Grand Haven
To Enforce Its Ordinances

MATTER OF CURBING TRANSIENT "FLY BY NIGHT" MERCHANTS ARE TWO OF THEM

Grand Haven is delving into the ordinance book to find out which of the city laws are being followed and which are not.

Enforcement of the city night parking ordinance, transient "Fly by Night" merchant ordinance, payment of city bills by check, as has been the custom, and the assurance that the city employees will have the usual two weeks' vacation with pay, were among the matters taken up by the Grand Haven city council at the regular meeting.

The ordinance requiring transient merchants to pay a license fee will be strictly enforced. The matter was brought up by the city manager, Peter Kammeraad, who cited several shops and refreshment places that had started up within the past few weeks, which are believed to be only temporary summer enterprises. The ordinance requires $50 fee for three months, $25 for one month or more; $5 per day for less than one week.

Mr. Mismar, city attorney, explained that the ordinance was prepared by the Michigan Municipal League and is used by many of the cities in the state. He advised the council to enforce, repeal or modify the ordinance.

The parking ordinance at Grand Haven allowing cars to be parked only one hour from 1:00 a. m. to 6:00 a. m. on the downtown streets will be put into effect and signs will be placed warning the public. The city manager read reports from St. Joseph, Grand Rapids and Holland regarding their attitude. St. Joseph, strictly enforces the law. Holland is lenient to salesmen and tourists making use of their local hotels and Grand Rapids cited its ordinance.

There was no discussion of the daily parking ordinance effective in the summer months. There was no strict enforcement of the law last year in Grand Haven.

A large number of arrests have been made for violation of the night parking law with the larger number, out-of-town people, who never return to the traffic court. Sunday night there were seven arrests made.

The city employees, including those who are employed by the board of public works, will continue to enjoy two-week vacation periods with pay. A communication from the board of public works stating that this policy would be read by the city manager continued providing that no extra help was required during the vacation season.

Mr. Kammeraad stated that by doubling up and arranging the vacations according to schedule, he thought that the plan could be worked out nicely with little hardship to anyone.

The city clerk will continue to pay salaries and other expenses by check even at the cost of two cents per check according to the new tax rate. City Clerk J. N. Poel reported that there were about 100 salary checks issued every two weeks and 200 for various bills. He said the added tax would make considerable increase in municipal costs.

Mr. Kammeraad suggested that should the city pay in cash it would be necessary to carry pay roll insurance, which might offset any saving over the check method.

Mayor Ver Duin believes that the federal government should be supported and suggested the city continue the same method, for a time at least, until a definite check could be made of the actual increase in cost.

The city council declined to purchase a motorcycle for the police department but agreed to pay Officer Bernie Hirdes for the use of his cycle for a few hours each day. Alderman Boon believes patrol by an officer on a motorcycle does more to impress traffic laws on the public than any other method.

LEADERS IN CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

At least 100 members of the Christian Endeavor societies of Holland, 25 from Zeeland and large representations from Overisel, North Holland, Hamilton and other places in this vicinity, were present at the forty-fourth annual convention of the Michigan Christian Endeavor Union held at Central Reformed church, Grand Rapids.

The above picture represents some of the moving spirits in Christian Endeavor work in this state. Some of these faces are well known to Holland, especially that of our own George Schulling and Ernest Marks, who comes to Holland often. It was a very successful convention with considerably more than 1,000 delegates and many more friends assembled.

Puehl of Grand Rapids, president of the state union, who was re-elected; Miss Angeline Smith of Grand Rapids, convention pianist, and George Dibble of Bloomington, song leader; Ernest S. Marks, executive secretary of the state union; George Schulling of Holland, state finance superintendent; Rev. Warren E. Hall of Wyandotte, leader of the pastors' conference; Carroll M. Wright, Boston, travel and finance secretary and recreation superintendent of the International Christian Endeavor; Rev. Verne E. Coapman of Kinde, Mich., returned missionary from India, who was one of the principal speakers.

Diezel-Operated Craft Only One of Kind in Country. Is at Grand Haven

"The Wanderer," of Essex Mass., electrically steered, Diesel driven, the only ship of its kind in the United States, is lying at the government pier at Grand Haven today with her owner, Capt. R. W. Allen and Mrs. Allen, New York City millionaire hosiery manufacturer, and several guests aboard.

"The Wanderer" is a unique cruiser. It in no way resembles the usual beautiful craft that sails the lakes in the summer. There are but two in the crew and when the party left Milwaukee the source was set and during the entire trip across the lake no hand touched a wheel, or an engine or seemingly paid any attention to the course of the ship. She arrived within a quarter of a mile of Grand Haven harbor.

She is propelled by a submarine Diesel electric drive and is the first yacht in America built on the Maierform principle. She is 104 feet over all, 23 feet beam and 11 feet draft and resembles a power tugboat, which were the first vessels said to be driven at high speeds through rough seas. Her owner wanted her to be as hard usage than for looks, and on first appearance she seems to be some kind of glorified tug boat.

The Wanderer's power plant and interior equipment are equally as interesting as the hull form.

The shaft is supplied with 400 h. p. by the two Diesel motors connected to 200 kilowatt generators and 50 kilowatt auxiliary motors. She can get to a speed of about 16 land miles per hour and costs five cents a mile to run. There are three methods of steering, by hand with the ordinary wheel, by electrical device and a Sperry gyroscopic device in the engines and motors.

Much of the metal in the ship is monel metal, absolutely non-corrosive and tougher than steel. Water tanks hold 8,000 gallons of water, which can be kept two years without change. The craft has a sailing radius of 10,000 miles. The owner has had her off the eastern Atlantic coast, through the Georgian bay county and on the Great Lakes. He contemplates a cruise around the world.

The deck arrangement and interior layout are remarkably simple and serviceable. There are no portholes and the quarters below are entirely ventilated and illuminated artificially. Forward are the quarters for the crew where there is a spacious galley with electric refrigerator and electric stove. Back of the galley are the owner's quarters, which are attractively but simply decorated. In the after end of the deck house is located the battery room which contains a large battery installation containing 56 Ironclad Exide cells, which are used to generate light and power when in port.

The boat was launched at Essex, Mass., last fall. She is said to be worth about $300,000. With the heavily built hull and complete power plant she is equal to any test of weather, it is believed.

Aboard the ship with Mr. and Mrs. Allen are Dr. Stanley Strayer, Orlando, Fla.; Stanley Seaman, Vineyard Haven, Mass.; Capt. Ole Hansen, Milwaukee, an old friend of the family who used to sail for Mr. Allen's family.

When aboard this morning, he said: "I've sailed the lakes for 45 years, but I can't tell you one thing about this craft. She's like nothing I have ever seen, but she's a wonderful ship."

Frank Bottje, Ottawa county register of deeds, has been attending the state convention for registers of deeds at Flint. The convention ends Friday. Accompanying Mr. Bottje to Flint were Miss Jennie Bottje, Miss Etta Roosen, and Mrs. Emma Stolten.

JOHN KNAPP IS DENIED
PERMIT TO BUILD STORE

The board of appeals composed of Chairman George Pelgrim, R. W. Everett, Joe Geerds, Vaudie Vandenberg and George Schurman, held a special session Tuesday evening and unanimously decided to deny the request of John Knapp for permission to erect a commercial building in a residential zone on the northeast corner of Fifteenth street and River avenue.

The board members interviewed property owners on River avenue between Twelfth and Seventeenth streets and they agreed in general that they were not ready to have the section changed from its residential zone. The proposal was discussed two years ago. The board pointed out that if one corner were given commercial rating other changes in the district would be requested.

STRAWBERRIES WERE MANY,
BUT CHEAP

The strawberry season is close to its end or entirely so. It has been one of great abundance and low prices. The fruit sold in Holland for as low as seventy-five cents per case and by retail as low as five cents per quart, the latter to peddlers about the city. This sort of selling has increased in latter years. Every sort of vegetable and fruit is offered by growers at people's own doors. Often the quality is rather low, being almost unsalable in the market, but as frequently the quality is good.

CHANGING OF GARB
IN AUTOMOBILE AT BEACHES IS TABOO

Officials at the state park at Ottawa Beach have issued warnings to bathers that state regulations covering bathing suits will be strictly enforced and that changing clothes in cars parked at the oval will not be tolerated. Two arrests have been made this season for changing clothes in cars. Male bathers are cautioned to wear the straps of their suits over their shoulders or withdraw themselves from the beach.

CHURCH DEDICATING $10,000
STRUCTURE TODAY

The Christian Reformed congregation of Byron Center will dedicate its new $10,000 building with special programs the afternoon and evening of Thursday, June 30. The new church has a seating capacity of 575 and was built by the church members under supervision of a Grand Rapids contractor. Much economy was effected in this way.

The afternoon meeting, which will be of a social nature, will be addressed by Rev. J. Bruinogge of Moline, who is to extend the congratulations of neighboring churches, and the pastor, Rev. A. J. Rus, who has been at Byron Center for the past two years.

In the evening, Rev. C. Armstrong of the Byron Center Methodist church will speak for the community, and Rev. H. Bel, pastor of Lagrange Avenue church, Grand Rapids, also will be heard. Music at both afternoon and evening events are to be furnished by the church orchestra, the Byron male quartet and a vocal octet.

The Byron Center church was organized about 29 years ago and now numbers 140 families with a total membership of 725.

SHERIFF'S CHIEF DEPUTY IS OUT

Cornelius Staketee of Holland, sheriff of Ottawa county, announced the dismissal of Under-sheriff Marvin Den Herder, formerly of Holland, who has held that office the last 12 years. The dismissal was effective immediately.

Jack Spangler, court officer and prominent in official circles here, was named Den Herder's successor.

In announcing the dismissal, Sheriff Staketee said that differences had arisen over handling of fees in the office.

Den Herder, in commenting on his dismissal, said financial matters had nothing to do with his release, that his books balanced when he left office and that he had been expecting his discharge for some time for "political reasons."

Both men are candidates for the office of sheriff at the fall primaries. Sheriff Staketee is seeking another term as the county's chief official.

Peter Wieringer of Grand Haven has been appointed turnkey at the Ottawa county jail and the sheriff and Jack Spangler, chief deputy, will assume the duties of the undersheriff following the dismissal of former Undersheriff Marvin Den Herder, who has been associated with the sheriff's office for the past twelve years.

Sheriff Staketee declined to make any further statement regarding the affair, but asserts it was not done for political purposes.

MISSIONARY RETURN IS DELAYED

The return on regular furlough to this country of Rev. and Mrs. Gerrit J. Pennings is being delayed owing to the latter's continued illness in Bahrain, Arabia. Mr. Pennings has been a Reformed missionary in Arabia since 1908 and Mrs. Pennings since 1912. He is a graduate of Hope college and Western seminary, in 1908.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry P. Boot and Rev. and Mrs. Gerrit D. VanPeursem are planning to return to their mission fields next fall, the former to China and the latter to Arabia. The Boots have been stationed in the Amoy Mission nearly 30 years and the VanPeursem in Arabia since 1910. They are spending their furloughs in Holland.

The Firemen's club of Coopersville has decided to sponsor a band to be composed of members of the fire department and others who wish to join. Herman Johnson of Grand Rapids has been engaged to give instruction.

NETHERLANDS PICKS WOMEN
OLYMPIC SWIMMERS

The Dutch Olympic committee has selected the following women swimmers to represent Holland at the forthcoming Olympic games at Los Angeles: Miss Willy Den Ouden, European champion 100 meters, free style; Mrs. Phillips-Braun and Miss C. Ladde. The committee will decide later whether they will make any further additions to the team.

SYLVESTER PAULUS
AGAIN MANAGES WAUKAZOO INN

Waukazoo has always been associated closely with Indian lore. Chief Waukazoo once reigned over his brave and the topees of the "red men" were once clustered on the banks of beautiful Pine creek bay. Although the Indians have long since gone to their happy hunting grounds, Waukazoo's natural beauty still remains and the center of attraction is Waukazoo Inn, nestled in the dense forests.

Sylvester Paulus is again manager of the inn and has pronounced the place open for business today. Mr. Paulus has made an outstanding success of this popular summer hotel and has outlined a program of social times to be featured there. Dances will be held every Wednesday and Saturday evenings and Les Lloyd's orchestra from Grand Rapids has been hired for the season.

Allegan Gazette—Late last week Mr. Martin Wise, who lives near Bradley, sent the editor of the Gazette a particularly fine and rare bouquet. It was a bunch of thirteen pink lady slippers.

Den Herder, in commenting on his dismissal, said financial matters had nothing to do with his release, that his books balanced when he left office and that he had been expecting his discharge for some time for "political reasons."

Both men are candidates for the office of sheriff at the fall primaries. Sheriff Staketee is seeking another term as the county's chief official.

Mrs. Emma Arends, living on East 10th street, across from the Foebel school, native of The Netherlands, now has the distinction of being Holland's oldest resident. She has passed the age of 97. Coming to America with her parents at the age of 18, she is located in Albany, N. Y., and resided in Michigan. She resided in Grand Haven, Holland and vicinity. She remembers when the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church was built when the Rev. Van Rasse church, built by the founder of Holland.

Ray L. Massie and Walter Gothery, both of Grand Rapids, were assessed $3.25 costs in Justice John Galien's court for violating provisions of the state law at the oval at Ottawa Beach. Unable to pay the amount, Massie, charged with indecent exposure, was ordered to report weekly to the park superintendent. Gothery was charged with changing clothes in an automobile.

HOLLAND SCOUTS TO START CAMP THIS WEEK SATURDAY, JULY 3

Beautiful Island for Local Scouts Available Through Next Month

Many Holland, Zeeland and other scouts are today on their way to Newaygo county to go into camp on a beautiful island near the Or Bow. The lads are leaving civilization behind to spend a week or more in the wilderness around Pettit lake in Newaygo county. Through the influence of William Lewis of Muskegon the use of this property, owned by the Consumers Power Co., has been secured. The new site will be known as Camp Wilderness and is all that the name implies, according to Peter H. Norg of Holland, area scout executive. Deer, fox and other wild game roam the 120 acres on the side of the lake. With the exception of an occasional angler, the scouts will be the only persons at the lake during the summer.

In front of the camp, 75 yards from shore, is an island about three blocks in length and ranging from 100 to 50 yards in width, which will be used by the scouts. Ideal swimming and boating facilities are said to be provided by the lake. A sandy beach and shallow water as far out as 50 yards from shore were cited as advantages.

Canoing will be one of the main features this year. Three or four canoes will be added to the present fleet of the area. With the Muskegon river a short distance from the lake, canoe trips of many miles will be taken.

Two canoe trips are being planned following the period in camp, July 3 to 30. The trips on the Muskegon river, about 200 miles in length, will be made by land scouts from August 1 to 7 and by sea scouts from August 15 to 21. Canoes will be taken to Big Rapids in trucks for the journey with the current down the river.

The trips will be for first class scouts who are at least 14 years of age and who have spent at least two seasons in the council camp. Four boys already have signed for the trip.

The July camp will be divided into periods of one week each. Activities will include swimming, fishing, canoeing, life saving drills, cruising, pageants, games, contests, campcraft, test cooking, nature study, archery, track meets, baseball, basketball, treasure hunts and campfire sessions.

Each day's program will be started with a "red call" at 6:00 o'clock in the morning. Reville and morning dip or exercise will be at 6:45 o'clock. Flag raising ceremonies will precede breakfast. Following in the morning will be inspection, policing camp, swimming. Scoutcraft instructions, swimming periods for beginners and regular swimmers and dinner.

Quiet hour will be observed from 1:30 until 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Hikes, boating and games will follow until 4 o'clock when the scouts will go swimming. Evening program, supper, evening program, call to quarters and taps at 9:30 o'clock will conclude each day.

Mr. Norg will be camp manager. Chester La Shagway and William Vande Water, scout leaders, Zeeland, will be on the camp staff. Other leaders are to be selected.

Examinations of scouts by family physicians are being urged. A physician will visit the camp once or twice each week as a safety measure.

Visitors will be welcome, but should arrange visits on Wednesday evening and on Sunday, Mr. Norg said. They are urged to take lunch, and make use of the shaded grove on the camp property.

Special arrangements have been made for three-day camp periods, one starting on Monday morning and ending Wednesday afternoon and the other starting Friday morning and ending Sunday afternoon. Cost for this session will be $2.25. For seven days period the fee will be $5.00.

Yachtsmen's Hi-Jinks will be held on Lake Kalamazoo Monday, July 11, at 2:00 p. m.

The Venetian Night pageant will take place Tuesday, July 12, at 8:30 o'clock.

Further announcements and the program in detail will appear in the next issue.

The members of the Loyal class of Fourth Reformed church held a hamburger fry at Ottawa Beach Tuesday evening. Games and swimming were enjoyed. Twenty-four were present. G. G. Groenewoud is teacher of the class.

REFORMED SYNOD COMMITTEE PROPOSES EASING RULE ON DIVORCES

Recommendations that persons divorced on nonbiblical grounds and remarried may enjoy full rights of membership in the Christian Reformed church if they comply with certain requirements of repentance and confession, are contained in the report which a special committee on divorce appointed by the synod were brought up before general synod.

The matter has been before the church for 18 years. The official stand of the church is that a divorce may only be obtained and remarriage permitted on the biblical ground, fornication or adultery, and that any other ground is condemned by Christ and therefore, cannot be recognized as legitimate in the sphere of the Christian church.

Since 1914, the church has wrestled with this problem and eight years ago, advice was asked from the Reformed churches of The Netherlands and South Africa. Their replies are incorporated in a detailed report of the committee appointed by previous synods to thoroughly study the issue.

The following is a complete text of the committee's recommendations to the 1932 synod, which concludes their report: "First—The problems and situations discussed in this report are not very pleasant to contemplate. They make us see in frightful form the havoc and ravages of sin. Illegitimate divorce and remarriage after such a divorce create conditions that are deplorable. They call into being wrong relations that can never be completely righted.

"However, these sad facts should not betray us as a church into assuming an attitude that cannot be harmonized with the gospel of full and free salvation for all penitent sinners. It may seem to some a very easy solution of our problem to say to all parties illegitimately divorced and remarried: 'We do not mean to deny the possibility of your salvation, but you may not enter through our ecclesiastical gates.' But it will be more in harmony, we believe, with the spirit of the Gospel to say to them, 'For you also there is a place in our midst, if you sincerely repent and confess your sins.'

"Secondly, it is possible that this report will, as did the previous report, meet with the objection that we are opening the door to the evil of divorce. In the sense in which this may be meant by some, it is surely not true. The rule of the church, that is, no divorce except on the ground of adultery, is not weakened in any way. That rule remains absolutely intact. By the acceptance of our advice, our church would not depart from its fundamental position in the slightest degree.

Mercy for Sinners
"On the other hand, in an infinitely more beautiful and nobler sense we would be opening the door. We would be opening the door to penitent sinners. We would take the position that there is mercy and forgiveness for this class of penitent sinners, just as there is for the converted drunkard and murderer. Any other position, any exclusion of one class of penitent sinners, while others are admitted, would mean that we would lose something of the riches of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

"Thirdly, your committee wishes to impress upon the synod the urgent need of definite action on this problem at the synod of 1932. As a church we have hesitated long, perhaps too long, before taking a positive stand in this matter. It is now eighteen years ago that this question began to be agitated in our midst. It is eight years ago that the churches of The Netherlands served us with their advice. The advice of the South African committee on this question has also been in our possession for some time.

"Moreover, several of our local churches are waiting and have been waiting long for a synodical stand on this question. The time has come to act. The church of Christ must function also in these matters. If the synod hesitates any longer, the consistories will be forced to make their own decision. And then all unity in discipline on this important question will become an utter impossibility. Suggested Stand

"In agreement with the spirit and content of the foregoing report, we advise synod to adopt the following as the official stand of our church on the question submitted to this committee:

"Persons divorced on non-biblical grounds and remarried can enjoy the full rights and privileges of membership in the church of Christ, if they sincerely repent of and confess their sins. The sin of unbiblical divorce must be confessed by the guilty party or parties. The first party that remarries must confess his or her adulterous act of contracting a second marriage."

The advisory committee appointed ten days ago by synod to study the above report and which will present the definite proposal to synod, is composed of Rev. Henry Baker, Grand Rapids, chairman; Rev. Martin Monsma, Detroit, secretary; Rev. J. DeJong, Ripon, Cal.; Rev. William Belsma, Sheldon, Ia.; Prof. Clarence Bosma, advisor, and Elders E. O. Holkeboer, F. Visser and P. Bandstra.

The Christian Reformed synod has closed its biennial convention at Grand Rapids after reapproving its traditional stand on the question of divorce and selecting Grand Rapids for synod's next meeting in 1934.

Action was taken at the final session to relieve the present oversupply of ministers. A special committee, Dr. Henry Beets, Prof. D. H. Krommings, Prof. L. Berkhof and Rev. I. Van Dellen, was authorized to act as intermediary between prospective fields and candidates for the ministry. Two possible changes were recommended to synod in regards to its stand on divorces, but on advice of its advisory committee, synod took no action on the proposals, and will not until two years from now when sessions will again be held at Calvin college.

Messages from the Mayor.

Mayor Bosch at the beginning of the Council meeting brought up the matter of the Barbecue Stand on the S. W. corner of River Ave. and 10th St. Alho closed and not doing business since June 5th, the stand was still there and just as stand by of an eye sore and recommended that the Council take the proper action to get rid of this structure immediately. This brought up some discussion relative to the City's rights in removing the building, and the City Attorney stated that it would require Circuit Court action to authorize its removal. City Atty. Lokker further stated that he understood there being a prospect of the structure being sold and moved out of the City in the near future.

Referred to Mayor and City Attorney to take the necessary steps to have this building removed at once or as soon as possible.

The Mayor further reported that he had received complaints relative to the offensive odor caused by the buttermilk unit at the Holland Crystal Creamery, and recommended that something be done to have this nuisance abated.

Since this same complaint had been received by the Council last summer, it brought forth considerable comment by different Aldermen. From information presented, it appeared that a large part of this odor could be overcome by the installation of proper machinery and raising of the stack.

After quite some discussion, it was Moved by Ald. Prins, 2nd by Kleis, That no action be taken by the Council at this time providing work is started at once in installing the necessary equipment to eliminate the nuisance caused by the odor from this particular unit in their plant.

Unfinished Business. Ald. Jonkman brought up the matter relative to the request of John Knapp presented to the Council four weeks ago for permission to erect a commercial building on the N. E. corner of River Ave. and 15th St. Mr. Knapp stated the request was referred to the Appeal Bd. but no report from this Board had been presented to the Council and Mr. Knapp felt that Mr. Knapp and the Council should be given their decision. Mr. Jonkman further stated that in his opinion that location was not desirable for residential purposes, and since Mr. Knapp would spend between ten and fifteen thousand dollars in erecting the building, he felt that the Council should be given their decision. Mr. John Funckes, owner of the Oil Station on the corner of Pine Ave. and 17th St., appeared before the Council and requested permission to erect an addition to his building for the purpose of installing rest rooms. An addition would be built to adjoin the present building on the north and bring the wall practically on the property line. Mr. Henry Borra, whose residence adjoins the property of Mr. Funckes, has objected since it would bring the building within a few feet of his home. The petition of Mr. Funckes was previously referred to the Appeal Board who ruled that the 5 ft. set back in the rear should be adhered to even this was a commercial district.

HOLLAND GROUP TAKES OVER AIRPORT LEASE; TO FORM FLIERS' CLUB

Announcement that a group of local business men had taken over the lease on the old Szekely flying field, north of Holland, with the object of organizing a fliers' club, was made today by Peter N. Prins, who will be in charge of the port. The airport was licensed yesterday by the state board of aeronautics.

Activities, said Mr. Prins, will be started over the week-end. Responsible pilots have been signed to use the field as the basis of operations. The Furniture Capital Air Service of Grand Rapids will send at least two planes here Saturday and Sunday.

On July 4 regular service will be inaugurated with an exhibition of flying and acrobatics, including a parachute jump, as the afternoon's program. Ernest Burns, local pilot, will establish regular service at the field.

FARM PROBLEMS C. F. MILHAM County Agricultural Agent

Grainary weevils, a small insect which destroys threshed grain, are reported on many farms north of the Grand Haven in Ottawa county. In order to explain control and eradication methods Agricultural Agent Milham will hold a meeting at the Coopersville Elevator Co. at 7:30 p. m. July 6. Unless farmers who have weevils in their granary now thoroughly clean up on the insects much of the new grain will be unmarketable. Wheat infested with weevils is not saleable except for poultry feed and at much reduced value. So from an economic standpoint it will pay to spend some time and money in eradicating the pest.

Fruitgrowers who fail to follow spraying recommendations are already sorry, says Agricultural Agent Milham. Apple scab is defoliating some trees and causing scabby apples to form that will develop lopsided and poor quality. Apple red bug, aphids and leaf roller are also doing damage this year. Good fruit will probably be scarce this fall and poor fruit will be plentiful.

Carol Van Ark of New York has been in the city for a few days, the guest of his father, Henry Van Ark, Central avenue.
