen have chafed under the delay but can take down the old fish pole and start out early tomorrow. There has been no hot weather hereabouts that anybody knows of so speckle bass will still be fine for some weeks yet. Go to it, you fishermen!

Ex-Missionary, Ill, Ends His Life

REV. HUIZENGA, FORMERLY OF HOLLAND, FOUND HANGED
IN PORTAGE HOME

The body of Rev. Gerrit Huizenga, 65 years old, was found hanging in his home near Portage late Saturday. He had been in ill health for several years and it is believed despondency caused him to commit suicide. The body was found by his daughter, Dorothea, when she returned from school.

Rev. Huizenga, formerly of Holland, was a minister of the Reformed church and for many years was a missionary to India. About 10 years ago he suffered a nervous breakdown and returned to the United States. Since that time he has had a celery farm near Portage.

Besides his daughter, who will be graduated from Western State Teachers' College in June, his widow survives. Huizenga was a graduate of Hope many years ago.

NORTH HOLLAND SCHOOL EXERCISES

The North Holland high school exercises will be held tonight at the North Holland Reformed church at eight o'clock, and the school is looking for a big year next term. There will be 14 eighth graders, who have passed the seventh grade examinations with honors under the direction of Miss Metta Kemme.

No. Holland school has been significantly honored since Henry Veenhoven, an eighth grade graduate, has received the prize to the State Fair at Detroit, where he will be a guest with other boys from different parts of the state. Under the instruction of James Vander Veen of Holland, he showed the highest averages for the regular examination combined with the special agricultural exams.

Last Sunday evening, Rev. Maatman delivered the baccalaureate address to the graduates and it was an inspiring discourse in which he pictured that graduation was only the beginning of real life, that the guiding star should be religion, and a living up to God's precepts. A man or woman who does these things cannot go far wrong in the aims of life. The Holland high school chorus came to New Holland by auto, and sang two beautiful selections greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The program to be given tonight, Friday, follows: Processional; Invocation; Salutory; Mabelle Smith; song, "We Praise Thee," 8th 9th, and 10th grade; poem, "Graduation," Dena Bosman; piano solo, Genevieve Ter Haar; Valedictory, Henry Nykamp; address, Rev. Richard Vanden Berg; presentation of diplomas; remarks, James Vander Veen; "America"; Audience; and benediction.

The eighth grade graduates are: Dena Bosman, Florence Brower, Anna Schilleman, Marvin Overbeek, Henry Veenhoven, and Henry Veenhoven.

The tenth grade graduates are: Willis Bosch, James Brower, Albert Nienhuis, Henry Nykamp, Valedictory, Lewis Prins, Martha Roels, Gale Schilleman, Mabelle Smith, Salutory and Genevieve Ter Haar.

The class colors are old rose and silver, the class motto is the snowball. Their motto is "The Horizon Widens as We Climb."

The teaching staff are James H. Vander Van, the principal, Metta Kemme and Florence Kossen. Miss Kemme is to be married sometime during the summer and Miss Esther Kooyers will fill the vacancy at the next term.

Gerald Bosma underwent an operation in the Holland hospital Thursday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bosma of Santa Barbara, Calif. Mrs. B. COMMENCEMENT WEEK USHERED IN SUNDAY WITH BACCALAUREATE SERMON

MISS MARSLJE AND MISS PETERSON ARE GIVEN CLASS HONORS

Commencement week for Holland High was ushered in Sunday afternoon, with Dr. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of Hope Church, preaching the baccalaureate sermon to 132 graduates and an audience which filled the large auditorium to overflowing. Dr. Davidson used for his text, "The Ministry of Influence." He brought out that "Influence springs from personality and character, and the best influence comes from lives consecrated to Christ."

He said, "the influence which encourages nobility in the lives of others was probably best exemplified in public life of the past 50 years, by Theodore Roosevelt, and Robert Louis Stevenson in the realm of literature."

"What these great men possessed in an outstanding degree we all possess, and I believe there are latent possibilities in your life and mine greater than we realize."

"This ministry of influence is often exerted unconsciously. We oftentimes argue on sides of a question which we do not believe in, but our unconscious influence must ever follow us as the shadows follow the sun."

"It is immortal in its duration and extent. The influence of the dead is with us today. It is the dead who have built our cities, who enacted our laws and who have

PLAYING TO THE JUVENILES

Governor Green must be given full credit for attempting to make our growing chain of State parks attractive for the youngsters. It was principally through his efforts that the State Administrative Board authorized the expenditure of $40,000 during the coming season for playground equipment for the parks. The appropriation will be quite generally spread over the 51 parks and none that hold recreational possibilities for the youngsters will be slighted.

Playground equipment of the safest, most durable and most enjoyable kinds will be installed including slides, merry-go-rounds, teeters, swings, jungle gyms, swinging rings and bars and sand boxes, in fact everything that will entertain, amuse and hold the children. It is not sufficient that our State parks, with their water, woodland and scenic features be made attractive only for the adults. They should be recreational areas developed that the entire family indulging in a week-end outing, or a camping trip of longer duration, will find something to hold and interest the entire group. The playground must certainly will grip the children while father tries his luck at fishing or mother enjoys a well earned rest beneath some sheltering tree. Children must play, they must be given something interesting and amusing to occupy their time; they enjoy healthful sports and if they can be satisfied in this direction they will be slight care to parents seeking relaxation and a change out in the open.

The playground feature added to our State parks is a splendid move and should go far in increasing their popularity with tourists, campers and week-end picnickers.

Somebody has suggested music as a cure for crime. Fine, if we can only make the criminals face it.

Little Holland girl visiting Lakewood Farms and getting her first squirt at a peacock exclaimed: Look! Look! Mother that big chicken is in bloom.

A Texas frontiersman came into camp riding an old mule.

"How much for the mule?" asked a bystander.

"Jist a hundred dollars," answered the rider.

"I'll give you five dollars," said the other.

The rider stopped short, as if in amazement, and then slowly dismounted. "Stranger," said he, "I ain't a-go'in' to let a little matter of ninety-five dollars stand between me and a mule trade. The mule's yours."

The other day, I read two obituaries of men I had known well in their day. The stories were short—when they came into the world and when they departed; when they located here and there and the number of relatives each left to mourn a loss. In neither case was the story told. One man had gone through life with a smile on his lips and a kind word for all. He died poor. The other had been a bull-dozer and tightfisted. He had exacted his pound of flesh in every business deal and the moan of the orphan and pleading of the widow failed to soften his stony heart. He left a pile in the bank. The man who smiled and helped humanity had made money, but it was of interest to him only in that he could use it in scattering sunshine and showing his family a good time. He left goodly insurance and a reputation that will stand with his modest monument in the village cemetery. The other toiled and slaved and raised his family in penury and fear of his wrath. He had pulled his load of gold to the edge of the grave and had to let go. Those who follow him will grow sleek and fat in the sunshine of his money. Of him, the neighbors say: "It won't take long for the boys to spend the old tightwad's money." Of the other they remark: "Too bad; he was a mighty good man." Which?

YOST PROFFERS USEFUL ADVICE TO SCOUTS AT ALLEGAN-OTTAWA MEET

The Allegan-Ottawa Council of Boy Scouts held its first annual grand court of honor in Holland Saturday. Nearly 400 scouts, representing 21 troops in Allegan and Ottawa, participated in the activities, which included various exhibitions in scoutcraft, awarding of badges and honors and a parade through the principal streets of Holland.

Fielding H. Yost, director of athletics at the University of Michigan, gave the final address of the afternoon. He stressed the importance of scouting in the building of character. Germany Schultz, star athlete at the University of Wisconsin, addressed the scouts at the morning exercises held at River View Park. His talk also was of an inspirational nature. Both assisted in the distribution of awards: William Arendshorst, of Holland, officiated as master of ceremonies. The program ended with an exhibition by the Holland troop of Sea Scouts.

FITTING SEQUEL TO FAMOUS AIR PICTURE COMING HERE

Characterized as the companion picture to "Wings," Paramount's great epic of the air, "The Legion of the Condemned," another story of the War from the standpoint of the aviator, comes to the Colonial theatre June 18, 19, 20.

Here is a story that differs entirely in story content from the famous roadshow, but in color, romance, characterization and downright thrills, "The Legion of the Condemned" has taken its place right up alongside the production which is still standing them up in the larger cities.

Like "Wings," the tale is from the pen of John Monk Saunders, a member of the United States Air Corps during the war, and is directed by William Wellman, who saw service with the Lafayette Squadron and who is credited with the direction of "Wings."

The photoplay deals with an unattached flying unit at the French front, composed of men who, because of their dark pasts, wanted to die. Their daring exploits were the talk of the War. Nothing was too hazardous as an undertaking. Into this group of men who welcomed death comes Gary Cooper, as the young American newspaperman, betrayed by his sweetheart. The high spot shows Cooper forced to carry his exsweetheart across the German lines as a spy.

Far Fray, as the spy-sweetheart, and Cooper head the cast which includes Barry Norton, "Mother's Boy" of "What Price Glory," Lane Chandler, Francis McDonald, Vova George, Freeman Wood, E. H. Calvert, Charlot Bird.

In the flying sequences are many of the world famous pilots who participate in the making of "Wings."

"Pageant of the Word" is to be presented at the Holland Fair Grounds Saturday evening of this week and Tuesday evening of next week, instead of on the Hope College campus as first intended.

OIL HAS BENN
FOUND AT WAVERLEY

The first trace of oil was discovered Tuesday night at the well at Waverley. The backers of this proposition are very enthusiastic about the quality of oil, samples of which were brought to Holland and oil experts claimed it to be a good grade of crude oil. This oil was discovered at a depth of about 1600 feet, and several barrels of it has been bailed out and allowed to seep in the ground.

Digging at the Waverley oil well began about a month ago by the Ottawa Development company. The stockholders who invested money in the Olive venture which proved fruitless, are backing the Waverley well. If this oil well proves successful as it is hoped, it will mean a great deal to Holland, and no doubt will encourage others to commence drilling in that locality.

STEAMER EMPLOYE FALLS OFF HOLLAND DOCK AND DROWNS

E. N. Peterson, 19, third porter on the S.S. Illinois of the Goodrich Transit company, was drowned off the Goodrich pier here early Sunday evening, shortly before the boat was to have weighed anchor for the return trip to Chicago.

Peterson was sitting on a pile resting when he suddenly lurched and toppled over backward into 20 feet of water. A passerby saw him fall and summoned Patrolman C. Steketee and Dick Humkes, who, together with Coroner Gilbert Vandewater and Michael Stolarz, William Quinlan and Fred Crawford, fellow employees on the ship, recovered the body immediately. Dr. Tappan was called in and pronounced the man dead.

Peterson was said to have been subject to fits and is believed to have been stricken by one without sufficient warning to seek safety. The body was removed to the Dykstra funeral home, where Coroner Vandewater decided no inquest would be held. Parents of the boy, with whom he lived in Chicago, were notified. The body was forwarded Monday evening, by boat, to Chicago.

FOUNDING OF HOLLAND PORTRAYED IN PAGEANT

Daughter of Van Raalte Witnesses Production Given In New York as Part of Tercentenary Commemoration of The Reformed Church

The little company of Dutch pilgrims who braved the wilderness 80 years ago, under the devout and efficient leadership of Rev. Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, settled Holland, Mich., and founded Hope college, was portrayed as a part of a great pageant at Moca temple, New York City, recently. The pageant was a part of the tercentenary commemoration of the Reformed (Dutch) church in America.

Feature of the Michigan episode of the program was the presence on the stage of Mrs. Christian Van Raalte Gilmore of Holland, Mich., daughter of the pioneer leader. The scenes shown on the stage here were witnessed by Mrs. Gilmore on the shores of Black lake, Mich., when she was a child of two. Mrs. Gilmore came here under auspices of the Women's Board of Domestic Missions of the Reformed church as a guest of the tercentenary committee and will remain until the commemoration ends in June.

The culmination of the commemoration will be the tercentenary synod, which will be held here June 9 to 11. A number of Michigan delegates will be present and President Coolidge is expected to address one of the sessions.

It was with the building of the first church of the colony in the woods of Michigan that the Holland episode dealt. The setting was a clearing in which settlers wore Dutch costumes of the period. Among the characters interwoven with the history of Holland, Mich., were Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, Christine Van Raalte, the little girl; Mr. Grottenhuis, Mrs. Grottenhuis, Egbert Fredericks, J. Laarman, J. Lankert, W. Notting, Mrs. W. Notting, Everett Sagers, J. G. Kroon, an Indian and other settlers who did not have speaking parts.

The people had gathered to make final plans for their church and while awaiting the arrival of their minister, discussed how they had worshipped in the past, their pews the stumps of trees, their temple the forest. They also told how loyal their minister was to them, how he not only guided them spiritually, but ministered to the sick and from his own scanty board furnished money when money was needed. They talked of their hardships also, but agreed that there was freedom of worship without restricting laws and that was compensation.

J. G. Kroon, the architect, explained that the church was to be of logs, 35 by 60 feet in size, with two cook stoves for heating. Provision was also made for a pulpit of water and a dipper at the door for those who would become thirsty during the service.

Just as the congregation was beginning to wonder what could be keeping the minister from so important a meeting, he appeared carrying an Indian. The Indian had fallen from a cliff and broken his leg. With a cane for a splint and a handkerchief for a bandage, the minister set the fracture and had the Indian carried into his own house. The work of mercy at an end, he began the simple wilderness service.

The Michigan scene was given by Aquackanonck church, founded in 1693, the oldest and largest church in Passaic, N. J. in the 684 persons included in the cast of the entire pageant, were many Hope college graduates.

The pageant opened with a scene portraying the holding of the first church service under Domine Michaelius in New York in 1628. Minuit, Krol, Psalm-singing hollanders, Walloons, Indians and sailors met at the "horse mill" for that purpose. Following were numerous scenes setting forth the 300 years of history with characters, in many cases represented by direct descendants of those who made the early history of the church.

Among those was Dana Scudder, who played the part of medical missionary in one of the episodes, a direct descendant of Dr. John Scudder, who in 1819 became the first medical missionary to India. Mr. Scudder himself goes next year as a missionary to the field in which his great-grandfather worked. It is said that the Scudder family, collectively, has given 1,000 years of service to missionary work in India. Many prominent clergymen took part in the pageant.

Dr. Van Raalte and his congregation sailed from Rotterdam, Oct. 2, 1846, in the sailing vessel Southwester, which did not reach New York until Nov. 17. They did not know exactly where they would settle, but favored Wisconsin. By the way of Albany and Buffalo, they finally reached Detroit, Dec. 16. As lake navigation had closed they had to pass the winter there. Dr. Van Raalte did not remain idle, however, but even in mid-winter, explored the wilderness. Finally he chose the site on the shores of Black lake in Ottawa County and his congregation moved there. There also was founded Hope college—the name coming from Dr. Van Raalte's "Anchor of Hope"—which has supplied 90 per cent of the ministers of the Reformed church west of Detroit, as well as a large number of ministers for eastern churches, together with workers in the four missions fields in Asia.

Mrs. Gilmore, who was born on the River Rhine in Arnhem in 1846, of course, does not recall the stormy voyage of seven weeks, but in Hope college is a memento of her voyage to the new land. She was but five months old when they embarked at Rotterdam and she rode in a crib made of narrow iron bars, topped with brass and suspended by chains. That cradle has been preserved. Mrs. Gilmore is the only one of the children now living. Able to read without glasses and her hearing keen, Mrs. Gilmore recalls many incidents of the early days of Michigan. In her girlhood she was sent back east to study in a seminary in New Jersey. She married a missionary. Left a widow at the age of 23, she returned to Holland. Girls has been admitted to Hope college and she was placed in charge of them, there being 15 at first. The number increased rapidly and Mrs. Gilmore was made dean of women, a position she held for more than 20 years.

"My father, whose full name was Albertus Christian Van Raalte, came from a long line of clergymen," said Mrs. Gilmore. "He was educated to be a surgeon, but when he had almost completed the course, suddenly felt the need of religious training. At that time, following the Napoleonic reign, Holland was in the midst of a religious upheaval. Father was thrown into a dungeon for six weeks for not conducting his prayer service in the allotted place. The family, which had been wealthy, was reduced to pawning its jewels at this time to enable father to carry on his religious work and live."—Grand Rapids Herald.

OTTAWA-ALLEGAN COUNCIL
GIVE OUT AWARDS TO THE VARIOUS TROOPS

Coach Fielding H. Yost of the University of Michigan and Adolph (Germany) Schultz, widely known ex-football player and coach, made a big hit with the 350 or more scouts at the first annual grand court of honor for the Ottawa-Allegan council, Boy Scouts of America, in Riverview park here Saturday.

About 350 certificates were awarded scouts for advanced scout rank since Oct. 1. Robert McCracken, member of troop 1, Grand Haven, was awarded an Eagle Scout badge, the highest rank in scout work. Winning troops were awarded pennants.

Five troops were awarded banners for advancement shown by more than 85 per cent of the members. The troops thus recognized were: Troop 1, Grand Haven Presbyterian church; troop 8, Grand Haven Episcopal church; troop 14, Spring Lake; troop 6, First Reformed church, Holland, and ship 18, Holland Sea Scouts.

Troop 7, of the Third Reformed church won pennants for water boiling, pacing and the flag relay. Troop 6, First Reformed church and troop 8, of the Catholic church placed in the fireman's carry.

Attendance pennants were won by troops 6, 7, 8, 9 and 12 of Holland. In the afternoon demonstrations pennants were won by troops 6, 7, 8, 9, 12 and 18 of this city and the new troop of Beechwood school.

Scout Executive Geiger is more than pleased with the showing made and the interest shown by the boys and citizens as well.

"It was a crowning success from the standpoint of advancement, which was the original aim of the event," Scout Executive Geiger said this noon.

One of the hits of the day was the demonstration on Black River by the local sea scouts who staged a race under the direction of Skipper Andrew Hyma and his assistants Charles Vos and Charles Ash.

CHAMPION KNITTER OF OTTAWA COUNTY DIES

Mrs. Alvina Klaver, of Grand Haven, who died during the past week in the Kalamazoo Infirmary, was considered to be the champion knitter in her day, in Ottawa County.

During the World War she became an indefatigable worker, knitting many times, a pair of socks a day. She also taught many of the local women, unaccustomed to knitting, how to make many of the garments that were sent to the boys in the trenches, and no amount of work seemed too much for her. She made over 40 placed quilts. She was also a great lover of flowers and always had many growing plants in her home.

of honor exhibition Saturday was a display of bow and arrow shooting. Edward Caball of troop 21, Zeeland, won unstinted praise from Coach Fielding H. Yost when the University of Michigan football mentor was judging the scout demonstrations.

Caball was demonstrating the art of archery as a stunt put on by the local troop. Yost, walking by, became very much interested, as Scout Caball was locating the bulls-eye time and again.

"Let's see you do the best you can, son," Yost requested.

Scout Caball looked up and said "All right, here goes for you and troop 21," and he placed his three arrows in the bulls-eyes at 100 paces.

Coach Yost was impressed to learn the lad had made his own bow, about six feet long with a pulling pressure of 50 pounds or more. The lad had felled a small osage orange tree, cutting the bow out roughly by machine and finishing by hand, scraping it with glass and rasp.

Troop 21 of Zeeland is planning to revive the old sport of Robin Hood and to form an archery patrol.

Audrey Sova, June Brown, Paul Benson, Ray Lamb and Alvin Potter attended a banquet at Muskegon Friday evening preparatory to the Epworth League institute which will be held at Albion.

Hold Holland Audiences Spellbound

THAT IS WHAT IS EXPECTED IN THE PRESENTATION OF
"PAGEANT OF THE WORD"

Reformed Church History from
Foundation to Present Day
Will be Vividly Featured

By John Mulder,
Hope Senior

The story of the Reformed Church's rise from a twenty member group in a small log cabin in 1628 to an organization of 165,000 communicants and 717 churches in 1928 is the story that will play before the eyes of observers of the "Pageant of the Word," when it is given in front of the grandstand at the Holland Fair grounds, Saturday, June 16 and Tuesday, June 19.

How the ecclesiastical body grew at home — how it established itself on the foreign field — who were the home leaders — who were the missionary pioneers — what were the struggles — and what is its future according to the views of twentieth century prophets are questions which the panorama of three centuries of history will answer for all auditors.

Characters that are known as luminaries of the past will tell the story of their uphill fight from the mouths of local actors. Huge amplifiers will carry their words to every part of the big grandstand so that every listener will have an equal opportunity to hear every phase of this birds-eye view of church history. Colorful costumes will make the scenes appeal to the eye while the players are presenting the facts of the story.

According to actual history it is held that the Reformed Church was really established in 1625 when the first Reformed Church minister, Rev. Jonas Michaelius, came to America. The Church in the Fort was erected in 1632 and the Collegiate Church of New York traces its history directly to this institution.

Among lime-light workers who followed this small beginning, one finds Rev. Theodorus J. Fryinghousen, who initiated agitation which resulted in the establishment of what is now Rutgers College. Dr. John Scudder, the head of a family, which since 1819 has given to the Reformed Missionary service twenty-three of its members, is regarded as one of the pillars in the amount of service rendered in missionary enterprise for the twenty-three Scudder laborers aggregates one thousand years and establishes a record which no family has yet rivaled. Dr. Scudder was personally on the foreign field in India as a medical missionary for a period of thirty-five years. Rev. David Abel, who founded the Reformed mission at Amoy, China, and helped to organize the first efforts of Protestant women in foreign work, adds another touch to the story. Then comes Rev. John Van Nest Talmadge who established the first Reformed Church in the Orient. And, Dr. John Otis who was a heroic leader in medical missionary work and finally died as a martyr when he became the victim of the bubonic plague.

Coming down to the present day, we find Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer as perhaps the most outstanding worker to contribute to present day missionary developments in the Reformed field. Recognized internationally, as the greatest living authority on the Mohammedan religion, Dr. Zwemer is an object of special interest for local audiences in that he was born and raised in this locality. As a graduate of Hope College, he has always returned to his Alma Mater when visiting America on furloughs and always he has presented the broad-minded aspect of world problems which a man of his extensive experience can acquire. Dr. Zwemer, along with Dr. Guido Verbeek, Dr. Albert Oltman and Rev. A. Livingston Warnshuis will be among the stellar characters of the last fifty years of church history. It goes without saying that Holland's founding by Dr. Van Raalte will also find a place in the great spectacle.

In all this Michigan has a role which should stimulate interest in the vast pageantry. And further, Holland is the hub of many of these activities which should induce a still larger number of Hollanders to view the "Pageant of the Word" this week Saturday and next week Tuesday at the Holland Community fairgrounds.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Dean, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago
(©, 1926, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for June 17

THE CRUCIFIXION

LESSON TEXT—Mark 15:14-47.
GOLDEN TEXT—God Commendeth His own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Died for Us.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Christ Died for Our Sins.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Jesus Chose the Cross.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Meaning of the Cross.

1. Jesus Crowned with Thorns (vv. 15-20).

After Pilate had scourged Jesus he delivered Him to be crucified.

1. The crown of thorns (vv. 16, 17).

Knowing that Jesus had been condemned for claiming to be Israel's king they clothed Him with purple and crowned Him with a wreath of thorns. The crown of thorns typified the curse which He bore for man's sin (Gen. 3:17, 18).

2. The salutation (v. 18).

They said, "Hail King of the Jews." This they did in derision.

3. Their mock worship (vv. 19, 20).

They smote Him on the head with a reed, taunted Him and went through a performance of mock worship.

1. Jesus Crucified (vv. 21-41).

1. They led Him away to the place of crucifixion (vv. 21-23).

At first they compelled Him to bear His own cross, but when physical weakness made this impossible, they compelled Simon, the Cyrenian, to bear it for Him. It is beautiful to note that the son of this Cyrenian came to believe on Jesus (cf. Rom. 16:13). In all probability his being compelled to bear the cross was the means of his own salvation.

Christ's face was so marked by the thorns and cruel blows that "there was no form or comeliness" (Isa. 53:2). All this He endured for us. He drank this bitter cup to the dregs, but refused to drink "the wine mingled with myrrh," which would have deadened his pain.

2. Gambling for the clothing of the Lord (vv. 24, 25).

Having nailed Him to the cross they gambled for the seamless robe under the very cross on which He was dying and in their heartless cruelty they sat down to watch Him die (Matt. 27:35).

3. The superscription (v. 26).

It was customary to place over the victim on the cross the name and crime of the offender. Though Pilate did this in mockery to vex the Jews, the title was absolutely true. He was indeed their king.

4. Between two thieves (vv. 27, 28).

This added to His shame. His identification with the two robbers was the fulfillment of the Scripture "and he was numbered with the transgressors" (Isa. 53:12).

5. The dying Savior reviled (vv. 29-32).

This reviling was engaged in by the passersby, the chief priests and the thieves who were crucified with Him. In this nameless agony and shame they taunted Him by bidding Him come down from the cross, derisively saying, "He saved others, Himself. He cannot save." He could not save Himself and others, so He chose to die to save others.

6. Darkness upon the land (v. 33).

This was at noonday. So shocking was this crime that nature threw around the Son of God a shroud to hide Him from the gaze of the godless company.

7. The cry from the cross (vv. 34-36).

When God laid upon Christ, His Beloved Son, the world's sin and turned His face from Him, there went out the awful cry of anguish, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

8. He dismissed His Spirit (v. 37).

When the price of our redemption was fully paid, Jesus dismissed His spirit. No one took His life away from Him. He gave it up.

9. The rent yell (v. 38).

This symbolized the giving up of His life (Heb. 10:20).

10. The Centurion's confession (v. 39).

He said, "Truly this man was the Son of God."

11. The lingering group of women (vv. 40, 41).

They who had lovingly ministered to Him in life were waiting to see where they could bury His precious body.

12. Jesus' burial (vv. 42-47).

Loving hands now took the precious body and laid it in Joseph's new tomb. This man, who did not consent to the foul treatment of the Lord, now risked his reputation and by his action makes a bold confession of the Lord.

A Permanent Home Service and Display for the Home Builders of Holland

HOLLAND is growing—it is one of the most progressive cities in Michigan—it is daily becoming a finer and better place in which to live. This is shown by the appreciation of the artistic and beautiful in the homes which are being built.

Q It is with pardonable pride that the Bolhuis organization points to the part it has taken in encouraging higher standards of civic pride in home building. As Holland's pioneer home building organization, it has always endeavored to establish the highest standards of quality and beauty in homes and on an economical basis.

Q In line with Holland's progressive movement, this organization has now instituted a permanent down-town home show and display room which is to be devoted exclusively to the service of home builders. Here it is possible for you to solve all the problems of home building from the planning and designing to the personal approval of all details, such as choice of hardware, finish, roofing, kitchen and bathroom conveniences, decorative effects, etc.

Q When you are planning to build, this service room will be at your disposal ready to help you plan, furnish estimates, and provide helpful suggestions on every detail.

Q As in the past, this complete organization gives you a pledge of the greatest economy in the construction of any type of building, whether it be a large or small home, summer cottage, garage or even a business building.

Q Come in and let us explain the assurance of quality, money saving and satisfaction which results from our plan. Do not forget to visit us during our formal opening.

Q This down-town office also is conveniently located to serve you in the placing of any small orders for lumber, millwork, hardware or any other home accessories which we will carry in stock for immediate delivery.

Q As an example of the fine character of work which is being turned out in this plant, we suggest that you drop in to see the new Peoples State Bank as soon as it is completed, and see the beautiful interior trim, partitions and furnishings which are being built to order, complete by the Bolhuis organization.

Q This beautiful interior is being made throughout of splendidly colored and matched, figured walnut.

Q If you are particular as to quality, be sure to specify that the interior trim be handled by Bolhuis, as we are glad to furnish this service to any contractor.
