Council Votes $200 to Sponsor Employees' Picnic

Rejects Union Request First and Reconsiders In Adjourned Session

Reconsidering its action taken at its regular meeting to table a request from the municipal employees union, local 515 (AFL), for an appropriation by the city of $100 to match a similar amount of the union in sponsoring a picnic for all city employees, common council in an adjourned meeting Wednesday night voted to contribute the entire amount of $200.

Reporters had departed when the adjourned meeting was called. They were informed later last night about the second session.

City Clerk Oscar Peterson said he was instructed by the council following the adjourned session to contact heads of the several city departments, informing them that council had appropriated $200 for a picnic and suggested that one or more employees of each department be named to serve on the picnic committee.

H. Geerling, secretary of the local, presented the request pointing out that last year the union had put on a picnic for all city employees regardless of union affiliation. Ald. Herman Mooi pointed out that according to an opinion by the state attorney general a municipality cannot recognize a union and moved to table the request. Ald. Ben Steffens said the city might start a precedent if the request were granted in this manner. Ald. William J. Meengs said he favored an employees' picnic but said a representative group of city employees should make the request rather than the union. Mooi's motion passed with several ayes and no nays, although it was evident that some aldermen did not voice their preference.

Council referred to the civic improvement committee with power to act a communication from the park board calling attention to the need of draining five new piles at the Kollen park dock at an estimated cost of $125. The communication added that Capt. Drenner of the ferry Wolverine is agreeable to paying a part of this expense.

Recommendation for reroofing fire engine house No. 2 and enlarging the service panel in Centennial park were referred to the building and grounds committee with power to act.

Council approved purchase for $50 of the old Pere Marquette railway right of way between First and Second Sts. adjoining Central Ave. This plot of ground is in two parts, 396 feet at 66 feet wide and 300 feet at 100 feet wide.

Approval was given a communication from the park board recommending that seven bulbs on the boulevards be replaced with new dirt and tulip bulbs at an estimated cost of $1,000.

Council also approved construction of sidewalks on the west side of Central Ave. between 26th and 28th Sts. A petition presented at the last meeting requested sidewalks between 25th and 28th Sts. but since that time sidewalks between 25th and 26th Sts. already have been constructed.

Council adopted recommendation of the street committee that the petition for paving 25th St. between Lavendale court and State St., and Central Ave. between 24th and 25th Sts. as a postwar project be referred to the city engineer for plans and specifications and be presented to council at a later date when it may be considered advisable to proceed with the project.

Clerk Peterson presented an application of George Bocks, Jr., for a license to operate an eating house at 700 Michigan Ave. which was granted. He also read a communication from Michigan Municipal league thanking the council for its continued support and calling attention to the activities of the league and the various services that it has available for use for those cities that wish to avail themselves of this privilege.

He also presented a report from City Inspector Ben Wiersma giving a resume of his activities during June, 1944. The report listed 15 cases of contagious diseases including three scarlet fever, one diphtheria, one meningitis, two mumps, three measles and five chicken pox.

Claims and accounts amounted to $13,009.98; hospital, $5,992.51; library, $259.88; park and cemetery, $2,799.16; total, $22,061.53. The board of public works payroll amounted to $4,945.88, claims $2,023.73; total, $6,969.61. The city treasurer reported BPW collections of $21,032.96 and city collections of $4,292.38.

All aldermen were present. Mayor Elmer J. Schepers led in prayer.

Grand Haven Soldier Is Wounded in Italy

Grand Haven, July 6 — Corp. Eric Rice, who is serving with the army in Italy, has been seriously wounded in action, according to a wire received by his wife, Bernice. The message also stated he had been awarded an oak leaf cluster. Earlier this year he received the Silver Star for gallantry in action.

Corp. Rice, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Thorpe of Sunfield, entered the army in October, 1942, and has been in Italy for nine months. He has taken part in some of the heavy fighting in that country, including the Cassino campaign.

Crowd Beaches On Quiet Holiday In Holland Area

Holland celebrated a "sane" and quiet Fourth of July Tuesday with many residents enjoying a day of relaxation at home, short trips or picnic lunches at the beaches.

Local police reported no accidents and only incident in an otherwise "uneventful" day was the warning of several small boys who were celebrating the holiday by shooting firecrackers.

Warm weather made "sunning" popular, but cold waters in Lake Michigan discouraged swimming. A crowd estimated at more than 5,000 persons attended the annual Christian school rally in Kollen park Tuesday afternoon and night, in a larger turnout than last year, according to Dr. Walter De Kock, superintendent. Dr. Clarence Bouma was the featured speaker, contrasting Nazi education for Hitlerism with the opportunity afforded here for propagating Christianity through the schools.

Holland hospital reported one Fourth of July baby, a son, born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kimber of 71 West 13th St.

A daughter, Sharon Lou, was born to Lt. and Mrs. Gene Roth in Municipal hospital, Grand Haven, Tuesday. Lt. Roth, who is now thought to be overseas, attended Hope college during 1941 and 1942.

Holland State park did a "rushing business" over the week-end with 49,100 persons visiting the park in the four-day period, higher than last year's total of 45,000, but well under 1942's peak of 59,200 for the same period, according to Supt. Alfred T. Sirrine.

The number of camps at the park now, however, is 181, higher than the 116 last year. In 1942 there were 210 camps at the park for July 4.

Other comparative figures follow: 1942, 74 camps on July 1, 86 on July 2, 108 on July 3 and 210 on July 4; 1943, 42 July 1, 56 July 2, 116 July 3 and 4; and 1944, 134 July 1, 154 July 2 and 181 July 3 and 4.

Attendance figures include: 1942, 7,500 on July 1, 6,500 on July 2, 5,200 on July 3 and 40,000 on July 4; 1943, 3,000 on July 1, 6,000 on July 2, 16,000 on July 3 and 25,000 on July 4; 1944, 4,935 on July 1, 9,345 on July 2, 8,670 on July 3 and 26,150 on July 4.

People waited for tables on which to eat their picnic lunches and the beach was described as "loaded." Although the water temperature was a frigid 58, quite a few swimmers braved the chill for a dip. The water temperature had risen to 64 by this morning. A rope for the safety of swimmers was put up Monday.

The trailer end of the park was shut off to motor traffic Tuesday and cars filled all available parking spaces as far as Murphy's, past the entrance to the oval.

Moving pictures and large still shots of the holiday activity were taken for the state conservation department.

On Monday, Walter J. King, Scott of Lansing, superintendent of state parks, visited the local park and pronounced it to be in "good" condition.

No serious accidents were reported despite the unusual crowds, but a 23-year-old youth was reported to have broken a bottle on the porch of the pavilion. When he neglected to pick up the broken pieces, Billy Dantuma, 6, of Grand Rapids, suffered a severe laceration on the bottom of the left foot. He was admitted to Holland hospital and released after treatment.

Fire Loss May Reach $15,000

Rudolph Brink, owner of Brink's Book store which was badly damaged by fire Saturday morning.

Book store which was badly damaged by fire Saturday morning has estimated his loss at $13,000 to $15,000 in stock and fixtures. He said the stock in the basement is a complete loss after thousands of gallons of water flooded the place to a depth of about four feet.

Cause of the blaze, he said, was no doubt a short in electrical wires. He said his son, Bob, 16, had burned the usual box of paper and waste in the store boiler that morning, but since it is a stoker fed boiler with no flue drafts and no grates, the fire could not possibly have spread from the boiler even if the door had been left open. The place where the fire took hold on the east wall is some 20 feet north of the boiler, he said.

The New York office of the Reformed Church in America which owns the building has been informed of the fire in detail. It is expected that the church board will attempt to rebuild the store and probably will appoint an accredited representative here to oversee details. Fire loss of both the church and Brink's is covered by insurance. Aside from smoke damage, the upstairs apartment occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Holt was unharmed. To renovate the building, a new floor and new joists will be necessary together with other improvements, likely necessitating the expenditure of several thousand dollars.

Brink consulted with insurance adjusters and said that he plans a fire sale soon perhaps in another location. From a retail point of view, the fire is practically a complete loss, but there are many books and knickknacks that can be sold at a fraction of their price. Four streams of water were rained on the stock on the first floor.

Huge stocks of paper were destroyed in the basement where 80 per cent of Brink's Christmas merchandise also had been stored. Nearly all his Christmas stock aside from greeting cards already had been received.

It was the second time in five years that the Holts living in the upstairs apartment were involved in a fire. Five years ago in Iowa they were completely "burned out" escaping only with the clothes on their backs. Their furnishings in this fire were only smoke damaged. Mr. Holt took out some clothing and a new cedar chest from the apartment Saturday morning.

Their three children, Billy, 11, Bobby, 9, and Mary, 7, were in the apartment alone at the time of the fire and left the place without assistance. The Holts came to Holland four years ago from Iowa.

Brink said he will remain in the book store business and will reopen either in the present location or in another place in Holland.

Some small boys looted all the catechism books were burned in the fire. The books were kept on a shelf on the east wall and many of them were destroyed. However, the store owner said they could easily be replaced.

Holland firemen were called out again in the afternoon to fight a fire in the city dump at Kollen park. This time, a line was laid to Lake Macontawa. Firemen remained on the scene until 10 p.m.

Grand Haven, July 6 (Special) — Mrs. Rose Davis, 312 Franklin St., received word Tuesday at 2 p.m. that her son, Pfc. Elmer Davis, 20, has been missing in action since June 2 in Italy. He was inducted in February of 1943 and was sent to Camp Grant, Ill. From there he was transferred to Camp Howze, Tex., and then was sent to Africa, where he arrived Christmas morning. The building which is owned by the Reformed Church in America, which until a few years ago maintained district offices on the second floor, housed the book store on the first floor and an apartment for Mr. and Mrs. John Holt who operate the Tulip restaurant across the street. The Holts served coffee to the firemen. Police kept back the crowds.

The Reformed church maintained the western district offices for the foreign and domestic mission boards in the building for 23 years, operated by Dr. W. J. Van Kersen for the foreign division and Dr. Seth Vander Werf for the domestic division. Both retired a few years ago.

Rev. George C. Douma, 148 West 28th St., has accepted his call to Third Reformed church, Hermitage and Diamond Sts., Grand Rapids, and expects to assume his new duties early in September. He declined calls extended him by Beechwood Reformed church, Holland, and Grace Reformed church, Lansing, Ill.

New Leading Ace To Return to Wed Ex-Holland Girl

If the top ace of the U. S. army air force, Lt. Col. Francis (Gabby) Gabreski of Oil City, Pa., hurries home from Europe there'll be a harvest wedding to climax a romance that began three years ago in Hawaii with a former Holland, Mich., girl, Miss Catherine Cochran, who now resides in Prairie du Chien, Wis.

The bride-to-be, who was born in Holland, was a 16-year-old high school girl living with an uncle and aunt, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Newton G. Bush, in Hawaii when she met the Thunderbolt pilot who Wednesday knocked down his 28th German plane to become the leading ace.

Miss Cochran, now 19, is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelis, route 4, and has lived with the Bushes since she was eight years old. She was in Hawaii at the time of the Pearl Harbor attack and came to Holland later with Mrs. Bush and the children. They spent some time here before going to Grand Rapids. Last month they moved to Prairie du Chien, Lt. Col. Bush is at present in the southwest Pacific area. Mrs. Bush is the former Catherine Nelis, Lt. Col. Gabreski has never visited in Holland, the family said. Miss Cochran's mother, Mrs. Anna Cochran, resides on River Ave. here.

When Gabreski left Hawaii in January, 1942, Kay promised to become his bride, but he wanted to return to her as the top combat flyer of the army air force.

A report from the eighth air force Thunderbolt base in England where he went in 1942 said his next objective is a 30-day leave to return home and marry Miss Cochran.

She said the time and place of the wedding will be decided when Col. Gabreski gets home.

Gabreski bagged his 28th victim, a Messerschmitt 190, over France yesterday after tying the mark last week of Maj. Robert S. Johnson, Lawton, Okla., also an eighth air force pilot, and Maj. Richard I. Bong, Poplar, Wis., Pacific flier, who have 27 planes each.

Was Dean of Sentinel Employees With Nearly 45 Years of Service

Fred Slag, dean of employees of The Holland Evening Sentinel with 44 years and eight months of service, died at 1 a.m. Friday of a heart ailment at the age of 63.

He had been troubled off and on with the ailment for several years and last became ill June 20. His condition became critical Monday and he was in a coma since Wednesday.

Mr. Slag, in his direction of rural circulation for The Sentinel and in his work in the advertising department, came to know almost everybody in Ottawa and Allegan counties and in the city itself. And most everybody came to know him. He was neighborly and most people called him plain "Fred." His actual first name was Frederick.

His knowledge of persons and localities in the rural areas was especially valuable to the news department when information or a place to call for information was needed.

Mr. Slag was identified with this area all his life. He was born in North Holland Aug. 1, 1880, to the late Mr. and Mrs. John Slag. Nearly 40 years ago he married Grace Plager of East Saugatuck. He was a member of First Reformed church for 45 years.

When Mr. Slag started work with The Sentinel Nov. 1, 1899, the paper was printed on an old flat bed press that was operated by a steam engine. Whenever the engine choked up and stopped, the press was turned by hand. At that time the newspaper was located at 190 East Eighth St. From there it moved to 21 East Eighth St. where the Western Union office is now located and when these quarters became too small, the newspaper was moved to 35 East Eighth St., present site of the IGA store.

Later the Ottawa County Times a weekly, was taken over when The Sentinel moved to 197 River Ave., present site of the Owl restaurant. It was in January, 1928, that C. A. French came here from Monroe and purchased The Sentinel, and the following May the newspaper moved into its new building at 54-56 West Eighth St., which it now occupies.

Pvt. Frederick Slag, Jr., youngest son of the deceased, arrived in Holland at 5 a.m. Friday from North Camp Hood, Tex., where he is stationed with the U. S. army.

Surviving are the widow; two sons, John Slag, employed at The Sentinel, and Pvt. Slag; two daughters, Mrs. Albert Van Hise of Virginia park and Miss Anna Slag at home; five grandchildren; a brother, John J. Slag of North Holland; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Ten Have of Holland and Mrs. Reka Smith of Grand Rapids.

Simple tribute with emphasis on faithfulness and on comfort for relatives and friends was paid Fred Slag, 63, Sentinel employee for nearly 45 years, at funeral services in First Reformed church Monday afternoon.

Rev. Bastian Kruitthof, pastor of the church, based his brief message on Revelation 7: 14-17 in which the Apostle John said, "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes . . . They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more . . . For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

About 35 Sentinel employees formed a guard of honor as the casket entered and left the church. Pall bearers were Maurice Vander Haar, Raymond E. Knooihuizen, Cornelius Hon, Anthony Niennhuis, A. A. Niennhuis and J. Brinkman, all members of the Men's Adult class.

Mrs. Harry Young sang two familiar hymns, "God's Way is the Best Way" and "City Four-square," accompanied by Mrs. Ellen Ruizard who played appropriate selections as processional and recessional.

A private service in the home at 60 West 16th St. preceded the church service. Burial was in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Mrs. Moerdyke, who was formerly of London, Ontario, Canada, chose the maple leaf, national emblem of Canada, as the motif for her wedding, and maple leaves, surrounding the wedding cake, formed an attractive centerpiece for the bride's table. July 1 is also celebrated as Canada's dominion day. Music at the reception was furnished by Miss Teusink, who played "Intermezzo" and "Because."

Out of town guests included Mrs. A. De Young of Kalamazoo, Misses Betty Moerdyke and Gwendolyn Pruim, Mrs. Dorothy Horn and Mrs. Nelvie Pruim, all of

The bride has lived in Holland for the past two years and has been employed as a medical secretary in the Holland hospital. She received her education in the Beal Technical school and Westervelt Business college. She was employed at Victoria hospital in London before coming to Holland.

Ensign Moerdyke has lived in Holland for three years, during which time he attended Hope college, and also attended De Pauw university, Greencastle, Ind., for one year. He has been attending midshipman's school at Columbia university, New York city.

A rehearsal dinner for 20 guests was held Friday in the home of Mrs. Andrew Leenhouts, Elmdale Ct.

Given Fine and Sentence On Drunk Driving Charge

Grand Haven, July 6 (Special) — Fred J. Waltz, 66, route 1, Spring Lake, arraigned last Monday before Justice Peter Verduin on a drunk driving charge, was sentenced to pay a $75 fine, $8.80 costs and serve 10 days in the county jail.

Waltz was involved in a number of minor accidents between Grand Haven and his home Saturday night. The first occurred at Sixth and Fulton Sts. where he struck a parked car owned by Joseph Kocimar, and is alleged by police to have struck other cars before smashing through a guard rail on Smith's bridge near his home.

Police found the abandoned car with two wheels hanging over the bridge. They found Waltz in his home and lodged him in jail over the week-end. When the car went through the guard rail, it severed the gas main which services residents in that community.

Archie Langlois, 58, Muskegon, pleaded guilty on Monday before Verduin to a charge of leaving the scene of a property damage accident June 30 and paid $20 fine and $4 costs. Langlois, a Greyhound bus driver, was arrested by sheriff's officers after he allegedly struck a car belonging to Harm Rosema at Second and Washington.

War Not Yet Won; Buy More Bonds

"The war is being won, but it has not yet been won. The enemies' most powerful defenses must still be broken; the greatest battles must still be fought; the deepest valleys of blood, toil and tears must still be traversed," according to Dr. H. D. Terkeurst, pastor of Trinity church who served 16 months as a naval chaplain in this war.

"Billions of dollars have been spent and more billions will have to be spent. But these billions have produced and will produce a weight of armament and a superiority of equipment that will not only hasten victory but also bring victory at the minimum cost of human lives. Behind plentiful and powerful artillery the toll of death is never as large and the number of wounded never as great."

"No American would fail to do his duty in the fifth war loan drive, now launched, if he has the imagination to see things through the windows of all those who are fighting in this war; the sympathy to discern the mental agonies, the heartaches, and the manifold sufferings of all those who serve; and that comprehensive of mind to realize that for us at home thousands are wounded and thousands are laying down their lives."

Send News of Invasion

Letters sent by service men to relatives here disclose sidelights on the Normandy invasion.

Lt. D. J. Crawford, USNR, with the armed guard division on a Liberty ship, said the morale of the soldiers he "took in" 12 hours after the start of the big offensive was surprisingly high, that they seemed anxious to get ashore for a crack at "Jerry."

Lt. Crawford, whose wife, the former Virginia McBride, and two daughters reside here, said he felt his ship was charmed because, although they were in the thick of it and underwent anxious moments when the Nazis opened up with shore batteries, they came through unharmed. He gave much credit to his crew and to the excellent air coverage over the convoys.

Lt. A. Donald Leenhouts, had the following to say in a letter dated June 20 and written from France to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. Leenhouts, now residing in their summer home at Macatawa park: "Yes, I'm in France but that's no reason for you to worry about me. I'm as snug over here as I could be any place and I'm proud to be an active part of this show. No, I'm nothing very important, just another cog in the wheel—and it's a good safe cog at that. (Lt. Leenhouts is an officer in aviation radar control and his work is keeping in contact by radar with enemy planes, as well as with his own pilots, and guiding and advising pilots from a ground base.)

Urging his parents not to worry about him, Lt. Leenhouts says, "I'm with the finest army in the world, one that affords all the precautions and protection anyone could need, besides being in a job which is as safe as they come, and I'm afraid, barring accidents, I'll die an old man in bed."

"I wouldn't trade places with anyone right now. This is quite an adventure and I'm in quite an enviable position. Frankly, I'm almost sorry to say, I'm enjoying it. Naturally I miss my home life, but as long as I have to be in the army this is where I want most to be."

"The French have been very glad to see us over here, which I suppose is quite natural. Seems, however, that the Germans didn't treat them too badly. They were made to give up produce, housing, some personal needs. Some have been sent to Germany for labor but, as a general rule, they were getting along—probably getting used to their German yoke. In other words, from what I can gather they were deprived of things, but not cruelly treated. One incident struck us as rather different. One of the farmers asked us, if it would be all right to give his daughter some milk and eggs. He'd been in the habit of turning a portion of his produce over to the Nazi, keeping only enough for his needs. Now he hardly knew what to do with it all."

"On the other hand, the people seemed to be fairly well fed, although they need clothing pretty badly. Things like sugar, soap and cigarettes were pretty hard to get and the civilians will take as much as we offer them. However, they don't beg or even ask for anything; they take what's given them and are quite satisfied."

Lt. Leenhouts was commissioned in July, 1943, at Miami Beach, Fla., following some glider and regular flight training. He had been in England since December. His wife, the former Gertrude Smeenge, resides with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Abel Smeenge of 65 East Ninth St.

Fennville, July 3 (Special)—D-day invasion news began arriving in Fennville this week when Mrs. Clarence Huyser and Mrs. Ray Gerred each received letters from their sons, Waldyve Roberts and Donald Crane, respectively. Roberts said the beach was "pretty tough" but that he got through all right and was resting in a camp at the rear. Crane wrote that the men were sleeping on the ground and that he had made a sleeping bag of two of his four

Dr. H. D. Terkeurst "Self-centeredness is a peril that would draw us into sweet and cozy comforts while those who are a living wall between us and the enemy writhe in agonies and pay the supreme price. Self-imprisoning egotism is a peril that by locking itself in would lock the groan and travail of mankind out. Said St. Paul: 'Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.'"

A CONGRESSMAN'S DUTY

A Congressman's duty, as I see it, is to think clearly and sanely; act intelligently, aggressively, constructively and with determination, having always in mind the fact that he is a servant of the people of his District and the Nation.

Until the war has been won, his every thought word and act should be directed toward the winning of the war as quickly as possible, with the least possible loss of life and suffering.

When the war has been won, the men and women who have been doing the fighting should, if they wish, be brought home; not required to remain abroad to police other lands or peoples, or to rebuild other cities or countries.

While the war is being fought, a Congressman should do everything within his power to preserve here in America our constitutional form of government, so that we who remain, and above all, those who return, will find a land of equal opportunity, of equal justice under law; a government by law, not by men. In brief, a Republic, where the people's representatives make, interpret and enforce the law.

That is my idea of the duties of a Representative and, if you honor me by a re-nomination and reelection, that is the course I will follow.

CLARE E. HOFFMAN
Republican Candidate for Nomination and Election as Congressional Representative.

Van Wieren Fans 17 as Dutch Down G.R. Seaters, 10-0

Behind the five-hit pitching of Lefty Van Wieren and collecting a total of 16 hits, the Holland Flying Dutchmen pounded out a 10-0 conquest of the Grand Rapids American Seaters last night in Riverview park.

Van Wieren fanned 17 of the opposition and scattered the five hits into four innings and was never in serious trouble. He faced only 32 men.

The entire Holland team gathered hits last night with Lefty Van Wieren getting three in four trips to the plate to lead the attack. Bagladi, Wenzel, H. De Neff, Driscoll and Van Huis each made two hits and H. De Neff, W. De Neff and Van Wieren hit for extra bases.

Van Wieren was the complete master from the hill and his curve was breaking like a pretzel, with the Seater boys whiffing on three straight strikes as often as not. Holland's keystone combination of Harry De Neff and Frank Bagladi pulled off two sparkling double-plays which left any potential rallies by the Seaters in the throat. Frank Bagladi's error in the seventh inning was the only error the Dutch infield has made in three games.

Van Wieren fanned the first five men to face him and the outcome was never in doubt when Holland held a 6 to 0 lead going into the fourth.

Supply of Ethyl Cut In Half by ODT Order

Effective on Monday all sales of Ethyl gas were cut 50 per cent, it was announced by Bert Boes, a gas agent here. All local stations were affected by the order issued by the office of defense transportation, he said.

Pre-Induction Meeting Is Planned Here July 11

Plans were completed Thursday night for a pre-induction instruction meeting to be held July 11 at 8 p.m. in Washington school for all young men of the Holland area who expect to enter service in the next few months and their parents, wives and relatives. A similar meeting will be held the following night in Grand Haven.

The meetings, arranged by the office of civilian defense, are designed to inform men what they may expect in the army and what preparations are advisable in straightening out civilian affairs. Two films, one on the army and the other on the navy, will be shown and two officers will be present to conduct a question period at the close of the meeting.

Those present at Thursday night's meeting in the city hall were Mayor Edmond Wilde, Martin Van Schelven and Stephen Meade of Grand Haven, M. J. Lubbers of Zeeland, J. J. Riemersma, Dr. Walter De Kock and Henry Geerlings of Holland.

Your dependability and worth are determined by your attitude toward small things.

The Machine Can't Keep A Good Man Down

—Pol. Adv.

Let's all pull together

Team up on the home front and send the boys on the fighting fronts an ample supply of food, as well as other munitions of war.

PICKLES, because of their essential food values, have been classified as a primary wartime crop.

The farmers are growing large crops and need the help of workers.

And food must be processed, preserved and packed if it is to be used as "ammunition."

We are going to need the help of every available man and woman and every boy and girl when the season's crops begin to reach our factory.

Without that assistance, the farmers' work will not be fully effective, and the community will drop below its quota in the national war effort to supply food to the armed forces and civilian population.

Let's team up—the farmer, the community and ourselves—and do a good job!

If you can work in our factory full time or part time during the harvest, register NOW at our employment office or the United States Employment Service.

Vote for BARTEL J. JONKMAN

for CONGRESS 5th District

TUESDAY, JULY 11th

The Congressional Primary Campaign in the 5th District will be the shortest on record. It is an unusual campaign because Mr. Jonkman, the incumbent Congressman is confronted by an opponent of extreme international political views who claims to be an Internationalist. Mr. Jonkman stands only as a Republican, on his record.

Time Does Not Permit a Discussion of the Issues Republican Voters Should Be on Guard

The C.I.O. political action committee has marked Jonkman for defeat. This is a matter of published record. It is not idle talk. The New Deal has no contests worth mentioning. Will the C.I.O. Democrats vote in the Republican Primary to try to eliminate Congressman Jonkman, and then if they fail, concentrate on him in the general election?

REPUBLICANS SHOULD THINK THIS OVER CAREFULLY

Mr. Jonkman will have only a few days to campaign before the primary. As an important member of the foreign affairs committee in the House your Congressman has been working hard. During the time of his service it has not been easy. Before the war, the thoughts uppermost in his mind and heart were for all our brave men and women now in the armed forces. He has devoted much of his time during wartime in serving the families back home of the service men and women.

Up and down and all over Washington his duties are a virtual avalanche of needs and helps for those families. Over 30,000 men and women in the 5th district are serving in the armed forces. True, the Red Cross and government agencies handle these matters, yet there are many, many demands on your Congressman and he is doing a good job. Seeking information about those missing or dead; pay allotments; insurance claims; locating; protecting claims; advice; what to do about this and what to do about that. Letters and calls pour in and he gives prompt direction and answers. Then there are calls from farmers, businessmen and manufacturers. These must all be taken care of.

Do you know that Mr. Jonkman together with all Michigan Republican Congressmen tried and will continue to try to kill the obnoxious use tax on cars? Keep your experienced and competent Republican Congressman on the job in Washington.

SENATOR PEPPER

IS HEARD FROM

Almost the first Washington political figure to comment on the nomination of Thomas E. Dewey was Senator Claude Pepper of Florida. You remember Pepper, perhaps; he's the southern Jack-
in-the-box who pops up every now and then to say the wrong thing and make an ass of himself. What he said about the Dewey nomination might have been anticipated.
In fact, the Republicans ought to give him a vote of thanks, on the theory that what Pepper is against is likely to be pretty good stuff.
Republicans might even encourage him to say bad things about Dewey and Bricker.

Specifically, his comment on Dewey was that Dewey hasn't the least conception of what this war is about or how serious it is.
The normal implication of that statement is that Pepper does know what this war is about and how serious it is.

But go back two or three years.
During the months before Pearl Harbor, Pepper was the fellow who was always hell-bent to get the United States into the war.
Especially was he hot for getting into a war with Japan. If he had had his way we would have been mixed up with the Japanese long before the issue was forced. Pepper was so sure that the United States could lick the socks off Japan in three weeks that he couldn't bear to wait. He wanted Uncle Sam to wade in right away
quick; we could polish off Japan
without half trying.

That's how much Claude Pepper knew about the war in the months before Pearl Harbor. It is likely that the hard, tough events of the past two and a half years have pounded a little more sense into the thick skull of the senator from Florida so that he has abandoned his theory that we could defeat Japan in three weeks. We can of course defeat Japan, and we will do so; but not through the efforts of such people as Senator Pepper.

At any rate when such a man
reflects on the ability of Governor Dewey to understand the war, he once more succeeds in making a fool of himself. There seems little point in listening to the advice or criticism of a man who has a consistent record of being wrong. As an ardent New Dealer Pepper was of course bound to depreciate the merits of the Republican candidate; he would have said the same thing no matter who might be nominated. But in view of his own earlier statements about licking Japan in three weeks he was in a singularly exposed position in this business of commenting on the Republican candidates' ability to understand the war.

THE CHURCH INVITES YOU

Man needs the comradeship of fellow pilgrims towards the City of Eternal Right and the Eternal Love. We want to be conscious of others who have felt the call and seen the vision, and have set their faces toward God. We need, in our moments of strain, to remember others with the same difficulties, and cherishing the same hope and ideal; in our moments of temptation to feel that we belong to a fellowship of those trying to stand for the best things in life, in our seasons of sorrow to feel their sympathies and prayers.

There is a human need for the fellowship of the church. Why not accept the invitation and go to church next Sunday?

Taking Possession of Canaan

Joshua 14:6-14

By Henry Geertlings

It is never the easiest thing to follow the Lord and stand by the truth, but it is particularly difficult when those around you, of whom you are expecting better men might have felt themselves slipping when the ten spies showed how cowardly they were, but not so with Caleb. He could have said, "Lord, though all men deny thee, yet will not I."

Whether this hero looked down
the years and saw the time coming when he would reap the reward of fidelity or not we have no means of knowing. But this we know, he stood like a rock when others were like water. If ever there is a time when a Christian should face difficulties and meet reproach with a smile it is when others surrender their faith and turn back to the world. There have been times when a good cause has been saved by the soulful courage of one person, and when such a cause has been lost because of a courage of that character has been wanting.

Promises are conditional. They are conditioned upon the way a person acts to whom they are made. God through Moses told Caleb he should possess part of the southland. But Caleb could have chosen anyone of a dozen courses that would have prevented
the promise from being realized.
Indeed, he simply done nothing
it would have disappeared like the dew. But God knew his man.
He foresaw that Caleb would be faithful. We are all acquainted with individuals of whom it might be safe to predict anything good.
Their lives ring so true that they are bound sooner or later to come into the possession of the best gifts God had to bestow. All of us would be failing heir to much more than is at present ours if we met the conditions. But God does not push down on us his benefits irrespective of who we are or how we conduct ourselves.

God's gifts are ours when we make them ours. This land God promised as a free gift to Abraham and his descendants, but they had to fight for it. They did not walk in and take possession without a struggle. They did not say to the original inhabitants, "Now you get out. The Almighty has given us this land." On the contrary, they prepared to take it by force,
and who can tell how many of their armed men as well as of women and children lost their lives in the struggle. It may be said that God is going to give his church in Africa and Japan and China and India, and all other lands, but if we imagine that he is going to give the church without men, money, prayers, sacrifices and the like, we do not understand his plan of operation.

God's method is not summarily to remove our enemies, but to give us strength to meet and conquer them. The Anakims were still in the mount. The brave soldier of Lord had no way of driving them out except by trusting in the Lord for strength to accomplish that very thing. And it would require as much skill and strategy and marksmanship and physical prowess
as he could command.

The presence of these factors does not dishonor Jehovah. It is the way he uniformly works. Unless we do our best we need not count on him. His strength I need and I have it, but I must face my foes like a man. We have to face enemies today. The same and others will be present tomorrow to contest our progress. What we need is grace to meet them.
With what fine discrimination it has been remarked that "we must trust as though everything depended upon us." One of the first laws the Christians must recognize is the complementary character of God's and man's part in the application of redemption to the world of human need and the perfecting of Christian character. Being workers together with God is no figure of speech.
It is a law he has written large in all the progress man has made.

Holland

In 1913

Though the common council had four appointments to make last night, the job was done in much less time than it usually takes to appoint one man. Only eight ballots were taken to elect the four men. The two new police board members are Fred Jackson for a term of four years; Ben Mulder for a term of five years. The new members of the board of supervisors are E.P. Stephan and Henry Brusse. This news story was part of a lengthy story appearing in the Thursday Aug. 7, issue of the Holland Daily Sentinel published
in 1913.

Last night at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Walsh occurred one of the prettiest weddings ever celebrated in Holland.
The oldest daughter Margaret Ingram was married to Ernest C.
Brooks of Chicago. The holy ordinance was solemnized through the offices of two clergymen, the Rev.
Jesse Brooks, Ph.D., of Chicago,
father of the groom, and the Rev.
John W. Warnshuis of the mission field in India, a close friend of both bride and groom.

Street Commissioner Nauta last night handed in a verbal resignation to the common council. Mr.
Nauta has served the city for 16 years. With the adoption of the new charter his office of street commissioner was abolished and his work was placed under the jurisdiction of the city engineer.

The park and cemetery board has extended an invitation to the council to take a trip with the board to the cemetery on Monday afternoon at 1:30 for the purpose of looking over the new addition.

Chairman Van Dreezer of the street committee last night reported that the concrete work on 12th and eighth Sts. is almost completed and that the cement work on curb and gutter is also nearly finished. The tandem roller that is to be used is on the way and will be put into commission soon.

Mrs. Alice Robison, Margaret Van Alsburg and Jennie Prins attended the wedding in Oversel yesterday of Arnold Slenk and Jeanette Russcher.

Milton J. Hoffman, the new professor of Latin at Hope college, returned to Holland yesterday from Oxford, England, where he spent three years as Michigan's Rhodes Scholar.

The Misses Frances and Jeanette Spoelstra who have been visiting relatives in this city returned to their home in Grand Rapids today.

Prof. E.A. Whitnack, formerly professor of modern languages at Hope college and for many years
professor of German at the State Normal school in Nebraska, has accepted a position in the State Normal school of Wisconsin at River Falls, Wis. The salary connected with the new position is $2,000. This story appeared in the Friday, Aug. 8, issue.

Prof. Whitnack

is at present studying at the Heidelberg University in Germany and he cabled his resignation to the president of the Nebraska Normal school.

Last evening at the Methodist church a reception was given by the Men's Bible class for the purpose of making a report and closing up the matter of the two new rooms recently added to the church. A. Harrington, chairman of the board of trustees, presided.
A.K. Moore at one time connected with the circulation department of the Sentinel, has taken over the management of the Marquette
Daily Chronicle at Marquette, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Well
and daughters, Emma and Senora,
have left Zeeland for Springfield,
S.D. They expect to spend a month in the west, visiting also the states of Nebraska and Iowa.
Mr. Van Well owns a large farm near Springfield. The Van Well family are accompanied by Mr.
and Mrs. John Brummel who will spend a few weeks at Rock Valley, Ia.

Over 300 employees of the Grand Rapids Furniture Co. with their families are picnicking at Jenison Park today.

The exact figures of the primary money show that Holland gets $24,141.78 this year and Holland
township $8,091.72; Zeeland $9, 445.15.

Rev. John Vandermuelen has resigned the pastorate of the Second Reformed church of Grand Haven and accepted a call to the Pilgrim Congregational church of Pueblo, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. H.P. Burkholder left today for Denver, Colo. for a two weeks visit.

Miss Agnes Herbst of Chicago is visiting Mrs. L. Henderson in this city.

Mrs. J.H. Karsten and daughter, Jennie, returned yesterday from an extended visit in Wisconsin.

Angus De Kruit of Dallas, Tex., has been spending a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. De Kruit of Zeeland.

So successful has been the work of the Christian Insane Asylum conducted by the Christian Reformed church at Cutlerville,
that it has reached the point where more room is needed and steps have been taken to meet the condition that confronts it by the erection of a new building 22x36 feet, according to a story in the Saturday, Aug. 9, issue.
This institution is known as the Christian Psychopathic hospital and is conducted under the auspices of the Christian Benevolent society.

Holland Country Club Is Scene of Pretty Wedding

Holland Country club was the scene of a lovely summer wedding Friday night which united in marriage Miss Isla Mae Meppelink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Meppelink of 184 East 26th St., and Gerald William Van Dyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dyke of 26 East 20th St.

The Rev. Harry Hoff of Grand Rapids, uncle of the bride, read the single ring service at 8 p.m. before the fireplace which was banked with palms and ferns and flanked by candelabra. Bouquets of white Madonna lilies were arranged about the room and a large floral bouquet of pastel flowers decorated the mantel.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Betty Ranger sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." She also sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. Accompanist was Miss Florence Olt who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautifully gowned in white net and lace. The shadow lace bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and pointed sleeves edged with pleated heirloom lace. The full skirt of net terminated in a short train. Her veil was held by a tiara of white roses and swainsons which matched the white roses, snapdragons and swainsons which formed her bridal bouquet. The bouquet also featured a touch of blue in smaller, dainty flowers.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Carol Jean Meppelink who wore delicate pink net.

fashioned on lines similar to those of the bride's gown. The short sleeves and sweetheart neckline were trimmed with a ruching of the same material. Her brief shoulder veil was caught by flower clusters on either side which matched her bouquet of pink roses, white snapdragons, baby breath and small blue flowers.

Elmer Van Dyke, brother of the groom, assisted as best man and Kenneth Weller and William Zonnelt seated the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Arie Weller were master and mistress of ceremonies and Eleanor Smith was in charge of the gift room.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Meppelink wore a dress of light blue silk with black accessories and a corsage of deep pink roses. Mrs. Van Dyke, mother of the groom, wore a navy dress with white accessories and a similar corsage.

A reception for 100 guests was held in the clubhouse following the ceremony with Misses Sara Emmick, Beth Van Lente, Barbara Van Volkenburgh and Penny De Weerd as waitresses.

Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. William Fortuin, Rev. and Mrs. Hoff and Miss Lucille Visser, all of Grand Rapids; Miss Connie Johnson of Alpena, Mrs. Gene Owen of Muskegon, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rittenberger of Lowell and Mrs. Minnie Van Dommelen of Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Dyke left on a wedding trip following the ceremony and will be at home after July 11 in Midland where Mr. Van Dyke is a research chemist at the Dow Chemical Co. For traveling the bride chose a frock of rose silk jersey fashioned with low neck and cap sleeves trimmed with inserts and black accessories which featured a black hat of lacy net with a veil.

Urges Wartime Car Conservation

Wartime conservation of every automobile now on the road is necessary, monthly inspections and check-ups on tires, engines and all moving parts is essential and will avoid serious troubles later for which it will be impossible to get the necessary parts for repair, Bern Deter and Martin Diekema, local mechanics, say.

With production of cars and trucks at almost "zero" and with more and more workers depending on cars to get them to their vitally important jobs it is especially necessary for motor vehicles to be kept on the road. To make sure of continued efficient and economical operation during the spring and summer seasons, Deters and Diekema recommend regular maintenance check-ups on a monthly basis.

Both Mr. Deters and Mr. Diekema are well-known in Holland. They have been with the Venhuizen Auto Co., which specializes in Studebaker, Packard, De Soto and Plymouth cars for more than 17 years. They carry a complete line of repair parts at their 16th St. station and offer to care for your car and keep it rolling for the duration.

Returns After 162 Missions in Italy

Capt. Kenneth D. Scheiwe, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Scheiwe of Watseka and brother of Mrs. George B. Speet, 161 West 27th St., has returned from Italy after completing 162 missions as a fighter pilot. He has been awarded the Air Medal, with the equivalent of 19 oak leaf clusters, and the Distinguished Flying Cross for action in the Italian campaign.

He is a flight leader in the veteran fighter group which had its first taste of combat as a close range support unit with General Montgomery and his eighth army in the African campaign. His group was also in the Pantelleria and Sicilian campaigns before going into action in Italy.

He and his wife, the former Virginia Brown of Grand Rapids whom he married Monday, are visiting until July 21 at the home of Mrs. Speet. Upon completion of his 30-day leave he will return to active duty. He formerly lived in Ganges and is a graduate of Saugatuck High school. He received his promotion from first lieutenant to captain on Tuesday.

Approximately 200 Legionnaires from all parts of Ottawa and Kent counties including one new World War II post at Grand Rapids attended the meeting. Holland, Coopersville, Zeeland and Grand Haven had large representations.

Handles General Insurance Line

Ben L. Van Lente, 177 College Ave., has been the local agent for the State Farm Insurance Co. for more than 16 years. The local office handles a general line of insurance, including property damage and liability for autoists, and accident, windstorm, tornado, fire and life insurance.

The Van Lente Insurance agency reports 781 auto claims paid through their office during 1943, about 15 per cent less than the number paid through the same agency in 1942. However, due to the rise in cost of labor and parts the amount paid in dollars exceeded that of the previous year.

Mr. Van Lente has been one of the leading representatives throughout the country for this insurance company for many years, and in 1939 received an award as the leading Michigan agent. In 1940 he was one of four men in 39 states to receive a membership in the 1,000 club for number of policies sold during the year. He specializes particularly in auto insurance.

The company's slogan is "Adequate protection and prompt service at reasonable rates."

Mr. Van Lente has invited the people of Holland to call and inquire how to obtain an atlas and war map.

Ottawa Schools Need Teachers

Grand Haven, July 6 (Special)—Ottawa County Commissioner of Schools Dick H. Vande Bunte has returned from a week's conference of the Michigan Association of County School Commissioners which was held at a resort at Houghton lake, Prudenville. The topics for discussion were post-war planning, especially as pertaining to the building needs of the schools, and reorganization of school districts as would affect the rural and village schools of the state; service training of teachers; conservation and how it may be effectively taught.

At the annual business meeting Mr. Vande Bunte was elected vice-president of the association for the ensuing year. Other officers are: president, Mrs. Beryl Abbot of Benzie county, secretary-treasurer, George Scott of Van Buren county. During the past year Mr. Vande Bunte served the association as secretary and treasurer.

This week Mr. Vande Bunte will be in Pittsburgh attending the National Education association representatives assembly, as a delegate from the fourth district of Michigan, which represents the southwestern counties of Michigan.

He states that a shortage of teachers in Ottawa county is still quite a serious problem. To date there are still 31 vacancies in the rural schools. He hopes to have these filled by Aug. 14, if possible, so that those teachers who require a war emergency certificate may be able to attend the two weeks summer course planned by the school commissioner's office. This short course is to be held in the Allendale public schools from Aug. 14 to 25. Any ex-teachers who are interested in teaching in the rural schools, are asked to see him.

Members of the commissioner's office are checking the annual census reports.

Miss Lois Eustace, who has been employed in the commissioner's office since it moved in the court house last September, resigned her position, effective June 17 and her place is being filled for the summer by Mr. Vande Bunte's daughter, Marion, who was graduated from Hope college this year. Miss Vande Bunte will teach the sixth grade in the Zeeland schools. She returned Sunday from Kestler field, Miss., where she spent two weeks visiting her brother, Pvt. Lewis H. Vande Bunte, who expects to be home on a furlough about the middle of July.

Dutchmen Divide Holiday Contests With G.R. Krafts

Morning Game Well Played, Night Fray Is Wild and Hectic

The Holland Flying Dutchmen split a holiday doubleheader with the Dutch Kraft Paints of Grand Rapids Tuesday in Riverview park, losing the morning game, 6-3, in a beautifully played game and then winning a wild, hectic affair at night.

In the night game, with the score 11-10 in the last half of the ninth, Lefty Van Wieren, who went the route for Holland although severely pounded and much more wilder than usual, singled to right field. Wayne De Neff sacrificed him to second and he advanced to third on Frank Bagladi's strike-out. Wenzel then doubled down the right field line, sending the tying run home and putting the winning run on second. Harry De Neff then lashed a single to center, sending the winning run home.

In the morning game, the score was tied at 2-2 until the fifth, when, after two were out the Dutch Krafts got to Al Bronkhurst for three doubles and two singles which netted them three runs. Holland scored one run in the eighth and Grand Rapids one in the ninth to wind up the scoring.

O'Connor relieved Bronkhurst in the sixth inning of the first game and gave up one run and three hits in four innings.

The second game was marked with errors and sloppy playing in general but with the lead changing hands four times some 700 fans stayed in their seats. Approximately 1,500 fans saw both games.

Holt, playing right field for Dutch Kraft, was ejected from the game in the night affair when in the ninth inning he started a fight with Umpire Ted Wierda, after Wierda had called a strike on him.

Tomorrow at 8 p.m. the Dutchmen will tangle with Grand Haven in Kiewit. Last season they defeated Holland, 6-3, and like the Dutch Kraft have always proved a tough team to defeat for the locals.

Dykstra-Bolte Vows Are Exchanged Here

Miss Ruth Bolte, daughter of Mrs. Frank Smith, 206 West 17th St., and Julius Dykstra, son of George Dykstra, 304 West 15th St., were married Thursday at 11 a.m. in the parsonage of the First Methodist church, Rev. George Moores officiating. The bride wore a two-piece aqua dress with white accessories, and her attendant, Mrs. Mike Essenburg, wore a light blue two-piece dress with white accessories. Mike Essenburg assisted as best man. The couple left on a short wedding trip and will be at home at 3784 Central Ave. next week. Both are employed at Fair Bearing Co.

An anxious moment for the groom occurred before the wedding, according to Postmaster Harry Kramer, when the marriage license did not come from Grand Haven. To forestall a trip to the court house, post office officials intercepted the mails, had the carrier check his bag, found the license and the couple was married according to schedule.

No one can cast you down but you.

Rev. and Mrs. Chester Postma of Decatur are spending a week of their vacation with relatives in this vicinity. On Sunday, Rev. Postma conducted services in schedule.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest of Hudsonville spent the latter part of last week with Rev. and Mrs. Henry Zylstra, while her husband Rev. Ernest attended the C. E. convention at Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiersma and children from Lamont were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lamar.

City Failing in Bond Drive, Lievense Says

"As chairman of the war bond committee, it is my duty to tell the truth NOW to our citizens," Frank M. Lievense said today. "It then becomes the responsibility of the people in our community. We have always made our war bond quotas. Never have we failed, but in this fifth war loan we are failing miserably. Never before was it necessary to give daily reports, but now our statistical chairman, George Damsen, is giving them to you every other day."

"Why are we failing now, with more money than ever before in our possession? In the next six months more American boys will die than in all previous wars. What kind of news is it for these innocent youths to read and learn that we on the home front are not backing them, because of apathy or selfishness?"

"Have we too large a group of the same kind of people who caused the fall of France? Is our rich heritage bought at a crimson cost unappreciated by today's Americans? Must more boys die and the war last longer because of our petty self-interest or indifference? Indifference because we think we have victory in sight and let George finish it."

"The sales of individual bonds in the fifth drive is lagging all over the country and Holland is no exception. Yet we have in our Holland banks in savings deposits alone $4,500,000. A little over 20 percent of that amount will buy our quota of individual bond sales for Holland, Holland township, and Park township. This does not take into account money put in safety deposit boxes and in the old family sugar bowl. "Yet if this money were invested in government bonds, the owner would receive almost three times the amount of interest while the security—the United States government—would be the same whether it is in the bonds or in the bank. This money does not only do its own good but it does not help our fighting men. It does not buy food, munitions, medicine, or medical equipment. We have been just proud of the morale of our fighting men but when they begin to realize that the folks at home do not care what happens to them, what would you expect would happen to that spirit?"

"If you were fighting and dying overseas, would you feel kindly towards the fellow at home who neglected to let the government use his money to provide you with even the necessities of life or the equipment to carry on the fight which you know has just begun? Are we to be numbered among those who, in the comfort and luxury in this land of ours, have refused even to loan a part of our savings, most of which were accumulated as a result of working in the local war plants?"

"Whatever the reason for our apathy the only answer is to buy war bonds and buy them now. Please give this your urgent thought. Buy all you possibly can, talk to your neighbors and friends. Measure your deeds by those of the millions of boys who are fighting for us. They must not learn that Holland failed, when millions of dollars are here. What if they quit? They will never quit. Are you?"

Modern Dutch Art Exhibit Scheduled

An exhibit of the works of modern Dutch artists in Holland and America will be hung in the Netherlands museum here from July 10 to Aug. 5. Willard C. Wichers, director of the museum, announced today. This exhibit is under the distinguished patronage of Princess Juliana and is being loaned to the leading art museum by the Netherlands government. The canvases to be hung in the museum are pre-war and are part of those shown by the Netherlands government at the New York and San Francisco world's fairs.

Appropriate public ceremonies will be held at the opening Monday, July 10, at 8:15 p.m. Additional free dates will be announced later. The regular museum hours are 9 to 5 daily except Sunday.

Included in the exhibit are the works of such artists as Pol Dom, Leo Gestel, Jan van Herwijnen, Prof. W. van den Berg, Prof. J. H. Jurrens, Mrs. Charley Toorop and Mathieu Wiegman, all of whom are still in the Netherlands.

Exhibitors who were in America at the time of the invasion or who have come here since include Prof. Adriaan J. Barnouw, Frederik Franck, Joep Nicolas, Ernst and Karin van Leyden, the late Hendrik Willem van Loon and others.

The collection to be presented in the Netherlands museum does not pretend to give a complete idea of what has been and is being produced by Dutch artists in Holland and America. Today there are some 4,000 recognized professional Dutch artists from a land of not more than 9,000,000 people. Among these contemporary Dutch painters are many kinds of expression many standards of quality and excellence. Individualism is the strongest basis of all Dutch art.

New Booklets Advertise City

The Chamber of Commerce has issued 10,000 booklets advertising Holland and its resorts to centers in Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, Cleveland and St. Louis. The booklets which have been prepared by Marvin C. Lindeman also are available for distribution at business places in Holland.

A map of Lake Macatawa shows in red lines the various routes in the resort area which will be of interest to visitors. The tulip farms, airport, yacht club, resort hotels, state park, coast guard station and other points of interest are clearly marked.

"Holland is a most favored city in its location," the folder reads. "Lake Michigan is at its doorstep, connected to the heart of the city by Lake Macatawa. With miles and miles of shore line, interlaced with paved roads, and interspersed with majestic dunes and green woods, Holland is the civic hub of a summer resort area second to none for natural advantages."

Miss Wieten Is Married in G.R.

Of interest to local friends and relatives is the marriage of Miss Shirley Wieten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wieten of Grand Rapids, who formerly resided in Holland, to Flight Officer Kenneth Sutter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sutter, Grand Rapids, which took place in a pretty garden ceremony at the home of the groom's parents Saturday night.

Miss Wieten is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seif of 304 West 12th St., Holland.

Dr. Bernard Mulder performed the double ring ceremony under an archway of roses in the presence of 80 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white net fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long Juliet sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured a long train and was trimmed with ruffles. Her finger-ring veil of bridal tulle was held by a seed-pearl tiara and white gladioli formed her bridal bouquet.

Miss Donna Wieten, sister of the bride, was maid of honor in a gown of blue tulle with basque bodice and full skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of mixed summer flowers. Miss Virginia Sutter, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and wore a gown of yellow tulle similar to the maid of honor's with a colonial bouquet.

Michigan Trails By More Than $100,000,000 In Purchases By Individuals

5th WAR LOAN ENDS THIS WEEK

All Lost Ground Must Be Regained

HERE IS THE WAY — TOMORROW IS THE DAY

HUNDRED MILLION DOLLAR ALL-OUT DAY IN MICHIGAN

Every Man, Woman and Child Is Asked To Help

Michigan CAN and WILL do the job! We lead the nation by a big margin in per capita ownership of E Bonds, and have led in this all-important category in every War Loan campaign to date—even in the 4th War Loan, where we trailed by over fifty million dollars until the entire State got on its fighting clothes in the last two days, and went over the top WITH A ROAR!

This time we are twice as far behind, because of the larger 5th War Loan quota, and it will take statewide action beyond anything we have done before to reach our objective—but we in Michigan have the will and the fight to do it! There is no soldier boy on any battle front who ever will have cause to say we let him down.

Don't wait for anyone to call on you—we're beyond that stage now. Just head for the nearest issuing agency and buy every War Bond you can—or use the Savings Bank Withdrawal Order, below. The time is short—the job is big! Let's send the word clear 'round the world that Michigan has done it again — for, remember, that AS MICHIGAN GOES—SO GOES THE WAR!

HAVE FAITH — and show it NOW
