Class Of Six Are Graduates From Hope College

TWO ARE YOUNG LADIES AND FOUR YOUNG MEN; JOHN
B. NYKERK IS VALE-
DICTORIAN

The crowning event of the week was the general commencement held in Hope church, Wednesday evening. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, bunting, and evergreens. The motto of the class, "Not For Ourselves Alone" was worked with evergreen and flowers, and was placed above the rostrum on the wall. From this motto a white festooned curtain fell in graceful folds to the stage. At the right a floral ladder was erected, each round of which represented a class in the institu-

Valedictorian Fifty Years Ago.

On the left a tiny fountain played and the musical tinkle of the water could be heard all through the church. The effect of the decorations was delightful. On the platform were seated the president of Hope college, the faculty, the college council and last but not least, six hopeful graduates, two of them young ladies and four young men.

No, this is not a report of the commencement exercises of Hope college, 1935, but rather of 1885, and we rechronicle certain parts of the program and give some of the highlights as taken from the Holland City News of June 27 of that year.

It is interesting to bring back the details of these graduation exercises for the reason that it recalls to the mind of your editor the names of many men and women who received their "sheepskin" as senior graduates and also their certificates in the preparatory department of Hope in 1885.

However, that is not primarily the reason for this reprint. There is one man in the list of students of six who today is the "dean of men" of Hope colleges, having given a half century of service to that splendid institution.

Ripley, in his "Believe It or Not" says "that he knows every man who ever entered Hope and surely all the alumni know a B. Ripley in June of 1885 the "big moment" came to plain John Nykerk when he was chosen the valedictorian of his class. He was only a young farmer lad, son of a minister and came from Overysel, as the program has it. That John made a "hit" and was excellent

Music prior to the ceremony included vocal solo, "I Love You," by Miss Jean Herman, Mrs. Dorothy Steketee, sister-in-law of the groom accompanying Mrs. Steketee played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the wedding party assembled.

The bride was charming in white organdie with matching hat and carrying a bride's bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Marian Shackson, a sister, wearing pink organdie and carrying a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The groom was attended by his brother, Fred Steketee.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the Warm Friend Tavern, where a wedding breakfast was served to 27 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Steketee were at a wedding trip to the Tahquamenon Falls and other places of interest in the upper peninsula. After their return they will make their home in Holland.

The groom is employed as vice president and sales manager of the Gil-Boat Co. in Holland and the bride was a school teacher in Benton Harbor.

A baseball club composed of former Michigan State college stars, known as the Lansing Capitol Collegians, will furnish opposition to the Holland Flying Dutchmen Saturday at Riverpark at 3:15.

Jerry Byrne, one of Michigan State's best pitchers of all time, will be on the mound for the visitors, with either Ed Walters or Lloyd Driscoll getting the assignment for Holland.

"Rivers" Morse, catcher, who last year with the Flint Bullets drew the longest home run seen here in years, will be behind the plate for the visitors. The Lansing line-up is as follows: Struble, second base; Gafner, left field; Gibbs, center field; Morse, catcher; Sebo, third base; Sutton, right field; Slight, first base; Cuthbertson, shortstop; Byrne or Libbers, pitcher.

Holland scored its sixth victory in seven starts last Saturday by downing the Flint Bullets 5 to 2. Lloyd Driscoll pitched seven-inning ball and ran his record to 2-1. Dick Japings, second sacker, hit a Holland trailing 2 to 1 in the fifth and added a double in the eighth with one out.

PIONEER RESORTER STARTED WITH POP CORN WAGON

Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Colby and son, Harry, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Harrington at their home on Washington boulevard for a few days. We remember Fred when he first came to the Holland resort. He had a small popcorn wagon on the Ottawa Beach docks where he had a ready sale for corn and nuts. Passengers on pleasure steamers got into the habit of calling for peanuts and popcorn from the upper deck and Fred would call up "throw your nickel and you get the corn" and Fred was a sure shot with the popcorn. Fred was on the Ottawa Beach side because he couldn't get a concession on the Macatawa side. Colby made money at his stand and soon expanded his concessions, even to Macatawa, where finally he handled practically all of them and became an official in the Macatawa Park Resort Co. Everybody living thirty years ago remembers the Colby stores at the resorts and Holland grocers especially for they had many a tilt with him endeavoring to sell their wares and deliver them into the resorts which were forbidden and which at one time brought much blood between the parties interested. At least a quarter of a century ago there was a new "set-up" at Macatawa and Mr. Colby moved to California after disposing of his interests at the Park.

Mr. Colby struck prosperity in the land of everlasting summer and is now living comfortably with Mrs. Colby and son, Harry. They visit Holland and the resort every few years for they find it difficult to break away entirely from the spot where Mr. Colby began his business career as a young man and that beginning with a pop corn stand was very modest, indeed.

STOCKHOLDERS OF THE NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION ELECT

The Grand River National Stockholders' Farm Loan association met for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year. These directors are: H. Stegenga, North Holland; Henry Gunnebaun, Coopersville; John Kimmie, Zeeland; Albert Knoll and William Nienhuis of Crisp. After the election of the directors the organization took place and Henry Gunnebaun was made president; Albert Knoll, vice president, and Mr. Stegenga, secretary-treasurer. Interest rates lowered on Federal Land bank loans. A get-together meeting will be held on the second Tuesday in August in Gibben's Woods in Allendale, a beautiful picnic spot. At that time an excellent speaker, who knows land bank loan facilities, will speak. There are over 300 members of this association in Ottawa county.

SHACKSON-STEKETEE VOWS ARE SAID

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shackson, 29 West Nineteenth street, at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning when their daughter, Miss Edith, was wed to Walter Steketee, son of Mrs. Mary Steketee of 114 West Eleventh street. Rev. Clyde H. Wilcox of Allegan performing the single ring ceremony.

The vows were said as the couple knelt at an improvised altar of palms, ferns and large baskets of flowers. Lighted candelabra on either side of the altar added much to the impressiveness of the occasion.

Music prior to the ceremony included vocal solo, "I Love You," by Miss Jean Herman, Mrs. Dorothy Steketee, sister-in-law of the groom accompanying Mrs. Steketee played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the wedding party assembled.

The bride was charming in white organdie with matching hat and carrying a bride's bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Marian Shackson, a sister, wearing pink organdie and carrying a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The groom was attended by his brother, Fred Steketee.

First Laketown White Child Dies At 86 Years

THOMAS BOVEN WAS STORE
KEEPER OF THE OLD SCHOOL AT GRAAFSCHAP.
SAW HOLLAND BURN
IN 1871

Old Thomas Boven, always smiling and with a sunny disposition died Monday afternoon at the age of 86 years, at his home at 151 W. Fourteenth street, where he lived with his daughter, Mrs. Fred Stoltz. Death came following a long illness. He was born in Graafschap but has lived in Holland for 43 years.

Mr. Boven was identified with the Scott-Lugers Lumber Co. until he retired at 75. He is a charter member of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church and was a devout Christian gentleman and a willing worker in the church.

The life of Mr. Boven was very eventful and interesting and the editor reprints here an interview, written for the Holland City News some years ago. The article follows:

"Mr. Boven was born on April 24, 1849, two years after Dr. Van Raalte arrived. Like Abraham Lincoln he was born in a log house, on the hill at Graafschap. His parents came here on a sail boat, taking weeks and weeks to come across the Atlantic. The father came from Groningen and the mother from Drenthe, Netherlands. Mr. Boven has the distinction of being the first white child born in Graafschap, Michigan.

"The parents of Mr. Boven were married in the old log church then located on the site now occupied by Pilgrim Home cemetery. The marriage was performed by Dr. Van Raalte, founder of Holland, and believe it or not they didn't take an automobile back to their home but walked from Holland to Graafschap after the knot was tied. They were compelled to come to Holland to get married since there was no church in the little settlement of Graafschap.

"He stated that he was baptized in the same log church where his parents were married and Dr. Van Raalte also officiated at the christening.

"Mr. Boven lived in a log house for 17 years and as a young lad of 14 he learned the carpenter trade. When he was 17 he had built the frame house in which they lived, at Graafschap. Most of the early settlers lived in log or bark houses. They weren't so particular in those days. Mr. Boven stated. There were few carpenters and most of the farmers built their houses and barns. The barn generally was built first.

"Mr. Boven stated that in the last 80 years he had seen many changes. He said he drove the ox team, the horse, the lumber wagon and the buggy; rode a bicycle, but believes he could manage an automobile if given half a chance.

"He stated that a great deal of the way between Holland and Graafschap was a swamp in 1871. He stated that where Holland hospital now stands on the brow of the hill was a wilderness and from the foot of the hill to Sixteenth street was a big swamp filled with water and undergrowth. Farmers had to drag logs and sand to make a passable road from Sixteenth and Pines streets to Hospital hill and the horses and the ox teams could go to Graafschap and Fillmore from the Holland colony. Ditches had to be dug so the water would not overflow the road bed which often happened in the spring and many times the road had to be rebuilt.

"Mr. Boven lived in Graafschap for 42 years, where he conducted a general store with Mat Notter and others of Graafschap's older citizens, and then came to Holland. "He vividly remembers the fire on October 8, 1871. He said that and Graafschap 15 houses were burned that the fire swept into Holland on a Sunday afternoon. Everyone worked in the swamp south of Holland to see if the fire could be stopped there but the bog was dried out and the summer grass burned like a prairie fire. From there Mr. Boven relates much of the fire history printed in the Holland City News so often before—namely that it blew into the city from the swamp burning some small buildings back of Third church, then burning the church, sweeping down Pine avenue in northeasterly direction taking nearly everything in its path between Pine avenue and what is now College avenue, stopping at the site of what is now the Holland theater and burning itself out at the big swamp north of the city, about where Holland's lighting plant is now located. One old lady was burned to death, a Mrs. Tolky who lived in a little cottage on the north side of West Ninth street, a few doors east of Pine avenue.

"His school days were spent in the first log school house in this vicinity. Not until he was seven years old did he attend an English school. Mr. Boven recalls being told that his mother before her marriage spent a week in an Indian wigwam and that she had always assured him the Indians were kind.

"Mrs. Boven, nee Clara De Frel, died several years ago at the age of 60 years.

Funeral services of Mr. Boven will be held today, Friday, at 1:30 p. m. at the home with the Rev. J. Van Eerden officiating and at 2 p. m. at the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church where Dr. Ralph J. Danhof will officiate. Burial will be at Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Survivors are five children, Mrs. Susan Boven, Mrs. Fred W. Stoltz, Anthony and Peter Boven, all of Holland and Henry of Kalamazoo. Also several grandchildren survive.

OFFICIAL SUMMER

The summer season starts Saturday, June 22, at 8:30 a. m., eastern standard time. Let us hope it will be real summer and not a continuation of winter.

INDOORS AND OUTDOORS

Rather a laughable matter came up when complaint was made of houses not connected with city sewer, and all were ordered to come under the compulsory sewer act which gives them ten years to pay. It appears, however, that near Columbia and Sixteenth street, the city owns a house, or part of a house not so connected. Alderman Drinkwater, who can often spring some earnest "wise cracks" said, "Let the city clean its own back yard." This city house has no windows and card board is stuck everywhere to keep the wind out. You can step through the siding into the kitchen and you can do the same thing in the parlor. When I visited the place the woman was washing in the parlor because the kitchen wasn't good enough. It isn't even a house, only half a house. Everyone advised to tear the house down, including Alderman Kalkman, while Alderman De Cock of the building committee stated that he put in seventeen windows last year. Apparently the house is not worth saving but is taking care of a family who needs the house more than the city does. Anyway the structure should be torn down if it cannot be repaired for fit living.

Alderman Drinkwater added some more fun when sewer connections were proposed made to a house now not connected with the sewer disposal plant. Said Drinkwater, "The house is right next to the plant so no one can tell the difference." (Laughter.) Mayor Bosch augmented these remarks by saying, "stranger than strange. A sewerless house next to the sewer plant." (More laughter.)

Hope College Closes For Year 1934-35

EIGHTY-TWO HOPE SENIORS
GRANTED DEGREES AT
70TH COMMENCEMENT

Hope college is officially closed until the middle of September after a week of commencement activities. Graduation week began early with several social functions, the beginning of the outstanding events taking place Sunday evening when the baccalaureate service was held at Hope Memorial chapel, it being the seventieth convocation service at this institution.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. John Van Ess, Reformed Church missionary to Arabia. He stated, "there is ever a conflict in life. It is like mountain climbing, for as we ascend we gain new visions and a wider horizon and we have the promise that we shall be like Him, like Jesus." The subject of the speaker was Before making the award of diplomas, Dr. Wichers said: "If it can be said of you that you did your best to relieve the burden of ignorance, to relieve the burden of toil, and to relieve the burden of unrighteousness, your name will be inscribed, not on a brass tablet, perhaps, but in the living memories of those who come after." He declared that during the four years in which the seniors and he had traveled together, the high road of learning that leads to brightness, sunlight, and duty done, the graduates had acquired a "diving spear" by which to estimate the worth of whatever they touch in the world, an "inner content" that will be the mainspring of their lives and a "new sense of duty to perform," together with "the weapons to execute the duties."

"A Creed for Stark Realities." He said in part as follows: "The creed that made me go to Arabia, the creed that made me stay there and face the stark realities of missionary life was inculcated when I was where you are today."

He pointed out attitudes one may take toward Christ. The first, he said, is objective indifference, to treat Him as one might treat the weather or as the great Christ one does not understand. Opposition to Him is the second, he said, but no one has yet succeeded.

Three classes of Hope college held reunions here. There were the classes of 1931, '20 and '10. The class of '31 met at the Holland Country club tonight for a buffet supper, of which Miss Besse Schouten had charge. The reunion of the class of 1920 was held this afternoon at the cottage of E. J. Wolters at Central Park which was attended by 18. The Warm Friend Tavern was the scene of the reunion of the class of 1910 which held a luncheon with the board of trustees of the college.

COUNCIL PUTS QUIETUS ON VACATION CHAIN LETTER IDEA

The chain letter racket, believed dead for some time, came up before the Grand Haven council under an assumed name, was speedily recognized and as speedily killed. The sponsor of the new version of the chain letter is not known, as the city clerk neglected to obtain the name of the man asking permission to start a "vacation club," as he called it. The written application was unsigned also, but as Mayor Richard L. Cook remarked, "It made no difference." It seems the person who proposed to start the vacation club and sought city approval, proposed to rent a building and hire five stenographers. Vacation chain letters were to be sold at 25 cents each and at vacation time, as the names of the club members reached the top of the list, they were to have $150 to spend. The letter did not explain just how the time of each member's vacation and the appearance of his name at the top were to be synchronized nor how the promoter of the scheme was to get a living out of the deal.

SECOND ANNUAL RALLY TO BE HELD AT PINE LODGE ON JULY 4

Preparations for the Christian school rally at Pine Lodge to be held on Thursday, July 4, are fast nearing completion and an exceptionally fine program of music and speakers not only but also a sport program in which old and young can participate has been prepared. Speakers secured for the day include Dr. William Rutgers of Chicago, formerly president of Grundy college; Rev. J. J. Heeminga of Paterson, N. J., former president of Calvin college, and Rev. William Kok of Zeeland. The first two named men will speak in the afternoon, while Rev. Kok will speak in the evening.

Music during the day and evening will be furnished by the local Christian High school band, and a large chorus of more than 100 voices. The affair will be the second annual rally day sponsored by friends of the local Christian schools. Last year the rally was a great success and it is expected that this year the day will be even more successful if conclusions can be drawn from the interest shown. Transportation will be provided for those who desire such, cars to be on hand at several of the local churches.

County Clerk Can't Issue His Own Licenses

One of the greatest surprises not only in Grand Haven but in Holland and elsewhere was the announcement of the marriage of Wm. Wilds, county clerk, to a very fine lady, Miss Esther C. Lott, former Ottawa county "home demonstrator." The ceremony took place at high noon Saturday and the marriage rites were read by Rev. C. P. Andrews, pastor of the Holt Presbyterian church at the rural home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lott, near Holt, Mich., in the presence of the immediate family and a few close relatives.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lucille Lott. The ceremony was performed on the shaded lawn of the Lott home and the bride party had as its background a snowy bridal wreath in a setting of pine trees which were planted by the grandfather of the bride during early pioneer days of Michigan.

Miss Lott was charmingly gowned in a dress of pale blue chiffon and crepe. Her accessories were in white and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and small blue and white blossoms. The bridesmaid, Miss Lucille Lott, wore a dress of white and carried a bouquet of pink roses and small blue and white blossoms. The ring bearer, little Eleanor Jean Lott, two and a half year old niece of the bride, carried the ring in the petals of a white rose. She looked daintily in an outfit of white.

Following the ceremony and congratulations a three course wedding luncheon was served in the dining room, and the party of sixteen was seated at one long and nicely appointed table. Glowing tapers and lovely summer flowers carried out a decorative motif in yellow and white and the same color note was effectively used in the menu.

Later in the afternoon the bride and groom left for a motor trip to Detroit and through Canada, planning to be gone for a week. They will be at home to friends after June 24th in Grand Haven.

Mrs. Wilds is a charming woman and is well known in Ottawa county, contacting many people while head of the Home Economics department of this county. She has spent the past two years as home economics director for Consumers Power Co. with headquarters at Alma, Mich.

The groom is one of the best known and popular men in Grand Haven and Ottawa county and in state Republican circles. He has held the office of county clerk for several terms and has long been identified with the Republican party in this county, at present being secretary of the Republican county committee. He is a major in the Officers' Reserve corps and is a World War veteran. He was the city clerk in Grand Haven for many years and has been associated in business. He was secretary of Lodge No. 1200 B. P. O. E., Grand Haven. His mother is Mrs. Mary Wilds of Grand Haven.

It is generally held that the beginning of this romance found its inception in the Ottawa county court house where both were employed and the marriage was the culmination. In this instance the county clerk could not issue his own license since he was married in another county.

After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Wilds will be at home to their friends at 212 Sherman street, Grand Haven.

CHAPEL

Prize Winners Found in This Article.

Holland High school will graduate 190 students—half are boys and the other half girls and on section three of this issue the bright faces of all these graduates will be found. Hope Memorial chapel was well filled on Sunday afternoon to listen to the Rev. John Vander Beek, pastor of Sixth Reformed church, who gave the annual baccalaureate address. Rev. Vander Beek's theme was "Build Your Lives Upon the Savior and You Will Become a Great Asset in This Land of Ours." In stressing his sermon "The One Foundation," he urged the members of the senior class to further their education. He pointed out that 75 per cent of those in Who's Who were graduates from college, among them nation's presidents, nation's vice presidents, and members of the supreme court.

Trustees of the board of education and the school officials were seated on the platform. Trustee A. E. Lampen of the Hope college faculty read the scripture. Trustee Henry Geerlings offered prayer.

The seniors marched to their respective pews in the front of the auditorium to the strains of the processional hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," played by Prof. W. Curtis Snow, head of the organ department of the Hope college school of music.

The high school mixed chorus, under the direction of Miss Tricie M. Moore, sang two numbers, "Blessed Jesus," by Christiansen, and "Send Forth Thy Light," by Bakker.

The program of Sunday follows: Organ prelude, "Chord in B Minor" (Cesar Franck); W. Curtis Snow, head of organ department, School of Music, Hope college; processional hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers" (Sullivan); Mr. Snow; invocation; anthem, "Blessed Jesus" (Christiansen); high school mixed chorus, directed by Tricie M. Moore; hymn No. 1, "Come Thou Almighty King" (Giardini); reading of scripture, Prof. A. E. Vander Beek; doxology; benediction; choral anthem; organ postlude, "Finale," fourth symphony, (Widor), Mr. Snow.

The date of commencement for Holland High school was changed somewhat this year because the orator of the evening could not be present until Friday. Therefore, the graduating exercises will be held this Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Hope Memorial chapel. Many prizes have already been announced, together with the winners and some are to be announced this evening. The program for tonight follows below as well as do the prizes and prize winners.

MISS HOLKEBOER HONORED BY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Miss Tina Holkeboer, missionary to China since 1920, and on furlough since July of last year, was guest of honor at the meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, Tuesday afternoon, and what is more it was all much of a surprise to her. Miss Holkeboer had been asked if she could be present by the chairman of the program committee and as always she generously consented even though her time has been crowded to capacity with the many speaking engagements.

However, as the program proceeded it was soon evident that she was not on the program as a speaker, but that the numbers had been prepared as a farewell in her honor.

A feature of the program was a poem written and read by Mrs. Marin De Boer of East Twenty-first street. Mrs. De Boer is well known as a poetical author and the one read Tuesday in honor of Miss Holkeboer was truly a classic.

Other numbers were two selections by a quartet composed of Mrs. P. Steinfort, Mrs. A. Vanden Brink, Mrs. A. Brink and Mrs. H. Slenk, with Mrs. Frank Weener, accompanying; a missionary review, given by Mrs. G. De Weerd; a brief scripture lesson by Rev. N. J. Monsma.

As the concluding number of the program, Rev. Monsma in a few

COUNCIL NOTES

The council had progressed at least ten minutes when the mayor found that the meeting had not opened with prayer. He asked Alderman Kalkman to lead in the Lord's Prayer, joined in by officials and audience.

Several licenses for pool rooms, soft drink stands, eating houses, 18 in number, were presented and approved.

Louis Padnos, junk dealer, asked for renewal of license, which was granted as well as a concrete laying license for ex-Alderman Bert Habing and his father, Sam Habing.

A card of thanks was received from the family of former Mayor Nick Kammeraad, a wreath having been sent to the city to the home of the late former mayor of Holland.

An offer was made to the ways and means committee of $1,800 for the lot formerly occupied by the Annis home on West Fourteenth near River. A former offer of $2,000 was withdrawn. It was decided to accept the offer, for as Mayor Bosch put it "Undoubtedly a fine home will be built on it and that will mean the paying of taxes on both lot and house, more than any advance in price we might be waiting for."

It was pointed out by Chairman Damsen that four crews were making sidewalk walks and were making rapid progress. The mayor injected, "We presume the fourth crew is headed by Alderman Kalkman." The second ward alderman's face beamed with delight for he is now in the concrete gang and as the mayor put it "You also got a raise in pay, didn't you Casey?" Kalkman smiled and said he was satisfied.

City Engineer Zuidema stated that the sidewalk men have no further trouble with youngsters tearing concrete walks. At first this was the bane of the walking men. Boys and girls both endeavored to perpetrate their names in letters of stone.

An appropriation of $300 was allowed to move the voting booth from the flatiron in the Fifth ward to one corner of the Nineteenth street ball diamond owned by the city. This price, as Alderman Bultman reported, seemed rather high, but not when moving, plumbing and repainting were taken into consideration. This will be the voting booth for one of the precincts. The other is in Longfellow school. Alderman Van Zoeren made a motion that the appropriation be approved.

It was reported that the roof of an ever-running spring on the property of the Mossier Leather company is becoming rotten. The well is on the south side of Ninth street near Maple, and has been there for a half century. The two Fourth ward aldermen will investigate the well, and report back, and if found dangerous the tankery folk will be asked to repair it, so children will not fall in. In the old days tannery employees took their little jugs to this spring for water while at work, and no matter how warm he summer, the water was ice cold. At that time it was not a well, but a "spring house."

Inspector Tony Dozeman, in his report, stated that he had inspected all bakeries and found them in "tip top" shape. He reports the same thing for the milk dealers. We can now eat bread and milk without danger.

Attention was called to unsanitary sewer conditions of three houses on West Seventh street, and the Bay View Furnace factory and proper sewer connections were ordered. Mayor Bosch stated that the Bay View was perfectly willing to make connection at once and said he would work for that.

David DeFeyer of the Second ward appeared before the common council and begged for relief from noises made by youngsters who "make fun" at the new playground at Second street and River avenue. De Feyer states that his son, who works at night, is unable to sleep during the day time because of the disturbance and as he put it plenty of swearing for good measure. Albert Van Zoeren, chairman of the playgrounds committee stated that you cannot conduct a playground, no matter where, without some noise, but relative to profane language and other matters connected with the playgrounds he states he will investigate and report on at the next meeting.

Alderman Kalkman reported that sewer connections are needed along the railroad track at Columbia and Sixth to drain water from the fronts of homes of several residents. The city engineer will investigate and report back at the next meeting. He also pleaded for poor folks who didn't have money to have sewer connections made one in particular was a Mr. Heselink, living in a house just south of the West Michigan Furniture company. Alderman Bultman stated that the sewer connections would cost more than what the little house is worth.

Alderman Ben Steffens, after listening to several complaints about the "city fathers" that it is time to clean our own back yards" and pointed to not a few parcels of city property with homes that needed attention, too.

"CHRISTIAN MISSIONS"
(Acts 1:6-8; 13:1-12)

Henry Geerlings

Jesus knew that His hour had come, not the hour of His death, but the hour of His ascension and of His reign in heaven. Having finished His work He came to do. He led His disciples out to the Mount of Olives near Bethany, from which point He planned to take His departure. An interesting conversation filled up the moments between their arrival there and His leave-taking.

The disciples, conscious apparently that something unusual was ready to happen, asked their Lord if it was His intention to set up a temporal kingdom at this time. We do not know what led them to put that question, except that they still believed it was His thought to set up a temporal kingdom for Israel, and free the nation from the Roman yoke and bring under His sway all the world's empires.

The hopes of this earthly kingdom would alternately rise and fall. It was the center of the world, and it fell with the crucifixion. Now they seemed to believe that there were prospects of their dreams being realized.

Once more Jesus gave them to understand that they were praying into matters that were not their concern. He flatly refused to satisfy the curiosity of the apostles on this point. How prone we are to emphasize the non-essentials and to half forget the essentials.

They had to let Jesus lead them for the gradual unfolding of His plan, and not look for a yes and no answer, a thing at best which they would not have been able to understand.

The way to remove a wrong idea is to replace it with a good one. Jesus told the disciples that what they needed was not knowledge but power. To know the future would not do them any good but when they had the power to preach the gospel would be better for them and the world. This power was not native with Him. It was to come upon and fill them; and not for their own delight, but for the service they would render others.

And what was the thing expected of them? It was that they

NATIONAL MERCHANT STARTED BUSINESS LIFE WITH $500

An illustrious guest was in Holland Monday in the person of J. C. Penny, a nationally known merchant and industrial leader. Mr. Penny is touring Michigan on a good will trip and has been visiting the J. C. Penny stores in the leading cities of this state, Holland included.

The J. C. Penny Co. has three stores in this neighborhood namely, Holland, Allegan and Muskegon and Monday he motored from one to the other speaking to at least 75 employees and their wives on this occasion. He shook hands with all of them at an informal reception. In a short talk he said as follows:

"I believe the opportunities of today are about as auspicious as they ever were. Employees who will apply themselves, take lessons from the successes of others, who will bend their energies to the task in hand and who deal honest and square — there is advancement for such men and women. One can't just drift along these days, but through dint of hard work and wise management, success is assured."

Mr. Penny told of his earlier experiences, stating that he started the first store in Kenosha, Wis., with a capital stock of $500. It was a mining town where stores generally give credit, in fact it was all credit. Mr. Penny started a cash store against the advice of friends and associates, but the success of this modest beginning is emphasized when one considers that Penny stores dot the nation from coast to coast.

Mr. Penny was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Price and the honored guest attended a dinner at Warm Friend Tavern during Monday evening. Mr. Price has been the able manager of the Holland store for the past two years.

The founder left for Ionia accompanied by Mr. Price after the social and business call had been completed in Holland. Before leaving Michigan, Mr. Penny will have visited at least a score of his stores in different cities in this state.

Others attending the Holland meeting were Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Doud, formerly of the Muskegon store; and Mr. and Mrs. N. G. White of the Streator, Ill., store.

a period of 30 years were grand successes generally speaking. These never failed financially for when there was a surplus a new Steinway was always evident on the chapel platform. When failures came "J. B." pocketed his loss personally. There are so many other commendable things your editor knows about Dr. Nykerk of which the public knows nothing. At first years truly disliked him when the slender, frail tutor struck "Bennie" Mulder's fingers with an oak pointer for throwing black pepper on a red hot box stove in class room. However, since that time, the doctor's finer qualities were displayed to me almost daily.

For instance, who would believe that Mr. Nykerk, over a period of years has invested liberally of his meager salary in home enterprises, a score of them at least. Many of them industrial wrecks and in the rest the returns were modest. When asked why he had been so liberal in his industrial investments after many disappointments, he said:

"Holland can never grow and develop unless its commercial and industrial development is assured."

His sacrifices for Hope covering a half century will never be known for Nykerk won't tell. Dr. Nykerk has always been loyal to his church and faithful to his God.

But let's turn back to the files of the News and see who the half dozen graduates are. Miss Lizzie Phelps, daughter of the first president of Hope, who lived in Van Vleet hall, and later became the wife of the late Rev. Otto, missionary; Miss Mary E. Alcott, later Mrs. Gerrit J. Diekema; Peter Vanden Berg of South Holland, Illinois; Gen. J. Hekhuis of Holland, and John B. Nykerk of Over-ryssel. The last two named are brothers-in-law. Mr. Hekhuis married Mr. Nykerk's sister, Rev. Hekhuis retired from the ministry last year and is now living in Holland. The editorial notes on Mr. Hekhuis' speech were as follows:

The oration, "A Plea for Justice," was an able production and dealt severely with our late governor for his numerous pardons granted to notorious criminals. We should judge that the law would be Mr. Hekhuis' next study. That forecast proved incorrect since Mr. Hekhuis became a dominie.

Relative to the young lady graduates the News says:

These ladies were unable to speak loud enough so all in the vast audience could hear. Their essays, however, were very appropriate and scholarly. Prof. Charles Scott, president of Hope, presented "A.B." degrees to the class of six.

It would not be amiss to give a short review of the graduating exercises of the preparatory department held at the old Hope chapel on a Monday afternoon where the writer goes in ecstasy over the broad green plots of grass on the college campus and the tall green trees, which shade the college buildings refreshed from a morning shower just before the exercises began. The decorations were described in a very glowing manner, the motto of the class was "Step by Step," and the number in the class was 11. Two girls and nine boys. They were Miss Josephine Kieklintveld, whose father was a book dealer in Holland and who later married a local druggist, William Z. Bangs. Sena Voorhorst, Overysse; Herbert Keppel, Zeeland, who later became a professor in some of the leading colleges of the nation; Albert Knooihuizen of North Holland, who later became a physician and still later had industrial connections in this city and lives on West Twelfth street; Gelmer Kuiper of Graafschap, Michigan, who became an able attorney and for years was advisor of the Pere Marquette railroad and passed away in 1934; Abraham Leenhouts, Zeeland, Mich., whom we all know as Doc. He has been Holland's physician for a score of years, made great sacrifices during the World war, stood high in educational circles and is historian for the Willard G. Leenhouts post, American Legion, named after the son who fell in battle overseas. We all love Doc and the estimable Gold Star mother always at his side. Martin Oseward, Holland, Wisconsin; Anthony M. Van Duine, Zeeland. It is understood that all of these became ministers of the Gospel. Gerrit J. Workman, M.D., Patersonville, Iowa, is now a professor in one of the leading colleges in Iowa. Kate Herold, who belonged to the pioneer Herold family, interested in shoes and leather, went married to Mr. George Hunt, who started his career as a railroad man as ticket agent for C. and W. M. railroad at Holland, and is now a prominent official of the Pere Marquette system. Mrs. Hunt passed away six months ago at Grand Rapids.

It is rather interesting to note how these young students appeared on the program. Dr. Leenhouts, even then thought of "the redemption of men." Albert Knooihuizen gave a recitation "Night in Shilo." Gelmer Kuiper spoke on "The Relation of the Mosquito to the Human Family."

Apparently there were not enough speakers in the A class so students from other classes were substituted. Miss Katie Den Herder, daughter of the Zeeland banker, gave a recitation, "Marguerite of France." Henry Veldman, now a retired minister at Muskegon, gave a declamation on "The Dove." Miss Kate Herold's contribution was "A Hundred Years from Now." William Van Lo spoke on a big subject, namely "The Universe." Miss Janie Nykerk recitation, "Bettina Mazzi." There was also a dialogue a la Chinese. The theme was the "Trial of Fing Wing." The cast of characters were the following: D. Walvoord, A. Van Westrienen, Dan Cook, Martin Flipse, Harry Kremers, C. Dayton and Kate Herold.

The editor of the News wishes to place the personnel of the above list where possible and our readers no doubt will then know them. Dan Cook is a local physician who at one time was Holland's health officer. Martin Flipse is Rev. Flipse who served Third Reformed church for some time and is now serving a church in California. Harry Kremers, brother of the late Dr. Henry Kremer, is today a retired minister, after serving for years as professor in Bible and religious education in a large Presbyterian college in Iowa. He married Miss Minnie Cappon, the daughter of Holland's first mayor, Isaac Cappon, founder of the large tannery. Dr. Kremer and family are now living at Washington, D. C. C. Dayton became a doctor and is still practicing at Nunica, Ottawa county. Miss Kate Herold became Mrs. George Hunt as has been stated before. Herbert Keppel of Zeeland, who graduated from Hope four years later, took his Ph. D. degree in an eastern university and then became assistant professor in mathematics in Northwestern university at Evanston, Illinois, and later became the head of the department of mathematics at the University of Florida. He passed away in Florida some years ago. Dr. John M. Vandermeulen, who spoke as a student at Hope had for a subject "The Launching of a Ship." Today he is a nationally known orator, has served some of the largest churches in the nation, was on Hope faculty, served Hope church as pastor, was head and is still connected with the Presbyterian seminary at Louisville, Ky. Niel Vandermeulen of the First State bank is his brother.

These are the highlights in the commencement setting in which Dr. Nykerk found himself, 50 years ago, after he had finished his first great step in higher education. The life of Hope college and the life of Dr. Nykerk are closely interwoven as everyone in Holland who has lived during that period knows.

Miss Laverne Essenburgh, and Dr. Clyde Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Green of Vermontville, were united in marriage on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, with Rev. H. Terkeurst officiating. The vows were said before a beautiful background of palms, spring flowers and lighted candelabra. The bride was attired in a white satin gown with a long train and a halo cap held her tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of white calla lilies. The matron of honor, Mrs. R. J. Meuwesen wore a gown of bright color chiffon and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The flower girl, Viola Vanger Veen, wore blue and white organdy and carried a basket of roses. George Essenburgh, brother of the bride, attended the groom and James Essenburgh and L. Lawrence were ushers. The wedding music was played by Miss Mildred Essenburgh and Mrs. L. W. Lawrence of Benton Harbor sang "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, and "At Dawning" by Charles Wakefield Cadman. The mother of the bride wore a gown of pink and crepe with a shoulder corsage of sweet peas and roses. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held, after which the newlyweds left on a trip to the East. The bride wore a traveling gown of blue crepe with white accessories when leaving for the trip. The young couple will make their home at 1945 Silver avenue, southeast, in Grand Rapids. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Verplank and Miss Esther DeWeerd, returned missionary from India, and Miss Vera Correll of Grand Haven and Vern Buhl of Chicago. From Grand Rapids, Dr. and Mrs. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. A. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. H. Vogt, Dr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beld, Mr. and Mrs. G. Beld, R. Meuwesen, Mrs. J. Nykerk, Mrs. Annie Cress, Miss Grace Jonker, Mr. and Mrs. N. Green and daughter of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. E. Green of Vermontville.

Holland's fifth annual city tennis tournament will begin next week with play in three divisions. A novice division, in which those who have not previously entered a city tournament will be eligible, has been added to championship singles and doubles.

William Arendshorst will defend his singles title, with Glen Loveland and Floyd Loveland as the defenders in doubles.

Registration must be made at the Superior Sport store before Saturday, June 22, at 9 p. m. No entry fee is charged.

OVERISEL NOTES
The Young People's Christian Endeavor society of the Reformed church has appointed the Misses Clarissa Gunneman and Florence Schipper and the Messrs. Morris Folkert and Myron Kollen as delegates to the state convention which will meet at Saginaw this week-end.

Two couples were united in holy wedlock at the parsonage of the Christian Reformed church Thursday afternoon, Rev. G. J. Vande Riet officiating at the ceremonies. At 3 o'clock Miss Julia Alderink and Mr. Richard Brower took their place before the palm; and the marriage of Miss Henrietta Bergman and Mr. Francis Meiste occurred a bit later in the afternoon. Mr. Brower is employed at the farm bureau in Hamilton, while Mr. Meiste is assisting his father on the farm two miles south of this village.

Rev. and Mrs. Vande Riet went to the meeting of the Concordia Ministers' association of the Christian Reformed churches of classis Zeeland, the hosts this time being the Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Danhof of Drenthe. This occurred Tuesday afternoon.

Florence, Alyce and Garrett Vande Riet were supper guests on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ten Brink of East Saugatuck.

Monday evening the local baseball team took a trouncing from the Zoet Fuels of Holland, resulting in a score of 9 to 3. This was the ninth victory of the Zoet Fuels for this season. Joe Borgman was on the mound for the Holland team and gave up 5 hits, walked 2 and struck out 11. Glenn Albers, pitching for our team, was nipped for 14 blows, 5 passes and struck out 7.

The game was a bit exciting in the seventh inning, but a rally was headed after 2 runs were scored on two foul errors.

Bob Freeman, former Hope college athlete, did a fine bit of work at short for the Overisel side.

Borgman and Oosting made 3 hits and Conklin and Van Lente 2 each to lead the Zoet attack. Many new cars have been purchased and are being driven around in this vicinity. Old Man Depression doesn't seem to be such a bad guy, after all.

NEWS ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT HOLLAND'S ELECTRIC RATES

MORE LEISURE, GREATER CONVENIENCE, AND A HIGHER STANDARD OF LIVING THAN ELSEWHERE CAN BE ENJOYED IN HOLLAND BECAUSE OF OUR EXTREMELY LOW ELECTRIC RATES!

Living in Holland is ideal in so many ways that we often overlook a factor that contributes mightily to our fortunate situation. ELECTRICITY—the miracle servant—is ours to enjoy more abundantly than is possible in the country at large.

Take your light bill for the past month and divide the net amount by the number of KWH* shown on the slip. This will give you your average rate per KWH. Compare this rate with the national average of 5.39c and you will see how fortunate you are to live in Holland—and why you should employ this cheap electricity to do more of your work in the home. Bear in mind that under Holland's rate schedule, the more electricity you use the less becomes your average rate per KWH—an incentive that should still further encourage you to "DO IT ELECTRICALLY."

In the country at large the average wired home uses 51 KWH per month, for which it pays $2.76. The average home in Holland gets 103 KWH for this $2.75—or more than twice as much. This means that you can do over twice as much with electricity per dollar than the average American home. Doesn't this fact make you want to use your "miracle servant" more generously?

Even a comparison with the much-publicized low rates of the Federal Government in its Tennessee Valley development shows to the advantage of Holland. Down in the Muscle Shoals region the cost of 200 KWH is $4.50—in Holland the cost for the average home is $4.48! If the Government's low rates are an inducement for doing everything electrically in the Tennessee Valley, how much more reason we have for letting electricity give us MORE leisure and freedom and a better standard of living in Holland!

Every dollar you pay for electricity goes to the city in which you live. It's your Light Plant! And while you get over twice as much for your money as elsewhere, you also share in a reduction of city taxes. Last year the earnings of the Board of Public Works meant a REDUCTION IN THE TAX BILL OF $7.20 per thousand dollars assessment.

Ponder these facts—then ask yourself if you are using enough electricity in your home, remembering that the MORE you use under Holland's CHEAP RATES, the more leisure, the more convenience, and the more economy you can enjoy.

DO IT ELECTRICALLY, and you do it BETTER and CHEAPER!

(*KWH (kilowatt hours) means the consumption of 1,000 watts of electricity in one hour. This is the unit of measurement employed with electricity. Authority for national figures quoted is Edison Electric Institute, for year ending June 30, 1934.

The Wagner bill, signed by Governor Fitzgerald, gives this privilege to spears in Lake St. Clair and St. Mary's River.

CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE SUES TO END ORGANIZATION AT HUDSONVILLE

Suit was started in circuit court here Monday by the Michigan Congregational conference asking for dissolution of the Congregational church organization at Hudsonville. The suit, a retrial of a case initiated a year ago, when the defendant won, is being heard by Judge M. D. Taylor of Hillsdale. The retrial is based on alleged technical errors.

The defendant contends there is no basis for the demands for dissolution, that the church is a going concern, that the pastor the last five years, Rev. C. M. Beertuis, is an ordained minister and that although not ordained as a Congregationalist, he subscribes to all the denominational tenets.

The original action was taken by the Grand Rapids Association of Congregational Churches, which charged that the Hudsonville church did not adhere to its principles or subscribe to its funds. These charges also are denied by the defendant.

MARY SPOON OF OLD OTTAWA FAMILY DIES

The death of Miss Mary Spoon of Torrence, Calif., a member of one of the pioneer families of Ottawa county, was learned in a message received here.

The Spoon family were among the early residents of Ottawa county, pioneers in the lumber industry and founding the settlement on Grand river formerly known as Spoonville, but now passed out of existence. After the passing of the lumber industry, a number of the family removed to the West.

Miss Spoon is survived by three brothers, John Spoon of Oakland, Calif., Henry Spoon of Aberdeen, Wash., and Frank Spoon of Torrence, Calif. Another brother, George Spoon, died in Muskegon in 1932.

ABLE CHRISTIAN HIGH COACH RECENTLY BANQUETED GOES TO GRAND RAPIDS

Albert Muyskens, the man who coached Holland Christian high school basketball teams to two successive state class C championships and raised the court efficiency of that school to a point where his squads competed on even terms with the best class A teams in the state, has been named as athletic director at Calvin college, succeeding the late William Cornelisse, who died two weeks ago.

The appointment of Muyskens to the position with the Grand Rapids school was confirmed Monday morning by the executive committee of the college administrative board.

Muyskens' teams at Holland Christian were known throughout Michigan the last two seasons as equal to the best in the state, regardless of class. The squads were not defeated in regularly scheduled games or tournament play for two full seasons, and won two consecutive championships in class C, coming through in the 1934 state tournament at Grand Rapids and repeating at Flint in 1935.

At the close of the basketball season coach was given a banquet by the school and Holland citizens and was given a purse of $200.

A MONSTER MUSHROOM

Did you ever see a morel mushroom a little more than a foot long? Perhaps no one ever did of Allegan, until Mr. Virgil Michaels' two young sons, Bernard and Bernath, found some last Monday, all of them large but one of them exceedingly so. It was a trifle more than a foot long, and the weight eleven ounces. So unusual was this that Mr. Killmaster made photographs of it. The lot had some advantages of growth besides the prevailing wet weather as they grew under an overturned boat which caught drip from eaves. Otherwise normal in size the plants were normal in all respects.

DR. HENRY VELDMAN, WIFE HONORED BY BOARD OF CENTRAL REFORMED

(Muskegon Chronicle)

Dr. Henry J. Veldman, retiring pastor of the Central Reformed church, with Mrs. Veldman was honored by members of the consistory and their wives, and Henry E. Langeland an honorary member of the consistory with Mrs. Langeland, at a farewell party given at the White Kitchen last night.

Covers were laid for 36, and presiding as master of ceremonies, Chris Bergman tendered the good wishes of the group to Dr. and Mrs. Veldman, and presented them with a beautiful gift. Mrs. Veldman was also presented with roses.

An informal program of appreciation speeches followed dinner, with responses by the guests of honor. Last night's event celebrated the birthday anniversary of Dr. Veldman, and indirectly his ordination and the wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Veldman, 48 years ago, June 17.

Dr. Veldman who has served Central church for eight years, will preach his farewell sermon, June 30.

The News might add that Mr. Veldman was pastor of the First Reformed church at Holland, some 18 years ago and was followed by Rev. James Weyer who has served ever since. Mr. Veldman was a graduate from Hope many years ago as well as from the local seminary.

ALLEGAN MAN, CHILD ESCAPE TRUCK BLAST

Lewis Quade of Saugatuck and his 3-year-old son narrowly escaped death this afternoon when oil tanks on Quade's truck exploded on highway M-89 five miles north of here. The child suffered severe burns on the arms, but Quade was unhurt.

Quade said he heard the motor miss fire and stopped and discovered that the truck was afire. He snatched his son from the cab just before the tanks exploded.

The truck and its contents, valued at $1,300, were destroyed. The vehicle was owned by the Cook Oil Co. of Allegan.

GIRLS TURN SHOE SHINERS TO FINANCE SCHOOLING

Jessie Slack and Dora Sheldon, 17 years old, Grand Haven high school students, are to shine shoes this summer to earn money to continue their education. Although they like summer vacation, the lure of continued learning is strong and they will forego present pleasure for future benefit. The girls are to operate a shoe shining stand in connection with a shoe repair shop operated by Nick Koron on Washington street. They start their junior year next year. They are good students and take part in athletics and other school activities.

HALF A CHERRY CROP IN GLEN HAVEN AREA

Frost damage to the red cherry crop in the region of Glen Haven has been very spotty and growers now estimate a possible 50 per cent loss. From Beulah north to Leland frost has hit sections of orchards and parts of trees, making an accurate estimate difficult. Frost damage to sweets has been negligible.

Holland Should Join Neighbor In Celebrating

GEO. SAVIDGE TO ADDRESS
SPRING LAKE FOLKS
OVER THE AIR SATURDAY

A broadcasting system hooked to a long distance wire will bring the voice of George P. Savidge from his home at Beverly Hills, California, to the celebration to be held at Spring Lake, Saturday, June 22, to inaugurate the installation of the new boulevard lights and mark the formal opening of Savidge street as part of US-16.

Mr. Savidge, the donor of the lights, will make a few remarks and at a signal the lights will be turned on a little after 8 p. m. The ceremony will be held at the Masonic temple and will be a part of the program arranged to dedicate the improvements made in the village during the past year.

Murray D. Van Wagoner, state highway commissioner, and William Connelly, former resident of Spring Lake, now secretary of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, will be the main speakers. Theodore I. Fry, state treasurer, will also be present, together with about twenty members of the state road department; mayors and presidents of surrounding towns, including Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Holland, Marne, Coopersville, Nunica, and Grand Haven; members of the board of Ottawa county road commission; and representatives from all parts of this county and some from adjoining counties.

Time of Program.

The formal program will begin at 6:45 p. m. and continue until 7:30 p. m. Mr. Van Wagoner and Mr. Connelly will be the principal speakers, introduced by Carl Bowen. William Hammond, president of the village, will be on the speakers' stand which will be erected and probably placed on the DeVries property in the center of the business district.

At 5 p. m. four bands, the 120th Infantry band from Grand Rapids, American Legion band, Holland; Grand Haven and Spring Lake bands, will march and other parade features may be included.

Following the ceremonies at the Masonic temple the guests, including the speakers, members of the highway department, mayors and presidents of the surrounding towns, board of supervisors and other guests, numbering about 60, will go to the country club for dinner at 8:30 p. m.

In the afternoon the guests will be taken to the club for golf, the streets of the village will be gay with rides and carnival features and the village park will be in readiness for picnic parties.

It is proposed to decorate the village appropriately and business men and merchants will make special efforts at window decoration.

Holland can show its interest by attending the same as Spring Lake folks take a decided interest in "Tulip Time." Let's take a short trip over U. S. 31 to our neighbors and see what they have to offer. We should foster more of that neighborly feeling.

POLICE BOARD TO HAVE NEW ORDER OF BUSINESS

The Holland board of police and fire commissioners met for a busy session Monday evening, confirming committee appointments, making recommendations and approving a new order of business procedure.

The board at future meetings will follow the order of business as follows:

Roll call, minutes, presentation of bills, communications, reports and requests from chiefs of police and fire, messages from common council, motions and resolutions, special and regular committee reports and adjournment.

Commissioner Henry Ketel was named chairman pro-tem by unanimous vote.

The board approved the appointments of committees by the new chairman, Com. Edward Brouwer. The committees are: Motor vehicles and electric signs, Henry Ketel, Cornelius Huizenga; personnel, John F. Connelly, Edward Brouwer; traffic and markings, Huizenga and John P. Luideus; equipment and building, Brouwer, Donnelly and Ketel; patrols, Luideus and Ketel. The last-named committee is new, with the appointment of Chairman Brouwer, and was framed to study officers' "beats" and the condition of alleys. Com. Ketel was named chairman pro tem. All matters, unless of emergency nature, will be handled by committees.

John P. Luideus, retiring chairman, could not be present because of illness, and the message from him was read by Clerk Oscar Peterson. Mr. Luideus reviewed the accomplishments of the past year during which he served, mentioning particularly the new police telephone system and the new police station.

Harold W. Boone of Washington, D. C., has recently received an appointment with the United States labor department. Mr. Boone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Boone of North Shore Drive.

Mrs. Anna Poppen, who is chairman of the county pension board, has stated that about 80 residents of Ottawa county have been receiving $10 a month under the old-age pension law passed two years ago. The failure of the head tax plan to collect funds for the pension was a blow and Mrs. Poppen stated the failure was due to the enforcement of the law.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling of New York City, who resigned his pastorate at Marble Collegiate Reformed church to devote his time to young peoples' work, has announced he will return to the pulpit next year. He is a member of the board of trustees of Hope college and president of the International Society of Christian Endeavor.

SPRING CHECK-UP OF CAR AID TO SAFE SUMMER DRIVING

COOLING SYSTEM, LUBRICATION, ELECTRICAL APPARATUS AND BRAKES SHOULD BE SERVICED NOW

It's time for the regular spring check-up and reconditioning of the family automobile to fit it for heavier mileages and higher speeds of summer driving, according to M. D. Langerveld, local Ford dealer. The first thing to be conditioned is the cooling system. As soon as the danger of heavy frost is past, the radiator should be completely drained when the motor is cold. Five or ten minutes' flushing with a hose will clear away the sludge. Then fill the radiator with water, let the motor run for five minutes, and check the water level to be sure all air has been discharged from the cooling system. In districts where there is alkali water, it is advisable to use an inhibitor in the water.

As operating conditions in summer are entirely different from winter, a change of lubricants is advisable. The crankcase should be drained, cleaned with flushing oil, and filled with a good quality oil of higher viscosity than that used for winter. If S. A. E. 20 has been used in winter, S. A. E. 40 is probably indicated. For winter operation the transmission and rear axle are lubricated with light gear lubricant. This is unsuitable for the heat of summer, especially at the higher operating speeds. Better results will be obtained through use of good quality extreme pressure lubricant, which is now specified for axles and transmissions of Ford cars and trucks.

The fuel system should be checked, the carburetor cleaned, the fuel pump drained and the strainer cleaned. Check the ignition timing. Clean and space spark plug points, and examine wiring for any deterioration.

In many cases garages are now equipped with laboratory test sets, which provide an inexpensive and accurate check of the actual condition of the motor and indicate necessary adjustments.

Remove the terminals at the top of the storage battery, clean, cover with a generous coating of petroleum jelly, and replace. The generator charging rate should be reduced to about 60 per cent of the winter rate so less current for engine starting is needed. A charging rate of 8 to 12 amperes at 20 miles per hour, depending on the amount of night driving expected, should be sufficient.

The brakes will probably require adjustment after severe winter use, especially as it is advisable to prepare for higher speeds and quick stops. All headlamp bulbs should be checked and refocused to ensure safety for driver and other motorists. If necessary the reflectors should be polished with lamp black. Darkened and discolored bulbs should be replaced. Any wear in the steering gear or front wheel adjustment should be taken up for maximum comfort and safety.

The body after exposure to severe weather will probably need a thorough cleaning and polishing. Usually it is necessary to use only a high-grade polish which removes surface film, without cutting into the finish.

It will probably be necessary to replace the windshield wiper blade, of which the rubber may have deteriorated in contact with ice and snow. The wiper mechanism may need lubrication.—adv.

The alumnae of the Sorosis society of Hope college held their annual get-together at an informal tea on the lawn at the home of Miss Ruth Nibbelink, 178 West 12th street. Miss Betty Smith, president of the alumnae, presided at the meeting. Arrangements for the tea were in charge of Mrs. Marvin Lindemann, general chairman, Miss Heister Pellegron and Mrs. E. Paul McLean. Miss Metta Ross was in charge of the program plans.

Mrs. John Nyland, a recent bride, was honored at a shower Thursday evening given by Mrs. Bert Nyland. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Nyboer and son, Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cramer and daughter Mary Ann, James Nyland, Miss Henrietta Nyboer, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Nyland and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Slenk, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Slenk, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Slenk and two children, Bobby and Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beckvoort and Mr. and Mrs. H. Gunther.

They were: Mrs. Heasley, who is head of the staff; the Misses Gertrude Steketee, Peggy Bergen, Lili Vander Meulen, Dorothy and Helena Vischer, Jean Van Raalte, Barbara Telling and Betty Smith. John Nauta, 21, of Denwood avenue, Wyoming township, is charged with resisting arrest when he was sought by Special Deputy Charles Fiorelano for the sheriff of Allegan county Sunday and will face prosecution in Kent county when he has settled his troubles in Allegan county. Nauta is said to have put up such a resistance that a call went into the county jail that a gang war was proceeding at Burton street and Godfrey avenue. Deputy Sheriff James Findlay, who helped overcome Nauta, said Nauta was wanted in Allegan county on a charge of assaulting a tavern keeper. Assistant Prosecutor M. R. Bolt prepared a warrant charging Nauta with resisting an officer. Grand Rapids Press.

A new development in the field of art at Saugatuck is the affiliation of the school of the Chicago Art institute with the Summer School of Painting at Saugatuck. The Art institute arranged for classes in landscape and outdoor figure painting as a regular part of the course at the summer school at the "Ox-Bow." This school was established 25 years ago under auspices of the Art Institute Alumni association. It owns its property between the old channel of the Kalamazoo river and Lake Michigan. Classes will be opened from June 24 to Aug. 31. F. F. Furman is director and among the instructors will be Edward Rupprecht, Francis Chapin and Alvin Meyer.

Hope College Graduates 70th Senior Class

STAFF OF 1935 GRADUATING CLASS

THE YEAR 1935 marks the date of the 70th commencement exercises at the local institution. Hope College has played a tremendous part in the growth of Holland and its environs. The institution was founded in the colonial days by the founder of the city and has kept pace with the growth of this community over a span of seventy years. The presence of Hope College has brought a tone of culture, has stimulated religious influence, has brought an urge among the young folks for higher education, which are paramount attributes. Hope campus has been a show place in our city and its establishment here has brought substantial financial benefits which of course are secondary. Hope College is an enterprise we are exceedingly proud of. This galaxy of intelligent faces is indicative of the bright young men and women who constantly graduate from this splendid institution. The achievements of Hope students, found nearly everywhere on this globe, are continually being heard from as excellent in every respect and tremendous in scope.

Holland High School Has Its 52nd Commencement This Friday Evening

E. E. FELL
Superintendent of Schools

THIS Friday evening marks the 52nd commencement at Holland High School. The event is to take place in beautiful Hope Memorial Chapel when ninety-five young ladies and ninety-five young men will receive their diplomas. The number to graduate surely is equally divided and is rather a coincidence in the 1935 graduating exercises. Many of the young men and women in this gallery of pictures are seeking higher education. A large number undoubtedly will attend our own splendid institution where they can be right at home. The Holland Public Schools are second to none, therefore Holland School pupils are well prepared for advanced education. The teaching staff headed by that outstanding principal, John Riemersma, is of high order and their earnest, efficient and painstaking work is reflected in the studentry graduating from these schools.

The Holland Public Schools are favored with splendid equipment, ideal school buildings and the teachers have everything that a modern school requires, generally speaking. The position Superintendent E. E. Fell holds, and the wonderful way in which he conducts his office was fully given in last week's issue and needs no further comment. Anyway we are proud of this "Young America." After all, these young folks are the next in line to carry on and education is their heritage, if their community is to do the fair thing by them—which it has and is doing—thus equipping them in mind and body so they may be able to give their best to their city, state and nation.

Change Order Of Prize Giving At Hope College

HONORS COME TO STUDENTS AND AWARDS ARE GIVEN BEFORE GRADUATION DAY

The Hope college authorities changed the order of things during the commencement of 1935 somewhat. Heretofore all prizes won and the prize winners were presented publicly at the main exercises during the last event during the institution's graduation week on Wednesday night. This year these prizes were announced on Friday, last, in order to cut the time of the exercises on Wednesday, deemed to long.

This undoubtedly is a tryout, however, it would seem that this feature of the program was always an outstanding highlight in the evening's doings. Anyway, the prizes with the exception of the senior awards, were given at a special convocation held in Hope Memorial chapel.

The exercises began with the processional by the chapel choir, Prof. W. Curtis Snow at the organ, College Pastor Paul E. Hinkamp conducted devotions.

Dr. John R. Mulder of Western Theological seminary made a brief address welcoming the alumni present and congratulating the student body upon the completion of another year of work. Speaking more directly to the seniors he declared, "Success in life is determined by the vision to see, the courage to dare, and the capacity to do."

Before presentation of the regular awards, President Wynand Wichers made recognition of distinctions gained by seniors in the science department. In the chemistry department, Leland Beach of Holland has been awarded an assistantship of $400 stipend to Washington university, St. Louis, Mo., and Earle Kropacott of Fremont, an assistantship of $450 stipend to Syracuse university, Syracuse, N. Y.

Roy M. Chaters of Flint will assist in the botany department of the University of Michigan next year, and in microbiology at the summer session of the same institution. Admittances of Hope men into medical schools include Henry Ten Pas, Paul Fugazzotto and Don Albers, University of Michigan, Arbor; Paul Van Pernis and Edward Heneveld, Rush Medical, Chicago; Dowe C. Cupery, Marquette university, Milwaukee, Wis.

Spring athletic awards were as follows:

Track—Capt. Joe Esther, Don Albers, Eckdal Buys, Alvin Kloppe, Hugh De Pree, James Quist, George Douma, Kenneth Tyase.

Golf—Jacques Claus, Ralph De Roo, Jay Bush, Bill Poppink.

Tennis—Don Te Roller, Lester Van Tatenhove, William Westveer, George Heeringa, Earl Vander Poel, Donald Visser and Peter Vanden Berge.

The following are the regular annual awards and the 1935 recipients:

George Birkhoff, Jr., English Literature Prize, $25—Anne Dethmers. Subject, "Keats."

George Birkhoff, Jr., Prize in Dutch Language and Literature,

$25 — Martin Hoekman. Subject, "Isaac De Costa."

Junior Class Athletic Award, $25 — George Douma of Grand Rapids. This award, presented for the first time today, is given by a loyal alumnus of the college who wishes to remain anonymous to a junior member of an athletic team who has made the greatest development in Christian living during the current year and a significant contribution to the religious life of the campus.

Following the granting of awards, the chapel choir sang "All Breathing Life Sing and Praise Ye the Lord," by Bach, Professor Snow conducting. The choir made its debut in the new robes of blue poplin, trimmed with orange collar, in the case of the feminine members. Seniors also wore distinguishing orange ribbons at the shoulder. Singing of the college song, "Collegium," by the entire assembly concluded the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Karsten and Arthur Van Raalte represented the Warm Friend Tavern at a meeting of the Michigan Hotel Greeters' association at Houghton Lake this week-end.
