Sixty-Fifth Commencement At Hope College

NINETY SEVEN STUDENTS GRADUATE, DR. SHANNON DELIVERS BACCA-LAUREATE

Graduation Exercises Take Place at Hope Memorial Hall

For the past week there have been commencement exercises at Hope College, the pre-graduating programs being largely of a musical nature interspersed with class and society banquets. The real opening of commencement week occurred last Sunday when Rev. Frederick F. Shannon, of the Central Church, Chicago, delivered the baccalaureate address in Hope's new Memorial Hall where 97 senior graduates and eight Hope High School graduates gathered to listen to this splendid discourse. Only standing room was available in this large new edifice.

Professor W. Curtis Snow on the pipe-organ and the chapel choir rendered music of such wonderful nature that it has seldom been excelled in Michigan.

Incidentally, Rev. Shannon gave as an aside that he had read much and had seen many pictures of Hope's new chapel but that it was a cathedral that one dreams of and that it was far beyond his expectations. He gave President Dimmet a great deal of credit for being instrumental in having this pearl of architecture become a fact.

Mr. Shannon, in delivering his address, took his text from the seventeenth chapter of Samuel giving the story of David and Goliath paralleling this story with life to date. He pointed out how David's brothers and the soldiers belittled David's desire to slay Goliath but blasphemed God. He relates how David went to the brook, selected the smooth stones that laid low this giant Philistine. Mr. Shannon pointed out that there were just such giants to fight today in the false old and the false new. He said, "There is much good in the old, but also bad, and it must be combated with the stones of spiritual understanding."

BANKS IN MICHIGAN

Michigan has been fortunate in its banking experience. During the past 40 years but 24 chartered state banks have failed. In the past nine years there have been but six bank failures.

Rudolph E. Reichert, state banking commissioner, testifying recently before a Congressional committee, said Michigan banks have not been too numerous, a fact that had served as a safeguard. The national average is one bank for 4,554 persons, but in Michigan the ratio is one bank to every 5,371 population.

Doubtless the character of Michigan's population, the natural resources, the diversity of occupations and stability of economic conditions generally have been contributing factors toward the satisfactory banking record.

Without science no PROGRESS.
Without religion no CONSOLATION.

Religion is a great mountain, and compared with it science is as a tiny pebble at the base of a mountain.

Science is of TODAY, helping with our problems and struggles here.

Religion is of ALL TIME. The faith that it inspires alone makes life endurable, and death bearable. Happiest are they that work in the useful, fertile field of science, without losing faith in a power and justice far above man's feeble understanding.

Power, More of It
Leisure and Money
Some Gangster, Napoleon
Welcome to Brazil

Important to the human race are physical power and mental power. Mental power has stood still for about two thousand years. Physical power is constantly increasing.

A German has found a way to increase the power of engines, gasoline, Diesel or steam, from 20 to 60 per cent, his new kind of turbine using the power of exhaust gases.

Lufthansa, great German air company, has ordered a Diesel engine built on the new plan for airplane experiments. Fuel oil will be used. Germany leads the world in mechanical invention and in chemistry.

Professor Claude, one of the world's most distinguished physicists, informs the French Academy of Science that he is making progress in his effort to utilize power from the ocean.

A small fraction of the tides powers would make all other power unnecessary. The tides, once harnessed, would run our machinery as long as the sun and moon combined to raise and drop the waters of the ocean.

Professor Claude's experiments use the warm water at the surface of the tropical seas to operate a turbine, the water being converted to steam by means of a vacuum. Cold water from the depths of the sea is used to recondense the steam and renew the vacuum.

It is complicated for the nonscientific mind, but if there is "an inexhaustible store of power in tropical sea water," that certainly will make a great difference to enormous populations living near the equator in comparative idleness.

The death of Sir Henry Segrave, brilliant, courageous Englishman, will be regretted everywhere.

He had developed new speeds in motorboats and automobiles, and was killed when a boat in which he was going 100 miles an hour turned over and sank.

Mr. Nelson Rockefeller, grandson of John D. Rockefeller, writes on "The Use of Leisure," in the Dartmouth alumni magazine. The article is well written, serious.

In time the young man's problem will be "the use of money." His father and grandfather do not live extravagantly. They give away a great deal, but compound interest is more powerful than their giving. With any sort of management the third generation of Rockefellers should have at least five billions of dollars. A large sum to use satisfactorily.

Napoleon said his government could not last if he allowed liberty to the press.

Chicago gangsters seem to have heard about that. A gangster bullet in the back of the head killed Alfred Lingie, Chicago Tribune reporter.

Lingie, it seems, knew more about gang criminals than a reporter ought to know, according to gang standards.

Chicago takes seriously this latest killing. But conviction is improbable.

The killer, probably, was some youth in his teens, fortified with cocaine. Paid for the job, he did not know the name of the man he killed, perhaps doesn't know it yet. It is hard for detectives to work in the absence of any motive.

President-Elect Julio Prestes de Albuquerque of Brazil, coming to visit us, will be welcome everywhere. As head of Brazil's government, he represents a gigantic empire, magnificently typical of wealth and greatness in America.

Larger than the United States, with one water power much more powerful than Niagara, a soil of fertility indescribable, diamond mines whose blue-white products surpass all others, and most important, an intelligent, patriotic, hard-working people, our guest from Brazil speaks for a nation whose friendship this country may be proud.

Wall Street continues to worry small fish, and reflect the actions of bigger men.

Little ones worry, and sell. Bigger ones, that have been turning out stocks, tens of millions of shares at a time, do not want any "violence," so they let the market slide down a little while, then steady it.

Thus you may see a tender father gently catch his little child as it jumps from a height.

But one of these days the child may be seriously bumped.

New York city clinics announce "free plastic surgery." If you don't like your face the city will change it for you if you have a good reason.

No beauty parlor business will be done, no face lifting to hide the wrinkles.

The idea is to improve faces that interfere with securing employment. Deformed noses, "candleflower" ears, torn lips, caved-in cheek bones that make faces repulsive, will be attended to.

Grover Alexander, famous baseball pitcher, is "unconditionally released" by the Philadelphia National league club. It means that his day is done.

Such is fate, when you acquire it with arms, legs, physical strength. You are old and passed by after nineteen years of work.

The Misses Gertrude Brower and Berdina Poppema entertained with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ada Borgman. Games were played after which a dainty two-course luncheon was served. The bride-to-be received a number of beautiful gifts. Those present were Edith Arnold, Alice Van Dyke, Mrs. C. Brower, Mrs. C. Timmer, Mrs. A. Bovee, Evelyn Woodruff, Gertrude Verecke, Mrs. L. DR. E. D. DIMMENT SENDS IN HIS RESIGNATION AS PRESIDENT OF HOPE Determination of Dr. Edward D. Dimment to resign as president of Hope college was announced Wednesday at the annual alumni convocation in Winant's chapel.

Acceptance of the resignation has been withheld by the board in the hope of prevailing upon Dr. Dimment to reconsider.

Dr. Dimment has served as president of the institution since 1918, when he succeeded Rev. Ame Venema. He had been connected with the college faculty for 20 years previously.

Board members stated to today that they refused to accept Dimment's resignation and hopes to persuade him to reconsider. Dimment advanced several reasons for his resignation, chiefly claiming he had served long enough.

HEINZ FOOD EXHIBIT AT LA HUIS, ZEELAND

Zeeland Record—There is a massive exhibit of canned food, products of our own community and state, that is attracting favorable attention this spring. They represent the much desired "cash" crop essential to present day agricultural production.

In the La Huis Co. store the H. J. Heinz Co. has built a towering pyramid of canned foods of over a thousand containers, mainly beans, which have become a very important crop on Michigan farms. Then there are the famous pickles, vinegars and dressings, made in one of the company's largest factories in our neighboring city of Holland, to which the hundreds of so-called receiving and shipping stations located there and in hundreds of other small towns ship their summer accumulations, grown by community farmers under contract.

The Saugatuck Masonic Lodge No. 328 will give a Masonic outing for the Masons of Western Michigan and their families all day Saturday, June 21, at Saugatuck.

"The world can have too many 'go-getters,' seekers of power and pursuers of pleasure," the minister said.

During her high school years she has been a member of the Alpha Chi Literary Society and of the Blue Triangle Club. During her senior year she took part in the council play and the annual senior play. Graduating exercises for the class of 1930 at Grand Haven were held at the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. where Dr. Frederick F. Shannon, pastor of Central Church, Chicago, delivered the commencement address. So great has been the interest in this well known speaker that every seat in the auditorium was taken. Dr. Shannon, a forceful speaker, is pastor of one of the country's greatest churches and the opportunity to hear a man of his distinction is one of moment to a community.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Grand Haven will be the hub of Western Michigan on July 4 with a celebration which will exceed anything ever presented here before.

Divorce Matters Held Over By General Synod

CHRISTIAN REFORMED CONCLAVE DISCUSSES THE QUESTION OF HYMN BOOKS

The Christian Reformed Church Synod is still in session at Grand Rapids and is attended by several delegates from Holland.

A short resume of the week's activities indicates that there is a strong protest with the method of changing the calendar is being proposed, in fact a resolution was passed that reads as follows:

"We are not opposed to calendar changes as such; provided such changes preserve the ancient and divine arrangement of the fixed days of the week. The weekly cycle ordained by God Himself in the beginning of time, according to the Word of God, should not be altered."

Proposals to open a mission field in Nigeria, British Africa, were referred to a committee which will report to the synod in 1932.

A committee named to provide funds for the proposed $10,000 hospital at Rehoboth, N. M., the principal part of the program, includes J. Hekman, G. Daane, Rev. J. Dolfin, Dr. G. Broodman and H. Holtvluwer.

The synod voted to include in its Indian missionary program the erection of a mission post, with a home for a camp worker at Beautiful Mountain, a chapel at Toadlena, a mission at Canyon City and a number of field chapels in which to hold religious services.

After prolonged debate over the grounds upon which its committee urges the introduction of hymns into its public worship, the 1930 synod of the Christian Reformed church in America returned the report of its standing committee on the hymn question, together with suggestions for revision, at yesterday afternoon's session at Calvin college.

The synod also elected a board of missions, voted that a new and larger home for the doctor in charge of the hospital building project, approved the purchase of property at Zuni, N. M., for $3,500 to augment the mission plant there, voted to elevate the status of Fort Wingate to that of mission post, and to erect a chapel and missionary home there, and adopted a resolution vesting discretionary power to open a third mission post in China in the board of missions.

Progress of missionary work in the Indian, foreign, Jewish and South American fields are outlined in the report of the directors of missions on behalf of the board, which was read to the synod by Rev. Henry Beets, Grand Rapids, stated clerk. Special reports on general home missions, the Nathaniel institute, the Paterson Hebrew mission, the Hoboken Seamen's home and other phases of denominational mission activity were also placed before the session.

Those named to the board of missions, by classes, are: Classis California—Rev. Groen, Rev. J. De Jong, alt.; Grand Rapids East—Rev. J. L. Heeres, Rev. M. Monmsa alt.; Grand Rapids West—Rev. H. J. Muller, Rev. G. Hofmeyer, alt.; Hackensack—Rev. J. Beebe, Rev. D. De Beer, alt.; Holland—Rev. D. Zwier, Rev. L. Van Laar, alt.; Hudson—Rev. W. Kuipers, Rev. R. Bolt, alt.; Illinois—Rev. J. H. Monmsa, Rev. C. Huisen, alt.; Muskegon—Rev. J. Dolfin, Rev. L. J. Lamberts, alt.; Orange City—Rev. J. Pauw, Rev. G. Andree, alt.; Rev. A. D. Folkema, alt.; Pacific—Ostfriesland—Rev. H. G. Bode, Rev. D. H. Muyskens, Rev. J. Mulder, alt.; Pella—Rev. I. Van Delen, Rev. W. D. Vanderwerf, alt.; Sioux Center—Rev. J. C. De Bruyn, Rev. J. Rubingh, alt.; Wisconsin—Rev. J. O. Vos, Rev. H. Ahuis, alt.; Zeeland—Rev. G. J. Vande Riet, Rev. William Van Peursem, alt.

Discussion which resulted in the shelving for at least two years of recommendation whose adoption it was feared would have eliminated the restriction of the Christian Reformed church against divorce without distinguishing between the guilt or innocence of the parties involved, occupied the major part of 1930 synod of the denomination yesterday at Calvin college.

Among the other topics considered was the danger of an infiltration of the doctrines of modernism into the course of study of the Christian Reformed Sunday School.

After prolonged debate at both morning and afternoon sessions, the entire question of divorce was recommitted to the standing committee, whose report had been submitted, with recommendations, through the report of the special advisory committee on matters of church order, which added recommendations of its own, although it has been deadlocked since appointment over the question of admitting to church membership, after confession of sin and expression of repentance, divorced persons who had again married.

Rev. Kuiper declared the increasing tendency toward divorce, and expressed a fear that a softening of the restrictions of the church would serve to encourage the evil among its adherents. He declared that the question was not one of the innocence or guilt of the parties concerned, but of whether the divorced couple are, in the sight of God, man and wife.

Prof. W. Heyns supported Rev. Kuiper's argument.

An overture of classis California regarding the admission into the church of persons confessed to having committed adultery before marriage was disposed of when synod ruled that the matter be left to the discretion of the local church itself.

In connection with the divorce question, the synod refused the overture of classis Pella for an extension of the grounds for divorce recognized by the church to include malicious desertion. The synod also declined to receive an overture from Englewood Second church, asking that the church change its stand on the affiliation of its members with labor unions.

H. J. Kuiper was named editor-in-chief of the Banner and H. Keegstra of De Wachter. Rev. J. Steigenga of Grand Rapids was named as a new member to the board of publications, replacing P. A. Hoekstra of Chicago, and Rev. H. Baker, M. Hoffius and J. B. Hulst were reappointed.

Synod voted favorably on the report of the publications committee that the committee take direct care of editing and publication of the yearbook after having come to an agreement with the present editors. This plan will give the yearbook official standing, was the chief contention.

One of the sad features of the synod was the killing of Rev. Abel J. Brink, age 64, of Lynden, Wash., who was a delegate. Mr. Brink was run-down by an automobile driven by Mrs. Lloyd Passmore of Grand Rapids. Another automobile also collided and in the mix-up Mr. Brink was knocked down and his skull was fractured. He died 45 minutes afterwards at St. Mary's hospital.

Among the delegates from Holland are Prof. Heyns and Abraham Peters.

The piano recital given by the pupils of Clarence Dykema at the Woman's Literary club rooms Tuesday evening was well comprised. The musical numbers comprised two parts: American composers and famous composers. A comical dialogue was given by John Rosjone and John Wessenaar. Miss Agnes Dogger rendered a very appropriate reading entitled "What the Fiddle Told."

HUNTING IS BANNED IN GAME PRESERVES

Michigan is guarding against extinction of its game by a system of 13 refuges and the production of birds from the state game farm at Mason. The refuges vary in extent from 3,000 to 25,000 acres and hunting in them is prohibited. Each refuge, however, is surrounded by a state-owned public hunting ground where hunters may profit from the surplus of game in the sanctuaries. As a result of the system, deer were more plentiful last year than in any season for more than a decade. Additional refuges are being established annually.

—but a lot of regular husbands have realized it's inviting flu and pneumonia to dash out of a hot kitchen to empty garbage in freezing weather.

So they've had us install Incinor, the Home Incinerator, in the basement to dispose of wet garbage, rubbish, paper, etc., with gas—"the decent way." Pressing a button automatically reduces bushels of refuse to a handful of sterile ash—without embers, soot or malodors.

Incinor protects your home from fire hazard of combustible rubbish accumulation, prevents vermin and protects health. Easily installed as a gas range; nothing "built in."

Give your wife this modern convenience. See Incinor in operation at our office, or write for free booklet "The Decent Way."

County Begins To Think About Sept. Primary

Petitions Are Being Circulated For Various Officers; Sheriff To Run Again

Grand Haven Tribune:—Political murmurings in county circles are beginning to stir interest in the general Republican primary election to be held Sept. 9. Already a number of petitions are being circulated for county officers and others are daily announcing their candidacy.

The race for sheriff has simmered itself down to two: Cornelius Steketee, present sheriff, and Frank Van Etta of Holland, night officer of the Holland police force. Ben Rosema of Ferrysburg, who has been strongly mentioned for the job, stated definitely today that he would not be a candidate, although he anticipates making a run in two years.

Archie E. VanderWall, another aspirant for the office, recently made a statement declaring he would not run against Steketee as his first term deserved another, but that he will be a candidate in two years. Undersheriff Marvin DenHerder also announced he will be a candidate in two years, but will give his undivided support to Mr. Steketee at this primary.

Petitions are being circulated for Clarence A. Lokker, prosecuting attorney. It is reported he will have opposition with John Dethmers, justice of the peace, and an attorney from Zeeland, and Carl Hoffman, attorney from Holland.

It is strongly rumored that J. C. Lehman will be a candidate for county treasurer again. The present county treasurer, Mr. Den Herder, will run again, although his petition will not be out until next week.

It has been stated on pretty good authority that George C. Borek will be a candidate for county drain commissioner. Henry Sierma, present holder, who has been considering leaving the field to others, has not made any definite statement concerning his intentions.

William Wilds, county clerk and Frank Bottie, register of deeds, seem to be the only candidates for their respective office. The judge of probate is being elected this year. His term extends four years.

Mrs. L. N. Ederle was called to Duluth, Minn., to attend the funeral services of her brother, Mr. John Kooker.

Mrs. Henry Van Kampen, Sr., is spending several weeks in Colorado Springs, Colorado, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Champion and daughter Eula have left for Cherokee, Iowa, where they will visit Mr. Champion's father, who is suffering from a severe stroke.

Rue Burch and family have moved to Wisconsin to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson drove to East Lansing Thursday to bring home their daughter Wilona, who is a student at Michigan State College.

The Ladies' Auxiliary 1594 will hold a regular meeting in the Eagle hall tonight, Friday. All members are urged to be present.

A petition for John H. Den Herder as Republican candidate for county treasurer at the September primary election is being circulated. Mr. Den Herder was formerly a Holland citizen.

Water Bug Is Enemy of Game Fish

Common Electric Light Insects Often Prey Upon Fish, Generally During the Spawning Season.

Fish have enemies and one of the worst is the giant water bug, called by some electric light bug because the adults seem to be attracted to bright lights.

This peculiar type is capable of living both in and out of the water, which is the reason for its appearance in many pools in a small neighborhood.

The species is the Zaitia and belongs to the family Belostomatidae, says Nature Magazine. It is over an inch long, of a dark brown color, oval shape, and has two rather broad hind legs, a sharp short beak, and two clasping front legs. Concealing itself in the mud at the bottom of the pool, it awaits the unsuspecting fish. With great swiftness, it darts out and attacks its prey by clamping its sharp forelegs around the fish, sucking the blood from its neck. The Zaitia does most of its damage during the season when the fish are spawning.

One of the most interesting habits of this bug is the manner in which the eggs are cared for. The female lays her eggs on the back of the male, fastening them with a layer of waterproof glue—much to the displeasure of the prospective parent. Often, this duty of nursemaid so irritates the male bug that he hides himself for days, until the eggs hatch.

BEAVER COLONY IS FADING—MEN ARRESTED

Last year a colony of beaver migrated down the Muskegon river and into the Little Muskegon river where they established themselves. They built a dam and erected a permanent home.

The colony attracted considerable attention and the people in the vicinity hoped that the colony would grow. Then came reports that the number of animals were diminishing.

Allen Wilkinson, district conservation officer, and Don Irish, local officer, went to McBride to investigate the situation. As a result of their inquiries, they arrested Claud Alverson and Ira Mutchler on charges of trapping beaver during the closed season.

Alverson and Mutchler were convicted and sentenced to pay fines of $100 each and costs.

Largest Fixed Star

The Naval observatory says that Alpha Scorpii (Antares) is the largest fixed star of which we have reasonably accurate measurements. Its diameter is about 400,000,000 miles. In volume it is 100,000,000 times as large as the sun and 125,000,000,000,000 times as large as the earth. Its distance is probably 35 light years. This distance is 20,000,000 times as great as that of the sun from the earth.

CUT DOWN TREE SANS STATE PERMIT, TWO PAY NOMINAL FINE

Sinclair Boyd and Leslie Spooner, telephone company employees, charged with cutting down a tree in Allegan county, May 28, without a permit from the state highway department, were assessed a nominal fine of $1 and costs each in Justice Fidus E. Fish's court Tuesday.

The condition of the tree, it was shown, was such that it should have been removed, part having been blown down in a storm, and the rest was decayed. Through an oversight a permit for removing the tree had not been requested.

ONE OF JUNE'S SOCIAL FUNCTIONS WAS THE HARDIE-BURGGRAFF NUP-TIALS

An outstanding social feature occurred on the afternoon of Tuesday when Miss Ruth Hardie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hardie, 147 West Eleventh street, was wed to Henry Burggraaf, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Burggraaf of Lodi, New Jersey.

It is rather a coincidence that two brothers, Rev. Winfield Burggraaf of the First Reformed church of Milwaukee, Wis., and Rev. James Burggraaf of the Second Reformed church of Kalamazoo were called upon to jointly perform the wedding ceremony.

The marriage took place before the open fire place where an improvised altar was made, banked with palms, ferns, and pink and white peonies.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Louisa Rogers of Clare, Michigan, impressively rendered, "Because" by Guy D'Hardlog, followed by "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Miss Grace Duhrkoff ably accompanied Miss Rogers at the piano.

As the wedding ceremony took place the bride appeared looking lovely gowned in blue georgette and carrying a shower bouquet of roses, sweet peas, delphinium, and swansonias. Miss Genevieve Tosier, maid-of-honor, was becomingly gowned in apricot georgette and carried a colonial bouquet of the same flowers. Nicholas Burggraaf, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen.

The groom in conventional black awaited the bride and while the strains from Lohengrin's wedding march added to the impressiveness of the occasion, the happy couple proceeded to the altar. Miss Grace Duhrkoff in this instance ably presided at the piano.

Rather an interesting and unique feature at this marriage was the fact that in the ring service Mr. Hardie had fashioned a ring from part of the wedding ring which was used when the parents of the bride were married thirty years before.

After the marriage an elaborate luncheon was served by Miss Mae Hadden and Miss Thelma and Grace Duhrkoff.

During the evening Dr. and Mrs. Milton J. Cook, uncle and aunt of the bride, were master and mistress of ceremonies.

The newlyweds are now on a short wedding trip but later expect to tour the East, visiting Washington, D. C., Boston, New York, and will include a visit to the groom's parents at Lodi, New Jersey.

The bride is a popular young lady, a graduate of Holland High school and of Hope college, and also studied at the University of Michigan. She was instructor in French and English in the Clare High School for four years.

Mr. Burggraaf is a graduate of Hope college, a member of the Pi Kappa Delta Society of forensics, and a graduate of Western Theological Seminary.

It is rather interesting to note that the groom comes from a family of ministers. The father and two brothers are prominent divines and he, too, is starting on his ministerial career.

Out-of-town guests were Rev. Winfield Burggraaf of Milwaukee, Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Burggraaf of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Fred S. Lamb, Morris Lamb, and Mr. and Mrs. James Olssen of Cadillac, Miss Amy Boone of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. James Burggraaf, Mr. and Mrs. George Van Wesep, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Van Oostenburg of Grand Rapids, Miss Genevieve Tosier and Robert Allan of Traverse City, Miss Louisa Rogers of Clare and Miss Leona Sikes of Allegan.

HOSTS OF ART STUDENTS GO TO SAUGATUCK BECAUSE OF ARTISTIC BEAUTY

Copying nature's handiwork has proved to be an art, especially if the subject happens to be the picturesque landscapes of Saugatuck, one of Michigan's leading summer resorts.

Because of the great scenic beauty of this summer resort town, situated on Lake Michigan in the heart of the famous Michigan fruit belt, a summer school of painting is maintained here and artists come from all parts of the country to sketch, and, with brush and paint, to put on canvas the wonderful landscape views.

Each fall there is a special exhibition at the Chicago Art Institute of a collection of the best of the Saugatuck paintings. From Mount Baldhead, one of the highest points in this section, one can look off for miles on winding rivers, beautiful forests, deep ravines and the blue expanse of Lake Michigan.

A Six Weeks' Tour Over Land and Sea

DR. BROWER TELLS OF HIS TRIP IN THE WEST INDIES AND CARRIBBEAN SEA

Permission was granted us to visit one of the largest and best tobacco factories. Here while the employees manufacture the cigars for which Havana is justly famous, an individual lightens the monotony of their labors by reading aloud some popular work or newspaper to them, give radio entertainments; and other ways to drive dull care away. Tobacco in its various forms is handled more than one hundred times, each operation distinct, before it is boxed and shipped abroad. All the workers are highly specialized, many of them passing their art down to their children and grandchildren. We were told that the leaf and makings of that choice Havana cigar people enjoy so much, were cured in special rooms for several months or a year. All packing boxes must be of a certain kind of Spanish cedar, and more curing follows in the humid rooms of the big American importers of genuine Havana made cigars. I'll admit it was very interesting to see, but since I do not use tobacco in any form, I was glad to finally get out of there. We were told that tobacco seemed to be dependent for its quality largely on some peculiar chemical characteristic of the soil, hence it is that production is localized, certain sections being given over entirely to tobacco and yielding a product many times more valuable than that grown only a few miles distant. These patches or small fields are known as "vegas" and the men who tend them as "vegeros."

Historic Morro Castle, whose venerable fortifications command the narrow entrance to the harbor, is very interesting to the visitor. It was erected between the years 1589 and 1597. Partly hewn out of the rock and partly constructed of solid blocks of stone, giving it an irregular appearance.

Its tall lighthouse, which we climbed to the very top repaid us for all the trouble we went to visit Cuba. Much entertainment we enjoyed seeing the ladies running away from lizards, for the Castle was swarmed with thousands of them. The chief point of interest was the Laurel Ditch, where many Cubans were shot by the Spanish soldiers during the revolution. For a distance of 85 feet along the wall the marks of the bullets can distinctly be traced.

A bronze tablet, set in, commemorates this appalling sacrifice of life. We were told men were lined up against the wall blindfolded and then every second one was shot, the remaining ones were replaced until their turn came, just to torture them. Another place tells us the marked spot where the angels came to take their souls. We saw the dungeons and tunnels leading down where men were chained by their necks to the stone walls and water let in so one could see the others drown. Those at the bottom first, and so on up as the water rose. I went in small niches in walls where four men were cramped in for two days, just for torture, and if not dead by that time then further punishment was meted out. I nearly filled one such space, and two of my size is all that could possibly get in. Saw the chutes where the dead or near dead were slid into the sea as a hark food. Oh, the horror of those days! I can remember how horrified I felt when I saw the places and devices of torture in the London Towers in England. In my hands I held the executioner's axe of the sixteenth century, laying on the execution block used at the beheading of Simon Lord Lovat on Tower Hill April 9, 1747, and Lady Jane Grey in 1553 and her husband.

In 's-Gravenhage (The Hague), Netherlands, I visited the Gevangenpoort (penitentiary) and saw the gruwelkamer (torture room) where Johann De Witt was finally put to death in the "Pynkelder De Duip" where one's head would be shaved and water allowed to drop on it until death, one of the most horrible deaths imaginable. Yes, Morro Castle has its terrible, horrible memories, almost inconceivable for man to perpetrate unless the demon of malice and revenge is soaked clean through.

Finally, Havana is beautifully described by Ethel Fleming as follows: "Stern Morro Castle frowns in its defeat; The laughing crowd upon Obispo street, Where shawls, like bright, exotic flowers unfold, And rare, strange treasures may be bought for gold. The Prado, holding carnival each day, Gay as the heart of bubbling youth is gay. The very spray upon Malecon Drive,

SHUFFLEBOARD IS NEW GAME FOR ALLEGAN

Florida's most popular sport has invaded Allegan. Its name is Shuffleboard. Emil Schmitz is the first to construct a set at his home. It is made of cement similar to a tennis court. Two triangles blocked off are painted on the cement and four players attempt to shove discs into certain squares opposite them. The opponents attempt to keep them from succeeding and to score themselves. Shuffleboard is said to be very fascinating and it is expected within a short time several sets will be found in Allegan.

HAY WAGON RUNS OVER BOY, THREE, NEAR FENNVILLE

Donald Kluck, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kluck, living three miles west of Fennville on a farm, was injured dangerously Friday noon when a wagon loaded with hay and driven by his father ran over him. The little boy had been left playing under a tree and evidently wandered away, his father not noticing him. He suffered internal injuries and severe lacerations and bruises of the face. The physician who is treating him said the boy might recover.

RESTOCKING PONDS AT NEW GRONINGEN

Work has been started in restocking the ponds of the Holland Fish and Game club on M21 at New Groningen. Experiments will be made with golden shiners.

So youthfully, so agelessly alive! Tinkle of glasses in a street cafe. Grim Morrow Castle broods on yesterday.

The roar of canon and the battle cry. The eager youths who rose to fight and die.

La Fuerza, where frail Dona Isabel Waited, loving not wisely but too well.

And the Cathedral, where the crumbling bones Of Christopher Columbus blessed the stones. Stark Morro Castle broods . . . Havana dreams and smiles. City of joys, of witchery and wiles.

Sweet as the reckless heart of youth is sweet, Eternal as the waters at her feet!" Having seen so much of the interior of similar islands I contented myself with Havana and near around it. Havana is really Cuba, the way I look at it. (Bahama Islands next)

FROST RAISES HAVOC WITH HUCKLEBERRY

Late May frost raised havoc with not only the agricultural crops of counties north of Grand Rapids, but as well with wild growth. The huckleberry crop in much of Newaygo and Lake counties has been destroyed.

Even the leaves on the lower branches of the oaks were blasted by bitter cold, and in many parts of the two counties the trees are as barren of foliage as in early May.

WIND INJURES MINT, ONIONS AT FENNVILLE

One of the most destructive winds ever to visit Fennville and vicinity Saturday and Sunday damaged the mint and onion crops. In some of the fields the onion bulbs are attached to the ground by only one root, which means acres of this crop will be a total loss. Rains which followed the wind were of great benefit to the strawberry crop.

CASTLE PARK OPENS; HAS BETTER FIRE PROTECTION

Castle Park, the picturesque summer resort about two miles south of Macatawa Park, has opened for the season, with Carter P. Brown as manager. Brown purchased the property several years ago from John H. Parr. The new management and summer home owner have done much to beautify it not only but the fire protection has not been forgotten. More mains and hydrants as well as equipment is now available and Holland's fire department will also be better able now to cope with any blaze that might break out at this resort.

Anglers Await Start of Bass Season Here

ALL INLAND LAKES WILL BE OPEN JUNE 25, 10 DAYS LATER THAN LAST YEAR

Michigan's bass fishermen are preparing for the opening of the season on their favorite fish.

June 25, when all inland lakes will be open to fishing, the season will open on all bass, bluegills, and sunfish. The size limit for black bass is not less than 10 inches and for calico, rock, strawberry and white bass, not less than seven inches.

The day's catch limit for black bass is five, and 25 in a day as an aggregate of all other kinds of bass, bluegills, sunfish and perch.

"The bass season is opening 10 days later this year than in 1929," Fred A. Western, head of the fish division of the Department of Conservation said, "but we do not anticipate violations through ignorance of the new regulations."

"The later season will more nearly assure anglers they are not catching bass during their spawning season. The 10 days later season will undoubtedly mean an increase in the number of bass in our lakes because of the increased protection given spawning fish."

He was a member of a deputation appointed by general synod to visit the mission stations supported by the board of foreign missions in the Reformed Church in America.

COMING TO HOLLAND. PRIVATE CAR AND BATH FOR SIXTY-TON ACTOR TO TRAVEL

In his private car, Leviathan, who is at once 18 1/3 railroad passengers and the world's greatest actor, is touring the country.

What! You have never heard of Leviathan? Astonishing! He is a native son of California. What's more he weighs 60 tons and is so temperamental that he will not travel without his private bath. In fact, he will travel only in his private bathtub, in a specially prepared solution. He came from the California coast and made his debut recently in Los Angeles. So enthusiastically did the public respond to his performance that his manager, H. W. Fowler, determined to take him on a national tour and Holland is on the list of cities visited.

He had to have his private car the commission ruled. He had to travel in his own private bath. Well, all told, Leviathan was as much as 18 1/3 passengers and his manager would have to pay for him on that basis, it was decided. And how was he to be classified? A carload of what?

Leviathan will be on exhibition at Pere Marquette tracks, River avenue and Fifth street, beginning Friday, June 20. He will receive the public from 9 a.m. until 10 p.m.

Oswald Visscher and children of Evanston, Ill., spent the week-end at the home of Arthur Visscher on Pine Creek Bay road.

FUTURE EDUCATION

Q The picture above represents what is considered by many the most celebrated institution of learning on earth. This is Oxford College, Eng'and, and it is rather interesting to know that the tower of Hope's New Memorial Chapel to some extent was patterned after Magdalene tower adorning the principal building on Oxford campus.

Q It is not likely that many of our children will go to Oxford to study since we have such wonderful educational institutions in America and one right here in Holland. However it matters not whether your sons or daughters are to receive their advance education at Oxford, Michigan, Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Hope or any other institution—it takes money to put them through.

Q This is graduation week through-out the nation. In Holland this week is especially crowded with school and college commencement doings and diploma giving.

Q Give the education of your children your most earnest consideration. Start a modest savings account for your youngsters while they are still very young. By doing so the financing of their college education will not be burdensome when the time comes to send them to the higher institutions of learning.

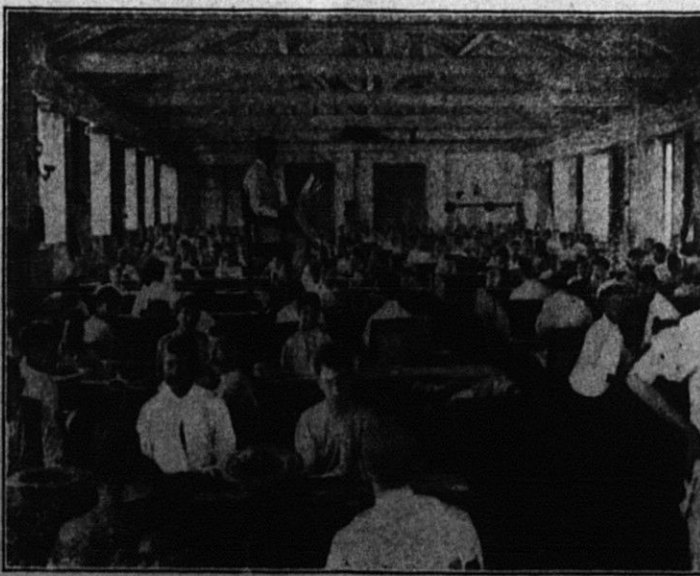

Q Graduation week is indeed an auspicious occasion to lay this educational foundation.

HOLLAND PUBLIC SCHOOLS ARE MODELS TO FOLLOW

TOTAL SCHOOL ENROLLMENT IS OVER 3000—HOLLAND HAS EIGHT PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Student Form of Government Was First Introduced Seventeen Years Ago

Holland, Michigan, is known the country over as a city with an ideal public school system and frequently delegations from and beyond Michigan have come to Holland to see the workings of our educational methods and to take lessons therefrom.

The citizens of Holland, although a thrifty people, economical in public as well as in private financial matters, have always stood loyally back of any proposed project for a new school, better equipment and a more efficient teaching staff. Never has Holland been known to vote down a proposal for a new school building, not even when a project involved the expenditure of nearly a quarter of a million dollars. Holland folks believe in education and do not scrimp to give their children the very best that can be secured.

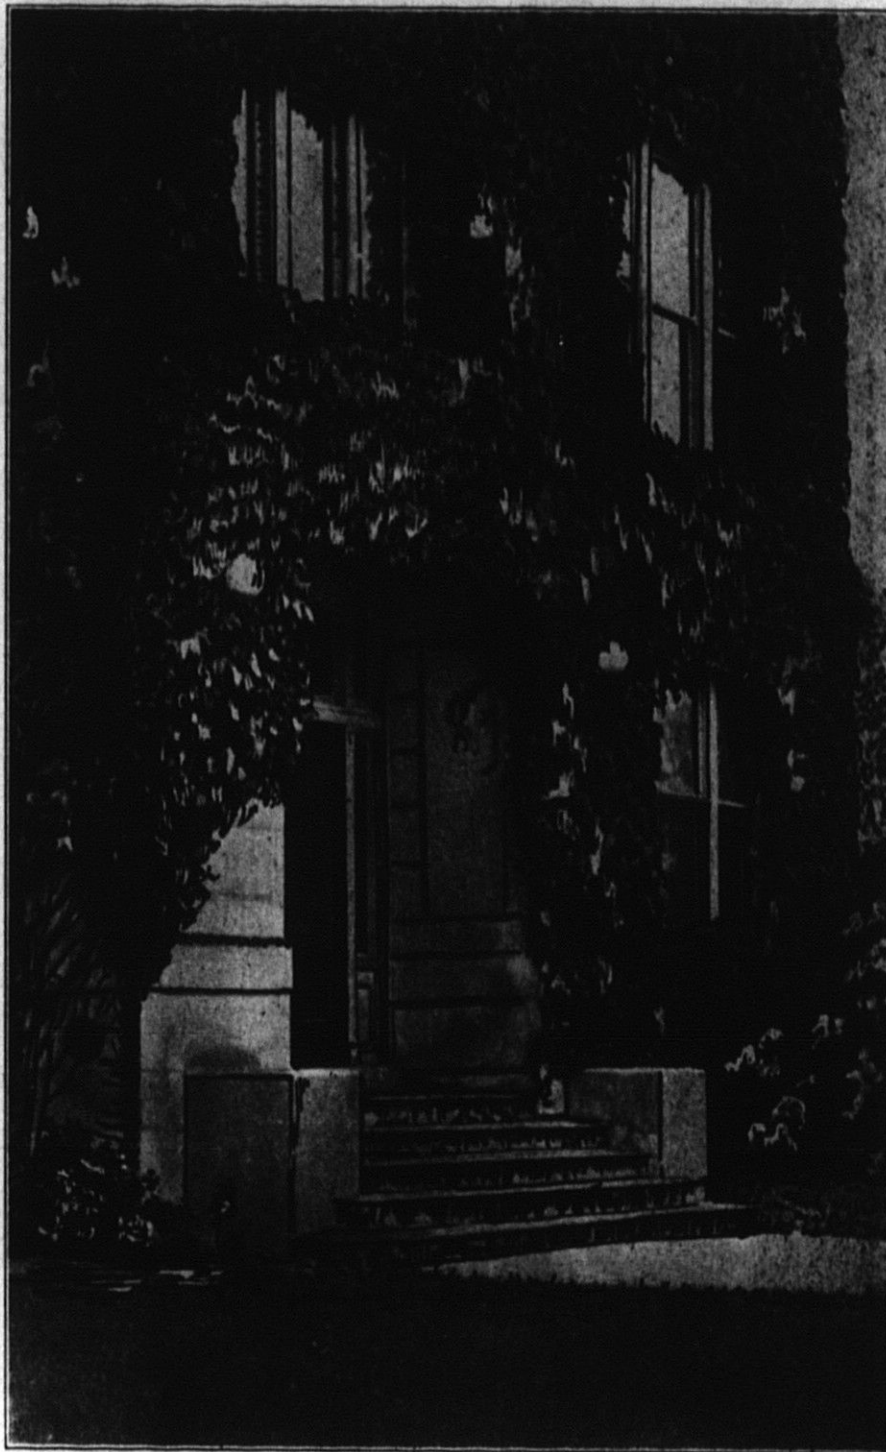

Mr. E. E. Fell is now serving his twentieth year as superintendent of public schools. The general supervision of a body of young folks totalling 3019, Holland school studentry, is a tremendous responsibility in itself. However this is only one of many things that comes under the supervision of the superintendent.

Holland's growth and its educational development came largely during the score of years that Mr. Fell has been with us. This development meant more buildings, more teachers and more and better equipment and he, together with the different building committees backed by an able Board of Education, saw these building projects thru.

Project number one was the building of Holland High school in 1914. The second was a still more pretentious building program, the erection of Junior High in 1924. Third, the building of Washington school in 1926. Besides these new projects practically every grade school has been remodeled and enlarged during these 20 years. A school for crippled children as well as an open-air school has been established.

A student form of government was inaugurated in 1912—a system for which Holland has been given credit thru the columns of national magazines. Space forbids to enumerate the labyrinth of detail, the constant changing for better methods wrought with more planning and naturally more worry.

A project now in the offing is the building of a stadium. This proposal has received some setbacks because of location, financial stress and a few other obstacles. However a start has been made. There has already been considerable planning and you may be sure that when the auspicious occasion arises this arena for sports will become a reality.

Of course Mr. Fell has had the fullest cooperation of everyone. Fundamentally he has had the good will of the citizens of Holland. He was backed by a very able Board of Trustees. Principal John Riemersma, who has been connected with the school for 12 years, has been a wonderful aid, in fact the entire faculty has stood rock-ribbed with one aim—to make Holland's school system one that is looked up to and one that others pattern after. Thus collectively they have been successful beyond all expectations. Principal John Riemersma of Holland High and Principal Minnie K. Smith of Junior High have been able executives. They are loved and respected by the studentry of our public schools. This could be said of the entire teaching staff, although space forbids naming them all. Their work has been reflected in oratory, music, athletics, journalism, commercial work, languages, or any subject we might mention found in the high school curriculum.

Mr. Riemersma is an organizer. He presides at assemblies and goes right into the spirit of school activities whether this be in school work, social function or sports. You can always bank that "Jock" is found somewhere on the side-lines.

Many fine things could be said of Eugene Heeter, our band master; "Bud" Hinga, our coach; Moody, our physical director—of Miss Anthony, Miss Rogers and not forgetting Miss Anna Dehn who is the real Dean of our schools. They are wonderful folks and deserve a full meed of credit in the building up of our school system.

Holland's schools are educating 3019 pupils. Of this number the high school has 602, junior high 690. Holland has five grade schools, namely Froebel (two buildings), Lincoln, Longfellow, Van Raalte, and Washington. Also junior high and high school.

After this short introduction giving in a nutshell a few thoughts relating to Holland's public school system, we also wish to introduce to you the faculty of Holland High and Junior High together with the 144 pupils who are to graduate this evening on Holland High's fifty-first Commencement.

Here they are:—

Holland School For Christian Instruction Shows Rapid Growth

THIS YEAR THE TOTAL ENROLLMENT IS 731 OF WHICH 186 ARE IN HIGH SCHOOL

Denominational Institution Has a Board of Education of Sixteen Members

The Holland School for Christian Instruction, sponsored by the Christian Reformed Church, has had a remarkable growth especially during the last decade. The total enrollment is 731 of which there are 475 in the Primary department, 70 in Junior High and 186 in High School.

The Christian school originally was started in the large wooden structure on Central Avenue near Fifteenth street. The need for a high school to take care of those graduating from the grades was soon found necessary and a very serviceable brick structure on Fifteenth street between Central and River avenues was erected 11 years ago. The continued growth made this building altogether inadequate and it was found that a more pretentious building program was necessary.

A wonderful location was secured at the fork on south River avenue where State street and Michigan avenue divert. This is what was formerly known as the Westerhof property, where old Mr. Westerhof, the truck gardener, had his little white cottage and his large vegetable garden.

Christian High is a very conspicuous looking school and can be seen the full length of River avenue.

The superintendent of the Christian schools is a very able man in the person of Mr. Garret Heyns. He has been at the head of this institution for the past two years and prior to his coming to Holland he spent seven years at Western Academy in Hull, Iowa, and later taught European history at "Michigan," Ann Arbor.

John A. Swets is principal of the high school, coming here from Holly, Michigan, where he taught history and coached in athletics for four years. Last year he was acting principal at Holly. He graduated from Calvin College in '21 and received his master's degree from Michigan in '25.

Miss Margaret Gerritsen is the able principal of the primary department and has been teaching here for three years.

The Holland Christian School has a large body of Trustees composed of men from every walk of life.

The personnel of the Board of Education is as follows: William

TWO REFORMED DENOMINA- TIONS IN THIS VICINITY AL- MOST OF EQUAL STRENGTH

Statistics compiled from the an- nual yearbooks of the Reformed Church in America and the Chris- tian Reformed Church in America show the two denominations of al- most equal strength in the terri- tory contiguous to Holland, with this city as the center, within a radius of less than 40 miles.

Both denominations are repre- sented by 27 churches and the ros- ters show a communicant member- ship in the Christian Reformed of 8,259 and 7,995 for the Reformed. The churches in the Christian Re- formed are grouped in the classes of Holland and Zeeland, while all the Reformed churches are affili- ated with the classis of Holland.

In both denominations are found large and small churches. The larg- est church has a membership of 1,020 and the smallest, 18.

SAUGATUCK-DOUGLAS AND VICINITY

The Masonic lodge of Saugatuck has issued invitations to all Masons and their families of western Mich- igan to attend the second annual outing Saturday, June 21.

The Saugatuck Chamber of Com- merce information bureau, in the Zeitsch block on Culver street (formerly called the American Twisting company building) will be opened next Monday, June 16th, with Mrs. M. P. Heath in charge. The bureau is for the convenience and use of tourists. List your rooms and any information in regard to your business or resort.

John Kraemer has charge of the Douglas tourist camp ground for the summer and is busy at work making it attractive for the tour- ists. Employees of the Consumers Power Company were busy this week installing new meters prepar- atory to changing from 30 to 60 cycles.

Miss Bernice Bauhahn of Gibson won second place in the essay con- test sponsored by the W.C.T.U. of Holland.

This village numbers among its inhabitants the first white child born within its limits, now the old- est resident. Frank Wade, born Jan. 9, 1853, has lived here virtu- ally all his life. His father, Nelson Wade, is said to have felled the first tree on the site of the village. Mr. Wade can relate many inter- esting incidents of the early days of Douglas when the forest was being cleared away and the Indi- ans had a settlement at Hog Point on the Kalamazoo river nearby. In 1881 he was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Hutchinson who still shares life's joys and sorrows with him. They have no children. Mr. Wade has served the village in the capacity of president five years and as a member of the village board 21 years. He also has been highway commissioner of Saugatuck town- ship several years. He is serving his sixth term as worshipful master of Dutcher lodge, F. & A. M., and is a past patron of Douglas chapter, O. E. S. He also is a deacon in First Congregational church. About 20 years ago he moved from the vil- lage proper to Shamrock farm near here. Mr. Wade has seen Douglas develop from a wilderness, first to a thriving sawmill town and later to a popular summer resort.

Mrs. Leon French of Ganges and new son returned home last Friday from the Holland City hospital. Mr. and Mrs. French and children will move into their new home this week, which has just been com- pleted.

Camp Gray at Forward Move- ment park, Saugatuck, opened for the season Monday with a group of 150. This will be followed the next week by Y.W.C.A. workers and Girl Reserves to the number of 400. The bookings at the camp are un- usually heavy thus far this season.

BLUE VALLEY CREAMERY INSTITUTE

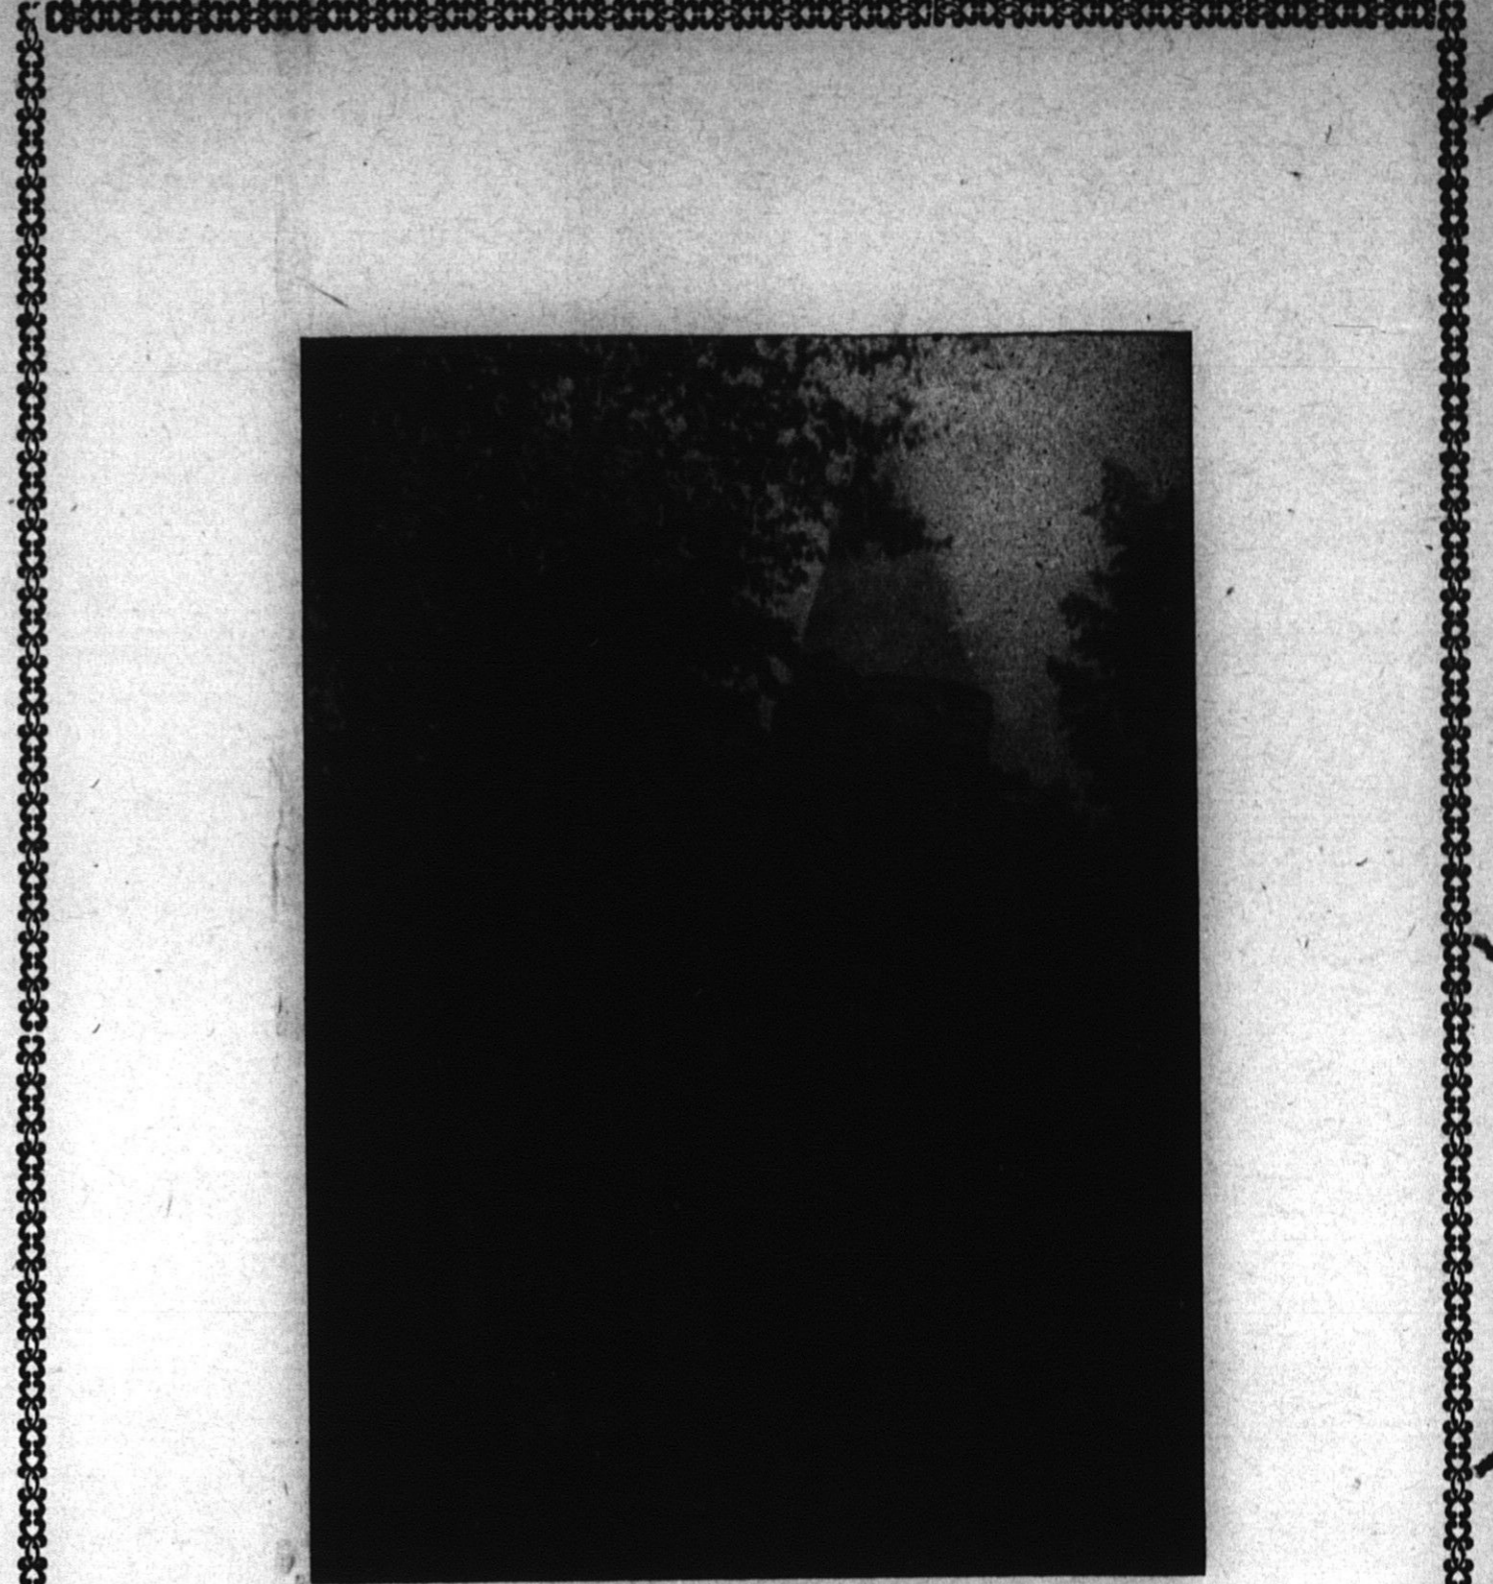

THE dairy industry is sound, and good dairy cows continue to show good returns over feed costs, accord- ing to the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. Indications point to an- other prosperous year ahead for dairymen and general farmers who market their crops through the dairy herd. Measured by lifetime results, the dairy cow in the past has been the surest means of finan- cial success on the farm. From the long-range viewpoint, no type of farming offers better prospects of profitable returns in the future.

Dairying has its ups and downs, of course, but they are by no means as severe as is experienced in other branches of agriculture. Even dur- ing the period of deflation in 1920 and 1921, when returns from the sales of meat animals declined 50 per cent, and from crops about 54 per cent, the returns from milk cows declined only 25 per cent. A study of past economic crises affecting agriculture shows less influence upon prices of dairy products than upon most other farm commodities. Average prices of butter, cheese and milk from year to year have shown surprising uniformity. Prof- its rather than prices are, of course, the dairy farmer's main in- terest. They, too, have remained steady and shown a general inclina- tion toward increase since 1925. The margin of profit over feed cost per pound of butterfat during each of the last two indoor feeding sea- sons, from October to April, was greater than during any similar periods since the deflation in 1920 and 1921. The accompanying chart makes graphic an estimate of what that margin of profit over feed cost has been during three typical sea- sons. During the 1928-29 indoor feeding period the profit over feed cost was estimated to be 18.5 cents; the season before 18.8 cents; and for each of the previous six seasons, 16.8 cents, 17.1 cents, 8.9 cents, 15.6 cents, 15.8 cents and 15.4 cents. In preparing these computations it was assumed that a good, average 1,000-pound cow producing 25 pounds of 4 per cent fat milk would consume 24 pounds of hay, 5.6 pounds of corn and 8.2 pounds of oats in the production of a pound of butterfat. These data are in accord with established feeding standards for maintenance of dairy cows and milk production under practical general farm conditions.

Both the close-up and long-time views of the dairy industry at this time only serve to emphasize the stability of returns from good dairy cows year after year. The pros- pects ahead are favorable. Nothing appears on the horizon which might upset the present favorable con- ditions. Farmers with good dairy cows can keep right on producing dairy products with the assurance that growth of consumer demand will adequately reward those who practice better feeding and efficient herd management.
