'Red Letter' Day In Lives of Local High Students

SCORES OF PRIZES WERE AWARDED LAST NIGHT TO PUPILS

Superintendent Fell Presents 212
Graduates with Diplomas

As the Holland City News goes to press, possibly the largest class in the history of Holland high school is assembled at beautiful Hope Memorial Chapel, at the 55th annual commencement of the school. The exercises started promptly at 7:30 o'clock, when this large body of students marched down the aisle while the procession was being played by Mr. Kenneth R. Osborne, M.D., director of the Hope College school of music. The large auditorium is crowded to capacity by relatives and friends of the graduating class and hosts of citizens, many from this vicinity and abroad.

In reality there are two valedictorians this year, namely, William Manning Tappan and Morris A. Tardiff. These two young men were tied in their standings, which is unusual, the rule having been that the student with the highest standing is selected as valedictorian, and the next high as the salutatorian. Both graduates, however, are on the speaking program tonight, Mr. Tappan's address being "Today's Opportunity," and the address of Mr. Tardiff, "Today's Menace."

The program now in progress is as follows:

RIKKERS-VOGELZANG MARRIAGE

Miss Henrietta Ridders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Ridders, 815 Ninth St., Grand Rapids, was united in marriage to John Vogelzang, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vogelzang of Washington Square, Holland, at Broadway Christian Reformed church in Grand Rapids, Tuesday night.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. De Haan of Grand Rapids, former pastor of Ninth St. Christian Reformed church here, at 8 o'clock before an altar of palms, ferns, and lighted candelabra.

Clarence Vogelzang, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Peter Tuls, sang "Because" by d' Hardelot, and "O, Promise Me" by De Koven, before the ceremony.

The party entered the church to the strains of "Hearts and Flowers" and the "Lohengrin Wedding March." The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Geraldine Vogelzang, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss J. Van der Laan and Miss Annette Bos. Little Helen Ridders, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

Mr. Vogelzang served his brother as best man. Ushers were Gerrit De Leeuw, and Abraham Vogelzang of Holland, and Neal Ridders and Neal Huizen of Grand Rapids.

Following the ceremony a three-course wedding dinner was served in the church basement. A miscellaneous program presented afterwards in the church parlors included community singing led by Robert De Haan, of Grand Rapids; a vocal solo, "Beautiful Saviour," by Clarence Vogelzang; accordion solos by James Ritzens, and motion pictures by Donald Ritzema. Remarks on the "Privileges of a Christian Home" by Rev. De Haan, were followed by prayer.

The reception held afterwards was attended by 100 guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Zaagman being master and mistress of ceremonies.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D.C., and other eastern points. Upon their return they will reside on West 17th St., Holland.

Among those from Holland to attend the wedding and reception, were: Geraldine, Leonard, Abraham, Clarence and Wilma Vogelzang; Mr. and Mrs. Warner De Leeuw, Gerrit, Abraham, Henry, Warner, and Nella De Leeuw; Mr. and Mrs. William Post, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jansen, Mr. and Mrs. John Tuls, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tuls, Mr. and Mrs. William Klingenberg, Mrs. Herman Tuls, Arthur Tuls, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis De Waard, and Frederick DeJong. Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kuiper of Grand Lodge, and Mrs. Ben Van Zeelt of Chicago.

Holland Scouts

Spend 10 Days

In Lansing

HOLLAND BOYS, TOGETHER

WITH 600 OTHERS, SET UP

STATE GOVERNMENT

An unusual program of Americanization is being sponsored by the Willard G. Leenhouts Post American Legion in this city, and by other Legion Posts throughout the state. Beginning today more than 600 scouts are being taken to East Lansing to be a part of this citizenship program.

They will be housed in the dormitories of Michigan State College since these are now available while the students are on vacation. These different scouts will be organized into state groups, city groups, county groups, and township groups; and the scouts themselves will be grouped to be the citizens of these respective units.

The best legal talent at the college and at the state capital will instruct these boys in the legal ramifications of state, county and municipal laws. In other words, for ten days these boys will officially handle all matters that generally come up in units of this nature. They will be elected officers in these units.

It is strictly an American Legion set-up, sponsored by all the posts in the state to better acquaint the youth in the way of citizenship of the real, red-blooded, American variety.

Holland sends three representatives—Richard De Ritter of the Christian school, Clarence W. Harris, and Seymour K. Pados of the public schools, all juniors.

The committee in charge of this work in Holland is Al Van Lente of the Holland Furnace Co., and a member of the Board of Education; C. V. Miller; Jack Barendse; and J. J. Riemersma, school principal.

Mr. Van Lente took the boys to East Lansing at 10:30 this morning. The large group will remain at East Lansing until the evening of June 25th. There will be no lack of recreational features since Coach Bachman of M.S.C. has consented to take care of all athletics while the boys are there, which is conclusive evidence that the scouts are going to get the very best as far as athletics are concerned, since Coach Bachman stands high in the estimation, not only as a coach, but as an athletic director.

Undoubtedly many citizens from different cities, including Holland, will take a "run" down to East Lansing to see how these lads are handling governmental affairs.

One thing is assured. The boys go there under the strictest discipline, which means promptness for meals, prompt bed hours, and the boys who drive their own cars to East Lansing will have the use of these cars only when permission is given. The car keys are turned into headquarters when they arrive.

JUDGE MILES HONORED AT HOLLAND

Judge Fred T. Miles of the Ottawa-Allegheny circuit was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of laws at the Hope college commencement exercises held in Holland Wednesday evening.

Holland's Resorts Sixty Years Ago

We say "Holland's resorts," but we should say "Holland's resort."

This is a view of Macatwa Park, and the building in the middle of the picture was the first small hotel, built 60 years ago. A few of the old windows of this building still remain to the south of the present hotel. When this hotel was built there were only three or four cottages. One was the Boone-Down cottage at the edge of the picnic grove and the Walsh cottage owned by Heber Walsh, and the home of the lightkeeper, M. Van Regenmorter; and a few fish shacks on Black Lake.

There was no Coast Guard station then—that came five years later. There were no walks, as will be noticed by the little boards laid out to avoid the deep sand in order to reach the beach. The beach is filled with driftwood, also noticeable in the picture, coming from saw mills on the Kalamazoo River, Port Sheldon, and even from our own mills.

This barren waste between Lake Michigan and the hotel is a view east from about where the bath house stands, but remember, there was no bath house then. The woods all around were filled with camp tents, some of them being in view in this picture. Today the hotel would not be visible from the beach because of the rows upon rows of summer homes that have been built since.

Remember, this picture constitutes Holland's entire resort district. There was no Ottawa Beach 60 years ago, no Waukauka, Jenison Park, Central Park, Castle Park nor was there a resort district from the oval to Port Sheldon, or from Macatwa to Saugatuck. Nothing but a wilderness and a solid forest. Compare this picture with a mind-picture of what we have today in the way of resorts around Lake Macatwa and along Lake Michigan, with the present-day highways, recreations, and conveniences, and we surely have something here to boast of.

HOLLAND WILL BE "FLAG STATION" FOR AIRPLANE SERVICE

Holland's airport, along with Benton Harbor's, will be recommended as a "flag stop" for airlines, pending confirmation by air-line officials. It was announced today by William M. Connelly, manager of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, who was informed to this effect by Mayor Henry Geerlings, who Wednesday night attended the civic banquet in Grand Rapids, held to observe the opening of the new Chicago-Grand Rapids airline service.

Others from Holland who attended the banquet were Ald. Edward Brower, City Attorney Elbert Branson, and Ald. Henry Ketel. Mayor Geerlings presented at the banquet a letter from the Holland Chamber of Commerce, subscribed to by George Heneveld, Park township supervisor and Mayor Geerlings, requesting that the local airport be considered for duty as a "flag stop." Officials at the banquet, including C. Bedell Munro, president of Pennsylvania Central Airlines, and Thomas Walsh, Grand Rapids airport manager, spoke favorably of the project, Mayor Geerlings stated.

An increased service in the Greyhound Line, according to local agent, Fred Sundin, now effective, are seven daily schedules to and from Grand Rapids. The schedule to and from Chicago, as well as to and from Muskegon, has been increased to 6 buses each way.

Wm. Huxtable of Vancouver, British Columbia, visited with his brother, Henry Huxtable, at his home on Harrison street, Zeeland. The two brothers have not met during the past forty years.

"Thumbs Down" Again On Service Station

Atty. Nelson Miles and his client, Frank H. Emig, of the Nu-Way Service Stations, Inc., were present at the council meeting last night, and the man who purchased the property made a plea in his own behalf asking for re-consideration in granting the license to build a 24,000-station. When the council turned it down by a 6 to 4 vote, he threatened to start suit to find out who is right.

Emig stated that he bought the property from the bank in good faith back in October, 1936; and for 13 months the station was leased under his ownership, and he stated, "I purchased the property in good faith; I had no thought that with stations on every corner, except where the church is located, there would be any question about granting a permit for a station that is superior to the one dismantled."

"Gentlemen, you are 'sticking' me with a piece of property for which I have no use whatever, only for the purpose it has been used for and for which it was intended. I am going still further. It is the desire of the churches that we close on Sunday, and I am willing to comply with this request. If you do not want the station open on Sunday, I do not want it open. I feel that in this instance, maybe not willingly, my property is being discriminated against, and before a vote is taken I would like to make a request that the vote of this council be polled."

The mayor then asked for the question, and Ald. Vogelzang said, "Gentlemen, I can hardly see any fairness in granting licenses for this place at one time and turning it down at another time. I do not mean this for this man alone, but that applies to all things as this relates to the city. Whether this be for a church, for a liquor license, for a service station, or for a building permit, one should be treated the same as any other in compliance with the law. There has been a station there all the time. If it was wrong, why didn't they revoke the license of that station?"

Ald. Miles stated that there had been opposition from one church all these years, and now since the Armory had been turned into a church on Sundays and a place where large crowds gather week-

Honors Given Hope Students 104 Graduate

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY
OF LOCAL INSTITUTION, DR.
WICHERS ANNOUNCES.
PRIZE AWARDS AND DE-GREES PRESENTED

At Hope College commencement exercises held last Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Hope Memorial chapel, 104 graduates were awarded Bachelor of Arts degrees. The class of 1938 is the largest ever to have graduated from the local institution of higher learning. Exercises opened with the organ prelude, "Allegro" by Widor, played by Miss June Cook, member of the class.

While Kenneth Osborne, head of the college music department played the Hope Processional on the organ, graduates marched to their seats on the platform, behind the graduates. The Rev. N. Boer, president of the board of trustees, pronounced the invocation.

Addresses by Adolphus T. Paske of Sioux Center, Ia., on "The Clan of Marco Polo" and by Benjamin Ver Steeg, of Orange City, Ia., on "Streamlining Christianity," followed. T. Paske's address dealt with a four-year college course and its meaning to the graduate, while Ver Steeg's discourse was concerned with adaptation of Christianity to our modern streamlined times. Both speakers were chosen by the senior class at a class meeting about two months ago.

"Rhapsody in G minor," No. 1, by Dohnanyi, was next rendered by Miss Barbara Lampen as a piano solo.

Speeches by senior speakers chosen by the faculty at a recent meeting followed. Speakers were Eunice Sluyter of Paterson, New Jersey, and Peter Veltman of Holland. Miss Sluyter's address, dealing with social problems, was entitled, "The Graduate and Society's Bulwark." Veltman's discourse, "The Graduate as a Spiritual Awakening as the sole cure of the economic problems of our times," Veltman, it will be recalled, spoke four years ago in Hope chapel as salutatorian of his class at Holland high school on the subject, "Character—America's Need."

Following a brief address to the graduates by Dr. Wichers, prizes were awarded and degrees presented. Michigan State Teachers' certificates were presented to sixty-two members of the graduating class. Bachelor of Theology degrees went to Raymond C. Beckering, D. Ivan Dykstra, Adolphus A. Dykstra, Joseph R. Esther, Martin Holman, Benjamin J. Hoffman, Maurice Tysen, and John L. Van Ham.

The senior chorus next presented "The Heavens are Declaring" by Beethoven, Miss Lampen serving as pianist. Miss Lucille Ter Maat of Cedar Grove, Wis., pronounced the valedictory. Following the singing of the Doxology by the audience, the Rev. Boer pronounced the benediction. The organ postlude, "Fantasia in G minor" by Bach, played by Miss Cook at the organ, concluded the services.

Scholastic awards, and honors for extra-curricular activities were announced by Dr. Wichers at the exercises as follows:

The Michigan State Employment service has moved from its former quarters on the second floor of the local postoffice building to new headquarters on the second floor of the new Mass building at River Ave. and 10th St.

Employees of the De Vries and Dornbos Furniture Co. store met Wednesday night at the C. W. Dornbos cottage at Idlewood Beach to honor three of the store employees, who will be married in the near future. The three are Peter Eliot, manager of the drapery department, who will be married to Miss Betty Minshall of Grand Haven, June 25; Bud Westerhof of the linoleum department, who will marry Miss Marian Lambers in July; and Miss Wilma Hoek, bookkeeper, who will become the bride of Joe Earnest, graduate of Western Theological seminary in early July. Dinner was served by Mrs. Dornbos, and a treasure hunt was participated in. Games were played. Each of the honor guests was presented with an occasional chair by the group. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dornbos, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brewer, Mariene Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Vande Hoop, Mr. and Mrs. E. Vander Hoop, Mr. and Mrs. C. Rosema and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. Westendorp, Miss Grace De Vries of Muskegon, and the Misses Gladys and Francis Dornbos and Harriet De Koster, and Jake Stegenga, and Gerald Dornbos.

MAPES' HOME ROBBED OF BAR PIN, LINENS

A platinum bar pin mounting two diamonds and a ruby and valued at $300 was stolen from the home of Representative Carl E. Mapes, at Washington, D. C., along with $200 worth of linen, reported to police Wednesday.

COUNCIL NOTES

Mayor Geerlings called the council meeting at 5:00 o'clock instead of at the regular time, 7:30, in order to enable some to go to graduating exercises and others to attend the airplane meeting at Grand Rapids, where the mayor was also a representative. Because of the hurry, the usual prayer and flag salute were overlooked.

Manager Carley of the Holland and Colonial Theatres asked for a renewal of his license with the stipulation that no Sunday theatres be conducted. These licenses were unanimously granted.

Ed Zwemer was granted a license to conduct a second-hand store at 76 River Ave., and Wm. Vander Velde, a license to collect junk. Both are renewals.

Ald. Prins of the license committee asked that licenses be authorized at the same rate as before. Hucksters to pay a license fee of $15.00 a year; taxi cabs, $30.00 per year; and pool and billiards, $25.00 for the first two tables or two bowling alleys, and $20.00 per table for each additional one.

There are eight bids in for the painting of the city hall and fire station No. 2. The building committee will go over these bids and make the selection.

Park Board recommended the purchase of 125,000 tulip bulbs. The Chamber of Commerce also had a resolution for that amount, stating that the number was a little larger than before, but more bulbs were necessary. Because of the widening of many streets some of the tulip lanes were destroyed and will have to be replanted. It was pointed out, however, that the price of tulip bulbs was down, and that while we could get more tulip bulbs, the expenditure would be less accordingly.

The Board of Public Works brought in a recommendation to reduce power rates in the city about 4-2/10ths percent and also to make a reduction in the urban power rate. This reduction would bring a savings to large power users of between $4,000 and $6,000 annually—collectively.

Sale of a parcel of swamp land located between Fifth and Sixth Sts., lying just west of College Ave. to George Mool was approved on condition that the property be improved by Huyser. His bid was $150. The property's sale had been advertised.

The Globe Construction Co. filed a check for $300.00 and their bid to pave two blocks on 20th and 21st Sts. The city will put in their own grade and curbing, but the bid in the wearing surface of the street. One bid for a certain type of street was $11.8 a sq. yd. and the

SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS IN DOWN TOWN SHOW WINDOW

Pupils in the Holland public schools have gone into art work of an unusual type, in which old news-papers, clay, and even gum, play an important part. There has always been a deep interest on the part of art students in the making of masks, some artistic, some grotesque. Undoubtedly this is due in part to the fact that many people make use of masks in their celebrations or displays of different types—in other words, the Mardi Gras fever has taken hold a little. Then, too, the recent development of the modern stage and screen has accelerated these interests considerably, and has become more pronounced because of the fairy story, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," with these many grotesque characters.

These Walt Disney creations, as far as the public schools in Holland are concerned, are made in paper mache. These masks are made by the students of Holland high school art and craft class, under the direction of Louise Krum, assisted by Henrietta Althuis. Previous to building the masks the students made several designs based on the human head.

The first step in the construction of the mask itself is to build a rough contour with modeling clay. It is not necessary to attempt too much detail, as this will be lost later in the construction of the work. After the mold is made, it is set to dry. Wet newspapers, torn in strips, wet pasted, are then laid over the mold. This is the basic material of the mask. Strips must overlap and be well pressed down. It takes about eight layers of wet newspapers for one mask.

The masks are then dried hard, followed by a thorough sanding. Then the paint brush comes into play, and the details of the face are painted with poster paint, and are given a sheen with clear, colorless, varnish.

Wool yarn, or raffia, for beards and hair, is very essential, according to the character displayed. "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," for instance, needed a lot of these finishing touches. Beards or buttons are used largely for decoration, and add much to the appearance of the mask.

If you want to see the entire Snow White cast—the witch, the prince, the queen, even to Sneezey and Grumpy—go "window shopping" at the Jas. A. Brouwer Furniture store, and see what artistic boys and girls we have. No, these are not face-lifters, but rather face-makers.

The students who made these masks of the characters of Snow White are the following: Witch, Bob Rich; Prince, Gerald Helder; Queen, Frances De Pree; Snow White, Marian Davies; Hunter, Myrtle Smith; Sneezey, Bob Voss; Dopey, Gerald Sleppy; Grumpy, Hale McWilliams; Doc, Jack Cobb; Happy, Ruth Borri; Bashful, Jane Dinkler; Sleepy, Gerald Dainig; Rabbits, Carol Erickson and Irene Ver Hey; and Deer, Florence Nienhuis.

New Fire Station Not Necessary In Holland Yet

COUNCIL UNANIMOUSLY DE-
CIDES TO VACATE STREET
FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES

Ald. Brouwer brought out a very important matter as this relates to added equipment for our fire department as recommended by Chief Blom. He and Ald. Steffens, a committee visited Detroit, Mt. Clemens, Grosse Pointe, and other cities, where equipment such as Holland really needs, has already been established. They contacted the Seagrave Co. of Columbus, O., who has several units in these cities. The unit especially desirable is an aerial truck, which, if added to the city's equipment, would perfect our fire department a great deal.

Mr. Brouwer, in giving his report to the common council, compared Holland with Mt. Clemens. He stated the city was about as large as Holland, and while it did not have quite as many factories, it had more public buildings and business houses. He stated that the fire losses were no greater than they were in Holland, and in this city they are at a minimum. The city has volunteer fire department, only has few more men than we have in Holland. Mr. Brouwer felt, however, that our department excelled the Mt. Clemens department.

The Holland committee was "taken out for a ride" on the apparatus, and were also hoisted several stories high on the aerial ladder truck. Mr. Brouwer stated that these trucks are so arranged that the ladders are away from the building, but are provided with large streams that can play right down on the fire, and it is more effective than any other method of fire fighting. The whole apparatus is hydraulically equipped and can be handled by one man; and the ladders are in constant use at fires because of the effective way to get at burning buildings.

Mr. Brouwer also stated—and this was rather a surprise—that Mt. Clemens had all their equipment centrally located in one large building; and the chief of the fire department stated that this method, he felt, was very effective as the low fire losses would indicate.

Finishing the Task

Senator Woodbridge Ferris liked to tell the story of the top.

When he was about eight years old he asked his father for a top to which his father replied: "Make one. Your mother will give you a spool and I'll lend you my jack-knife."

Young Woodbridge whittled for a few minutes, but, finding the cutting difficult, tried to return the knife to his father.

"Where is the top?" his father asked.

The youngster hung his head and answered, "I don't want a top now."

The wise father said, "You do want a top. Make it or I shall be obliged to punish you."

When the top was made, the father tested it and pronounced it fine. The youngster felt proud of his handiwork. In teaching his son to finish his tasks this father built character in that son. Perhaps, this is one of the reasons why Woodbridge Ferris became Governor of his state and finally a United States Senator, and he built such a fine college in Big Rapids.

To develop resourcefulness in youngsters and confidence in their ability teach them to finish the tasks they start.

Flyways Are Set

Europe, as well as North America, has well-established bird flyways. These are as definitely laid out as those for pilots of transcontinental planes, particularly at this time of the year when birds are flying northward again before the face of the returning spring-time sun.

In North America there are four major flyways with many branches and feeders. These great paths follow the Pacific and Atlantic coastlines, and in the interior, one down the great central valley with the Mississippi as a guideline, and the other over the Plains along the east flank of the Rockies.

In Europe two important inland routes cross Switzerland: One coming from Finland and northern Scandinavia divides at the Rhine delta, one branch going south via the French coast and the Iberian peninsula and the other swinging inland along the Rhine eventually reaches northwestern Switzerland, while the other, originating in Russia, skirts the Baltic countries, Poland and Germany and also reaches northwestern Switzerland.

Thus Switzerland has become a strategic center for the study of migrating birds and the Swiss refugees have become very important in the conservation of European bird life.

Interpretation of Dreams Told to Hope Graduates

JOSEPH, THE DREAMER, USED AS AN EXAMPLE, BY DR. CAMPBELL OF NEW YORK

The Rev. Charles H. Campbell, pastor of the Reformed Church of Flushing, New York, last Sunday evening was the main speaker at Hope College's baccalaureate service for the 106 graduates of the class of 1938, held in Hope Memorial chapel at 7:30 o'clock. Taking as the text of his address the story of Joseph, found in Genesis 37, the speaker chose as his topic, "How Our Dreams Come True."

"Commencement is the time of high hopes, holy aspirations, dreams and visions," Rev. Campbell ventured. "Since early times, from the world's remotest corners, have attempted to interpret these dreams, and have been respected because they could tell the occult meaning of dreams."

"It was because of his dreams that Joseph's brothers hated him. It wasn't proper for a member of a Jewish family to be superior to others. It is the same way in America. We have a dislike for the snob and the toady of the family. He had a dream, but he couldn't keep it to himself. They didn't call the soothsayers or necromancers to explain Joseph's dream. You see, he didn't amount to anything; he wasn't a king. Only significant dreams came true, they believed. But his dream came true."

The speaker explained the dream theories of the American Indians, of Freud, and of present-day psychologists that all have two minds—an active and a sub-conscious mind. In sleep, all the experiences seek a center and all seek expression through the sub-conscious mind.

"But, we don't have to be asleep when we do our dreaming. In our reflective moments we have dreams. Perhaps those are the type of dreams that Joseph had. At any rate, his dreams came true. You and I have been given the equipment by God to formulate our dreams and purposes, and then hope that these dreams come true."

"Why did Joseph's dreams become reality?"

"In the first place, because Joseph was not limited by the visible horizon of life. He was bigger than the physical environment in which he lived. Joseph would have been great anywhere. He had that something in him to put back the physical horizons of his vision. Columbus was a man like that. He never found what he went after, but he opened the way of the Renaissance in Europe."

"You know, our dreams, if we are sincere, have a habit of becoming real."

"Secondly, Joseph's dreams came true because he knew how to survive hardship and be ridiculed. If he had been a weaker man, he would have succumbed. But he was made of sterner stuff. Whenever opposition came upon him, he took a positive attitude and changed adversity to his advantage. The Apostle Paul was a man like that."

"In the third place, Joseph's dreams became a reality because he never lost his sense of honor. He suffered temptations of the spirit and of the flesh, and yet, he never yielded. In the world, moral standards have been pretty well shaken. You must always hold the high standards and principles of Christ as we hold to these ideals and standards, our dreams will come true. We have been left to climb the heavenly steeps or move down the ways of hell. We must make the choice."

"Joseph was a prototype of Christ, for the Man of Nazareth, too, was a Dreamer. His physical environment was too small for Him. The Kingdom was a great vision in His soul. He shared this passion. They hated Him for it. They betrayed Him, and then, because He dreamed a great dream, they nailed Him to a cross."

"And all across the centuries men and women have caught that vision. And yet the Kingdom is not here. A redeemed world and a saved society will only come about if we are willing to follow in His way."

Kenneth R. Osborne, head of the college music department, played the organ prelude, "Prelude, Fugue and Chaconne," by Beethoven, and

PUPIL AT HOLLAND CONTINUES FAMILY SCHOLASTIC TRAIT

Ruth Warner, salutatorian of the Holland Christian High school senior class this year, is carrying on a family tradition.

Her oldest sister, Marian, now a student at the University of Michigan, was salutatorian of her class, and her brother, Don, was valedictorian of his class in 1935.

Mrs. Mary Wolbert of Montello Park had as her guest last Monday Mrs. John H. Rutgers of Graafschap.

also played the processional, as the graduates marched to their seats in the front of the chapel building. Henry Huizinga, Ph.D., teacher of English at Shanghai College, Shanghai, China, gave the prayer of blessing. Several numbers were sung by the chapel choir, who occupied seats behind the speaker on the platform. Mr. Osborn led the group in its renditions. Miss Dorothy Vanden Bout accompanied at the piano. Two selections were sung by the audience. Dr. Campbell offered the benediction. Mr. Osborn played the offertory, and the organ postlude, "Toccata," by Widor. All available seats in the chapel were occupied at the exercises.

The exercises marked the first time that the 1500-watt lights were used to light the chapel windows behind the speaker's rostrum. The lights, a gift of the Hope Blue Key chapter of the class of 1938, added an air of reverence and dignity to the occasion, all platform lights being turned out while the exercises were in progress.

Baccalaureate Address Given 212 Students

DR. RAYMOND DRUKKER POINTS RELIGION AS THE FOUNDATION

"The Place to Start on Life's Quest Is at the Feet of Christ"

Before an audience which filled Hope Memorial chapel to capacity, Dr. Raymond D. Drukker, Secretary of the Department of Religious Education of the Reformed Church America, addressed the 212 graduates of the class of 1938 of Holland high school at baccalaureate services, Sunday afternoon. The organ prelude, "Prelude on a Gregorian Theme," was rendered by Kenneth R. Osborn, director of music at Hope College. Mr. Osborn also played the processional hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," as the graduates marched to the front of the auditorium, promptly at 2 p.m.

Members of the school board, school officials, and speakers of the day occupied seats on the platform and behind them sat the Holland high school a cappella choir. Baskets of flowers surrounded the outer edge of the rostrum.

The Rev. C. Stoppels, pastor of Bethel Reformed Church of this city, pronounced the invocation, following which the choir rendered "Blessed Are the Pure in Heart," by Jones, under direction of Miss Trixie M. Moore. Rev. Stoppels read Matthew 7:15-29, "O Blessed Are They," by Tschakowsky, was next sung by the choir.

Prior to the singing of the hymn, "A Charge to Keep I Have," by the audience, prayer was offered by Rev. Stoppels. Dr. Drukker's address, entitled also "A Charge to Keep I Have," followed.

Addressing the class, Dr. Drukker took his text from the 16th Psalm, "I have a goodly heritage." "We are living in a plastic world," the speaker began, "a world which may return to some degree and in some instances at the hands of experimenters to almost the original state—waste and void. Christianity, however, may place on the image of God. But, the world is not only plastic. It is wasteful, confused and anxious. Many people are looking out beyond themselves for something they feel they need."

Quoting the Mexican poet's "There is illness in my soul," calling to mind the utterances of Gertrude Lawrence, and illustrating his assertions with incidents in the building of the New York World's Fair, Dr. Drukker stated, "Men are trying to satisfy the need and sickness in their souls."

"This is an interesting and intriguing world. You who are graduating now possess some things you did not have before you came to high school. You now have some things to pass on to others."

Continuing in his discussion, the speaker stated that this heritage must be in the first place be investigated, analyzed, and explored. This may be done by education. "We are still free to think, and not only free to think, but we must think." In this heritage, democracy, "which recognizes man as an individual, a choice possession," must be maintained. Finally, religion—"a vital, virile, personal conviction, involving a conception of Christ at the very heart of it," is a means to a clear analysis.

"In the second place, this heritage must be defended," Dr. Drukker asserted. "It does not carry with it a guarantee of easy perpetuity. We must defend it and preserve it. First, the right to have it and defend it must be recognized, and, secondly, it must be revealed to the world."

"Thirdly, we must improve it," the speaker continued. "This heritage is something wonderful, unfolding from generation to generation. The last word hasn't yet been said. We must think of it not in terms of independence, but in terms of interdependence. We must grow out of our narrow provincialism into a world Christian community. Finally, we must help the spiritual supersede the secular. We must penetrate the sinister secularistic tendencies which influence our lives."

"In the fourth place, we must demonstrate this heritage. That will be led to see that it is worth having. And we live in a practical world. That's why Jesus gave it to us. It does work! Society awaits rejuvenation. The rejuvenation of society must come through the individual—through the gospel of love and goodness."

Addressing the graduates, Dr. Drukker concluded, "Why not join hands with Him who is the Pioneer in life? We must cut deep in order that we may cure. The Bible is the guarantee of the presence of Him who is the Prince, the Pioneer of life to one who is willing to seek new frontiers for Him. You will not be able to see His face, until you kneel at His feet. The place to start on life's quest is at the feet of Christ."

Following the address the audience sang the doxology, and Dr. Drukker closed with the benediction, the choral amen being rendered by the choir. Mr. Osborn's organ postlude, "Passacaglia in C Minor," by Bach, concluded the services.

A communication from Thomas J. Powers, 224 West 18th St., was referred to the street committee council upon motion of Ald. Henry Prins, seconded by Ald. Cornelius Kalkman. The communication protested the removal of drive-in curbs at his filling station at River Ave. and 15th St. to allow construction of a filling station on the property just to the south of Mr. Powers' property.

Reporting as chairman of the street committee, Huyser informed the aldermen that complaints had come to him of softballs and baseballs being knocked into adjoining yards and gardens adjacent to the diamond on 19th St. On his motion, seconded by Voelzgang, the playground commission was authorized to extend the backstop in an easterly direction with the understanding that the diamond was not to be used by adults and that only softballs are to be used on the diamond.

City Poundmaster Tony Bever submitted a report of his activities up to and including June 11. He reported that 33 dogs had been impounded, 55 complaints investigated, 85 warnings issued, 15 dogs destroyed, seven dogs claimed, seven dogs sold, and $17 dollars paid to the city clerk's office. The report was placed on file.

OLIVE MAN CANDIDATE AS DIRECTOR

On Monday, June 20, election is to be held from 5:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. to elect three directors for soil conservation. The townships in which elections will be held are Park, Olive, Port Sheldon, Grand Haven, Robinson, Spring Lake, and Crocker.

From this vicinity Albert H. Stegenga of Olive Township, who has been on the Board of Supervisors for eight years, and secretary of the Farm Loan for some time, is aspiring to be one of these directors. Mr. Stegenga believes that this is the best farm program yet suggested and has been ardently fostering such a program. All land occupiers are eligible for a vote. Farmers should know that the election is next week Monday in the township halls of the townships above mentioned, from 5:00 p. m. until 9:00 p. m., which is at a time when farmers can most easily get away from work. The state committee recently appointed Hunter Hering of Crocker and Clarence Reenders of Grand Haven Township.

HOPE ALUMNI BANQUET
BRINGS OUT 200 GUESTS

More than 200 Hope College graduates of former years and this year gathered in Hope church parlors last Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock for the annual alumni banquet. Mayor Henry Geerlings, president of the alumni association during the past year, served as toastmaster for the affair. Dinner was served by members of Hope church Ladies Aid, who were assisted in their serving by their sons and daughters.

The Rev. B. Vander Woude of the class of 1913 offered the opening prayer, following which Mr. Geerlings gave a word of welcome to those present, stating that "Your attendance at this function shows that the spirit of Hope is still alive in your hearts." Miss Martha Barkema sang three vocal solos, "O Lovely Night" by Donald, "Children of the Moon" by Warren, and "The Last Song" by Rogers. As an encore, she rendered "The Night Wind" by Farley. Mrs. W. Curtis Snow served in the capacity of accompanist.

Toastmaster Geerlings called on representatives from the various alumni chapters throughout the country, who conveyed words of greeting from their chapters to Holland alumni. Chapters responding were Albany, N. Y.; Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, New York City, Chicago, and Gibbstown, Wisconsin. Other chapters have been organized at Rochester, N. Y., and Milwaukee, Wis.

The class of 1913, which held its reunion, observing its 25th anniversary with a beach party Tuesday afternoon, was present in a body. It was honored with a round of applause from others present, and showed its spirit by presenting a yell under the leadership of one of its members. The Rev. A. De Motta of Cheboygan, Wis., one of the members of the class, served as class speaker, asserting that the class of 1913 was the greatest class at Hope because (1.) it was the only class present in a body, (2.) it was a universal class, composed of people in all walks of life—from missionaries to hardware dealers, (3.) it had the greatest spirit of any class ever passing through Hope.

Mr. Geerlings responded by giving a bit of personal history, stating that he had been at Hope graduate for 50 years, and that the things which most impressed him while he was in college were the sympathy and friendship exhibited there. "We have gotten many knocks," he stated, "but we have always come out as glorious conquerors."

In a speech replete with humor, but filled with vital truths, the Rev. Frederick Zimmerman, former pastor of Metuchen, N. J., now secretary of the board of domestic missions of the Reformed church at New York city, "a man who is short and stocky, but who has a wonderful mind," then addressed the alumni.

Calling attention to radical changes which have taken place in recent years, Rev. Zimmerman stated, "There is something important to the world in which we live, and that is the sacrificial attitude toward life—the selfless attitude held by many. The people who possess this attitude, think not in terms of ministering to their own comfort, but have thought of life as something sacrificial. This means an altar as a votive offering to God."

Calling to mind the Old Testament story of David at the hole of adullam, when he suddenly became thirsty for a drink from the well of Bethlehem and three men volunteered to go, the speaker continued, "No better conception of the sacrificial attitude is found than in this story."

"Imagine the dismay and disappointment of these men, David, instead of drinking the water, poured it out upon the ground, and turned to the men, saying, 'Far be it from me, O God, to drink the water that represents the life blood of these three men, who have gone after it in jeopardy of their lives?'"

"Some practical-minded people would object to the Scriptural record on grounds of sentimentalism, the speaker stated. He then recalled the incident of the woman anointing the feet of Jesus and the utterances of Jesus on the occasion as a refutation of the charge.

"What does religion do for you anyway?" Rev. Zimmerman queried. "When this question is asked of some people, they seem to be absolutely stumped. Religion helps to take the veil off the commonplace things of life, and shows us their sacramental character."

Referring to Hope College, the speaker stated, "Hope is a unique college. It sees something more important than endowments. It is building a house not built by hand, but eternal in the heavens, in morality and religion."

"This is not the worst time in the history of America. What does it matter, if you have the right frame of mind and the right attitude, if this generation is a bridge over which we must pass to a future America? God will do it, if people like us have the sacrificial attitude towards life."

Following the address, Mr. Geerlings introduced the Rev. and Mrs. Ter Borg of Japan to the group, and welcomed members of the class of 1908 to the Hope alumni association. Singing of the Hope College song concluded the program. An informal social time followed in the church parlors and auditorium.

The alumni association held its annual business meeting in Hope Memorial chapel at 4 p. m. Election of officers was featured, newly-elected officers being president, George Pelgrim; vice president, the Rev. C. Stoppels; secretary, Prof. Clarence Kleis; and treasurer, Miss Mildred Schuppert. All are from Holland. Reports of the publica-

Youngsters Who Attended School In 1890—48 Years Ago

This is an unusual picture, taken of a grade class in front of the old Ward school, a two-room, brick structure with a bell. This old school was more than 60 years old, and was replaced later by a larger school, and not so many years ago by the fine Washington school. In this school the writer received his first look-in on the ABC's, and had blocks to play with, showing a sphere, a cone, and a square—and the cone was not flavored with ice cream either. The teacher was Miss Allen, a lovely woman to all good pupils, but she used the switch often on bad ones.

Anyway, this old picture harks back 48 years ago, and it is evident that time has made inroads on the ranks of these then little ones, since at least sixteen of them have passed away, and possibly the number may be more since we are not able to give all the names of those appearing in the picture. We, too, may have made an error in one or two, but on the whole, the personnel is fairly correct. In some instances the women have become prominent; some have become educators; some the wives of business men; and many have moved away.

Tony Vander Bie, who donated this picture, it will be remembered, was the owner of the island that is making a wonderful project in Holland's harbor development. Miss Anna Pfantstiel, sister of Mrs. Albert Diekema, is still living. Superintendent Higgins was here only for a short period of two years. It could not be ascertained whether he is still living.

One man has become prominent in the musical world as a pipe organist and a pianist. Among them there are some business men, and an ex-alderman. There are also a few farmers in the group, showing how diversified the vocations of students become after their school years are over.

It is well for friends of the class to study the picture carefully and possibly they can supply the names where the News has failed.

FARM CHECK FOR 1938 AGRICULTURAL PROGRAM STARTS SOON

The Michigan Agricultural Conservation Committee and their field representatives are in Chicago this week to receive instructions on visiting farms to determine the operation of the operators with the 1938 farm program, according to Mr. L. R. Arnold. Checking of the farms will be done by the local community committees who are farmers elected by their neighbors.

The 1937 program is drawing to a close and payments are nearing completion or payment applications have been made. The present indication is that for Ottawa County about 2,000 farmers have participated in the 1937 program, in balancing production and conserving soil.

With the early start on checking farms this year payments to farmers can be made earlier than was possible for cooperation last year. Present indications are that about 110,000 farmers will have cooperated in the 1937 program.

The early checking of farms results from the further simplification of the program under the 1938 Farm Act which does not delay certification of performance until October 31, as has been the case in previous years.

MORE THAN 8,000 PERSONS PASS THROUGH NETHER- LANDS MUSEUM

The Netherlands Museum, a major Tulip Festival attraction, has in two years time outgrown two buildings and attracted international attention. More than eight thousand visitors from thirty-eight states and nine foreign countries were conducted through its three rooms of displays, covering the entire first floor of the Masonic Temple during this year's festival.

Museum officials and local folk, who through close association, perhaps take its treasures more or less for granted, were given a new appreciation as they viewed it thru the eyes of strangers last month. Here, of their opinion, and those of many experts connected with some of the largest museums in the country are any criterion, that this new institution in Holland will one day be noted as the only public collection of authentic Dutch antiques in America.

The plans for its development are far reaching. The board of control is determined that it must do more than house the relics of a dead past. There is already the beginning of a research library and school children are made familiar with their inheritance through conducted tours. Dutch men from other states have asked to have their names interpreted, to find if they are genuinely Dutch. P. T. Moerdyke, with his thorough knowledge of Dutch names and history has supplied this information and answered countless questions. Mrs. Ruth Madder, another member of the staff, conducts much of the general research required for the educational programs and the many inquiries for historical information which come to the office of the Historical Records Survey.

Because the Museum is functioning under the direct supervision of the Historical Records Survey, headed by Willard C. Wichers, it is in a position to render assistance to persons attempting to trace a family genealogy. Survey workers have, through access to early records, helped establish birth dates for individuals seeking old age assistance. They have also established birth dates for persons eligible for other pensions. In addition to adult workers Mr. Wichers staff includes some eighteen young people employed on a part-time basis by the NYA, which agency is co-operating with the Historical Records Survey in operating the museum for the Netherlands Pioneer and Historical Foundation.

But It's True

The servant, executed for murder, was immediately operated on by friends who were interested in medicine. He suffered no bad effects beyond a sore throat. You probably have seen little bits of colic dirt lying on the surface of the ground. These have been disgorged there by worms, which eat the dirt standing in their way as they attempt to proceed through the ground. It just happened that the fathers of the four girls all died before the births of their children, and the mothers all succumbed immediately before the births of the children.

SEES DOE IN CITY

(Grand Haven Tribune)

While making a patrol in the police cruiser about 11:30 last night, Officer Emil Klumpel saw a beautiful doe come bounding out of the woods just west of the Fred McCrea home from the direction of the cemetery, cross Grand ave., Grand Haven, and then slowly trot off over the hills in the direction of the lake shore.

Klumpel, a veteran hunter, astonished at the sight, stopped his car and the lights fell full on the beautiful animal that did not appear to be startled. As the doe reached the pavement she stopped as if waiting for a mate. Mr. Klumpel said, then crossed the pavement, trotted up the hill and paused again and then trotted off in the hills south.

Klumpel got out of his car and examined the tracks to make sure that he had not been dreaming and had actually seen a deer. He went back to the police station, got a fellow officer to go back to Grand ave., where he showed the tracks in the sand to further substantiate the splendid sight he had seen.

Deer have been seen frequently in Ottawa county, but this is the first report of one within the city limits. The animals are increasing in numbers in southern Michigan and for some time have been a real nuisance in Allegan county. Farmers in that section have long complained on loss of crops and several months ago appealed to the department of conservation for help to get rid of the deer.

TEETH OF OTTAWA CHILDREN IMPROVE UNDER DENTAL CARE

TEETH OF OTTAWA
CHILDREN IMPROVE
UNDER DENTAL CARE

Marked improvement in the teeth of Ottawa county school children is reported by Dr. Carl H. Frost, dentist in charge of the Michigan Children's Fund-clinic conducted the past three years in the county. Ottawa county was once one of the poorest counties in Michigan in the dental hygiene of its children but consistent improvement is shown in reports. Dr. Frost has emphasized corrective work in diet as well as dentistry.

The report for the year ending April 30 made to the county health unit which cooperates in conducting the clinic, shows 1,422 children visited the clinics 2,549 times. There were 1,858 extractions, 2,973 fillings and 2,371 other operations. Educational work was done among parents, principally through P.T.A. meetings at which 5,224 persons were told about dental hygiene. The county dental advisory committee has taken the lead in organizing committees of laymen in school districts to cooperate with the dental clinic and see that children, needing attention, obtain it.

ing on West 23rd St. from Maple to Washington Ave.

Clerk further presented affidavit of publication of such notice. There were several property owners, living in the vicinity of West 23rd St. that is proposed to be closed who were represented by Mr. George Damson. In speaking about this proposition, Mr. Damson stated that the property owners were not necessarily opposed to the closing but came to the Council meeting for the information in respect to just what the Board of Education proposes to do with this property after the street is closed.

Mr. Damson further stated that he, along with several others, have built homes in this section of the City and they do not like to see anything done that would injure their property.

Superintendent Fell, being present, stated that it was the intention of the Board of Education to utilize these two blocks of ground for playground purposes and in order to use them to the best advantage, it would be necessary to close the street. Mr. Fell further stated that it was proposed along with the other improvements such as leveling ground to build a running track and in order to have room enough for such track, it would also be necessary to have the street vacated.

Mr. Fell further suggested that this matter could be taken up at the next meeting of the Board of Education, which would be on Monday, June 13, and suggested that a committee from the property owners and also from the Council, meet with the Board of Education to go into this entire matter.

Action deferred for two weeks on the vacating of this street.

Mayor Geerlings appointed Ald. Smith and Vogelzang, Huyser and Menken as the Council committee to meet with the Board of Education.

Clerk reported that no tender had been received for the payment of the 1933 refunding bonds and recommended that the Council proceed to draw the numbers for the calling of these bonds.

Mayor called upon Aids. Prins and Steffens to do the drawing. The following bond numbers were drawn for payment on August 1, 1933: 1933 refunding bonds, Series A. Nos. 11-4-3-15-6 and 20. 1933 refunding bonds, Series B. Nos. 8 and 11.

It was moved by Steffens, supported by Ald. Prins, that the Clerk give the necessary notice for the calling of these 8 bonds.

Adopted, all voting Aye.

Motions and Resolutions
Ald. Kalkman again brought up the matter relative to making 8th St., from River Ave. to Van Raalte Ave., and Van Raalte from Lake to 17th a through street. Mr. Kalkman called attention to two recent accidents near the intersection of Maple and 8th St., and it was his contention that these accidents might have been avoided if stop signs were put up at the intersections entering the street.

Ald. Kalkman made a motion to have this street set aside as a through street. Other aldermen, however, felt that this would not solve the problem relative to accidents and after considerable discussion a substitute motion by Ald. Edward Brouwer, supported by Ald. Kleis, that the Mayor appoint a committee from the Council to meet with the Police Board and go into this matter very thoroughly and report back to the Common Council.

Adopted.
Mayor appointed Aids. Ketel, Gower and Prins on committee.

Ald. Menken called attention to the condition of Central Ave. south of 24th St. Mr. Menken stated that this street was very rough and should be graded more frequently.

Referred to Street Committee and City Engineer.

Council adjourned.

OSCAR PETERSON, City Clerk.

Takes New Post

George Ashley Tomlinson

Michigan Man Heads
Pere Marquette BoardOnetime Detroit Newspaper Editor,
Now Prominent Great Lakes
Vessel Operator, Gets New Railroad Post

George A. Tomlinson, Great Lakes vessel operator, of Cleveland, O., and onetime Michigan newspaper editor and managing editor, has been elected Chairman of the Board of the Pere Marquette Railway, subsidiary of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway.

This marks the fourth railroad board chairmanship to which Tomlinson has been elected. He resigned recently as chairman of the Missouri Pacific, the New Orleans, Texas & Mexico and the International Great Northern railroads, in order to be free to give his attention and activities to the eastern railway field.

In addition to his Pere Marquette post, Mr. Tomlinson is President of the Allegheny Corporation, railroad holding company.

Born at Lapeer, Mich., Jan. 26, 1866, Tomlinson has lived a many-sided, adventurous career, starting as a cowhand on a Wyoming ranch after his expulsion from the Lapeer high school as the "Peck's bad boy" of the school.

After finishing a year's stint at cowpunching, Tomlinson covered the police beat for a Detroit newspaper. This newspaper was a competitor of the Detroit Journal, owned by Tomlinson's father. The son wanted to work out his newspaper career independently, without parental influence or favor.

Catching the circus fever during an appearance of "Buffalo Bill" and his troupe at Detroit, Tomlinson obtained a job with the show as a cowboy performer and stunt rider. But he soon tired of circus life and went to work under Dana on the New York Sun. Later, he became managing editor on the Detroit Times, a Scripps newspaper.

In 1892, Tomlinson went into business as a vessel agent at Duluth, Minn. In 1901 he began operating a vessel of his own in the Lake service. This was the nucleus of the present Tomlinson Fleet, of which he is president. The Fleet comprises sixteen vessels.

Fortright in speech and manner, Tomlinson is disarmingly frank regarding himself and his business activities. The door to his office in the Terminal Tower, Cleveland, is never closed to callers. His wife is the former Laura Davidson, daughter of the late Captain James Davidson, shipbuilder of Bay City, Mich.

It was moved by Ald. Prins, supported by Ald. Kleis that the request for a filling station be denied. In commenting on this motion, both Alderman Prins and Kleis stated that inasmuch as there is considerable opposition to the erection of this station by the First Reformed Church and also from Mr. Geerds on behalf of the Army building, they felt that the station should not be permitted to be built.

Nelson Miles, being present, stated that he was representing the owner who wished to construct this station and they had promised him that he could go ahead and enter into an agreement with the City in regard to keeping the station closed on Sunday. Mr. Miles further stated that since the previous owners and operators of this station had remained closed on Sunday, it was their intention to do the same.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By CORA ANTHONY
Director, A&P Kitchen

THIS is summer when all growing things tend to flourish, even though the calendar says we must wait until the twenty-first for official sanction. Berries, cherries, peaches, melons and pineapple all invite the shopper. Potatoes are cheap and other vegetables are showing the effects of plentiful moisture and warmth. Tomatoes and lettuce for salads are particularly good values.

Poultry has again become a value comparable to meat. Heavy fowl and roasting chickens alone remain high, while smaller fowl, roasters, young chickens and ducklings are reasonable. Lamb is high. Smoked meats are higher and beef, veal and fish reasonable.

Butter is cheaper while eggs are following their normal warm weather trend. Here are three reasonable, dinner menus.

Low Cost Dinner
Cold Meat Loaf Tomato Soup Potato Salad
Cold Slaw Bread and Butter Tea or Coffee
Medium Cost Dinner
Pot Roast of Beef Potato Salad Beans and Butter Tapicas Cream with Berries Tea or Coffee
Very Special Dinner
Fresh Pineapple and Cherry Cup Roast Stuffed Young Chicken Gravy New Carrots Green Beans Mixed Salad Bread and Butter Raspberry Bavarian Coffee
