POLITICAL POT BOILS EARLY IN OTTAWA COUNTY

ALREADY THREE CANDIDATES FOR SHERIFF ARE MENTIONED

Two of the Candidates Prove To Be Overseas Soldiers

More than a year must pass before there is another primary at which county officers are to be elected.

Although the general public is not stirred up on the subject, the sheriff's pot is already simmering. Present Sheriff Dornbos can no longer hold the office for the reason that by law a sheriff can only hold down this position for two terms, and the Holland man is now finishing his second term.

In the line up thus far the names of two soldiers appear. One is that of Capt. Olsen, who has served faithfully and nobly in France and the other is that of Lawrence DeWitt, former Holland fireman, and the present undersheriff of Ottawa county. Mr. De Witt too has served bravely overseas, having been in most of the principle battles and having gone through all the hardships of war that a fighting man must face.

The third candidate mentioned is Del Fortney, who was a candidate three years ago, and was the closest contestant that Sheriff Dornbos had at that time. Mr. Fortney for a time served as chief of police of Grand Haven, but recently he resigned that position. He also was a deputy sheriff for a number of years.

Ottawa county can look forward to another good sheriff if any of these three men are elected. Any of those mentioned make excellent sheriff timber, two of them at least having had a great deal of experience in criminal work connected with that office in Ottawa county, but who knows, the game is young and the candidates may be as thick as flies before next spring rolls around, and the political caldron boils in earnest.

PARKING OF AUTOS ON THE FOURTH OF JULY

The police have decided where you can and where you cannot park your automobile on the Fourth of July. You cannot park on either River Avenue or Eighth street.

Autos can be parked on the north side of 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th and 11th streets and all streets south. Also on the mill yards of the Van Eyck-Weurding Milling Co., and the Beach Milling Co. on East 8th street.

All autos will be under the supervision of the police and Chief Van Ry will see to it that these machines are well and properly guarded.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICERS COOPERATING ON SPEED LAW

BONTEKOE AND DEPUTY LAWRENCE DE WITT TURN IN A FLOCK OF THEM

The city and county officers are putting the quietus on speeding and there is some wholesale arresting going on in both city and county within the last week.

H. B. Zegorhook of Grand Rapids paid the usual five to Judge Robinson for going over the speed limit in the city of Holland.

Speed Cop Bontekoe collared the junk man, Louis Padnos for going 75 miles on Van Raalte Avenue. Lew was paid the five dollars for all the speed.

Russell Huxtable of Zeeland was taken on the Grand Haven road by Deputy Sheriff Lawrence De Witt going at the rate of 35 Sunday.

Nick Dykstra was making fireman's time on the Zeeland road when the deputy grabbed him off.

These cases were all taken before Justice Robinson and he extracted five simoleons from each.

The summer tax collecting campaign in Holland will begin next Monday morning and it will continue until the 15th of August. City Treasurer Appledorn will be on hand to gather in the city money, and the property wners are invited to come early and get it off their minds.

The Strand Theater will be open from 9:30 a. m. Friday with a big Douglas Fairbanks picture.

Battle Royal.....$3.00
Greased Pig.....The Pig
Greased Pole.....$5.00

Those desirous of entering the field events should be at the Corner of River and Tenth Streets at 1:15 P. M.

The Pie Eating Contest and Battle Royal will start at 1:30 P. M. at the Corner of River and 8th Sts.

WAR EXHIBIT LEAVES JENISON PARK TODAY

MANY INTERESTING SIDE LIGHTS ON AUTO ENGINEERS' CONVENTION

May Make Ottawa Beach Their Annual Picnic Grounds

The biggest war exhibit ever displayed in Michigan, and that was at Jenison Park for the past ten days, sent by the Ordnance Department of the United States government for the Automotive Engineers conclave, left this morning and will be shipped to Grand Rapids, after stopping over for a day at Zeeland.

Many citizens are wondering why the government went to so much expense to bring the exhibit here. They are beginning to realize what the automotive engineers have done to help this government win the war, and the officials felt that these men were entitled to anything for the asking and for that reason the large exhibit was forthcoming.

Some interesting side lights on this large convention, not on the program was the fact that the large tank, while doing its work through Pete McCarthy's old basement, and through the ruins of the Rev. Hugh's old home, nearly came to grief. The big iron monster came within an ace of coming in contact with one of the big feed wires of the interurban. The captain stated that had this feed wire touched the tank, all inside would have been electrocuted immediately.

Automotive Engineers are supposed to know everything about cars. It is estimated that nearly half of them came by machine. At one time more than 200 hundred cars were counted in and around Ottawa Beach. It was strikingly noticeable that of all the different makes there was not one among them that could be called a big car. The cars were all classy and many high priced machines were among them, but the size of the auto was small.

The Automotive Engineers left a great deal of money in Holland, at least this was the report of several of the business men.

One line in particular was especially well patronized, and that was the gasoline tank. One garage reports that between 9 in the morning and 8 in the evening they had sold 800 gallons and as it was too late to get any more from the wholesalers, customers had to go elsewhere for gas. Every garage in the city reports a land office business in gasoline sales, and in many instances automobile accessories.

Hotels and boarding houses about the city were booked up. After the hotels and inns at the resorts including one hundred extra cottages had been filled, guests began to come into Holland. Every public place where an engineer could lay his head was soon occupied, and as a last resort one of the transfer companies had to take several loads to the Zeeland hotel where accommodations were secured.

Madeline Van Putten was a busy girl during the convention. Besides the regular force of the Western Union office an S. O. S. call had to be sent in to Grand Rapids for two additional telegraphers. Besides the phone service to Ottawa Beach, Miss Van Putten had a messenger go hourly from the Holland office to Hotel Ottawa with all necessary messages, while Miss Elda Van Putten was in charge of all messages in the lobby of the hotel. The Western Union office was open from 7 a. m. until 11 p. m. and service given by our local girl was voted to be par excellence by the engineers.

The Postal Telegraph office in charge of Miss Emily Langenberg was also flooded with business which was well handled.

Mr. Morgan of the Holland Interurban has again asked this paper to cooperate with him in getting the Automotive engineers to this city next year, in fact so well pleased were the officers of this organization, that they told a representative of this paper that they were trying to bring about the selecting of Ottawa Beach and the Holland resorts as a permanent meeting place. They said that these resorts afforded them 48 different sorts of pleasures which they had enumerated and this was better than any other locality could give them.

The place is centrally located they said, and the transportation facilities together with the added good roads made this the most ideal spot for a convention of this kind. Letters are already going forward, to the officials of the organization setting forth the advantages of Holland's watering places, and it is most likely that this vicinity has not seen the last of the Automotive Engineers of America.

A large banner has been placed on Central Avenue across the street at the Literary club rooms announcing that this is the place for soldiers and sailors to register on the Fourth of July.

Miss Anna Luidens of Holland is employed as clerk and stenographer at the Fruit Growers Bank at Saugatuck.

Unity F. & A. M. will work a third degree tonight and have a big meeting afterwards. All members are asked to be present.

A NEW FEATURE ON THE FOURTH OF JULY

SEVERAL SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS HAVE BEEN SECURED

Comedy Trick House, and Tramp Juggler

Concession man, Ed Brouwer, has assured the 4th of July committee of three excellent attractions that are wonders of its kind.

A large stage will be built somewhere on Eighth street or River Ave. high up from the crowd, and especially funny attractions will be shown at different times during the day.

One of the funniest acts before the public today is the Andrae Bros' comedy trick house. It cures the blues, it makes you laugh, it makes you roar, and it makes you scream. Athletic contortionists do all kinds of stunts in a small house built for the purpose, flying through windows, making the doors go upside down, sailing up the chimney, rolling down the roof, and like a cat the acrobats always land feet first.

A second attraction is by Kennedy & Williams, aerial comedy artists, who do stunts on trapezes, rings and bars. Their daring feats in the air have astounded the vaudeville going public all over the United States, and their dangerous, but clever work will be seen free in Holland.

Kennedy & Williams, Aerial Comedy Artists

The headliner possibly of these free attractions is Jimmie Logue, who has just finished a forty week contract on the vaudeville stage. Jimmie poses as a hobo juggler, with performers makes hats, lamps, plates, umbrellas, Indian clubs, billiard balls, and numerous other things sail thru the air and with unusual dexterity he keeps them all sailing at one time, so that not one of the objects touches the ground.

Jimmy in "Where Did You Get That Hat?"

These free attractions will be given from time to time during the day and evening, giving the public ample time to witness them at Holland on the Fourth of July.

This service will be in addition to the regular boats.

MAJ. DIEKEMA COPS WORLD'S RECORD IN STUNTS AS AVIATOR

How Maj. Diekema, eldest son of Congressman Diekema, broke a world's record, and how his father was disappointed in meeting him when he landed in New York on returning from France, are secrets no more.

Mr. Diekema and Mr. De Pree of Holland, and Miss Theressa Shier, of Michigan's New York bureau for military relief, together with other officials of the welcoming party, arose early to board the New York mayor's boat, which was to take them to meet the Patria. Miss Shier writes of the major:

"He was a very daring aviator and was awarded the D. S. C. Just recently he flew 25 miles to a horse show, where he took some pictures, flew back and developed them and flew again to the horse show, with the developed films in 54 minutes. This is a world's record."

The day when the Patria landed is described as a beautiful one. Congressman Diekema became reminiscient and told of the time he watched the welcoming of Admiral Dewey, and how the harbor was so full it did not seem possible the warships could get thru. A path was made when the fire hose began to play and small boats scattered right and left, making way for the line of battle ships. The greeting to the Patria, however, Diekema described as the most thrilling sight of his life.

Though the former congressman boarded the Patria, he was unable to see his heroic son. Some officers declared he was aboard and below. One started to bring him to the deck to meet his father, but did not succeed so, ex-Congressman Diekema had to wait.—G. R. Herald.

TEMPORARY EATING PLACES ARE ALSO WANTED

There is a well defined fear in the minds of those in charge of the entertainment features of the Home Coming celebration in Holland that the restaurants of the city will not be able to take care of the crowds that will come to Holland on that day. And so Mayor Bosch and Dr. Leenhouts at a meeting of the committee, evolved a plan for increasing the number or eating places in the city for that day.

It was decided to urge all the church societies who wish to make some money for their church on July fourth to erect eating stands where the hungry crowds can be fed. Many concession stands will be erected by private individuals and these people will have to pay a license for their space. But as an inducement to the church organizations, space will be given free of charge to them, provided they will put up places where meals can be served.

It stands to reason, the committee thinks, that on July 4th thousands of people will come to Holland from the surrounding territory. And in order to make the day pleasant for all these people it will be necessary to feed them. It is believed that it cannot be done in the restaurants even if all seats are occupied all hours of the day. For that reason this other method has been evolved to help meet the emergency.

The soldiers and sailors of course will be adequately taken care of and they will not be charged for their food. But it is for the general public that these temporary eating places are wanted. There is not much time left in which to make arrangements and those who wish to go into this are requested to get busy immediately and get into touch with members of the committee to have space assigned to them.

HOLLAND WELL REPRESENTED AT CONVENTION

Health Officer B. B. Godfrey, City Clerk Richard Overweg and City Attorney C. H. McBride were the delegates of the city of Holland at the twenty-first annual convention of the League of Michigan Municipalities in Lansing in the Chamber of Commerce building of that city on June 25, 26, and 27. The convention came to an end Friday night and the city's delegates returned to their homes Saturday.

That Holland was so liberally represented at the convention was matter for congratulation on the part of members from here who were present when at a luncheon given the delegates the statement was made in an informal after-dinner talk by one of the delegates from Detroit that the League of Michigan Municipalities can become an instrument that will save home rule for the cities of Michigan. He declared that the greater part of the state was not awake to the fact that home rule was being threatened, as various forms of public utility legislation of the past two or three legislatures showed. The League of Michigan Municipalities must be vitalized, he declared, so that it can exert its influence on the legislature in the same way as private interests exert it now.

The League must not be merely a debating society, he declared, but it must become a vital factor. To that end all cities in the state must keep up a live interest in it and must be willing to spend some money to keep men at Lansing to watch legislation that affects the interests of home rule. The corporations are spending money to look out for their own interests, the speaker declared, and it is up to the cities to do the same thing if they want to preserve their privileges.

Ottawa and Allegan counties were well represented on the programs. Harry M. Lutts mayor of Allegan, was one of the speakers. So was Wm. H. Connelly of Spring Lake. Carl T. Bowen of this city was also one of the speakers, and a former Ottawa county man, Dr. Wm. De Kleine gave a discussion on health.

OTTAWA MAN IS OFFICER IN STATE VETERINARIANES

The Western Michigan Veterinary Medical association held its annual meeting and picnic at Manhattan, Reed's lake, Wednesday afternoon. There were 5 members present. Several clinics were held and the following officers were named.

President, Dr. George Hare, Allegan; secretary and treasurer, Dr. Ollie H. Van Brussell, Wayland; vice president, Dr. E. M. Elzinga, Grand Rapids; vice president from Ottawa county, Dr. Sam Tacoma, Jamestown; vice president from Muskegon, Dr. S. Clair Clark, Whitehall.

The annual meeting was a big success and the families of the members participated in the picnic dinner served at Manhattan.

GRADUATES HELD THE BOARDS THURSDAY NIGHT

Thursday evening was commencement night for a hundred and eleven boys and girls in Holland. Sixty-six of these were graduates from the Holland High school and forty-five were graduates from the School for Christian Instruction. The High school commencement was held in the high school auditorium and the commencement of the eight graders of the School for Christian Instruction was held in the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church. Both auditoriums were crowded, and a large proportion of the people of Holland were at the two gatherings.

The feature of the high school commencement program was an able address on "The High Cost of Bluffing," by Rev. Joseph Green of Mount Pleasant. Rev. Green appeared in Holland once before when he delivered an eloquent address before the Victory Club and he pleased the audience so much at that time that the school authorities decided to secure him for the high school commencement. He gave an eloquent address Thursday night.

Other numbers on the program were: Processional, Alice McVea and Willard Bloemendal; Invocation, Rev. C. P. Dame; "Song of Night" (Nevin), Girls' Double Male Quartet; Salutatory, Wm. De Jongh; Violin solo, Miss Ruth Keppel; Valedictory, Johanna Timmer; "Kentucky Babe," (Geibel Boys') Quartet; presentation of diplomas, Supt. E. E. Fell; presentation of Class Memorial Elmer Collins; Acceptance of Class Memorial, Prin. C. E. Drew; Schubert's "Serenade" (Vaezie), Mixed Quartet.

At the exercises of the School for Christian Instruction the principal address was delivered by Rev. Herman Hoeksema, pastor of the 14th St. Christian Reformed church and president of the board of education of that institution. A number of recitations were given by the pupils and the Central Avenue orchestra furnished the music.

NEW PRIZES ARE ESTABLISHED AT HIGH SCHOOL

It was announced at the commencement exercises of the graduation class of the High school held Thursday evening in the High school auditorium, that Mrs. George E. Kollen had established two new prizes for which the students in oratory at the high school can compete the coming year. Both of these prizes have for their purpose to encourage practice in extemporaneous public speaking on the part of the boys and girls. They have been established in memory of the late George E. Kollen and will be known as "The George E. Kollen Prizes in Public Speaking."

The first prize is a ten dollar gold piece to the boy or girl who shall have made the best record in extemporaneous speaking, and the second prize is a five dollar gold piece to the student winning second honors in this line.

Some years ago Mrs. Kollen established prizes for the best dresses made by girl members of the senior class. These dresses are made in the Domestic Arts department of the school. The first prize of ten dollars was awarded Thursday evening to Miss Jeanet Hoffman and the prize of $5 to Miss Beatrice Lackie.

The Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter D. A. R. some years ago established prizes for the best work done in American history during the school year. These two prizes this year were won by the two students who won highest all around scholarship records, causing them to be chosen as the valedictorian and salutatorian. The first prize consisted of a War Savings stamp and was awarded to Miss Johanna Timmer, while second prize of eight thrift stamps went to William DeJongh.

FORMER PROMINENT HOLLAND WOMAN DIES

A dispatch has been received in Holland telling of the death of Mrs. John H. Gillespie, wife of a former member of the Hope College faculty.

The Gillespies were living in New Brunswick, N. J. where death occurred.

It will be remembered that Mr. Gillespie was at one time a member of the faculty of Hope college. He occupied the chair in Greek from 1888 to 1898, and was succeeded by Prof. E. D. Dimment, now president of the institution.

Later he went to New Brunswick Seminary where he is still on the teaching staff.

The Gillespies formerly lived in the home, 123 E. 10th street, now owned by Mrs. L. E. Van Drezer.

Mrs. Gillespie is survived by a husband and one daughter.

ANOTHER MILESTONE HAS PUT IN ITS APPEARANCE

The fourth annual Hope Milestone, the year book now regularly put out by the Junior class of the College, is out and is being distributed to the public and student. The book this year is bound in beautiful black leather-craft and is somewhat larger than other years. The venture by the Juniors involves a risk of some two thousand dollars.

The annual this year is dedicated to the founders and donors of the institution, such as Drs. Phelps, Wintants, Graves and Scott. It has a supplementary dedication to St. George Roosenraad and Pvt. William A. Janams, the only two Hope men who lost their lives in the great war. Both were members of the Junior class.

The book is replete with picture and story telling of the activities and life on the campus during the past school year. Seniors are allotted an individual place with a snapshot for good measure and a chronological order of the things they did and were in college life. Juniors are grouped in a big 1920, while other classes are in group pictures.

All organizations, athletic records, oratory and debating records are presented in full.

The Western Theological Seminary comes in for its share of the announcements and the book closes with a series of Jim Jams.

The Annual is on sale at Fris. and Brinks.

The game was so hotly contested that eleven instead of nine innings had to be played with the score standing 5 to 5, and only the dinner bell bringing the contest to a close with honors even.

Those participating in the game are as follows: Factory No. 1—C. J. Meyers; P. H. Roelofs; FB., Jacob Veldheer; 2nd Base, Geert Alderink; ss, Henry Tuls; 3rd, Bill Zeilan; Lf, C. Vanden Wege; Cf, Jacob Bultman; Rf, John Gun.

A home run by George Hoek, the ball is going yet, and the work of Isaac Stearns on the second sack for Factory No. 3.

Speeches were made by Rev. J. P. Battema, who had for his subject,

"Employer and Employee," and spoke on the fact that co-operation should come from the employee as well as from the employer and vice versa. He laid stress on the fact that it was events of this kind that brought the employer and employee closer together towards mutual helpfulness. Mr. Hummer gave a very patriotic talk on Democracy in the broadest sense of the word. Both discourses were well received by eager listeners.

Notes of the Picnic

Percy Ray can in the future be called the human pin cushion. In the clothes pin race, the cloth was lacking, so they selected Percy, who tried to make his get away, but they soon had him pinned for fair and no protest on his part availed in the least.

A rag doll was the prize of the Mutt and Jeff race. Bill Bender and Art Walcott breaking even in this picnic and the judges had to use the Tuls, who had the big gathering Old King Solomon method of justice by taking a large sword and cutting the doll.

In the rooster race the ladies all applied. One portly dame was so anxious to get the big combed fellow that she fell on it first shot, covering it and barring all other contestants. A second papa hen race was demanded and curious to note, the suffragettes participated in large numbers.

Then came the eats and here's the menu:

Radishes	Salad
Pickles	Olives
Roast Beef	Roast Pork
	Cold Ham
Bananas	Oranges
Small Fruit	Nuts
Assorted Pies	Cakes
Ice Cream	Coffee
	Lemonade

At 4 o'clock a second course was served in the form of a weenie roast. The masters of ceremonies at the Art Walcott breaking even in this picnic were Jacob Sprang and Henry race and the judges had to use the Tuls, who had the big gathering Old King Solomon method of justice by taking a large sword and cutting the doll.

MACATAWA PARK BOUGHT FOR A SONG MANY YEARS AGO

When Macatawa park was a resort place only in the sense that it seemed an ideal spot for Sunday picnics was known throughout the Black lake country by the enlightening, if inelegant title, "The Mouth."

Prior to thirty years ago Holland had little time or inclination for resorting. The thick groves that clothes Macatawa's hills seemed but a natural place for picnic dinners and the youth of the Sunday schools found the broad Lake Michigan beaches necessary to every outing. It was 1881 that it began to dawn upon certain business men that "The Mouth" held promise of something better than a mere picnic ground. None before had thought of it as a place for summer habitation.

The precipitous hillsides and the deep sand was without value for agricultural purposes and the land had reverted back to the state in default of taxes. A little band of nine men began collecting tax titles on the property. They obtained the entire site of what now is Macatawa for a sum, which would not buy ten square feet of the developed property.

These nine men cast about for an appropriate name for their private summer park and finally decided upon the title by which the Indians knew Black Lake. Many wonder today how the body of water that forms Holland's Harbor ever came by its title. There is nothing black about it now, but before a channel was opened to Lake Michigan the little island lake was noted principally for its slimy, muddy waters. In the Indian tongue Macatawa means "black water." Opening of the channel let in the cleansing waters of the big lake and in a few years Black lake was a memory and a tradition only. But it made a fine name for the new resort.

The nine men incorporated the Macatawa Park association in 1881. The articles of incorporation indicated that the purpose of the association was to own property "for boating, summer recreation and health." The incorporators were: Heber Walsh, H. Boone, H. D. Post, J. C. Post, Daniel Bertsch, Otto Breyman, F. O. Nye, Charles Scott, and C. A. Dutton. When the company took over the park property it ceased to be a public picnic place for a period of some eleven years.

Few of the younger business men of Holland but cherish fond memories of the old picnic ground at "the mouth." One of the first steamers on Black Lake went into commission to carry parties from the city to the "mouth." The steamer used to land at the government pier about where Skinkers' boat livery is today. There was no dock and the passengers after gaining the pier were obliged to make their way down slanting and precarious planks to the sand.

In 1888 Macatawa park as it is today had its real beginning. In that year the property that had been retained for almost exclusive use of the members of the association and their guests was platted for public sale. The first cottage had been erected six years before, immediately following the incorporation of the association. H. Boone and Otto Breyman put up the little cottage that was the forerunner of all the fine resort structures of today. That cottage still exists. It is a part of "The Bungalow," adjoining the Stair cottage and looking down upon Black Lake.

Lots on the park were sold subject to the rules laid down in the original incorporation of the association. Many of these reflected the ultra-conservative blue laws of that period in the Dutch settlement and were very strict. Through the agency of these stringent local regulations the park has been maintained upon a strict code. The old law is invoked only in case of emergencies and has been the basis of much litigation.

But Macatawa was destined to be a famous resort. It has grown at a remarkable rate. It has been improved as few resorts of this character are improved and the price of building lots has leaped upward in keeping with the rate of growth and improvement. Resorters from all over the United States come to Macatawa for the summer and own cottages there.

Some of the resort residences are palatial in their equipment, furnishings and appointments. The park has its own electric light system and water works, a modern sewer system as fine as may be found in any city, mile upon mile of cement walk on both lake front and turning in among the hills have cost the association and cottage owners thousands of dollars. It is estimated that there are at least 500 summer homes at Macatawa.

Resorters at Macatawa have all the pleasures of an ideal summering place and all the comforts and conveniences of the city. And the whole plot cost less than $500 in the beginning.

Holland Swamps Otsego By Score of 16 to 7

In a slow featureless game the Holland Independents on Saturday defeated the Otsego team here 16 to 7. Ray Hale ex-leaguer, who twirled for Otsego, was given ragged support and was knocked out of the box in the third inning after the locals had chalked up 15 runs.

Holland will play Muskegon Independents July 4 and likely will play the Chicago Colored Giants on next Saturday. The Standard Oil club of Grand Rapids is booked for a game Saturday, July 12, and Kalamazoo is scheduled to play here on Saturday July 19.

Coach Schouten states that only teams of the best caliber in the state are willing to come to Holland, but larger attendance is necessary to meet the expenses of bringing them here. If the local fans desire real live baseball they can have it by attending the games.

DAUGHTER OF DEPUTY GAME WARDEN MARRIES

The marriage of Miss Doris Salisbury and Frank E. Wilsburg took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salisbury on Second street Grand Haven. Rev. Rogers performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate friends. The ceremony took place in the living room before an archway made of white marguerites and ferns. The bride couple were unattended. Mrs. Salisbury, mother of the bride played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as the couple took their places before the archway. The bride wore a modish gown of white crepe de chene, and carried a corsage bouquet of white roses. White marguerites and ferns decked the rooms throughout the house and the table at which the wedding supper was served was beautiful with the same flowers and greenery and shaded candle light.

Miss Eva Woodbury, Miss Eunice Castle, Miss Verna Cantwell and Miss Isabel Norcross, friends of the bride, served the supper. Mr. and Mrs. Wilsburg left on a short honeymoon trip after which they will reside at the county seat.

LEAVES HOLLAND AFTER 12 YEARS OF SERVICE

After serving the First Reformed church of this city for twelve years, Rev. H. J. Veldman will leave the local field to accept the pastorate of the Reformed church of Newkirk, Ia. Mr. Veldman made the announcement to his congregation at the services Sunday morning. He expects to leave Holland the latter part of July to assume his duties in the new field.

Rev. Veldman is one of the city's most prominent pastors not only but he is one of Holland's most prominent citizens, having taken a large part in civic activities. He has been closely affiliated with the college and seminary. He served as an instructor in the college at one time and has been a member of the Hope College Council for nine years. At present he is president of the council.

Rev. Veldman has been in the ministry for a quarter of a century, having graduated from Western Theological Seminary in 1894. Three years before that he graduated from Hope College. His first charge was at Cedar Grove, Wis. Later he served churches in Pella, Ia., and at Milwaukee, Wis., his fourth charge being Holland.

He had a large part in banishing the liquor traffic from Michigan. As member of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League Rev. Veldman was frequently called to Lansing to attend meetings of the League and to help shape the policies that finally resulted in making Michigan dry. During the war he was very active in Liberty Loan campaigns, Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. campaigns and in other patriotic activities.

During his pastorate in Holland Rev. Veldman preached for one season in the Tourists' Church in The Hague, the Netherlands. It was during his regime that the First Reformed church was cleared of debt and a new addition built. He was the originator of the Adult Bible class movement in Holland, which movement has grown to such proportions in his own church that W. L. C. rooms had to be used to accommodate those who attended the Sunday school.

HOLLAND BOYS ANCHORED ON LAKE WITHOUT OARS

They selected Silver Lake between Douglas and Saugatuck as the fishing grounds and since Michigan has gone dry they went fishing with all manner of poles, hooks, sinkers, etc. but forgot all kinds of bait.

With two boats and one pair of oars they rowed to the middle of the small lake, cast their anchors, but found that their bait was conspicuous for its absence. One then blamed the other for the oversight. However Brouwer and Ver Schure volunteered to go to Saugatuck for the necessary finny morsels.

They used the only pair of oars on hand, leaving John Van Vyven and Joseph Rowan anchored in mid-stream without propelling power.

Saugatuck, however, proved too much of an attraction for Brouwer and Ver Schure. They peeped into the big pavilion where they found a comfortable eating place and had their bacon and eggs and did various other stunts that consumed the greater part of three hours, much to the chagrin of the bandmaster and the "O-Joy" boy.

Finally in disgust Rowan did some rowing with his hands, while John used his left foot as a rudder. The two sailed the boat to within ten feet of shore, and then they struck what they thought was a submarine. They were stuck hard and fast on what proved afterward to be a bed of submerged pond lilies, (not a bed of roses) in which they were entangled.

Joe took off his shoes and stockings, waded ashore, collecting up a tribe of blood suckers on the way.

John however, was not so fortunate. The pond lilies were so affectionate that they clung to Johannes' body with desperate affection.

A large snapping turtle lazily basking in the sun, suddenly awakened from a peaceful sleep by the commotion, became desperately jealous. He made a bee line for the band director's coat tails and knowing ones say that the gentleman visited a tailor on his return home from Saugatuck.

After four hours of waiting, waiting and gnashing of teeth the dilatory ones came from Saugatuck without bait.—†—†—†—†—†

SERVICE FLAG OF HOPE CHURCH DEMOLISHED

With very impressive ceremonies the service flag of Hope church was Sunday forenoon demobilized and placed in the archives of the church to be kept there as the property of the church and to be taken out and displayed on great patriotic occasions.

Dr. A. Leenhouts made the address of presentation. The flag was originally presented by Dr. and Mrs. A. Leenhouts to the congregation, and Sunday Dr. Leenhouts formally gave the flag into the care of the church keeper of archives. Addressing Rev. P. P. Cheff as the representative of the congregation, Dr. Leenhouts told the story of what the service flag has meant to the congregation in the difficult period of the war, how it had inspired the people and helped them to back up the boys in khaki more worthily. He declared that the men whose stars appeared on the flag will henceforth be soldiers in a still greater service of church and God and country.

Rev. Cheff feelingly responded on behalf of the congregation and accepted the service flag, declaring that it would be held in sacred memory and that it would be produced on occasions of great solemnity so that it might inspire the people of the church anew with its silent witness of the sacrifices that the boys it represents had made.

The pastor spoke especially of the one star in the flag that had turned to gold. In his address to the pastor Dr. Leenhouts had not alluded even by implication to the golden star which stands for his son Willard G. Leenhouts who gave his life for America but the audience was conscious every moment of that star and the poignant memories it must be awakening in the speaker. And Mr. Cheff gave voice to this thought and called attention to that sacrifice and to all the other sacrifices that had been made.

C. M. McLean, on behalf of the consistory, furled the flag and in a few words accepted it for the church. Thereupon Lieut. Simon Den Uyl, on behalf of the service members of the church who were attending the ceremonies in a body, thanked the congregation for the way it had backed up the soldiers during the war and promised further service from the soldier representatives of Hope church.

WILL MOVE TO NIAGARA FALLS TO ENTER BUSINESS

The following in regard to a former Holland man is from the Decatur, Ind., Daily Democrat:

"William Kremers who has served as superintendent of the Decatur plant of the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co. since the factory was built in 1912, has resigned and with his family will move to Niagara Falls, N. Y., where he will become the treasurer and general manager of the Wright & Kremers Company, incorporated, architects and builders.

"Mr. Kremers' resignation has been accepted by the company with regrets mingled with good wishes and the high esteem in which he is held is expressed in a letter of acceptance from C. M. McLean, general manager who expressed the feeling of the board of directors and adds a personal note about the sincerity of which there is no doubt.

"The announcement was made today surprising even the most intimate friends of the Kremers family and there will be many expressions of regret at the decision made to leave Decatur. Mr. Kremers will go to Niagara Falls Monday and enter upon his work at once moving there as soon as a home can be secured. Mr. B. T. Arendt, superintendent of the St. Louis factory will have the superintendency of both plants with an assistant here. Mr. McLean is here planning for such changes in the organization as are necessary.

"Mr. Kremers this morning expressed the regret felt by Mr. and Mrs. Kremers because of the fact that they will be required to leave Decatur. They have lived here seven years and have become a part of the community. While wishing them all the success in the world and believing that they will have prosperity and happiness and lots of both we are sorry that this opportunity takes them to another field. Niagara Falls is a growing city of 60,000, having doubled in population during the last few years. The wonderful power plant developed from the falls makes it a most attractive place for business and the outlook for a great future could scarcely be brighter."

McKay, Sr., who died four years ago. They were residents of Holland for the past 29 years, and they are survived by seven children: Mrs. Minnie L. Bingham of Manitowoc, Wis.; Frank N. McKay of Buffalo, N. Y.; Charles P. McKay, of Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. Lovarich Calhoun, New York City; Miss Lalla E. McKay, of Holland, Mich.; J. N. McKay, Jr., of Muncie, Ind.; and Lewis P. McKay of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

SAYS U. S. MUST NOW PREPARE INDUSTRIES FOR NEXT CONFLICT

Strong measures to prepare America industrially should this country ever again be forced into war were urged by the Society of Automotive Engineers at Thursday's session, which proved to be one of the most intensely interesting and enthusiastic gatherings of the entire five-day convention. And significant of the fact that Gen. C. C. Williams, chief of ordnance who addressed Thursday morning's meeting spoke in glowing terms of the immensely valuable aid which this organization gave the ordnance department during the war.

After speaking of the large number of S. A. E. men who were given commissions of high rank during the war, Gen. Williams, who came Thursday morning all the way from Washington especially to be in attendance at army and navy day, said:

"The greatest single factor in the war was the internal combustion engine, used in machines of practically every military department," and then he mentioned the airplane, mobile repair shops, tanks, tractors and trucks, the latter two, he said, having made possible the use of larger guns than had heretofore, because the size had been limited by the ability of horses to make them mobile.

"The war has shown that men can be trained in a much shorter time than material to equip them can be produced. Most attention is now being given to the smallest end of the problem, and it is our industrial problem which must be given more attention," he declared. "It is true that we need skilled men in the army and we should have a sufficient number of them trained and ready to get the ordinary fighting man fit for battle than it is for the industries at home to produce material to back them up."

MANY BARBERRY BUSHES REMOVED

The barberry eradication campaign which has been carried on in Ottawa county during the last few months with county school Commissioner N. R. Stanton, co-operating with the state and government barberry men has resulted in the finding of the disease-carrying bush in eight townships, 21 locations being reported from over the county. The number of bushes found in each location has varied from one to ten.

School children of the county have done the work of the campaign, covering their local districts under the efficient direction of their teachers. The work will prove of great value to the farmers of the county, as the native barberry spreads the destructive wheat rust and causes great loss every year.

The townships in which the harmful barberry bushes were found are: Georgetown, Grand Haven, Jamestown, Olive and Park.

BIG BUSINESS CHANGE MADE IN ZEELAND

One of the most important business changes taken place in Zeeland this spring will occur when E. J. Pruim moves with a part of the big stock of the Wm. De Pree Co. into the new store building that is being prepared by him.

Mr. Pruim who has been a stockholder and secretary of the Wm. De Pree Co. for the past 11 years has sold his interest and will start a business of his own. He has rented for a number of years the large brick block of the Henry De Kruif estate located next to the drug store of A. De Kruif. The building had been used for many years as a harness and implement store by the late Henry De Kruif and later by Isaac Van Dyke Co. It is one of the largest and best located stores in that city and when it is again occupied it will be a credit to that end of Main street.

E. J. Pruim is having the building remodeled and from all appearances will make a very attractive place of it. As soon as the re-building is completed Mr. Pruim will buy of the Wm. De Pree Co. several of the furniture lines. The undertaking department which has been operated by Mr. Pruim for the past 21 years will also be transferred to the new place of business and Henry Claver, who has for the past 9 years been employed in this department, will go with Mr. Pruim and take charge of this work. The music department will be in charge of Bert Grinwis; Egbert Boes will also enter the employ of this new firm.

FORMER LOCAL MEN IN BIG NEW CORPORATION

The Niagara Falls Gazette has a column story of a new firm there, two of the members of which are Ernest and William Kremers, formerly of Holland. The story follows in part:

The corporation papers have been filed with the Secretary of State at Albany for the incorporation of the firm of Wright & Kremers, Inc. This stock company is organized to take up the practice of Wright & Kremers architects, and expand the work which this partnership has been doing into not only design and supervision of building of all kinds but the construction and sale of buildings as well as the design.

The directors of the firm are C. W. Wright and Ernest Kremers, who have conducted the firm of Wright & Kremers since 1913; Geo. Cooley, who has been construction engineer for the Niagara Falls Power company; William Kremers of Decatur, Ind. and F. H. Beck, who for the past year has been superintendent of construction of the houses erected in this city by the U. S. Housing Corporations. The capital of the firm is to be $100,000; $65,000 of which is to be paid in at the start of the business.

The organization will be completed at once and will actually start operations July 1st. It is planned to erect 50 to 75 houses during the first year. Many of these houses will be designed and located to take care of the technical men and superintendents of the local industries, as this seems to be the first and most important need of the city. These houses will be designed especially for the individual when possible, but if enough individuals do not come forward they will be erected by the company and sold during or after the erection. In all the operations there will be no duplication of design and none of the mechanical effects attained by most of the real estate speculators. The highest ideals of architectural design will be followed to gether with the best and most efficient methods of construction.

NO WATER FAMINE FOR ZEELAND CITY

The Zeeland City Engineer had two test wells driven in last week and has found an abundance of water so that that city does not have to fear a water famine. One well was driven on McKinley St. and found to be an excellent supply of water. The other in the north part of the city on the Raak property and there, too, is found a rock which is the best of its kind. Both wells have been tried and have proved to be very strong and will yield plenty of water. They are a little better than 100 ft. deep. It is believed that the wells are the same vein as the one at the west end.

MANY MARVELOUS FEATURES SHOWN

Startling stunts were the order of the day at Jenison Park Thursday afternoon. The day opened with a military atmosphere, most of the members being awakened in the morning by the Furniture City band which played for us all day long.

About 2 o'clock the clans gathered at Jenison Park and witnessed an exhibition of Army Ordnance initiative that demonstrated one of the reasons why the Boche hung up the white flag.

The maneuvering was under the direction of Captain Booth and simulated battle front action as near as possible. And the Captain knows just what that action was as he spent some months in France.

Cellar walls were demolished, trees torn up by the roots, six inch guns spoke and nearly made us all lose our ear drums.

From Jenison Park the big Mark VII tank was driven across the road into a cellar easily tearing its walls to pieces and climbing out on the other side. Following this machine of destruction was the British Mark V, the eight-inch self-propelled Howitzer, the Renault light type and the three ton American type. Power and mobility characterized these maneuvers.

Then the Artillery Tractors showed us how they snaked the big guns to the battle fronts pulling them through sand and difficult field conditions. Both the five-ton Tractor and the two and a half-ton Tractor proved their mettle.

The demonstration of the Boche Tractors showed the superiority of the American tractors designed to do the same work. Our Tractors handled far easier and are vastly ahead of the enemy's machines.

During the afternoon the mobile artillery repair truck was in action giving the spectators an opportunity to inspect a machine shop on wheels. Lathes, drill presses, air compressors and wood saws were humming away, all operated by the gas electric generator unit.

All in all the show proved to be one of the features of the meeting. Appreciation is due the military men for their efforts in making such a display possible.

An old White steamer of 1905 came into town Friday from Chicago. The automobile propelled by steam was still doing fine work, puffing along with a white puff from its exhaust instead of a black ill-smelling gas puff. The car created considerable attention as it leisurely puffed along as well as it did 14 years ago. Austin Harrington has had "steer" cars in his life time, but the first one was propelled by steam similar to the old White that came from Chicago which was propelled by the power discovered in tea kettle by Isaac Watt, years and years ago.

WARNS AGAINST EARLY SHOOTING OF FIREWORKS

Chief of Police Van Ry Tuesday issued a warning that the premature shooting off of fire works must stop. There is a city ordinance against the shooting of firecrackers and all other explosives before the morning of the Fourth, and this ordinance is going to be strictly enforced. The patrolmen have received orders to see to its enforcement, and arrests will follow if necessary.

As long ago as last Saturday there were some boys in Holland who could not restrain their ardor any longer and began shooting off their firecrackers. And since then the explosions have become more frequent, so that the police department is taking steps to stop them. The premature shooting of firecrackers is disturbing sick people and people who wish to sleep at night, and it must positively be stopped, the police department announces. Parents are asked to see to it that their children live up to the ordinance.

Chief Van Ry also today gave notice that on the Fourth of July there is to be no parking of automobiles along Eighth street from Lincoln avenue to River or on River from Eighth to Sixteenth. At 8:45 in the morning patrolmen will be placed on all the necessary corners, and anyone who is parked along Eighth and River at that time will be ordered off. And the public is requested to observe this rule voluntarily so that there may be no interference with the big parade.

This rule worked splendidly on Decoration Day and an attempt will be made to have it work equally well this time. It will give everybody along the street an opportunity to see the parade.

CONCESSION FREE FOR "EATS" STANDS

The need for more refreshment stands in Holland on July Fourth is becoming more acute. Not stands where popcorn and ice cream and candy and other confections are to be sold, but stands where the visitor to the city can buy sandwiches, coffee, lunches and substantial food of all kinds. The committee in charge of the celebration is fearful that many will go hungry unless more people go into the business of selling things to eat on that day.

Some days ago the committee offered the women of Holland's churches free concessions on the streets if they wished to erect stands where things to eat would be sold. But the response has not been as good as expected.

So now the committee is offering the same privilege to anybody. No charge will be made for license fee for stands where substantial "eats" are to be sold. The committee has already sold concessions for eating stands to a number of people but the money for these will be returned. Anyone who desires to do so is urgently requested to put up an "eats" stand free of charge, so far as the concession goes.

The Grand Haven police force and the Ottawa county sheriff's force combined Saturday in a raid on the car ferry Milwaukee with the result that four members of the crew were taken on the charge of having liquor in their possession, Chief of Police Pippel, Officers Klumpel and Spangler, Sheriff Dornbos and Deputies De Witt and Boongaard, participating. They were armed with a search warrant and they boarded the steamer for a search of rooms on the ship. The warrant was secured by the city police.

A complete search of certain sections of the crew's quarters was made and a number of bottles of liquor are claimed to have been found and confiscated. No claim is made that they were engaged in bootlegging but the state prohibition law makes it unlawful to have liquor in one's possession, so the four men were ordered to appear before Circuit Court Commissioner Pagelsen. The complaints were made against James Golroy, Arden LeJeune, Duncan Orrie, John Farg, all members of the ship's company.

"Meats in Storage"

Every working day of the year 75,000,000 pounds of meat are required to supply home and export needs—and only 10 per cent of this is exported.

These facts must be kept in mind when considering the U. S. Bureau of Markets report that on June 1, 1919, there were 1,348,000,000 pounds of meats in cold storage. If the meat in storage was placed on the market it would only be 20 days' supply.

This meat is not artificially withheld from trade channels to maintain or advance prices.

Meats in storage consist of—

- 65 per cent (approximate) hams, bacon, etc., in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the process.
- 10 per cent is frozen pork that is to be cured later in the year.
- 6 per cent is lard. This is only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.
- 19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for over-seas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels, it would be only 1½ lbs. per capita—a 3 days' supply.
- 100%

From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent merely unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.

ZEELAND CITY AT LAST HAS REAL MOVIES

The proverbial worm has turned and our neighboring city of Zeeland which for several years, has been known as the only city of its size in Michigan without a movie, has a real up-to-date movie house which is filled to its capacity three evenings a week.

For several years the movie question in Zeeland was a very lively one. The city council refused to grant a license to anyone, and the majority of the people boasted of the fact that Zeeland was the only town of its size without a movie. However, in the past two city elections, it is said, that the movie question was the paramount issue. Zeeland has lost the distinction conferred upon it by tradition and now has an honest to goodness movie.

The Civic Club, an organization composed chiefly of influential business men, is conducting a movie in the VanBree building, on West Main street three nights a week, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. The city Council has to-date refused to grant anyone a license to operate a show and movies have so far been prevented. However, the city fathers cannot prevent the Civic Club from running a movie on their "own hook." The club which has a large membership has made arrangements whereby the members of the club and their families may see these movies three times a week.

Of course as the Zeeland movie is as yet in its embryo stage, such a highly necessary adjunct as a board of movie censors is not yet a reality, altho it is said that several Zeelanders would like to serve as the censors. It is claimed that the movies are of such a nature that a board of censors is not needed.

That the city council is gradually learning to tolerate movies is now demonstrated by the action taken by the council at a recent council meeting. The council, which has heretofore been most bitter toward movies, has granted the committee in charge of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Homecoming celebration, permission to operate a moving picture show July 4th. The movie enthusiasts wish to make good the opportunity thus afforded them and have leased the war picture—"The Great Love" which appeared in Holland some time ago after having a week's run in the Powers theater at Grand Rapids. In the meantime the movie lovers are hoping that "The Great Love" will win the hearts and good will of the council members.

SERVICE MEN ASKED TO APPEAR IN UNIFORM

Not a soldier or sailor from Holland or from any part of Ottawa and Allegan counties who comes to Holland on July fourth to take part in the Home Coming celebration should appear in civilian clothes. This is the request of the local post of the American Legion not only but of Pres. Mayo of the state organization of the American Legion as well. President Mayo has issued a statement asking that every service man appear in uniform on that day in recognition of the significance of the day.

Moreover, on that day, the soldier's or sailor's uniform will be a passport to almost everything in Holland. It is true, all will be asked to register, but the uniform will show the right to registration without the trouble of establishing this right by documentary credentials.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the members of the Willard G. Leenhouts' Post will gather in the court room of the city hall for the purpose of making the final arrangements for the celebration of next Friday. This meeting will be one of the most important ones that the organization has held so far and for that reason members are asked to be on hand.

TO BE MAYOR OF HOLLAND FOR A DAY

DR. A. LEENHOUTS TO BE THE CHAIRMAN ON FOURTH OF JULY

Dr. A. Leenhouts will be mayor of Holland for one day this week. On the Fourth of July, while the big Homecoming celebration is in progress, Mayor Bosch will voluntarily abdicate for one day as chief executive of Holland and will hand the keys of the city over to Dr. Leenhouts who will be the "big chief" for the day.

Mayor Bosch will deliver the address of welcome as scheduled on the program, but after that he will withdraw in favor of Dr. Leenhouts. The latter holds the position of president of the local post of the American Legion and he has had more to do with getting up the celebration than probably any other man in Holland. For that reason he will be chairman of the day and Holland's temporary mayor.

NO TEACHERS FOR EAST SAUGATUCK SCHOOLS

Anna Oetman, George Kotman, Johanna Slenk, Harm and Elmer Schipper and John Stadt received their eighth grade diplomas last week at East Saugatuck. The prompt pupils were Johanna Slenk and Peter Bosch who were neither absent nor tardy during the entire term. Miss Veltman and Miss Hoekje have resigned as teachers and their places have not been filled.

STATE TAKES STEPS TO PRESERVE THE LAKE SHORE LINE

As a result of a visit to western Michigan, George Lusk former deputy secretary of state at Lansing and now secretary of the public domain commission of Michigan, it is altogether likely that Chicago lake sand and gravel companies will no longer be permitted to send "suckers" across the lake and take out loads of sand and gravel but a short distance from the shore. Mr. Lusk came upon request of property owners and others who complained that the encroachments of the sandsuckers are playing havoc with the shore line of the beach.

It develops that the removal of what is called the outer bar by the operations of the sandsuckers permits the heavy breakers to roll in and "eat" up the shoreline of the beach. Pictures of parts of the beach south of St. Joseph were shown Mr. Lusk, taken two years ago, which show children playing all along the water's edge. Today there is no beach in these same spots. Removal of the sand and gravel has permitted the waves to roll in and flood the beach.

"This should not be permitted," said Lusk. "The beach line should be preserved and the natural beauty of the shore kept intact. Undoubtedly removal of sand gravel causes the waves to roll in and wash away and cover up the shore."

It is said that some of the sandsuckers conduct pirate operations. It is claimed that they anchor off shore during the night begin pumping up the gravel and sand and by daylight are loaded and away. The state gets five cents per cubic yard for all the sand taken by these companies and eight cents per cubic yard for the gravel. Mr. Lusk said that in two years the state has collected $40,000 from this source alone.

The domain commission member said that in certain places around the Great Lakes bordering on Michigan there is no objection to the operations of the sandsuckers, but along shores where beaches have been improved and fine homes constructed the damage has already become very extensive.

TWO DAYS OF BASEBALL FOR HOLLAND

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY WILL BE BIG DAYS FOR FANS IN THIS CITY

Holland Baseball fans will be given a real treat on the national pastime this week Friday and Saturday. On Friday the 4th, Muskegon Reds come to seek vengeance for last year defeats when the locals copped the championship honors from this same team. Undoubtedly they will come strengthened considerably and will be determined to break Holland's string of victories. A mighty throng is expected at the game.

The local management has been very fortunate in securing the Chicago Colored Giants for Saturday's game. This team plays the colored Athletics at Grand Rapids the 4th and Sunday which leaves Saturday open when they will take a little jaunt over to our city.

The same old Rube Pioster known by so many old fans of Holland is managing the Windy City team and has passed on the word that this team is the class of any colored teams in the country. Owing to the extra amount of expense connected with this game an admission of 35c will be charged. The best teams in the state will be brought to Holland providing the fans respond to the financial call. A game with the Holly Roller Team of Benton Harbor is pending for a week from Saturday and such teams as Kalamazoo, Jackson and the best teams in Grand Rapids are on the docket.

Mr. Bowerman has had a great part in making the movement a success in this district, and his friends collected a purse which will enable him to attend the meetings. He will leave Holland this evening and will be away from home two Sundays.

Next Sunday morning the services at the M. E. church will be conducted by Henry Geerlings, and in the evening the Men's Adult Bible Class will be in charge. Uncle Sam Says, "Hats Off to the Soldiers and Sailors of Ottawa and Allegan Counties. You cannot honor these brave boys enough!"

Holland is going to try and follow out the suggestion given by our Uncle Sammuel, and below will be found a few of the things that are going to be pulled off at

in honor of the men who did so much for us—

1. The biggest parade in its history.
2. Seventy Floats, depicting historic events.
3. One thousand overseas soldiers and sailors from Ottawa and Allegan counties in the line of march.
4. Four thousand employees from the different manufacturing institutions dressed for parade.
5. Floats from the different factories.
6. The Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Veterans, the Old Grand Army Boys and the W. R. C., and the Red Cross of Ottawa County.
7. Kresies's Ladies Big Military Band.
8. The Home Guards and Military Companies from Grand Haven.
9. The Grand Haven band, the 50-piece Grand Haven High School band, the Allegan band, the Fennville band, the Hamilton band, the Holland band, and the Holland Martial band—eight bands in all, with more coming.
10. All the lodges in full regalia—Six in number, representing one thousand men, will march.
11. Troopers on horseback.
12. Three hours of solid sport for substantial cash prizes. See the fat men and ladies run—watch the Bloomer Girls' Jumping contest. Even sports for the children are going to be held. The list of sports is so large including a baseball game, that it would be impossible to enumerate them all here.
13. During day there will be a display of day fireworks, something that has never been seen in Holland before.
14. Two thousand dollars in night fireworks. Never in the history of Western Michigan has there been seen such a display. Sixty-eight set pieces of fireworks will be shot off 4th of July night by a company of men sent here by the Newton Fire Works Company of Chicago.

Space forbids the writing of hundreds of other events that will be seen in Holland on the Fourth.

This city is going to give the soldiers of Ottawa and Allegan counties a send-off that is worth while. At least ten thousand dollars will be spent by the committee, by individual business men to make this day a day of success, and one fitting the occasion. We are not going to give the soldiers and sailors a stingy Fourth.

Everything is set for the largest demonstration ever held in this vicinity—THEREFORE,

COME TO HOLLAND AND SPEND THE FOURTH.

HOLLAND HAS A REPUTATION FOR PENMANSHIP

We have often heard that present-day scholars do not write, read, spell and do other things as thoroughly as the pupils of the old schools.

This at least cannot be said relative to penmanship in the Holland Public schools.

The A.M. Palmer Company, practical penmanship publications of New York send men to all the schools of the country to inspect the penmanship of the pupils in the different schools.

What one of the inspectors wrote back to the company follows below:

New York, June 2, 1919

Mr. E. E. Fell
Supt. of Schools,
Holland, Michigan.

Dear Sir—

I cannot resist the temptation to quote from the report of our Mr. J. M. Tice on his visit to Holland, Mich.

Mr. Tice's report is as follows: "I saw some very excellent penmanship here. Holland, Michigan, schools have three very essential conditions for success in writing: first, an excellent supervisor; second, a very capable and enthusiastic superintendent; and third, a teacher body that is willing to get into the game. I have never covered a more efficient system."

I am sure you will not object to having me quote to you this complimentary report.

Sincerely yours,
A. N. PALMER,
President.

Another letter from A. A. Davis, manager of the Palmer Company also follows:

Chicago, June 5, 1919

Mr. E. E. Fell,
Supt. of Schools,
Holland, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Fell—

Mr. Tice wrote me a very complimentary letter on the splendid work being done at Holland, and he stated that he never visited any public school situation where conditions and good work were more favorable. He also complimented your selection of teachers very highly.

BURN BLANKETS ON STEAMER HOLLAND AS HELP SIGNAL

Badly smashed as a result of two collisions and carrying 160 hungry and tired passengers the Crosby liner Holland, the old G. & M. sidewheeler, that formerly plied between this port and Chicago, was towed to its dock in the Milwaukee river Saturday afternoon.

The Holland was missing since her departure from Muskegon at 1:30 on Friday morning. She was found drifting six miles off Racine Saturday morning.

After battling her way toward Milwaukee for two hours from Muskegon the Holland's engines suddenly stopped. All efforts to resume the operation of her engines failed and she drifted in the heavy sea under a high northeastern wind. The stateroom blankets saturated with kerosene and ignited were used by passengers of the disabled vessel to attract the attention of the crew of the freighter Richard Trumble.

After "standing by" for several hours, a tow line was thrown to the Holland. Twice the tow line broke under the strain.

Considerable headway was made at the third attempt to tow the Holland to Milwaukee, but again the line broke. The Trumble's engines were stopped, and the Holland, impelled by the tow, crashed into the big freighter, badly damaging her bow. The Trumble remained with the Holland until Saturday morning. The Holland's side was badly damaged when she rammed into the naval tug Tadusec, when a tow line was being tied to the disabled liner.

With the vessel's arrival at the docks it was greeted by cheers from the large crowd of relatives and friends of the boat's passengers. On alighting, passengers stated that there was never any danger of a panic among the passengers. The behavior under the circumstances was said to have been good. The only complaint was that concerning the food, the vessel's supply having run out. Some stated that they had had nothing to eat for 18 hours.

CONCRETE IS BEING PUT IN ON PARK ROAD

The Grand Haven city paving crew is laying concrete at the lake end of Lake avenue, within the limits of Highland Park as a part of the extension plans for the city's road to Highland Park and the lake front. This plan includes the opening up of the Lake Michigan shore to all tourists who may come into Grand Haven from outside or surrounding country.

From the bluff at Highland Park the road turns to the north and leads down to the beach where a parking place for automobiles will be built of concrete. This park will accommodate many machines when it is completed and will give everybody a chance to get to the lake shore in their vehicles. The fill from the bluff to the shore has already been completed and a very moderate grade has been made. No car will have any trouble negotiating it.

JACOB FRIS BUYS BUSINESS OF THE MRS. L. FRIS ESTATE

A business change of considerable importance was consummated Saturday whereby Holland gains another young business man in his own right who has been doing business under other auspices for some years.

By the deal put through Jacob Fris becomes the owner of the Fris Book store, for several years operated by him but owned by Mrs. L. Fris, and lately part of the Mrs. L. Fris estate. Mr. Fris has purchased the business from the estate and from now on he will be the guiding spirit of the concern.

The Fris Book store was established in Holland many years ago by M. Van Putten. Eighteen years ago Mr. L. Fris purchased it and for many years he conducted it, gradually developing the business from a small concern into one of larger proportions.

At Mr. Fris' death, his son, Mr. Chris Fris, took hold of the business and conducted it for several years until the time when his health compelled him to relinquish it and seek health in another climate. This was four years ago and at that time Jacob Fris and Miss Christine Fris took over the business and operated it for the owner. Jacob Fris is a progressive young business man and that he will make good in his new venture his past work assures.

Mr. Fris has taken an active interest in the business concerns of Holland and he is heartily welcomed by his fellow business men as an addition to their ranks in his own right. The change of ownership will formally take place July 1.

GIRL SURVIVOR IN DEATH CAR TRAGEDY GONE

Where is Miss Genevieve Cavanaugh, girl survivor of the 2-day joy riding trip that ended in the death of her companion, Miss May M. Boshoven, 20-year-old Grand Rapids girl, who died under an overturned automobile near Hudsonville last Thursday night?

Who were the two well-dressed men who drove up to her home, 1120 Division avenue, S., in an eight-passenger automobile last Saturday evening and drove her away after first placing something in the rear seat that had been taken from her home?

Why was the young woman spirited away at the first intimation from Ottawa authorities that arrests might be made in the case after the coroner's postmortem examination was completed?

Why is Miss Cavanaugh, whose real name is Cavanaugh, and who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cavanaugh, 1120 Division avenue, S., in hiding, if not to prevent her appearance as a witness against the other members of the fatal automobile party, ask Kent and Ottawa county officials.

George Morse came to Holland Tuesday morning to answer the charge against him before Justice Robinson.

The disappearance of Miss Cavanaugh has baffled the Ottawa county authorities. When told that she was missing from her home, Prosecuting Attorney Miles said:

"Well, there goes the best part of our evidence. It is too bad that she has gotten away from us."

N. G. Lewis, 1118 Division avenue, S., is authority for the statement that Miss Cavanaugh had been taken away from her home early Saturday evening in a large touring car.

"Two well dressed men drove up in front of her home, and in a few minutes she came down and got into the car. Something was put into the rear of the machine by one of the men and they drove away. She has not been seen around here since that time. One of the men wore a small black mustache. The other was smooth-faced and both were well dressed. The automobile was a large one and looked like a new machine," said Lewis.

Inquiries in the block in which Miss Cavanaugh lives failed to divulge further information.

City Manager F. H. Locke recommended to the city commission Monday evening to revoke the license of the National Detective agency because of the "scandalous conduct" of two of its officers. The matter was referred to the safety committee.

"Their conduct has been such that it is not necessary to argue the case," said the city manager. "There is one member of the firm, Mr. Good, who is all right. He has been courteous and law abiding at all times."

May M. Boshoven, 20, who was killed in an auto accident last Thursday night while returning home with another girl and two men after a two day party, was buried Monday afternoon at 2 from the Third Reformed church of Grand Rapids.

FIND "HOLLAND" OFF HARBOR OF RACINE

The Crosby Steamer "Holland," which was reported lost in Lake Michigan on her way from Muskegon to Milwaukee was located Saturday noon off Racine, Wis., by a life-saving crew, according to a wire report from the captain of the Grand Haven Coast Guard. The "Holland" was picked up in a disabled condition and was towed into Milwaukee. Everybody in the steamer was safe, according to the dispatch which was brief, merely stating that the steamer had been located.

Word that the Holland had not arrived at Milwaukee where she was due at 7:30 Friday morning was received by the company officers at Muskegon at 3 Friday afternoon. The boat was then eight hours overdue. Efforts of Muskegon agents to secure further word from Milwaukee had brought no results up to an early hour Saturday morning.

Grand Haven coast guards were the first to put off in search of the Holland. According to word from Grand Haven, the lifesavers at Milwaukee were also searching, although reports show that the Crosby people were the only ones who knew of the ship's disappearance on that side of the lake.

The Holland, formerly the City of Milwaukee of the G. & M. Transportation company, is a sidewheeler. Capt. E. D. Miller is her skipper this year. The boat plays between Muskegon and Milwaukee. The passenger list according to company officials has been exceedingly large during the past month. One hundred passengers, the number aboard the Holland when she cleared for Milwaukee, is considered a heavy list, the officials say.

When the Graham & Morton Co. bought out the old Holland & Chicago line, owned at that time by W. R. Owen, and several of Holland's business men, the City of Holland built at Saugatuck was soon discarded and the "Soo City" retained.

As the business grew the "Soo City" was sold to eastern parties, for ocean coast service where it soon foundered.

The Steamer "City of Milwaukee" was put on the line between Holland and Chicago, and the name was then changed to "City of Holland" and it did service between the two ports for many years.

When the "City of Grand Rapids" was built, the "City of Holland" was taken off the line, and did excursion business between Benton Harbor and Michigan City. Three years ago the steamer was sold to the Crosby line who are owners of the boat today. The steamer of Holland was built in 1881.

HOME SPEAKERS CHOSEN FOR JULY FOURTH

The Fourth of July Homecoming in Holland is not going to be a talk-fest. That is, it is not going to be a matter of patriotic oratory and let it go at that. The celebration will be a celebration in every sense of the term, and such oratory as will be given will mix in the other activities in proper proportion, so that it will make a harmonious whole.

And the committee on speakers has come to the conclusion that the best talent that they could possibly hope to secure is right here at home in Holland. They have decided that any city might be proud to secure two such speakers as Hon. G. J. Diekema and Dr. S. M. Zwemer, the latter of Cairo, Egypt, at present resident in this city. These two men will furnish the oratory of the day.

Mr. Diekema's services as a 4th of July orator, have been eagerly sought by many other places, some of them large communities, but in view of the fact that his own son will be one of those who will be a part of the home-coming ceremonial, Mr. Diekema would not consider leaving Holland on that day. And so he has been pressed into the service to give a patriotic address.

Dr. Zwemer's address will be no less appropriate. Dr. Zwemer has not only a national but an international reputation as a mission worker, religious organizer and orator. His grasp of world politics is perhaps more comprehensive than that of any other man in Michigan and there are few men in America who have a better hold on this difficult subject than has he.

The addresses of these two men are expected to make a well-balanced speaking program for the day. Mr. Diekema's address will be introductory to the whole day's celebration and Dr. Zwemer will give the principal address.

MYSTERY IN THE AUTOMOBILE DEATH CASE DEEPENS CONSIDERABLY

Hub Boone of this city and Fred Boos of Grand Rapids furnished the bonds on which George Morse charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of May Boshoven, who was killed in an automobile tragedy near Hudsonville, was released after he appeared before Justice Robinson Tuesday afternoon. The bonds were placed at $2,500.00 and Justice Robinson insisted on one Ottawa County bondsman. At the hearing yesterday Morse demanded an examination which was set for July 9.

No warrant has yet been sworn out against Stone, the other man in the party, and Prosecutor Miles today was not ready to state whether a warrant would be made out against him.

The arraignment of Morse Tuesday was without incident and lasted but a few minutes.

An additional element of mystery was thrown into the case by the discovery Tuesday that the party had registered at the Gildner hotel in Grand Haven Wednesday night as married couples, and that the register page for that day has since been cut from the book.

Prosecuting Attorney Miles stated Tuesday night that he knew much about the missing hotel register page and that the matter was not worrying him greatly. He intimated that the parties who took the page from the register in attempt to conceal possible derogatory evidence against members of the fatal joy ride party were known.

The whereabouts of Miss Genevieve Cavanaugh, girl survivor of the crash who was spirited away from her home on Division avenue, S., Saturday evening is still a mystery to both Kent and Ottawa county authorities. It was intimated Tuesday that a search was being made for her by both counties.

FIVE COTTAGES BURNED AT OTTAWA BEACH RESORT

$2300 IN JEWELRY LOST IN OTTAWA BEACH FIRE

One of the most disastrous fires in years at the Holland resorts destroyed completely four cottages at Ottawa Beach and nearly consumed a fifth Tuesday morning.

The fire started in the Sherwood-Hall cottage in amongst the hills at 6:30 o'clock and soon communicated itself to several other cottages alongside.

The fire originated it is said, from an oil stove, that the maid had lighted, preparatory to getting breakfast ready for a family by the name of Marblestone from St. Louis, who had just moved in the night before.

The story at Ottawa Beach goes that after the maid had lighted the fire she returned upstairs to complete her toilet, and upon returning found the stove and part of the kitchen in a blaze.

Her cries brought the members of the family and neighbors to her rescue but the fire had gained such a headway that it was with difficulty that the young lady was saved.

The Marblestone family escaped in their night clothes and nothing was saved, not even sufficient wearing apparel.

Fire soon spread to the Wegusen cottage, E. N. Brown cottage, and the cottage of Joe Siegel, all Grand Rapids people. These were quickly reduced to ashes with very little of the contents of any of these summer homes saved.

The intense heat soon caused the fire to spread to the home of Charles Springer, also of Grand Rapids, and altho the furniture in this cottage was saved, the building was practically unroofed by the blaze.

It is estimated that the loss to the buildings and furniture will aggregate more than $15,000, only partially covered by insurance.

The hills at Ottawa Beach are littered with furniture. Cottage owners all along the hill streets were dragging out the contents of their homes and depositing these out of possible reach of the flames.

Joe Siegel of Grand Rapids, owner of a jewelry store, had planned to take his employees for a day's outing on Thursday. These plans have naturally miscarried, since the Siegel cottage is totally destroyed.

An alarm was sent to Holland for aid and Chief Blom turned in an alarm for Box 21, Hotel corner, and the pumper was hastily sent to give what aid could be given. The run was made to Ottawa Beach in 15 minutes. The cottages however are more than 2,000 feet from Black lake, and the truck did not carry sufficient hose to reach that far.

Fireman Abel Smeenge followed later with an automobile filled with hose, but his machine broke down, and when he arrived the fire was completely under control.

The coast guards at Macatawa as usual did valiant service. Francis Deto, Tony Vander Bie, Alvin Smith, and George Haas saved the Bunnell cottage through the aid of a bucket brigade.

Jacob Witteveen, custodian of Ottawa Beach, also did excellent work, but the man of the hour was Bill Murphy, the Mayor of Ottawa Beach, who not alone has proven to be the chief executive of this summer resort, but chief of police and chief of the fire department also.

When the first alarm was given Bill pulled out single handed, the hand reel filled with hose, connected these up with the Ottawa Beach waterworks hydrant nearby, and soon had a stream playing on the fire. It was impossible to save the four cottages however, for these were very closely nestled in together and it is doubtful if any kind of protection could have saved them.

Murphy did save the cottages in close proximity, where repeatedly small blazes were started in the roof by heat and sparks from the burning dwellings.

At no time was the big hotel in danger, as the burning buildings were at least a thousand feet from the hotel.

It had developed later that the Marblestone family were the heaviest losers in personal property, their story of the accident is as follows:

"Mrs. I. Marblestone, wife of a Chicago theatrical manager, had moved into the Sherwood hall cottage Monday night. On Tuesday morning at about 7 the maid, Theresa Nuttson of Chicago was attempting to cook breakfast on a recalcitrant kerosene oil stove when suddenly the flames shot from the stove to the ceiling of the kitchen. There was no explosion, but so swift was the action of the fire that the maid was badly burned about the right arm and shoulder.

"Six persons were in the Marblestone party, and all escaped without serious injury. In rescuing her two-year-old child from the bedroom on the second floor Mrs. Marblestone narrowly escaped being burned. Jewelry valued at $1500, including an $800 diamond ring, pearls, etc., was lost by Mrs. Marblestone in addition to $200 in cash, valuable furs and the family's entire supply of summer clothing.

From the Sherwood Hall cottage the fire spread to the summer home of Joseph Siegel, Grand Rapids Jeweler. Mrs. Siegel gave her attention to rescuing her daughter Leona, who has been ill, and very little of the Siegel property was saved. In addition to the loss of the cottage valued at $3,500, the Siegels lost jewelry valued at $1,800.

BUGLERS WILL AWAKEN CITY FRIDAY MORNING

AT FIVE O'CLOCK REVEILLE WILL BE SOUNDED IN HOLLAND

There Will Be Twenty of Them, So Everybody Will Be Reached

It will not be necessary for the Queen of the Fourth of July (if there is such a being) to sing, "Wake me early, mother, dear," because no one in the city will be allowed to oversleep on the morning of the Fourth. There would not be much chance of that in any event, because the small boys of the city usually see to it that no one gets too much sleep in the early morning hours of the Fourth.

But this year the city authorities or rather the Fourth of July celebration authorities, will also see to it that no one oversleeps. At five o'clock in the morning the reveille will be sounded. And this will be not only in one part of the city, but in every section so that no one can fail to hear it. Some twenty buglers have been engaged and these will be stationed in various parts of the city. When the hands of their watches point to five o'clock they will sound a blast on their bugles that will awaken even the soundest sleeper for blocks around.

The judges' stand where the floats in the big parade will be judged will be erected between the Strand theater and Meyer's Music House. On the stand will be the following judges: Mr. W. H. Wing, Mrs. Browning, Mrs. N. Hofsteen, J. B. Nykerk, Mrs. A. Leenhouts, Miss Evelyn Metz, and Otto P. Kramer.

The official programs for the day are being printed now and they will be ready for distribution by Thursday noon. The programs are not to be scattered about the streets however. A batch of them will be left at every drug store in the city, and persons who are interested may call at those places and secure a copy.

A total of 3,000 of the programs will be passed out on Friday on the college campus where the speaking program is to be carried out in the forenoon.

ALLEGAN WILL HAVE SOME THEATER

WILL ACCOMMODATE 750 PATRONS. HOLLAND FURNACE CO. WILL ALSO OCCUPY THE BUILDING

The Allegan Gazette describes a new theater now being built in Allegan, a city of 3,000, that goes to show the city to the south of Holland believes in ample room and to spare for its patrons of the movies.

The clipping from the Gazette follows below:

"The new Star theater building is being rapidly changed into an imposing little play house which will have many of the features of much larger places of its kind. The theater will have a seating capacity of 500 on the first floor and 250 in the balcony. On the lower floor will be two office rooms next to the street, one in each corner, the western one of which is to be occupied by John Tiefenthal with a two-chair barber shop and the other will be the headquarters for the Holland Furnace Co.. This will leave a large entrance in the center room from which a stairway on either side will lead to the second floor. In the northwest corner of the front will be arranged a ladies' rest room with all conveniences and in the opposite corner the management offices will be located, leaving the space in the middle for the machine room, which will be entirely fireproof. Twenty-seven feet of exits are provided, sixteen feet of which are on the east side of the main floor leading into the alley, which is more than the law requires for a theater of twice the capacity of this one. The stage will have an opening thirty feet wide and the proscenium arch will be sixteen feet high. Any ordinary drama can easily be produced on the stage should the management decide to use the theater for such purposes.

The South Haven Gas company has applied to the city council for temporary increase in rates from $.25 to $1.60 per 1000 feet. Action has been deferred to regular meeting next Monday evening.

Holland Is An Ideal City In Which to Make a Home

We have taken you through the machine room of the large Charles P. Limbert furniture plant and we will now go a step further and endeavor to show you how thru artistic workmanship commanding high wages, the cut to size lumber is turned into beautiful designs. Carvers and turners shape the crude material into spindles, rosetts, swell fronts, oveled mirror frames, arms and rockers for chairs, tops for buffets, and an endless lot of things that make up a fine piece of furniture, after all the parts have been assembled and glued and varnished.

Furniture making at Limberts is not simply the throwing together of a few sticks of lumber thus constructing a chair, table or sideboard, so called. The workmanship displayed here show the hand of art. Every artis an at the Limbert plant is a lover of the art otherwise a Chippendale, or a Dutch-craf design would not be possible.

It is true different craftsmen make different parts of a single piece of furniture, but each craftsman is proficient in the making of his particular part, and the wonder of it all, is that after all these different parts have been assembled and put together perfectly and the whole appears in its completion, the creation shows the ear-marks of an artist while in reality it is the handiwork of a score of artists blended into one.

The Chas. P. Limbert plant has room for just such artists. You would say: I have never had experience along these lines? This does not matter, the Limbert plant is an art school so to speak, where the making of artistic furniture is taught and where no tuition is necessary, but where you are paid good wages for being willing to learn and will receive still better compensation after you have the subject in hand thoroughly learned.

A vocation of this kind is a pleasure as well as the best avenue for a livelihood, opening the gates to opportunity.

Have you ever seen a Chippendale outfit after the upholsters and varnishers have put on the last finishing touches? If you have not it would be well for you to visit the Chas. P. Limbert plant which will better explain to you what we mean by work of art.

If you are interested apply for a position in the Charles P. Limbert Art School where you are paid for being taught.

In our next article we will tell you more about why Holland is an ideal place to live in and also enumerate some of its amusements.
