Holland Does Not "Go Boom" This 4th of July

NEW LAW PLAYS HAVOC WITH FIRE CRACKER SHOOTING

HOLLAND ALWAYS WAS A NOISE-MAKING CITY ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

It is very noticeable that the new fire cracker law is working in Holland. Fire crackers cannot be bought nor can they be shot off in the state of Michigan. That being the case there are no fire crackers in the city unless there be a few hold-overs in merchants' stocks of last year or a few forgotten ones dug up by Holland youngsters.

Before the 1929 law the celebrations began weeks in advance of the "big day" and spasmodic shooting continued for some days after the Fourth. But this year not an explosion is heard and Holland is indeed peaceful when it comes to fire cracker noises.

There have been many changes from time to time in the fire works and fire cracker laws of Michigan. In the hey-day of fire cracker shooting, the crackers in many instances were a foot long and two inches through, and one cracker that the writer especially remembers was called the "Happy Hollander," a fat, squat looking cracker filled with dynamite.

The Michigan legislature soon afterward cut down the size of fire-crackers and each session brought about more restrictions until finally Michigan has a "fire-crackerless" Fourth of July.

Today, as in the earlier days, many youngsters would be careless and a few downright mean in the throwing of the fire crackers. Run away horses were many on Independence Day in the early days because youngsters saw to it that crackers landed at the feet of horses. Today, with the automobile, there have been many complaints that lighted fire crackers were thrown through the open windows of parked automobiles or targets were made of those passing.

This fact, together with the danger of gasoline fires and explosions and the nationwide campaign of "Sane Fourth" no doubt had a great deal to do with gradually putting Michigan into the "no fire cracker" list of states.

A Fourth of July without fire cracker shooting will seem like no Fourth at all in Holland for even in the early days Holland was a noise-making city. Shortly after the Civil war the city secured a cannon as one of the war trophies and for 30 years afterward this cannon opened Independence Day fire at sunrise with an hour of gun fire. The first shot awakened Holland and the entire countryside and the celebration was on. The cannon was dragged out from a small cannon house in "public square" near Centennial Park, placed on the knoll beside a tall flag staff where now stands the fountain in the center of the park, and then the booming began. After the first shot the "square" soon filled with half of the city's population present.

Older citizens will remember that among those who fired the cannon from time to time was old war veteran William Finch, living on West 12th street, and his son, Al Finch. Also Richard Vandenberg, one-time city marshal, and Captain De Boe. For a time the cannon was shot off by "Bill" Ten Hagen and the late Leonard Mulder, publisher of the Grandview.

PENNANTS FOR MERCHANTS

Joe Kardux, secretary of the Holland Merchant Association is distributing pennants to the business men with the name Holland on both sides.

The pennants are 2 by 4 feet and will be used as a curb flag decoration when occasions arise that are not patriotic and to replace the American flag, which the merchants feel should not be displayed for everything that comes along.

The pennants will sell for $1.25, are made of strong durable material and can be secured at either Jas. A. Brouwer Furniture Store or Joe Kardux Grocery, at River Ave. and 7th Street, the place designated as distributing points.

Life of Doctor Vander Veen Very Eventful

CAME HERE WITH PIONEERS OF '47; STUDIES AT VAN VLECK BEFORE HOPE WAS A COLLEGE

Heard Trial of Conspirators Who Aided in Killing Lincoln

One of Grand Haven's most interesting citizens is Dr. Arend VanderVeen, who rendered his country valiant surgical service during the Civil war and who has ushered into the world more than 4,000 babies during his 60 years of practice in Grand Haven and Ottawa county.

Dr. VanderVeen was born in Amsterdam, Netherlands, in 1840, and came to America with the second Van Raalte colony in 1847 which settled on the shores of Black Lake, near Holland.

With the ministry as his goal, he with 10 other boys joined a class to study in VanVleck hall, which afterward became Hope college. Strange to say, he was the only one of the 11 who did not become a preacher.

Instead he began the study of medicine under the tutelage of a physician and when the Civil war started, he answered Lincoln's call, enlisting as a private in the Eighth Michigan infantry, known as the "Wandering" regiment because of its service through all parts of the south. The young man was called the "kid" surgeon of the Ninth Army corps.

He is credited with service in 18 of the hardest battles of the Civil war, including Antietam, Fredericksburg, Vicksburg, Wilderness and second Bull Run. This was at a time when anesthesia was unheard of and when the wounded were either bound to the table or held by their comrades while major and minor operations were performed.

Dr. VanderVeen is one of the few living who heard the court martial trial of the conspirators of Lincoln and who witnessed the hanging of the notorious quartet—Herold, Mrs. Surratt, Atzerodt and Payne, in the capital prison yard.

His opportunity to hear the trial and see the execution resulted from the fact that he was sent to Washington following the close of the war to do guard duty.

After his military service, he attended the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York. Then he came to Grand Haven and established his practice. Some years later he made a special study in malarial diseases at the University of Alabama where he obtained his medical degree.

Dr. VanderVeen is a former commander of the Loyal Legion of Michigan, an organization embracing officers, sons and grandsons of the Civil war.

Although 89 years old, Dr. VanderVeen's health is fair today. He participated in the Memorial Day exercises here last month. However, he has given up his practice due to the fact that his hearing is failing him.

The veteran has been active in the social, civic and political life of Grand Haven. He was elected a member of the first city council in 1867 and has held other places of responsibility in the social life of the city.

Dr. VanderVeen is the uncle of John and Dick VanderVeen of Holland.

STEAMBOAT EXCURSION ON JULY 4TH

Local head of the Goodrich Transit Co., Mr. A. J. Johnson, announces that on July 4th the big steamer "City of Holland" will go to South Haven on a "grand lake excursion." This is an ideal trip with land in sight all the way. There will be plenty of music on board and a real old fashion independence Day can be celebrated Thursday. The steamer leaves the Holland docks at 10 A. M. and arrives at South Haven at 12:30 noon. Returning the steamer leaves South Haven at 3:30 P. M. and arrives at Holland at 6:00 P. M. Round-trip fare for adults is $1.00, children from 5 to 12 years, 50 cents.

MAN'S MORALS

"What is the matter with the moral man?" is the subject of the sermon of Rev. C. P. Dame of Trinity church next Sunday evening. This is another sermon of the series entitled "Questions Young People Ask."

The regular prayer and teachers meeting of Trinity church which are usually held on Thursday night will be held on Friday night because of the Fourth.

Representing 20 upholstery, bag and strap leather manufacturers, William Hutton of Grand Haven, Mich., told the sundries subcommittee of the senate tariff investigating body at Washington, D. C., that the industry was in "very bad shape" and was suffering from competition of substitutes. He requested an increase of 5 per cent in the house rate of 20 per cent and a vote on this class of material and an increase of 10 per cent in the house rate of 15 per cent on all other rough or finished leather.

Citizenship Paper Obtained Under New Law

REVISION WILL BE OF INTEREST TO AT LEAST 5,000 ALIENS IN MICHIGAN

To Cost More Money and Rush for Naturalization Papers Expected

Ottawa county always has a long waiting list of aliens desiring to become citizens of the United States and they should know that soon a new law will be in vogue and because of this fact many will make inquiry and will want to join Uncle Sam's family.

Approximately 5,000 persons living in Michigan who have been unable to obtain naturalization papers are expected to apply to John L. Zurbrick, Michigan director of immigration, with petitions in the next few days as a result of the changes in the naturalization laws which became effective at Washington yesterday.

These persons belong to a group that have been unable to prove the date and legality of their entry into the United States, although they have been in this country prior to 1921.

Many persons have already applied for naturalization papers in the larger cities, but due to delay in the printing of the new forms necessary under the law they were turned away. O. T. Moore, director of naturalization in Michigan, said that it would probably be three weeks before the new blanks could be had from Washington.

The cost of acquiring citizenship under the new law has jumped from $5 to $20. Among the changes are these: Depositions of witnesses in naturalization proceedings will be handled by the naturalization department and not by notaries public, as formerly. Declaration fee will be $5 instead of $1. Fee for filing of petition will be $10, with $5 additional for certificate of arrival in the United States.

After July 1, aliens will not be required to prove an entire year's residence in one state; a six month residence in Ottawa county, for instance, will be sufficient for final papers, as a part of the five years required.

A point that may prove a stickler is the necessity under the new law of proving entry into the United States, with exact date and place shown. The new ruling prevents aliens obtaining even first papers without proving legal entry, no matter when they arrived. These aliens, if they arrived before June 3, 1921, will be required to pay a $20 fee to obtain legal residing.

These changes in the naturalization laws have been the first general or sweeping changes made since June 29, 1906.

Ottawa prospective citizens would do well to inquire from County Clerk Wm. Wilda at Grand Haven and he will be only too glad to give the desired information.

HOLLAND CORONER CALLED TO SPRING LAKE DROWNING

Jack Miller, aged 17, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller of Grand Rapids, Monday evening was drowned in Spring Lake, near the Miller cottage on the old hotel property in the village of Spring Lake. It was the first drowning of the season for this section. The youth had left the cottage between 6 and 7 p.m. to take a dip in the lake. Later when he did not return his parents became alarmed. Seeing his boat on shore they summoned coast guards. The body was found about 9 o'clock 100 feet off shore in 16 or 18 feet of water. Coast guards were of the opinion young Miller either had an attack of cramps or became exhausted in attempting to make a launch anchored some distance out in the lake.

Coroner Gilbert Vander Water was called by telephone and hastened to Spring Lake but considered an inquest unnecessary.

OTTAWA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS VOTE UNANIMOUS FOR OWN PAY

Not a negative vote was registered when the Ottawa County Board of Supervisors voted to pay themselves off Friday noon at the end of the five-day session.

The total bill, of salaries and per diem wages amounted to $809.20. Harm Plagemeier of Georgetown township received the largest check. It was for $32.80 and was larger than the average because of the distance he has to travel in attending the meetings.

While Mr. Plagemeier was obtaining 20 cents a mile for 39 miles, Mayor Bruno Peters and the other three members representing the city of Grand Haven each got credit for one mile, or 20 cents.

Supervisor George Heneveld of Park township was the only supervisor who was not present at all five days session of the board, which was unavoidable.

BOYS ARRESTED AT GRAND HAVEN FOR TAKING AUTO

Richard Boyink, athlete of Grand Haven high school, and Russell Van Stratt, were arrested yesterday by state police on a charge of unlawfully driving away an automobile. Shortly before arraignment today the state police, taking into consideration past records, reduced the charge to one of disorderly.

The boys took the car owned by George DeWitt from its parking place at the Challenge Machinery company and drove it for three hours yesterday afternoon. Police say the boys were in the habit of taking employees' cars and going for rides.

Boyink was a star member of the Grand Haven high school for football and basketball squads last year.

The Commercial club of Pennville has started a campaign to mark the highways in the western parts of Allegan, Ottawa and Van Buren counties, showing the direction and the mileage to Pennville.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Mr. Arend Visseer, attorney at law, is building a handsome residence about a mile south of the city. James Huntley is the contractor and Geo. Sipp is the supervising architect. The house will cost between $1500 and $2000. Note: The residence was located on what is now State Street on the same site now occupied by the beautiful Visseer residence. That Holland has grown in the last half century is evident when it was then considered that the house in question was a mile south of Holland. James Huntley was a prominent contractor in those days and later built the Holland City State Bank and Winants Chapel. He was the father of George, Cecil, Harry, Huntley, Mrs. Ben Van Raalte and Mrs. Fred Boone, all still living in Holland. George Sipp was Holland's City Clerk and Surveyor in the early days.

Mr. Deming, the iron founder, on West 10th Street is casting an iron fence to be placed around his home near his place of business. Note: This foundry was located where Hallett now has his auto repair shop and the Deming home is modeled is occupied by them and is located across from the M. E. Church. Mrs. Deming was a wonderful woman and was constantly busy in a large old fashioned flower garden. In those days, a large part of the blooms on Decoration Day were given by her. The committee did not spend money for flowers as they do now. The large wooden foundry and machine shop was burned 35 years ago.

If somebody would cause the elevated nails along the sidewalks on Eighth Street to be driven down, he would confer a great favor on the ladies of Holland, for their long dresses are constantly being hooked on protruding nails that have worked up from the board walks. River street and other streets are just as bad, the women say.

The John Robinson's Circus parade caused two "run-aways." The tannery team driven by Mr. Moes shield at the elephants and moved down Main street scattering a load of leather. The horse of J. de Spelder took fright and the driver was thrown in the street followed by a barrel of lime. Results, a dislocated shoulder. Between the circus and the "run-aways" the usual quack of Holland has been much broken up this week.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Heneveld, South Central ave., Monday—a daughter.

Du Mez Brothers entertained the sales forces Friday and a banquet was served on the third floor of their large new store, after which a trolley ride was enjoyed to Macdaws. Those in the party were the Misses Dena, Dunevold, Henrietta Kronmeyer, Reka Cook, Aram Dunevold, Marnie Nauta, Henrietta Kerhof, Theresa Van Vulpem, Nellie Smith, Reka Kamferbeek, Mary Elenbaas and Mrs. B. Brinkman, also Klaas Prins and Peter Prins of the grocery department.

The news devoted a half column to the marriage of Miss Alice Michmehrsuizen, who was wed to Geo. Hyma. It is rather a coincidence that their daughter, Miss Ruth Hyma, should be wed to Mr. LeRoy Hill within a few days of the 25th wedding anniversary of her parents.

Miss Lottie E. Strong was married to John Wolterding, Jr. Miss Hettie Thole was bridesmaid and Geo. Wolterding, a brother, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoek celebrated their first wedding anniversary.

CARRIER PIGEON IS KILLED BY MOTORIST

Grand Haven Tribune—A carrier pigeon was killed on U.S. 31 in front of the Log Cabin Barbecue just south of M-60 junction Friday. Feeding on the paving, a car killed the bird. George Maurhauser, Route 2, Grand Haven, proprietor of the stand and station, saved the banded leg of the pigeon. A silk thread still clung to the tag but no message was found. The identification is being sent to the Biological Survey by the Grand Haven Daily Tribune.

ZEELAND DIGS UP INDIAN SKELETON

A skeleton, presumably of an Indian, was unearthed Friday by biggers in a gravel pit one mile east and two miles south of Zeeland. One of the men struck it with his shovel at depth of less than three feet. It was fairly well preserved. Coroner Gilbert Vandewater of Holland was notified and he took it to Dykstra's funeral home. What disposition will be made of it has not been determined.

DR. WARNHUIS TO LEAD MEDICAL SESSIONS AGAIN

Dr. F. C. Warnhuis of Grand Rapids, a graduate of Hope college, speaker of the house of delegates of the American Medical association, will leave Tuesday for Portland, Ore., to preside for his second consecutive year at the annual meeting of the delegates July 8 to 12. This is the eightieth annual convention of the association.

Mrs. Warnhuis will accompany her husband.

Rev. Seth Vanderwerf, of Holland, occupied the pulpit of the Third Reformed church, Muskegon, Sunday and will also be in charge Sunday, July 7, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. B. DeJonge, who with his family are on a two weeks' vacation. Rev. Vanderwerf is western field secretary of the board of domestic missions of the Reformed churches.

Diekema of Holland Talks In Haven Park

LOYALTY SUNDAY IS OBSERVED HERE IN OPEN AIR UNION SERVICES AT PARK

Hon. G. J. Diekema of Holland addressed a fair sized audience assembled in Central Park, Grand Haven, Sunday afternoon at 3:45 p.m., the meeting sponsored by the Sunday School Association of that city. "Citizenship and Loyalty" was his subject in which he stressed the value of American citizenship as compared with being a subject of other lands.

In this country citizenship means freedom to choose the ones placed in government, freedom to think and act as they choose and a chance to rise to any height.

"Subject to a king or similar title, class distinction and less power to earn makes citizenship here so prized, each year thousands are knocking at the doors of this country for entrance, that they may enjoy the privileges of this fair land," he said.

The meeting was in charge of A. Ringelberg, president of the association. J. J. Bolt offered a prayer and Henry Wieringer closed the meeting with a benediction.

The orchestra of the city combined to make a group of 30 musicians who furnished music for the occasion. They played "America" and other patriotic airs. The congregation united in singing the Doxology.

The outlook for the new Junior high school just established at Hudsonville for the coming year looks bright. It is thought that there will be an increase in numbers. The teachers for the coming year will include Oliver J. DeJonge as superintendent and Miss Arleen Haan of Holland as the principal.

Pipe Organ Recital Proves Great Success

DR. NYKERK ARRANGES WONDERFUL PROGRAM AT HOPE'S NEW CHAPEL

In spite of bad weather, a large and appreciative audience came to attend the splendid organ recital given by Professor Palmer Christian of the Ann Arbor University School of Music. Mr. Christian was assisted by Mrs. Harold Karsten, pianist, and Mrs. H. L. Dunevold, contralto (Mrs. Edward J. De Proo, accompanist) of Hope College, School of Music. Mrs. Karsten gave the audience a fine opportunity to hear the beautiful new Grand Bush and Lane piano, presented to the college by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Meyer. It is scarcely necessary to say that our local talent did most creditable work.

Here follows the program:

(a) FANTASIA (Hubert): The element of dramatic intensity is apparent throughout the fantasia, the composer effectively portraying the tragedies and hopes of the great Saviour.

(b) PRELUDE (Saint-Saens): An unusually appealing composition, with an excellent example of the melodic writing that characterizes all of Saint-Saens' work.

(c) ALLEGRO CONSPIRITO—Sonata 111 (Borovik): Felix Borovik is one of the greatest of modern composers, having distinct achievements as composer, critic and pedagogue.

(d) SWEET VOICE—Sonata 111 (Saint-Saens): (b) People Glorious—Horn Novissima (Parker), Mrs. H. L. Dunevold with the piano. (c) MINUET (Rameau)—1685-1764: Rameau was a distinguished French composer of the great Bach. His particular contribution to the art of music was a systematization of harmonic material.

(e) LENTO—Orpheus (Bach 1714-1786): The Lento is a new ideal for opera—a perfect blending of the lyric and dramatic elements. The "Lento" is a perfect example of the composer's power to create a new world in his work, and in the "Lento" is for the solo.

(f) TOCATA, ADAGIO AND FUGUE (Bach 1685-1750): Bach's work, with its flood passages for manuals, indicative of the influence of Bach's predecessors. The "Tocatta" is a masterpiece of the thematic material used in the main part of the Tocatta immediately following: this progresses in a vigorous, definite manner to the "Adagio." The "Fugue" is one of the most beautiful of the Bach examples of cantabile writing, suggestive of the slow and stately movements of the composer poured out his soul so freely.

(g) NOCTURNE (Chopin): One of the most popular of piano compositions, the Nocturne is usually effective on the modern organ.

(h) PRÉLUDE (Piano): (a) Prelude in G Major (Bachmann): (b) Aus dem Carnaval (Grieg). Mrs. Harold J. Karsten, pianist, and Mrs. H. L. Dunevold, contralto.

Over the deep mysterious waters of the Saguenay broods the spirit of vanished races, a solitude of forest-covered mountains. Along the upper reaches, the river flows past vast fens, Eternity and Trinity, which rise like twin gibbets on the shore of the Saguenay. The river is a statue of the Virgin, erected by grateful farmers. Beyond are wide fields reaching to a distant horizon.

(i) SCHERZO (Roussau): Samuel Roussau, an able French musician, was particularly successful in the composition of the Scherzo. He was for many years master of the choir at St. Clothilde, Paris, the church made famous by the French Revolution.

(j) NOCTURNE (Chopin): One of the most popular of piano compositions, the Nocturne is usually effective on the modern organ.

For an encore Mr. Christian, at this point, gave a very fine improvisation on two themes requested by two present at the recital, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" and "Nearer, My God to Thee." This gave the audience a fine opportunity to hear the effective use of the beautiful Echo-antiphonal organ as well of rich and rare combinations in the organ.

(k) CAPRIOLLE (Bouquet): (a) Capriolle, organist at St. Eustache, Paris, is one of the great organ virtuosos of the world.

Professor Palmer Christian more than fulfilled the expectations of his audience with his dash and brilliancy and wonderfully varied technique. For the first time the whole organ was displayed and demonstrated at this grand recital. Mr. Christian expressed his delight with the wonderful 4 manual organ and with the earnest and appreciative listeners that Holland furnished. Hope certainly may be proud to possess one of the finest concert organs in the state of Michigan.

The next step that the college will take is to have a first-class organist and instructor in organ and theory and composition. Naturally, there are many applicants for this position.

Why Mar the Peace and Quiet of Summer Dwellers?

With the opening of the summer season, we remind state and local authorities of the existence of a Michigan statute requiring the use of muffling devices on motor boats. That law apparently is forgotten as far as owners of outboard motor boats are concerned. At least it is so generally disregarded that the protection to ears and nerves it contemplates is practically non-existent wherever they operate.

In consequence, many of the lakes and rivers of the state of Michigan, including connecting waters of the Great Lakes, are being humiliated, and life along their borders nearly unbearable. This is especially true of inland lakes and small arms of Lake Michigan such as Macatawa Bay proved to be. Instead of being restful and attractive as in yester year these are so rapidly becoming places of strain and almost a horror.

The fact is that today the outboard boats run wild and unrestrained, and create a racket beside which noises made by trains and automobiles seem almost melodious.

The nuisance should be abated, and abated immediately. It is an abuse the people of Michigan should not be called upon to endure, and it is exceedingly bad business for a state which has become one of the foremost resort regions of the country, because it offers almost unequalled natural opportunities for rest, recreation and quiet after winter seasons of stress and strain.

It ought to be a simple matter for state and local authorities to end the trouble if they will set out in earnest to do so. Offenders are easy to hear and find. Why, at the Holland resorts for instance, should two score of wild boatmen spoil the pleasures of thousands of peaceful summer dwellers along the entire Black Lake shore line as well as along the beaches of Lake Michigan?

WOMAN CAUSE OF AUTO ACCIDENT ON HOLLAND-
GRAND HAVEN ROAD

One woman was severely injured and several other members of her family were less seriously hurt in an automobile accident between Holland and Grand Haven shortly before noon Monday. Mrs. Edward Eckhart of Lansing is in Hattson hospital at Grand Haven with cuts on the head, shoulders and face, one leg fractured and possibly internal injuries. One daughter, Margaret, 16, was bruised severely and her sister, Miss V. H. Eckhart, 20, was less seriously bruised. Mr. Eckhart, the driver, escaped injuries. The accident occurred when another machine, driven by a woman, attempted to cut in front of the Eckhart car and the bumpers locked, throwing the latter machine into the ditch. A Greyhound bus bound for Holland stopped and passengers helped to extricate the injured. The bus brought them to the hospital here. State police are investigating.

HOLLAND IS ASSURED OF NEW BLACK RIVER SPAN

Assurance has been received by city officials here that the state highway department has approved of a new bridge over Black river on North River avenue, and the work is to be done next summer. Mayor Earnest C. Brooks and Alderman Brieve of the street committee and City Engineer Jacob Zuidema have been working on the project for some time.

"CLOSE HARMONY"
100 PER CENT TALKIE

Bright, humorous, tuneful music are part of the entertainment and the plot of "Close Harmony," the Paramount all-talking film of stage and back-stage life in a de luxe cinema palace which comes to the Colonial Theatre for three days beginning Wednesday, July 10.

Buddy Rogers and Nancy Carroll have the leading roles in the play and they are ably supported by Jack Oakie and Richard "Skeets" Gallagher, vodvil headliners, and Harry Green, another favorite of the variety stage.

Nancy Carroll sings one of the numbers, "Go Places and Do Things." Buddy also sings a song, "All A Twitter," and Oakie and Gallagher have a harmony comedy song, rendered in the Van and Schenck manner, "She's So, I Dunno." There is a band number, the old but still red jazz tune, "Twelfth Street Rag," in which Buddy plays several instruments of his band.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Leirope of Cincinnati, Ohio, who are spending the summer in the Netherlands will sail for home August 1. Mrs. Van Leirope was formerly Miss Ann Koppelman of this city and has many friends here.

Six Cylinder Sentences

By DR. JOHN W. HOLLAND
Lend a needy man a hand. It will help him more than handing him money. Here's to the other fellow—may we be as good as we want him to be. If all who act from vanity grew peacock feathers we should have a fuzzy world. Cease worrying about two things: those that you can help and those that you can't. Our dreams are the deathless part of us. Direction is more essential than speed.

HOLLAND GOODYEAR DEALER
PILOTS AIRSHIP IN NOVEL
SALES CONTEST

"Cast off!" was the shout heard Monday morning, when Charlie Van Zyl of the Holland Vulcanizing Co. signalled to his crew that their big airship was ready to nose its way skyward in the Goodyear Zeppelin Race.

Goodyear is staging this contest among its dealers throughout the United States and has assigned to each dealer a mythical Zeppelin. All the Zeppelins leave Akron, Ohio, on Monday morning and are due at the California factory in Los Angeles by Saturday night. Each set of a tire or tube by a dealer carries his Zeppelin so many miles toward the goal.

During the weeks to follow, the airships are scheduled to "moor" at various other Goodyear factories and plantations throughout the world, including Litchfield, Ariz., Gadsden, Ala., Australia, Sumatra, England, Massachusetts and Canada. The finish will be in Akron.

"As we sail by sales," states Mr. Van Zyl, "we are going to offer tire buyers every inducement to help us win."

This is the greatest sales race which has ever been held among tire dealers, and if we can bring home to Holland some of the prizes and honors that are to be awarded the winners, it will be one of the proudest moments of our lives.

The contest will continue during July and August.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT WANTS LARGE RURAL MAIL BOXES

The post office department at Washington will soon require larger mail boxes on all new rural routes for every new patron on existing routes or extensions thereof, or of patrons desiring to provide boxes of sufficient capacity to contain parcel post mail. All such will be required to place what is called the No. 2 size box after July 1, 1929. As the old boxes become unserviceable and new boxes have to be placed every patron will be required to put in the large size box.

The manufacturers of the old type of mail box who probably have a stock of them on hand, will probably deluge the rural routes now with offers of cut prices on the old type of smaller mail box. Patrons should not bite at that proposition because, when new boxes are placed the government will require them to be of the larger type which will be of sufficient size to hold parcel post mail.

In a few days the government will furnish a list of the names and addresses of the manufacturers of the larger boxes.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS ARE

For the past ten years there has been a steady upward trend in Grand Haven collections according to W. L. Phillips, deputy collector in charge here.

OTTAWA AND IONIA COUNTIES
ASK GOVERNOR TO SUPPORT
CONNELLY PROPOSAL

Ottawa and Ionia supervisors, in joint session at Ionia Thursday noon, adopted a resolution to be sent to the governor urging legislation to curb the use of hard tires on trucks and trailers which are breaking up the cement trunk lines. Action will be asked in a special session, if called in conformity with the ideas of William M. Connelly, local road commissioner.

The action was taken during a luncheon at the Reed Inn when the local highway touring party of 36 and a driver were guests of the Ionia board. At a previous brief session of the Ottawa board on the Greyhound bus after picking up the Alleendale delegation, the report of the equalization committee was laid on the table until this morning.

The two main stops of interest were at Aman Park, a Grand Rapids project in Ottawa. The preserve of 400 acres on M-50 will be connected with U.S.-16 by a seven acre strip offered by Supervisor George Root of Talmadge if the county will construct a gravel road through the park connecting the Bridge and Leonard road highways.

Ionia's new $7,000 highway garage, 80 by 243 feet, was inspected. The county seat here is not centrally located so a new garage for county equipment will be built between Zeeland and Holland to serve South Ottawa in addition to the 55 by 100-foot plant here.

Ottawa County leads Ionia in two important highway features. The county east of Kent has no concrete outside of the state trunk lines and off of the state unpaved roads use no chloride. All Ottawa County trucks are treated at $200 a mile saving gravel and drivers.

The reformatory warden at the Ionia luncheon praised the convict job of laying M-50. He gave John J. Wolbrink of Alleendale much credit for making the inmate participation possible and such a success.

On invitation of the warden the Ottawa party went through his institution.

In outlining his road preservation theory Commissioner Connelly stated one per cent of the traffic only moved on solid tires. He quoted a freight rate of $4 a ton by truck from Muskegon to Detroit. He advocated so low a speed limit for hard tires it would make such traffic unprofitable. License regulation would not relieve Southern Michigan, where most industrial routes lie, as most of the machines are from out state. Enforcement would be left to the State Highway Department.

Supervisor Peter Damstra of Holland offered the resolution on which was unanimously supported by both boards.

Those who made up the party, in addition to the supervisors, included Austin Harrington and Charles A. French of Holland, Barred Kamps of Zeeland, W. M. Connelly, Karl T. Bowen and William Wilds of Grand Haven. The supervisors who made the trip were: J. F. Van Anrooy, Philip Rosbach, Peter H. Van Ark, E. Vanden Berg, J. De Keyser, Alfred Joldersma, P. De Goeke of Holland; John Moeke, C. Roosenraad, Roelof Dragt, William Havedink, Floyd Harrison, B. L. Taylor, Harm Plaggemeyer, George C. Borek, Albert Hyma, Gerrit Yntema, Phil H. Vinkemulder, George E. Heneveld, Mr. Henry A. Marshall, Mr. Abraham Auyrs, Mr. Fred Graham, David M. Cline, George H. Root, Chas. Goodenow, Gradus Lubbers.

PROMINENT HOLLAND
W. C. T. U. DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. R. N. DeMerell, prominent temperance worker, died at Holland Friday. She had been an officer in local, county and state organizations and a year ago represented the national W. C. T. U. in the international convention in Switzerland. She became ill on the way home and never regained her health. Her husband died in the west four years ago and his ashes were scattered over the Pacific ocean according to his request.

Mrs. Iantha DeMerell, as she was known in Holland, was a charter member of the Century club as well as the W. C. T. U. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Nellie Stevens of Battle Creek, a nephew, Archer W. Johnson of Holland, and a grandniece, Esther Margaret Johnson, also of this city.

The DeMerells came to Holland in 1885, he being a stone cutter of unusual ability. Later and for many years he was the only monument merchant in Holland. After the death of Mr. DeMerell the business on Seventh street was sold to the Holland Monument Co.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. R. N. DeMerell were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the Dykstra Funeral home with Dr. J. C. Willits officiating. Interment was in Pilgrim Home cemetery. The pall bearers were Mayor Earnest C. Brooks, C. H. McBride, A. D. Goodick, R. T. Hayden, Dr. E. D. Dimment and Henry Winter.

Rev. Prins has been the only minister summoned to Calvary church, though he declined the first call extended to him. He graduated from Western Theological seminary two years ago and has since filled the Forest Grove pulpit, where he succeeded Rev. Harry Hager, who became professor of Bible at Hope college.

MAYOR OF ZEELAND PROVIDES HUMOR AT SUPERVISORS' SESSION

Muskegon Chronicle—John Moeke, mayor of Zeeland and a member of the Ottawa county Board of Supervisors, provided a bit of humor during the tenseness of the equalization fight in yesterday's meeting of the supervisors.

Mr. Moeke had voted consistently against the resolutions offered by the Holland delegation to have Holland's assessment reduced. Evidently he had gained the habit of saying "no."

Then when the roll was called on the motion to adopt the report of the apportionment committee, providing a $200,000 increase for the City of Holland, Mr. Moeke was talking to a colleague. When he heard his name spoken by the clerk, he responded "No."

There was a spontaneous outburst of laughter to the discomfiture of the Zeeland executive.

HAMILTON

The local Ford garage has posted in a prominent place of the showroom a dozen rules for auto drivers which are described as "Common Sense in Automobile Driving." The Ford Motor Co. is putting on a nation-wide campaign for greater safety and more pleasant driving conditions on the highways of the country this summer. This is most certainly a worthy effort in the right direction. Since more than 20,000,000 persons will tour on our highways this summer, according to estimates, it is self-evident that "common sense" will be essential not only, but that this will go a long to make traveling safer and pleasant. Take a look at the rules in the local garages and follow up these suggestions and if we back up this campaign it will result in great benefits to all of us.

Grevenoged. The program was closed with some moving pictures which were put on by the Chevrolet Motor Co. More than 2,400 gallons of Shell gas were sold and about 400 boxes of candy were given to customers besides the souvenirs to the amount of $200. The crowd was also given free ice cream, "as much as they could eat."

The youngsters especially accepted the invitation and every one went the limit. Manager Andrew Lohman reports that 135 gallons were dish out. All in all it was a big day. One of the state speakers testified that this was the most successful opening day the Chevrolet Auto Co. had put on anywhere.

It is the 36th Annual this year and the exhibition is to be held in Holland Aug. 20-23. Free attractions on the race track will be of a high order. One event will feature an act staged by Barnum & Bailey circus for 14 consecutive years. The night show will feature free acts and display of fireworks.

All space in the big art hall virtually has been sold. A special feature will include the display of a model city, showing traffic lights, automobiles, water flow and other things in operation.

Secretary VandeBunte states he expects the annual premium book will be ready for distribution within 10 days and possibly sooner. Larger premiums will be offered in the cattle and other departments. A feature in the cattle exhibit will be a herd from the Iowa reformatory.

Special premiums will be offered by Holland merchants and special prizes by the fair association. There will be displays by farmers' clubs, boys and girls clubs and the public schools. Concessions on the midway virtually have been sold.

The grounds and race track have been improved, the big art hall has been entirely rearranged for greater variety, and the departments of rabbits, pigeons and caviar will be housed in a separate building that the poultry exhibit may have added space to do full justice to one of the rapidly growing departments in this section of the state.

B. Mulder of Zeeland Lived for 75 Years in Same Homestead

Grand Rapids Press—Having spent 75 years on one homestead is the record set recently by Bouke Mulder, who lives about a mile south of Zeeland.

Although the aged man has passed through many of the pioneer hardships he makes light of them.

Coming to this country from The Netherlands when he was 8 he had to travel in the lowest passenger rating because of the financial circumstances of his parents. Conditions on the boat were bad and within a few weeks after landing two of Mulder's sisters died, supposedly as a result of the poor food that they were forced to eat. Mulder and another sister also were affected, but they soon regained their health. After leaving New York the family went to Kalamazoo for a short time. Then they moved to this section of the state, traveling by ox team. On arriving in this region they had to exist on cornmeal mush and water for many weeks.

MARRIES WITH $2

The homestead selected at that time was in the center of woods with no near neighbors. Deer, wolves and coon abounded. The work of clearing the land was begun by both the men of the homestead. Trees cut down were used for the construction of a one-room frame house. After aiding his father in getting settled, Bouke Mulder decided to get married. He was 22 then. With $2 in his pocket and the $2 his wife had saved they started their married life.

Money was very hard to get and people were glad when they had a penny for the collection plate in church he felt as if he were contributing a great deal. Almost all the trading was done with lumber and farm products.

Taxes on farm property then were very cheap. Mulder once paid $1 assessment on 50 acres; today he must pay almost that much on one acre. The old farm grew under direction of the elder Mulder, until he had acquired 210 acres. Today but 110 acres remain as the cultivation was too great for the two sons who stayed at home to work the farm.

In addition to his farm work

Bouke Mulder has served 3 years in offices of North Street Christian Reformed church, Zeeland. He also was a director of East Holland school, a son now holding forth in the same capacity.

ARNOLD MULDER'S DAD

Mulder is the father of 10 boys and 5 girls. One of the boys is Arnold Mulder, editor, author of several books and a special writer of note. There also are two preacher sons, Henry John of Grand Rapids, and James of Elkhington, N. J. Mr. Mulder is healthy and well, the only thing that bothers him in his eighty-fourth year is the fact that his eyesight is failing slightly. But the fact he has mastered three languages without attending school enables him to converse with all persons; so he does not mind the fact he cannot read very much. He still enjoys working in his little garden.

He has a sister living in Holland who has just celebrated her 81st birthday, namely Mrs. L. Mulder, publisher of De Groudwet.

Milwaukee to Honor Man Who Risked Life

MICHAEL EICHER, FIRST WHITE TO ROW ACROSS LAKE MICHIGAN BACK IN HIS HOME TOWN

Michael Eicher, the courageous oarsman who successfully crossed Lake Michigan in a tiny row boat, 14 feet long, rested fairly well and is back in Milwaukee not much the worse for his 27 hours of almost constant plying of the oars in the eighty miles from the Milwaukee Yacht Club to the piers at this port. He slept about six hours after the long row and felt no particular soreness in his arms or hands but has difficulty sitting down. The long confinement to the little hard board seat covered only with a small hard cushion and the cramped position of his legs is telling now.

A shave and a good breakfast erased some of the lines which had appeared in his bronzed face telling the story of the hours of strain and endurance which such a feat entails. Modest in the extreme he asks no publicity.

A message from Milwaukee asking when the hero would return home as his home wishes to stage a celebration for the man who, in the interest of sports, is the first white man to cross the lake in a little skiff, and they wish to honor him.

On landing Wednesday, one of his first words were, "I must get to a telephone and let my mother know I made it." She is anxiously awaiting his return to Milwaukee where the two live together.

He arrived in Milwaukee Friday morning about 6:00 A. M. and a crowd of reporters, sportsmen and spectators were on hand to greet him there. Asked why he did not take a car ferry and arrive in Milwaukee at an hour when more people would be there to welcome him, he said he wanted no demonstration and is content to slip back to his little home satisfied in the thought that he has accomplished what he had determined to do for many months.

A roving sailor, he has had many experiences which probably would make many a good story. He is personally acquainted with Eugene Scott, a well known marine engineer now living in Milwaukee, a brother of Kingsbury Scott a newspaper man and a story writer of Grand Haven.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE WERE WED AT HOPE CHURCH ON SATURDAY

Saturday morning was beautiful and ideal for a wedding and that was the day chosen by a popular young couple in Holland, when Miss Ruth Alice Hyma was wed to Dr. LeRoy L. Hill at Hope church shortly before noon. The ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of the church. The affair was a quiet one, only a few intimate friends of the families being present.

The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Hazel Lokker on the pipe organ as the prospective bride and groom entered the church edifice. The bride looked charming in a white crepe de chine gown with a wedding veil of tulle caught at the back with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, swansonia, and pink snapdragons.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eunice Hyma, who looked very charming in a yellow georgette ensemble and carried a corsage bouquet. Mr. Cecil Hill, brother of the groom, was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was awaiting the guests at Warm Friend Tavern, after which the happy couple left by automobile for their future home in Chicago.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hill are graduates of Holland High school; in fact, there is where the beginning of this romance has its inception. Mr. Hill excelled in all sorts of sports and starred especially on the football team.

Mrs. Hill is a graduate of Hope college of the class of 1927 and was instructor in history in the Shepherd, Michigan, high school up to the close of this year's school term.

Dr. Hill graduated from the Chicago School of Dental Surgery with the class of 1927. For the past two years he has been practicing in Chicago.

Mrs. Hill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hyma, 346 Pine avenue, and Mr. Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hill, 237 East 11th street.

It is rather a coincidence that the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Hyma should fall on the same date with the marriage of their daughter and that the marriage of an older brother, George Hill, should also be on that same date. He, six years ago, became the husband of Miss Esther Dyke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyke.

The Hills will make their future home in Chicago.

Dr. William Westrate and family have moved to their cottage on R.R.6 just north of Lakewood farm.

Sunday marked the beginning of the third week of the Gospel Camp that is being held in the large tent on Van Raalte avenue and 15th street. Good interest is being shown in the meeting and many are attending the services. Services are being held each evening this week except Saturday at 7:30.

Three children's meetings are also being held this week on Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock. A special young people's meeting will be held on Wednesday evening. Miss DeBoer will be the speaker for the evening. Miss De Boer and Miss Hall, who are the music directors and children's and young people's workers for the camp are being well received and their work is greatly appreciated. Everybody is cordially invited to all the services.

WATER SPOILS PIANOS WORTH $3,000 IN GRAND HAVEN PIANO FACTORY

Four insurance adjusters called to inspect the damage at the Story & Clark piano factory, Grand Haven, caused when four sprinkler heads let go following a blaze that a bolt of lightning caused during a storm.

A loss of this kind is difficult to adjust. Goods appearing now to be in fair condition within a few months show up defects.

The steam has been turned on full force to assist in the drying but the open grand pianos still are filled with puddles of water. As the heat begins to dry out, parts glued give away, veneers peel and beautiful finishes are blistered and ruined.

As it took two weeks to move much of the stock which was damaged from the lower building to the "A" building to make room for the radio plant, it will be a big job to go through the stock. If the loss had occurred in the other section it would not have been so difficult, for it is the finished product which suffers most. Some grand pianos valued up to $3,000 are wrecks. There were at least 200 finished pianos ready for shipment that now are ruined.

Frank Story of Chicago was in Grand Haven Wednesday and went over the loss. He anticipates it will make no change in the present radio consolidation plans that will add materially to Grand Haven's industrial well being. Although it looks now as if the loss could be cut a little from the first estimates, it will be from $150,000 to $200,000, Mr. Eaton, the plant manager, said.

THE QUAIL SEEMS TO BE TRAVELING NORTH

Are the quail extending their range northward in Michigan? There are indications that they are. Last winter several coveys wintered in Manistee county and were noted regularly at feeding stations established for the ring-necked pheasants. Now comes the report that a covey of eighteen birds wintered near Houghton Lake village. This covey was fed by local residents throughout the winter and came through with the loss of only one bird. The game division of the conservation department would like further reports of the occurrence of the quail or "bob-white" in the central and northern parts of the lower peninsula. Quail have been rather scarce around Holland; not a few are seen daily by motorists crossing trunk lines in this vicinity.

DOGS RUN DOWN CELERY BEDS

Celery growers in the vicinity of Grand Haven demand that a dog pond be established. Dogs run down the young celery causing tremendous loss. Aldermen are endeavoring to find some way out to cope with this vexing condition. There are no funds available and city attorney Mims has been called upon to find some way to stop the nuisance.

PAUL RADER GOING TO CHINA

Paul Rader, internationally known evangelist who has been in Holland on several occasions, will leave for China on Aug. 10 on invitation of a Chinese delegation headed by Lelang Wang, Chinese evangelist. It is the first time the Chinese have directly invited American evangelists to work with them, Mr. Rader says.

The evangelist will conduct a series of meetings at Shanghai, Nanjing, Peking, Foo-Chow and other places. He will be gone two months.

Hard Tire Trucks Must Go In Ottawa County

HAVE BEEN BREAKING UP TRUNK LINES AND WRECKING HIGHWAYS

William M. Connelly, chairman of the Ottawa County Road Commission and veteran good roads booster, has appealed to Gov. Fred W. Green to make the question of legislation to eliminate a certain type of vehicle on the highways a part of the program for a special session of the Legislature.

"Trucks with hard tires, operated by a few selfish concerns in Michigan, are ruining the roads for other traffic," says Mr. Connelly. "There are few concrete roads in Michigan today that will stand the shock of hard tired traffic and the fact that the people are asleep and are not demanding their rights is costing them thousands of dollars in repair bills."

"Trucks with pneumatic tires, that is, if they are not overloaded, do far less damage to the road. I talked the situation over with Frank F. Rogers, former head of the state highway department and he agrees with me regarding the urgent need of legislation regulating truck traffic. The only sure way of getting relief is for the taxpayers of the state to start demanding their rights."

U.S.-16 between Grand Haven and Grand Rapids is in bad condition as a result of the heavy truck traffic and many places on U.S.-31, especially north of Agnew, show bad wear and many broken spots.

Recently, the State Highway Department in a conference with county highway officials took steps to eliminate trailers of special types on the highways. It was decided at this conference also to confer with trailer manufacturers to eliminate certain types.

Grand Haven Harbor Plan Means Money

IN EXCESS OF $50,000 TO BE SPENT BY UNCLE SAM ON NEIGHBORING PORT

More than $50,000 will be expended on Grand Haven harbor improvements this season by federal authorities, according to L. W. Goddard of the U. S. Engineer Office of the War Department at Grand Rapids.

There will be the usual dredging by the sea-going suction dredge General Meade, which has her home port there. The probable cost is given by Engineer Goddard at $10,000 to $15,000.

No dredging will be required at the entrance bar in Lake Michigan as the present depths are ample, being 21 feet below datum on the north half and 23 feet on the south half. These depths are equivalent to 23½ and 25½ feet at the present stage of the lake.

The depths between the piers and to the car ferry slip are in excess of 21 feet below datum, that is, 23½ feet deep at the present stage of the lake. The dredging which will be done largely will be to widen the channel in the bend from Washington to Howard street.

The other item is the proposed repairs to 606 feet of the north pier just inside of the Lake Michigan shore line. This is an old round pile pier with timber superstructure. It will be repaired by driving new round oak piles along the channel face and by building a concrete wall along the channel face of the work and along a portion of the rear face.

Minor repairs to the piers, covering small items, will be made wherever damage has occurred to any of the structures.

Lesson for July 7 THE STORY OF EZEKIEL

LESSON TEXT—Ezekiel 1:4-11:24:15-18.

GOLDEN TEXT—As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Ezekiel, a Messenger of God. JUNIOR TOPIC—Ezekiel, a Messenger of God. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Frankness and Friendliness. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—A Prophet-Pastor.

Ezekiel prophesied in the land of the captivity. The purpose of his ministry was threefold.

(1) To keep before the house of Israel that they were in captivity because of their sins (1:1-3). (2) To show that God is righteous in His visitation of judgment upon them (7:8, 9). (3) To sustain their faith by assuring them of their national restoration, the punishment of their enemies, and their final exaltation among the nations when Messiah should reign (34:11-31).

I. Ezekiel's Call (2:1-2).

1. Command to stand up (v. 1). He was given a vision of the Almighty God on His throne of glory (ch. 1). The purpose of this vision was to give a synthetic grasp of the execution of the divine will through the powers and forces which God had created. Before this vision the prophet felt prostrate upon his face. When one sees the diversity and complexity of the agencies employed, including the animate and inanimate creation intelligently moving forward, under the direction of the Almighty, he will be ready to face any task regardless of its difficulty.

2. Filled with the Spirit (v. 2). By the Spirit the divine energy entered him and enabled him to execute his commission.

II. Ezekiel's Commission (vv. 3-8).

1. The moral condition of the people (vv. 3, 4).

(1) A rebellious nation (v. 3). This perhaps referred to their idolatrous practices.

(2) Impudent children (v. 4). Impudent means literally "hard of face." It means the grossest versatility which caused them to stand up in the presence of the prophets of God without a sense of guilt.

2. The charge (v. 4).

He was to deliver God's message. It was to be, "Thus saith the Lord God."

3. The difficulty of his task (vv. 5-8).

The prophet was to deliver the message of God whether they would hear or forbear. He was to fearlessly execute his commission, though the attitude of the people be as "barbs, thorns and scorpions."

A faithful minister's life and testimony will run counter to the world (II Tim. 3:12).

III. Ezekiel's Experimental Qualifications (2:9-3:16).

Before one can preach to others he must have a personal experience.

1. Eating the book (2:9-3:9).

This book contained God's woes upon the stiff-necked and rebellious people. In order to speak God's threatenings effectively to others we must inwardly digest and appropriate them ourselves. The result of this eating was that Ezekiel was made "hard of face and forehead" to go against the people who were "hard of face and forehead."

2. Urged on by the Spirit (3:10-14).

In order to strengthen Ezekiel for his task, the wonderful symbolism of God's providential agencies which had been before him in chapter one was brought to his attention, assuring him that God would accompany him to his new destination.

3. Entering into sympathy (v. 15).

In order to minister to a people one must show the message is from the depths of the heart. Ezekiel mingled his tears with theirs.

IV. Ezekiel's Grave Responsibility (3:17-12).

Two things were required of him as a watchman over the flock.

1. To hear the Word at God's mouth (v. 17).

The source of his message was God's Word. This is true today.

2. To sound the warning (v. 17). After he had heard God's message he was to speak it out; then his responsibility was discharged.

V. Ezekiel's Courage (24:15-18).

He was to be taught by a sorrowful experience. He was to turn his face from even natural desire. At the death of his wife he was forbidden to mourn. By this means God sought to impress upon Israel the seriousness of the situation.

LIFE SAVING TEACHER TO COME TO HOLLAND JULY 3

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, secretary of the South Ottawa chapter, American Red Cross, and F. J. Geiger, chairman of the first aid and life saving committee of the county chapter have received word, stating that James M. Power, life saving representative for the mid-western branch of the American Red Cross, will visit this county on July 3rd for the purpose of examining candidates for Red Cross examinerships. Those who are now rated as examiners are also asked to meet Mr. Power to be re-examined since it is required that each examiner be examined at least once every two years.

It is planned to arrange for a meeting at some central location where Mr. Power can meet all the examiners, senior life savers, junior life savers, and candidates for these ratings. A large number of people from the county qualified as Red Cross life savers last year, and indications are that a large number more will seek to qualify this coming season.

The work of the American Red Cross in the field of water safety has contributed much to reduce the number of fatalities in the water, and to make swimming and water activities in general more safe and pleasurable.

Mrs. B. Vanden Brink and daughter Kathryn and Nicholas Keiser left Thursday to visit the Niagara Falls.

GRAND HAVEN TUG CAPTAIN IS SUSPENDED

Capt. Peter Boet has been suspended for 30 days by the war department, it was revealed Wednesday, when the inspector's report on the sinking of the tugboat Liberty was made public. Capt. Boet was in charge of the tugboat when it sank off Ferryburg in Grand River April 24 while towing the gravel boat Andaste.

The report said Capt. Boet would have been given a more drastic sentence had it not been for the heroism he displayed in saving the lives of two members of the crew of the Liberty. The captain swam to shore, about 200 yards, obtained a gasoline launch and rescued John Welch, engineer, and Charles Hammond, fireman.

Captain Charles Brown of the Andaste was exonerated of all blame.

Boet's suspension started June 6 and will continue until July 6.

A dredge of the Material Construction company of Grand Haven began work Monday at the old Harrington dock at Virginia Park in restoring the dock so it can be used by big boats. Despite the high water, the point has filled in until the water was not more than four feet deep. The dredge will require three or four days more to complete the work, after which the dock will be partially restored. The work is being done so the gravel boats may land there to bring

The electric meter department of the board of public works in the city hall has just installed a new electric clock which makes the laboratory one of the best equipped in the state and assures light patrons of the city of correct meters timed to fractions of the second. The clock is especially designed for the work and is connected with devices which are used in testing meters, which check up on the house meters. The clock is guaranteed to lose not more than 20 seconds a month and is corrected hourly over the telephone lines from Arlington where the United States government master clock is located. This master clock is sealed in an airtight room located 40 feet below the level of the ground and kept from all temperature changes, even the winding being done by electricity from the outside. With such equipment as the board of works now has there will be no doubt as to a customer getting exactly the service he pays for from his meter.

The water department of the board of public works has completed its work on 10th street in advance of the new paving, with the exception of one connection which will be made in a few days. The Holland Gas company main has been finished as far as Pine avenue and will be completed within one or two days more. The connection in the water line has been delayed so tearing up the Maple avenue intersection will only have to be done once for the two lines. Work on the new soft water line to connect with Centennial and Lincoln parks has been practically completed and lacks only one connection and the installation of a new pump at Kollen park. This new soft water line will be the first time anything of the kind has ever been tried in Holland and it is believed by the park men that the warm soft water will be very beneficial to the flowers and shrubs. The experiment will be watched with a great deal of interest.—Holland Sentinel.

ZEELAND

The transaction that will allow for the erection of a $10,000 storage and repair garage by the Otawa county road commission in Zeeland has been authorized by the board of supervisors, according to the word received by owners of the Zeeland brickyard property. The new building will take the place of the present garage at Spring Lake, which will be abandoned. The sale of the Spring Lake garage will apply on the building price of the new plant. The central location of the garage will save the county money as the drawing of road equipment from the far ends of the county would be eliminated. It also was stated the Spring Lake garage is not used to a great extent because of the road commission garage in Grand Haven. The location of the new garage will be directly on M21 at the limits of the city. This location was taken upon recommendation of the good roads committee which has been studying the situation for a long time.

A surprise party was given by Mrs. Henry Decker Thursday at her home in Zeeland in honor of Mrs. W. P. Hodgkin of Hayward city. A few of the old Free and Easy Sewing club members of the service were present in the afternoon. Bridge was played and Maude Hodgkins, formerly Miss Maude Verhove of Holland, told many stories of California and the beauties of that state. Those present were Mrs. W. P. Hodgkins of California, Mrs. H. Decker of Zeeland, Mrs. M. Nordyke of Sparta, Mrs. J. Verhove, Miss Maude Verhove and Miss Minnie Verhove of Holland; Mrs. F. Williams, Mrs. Winnie Peabody and Mrs. Herman Haeleke of Grand Rapids.

Michael (Mike) Hirdes, 55, pioneer oil station proprietor in Zeeland, was seriously injured Thursday when his car skidded and overturned on the Byron Center-Grand Rapids highway about one mile north of Byron Center. Hirdes was traveling north to Grand Rapids when he approached a stretch in the pavement where repair work was being done. The heavy downfall of rain and a slight rise in the pavement prevented him from seeing the caution sign soon enough. As he applied his brakes the car swerved and turned turtle, rolling over twice. Hirdes was extracted from the wreck by passersby and taken to Zeeland hospital, where it was found he is suffering from internal injuries. Gerrit Veneklassen, 50, also of this city, who was riding with Hirdes at the time, received several minor bruises. The car was demolished.

Mr. Leon Moody, director of the following swimming program: from 2:00 to 3:00 in the afternoon the beginners are taught, from 4:00 to 5:00 the advanced students. From three to four makeup lessons will be taken care.

This year as last year there will be a special program day each week. One week there will be a doll show and another week a pet show, similar to the schedule carried out last year.

KLOOSTER-KOTS WEDDING

Miss Dena Klooster, daughter of Mrs. H. Klooster, 404 College avenue, and George Kots of Fulton, Ill., graduate of this year's class of the Western Theological seminary, were married Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride, Rev. H. H. Lucas, Michigan, and a relative of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The house decorations were artistic; however, simplicity prevailed throughout. The decorations were pink, red and white roses with peonies of the same colors, daisies and ferns.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. John R. Mulder sang "For You Alone," by Geel, and after the wedding she sang "Dancing" by Cadman. Miss Henrietta Kots, sister of the bridegroom, played the wedding march.

The bride, Miss Klooster, looked beautiful in a becoming white satin dress trimmed with lace and tulle. She also wore a veil which was bound by swansonia wreath and her bridal bouquet was of brides roses and swansonia.

The maid of honor was Miss Muriel Klooster, sister of the bride, who was becomingly gowned in a green ensemble and carried a bouquet of roses and snapdragons. Wilbur Kots, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Little Mary Jane Mulder was the ring bearer. She wore pink georgette over a little white slip. Shirley Mae Klooster was the flower girl. She wore a green crepe de chine dress which harmonized with the color of the maid of honor's green ensemble.

After the ceremony a reception was given by Mrs. H. Klooster, mother of the bride. Following the reception the couple left for Illinois and points west, where they will be for approximately three weeks.
