Entertainments will be given at the club house every Saturday evening during the summer and John Dally's orchestra has been secured for the season. Lightning played havoc with the residence of John Hamelink, 41 East Eighteenth street, an employee of De Grondwet, Wednesday forenoon. It struck every one of the seven rooms in the house, excepting the kitchen and the front bedroom up stairs, and wherever it struck it left its mark. The hall up stairs was struck the hardest, the plaster and lath being torn from the walls and the floor ripped up. The chimney in the main part of the house was shattered, shingles were torn from the roof, and roofboards were shattered. The bolt fell just before dinner and Mrs. Harmeling and a child about two years and a half old were in the kitchen. The shock knocked Mrs. Hamelink down and the child from the kitchen to the dining room, but neither of them, save for a shaking up, was hurt. It is estimated that the damage to the house will reach three hundred dollars. It is insured in Mrs. Thurber's agency. Two other houses in the neighborhood were struck at the same time—Nicholas Yonker's and Bert Zweerink's—but no serious damage was done, although Mrs. Zweerink was shocked considerably.

Sherman Wells, the Coopersville young man who was brought back to Ellendale, N. D., by Sheriff Dykhuis a few weeks ago to answer a charge of murder is now on trial for his life. The case is being hard fought and some of the best attorneys of the northwest are defending Wells. Mrs. Wells, mother of the defendant, is attending the trial. In opening, the case the prosecution stated that the body of Frank Carr was found under the manure banking of a livery barn in Forman, N. D., last April. The body was terribly disfigured and mangled. Carr had been missed since the 18th of November and suspicion rested upon his former friend, Sherman Wells, and the latter was arrested in Ottawa county, Mich., by Deputy Sheriff Hans Dykhuis. It is alleged that the murdered man had nearly $200 on his person when killed and this, with his watch and pen knife were missing from the body. The prosecution have the watch and pen knife. The watch was found in a pawnshop in Minneapolis where Wells had taken it. The knife was found in the possession of a young lady in Ottawa county, to whom Wells had given it while here last winter.

The month of June will pass into history as the most unfavorable June the passenger steamer lines have yet experienced. Until Monday, not one day had been warm enough to make lake travel inviting. Nevertheless there has been such a steady gain year by year in the regular commercial travel by lake that the Graham & Morton people have been surprised at the business they have done, despite unfavorable conditions. Now that the warm weather has come there is a decided advance in the resort traffic and the people are hurrying from the cities to the different resorts. The Macatawa resorts are getting more than their share of resorters and despite the late start the season promises to be good.

SLAVERY IN THE SOUTH.

Men in Georgia and Alabama Sentenced for Holding Negroes in Involuntary Servitude.

OTHERS WARNED FROM LIKE CRIME.

Georgia Legislature Will Take No Action in the Matter, Declaring It Is the Duty of Courts to Act—Present Laws Sufficient If They Are Rigidly Enforced.

Macon, Ga., June 25.—In the United States court Wednesday Judge Speer imposed a fine of $1,000 each on three young men, William Shy, Arthur Clawson and Robert Turner, for holding a negro in involuntary servitude. He suspended the fine under conditions, and so doing, the court said:

"In view of the fact that it is the first crime of the kind which ever has occurred in Georgia, and because of the frank confession of the young men, sentence is imposed in order to convince the public that the purpose of the court is to warn and deter others from like crime. During good behavior fine is suspended upon payment of $100 by each."

Alabama Man Sentenced.

Montgomery, Ala., June 25.—In the United States court Wednesday J. W. Pace, a prominent planter of Tallapoosa county, was arraigned for trial on 11 indictments charging him with peonage. Demurrers were filed in all of these cases, which are overruled, and he then pleaded guilty in all of the 11 cases and appealed to the circuit court of appeals at New Orleans, making bond in the sum of $5,000. The sentence of the court on Mr. Pace was five years in each case, to be served concurrently.

Legislature Will Not Act.

Atlanta, Ga., June 26.—The general assembly of Georgia, which has just convened for its annual session, will take no action looking to the suppression of the alleged peonage outrages, according to the expressed opinions of members of both houses. The view taken by the legislators is that the present laws of Georgia fully cover the ground and that if there have been cases of involuntary servitude in the state it is a matter for the courts to handle and not the legislative body.

Clark Howell, president of the senate and editor of the Atlanta Constitution, when asked for a statement concerning the probable action of the legislature on this matter said: "There will be no action taken. The laws of Georgia now forbid the practice of peonage as fully as they could if we legislated against it for 1,000 years. The laws are full and explicit and there is no need for changes in them or any addition. This matter is one purely for the courts."

Cases Said to Be Few.

"The United States courts are now handling some cases and the matter is pushed vigorously wherever violations of the law have been detected. As a matter of fact, there have been very few cases of peonage in Georgia. The laws covering involuntary servitude have, in some cases, been violated, as have been the laws against every other crime."

Situation Different.

The situation in Georgia is altogether different from that in Alabama, where the alleged peonage outrages are said to be due to the criminal contract law which allows a negro who has broken his contract to be arrested and sent to the chain gangs. In Georgia there is no such law, though under the contract law commonly known as the George law any person hiring a man who has broken his contract can be sued. However, it is believed by eminent authorities that this law is unconstitutional.

Appeal to the Czar.

Wilmington, Del., June 30.—Negroes met at the house of Rev. Mr. Thornton and voted to send a petition to the czar of Russia to intercede to protect colored men from lynching in this country. The negroes believe that there is as much propriety in sending an appeal to the czar as there is in the sending of the American-Jewish petition to the czar as a protest against the Kishineff massacres.

President at Home.

Oyster Bay, L. I., June 27.—President Roosevelt's homecoming for the summer Saturday was remarkable for its cordiality and also its vigor. At the town hall he unveiled the civil war trophy gun presented to the people of Oyster Bay by the navy department. Then he held an informal reception. Yesterday, the president, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and their children, attended Divine service.

Given High Honor.

Springfield, Ill., June 27.—Judge Oliver A. Harker, of Carbondale, has accepted the position of dean of the college of law of the University of Illinois at Champaign. Judge Harker has been circuit judge 25 years, of which time the past 12 years has also been spent on the appellate bench, and was president of the State Bar association in 1895 and 1896.

Flood in New Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., June 29.—The high waters of the Rio Grande north of this city in New Mexico have driven hundreds of families from their homes, and these have taken refuge in the foothills.

Triple Tragedy.

Sherman, Conn., June 27.—Angered over her refusal to marry him P. H. Worden, of Carmel, N. Y., killed Edith Roscoe here, fatally wounded Mrs. Sherman Roscoe and then shot himself.

Pain

From Inflammatory Rheumatism

Would Have Killed Our Son.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills Saved Him.

"We began to use Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills six years ago. My wife had liver trouble and a neighbor gave her some of your liver pills to try, after which we bought a bottle of them and my wife used them until cured. Since then I have used them and I must say that I have never used any pills that gave me the satisfaction these have. We also use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with greatest satisfaction. Three years ago our son Harry had inflammatory rheumatism. He had suffered so much that I believe if we had not given him Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills which relieved him almost instantly he would have died. I am always glad of the opportunity for praising Dr. Miles' Remedies."—James Everett, Alton, Ills.

"I was afflicted with neuralgia for years and never found any permanent relief till I began using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure cure for headache and neuralgic pains. Only this morning I recommended them to a friend with a severe headache and in a half hour he came into the store smiling. The headache was gone. We use them in the family and find them excellent for the women folks. This high altitude makes them very nervous. Grandma says I should tell Dr. Miles she could not live here were it not for the Anti-Pain Pills that she takes occasionally."—L. B. Morris, Helena, Montana.

German Ships Salute United States Vessels on Their Departure for Portsmouth.

RECEPTION TO AMERICAN OFFICERS.

Emperor Leaves for Eckernforde on His Yacht Meteor—Last Day of the Regatta—Cutter of Cruiser Chicago Beaten by German Boat Over Two-Mile Course.

Kiel, June 30.—The United States squadron sailed at six p. m. Tuesday from Kiel, all the German ships saluting and the Americans replying. The flagship Kearsarge, the Chicago and the San Francisco will go through the Cattegat, stopping at Kallundborg, Denmark, for two days. The Machias will go by way of the Kiel canal to Brunsbuttel, and thence will rendezvous with the other American ships south of Spithead. The squadron will arrive at Portsmouth July 7.

Last Day of Regatta.

Kiel, Prussia, June 30.—The visit of the United States European squadron to Kiel is drawing to an end. The last salutes of the imperial standard were fired as the Hohenzollern sailed for Eckernforde Thursday morning to accommodate the emperor and empress there at night after the finish of the cruiser yacht race.

The emperor started for Eckernforde on board the Meteor at seven a. m. The empress was on the Iduna which also started for Eckernforde.

The American naval officers attended a series of receptions on board the German warships Tuesday afternoon.

The 14-oar cutter of the German turrit ship Kaiser Wilhelm II. beat the United States cruiser Chicago's 12-oar cutter Tuesday in a race over a two-mile course, covering the distance in 23 seconds better time. The winning German cutter, on account of having an extra pair of oars, started 15 seconds after the Chicago cutter and finished eight seconds ahead.

The Kaiser Wilhelm II.'s cutter is the champion of the German squadron and won a cup from 12 other German 14-oar cutters Monday. The crew, which was in excellent training, challenged the best boat of the American squadron, which was the Chicago's, the winner of several competitions in Mediterranean ports this spring. After about a mile and a quarter of the course had been covered the nose of the Kaiser Wilhelm II.'s boat drew level with the stern of the Chicago's boat and eventually, inch by inch, passed the latter and pulled away from her. The Americans kept up a losing race most manfully, but they continued to lose ground until the finish.

Seattle, Wash., June 30.—The steamer Senator has arrived in port from Nome, the third vessel out from Behring sea. The Senator brought $40,000 in gold from the Nome country and several passengers. The Lawrence hotel at Nome, one of the largest hotels in the town, was destroyed by fire just before the departure of the Senator, entailing a loss of $25,000.

Reliance Wins Again.

Bateman's Point, L. I., June 30.—The Reliance crossed the finish line at 3:00:47 more than a mile ahead of the Columbia and Constitution in their race Tuesday. The two boats were apparently sailing side by side.

CONDITION OF THE CROPS.

Weekly Report of the Government Weather Bureau—Corn Shows General Improvement.

Washington, June 30.—The weather bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions is as follows:

Further improvement in the condition of corn is generally reported, and while the crop continues late, it is making growth over the western portion of the corn belt, the condition of the crop in Iowa now closely approximating the average. In the middle Atlantic states corn has made slow growth, is very backward and much in need of cultivation.

Except over local areas the weather conditions have been very favorable for winter wheat harvesting in the central valleys, but the work has been interrupted by rains in the middle Atlantic states. A marked improvement in the condition of winter wheat is reported from New York and Michigan, and the crop is maturing rapidly in good condition in Nebraska.

In North Dakota there has been a decided deterioration in the condition of spring wheat, as a result of drought, which has also proved damaging in portions of South Dakota and northern Minnesota. Generally, however, South Dakota and on uplands in southern Minnesota the crop is in thrifty condition and it continues promising in Wisconsin, Iowa and Nebraska. A decided im-

Holland the Happy Medium.

A city within easy reach of the territory sought to be covered by the normal school for western Michigan; a city on the banks of an inland lake six miles long and from 1 to 3 miles wide; a city cooled by the lake Michigan breezes in summer and tempered breezes from the same source in winter; a city of schools and churches; a city with all the modern conveniences, such as electric lights, gas, water works, paved streets and sewer system; a city not crushed with heavy debts; a city alert, progressive, enterprising; such is the city that the state board of education saw last Friday when they reached Holland and it will be strange indeed if the minds of the men on the board turn away from this city when the time comes for making a decision.

Holland is unique among the contestants for the honor in that it has all of the advantages of all the other cities and not one of the drawbacks. For instance no one can claim that the students of the school would here be exposed to the temptations and vices of larger cities. Holland has no tenderloin district, no sporting house, no gambling joints. Neither can it be said that Holland, like some of the smaller cities, lacks the modern conveniences. Holland has its own electric light plant, its own water works. It will have an up-to-date gas plant inside of a month, and its business streets will be paved before six months pass. In other words Holland is not so large that it cannot control vice, nor so small that it is behind the times. It is the happy medium—a city of from nine to ten thousand souls.

Notified to Move Boat Houses From Furniture Company Property

On account of instructions from the insurance companies the West Michigan Furniture company has been obliged to notify the people owning at houses situated on the water front of the company to remove the same within 30 days. The reasons for serving notice are set forth in the following communication addressed to Tyler Van Landegend, Wolverine Motor Works, Van Eyck Bros., D. J. Iom, H. Damson, Gerrit Hesselink, Jas. Harmon, Geo. Bender, Dr. H. Gremers, C. J. DeRoos, O. Hansen, owners of the boat houses:

Owing to the menace which the boat houses on our property has become to our lumber yards and factory on account of the fire risk and the fact that the insurance companies have insisted they shall be removed or our rates raised, we are obliged to ask you to immediately remove your boat house which is now on our premises.

"We will give you 30 days time in which this house shall be removed. If not removed by that time we shall take the liberty to tear it down or remove it."

"Kindly advise by return mail what your wishes are in this matter."

"West Michigan Furniture Co.," "George P. Hummer, Sec'y."

The move of the Furniture company raises some nice points of law. The men who own the boat houses contend that they have a right to the water front, as it is in reality under government control, while the company claims in the first place that the houses are built on its property, and in the second place that those who wish to reach the houses must trespass upon its property to do so.

Some of the men interested are inclined to go slow in the matter and may not comply with the notice until the points are passed upon in court. If the case is decided against them they will be in a quandary, as it will be difficult to find other available sites for the boat houses.

The West Michigan officials were reluctant to take the steps they did but the action of the insurance companies forced them to act and of course they must protect their property.

Directors Determined To Have a Great Fair.

If the progressive spirit and the enthusiasm manifested by the board of directors of the South Ottawa and West Allegan fair association at the meeting held Tuesday in the secretary's office is any criterion the fair to be held in this city September 29 and 30 and October 1 and 2 will be the best in the history of the association.

The members of the board were a unit in expressing a determination to spare no expense to make the fair bigger and better than ever before. They know that increased attractions means increased attendance, and the different superintendents will be given instructions to do everything possible to make the exhibition in their department complete and pleasing.

Special attention will be paid the racing department. Nothing conduces more to the popularity of a fair than good races.

Good purses must be hung up to attract owners of speedy horses, and Holland will offer good prizes. Con De Pree and G. J. Van Duren were appointed as a committee to have charge of the races, with power to appoint a third member to assist them, and enough money will be placed at their disposal to pull off races worthy of the city and the society. In fact a resolution was passed authorizing them to expend more money than has ever before been expended here for races.

Messrs. De Pree and Van Duren started communicating and figuring with the horsemen of the state and will see that good speed merchants make entries.

Committees were appointed to see to the fixing of the race track and the arrangement of the stables, and steps were taken to interest the farmers in competing for the premiums.

The next meeting of the board will be held Saturday, August 8.

About the Governorship

As a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination Hon. G. J. Diekema attracts considerable attention wherever he goes and the newspaper men never neglect an opportunity to interview him. Monday the Grand Rapids Press published a half column regarding the governorship, from which the News takes the following:

"I am in the race for governor and in to stay. I am in solely upon my own account, too, and without any combination or thought of aiding the candidacy of any other man or interest," said State Chairman G. J. Diekema of Holland this noon at the Pantlind, and he said it very earnestly.

"Mr. Diekema has not been about the state much since the adjournment of the legislature and has not seen either the governor or Messrs. Warner and Stearns, his rivals for the gubernatorial nomination. He had heard, however, that the governor had acquiesced in the action of the legislature in killing off primary reform and he said: 'The voice of the people is stronger than that of the legislature. The latter is simply the creature of the people and the creature has no right to set itself up above the creator.'"

"Mr. Diekema was much interested in the report that his own gubernatorial candidacy is intended chiefly to cut into the Stearns strength in Western Michigan and also that he has an alliance with Congressman William Alden Smith. He said emphatically: 'I am a candidate for governor simply for myself and am not allied to anyone. Any combination such as is suggested would be dishonorable and neither Mr. Smith nor myself would be guilty of it. I am satisfied that Mr. Smith will be a candidate for United States senator and that he will be heard from, too, and I also feel sure that Mr. Stearns will be in the field for governor. I shall treat them all fairly and simply ask that they do the same for me.'"

Board Visits Holland

Patrick H. Kelly, of Clare, James H. Thompson, of Detroit, and Luther L. Wright, of Ironwood, three of the members of the state board of education, came here last Friday to see the sites that Holland has to offer for the new normal school soon to be established in Western Michigan. Delos Fall, the other member of the board, did not come, as he delivered a commencement address the previous evening and could not make train connections to reach here with the other three. He will come to Holland in the near future before the site for the school is determined.

Four sites were shown the members of the board. They were not favorably impressed with the Beckman and Diekema sites; but with the Marsilje and Laarman sites it was different. On account of its nearness to the center of the city and its many natural advantages the Marsilje site came in for a great deal of commendation. But it was for the Laarman site that they reserved their greatest praise declaring it to be one of the best they had seen on their travels. They were particularly pleased with its commanding position, overlooking as it does the rest of the city; and with the natural forest growth. One of the board said that a little work under the direction of a skillful landscape gardener would make it the prettiest spot in the western part of the state.

After viewing the sites the board, accompanied by a number of citizens, among whom was Dr. G. J. Kollen, president of Hope college, went to Macatawa park hotel on the street car for supper. The members of the board were very favorably impressed with Macatawa Bay and the resorts. In truth they were very favorably impressed with all of the environments of Holland and with the city itself, possessing as it does all of the advantages of other cities and none of the disadvantages.

On their return from the Park the members of the board attended a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beach where they met many of the leading citizens including nearly all of the faculty of Hope college.

Besides Holland, the following places would like to have the proposed normal school, and have made overtures to the state board of education: Niles, Dowagiac, Three Rivers, Kalamazoo, Decatur, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Cassopolis, Ludington, Manistee, Galesburg, Charlevoix, Allegan, Vicksburg, Lawrence, Hastings, Zeeland, Whitehall, Charlotte and Petoskey.

Burglarized Spring Lake Post Office

Spring Lake has been added to the towns in this part of the state that have been visited by the safe breaking Yeggmen who have been systematically working this part of the country. The postoffice there was broken into Sunday morning just before dawn and about $350 in cash and $700 worth of stamps were stolen.

Entrance to the post office was made through the rear window of Postmaster Falls' general store. There was a watch dog in the building but he evidently did not bother the men. The safe was blown open by first drilling into the center at the combination lock and then blowing the same with a nitro glycerine fuse. The door was badly damaged, making it easy to get into the safe, from which everything was taken.

The burglars made their escape with a horse and buggy which they stole from Mulder Brothers, the robbery of the postoffice having not been learned until after Mulder Brothers discovered that their rig was missing.

General Items

There is a new game very popular now in the southwest, the game called "Christianity." It takes two people to play it, a boy and a girl. The girl gets on one side, she represents Christianity, and the boy gets on the other side, he is the heathen. Then the heathen embraces Christianity. It is said to be a nice game.—Minneapolis Journal.

The Benton Harbor Bachelor Girls' club is careful to announce that included in the list of books read last winter and spring were "Hearts Courageous" and "Its Up to You."—Grand Rapids Press.

A certain pastor was asked to make the address to the graduating class in a neighboring town. He prepared a fine effort on the text "Live Like Men," and when he got up to deliver it he discovered that the graduating class was composed wholly of girls.

The glorious Fourth is coming! Whoop! It is the day of summer that the boys can make all the din and noise on the streets they want to. 'Tis better than the death-like silence of the grave yard. The boom of cannon and firecrackers will awaken us and relieve the lethargy. With the timid it may cause their knees to quake a little, but it will be better than no noise to break the monotony. We love noise and the smell of powder. It puts vim and vigor into the blood. Do not weaken, boys. Make 'em all smell powder!—Lexington News.

Lake and Marine

Lieutenant J. E. Reinberg, inspector of the life saving service for the Twelfth district, with headquarters in Chicago, was in Muskegon last Saturday on his quarterly inspection tour, but he was not allowed to inspect the Muskegon station because the station is under quarantine. Esther, the 9-year-old daughter of Captain and Mrs. John A. Nelson, is ill with smallpox. The place is accordingly isolated. For once the city health authorities had the upper hand and the government officer was compelled to respect their orders. Lieutenant Reinberg's contemplated inspection was to ascertain what is necessary to put the station in a state of temporary repair until it is finally moved or torn down. It is the ultimate intention to move the Muskegon life saving station to the south side of the channel when the new harbor is created. Until then the present building will be made to do duty.

Patrick Murray of the Evanston life saving crew has been recommended for appointment as captain of the crew to succeed Captain Lawrence O. Lowson. Before going to Evanston two years ago Mr. Murray was stationed at Muskegon and Manitowish Island. He was given a physical examination Monday before an examining board in Chicago and the findings of the board were sealed and sent to the Treasury Department, which has charge of the appointment.

Arrested on Return to City

John Scheerborn, Henry Tuls and Teddy Helder, aged respectively 20, 18 and 16 years, were arrested last Monday by Marshal VanderHaar charged with "breaking and entering in the daytime" the home of J. A. Wilterdink 2½ miles southeast of the city.

The deed of which the boys are accused was committed Sunday April 19. On that day while Mr. Wilterdink and his family were at church some one entered his dwelling and ransacked it from cellar to garret, taking vegetables and fruit and drinking a couple of quarts of milk. Mr. Wilterdink had met the three young men mentioned when on his way to church and also on his way home and suspecting them of the crime went before Justice VanDuren, Monday April 20, and swore to a complaint against them. Before papers could be served the boys left the state for an eastern trip, going to Buffalo, Utica and other points in New York. They came back several days ago and as soon as news of their return reached the officers the warrants were served. The boys claim they did not leave the city to evade the law and according to the story of one of them their reason for returning was that they heard there was a complaint against them and they wished to fight it. The officers on the other hand say that they have strong evidence against them.

The boys are now at the Grand Haven jail awaiting examination on July 9th. They were unable to furnish bail.

He followed the trade of carpenter since coming to this city four years ago. Mr. Van Dyk is survived by a wife and six children, Ben, Mrs. Kardux, Mrs. Henry Van den Belt, Miss Minnie and Miss Winnie Van Dyke of this city, and Gerrit of Kalkaska.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 from the residence and at 2 o'clock from the First Reformed church, Rev. S. Van der Werf officiating.

MRS. J. FLOEGSMA.

Mrs. J. Floegsma died Tuesday at her home on the Lake Shore at the age of 31 years. She was ill but a short time. Mrs. Floegsma leaves a husband and one child. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock from the house and at 2 o'clock from the Gelderland church, Rev. J. H. Karsten officiating.

BERTHA E. HATTERSLY.

Miss Bertha E. Hattersly passed away yesterday morning at her home, 204 West Ninth street. Her age was 17 years and she died after a brief illness.

MRS. MELVIN FULLER.

The death of Mrs. Melvin Fuller occurred Tuesday evening at her home near the Pine Creek school after a long illness. Her age was 53 years and she leaves a husband and seven children. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the house and at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church, Rev. Arthur Trotter officiating.

MRS. ANNA DYK.

Mrs. Anna Dyk died this morning at 2 o'clock at her home, corner of 13th and River streets, at the age of 80 years, after an illness of about twenty hours.

Mrs. Dyk was a daughter of Rev. G. Baay, who was among the early pastors that joined the immigration from the Netherlands to this country, leaving there with the band of colonists in 1847 and locating in Alto, Wis., where he died early in the fifties.

Mrs. Dyk was married to T. Beucus upon her arrival in this country. She and her husband remained east for a year and then went to Wisconsin. Upon the death of her husband some 18 years ago Mrs. Dyk moved to this city and made her home here since. Later she married F. Dyk of Grand Rapids, who died two years after the marriage.

Deceased leaves five children, Mrs. G. Van Schelven of this city, John and Thomas Beucus, of Cedar Springs, Henry Beucus, of Chicago, and Mrs. George Conway of Waupun, Wis.

The remains will be taken to Waupun for burial this afternoon. The mourners will be accompanied by Rev. Dr. J. H. Karsten, for years a former pastor of the deceased. The funeral will take place at Waupun, and interment at Alto, Wis., by the side of deceased's former husband.

There is talk in Spring Lake of re-viving the bus line between that village and Grand Haven on account of the rate of fare established by the Muskegon, Grand Rapids and Grand Haven Interurban railway. Although the distance between Spring Lake and the down town portion of Grand Haven is not more than two miles the company has fixed a rate of 10 cents. Rather than pay more than five cents many of the people of Spring Lake either avoid going to Grand Haven or use other means of transportation than the electric road. They do not care so much for the extra nickel but it is the idea that they are overcharged that grinds.

In its write up of the closing exercises of the Wisconsin Memorial Academy of Cedar Grove, Wis., the Sheboygan Herald has the following of Prof. Ekbert Winter of this city, principal of the academy: "The topic of Prof. E. Winter was 'Our Academy.' In a talented way the speaker again proved his great ability and evidenced in his speech that he lives in the work with heart and soul. Mr. Winter has received a call from the Orange City, Iowa, academy during the past week but we hope he will decline. Miss C. Walvoord has resigned as teacher and the board has already succeeded in obtaining a young lady from Hope college. They also will have another gentleman teacher for the next term, making a total of three instructors."

The city council of Grand Haven has refused to accept the bridge which the Grand Rapids, Grand Haven & Muskegon Electric Railway company has been building across Grand river, connecting that city with Spring Lake. The main or swing part of the bridge has been accepted, but it is the approaches to the structure which are causing the trouble. The council alleges that the pilings and timbers for the approaches are rotten. As a consequence, work upon the structure has been stopped and temporarily at least toll will again be charged.

J. W. Crisman of Toledo and other men from the same city have become interested in the recent discovery of rich and extensive deposits of marl in South Monterey, four miles north of Allegan. So well satisfied is Mr. Crisman with the outlook that he said he would put $100,000 into a company to build and operate a cement factory on the ground and he knew of others who would take as much interest. The formation of a company with $350,000 to a half million capital to establish a cement factory of 500 to 1,000 barrels daily capacity is a probability. D. F. Raymond of Cassopolis is the discoverer of the marl and will have an interest in the business. Tests of the marl show it to be of the best quality and to possess great tensile strength.

Outing

Suits.

Summer clothing has always been wanting in fit and permanency of shape.

Linings and tailorings were sacrificed to coolness and a man obtained comfort at the cost of appearances.

We offer our customers thin, cool, comfortable clothes that fit as perfectly as regular full lined garments and retain their shapes.

The suit is light and cool—the coat weighing but 22 ounces. The trousers have permanent cuffs to turn up at the bottom and loops at the waist band for belt. The materials are light flannels and summer outing cloths.

Each suit pattern is twice sponged and shrunk before it is cut and guaranteed not to shrink after it is made up.

Slow Jim

By BELLE MANIATES

(Copyright, 1923, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

JIM HARDER was not enjoying life at present. Three men had come down from the city for a fortnight's sojourn on the Harder fruit farm. They were wide-awake, up-to-date chaps, and they had won their easy-going way into the hearts of the Harder household, except Jim. Even Pa Harder relaxed his grim features at their jokes, while Ma Harder simply revelled in the delight of their merry company.

But Jim instinctively resented their presence and their condescending familiarity. He felt awkward and ill at ease, and was grudging of response to their addresses. His attitude aroused all their teasing propensities, and they made him the butt of many a joke, dubbing him "Slow Jim" and "Easy Mark."

Their chaffing, however, was the least of Jim's troubles. The real heartache lay in the fact that Lucy Buskirk had gone to the city for a visit. He had always known and loved Lucy. A fashionable school and fashionable friends had not turned her heart from him. She had asked him to come to the city and return with her, but that would mean at least $15, and Pa Harder was not generous. Then, too, he was ashamed of his "Sunday clothes." He had always felt out of place in them, but since he had observed the attire of their summer boarders, the garments were simply impossible, and he clung to his working garb.

This morning, while moodily musing on his lot, the three tormentors passed him. They were in tourists' costumes, and informed him they were going down the river on a fishing excursion, and would not return until the day after to-morrow.

Jim continued gazing after them as they passed him, and it occurred to him that one of them, Lewis Brooks, a reporter on the Times, was just his own size and build. Then there was conceived in his brain a bold and brilliant scheme.

Quickly he went toward the house. He met his mother on the way to one of the tenant houses.

"Mother," he announced, "I am going after Lucy. I am going on the next train."

"I am glad you are, Jim; but have you money enough?"

"I have enough to pay my fare one way. I'll manage the rest somehow."

"It's a shame, Jim, as hard as you work that you only get your clothes and keep. Pa is so near. But I have some money he don't know about. You go into the buttry, and in a tes can on the top shelf you'll find some money. You take it."

"OF COURSE YOU KNOW I AM BEATING MY WAY."

He didn't go to his own little bedroom when he reached the house, but to the spacious room occupied by Lewis Brooks. From head to foot he arrayed himself in Lewis Brooks' clothes. This accomplished, he surveyed himself with great approval from his shining shoes, well-brushed clothes, immaculate linen, modish tie to his stiff derby.

He packed a dress suit case with sufficient supplies for a night and day in the city, and then took the road through the woods to town. He had enough money to pay his fare one way. He determined that way should be the return ticket. What she had donated would probably cover his expenses in the city. To work his way to Lucy would require some work of wits and nerve.

He reached the little town just in time to board the through express. When the conductor came on his collecting tour, Jim was busily searching through Lewis Brooks' papers, letters and cigars distributed in his pockets.

"I travel on a pass," he said to the ticket taker, "but I fear I have lost it. I supposed it was in with these papers, but I can't find it."

The conductor shrewdly sized up his new passenger. He was a good looking, clean-shaven youth, faultlessly attired and of honest face.

"What's your name?"

"Lewis Brooks. I am a reporter on the Times," he replied holding out for inspection one of his letters as addressed.

"How far were you going?" asked the conductor, doubtfully.

"Clear through."

"Didn't you know the city editor of your paper was aboard?"

"No! Didn't expect him back until to-morrow. Which car is he on?" asked Jim, mentally cursing his luck.

"He is on the first Pullman. Com-back to the car with me, and if he identifies you, it's all right."

Jim followed without hesitation resolved to bluff it out; besides, every second on this "flyer" was taking him nearer Lucy.

On through car after car they passed, until the conductor paused before a section in which sat a distinguished-looking man.

"Why, halloa!" called Jim, affecting the easy tones of Brooks. "Thought you weren't coming until to-morrow!"

The man addressed looked confused for a moment; then he said:

"Oh, they telegraphed me to come to-day. I thought you might be on this train, and was just going through to find you."

"I see it's all right," said the conductor. "He told me he was on your paper and had lost his pass. I wanted you to identify him," and handing Jim a check, he passed on.

"I'm sure I don't know how to thank you," said Jim. "Of course, you know I am beating my way, and it was awfully good in you not to give me away."

"Don't mention it," said the man, while an amused smile stole over his features.

"Now, whatever possessed him to do me a good turn?" thought Jim, as he passed on to the smoking compartment to enjoy one of Lewis Brooks' cigars.

He had telegraphed Lucy of his coming, and she and her friend were at the station to meet him. Lucy awaited his coming with some little anxiety as to his appearance. Not on her own account, for she was a staunch, sensible little body and would have welcomed Jim even were he attired in his overalls and blue shirt, but she didn't want her friend to underestimate him.

But when Jim, so a la mode came towards them, she gave a glad, little cry, and her friend, welcoming him, wondered what manner of farmer they had out in Tribbleton.

She insisted on his accepting her hospitality that night, and the next day. Someway in stepping into Lewis Brooks' shoes he had stepped into that individual's ease of manner, for after all, there is no incentive to good deportment like irreproachable clothes.

The next day was a red letter one. Late in the afternoon, Jim and Lucy took a train to Tribbleton. When Jim arrived at the farmhouse, everyone was in bed. He went into Lewis Brooks' room and restored his clothes to their original place, except the linen, which he deposited in the already well-filled laundry bag.

The following afternoon the fishermen returned from their jaunt.

"Missed us, Jim?" asked Brooks.

"What have you been up to?"

"The city," was the laconic response.

Brooks and his companions stared.

"Where did you put up?" asked one of them.

"I stayed with friends."

"Oh, out on the boulevard, I presume," said Brooks, with a wink to the others.

"Yes, on the boulevard. At the Van Norman's."

"Jim's young lady friend," explained Ma Harder, "met Miss Van Norman at school, and has been visiting her. They asked Jim to stop there, too."

This was a poser for the boarders. Lewis tried to picture Jim in his store clothes at the Van Norman mansion.

When the city men returned to the city, they met a mutual friend who after some preliminary conversation remarked:

"I must tell you an incident that happened the day I returned. Just out of a little station—Tribbleton, I think—the conductor came to me, followed by a good-looking fellow, who greeted me as if I were an old friend and said he thought I was not to return until the next day."

"I told him I was a day early, and observed that I was just coming to look him up. At that the conductor said it was all right; that the youth had represented himself as a reporter on the Times; that he had lost his pass and so he had brought him to me for identification."

"When the conductor had passed on the chap thanked me warmly for helping him beat his way and went back to his car."

"Who was he and why should the conductor bring him to you for identification?" asked Lewis.

"Why, I had borrowed your city editor's pass, and when the young fellow came up and pretended to know me, I had to lay low and see what was coming. I concluded he was some young fellow on the Times, all right, and that he would give me the laugh when the conductor had gone. When he told me he was beating his way and thanked me I did not let on I was traveling under false colors myself."

Brooks pondered a moment.

"How was the fellow dressed?"

"Very much as you are. I remember thinking that the Times crowd must patronize the same tailor."

A Wonderful Race Horse.

Manifesto, that gallant old steeplechase hero, was third this year over the jumps in the Grand National contest at the Liverpool course in England, the most famous cross-country stake in the world. This wonderful horse is now 15 years of age. His brilliant career of triumphs includes two superb victories in the Grand National, and twice before this year he ran third for the blue ribbon of the leaping over obstacles. It is doubtful if any better thoroughbred at that sort of sport was ever foaled.

During the last three years 22 millionaires have died in England. Their average age was 75 years.

Hot shot was thrown into Grand Rapids by Edwy Reid, editor of the Allegan Gazette, in the last issue of his paper as follows: "In an editorial article last Sunday the Grand Rapids Herald with characteristic modesty, declared its town to be 'the social center' of western Michigan, as well as the center in many other respects, being entirely mistaken as to most of them. If Grand Rapids with its official scandals and its notorious immorality, its dominance by the whisky interest, its 'wide open' Sunday, and its gambling is the social center of western Michigan, that supposed-to-be delectable and moral region should hang its head and go purge itself."

THREE NEGROES LYNCHED

Job Overpowers a Jailer at New Orleans, Ga., Takes Victims Out, and Strings Them Up.

MURDERING WHITE MAN.

Plot in Delaware Growing Out of the Burning to Death of a Colored Man Who Assaulted and Murdered a Young Girl—Many Shots Are Fired and Several Wounded.

Baltimore, Ga., June 27.—Three negroes, Garfield McCoy, Geo. McKinney and Wm. Wiley were taken from jail at New Orleans, La., and hanged to a tree and riddled with bullets. The three men were in jail for killing F. J. Bullard, a white man, who was killed to quell a row at a negro dance near his house one night last week. When the mob went to the jail and took him they had another prisoner to lodge in jail. When the jailer reached the jail door with his keys the mob rushed upon him and overpowered him.

Race Riot.
Wilmington, Del., June 26.—A race riot growing out of the lynching of George White began here shortly after nine o'clock yesterday. About 400 negroes participated and hundreds of shots were fired. It is now probable that the national guard will be called out to preserve order. About 200 shots were fired between whites and blacks, resulting in two officers and a negro being wounded.

Quiet Restored.
Wilmington, Del., June 29.—This city is in its normal condition, the excitement over the lynching of George White and the events following the burning having disappeared. The closing of the saloons had a good effect. There were no drunken brawls and the police were not called upon to quell any disturbances. The liquor dealers have heartily acquiesced in the closing movement, and they are being commended generally by the citizens for sacrificing business for the protection and order of the city. The precautionary plans adopted by the police a few days ago will be kept in force until all danger of lawlessness is past.

Elevator Falls.
New York, June 30.—The breakshaft on the first floor of the Pickle company's plant in New York released the ropes supporting the freight elevator on which 15 men were crowded. The cage fell from the fifth floor into the cellar, a distance of 45 feet, and everyone on board was injured. It is thought that Edward Churney, of Allegheny, and Edward Holman, of Mount Hope, died.

Died in the Poorhouse.
Hartford, Conn., June 29.—David L. Vanderheyden, 73 years of age, who had been a personal friend of Roscoe Conkling, died at the town poorhouse Sunday of heart disease. A number of years ago Vanderheyden was a prominent citizen of Utica, N. Y., and was considered quite wealthy. He was here four years ago and his fortune was disposed of so rapidly that he has been living on the town farm some time.

Two Drowned.
St. Louis City, Ia., June 29.—While John and his sister Dora and Mike and Miss Thena Waldum were bathing on the Slou river Sunday afternoon they got in the wake of the excursion steamer Lora and their boat was overturned. Steve and his sister were rescued, but Lee and Miss Waldum were drowned. The bodies have not been recovered.

Killed by the Cars.
Springfield, O., June 29.—A buggy in which two men were riding was struck by a Pennsylvania express near St. Paris shortly before midnight and both the occupants instantly killed. The train was on a down grade and was running at a high rate of speed. The bodies, frightfully mangled, were taken to Urbana and could not be identified.

Suicide of Aged Couple.
Chicago, June 25.—Albert Sontage and his wife took poison in their home at St.eger, a southern suburb, Tuesday afternoon. It is believed that they made an agreement to end their lives because they could not live without quarreling. Their condition was discovered late Tuesday night, and both died in a short time.

Topeka, Kan., June 25.—Miss Blanche Boies, previously convicted of smashing saloon windows in Topeka on February 14 last, was Wednesday sentenced by District Judge Hazen to 30 days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $100. Miss Boies is a follower of Carrie Nation.

Broke All Records.
New London, Conn., June 26.—For the first time on record Yale yesterday triumphed over Harvard in all three of their boat races in the annual regatta on the Thames.

IOWA DEMOCRATS.

In Convention They Refuse to Adopt the Kansas City Platform and Nominate a Ticket.

Des Moines, Ia., June 25.—The democratic state convention yesterday, by a vote of 463 9-10 to 354 1-10 refused to adopt a minority report signed by four members of the committee on resolutions adding to the platform reported by the seven members constituting the majority of the committee, a plank reaffirming the democratic national platform of 1900. The following ticket was nominated: Governor, J. B. Sullivan, Creston; Lieutenant governor, D. B. Butler, of Iowa county; judge of supreme court, John R. Caldwell, of Tama; superintendent of public instruction, A. R. McCook, of Howard; railroad commissioner, W. S. Porter, of Harding.

The platform, as it relates to state affairs, calls for economical government, equitable taxation of corporate and private property, the purchase of supplies from the lowest bidder, and the substitution of a local option for the present mullet law. Government by injunction is denounced, and the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people is demanded.

It opposes a policy of imperialism, and declares for the adoption of such measures as shall give to the people of the Philippine islands and Porto Rico their inalienable right to self-government. The financial policy of the republican party is condemned. It demands thorough investigation by congress of the post office and other departments, and the punishment of wrongdoers. It calls for the removal of the tariff from all trust-made goods, and demands that all tariff schedules be adjusted with a view to tariff for revenue only.

TAKES THE OATH.

Peter I. Is Now King of Serbia and Pledges Himself to Rule for the Welfare of the People.

Belgrade, June 26.—King Peter I. took the oath of office before the senate and skupshtina in joint session yesterday, swearing that he would maintain the constitution and rule for the welfare of the people. During the ceremony, which was often interrupted by cries of "Long live King Peter!" Col. Maschin, one of the chief assassins and now minister of public works, kept in the background. This was interpreted to mean that King Peter might punish the murderers of King Alexander and Queen Draga. However, the king confirmed the appointment of the "bloody ministry" in the afternoon and it appears certain now that the question of punishment for the assassins will be allowed to lapse.

Reliance Wins.

Newport, R. I., June 30.—The new cup yacht Reliance proved on Monday her worth as a heavy weather boat when she defeated the Columbia and Constitution in a stiff easterly breeze and lumpy sea over a 30-mile course, 15 miles of which was a beat to windward. The Reliance sailed the course in four minutes 9 seconds less time than did the Columbia and four minutes 58 seconds less than did the Constitution.

Makes New Record.

Cleveland, O., June 30.—Lou Dillon Monday afternoon broke all records for a mile to wagon for trotters, going the distance in 2:04 1/4. The race was at a matinee of the Gentlemen's Driving club at Glenville track. The horse was driven by her owner, C. K. G. Billings. The new record beats that made by the same horse a couple of weeks ago, 2:06 1/4.

Great Landslide.

Ouray, Col., June 30.—An immense landslide, 1,000 feet wide, came down from the main range into Silver Creek basin, beyond and between the Revenue and Camp Bird mines. The whole top of the mountain broke off, and another section of the mountain looks as if it would break off. These slides are caused by the melting of the deep snow. No damage has resulted.

Pioneer Stage Driver Dead.

Bloomington, Ill., June 27.—Frederick Hartman, the first stage driver in Illinois, is dead at Eureka. He was 88 years old. Mr. Hartman was in charge of a stage between Danville and Peoria from 1836 until the advent of railroads in 1860. For the last 40 years he has been belligerent at Eureka college.

Many Were Killed.

Madrid, June 30.—One hundred bodies have been extricated from the wreck of the Bilbao train, which was thrown from a bridge into the Nejerilla river Saturday night. It is estimated that 70 corpses remain in the wreckage. The bodies are horribly mutilated.

Lunches with President.

Washington, June 26.—Sir Thomas Lipton, the challenger for the America's cup, lunched with President Roosevelt at the white house yesterday afternoon. The state dining-room was used for the occasion, the table being handsomely decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

Riddled with Bullets.

Jonesville, La., June 27.—News reached here of the lynching of Lamb Whittle, a negro on the Smithland plantation, ten miles from Monterey Landing, Concordia parish. Whittle assaulted a white man and a mob took him to the woods and riddled his body with bullets.

Army Worm Destroys Crops.

Tacoma, Wash., June 29.—Mighty hosts of army worms, in a solid column 150 yards wide and nearly three miles long, are marching through Walla Walla county and growing crops and vegetation are being denuded.

It Is a Mistaken Idea

To give too much time to the selection of a Piano; this time could better be spent in selecting a dealer. It should not be hard to pick him up by the very appearance of things; for instance, if he be disposed to depreciate his competitor, it's pretty strong evidence he hasn't much to offer for himself. One may well have reason to be suspicious of a dealer who promises very much more than is promised by other dealers in a like business. Select the dealer right and the good piano follows. Look up our record. Ask any of our customers how they like the Raymond. They all agree it's the finest instrument they ever saw. We can suit you to price and style. $300 to $425.

CATASTROPHE IN A MINE.

Terrific Explosion, Followed by a Fire, Is Reported in a Wyoming Colliery.

TWO HUNDRED MINERS ARE ENTOMBED.

Dense Volumes of Smoke Hold Rescuers Back—Unless Relieved Soon It Is Believed the Unfortunate Men Will All Perish—Particulars of Disaster Hard to Obtain.

Rawlins, Wyo., June 30.—A terrific explosion occurred in the coal mines at Hanna, Wyo., about ten o'clock Tuesday morning. Nearly 200 men are said to have been in the mine at the time of the explosion. It is said that the mine took fire immediately, and the relief force which was organized at once to rescue the entombed miners has so far been unable to approach the entrance to the mine on account of the dense volumes of smoke. Unless the workmen are soon relieved it is not believed that any will be found alive. Hanna is on a branch line from Allen Junction and particulars of the explosion are very hard to obtain.

No Details Received.

Omaha, Neb., June 30.—At the Union Pacific headquarters in this city no details are known of the Hanna mine explosion. A report received here states that 200 men were in the mine at the time of the explosion, and that a rescue party has been sent down the shaft. Until the rescuers shall have reached the scene of the explosion nothing will be known as to the extent of the damage and the number of casualties. The mines are operated by the Union Pacific Coal company.

TURNERS' CONVENTION OVER.

Most Successful Gathering in History of Association Comes to a Close.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 30.—One of the most successful gatherings in the history of the North American Turners' association closed Monday night at the South Side Turner hall. A diploma was given the Chicago Turnverein veteran class for the best athletic work and also in the singing contest.

The Social Turners, of this city, won the relay race. In the singles Max Emerich, of Indianapolis, won in the broad jump and in swimming; Otto Suter, Chicago, second in the latter. Edward Seigler, Otto Suter, Robert Mayssak and Charles Riechen, Chicago, won the light, middle and heavy-weight wrestling and fencing, respectively. Two Victims of Pittsburgh Elevator Accident Will, in All Probability, Die.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 30.—As the result of careful examinations by the physicians at the various hospitals Tuesday, it was stated that a number of the victims of the Heinz elevator accident were more seriously hurt than at first reported and that two will probably die within a few hours. Those in a critical condition are Otis R. Thompson, a clerk at the Heinz plant, who was acting as guide to the visitors; John Cherney, of Allegheny; Mrs. Edward P. Holeman, of Mount Holly, O., and Mrs. William Mitchell, of Paris, Ky. The other victims, including all the Cleveland visitors, rested easily during the night and will likely recover.

Mad Mullah's Forces Destroyed.

London, June 30.—The war office Tuesday received a dispatch from Col. Rochford, one of the British officers serving with the Abyssinian force in Somaliland, which says the Abyssinians May 31, after a series of forced marches, struck the Mad Mullah's forces near Jeyd, surprising them at dawn and killing 10,000 spearmen and capturing almost all their cattle and sheep and 1,000 camels.

Bonaparte, of this city. The presentation was made at the cardinal's residence by Rev. James Burns, president of the Holy Cross college, Cardinal Gibbons also adding a few words of commendation.

Denver, Col., June 30.—A special to the News from Minturn, Col., says: Ed Murphy, a Denver & Rio Grande fireman, was shot and killed by Miss Grace Nottingham, said to have been his fiancée. There were no witnesses and, while she admits the killing, Miss Nottingham was too hysterical to give any further information regarding the affair.

Murder and Suicide.

Austin, Tex., June 30.—State Comptroller R. M. Love was assassinated in his office in the state capitol at 10:30 Tuesday morning by W. G. Hill, a discharged employe of the office. No cause for the deed is known at this time. W. G. Hill, the assassin of Love, committed suicide immediately after the shooting of Love.

Incriminating Evidence Brought Out Against Alleged Ohio Wife-Murderer.

Hamilton, O., June 30.—David Loeb, a furniture dealer, was the first witness called Tuesday in the trial of Alfred Knapp for the murder of his wife. He said that Knapp on December 26 told him his wife was in Indianapolis. A. Moore, a junk dealer, said that he sold Knapp a box such as that in which the wife's body is said to have been placed on December 22. George Cooley, a tinner who knew Knapp, said that on December 22 he saw Knapp drive into Shollenbarger's livery barn with a wagon at 9:45 a. m. Later in the week Knapp told him that he had sent his wife to Cincinnati. Captain of Police Lenehan was called and kept the stand a long time. He told of arresting Knapp at Indianapolis and detailed the investigation that led to the discovery that Knapp's wife was missing and pointed to her husband as her murderer.

Mayor Bosch was called and was about to tell of Knapp's confession to him when the defense objected, and while the question was being argued the jury was removed from the courtroom.

When Mayor Bosch was recalled the defense made a fight to keep Knapp's two confessions from going to the jury. Lawyer Thomas made an argument declaring the state had not proven Hannah Goodall Knapp's murder and insinuating that the police procured the confessions improperly. Judge Belden finally ruled to admit the confessions, which is a serious blow to the defense. Mayor Bosch then outlined the confessions, one of which he read and identified. He was on the stand when court adjourned and was under cross-examination.

SHIP IS SEIZED.

Young America, Being Built for Training Ship, Attached by the Sheriff.

New York, June 30.—The ship Young America, which is being built in a Perth Amboy shipyard for a nautical preparatory school of Rhode Island, has been seized by the sheriff of Middlesex county, New Jersey, on an attachment for $4,800 procured by the designer of the vessel.

The right of the sheriff to attach the boat was disputed at the shipyard, the officers claiming no payments had been made.

The Young America was being constructed for the purpose of fitting boys to enter Annapolis and to give them the advantage of travel and life aboard ship during their preparatory course. The cost of the vessel was to be $150,000. Its promoters claim to have had this amount subscribed but that they had been unable to collect.

G. H. Eiswald, vice president of the nautical preparatory school, of Rhode Island, has made a statement regarding the seizure of the school ship "Young America" at the yards of the Perth Amboy Shipbuilding and Engine company. Mr. Eiswald said the seizure was made on a claim of W. E. Winant, the vessel's designer, for alleged breach of contract, not for arrears or overdue salary, and that Winant had received up to April 30, when his connection with the school terminated, the sum of $2,800, all that was due at that time. Mr. Eiswald further said that the school corporation had already paid the shipbuilders $75,000 on account of construction and that its assets were sufficient to make the remaining payments as they came due.

SESSION COMES TO A CLOSE.

Meeting of Serbian Skupstina Summoned by Provisional Government Closes.

Belgrade, Serbia, June 30.—At the meeting of the skupstina Tuesday Premier Avakumovic read a ukase closing the session specially summoned by the provisional government June 11.

After reading the ukase the premier thanked the skupstina in behalf of the government for the election of King Peter and added that the government had concluded that it was better to postpone all legislation until the new skupstina was elected. The premier pledged the government to see that the elections were carried out with perfect freedom, so that the result may truly represent public opinion.

The elections are expected to take place in the middle of September and will doubtless result in a considerable increase in the number of extreme radicals in the house.

The king has already promised that the new cabinet shall be composed in accordance with the results of the elections.

King Peter Tuesday visited the scene of the assassinations of King Alexander and Queen Draga in the old palace.

Gathering of Warships.

Tientsin, June 30.—The local newspapers comment on the alleged significance of the gathering of the American, British and Japanese fleets in the northern part of the gulf of Pe Chi-Li. It is asserted that no less than 57 Russian warships of one sort and another are assembled at Port Arthur. The Japanese reserve officers who were on leave in northern China are said to have been called home.

Situation at Richmond.

THREE NEGROES LYNCHED

A Mob Overpowers a Jailer at Newton, Ga., Takes Victims Out, and Strings Them Up.

KILLED FOR MURDERING WHITE MAN.

Race Riot in Delaware Growing Out of the Burning to Death of a Colored Man Who Assaulted and Murdered a Young Girl—Many Shots Are Fired and Several Wounded.

Albany, Ga., June 27.—Three negroes, Garfield McCoy, Geo. McKinney and Wm. Wiley were taken from jail at Newton, Baker county, and hanged to a tree and riddled with bullets. The three men were in jail for killing F. S. Bullard, a white man, who was called to quell a row at a negro dance near his house one night last week. When the mob went to the jail and took him they had another prisoner to lodge in jail. When the jailer reached the jail door with his keys the mob rushed upon him and overpowered him.

Race Riot.
Wilmington, Del., June 26.—A race riot growing out of the lynching of George White began here shortly after nine o'clock yesterday. About 400 negroes participated and hundreds of shots were fired. It is now probable that the national guard will be called out to preserve order. About 200 shots were fired between whites and blacks, resulting in two officers and a negro being wounded.

Quiet Restored.
Wilmington, Del., June 29.—This city is in its normal condition, the excitement over the lynching of George White and the events following the burning having disappeared. The closing of the saloons had a good effect. There were no drunken brawls and the police were not called upon to quell any disturbances. The liquor dealers have heartily acquiesced in the closing movement, and they are being commended generally by the citizens for sacrificing business for the protection and order of the city. The precautionary plans adopted by the police a few days ago will be kept in force until all danger of further lawlessness is past.

Elevator Falls.
Pittsburg, Pa., June 30.—The breaking of a shaft on the first floor of the H. J. Hines Pickle company's plant in Allegheny released the ropes supporting a large freight elevator on which 23 persons were crowded. The cage fell from the fifth floor into the cellar, a distance of 45 feet, and everyone on the elevator was injured. It is thought that John Churney, of Allegheny, and Mrs. Edward Holman, of Mount Hope, N. J., will die.

Died in the Poorhouse.
Stamford, Conn., June 29.—David L. Vanderheyden, 73 years of age, who claimed to have been a personal friend of Roscoe Conkling, died at the town farm Sunday of heart disease. A number of years ago Vanderheyden was a prominent citizen of Utica, N. Y., and was considered quite wealthy. He came here four years ago and his fortune was disposed of so rapidly that he has been living on the town farm for some time.

Two Drowned.
Sioux City, Ia., June 29.—While John Sueve and his sister Dora and Mike Lee and Miss Thena Waldum were boating on the Sioux river Sunday afternoon they got in the wake of the excursion steamer Lora and their boat was overturned. Sueve and his sister were rescued, but Lee and Miss Waldum were drowned. The bodies have not been recovered.

Killed by the Cars.
Springfield, O., June 29.—A buggy in which two men were riding was struck by a Pennsylvania express near St. Paris shortly before midnight and both the occupants instantly killed. The train was on a down grade and was running at a high rate of speed. The bodies, frightfully mangled, were taken to Urbana and could not be identified.

Suicide of Aged Couple.
Chicago, June 29.—Albert Sontage and his wife took poison in their home in Steger, a southern suburb, Tuesday afternoon. It is believed that they made an agreement to end their lives because they could not live without quarreling. Their condition was discovered late Tuesday night, and both died in a short time.

Spent Millions.
St. Louis, June 26.—The World's Fair company has expended in actual cash $3,500,000 up to the first of the present month, as shown by the report of the auditing committee of the national commission at work here.

New London, Conn., June 26.—For the first time on record Yale yesterday triumphed over Harvard in all three of their boat races in the annual regatta on the Thames.

Very Unpleasant Mt. Pleasant.
It was very unpleasant on the part of the Mt. Pleasant ball players—very unpleasant for Holland. They came here Friday afternoon flushed with victories gained in hard fought battles in other parts of the state and gave the Holland club a jolt that it will not soon forget, vanquishing it by a score of 11 to 2.

Karsten was in the box for Holland when the dreadful deed was done. He still felt the effects of the attack of measles that kept him from gaining laurels on the U. of M. team and was not as effective as of old. This lack of effectiveness, coupled with unusual poor support cost Holland the game.

Home runs by Ball and Sebastian and fast fielding by Ball and Shippicase were the only bright spots in the game from a Holland point of view.

McKinnon was put in the box in the seventh inning and the unsentimental splendor of his pitching so baffled the boys with the nice name that they got but one hit off his delivery.

Did it to Holland.

Ganzel's dangerous looking athletes from Ionia came here for an informal call Tuesday afternoon and when they left nine scalps that looked very much Holland dangled at their belts and they bore aloft an inscription that read "Ionia 5; Holland 3."

It was an uphill battle for Holland all the distance as the visitors were primed for gilt-edged ball. Ionia started the deal in the first with two scores and Holland followed suit with three. In the second, ciphers prevailed. Ionia evened up matters in the third by scoring one, tying the count at 3. In the sixth an Ionia three bagger and loose Holland playing netted another straight mark for Ionia, and desultory trifling by Holland brought about a like result for Ionia in the seventh.

The game ended in the last half of the ninth with no one out and a Holland player on first ready to make the circle of the bases. Umpire Ver Schure called the game according to an agreement to the effect that the teams should stop playing at 5 o'clock to give the Ionia boys a chance to catch the 5:40 car for Grand Rapids. Some of the fans thought the visitors quit for fear of a beating and there was considerable dissatisfaction until an explanation was made.

A Painful Incident.

At Belding last Saturday afternoon a very pain producing incident was witnessed by about 700 people. It seems that the Holland base ball club, claimed by many to be the fastest semi-professional aggregation in the state, engaged in a game with the Ionia club, for which the same claim is made by many, and was trounced in a manner that stung several of the on-looker's sensibilities.

What sharpened the stings was the emphatic story of the score card which shows that Holland lost the game on errors—Andrews, contrary to his usual course contributing three, Karsten one, and McKinnon one. Lack of generosity on the part of Thomas, Ionia's leftwing tosser was also a factor in the game. Despite persistent coaxing he allowed the Holland boys but two hits. Score: 3 to 1.

Holland Wins

To the people in the grandstand at Greenville yesterday the Holland club appeared to be invincible and all because all of its members played a superb game. Just the kind of a game that will win against Ionia and the game that the Holland boys will give Ionia before the turn in the championship road is reached.

All of the Holland boys batted like fiends, netting 15 hits to 5 for Greenville. Shippicase got a home run, a triple and a single, and Karsten got a home run. Karsten pitched a good game and the Greenville boys were unable to find him until the seventh inning. Score: Holland 13; Greenville, 3.

Sporting News.

I. Goldman, manager of the Holland base ball club, has mapped out a pretty busy time for the club. After the two games with the Lakesides of Chicago Saturday comes another game with Ionia Tuesday, July 7. Then come games at Ionia July 9, at Shepherd July 10, at Mt. Pleasant July 11, at Marion July 12, at Cadillac July 13, at Big Rapids July 14, at Ionia July 15. Ionia will play here July 16 and the Union Giants will play here July 18.

If you want to have two good times on the Fourth go to the Holland base ball park. There will be two skyrocket games there and the balloon is liable to go up any inning.

One of Holland's plungers bet $15 to $20 that the Lakeside club will win both games Saturday. Wonder where he gets his dope?

Manager Goldman has signed another fielder, James of Detroit, on recommendation of Kitzon, the Allegheny pitcher now with Detroit. James played right field Tuesday and showed marked ability to deliver the goods as far as fielding was concerned, taking care of some hard chances.

Rev. J. TeGrootenbul of Morrison, Ill., who has accepted a call to the Emanuel church in Muskegon, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wykhuisen.

CONSCIENTIOUS OFFICIAL.

An Illustrative Instance of the Straight-Laced Conduct of Germany's Policemen.

"There is nothing like the authority of even the lesser officials on the continent," said a tourist who had just returned from Europe, according to Youth's Companion. "In Germany the least clerkling in the employ of the government assumes the right to interfere with your smallest private affairs."

"When I was in Paris," he says, "I had a little joke with a friend of mine about an old felt hat I wore on our walking tours. A month or so after, when I was in a little town in Germany, it happened that my part of the joke was to send the hat to him. So I tied it up and took it to the post office, a small box of a place with one old German in attendance. He asked me what was in the package."

"Merchandise," I said.

"What kind of merchandise?" he asked, and then put more and more questions, until I told him it was an old felt hat.

"How much is it worth?"

"I thought this was part of the regulation, so I told him it was not worth anything."

"And you are going to send it by mail?"

"Yes."

"When it has no value?"

"Yes. But it has a certain kind of value."

"How much?"

"Nothing that I can estimate."

"Then it is not worth the postage, and you had better not send it."

"But I want to send it."

"It is folly, mein herr, and I cannot allow it."

"So I had to go to an express office and send it that way. Now that is a paternal government for you."

Beggars' Villages in Russia.

In Russia there are whole villages of beggars. They go out at regular times to collect alms, and on returning indulge in drunken orgies. They are much dreaded, because they often steal children and mutilate them in order to excite profitable compassion.—N. Y. Post.

It seems incredible, yet it is a fact that Emperor William of Germany is often short of money, and the reason is because he rarely carries any money in his pockets.

The other day he was at a festival with his brother, Prince Henry, and his attention being drawn to a new automobile machine, he resolved to put a coin in the slot in order to see how the apparatus worked. When he searched for a coin, however, he could not find one and he was obliged to borrow from his brother.

On various other occasions, and especially while hunting, since it is his custom to give money to the foresters and other attendants, he has found it necessary to borrow from his companions.

The only time when he fills his pockets with money, says the Detroit Free Press, is on Christmas eve, for it has long been his custom to stroll at that time through the streets near the palace and to give money to all deserving persons whom he meets, but especially to children and old soldiers.

IOWA DEMOCRATS.

In Convention They Refuse to Adopt the Kansas City Platform and Nominate a Ticket.

Des Moines, Ia., June 25.—The democratic state convention yesterday, by a vote of 463 9-10 to 354 1-10 refused to adopt a minority report signed by four members of the committee on resolutions adding to the platform reported by the seven members constituting the majority of the committee, a plank reaffirming the democratic national platform of 1900.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor, J. B. Sullivan, Creston; lieutenant governor, D. B. Butler, of Iowa county; judge of supreme court, John R. Caldwell, of Tama; superintendent of public instruction, A. R. McCook, of Howard; railroad commissioner, W. S. Porter, of Harding.

The platform, as it relates to state affairs, calls for economical government, equitable taxation of corporate and private property, the purchase of supplies from the lowest bidder, and the substitution of a local option for the present mulct law. Government by injunction is denounced, and the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people is demanded.

It opposes a policy of imperialism, and declares for the adoption of such measures as shall give to the people of the Philippine islands and Porto Rico their inalienable right to self-government. The financial policy of the republican party is condemned. It demands thorough investigation by congress of the post office and other departments, and the punishment of wrongdoers. It calls for the removal of the tariff from all trust-made goods, and demands that all tariff schedules be adjusted with a view to tariff for revenue only.

TAKES THE OATH.

Peter I. Is Now King of Servia and Pledges Himself to Rule for the Welfare of the People.

Belgrade, June 26.—King Peter I. took the oath of office before the senate and skupshtina in joint session yesterday, swearing that he would maintain the constitution and rule for the welfare of the people. During the ceremony, which was often interrupted by cries of "Long live King Peter!" Col. Maschin, one of the chief assassins and now minister of public works, kept in the background. This was interpreted to mean that King Peter might punish the murderers of King Alexander and Queen Draga. However, the king confirmed the appointment of the "bloody ministry" in the afternoon and it appears certain now that the question of punishment for the assassins will be allowed to lapse.
