CITY AND VICINITY.

John E. Winter has taken a position in the First State bank.

G. W. Mokma has bought of G. W. Deur a house and three lots on East Seventeenth street.

While playing at the home of her parents last Friday, the seven-year-old daughter of Mrs. E. Woldering, Seventh street, broke her right leg.

County School Commissioner C. E. Kelly has filed his report of schools visited from April 1 to June 30. Mr. Kelly has visited twenty-three schools during the period.

News has been received by friends in this city of the marriage at Wheaton, Ill., last week of Mrs. Ray Sizelan, formerly a teacher in the Holland public schools to Dr. Dane Allen of Punta Gorda, Fla. Mrs. Allen formerly lived in Muskegon.

School boys out of a job are in better shape than statesmen out of a job, for they can get work during vacation. At present the majority of them are winning laurels as cherry pickers, there being an unusually large yield of that luscious fruit in this vicinity, particularly on the farms on the interurban.

Say, you fellow that said in 1896 that if the Republicans were successful that money would become scarcer and scarcer. Listen to this fact: Between 1896 and 1903 Uncle Sam increased the money in circulation in his family from $1,506,000,000 to $2,367,000,000, that is an increase of $861,000,000. When you get to prophesying this year please remember your supreme failure as a prophet in last campaign and quit.—Yellow Jacket.

The plaintiff's declaration in the case of Maria TenCate against the Pere Marquette Railway has been filed in the county clerk's office. The plaintiff claims to have been run down by a Pere Marquette train at the Fifth street crossing, Holland, on October 17, 1903. It is set forth that the train did not signal properly and was running at an illegal rate of speed. The plaintiff was driving in a rig at the time of the accident and claims the accident cost her over $200 in doctor's bills and considerably more for loss of time while she was laid up by the injuries. Smedley and Corwin are the plaintiff's attorneys.

Business at Hotel Holland was very good during the Fourth of July vacation. The capacity of the house was taxed Saturday and Sunday and a goodly number was accommodated on Monday. While Holland had no celebration outside of the Temperance program, there were a large number of people here and part of the day and evening the streets were thronged. No serious accidents marred the day, the only excitement being a fire in the stand conducted by J. A. and E. R. VanderVeen. The sparks were communicated to a quantity of fireworks and for a few minutes the display was dazzling. The fire alarm was sounded but the presence of the department was not necessary to extinguish the flames.

No estimate can be placed on the number of passengers carried by the G. R., H. & L. M. railway the Fourth of July, but it is safe to say that it was the busiest day in the history of the company. From 5:30 in the morning until 3:30 the next morning every car was in commission and all were crowded to their fullest capacity on every trip. At that there were 5 or 6 carloads to bring away Tuesday forenoon, the later passengers being those who stayed at the resorts over night to visit friends. Neither can an estimate be placed on the number of people who spent the day at the resorts. It was the biggest day in the history of all of them. Hotel Macatawa, Colby's Pavilion and the resort ferry boat fleet under Capt. Austin Harrington never did a better Fourth of July business; Ottawa Beach had the same luck; while the people at Jensen Park and P. T. McCarthy's pavilion were away ahead of any previous number. The crowd was a good natured one and all were accommodated without any inconvenience. It is thought that there were over 40,000 people at the resorts and in the city.

Jacob Van Putten, sr. and family have moved into their new home on south River street.

Jacob Heeringa has purchased of Jacob Derks 91 feet of Eighth street frontage near Columbia avenue, paying $20 per front foot.

Plans are being made for the annual re-union of the Soldiers and Sailors Association of Allegan County which is to be held in Saugatuck July 26, 27 and 28th.

A notice of trial has been filed in the matter of the case of the estate of Thomas W. Ferry, deceased, on the appeal of David D. Erwin. The case will be presented for trial at the August term.

At Hudsonville on the Fourth the Holland Juniors were defeated by the fast Hudsonville team by a score of 4 to 3. The game was hotly contested and furnished rare sport for over 2,000 spectators.

A regular called mass convention of the Socialist party will be held at the Grandwet hall, July 27, 1904 at 3 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating county officers and representatives for first and second districts of Ottawa county.

The capital stock of the Fillmore Center creamery to be constructed this summer is $4,000, divided into 400 shares. Of the $2,600 subscribed $1,000 has been paid in. There are fifty-three stockholders, all residents of the township of Fillmore.

At the teacher's examinations held in Allegan June 16th and 17th there were 89 applicants, 33 being candidates for second grade certificates and only four were successful; 56 writing for third grade certificates and only 16 were successful.

Among the records for traffic broken in this city on July 4, was the steamboat passenger record. More passengers were carried by the Graham and Morton steamers that day than any other previous day since the establishment of a boat line to Chicago.

Horsemen are predicting that by next fall McKinley, H. Boone's famous trotter, will have company in the horsemen's roll of honor. They pin their faith on Phil St. Clair, a half brother of McKinley. This youngster, who is owned by parties in this vicinity, is showing form away above the average at the workouts in Grand Rapids. He will be entered in some of the races this fall.

The people that gathered in Lincoln park on the Fourth of July to celebrate, report a splendid day. The weather was very threatening in the morning, but nearly 1000 people assembled at the park to listen to the several speeches that were given by noted men of Michigan. The rostrum which was built for the speakers was also filled with representative citizens of Holland. The committee extends but thanks to John Vandersluijs' quartette also to the Graafschap Band for the splendid music rendered.

The equipment for the Chicago division of the Pere Marquette is now in service. It consists of four combination parlor and observation cars, with green exterior finish, four cafe cars, six combination smoker and baggage cars, two full mail cars, two large baggage cars and twenty coaches. Each day train on the run will carry cafe cars, in which meals will be served a la carte, and observation and parlor car. The night train will carry baggage car full mail car, combination smoker, Pullman sleeper and regular coach. With the operation of it's parlor cars the company will reduce the parlor rate between Chicago and Grand Rapids to 50 cents.

Next Monday will begin the Allegan County Teachers' institute which will continue in session until August 11. This promises to be of unusual interest. The institute will be under the direction of Prof. W. F. Stuart of Battle Creek who conducts classes in grammar, arithmetic, U. S. history, and reading. Other instructors will be R. J. Josenhans—botany, physics, theory and art of teaching, and general history; Carl Smith of Ann Arbor—music, drawing, algebra, and civics; Ira G. Thorpe—geography, physiology, school law, and the state manual; Miss Margaret E. Wise of the training department of the State Normal school of Ypsilanti will do primary work during the first week in August. Lectures will be given by Prof. C. O. Hoyt of Ypsilanti and Walter H. French of Lansing, deputy superintendent of public instruction.

McKinley stepped a mile in 2:12 at the Grand Rapids track on the Fourth.

James Oostema, who came here from Cold Springs, Col., to attend the funeral of the late R. Oostema, will preach at Mel Trotter's mission in Chicago tonight. There are three churches on Mr. Oostema's circuit in Cold Springs.

On account of the death of his brother Eldert, Hon. G. J. Diekema could not go to Kalamazoo to deliver the Fourth of July address and his place was taken by Rev. J. T. Bergen who greatly pleased a large audience by an eloquent and patriotic speech.

While the bakers at Van Der Veen's restaurant were eating their breakfast on the Fourth one of the cooks shot off a revolver and startled them. They sneaked the largest cannon cracker they could find into his window. He hasn't come down yet, but revenge is sweet, so they say.

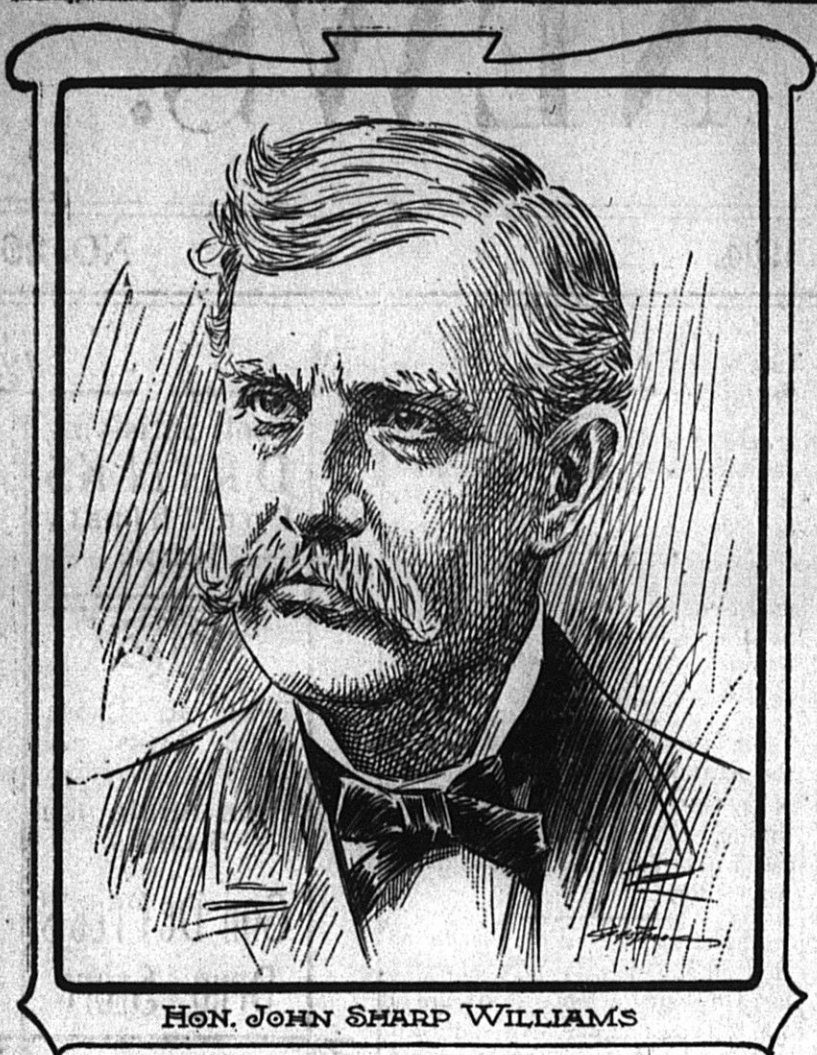

John Arendsma and two Italian laborers were injured badly while unloading steel rails from a Pere Marquette car by the aid of a derrick last Tuesday morning. They were brought to this city on a switch engine and were taken to the office of Dr. H. Kremers for treatment.

Dr. Edward Kremers, who was graduated a year ago from the U. of M. and who since that time has been on the hospital staff at the University has begun the practice of his profession in this city. He is occupying offices with his father in the rooms above Haan Bros. drug store, one of which was recently vacated by Dr. B. J. DeVries the dentist.

Poultry and pet stock will form an important part of the fair to be given this fall by the S. O. and W. A. Agricultural society. J. B. Hadden and L. S. Sprietsma are putting the same enthusiasm into their efforts to have a good poultry exhibition at the fair as they put into their efforts to make the last poultry show a success and as a result the fair exhibition promises to be one of the star shows in the history of fancy poultry.

The Macatawa Resorters took the Grand Rapids High school team into camp on the Fourth at Jensen Electric Park by a score of 10 to 9. Kelly for the Resorters was invincible in the box, allowing but three stingy hits while Traphagen of the High schools was pie for the rusticators, who pounded out 12 safe ones. And now comes the All Stars and say that there were some of their men in the Macatawa line-up.

The Vaudie Ribs Combination Co. was down for a special act at Jensen Electric Park on the glorious Fourth. Vaudie, the romantic hero, after a thrilling attempt to unfurl the flag on the upper deck of the Post Boy, gracefully fell into the inviting waters of Black Lake. Instantly, and to the accompaniments of the encouraging shouts of the cheering multitude, Harry Nies, the dare-devil friend of the afflicted and the suffering, plunged recklessly after the white-haired and peach-cheeked immersee, who was spouting like a whale and showing his top-knot at regular intervals when he came to the surface for breath. Harry the dauntless, supported the hero of the high dive until Ribs and Fritz hove in sight with the life boat and brought all to safety. During the thrilling rescue the crowd stood spell bound. When Vaudie laughed and they saw it was a joke all shouted in merriment. Surely the Vaudie-Ribs combination can deliver the funny goods. Dr. Scott was the attending physicians.

HON. JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS

Temporary Chairman Democratic National Convention.

CHOICE OF THE POPULISTS

WATSON, OF GEORGIA, IS NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT.

For Second Place on Ticket, Tibbles, of Nebraska, Is Named—Synopsis of the Platform.

Springfield, Ill., July 6.—Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, for president, and Thomas H. Tibbles, of Nebraska, for vice president was the ticket nominated Tuesday by the populist national convention. The names of William V. Allen, of Nebraska, and Samuel W. Williams, of Indiana, were also placed before the convention for president, but before the list of states had been completed in the roll call, their names were withdrawn, and Watson nominated by acclamation.

The platform adopted reaffirms adherence to the basic truths of the Omaha platform of 1892, and of the subsequent platforms of 1896 and 1900; demands that all money shall be issued by the government in such quantities as shall maintain a stability in prices, every dollar to be a full legal tender, none of which shall be a debt redeemable in other money, for establishment of postal savings banks; pledges the efforts of the party to preserve the right of labor to organize for the benefit and protection of those who toil, and pleads for that broad spirit of toleration and justice which will promote industrial peace through the observance of the principles of voluntary arbitration; favors enactment of legislation looking to the improvement of conditions for wage-earners, the abolition of child labor, the suppression of sweatshops and of convict labor in competition with free labor, the exclusion from American shores of foreign pauper labor and the shorter work day; favors the initiative, referendum and proportional representation and direct vote for all public officers with the right of recall; demands prohibition of alien ownership of land; denounces government by injunction and imprisonment without right of trial by jury; favors government ownership of public utilities; demands that special privileges now enjoyed by trusts and monopolies, and which alone enable them to exist, be immediately withdrawn.

New York, July 6.—Charles H. Corregan, of New York, and William W. Cox, of Illinois, were chosen as candidates for president and vice president, respectively, by the national convention of the socialist labor party in session here Wednesday. Although there has been a vast amount of talk about all sorts of matters at the convention, there was very little discussion over the selection of candidates. The result of the vote in each case was received with enthusiastic applause, and the candidates, both of whom were members of the convention, responded to demands for a speech.

Tragedy at St. Louis.
St. Louis, July 6.—After cutting the throat of Mrs. Marietta Kerr, with whom he had been living for a year, Edgar L. Evans, 23 years old, slashed his wrists with the same razor, and then cut his own throat. The woman died almost immediately. Evans is at the city hospital. His condition is serious, but he may recover.

Fort Is Captured.
Gyangtse, Tibet, July 6.—A British storming party, consisting of Gurkhas and fusiliers, captured the Jong (fort) Wednesday afternoon. The British casualties were not great.

BLOWN FROM THE TRACK.

Train Is Wrecked During a Tornado in Illinois—One Man Killed—Many Injured.

Petersburg, Ill., July 6.—An accommodation passenger train on the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad was blown from the track at Oakford, Ill., 12 miles north of Petersburg, early Tuesday evening.

Baggage man Thomas Willey, of Springfield, was killed, and 15 to 20 passengers were injured, some of them seriously. Among the injured are the following: William H. Gridley, Chicago, general manager of the Peoria & St. Louis road, arm broken; George A. Coleman, Springfield, conductor of train, head cut and bruised; Ernest Leib, Springfield, possibly fatally injured; Henry H. Chaneur, Springfield, head cut; Thomas Hogan and wife, Springfield; — Lynn, Chandierville, Ill.; Henry J. Elchaneur, Petersburg, Ill.; Ben Swayzee, mail clerk, Petersburg.

The train consisted of two coaches, a baggage car and the engine, and all but the engine were hurled from the track down a seven-foot embankment, turning over twice in the descent, and landing in a splintered mass of debris. The accident occurred just a few rods from the bridge over the Benjamin river. The work of relief began immediately as owing to the remarkable escape of nearly all the small number of passengers abroad, those who were injured and pinioned in the debris were speedily rescued and at once given attention. Relief trains were hurried from Springfield and Havana, and the more seriously injured were taken to hospitals. The wrecked cars took fire, but the flames were extinguished before any headway had been made. As soon as possible the injured were placed aboard the relief train and taken to Springfield and Havana, and those whose injuries were of a serious nature were placed in hospitals.

Floods Threatened.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—All Kansas streams are rising, the result of heavy rains in the past 24 hours, and serious floods prevail. From two to four inches of water has fallen since Tuesday. A worse flood than any that has preceded is threatened at Emporia, where both the Cottonwood and Neosho rivers are near to the high-water mark and rising at the rate of four inches an hour.

Investigation Resumed.
New York, July 6.—The federal grand jury Wednesday resumed its investigation into the disaster to the steamer General Slocum and the consequent loss of more than 900 lives. Assistant United States District Attorney Wise directed the inquiry. With two exceptions all the witnesses summoned for Wednesday had been heard by the coroner's jury.

Epidemic of Cholera.
New York, July 6.—It is definitely reported, says a Herald dispatch from Seoul, that an epidemic of cholera is spreading throughout Manchuria and already has reached Antung.

It Is a Mistaken Idea

To give too much time to the selection of a Piano; this time could better be spent in selecting a dealer. It should not be hard to size him up by the very appearance of things; for instance, if he be disposed to depreciate his competitor, its pretty strong evidence he hasn't much to offer for himself. One may well have reason to be suspicious of a dealer who promises very much more than is promised by other dealers in a like business. Select the dealer right and the good piano follows. Look up our record. Ask any of our customers how they like the Raymond. They all agree its the finest instrument they ever saw. We can suit you in price and style. $300 to $425.

DANISH VESSEL NORGE, LADEN WITH EMIGRANTS, SINKS OFF COAST OF SCOTLAND.

Of the 774 Persons on Board, 629 Are Still Missing, and Have Probably Drowned—Statement of the Vessel's Captain.

London, July 5.—Early on the morning of June 28, the Danish steamer, Norge, which left Copenhagen June 22 with 774 passengers on board, all of whom, except members of the crew, were Danish, Swedish, Norwegian and Finnish emigrants, ran onto the Rockall reef, about 290 miles off the west coast of Scotland, and sank in a few minutes. Of those on board 145 are known to have been saved. There is little hope for the remaining 629, who are missing, and doubtless drowned.

Soon Sinks.

According to the survivors, the moment the vessel struck the engines were reversed and the Norge came back into deep water. The rent in her bows was so large, however, that she began to fill rapidly. The vessel's eight boats were swung over the sides rapidly and the women and children were put into them first. There was a heavy sea running and in lowering the boats one was smashed.

Many Rescued.

The steamer trawler Salvia put into Grimsby late Sunday night with 26 rescued Scandinavians aboard. On Monday 102 survivors, who had been picked up by passing steamers, were landed at Stornoway, Scotland. Among these were Capt. Gundel, of the Norge, Capt. Gundel's statement, which reads like an affidavit from the dead, for he went down with his ship, maintains that the Norge struck on a sunken rock 18 miles from Rockall. Vessels are searching in the vicinity of Rockall for any more survivors. The chief hope lies in Capt. Gundel's statement that seven boatloads got safely away. No more tragic story of the sea has ever been known here than that of the sinking of the Norge.

Capt. Gundel's Statement.

Capt. Gundel said: "All went well until about 7:45 o'clock last Tuesday. When about 18 miles south of Rockall I felt the steamer strike heavily forward on a sunken rock. There was a gentle breeze blowing from the south with a cloudy sky. I was on the bridge with Chief Officer Carpenter. Soundings were taken and it was reported there were five feet of water in the forward hold. Orders were given to commence pumping and also to the passengers to put on life-belts and be ready to get into the boats, which were ordered to be put out.

"The crew worked nobly under the leadership of the chief officer. Seven boats got safely away, the life-rafts were cut adrift and the steamer went down by the bow. The chief officer told me she was sinking and I told him to jump overboard, which he did. I did not see him again.

His Miraculous Escape.

"I went down with the steamer. My right leg got jammed between two stanchions and was very much injured. When I rose to the surface I noticed a number of bodies floating. The Norge was afloat only about 20 minutes after striking. I swam for about 20 minutes and came across Second Engineer Brunn, who is a good swimmer. We kept company for about an hour and a half, when we noticed a boat some distance off and both made for it. I was hindered by my sore leg and the engineer reached the boat first. Both of us were taken on board quite exhausted. We found that it was lifeboat No. 1. It was crowded and under the charge of Able Seaman Peter Olsen. After recovering a little I took charge of the boat and the provisions, which consisted only of a box of bread and two casks of water. The boat was steered for St. Kilda, 150 miles distant.

Rescued.

"On Saturday morning we saw a large schooner-rigged steamer about four miles distant. We put up a blanket on an oar, but the steamer passed on without taking any notice of us. On Sunday morning a bark passed some distance off, but with the same result. At about 12 o'clock Sunday land was sighted and the drooping spirits of all were revived. It proved to be St. Kilda. Sometimes afterward a steamer was noticed coming from the west bearing down upon our boat. She proved to be the Energie, and at six o'clock we were safe on board."

The Public Debt.

Washington, July 2.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business on June 30, 1904, the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $967,231,774, a decrease for the month of $3,060,860, which is largely accounted for by a corresponding increase in the amount of cash on hand.

Will Visit St. Louis.

London, July 5.—Eighty members of the house of commons have announced their intention of joining the parliamentary party which will visit the St. Louis exposition in the autumn. It is expected that a number of others will also go.

Passed Away.

Lost

The Use of Arm. Heart Trouble.

Could Not Eat, Sleep or Walk.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Entirely.

"If it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Remedies I would not be here to write this letter. Two years ago last June I lost the use of my left arm, could not use it and could only move it with the help of my right hand. My heart was so weak I could not sleep nights for gasping spells. I was out of sorts all over and could eat nothing. I grew so weak that I could not walk without staggering like a drunken man and my home doctor said he could do nothing for me. I was in so much pain I was almost wild. I could not take morphine nor opium as they made me worse. So I got to thinking about Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine and the more I thought about it the more I wanted to try them. I wrote to the Dr. Miles Medical Co. for advice which I followed to the letter. I can say today that I am glad I did as I am a well man now; can work and can walk two or three miles and not mind it. I can also use my arm again as well as ever. You do not know how thankful I am for those grand medicines Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Nervine. I think Dr. Miles' Remedies are the best in the world, and if I should get sick again I should take the same course. The remedies also helped my daughter Vida so wonderfully that I should have written you before to thank you, but I wanted to be sure that the cure was permanent, which I now know to be the case."—Mrs. Frank Loomis, Allen, Mich.

Would Like to See A Bolt

Deep disappointment abides with two classes of Michigan politicians. It abides with democrats because they would like to see the republican ticket bolted by some of the influential republicans on the theory that a bolt would be to the benefit of the democratic party and to the injury of the republican party. As the opposition party thrives only on dissatisfaction in republican ranks, in dissatisfaction leading to a bolt lies their only hope. The other class with whom disappointment abides is that body of republicans, who, on account of a failure in their efforts to run things, have reached such a stage of disgruntlement that it would be a solace to their revengeful spirit to behold the humiliation of their party associates. They are of that ilk, who, not being able to get in office, have their scalping knife out for those who do win political preferment.

But both these classes—democrats and disgruntled republicans—will not have their wishes gratified; for the leaders, who, like Stearns, Horton and Warren, have received political reverses, refuse to get the bolting fever. Rather have they renewed heartily their allegiance to their party and signified a determination to stand loyally for it. This leaves the bolters without leaders, leaves them where they can do no harm and puts the republican party in shape to wage a harmonious, aggressive, successful campaign next fall, a campaign that deserves to be crowned with a splendid victory.

Four Deaths

MRS. I. MARSLIJE

Mrs. I. Marsilje died last Saturday afternoon at the family home in the southeastern part of the city at the age of 55 years. For nearly five years Mrs. Marsilje's health had not been good. Several weeks ago she suffered a stroke of apoplexy; but she rallied from the shock and again became able to be about. A week ago Thursday she and Mr. Marsilje were out for a drive, Mrs. Marsilje then being apparently in fairly good health and spirits. Shortly after her return she was again stricken and became unconscious. She never rallied and remained unconscious until death came.

Mrs. Marsilje, whose maiden name was Jane Keppel, was married to Isaac Marsilje nearly 30 years ago. She was a member of the Fourteenth street Christian Reformed church at the time of her death, being formerly connected with the Ninth street church, from which she was transferred a couple of years ago when that part of the congregation who wished to attend services conducted in the English language was transferred from the Ninth street to the Fourteenth street church.

Besides her husband Mrs. Marsilje is survived by the following children: Mrs. Arend Bosman, Misses Maud and Susan Marsilje, and Thomas Marsilje all of this city. Two brothers and two sisters, B. D. and A. C. Keppel, Mrs. J. L. Rademaker and Mrs. John H. Stouthamer of Milwaukee, are the other surviving relatives.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Fourteenth street church, Rev. D. R. Drukker and Dr. N. M. Steffens officiating. Dr. J. W. Beardslee conducted the services at the cemetery. The pall bearers were B. B. Keppel, A. C. Keppel, J. H. Stouthamer and J. L. Rademaker.

ELBERT DIEKEMA

Eldert Diekema, after a hard struggle against tetanus, which developed a little over a week before his death from the effects of a sliver that lodged in the palm of his hand while he was working in his barn, passed away last Sunday night at ten o'clock. All that medical science could do was done and every known available remedy was applied, but to no purpose and death came as a relief to the suffering man. All through the terrible ordeal Mr. Diekema displayed a heroic and cheerful spirit and when told that there was no hope he was resigned and unafraid. A man in the full prime and vigor of life with a family relying upon his aid and counsel, his death came as a severe shock to relatives, friends and associates. Straightforward, earnest and sincere, Mr. Diekema had the happy faculty of making friends and holding them with strong ties, and these friends feel that they as well as the relatives have suffered individual loss.

Forty-three years ago Mr. Diekema was born in Holland township and he grew to manhood there. The latter years of his life were spent on his farm near Central park and here his death occurred. He held positions of honor and rust in the township during his life and at the time of his death he was vice president of the S. O. & W. A. Agricultural society, having previously been director and president.

Mr. Diekema is survived by his wife and two children. The brothers and sisters who survive are G. J. Diekema, Albert Diekema, Mrs. TenCate, Mrs. C. J. Lokker and Mrs. Geo E. Kollen.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Third Reformed church, Rev. G. H. Dubbink, Dr. H. E. Dosker and Rev. J. T. Bergen officiating. The pall bearers were Jas. L. Conkey, Eugene Fellows, N. J. Whelan, Henry Luidens, Dick Vaunderveen and J. Irving.

J. H. BARKEL

The death of J. H. Barkel occurred last Saturday evening at his home on College avenue of heart trouble, from which he suffered nearly a month, at the age of 66 years.

Mr. Barkel was born in the Netherlands and with his parents came to this country at the age of six years. He first lived at Hamilton where he ran a meat market which he sold recently and then moved here.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: John, Henry, Edward and Anthony Barkel and Mrs. E. Post of this city, Mrs. H. M. Slotman, of Dunningville, and Mrs. P. L. Cloeting of Muskegon.

The funeral services were held Wednesday from the Third Reformed church, Rev. G. H. Dubbink and Rev. Dr. H. E. Dosker officiating.

WILL DAVIDSON

The death of Will Davidson occurred last night at the home of his mother Mrs. W. Davidson, 171 West Eleventh street, at the age of 23 years, after an illness of nearly six months of tuberculosis, from which disease his father died about a year ago and his sister, Mrs. L. L. Legters died about six months ago.

Will Davidson was a graduate of the Holland High school, and attended Rutgers College in New Brunswick, N. J. a year. Last October he went to Arapahoe, Oklahoma, to teach school. In January he was taken ill and returned to his home here. Mr. Davidson was a lover of athletics being at one time captain of the Holland football team. While at Rutgers College he was a member of the track team. He was a young man of good habits and good character and a large circle of friends mourn for him.

He is survived by his mother, three brothers and three sisters.

The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon.

General Items

William A. Humphreys was awarded a decree of divorce in St. Louis on his testimony that his wife bet on the races money he gave her for household expenses and kept him awake at night by crying out in her sleep, "Come on, black horse," and other telltale expressions. Mrs. Humphreys rarely won a bet.

The great fear of a gang of professional highwaymen and house breakers that has operated successfully in Berrien county for the last two weeks was the indirect cause of one of the saddest fatal accidents in the history of St. Joseph late Saturday. While entertaining the belief that a horse attached to a laundry wagon was about to run away, John King, aged 19 years, son of Capt. James King of Chicago attempted to stop the horse. Andrew Rodgers, the driver, who was moving west on Winchester avenue, feared he was about to be held up and began firing at the form of the unknown man in the darkness. An instant later King sank to the ground, suffering from three bullet wounds in the abdomen. With his mother young King had come to St. Joe to spend the Fourth.

Her Preference

She blushed and murmured, "As to men,

A number have come to my ken. For instance, I'm afraid of them If they too often mutter 'Dem;' And, too, unless they straightly step, I fear they have a wicked Rep. But all my doubts of mankind stop. Whenever I meet with a Pop."

—Judge.

Peter Smith, well known to old residents of this city, died yesterday at his home in Detroit at the age of 76 years. Mr. Smith was a conductor on the old C. & W. M. railroad for nearly 20 years. He came to this city from the Netherlands a year after the colonists led by Van Raalte. A wife and several children survive him in Detroit and the relatives in this vicinity are one sister Mrs. D. Slagh and three brothers John Smith of this city, C. Smith of New Holland and Wm. Smith of Grand Rapids.

Tim Slagh and J. Osterhouse were in Manton yesterday.

JAPS LOSE 8,000 MEN.

Suffered Severely in Last Week's Campaign—Vladivostok Squadron Makes Its Escape.

London, July 5.—The Russians closed an exciting week's campaign with several successes to their credit. Owing to the operations of Kuropatkin and Mistchenko, the Japanese have lost some hardly won positions in the mountains east of Haicheng, and the Russians declare that Kuroki lost 8,000 men against 1,500 from Mistchenko's forces.

The Vladivostok squadron, which has been reported in the Korean straits on a third raid, has eluded Kamimura's squadron, according to reports from Tokio, and it is certain that the Jaanese transport service will be badly delayed if, indeed, it does not suffer some bad losses, before the daring raiders go back to port again.

Tokio, July 5.—A belated report from Admiral Togo records a desperate and successful torpedo attack at the entrance of Port Arthur last Monday night, June 27, in which a Russian guardship and a Russian torpedo boat destroyer were sunk.

Tokio, July 6.—Gen. Kuroki reports that two battalions of Russians attacked the Japanese outposts at Maotien pass at dawn only July 4, under cover of a dense fog. The Russians were repulsed but they returned and charged three times before they were finally driven off. The Japanese pursued them for three miles to the westward of Maotien pass. The Russians left 30 dead and 50 wounded on the field. The Japanese lost 15 killed and 30 wounded.

PRESIDENT AT OYSTER BAY.

No Delegations Are to Be Admitted to the Grounds at Sagamore Hill.

New York, July 5.—President Roosevelt arrived at Oyster Bay Saturday afternoon and was given a hearty welcome by his neighbors and friends. The president will remain at Oyster Bay until July 27, when he will be notified of his nomination. Secretary Loeb issued the following official statement Monday night: "The arrangements in effect at Oyster Bay this summer, during the president's stay, will be the same as those made for President McKinley at Canton in 1900. No delegation or excursion party will be admitted to the grounds at Sagamore Hill and anyone having public business of importance must first secure an appointment through the president's secretary. All persons wishing to see the president on matters affecting the campaign will be referred to Chairman Cortelyou, as well as all communications on that subject. The regular business of the administration will be carried on the same in Oyster Bay as if the president were in Washington."

SAILBOAT CAPSIZES.

Disaster on Muskegon Lake in Which Four Persons Lost Their Lives.

Muskegon, Mich., July 5.—A sail boat containing seven pleasure seekers was capsized in Muskegon lake Monday, and four of the occupants were drowned in view of hundreds of spectators. The party consisted of Albert Kennicott, of the Shaw Electric Crane works, his wife and three children, Linda, four years of age, and two other little girls, aged three years and 13 months respectively, and two sisters, Misses Adeline and Georgette Emerson. High winds prevailed when the party started out and when near Ruddiman's Point the yacht capsized. Mr. and Mrs. Kennicott and Miss Georgette Emerson clung to the overturned boat. The parents made frantic efforts to save the children. The 13-months-old baby was rescued, but died before reaching shore.

Claims It Was an Accident.

Louisville, Ky., July 4.—R. Lee Suter, a member of the board of public safety, an attorney and for several years an important figure in democratic politics, was shot and killed Sunday by Sanford Vaughan, Jr., the son of a wealthy contractor. Vaughan, who admits that he fired the shot, says he was celebrating the Fourth.

Kipley Found Guilty.

Chicago, July 5.—"Dan" Kipley, nephew of the late Chief of Police Kipley, and once a detective sergeant of the Chicago department, was found guilty of manslaughter in Judge Kavanaugh's court for the killing of Joseph Hopkins. His punishment was fixed at an indeterminate term in the Joliet penitentiary.

Cotton Mills Burn.

Janesville, Wis., July 5.—The Rock River Cotton mills were damaged $35,000 by fire Monday. The fire was started by a skyrocket.

We've puzzled over problems in our wood-headed way. We people old and gray. We've done our best to solve them, but, of course, with failing sight it is hard to see the light. We find 'em still perplexing, which is owing, I expect, to our weakened intellect. We are hopelessly old-fashioned and completely out of date. To the youthful graduate.

We've grubbed and dug, perspiring, in the common, ugly dirt. In our ancient flannel shirt, its sleeves rolled to the elbow; we've been careless of the soil in the ardor of our toil. A quite unscientific, rough-and-tumble fight we've fought. Not at all the higher thought. It's not at all surprising that we've been unfortunate. To the youthful graduate.

Just watch him on the platform and just listen now while he— Or perhaps it is a she— Breaks off sweet words of wisdom from the paper in his hand. It is then we understand How beautifully simple are the things that puzzled us. Over which we fret and fuss; How—well, he'll show improvement over us, at any rate. THE INNOCENT THIRD PARTY

By KENNETT HARRIS

(Copyright, 1904, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

A YEAR is all I ask," said the girl, passionately; "just a year of Guy-oricz in Pesh and I am an artist. Of course, I am not an artist now. Guy-oricz may have nothing to teach me, but I am not an artist, as far as a good engagement goes, until I have received the trademark from Pesh—made in Hungary."

"You are modest," said Starcom. "You mean because I say that Guy-oricz may have nothing to teach me? Well, tell me your candid opinion. Has he? But did ever a genius come out of Chicago? If I play—and I know I can play—they say, 'Who is she?' 'Oh, a little Chicago girl. I think she studied in Boston for a year or two. That explains the technique, of course.' I tell you, my friend, you've got to come before the public with European prestige. It's disgusting, but it's true. Not even Boston can wipe out the deep damnation of Chicago."

"Cut it out, Miriam," advised the young man, his eyes fastened hungrily on the dark beauty of her animated face. "Let's look over the list of vacant flats—and you can play to me evenings. You wouldn't get anything but heartbreaks and little squabbles out of the other, even if you succeeded." She looked at him half contemptuously, half pityingly. "It may be as you say, Dick," she said, "but I won't be happy until I've had my chance and tried it. The best thing you can do is to help me."

"Help you to spoil my life?" "Nonsense! I've told you that if it were anyone it would be you, but if I came to you now I would spoil your life and my own, too. I want my year at least. You can't lend me the money, because you are too poor. If you could I wouldn't take it. Lots of people would lend me the money. Some of them would give it. Well, lend me your brains."

"Couldn't you sell your fiddle? You say it's worth $5,000. I should think that was an easy way out of the difficulty."

"I thought you would show a little more intelligence than that. My violin! I couldn't, Dick; you know I couldn't. It's all I have left, and dad's gift, besides. Poor dad! If he had only lived!"

Tears stood in the beautiful dark eyes and Starcom looked embarrassed. "May I smoke?" he asked, presently. "It helps me to think, and I want to think of some way out for you." She nodded and he lit a cigar.

"Would you pawn it?" he asked suddenly, after a few puffs. "I should think that you ought to get a third of its value—that's what they generally allow me when I hypothecate my family jewels owing to temporary financial stress."

"The last financial stress was roses for me at that little concert, wasn't it?" she asked, smiling. "How many jewels did you hypothecate, Dick?" "Eight," answered Starcom promptly. "It was jeweled in eight holes and had a lever movement."

"I thought that was it," she said, in a softened voice. "Dick, if I thought I could be happy I'd take you now, but I couldn't make you happy unless I was, my dear boy. You are good."

"Don't get that idea in your head," said Starcom. "I'm not. I'm just considering a burglary to help you out."

"Don't do that," she said. "No, Dick, I really respect you, and I want to have somebody respectable to lean on." "Come on, then," said Starcom, airily. "I'm ready. I have another plan," he continued, when he had recovered from the withering glance she gave him. "I won't tell you what it is until I make sure about it. It will take ten days. Can you wait as long as that?"

"I expect to wait longer," she answered. Within the time mentioned Starcom had his plan matured. "I didn't tell you what it was," he said, "because I know you would have thought it absurd. I have a friend in New York state—Cahoonawachick. He is an eccentric old chap, and rich as mud. He's going to lend you the money, Miriam."

"Dick, you are crazy!" "Not at all. He's a collector, and he wants your Amanti. Wait a moment, now, and don't interrupt. He will lend you the money on it on condition that if you die before you pay the fiddle goes to him, and he keeps it for you until you get back from Pesh, whether you pay before or not. He wants to inspect it first, of course, but that's a matter of form. We'll express it to him to-morrow, and I'll come around in the morning and help you to pack it."

"And do you think I'd trust it to the express company?" "Oh, you'll insure it, of course," said Starcom. "I'll see to that, too. It's all right, Miriam."

The girl offered other objections, but Starcom overruled them in a brisk, businesslike fashion, and the next day he saw to the insurance and brought the box around for the packing. It was boxed when he brought it, and he was obliged to ask the young woman for a hammer and chisel. She was gone two or three minutes only, but when she came back the box was opened.

"I got tired of waiting for you, and pulled the nails with my teeth," said Starcom, in his absurd way. "Now for the Amanti."

"How peculiarly the box smells," remarked the girl, putting her pretty little nose down to it. "Like naphtha, or kerosene, or something."

"That's nothing," said Starcom. "It'll keep the damp out. A little more of the cotton to hold it snug, and then I'll trouble you for some nails. These are bent and I want to fasten it securely. Too bad to bother you to go out again."

That night the evil-smelling box, covered with labels and seals, was packed in an express car speeding to the affluent violin collector of Cahoonawachick. At nine o'clock the next morning it was piled with a heap of other baggage against the shady side of the Wigton depot, awaiting transfer to the branch line of Cahoonawachick. At 9:12, from some cause unknown—possibly a carelessly thrown match—the box caught fire. Wigton is a lonely sort of a place for a junction, and before the station agent and a stray passenger who was awaiting the Chicago express, noticed the blaze there was not much left of the box to jump on. The station master jumped on it.

HE TOOK HER INTO HIS ARMS.

however, and rescued some charred splinters of a violin. "It's only a fiddle," he said to the passenger; "a good thing it was nothing valuable."

And so Miriam went to Pesh. She really was grieved over the loss of her Amanti; but Dick's remorse for having induced her to take the risk was so touching that she almost forgot her sorrow in consoling him. And then, of course, the insurance money softened the blow. When she came back she had the Guy-oricz trade mark, but she did not seem enthusiastically anxious for a career.

"I wish I had not gone," she confessed to Starcom. "If I had my old violin back and my old life I believe I could be happy, after all. I'm worn out, Dick."

"Will I do without the violin?" asked Starcom.

"Dick, I've missed you the whole dreary time," she said, with a sigh of content, as he took her into his arms.

It was rather a surprise for Miriam when she found that she had married a successful speculator. She was rather shocked, too, for she had ideas on the subject. It was another surprise when she found her old Amanti carelessly lying on the piano in the gorgeous music room that had been planned as another surprise. Starcom explained that an unscrupulous collector had substituted the cheap violin for the Amanti before it was shipped, but he was bound, in view of the restitution, not to divulge that unscrupulous person's name.

"I've sent the insurance company a check," he concluded, "so I guess nobody's got any kick coming. I know I haven't. It was a good thing, though, that the spurious instrument happened to get burned."

Mrs. Starcom might have asked a good many questions, but she is trying to be satisfied with her husband.

Telephone Through Jungle.

The progress of civilization is shown by the completion of a telephone line through a thick jungle 750 miles wide, in the heart of Africa. "It has been built by the Belgian government to enable the various Belgian colonies to communicate with one another. The wires are strung on iron posts and on the largest trees of the jungle. Some of the poles are half a mile apart, where the wires cross a swift river or a dangerous swamp. Posts could not be used on account of the white ants, and the large number of elephants made it necessary to keep the wires high above the ground. As storms will throw trees across the line, and wasps will make their nests in the insulators, and natives are liable to steal the wire, the Belgian government expects to have trouble in keeping the line in operation." —Telephone.

At a special meeting of the Classis of Holland Tuesday the pastoral relation between Dr. Dubbink and the Third Reformed church was dissolved. Brief but very touching words of thanks to the Classis for past kindness, and of sorrow at this necessary severing of his relations with the classis was spoken by Dr. Dubbink, to which Rev. DeJong of Zeeland replied in kind, he being the senior pastor in the Classis. Rev. De Jong expressed thanks and gratitude that Dr. Dubbink has been a member of the classis for nine years, and tendered appreciation for all that Dr. Dubbink had done for his church and Classis.

The President of the Classis, Rev. Wolvius, also addressed Dr. Dubbink, expressing thanks for Dr. Dubbink's splendid record and satisfaction that he left the classis only to undertake a greater work, for which he is so well qualified. At this meeting the call of the Reformed church of Hamilton, to Rev. N. Boer of Bethany Church, Grand Rapids was approved. The reports of committees appointed to ordain and install candidates James Wayer, John Steunenberg and John E. Kuizenga were received and approved, and the committee appointed to look over the mission field of West Olive reported the organization of a church there with an organization of 20 families and 26 members.

Rev. G. H. Dubbink will always have pleasant memories of the pastorate of the Third Reformed church, his severance of the pastoral relation giving the congregation a chance Tuesday night to express the friendly feelings that have always existed between pastor and flock. On Tuesday evening a reception was held in the church in honor of the retiring pastor and his wife, a large number attending. As a token of the esteem in which they are held the pastor was presented with a handsome oak and leather rocker and his wife was presented with a beautiful china dinner set. Peter Gunst made the presentation speech to which Rev. Dubbink feelingly responded. A program was carried out under the direction of Attorney Arend Visscher the following numbers being given: Organ voluntary, Miss Minnie Sprietsma; prayer, Rev. James F. Zwemer; song by the congregation; anthem by the choir; "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing;" violin duet, Mrs. C. Klassen and Eddie Stekete; vocal duet, "Jesus, The Very Thought of Thee" Miss Margaret De Vries and Henry Kleyn; remarks by Peter Gunst; response by Rev. Mr. Dubbink; "Blest be the Tie That Binds" sung by the congregation.

DON'T LEAVE THE CITY

Plenty of Proof Right Here in Holland

Claim is one thing, proof another. Columbus claimed the world was round. Did people believe it? Not until he proved it. Unproven claims have made the people skeptics. Every claim made for the "Little Conqueror" is proven, proven in Holland by local experience. Here is one case from the many we have.

Mrs. F. Andree, of 243 West 12th street, says: "For a year or more I had a constant aching pain through my loins in the side and also a soreness of the stomach. I could hardly stoop to lift anything without suffering severely. I did not rest comfortably at night and became so lame and sore from lying in one position that in the morning I arose feeling tired and unrefreshed. I was bothered a great deal with headache, spells of dizziness, and the kidney secretions became affected, were irregular, too frequent and unnatural. I doctored a great deal and took many kinds of medicines, but without getting better. I believe I would still be suffering if I had not heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from J. O. Doeburg's drug store. I felt better after taking a few doses and continued their use until cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's and take no substitute.

Years of suffering relieved in a night. Itching piles yield at once to the curative properties of Doan's Ointment. Never fails. At any drug store, 50 cents.

A household necessity. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Heals burns, cuts, wounds of any sort; cures sore throat, croup, catarrh, asthma; never fails.

For forty years Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been curing summer complaint, dysentery, diarrhoea, bloody flux, pain in the stomach, and it has never yet failed to do everything claimed for it.

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks, and to some older ones. Easily cured. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.

A little life may be sacrificed to an hour's delay. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobek of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles, and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by W. C. Walsh Druggist

A Startling Test

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of Mo. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at W. C. Walsh.

TRAIN WRECKED BY OPEN SWITCH

TERRIBLE DISASTER OCCURS ON THE WABASH RAILROAD AT LITCHFIELD, ILL.

Nineteen Persons Are Known to Have Been Killed—The Injured Number 35 or 40—Cars Take Fire and Victims Burn.

St. Louis, July 5.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Litchfield, Ill., says: Nineteen are dead and a number are missing as a result of the wreck on the Wabash railroad here Sunday night, when train No. 11 from Chicago left the track at a misplaced switch and crashed into a line of freight cars standing on a sidetrack. Seven hundred persons were on the ill-fated train at the time it dashed into the sidetrack. The injured number 35 or 40.

The following is a revised list of the dead: Mrs. Florence Smith, 215 Twenty-fifth place, Chicago. Mrs. Perkins, 5700 Union avenue, Chicago. Charles Galaise, 2254 Michigan avenue, Chicago. Harry M. Dietrich, Chicago. Miss C. F. Luther, Milwaukee. Isaac R. Mills, Decatur. Ubald St. Pierre, Montreal, Canada. Jacob Barder, Park River, N. D. L. A. Elchstadt, 1054 South Albany avenue, Chicago. James Sanford, engineer, Decatur. Rev. M. M. Mills, Bridgeton, Ia. Charles Ward, 215 Sixty-fifth place, Chicago. H. L. Graves, train dispatcher, Decatur. W. F. Smith, fireman, Decatur. Richie Noack, boy about eight years, Arlington Heights, Chicago. William Camdalla, Maywood, Ill. Two unidentified men.

Crashes Into Open Switch. When the train reached Honey Bend, 20 miles north of Litchfield, it was 30 minutes late. In an effort to make up that time and with a clear track it is reported a speed of 45 miles an hour was reached. Engineer Sandford whistled for a crossing just before striking the switch, but did not notice the danger signal of the semaphore, and the train sped into the open switch. Too late the engineer whistled for brakes. There was an awful crash, the engine plowed into a train of empty box cars 30 yards from the switch, knocking four to one side of the track, and turned a complete circle, snapping the tender off 100 yards down the track. The baggage car and smoker and the next coach were thrown across the track at right angles to the engine. The others crashed into them, end first. Fire, ignited by the locomotive firebox, in three minutes had gone through the train. Engineer George Sandford and fireman Samuel Smith were caught under the engine.

Saw Three Burn to Death. A. E. Darling, of 4956 Forest Park boulevard, St. Louis, was one of the passengers on board the observation car. He said: "I saw three persons burned to death. One was a man and the other a young girl. I do not know their names. Wreckage held them down until the heat became unbearable and the men who were trying to save them could not remain another moment. There was another passenger, a woman, whose feet were pinned down by a heavy beam. It could not be moved, and she begged that her feet be cut off. Flames drove everybody away before she could be saved. F. Ward, of Chicago, showed particular nerve. One of his legs had been torn off. When he was carried out of the wreck he said: "Lay me down somewhere and go back and save the women and children."

Beavers Must Stand Trial. New York, July 6.—George W. Beavers, former superintendent of the bureau of salaries and allowances of the post office department, will be taken to Washington for trial under the indictments found there by the federal grand jury for alleged acceptance of compensation for securing a government contract for book typewriters. This was decided in Brooklyn Tuesday by United States Judge Thomas, who held that the reasons given for the removal of Beavers were valid. A new bond of $10,000 was required, pending the furnishing of which Beavers was remanded to the custody of the United States marshal.

Jurist Hangs Himself. Milwaukee, Wis., July 2.—The body of Louis Bruemmer, county judge of Kewaunee county, Wis., was found hanging to a tree in a ravine in Wauwatosa, a suburb of this city, Friday. Judge Bruemmer had been suffering from nervous collapse and was under treatment at a sanitarium in Wauwatosa, from which he disappeared a few days ago. He is supposed to have hanged himself while demented.

Two Drowned. Salt Lake City, July 6.—Jonathan Riley, an iron molder, and his 14-year-old son John were drowned in the river, near here, Tuesday. The boy was in bathing with his brother and got beyond his depth. His cries for help attracted the attention of his father, who, although unable to swim, plunged into the stream to save his son. The bodies of both were recovered a few hours later.

Fortune for a Violin. New York, July 1.—A Stradivarius violin, once owned by Joseph Jean Bott, has been sold by his estate for $9,000.

CONVENTION AT ST. LOUIS BEGINS

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC GATHERING CALLED TO ORDER BY CHAIRMAN JONES.

WILLIAMS NAMED AS TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

Makes Long Address Which Is Frequently Interrupted by Applause and Confusion—Bailey to Be Permanent Chairman.

St. Louis, July 6.—The democratic national convention convened here Wednesday. It is being held in the Exposition building on Olive street. This monster meeting place, within the walls of which democracy's standard bearers are to be named, was the mecca for all whose interest here centers in the convention. The scenes of activity have been transferred from the hotels to this one common point. The corridors of the former, wherein for several days past all has been excitement, were deserted soon after the morning hours. Long before the doors were swung open vast crowds thronged the streets in the vicinity of the main entrance to the exposition building.

Hall Elaborately Decorated.
The decoration of the convention hall was undertaken on a most elaborate scale and the pleasing and effective general scheme has been carried out to the minute details. The great dome ceiling which rises high above the floor, is covered with a fabric of solid yellow, with here and there flounces of a white material, carrying out the architectural design. Within each of the sections of the ceiling is the seal of one of the states and a stand of colors, while in front of the gallery spaces are festoons of white cloth. The walls are adorned with the national emblems, forming a frame for the colossal color picture overhead. The splendor of the vari-colored gowns worn by the large number of ladies occupying seats in the galleries and the ever-moving fans gave the finishing touch and a scene both spectacular and picturesque. Flowers were eliminated from the scheme. With the exception of the bouquets on the tables on the chairman's platform, plants and blossoms were not in evidence, preference having been given by the designers to more enduring decorative materials.

Among the early arrivals of sufficient distinction to be awarded seats on the platform were a number of ladies, including Mrs. Charles Mercer Hale, daughter of Judge Parker; Mrs. Daniel Manning, District Attorney Folk, of St. Louis, was also included in the list of early comers, and whether by accident or design, he occupied a seat in close proximity to Mr. Jerome, of New York.

Convention Called to Order.
At three minutes after 12 Chairman J. K. Jones, of the national committee, called the convention to order. His appearance on the platform and the sound of his gavel brought forth a cheer from the floor and galleries.

Chairman Jones directed the sergeant-at-arms to secure order. He continued belaboring the table with his gavel, but it was some time before quiet reigned. California's appearance with a huge silk banner and silk American flags and a yell: "California, California, Hearst, Hearst, Hearst," caused cheering.

Just as the California delegation reached its reservation after marching up and down the center aisle, William J. Bryan, who had come in unnoticed, arose in his place and was given a cheer. Then an enterprising member of the Montana delegation created diversion by vigorously ringing a cow-bell.

Again Chairman Jones demanded that the convention be in order, and at once directed the secretary to read the call for the convention.

Applause followed the reading of the call. After quiet was restored, Chairman Jones announced that the convention would be opened by prayer by Rev. John F. Cannon, pastor of Grand Avenue Baptist church, of St. Louis.

During the invocation the convention stood. Dr. Cannon's voice was entirely inadequate to reach even the center of the hall. The prayer occupied several minutes.

Temporary Officers Announced.
Enthusiastic cheering greeted the chairman's announcement that he was directed by the national committee to appoint John S. Williams temporary chairman and C. A. Walsh temporary secretary and John I. Martin temporary sergeant-at-arms.

The chairman appointed Col. J. M. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, and M. F. Tarpey, of California, to escort Mr. Williams to the chair. As the platform was enclosed by a railing it was necessary for the committee and Mr. Williams to climb over the railing. The committee lifted Mr. Williams safely over and the entire convention burst into cheers as he ascended the platform.

"I have the honor to introduce to you John S. Williams as temporary chairman," said Chairman Jones, and again the convention cheered.

Williams' Speech Cheered.
Mr. Williams was attired in a light gray suit, and a white waistcoat. He delivered his address calmly and without gestures. Several cries of "Louder, louder," interrupted Mr. Williams as he began, his clear but not powerful voice at first failing to reach parts of the hall. As Mr. Williams proceeded, his voice increased in volume, and the delegates listened attentively. The convention appeared considerably amused at Mr. Williams' humorously sarcastic references to the "mutual admiration society" of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Root, and when he read a eulogy by the president on Mr. Root, the delegates laughed and applauded. Mr. Williams spoke in an ironical tone that caught the fancy of the convention and was interrupted time and again by laughter. Cheering was evoked by the speaker's statement that Mr. Roosevelt had found praise for only three presidents, "George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and himself," and when he asked if the "hell-roaring Jake Smith" order was a sample of the moral sentiment for which the republicans stood, a lusty cheer broke forth.

Scores Republican Party.
Passing from the discussion of Mr. Root's speech, the speaker took up the republican platform. Mr. Williams drew a picture of the country's condition at the time of President Cleveland's first inauguration, declaring that much of the distress that came in the early 90's was due to republican misrule that had gone before. Under Benjamin Harrison, he said, for three years, all hope had well-nigh vanished from the business world. He scored the attitude of the republican party on the financial question, declaring that it had been full of inconsistencies and absurdities. He mentioned the name of Mr. Bryan in discussing the price of wheat during the first Bryan-McKinley campaign. The utterance of the name called for a little applause and some cheers. A second later he mentioned the name again and the applause was not repeated.

Cleveland's Name Cheered.
A mention of the name of Grover Cleveland was cheered lustily. A moment later the first scene of the session occurred. Mr. Williams declared that it was brazen effrontery for the republican party to attempt to seize the laurels of Grover Cleveland. A genuine outburst of applause followed. Cheer after cheer rolled through the hall, and although the chairman used the gavel vigorously the convention was soon beyond his control. New Hampshire delegates climbed upon their seats and yelled vigorously. One Iowa man of the Hearst-instructed delegation from that commonwealth stood up and waved his hat frantically, and a wild chorus answered him. "Three cheers for Grover Cleveland," shouted an Alabama delegate, and they came with genuine power and enthusiasm. No cry came from Nebraska, where Mr. Bryan and his friends sat quietly without taking part in the noise. Again and again the cheers came in dense volume, despite numerous cries of "order," and the strenuous pounding of the chairman's gavel. Then Mr. Williams sat back and watched the scene he had created. As the cheers and cries fell, there would be a renewed outbreak and the demonstration lasted eight minutes.

Delegate Is Ejected.
Tim Murphy, of St. Louis, standing in the center aisle and encouraging the demonstration, was first requested to take his seat and then ejected from the hall by John L. Martin, sergeant-at-arms. For several minutes after the Murphy incident the demonstration continued. Finally, in desperation, Mr. Williams threatened to discontinue his speech. This announcement had a quieting effect.

When he said that he had heard that Dewey, Schley and Miles were democrats; that a republican administration had snubbed the first, tried to disgrace the second and insulted the third, the convention again broke out into shouts and applause. A response of applause followed his denunciation of the republican claims of prosperity because of the tariff.

Mr. Williams then took up the race question. When he referred to the incident at the republican convention when a colored child and white child were both on the platform waving flags during one of the demonstrations, there were cries of: "This is a white man's country."

So great did the noise become that the sergeant-at-arms went down into the hall and ordered the aisles cleared. But the police had difficulty in carrying out these instructions.

Williams Concludes.
Mr. Williams spoke but a few words more and concluded his address greatly exhausted. A motion to accept an invitation to visit the exposition was adopted unanimously. The roll of states was then called for members of various committees.

After announcing the time and places for the various committee meetings, a motion was made by Bourke Cockran that the convention adjourn until ten o'clock Thursday morning. The motion was adopted, and the convention adjourned at 2:50 o'clock.

Bailey for Permanent Chairman.
Senator Hill announced that United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, had been agreed upon for permanent chairman of the convention. Senator Daniel, of Virginia, will be chairman of the committee on resolutions.

New National Committee.
The following is the new democratic national committee as far as chosen, there being contests in a number of states, and the delegations from the others not having agreed on a member:

It has been officially announced that the Grand Trunk has let the contract for the largest car ferry on Lake Michigan. The boat will cost $400,000, will be 360 feet in length, with a 56 foot beam, will run eighteen miles an hour and will carry forty cars. The new ferry will operate between Grand Haven and Milwaukee and will be larger and finer in every particular than the Grand Haven.

At the meeting of the council Wednesday night the clerk reported plans specifications and estimate of cost of proposed water main extension. The plans, specifications and estimate of cost were adopted and the Board of Public works authorized to advertise for bids, said bids to be in by 7:30 o'clock p. m., of Friday, July 22, 1904. Bills for street sprinkling were presented and ordered paid when certified to by the street commissioner.

John Nordhouse formerly of Grand Haven has been appointed private secretary to Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton. Mr. Nordhouse was born in Grand Haven and spent all of his earlier years there. He entered the department of agriculture at Washington during the regime of Jeremiah Rusk and served in a civil service capacity for a time. When J. Sterling Morton of Nebraska became Cleveland's secretary of agriculture he took a great liking to the young man and made him his private secretary.

To move or not to move "that is the question that has been agitating the common council and move it will as soon as the rooms in the Vander Veen block are put in shape for the occupancy of the city offices and city officials. The council could not very well recede from it's action of the previous meeting as the lease for the new rooms had been signed before the petition circulated by the citizens had been presented. The matter was thrashed over at the meeting of the council last Friday night, J. Lokker P. Wilms and others making vigorous protests against the action of the council in arranging for the moving to new quarters.

An act that gives him the right to be enrolled among the list of courageous and faithful was done by John Sandy, formerly of this city, and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sandy, who still live here. John Sandy is now on the police force in Grand Rapids, and on the afternoon of the Fourth he showed that he has the right to wear the name that signifies grit. The Grand Rapids Herald tells of his bravery as follows: "One of the most sensational acts of bravery in the annals of the Grand Rapids police department was the arrest late yesterday afternoon of Richard Herron, colored, by Patrolman John A. Sandy on the charge of attempting to murder Michael Finn. Herron, whom the police authorities say has a reputation as a dangerous man, after attempting to murder Finn, ran to his house, where he locked the doors and awaited the arrival of the police. Although Herron threatened to blow Patrolman Sandy's brains out if he attempted to enter, the officer forced the door and then stopped as the negro pushed a cocked 38 caliber revolver against his face. The next instant Patrolman Sandy had seized Herron's hand, twisted the revolver around so that the barrel pointed between the man's eyes and told him to throw up his hands or he would kill him. Herron did as commanded and 10 minutes later was occupying a cell at police headquarters."

A bullet, fired by an unknown person, presumably a careless boy, struck Mrs. Wm. Kincaid while she was seated in her home on West Fifteenth street, last Wednesday evening wounding her quite badly, and grazing her left arm. The bullet cut through the screen door and after striking Mrs. Kincaid was imbedded in the wall beyond.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Band of Benevolent Workers held at the home of Miss Jennie Karsten Wednesday evening the following officers were elected: President, Miss Lizzie Vanden Berg; vice president, Miss May Steketee; secretary, Miss Jeannette Westveer; treasurer, Miss Etta Eskes.

It now seems almost assured that the Grand Rapids, Holland & Lake Michigan Rapid Railway Co. will be able to move its high tension wires from above our main street as they will be given a right of away through the center of the blocks between North and Cross streets unless the present plan of the village council and the street railway company miscarries.—Zeeland Record.

Zeeland defeated the Macatawa Park base ball team yesterday by a score of 4 to 2.

Four of the Bloomer Girl Stars who will play the All Stars at Jenison this afternoon are men.

A despatch from Muskegon says that Charles Dykewell of Zeeland was robbed of $500 while on a train near Muskegon to day.

Stetson's Company, under the management of Mr. L. W. Washburn, presents Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. at Holland, Friday, July 15 under a large water proof canvas. The cast is a strong one. In the third act the landing of the boat R. E. Lee, and the happy darkies working on the levee and the child Eva's fearful precipitation into the river, and her rescue by Tom, is a life picture. Previous to the performance the company gives a street parade.

Mrs. P. A. Stegenga died last night at her home, 65 West Fifteenth street, at the age of 57 years after an illness of four months. She came to this country from the Netherlands with her parents at the age of 5 years and lived for a time in West Olive and at New Holland. The last eight years she lived in this city. A husband and six children survive. The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at the First Reformed church, Rev. S. VanderWerf officiating.

Overisel

Overisel had a grand Fourth of July celebration, visitors from far and near spending the day there. Dr. G. J. Kollen, president of Hope College, was the orator of the day and his eloquent address was greeted with enthusiastic applause. This is the 34th consecutive time that Overisel has celebrated the Fourth and it was one of the best. Dr. Kollen's address was nearly an hour in length and was of particular interest, owing to the fact that his wide acquaintance in that vicinity made it possible for him to speak upon matters of direct interest to his hearers.

Laketown

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Everhart spent the Fourth at Grand Rapids, where they had a family reunion at the home of Mr. Everhart's sister, Mrs. C. E. Peck.

A certain blacksmith in Holland informed your correspondent that he had a hen which lays eggs as follows: He first put her in the cellar with small chicks. On Saturday he went down stairs and found she had laid two eggs. On Sunday morning he again visited the cellar when to his surprise he found she had laid 3 eggs. On Monday morning he again visited it and found she had laid 2 eggs. He then put her in the yard in a tight box under an apple tree, where she laid 2 eggs that day. This is a record for some of your Holland poultry fanciers to try and equal.

The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

I have opened an office in the McBride block for the purpose of transacting a little cash business in the line during the summer. I feel sure that I can be of service to you in assisting in buying or selling anything in the real estate line.

Who wants to sell or buy a Farm of 40 or 80 acres? I will buy one if cheap or will sell one cheap. Who wants to buy a ten room house with lot 50x132 on W. 14th St., for $1400? Mortgage of $800, which is the best proof of its real value. Must sell at once; a big snap I have two of the finest houses in Holland which can be bought for less than cost, there are no better or more desirable place in the city, furnace, bath, gas, electric lights, fire places, and everything that a modern up to date home could have. My plan of selling property is radically different than any plan ever worked in this city. I have never yet failed in selling any piece of property in double quick time if I undertook it.

I will not attempt the sale of any piece of property for anyone at a fancy price, but will do my best to help you if you are willing to sell at a reasonable figure.

I know of a party who wants to buy a house and lot worth about $2500.

FRUIT FARMS

I also know of several men who want to buy Fruit Farms.

I have been asked to assist in finding such property. You may have just what we are looking for. I also know of a possible buyer for a good house, must be well located; would pay $5000 or more if suited. I can be reached by phone or you may call and talk it over.
