EAGLES GIVE SPIRIT TO CITY Prizes Amounting To $100.00 Was Given to Paraders.

The Eagle parade yesterday was a great success from every point of view and all Eagles doing in the city lived up to the spirit of the day. It was hardly recognizable. Thousands of people swarmed the sidewalks and bulged into the streets all afternoon and last evening Centennial Park was crowded with people squatted on the grass in little groups and eagerly crowding closer to the grand stand listening to an excellent band concert given by the Elk's band of Grand Rapids consisting of at least thirty pieces.

The ball game in the afternoon between the Grand Rapids Eagles and the Grand Haven Athletics which was won by the later by a score of 9 to 1, also drew a mammoth crowd.

The granting of prizes in the afternoon was done by the following judges who occupied seats of honor in the Review stand on the South side of Eighth Street; L. E. Van Drezer, E. P. Stephan, and B. P. Donnelly and the lady judges, Mrs. Barnard of Holland, Mrs. Clapp of Traverse City and Mrs. Flint of Battle Creek. The following prizes were awarded: Largest number in parade from a single Aerie, $25 to Grand Rapids Aerie which numbered 185; Aerie best uniformed in parade, $25 to Owasso Aerie; C. VanderNoot of Grand Haven received a prize of $5 dollars for being the tallest Eagle in parade; J. (Red) Shiffeld of Muskegon received a prize of $5 for being the smallest Eagle in parade; To Oscar Kilstrom of Grand Rapids, formerly city clerk of that city went the great honor of being chosen the handsomest man in the parade by the ladies committee and also a prize of $5. Aerie having prettiest band in parade, $5 to Muskegon; Aerie accompanied by the largest number of ladies, $15 also to Muskegon; Members of Aerie traveling longest distance in automobiles, $10 to Kalamazoo.

Not An Arrest Made

During the entire week, with the advent of the opening of saloons for the first time in six years, and Holland with a large Eagle convention on its hands, not an arrest was made, the Chief of Police said this morning "a more orderly convention was never held in the city even more so than when we chiefs of police sometimes are when we meet in convention. There was no occasion for an arrest," said the Chief, "and we therefore made none."

Overisel Will Have a Rousing 4th.

Overisel is again in the ring with the announcement that that village will have a rousing, old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration. Every year this hustling little burg celebrates, and there is something doing every minute too, from sunrise until late into the night. Those who attend will make no mistake for there will be plenty of fun the livelong day and no regrets afterwards.

BAND CONCERT AT PARK

Next Sunday will be a big day at the resorts and to provide for the many people the Holland Interurban has decided to give special all day service to Saugatuck. There will be a band concert at Jenison Park.

BIRD FAR FROM HOME

Mishawaka, Ind., Carrier Pigeon Makes Call On Car ferry Men

Ludington Chronicle—When the boat was but a few miles from this port Thursday afternoon, a homing pigeon flew aboard car ferry 18 and when the crew examined the bird, they found a tag attached to one of its feet. The tag imparted the information that the bird is number 306, and he property of the Mishawaka Homing Club of Mishawaka, Ind. The bird was exceedingly tame and allowed the crew to feed it, but when the boat tied up at the slip, it flew away, after enjoying a rest from its travels and furnishing the officers and crew of the boat a diversion from the routine of car ferry life. Much is related of the distances travelled by these carrier pigeons, but it is not often that one comes in direct contact with a bird of this kind so far from the source of its wanderings.

The local police department has started a war on the 'short' strawberry boxes and arrests will be made on complaint of any persons or stores. Some farmers are still using the old style strawberry box with the high bottoms which do not hold a full quart regardless of the State Law making it a crime to use any but the full quart box that went into force this spring. Chairman of the Police Board De Keyser said that the old style boxes make a difference of about three quarts to the crate. People to whom berries are offered for sale in these kind of boxes are requested to notify the police department and the police will do the rest.

DOING OF COMMON COUNCIL Saloon License Granted To Kamhout In Slagh Block

Faith in its Board as the Police and Fire Commissioner have said they have plenty of work for the chief such as inspecting old buildings and chimneys. Alderman Vander Ven chairman of the Ordinance committee said that, their committee is working on a building ordinance, which will contain a provision that all new buildings shall be inspected and built according to the ordinance. He said that he thought it a mighty good thing for the fire chief at this time to inspect all old buildings to get the city in first class shape.

No Tests For Cows

Mayor Bosch reported to the council that Health officer Dr. Godfrey had been informed by the State Health Department that this is not a good time of the year to test cows and the Mayor recommended that the farmers be notified that they need not submit to any tests for the present for the test now being given is absolutely worthless. The council referred the matter to the Board of Health with power to act and it is very probable that Health Officer Dr. Godfrey will soon make an announcement to the effect of the Mayor's recommendation.

Alderman Prins reported the expenditure of $134 for temporary aid during the past two weeks. Mr. Prins also reported that the city would not have to pay the doctor bill of Mr. Ploegsma whose life was saved by immediate care at the Lake side hospital. Mr. Ploegsma settled the bill amounting to $109.20.

The Consumers Fuel Co., was granted the contract for furnishing the city hall with coal. That company being the lowest bidder.

Although the aldermen were late in getting started with the regular council meeting last evening very little business was brought up and the meeting was short.

Saloon In Slagh Block

Although Alderman Slagh from the First ward fought strongly against the granting of a license to J. S. Kamhouts of Grand Haven to open a saloon in the Slagh block on account of the many petition that have come to the council against saloon there on motion of Alderman Congleton the license was granted last evening by a vote of 6 to 3. Aldermen Slagh, Harrington and Drinkwater voted against the motion.

E. Stone of Grand Haven applied to the council for license to conduct a saloon at 143 East Eighth Street. The petition was referred to the license committee to report at the next meeting.

A petition from a Stock Co., to give a tent show in Holland on the Postoffice building site for a week of two weeks was referred to the license committee with power to act and it is very probable that that committee will raise the license fee from $5.00 for the first two days and $1.00 each day after that as it now is to a higher license fee.

Blom On Full Salary

The common council last night adopted the majority report of the committee on ways and means to whom was referred the request of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners the matter of putting Fire Chief Blom on full salary for the months of July, August and September by a vote of 8 to 1. Alderman Prins voted against it saying that it was a waste of money. Alderman Congleton responded to his statement by saying that the council should have some confidence in its board as the commissioners claim they have plenty of work for the chief.

Gas tests for the past two weeks were as follows: Number of tests, 35; highest, 641; lowest, 535; average, 592.7; 25 were below 600 B. T. U.

To License Shooting Galleries

An ordinance now in the hands of the committee and which will be presented at the next meeting of the common council will require persons to get a license from the council to run a shooting gallery in the city. The place not to be in connection with any place where intoxicating liquors are furnished. The price for a license was set at $25 for a year. The applicant must also furnish bonds of $1000 and the council can revoke the license at any time. No minors will be allowed. Any person violating the ordinance can be fined as much as $100 and imprisonment of ninety days in the city jail.

SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF REFORMED CHURCH OF COOPERSVILLE

Seven Holland Ministers Were Pastors At Different Times

In 1854 a sufficient number of Hollanders had settled south of what is now Coopersville, to organize a Holland church. A little square log meeting House was erected at a place known at that time as "four corners." Here for some three years services were held. There are still a few people living around Coopersville who can recall attending services at this log church. When it began to appear that a new building would have to be erected, it occasioned a great deal of contention, but finally after considerable dispute, a building was erected on the farm of E. Van Allsburg, who lives in the house that served for a long time as the parsonage.

After the war Coopersville increased rapidly in size as a village, while Eastmanville as rapidly decreased, and a large number of Holland families settled in territory north of the church. An agitation gradually arose to move the church to Coopersville. In 1883, under the energetic leadership of Gerrit Rankans, a man of great vision and unwavering tenacity of purpose, it was decided to locate in Coopersville, and this move cost the church nearly one half its membership. By great effort money enough had been collected to build a new church, but before it was completed it was entirely destroyed by fire with no insurance. By heroic efforts a new building was put up the following year with only a debt of $1800 resting upon it. This building is still in use and a new addition was built last year to take care of the rapidly growing congregation. Then commenced a period of nearly twenty years of financial hardships. Attempts were made during this period to introduce the English language, which however proved premature. But since 1902 a great many new families have moved in, new blood was thus infused. The church now became financially self-supporting, one improvement followed another, the English language has been introduced and met with such favor that is nearly used to the exclusion of the Holland. An intense loyalty has been developed, all troubles have been pacified, so that at present after sixty years of struggle the church can rejoice in a flourishing and promising condition.

The following men have served the church as pastors:—
Rev. Jacob Vander Meulen.....1862-'64
Rev. James Hyssoon.....1866-'68
Rev. Ale Buursma.....1869-'72
Rev. M. Kleintveld.....1873-'76
Rev. Derk Broek.....1876-'80
Rev. Harm Borgers.....1881-'83
Rev. John H. Karsten.....1885-'89
Rev. H. K. Boer.....1890-'92
Rev. W. H. Bruins.....1892-'99
Rev. H. Vander Ploeg.....1900-'04
Rev. J. Van Peursem.....1905-'08
Rev. A. De Young.....1910—

Last week Thursday, May 14, the members celebrated its sixtieth anniversary and dedicated the new addition built last year. Services in the Holland language were held in the afternoon when Rev. H. VanderPloeg of Overisel, a former pastor, spoke of "Veranderd in kleele maar niet in geest," showing that in spite of the many changes that have occurred in the life of this church the spirit is still the same. Rev. H. Harmeling, of Grand Haven, also spoke at this meeting. In the evening two strong and stirring addresses were delivered by Rev. John Setsema, of Chicago a former member of the church, and by Rev. J. Van Peursem, of Holland, a former pastor.

WEST OLIVE

Alonso Lamb, aged 60, employee of John Names in West Olive, died from injuries received while watering a horse in front of the West Olive store on Friday, when the animal threw him against a tree fracturing his skull and otherwise bruising him.

The accident occurred about four o'clock on Friday afternoon. Lamb had brought the horse to a watering trough and had attempted to remove the horse. The horse evidently got himself free, gave a bound and his keeper was thrown with great force against a tree. Spectators picked Lamb up unconscious and took him to the home of Clifford Binns where Dr. Thomas of this city was called and attended to the patient. Lamb regained consciousness in a few hours but his mind was wandering and parts of his body paralyzed.

About 3 o'clock Saturday morning his condition became worse and he sank slowly to death.

The deceased is well known in the vicinity of Olive and had spent many years in that section of the country. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Vern Tuttle of West Olive was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Dykhuys. He demanded an examination when arraigned before Justice Sooy on a charge of statutory burglary and the date was set for June 25.

Tuttle is charged with entering the home of his brother, Alonso Tuttle in this city while the family were away and stealing a purse containing about $12. If sufficient evidence is brought against him at the examination he will be bound over to the circuit court for trial. He furnished bonds for $200.

HUDSONVILLE

Hudsonville, June 18.—Last October Henry Anderson left Robinson township with his family and a part of his household goods in a covered lumber wagon, better known as a prairie schooner, accompanied by a pet female hound. They crossed the Mississippi river at Clarksville on a ferry and drove 10 miles farther west where they had come to live. A few days later Anderson missed his dog and instituted a search as it was a valuable hound. They learned of the ferryman at Clarksville that a hound had swam across the river at that point about the time the dog was missing from Anderson's home. Further search proved unavailing and Anderson gave the dog up as lost.

Mr. George Walton lives upon the place vacated by Anderson, and as he got up one morning last week he found the same hound asleep on his porch. He took the animal in and gave it food, then wrote to Anderson. Thursday he received Anderson's reply in which he asked Walton to keep the dog till next fall when he, Anderson, will come to Michigan to claim it and pay Walton for his trouble. Anderson calculates that the dog traveled alone over 630 miles if she followed the route the Anderson family took when they went west.

One of the most spectacular run-aways witnessed here recently was pulled off Monday morning when the horse of Mr. Terry Cole of West Olive took fright on River avenue near Seventh. Cole had stepped out of the rig to fasten a trace that had become unfastened. He was between the front and back wheels when the horse took fright. All the way from Seventh to Ninth street Cole held on to the lines running and sliding between the wheels. On making the turn to Ninth street the wheel broke off the buggy, but Cole held onto the lines and brought the horse to a stop. He was considerably bruised. There were 24 crates of strawberries on the wagon and only four of them were lost.

MACATAWA

About 1:30 Tuesday afternoon fire partly destroyed the cottage of Mrs. Sinclair of Grand Rapids on Interlake Walk at Macatawa. The cottage is located back of Hotel Macatawa and at first it was rumored that the hotel had burned down. The cause of the fire is unknown. The Macatawa Park association succeeded in checking it until the water main could be put into working order, and soon after the fire was extinguished, not however until the roof and part of the second story had been destroyed. A new fire protection water system has just been put in at the park and it was this that prevented the fire from gaining more headway.

ZEELAND GRADUATES ARE ENTERTAINED BY LOWER CLASS MEN.

The Junior reception in honor of the 1914 Seniors was given Tuesday night on the lawn of Henry DeKruif. The program was as follows: Introductory remarks, George Meengs; piano duet, Nella Ver Hage and Martina De Jong; speech, Mr. Benjamin Neerken; reading, Lois DeKruif; male quartette; piano trio, Marion Struik, Henry Van Noord and Cornelia Derks; reading, Dora Van Loo; vocal solo, Miss Isabelle E. Ronan; response for seniors, Bernie Mulder. After the program, Mrs. De Kruif asked all the people to come into the house on account of the cold. This invitation was gladly accepted. Fine refreshments were then served. The orchestra rendered some very fine music. The rest of the evening was spent in a social way. Later punch was served. Just before leaving, the Juniors and Seniors revived some of their old yells. They were given louder than ever before, but this time not each class trying to outdo the other for its own benefit, but the one for the other. All departed at a late hour, reporting a time that will long be remembered by both classes.

Other Sensational Charges Are Made In Ann Arbor Divorce Case

Ann Arbor, June 17.—Mrs. Rose Van Slyke, of Quincy, suing her husband, Rev. William Van Slyke, an evangelist, for divorce, told Judge E. D. Kline Tuesday that the morning after her marriage to VanSlyke the pastor bridegroom had said to her, "Damn you! I want you to stop that!" when he saw her speak to a man who was a former acquaintance of hers and she testified that profanity, obscene language and disgusting and revolting propositions had issued from her husband's lips at frequent intervals ever since.

Rev. and Mrs. Van Slyke were married at Allegan on April 9, 1912, and she alleges that his conduct became disgusting and revolting within a few hours of their marriage. She also accused the reverend gentleman of being a tippler and alleges that he usually carried a bottle of whiskey. She mentions one specific instance when he had treated himself all day with whiskey for an alleged stomach trouble and at night switched to beer with somewhat disastrous results.

Mrs. Van Slyke said that following her marriage she spent some time with her husband and was traveling in the interests of the Seamen's Friendly society for which he was collecting funds in Michigan and Wisconsin. Mrs. Van Slyke is a woman whose demeanor and appearance bespeak refinement. Throughout her testimony Mr. Van Slyke, a heavy set man with a big white mustache, sat beside his attorney and made copious notes.

At the time of the filing of the complaint Mrs. Van Slyke was a resident of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Van Slyke told of several instances of alleged cruelty, one of which was that her husband attacked her and beat her so that she bled. On that occasion she said Van Slyke she thought was trying to get her purse away from her. In the purse was all the money she possessed and with it, she intended hiring an attorney. She saved the purse.

The attorney for van Slyke told the court Tuesday that he would not consent to the introduction of an answer at this time in which all the evidence that was introduced at the trial of the Van Slyke case before Judge Desvoignes of the 36th circuit at Cassopolis was rehearsed. At that trial Mr. Van Slyke contended that his wife had been a married woman before he married her because her decree of divorce from a former husband was unlawful.

The decision in that case was adverse to Rev. Mr. Van Slyke.—Detroit Free Press.

WARNSHUIS RECEIVES NOTABLE RECOGNITION FROM FELLOW MISSIONARIES

The Rev. A. Livingston Warnshuis formerly of Holland, now of the Amoy Mission has recently received notable recognition by his fellow missionaries of other communions. Sometime ago he bore an important part in organizing the Chinese Intelligencer, the most popular religious weekly circulating among the Chinese Christians. It has more than 5,000 subscribers and goes into all parts of the Republic. Nor is its subscriptions confined to Christians for some non-Christian Chinese, realizing that the political news in their own papers is often unreliable, take it in order to get trustworthy information as to what is occurring in the political world. Mr. Warnshuis has recently declined the editorship of the leading daily Chinese paper in Amoy, urged upon him by its Chinese and foreign owners.

The high esteem in which he is held by the missionaries of other Boards is indicated by the fact that he was chosen to draft the report on the native Church for the sectional conference at Canton, that he was selected as one of the Continuation Committee of all China, and more recently was elected executive secretary of the Evangelistic Committee of South China. This places upon him the chief responsibility of the direction of the great evangelistic campaign soon to be undertaken by the cooperation of the different missions forces.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

FOR seventy-five years—three-quarters of a century—the express has been the right-hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Holland in 1871 and came to stay. For 43 years it has been the righthand of commercial Holland.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? NO! The merchants of the country—shipperseverywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean

CAN'T USE LAWN FOUNTAINS BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS MAKES REGULATIONS MONDAY NIGHT.

No Stationary Sprinklers to Be Allowed Until New Wells Are Ready.

From now until about August 1, the people of Holland will have to do the lawn sprinkling by patiently holding the nozzle of the hose and squirting the water over the grass. They will not be allowed to use a stationary sprinkler, nor will they be allowed to place the nozzle in position and let the water flow. Each one will have to hold the hose all the time that the sprinkling is in progress. This regulation was decided upon Monday night at a meeting of the board of public works when further plans for meeting the water problem in Holland this summer were made. In a day or two the formal order of the Board as to the sprinkling regulations will be published. After that all who are found using stationary sprinklers will be punished in the usual way in which violation of the rules of the board are punished, namely by the shutting off of the water.

It is expected that the regulation will be necessary only until about August first, since it is believed that by that time the water from the new wells that are being provided for now will be available. By Wednesday morning the fifth well will be finished of a string of 15 wells that are to be constructed this summer. The work on the suction line will begin Wednesday and as large a force of men as can be secured will be put on this job. The board has secured a trenching machine to dig the trench for the laying of the 12 inch main from 20th to 28th streets on First avenue. It is expected that this will be completed in 20 days. The pipe will be here shortly for that work. The pipe for the suction line will also be here soon.

The board will make all possible efforts to keep from turning into the mains the water from the 21st street well. This water will not be used until the pressure absolutely demands it, and then it will be done for only a few hours a day during sprinkling time.

The new pumping station is to be built on 28th street near First Ave.

MANY WHEELS STOLEN IN HOLLAND

Some bicycle thieves have invaded Holland and owners should take special precaution to leave their wheels in a good safe place either during the night or daytime or else keep them locked. Wednesday night a wheel belonging to Leon Bosch was stolen and has not yet been recovered and Thursday Anthony Van Roekel reported the loss of a wheel, which he claims was stolen from Hope church yard.

Grand Rapids has been suffering severely lately from bicycle thieves and it is thought that men came here from outside and take the wheels to another city to sell them for a few dollars.

HOLLAND NOW A FIRST CLASS POST OFFICE

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THIS EFFECT IS MADE FROM WASHINGTON.

The announcement is made from Washington that the Holland postoffice has been put into the first class as a result of the annual readjustment of postmaster's salaries. This action on the part of the postoffice department was not unexpected. Some months ago when the annual audit was held in the local office it was found that the receipts of this office during the past year were considerably in excess of the figures required to raise the office to first class. The announcement that such change has been made came rather earlier than expected, as it was believed that the audit at Washington would not be completed till the first of July.

The postoffice at Zeeland is one of those that have been raised from third to second class.

Minutes Mean Dollars IN TREATING ANIMALS

Doubtless you know the danger of delayed treatment of colic and other diseases. You also realize that wrongly applied remedies are often worse than no treatment at all. In other words, not to diagnose disease accurately may prove fatal. Every owner should be able to recognize an ailment and give prompt treatment at the first symptoms. Prompt action is the great secret of treating horses.

Minutes mean dollars. Of course proper treatment is always necessary. That is just how Humphrey's 500 page Veterinary Manual will prove so valuable to you. It is by F. Humphrey, M.D., V.M., and teaches how to diagnose and give proper treatment. This book will save you hundreds of dollars and cost you nothing. It will be sent absolutely free on request to any farmer in order to introduce Humphrey's Veterinary Remedies. Remember, it is absolutely free. You do not have to order any remedies to secure the book. Address: Humphrey's Homeopathic Medicine Company, 124 William Street, New York City. This is a splendid opportunity to obtain a veterinary treatise that you should have in your library. As a reference work you will find it invaluable. To have it in the time of need will be worth many dollars, whereas it will cost you but a postcard by writing for it now.

Young Vander Poel has served in both the army and the navy and was let go, it is alleged, because of weak-mindedness.

Young, who has been working at Fennville for some time, appeared at the home of J. Jipping about a mile south of this city Sunday morning with his left arm badly crushed and bearing other minor bruises. He collapsed when he reached Jipping's and was immediately taken to the Edgewater hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his arm. He has as yet been unable to give any details of the accident. He cannot remember a thing that happened to him. He does not know how he got hurt or how he happened to be in the neighborhood of Jipping's home.

It is thought that in some way Young was struck by a train or fell off a train.

THIS IS HOPE COLLEGE WEEK

Has Been Full Of Activities For Students

In the foreground of events of the past week have been the exercises with the closing of Hope college. Beginning with the baccalaureate exercises Sunday at Hope church each day has been a busy one for the Hope College students until commencement exercises last evening.

The week proceeding commencement week were full of social activities. Class parties, picnics, beach parties, society entertainments, etc., kept the students on the jump every minute.

Besides the senior class exercises the college alumni association banquet was held Tuesday evening with Ex Gov. Chas. S. Osborn as the principal speaker.

The commencement exercises of the preparatory department of the college were held Monday evening at the Carnegie gymnasium.

The graduating of some forty students from Hope College marks a new era in the history of the school and men and women go forth into the world to bring added fame and recognition to this little school with staunch christian principals educating its students along the line of true manhood. Men and women from Hope College have long been recognized as among the best trained in the world and they are now occupying high places and doing big things. The high standard of the scholarship of the school is shown by the fact that out of nine Rhodes scholarships given out in America six have gone to Hope College. Hope ranks among the world leaders here in the classics.

The college exercises are fully covered in the following paragraphs

A most brilliant success marked the 80th anniversary banquet of the Fraternal society of Hope college held at Hotel Holland Thursday night.

Covers were laid for 103 members and their friends and it taxed the full capacity of the dining room and waiters to accommodate the gathering. A seven course banquet dinner was served, during which time Smith's stringed quartet furnished music.

Nicholas Sichterman, '14, as president of the society, presided as the toastmaster and ably and wittily filled the position. After a few introductory remarks by the toastmaster, Harris Meyer, '16 responded to the toast "Moonbeams" in which he royally toasted the ladies, the indispensable concomitant of every affair in life. John Flight, '14, responded to the toast "El Dorado." Each one makes for himself his El Dorado and he pictured the El Dorado of the Fraternal society, which is to continue during the coming years. Prof. J. B. Nykerk, '85, then rendered the stirring "Song of Thanksgiving" and for an encore, responded with "Mother o' Mine."

"Au Reosa" was the title under which M. Stegenga '15, bade farewell to the Fraters of 1914, telling what they had done for the society and what the society still expected them to do for it. H. Bilkert, '14, gave the Seniors' farewell to the college and society under the toast "Sunset" and looked toward a sunrise in speaking of their future work. At this time the company joined in singing the society song, composed by Prof. J. E. Kuisenga, '99. Rev. J. T. Veneklassen of Gr. Haven loyally toasted the society under the heading "Purple and Gold." The colors, said he, stood for royalty, colors which the society had demonstrated its ability to bear. He spoke of the past and of the future and the work still to be inaugurated by the society. "The Crucible" was responded to by Prof. J. Sterenberg of Olivet. He pictured environment as present crucible while the larger life in the world was the large crucible. The success of our education depends upon our crucibility, our ability to be moulded and form an integral part of our environment.

"Costellano" was the solo sung by George Stielinger, '16, who also responded with the thrilling encore "Inoutus". The last toast was given by Dr. Alert Oltman, '83, Japan. His subject was "The Star." He pointed out the analogy between life and the stars in the different kinds of stars the firmament presents and showed how college men were really stars, and some of the responsibilities this entailed.

In closing the company sang "H-O-P-E" composed by H. K. Pasma, '16, and left the banquet hall feeling a glow of pride for the society and a thrill of inspiration for what the future holds for her.

That the present is built on the foundations of the past, that the present will be projected into the future, and that to build on a sure foundation the building must be done in accordance with the precepts of Holy Scripture—such were the points made by the Rev. John Van Peursem, pastor of Trinity church, in his baccalaureate address to the Hope College Senior class in Hope church Sunday. The church was crowded and many had to be content with standing room. Mr. Van Peursem delivered a sermon that was packed full with keen observations on life and with advice to the members of the class about to graduate.

His remarks were based on the success of the reign of King Jehoshaphat. This success, he declared was due chiefly to three elements, namely, to the devotion of the preceding ruler, to the personal devotion of Jehoshaphat himself, and to Jehoshaphat's diligent use of the scriptures.

Every age, said the speaker, owes a debt to the foregoing age. The present generation of Hollanders owe much to the pioneers who built this community with a farseeing wisdom, and in a similar way each generation is built upon the one that went before. This does not always appear upon the surface. There are many secret influences and undercurrents that exert a profound influence, but that we do not always take into account in the final summing up.

And in the same way as the personal devotion of the old Hebrew king brought success to his reign, personal devotion makes for success of each one today. There should always be a proper adjustment of effort. What is needed is men who can read the times in which they live and who can make their efforts count in the struggle of society upward. Effort alone will not bring true success. The effort must be intelligently directed toward attaining the best ends. Men are needed who not only know when to labor, but who also know when to rest; who know when to sleep as well as when to be awake. Men are needed who can see the ultimate goal and who are not blinded by the immediate prospect.

Self-sacrifice in itself avails very little. Sacrifice that is made merely for the sake of sacrifice does not help humanity or the individual. The greatest men in history have known little of a sense of sacrifice. What they have known—from Christ down to Lincoln, is a work that overwhelmed them with its importance to get itself done, and they have freely burned up their lives to do it. But they esteemed it a joy to have the opportunity to do it, not a sacrifice. What each man and woman today should do is to find the biggest work that the world holds for them and dedicate their lives to it with a triumphant joy that the opportunity for such dedication is their.

Finally the speaker made the point that in finding their great work the seeker should search the Scriptures and let it be a guide to him. In all the crises of history, he said, the Bible had been the prime influence that tended to advancement, and most of the world's greatest men were unthinkable without the Bible.

Addressing the class, Mr. Van Peursem said that the same principles that had made Jehoshaphat successful could make each one of them successful in the true sense. He said all the graduates were potential empire-builders and that they needed the far vision and the complete devotion without which life could not yield them the best best it contained.

The class day exercises of the class of 1914, of Hope College Preparatory department were held Monday afternoon at Carnegie Gymnasium. At 2 o'clock the class marched into the hall to the strains of Ojos Criolus (Creole Eyes, Gottschalk) played by Misses Willis Van Putten and Anna Ruth Winter. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. M. V. Veenem. "The Sea Shell" was the title of the class poem written and read by Miss Evelyn Zwemer, Misses Fenna Van Vessum and Angie Luidens rendered a beautiful vocal duet "On the Wings of Music." The class oration "The Old Order Changeth" was given by Edward Koster.

The crowning event of the afternoon was the class play "The Merchant of Venice." The play was especially well staged under the able direction of Miss Moore of the Dept. of Public Speaking who has successfully coached all class plays during the last three years. All the actors played their respective parts in a way highly commendable. The parts of Shylock, Portia and Bassanio were especially well given.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey
For Coughs and Colds

Ex-Governor Chas. S. Osborn was the big drawing card at the annual banquet of the Alumni association of Hope College Tuesday. The banquet was held in the Woman's Literary Club House and so great was the demand for tickets that the committee could not comply with all the requests with the result that some were turned away because they failed to apply in time. The committee had sent cards to all the alumni, but some failed to send in their requests and hence were disappointed.

Former Governor Osborn is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Hanchett in Grand Rapids, and he came to Holland Tuesday noon in a special car on the interurban. He was given a warm reception by admirers in Holland and was shown the sights of the city. Not only was his address of interest because of the man, but it was of especial interest to the people of Holland who during the the Boer war took interest in the struggle in South Africa. His subject was "The Boers in South Africa," and he spoke in substance as follows:

"At the time of the opening of the war I had almost an aversion for those who carried on the war. However on looking over the field and learning to know the facts of the case this feeling entirely disappeared and gave place to one of warmest admiration for the hardy Boers. These people who first settled in South Africa were an industrious, diligent class of a peace-loving disposition and when opposition came were willing to cut their way thru the wilderness farther north, subduing the savage tribe and making homes for themselves and families. Finally they progressed into the Val and here thought they would be safe and unmolested. Gold was soon discovered there and it was then that some selfish, grasping, unprincipled capitalists brought circumstances to bear which resulted in the Boer war. Great credit is due to the Boers and the war was won by them in every instance all along the line. The most liberal statistician give the Boer forces at 60,000, while it is positively known that England had 300,000 of its best into the Val to subdue the Boers and that with difficulty."

Mr. Osborn spoke most highly of the Dutch influence which is making itself felt everywhere in the southern part of the continent and felt for good. Whenever a guide or assistant is needed the traveler may be assured of the best service and trustworthiness if he can secure a Cape-Boy whom the Dutch have trained and who invariably speaks Dutch.

The educational and missionary work of the Dutch is also most remarkable. A small college of some three hundred enrollment has been established there and is doing work of the very highest quality. Their missionaries are earnest self-sacrificing men and women who are doing the real work in uplifting Africa.

The ex-Governor also spoke of the danger should another leader of the black people come forth equal to some who have already led the negroes in revolt. There are already 200 million blacks in the continent and the number is growing. The English population is decreasing and the Dutch are just holding their own. Should the blacks arise they would drive every white from the continent.

Mr. Osborn spoke most interestingly of his trip and said he could not speak too highly of the Dutch and their influence in Africa. He said the lesson he had learned most thoroughly was that as of old, man proposes but it is still God who disposes. This lesson he said must be learned by all nations and peoples before we can really be called civilized and attain unto our highest.

In the remarks prefatory to his address Mr. Osborn handed some bouquets to Hope college.

"Michigan should know more of this institution," he said. "Only recently have I come to a more comprehensive understanding and appreciation of the splendid work done here. I have learned that nine Rhodes scholarships given out in America, six have gone to graduates of Hope college and from my good friend, Judge Steere of the Michigan Supreme court, I have the statement that Hope college is doing the highest, the best and the most perfect work of its kind in America. I find you rank among the world leaders here in the classics and I believe, even though you feel you do not owe it to yourself, you owe it to Michigan that some more comprehensive idea of the splendid work of your institution be spread through the citizenship of the state. I am wondering whether a little advertising might not be advantageous to you and to those who should know of Hope college."

"There is nothing that advertises an institution so well as athletics. Football and baseball are splendid advertising mediums."

The speaker was interrupted by a wave of applause that shook the Ladies' Literary clubhouse where the banquet was held. The ex-governor emphasized his belief in athletics. He pointed out that Dutch blood means fine, clean bodies and quick accurate minds and Hope well could combine the athletic and scholastic achievement. His reference to Dutch blood and the courage that goes with it, led him to the main theme of his talk.

Nearly two hundred alumni were present at the banquet. Alumni from nearly all the classes were present to enjoy the sumptuous five course dinner which was served.

Prof. Milton Hoffman spoke on the "Oxford Ideal of Education." He said American colleges and universities tended too much toward specialization while the true aid of education is to so teach a man that he will be able to know a gentleman when he sees one. Oxford is critical while American schools are creative, he said.

The Rev. J. T. Veneklassen rendered a vocal solo after which J. J. Althuis of the Senior class toasted the class of 1914. Dr. Henry E. Dosker gave a few reminiscences and spoke more directly to the graduating class. He spoke of the early struggles of the college and the splendid men and endeavors which have made the school what it is today and urged the younger generation of alumni to continue to labor and work for the glory of Hope.

Dr. Vennema spoke of the part the alumni may play in boosting the new million dollar endowment project which has just been launched.

In concluding the company sang "Old Hope," and left the banquet hall feeling the ties of love for the college and friendship here had been materially strengthened.

The forty-ninth annual commencement of Hope College was observed last night when forty young men and women had the degree of Bachelor of Arts conferred upon them at Carnegie Gymnasium. The exercises opened when the Faculty, Council, Seniors and Preparatory Graduates marched into the hall to the stately strains of the Hope College Processional. The Rev. H. VanderNaald, of Orange City, Iowa pronounced the invocation.

The first address was by Arthur John Visser of Orange City, Iowa on the "Power of Personality." He spoke of the necessity and duty of developing personality, the opportunity therefore and the influence a personality may exert. Henry Daniel Ter Keurst, of Hamilton spoke on "The Burden of Unrest." He pointed out how the germ of unrest, necessary for development, is inherent in every form of life. He pointed out how this germ had entered practically every phase of man's life and activity. The remedy he said lay in men who would sacrifice and serve, who would use this restless spirit for the good of humanity. Miss Grace Maguerite Browning here rendered most beautifully "Springs Night (Mac Fayden)."

"Life as an Investment" was the subject of the address by Edwin Koeppel of Oostburg, Wis. The investment of life is one which confronts every man and is the supreme question every one must face. He pointed out a number of investments which are made which are really failures and then some which are true investments and spell success.

Cornelia Duiken Bouma of Holland spoke on "The Sword of Conquest." She prettily told the beautiful legend of Aldeheion and drew a parallel for men of modern life.

John Tillema of Thomson, Ill., spoke on the subject "Loyal to the Royal." We must work for all that we cannot give to others that which we have not worked, was his theme. However, to be appreciated that which we do achieve must be used for others.

Miss Hazel B. Wing rendered with delicate interpretation Arabesques (Shulz-Elver).

Dr. Vennema then awarded certificate of graduation to the forty-two members of the "A" Class of the Preparatory Department after which he gave a few remarks of congratulation and counsel.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts was then conferred upon the following: John J. Van Etien, Grand Rapids; Raymond John Lubbers, Cedar Grove, Wis.; Ruth E. Vandenberg, Grand Rapids; John Tillema, Thomson, Ill.; Henry Poppen, Sloux Center, Ia.; Nicholas S. Sichterman, Coopersville; Nina G. Linderman, Grand Rapids; Henry D. Ter Keurst Hamilton; Cyrus J. ## HIGH SCHOOL BACCALAUREATE PROF. J. E. KUIZENGA TELLS THE GRADUATES ABOUT THE FIGHT BEFORE THEM

Says the Real Self Is Always At War With the Lower Self; Points Way to Victory

Before an audience that packed the Third Reformed church Sunday morning Prof. J. E. Kuizenga preached an eloquent baccalaureate sermon for the High school Senior class on the theme "Victory and the Warfare of Life". The speaker found his theme in St. Paul's wonderful picture of a war captive being changed to a corpse to prevent escape. Similarly, said St. Paul, each man's higher nature is changed to his lower nature and it is Christ who can loose the chains.

That life is a mingling of two elements, the sad and the triumphant was the contention of Mr. Kuizenga in beginning his address. Commencement Day is not a day of joy only; it is also the commencement of the battle—often grim and terrible. And in that struggle each one will find that there are two natures in him, the real self, and the lower self. The real self always is insisting that life is fully worth while; that it is the business of the man or the woman to do right at all times, that a man is the deepest expression of the real self.

But the lower self is always at war with the real self. It always tries to pervert all the instincts by which man lives among his fellows. It takes all these instincts and tries to pervert them to lower uses, making them a curse instead of a blessing as they were intended. This lower self often works below the surface, and not infrequently disaster comes apparently without a cause. But men the elements of disaster have been working for a long time out of the sight of men.

The second point made by the speaker was that in the battle there are friends as well as foes. There are many enemies all about us—in the society the struggler frequents in the literature he reads, in the thoughts he thinks. But there are friends as well. There are a man's parents who almost invariably stand for uplift. The schools and colleges he attends are usually the friends of his real self. And no matter how small the village or hamlet in which he lives, there is always good society there reaching out to help his real self and to lead him upward.

Finally the speaker made the point also made in the words of St. Paul that were chosen as a text, namely that the final victory—the final emancipation from the dead corpse of the lower self—comes thru Christ. He advised the graduates always to be true to the dictates of their consciences, to bring the best influences to bear upon their lives, and to learn to know Christ who would grant them the victory.

We always considered Holland a healthy place, but when the Wizard Oil man was unable to sell his medicine at the Opera House the other night we were convinced of the fact.

The terrible calamity in Pennsylvania is still the principal topic of interest in the daily press. The disaster was so large, that nearly every community mourned the death of some of its citizens. Here in Holland it was supposed at first that we had no individual deaths to sorrow for. But soon came the sad intelligence that Miss Lizzie Phelps was among the dead. She was the daughter of Dr. Philip Phelps, who passed the best years of his life in earnest work in this city for the college and community. Miss Lizzie Phelps graduated at Hope College, and she had many warm friends here, who were deeply grieved at the news of her death. She was at Williamsport Pennsylvania, acting as governess, in a family named Youngman. The flood there was caused by a sudden rise of the Susquehanna river, owing to the heavy rains. Mrs. Youngman, her four children, Miss Lizzie Phelps and another young lady visitor, were all lost from that one household.

Dr. and Mrs. Phelps have the sympathy of this entire community in their great sorrow.

There was collected for the Johnstown flood sufferers by the Cappon & Bertsch Leather Co., employees the sum of $131.00 and by the citizens of Holland $191.60.

The meeting was a great success from every standpoint.

Chairman of the executive committee, N. J. Whelan, opened the meeting with a few remarks after which worthy president Phil Hamill introduced Mayor Bosch. State Worthy President Clapp replied to Mayor Bosch's welcoming speech in a pleasant manner and thanked him.

Miss Lucile Mulder opened the entertainment part of the evening with a popranzo solo "Storielle del Bosco Viennese" from Strauss-La Forge's "Tales from the Vienna Forest." The appreciation with which this song was received was fittingly shown by the volume of applause that greeted her and the presentation of a beautiful large bouquet of American Beauties by the local Aerie. Miss Mulder's song was a complete success and her enchanter "Absent", (Metcalf) fairly won the hearts of all present. Miss Mulder is a pupil of William Andersch of Grand Rapids. Arthur Andersch of Grand Rapids, a pianist of much fame acted as Miss Mulder's accompanist.

Att. Thos. N. Robinson, of this city delivered an inspiring address on the Eagles' lodge, its purpose and formation. The Eagle lodge with its motto, "Liberty, Truth, Justice and Equality" and its emblem, the Eagle makes men better men and makes homes better homes. Mr. Robinson declared that if in this city, or any other city where there is an Eagle lodge, the families and homes are not in good condition, the lodge has failed in its purpose. "The Eagle lodge can never be a menace," said the speaker, "as it is based on principles opposed to evil."

Mr. Robinson asked the question, "Who are the Eagles?" and he very ably answered it in the following manner: Men of social inclination, men who like to mingle on planes of equality with fellowmen, to partake with them of common pleasures and to share with them common burdens; couple social motives with love of home and family, love of the cardinal virtues of manhood and you have the fraternal order of the Eagles. Broad-minded men from every nation of the earth, not of a particular class, for they know no classes. Men of every sect and creed who have taken for their emblem of American liberty and believe in the existence of a supreme being who guides and controls the destiny of men.

The speaker then went on to tell in glowing terms of a time when there will be in eternal brotherhood of man, and perpetual peace on earth good will to men.

Mr. Robinson told of the Eagle lodge when it was founded from an organization of good fellows in Seattle, Washington, during a strike. Sixteen years ago the Eagle lodge was organized and was the first fraternal order to provide benefits for sickness or death. There are now 600,000 Eagles in the United States and the speaker declared there must be some good motive to attract so many men.

The Hon. Victor T. Pierrelle, of Ashland, Wis., in an address told of the benefits of the Eagle lodge and the good it is doing. The lodge was founded in Seattle in 1898, but during the sixteen years of its growth it has become one of the strongest fraternal organizations in the United States. Monday State Conventions were being held in nine different states. These conventions are held for the purpose of hearing the complaints and suggestions of all lodges to be brought up before the National convention. The speaker remarked on the opening of saloons on the day of the convention, but declared that the Eagles would not tarnish the key presented to them by the Mayor as they were not that kind of people. Mr. Pierrelle spoke as follows about the Eagles and what they are doing:

In some places the Eagles are called unprincipled bums and bartenders, but people forget that many senators, congressmen, statesmen, high officials and even president, are or were members of the lodge. The Eagle lodge was founded on Sunday and the Sunday meetings now held and so roundly criticized are for the purpose of teaching the principles of the order and not in celebration. The Eagles discriminate between no people engaged in lawful business but when some of the western states adopted State-wide Prohibition the Eagle lodge abolished the serving of liquor immediately while other lodges tried to serve it within the law.

For nine dollars a year dues, the Eagle lodge gives all its members a doctor during illness free of charge and also to any member of his family. When an Eagle member in good standing dies his family is given the same consideration. The lodge also gives a death benefit and is always ready to help in time of trouble. In every large disaster since the Galveston flood the Eagle lodge has always been the first on the field to render aid to the afflicted. The Eagles aided 6,000 in the San Francisco earthquake at a cost of $500,000. During the recent flood in Dayton, Ohio, the Eagles were twelve hours ahead of any other fraternity in bringing aid.

Capt. E. A. Westrope, Alpena gave a humorous reading. Prof. J. Jans Helder of Grand Rapids was roundly applauded after a beautiful vocal solo and was brought back for an encore. Mrs. Helder acted as accompanist.

A closing ode was rendered by the Eagles present after which all sang "America."

Thirty launches conveyed the big crowd of Eagles with their wives and lady friends to the picnic grounds at Waukazoo Tuesday where one of the best picnics in the history of the lodge was held. The afternoon was spent in making merry. Games and contests for ladies and men were indulged in and great sport was derived from peanut races, etc.

The refreshment committee outdid themselves in preparing eats.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE WIT- EAGLES YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Was One of the Finest Sights Ever Seen By the People of Holland.

The Eagle convention received a decided boom yesterday when teams and delegations from all over the state arrived on almost every car and train that entered the city. The Grand Haven and Muskegon Eagles arrived yesterday morning about 125 strong on a special train. A large delegation from Grand Rapids also arrived yesterday.

The big parade yesterday was the main feature of the convention week. Although state officers, delegates and committees have been working night and day to get thru with their work, the visitors here for a good time and the people of Holland have been looking forward for some time to the parade and there were no disappointments. The streets were lined with people long before the parade was formed. The schools having been dismissed for the occasion, many school children helped to make the parade seem more real.

Forming on Central avenue at 2 o'clock the long line of march moved West on Tenth street, up River avenue to Eighth street and on Eighth Street East to Lincoln avenue and return.

Gay music, prancing horses, white clad men marching in regular formation, and the big Eagle float, a beautiful creation picturing an Eagle taking care of its young, made the parade a great success from every standpoint. At the end of the parade came Getz's camels from the Lakewood farm, with two native Arabs in Oriental dress in attendance helped greatly to put the crowd in good spirits and to make the afternoon a success. The file and drum corps of about twenty pieces made a big hit.

The order of parade was as follows: Marshals, Seth Nibbelink, W. H. Orr and Henry Kraker; police and firemen; Zeeland band; officers and city officials in carriages; Eagle float; delegates to convention on foot; Muskegon band; Muskegon Aerie; Colonial band; Aeries without bands; Grand Rapids Elks' band

Grand Rapids Aerie; Holland band; Holland Aerie in new white uniforms; Stevens and Cleves band in wagon; Getz's camels.

The following judges occupied the reviewing stand on the North side of Eighth street: L. E. Van Drezer, E. P. Stephan, and B. P. Donnelly. Mrs. Barnard with two assistants acted as ladies' judges.

PURITAN ONE OF FASTEST BOATS ON LAKE

GAINS THREE MINUTES ON EAST- LAND IN RACE ACROSS THE LAKE

St. Joseph, June 19.—Patrons of the two twin city steamship lines were treated to more than they bargained for Sunday afternoon when in making the run across from Chicago the Graham and Morton steamer, "Puritan" and the St. Joseph Steamship Co.'s new liner "Eastland" felt the thrill of adventure and engaged in an exciting big ship race that brot new glory to the water-going honors of the "Puritan" which beat the time set by the "Eastland" by about three minutes.

The boats were timed as they passed each other at the end piers at Chicago, the "Eastland" clearing at 10:08 and the "Puritan" at 10:16 giving the St. Joe liner an eight minute start. The engines of the G. and M. steamer were in the finest trim and the "Puritan" gained three minutes on her rival on the trip across, the "Eastland" entering the St. Joe piers at 1:34 and the Puritan entering at 1:39, five minutes after. Thus cutting the "Eastland's" eight minute start to five minutes or a three minute lead. The "Eastland" had considerable difficulty in docking and the "Puritan" reached the Central docks and was unloading her passengers before the "Eastland" succeeded in tying up.

On the trip going back the "Puritan" again outsped the "Eastland" by a minute, passing the St. Joseph steamer at the Chicago piers and docking a minute ahead.

HOLLAND ON THE RUN VESSEL PRESSED INTO SERVICE WITH STEWART IN COMMAND.

The Graham & Morton steamer "Holland" left the Benton Harbor port for Holland early Monday to take the place of the Puritan on the Chicago-Holland run with the "City of Grand Rapids" alternating.

The "Holland" is the last of the G. & M. steamers to take to the water this spring, the "Puritan," "Benton Harbor," "Chicago," "Grand Rapids" and "Holland" leaving in the order named.

"The Puritan" will be laid up for a few days to undergo minor repairs. Captain John Stewart, veteran commander of the G. and M. fleet is in charge of the "Holland," with the following crew: S. McGuliggins, first mate; O. Anderson, second mate, Green, chief engineer; John Larson, steward; E. L. Smith, pursuer.

REV. DEKWAK OF IONIA VISITS FRIENDS HERE

Former Brewer, Now In 87th Year, in Best of Health Still at Work and is Proud of His Part in Life

MAKES A STAND ON VIEWS

Grand Haven Tribune.—When Rev. Abraham De Kwak visited Grand Haven friends Sunday, his visit called to mind among the older residents, the days when he was proprietor of a brewery on the corner of Third and Fourth streets. Rev. De Kwak now resides in Ionia and despite his eighty seven years of strenuous life in which his career has enveloped nearly every phase of life, the old gentleman goes out upon his mission occasionally and preaches his gospel in the little M. E. churches around his home city.

Fifty years ago Abraham De Kwak was proprietor of his little brewery and was a law abiding citizen. From this city he removed his family to Grand Rapids where he engaged in the same business, always with the same spirit of enterprise and respect for law. Ionia became the next place of residence and there it was that he became decidedly religious and one morning turned the product of his factory into the near by creek.

On the way home from the church to the meetings of which he had been persuaded to go, his friends met him, and were surprised when ordering their usual amount of the beverage, to hear from the old man that he had quit business. Days followed and the little brewery still continued to be closed. The dramatic smashing of kegs and vats was viewed by only a few and the story will always be told by any Ionian, how for days and weeks he was watched by the community to see if he meant his threat.

Without ability to read or write the Rev. Abraham De Kwak started up in business. Sometimes he preached but the most of the time he peddled peanuts and oranges. His friends looked on with a wag of their heads and wondered. Finally the preacher bought a cow with borrowed money—then another and another until he had a small dairy. In this enterprise he directed his efforts and made money at it. From the dairy business he branched out into gardening and yet at this day he has his little truck patch every year.

Such are a few touches on the incidents of the life of the old Ionia-lander who made good his threat and overcame his entire lack of education to become a minister. He is a happy old man and is proud of his part in the making of his nearly ninety years life on earth.

DECISION HITS RURAL CARRIERS

Can't Collect Additional Pay Where Routes Are Lengthened

The court of claims holding in Chicago, decided a few days ago that a rural mail carrier cannot collect additional pay from the government because his route is longer than was stipulated when he entered into a contract. The decision affects 50,000 rural carriers and many cases.

Under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church a literary and musical program was given at the home of Mrs. J. J. Jennings, Central avenue. The following program was given: Vocal solo, Mrs. Klaasen; vocal solo, Mrs. John Prakken; violin solo, Russel Rutgers; violin solo, Grace Klompants; readings, Mrs. G. W. Atwood, Mrs. Fred Miles, Mrs. Eugene Fairbanks, Miss Jennings. A group of children's songs and recitations followed and the meeting closed with refreshments.

BOXING SHOW WAS FIZZLE Crowd Is Small And Fighters Refuse To Mix

Although there was about three hundred Eagles in the city Tuesday night the boxing match did not draw a large enough crowd to pay the fighters and both Tommy Dougherty of Denver and Eddie Nelson of Grand Rapids refused to fight the scheduled ten three minute rounds. They were finally induced by the management which did the best it could under the circumstances to give the fans who did attend a square deal. The men gave a good exhibition but did not exert themselves in the least.

The preliminary matches were all run off in good shape and were the principal attraction of the show. (Polly) Bliss furnished amusement for the crowd when in the first round of a scheduled eight round bout with Jack Holt he got a nose bleed and quit.

Possibly the most interest personage at the show was Jack Mahan of New York, one of Dougherty's seconds. Mahan had completed two years work in a university before taking up prize fighting. He found the game a path of roses and easy money until he met Geo. Gardener in Milwaukee in a scheduled twenty round fight. In the fourteenth round Mahan went to the mat for the count and as a result of the blow contracted brain fever which left him deaf and dumb.

WALKOVER'S AGAIN DEFEATED BY ZEELAND

For the second time this season the Knickerbocker club baseball team of Zeeland defeated the Walkover's of Holland on the Zeeland Colonial Avenue diamond. The game was played last Saturday. Zeeland won 11 to 10 in a sensational manner. In the Ninth Inning with Holland in the lead when "Slabby" of Zeeland drove out a home run bringing in three runs winning the game. The game was close and hard fought from start to finish and the result was in doubt until the last minute.

NEW HOLLAND

Mrs. Vanden Berg spent last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. P. De Jong in Zeeland.

The funeral of M. P. Stegenga, one of the pioneers, who died June 6th, was well attended on Wednesday, the 10th. Mr. Stegenga leaves to mourn their loss, three brothers, A. P. Stegenga of Holland, Sibolt Stegenga of this place, and Dick Stegenga at the Soldiers' Home at Grand Island, Neb., and one sister, Mrs. Jacob Van Dyke of this place; six sons, Peter of Roseland, Ill.; Dick of No. Dakota; William and Jacob of Washington; Gerrit of Sunfield, and Jacob of Grand Rapids; and three daughters, Mrs. Bornwell and Mrs. Van Koeveering of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Luke Helm of Helena, Montana.

Peter Douma, who was infected with the Ford germ, has entirely recovered since H. H. Karsten of Zeeland treated him.

The New Holland schools closed after a very successful term last Friday. Exercises were held during the afternoon and many of the patrons of the district were present.

New Holland is in the band wagon as to boxing bouts and wrestling matches. They prove to be very successful and generally large crowds attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry De Kruij and daughter, Lois, of Zeeland, Mrs. A. Leenhouts and son, Donald, of Holland and Wm. De Kruij of Levering, Michigan, called on Dr. and Mrs. Vanden Berg one day last week.

Peter J. Smit is very sick at his home at this writing, with an attack of acute indigestion. His recovery is expected.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Van Dyke of this place was taken to Grand Rapids last week Tuesday to be operated upon at the Butterworth hospital. Drs. Smith and Vanden Berg of that city performed the operation with good results and the little fellow is doing fine under the circumstances.

Mr. and Mrs. Dykema will quietly celebrate their 55th marriage anniversary next Monday. Both are past the 80th milestone and still enjoying good health.

A. De Kruij, the Zeeland horseman is now trying to get a pedigree of his Ford car.

John De Kruij of Bangor, Mich., who has been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Vanden Berg, has returned home. John must have a drawing card in New Holland, as he always enjoys his stay here and always wants to know the ages of certain young ladies.

Dr. Vanden Berg drove to Holland one day last week to attend the Ottawa Medical society meeting.

The New Holland people are still anxiously looking for R. Cook, the county road commissioner, who promised them early this spring at a good roads meeting that he would give us a few miles of good roads provided the people were willing to donate some work. Committees were appointed to solicit work and with success, but the commissioner must have forgotten all about his promises as no surveying has been done. The snow and ice are gone and the frost is out of the ground, so no excuses, Mr. Cook.

Mrs. John R. Brower, who has been visiting with her daughter in Crisp for several weeks, has returned home.
