ALL ADVERTISING SIGNS MUST GO FROM THE HIGHWAYS

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT HAS GIVEN STRICT ORDERS TO REMOVE THEM

Do Not Want Landscape Obliterated By Large Sign Boards

The highway department of the State of Michigan has been receiving so many complaints in recent years that the roadside is being filled with all manner of unsightly advertising sign boards, that it has taken action that after June 1st those firms having these sign boards on the public highways shall remove them immediately, or these will be removed by the different road commissioners at the expense of the owners of the signs and besides they will be immediately destroyed.

The state highway department has sent instructions to the Ottawa county road commissioners that this new law recently passed must be followed out to the letter.

A storm of protest has been going on from all parts of the state, the tourists claiming that in some localities the signs are so thick that the beautiful landscapes are marred and in many instances obliterated by these unsightly signs in lurid colors. The tourist too coming from the city does not constantly want to be reminded of things commercial. They don't care what clothing is the best looking, what soap cleans without an extra effort, and what toothpaste preserves your teeth forever. They're out for a good time and they're not stopping to read sign boards along the line, but want to get as close to nature as this is possible.

It is a well known fact that many of the sign boards along the country roads are a waste of money. It takes a man with excellent eyesight and a sign with letters unusually large that can be read by a person going even at a moderate rate of speed in an automobile, and we're wondering sometime if there is such a thing as a moderate rate of speed these days. That being the case the sign boards are not readable at all.

That however is aside from the question. Tourists have become antagonistic towards firms who have large sign boards stuck along the roadside.

The campaign is on about the state, Detroit having sent out an army of deputies with trucks and these minions of the law are pulling down signs right and left and are having them 'split up for kindling wood to be distributed to the city poor. Grand Rapids is to make the raid soon, and other cities are also getting busy.

Ottawa county has sent out notice and here it is:

Complying with the orders of the State Highway Department notice is hereby given that all commercial signs must be removed from the highway on all Trunk line roads in Ottawa county. After June 1st all commercial signs remaining on the trunk line roads will be removed by the Ottawa County Road Commissioners.

JACOB GERUM TO INSTALL NEW UNIFORM SYSTEM

Jacob Gerum, former county clerk of Ottawa county, is now engaged with the state auditor general's department in the installation of the uniform book-keeping system which is to be used in the accounts of every county in the state. Mr. Gerum who is thoroughly familiar with the work of the county clerk's offices, was selected as one of the men to install the new uniform system which will be used by all county offices in the state. He is now at work at the job and will visit nearly every county in the state. The uniform system is very similar to the system which is now followed in Ottawa county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bender, 181 8th street entertained several friends from abroad who came to spend the week end and the Fourth with them in this city. The guests were Prof. C. A. Russel and daughter Mildred of Washington, D. C.; Mr. Maurice Noble of Oak Park, Ill. and Miss Lucile Mallory of Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Mallory will spend the summer in Holland and at the resorts.

Ald. Ben Wiersma, Mayor Protem, occupied the mayor's chair for a part of the council session Wednesday night. Mayor Stephan being required to leave the meeting before adjournment.

CITY OF HOLLAND ALWAYS STANDS BY ITS PROMISES

THIS PRINCIPLE IS STRONGLY ENUNCIATED BY COMMON COUNCIL

City Will Protect Property Owners Who were Promised An Alley.

The opening of an alley in the eastern part of the city was the subject of a prolonged discussion by the common council Wednesday evening and a discussion that became pretty hot at times. It was the longest discussion held by any council in many months.

When the new foundry company asked for permission to close a part of Ninth street the city granted the request on condition that an alley should be opened for certain property owners there so that these would not be shut off from a main thoroughfare. The city specifically guaranteed to these property owners that the alley would be forthcoming at a certain point.

The company, it was represented at the meeting last night is going about the matter in good faith and is anxious and willing to put the alley through, but one property owner other than those with whom the city made the agreement but through whose property the alley would have to pass, is charged with trying to hold up the company with a prohibitive price on his property, and hence a halt has come in the negotiations.

Refusing to be held up, the company started negotiations for an alley along another route, but the property owners protested to the council that the promises made to them should be made good or else the city or the company or both together should buy them out. They asked for their rights in accordance with specific agreement made and many of the aldermen were emphatic in their declaration that the city should live up to its promises to the letter. Ald. Laepple voiced this sentiment most emphatically. He declared the city must not break its promises to these property owners, no matter what hardships are involved.

The whole controversy was finally referred to the streets and crosswalks committee which will take the matter up with all the parties involved and attempt to come to a settlement.

EIGHT HUNDRED CITIZENS PROTEST PIKE ROUTE

THEY DO NOT WANT IT TO GO ALONG FIRST AVENUE

Council Agrees With Them; Attempt To Be Made To Change It

The West Michigan Pike road that the State Highway Commission is to build through the city will not be routed over First Avenue if the common council can help it. And the common council is backed in this determination by more than eight hundred citizens. A small truckload of petitions deluged the council Wednesday night asking that the route be changed from First avenue to River avenue and thence down 16th street. The aldermen did not count the names but there were said to be more than eight hundred—probably the biggest petition ever presented to any city council.

The aldermen, as shown by a record vote, were unanimous in backing up the petitioners to the extent of having the route changed from 1st Avenue. Mayor Stephan and some of the aldermen however believed that it might be wise to route the road down River avenue to 18th St. and thence straight west to the Park road. This would cut out the dangerous reverse curve near the ice houses and would give a straight entrance into the city.

The first definite step the council took was to rescind their previous action in regard to First Avenue. Not a single alderman was for the First Avenue route, declaring that they had previously voted for it under the mistaken idea that the route was a state road and that the highway department would pave only

MAN INSTANTLY KILLED IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

NECK IS BROKEN WHEN AUTO IS OVERTURNED ON RIVER AVENUE

Car Goes Over River Bank South of the Grand Haven Bridge

Ray Marble and wife and two little children and Mr. and Mrs. Joe U. Ruch, parents of Mrs. Marble, all residents of West Olive, came to Holland yesterday for an outing and incidentally, to do some shopping.

On their return home Ray Marble was at the wheel and as he approached the Grand Haven bridge from the south, his car suddenly headed for the side of the road toward the east struck a tree and the car went over an embankment of 15 feet landing into a lily pond adjacent to Black River.

In its course the Ford turned over twice scattering the six occupants about in the mud and water below.

Joe E. Kardux was the first to call for assistance and soon had Dr. Weststrate on the scene. In the meantime others had assisted in rescuing and found Ray Marble and his little son pinned beneath the running board of the car in the mud and water in which the machine was nearly submerged.

Marble was soon taken to the street above where Dr. Weststrate pronounced that life was extinct and that the man's neck had been broken. The little son was a sight to behold. His clothing, hands, face, ears, eyes and nose were simply covered with mud and the lad was scarcely recognizable.

The little chap was complainingly piteously that his back hurt him so much and a representative of this paper rushed the little fellow with the hysterical grandmother to Holland hospital, where the nursing staff soon took hold and cleaned up the lad and Dr. Weststrate examined him thoroughly as it was reported that the boy's back had been broken. The examination however soon proved that this was not the case but the back had been badly wrenched.

Mrs. Marble who was nearly prostrated, states that her husband was not going over 15 miles an hour, but seeing that he was taking the wrong course, she cautioned him, but he did not answer her. Therefore, she thinks Marble was suddenly taken with a fainting spell and lost control of the car.

Marble was a good driver, was a rural mail carrier at West Olive and drives on most difficult roads daily.

Undertaker Dykstra took charge of the remains and the body was taken to West Olive this morning. No arrangements for the funeral have as yet been made.

Mr. and Mrs. Arend Smith and daughter Miss Dorothy Doll, also assisted greatly in rescuing the party from the mud pool in which they were nearly submerged. Miss Doll is a nurse from Chicago and gave valuable assistance immediately.

It is said that a pocketbook containing considerable money was also lost some where in the lily pond and for several hours searching parties were poking away among the weeds and lily plants trying to locate the valuables.

SERIOUS MOTORCYCLE SMASHUP ON CENTRAL AVENUE

VANDER MEULEN BOYS SERIOUSLY HURT WHEN COLLIDING WITH AN AUTO

Richard and Charlie Vander Meulen, living on West 15th street, were riding to work on one motorcycle shortly before 7 this morning. When they reached Central avenue in front of Holland Hospital they met the car of F. H. Todd of Grand Rapids, when both machines came together, throwing the young men upon the pavement.

Mr. Todd and others in the neighborhood carried the Vander Meulen boys into Holland hospital. Dr. Winters was called and where it was found that Charles Vander Meulen had received a broken leg and Richard VanderMeulen had his head seriously hurt.

The motorcycle is pretty well damaged and the front wheels of the Grand Rapids car were put out of commission.

state roads. But they declared that River avenue was as much of a state road as First avenue.

The matter of rerouting the road was then referred to the streets and crosswalks committee, together with the mayor and the city attorney. These will call the petition to the attention of the road commission and seek to have it complied with. Then they will report back to the council for final action.

SETTLEMENT OF GAS QUESTION IS IMMINENT

MAYOR STEPHAN MAKES PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT TO COUNCIL

Two Definite Propositions Soon To Be Presented To the Common Council

The settlement of the gas question in Holland will soon come to a head, according to announcement made by Mayor Stephan to the common council Wednesday evening. Mr. Stephan was not yet ready to give the details of the settlement, but he explained the broad outlines to the aldermen.

The gas committee composed of the mayor, three aldermen, Lawrence, Vander List and Damstra, and three citizens, Con De Pree, R. P. Donnelly, and James De Young, has had frequent meetings and the members have been working hard at their job of making the best possible settlement for the city.

Mayor Stephan, on behalf of the committee, announced last night that the committee and the company had come together on a price for the plant of the company, the figure of which has not yet been made public.

A subcommittee is now making an investigation to learn what the cost will be for laying the mains in the mains in the fifth and sixth wards. The price of the present plant will then be added to the price of piping the two wards, and the total will be handled as one proposition to be put up to the people.

The committee is also coming to a conclusion as to what the price of a new plant would be in case the people should decide not to accept the company's proposition but to build a new gas plant. Thus there will be two definite propositions before the council: (1) buying the company's plant plus the cost of piping the fifth and sixth wards, and (2) building a brand new plant for the city. These two propositions will soon be ready and then they will be laid before the council by the committee.

The committee at the same time will give figures showing what the price of gas will be to the people of Holland, based on the cost of the plant plus labor and fuel. The council will probably refer the whole matter to the people for a vote.

CITY TO ACT ON A SEWAGE DISPOSAL

MAYOR ADVISES COUNCIL MEMBERS TO BEGIN ACTION ON THIS

That the city of Holland take some necessary steps in regard to the sewer situation before the State Department of Health steps in and forces action was the advice given to the aldermen by Mayor Stephan Wednesday night. The sewage running into Black river has become a grave problem, and there are strains in the wind that the State Department of Health will take action at some time or other on its own initiative if the city does not look after the situation.

Mayor Stephan prefers to do the thing that must be done without promptings from the state, believing that Holland can take care of its own affairs and can do its own housecleaning. So he asked the aldermen to take the matter under serious advisement. The council expects to make work of it immediately. It is a big problem and what course to pursue has not yet been decided, but that something must be done seems to be agreed by the aldermen.

THIS IS WHAT 800 LOCAL PEOPLE PUT THEIR NAMES TO

Here is the petition that more than 800 citizens of Holland signed and that was presented to the common council at its meeting Wednesday night:

"We, the undersigned parties interested, living in the city of Holland and the surrounding community, respectfully request a change in your proposed plans relative to the West Michigan Pike through the city of Holland.

"We believe it for the best interests of everyone concerned that the Pike should extend south on River avenue from Eighth street to 16th street, thence west, instead of being built as proposed on West Eighth street to First avenue and then south to Sixteenth street.

"This would bring the Pike thru the principal part of the city; would require about the same amount of pavement; and be more desirable from every point of view.

"We therefore desire your most careful consideration of our request."

LAUNCH OWNERS

ADVISED TO GET FEDERAL NUMBER

ERAL NUMBER

Launch owners in Holland and vicinity are warned by customs office to secure for their craft the government number which federal law now requires each boat propelled by its own power to carry. Federal officers are in Holland and are inclined to believe the new launch owners because of ignorance of the law, and any old owners because of oversight will neglect to secure this number. These numbers can be obtained by application to the collector of customs in G. Haven. The number is assigned only from the Detroit office.

In addition to this law, Deputy Collector Phillips of Grand Haven calls attention to the fact that all power boats which are used for pleasure must pay an internal revenue tax, which can be remitted only to the collector of internal revenue in Grand Rapids.

Launch owners will also do well to inform themselves as to the amount and kind of equipment which the law requires them to carry on their boats. Infractions of any of the laws will open the offender to monetary fines.

CALL FROM GRAND

HAVEN CHURCH HAS BEEN REFUSED

The congregation of the Second Christian Reformed church of Grand Haven have just been notified that Rev. R. Veltman of the Prospect Park church of Holland, has refused the call extended to him by the G. H. congregation some time ago.

Rev. Veltman was a recipient of a call from a Grand Rapids church at the same time that the one from the Grand Haven church was sent. The Second Christian Reformed church has now been without a pastor for about a year. Other calls will be extended in the near future.

GRAND HAVEN'S FIRST BOY'S CAMP IS OPEN

Grand Haven, July 3—Camp Cheboygan, on the shores of Pokagon bayou, the recreation camp for boys, opened Thursday. Raymond Noon and John Elliott Noon, the proprietors have made the camp ideal in every way for the large number of boys who will spend the summer at the camp.

The object of the camp is to train the boys both physically and mentally, besides giving them an outing. Dr. C. E. Long of this city will act as camp physician. Camp Cheboygan is the first camp of its kind to locate near Grand Haven.

MOST QUIET

FOURTH IN THE HISTORY OF HOLLAND

Holland surely had a sane Fourth or fifth, as the case happens to be. No large fireworks were shot off by the public or by private individuals. Firecracker shooting was practically nil in the city and those that were shot were of the smaller variety.

No accidents were reported and no arrests were made by the police for drunkenness or disorderly conduct.

There was however a raid made on all speeders who did not obey the law and the minions were on hand to gather them in, and the list shows that the law was no respecter of persons, as the little and the big fellows were all gathered in the speed net.

If there are any skeptical people in town who think that Holland's resorts are not an attraction, they may put away their doubts, when it is estimated that over 3000 automobiles loaded, came to this city and its resorts on the Fourth.

At Macatawa, Jenison, Ottawa Beach and Waukazoo, there was no parking room left where an auto could be parked, and it is said that from Lakewood farm to beyond Tennessee Beach, the space intervening was simply one long row of autos. The ten mile road to Saugatuck was simply dotted with automobile parties who found a convenient spot and a shady nook, where a table cloth could be spread and baskets with good things could be unloaded.

A representative from this paper in returning from a trip from Grand Rapids at 5 o'clock counted 386 automobiles coming from Holland, and going to Grand Rapids in the hour and fifteen minute trip that it took to make the run.

It is said that Macatawa had used all its available parking facilities already early Saturday afternoon, and by Monday noon automobiles were parked all along the cement highway nearly to Virgin's park.

At a rough estimate it is figured that at least 25000 strangers came to and passed thru Holland on the holidays, when it is estimated that 3,000 automobiles came to this city and that the interurban cars were crowded to the "gunwale" the entire day.

The service on the interurban too was exceptionally fine and Holland was well supplied with extra cars all through the day.

MAPES HAS BEST

ATTENDANCE RECORD

Congressman Carl E. Mapes who is always to be found in the Fifth district when congress is not in session, and in Washington when it is in session, has the best attendance record of any Michigan member. He was absent on but 16 roll calls and then because of deaths in his family. His record is equalled by few members of the house. Congressman Michener of the 2nd district missed but 17 roll calls, mostly because of a trip of inspection with the rivers and harbors committee to New York city.

SPEED DEMONS

WERE RAMPANT ON THE FOURTH

Several resorters from abroad filled their autos full of pep when making the fine cement drive to Macatawa. Ed Perkins of Grand Rapids went 40; Wm. Horne, taxi driver went 35; John Pun also went 35; J. Martin of Chicago and Richard Brown, also of Chicago both were going at 45 m.p.h. Lloyd Purchase of Holland went 35. These were gathered in by Deputy Sheriff Homkes over the week end in Park township, going over the cement road.

In Holland Speed Cop Bontekoe gathered in Arthur Blodgett going 29 on River avenue; P. W. Dekker, a real estate man of Grand Rapids 28 on 1st avenue; Albert Siegers and Henry Aldering of Holland for going 30 miles with motorcycles on 8th street; and E. Norwood for forcing his way through a crowded zone while the passengers on an interurban car were entraining.

Clifton Griffith of Grand Rapids was also taken by Deputy Sheriff Homkes for going 40 miles on a motorcycle.

These men were arraigned before both Justice Van Schelven and Justice Jay Den Herder, each Justice meting out justice to half of the bunch. It is said that as many more will be called in as soon as the proper papers can be made out.

HUDSONVILLE BUILDERS

HAVE BUSY SEASON

Notwithstanding the high cost of material, considerable building is going on at Hudsonville. The new $10,000 garage being erected by Alward & Schumaster will be ready for occupancy this week. The Hudsonville Lumber Co. has under construction a large warehouse. N. J. De Weerd has moved his residence from his store to a lot owned by him in the east part of the village. He is soon to build an up to date store on the site vacated by his residence. F. J. McEachron has moved his hotel to a lot further east where it is being remodeled.

ALLENDALE BOY

WINS THE STATE FAIR CONTEST

County School Commissioner N. R. Stanton announced Friday that the annual Michigan State Fair trip has been awarded to Arnold Reister of School District No. 1 of Allendale township. Second honors with the privilege of taking the trip in case the winner cannot go, were won by Warren Arnold, of Jamestown township, School District No. 2.

Mr. Reister, because of winning the contest, will be given a free trip to the Detroit State Fair the fair association paying all the expenses from his home to Detroit, at the fair and in Detroit, and back to his home again. A similar trip is given to rural school boys from all of the 83 counties in the state.

The Michigan State Fair Association has an agreement with the State Department of Education, whereby boys who write for the 8th grade examinations each spring can enter the state fair contest. The State Fair Ass'n furnishes twenty questions which the contestants must answer. The boy in each county who gets the best standing in his eighth grade examinations and the best standing on the state fair questions, wins the trip. The conditions are that the boy must be 14 years or over and that he must be a rural boy.

At the state fair these boys are given every attention. They live in a large camp, and are given the best of food and care obtainable. They are divided in squads and each squad is presided over by a leader in boys' work. Each day opens with chapel exercises and physical drills. The boys are escorted through the fair and shown all the workings of that institution. In addition they are taken through several automobile plants, to Belle Isle and other places of interest in Detroit.

HAMILTON

A very pretty out of doors wedding took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. E. Headley when her daughter, Helen Marie, became the bride of William De Crocker of Kalamazoo. The ceremony was performed on the porch which was converted into a bower of green and white, the background being a solid mass of mock orange blossoms and baskets and jars of white peonies placed on pedestals helped to carry out the general color scheme. The bride wore a dress of dotted net trimmed with bands of pink satin ribbon, and carried a bouquet of pink satin ribbon, and carried bouquet of pink bridal roses. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by Miss Alice M. Brouwer. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Meengs in the presence of about 100 guests. Punch and wafers were served to the guests upon their arrival and ice-cream and cake were served after the ceremony by the Misses Florence Voorhoorst, Alice Miskotten, Mary and Janet Kooker, Dewetta Root, Alice Brower and Gertrude Voorhoorst. The bride and groom departed shortly after the wedding and will later make their home in Kalamazoo.

COLDWATER GIRL HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Nicholas Jonkman of Coldwater, son of F. N. Jonkman of this city, figured in an auto accident on the Saugatuck road Monday when his Ford became tangled with a motorcycle side-car. Both motorcycle and Ford were tipped over to the side of the road and Miss Helen Hadley of Coldwater, one of the five passengers in the car, received injuries to her hip and back. While painful the injuries are not expected to be serious.

Jonkman, who works for the State Highway department was taking a given every attention. They live in a large camp, and are given the best of food and care obtainable. They up from behind, and after passing the Ford swung back into the road too quickly. The result was that the side car caught in to the Ford. The Ford was somewhat damaged and the motorcycle was considerably damaged.

Elmer Poppe of Lansing spent the Fourth of July with his parents on 18th street.

It Isn't Your Friend's Business To Manage Estates

You name him executor of your will because of life-long friendship, but he dreads the responsibility—he doesn't know the inheritance laws, he's never managed any other business but his own. He may die before you, or be too ill, or too busy, when the time comes.

Why not instead name as executor, one whose business it is to manage estates, which has the experience and the facilities to execute your will promptly, economically and absolutely impartially? More and more, husbands and fathers all over Michigan see the wisdom of appointing this company executor or administrator.

Our free booklet, "Decent and Distribution of Property", explains why clearly. Send for it today.

Our Ambition: Ideal Telephone Service for Michigan

The Michigan State Telephone Company has set itself earnestly to the task of making the telephone service in Michigan as near ideal as possible.

To us, ideal telephone service is summed up as follows:

First—When the service given present subscribers is as intelligent and as nearly perfect as human ingenuity and mechanical accuracy can make it.

Second—When every home and business, that has any use for a telephone, has one.

Third—When there is a mutual understanding between the Telephone Company and its subscribers, that fosters confidence and encouragement and courtesy.

The attainment of such an ideal calls for the best brains, the nimblest fingers, the most careful training, the expenditure of vast sums in buildings and material—yet it is a task that we are entering upon with all the enthusiasm of an age when mighty things are being accomplished.

There will be many obstacles and discouragements, but honest effort will overcome them all.

It is our purpose in these announcements, from time to time, to tell you of the progress we are making, and if we can know that we have your confidence and co-operation it will lend strength to our efforts and courage to our hearts.

Borculo does not believe in political spell-binders on its patriotic days. It has been altogether too common and detracts from the real object of the day to have a speaker appear and find that after he is thru with the spread of the eagle stuff to know that he is running for some political office. It is simply utilizing these glorious days for selfish interests. Borculo does not believe in this policy and for that reason they had placed on their speaking program for the fourth of July, four dominies, viz., Rev. E. J. Krohne, Borculo, H. E. Ostendorp, D. R. Drakker and M. Van Vessem of Zeeland.

The Detroit Free Press in giving a list of those students of U. of M. in the literary department who received all "A's" for last semester's work, gives the name of Miss Sadie Gonsen of Holland. There were 35 in the entire list.

WHO WAS BACK OF PRINTED "SLATE?"

Who got up the printed "slate" at the school caucus Tuesday night? That is a question frequently asked at the caucus and it was frequently asked Wednesday. There was a good deal of curiosity about the "slate" but so far it remains a mystery.

The "slate" was gotten up without the knowledge or consent of at least some of the men whose names appeared on it. B. Steketee at the caucus declared he did not know he was being "run" for the job, and today John Koolker, another man whose name appeared on the "slate" declared that he had known nothing about it. Not only that, but he did not approve of that method of injecting political methods into school caucuses. It is believed that several of the other six did not know about the "slate" and who engineered the project is shrouded in mystery.

The two Rutgers boys are associated with their father in the clothing business on West Eighth-st. and Russell will make his home under the parental roof until a suitable house can be secured.

HOLLAND RESORTS

ALSO HAVE THEIR SINGING SANDS

Holland folks and tourists have no doubt repeatedly heard the singing sands of Lake Michigan, when walking on the beach, while bathing or taking a stroll, a short distance from the water's edge. Try it after you read this article.

An interesting attempt is made by a writer in Science to explain the singing sands of Lake Michigan. These extend along the eastern shore from Gary at the southern extremity to Mackinac, at the northern with comparatively few breaks or interruptions.

Holland resorts being in this wide scope is also included in this sand concert.

Throughout this region the sands near the water's edge in dry weather emit a peculiar but definite and unmistakable sound when the foot of the pedestrian pushes through them in an abrasive way. This unusual sound is produced not only by the leather-shod foot, but it emitted also if the bare foot or hand is struck through the grains or if a stick is trailed, boy fashion, behind.

The singing sands, as they are called sounds very much as if one is rubbing wet glass with their finger or by waxing a table. It has a squeaking sound, as of one particle rubbing against another.

The sound is produced only when the sand is dry and apparently the drier the sand is the louder is the sound. In wet weather or when the sand is moderately moist, the sound is not produced. As one walks away from the water's edge he may be astonished to find out that the sound producing sand ceases rather abruptly about 50 to 100 feet from the shore line. The upper limit of the singing sands is practically identical with the upper wave limit—that is the boundary reached by the waves during storms.

"My hypothesis, briefly stated, is this," says a writer in Science. "The sand grains on the lower beach and as far as the upper limit of the beach are bathed periodically by the waters of the lake, which contain various salts, including calcium and magnesium bicarbonates.

This water dries on the grains of sand, coating the surfaces with an extremely thin film of salts, including calcium and magnesium carbonates. This film is of such a nature, as to create considerable friction when rubbed and thus when the grains are brought into contact with various surfaces a sound is emitted. One may compare the action of the film of dried salts on the sand grains with the action of rosin on the violin bow.

"The beach sand is, of course, the same sand which later goes to join the dunes when transported by the from time to time to the bleaching action of rain water, and this completes the removal of calcium and magnesium carbonates, so that the original sand grain surface is restored, or, to speak metaphorically, the sands lose their singing voice, such is the hypothesis."

DESERVING COUNTY OFICIAL SEEKS THIRD TERM.

Efficiency counts, and when largely in evidence, it is always wisdom to let matters rest as they are. While custom might suggest that two terms in office is the established precedent there are cases where a departure from the established rule is good business. This is particularly the case in the third term proposition of Fred T. Miles, present Prosecuting Attorney of Ottawa county.

Mr. Miles has made a record for himself that challenges criticism. He has administered this office with careful consideration for the public, yet has not neglected to see that the strong arm of the law has been effective when occasion demanded it.

The record made by Mr. Miles will surely recommend his re-election to his present position.

EIGHT CANDIDATES CHOSEN ON A SINGLE BALLOT

Following the usual custom, the voters at the school caucus Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium placed three names on the ballot, with the understanding that the six highest should be the nominees for the full term. The six in their order, together with the votes they received are: Henry Geerlings, 253; Mrs. G. E. Kollen, 222; Mrs. G. H. McBride, 112; Fred Beeuwkes, 92; Gerrit Vander Hill, 84; John Kooiker 59.

It was thereupon decided that the next two highest be named as candidates for the unexpired term. These nominees are George Mool, 55; and Frank Dyke 53.

The convention opened with the choice of G. J. Diekema as chairman and Arnold Mulder as secretary. The tellers appointed by the chair were Simon Kleyn, T. N. Robinson, Joe Kooiker, S. R. McLean, Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. A. H. Landwehr.

A. H. Landwehr made a nominating speech for Mrs. C. H. McBride and Con De Pree seconded the nomination. Mr. De Pree moved that the rules be suspended and the secretary be instructed to cast the ballot of the convention for Mrs. McBride. A substitute motion was offered that the convention vote by ballot for six candidates. There was a short spurt of motions and substitute motions, and finally a motion of C. M. McLean that the convention ballot as usual by placing three names on the slips and throwing out all ballots that contained more than three names prevailed.

Before the balloting began Dr. J. E. Kuhenga made a nominating speech for the candidacy of Mrs. G. E. Kollen. This was supported by a seconding address by former Mayor N. Bosch. Then the nominating speeches came to an end when Simon Kleyn moved that balloting begin, which motion prevailed.

The balloting used up a good deal of time as did the canvassing of the vote, but as soon as the results had been read by the chair, the most spirited school caucus in the city's history came to a close.

CAUCUS HAD ALL THE FRILLS OF A POLITICAL MEET

Never was there a school caucus like the one of Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium. The large building was crowded with people. It is estimated that more than four hundred voters took part in the contest. And the caucus had all the frills that are familiar to ward caucuses for political jobs. There were nominating speeches, printed "slates" of candidates, "political cards", passed out to the voters as they entered the building, motions and counter motions and substitute motions, and seconding speeches for the nominees, and practically everything that the American political system has brought forth in its slow evolution.

It was a caucus that was a caucus from the point of view of public interest. In the past school caucuses were in the habit of attracting a handful of people. The large bulk of the voters never seemed to realize when a caucus was being held. But this year it was freely predicted beforehand that the caucus would be a large and spirited one, and the prediction was substantiated by the fact

The most satisfying thing about the caucus Tuesday night was that the audience in the high school auditorium was a thoroughly representative one. All the elements of the city's life were represented. The caucus was not given into the control of any single group or faction. All shades of public opinion were represented, and the choice of candidates probably fairly represents the ideas of the people of Holland as a whole as to the kind of persons who should serve upon the school board.

Somebody—it was not learned who—had made up a printed "slate" of six candidates for the "Long Term." These ballots were passed to the voters. It contained the names of B. Steketee, Henry Geerlings, Gerrit Vander Hill, John Kooiker, Wm. Vander Ven, and H. Van Tongeren. Only three of the six finally got up on the ballot.

DECLINES NOMINATION FOR SCHOOL BOARD

The voters who gathered at the school caucus Tuesday night paid a fine compliment to B. Steketee. Mr. Steketee was not a candidate for the position although some one had placed his name on a printed "slate." The voters thought so well of him that they gave him the third highest vote. He received 147 votes and was surpassed only by Henry Geerlings and Mrs. G. E. Kollen. The indications were that Mr. Steketee would have had a very good chance for election.

But as soon as the vote had been announced he arose and declared that he had not desired the nomination and that he could not serve. He said that he was getting too old to bear the burdens of membership in the school board and recommended that a younger man be chosen. Thanking the voters for their kindness, he firmly declined the nomination.

WHAT'S THE USE OF PLANTING BROOK TROUT HERE?

Deputy Game Warden Dick Homkes Tuesday received five cans of brook trout in embryo and planted them in Black river. Each can contained several thousand youngsters. Mr. Homkes stated that under the best of conditions only about ten per cent of the trout would remain alive until these would become large enough to catch. Even if this were the case Black river would soon be alive with brook trout. A clipping from one of the Detroit papers gives some new light upon the subject of brook trout and in what kind of a stream this species of the finny tribe can live and propagate. If this is true then the efforts of Mr. Homkes will go for naught because Black river has everything that is distasteful to a brook trout and the making of a sewer of our stream is not the least of these.

Here is the clipping:
If you and your friends are interested in stocking a stream that the trout will live and thrive in, and are not fully informed as to procedure, the following facts will be of value:
Brook trout will not live in any stream that rises above 68 degrees temperature in summer.

Banks of streams should bear trees or tall shrubs to provide necessary coolness and shade. In open spaces, quick-growing willows or black elder should be planted. Remember that in a manufacturing state of large towns and cities—sewage, mill and other refuse pours into many of our streams. It is useless to put trout in such waters.

The best places for planting are the rivulets and spring feeders. The trout will work their way into the larger streams as they grow.

Rearing pools on the streams and side pools built of rock and sod, are especially suitable for brook trout. Many of the fish that have been distributed have been unintentionally placed in unsuitable waters by the receiver. Therefore, to be sure of healthy, normal propagation of trout it is imperative that pure, living water should be selected.

Notwithstanding laws restricting fishing to certain seasons of the year, most trout streams would soon be fished out if they were not restocked. According to experts only from two to four per cent of eggs hatch when left to develop naturally, while fish hatcheries count on from 75 to 90 per cent.

G. R. BOY SCOUT PAINTFULLY HURT AT WEST OLIVE

Harold Kirchgesner, 16, son of a Grand Rapids, Division-st. druggist suffered a painful, but not serious injury at Camp Schawandesse near West Olive Monday morning when he cut his foot with an axe with which he was chopping wood for the morning fire. The boy was given first aid by the camp doctor and then brought to Grand Haven where he was put on an interurban car and sent to Grand Rapids. The camp at which the young man was hurt is maintained by the Grand Rapids council of Boy Scouts. No serious effects are expected to result from the wound.

GROUP OF 'Y' SENIORS HOLD AN OUTING

The First Group of "Y" seniors to get going had a great time at Buchanan Beach Tuesday evening. Thirty-five fellows lined up for mess served by Serg. Bill Veinink and his able K. P.'s in approved army style. Appetites already keen were whetted to a ravenous degree by the ball game which was the first feature of the program. Capt. Luidens' Independents were pitted against Capt. Hamelink's Blues. Although the game was not contested for thirteen innings the score ended 40 to 2 due largely to the efficient umpiring of Allie Harris.

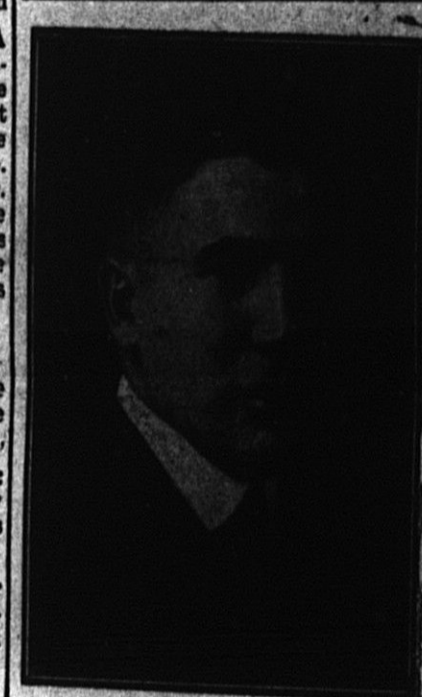

After the game several of the fellows braved the icy waters of the big lake for a refreshing plunge. The outing was arranged by the following committee, J. Frie, general chairman of the Young Men's department of the "Y" in Holland, Wm. Duer, chairman, First Group, Wm. Veinink "Eats", Russell Rutgers, recreation, Marinus De Fouw, transportation and H. W. Smith, county Y secretary.

The bunch voted unanimously to come again in two weeks, that is on Tuesday July 13.

OTTAWA BRINGS OUT BREAKFAST SUITE OF FINE FINISH

The Ottawa Furniture Co. has brought out a breakfast suite this market which is not only beautiful in design and finely built, but which has an added feature of finish which will be greatly appreciated by the housewife who will eventually use it. The finish is known as amber voile, an unscratchable to the finger nails on to anything unless it actually cuts through into the wood. It will stand up under hot plates or hot water and does not knock off nor mar in any way.

The finish is supplied in five colors and on walnut and mahogany. This makes it a highly beautiful and substantial piece of furniture and the trick of applying the finish is such that the pieces can be turned out with the greatest rapidity. That is a feature too, which is fully appreciated by the buyers who are looking for quick deliveries. The breakfast suite is going big in the market as it rightly should.—G. R. Herald.

WANTS HISTORY OF THE KALAMAZOO HOLLANDERS

That the Hollanders in the Kalamazoo Valley have a history distinct from the history of the Hollanders of Ottawa, Allegan and Kent counties is pointed out in the current issue of the Michigan History Magazine which refers to the Hollanders as follows:

"An interesting field for investigation and historical writing is that the Hollanders in the Kalamazoo Valley. These people appear not to be closely allied with Hollanders of Ottawa county and the details of their settlement in Michigan have never appeared in print to our knowledge. This subject, properly treated, would make a very acceptable paper for the Magazine."

PLAN TO IMPROVE WATER SUPPLY AT COUNTY FARM

Under instructions from the county board of supervisors the county poor superintendents are at the present time considering improvements to be made on the county farm at Eastmanville. For the past two or three summers the water supply at the farm has during extremely hot weather proved insufficient for the needs of the establishment. Hydraulic Engineer Young of Holland is at the present time engaged in considering ways and means of increasing this supply so as to take care of the requirements of the establishment.

It is planned also to overhaul the heating plant at the farm. It has been discovered that the main building has not been receiving enough heat from the plant now in operation and the superintendents have been authorized further to remedy this condition.

No definite steps have been taken but following an investigation of the matter by experts something will be done to remedy the condition.

FISH ON HOOK CAUSES DEATH OF LITTLE BOY

Although he was in the water less than eight minutes, Carroll Evert Bouweema, the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bouwens of Minneapolis, formerly of Zeeland, could not be resuscitated Thursday afternoon, although the life-savers worked over the boy for about three hours. It is believed that the shock of falling into the water affected the boy's heart, causing death through heart failure. There was no heart action whatever when he was brought to the surface.

The boy was out fishing on the spiles near the south breakwater. According to the life savers he caught a fish and, becoming excited, he slipped off the spiles into the water. The depth at that point was about 14 feet. Two boys who were in bathing immediately went after the boy and brought him to the surface in about eight minutes. Signals were sent to the life saving station and the crew responded, some in the power boat and some running along the breakwater. They took the body and worked over it for three hours, but without results.

The body was taken to Zeeland where it was placed in the care of Undertaker E. J. Pruim, an uncle of the drowned boy. The boy's parents formerly lived in Zeeland, where the father was associated with Henry Bouwens in the shoe business. For a number of years now the family has lived in Minneapolis. They were resorting at Macataya Park for awhile.

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN UP IN THE AIR

De Vries & Dornbos were up in the air Thursday night—not in the usual figurative sense, but literally up in the air. In plain words, the two Holland furniture men took a trip in an aeroplane, and they lived to tell the tale Friday to their envious friends.

It came about in this way. At the furniture buyers' outing at Comstock Park Thursday tickets were issued to buyers for aeroplane rides. Only a few lucky ones, who happened to get the right numbers, got in on the rides. Milo De Vries and Cornelius Dornbos drew Numbers 67 and 58, which happened to be lucky ones, and they went up in the air at nine o'clock Thursday night, enjoying a ride over the city of Grand Rapids.

According to reports that have come back to Holland, De Vries stood the trip well, but Dornbos' hair stood up like the proverbial "quills upon the fretful porcupine", and a large part of his supper went overboard. "Casey" says the trip was worth the venture, as he was up in the air as high as most men aspire to reach.

WELL KNOWN ZEELAND WOMAN PASSES AWAY

After an illness of more than two years with cancer, Mrs. Thos. Van Eenennaam died at her home in Zeeland Thursday at the age of 66 years four months and seventeen days.

Mrs. Gertrude Van Eenennaam was the eldest daughter of the late Dr. W. Vanden Berg, and was born in Buffalo, N. Y. Soon after her birth the family moved to Zeeland where she has made her home nearly all her life. At the age of 22 she was married to Thomas Van Eenennaam in Zeeland in July 1876. After residing in Zeeland four years they moved to Grand Rapids from where they again in 1888 returned to Zeeland and engaged in the grocery business which they conducted 12 years, when on Oct. 1, 1900, they became owners of the Hotel Zeeland and disposed of their grocery business soon afterwards.

She is survived by her husband, one son, Edward Van Eenennaam of Grand Rapids; one sister, Mrs. Jane Brandel of Grand Rapids; and two brothers, Fred VandenBerg of Zeeland and Chris Vanden Berg of Denver, Colo.; besides two grand children and six nephews and nieces.

The funeral services were held from the home at Hotel Zeeland on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock where all friends are invited.

LITTLE SAUGATUCK BOY RUN OVER, BUT IS NOT HURT

Charles Webster, of Allegan had a shocking experience while driving through the streets at Saugatuck.

Little Erwin Hutchins was the little fellow in question and from the results the juvenile thought it only a trifling matter to be run over by a large touring car.

Little Erwin had some very urgent business in the downtown districts of Saugatuck.

He had to buy for himself and little friends a large stick of candy and was boldly marching over the thoroughfare with the price of an all day sucker in his hand. He ran between two cars standing at the curb in front of the postoffice, emerging full in the path of the oncoming touring car driven by Webster.

The car knocked the lad down passed over him, but luckily, the little fellow remained between the wheels and was not crushed.

Little Erwin came out from under the back end of the machine with his money tightly grasped in his little fist, and after getting his bearings he proceeded to invest his copers in sweets for himself and his friends.

The only injury to the lad was a slight scratch on his arm.

The driver, Mr. Webster, did not fare so well however. He took the accident so to heart that he collapsed and had to be assisted to a neighboring drug store, where he revived after he learned that the boy was not injured seriously.

YOUNG MAN AT SAUG- ATUCK DROWNS

Russel Linquist, aged 22, was drowned at the Saugatuck pier, Friday evening while in bathing with several friends. He and a party of friends arrived Wednesday to stay over the Fourth.

While out for a swim he was suddenly taken with cramps and sank from sight. The body was recovered within ten minutes and his friends worked over him for three hours, but life was extinct.

Mr. Lindquist was employed with the International Harvester Co. of Chicago and his home is in Austin, Ill.

The body was taken to Holland, and was shipped to Chicago on the Saturday noon.

The young man leaves his parents and several brothers and sisters, living in Illinois.

County Drain Commissioner Ber and Kammeraad was in Holland on Drain business Friday.

Why Is Chiropractic The Safest Way
For The Patient?

Chiropractic is safest because it is scientific. The properly trained Chiropractor knows exactly what he is doing and why he is doing it and cannot injure the patient. The correctness of the principles safeguards the patient.

Again, there is nothing inherent in Chiropractic, as well as ntlly dangerous in Chiropractic Adjustments. The news columns are full of accounts of death resulting from mistaking the label on a bottle, taking an overdose of a dangerous drug, a medical doctor prescribing an overdose, deaths from the use of vaccines and serums, and many like occurrences in the drug and serum quipping systems. Chiropractors use no drugs or serums and such results do not occur. Many a man, thru quite a pardonable error in diagnosis (no infallible diagnostician ever lived,) has had the wrong organ removed by an operation. No Chiropractor ever removed an organ under any circumstances.

Stimulation of an overstimulated organ is dangerous. The Chiropractor is safeguarded against this by the fact that an adjustment always followed by the NORMAL functioning of the nerves. NATURE NEVER MAKES A MISTAKE.

FINALLY, THE MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL—Chiropractic is safest for the patient whose disease is dangerous because it offers the surest chance of recovery. To select the wrong method and waste precious time in finding out the mistakes has sometimes permitted the disease to make such inroads on health that the case passes beyond hope of recovery before the necessary spinal adjustments have been made.

Since Chiropractic is the safest as well as the surest way, why not use Chiropractic first? Consultations and Spinal Analysis without obligation.

MAGAZINE TELLS THE STORY OF LOCAL COLLEGE

The current issue of the "Michigan History Magazine," a quarterly publication of the Michigan Historical Commission, contains a lengthy article on "The Rise and Progress of Hope College," written by President Emeritus Amos Vennema of that institution. The article was originally read as a formal paper at an annual meeting of the Michigan Pioneer Society and Historical Commission, held at Lansing in June, 1916. The paper is now printed for the first time, and a footnote is added bringing the history of the institution up to date, referring to President Vennema's resignation, the election of Dr. Dimment and the present enrollment of the institution.

In his introduction Dr. Vennema calls Hope College "one of the oldest of the denominational institutions of learning in this state." He traces the early colonization history of this section of Michigan, describes the establishment of Hope academy and its union with the Reformed church, tells of the development of the academy into a college, of the beginning of the Western Theological Seminary, of the financial struggles through which the college passed, of the men who served the institution and of its present prosperous growth.

The article is illustrated by two very good cuts, one of Carnegie hall, and one of Graves hall and Winants chapel.

The Michigan Historical Commission is being conducted under the auspices of the state of Michigan. It gathers historical information about all parts of the state and preserves it in permanent form. Holland has frequently been represented in the magazine. The editor, George B. Fuller, is deeply interested in this colony's history and has visited here to get a first hand view of the people.

ARREST TWO SPEEDERS IN ONE FAMILY

Those Kole boys are fine lads but they like to step on the accelerator of a car and the speed demon is within them.

Marinus Kole was taken in by Speed Cop Bontekoe Thursday and on Wednesday of this week Peter nabbed his brother John Kole for making his flivver go too fast.

Knowing that the city wasn't safe for a racefest, John goes to the country with his Lizzie, but there Dick Homkes gets him for exceeding the speed limit of 25 miles. The Koles were taken before his majesty of the law, Jay Den Herder and were asked to pay tribute for their collective speed offenses.

Martin Vander Rie and Julius Brusse, of the Wolverine Garage, drove in a Cleveland Sedan and a Chandler touring car from Cleveland, Ohio. The Chandler has already been disposed of to Miss Emma Fisher of "Wirkheim" on Macatawa drive.

FARMERS WILL

ORGANIZE A SEED

DEPT' IN COUNTY

Plan To Hold Annual Outing At The Berlin Fair Grounds August 11

The regular quarterly meeting of the Executive committee of the Ottawa County Farm Bureau was held at the court house Tuesday. The members were in attendance from all over the county and many plans were made for new movements among the farmers of the county.

Perhaps the most important piece of business transacted were the arrangements made for the organization and perfecting of a seed department among members of the bureau.

The plans which are being carried out in many other counties throughout the state and giving the highest satisfaction, will, it is expected, work to the great benefit of the farmers of this county.

It is intended that the department will so arrange matters that it will be unnecessary for members of the Ottawa bureau to send out of the county for any seed which they may be able to secure within the county.

Formerly a great deal of expense and trouble was gone to by agriculturists in this section in sending to great distances for seed which they might with proper organization secure at home. Proper exchanges will be perfected and such information as is necessary given to the farmers who are members of the bureau so that they may on the first need for seed know exactly where that which they desire may be obtained.

Rainy Seasons In Cycles.

According to Eduard Brueckner, the great Austrian meteorologist, cold, rainy seasons come in cycles about every thirty-five years, the years nearest to these partaking of their nature and those furthest distant being dry and hot. The year 1915 was the height of one of these cold, wet cycles.

COLLIE TAKEN TO CHICAGO FINDS WAY OVER ROAD SHE WENT

GRAND HAVEN DOG LIKE CAT CAME BACK TO OLD HOME

When a world's famous actress said that the more she saw of dogs the less she liked men, she was undoubtedly thinking of Patch. Patch is a collie dog owned by J. Schultz who has for some time been living in the old Brown home on Stearns bayou east of Grand Haven. Patch is a real dog too, with a fine long coat of smooth silky hair colored light brown and white. Her eyes are more than eyes, and Patch says a lot with them, for dog-like Patch can't talk. Her tail is long and bushy and her fine ears droop down the side of her head or are lifted at attention when attention is necessary.

About two weeks ago Patch's owner decided to return to Chicago to live. The trip by the family was made by motor and Patch was bundled into the machine for she had always been a member of the family circle. Patch stood the trip in good shape but no sooner had the car drawn up and come to a stop in Chicago, than Patch jumped from the car and set off at a lope and disappeared down the street. Search for the collie was unsuccessful and Mr. Schultz and family felt certain that Patch must either be dead or in the hands of the dog wardens.

Three days later a lean, skeleton of an animal loped into the yard of the home formerly occupied by Mr. Schultz on Stearns bayou at Ottawa county. Her head sagged wearily her eyes sore and red blinked in the heat and dust. Her hair was gnarled and unkempt. Her tongue hung pitifully from her frothed mouth. She was dead tired, and she crawled upon the porch of the old home and laid down. The dog was Patch. The new occupants of the home fed her and she ate ravenously. She drank for many minutes successively and then lay down and slept.

Patch slept for two days almost without moving. Now however, Patch is recovering from her long jaunt. She had made the entire distance from Chicago alone and in three days. Following the roads she had gone, she trekked back through the heat and the dust of long summer days and there is reason to believe of the cooler, but no less long nights.

Patch is still at her old Ottawa county home and will be rewarded for her long lonesome trip by being allowed to remain where she so much wants to be.

'MAID IN AMERICA' SCARCE; DITTO IN DENMARK

A "maid in America," as just about every housewife knows, is rather a scarce article. Even if one onto it. If some likely young Beau Brummel doesn't happen along and spring the matrimony talk, one's next door neighbor is bound to offer a little more wages and one is minus a maid. So it goes.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Sherwood of Grand Haven had that very trouble and finally gave up the attempt in this country at least. So they wrote to the American consul in Copenhagen, Denmark, offering to pay transportation to America for any woman who desired to become a maid.

Now here's what the consul wrote back. Isn't it heartrending?

"In answer to your letter with newspaper clipping regarding Danish servant girls, I have to advise you that the article is quite right, that the importation of domestics under promise of employment is not unlawful. Regarding the statement in the article that there are a great number of idle servant girls, I do not find it to be in keeping with actual facts.

"In Denmark, as well as in other European countries, domestic work seems to be shunned by young women of no means, who prefer to work in factories and in stores, and it is now extremely difficult here for people in moderate circumstances to obtain help in the house. I can in this respect speak from personal experience, as I for the last two months have tried in vain to engage a domestic in my own house.

"It is true that some young women from the rural districts, who are capable to do domestic work, apply for a visa to proceed to the United States to join relatives and friends, and they are always encouraged, but these applications are not in mass by any means, and I believe it would require quite a thorough and systematic advertising campaign to gather 100 girls to proceed to the United States, even with prepaid transportation and remunerative employment in prospect."

CIRCUS COMING TO

GRAND RAPIDS, JULY 9

When the Sells-Floto circus comes to Grand Rapids Friday, July 9 for afternoon and evening performances great throngs of people from this section will be in attendance for we are all, more or less circus hungry.

The circus this season is the second largest in the world and has the pick of the circus performers on its roster. "The Birth of the Rainbow" opens the great performance, being followed by aerial acts that are thrilling; contortion acts, real features; ring acts that are marvelous; Indian, dog, pony, monkey riding, animal, clown and scores of other acts. Three rings and two stages are used this season. And a band of 50 musicians adds its bit to the program making it the greatest performance under canvas that will visit this section this season.

Better mark the date in your calendar, get the kiddies in your neighborhood together and all come and spend the day with Sells-Floto. Be in time for the parade in the morning.

FORMER HOLLAND

MAN HAS TERRIBLE

TIME PLACING SIGNS

Holland motorists have no doubt seen the several signs tacked up at intervals along the roadside, stating so far to Manistee. These signs were placed there recently by a former Holland man. An article in the state press tells of Beukema's experiences on this trip in behalf of the Manistee Board of Commerce. Here it is:

Past experiences have taught J. C. Beukema, former newspaper man, magazine writer, business executive and at present secretary of the Manistee Board of Commerce, that though troubles come in a heap there is always a silver lining. No better illustration of that is furnished than a recent sequel to a road marking trip. In order of sequence the following took place.

The industrious secretary had made great plans to mark all the highways leading from Chicago to Manistee with road signs in connection with the tourist and resort development movement for western Michigan. These signs containing the mileage and route to this region, were to be posted at all corners, byways and detours to prevent any tourist from losing his direction.

Cots Set Back

A setback came to his plans when the highway commission ruled that all such markers, including road advertising signs, were to be removed from highways and only those put up by the state permitted to stay. He solved this by a plan of erecting his signs on private property, there being no law to prevent this.

Jubilant to know that he could carry out his plans, he started out one day for Chicago with a truckload of signs. Five miles from the city the auto's speedometer went haywire. This was repaired at Scottville. Then when on the road between Pentwater and Scottville, the engine went dead. After much tinkering with the motor, it was discovered that the driver had neglected to fill his gasoline tank. A supply from Scottville was then received.

And then—The speedometer, essential to the correct marking of the signs, continued alternately to work and get out of order during the rest of the drive down. On the return trip between Glen and Holland the driver suddenly discovered the motor shooting a flame underneath. With a mighty effort he stopped the car but left the engine running, at the same time warning Beukema and taking a dive into a ditch. From a distance of 30 feet they watched the flames expecting at any moment to see the truck blown sky high. The blaze soon died down and both venturized to start up again. Two times flames broke out until Holland was reached, when the time was adjusted. Near Pentwater one of the wheels broke down and the hooded sign posters were in Manistee in another car. Close to 200 markers were put up on the trip.

The silver lining to this goat-getting experience shown a day or so later when a man came to the office of Secretary Beukema to tell him he had motored way from Seattle, Washington, to compliment him on the road marking system. The real truth of the thing, however, was G. P. Dutton, retired Seattle business man, on a trans-continental automobile tour with his family, had received in St. Louis, Mo., from a friend a copy of Manistee's resort booklet which contained directions to get to Chicago and from there to Manistee. Cheers Him Up

Mr. Dutton said: "My friend told me that when I reached Michigan I should follow the Manistee road signs. We found the signs when we reached the state line. They marked every crook and turn on the road even detours. We couldn't miss them day or night. I figured we gained a half day on the drive north on account of the signs."

I thought I'd come up here and tell you this because Manistee is the first city we've struck east of the mountain that has the real Seattle spirit. I am sure that tourists will be grateful to you this season.

All of which made Secretary Beukema forget his previous misfortunes.

Wednesday morning a lady from the country came to Holland with two of her little girls loaded on a truck. The lady was very much excited and asked to be directed to a physician's office as her children were poisoned by spraying fluid. The family orchard had just been sprayed and the two little lasses had drunk some of the spray, she said. The mother was nearly beside herself to get the little ones to a doctor. Dr. Kools was quickly summoned, but stated that the children had not taken enough of the fluid to do material damage. The mother went home happy, but the incident if published will make folks more careful not to have poisons lying around promiscuously.

An important real estate deal involving one of the finest bits of 8th street business property has just been closed. John Vaupell, owner of the drug store on the corner of Eighth street and Central Ave., has bought that property. The deal has been in progress for some time but it has now been definitely closed. The property for many years has been owned by the Breyman estate.

There has been a drug store in that building for many years, and it is considered one of the finest locations in the city for such a business. Mr. Vaupell does not contemplate any changes at present. He will continue conducting his drug business there.

"Why Did You Leave the Farm, My Lad?"

"Why did you leave the farm, my lad?
Why did you bolt and leave your dad?
Why did you beat it off to town
And turn your poor old father down?
Thinkers of platform, pulpit and press
Are wallowing in deep distress.
They seek to know the hidden cause
Why farmer boys desert their pa's.

"Well, stranger, since you've been so frank,
I'll roll aside the hazy bank;
I left my dad, his farm, his plow,
Because my calf became his cow,
I left my dad, 't was wrong of course,
Because my colt became his horse.
I left my dad to sow and reap
Because my lamb became his sheep.
I dropped the hoe and stuck the fork,
Because my pig became his pork.
The garden truck that I made grow
Was his to sell, but mine to hoe.

"It's not the smoke in the atmosphere,
Nor the taste for life that brought me here.
Please tell the platform, pulpit, press,
No fear of toil nor love of dress
Is driving off the farmer lads,
It's just the methods of their dads."

There's a way for you to test the wonderful Realism claimed for the Official Laboratory Model in this sweeping challenge. We give Mr. Edison's Realism Test. Come in and let us give it to you.

The price of the new Edison has advanced less than 15% since August 1, 1914. Mr. Edison has absorbed the bulk of the increased cost of material, skilled labor, and taxes.
