Drinking Water is Good, But is Too Hot to Drink

HOLLAND CAN BE THANKFUL THAT ITS SUPPLY COMES FROM COOL SPRINGS

In the list of 24 cities in Michigan whose B. Coli water tests are compared and made public by the State board of health, Grand Haven has a considerably better record for the water from its filtration plant than it had last year. In the comparison last year Grand Haven was at the bottom of the list as far as the quality of its finished water was concerned.

In the comparison recently made public, Grand Haven raw water is third from the worst in the state, Trenton and Wyandotte being the two communities that have worse water. In the B. Coli tests for finished water, Grand Haven ranks 17th from the top, a gain of eight notches and is above Grand Rapids and Benton Harbor.

Jerry Dykhuys, plant engineer, stated that Grand Haven water is safe. "The main objection to the water is that it is too warm in summer," he said. "The supply from the harbor is too warm to begin with in this kind of weather but in the plant process it further warmed up through exposure to the sun and air. Covering the settling basins with a cover of concrete would shut off much heat and might possibly reduce the water temperature. The Grand Haven plant, however, was originally designed to handle Lake Michigan water."

GRAND HAVEN FACES ICE SHORTAGE HOLLAND HELPING

Unless the present heat wave abates within the next week, Grand Haven, in common with many other cities in this section, will be faced with an ice shortage. One local firm which has been buying its ice in Muskegon, has had this source shut off as Muskegon plants cannot supply the local demand, and has been purchasing 40 tons of ice daily from plants in Grand Rapids and in Holland. Another firm, with a 30 ton capacity ice plant here, has been running full blast for over a week and is barely able to supply the needs of its customers. A local trucking firm has trucks leaving this city shortly after midnight to bring back supplies of ice to be distributed to customers in the morning.

BIRTHS FAR AHEAD OF DEATHS IN OTTAWA

In a recent report to the board of supervisors, the Ottawa county health unit which now has the handling of vital statistics, reports that from Jan. 1 to May 1, there were 268 births in Ottawa county of which 156 were male and 112 were female. There were four still births. The number of deaths in the county was 185 for the same period.

The report also tabulates communicable diseases in the county for the same period. There were six cases of smallpox, five of which were in Chester township; 135 cases of scarlet fever; 27 cases of whooping cough; 82 cases of chicken pox, with Holland the center of the trouble; 57 cases being reported there, and 48 cases of measles. Deaths from communicable diseases were as follows: influenza, five; pneumonia, four; tuberculosis, three; scarlet fever, whooping cough and typhoid fever, one each.

Large Parade for July 4th Arranged. Streets for Demonstration Selected

Holland will witness one of the most unique demonstrations in the line of parades on July 4th ever witnessed here.

The American Legion, who has charge of this year's demonstrations is putting forth every effort to make it a success. It should be the pride of every citizen of Holland to co-operate in this movement to the very limit of their ability.

To date reservations to participate in the parade have been coming in, although the parade committee still can use a large number of decorated private cars and floats of various kinds.

The parade will form on Saturday, July 4th, at 12:15 on West Eighth Street, beginning at Pine Avenue and extending west to Kollen's Park, and the parade to move promptly at 1:15.

The various divisions of the parade will be as follows:

FIRST DIVISION—American Legion Band, Patriotic Demonstrations, consisting of various phases of American wars from 1812 to the World War March—Fire and drum corps, The National Guard Company.

SECOND DIVISION—High School Band, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Doll Section, Boys and dog section.

THIRD DIVISION—Hungry Five Band, clowns and nutt section, floats.

FOURTH DIVISION—Band, age of transportation, decorated autos.

FIFTH DIVISION—Private horse display for both men and women.

FARMER FRIES HIS EGGS IN HIS CORNFIELD

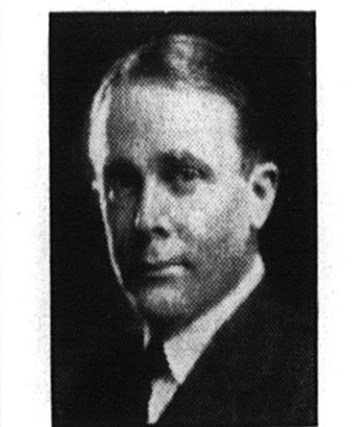

Talk about Holland boys frying eggs on the concrete sidewalks as has been done the past week, here is another:

Talk about a hot day—Sam Rymer, well known Spring Lake township farmer, fried eggs in his cornfield yesterday, which he claims were as well done as any artificial heat could possibly produce. The sun, according to his thermometer had concentrated its rays until the temperature registered 155 degrees, at least that is as far as the mercury could travel, but Sam says he knows it was even worse.

Told of frying eggs in the hot sand in other localities he procured and ordinary frying pan, an egg and some grease and in no time the egg was done to a turn and served in his home for lunch.

The crops are coming fine, he says. This hot weather with no wind is good for growing things as the nights are comparatively cool and damp. Although the foliage droops during the day it is revived during the night. It is great corn weather, he says, and most crops will be bumper ones.

Congressman John C. Ketcham will speak in Holland on Saturday, July 4, having been secured by the Independence Day committee of the American Legion.

Mr. Ketcham is an able speaker and without doubt many Allegan county folks will also come to Holland to hear him at Centennial Park since Allegan is in his congressional district.

"It Seems to Me"—in Allegan News

My jovial friend, John B. Mulder, publisher of Holland's DeGrondevet, is dead. I will miss his cheerful visits to the News office and his kindly acts of friendship. If you had known John B. Mulder you would have liked him. He was true blue, and a generous hearted, happy servant of his community. Pax tecum, John.

SAD CONVENTION IS TO BE STAGED IN HOLLAND, MAYBE

Holland is to be the host of the Michigan Coroners' Association convention on July 16, bringing at least 100 guests. One would think that this group of men would form rather a sad gathering but this is far from the truth. It is said to be a very lively organization.

Coroner Gilbert Vandewater of Holland, chairman of the committee on arrangements, has accepted an offer of George F. Getz to take the delegates to Lakewood farm and zoo. Other committee members are A. H. Bradley of Midland and L. W. Kerkowiski of Benton Harbor.

Court commissioners of Michigan will meet with the coroners. Other speakers will include Representatives Fred F. McEachron of Hudsonville and Cornelius Vander Meulen of Holland.

The program will include a banquet at noon, at which President J. F. Carroll of Cadillac will be the toastmaster. Mayor E. C. Brooks will extend the welcome. Dick Bouter, president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce will speak on a "Live City" and Carroll will deliver an address.

PROMINENT ZEELAND LADY PASSES AWAY

The funeral of Mrs. C. J. Den Herder, wife of the prominent Zeeland banker, took place Saturday afternoon from the home and from the second Reformed church, Rev. Richard Vanden Berg officiating. The floral tributes were many and beautiful and the services were very largely attended. The News gave full details of the funeral arrangements in its last issue.

Frank Lievensen and sons, Frank, Jr., Donald and Thomas, are up north on a fishing trip.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart of Peoria, Ill., on June 27, a daughter, Nancy Mary. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were formerly residents of Holland.

Joyce Timmer, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Albert Timmer, underwent an operation at the Holland hospital Tuesday.

Hospital at Zeeland Short of Finance

LACK OF PATRONAGE DURING HARD TIMES ONE CAUSE. PLANS TO BE MADE FOR BETTER FINANCING

The Zeeland Hospital is short of cash, according to a recent report and that is not unusual just now with any hospital supported through public favor and patients.

The report recently submitted showed that up to the present time practically all of the expenses had been met, whether by special drives or otherwise. Last December a drive was made among a few board members, physicians and Zeeland citizens cleared away a deficit that had been incurred during the latter half of 1930.

Anyway thus far through one way or another these obligations have been met and liquidated.

However, even though some very fine efforts were put forth the Zeeland hospital is not on what might be called a sound financial basis. During the past few months patronage has been coming very slow and at times there were not more than 2 patients at one time. This is no different than exists elsewhere. "Hard times" has put a crimp in ready cash and the sick are ministered either at home or not at all.

The board, in view of this situation, thought is an excellent plan to call a meeting of representatives of local organizations to devise a means of getting more permanent community co-operation in this matter. To this meeting will be invited two members from the hospital board, two from each local church, two from the Zeeland city council, two from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion, local physicians and as many, perhaps, from other organizations. The purpose of this board will not be to raise money but to fully submit to the representative people of the community this situation, for the purpose of devising a plan through which the annual charity drives may be modified, and if possible, even eliminated altogether. It will be the task of this group to give the people of this community, who have so loyally stood by the hospital, an idea of its needs and to show the hospital as being a most useful benevolent and a community institution.

As far as numbers of patients go, just now business is looking up, and has during the past two weeks since as many as 15 have been cared for at one time. However, those who seek the re-financing of Zeeland Memorial Hospital want something more tangible to bank on. The hospital staff has done wonders with the equipment at hand and a smaller force and some economies have resulted—but the plan is to get things on a better footing and Zeeland men and women will find a way to be sure.

HOLLAND SCHOOLS HOLD PICNIC AT ZEELAND

Zeeland Record—About four hundred people gathered at the Zeeland city park last Friday afternoon and evening, in charge of Principal Anthony Mulder, to enjoy the picnic of the Federal School of Holland east limits. Games, contests and races featured as highlights in the program, and the events included contests for adults as well as for the pupils. Even the children of pre-school age had a place in the score of games.

Ice cream and lemonade flowed freely during the entire afternoon and at supper time coffee was given a turn. Mr. Mulder, the principal of the school, is a local man. The pupils and patrons of the school express their thanks to the city of Zeeland for the use of the park.

On his short wave radio, Harry Lince of Allegan has brought in voices from Wellington, New Zealand.

FOURTH OF JULY FIRE CRACKERS

There will be a baseball game at Riverview Park at 10:30 between the Grand Haven Oils and the Holland Boosters.

Dr. William Westrate is going to be the Modern Santa Claus on the 4th. Watch him do his stunts from the aeroplane.

Harry Kramer, the publicity man for the 4th of July for the American Legion, has been right on the job.

Look for the corn game on 8th Street Saturday. Remember this is wonderful corn weather.

The big parade starts promptly at 1:15. Jack Knoll says "it's going to be a blinger".

Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia will be honored guests in the parade Saturday. You won't have to watch for them—they stand plenty high.

The big side-wheeler, "Steamer Holland" will leave its docks at 10 a. m. sharp for a two and a half hour ride on Lake Michigan. Adults can go for 50 cents, children for 25 cents.

Listen to the band concert on board the excursion steamer.

It's sometime since Holland has seen a slack wire performer. Well, you're going to see one Saturday. The "rube" who performs on wire and trapeze is said to be a scream.

If you haven't your skates on Saturday you will see a whiz that has. It is said he can skate right under automobiles and get away with it.

Come and see the Bushman dart throwers from Australia.

Eighth street is going to house a Ferris wheel, a trickle board and a dozen other carnival innovations that will be interesting.

More than twenty-five booths are to be built along Eighth street to be used for various purposes. All merchandise for these booths are purchased from local merchants. This is as it should be.

Ben Lievensen says that the turtle race is exciting to the last degree and the honors belong "only to the swift." Snails need not apply.

Oh, we forgot to tell you about the company of clowns recently escaped from Ringling Brothers. They were captured by Commander George Manting and they are ranging to go.

Watch for the smoke-screen from the air—that's Dr. Westrate sowing the seed of publicity.

There will be band concerts in the park and on the street and the Holland Drum Corps will also be heard from.

A man by the name of Lemon is to put on a freak bicycle stunt. They say he is a peach.

We assure you that the trickle board is perfectly Volstead.

Ernest Hartman and committee are digging potatoes, baking pies, digging up sacks, etc., so they can put on their long list of youngsters in which potato races, pie contests, and bag jumping also figure.

A real treat will be the grand finale in the evening when the beautiful pyrotechnic display will be staged. Don't be fooled on the big word for it only means a grand display of fire works.

Mr. Louis Van Schelven and Miss Christine Spijkhoven will impersonate Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia respectively. They are a patriotic pair to draw to.

Holland will be decorated over the principal streets with colored glims festooned from boulevard light to boulevard light.

And by the way—the city has just given the light standards a new coat of green.

Mr. Burns, stunt flyer of Szekeley will cut some figure in the air. Watch for him.

At a short meeting of the executive committee of the Holland Merchants Association it was decided to close all day Saturday on the 4th of July. It was decided, however, to keep all places of business open on Friday night before the 4th. Several of the grocery firms and some of the meat markets will remain open for a time on Saturday to accommodate some of their customers for Sunday provisions.

The banks, too, have decided to be open on Friday night instead of on Saturday night since the three local banks will be closed on Independence Day.

HOLLAND OFFICERS HELP TO SUBDUCE A HEAT CRAZED MAN

Peter Feenstra, 50 years old, living at Hudsonville, believed to have been crazed by the excessive heat, confined himself in a small attic over the kitchen of his home and refused to come out. His actions so frightened his wife she called the officers, Rufus Cramer of Holland and Fred Bosma of Zeeland.

The man resisted all efforts of the officers to get him to come out. Tear bombs were used and finally Officer Cramer succeeded in getting Feenstra through a hole in the roof when the crazed man's attention was directed to his family in the room below.

He was taken to the Cutlerville sanitarium directly and is confined there.

Feenstra, who has been working on some grading work for the Ottawa county road commission was seated at the supper table when his actions became suspicious. He jumped up and said he would make war with the family. His wife and six small children were present when he dashed into the attic and they fled from the house to give the alarm.

GRAND RAPIDS MAN WELL KNOWN TO HOLLAND PASSES

Funeral services for Henry G. Dykhouse, lumberman, philosopher and friend of thousands of Grand Rapids and western Michigan residents, were held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at the residence, 1331 Lake dr., S. E.

Honorary pallbearers from Holland were Prof. J. B. Nykerk and Henry P. Zwemer. Many of the most prominent men of Grand Rapids were active or honorary pallbearers. Mr. Dykhouse was well known to Holland businessmen especially to the manufacturers. He has some investments in Holland and has visited this city as a lumber salesman for forty years.

Dr. William Westrate is to be the "rain maker" of prizes. He is to go up in one of the planes and will allow these announcements to trickle from his fingers after the plane is 500 feet up and like a smoke screen he will attempt to cover not only Holland, but the entire country-side.

The prizes include: Shoes, cameras, furniture, musical instruments, clothing, women's who are wearing apparel, boots, tire accessories, auto accessories, sporting goods, drug store merchandise and last, but not least, a meal ticket.

The prize plane goes up first on the afternoon of the 3rd and last on the morning of the 4th. Watch for the plane and if you see a cloud that looks like snowflakes, chase it for there are rainbows in it, and possibly a "pot of gold at one end." Whatever you do, look for a bill with a red coupon, and bring it to the merchant whose name appears upon this announcement.

The firms who are playing Santa Claus during these torrid days of summer are receiving the thanks of the American Legion Post for making this possible and without doubt will

Gas Tax and State Parks

The state parks opening on May 15, made these available to the public two weeks earlier than usual. Advanced spring and large crowds already visiting the areas were the reasons given by the Park Division of the Department of Conservation.

Now that the season has advanced it is evident that these breathing spots are a boon to Michiganders as well as to the tourists. During the last ten days the Holland Oval at Ottawa Beach, alone took care of at least 50,000 bathers. This is ample proof that these much needed outdoor places for rest and recreation are home-folks alike.

Visitors in excess of 8,891,000 last year visited the 67 parks under the jurisdiction of the Park Division. They represented every state in the Union and, according to the calculations of the administration, traveled a total of 150,000,000 miles. This distance is based on the assumption that the average car carries three people and made an average trip of fifty miles between home and the park. Their gasoline bill, by the same calculation, would amount $2,000,000, making about $400,000 available to the state in the form of gas tax for the maintenance and construction of highways and roads.

The state appropriations for the operation and maintenance of the parks during the same period was but $197,775.

Michigan's parks, blessed as they very largely are with small lakes, are making her the "outing Mecca" of the middle west. This popularity is not dependent upon carnival concessions or other such playground methods. The only commercial undertakings permitted have taken the form of refreshment stands and the like. These netted the state last year a sum of about $8,000.

Where the increasing use justifies it, extension of certain park boundaries and the improvement of sites have been undertaken this spring. At the same time, it is announced that, owing to a lack of finances, some of the parks may not be re-opened this year. No definite decision has been handed down as yet by the Conservation Department, but it would seem that in view of last year's success at a time of general business depression, the reasonable policy would be to maintain the full roster. The fact that certain parks out of the whole system are not individually "paying their way" should not condemn them without serious consideration. They serve at least a local population that is as worthy of a state supervised playground as are the more favored communities.

Making the World Small
A Wasted Life
If We Had Mussolini
Getting and Keeping

The airplane and courage are making the world smaller than it used to be. Post and Gatty, 35 hours to fly around the world, were telling on the radio from Berlin about their crossing. They are "doers of the world," not talkers, and said little.

The Post-Gatty airplane is the thirteenth to cross the Atlantic since the beginning of the world. Those, not young, will live to see thirteen hundred airplanes cross the ocean every day, in one day, and attracting no attention.

Write that prediction on our cut.

Recently the body of a young woman was found washed up by the surf near New York. Photographs show that she was most beautiful as a child and a marvellously beautiful girl at eighteen. The waves washed up a young woman, barely twenty-five, ruined by alcohol, drugs and the life to which they lead.

Murder had been suspected, but letters written to a man show that it was suicide. One public official traveled to shield a murderer, but no murderer could have written the notes; the letters are too genuine.

The unhappy girl writes that she made "a sordid futureless mess" of her life on earth, and did not "want to ruin anybody else's life." She goes out of this world hoping and believing that there is no life beyond. "If there is an after life" would be a dirty trick, but I am sure 50,000,000 priests are wrong. Nothing makes any difference now.

"It is no one's fault but my own. I hate everything so—life is so horrible. I take dope to forget, and drink to try and like people, but it is of no use."

"No fault by my own," she wrote. But it is also the fault of a system that permits selling dope and bootleg whisky to young girls. And there are men, surviving this girl, who know that it is their fault.

Powerful man is Mussolini. He decided in 1920 to wipe out the "Mafia," an organization of blackmailers, dreading and obeyed by Sicily until Mussolini came. Proceedings in that case ended two days ago, when 124 members of the Mafia, placed in an iron cage in court, were condemned, 15 imprisoned for life, 100 others to 1200 years' imprisonment. They were desperate men, cursed the jury and the judge, and one pulled out his boots and threw them through the bars of the cage at the jurymen. But Mussolini is able to deal with them.

More than 200 others of the Mafia had previously been sent to prison, many of them for life, and the "Mafia" is dead.

A Mussolini, if we had one, would soon settle our gangster problem.

Mr. Mason, an editor, wants the best story about "How I Got My Job," only graduates of 1931 classes to answer.

Getting a job is only moderately important. Keeping a job and achieving success where you start is the big thing.

When James Simpson was young, he decided to work for Marshall Field, because Field was the greatest merchant in the world. He worked for Marshall Field, and is now head of Marshall Field and company, and owns it.

Doctor Kipper, who went ten miles up into the stratosphere with Professor Piccard, says fighting in the future will be done twenty miles up in the air, far beyond the sight of those on earth, making anti-aircraft weapons useless. He also suggests that flight to the moon will be possible. Millions will laugh at this, as they would have laughed twenty-five years ago at the suggestion that men would some day fly the Atlantic and Pacific.

"Put money in thy purse" was good advice. Money is frozen labor, that can be released and used as you choose. Money is power; money, to a large extent, is government. Money says "Come," and they come; "Go," and they go.

A new record, made in England, will interest tailors especially and manufacturers generally. John Crowther & Sons of London took sheep, made it into cloth and made the cloth into a suit of clothes, all in 2 hours and 9 minutes 49 seconds. That is a world record.

Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, brilliant young president of the University of Chicago, says "more education" must supply the way out of our troubles. "Our own follies and incompetence" have produced present conditions, and "if education is supposed to train intelligence, we must concede that education has signally failed so far."

Japan intimates that it will let Lindbergh fly over Japanese territory, with permission to land. Eventually, for the air-crew, there will be a five or ten mile "limit" above the earth. Over that limit, the air will be free to everybody.

That an individual or nation can own the air 500 miles up to the top of the air-ocean is as preposterous as the other notion that a man can own the earth down to the center. (©, 1931, by Kave Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Many Holland

The Cubs Camp

PARENTS ARE AVAILING THEMSELVES OF VISITING HOUR, WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

Camp Mi-Chi-Ga-Mi, new Ottawa-Allegan area boy scout camp situated on the shores of Spring Lake on the Thumm property, opened officially yesterday morning and 30 cubs reported for the first week of camp, which is cub week. Boy scout encampments will begin Monday, July 6.

Under the newly appointed deputy commissioner of cubbing, Harry P. Kirk, of Grand Haven, the boys under 12 years of age will take part in an extensive program this week, climaxed by a court of honor Saturday morning at which time the cubs will receive their silver and gold arrows and be promoted to the different ranks of cubbing such as wolf, bear and lion cubs. Saturday evening a ceremony will be held.

While there are but 30 cubs at the new camp now, more are expected on Thursday as it has been arranged so that cubs can enjoy three days of cubbing at a low rate. At present there are but 23 cubs from Holland, three from Grand Haven, three from Coopersville and one from Zeeland. The Grand Haven cubs are Robert Hoek, David Addison and Charles Robinson.

Wednesday evening was visiting hour and Saturday afternoon has also been set aside as visitors' periods and at these times many of the cubs' parents are expected to attend the camp. No activity has been scheduled for the cubs Saturday afternoon, leaving them free to watch the big lake regatta with their parents on Spring Lake. Boys will operate directly in front of the camp docks on July 4th. Fishing is reported to be excellent during the past few days of the camp dock.

Those in charge of the camp this year are P. H. Norg, camp director; Dr. A. C. Glennie, activities director; William Vande Water, athletic director and quartermaster; C. LaShagway, swimming and water polo director; Isaac De Kraker, mechanic; Leland Beach, handicraft director; Art Hornung, museum and nature lore instructor; Neal Addison, bugler; George Witherell, camp cook; Gerald Witherell, cook's helper.

The Thumm property, donated to the Ottawa-Allegan camp, is expected to make a very suitable camp site and the directors there look to a very successful camping season. The twenty acres of fine timber are ideal for nature study and scout pioneering and hundreds of acres of land in the region are available for hiking. Swimming facilities are very good and there are buildings for every activity of camp life. A comfortable mess hall adorns the grounds as well as a club house which may be used for a museum and also as a place to hold campfires on rainy nights. The new camp is close to civilization but is far enough away to give one the thrills of a northwoods camp.

Camp Mi-Chi-Ga-Mi is located on the West Shore of Spring Lake and can be reached by taking the Ferrysburg road along the west side of the lake over Smith bridge a mile from the point the Ferrysburg road leaves US1. A sign is placed at the road which leads to the camp in the woods.

The program for July 4 has been fully arranged and follows: Saturday July 4th—Court of Review for badges and tests. Court of Honor for Cub Camping award.

ALLEGAN COUNTY YOUTH

KILLED WITH PITCHFORK

Leslie Belden, 17, son of Edward Belden of Allegan, was fatally injured late today when the tine of a pitchfork pierced his brain while he was working on the Fred Johnson farm in Gunplains township. Johnson carried the youth to his car and took him to the Crispe hospital in Plainwell, where he died a few hours later.

Farm Agent and

Nurse Cost Tax

Payers Little

PETITION FILED WITH OT-

TAWA SUPERVISORS BY

ZEELAND RESIDENTS

The appeal for a 20 per cent cut in the wages of county officers and the abolishment of the offices of farm agent, home demonstration agent and county nurse, made in a petition signed by 24 Zeeland residents and communicated to the board of supervisors.

The petition from Zeeland was the second of the session asking that the three offices be done away with. The contention is that this would result in lower taxes as over $5,000 would be taken off the county rolls. The farm agent, home demonstration agent and the county health units members' salaries are not wholly paid for by the county. One of the supervisors, in speaking of the matter during recess, said the cost of the offices was very nominal to each individual and as nothing, compared with the benefits received. He stated that it costs about 20 cents per thousand to support the three offices. As the average farm is assessed at $3,000 the cost is very little to the average rural resident.

The cities pay about 63 per cent of the entire cost of the offices and as there is no complaint from them it seems certain that they will be continued, the supervisor said. The cut in wages asked for in the petition, was the first such request.

A resolution endorsing the "no division" stand on the state road tax, was adopted. The contract for the care of tubercular patients with the Muskegon Sanatorium expiring in August, was renewed. An overdraft of $148 in the soldiers' bonus fund, was ordered paid. Roy Lowing, chairman of the committee, stated that there could be no estimate as to the probable county tax rate now as the budget will not be made up until the October session.

The First Reformed Church at Zeeland was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday morning when Miss Anne Boonstra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Boonstra, residing south of Zeeland, and Marvin De Jonge, son of Mrs. George De Jonge of Zeeland, were united in marriage. Rev. John VanPeursem performed the ceremony at 10 o'clock before an altar beautifully decorated with ferns, roses and orchids and a beautifully decorated arch of smilax and arborescens.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Nick Lanning of Drenthe, sang two solos. "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

The party of the bridegroom ushered in by Mr. Dick Boonstra of Libertyville, Ill., and Mr. Oliver De Jonge of Shelby, Mich., with Mr. John Boonstra of Zeeland acting as best man, marched in to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and was met at the altar by the party of the bride ushered in by Miss Angeline Brummel of Holland attired in a green chiffon and Mrs. D. Bonstra of Libertyville, Ill., and Mrs. O. J. DeJonge of Shelby, who were both attired in eggshell chiffon. Miss Mabel DeJonge of Allegan acting as maid of honor wore a peach lace dress and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and pink roses. The bride wore a beautiful white silk chiffon dress with a shoulder veil, embellished with orange blossoms and carried a gorgeous bouquet of white and opheila roses and sweet peas. She was accompanied by her father, Mr. S. Boonstra, who gave the bride away.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement parlor of the church for two hundred guests.

PIANO RECITAL GIVEN IN WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB

An interesting program was given in the Woman's Literary Club rooms last week by the piano students of Gary De Haan.

"Two Finger Tommy and Old Man Accent" played by Miss Joyce Den Herder and "Pas de Fleurs" given by Miss Ardene Boven were especially fine numbers by the younger pupils. Maynard Helder and Mr. DeHaan's two piano selection of a popular group was well given.

Among the advanced students Miss Emma Hoek, Miss Margaret Wentzel and Mrs. G. Rooks showed much promise and talent in their playing of several classical numbers including Mozart and Hayden sonatas, while Miss Katherine Meengs and Gary Van Den Berg pleased the audience with a selection from Tchaikowsky.

The musical numbers were interspersed with two readings by Miss Gertrude Baker and two solos by Jack Bos.

TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED BY THE HEERINGAS

The Woman's Literary Club rooms was the center of an outstanding social event Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Heeringa, 267 Central Avenue, invited many guests to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. The decorations of the club rooms were indeed beautiful with white and green largely dominant in the color scheme. The table decorations were especially unique wherein a background of green, white daisies with yellow centers were made to form the dates of the marriage and the anniversary that was being celebrated.

The event took on the form of an anniversary dinner and the guests marched into the banquet hall to the measured strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, and no doubt many were reminded of having heard that offering before when the number to follow this rhythmic music were only two instead of a large company as occurred Monday evening.

The guests were assigned to their respective places around the festive board. It was a happy gathering where a delicious five-course dinner was served ably taken care of by Mrs. S. Kuite and staff.

Mr. Al Vegter and Mr. C. Dornbos were in charge of the program and it was without saying that the entertainment was continuous at their hands. Mr. Dornbos himself brought side-splitting laughter in his parody on the family album. Others who featured were Andrew Klomparsen, Alex Van Zanten, John Hekman, H. Tuls, Jelle Hekman, Dick Boter, and Al Vegter. These men showed rare ability as punsters with their several take-offs.

Other features in the evening's entertainment was a toast song given with a will by the guests to their honored hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Heeringa who had just welcomed them. Mr. Albert Vegter gave a timely ode in the form of an original poem which he recited to the company present. There was also an original loyalty song given in honoring the happy couple on this, their silver wedding day. Al Vegter led the group in singing and the accompaniment was played by Miss Marie Vegter of Chicago.

To make the anniversary complete as a musical event as well as a commemoration a marriage song was also sung while Mrs. J. Veltkamp favored the listeners with the popular selection, "Won't You Call Me Sweetheart."

The master of ceremonies wound up a pleasant evening with a program of parlor games which brought much merriment.

The guests were received by the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Heeringa, namely, Allan, William and Edwin, Jr.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Hekman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hekman, Jelle Hekman, all of Grand Rapids, and Phe Kieft of Grand Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Heeringa have made Holland their home since their wedding day. They now reside at 267 Central Avenue in a beautiful home recently built. They number among their acquaintances a large circle of friends not only from this city but from abroad.

One pleasing remembrance was a large bouquet of flowers, a gift from the Ladies Mission society of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church of which Mrs. Heeringa is president.

Mr. and Mrs. Heeringa also entertained Saturday evening at the club rooms for relatives. Guests were received by the sons and a full program of entertainment planned by A. Vegter and W. T. Van Wyke was carried out.

Mr. Heeringa is a well known business man in Holland and has been identified for many years with the Michigan Tea Rusk Company of this city.

GERARD HANCHETT'S PUPILS APPEAR IN PIANO RECITAL

The pupils of Gerard Hanchett, teacher in piano, gave a piano recital Sunday afternoon.

The following program was given: Myrtle Padgett played, "Sleigh Bells" by Bilbro; Morris Tardiff played "Soldier's March," by Lange; Ruth Cramer played, "Lilac Waltz," by Ruhe; Craig Trueblood played "Jolly Dances," by Bechter, "Camel Train," and "Cabin Dance," by Baines; Ruth Eleanor Trueblood played "Salut D'amour," by Elgar; Ruth Eleanor and Craig Trueblood played duet "Il Trovatore," by Verdi; Lois Cramer played "Recess March" and "Rover Redowa," by Ruhe and "Innocence" by Burgmuller Op. 100.

Miss Theresa Weller played "Two-Part Invention," No. 8 in F major and No. 8 in B flat major," by J. S. Bach; Miss Benlak Weatherholt played "Two-Part Invention," No. 8 in F major and No. 14 in B flat major," by J. S. Bach; Miss Weller played No. 12 from Heller's "Fifty Selected Studies," "Nocturne" by Grieg, "Minuetto and Trio in B Minor," by Schubert.

Miss Weller also brought out that the violin sonata was the kind to first attain perfection, since that instrument had a great advantage over others because of its early development.

Those present then enjoyed a fine interpretation of Grieg's "Sonata in C Minor," Op. 45 for violin, played by Gertrude De Weerd. This sonata is in three movements, "Allegro appassionato," "Allegretto espressivo,"

Ottawa County Health Unit Progresses Fine

SHOWS MUCH WORK DONE BY
NEW COUNTY ORGANIZATION SINCE JANUARY

A comprehensive report of the Ottawa county health unit was presented to the Ottawa county board of supervisors at the final meeting of the session Friday. The outline shows clearly the amount of work accomplished since the inception of the unit, Jan. 1.

The number of deaths from all causes is listed at 185. Of this number, 48 died of heart disease. Cerebral hemorrhage is another disease causing a large percentage of deaths with 26. Cancer is next with 15, pneumonia four and diabetes, three.

There were 135 cases of scarlet fever, 82 cases of chicken pox, 48 cases of measles, 27 of whooping cough, six of smallpox.

Attendance at the tuberculosis clinics at Grand Haven and Holland was 151, of which 72 were new cases and 79 old. Clinics are being organized at Coopersville, Marne, Hudsonville and Zeeland.

There were 20 crippled children treated under the supervision of Dr. John T. Hodgen of Grand Rapids.

The county nurses made 45 prenatal calls, 62 postnatal calls and 89 pre-school visits.

In the school health service work an immense amount of work has been done. There are 130 rural schools with a total of 5,143 children. All of the schools were visited and 2,143 given toxin-antitoxin; 1,868 were vaccinated against smallpox; 207 were given scarlet fever toxin; 1,802 were examined.

There were 130 specimens of water collected and 11 contaminated wells found. There were 80 school buildings inspected and 341 visits made relative to communicable diseases.

The health unit is a comparatively new institution in the county and C. E. Misner, a member of the health committee, urged the supervisors to read the report carefully and urged the mothers and older children to become familiar with the scope of the organization.

Dr. Ralph Ten Have is the physician in charge and he has been assisted by the two county nurses, Miss Madge Bresnahan and Miss Marion Dadies.

RAINFALL IN MICHIGAN BETTER THAN LAST YEAR

Michigan had an excess of rainfall in May of .07 inch, the first time since June, 1930, that this state has had a rain supply above normal, Dewey Seelye, U. S. meteorologist, announced at East Lansing. The average fall for the month in the state was 3.19 inches.

TEARFUL REPORTER WRITES A SAD TALE OF TRAGIC DROWNING

Three lives were lost and a mother's home broken up Wednesday when a sparrow's nest was destroyed by the swirling waters of the Kalamazoo river just south of Holland. Mother Sparrow had just completed a new home for her little ones. The excess rains of last week swelled the river and as a result her nest was torn to pieces by the angry waters. The bottom of the nest was the first thing to go followed by the three little sparrows. Today the only signs that remain of the home are a few stray straws and a mother sparrow that sits at the spot of the tragedy and chirps. All this happened down by the dam in the river.

WILL PAY BIG MONEY FOR THE RIGHT KIND OF BUSH

Any Michigan resident who can find a huckleberry bush, of the highbush type, which produces berries one-half inch in diameter or larger and who can resist the temptation to pick the berries long enough to notify the superintendent of the South Haven Experiment Station may be able to sell the plant for $25.00 which is offered for the best native huckleberry plant found in the state this year. Ten dollars is offered for the next best plant. The color of the berries may be either blue or black and the plant must be three feet or more in height. Anyone who desires to enter this competition should send a few of the first berries to given to the superintendent at South Haven with directions for reaching the marsh where the plant is growing.

The main crop of berries from the bush must not be picked until a representative of the horticultural department at Michigan State College has had an opportunity to examine the bush. Members of the department will inspect each bush from which a promising sample of berries are submitted.

The owner of the bush must agree to allow the college men to make cuttings from the bush. The college has perfected a method of rooting these cuttings so it is now possible to propagate any desirable specimens of huckleberries which may be found.

Michigan's huckleberry crop is worth thousands of dollars and, if better varieties are found, it will be possible to build up a market demand which will make the crop many times more valuable.

HOLLAND FIRM GIVEN KALAMAZOO CONTRACT

The police board has on file 13 applications for Van Ry's position. Henry Vander Schel, member of the board, now is acting chief.

Miss Florence Hamlin Warner and Mr. Egbert Howard Fell, both of Chicago, were united in marriage Monday, June 29, at 9 o'clock A. M. in the McWilliams Memorial Chapel of the First Presbyterian Church of Chicago. The occasion was marked by beautiful simplicity. The young people took their places before the altar accompanied by soft strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March, played by the church organist, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Ward McEwen. Only the immediate families and a few close friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Beth Warner of Maringo, Illinois, and the groom by his brother, Dr. Ronald H. Fell of Galesburg, Illinois. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly gowned in white silk and wore a long net veil, which was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. The bride's maid wore a frock of pink organdie with a blue sash and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and blue larkspur tied with blue and pink tulle.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Warner of Maringo, Illinois. She is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and has been engaged for the past three years in the nursing service of the University of Chicago clinics. The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fell of Holland, and is a graduate of Hope College and medical school of the University of Chicago.

The young couple left immediately for Colorado Rockies, where they will be engaged for the summer as medical and nursing supervisors in Hulder's Riding Camp for Girls.

Cattle, Horses Cremated When Barn is Burned

KLEMPER BARN RAZED, DESTROYING 10 HEAD OF CATTLE, 2 HORSES, GRAIN, ETC.

Two fires at Grand Haven, one serious, marked the close of Sunday, one of the hottest days of the season. The greatest loss occurred when a barn belonging to Leonard Klemper on Beech Tree road, near the "county seat", was totally destroyed with the contents, including ten milk cows, one heifer, two horses, a quantity of farm implements and six tons of hay and some grain. The total loss is probably about $7,000, it was estimated.

The other fire was an explosion at William Heap & Sons, in a wooden warehouse at Grand Haven, containing reserve and scrap celluloid. The explosion knocked the watchman, Henry George, off his chair, as he was sitting in the engineer's room, 100 feet away. The flames shot up into the sky and thrilled all those who happened to see the spectacle. A second explosion occurred before the flames died down which razed the building. The flames were confined to the one building, which was several feet away from the main building. The loss, Mr. Heap said was between $500 and $1,000, fully covered by insurance.

The cause of the Klemper barn fire is undetermined. The owner was in his dairy when he detected smoke. He ran and succeeded in getting out his milk truck before the barn became an inferno from which no one could free the poor beasts within, whose cries could be heard for blocks. One cow, bought only last week, escaped, and the pigs and chickens were saved by the cement silo, which although burned, did not collapse.

J. Baker, who assists at the dairy had visited the barn about 8 p. m. and declared everything was all right. The electric switch was turned off at the house. The fire started in the south end of the barn over the cattle stalls. Year old hay had been moved into the north end, and had the fire occurred there, the source would have been attributed to spontaneous combustion, said the owner.

Mr. Klemper stated that he would rebuild and buy cattle as rapidly as possible. He was out this morning to serve his milk customers.

The local fire department responded to both the calls. They protected the Heap buildings for water made no impression on a fire of that kind. At the Klemper fire, only chemicals could be used as there is no water protection there. The neighbors and firemen assisted with a small house pump in keeping the other buildings wet, and the fact that there was no wind, saved the remainder of buildings in both instances, it is believed by Chief Pippen.

Cars by the hundreds out in the hot night were attracted to the east end by the blazing sky which lit the night by miles around. The explosion shot flames up hundreds of feet and thick smoke saw it report an unusual spectacle.

The itemized loss of the Klemper barn, include the barn at about $2,500, machinery, including a binder, mower, drill, disc harrow, and manure spreader about $1,500; the cattle and horses well over $1,500, and the silo, about $250. The hay and grain too, were worth several hundred dollars.

WE'RE JUST COMING DOWN

to facts when we say that some people are like price lists—you have to know the discount on what they have to tell. Statistics from the Census Department state the average American family is five and two-tenths. We wonder if the two-tenths is father?

There's no discount on the expense of monthly garage rents. Paying for the housing of your car runs into hundreds of dollars yearly with no material return to you, except useless rental receipts. Resolve to build your own garage now. Its initial costs can be conveniently distributed over a period of time on our plan. You simply invest your money instead of spending it.

John VanPeursem performed the ceremony at 10 o'clock before an altar beautifully decorated with ferns, roses and orchids and a beautifully decorated arch of smilax and arborescens.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Nick Lanning of Drenthe, sang two solos, "Because," and "I Love You Truly." The party of the bridegroom ushered in by Mr. Dick Boonstra of Libertyville, Ill., and Mr. Oliver De Jonge of Shelby, Mich., with Mr. John Boonstra of Zeeland acting as best man, marched in to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and was met at the altar by the party of the bride ushered in by Miss Angeline Brummel of Holland and Mrs. D. Bonstra of Libertyville, Ill., and Mrs. O. J. DeJonge of Shelby, who were both attired in eggshell chiffon. Miss Mabel DeJonge of Allegan acted as maid of honor wearing a peach lace dress and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and pink roses. The bride wore a beautiful white silk chiffon dress with a shawl collar, embellished with orange blossoms and carried a gorgeous bouquet of white and ophelia roses and sweet peas. She was accompanied by her father, Mr. S. Boonstra, who gave the bride away.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement parlor of the church for two hundred guests.

PIANO RECITAL GIVEN IN WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB

An interesting program was given in the Woman's Literary Club rooms last week by the piano students of Gary De Haan.

"Two Finger Tommy and Old Man Accent" played by Miss Joyce Den Herder and "Pas de Fleurs" given by Miss Ardene Boven were especially fine numbers by the younger pupils. Maynard Helder and Mr. DeHaan's two piano selections of a popular group was well given.

Among the advanced students Miss Emma Hoek, Miss Margaret Wentzel and Mrs. G. Rooks showed much promise and talent in their playing of several classical numbers including Mozart and Hayden sonatas, while Miss Katherine Meengs and Gary Van Den Berg pleased the audience with a selection from Tchaikowsky. The musical numbers were interspersed with two readings by Miss Gertrude Baker and two solos by Jack Bos.

 TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED BY THE HEERINGAS *****

The Woman's Literary Club rooms was the center of an outstanding social event Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Heeringa, 267 Central Avenue, invited many guests to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

The decorations of the club rooms were indeed beautiful with white and green largely dominant in the color scheme. The table decorations were especially unique wherein a background of green, white daisies with yellow centers were made to form the dates of the marriage and the anniversary that was being celebrated.

The event took on the form of an anniversary dinner and the guests marched into the banquet hall to the measured strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, and no doubt many were reminded of having heard that offering before when the number to follow this rhythmic music were only two instead of a large company as occurred Monday evening.

The guests were assigned to their respective places around the festive board. It was a happy gathering where a delicious five-course dinner was served ably taken care of by Mrs. S. Kuite and staff.

Mr. Al Vegter and Mr. C. Dornbos were in charge of the program and it goes without saying that the entertainment was continuous at their hands. Mr. Dornbos himself brought side-splitting laughter in his parody on the family album. Others who featured were Andrew Klomparsen, Alex Van Zanten, John Hekman, H. Tuls, Jelle Hekman, Dick Boter, and Al Vegter. These men showed rare ability as punsters with their several take-offs.

Other features in the evening's entertainment was a toast song given with a will by the guests to their honored hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Heeringa who had just welcomed them. Mr. Albert Vegter gave a timely ode in the form of an original poem which he recited to the company present. There was also an original loyalty song given honoring the happy couple on this, their silver wedding day. Al Vegter led the group in singing and the accompaniment was played by Miss Marie Vegter of Chicago.

To make the anniversary complete as a musical event as well as a commemoration a marriage song was also sung while Mrs. J. Velt for girls who are without parents and for others who are homeless. The work largely is made possible by contributions of friends as no state appropriation is made. Girls from the ages of 5 to 14 from all parts of Michigan are admitted into the school.

The master of ceremonies wound up a pleasant evening with a program of parlor games which brought much merriment.

The guests were received by the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Heeringa, namely, Allan, William and Edwin, Jr. As the guests were ushered in the principles in this social anniversary received the hearty congratulations of their host of friends.

Maurice Kuite and committee were in charge of the decorations and their handiwork received many kindly comments from the guests present.

During the evening several telegrams and letters of congratulations sent to the couple were read. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Hekman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hekman, Jelle Hekman, all of Grand Rapids, and Phe Kieft of Grand Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Heeringa have made Holland their home since their wedding day. They now reside at 267 Central Avenue in a beautiful home recently built. They number among their acquaintances a large circle of friends not only from this city but from abroad.

One pleasing remembrance was a large bouquet of flowers, a gift from the Ladies Mission society of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church of which Mrs. Heeringa is president.

Mr. and Mrs. Heeringa also entertained Saturday evening at the club rooms for relatives. Guests were received by the sons and a full program of entertainment planned by A. Vegter and W. T. Van Wyke was carried out.

Mr. Heeringa is a well known business man in Holland and has been identified for many years with the Michigan Tea Rusk Company of this city.

Bach; Miss Beulah Weatherholt played "Two-Part Invention No. 8 in F Major and No. 14 in B Flat major," by J. S. Bach; Miss Weller played No. 12 from Heller's "Fifty Selected Studies," Nocturne" by Grieg, "Minuetto and Trio in B Minor," by Schubert.

Miss Weller also brought out that the violin sonata was the kind to first attain perfection, since that instrument had a great advantage over others because of its early development.

Those present then enjoyed a fine interpretation of Grieg's "Sonata in C Minor, Op. 45 for violin, played by Gerrit De Weerd. This sonata is in three movements, "Allegro appassionato," "Allegretto espressivo,"

RAINFALL IN MICHIGAN BETTER THAN LAST YEAR

Michigan had an excess of rainfall in May of .07 inch, the first time since June, 1930, that this state has had a rain supply above normal, Dewey Seelye, U. S. meteorologist, announced at East Lansing. The average fall for the month in the state was 3.19 inches.

TEARFUL REPORTER WRITES A SAD TALE OF TRAGIC DROWNING

Three lives were lost and a mother's home broken up Wednesday when a sparrow's nest was destroyed by the swirling waters of the Kalamazoo river just south of Holland. Mother Sparrow had just completed a new home for her little ones. The excess rains of last week swelled the river and as a result her nest was torn to pieces by the angry waters. The bottom of the nest was the first thing to go followed by the three little sparrows. Today the only signs that remain of the home are a few stray straws and a mother sparrow that sits at the spot of the tragedy and chirps. All this happened down by the dam in the river.

WILL PAY BIG MONEY FOR THE RIGHT KIND OF BUSH

Any Michigan resident who can find a huckleberry bush, of the highbush type, which produces berries one-half inch in diameter or larger and who can resist the temptation to pick the berries long enough to notify the superintendent of the South Haven Experiment Station may be able to sell the best plant. The color of the berries may be either blue or black and the plant must be three feet or more in height. Anyone who desires to enter this competition should send a few of the first berries to ripen to the superintendent at South Haven with directions for reaching the marsh where the plant is growing.

The main crop of berries from the bush must not be picked until a representative of the horticultural department at Michigan State College has had an opportunity to examine the bush. Members of the department will inspect each bush from which a promising sample of berries are submitted.

The owner of the bush must agree to allow the college men to make cuttings from the bush. The college has perfected a method of rooting these cuttings so it is now possible to propagate any desirable specimens of huckleberries which may be found.

Michigan's huckleberry crop is worth thousands of dollars and, if better varieties are found, it will be possible to build up a market demand which will make the crop many times more valuable.

HOLLAND FIRM GIVEN KALAMAZOO CONTRACT

GETS TWO FINES FOR OVERLOADS ON TRUCK

Frank Van Dam of Grand Rapids has two fines instead of one to pay for overloads of his truck. Van Dam would not learn by experience. Trooper Gerald Flynn of the Ottawa county state police post, gave Van Dam a ticket for a 5,100 pound overload shortly after 7 a. m. Saturday. Later Flynn overhauled Van Dam and found him overloaded 2,500 pounds. This was about 11 a. m. Other overloads Saturday were Elmer Tresson of Detroit, Ray Schock of Detroit and George Wills of Grand Rapids.

Cattle, Horses Cremated When Barn is Burned

KLEMPPEL BARN RAZED, DESTROYING 10 HEAD OF CATTLE, 2 HORSES, GRAIN, ETC.

Two fires at Grand Haven, one, marked the close of the season, one of the hottest days of the season. The greatest loss occurred when a barn belonging to Leonard Klempeel on Beech Tree road, near the "county seat", was totally destroyed with the contents, including ten milk cows, one heifer, two horses, a quantity of farm implements and six tons of hay and some grain. The total loss is probably about $7,000, it was estimated.

The other fire was an explosion at William Heap & Sons, in a wooden warehouse at Grand Haven, containing reserve and scrap celluloid. The explosion knocked the watchman, Henry George, off his chair, as he was sitting in the engineer's room, 100 feet away. The flames shot up into the sky and thrilled all those who happened to see the spectacle. A second explosion occurred before the flames died down which razed the building. The flames were confined to the one building, which was several feet away from the main building. The loss, Mr. Heap said was between $500 and $1,000, fully covered by insurance.

The cause of the Klempeel barn fire is undetermined. The owner was in his dairy when he detected smoke. He ran and succeeded in getting out his milk truck before the barn became an inferno from which no one could free the poor beasts within, whose cries could be heard for blocks. One cow, bought only last week, escaped, and the pigs and chickens were saved by the cement silo, which although burned, did not collapse.

J. Baker, who assists at the dairy had visited the barn about 8 p. m. and declared everything was all right. The electric switch was turned off at the house. The fire started in the south end of the barn over the cattle stalls. Year old hay was stored above for feeding. Six tons of green hay had been moved into the north end, and had the fire occurred there, the source would have been attributed to spontaneous combustion, said the owner.

Mr. Klempeel stated that he would rebuild and buy cattle as rapidly as possible. He was out this morning to serve his milk customers.

The local fire department responded to both the calls. They protected the Heap buildings for water made no impression on a fire of that kind. At the Klempeel fire, only chemicals could be used as there is no water protection there. The neighbors and firemen assisted with a small house pump in keeping the other buildings wet, and the fact that there was no wind, saved the remainder of buildings in both instances, it is believed by Chief Pippel.

Cars by the hundreds out in the hot night were attracted to the east end by the blazing sky which lit the night for miles around. The explosion shot flames up hundreds of feet and those who saw it report an unusual spectacle.

The itemized loss of the Klempeel barn, include the barn at about $2,500, machinery, including a binder, mower, drill, disc harrow, and manure spreader about $1,500; the cattle and horses worth over $1,500; and the silo, about $250. The hay and grain too, were worth several hundred dollars.

MICHIGAN LEADS 48 STATES IN AVERAGE OF RETAIL STORE SALES

The first quantitative measure of the retail store business ever taken revealed today a fifty billion dollar business annually crossing the American continent.

Census bureau compilations of the 48 states and the District of Columbia, showed a net annual store sales for 1929 of $50,933,505,792, with direct sales by manufacturers bringing the retail distribution total up to $53,130,865,234.

Michigan led all 48 states in average sales per store and was said by John Guernsey, who was in charge of the retail census, to be "the only state showing high sales per capita with the number of stores considerably below normal."

Fay McCloud and Harry Fales, both of Allegan, were arraigned before Justice Fides E. Fish on a charge of stealing 30 bushels of wheat Tuesday night from Joe Francisco of Lawton township. They were arrested by Sheriff Guy Teed.

Independence Day To an American
Has Great Significance

Q We may call the day the "4th of July" for short but nevertheless it is the date on which we celebrate our Nation's birth and our national independence.

Q Freedom meant more to our forefathers than life itself. They sought it. They fought for it. And they died for it. That they, fortunately for us, attained it—accounts for our annual celebration of Independence Day!

Q Yet many there are who, in their older days, wish they had "fought" for Financial Independence in the days when they were young. That they had attained that feeling of complete Freedom that comes with knowing that one does not have to worry about the tomorrow. That feeling that makes for happiness and contentment of mind and heart. Be thrifty while you are young—a modest savings account started at 20 will mean freedom from arduous labors or dependence at 60.

ALLEGAN'S TALL ROSE BUSH

The tall rose bush on the Allegan courthouse square are burdened with large pink blossoms. There are other roses there but none so prominent and three very promising little elms which are intruders. The roses in question originally stood at the southwest corner of the old county office buildings and were placed there by Weeks brothers, who occupied that corner with their abstract office. They are decidedly old-fashion things but have no lack of either color or perfume.

FOUR HOLLAND YOUTHS JUMP AS A TRAIN HITS AUTO

Gerald Smeenge, 22, and Justin Smeenge, 15, sons of Mrs. Reka Smeenge, E. 14th St.; John Van de Water, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Van de Water; and James Barkel, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Barkel, all of Holland, are alive today because of presence of mind in jumping in time before their automobile was struck by a Pere Marquette passenger train last week Thursday night, after stalling on a crossing on the Waverly road, 2 miles north of Holland.

Unable to see the approach of the train because of an obstruction at the crossing, the youths first were aware of their danger when the train's whistle was sounded as they approached the intersection.

Gerald, who was driving, applied the brakes of the car in a manner as to cause the motor to stall when the machine was across the tracks. With the train bearing down upon them, the four leaped to safety just as the automobile was struck.

The car was demolished and was dragged about 300 yards along the tracks before the train could be stopped. The train, en route from Holland to Grand Rapids, was delayed for some time, while the wreckage was being cleared from the right-of-way.

OTTAWA CO. BOARD LUNCHEONS AT MICHIGAN STATE UNION AND VISITS CAPITOL

The Ottawa County Supervisors returned to their official duties Friday after a day spent in inspecting roads in Ingham county and a trip to the state capitol.

The particular object of the trip was to become acquainted with a new process for building secondary roads. The examples as seen yesterday made a fine impression on the board. The base of the highway is gravel, covered with three inches of fine gravel mixed with an asphaltic oil. The pack is done by traffic and the roads over which the party traveled were as smooth as pavement.

The question of durability seems to be the only drawback. About an average of 17 miles can be built for the same cost as one mile of concrete. It is being recommended only for secondary roads.

A luncheon was served at the Michigan State College and Prof. Goondama of the state forestry department conducted the party through that department and explained the reforestation project in which the state is engaged. A trip to the capitol building concluded the day.

Henry Luidens of Holland amused the party much of the time by recitations of poetry and a general good time was enjoyed.

TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

Only three arrests were made in Holland last week for violating the city traffic laws. They were L. J. Holman and Cornelius Pippel, who were each fined $10 on charges of speeding and Henry Bonstar was fined $3 for failing to stop at an intersection.

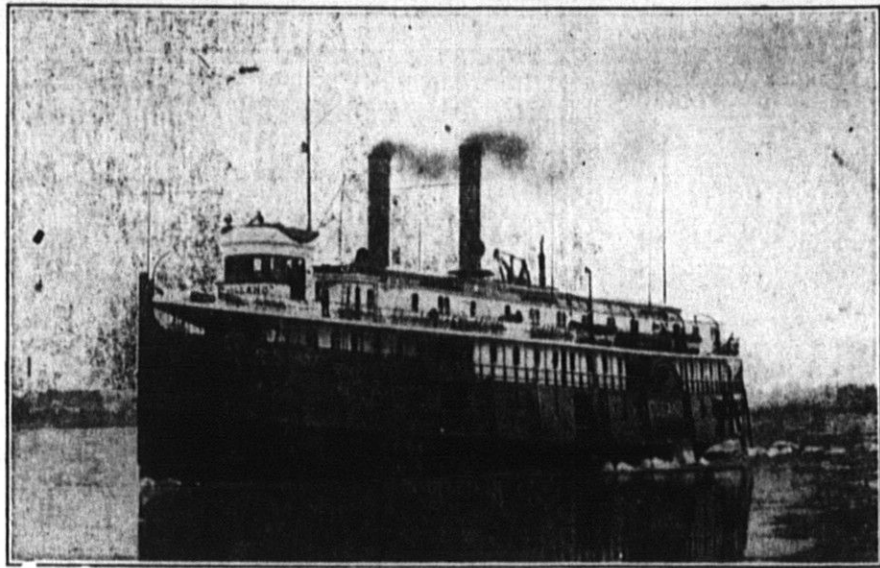

GOOD TIMES OR BAD TIMES, POLICY REMAINS THE SAME

In these days of depression, when business seems adrift, it is refreshing to find some corporation where the employment conditions have not been changed.

Among such concerns, the National Biscuit Company appears in the front rank. This company, of which the Holland Rusk Bakery is a subsidiary, will continue its custom of giving each of its employees of a year's continuous employment, a week's vacation with full pay. Employees who have been with the National Biscuit Company, or its predecessors such as the Holland Rusk Bakery, for ten years, receive two weeks' vacation with full pay.

Mr. Wm. Arendshorst, manager of the Holland Rusk Bakery, says that every employee of the local bakery will receive this benefit, and that a considerable number will receive two weeks with full pay. Part of the first and second weeks in July have been set aside for this vacation period.
