Chamber Asks US-31 Sign

Chamber of Commerce officials are concerned about the drop in tourist trade in the Holland area and have requested State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie to help with the placing of a sign.

Letters were sent to Mackie today seeking to have a sign stating "US-31 north" placed at the Stevensville or Watervliet exits on I-94 or on the signs designating Benton Harbor and St. Joseph.

Holland chamber officials pointed out that because there are no signs on I-94 directing persons north, it's easy for a motorist to get lost trying to get off an exit and they stay on the exit and head east to US-131 and then head north through Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids.

Tourist and resort members of the Holland Chamber and gas stations received letters today asking them to contact Mackie on the importance of placing such a sign.

The Holland Downtown Merchant Association has sent a similar letter to Mackie and State Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings has talked to the highway commissioner.

State Rep. Riemer Van T. vice chairman of the state tourist committee, is also expected to help. Chambers of Commerce in Grand Haven and Saugatuck are also sending letters.

Jaycees Plan Big Barbecue

A community barbecue with a new twist was being planned today by the Holland Jaycees.

Besides being merely delicious and entertaining, the Jaycee-sponsored "Project Windmill" Barbecue, slated for July 24 in the Civic Center parking lot, will be primarily informative.

Jaycees said the object of their "Project Windmill" Barbecue is to inform Holland residents of "Project Windmill" and to allow residents to meet A. J. de Koning, an authority on windmills from The Netherlands.

A model of the type of windmill proposed for the city of Holland will be displayed in the parking lot and movies on windmills will be shown in the Civic Center.

Mayor Nelson Bosman and Miss Holland, Elisabeth Clark, will attend the barbecue. The Jaycees have also invited State Highway Commissioner John Mackie to attend.

Rep. Hoffman Spent Quiet Holiday at Allegan Home

ALLEGAN — Crusty, cantankerous Clare Hoffman spent the Fourth of July sitting on the front porch of his late-Victorian house on Marshall St., watching the world go by — and hating every minute of it.

Out of action since November 3 of last year, the 86-year-old congressman from the Fourth District described his status as "buried but not dead."

Ever since he was stricken with a slight stroke on his way to New Richmond for an early morning duck-hunt, Hoffman said "I have been in either the Allegan Health Center, Bethesda Naval Hospital or at home here under the care of doctors and nurses who see that I fact that "I'm not able to say a word in behalf of our form of government."

"I'd also like to be in the House to ask the Chaplain to pray for the Supreme Court, but I think they're probably doing it for themselves in their chambers, though not from the bench," he said.

"Maybe if we all asked the Lord to help them, it would be effective. Let us — one and all — try it for a couple of weeks, just a silent prayer for the Lord to guide the court."

He said he "never thought I'd live to see the day a president asked for legislative and judicial powers, to write the laws and levy taxes. But maybe Kennedy is setting up a government to take to the moon . . . that's O.K. by me, just as long as he doesn't leave any of it here."

Hoffman said he wanted to thank everyone for the "good wishes which keep coming in, wishing me a speedy recovery."

He said he had recently had a long visit with an old friend, returning to the United States after four years in Spain "where she had been teaching Spanish children the English language as a volunteer — a fine example of the way the average American works overseas."

"One thing she told me over and over again . . . that this is the best country she ever lived in . . . not news to me although I've never been out of it and have no desire to go."

Hoffman said "she is a retired government employee, having worked for it more than twenty years."

"I wish every one of the 'liberals' had to live abroad ten years, then return here; they might learn something of value to all of us," he commented.

Hoffman, who will retire at the end of this, his 14th term in Congress, gave the impression he would not publicly endorse any of the four Republican candidates seeking nomination as his successor, even though his son, Leo, is actively working for Edward Hutchinson, Fennville, and has endorsed the Con Con vice president publicly.

Leo Hoffman said the four candidates seeking the Republican nomination to succeed his father "represent just about every shading of political philosophy, from the extreme left to the extreme right . . . and there's no doubt in my mind that Dad will make known his personal choice before the August 7 primary."

Board Honors Townsend

GRAND HAVEN—City Attorney James Townsend of Holland, who is resigning from that position June 30, was given a round of applause Wednesday at his final meeting with the Ottawa county board of supervisors.

A resolution praising the work of Townsend on the board and in other county projects was read by the clerk, following its presentation by Mayor Nelson Bosman of Holland.

Visibly moved, Townsend said that too much was said in the resolution. "It's altogether too flowery," he said. "I have enjoyed every minute I have served and I know that the affairs of the county government will be in good hands. My contribution has been small. Thank you for the privilege."

His last act on the board was the presentation of a motion that the board chairman, Lawrence Wade, Holland, appoint a three-man committee to work in cooperation with the juvenile division of probate court and the county juvenile study committee.

Wade announced he will name the committee soon and will present the names for affirmation at the October session.

The resolution pointed out that Townsend had served with distinction on several important committees and was the leading advocate of a successful program to improve the county's juvenile facilities as well as serving with exceptional ability as civic leader.

LEGISLATURE

It looks like each member — and there are 110 representatives and 34 senators — will get their raise of $2,000, making their pay $7,000 plus $1,250 expense allowance that goes into effect next January. This amounts to a figure of $288,000 of the increase in pay and when we are told that our state is badly in need of more money to help pay the ever mounting cost of operation, raising the pay does not seem like the proper thing to do.

Without going into a lot of research we are of the impression that our legislators are now almost to the top of the heap when it comes to dollars they receive in our great country.

We the taxpayers, are the ones who pay and pay. If we are going to pay the bills then we the people should demand that we get the very best representation. Our state is growing in population according to the last 1960 census, so with more people there are bound to be more and more demands on the state for more and more help. This all takes money. This is the reason that we need the very best people to try and do a better job.

When things are happening like they are today in our state with the Con Con delegates finished or almost finished with their work, the question now is whether the people will have the results before them this year for voting approval.

Then we have Attorney General Frank J. Kelley filing suit to force the legislature to reapportion state Senate districts before the November general election. The Legislature has adjourned until December 27, and scheduled to return July 26, many things can happen and may bring changes. With Kelley and Schoole apparently on the one side and the Legislature on the other the courts will no doubt be brought into the picture to make the decision. With the first of July past the new taxes which were passed by the legislature will be collected from us, the people, who furnish the money through taxes in one way or another so that our state can keep on operating.

Jeremiah Announces
Impending Tragedy
Jeremiah 25:1-11

By C. P. Dame

The prophet Jeremiah was born in Anathoth, a little village located near Jerusalem, about the year 650 B. C. towards the close of the long and wicked reign of Manasseh.

The northern kingdom had fallen 72 years before. In his time three nations, Egypt, Assyria and Babylon, were contending for the mastery of the world. In 607 B. C. Nineveh was captured by the Babylonians and in 605 B. C. they defeated the Egyptians at Carchemish. Jeremiah lived and worked in tumultuous times.

1. God calls men to speak for Him. When Jeremiah was about 24 years old God called him to be a prophet. He grew up in a priestly home. All who have been trained in a godly home have gotten something that is precious. A prophet speaks for God to the people.

The first verse of the lesson text says that the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah "concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon."

The good king Josiah was killed in battle. Upon his death his son Jehoahaz became king, but he reigned only three months. Judah was under the authority of Egypt at that time and so the Egyptian king put Jehoiakim on the throne. When Babylon defeated Egypt, Judah became subject to it. Jeremiah urged the nation to submit to Babylon but there were politicians who always leaned to Egypt.

II. Warning words often go unheeded. For 23 years Jeremiah presented God's message to the people, but they did not respond. Today there are people in our churches who have heard the gospel for years but they change not in the least. Preachers are not all alike.

Jeremiah was a persistent, earnest preacher as his words "and I have spoken unto you, rising early" indicate. He got no response after preaching for years — "but ye have not hearkened." No wonder he became discouraged now and then.

God sent many prophets to the nation but without avail. All the prophets proclaimed one message: "Turn ye again now every one from his evil way. . . . And go not after other gods to serve them. "Although Judah had the example of Israel which had been exiled, it did not repent.

III. Punishment comes to the disobedient. The word, "Therefore" is followed in the text by a threat—Judah too would be carried into captivity. The Babylonian king who is called God's servant, would overcome the little kingdom of Judah and end its existence.

The Babylonians captured Judah in 597 B. C. and placed a puppet king on the throne who proved disloyal and so the conqueror returned and captured and destroyed Jerusalem and brought the best people to Babylon.

Nations have responsibilities to God as well as individuals. When a nation disobeys God and His truth evil consequences are sure to come. Our nation is troubled by a mania for pleasure. It is a historic fact that pleasure seekers and money-grabbers are not very conscious of God and His kingdom.

America has its idols. Graham recently said that "sex has become almost a goddess in this nation." Money, pleasure, power and fame are sought by millions. What a change would take place in our nation if the masses would turn to the Lord!

How do people meet crises away from home?

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gunderson of Park Ridge, Ill., found out when they were passing through Holland a week ago on a vacation trip.

Their seven-year-old son, William Henry, was taken seriously ill, and the Gundersons ended up in Holland Hospital dealing with strange doctors and strange people. It developed that Billy needed surgery to remove a kidney—a serious operation at best.

His five-year-old brother, Chuckie, was with the family group. Through long hours of diagnosis and important decisions the hospital wasn't really the most pleasant place for an active five-year-old.

Mrs. Kenneth Kleis, working that afternoon in the gift-shop at the hospital, solved that problem. She took Chuckie home to be with her own children, aged 7, 5 and 4. He spent several hours there the first day and also a share of the next day when Billy underwent surgery.

Billy is doing well after his surgery, and the family has permission for Chuckie to join him for a period each afternoon on the hospital porch. Meanwhile, Chuckie has visited the Kleis children several times.

The family has been staying at a local motel.

It's turned up before, but it's always good for a laugh.

It's a reprint of a classified ad which ran some years ago in The Sentinel reading, "For rent: Unfurnished two-room apartment with bath located end of Eighth St."

This classic has appeared in many publications.

When old buildings are torn down or remodeled, it's always interesting to come across old newspapers or documents stuffed into walls or goodness knows where.

Gordon Emaus, Hazelbank Rd., while working for Mooi Roofing Co. on a Zealand store found an agent's circular of the Netherlands Line dated Feb. 27, 1896. He turned it over to Howard Doustra who brought it to The Sentinel.

Steering rates from New York to Rotterdam or Amsterdam those days ran $25, and the rate from Rotterdam or Amsterdam to New York was $29.50. The round trip was $54.50.

Rates to Germany were slightly higher. The rate to Vienna was $32.18. The rate to Rio de Janeiro, South America, was $56.

Some railroad rates from Russian frontier stations to Rotterdam also were quoted, but the cities are not familiar today. Those listed were Bajohren, Eydtkuhnen, Prostken, Illovo and Ohtlotschin. These rates ran about $14 for third class and $7.56 for fourth class.

Six new families were welcomed to Holland during May by the city hostess.

The Rev. and Mrs. Bernard Brunsting of Conogan Park, Calif., have moved into the parsonage of First Reformed Church at 656 State St. They have three daughters and one son. Since his arrival in Holland, Rev. Brunsting was granted an honorary doctor of divinity degree at Central College and also was elected president of General Synod of the Reformed Church in America in Buck Hill Falls, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duckers and two children of The Netherlands have moved to 46 East 20th St. Mr. Duckers is employed by Roamer Boat Co.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kott and two sons of Altamont, Ill., are living at 1807 South Shore Dr. Mr. Kott is employed by Herman Miller Furniture Co. in Zeeland.

Mr. and Mrs. David G. Steinpres of Columbus, Ohio, and young daughter are living at 17 West 32nd St. Mr. Steinpres is with Koppenhofers in Zeeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goodman and infant daughter of Battle Creek have moved to an apartment at 156 1/2 Central Ave. Mr. Goodman is with Roamer Boat Co.

Mrs. Scholten and Mrs. Ramaker visited the Pixie Blue Birds at their last meeting. Debbie Kramer opened the meeting, the dues were collected and roll was called. Miss Darlent treated with s'mores which were made on the grill in the back yard at the home of our leaders. Mrs. Betty DeGues was there and we sang songs and talked about our picnic in June. We learned the Camp Fire Blessing so we would know it when we go to camp. Jannette Eshenaur, scribe.

An overnight camp-out at Kamp Kiwanis concluded the final meetings for this year in Camp Fire for the Canastawestaya Camp Fire girls of the fifth grade at Beechwood. The 19 girls in our group are: Carol Lusiter, Barb Hoffman, Diane Rosendahl, Alice Kays, Rita Maichele, Lynda Beukema, Holly Palmer, Sally Hiddinga, Barbara Schuiling, Jan Riemersma, Pam Stoop, Kathy Dannenberg, Vicky Blaukamp, Bev. Kragt, Laurie Mervenne, Patty Meyers, Elida Perales, Jill Nykamp, Jean Nykerk. Our sponsors are Mrs. Leon Meyers and Mrs. Alvin Schuiling. We thank them for all their help this year.

The girls' parents brought them, their blankets and supplies to the Kamp at 5:30 Friday night. We fixed tin foil dinners and fruit salad for supper and then took a hike through the woods. We had a going away party for Alice Kays and Lynda Beukema who will be moving out of town this month. They treated with cake and ice cream and the group gave them each an autograph book in which each girl wrote as a remembrance of our friends and fun we had in Camp Fire this year. Then we made our sleeping bags from blankets and took them outdoors and made a circle around the camp fire we had built in the sand hill. Around our huge fire, we played games, told stories, presented our leaders, Mrs. Karl Overbeek and Miss Barb Kamphuis, with gift certificates and thanked Mrs. Meyers who was with us, for all her help.

We roasted marshmallows on Friday night and ate them on Saturday morning (all within a couple minutes.) We were just ready to settle down and go to sleep when it started to rain so we went up to the Lodge where we spent the rest of the night. In the morning, we fixed our breakfast of bacon, eggs, and bread on our buddy burners. After cleaning everything up, we played games inside awhile because it was raining a little yet. After awhile, we took a hike along the beach and back through Tunnel Park. We collected fire wood and sticks to make our kabobs of meat, potatoes and onions on a stick and roasted them over the fire. We also made bread on a stick, had corn on the cob, kool-aid and watermelon. After dinner we cleaned up the camp and played. We made s'mores, graham crackers, chocolate bars, and roasted marshmallows made up like a sandwich. Our parents picked us up at 5 p.m. Saturday.

On June 15 the fifth grade CheskChamMay Camp Fire group of Montello Park School rounded up the season by having an outdoor picnic at the home of their leader and taking a trip to a blacksmith shop. The picnic lunch consisted of hamburgers which were fried on their hobo stoves; potato chips, fruit, kool-aid and home-made frozen suckers. Mrs. Shashagay arrived after lunch and took us to her father's blacksmith shop. Mr. Bekken made horseshoe nail rings for the girls and showed how red hot iron could be pounded and bent and welded into shape. He let them cut steel and then showed how steel drilling, are welding, and a grinder works. He even drilled a square hole. He showed us ice spuds that he had made. He doesn't shoe horses any more. Linda Jacobusse, scribe.

Miss Dorothy Weyenberg Wed To James E. Mann Jr.

Mrs. James Edward Mann Jr.

Miss Dorothy Jeanne Weyenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weyenberg of 841 South Shore Dr., and James Edward Mann Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Mann of Bluefield, W. Va., were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the Immanuel Baptist Church.

Bouquets of white gladioli and snap dragons, palms, ferns and candelabra provided the setting for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. W. Herbert Scott. Ribbons marked the pews.

Wearing a floor-length gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. The gown featured a moderately scooped neckline edged in Chantilly lace medallions and bracelet-length sleeves. The bouffant skirt had scattered lace medallions and fell to a chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of imported illusion flowed from a tailored bow headpiece of silk organza. The pearl necklace she wore was a gift from the groom. Her colonial style bouquet was of gardenias encircled by lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Roland Tien, sister of the bride served as matron of honor. She wore pink silk organza over taffeta, styled with a fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and a bouffant skirt featuring cabbage roses in back. Her circular veil was held by a pale pink headpiece. She carried a colonial style bouquet of white snapdragons and carnations.

The bridesmaid, Mrs. Henry Weigel of Milwaukee, Wis., was dressed identically to the matron of honor.

For his best man, the groom chose his father, James E. Mann. Ushers were Philip Weyenberg, the bride's brother and Roland

Grand Haven Light Plant Tests Held

GRAND HAVEN — This city's Board of Light & Power is awaiting final reports on tests of the new municipal light and power plant, being completed on Harbor Island at a cost of $5,000,000.

Lutz & May, St. Louis engineering firm, is making the analysis on acceptance tests on the new steam plant equipment. The tests were completed last week, J. B. Sims, superintendent, reported.

The tests were good, Sims said, and no trouble is anticipated. The tests are to see if each piece of equipment would meet its performance guarantee.

Tests show that the plant can handle a big overload. It is rated at 9,375 to 10,000 kilowatts but it produced 12,400 KW. This would have been higher in the winter, when cold water is used for cooling, Sims explained.

He said warm water drawn from nearby Grand River in the summer increases the back pressure which cuts the efficiency of the mammoth new plant, which looms up to the west when motorists pass on the new swing bridge on US-31 at Ferrysburg.

The board hopes that by Aug. 11 an open house may be held at the plant. Landscaping is being done there now and interior painting is being completed.

A display featuring photos of the plant in all its phases of construction will appear in the Security First Bank and Trust Co. showcase in the old Robinhood theater lobby on Washington St. this week.

Water Survey Set for Holland

Two Hope College students, Richard Brand and Paul Lucas, both seniors next term, have been retained by a group interested in promoting "clean streams" in the area to make a survey of local waters in an effort to improve Lake Macatawa which is one of Holland's most important natural resources.

The two students will record data and take water samples at stated points in local streams under the supervision of the Holland Department of Environmental Health of which Sam Stephenson is director. Stephenson is meeting with John Wyma, Ottawa county sanitarian, and Chester Harvey of the Michigan Water Resources Commission, to set up specific methods for the local program.

Funds to finance the survey are currently being received by the Greater Holland Community Foundation through its treasurer, John Fonger, in City Hall. So far 16 gifts totaling $332 have been received ranging from $2 to $100. Gifts are divided almost equally from institutions, industries and individuals living on Lake Macatawa who are interested in improvements.

The Holland Police Department has offered the use of a boat in the survey which in addition to water samples will yield data on erosion, industrial wastes, improper dumping or filling, and domestic wastes.

The survey is the result of a public meeting April 24 in Herrick Public Library called by the Holland Garden Club to discuss possible improvements for Lake Macatawa, Black River and the entire drainage basin.

Plans also are in progress for calling a meeting of representatives of municipal bodies and interested groups to work towards suitable legislation to control indiscriminate dumping and enforce proper treatment of wastes. In this group would be representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, township boards and city councils, board of supervisors, local game clubs, Coast Guard, Garden Club and others.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion was observed at the morning and afternoon services Sunday in First Reformed Church. The morning meditation by the pastor, the Rev. Adrian Newhouse was: "Divine Inspection" and the solo rendered by Mrs. Henry Pyle was "Why" — J. M. Moore. The afternoon meditation was "Sufficient Grace" — Dr. John Piet. Professor of Bible and Missions at Western Theological Seminary, had charge of the evening service. His sermon was "In The Face of Christ" — Norman Vredvelde sang "The Stranger of Galilee" — C. M. Morris and "My Father Watches Over Me" — Martin.

Next Sunday the Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered in First Reformed Church. The Rev. Raymond Beckering, pastor of Second Reformed Church, chose for his Sunday morning sermon topic "The Man Who Gets All the Breaks" and Mrs. George Lumsden of Trinity Reformed Church, Holland, sang "By The Waters of Babylon" — Speaks and "I Sought the Lord" — Stevenson.

Rev. Beckering's evening sermon was "The Four Elements of Christianity" and Mrs. C. J. Bus-house, a member of the choir at Maple Avenue Christian Reformed Church in Holland, sang "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way" — Effinger.

The following ministers will occupy the Second Reformed Church pulpit during the month of July: the Rev. G. J. ten Zythoff, the Rev. Matt J. Duven, the Rev. Miner Stegenga, and Dr. George H. Mennenga.

The Temple Time topic of Dr. R. R. Van Heukelom, First Reformed Church, Orange City, Iowa, for July 3 will be "Resting in Christ — Faith", July 15, "Working for Christ — Assurance".

The Rev. John M. Hains, pastor of Faith Reformed Church used for his Sunday morning worship topic: "Guarding Our Independence." His evening topic was "A Woman's Fall".

The Rev. R. B. Kuiper, Grand Rapids, was guest minister at the morning and evening services in First Christian Reformed Church. At the North Street Christian Reformed Church the Rev. Andrew Banstra, Bible Institute, Calvin College was guest minister.

The Zeeland Chamber of Commerce announced that the annual baseball excursion to Detroit will be held on August 15. The Tigers will play the Baltimore Orioles on that day. Harvey Ten Harsnel is chairman for the excursion.

Army Pic. Leroy D. Molter, son of Mrs. Lavina J. Molter, 224 Woodward Ave., Zeeland, departed from Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, on June 13 with other personnel of the 25th Infantry Division's 4th Cavalry to reinforce the division's 27th Infantry in Thailand.

Molter, a driver in the cavalry's Troop B, entered the Army in August 1960 and received basic combat training at Fort Knox, Ky. The 20-year-old soldier attended Zeeland High School.
