Cut Out the Rye in Wheat Fields.

The growing of rye in the vicinity of wheat fields has caused no end of trouble in the general markets and among millers and discriminating flour buyers. Wheat mixed with rye is not wanted, and hence it is always docked in price, the financial loss falling most heavily upon the grain grower.

The name Michigan throughout the country has become synonymous with purity. Everybody in this state, including the grain grower, should take a great pride in the present condition and should do all in his power to help maintain such a reputation.

You cannot do a more profitable piece of work, Mr. Grain Grower, for yourself and for the reputation of Michigan wheat than to go carefully over the wheat fields and cut the rye out perfectly clean. Cut it out!

Laugh Heartily and Live Long.

The discontented worries of a morose person may very likely shorten his days, and the general justice of nature's arrangement provides that his early departure should entail no long regrets, says a British medical journal. On the other hand, the man who can laugh keeps his health. To be perfectly healthy laughter comes often. Too commonly, though, as childhood is left behind, the habit fails, and a half smile is the best that visits the thought-lined mouth of a modern man or woman. People become more and more burdened with the accumulations of knowledge and with the weighing responsibilities of life, but they should still spare time to laugh.

DEATH COMES QUICKLY.

SON ONLY ONE WITH HIM AT THE LAST.

Mrs. Pingree Hears the Sad News at New York and Will Not Sail—Remains Will Be Brought Back at Once—News Causes Sadness at Detroit.

London, June 19.—The North German Lloyd steamer Koenigin Luise, which sails from Bremen June 22 via Southampton June 23 for New York, will take the body of former Gov. Hazen S. Pingree, of Michigan, who died here Tuesday night.

The remains of Mr. Pingree have been embalmed. They were removed to a private mortuary Wednesday night, prior to their embarkation on Sunday.

Mr. Pingree, Jr., is the recipient of cable messages of sympathy from all parts of the United States.

The officials of the United States embassy here have extended him every courtesy and assistance.

Dies Peacefully.

London, June 19.—Ex-Gov. H. S. Pingree, of Michigan, died here Tuesday night at 11:35. His son was the only one present at the time. The attending doctor left Mr. Pingree's bedside at about 11:15, promising to return shortly. H. S. Pingree, Jr., who had been watching at his father's side for four days and who has not removed his clothes during that time, noticed a sudden change in his father's condition. He had hardly reached the patient's bedside when his father died peacefully, without warning and without speaking one word. Young Mr. Pingree wired his mother and his uncle in the United States not to come to London. The body of the late Mr. Pingree will be embalmed and taken to his home.

Mrs. Pingree Hears the News.

New York, June 19.—Mrs. Hazen S. Pingree, widow of ex-Gov. Pingree, whose death in London was announced Tuesday night by cable, arrived in this city from Detroit Tuesday morning with her daughter, Hazel H. Pingree, and her husband's brother, F. C. Pingree. The party had started from Detroit as soon as they learned of the seriousness of the illness of Gov. Pingree in London, but received a cablegram early Tuesday that there was no use of continuing their journey, as the governor's condition was so bad they would arrive in London too late. At night they received a cable telling of his death. No plans for the funeral have been made by the family. Mrs. Pingree and her daughter will go back to Detroit today instead of taking the steamer St. Paul, as intended. The widow and daughter will be escorted back home by F. C. Pingree, who will then immediately return to this city to await the arrival of the remains, which H. S. Pingree, Jr., or "Joe," as he is called, who was with his father in London when he died, will bring to this city.

Flags Half-Masted.

Detroit, Mich., June 19.—All the flags in the city are floating at half-mast Wednesday out of respect to the memory of ex-Gov. Pingree, whose death in London Tuesday night is almost the sole topic of conversation on the streets. Expressions of deep and sincere regret are heard on every hand, and the papers are filled with eulogies of the dead ex-governor from friends and former political foes alike. The common council met Wednesday morning and adopted fitting resolutions on the death of Detroit's best known ex-mayor, and the circuit courts adjourned until Thursday in respect of his memory. As a whole, the city is more deeply moved by Pingree's death than by the loss of any public man in many decades.

His Career.

[Hazen Senter Pingree was born at Denmark, Me., in 1840. In 1862 he enlisted in the First Massachusetts heavy artillery and served until the end of the war, when he located in Detroit, embarking in the manufacturing of shoes. In 1888 the republican party nominated ex-Gov. Pingree for mayor of Detroit, and he was elected by over 2,000 majority. He was reelected in 1891, 1893, 1895, by increased majorities each time. In 1896 Mr. Pingree was selected as governor of Michigan by 83,000 plurality, running ahead of the national ticket by 26,000 votes. He was reelected governor in 1898 by about 100,000 plurality, and served out his term, which expired in 1900. Last March he started on the trip to South Africa, which resulted in his death in London. Ex-Gov. Pingree, while he was mayor, accomplished many municipal reforms, among others forcing the gas company to lower their rates 50 cents per thousand, establishing the public lighting plant, organizing the Detroit railway on a three-cent fare basis, lowering telephone rates and breaking up a number of sewer and paving rings that were thriving when he came into office. His potato patch scheme for the relief of the poor of the city was extensively copied and brought him much fame. While governor, Mr. Pingree devoted his energies toward securing a law taxing railroads and other corporate property on an ad valorem basis instead of specifically on their earnings. His efforts resulted in the passage of a law along these lines by the last legislature. Mr. Pingree is survived by a widow and two children, a son and a daughter.]

CUBA ACCEPTS THE TERMS

VOTE ON THE QUESTION STOOD 16 TO 11

News Received with Genuine Gratification in Washington—Formation of a Government Can Now Proceed—No Action Required by the President in Immediate Future.

Havana, June 13.—The Cuban constitutional convention on Wednesday accepted the Platt amendment by a vote of 16 to 11. The resolution to accept was carried without discussion. Immediately after the opening of the session Senors Tamayo, Villuendas and Quesada, constituting a majority of the committee on relations, submitted as a substitute for the committee's former report the Platt amendment as passed by congress, recommending that it be accepted and made an appendix to the constitution.

News Is Gratifying.

Washington, June 13.—The news of the adoption of the Platt amendment by the Cuban constitutional convention was received with genuine gratification here. The administration officials all along have felt confident that its ratification would be accomplished when the Cubans realized that this government was firm in its attitude regarding the amendment and that its acceptance would be necessary before the United States would consent to withdraw its supervision from the island.

Future Plans.

Now that the Cubans have adopted the Platt amendment, the constitutional convention is expected to proceed with the passing of electoral laws and to provide for the selection of legislative and executive officers. The election will be held in the fall, after the rainy season. The question of the extent to which suffrage is to be exercised remains to be determined, but the electoral laws will probably be liberal.

Clears the Way for Action.

The formation of the Cuban government can proceed under present conditions and no action is required by the president in the immediate future. The American troops will remain and Gov. Wood will retain control until at least after congress meets. The Cuban constitution is voluminous and the president will not assume the responsibility of accepting it. He will refer it, together with all other questions that have arisen since last March, to congress for action. He will ask instructions and will be governed by the advice he receives from congress.

Independence Near.

Washington, June 14.—It is expected at the war department that Cuban independence will be an accomplished fact by next Christmas. The next step in order, now that the Platt amendment is adopted by the constitutional convention, is for that body to take up and pass an electoral bill which will provide for the election of all the officers necessary to set up an independent government in Cuba.

Newport, R. I., June 19.—The yacht Constitution went out to sea Wednesday for a trial sail. When off the lights, however, she came about and for some time her sails flapped in the light breeze. In a short time the press boat rounded up under her stern, took a line and started back towards the harbor. So far as could be seen from the shore there was no trouble with the rigging of the yacht, but there was a suggestion of trouble with the steering gear in the action of the yacht, off the lights.

UNCLE SAM'S MOVE NEXT

Rests with United States Whether Tariff War with Russia Is to Continue.

SECRETARY GAGE RAISES A QUESTION.

Rights of the United States Under Treaty May Have Been Infringed by Russia Thus Invalidating It—Russia Ambassador Does Not Think Affair Will Amount to Much.

Washington, June 19.—The situation as to the retaliatory tariff war between the United States and Russia is such that the next move must be made by the United States, if the contest is to be pursued. Secretary Gage, in his letter, raises the question whether the Russian government has not infringed upon the rights of the United States under treaty. Article 6, of the treaty of commerce with Russia of 1832, reads:

"No higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the United States of any article, the produce or manufacture of Russia; and no higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the empire of Russia of any article, the produce or manufacture of the United States, than are, or shall be, payable on the like article being the produce or manufacture of any foreign country."

By levying maximum duties on United States bicycles, resins and machinery, and specially designating them as United States products, the Russian government has, it is not doubted, made just such a discrimination as is provided against in this article of the treaty. The question is raised, however, whether, by our action in levying a duty on Russian petroleum and specially describing it as such, the United States has not also violated this article. There is no penalty article in the treaty, but under the common practice of international law a country may denounce the whole of a treaty where it is satisfied that one of its provisions has been purposely broken. If such extreme action is taken in the case there will be no trade treaty between Russia and the United States, and as far as Russia is concerned the maximum tariffs, which are practically prohibitive, would apply to all imports from the United States. On the other hand, if such action by Russia is regarded as discrimination, the United States government may by existing law exclude any or all imports from Russia.

Not Considered Grave.

Washington, June 19.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, in discussing Wednesday the latest phases of the tariff issue which has arisen between Russia and the United States, said that the issues do not seem to him to be very grave, and he is hopeful that they will be satisfactorily adjusted. He said that the action of Russia is an economic move pure and simple and is quite certain that it is due to no antagonism against the United States.

Count Cassini said that no political significance could attach to a matter of a purely commercial nature. He said he knew nothing of any European movement against American products.

Sonator Clark's Son Weds.

Butte, Mont., June 19.—W. A. Clark, Jr., the youngest son of United States Senator W. A. Clark, and Miss Mabel Foster were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. S. C. Blackiston, of St. John's Episcopal church, officiating. The Foster home was elaborately decorated. The wedding guests were limited to 50, relatives and friends. Mr. Foster gave his daughter away and there were no bridesmaids or groomsmen.

Gift of Rockefeller to Cornell.

Ithaca, N. Y., June 19.—At a meeting of the board of trustees of Cornell university Wednesday President Schurman presented a letter from John D. Rockefeller donating $250,000 to the university on condition that an equal amount is contributed by others. The $500,000 when secured will be used in providing additional accommodations for instruction and research.

Interstate Challenge.

St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—The artillery of the Minnesota national guard will challenge the artillery of the Wisconsin national guard and the national guard organizations of neighboring states to competition in a tournament at Camp Lakeview during September. The contest will be with new model 3.2 field guns at varying ranges, 2,500, 4,000 and 6,000 yards.

Cannot Recount Ballots.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 19.—The supreme court has made absolute the writs of prohibition issued against judges of the St. Louis courts who ordered a recount in four contested election cases. In deciding the cases, the supreme court declared that if the order of the judges were complied with, the secrecy of the ballot would be violated.

Haddam, Conn., June 19.—A cablegram received here announces the death, in London, England, Tuesday, of Charles T. Russell, of this town, United States consul general at Liverpool from 1885 to 1889. His age was about 65.

New Officers Installed.

Milwaukee, June 19.—The supreme lodge, Knights of Honor, concluded its session Wednesday forenoon by adopting the report of the committee on engrossed bills, and installing the new corps of officers.

A Terrible Explosion.

"Of a gasolinetove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Hope College Commencement Week.

One week of each year is set apart by the citizens of Holland for Hope College. During that time Winants Chapel is the Mecca towards which all hearts turn, for therein takes place the exercises incident to commencement week of the College.

That week for the year of 1901 has just closed and it marked important events in the lives of more than one person. Main of these events are the graduating of the class of 1901, the graduating of class A from the preparatory department, the meeting of the Uldias Club and the public meeting of the alumni.

Commencement week began with the baccalaureate sermon last Sunday evening at Winants Chapel. Dr. G. J. Kollen opened services with a few remarks and introduced Rev. J. T. Bergen who led in prayer. Besides the sermon a fine song service was rendered. Messrs. Dinkeloo, Dykema Wayer and Brook sang a selection. They were accompanied by Miss Grace Yates in a soprano obligato. Dr. A. C. Van Raalte Gilmore, accompanied by Miss Amy Yates on the piano, sang a bass solo, and a quartette consisting of Mrs. G. J. Diekema, Miss Nella Pfantstiehl, Prof. J. B. Nykerk and Dr. Gilmore rendered a beautiful selection. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. John G. Gebhard, of New York, Cor. Sec. of the board of education of the R. C. A. He spoke on "The Value of a Map." A short sketch of his sermon follows:

"How much more then is a man of more value than a sheep? Matt. 12:12. Revision.

Our subject is the difference between the value of a man and the value of any other animal. Here we have men compared with sheep. In another passage our Lord asks, "are ye not of much more value than the birds?" And in still another he inquires whether healing a man of dropsy is not far more important than rescuing an ox from danger.

Some famous teachers hold that the only difference in the value of other animals and men is one of higher organization and development. They say truly that man has no special kingdom of his own, he is an animal; no special division of his own, he is a vertebrate; no special class of his own he is a mammal. But the special value of a man over a sheep is not to be sought in his physical organization. In the life of man there is a development of which the lower animal knows nothing, a development which does not culminate, but at best has only a fair beginning, in his earthly experience.

The history of man's mental development shows of how much more value he is than a sheep. The bird will build the same kind of a nest today as the same species of bird built thousands of years ago; there is no perceptible development in his instinct. The wild beast defends himself today in exactly the same way as similar animals defended themselves in the morning of earth's history. But though man's first house may of necessity be a mud hut, his home will rapidly develop into a temple of marble; though his first boat may be a birch canoe, he will soon plow the waters in a palace of steel; though his first burden bearer may be his own shoulders he will bind the vapors and lightnings of the clouds to do his bidding with an efficiency far surpassing the united strength of all the beasts of earth. A man is of more value than a sheep in the proportion in which he thinks more than a sheep.

Man has also a social history, which inferior animals have not. They love indeed to herd, swarm, flock together yet their gatherings are mere aggregations; their efficiency for good or evil being fairly expressed by the sum of the efficiency of the individuals concerned. But men combine socially and accomplish by their united strength results larger in degree and greatly superior in kind not only to anything the individual man could effect alone but superior to the results effected by the simple united strength of the individuals. A man is of more value than a sheep in the proportion in which his social development excel that of the lower animals.

And man has a moral development, and history of which the sheep know nothing. Love of beauty, love of purity, love of truth, love of man and love of God are capacities which constitute the distinctive glory of a man. There is an impassable gulf between the lower animals' sense of right and wrong, if we may call it such and man's moral capacity, his sense of holiness, justice, goodness and truth. The life of a lower animal has always been estimated at a nominal value. God's estimate of the value of a man is higher than any human being would ever have to conceive; it is unutterably impressive; God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Such is the value of a man. Put your manhood wholly into Christ's direction and keeping, mentally, socially, morally, with the daily petition, O holy God, help me this day to be a man, conformed into the image of thy blessed Son."

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

The graduating exercises of the Preparatory department of the college took place at Winants Chapel Monday afternoon and was witnessed by an audience that taxed the capacity of the hall. To the music of a march played by Miss Edith K. Weston the graduating class came in and took their places on raised seats to the left of the platform.

Rev. J. H. Karsten made the opening invocation. Rev. J. T. Bergen introduced the first speaker, Daniel G. Verwey, who read the class history. He represented the class as a company of soldiers and told of the events that had made its history in Hope College memorable. His paper contained many references to the work of the different members and will form a valuable contribution to the class records.

John Douma recited the "Origin of Roast Pig" in an original manner. He brought out very plainly the fine shades of humor in Lamb's noted production and was applauded vigorously.

The Hope College orchestra played an overture entitled, "Pastime." Their performance was a great surprise to many, especially to the alumni, who did not know that Hope College had such an excellent orchestra. The boys did themselves proud and had to respond to an encore.

Miss Coda Van Farowe gave a graphic account of "The Woman's Crusade," and Benj. H. Masselink recited a "Soliloquy" in a tragic and earnest manner.

He was followed by Martin Ruisaard who read the class poem entitled "The Battle of Spion Kop." Mr. Ruisaard gave a vivid portrayal of that famous Boer victory. His poem was a message of cheer and encouragement to the struggling patriots in South Africa.

Mrs. G. J. Diekema, accompanied by Miss Edith K. Weston on the piano and a violin obligato by Will Breyman, sang "Happy Days" in a sweet, earnest and sympathetic manner.

She was followed by Miss Lottie M. Hoyt who recited "Papa's Letter," in an impressive manner that roused the sympathies of the audience and gained the approbation of all.

Simon Blocker delivered the class oration. It was an able production and was delivered with all the force and grace of an orator.

Then Miss Weston played a minuet from Paderewski and Jacob Pelgrim recited Ben Hur's "Chariot Race" in impressive style.

"Class Prophecy" was read by Henry A. Naberhuis. He peered in the future and told with startling plainness the life work of each member of the class. His forecasts of the future were very amusing and created considerable merriment.

Another selection by the college orchestra and the graduating exercises of Class A of the Preparatory department passed into class history.

Rev. J. T. Bergen presided at the exercises. In the course of his remarks he took occasion to play a glowing tribute to the young ladies of Hope and asserted that their influence for good was far reaching. He also brought out the fact that a graduate from the preparatory department was not only ready to enter college and master the higher branches of learning but that they were finely equipped for the battle of life and had an excellent education.

Rev. Bergen was right. Hope's preparatory course is the best in the country and to graduate from that department is an honor that is highly valued by all interested in the cause of education.

PUBLIC MEETING OF ALUMNI.

As the years go by the number of Hope's Alumni increases and there is a corresponding increase in influence and sphere of action. Go where you will and you will meet graduates of Hope. They are conspicuous in every walk of life and many of them have made illustrious names that were once spoken in fraternal tones in Van Vleck hall or on the college campus. In Japan and China you will find representatives of Hope spreading the light of the gospel and by the good example of their lives awakening in the heathen a love for the true God. On the western frontier you will find them bearing the torch of education to the roaming red men; at the head of educational institutions you will find them giving to others the fruits of their course at Hope; in the cities of men you will find them taking an active part in the duties of business and professional life and winning honor and fame in the arena of thought and action.

And many of these men were here this week. They came to wish another class Godspeed, to clasp again the hand of friendship and fraternity, to offer the fruits of their knowledge and experience to those who are about to take up in earnest the problem of life. They met at Winants Chapel at the public meeting of the alumni Tuesday night and exchanged messages of hope and cheer. The following program was carried out:

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The annual commencement exercises took place Wednesday evening at Winants Chapel. Every available inch of space was occupied by a deeply interested audience. At about 7:40 the procession of students, faculty and council came down the aisles to the stage.

Dr. G. J. Kollen, president of Hope, in gown and cap, occupied a seat in the center of the stage. On his right was Rev. Albertus Pieters, missionary to Japan, and surrounding him were the members of the graduating class. On a raised stage to the left were the members of the council and to the right were the members of the faculty as follows: Professors Cornelius Doeberg, Henry Boers, John H. Kleinkels, James G. Sutphen, John B. Nykerk, Douwe B. Yntema, John Tallmadge Bergen, Henry Vegte, Edward D. Dimment, Adoniran J. Ladd, Samuel O. Mast, Albert W. De Jonge and Mrs. C. Van Raalte Gilmore.

Invocation was offered by Rev. Albertus Pieters. Prof. John B. Nykerk then sang "Is not Thy Word like a Fire?" (from the "Elijah") in fervid, moving tones of power and brilliancy. Then orations were delivered by six members of the class. Interspersed with the orations were musical numbers.

John H. Hoppers, accompanied by T. Welmers on the piano, played a flute solo "The Silver Rhine." He was loudly applauded and responded to an encore.

"Mammy's Li'l Boy" and "Spin, Spin" were sung by the college male quartette—Messrs. Wayer, Dinkeloo, Dykema and Broek. So well did they do that the audience clamored for another number and they gave! "Bah! Bah! Black Sheep." But this did not suffice and in response to another call they sang about the "Sticky Files."

The orations delivered by the members of the class were exceptionally good. Brief outlines of them follow.

Mr. Albertus Hoeksema spoke on the subject "Holland and Her Influence in America." He very clearly showed in his oration how Holland was one of the most enlightened and prosperous countries in Europe in the 16th century. It was a nation of great enterprises and industries. From the Puritans, Pilgrims and Separatists came the civil and religious views of freedom and equality, which made Holland their home. He also clearly showed how those impulses of civilization were transferred to America and how Holland has made this nation what it is now. He said: "The Hollanders, therefore, both by their ideas and example, have contributed directly and indirectly some of the most potent and lasting influences in the development of America. It was the first of foreign nations that saluted the American flag and unfurled it to the breezes on nearly every sea. We have borrowed from her not only her ideas of government, but we have imitated her example in our struggle for freedom. She has given some of the initial impulses to our educational systems; and the religious institutions of the Reformed Church "which are the outgrowth of persistent efforts and a self-denying spirit," were founded by those who were born and bred in Holland. Thus, among the diverse nationalities that helped to form the character of America, the name of Holland stands among the most prominent; and the influences which she contributed are of "untold meaning" to every citizen of the United States of America."

The "Ideal of our Public School" was the theme of E. Winter's address. He explained that the public school should not so much prepare the child to earn a living as it should train his intelligence and character. The aim of the public school should not be to train the child in commercial branches but in the so-called liberal studies, since his success in life depends upon his training. He said the public schools were in great danger of losing much of their influence on account of the introduction of new methods and new ideals. Changes and the work of ignorant experimentation were the cause of confusion in the public school of today too much was attempted all could not be done well. All commercialism and technical branches should not constitute a public school course. He said further that the incompetency of many teachers was the cause of much criticism and discontent. Our public schools should have trained teachers and a liberal education in order to prepare the child for life.

The subject of Mr. W. Denekas' oration was "The Germans in America." He spoke of the influence of the Germans in Europe and how under persecution they came to this country in search of freedom. Of their influence in America he said: "Since the colonial days, German Americans have grown in power as well as in position. They are today represented by men of every rank, from the laborer in the ditch to the millionaire in his palace and from the overseer of the highway to the cabinet officers at Washington. Every county, territory and state, between the angry waves of the Atlantic and the peaceful waters of the Pacific owes some tribute to their influence and their service." Among many other things he said: "And although they consider themselves but servants of our country, we do not hesitate to say that no other people, save, perhaps the Dutch have offered such sacrifices for the freedom, prosperity and preservation of this grand American Republic, 'the champion among the powers of the world,' 'the guiding star of liberty,' 'the pride of all nations.'"

William Damsen who spoke on "The American soldier" deeply impressed the audience by his patriotic statements. He proved that the American soldier is far superior in many ways to the soldiers of Greece, Rome, France, Russia and other countries.

Hope College Commencement Week.

He said "Show me where and when greater fortitude was displayed than by our soldiers as they hurled themselves repeatedly against the stone wall at Fredericksburg, or charged up the sun-bleached hills of Santiago, exposed to the hidden fire from the terrible death dealing Mauser rifle. Where was there ever greater endurance and sacrifice displayed than by our soldiers as they retreated across New Jersey in the winter of 1776, leaving trails of blood from their frozen limbs in the snow and ice along the dreary march, or as they camped in their dismal winter quarters at Valley Forge. Never in the history of the world was an army held together under more trying circumstances.".....This superiority of the American soldier Mr. Damson explained was due to ancestry and environment. He showed the patriotism and valor of our American soldiers in their struggle for freedom, in their struggle with the Indians, during the Mexican War, the Civil War, and also in the Spanish American War. In Chinese affairs our soldier surpassed the best drilled soldiers of Europe.

John Wesselink spoke on the subject "Beyond the Mississippi." He showed very clearly in his oration that "the west" was the land of promise. He showed how the West has developed from vast prairie lands into a wonderland of civilization. He spoke of the vast resources of the west, its mineral wealth, the fertility of its soil, the pleasantness of its climate and its many other, as yet hidden treasures. Speaking of the heterogeneous population of the West Mr. Wesselink said "Here are foreigners. The great American common school, the smelting furnace of western life, makes Englishmen, Dutchmen, Frenchmen, all alike, citizens of the United States.".....This conglomeration of races will result in a higher type of manhood than now appears upon the continent. Strong, vigorous, representing the best blood of all nations, educated under the conditions of freedom and equality of all men, in a land of health and abundance, who can measure the sublime possibilities of this young American nation?.....Here will be the culmination of all that man has ever done or may ever hope to do in this world."

James Weyer spoke on the subject "Our Denominational College." He said in part: "It is interesting to note how many of the schools and colleges of higher instruction both in Europe and America, originated in the bosom of the church. But it is just as interesting to note how many of these schools left their foster mother. It might not be amiss to ask whether Hope College should follow the example of those that stepped across the line of denominationalism. There seems to be a few reasons why Hope should be conservative on this question. Its origin demands it. Hope College was founded in prayer and hopes of settlers who fled from political oppression in their mother country. They would rather be tossed on an unknown ocean, while searching for freedom than be forced into a spiritual serfdom by a bought priesthood. Its present constituency has also a right to claim that Hope College follow the conservative plan for are they not animated by the same firm reform principles as were our fathers?.... Can the past throw any light on this question?..... The principles of the Reformation ushered in one of the most active, one of the most brilliant periods of civilization and these principles brought our sturdy pioneers to the borders of Western Michigan; these principles built Hope College."

After the orations Miss Amy M. Yates played the "Rondo Capriccioso" by Mendelssohn. She is the most talented pianist in Holland and played the difficult composition in exquisite style.

Dr. Kollen then made the formal presentation of certificates, conferred degrees and awarded prizes. First he made a short address and presented certificates to the graduating class of the Preparatory department. Next he made an address to the class of 1901. A statement of work done was given to Benjamin J. Lugers and the degree of A. B. was conferred upon William J. Damson, Wilbert Denekas, Albert Hoekema, John H. Hospers, George H. Korteling, John Steunenberg, Henry Tellman, James Van der Heide, Oswald W. Visscher, James Weyer, Jacob J. Weersing, John Wesselink, Egbert Winter, John G. Winteler.

The following have received from the state of Michigan, a teacher College certificate: William John Damson, Wilbert Denekas, Albert Hoekema, George H. Korteling, John Steunenberg, Gerrit H. Tellman, Jacob Weersing, John Wesselink, Egbert Winter, John G. Winteler. Besides the certificates and diplomas each member of the graduating class was presented with a handsome Bible by Gerard Beekman, of New York.

Honorary degrees were then conferred. The class of '98 received their A. M. in course. The L. L. D. was conferred upon Hon. Theodore Roosevelt amid loud applause. Other degrees were conferred. Dr. Kollen reading the reasons as follows:

"In view of the honorable position of national influence attained by a descendant of the same noble lineage as were the founders of our College, who achieving international reputation as writer and statesman, retains and fosters an intense interest in the history and culture of the Reformed church, the honorary degree of L. L. D. is conferred on the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, vice president of the United States."

"For recognized ability as a pioneer missionary, original researches as explorer, honorably noted by the London Geographical society, and his success as author of a work challenging the attention of the literary world, the honorary degree of D. D. was conferred on the Rev. Samuel M. Zwemer, Fellow of the London Geographical Society and missionary to Arabia."

"On account of eminent proficiency in their professions, acknowledged scholarship and lively interest in the cause of education as represented by Hope College, the honorary degree of A. M. was conferred upon Messrs. George Baert, M. D. of Grand Rapids and T. G. Huizenga, M. D. of Zeeland, Mich."

The next number on the program caused intense excitement. It was the awarding of prizes by the president. As the successful contestants walked to the platform to receive their award they were accorded vigorous applause. The result follows:

The Van Vechten Foreign Missionary prize of $25 was awarded to John Wesselink of the Senior class. Second place to George Korteling. The subject of the essay was "Missions Among the American Indians in the Eighteenth Century." Judges: Revs. M. Koly, J. H. Gillespie, D. D., H. E. Dosker, D. D.

The George Birkhoff, Jr., prize of $25 for the best essay in Dutch was divided between Miss Alice J. Kollen and J. Van Zomeren, on account of their essays being so near equal. Judges, Rev. K. Van Goor, A. J. Van Lummel and Rev. B. De Jonge.

The George Birkhoff, Jr., Sophomore prize for the best essay in English was awarded to Edward J. Strick. The subject was "English Prose of the Restoration."

The Henry Bozch prize for the best examination passed in English Grammar and orthography were given to Miss Kate Veltman, who received $15 and to Harry Vis who received $10. Judges: Profs. Philip Soulen, and P. A. Latta.

After the prizes were awarded Miss Grace Yates sang the "Cavatina" (from "Carmen") in brilliant style. She was followed by John G. Winter, the valedictorian of the class. His address was a masterpiece and created a profound impression. In addressing the class he said in part:

"This hallowed place now holds us as its students for the last time. But we do not now realize the significance nor the sacredness of the hour. Ties of tenderest affection are being severed, perhaps forever. And while we would not strike a note of sadness, it is well for us to meet once more, face to face, and voice a fond farewell. This day to which we have looked forward with all the anticipation of youth, is ours; and yet, now that it is here we cannot say that our joy is unalloyed. With the pleasure of the moment is blended the pain of parting—parting from our Alma Mater, parting from our friends, parting from each other. And what a void is made in the world by the parting from those whom we love! And when the hand lingers in another's, when the eyes grow dim, and the voice trembles strangely, how hard it is to say farewell! But in the coming years memory will perfect the picture of the past; and when we look at that picture we shall hear voices we have not heard for years; we shall again hear fragments of story and strains of sweetest music that melted our hearts. And as our eyes grow dim, the garish tints of the picture will fade away and all will be transfigured in the blaze of life's setting sun."

And now, my classmates, our procession is preparing to march out into the world and there take its place as a higher order of Freshmen in the long line of Alumni advancing with thinning ranks toward middle manhood and beyond; and when our commencement there is over our undergraduate life will be ended. Wander where we may, our hearts will ever fill with secret longing for our college days. There the rays of affection will concentrate. Time may enfeeble them; distance overshadow them, and the storms of life obstruct them for a season, but they will at length break through the clouds and storm, and glow and brighten around our Alma Mater. May the years of the rougher schooling that await us be as rich in affection as these at "Hope" have been. And now farewell. God be with us each one; and if our next meeting be in the school above may an unclouded path of glorious labor, toil and triumph lead back and back amid the scenes of time's life to this moment and this spot where now we say—farewell."

In closing the exercises President Kollen made a few remarks that were received with manifestations of pleasure by the audience. Regarding Van Raalte Memorial hall he said that a large part of the funds necessary to erect the building was in sight and that work on the structure would in all probability begin in a couple of months.

He stated that the council had considered with favor a petition presented by the students for a new gymnasium and that it was the intention of the council to see to it that Hope had a gymnasium worthy of the institution, and that in the meantime steps would be taken to greatly improve the present building. He also read the financial statement:

 Among the pleasant memories of the week the entertainment given by the Ladies Literary League will always occupy a prominent place. They invited the students, alumnus, faculty, president and council members to a lawn party on the campus after the meeting of the Alumni Tuesday night; but a heavy rain fell and instead of a lawn party an entertainment was held in the gymnasium.

Japanese lanterns and electric lights lit up an animated scene. The gymnasium was crowded by a merry throng. Elaborate refreshments were served and during the evening the college orchestra stationed in the balcony furnished excellent music.

Death of Ame Vennema.

News was received Tuesday from Orange City, Iowa, that another of the old pioneers that helped build the city of Holland had joined the silent majority. Ame Vennema died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. Schalekamp Tuesday morning after an illness that confined him to his bed about a week. He had been staying at the home of his daughter in Orange City since he left Holland last fall.

Mr. Vennema was born in the Netherlands 80 years ago and came to this city with the early pioneers in the year of 1848. He resided here ever since and was one of the foremost citizens of the city. Soon after his arrival here he was married to Miss Elizabeth Van der Haar. The first work that he engaged in was with the late Hon. John Roost in the wagon making business under the firm name of Roost & Vennema. In the days that the fishing business was at its height in Holland and the fish were salted instead of packed in ice Mr. Vennema engaged in the coopering business and dealt in staves. He also engaged in the furniture business for a number of years. He was known as a man who was always busy and his great industry and superior business ability resulted in the full measure of success. All who knew him had a warm spot in their hearts for Mr. Vennema and the tidings of his death were received with great sorrow.

Mr. Vennema's first wife died in the 60's near the close of the war and he married Miss Johanna De Zwart a few years after. She died a year ago last February.

Mr. Vennema was one of that class of early settlers who believed firmly in the idea of giving his children a good education and as a result he leaves a family that has made a success of business and professional life and reflects credit on the early influence of their father.

The children surviving are Mrs. D. Schalekamp, Orange City, Iowa; John Vennema, Milwaukee, Wis.; Rev. A. Vennema, Passaic, N. J.; Dr. Henry Vennema and Peter Vennema, of Menominee, Mich.; Attorney John Vennema, of Chicago. He also leaves one grandson, Dr. John Heeren, of Menominee.

The remains of Mr. Vennema were brought here for burial and the funeral service will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Central Avenue First Reformed church.

BOERS STILL FAVOR WAR

The Fighting Spirit of the Sturdy

ARE BOUND TO NAME THEIR OWN TERMS

Will Not Consider Talk of Surrender
as Long as They Have Ammunition
—British Force Surprised in Camp and a Number of Officers and Men Are Killed.

War Will Drag On.
There are at this moment 19,000 male Boers in prison camps in Africa, India, St. Helena and Ceylon. Until October the war will drag on. After October when the grass grows there will be a renewal of active fighting. The Boers scout the idea that they are running short of forces and ammunition and maintain that they will have ample store of meales to keep them going for an indefinite time.

No Danger of Starving.
This indeed, it is obvious, must be the case, if only because the zeal of war at present supports 700,000 natives, each with a healthy appetite, while the fighting Boers in the field can hardly number more than 14,000 or 15,000 men, with arms in their hands in the midst of a black population of 700,000 who have enough to eat. Thus they can hardly starve.

Little Prospect of Peace.
More or less faithful accounts are published on the continent of alleged peace negotiations, but there is nothing in them, and nothing has come of the interview between Mrs. Botha and Mr. Kruger beyond revealing the fact that Mr. Kruger will listen to no proposals unless they are accompanied with a guarantee of the independence of the republics.

Surprised in Camp.
London, June 17.—Lord Kitchener has cabled from Pretoria, under Sunday's date, as follows:
"Near Welmarus, 20 miles south of Middleburg, 250 Victorian mounted rifles from Gen. Beaton's column were surprised in camp at Steenkoolspuit by a superior force of Boers at 7:30 p. m. June 12. The enemy crept up to within short range and poured a deadly fire into the camp, killing two officers and 16 men, and wounding four officers and 23 men, of whom 23 were slightly wounded. Only two officers and 50 men escaped to Gen. Beaton's camp. The remainder were taken prisoners and released. Two pompoms were captured by the enemy. Full details have not yet been received."

Seeks Intervention.
London, June 18.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Brussels says Kruger has had several interviews with influential members of The Hague tribunal, with a view to inducing them to intervene between Great Britain and the Transvaal.

Out of Danger.
Washington, June 19.—Mrs. Johnston and Rixey held a consultation at the white house Tuesday forenoon, at the conclusion of which Dr. Johnston pronounced Mrs. McKinley out of danger and convalescing. He said there may, of course, be a recurrence of her trouble, but for the present the danger is past. Dr. Johnston said that the blood infection had disappeared entirely. It is expected that President and Mrs. McKinley will be able to leave for Canton by July 1.

Deed of a Jealous Man.
Denver, Col., June 17.—A special to the Republican from Roswell, N. Mex., says: Arthur Kline, a well-known stockman, shot and killed his wife, Beatrice Kline, and dangerously wounded Marshall Maddux and probably fatally wounded the landlady with whom Mrs. Kline was living, who attempted to interfere, and then committed suicide. Kline was crazed by jealousy, his wife having deserted him.

Yukon River Open.
Seattle, Wash., June 15.—The Yukon is open from end to end, according to news brought down by the steamer Dolphin, which arrived Friday. The ship brought down $40,000 in gold dust. The presence of $7,500,000 of gold dust in the banks at Dawson has caused a renewal of speculation as to what the total output of the Klondike will be this year. Estimates range from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000.

Awful Result of Explosion.
Paris, June 15.—An explosion in a cartridge factory situated in the suburb of Les Moulineaux has resulted in the loss of 15 lives and the injuring of about 20 persons. The victims were horribly mutilated. A majority of those injured were women.

Home Again.
San Francisco, June 18.—The transport Pennsylvania has arrived from Manila, with 32 officers and 810 men of the Fortieth volunteer infantry.

MAGNIFICENT HOTEL BURNS.

Mineral Springs Hotel at West Baden,
Ind., Reduced to a Ruin—
Guests All Escape.

West Baden, Ind., June 15.—The Mineral Springs hotel was destroyed early Friday morning. The fire broke out at ten o'clock in the bakehouse at the south end of the hotel. It burned rapidly and by three o'clock the hotel had been completely consumed. Two hundred and twenty-five guests registered at the hotel at night. Nobody was hurt, but most of the guests lost their effects. The guests were transferred to French Lick and most of them left for their homes on Friday morning. The loss on the hotel building is estimated at $250,000, with insurance aggregating $110,000. In addition to this the loss in diamonds, jewelry and clothing belonging to the guests will, it is estimated, reach $50,000. Mr. Sinclair is yet unable to say what his plans for the future will be, further than that the hotel will be rebuilt as soon as possible.

SIGNS OF HARMONY.
Federal Leaders in Porto Rico Call on Gov. Allen and Offer Him
Their Cooperation.

San Juan, P. R., June 18.—At a mass meeting of the federal party held Sunday Francisco Acuna was elected party leader to succeed Munoz Rivera. As a first step toward establishing harmonious relations between the federal party and the American authorities, a committee composed of Senors Acuna, Santiago Palmer and Diaz Navarro paid their respects to Gov. Allen Monday and offered him their cooperation in whatever measures would advance the best interests of Porto Rico. It is now thought that the time has come when party bickerings should cease and be overlooked and that all men should unite in a common desire to aid the government. The committee informed Gov. Allen that they were satisfied the intentions of the administration had been for the best.

KEEP CHINESE TROOPS OUT.

Foreign Ministers at Peking Refuse to Grant Permission for Return of 3,000 Soldiers.

Peking, June 19.—The foreign ministers have declined to assent to the request to allow 3,000 Chinese soldiers to come to Peking now. They consider that it would be inadvisable to permit such a step to be taken before the latter part of August, by which time, the international troops, with the exception of the legation guards, will have left the city. The ministers also declined to permit international troops to guard the forbidden city until the Chinese soldiers shall arrive.

United States July 1—Calleles, the Filipino Chief, Intimates Willingness to Surrender—Battle Begun by Americans.

Manila, June 13.—What is considered one of the most interesting incidents in connection with the American development of the Philippines was completed when the United States Philippine commission returned from its south province organizing tour. During nearly eight weeks of absence the commission party traveled some 3,000 miles, organized and officered 18 provinces and took note of conditions in several islands which are not enough advanced to permit of civil government of a liberal character. More Surrenders.
Manila, June 15.—Col. Bolanos, with five officers and 41 rifles, has surrendered at Lipa, Batangas province.

The recent battle with the insurgents at Lipa, in which Lieut. Springer was killed and Capt. Wilhelm and Lieut. Lee were mortally wounded, was begun by the Americans. The disproportionate number of officers hit is said to be chargeable to the fact that there were several deserters from the American army with the rebels.

Leader Gives Up.
Manila, June 17.—Cols. Infant and Guivara, representatives of Gen. Calleles, have signed the name of their principal to an agreement to surrender. Under the terms of this agreement Gen. Calleles is to assemble his men at Santa Cruz, Laguna province, as quickly as possible and there surrender himself and his command to the American authorities. The exact number of his force is uncertain, but there will probably be more than 500.

The new steam propeller Puritan of the Graham & Morton Line arrived in St. Joseph, Mich. at 9 a. m., Wednesday, and after being shown to the admiring citizens all day was sent on her first trip to Chicago at 5 p. m. The new boat showed good speed on her maiden trip and President Graham, of the Graham & Morton Line is as enthusiastic over her speed qualities as is John Craig, of Toledo, who built her. In a speed test between South Haven and St. Joseph she made twenty miles an hour and can do better. Contrary to expectations, she was put on the night run out of Chicago for the present and will run between Chicago and St. Joseph until after July 4, when she is expected to run with the steamer Soo City to Holland. At present she is supplemented by the City of Milwaukee, which will run with her on the St. Joseph-Penton Harbor course.

Sporting News.

The Holland base ball club is up against a hard proposition. Next Thursday it will play against the Grand Rapids All Stars on the grounds of the association, River and Seventeenth street, and a close contest will be seen.

The Grand Rapids boys are the champion players of the state.

Manager Bird of the Saugatuck-Douglas base ball club, has made arrangements for the following games: Saturday, June 15, with Fennville club at Fennville; Saturday, June 22, with the Fennville club at Douglas; Saturday, June 29, with Hamilton or Holland club at Saugatuck; July 4, with Fennville club at Fennville.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Holland Base Ball association held Monday N. E. Van Dam was elected manager of the club. A better man could not be secured. He has been in charge of the Hope College club this spring and under him it is better than ever before. He is the manager of the Hope College lecture course and has scored a great success in that capacity. He will have full control of the management of the base ball club and will attend to all the business affairs and will undoubtedly place it at the front ranks financially and otherwise.

The following plan advanced by the Grand Haven Tribune is a good one and the managers of the Holland, Grand Haven, and Zeeland clubs should get together and arrange a schedule of championship games:

Now that Holland and Zeeland have crack ball teams, why not arrange a schedule of games between the towns, including Grand Haven, and play for the county championship pennant. The teams might play four games apiece with each other, which would make the season just about the right length. A schedule could be arranged in advance and strictly adhered to. By all means let's have an Ottawa county league.

Hurrah for the Hope College boys! They won the deciding game of the championship series with Zeeland in a fast contest on the college campus last Wednesday afternoon. They have clinched their claim to the right to be called the best nine that ever represented Hope. They outclassed and outplayed the Zeeland aggregation and won by a score of 9 to 4. Emerson Dickerson, manager of the All Stars of Grand Rapids, and sporting editor of the Grand Rapids Democrat, umpired the game to the satisfaction of all.

The base ball park is rapidly nearing completion. Carpenters are at work on the grand stand and it will be finished Tuesday. A force of men with teams have been at work on the diamond and in a few days it will be in excellent shape.

The park will be opened to the public next Thursday when a game will be played between the Holland club and the All Stars of Grand Rapids. It will be a fine contest as the All Stars are the pick of the Grand Rapids players. Following is the line-up of the visitors:

Whited, C; Cyclone Alberts or Luther, P; Mutz, 1st B; Dickerson, 2nd; W. Tibald, 3rd; Reddik, S S; Weerick, L F; Alberts, C F; Verstay, R F.

The game will be in the nature of a benefit to help meet the expense of getting the park in condition, which will reach $800, and an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. Attend and see the fastest game ever played in the city.

State Firemen's Association will Meet in Holland Next June.

L. T. Kanters, chief of the fire department, firemen Doyle, Keppel and Lokker arrived in Holland last Friday in a jubilant frame of mind, all because they were successful in having the State Firemen's Association designate Holland as the place in which the next convention shall be held. Holland won out after a hard contest by a vote of 57 out of 81.

The convention will be held next June and about 175 firemen will attend. Many of them will be accompanied by their wives thus insuring a large crowd. The business men of Holland will take hold of the matter of entertaining the delegates to the convention and there is no doubt that a royal welcome will be extended them.

The convention at St. Clair elected the following officers: President, B. J. Healy of Kalamazoo; first vice-president, L. L. Thompson of Allegan; second vice president, A. P. Lane of Ithaca; third vice-president, L. T. Kanters, of Holland; secretary and treasurer, A. R. Canfield of Clare; statistician, Samuel Robinson, Jr., of Charlotte; chaplain, Rev. Edward Collins, of Detroit. Delegate to the national association, Dewitt Voght of Alma.

Grand Fourth of July Celebration. Ball Game—Bicycle Races—Carnival of Sport.

Though the citizens of Holland have not directly made preparations for a fourth of July celebration, the men at the head of the Holland Base Ball association, acting in co-operation with those interested in bicycle racing and those interested in athletic sports have arranged what will undoubtedly be one of the best celebrations Holland has ever witnessed. It will be a grand carnival of sport.

The Holland base ball club will play against the McLaughlin University club of Grand Rapids, one of the best in this part of the state and a contest of the highest order will be seen.

H. Van der Werp, Fred Pfanstiehl and other bicycle enthusiasts have completed plans for a grand handicap road race from the base ball park to the Alpena Beach church and return, a distance of twelve miles.

Thirty good prizes will be offered and attracted by the long list of valuable prizes entries are being received from all parts of Ottawa and Allegan counties and a great race will be the result.

Immediately after the road race a number of athletic contests and several amusing sports will take place at the base ball park. There will be running races, jumping contests, hurdle races, potato races, sack races, free silver contests and other contests of that nature, the whole to be concluded by a ball game that will exceed the Holland-Zeeland championship contest.

Royal Arcanum Installation and Initiation Exercises.

Deputy Breeze has scored a great success in the work of organizing a Royal Arcanum lodge in this city and one of the best counsels in the state has been established. The charter membership numbers fifty and as nearly every one of them have applications from friends desiring to join it is expected that that number will be doubled in a short time.

The installation of officers and initiation of candidates took place last Friday night. The members met at Maccabee hall at 8 o'clock and headed by the West Michigan band proceeded to Hotel Holland where the Ionia Degree team was quartered and escorted them to the hall. The first ceremony was that attending the conferring of the obligation upon new members after which the following officers were installed:

Regent—George Baker.
Vice regent—Wm. Cox.
Past regent—Fred Betts.
Orator—V. F. King.
Collector—John Kramer.
Secretary—Clifford C. Harrington.
Treasurer—Jacob Ver Schure.
Chaplain—Gus Kraus.
Guide—John Thole.
Sentinel—G. Sprietema.
Outside Sentinel—Ike Sooter.

Trustees—for 1, 2 and 3 years respectively: Abe Cappon 1 year, L. N. Tuttle, 2 years; Seth Nibbelink, 3 years.

The initiatory work was then conducted by the degree team of Ionia and was very impressive. After initiation an exhibition drill was given by the Ionia degree team and speeches touching upon the work of the order was made by Grand Vice Regent A. R. Horton, of Flint; Grand Secretary C. B. Derthick, of Ionia; Grand Orator E. E. Bronson, of Kalamazoo; Past Grand Regent John D. Visser, of Kalamazoo; Chairman of the Finance Committee, Z. L. Cooper, of Niles; State Medical Examiner Wellings of Lansing and Uncle Abraham De Quack of Ionia. Mr. De Quack is 70 years of age. He was a resident of Holland in 48 and told many interesting incidents of the early history of the colony.

At the close of the exercises an elaborate banquet was served and a program of songs and instrumental music was carried out.

William Cox made an interesting speech on the object of the organization and Deputy Breeze recounted his work here and gave advice regarding the future work of the order. Then music, songs and a general good time was enjoyed until—Well the Ionia boys caught the morning train at 6 o'clock.

Presentation of Certificates to Eighth Grade High School Pupils.

The annual exhibition of the Eighth grade of the Public schools was held last night in the High school building and certificates of promotion were granted those who did Eighth grade work successfully. Upon invitation of the pupils a large number of parents and friends gathered in the hall and long before the opening of the exercises every seat was occupied and chairs had to be placed in the aisles.

Promptly at 8:15 o'clock the pupils of the Seventh grade marched into the room and took places on the east side. They were followed by the Eighth grade pupils who marched to the platform and under the direction of Miss Grace Yates sang the opening chorus.

The exercises were opened by prayer by Rev. J. T. Bergen. The boys of the Seventh and Eighth grades sang the "Morning Invitation" after which the Eighth grade pupils gave an exhibition of school work. This exhibition showed that that have reached a high stage of perfection in their studies and have fairly earned the certificates of promotion. The Eighth grade girls then sang the Lullaby from "Ermine" very beautifully.

Hoyt G. Post, president of the class of 1901, extended greeting to the class of 1905 and Principal O. S. Reimold delivered an address to the class detailing the work that they must do in the High school and telling of the importance of High school work.

Supt. F. D. Haddock made a short address and at its close Miss Beatrice Kimpton and Miss Minnie Mohr presented certificates to the class. It is the largest class ever promoted from the Eighth grade, and numbers 81.

Encouraged with the excellent record and the splendid progress made thus far it is the earnest hope of all patrons of the school that they may enter the High School next year and take further steps towards a higher education.

The exercises of the evening was closed by the "Revel of the Leaves" by the chorus with Miss Mamie Riedema as accompanist.
